

The Abandoned Husband Dominates - Chapter 1045 – 1076

Rong Huangde: I Did It! -

Chapter 1045: Rong Huangde: I Did It!

Without Jordan and Rong Huangde, the restraints on him had been lifted. The moment Shaun returned to the present, he would be the number one person in the world. No one could compete with him anymore.

After Shaun left, the Handley brothers looked at Jordan and Lauren's bodies. They were in a dilemma.

"Brother, what should we do with their bodies?" Harvey asked.

In this era, cremation was not yet widespread.

Terrence said, "Jordan has contributed to our nation after all. We should buy a better coffin and bury them in our family's graveyard."

"Alright!"

Two hours later, Terrence and Harvey placed Jordan and Lauren in a coffin and buried them in the ground.

By now, Rong Huangde had already woken up.

Although he had been shot three times, Rong Huangde was fine after being treated by the AI robot.

Rong Huangde touched his newly-recovered wounds which still ached slightly, but he smiled.

"A narrow escape from death! Deity Jordan, your risky move had me so worried."

Rong Huangde sighed and immediately asked the black-armored warrior, "After I died, did the Handley family say where that place was? Show me the surveillance footage!"

The black-armored warrior quickly projected the footage into the air for Rong Huangde to see.

On the screen, the Handley brothers were telling Shaun that that place was Mount Denali.

Rong Huangde stood up. "Mount Denali! Damn it, I think I've sent someone to investigate that place, but it seems to be guarded. I thought it was just a military experimental base. I didn't expect there to be an immortal lake there!"

Actually, Rong Huangde had sent people to investigate every spot in the world. However, the world was too big, and he didn't want to expose his power. So there were many places that he didn't investigate thoroughly.

Now that he knew that the mysterious place was Mount Denali, Rong Huangde became excited.

Mount Denali. So what if it was heavily guarded? How difficult could it be for Rong Huangde to break in?

With the Rong family's ability, they could easily break in and occupy that place!

"Hahahaha, I did it! I finally know the biggest secret in the world! With it, our family's research will definitely improve!"

Just like Shaun, Rong Huangde believed that he was the final victor.

He believed that Shaun must have already returned to the present, but he didn't care. When Rong Huangde returned, the Rong family would still be under his control. The moment he exposed Shaun's identity, killing him would be easy.

However, before going back, he had something else to do.

"What's Jordans' situation now? Is he dead?"

Rong Huangde wondered.

The black-armored warrior said, "Based on Master's orders, we did not help him when he was in danger. He has been placed in a coffin and buried at coordinates XXX."

Rong Huangde narrowed his eyes. "Jordan, you're too powerful. You've helped me solve the problem that has troubled me for decades in such a short period of time. But now, you're of no use to me. In order to prevent you from taking away Bingshao's position as master of the world after I die, I still have to kill you!"

Rong Huangde ordered the black-armored warrior, "Take me to that place. I must kill Jordan!"

The black-armored warrior flew to the Handley family's graveyard with Rong Huangde. There was a new grave here. It belonged to Jordan and Lauren.

There was also a tombstone on it. It read: Tomb of a Hero.

When Rong Huangde saw this, he couldn't help rolling his eyes. "The Handley brothers are really hypocritical. They were the ones who teamed up with their kid to kill Jordan and his wife. But they still have the cheek to call him a hero after burying him. If you really respect Jordan so much, why did you help Shaun kill them?"

"Foolish country bumpkins. A small-town boy from the Handley family wants to become the master of the world? How ridiculous!"

Smack!

Rong Huangde took out a laser weapon and cut off the tombstone.

He then ordered the black-armored warrior. "Remove the soil and open the coffin. I must kill the Deity with my own hands!"

The black-armored warrior immediately dug into the soil. It had mechanical hands so digging was a very easy task for it. In just a few seconds, a huge black coffin appeared.

Seeing this coffin, Rong Huangde suddenly felt rather agitated.

"Jordan, you killed my grandson. Do you really think I won't take revenge?"

Rong Huangde held a laser weapon and was ready to kill Jordan "again".

The coffin slowly opened. Indeed, Jordan and Lauren were lying inside.

"Goodbye. There will be no more Deities in this world!"

Rong Huangde was about to attack Jordan when a white cat suddenly flashed past.

"Meow."

"Ah!"

Rong Huangde felt as if his entire body had been electrocuted. The cat's claws were abnormally fierce as it grabbed Rong Huangde's laser weapon.

Rong Huangde's hand was scratched so badly that he was incapacitated.

"This cat..."

Rong Huangde looked at the white cat and suddenly felt that it looked very similar to the white cat that he had seen in the surveillance cameras.

That's right, this white cat was Sakura!

However, it was now Lauren's pet.

Suddenly, Jordan and Lauren woke up at the same time. Jordan took advantage of the fact that Rong Huangde was entangled by Sakura to throw a dart.

The dart hit Rong Huangde's neck, piercing straight into a vital point in his throat!

"Urgh!"

Rong Huangde knelt on the ground and stared at Jordan in disbelief. He never expected Jordan to be "resurrected" even faster than him.

"You... you did it on purpose..."

Rong Huangde pointed at Jordan as he gasped for breath.

Jordan smiled. "That's right. I woke up a long time ago and have been waiting for you to come and kill me. After all, you're so considerate to me. I would feel bad making the first move. I killed your grandson after all. Do you think I haven't been on my guard? Do you think I won't want to eliminate future troubles?!"

"Go to hell!"

Swish!

Jordan threw another dart, killing Rong Huangde on the spot.

At this moment, the black-armored warrior also attacked Jordan and Lauren.

Even when Jordan was wearing the Iron Man armor, he could not defeat a black-armored warrior. Now, without any armor, he was just flesh and blood and had no ability to fly.

In a one-on-one battle, he was no match for it at all.

However, he was not fighting alone. He had a robot warrior too.

Little Steele was not just an artificial intelligence robot. Jordan also equipped him with the most advanced offensive weapons.

Bang!

Little Steele instantly appeared and fired a laser cannon at the black-armored warrior.

Jordan instructed it. "Little Steele, don't be so rash. Try to control its system first and destroy its weapons arsenal."

Little Steele complied: "Understood, Master."

Chapter 1046: Jordan Discovers The Truth!

Shaun and Rong Huangde both wanted to kill Jordan. Unfortunately, neither of them succeeded.

In the end, Jordan still survived.

He hugged Lauren tightly and kissed her forehead. "Honey, I'm sorry that you had to follow me to the gates of hell."

Lauren wasn't distressed. Instead, she looked happy. "I've always wanted to experience this with you. I'll still follow you in the future, okay?"

Jordan nodded. "You're so powerful now, and you have Sakura as your helper. How can I bear to leave you?"

Lauren and Sakura looked proud of themselves.

Jordan summoned Little Steele and asked, "After we faked our deaths, did the Handley family say where that place was?"

Little Steele said, "Scanning records and retrieving relevant content..."

Terrence said, "Specifically, our ability to cast spells is from a lake in Mount Denali, Wonder Lake." "

...

Jordan and Lauren were amazed.

It turned out that this mysterious place was in North America. It was just a very remote place.

Lauren said, "I have a cousin who likes to drive herself around. She often goes to those deserted areas in the north. There were many times when she wanted to bring me along, but I was timid and didn't dare to go. I should have gone there to take a look. Hubby, have you been to Mount Denali?"

Jordan nodded.

Lauren was surprised. "You've been to Mount Denali? Have you been to that lake?"

Jordan nodded again.

"Wonder Lake. That's right. I should have been there before. However, it was when I was very young. It was my uncle who brought me there."

Lauren was a little surprised. "Your uncle? The late Uncle Randall?"

Jordan nodded.

When Jordan was very young, Randall often brought the three brothers out to play. Therefore, the three of them had a good relationship with Uncle Randall.

When they found out that Randall had passed away, they were all very sad. Even now, when Jordan thought about it, he still felt a little sad.

Lauren asked curiously, "Since your uncle has been there, does he have those superpowers like the Handley brothers?"

Jordan thought for a moment and shook his head. "No. If he had that ability, how could he have been killed by Shaun? Shaun learned his abilities from his uncle and father, he didn't obtain them from that lake. As a result, his abilities are far less potent than Terrence and Harvey. If my uncle also directly obtained the ability from that lake, it's impossible for him to lose to Shaun."

Lauren felt that Jordan's analysis made sense.

"However," Jordan continued, "I still don't understand why my uncle would hang out with a scumbag like Shaun."

Lauren made a bold guess. "I heard that your uncle was very ambitious. Shaun is also a very ambitious person. Perhaps the two of them are like-minded in that sense... I heard from others that your uncle wanted to snatch the position of the head of the Steele family from your father. I am sorry if my words are unpleasant, please don't be angry..."

Jordan smiled at her. "It's alright. You're right. My uncle is a nice person, but his ambitions are indeed a little too high. His actions are also extreme. Rong Huangde also said that my uncle once looked to him for help. Perhaps my uncle went a little astray during that period."

"Mmm."

Little Steele continued to report. "Master, I've recorded two more pieces of information about you. Do you want to hear it?"

Jordan was momentarily taken aback. "Oh? What did Shaun say after I died? Tell me."

Little Steele: "First, Shaun insulted you and said that you are a bullsh*t Deity."

Jordan snorted softly, but he was not angry. Of course, he knew that Shaun had been showing him respect only on the surface. It came as no surprise that he would have said countless bad things about Jordan behind his back.

"Second, Shaun slept with Victoria."

"What?!"

When Jordan heard this, he was shocked!

"Shaun slept with Victoria! How could this be?!"

Lauren hurriedly held Jordan. "Hubby, don't be agitated. Could he be joking?"

Jordan was already dead. Was there a need for Shaun to joke with him?!

What Shaun said must be true!

Jordan thought for a moment. "I understand. At that time, Victoria was controlled by Clara. The one who slept with her was not Rong Bingshao, but Shaun! That night, Shaun was also in the capital. I asked him to keep an eye on Rong Bingshao. Clara is Shaun's wife. He would definitely have a chance to make a move!"

Lauren asked, "But if the man that night was Shaun, why did Rong Bingshao take the blame and get killed by you?"

Jordan said, "Lauren, you don't know this, but Shaun has a way to make people think that they've done something wrong. We've used this method before to make Hailey..."

“Hailey?”

Lauren was surprised to hear this name.

Jordan felt very awkward mentioning this name. He did not want to continue.

“Anyway, the person who tainted Victoria’s body that night must have been Shaun! I’m 100% certain! Because at the same time, I saw Clara’s expression when she died. That happiness, that joy, that strange smile. I didn’t understand why until today!”

Jordan had killed Clara with his own hands, but she had a strange smile when she died. That had always been a mystery to Jordan.

At first, Jordan thought that Clara was deliberately confusing him. Later on, when he found out that she was controlling Victoria’s body, he thought that her smile was mocking him.

Only now did Jordan know that her smile was not meant to deliberately confuse him or mock him.

It was pride and happiness!

Her smile was not for Jordan at all. It was for her husband, Shaun!

At that time, Clara was controlling Victoria’s body so their expressions were synchronized.

Jordan clenched his fists. This b*stard Shaun kept calling him his good friend and partner, but he slept with Jordan’s wife behind his back!

Such a person was worse than a pig or dog. He had no conscience at all!

Lauren was also very angry. “Shaun really has no bottom line. How could he do this? Although his father and uncle committed crimes, they still have a conscience and show a deep level of patriotism. But when it comes to Shaun, he cares about nothing but himself.”

Jordan’s expression was cold. “No need to say anymore! Such a scumbag is not worth discussing! Let’s go back to 2022. I want to kill this beast with my own hands!”

Chapter 1047: Subduing Lee Su-ji!

Jordan and Lauren prepared to return to 2022 and kill Shaun!

It had been more than two hours since Shaun had returned to Chongming Island in 2022.

...

After traveling back to the present, Shaun excitedly threw all his equipment up into the air and watched them fall.

“Hahaha, I did it! I did it! From now on, there will be no more Deity Jordan and no more Rong Huangde. I am the only ruler of this world!”

Shaun had finally fulfilled his longtime dream.

He downed a bottle of fresh beer in excitement before revealing a fierce expression.

“Jordan and Rong Huangde are now dead. However, there are still a few small fries left. They will be a little troublesome. Lee Su-ji and Jamie know my true identity. I must eliminate them.”

To Shaun, people like Lee Su-ji and Jamie could not compare to Jordan and Rong Huangde at all.

It was easy to deal with them. He could kill them whenever they wanted.

Shaun walked out of the room and arrived at a luxurious house on Chongming Island.

He instructed his subordinates, “Call Lee Su-ji over.”

After that, Shaun took off his clothes and changed into swimming trunks. He then went to the pool in the mansion and swam while enjoying the drinks and fruits prepared by the servants.

Lee Su-ji was nearby. Before long, the valiant and formidable lady appeared in front of Shaun.

“You were looking for me.”

Lee Su-ji stood in front of Shaun with a cold expression.

Ever since she learned that Shaun was not the real Rong Bailun, Lee Su-ji had lost respect for him. In fact, if not for Rong Huangde’s instructions, she would have killed him long ago.

At this moment, Shaun was enjoying himself in the huge pool. He held a red wine glass and looked at the slender Lee Su-ji, his heart itching with desire.

He originally wanted to kill Lee Su-ji.

However, on second thought, Jordan and Rong Huangde were dead. A small fry like Lee Su-ji could not threaten him.

How many people would believe her?

In addition, Lee Su-ji was considered a beauty. Shaun never had a Korean beauty before.

‘Jordan loved Park Anya so much. From this, it can be seen that Korean women have their own unique charm. How can I not try one?’ Shaun thought to himself.

Shaun smiled at Lee Su-ji. “Su-ji, change into a swimsuit and come down to swim with me.”

Lee Su-ji said disdainfully, “Whatever you have to say, just tell me now. I have something very important to do and have no time to accompany you.”

Shaun snorted. “How dare you resist? Do you have the right?!”

With that, Shaun cast a spell and a cat flew over. Shaun controlled the cat and quickly removed Lee Su-ji’s clothes. He then controlled Lee Su-ji and made her get into the pool.

Splash!

Lee Su-ji had just entered the pool when Shaun immediately swam over and hugged him from behind.

“Baby, you’re from South Korea. Why did Rong Bailun keep you by his side and regard you so highly? If I’m not wrong, you and Rong Bailun are not simply superior and subordinate, right? You must have slept together, right?”

Lee Su-ji looked sheepish and didn’t dare to look Shaun in the eye. “No... no, don’t spout nonsense. I only have respect and gratitude for Master Rong Bailun!”

Shaun smiled. “Now that Rong Bailun and Rong Huangde are dead, you can offer your loyalty to me from now on. What do you think?”

Lee Su-ji turned to look at Shaun in shock. “What did you say? Rong Huangde is dead?”

Shaun smiled. "That's right. When we traveled back in time to the 1970s, I worked with my parents and uncle to kill Rong Huangde and Deity Jordan. Now, I have the final say in this world!

"Lee Su-ji, you're one of the few people who know my true identity. Tell me, should I kill you?"

Lee Su-ji instantly became nervous and afraid. Of course, she knew that Shaun was very sinister and vicious. If he could do such a terrifying thing as the mind-transplant procedure, what else couldn't he do?

She knew that she was no match for Shaun. She closed her eyes. "Kill me if you want!"

Shaun caressed Lee Su-ji's beautiful face. "Tsk, tsk. How can I bear to kill a beauty like you? If you're willing to be my woman and follow me from now on and be loyal to me, I promise that your status will not change. How about that?"

But Lee Su-ji looked very loyal. "A general doesn't serve two masters. Indeed, Mr. Shaun is very resourceful. You killed a Deity and the two masters of the Rong family. No one in this world is your match. You don't need my help at all. Please let me return to South Korea. I just want to marry an ordinary person and live an ordinary life."

Shaun smiled. "You know so many secrets of this world, yet you still want to be an ordinary person? Lee Su-ji, you're too naive! If I want you to be my slave, you have to be my slave! From now on, no one will dare to resist me!"

With that, Shaun was about to molest Lee Su-ji.

"No!"

Lee Su-ji resisted with all her might, but she was no match for Shaun.

In the end, Shaun raped Lee Su-ji.

After that, Shaun gazed down at Lee Su-ji's teary and pitiful state. He hooked her chin and said, "Put on your clothes and go to Manchester with me to capture Jamie."

Now that he had subdued Lee Su-ji, Shaun was going to capture Jamie.

Jamie was a dangerous person. Once he knew that Jordan had died in Shaun's hands, he would definitely take revenge.

Therefore, Shaun had to strike first.

However, Lee Su-ji just stood in the pool, not moving.

Smack!

Shaun slapped Lee Su-ji's face and shouted angrily, "Didn't you hear what I said?! Do you want to die?!"

Lee Su-ji hurriedly put a look of submission and said respectfully, "Yes, Master."

"Hahahaha... that's more like it."

Everything was going according to Shaun's expectations. At this moment, he was the ruler of this world!

Everyone had to submit to him and act according to his wishes!

Shortly after, Shaun and Lee Su-ji arrived at Manchester, where Jamie was.

As Shaun had been to Jamie's "palace" with Jordan before, he knew the situation here very well.

Shaun looked at the place where Jamie lived and smiled sinisterly. "Jamie, you must be having a lot of fun with those female celebrities now, right? Everything precious in this world should belong to me. Jamie, you dog, you're not worthy!"

Thank you for reading on

Jamie was the most carefree person Shaun knew.

As the brother of a Deity, no one dared to provoke him. Whoever touched him would be going against the Steele family and the Deity.

In addition, Jamie had occupied the Addington family and taken over everything. Now, he was the master of this particular region. He spent his days free and easy, enjoying his time with all kinds of beauties. Jamie was an extremely happy man.

Shaun was also extremely jealous of this. This was a life only he was worthy of!

After arriving at Jamie's residence, Shaun did not enter directly. Instead, he used a weather weapon to change the weather.

Jamie also had many laser weapons, so Shaun had to be careful. The Rong family's weather weapon was a good counter against laser weapons. In extreme weather, Jamie's laser weapons were useless.

After that, Shaun sent his subordinates to capture Jamie.

Shaun sent out a team of more than a thousand people. After a short tussle, they quickly won.

A soldier stepped forward and said, "Master, Jamie has been subdued. He's in the hall now. Should we bring him over?"

Shaun hugged Lee Su-ji's waist and smiled. "Well done! I'll go and see him myself!"

"Yes!"

Shaun arrived at the magnificent hall.

Jamie was kneeling on the ground, his entire body tied up. There were also a few soldiers in front of him, pointing guns at his head.

When Jamie saw Shaun, he shouted angrily, "Shaun! Are you f*cking crazy?! Why did you attack me?! Aren't you allies with my third brother?"

Shaun now had complete control over the Rong family. His close subordinates had completely submitted to him. He didn't care if others knew that he was Shaun or Rong Bailun.

Striding over, Shaun slapped Jamie twice before kicking him!

Shaun was arrogant and acted like the master of the world. "Rascal, I've already killed your third brother, Jordan! He killed my mother and my wife. Why would I ally with him? I only teamed up with him in the past because he was useful to me!"

Jamie was very shocked. "What did you say? Jordan is dead? Impossible! My third brother is a Deity. It's impossible for you to kill him!"

Shaun laughed loudly. "What bullsh*t Deity?! He's just an idiot! With my father and uncle, I can kill anyone! This world should be ruled by the Handley family!"

Beside him, Lee Su-ji, who was dressed in gorgeous clothes, also said, "Jamie, think about it carefully. If Jordan wasn't dead, would my Master dare to attack you like this? Hurry up and accept reality. Submit to the Master!"

Shaun patted Lee Su-ji and praised her. "Well said, my little baby."

"Jamie, do you want to die, or do you want to be my servant from now on?"

"Ptui!"

Jamie spat on Shaun's face. "You b*stard, you'd better kill me. Otherwise, I'll definitely avenge Jordan and tear you into pieces!"

Shaun wiped the saliva calmly and smiled. "Hahahaha, you? You piece of trash. Even if I give you a hundred years, you won't be able to touch a single strand of my hair. It's indeed a pity to kill you. After all, although you don't have much ability, you're still second to none when it comes to playing with women.

"I heard that you were the one who chose a couple of Jordan's women for him, such as Hailey and Lauren. Hehe, you have good taste. The last time I was here, you actually made the beautiful celebrities of the 1990s younger. You treat them like your favorite concubines. You really know how to play. It's not a bad idea to keep you alive and let you choose women for me to have some entertainment. Hehe."

Jamie thought for a moment. It was useless to act on impulse now.

Since Jordan had died in Shaun's hands and Shaun was now in control of the Rong family, no one in the world could resist him.

It was better to pretend to submit to Shaun first before seeking an opportunity to kill him!

Jamie said, "Alright, I'm willing to be your subordinate. I'm willing to be in charge of entertainment for you."

Shaun smiled. "Very good. Someone, build a dungeon for him here. Also, castrate him. I am letting him handle so many beauties and I don't want him to enjoy them before giving them to me."

When Jamie heard that Shaun was going to castrate him, his expression changed drastically. "Shaun, you can't do this to me! You beast, I'm going to kill you!"

Jamie was carried away.

Hearing Jamie's shouts, Shaun said in disdain, "Jamie, oh Jamie, you've already played with so many women in your life and had more than your fair share. It doesn't matter even if you become a eunuch now. Who asked you to be so indulgent in the past? This is called retribution!"

Shaun sat in the magnificent hall, drinking tea and resting.

Behind him, Lee Su-ji reached out her slender hand and massaged Shaun's shoulders.

Shaun asked, "Su-ji baby, what do you think I should do next?"

Lee Su-ji massaged Shaun's shoulders and said, "Although Jordan and Rong Huangde are dead, their family members are still around."

Shaun was slightly taken aback. "Oh? You want me to kill their family members to get rid of future trouble? Kill everyone in the Rong family too? Rong Bailun's wife and daughter? You've benefited so much from the Rong family, but you are not pleading mercy for them?"

Lee Su-ji's eyes were firm. "That's all in the past. From now on, I'm only loyal to you, Master Shaun. I'm your woman, so I will only consider things from your perspective."

Shaun laughed out loud. "Looks like I've completely conquered you at the pool, haha."

"However, before I traveled back in time, I promised myself that I wouldn't kill Rong Bailun's wife and daughter. After all, Rong Huangde didn't tell them that I'm Shaun. They still think that I'm Rong Bailun. So that is fine. But I will definitely divorce Rong Bailun's wife. She's too old.

"Who do you think I should marry after divorcing her? How about you?"

Lee Su-ji hurriedly knelt in front of him. "I'm not worthy of Master Shaun. I don't dare to be your wife. I just want to be one of your women."

Shaun nodded in satisfaction. "Yes, you know your limits. You're indeed quite beautiful, but you are still not worthy of being the wife of the Lord of the World!

"Marriage has always been about social status. I'm the head of the secret family, so my other half naturally has to be from a secret family too. Let me think. Among the secret families now, the only person who is worthy of being my wife is Lota, right?"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1049: Stop Shaun!

Lee Su-ji said, "Lota is the Holy Maiden of Switzerland and the head of the Schmid family. She has a noble status, and her looks and figure are flawless. She's indeed the most qualified to be your wife."

Shaun sighed. "Sigh, it's a pity that her first time was taken by that little b*stard, Jordan. I groomed her for so long, and wanted to wait until she was 18 years old to have her..."

As he spoke, Shaun suddenly remembered something.

"That's not right. I remember that Jordan scolded me before, asking me what I lied to Lota about that made her so angry. I then thought of how Jordan and Lota were locked in the room for 24 hours... Hahahaha, I know what happened. I have indeed taught her well. Hahaha, Lota is still a virgin!"

Shaun laughed so hard that he rocked back and forth.

Lee Su-ji looked at Shaun, not understanding why he was laughing.

Shaun smiled. "Jordan is no match for me when it comes to snatching women. In the end, be it Lota or Victoria, I will have them both, right?"

At the mention of Victoria, Lee Su-ji asked, "Master, what do you plan to do with Jordan's family? Do you want to take over Jordan's woman?"

Shaun said, "The other members of the Steele family, like Jordan's parents, eldest brother and sisters, just monitor them. There's no need to kill them all. Apart from Jordan and Randall, both of whom are already dead, none of the other Steele family members are capable. They're all useless. Even if I let them resist, they won't have the guts to.

"As for Jordan's children, they are still young. They might inherit their father's Deity abilities when they are older, so we can't kill them. Let's keep them alive for now. They might be of great use in the future. As for Hailey and Victoria, I'm not interested in Hailey. But Victoria, on the other hand, we can continue our 'relationship'. Hehe.

"Su-ji, prepare a plane immediately. We're flying to the US to find Victoria!"

"Yes!"

Jordan and Lauren traveled from 1978 back to the present to Chongming Island in 2022.

"How are you feeling, Lauren? Are you alright?"

Jordan felt a little out of breath himself after traveling back to the present so he was concerned for Lauren. He held her and soothed her.

Lauren nodded. "I'll be fine after a rest."

Jordan helped Lauren to sit down. Sakura, who was in her arms, adapted very quickly and quickly jumped around the room.

It seemed to know that it had traveled decades into the future.

Jordan looked at the lively Sakura and said, "Little fellow, welcome to the future. Here, your cat food will be unprecedented. There will be all kinds of delicious food."

"Meow."

Sakura climbed onto Jordan's lap as if it was looking forward to it.

Jordan looked at Sakura and suddenly thought of her original owner, Uehara Yumi.

"I wonder if Uehara Yumi is still alive. After dealing with Shaun, I have to look for Sister-in-law."

Jordan had a nagging feeling that Yumi had been hiding her true self.

"I'm feeling much better. Let's go."

Lauren stood up.

"Mmm."

Jordan held Lauren's hand and was about to leave when he realized that he couldn't move the door at all.

"Damn it, Shaun was here two hours earlier than us. He must have left by now and sealed this place. Time is tight. I'll use a laser weapon to cut open the door."

Lauren said worriedly, "If you do that, wouldn't he know that we're back? If he knows that we're back, he will definitely be on guard. By then, it will be difficult for us to deal with him."

Jordan was in a dilemma.

At this moment, Sakura suddenly stood up. It glanced at the door several times before clawing at a gap in the door.

This made Jordan realize that although he could not move the door, it was not shut completely tight. There was a small gap.

"Sakura, can you get out and open the door for us?"

Jordan asked.

"It can!"

Lauren immediately let Sakura slip through the gap.

This kitten looked quite big, but it had the ability to shrink its bones. It easily crawled out.

Soon, Sakura opened the door for them.

“Sakura is amazing! I’ll buy you canned fish to eat later,” Lauren praised.

Jordan smiled. “Don’t feed it until it gets too fat. Otherwise, it won’t be able to crawl out of such places in the future.”

“Meow!”

Hearing this, Sakura was very annoyed and wailed loudly at Jordan.

Lauren smiled and comforted Shaun. “Hubby, where do you think we should go now? Where do you think Shaun will go after he comes back? Will he go to that lake at Mount Denali immediately?”

Jordan shook his head. “With my understanding of him, no. He will resolve the danger around him first. For example, Lee Su-ji knows his identity so he might kill her.”

“Oh sh*t, there’s also Jamie! Jamie knows his identity too!” Jordan immediately picked up the phone and called Jamie.

However, no one picked up.

“Oh no, something has probably happened.”

Jordan immediately called Dragon. “Dragon, do you know where Phoenix is?”

Phoenix was Jamie’s personal guard. Wherever Phoenix was, Jamie would be there.

After all, Dragon and Phoenix were close friends.

Dragon replied, “The Rong family launched a large-scale attack on Young Master Jamie’s territory. He’s already been imprisoned. I heard that he was castrated. Jamie had Phoenix escape in time and asked him to inform me. I’m thinking of a way to save him now.

“Master, are you alright?”

Jordan said, “I’m fine. That b*stard Shaun actually castrated my second brother. Fortunately, he didn’t kill him. Dragon, bring our Professor Liam over and get him to perform a repair operation on Jamie. Thereafter, rescue him out of that place.”

“Yes!”

“Do you know where Shaun is now?”

“The Rong family’s plane is currently heading towards the US.”

“Damn it, Shaun wants to kill my family! Dragon, go to Manchester and save Jamie first. If you arrive too late, I’m afraid he won’t be able to be a man for the rest of his life. I’ll return to the capital immediately. I’ll contact you again.”

Jordan hung up the phone. Lauren was also very anxious. “Did something happen to Jamie?”

Jordan patted Lauren and said, “It’s a small matter. Shaun didn’t kill him. He only punished him a little. Anyway, Jamie should be taught a lesson. Perhaps this is the price for touching Park Sora. Lauren, Shaun has gone to the US now. I guess he will harm Victoria. Although I no longer have any feelings for her, we’ve been together for so long after all. I don’t want anything to happen to her.”

Lauren nodded. “Of course. We can’t let Shaun hurt Victoria again. Let’s hurry to the capital and stop him!”

Chapter 1050: Victoria Knows The Truth!

In a commercial building in the capital.

Victoria was alone in her luxurious CEO’s office, so her posture was very casual. She took off her high heels and placed her long legs on the table. There was a lady’s cigarette between her lips, but she didn’t light it.

Behind her was a huge French window. From here, she could see the bustling city.

Victoria’s outfit today was slightly sexy because she was wearing black silk. She had never worn black silk in the past. She had always been a proper and elegant CEO. At the most, she would show off her legs in a relatively short skirt.

She felt that a woman in black silk would look a little tacky and not worthy of her status as a CEO.

However, perhaps due to the influence of her younger sister, Emily, or perhaps because she had not seen Jordan for too long, she changed her style.

Victoria sighed and muttered to herself with a plaintive gaze,

“Where did Jordan and Lauren go? Why didn’t they tell me before they left? I was unconscious for so long before finally waking up. Why didn’t Jordan accompany me for a couple more days before leaving? Did they fly away together? Do they not want to be with me anymore?”

Jordan had left without saying goodbye and this made Victoria very unhappy. Even now, she still held a grudge against him.

Logically speaking, Jordan loved Victoria deeply. He spent a lot of effort to save her and make her change her mind to die.

However, why did Jordan’s attitude change after Victoria woke up?

“Could it be because of me and William? Impossible, how would Jordan know about us...”

This was the only thing Victoria felt guilty about.

However, at that time, Jordan and Lauren were having their wedding night. On what grounds could Victoria not sleep with another man?

Even as Victoria thought about it now, she didn’t feel that she had done anything wrong.

However, she really shouldn’t have kept it from Jordan.

When the two of them were together back then, they had clearly agreed that they should be honest with each other and not hide anything.

Just as Victoria was deep in thought, her secretary, Ashley, suddenly barged in.

“Ms. Clarke, something bad has happened. Many people have come to the company.”

Ashley looked panicked.

Victoria hurriedly put her legs down and put on her shoes. “What’s wrong? Who is it?”

At this moment, Shaun walked in with his men. He grabbed Ashley by her hair and threw her out of the door. Those actions alone showed that he didn’t treat Ashley as a human at all.

Shaun was very arrogant now. He did not treat anyone as a person anymore. He believed that he was on another level from everyone else.

Victoria recognized the person in front of her as Rong Bailun. She immediately stated. “Don’t hurt my people!”

Shaun sneered and instructed Lee Su-ji, "Just chase these people out. There's no need to hurt them."

Lee Su-ji seemed to be thinking for Shaun as she asked, "What if they go and call the police?"

Shaun laughed out loud. "So be it. Why can't I visit the office of an insignificant company? This kind of multi-million dollar company, I can easily buy it with spare change. Anyway, I have too much money to spend."

Lee Su-ji gave a faint smile. She had forgotten that Shaun's current wealth was comparable to that of a country.

Shaun could easily buy Victoria's company. There was no need to use force. Shaun could have barged in legally.

When Shaun saw Victoria's long legs, especially the fact that she was in black silk, he couldn't help drooling. Recalling his previous "tryst" with Victoria, he couldn't help reminiscing!

Although Shaun had already enjoyed Victoria's body before, he didn't obtain her heart.

At that time, his wife was occupying Victoria's body.

This time, Shaun wanted all of Victoria!

Anyway, Victoria's husband, Jordan, was dead. Shaun could bully her however he wanted.

Shaun said to Lee Su-ji, "Bring our men out of the room now. I want to be alone with Victoria for a while. Hehe."

Lee Su-ji glanced at Victoria and knew that she was about to be raped by Shaun, just like how he did to her in the pool.

There was no sympathy in her eyes. She would not help Victoria.

The winner would take all. This had been the principle since ancient times.

When a man was defeated, his women would belong to the victor, as a trophy.

Lee Su-ji only hoped that Victoria would be like her and not choose to resist or commit suicide because of this.

Surviving was more important than anything else!

“Yes!”

Lee Su-ji immediately led the men out to guard the place.

At this moment, only Shaun and Victoria were in this room.

Victoria could tell that the other party was up to no good. She asked, “Mr. Rong, I know you’re a big shot who controls the world. My husband and I respect you very much. Why did you come this time?”

Shaun walked into the office. With every step he took, Victoria took a step back. They circled in this way until Shaun was in the middle of the room while Victoria stood near the door.

He wasn’t afraid that Victoria would escape. With his ability, he would be able to catch up with her even if she tried to run.

Shaun sat on the CEO’s office chair that Victoria had just sat on. He spun around and said, “First of all, I’m not Mr. Rong. I’m Shaun.”

“Shaun?”

Victoria still didn’t know that Shaun and Rong Bailun had swapped minds.

Shaun continued, “Also, I have some unfortunate news for you. I killed your Jordan and Lauren.”

“What? What did you say?!”

Victoria stepped forward. She became very agitated.

Shaun smiled. “Victoria, you don’t have to be too sad. Even if Jordan came back alive, he wouldn’t want you. You’re already dirty, do you know that?”

“You b*stard!”

Victoria knew that she was no match for Shaun, but she still picked up a fountain pen from her desk and threw it at him.

Shaun easily caught the fountain pen with two fingers.

He smiled wickedly. “Victoria, you seem to be very embarrassed to talk about this?”

Victoria was furious. “Shaun, don’t go too far! Your wife controlled my body! It had nothing to do with me! Also, don’t insult me with those words. The person who slept with me was a very innocent and cute 18-year-old boy. At the very least, I can accept such a person. He was as clean as a clear river. Our two rivers are clear without any dirty water. Even if they converge, they won't become dirty!"

Shaun laughed out loud. "Victoria, you really know how to comfort yourself. I'm sorry to tell you another piece of bad news. The person who slept with you that day was not an innocent and cute 18-year-old boy.

"It was me!"

Thank you for reading on

Victoria was shocked. "What did you say? Don't spout nonsense!"

All this time, Victoria had been very concerned about what happened when she was controlled. The more she thought about it, the more afraid she became.

During this time alone, she had been thinking about it, and she felt that she was already very lucky! At the very least, she was not dead or disfigured. She had only lost her chastity once!

To be honest, if she had to choose, and these were the three options:

Option A: Lose her life.

Option B: Disfigurement.

Option C: Lose her chastity.

Victoria would likely choose option C. In fact, 99% of the women in the US would choose C.

Losing her chastity once was nothing. Life and beauty were the most precious things! Moreover, Victoria also heard that the person she slept with at that time was an 18-year-old boy, and he was very handsome!

This was much better than being taken by a beggar or some wretched old man.

But now, Shaun was saying that he was the man that day?

Shaun laughed out loud. "I'm not spouting nonsense. If I hadn't played with you that day and realized how delectable you are, would I have flown over to find you personally? You don't believe me? I happened to have taken a few photos. Take a look."

Shaun took out his phone and showed it to Victoria.

Victoria was shocked when she saw the intimate photos of herself unconscious!

“It was you... you disgusting piece of trash. You touched me!”

Victoria was livid.

Shaun stood up with a wicked smile. “That’s right, it was me. Last time, you were controlled by my wife. It was meaningless. This time, I want to have you while you’re conscious!”

“Dream on!”

Victoria was furious.

Shaun laughed out loud. “Do you think you can resist?”

He grabbed Victoria’s wrist.

Shaun couldn’t be bothered to use spells to deal with Victoria. It was enough to use a man’s strength.

“Let go of me, you b*stard! If my husband finds out, he won’t let you off!”

Victoria had practiced Taekwondo before, but she had been unconscious for too long. She had no strength left and could not resist Shaun at all.

Shaun hugged Victoria and said with a wicked smile, “He won’t let me off even if he becomes a ghost, right? Hehe, let him turn into a ghost to find me then. I’m not afraid, hahaha!”

No matter what, Shaun had to have Victoria today.

Right now, he would have whatever he wanted. No one could stop him. Little did he know that at this moment, Jordan and Lauren had already quietly arrived at this floor in their invisibility cloaks.

‘Damn it, that dog Shaun is indeed going to bully Victoria again!’

Jordan was furious when he saw this. He was about to rush over to save Victoria and kill Shaun. However, a figure suddenly walked past them quickly.

Jordan was shocked. He never expected someone to suddenly turn up at this time.

This person's footsteps were very light. Only when he was in front of Jordan did he notice his presence. Jordan realized that this person was an expert. Moreover, Jordan guessed that he was not one of Shaun's men.

Glancing toward the person's face, Jordan saw that he was wearing a mask and hat as if he was deliberately hiding his face.

However, when he saw the person's eyes, Jordan got a shock!

'Those eyes... why do I feel that they are so familiar?'

Jordan felt that he had definitely seen this person before!

And he probably knew him well!

This person quickly ran towards the room where Shaun and Victoria were. When Jordan saw this, he continued to hide in the invisibility cloak with Lauren. He could sense that this man was here to save Victoria!

Indeed, when this man arrived behind Shaun, he prepared to attack!

"Someone's here!"

Even an expert like Shaun only realized that someone was approaching only after the man was right behind him.

Shaun immediately turned around and the man punched him.

Bang!

The man had an absolute advantage in terms of strength. In just two moves, he forced Shaun to retreat!

'Amazing!'

Jordan stood at the side and watched. He realized that this man was a first-rate expert in terms of speed, footwork, strength and combat experience! If Jordan was not wrong, he should be an expert of the same level as Dragon!

He might even be more powerful than Dragon!

'Could it be Dragon?'

Lauren was also curious when she saw this man.

Jordan shook his head. "I sent Dragon to Manchester. He won't be able to make it back in time."

Moreover, Jordan saw the eyes of this mysterious man. It was not Dragon.

However, Jordan couldn't remember who it was! It seemed like it had been many years since they last met.

Shaun immediately sent a signal to Lee Su-ji. He then quickly summoned a cat and prepared to kill this "assassin"!

"Meow!"

A black cat suddenly flew out from under the table.

"Oh no!"

Jordan was a little worried for this mysterious man. Perhaps this man's body was very strong and he was very good at fighting. However, no matter how powerful he was, he was no match for Shaun's spell.

The black cat flew into the air and looked at the mysterious man.

However, the mysterious man was not afraid at all. He stared at the black cat for a second before scaring it away!

"What?"

Jordan, Lauren and Shaun were all shocked when they saw this.

This had never happened before!

The cat summoned by Shaun was actually so afraid of this person!

Jordan was astounded: 'I'm a Deity. My mental strength is different from that of an ordinary person. Apart from me, who else can Shaun's cat possibly be afraid of? Is this man not an ordinary person?'

The mysterious man didn't seem to want to continue fighting. He knew that Shaun had brought a large group of people here, and they were very close.

The man quickly threw a few darts at Shaun.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Shaun dodged quickly and the darts hit the wall.

The mysterious man took this opportunity to carry Victoria and run towards the window!

'What is he doing!'

Jordan was very shocked. The man seemed to want to jump out of the window with Victoria!

They were more than 10-storeys high!

A normal person would die after falling from such a height! Only Jordan would be fine, as he had been injected with the Mirakuru serum.

"Ah!"

Victoria was also shocked.

Bang!

The glass shattered and the mysterious man jumped down with Victoria in his arms.

'Victoria!'

Jordan was very anxious. Although he did not plan to be with Victoria anymore. Nevertheless, he still didn't want anything to happen to her!

However, it was now too late for Jordan to go after them!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1052: Hexagon Organization!

Jordan was certain that he could not save Victoria! He had never expected that this mysterious man would jump down the building with Victoria in his arms.

However, there were always some things in this world that one had to do even if they knew that there was no good outcome.

Jordan prepared to lift his invisibility cloak and reveal himself, to run into Victoria's office and jump out of the window.

Although he knew that it would be meaningless. No matter how fast he was, it was impossible for him to catch up to their speed.

However, Victoria was still the woman Jordan loved the most in the past two years. If he didn't know that Victoria had cheated once, she would still be the woman Jordan loved the most.

Especially since Jordan had sacrificed so much during this period to save her. He had even transcended time and space! How could he bear to watch the person he had worked so hard to save, die just like that?

Beside him, Lauren could tell what Jordan intended to do. She knew that Jordan was a person who valued relationships and would not stay here and watch as something happened to Victoria.

Therefore, Lauren hurriedly grabbed Jordan and stopped him. She said, "Hubby, no. Shaun's subordinates are coming up!"

Lauren already heard the footsteps of a group of people approaching. Shaun had sent a signal to Lee Su-ji. Now, Lee Su-ji and the rest were rushing over.

If Jordan walked out now, not only would he not be able to save Victoria, but he would also expose himself.

It was very likely that Jordan and Lauren would die here if that eventuated. Even if they were lucky enough to escape, Shaun would realize they were not dead.

This way, Shaun would definitely be even more vigilant. With Shaun's cautious character, Jordan might never find an opportunity to kill Shaun in the next decade.

Enduring the pain, Jordan complied with Lauren. In the end, his rationality overcame his impulse. He could only believe that this mysterious man was not an ordinary person. Since he dared to jump off the building with Victoria in his arms, she would not fall to her death.

At this moment, Lee Su-ji had already returned to this floor with a group of people holding heavy weapons. They rushed to Victoria's office.

"Master! What happened?!"

Lee Su-ji saw that Shaun's face was pale and he looked extremely anxious!

She had always thought that Shaun was an invincible existence. He could even kill Deity Jordan and the Rongs. Everything seemed to be under his control. She never expected him to have such a wretched moment.

Lee Su-ji realized that the floor-to-ceiling window in the office was shattered. It seemed like someone had jumped down to escape.

She slowly approached Shaun and asked, "Master, are you alright?"

Shaun's heart was pounding. He felt that the scene earlier was extremely dangerous!

"Fortunately, I reacted in time. If I had sensed it a second later, I would have died at that person's hands!"

Shaun felt a lingering fear. That person was too terrifying!

It hadn't been easy for Shaun to obtain the position of "Lord of the World". It would be a huge loss if he was killed just like that!

"Who was it?! Who was that person?! Why do I feel like I've seen him before?!"

Shaun also felt that he had seen this person before!

Jordan and Lauren, who were hiding in the distance, also looked at each other.

Jordan had seen that man before, and so had Shaun. Was this mysterious man someone they knew at the same time?

Who could it be?

Speaking of which, Jordan and Shaun had interacted a lot in the past two years. They did many things together and got to know many people at the same time.

Lee Su-ji asked, "I'm sorry, Master. We were on the lower floor just now and didn't notice anyone suspicious. Didn't this person reveal his appearance?"

Shaun shook his head. "No, he was wearing a mask, as if he was afraid that I would recognize him. This fellow is very likely someone I know!"

Lee Su-ji asked, "Could he be your enemy?"

Shaun narrowed his eyes. That was possible. However, he had killed countless people in his life and had too many enemies. He couldn't pinpoint who it was.

Shaun slowly walked to the corner and pulled the dart out of the wall.

"This is his weapon."

Shaun said.

Lee Su-ji was shocked. "Hexagon Organization!"

Shaun was stunned. "What did you say? Are you saying that this dart is a hexagon?"

When Shaun looked at the black dart, he saw that it was indeed a hexagon shape.

Lee Su-ji shook her head. "I'm not talking about the dart. I'm talking about an organization. We don't know the name of their organization, but they often use hexagonal weapons, their clothes, tattoos and many other things also have hexagonal patterns."

"Therefore, Rong Bailun named it the Hexagon Organization."

Hearing this, Shaun and Jordan were shocked.

Shaun asked, "Hexagon Organization? The Rong family knows about this organization? Tell me about it! Everyone else, retreat! Guard all the entrances and exits. If anyone comes up again, I won't let you off easily!"

"Yes!"

Shaun chased the others out. He didn't want his servants to hear this secret.

Lee Su-ji said, "Rong Bailun was the one who discovered the Hexagon Organization many years ago. We often encountered their people in various places. The people from the Hexagon Organization are all experts who can fight 10 men at once. Moreover, their escaping abilities are top-notch. All these years, we haven't been able to capture a single one of them."

Shaun was puzzled. "What kind of organization is this? Who's the boss? What's their strength?"

Lee Su-ji shook her head. "I'm not sure. I only know that they are very powerful, and their organization's technology is very powerful. Their research in certain fields is probably not inferior to the Rong family."

"What? So powerful!"

Shaun felt a little stressed. Neither Rong Bailun nor Rong Huangde had told him about this situation.

If only he could get Rong Bailun's memories when they switched minds.

Lauren asked Jordan, "Hubby, have you heard of the Hexagon Organization? Are they good people? They must have been here to save Victoria, right?"

With a shake of his head, Jordan said, "I've never heard of it at all. I'm afraid only the Rong family is qualified to come into contact with this organization. Although I don't know much about this organization, I have a feeling that it's not simple."

Jordan was becoming more and more optimistic about Victoria's survival.

The Rong family, who was the ruler of the world, targeted this organization for so many years but was not able to capture a single member. They must be indeed very powerful and possess highly advanced technology.

Since that mysterious man dared to jump down with Victoria, he must have been confident that he wouldn't let her fall to her death!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1053: Who Is It?!

At this thought, Jordan finally felt more relieved.

However, he would still personally go downstairs to confirm it later.

Holding the dart, Shaun frowned and muttered to himself, "Someone with such a powerful background. I should be able to remember who it is."

If that person was someone Shaun knew and his background was as powerful as Lee Su-ji had described, Shaun would never forget him.

Lee Su-ji suddenly asked, "Master, was the person you saw just now a woman?"

Shaun was taken aback. "Why do you ask?"

Lee Su-ji said, "If it's a woman and if you've seen Jordan's sister-in-law, Yumi, it might be her."

Hearing this, Shaun and Jordan were stunned!

Was Lee Su-ji saying that Jordan's sister-in-law, Yumi, was from the Hexagon Organization?

Shaun asked in surprise, "You're saying that Jesse's wife, Yumi, is from the Hexagon Organization?"

Lee Su-ji nodded. "One time, our people fought with the people from the Hexagon Organization and realized that Yumi was among them."

Shaun immediately said, "What are we waiting for! Hurry up and call Jesse over. I want to interrogate him!"

Lee Su-ji said, "We've already interrogated Jesse. He said that he doesn't know about Yumi's relationship with the Hexagon Organization. He has never even heard of this organization. Also, Jesse and Yumi are now divorced. We used many methods, even torture, but Jesse insisted that he knew nothing about his ex-wife. We've tested him with the most advanced lie detector. He's not lying."

Shaun nodded. "Yes, Jesse has always curried favor with the powerful and wouldn't dare to lie. It seems that Jesse has been deceived by this woman. Hmph, Yumi is the daughter of Uehara Yumi. I didn't expect the Hexagon Organization to be related to a descendant of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction. This matter is getting more and more complex."

Lee Su-ji was also slightly shocked. "The Nine Chrysanthemum Faction? You're saying that Yumi is from the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction?"

Shaun had just traveled back from 1978. During his trip, he and Jordan found out that Yumi's mother, Uehara Yumi, was from the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction.

Meanwhile under the cloaks, Lauren was also a little suspicious. "Since Yumi is from the Hexagon Organization, is it from Japan?"

Jordan immediately rejected the idea. "No, I know the person who saved Victoria just now. He must be from the US. I only know a limited number of Japanese. If he's Japanese, I can definitely guess who he is. Also, the Japanese won't save Victoria."

They saw Shaun return to his usual stern self. He thought that after Jordan and Rong Huangde were dead, he was invincible and could be arrogant for a while.

Unexpectedly, just as he was about to play with an ordinary woman, he was almost assassinated.

Shaun said, "I keep feeling that these things are related to Mount Denali. Su-ji, accompany me to Mount Denali immediately. Bring everyone and weapons. I want to occupy that place!"

Lee Su-ji was confused. "Why are we going to Mount Denali?"

Shaun smiled and flicked Lee Su-ji's nose. "Baby, there's a big secret there. I'll tell you when we get there."

After Shaun's men left, Jordan immediately came out of his invisibility cloak and ran to the office, preparing to jump down to see how Victoria was doing.

However, while Jordan could jump down with ease, Lauren couldn't. Lauren had never been injected with the serum before and was pregnant. She could not do such a dangerous thing.

Jordan looked at Lauren. "Lauren, can we split up first? You go on and follow Shaun to Mount Denali and see what's going on there. I'll go find Victoria and investigate the Hexagon Organization."

Lauren nodded. "Okay, go and save Victoria. I'll help you keep an eye on Shaun. Keep in touch!"

"Alright!"

Jordan didn't say anything else and jumped down from the broken window.

"Hubby, be careful!"

Lauren walked over worriedly to check on Jordan.

Jordan jumped out of the window and used his hand to prop against the wall as he slowly slid down. When he was not too far from the ground, he jumped down and landed steadily.

Seeing that Jordan was fine, Lauren left in peace.

After landing, a few people who saw Jordan jump off the building were stunned. Afraid that they would report this, Jordan knocked them out and gave them medicine.

Jordan then surveyed the surroundings and realized that there was no body or blood anywhere.

"There's no blood at all. In other words, Victoria landed safely just now and wasn't injured. That fellow jumped down from such a high floor and is actually fine. It's very likely that he has also been injected with the Mirakuru serum!"

With such a physique, the Mirakuru serum was the only explanation. It was no longer a big secret. Many people had now been injected with it. Including Jordan's people, as well as Geng Anli's people.

Previously, in order to have a fair battle with Rong Bingshao, the Rong family also obtained the Mirakuru serum.

In other words, many families had the serum now. It was not impossible for it to be leaked to ordinary people.

"Whether you're a good or bad person, I have to find Victoria!"

This mysterious man didn't appear to be a bad person. After all, he had specially come to save Victoria.

However, Jordan was still worried. He had to see with his own eyes that Victoria was safe and sound.

Therefore, Jordan immediately summoned the artificial intelligence robot, Little Steele.

Jordan ordered, "Little Steele, access the surveillance cameras nearby and find the person who has Victoria."

Little Steele could easily analyze all the surveillance footage in the capital.

Soon, Little Steele pointed the way for Jordan.

Jordan ran all the way to an intersection.

Little Steele said, "Victoria and the mysterious man got into a Toyota Alphard car here. The license plate is A56789. I also checked and found out that the license plate is fake."

Jordan said, "Continue to follow this car and direct me!"

Little Steele showed Jordan the car route through a holographic projection.

Jordan chased after them on foot at a very high speed.

After 20 minutes, Jordan arrived at an empty space after following the route. In this space, one could see the Toyota Alphard with the license plate A56789.

Jordan slowly approached. He didn't know if Victoria and that mysterious man were in the car.

And if so, what were they doing?

Jordan came to the car. Just as he was about to open the car door...

Boom!

There was a loud explosion.

The entire car instantly exploded and was alight with fire!

Thank you for reading on

“Ahem...”

Jordan coughed.

Fortunately, he didn't have an ordinary body. Otherwise, he would have been severely injured. He looked at the burning car and realized that there was no one inside.

“This fellow is really cautious. He was afraid that someone would follow and investigate him, so he planted a bomb in the car.”

Jordan couldn't help sighing. This mysterious man was really an expert among experts. Be it the timing of his attack in the building, his reaction speed, or tying up loose ends, they were all handled very well.

However, the more powerful this man was, the more worried Jordan was for Victoria!

“Victoria, who took you away? I'm so worried about you!”

The moment something happened to Victoria, Jordan became worried about her safety again.

Victoria was an ordinary person. Why would the Hexagon Organization save her? Jordan guessed that this was very likely related to him!

“Perhaps the Hexagon Organization has already targeted me and the people around me. I have to figure out what the Hexagon Organization is first!”

He was not in a hurry to go to Mount Denali because Jordan knew Shaun very well, and knew that he was a very cautious person. Even though Shaun had gone to Mount Denali, he wouldn't go straight to the lake.

The lake was a place filled with mysteries. It could give people special abilities, but it was also dangerous.

One might die there if one was careless.

It had not been easy for Shaun to obtain the position of “Lord of the World”. Jordan guessed that he would not dare to enter the lake for at least three days. He would use all sorts of methods to analyze and test it first.

In addition, there were various forces at Mount Denali. It would take Shaun some time to occupy that place.

Therefore, Jordan wanted to investigate the Hexagon Organization first.

Jordan ordered Little Steele. "Help me find clues about the Hexagon Organization. Search the latest news across the entire world."

Jordan provided Little Steele with the image of the dart from the mysterious person.

Little Steele: "Big data search in progress..."

"Ding! Identification of the same dart pattern on Twitter and KBS!"

Jordan was thrilled. "Play the news!"

Little Steele immediately played the news on KBS.

"The latest news is that Cheon Ji-hoon was assassinated at his home. The police are trying their best to find the murderer..."

Jordan saw the image of Cheon Ji-hoon's death on the news. There was a hexagonal dart on his neck, exactly the same as the one the mysterious man had thrown earlier.

"Cheon Ji-hoon? Isn't that Madam's husband? Park Sora's adoptive father?"

Jordan had been to South Korea and knew about Cheon Ji-hoon. He had also interacted with him before. Previously, when Park Sora went missing, Jordan had spoken to him.

Now, Park Sora was missing and Cheon Ji-hoon had been killed. He wondered if there was a connection.

"Why did the Hexagon Organization kill Cheon Ji-hoon? Was Park Sora captured by them?"

Jordan still felt guilty for killing Park Anya with his own hands. He had promised himself that he would take good care of Park Anya's daughter, Park Sora!

If Park Sora was captured by the Hexagon Organization, Jordan would definitely find a way to save her!

Jordan immediately asked Little Steele, "How long ago was this?"

Little Steele answered, "Two minutes ago."

Reported on the news two minutes ago, which meant that this incident had just happened.

The murderer must still be at the scene. He couldn't have gone far!

Jordan immediately called Salvatore. "Salvatore, do we still have men in South Korea? Why was Cheon Ji-hoon killed?"

After the Park family fell, Jordan assigned a portion of his men to defend South Korea. It could be considered as taking over the Park family's power there. The place where Park Sora and Cheon Ji-hoon lived was guarded by many bodyguards.

Salvatore said, "Yes, everyone is here. I asked earlier, but our people are fine. I didn't see anyone suspicious enter, but the murderer quietly killed Cheon Ji-hoon."

Jordan thought for a moment and said, "Lock down the house and the nearby streets. The murderer should still be in that house! You must guard it tightly. Don't let even a fly escape. I'll rush over immediately!"

Salvatore replied, "Yes!"

Jordan quickly took a plane to South Korea.

An hour later, Jordan landed at Cheon Ji-hoon's house. A subordinate sent by the Steele family hurriedly knelt in front of Jordan. "Greetings, Master! We failed to protect the Park family. Please punish us, Master!"

Jordan had no intention of punishing anyone.

"Get up and tell me about the situation here."

The subordinate said, "According to your instructions, we immediately carried out a full lockdown. We've also informed the police here to limit the number of cars and airport flights. We won't allow them to fly out either."

Jordan nodded. "Yes, the murderer is in this house!"

Jordan was a Deity. He could sense that the murderer had not left this place at all.

"A member of the Hexagon Organization. Alright, I'll teach you a lesson! Release the smoke bomb immediately!"

Beep...

Soon, red gas filled the scene.

Not only would this irritating smoke bomb obscure one's sight, but it would also make them sneeze.

A sneeze would expose the target.

Meanwhile, Jordan was wearing a mask as he walked forward without any difficulty. He started to search the rooms one by one.

Jordan soon found Park Sora's room.

He still remembered that the first time he came here, he was here to capture Jamie. Back then, he had barged into the room and saw an inappropriate sight.

Now that he thought about it, it was such a ridiculous situation.

"Achoo!"

Jordan suddenly heard someone sneezing!

"He's here!"

The murderer was in this room.

Jordan had come in alone. He had arranged for his subordinates to wait outside.

Moving forward, Jordan approached step by step. Just as he was about to open the door, someone suddenly rushed out.

Swoosh! Swoosh!

A figure quickly jumped out of the room and immediately threw two darts at Jordan!

Thud! Thud!

Jordan reacted quickly and dodged. The dart hit the wooden pillar.

He glanced at the dart. It was indeed a dart from the Hexagon Organization!

"Someone from the Hexagon Organization!"

At the thought that Victoria was still being controlled by the people from the Hexagon Organization, Jordan couldn't wait to capture this person and interrogate him about the organization.

Therefore, Jordan quickly chased after the figure. The person was wearing a black hoodie and looked a little thin and short from the back.

Even so, Jordan did not let his guard down.

He used all his strength to rush over and knock the other party to the ground!

“Ah!”

A gentle female voice cried out in pain.

“A woman?”

The woman had fallen to the ground and was spitting up blood. Jordan quickly turned her over. He was instantly stunned.

“Park Sora?”

Chapter 1055: Park Sora Tries To Kill Jordan!

Jamie never expected that this person would be the daughter of “Madam” Park Anya, as well as the ex-girlfriend of his second brother, Jamie!

Jordan’s heart ached when he saw Park Sora spit blood. He was glad that he hadn’t been too ruthless.

He had already killed Park Anya. It would be a sin to kill her daughter too!

This beautiful girl in front of him was the daughter of Jordan’s father and his first love. She was Jordan’s younger half-sister!

Jordan immediately held Park Sora and asked with concern, “Sora, are you alright?”

“Achoo!”

Jordan was met with a girlish sneeze.

It seemed like Park Sora was fine. At the very least, she had not fainted. However, her thin body could not withstand Jordan’s powerful strike.

Although Park Sora was beautiful and had inherited her mother’s beauty and aura, her figure was not as charming as Madam’s.

After all, she was only 15 years old and was still an underage girl. Perhaps her body had not fully developed yet. On the other hand, Elle’s figure was better than hers when she was at that age.

Jordan hurriedly said through the walkie-talkie, "Immediately disperse the smoke and fog!"

Picking up the younger girl, Jordan carried Park Sora to her room and placed her on the sofa.

The smoke soon dissipated. Park Sora could open her eyes and stop sneezing.

"Take this medicine. You'll feel better."

Jordan sat beside Park Sora and handed her a pill.

However, Park Sora did not appreciate the gesture. She glared at Jordan, her eyes filled with anger.

"Murderer!"

Park Sora immediately pounced on Jordan!

Jordan was pushed to the ground by Park Sora. With Jordan's fast reflexes, he could naturally stop Park Sora's attack.

However, Jordan really did not want to hurt her anymore.

Park Sora sat on Jordan's body and grabbed his neck, trying to strangle him to death.

However, Jordan acted as if nothing was happening. As he was being strangled, he could still communicate with her without even panting.

"Sora, don't be like this. Let's get up and talk. This position isn't appropriate. If others see us like this, they will misunderstand."

Park Sora was a little surprised. Why couldn't she strangle Jordan to death? Not only was he not suffocating, but no matter how hard Park Sora tried, Jordan was not affected at all.

The lack of response made Park Sora indignant. She took out a sharp dagger from her pants and stabbed it at Jordan!

Jordan immediately dodged to prevent Park Sora from succeeding. At the same time, he flipped over and pressed her under him, knocking the dagger away.

"Let go of me, let go of me! You murderer, I'm going to kill you and avenge my mother!"

Jordan grabbed Park Sora's hands. She kept struggling, wanting to pick up the dagger again to kill Jordan.

Jordan was also very hesitant. If it was anyone else, who dared to repeatedly try to kill him, he would never let him off easily. It did not matter if he was a man or a woman, an adult or a kid.

However, Jordan could not blame the girl in front of him.

After all, Jordan had indeed wronged her. He had killed her mother with his own hands.

Moreover, Jordan's second brother had hurt her before.

Jordan grabbed Park Sora's fair hand and said, "Sora, listen to me. Killing your mother was an accident. I didn't want to! If you want to blame someone, blame your grandfather. He insisted on ordering Anya to assassinate me.

"Sora, did you know? Your mother and I are lovers! I'm the man your mother loves the most! Before I met my current wife, your mother was also the woman I loved the most! She was my first love! Do you know how much pain I felt when I had no choice but to kill your mother?"

Park Sora glared at Jordan with overflowing hatred. "Hypocrite! If you loved my mother, you wouldn't have killed her! Now that you've killed her, what will happen to me? What's going to happen to me? Sob sob..."

Park Sora started to cry.

Jordan looked at Park Sora and said, "Sora, do you know who your biological father is? He's my father, and you're my younger half-sister. However, I won't treat you as my younger sister. I will treat you as the daughter of a woman I once loved. I will take care of you as if you were my daughter.

"You're not alone. I'll take care of you in the future."

Park Sora snorted. "Take care of me? You murderer, I don't need your so-called care! Let go of me!"

Ignited by fury, Park Sora continued to struggle. Seeing that she could not escape Jordan's grasp, she bit his arm.

"Eugh," Jordan cried out softly. He didn't expect Park Sora to be so angry that she would bite him.

Nevertheless, Jordan did not try his best to shake her off. He had indeed let her down. If this could vent her hatred for him, then he would let her bite him.

After biting for a while, Park Sora finally stopped.

Jordan looked at his arm and saw a deep bite mark.

If Jordan had not been injected with the serum, he would have bled from Park Sora's bite.

"Feeling better?" Jordan asked softly.

Park Sora looked at Jordan as if he was a monster. "Why don't you feel any pain? Why is your body as hard as a rock?"

Jordan saw that the hatred in Park Sora's eyes had dissipated substantially. He ruffled her hair and smiled.

"Silly, I've been injected with the Mirakuru serum. My body is different from an ordinary person's. Even if you shoot me, you won't be able to kill me."

Park Sora looked surprised and curious. "Is every part of your body as hard as a rock?"

Jordan felt awkward for a moment. "I can't tell you in detail. Let me help you up."

Although Jordan wanted to help Park Sora stand up, she did not appreciate it. She shook off Jordan's arm and stood up herself.

Jordan knew that he could not change Park Sora's opinion of him for the time being so he did not dwell on it. He wanted to know why Park Sora had gone missing all this time.

Also, why did she have a weapon from the Hexagon Organization?

Jordan looked at Park Sora and asked, "Sora, what's your relationship with the Hexagon Organization? Did you join this organization too?"

Park Sora was confused. "What Hexagon Organization?"

Jordan took out the dart she had thrown and also pointed at the hexagonal pattern on her dagger. He said, "Look at this."

Park Sora sneered. "What Hexagon Organization? Who told you that we are called the Hexagon Organization? I really didn't expect the Deity to spout such ignorant words!"

Chapter 1056: You're Actually This Kind Of Person!

Park Sora knew that Jordan was a Deity and deliberately mocked him.

Many people felt that since Jordan was a Deity, he should know everything. He should be stronger than others in every way.

However, Jordan knew that his abilities were limited. It was impossible for him to know everything.

He could only predict some things, not everything.

As for Jordan's abilities, he relied on his many years of martial arts training, his combat ability and the help of the serum. So when dealing with someone like Shaun, it was actually a challenge for Jordan.

However, Jordan had a nagging feeling that he had yet to fully develop his Deity abilities. In the future, he would definitely be stronger than he was now.

Jordan didn't get angry. He said humbly, "I really don't know much about this organization. You said that it isn't called the Hexagon Organization. What's its name? Why did you join it?"

Park Sora replied arrogantly, "Why should I tell you? Why should I tell the person who killed my mother?"

Jordan sighed. Park Sora still had a prejudice against him and was unwilling to tell him.

"Sora, to be honest, my girlfriend Victoria, was captured by a bad person just now. It was someone from your organization who risked his life to save her. I really want to know who saved my girlfriend. That person, that man. You know him, right?"

Park Sora's eyes flickered. "I don't!"

However, a smile appeared on Jordan's face. When he looked into Park Sora's eyes, he was certain that she definitely knew who that man was!

Jordan continued smiling. "Sora, I don't think your mother ever told you that not only am I a Deity, I am also a master of psychology. You're just a little girl. I can tell when you're lying. I advise you to tell me the truth."

Park Sora gritted her teeth stubbornly. "So what if I don't tell you the truth? Do you dare to kill me? Come on, my mother died in your hands anyway. Kill your first love's daughter too! I don't want to live alone in this world!"

Only then did Jordan remember that Park Sora had killed Cheon Ji-hoon.

“Did you kill Cheon Ji-hoon? Why did you say that you were alone? Even if you don’t want to acknowledge me as your father and live with me, you still have your adoptive father.”

“Ptui!”

At the mention of Cheon Ji-hoon’s name, Park Sora immediately became furious. “He’s not worthy to be my father! This b*stard with a beast’s heart. Every time my mother isn’t around, he bullies me. He deserves to die!”

“Bully you?”

Jordan was confused.

Park Sora said, “He... he molested me. After Mom died, he became even more unscrupulous.”

Jordan didn’t expect Cheon Ji-hoon to be such a person. The thought alone made his blood boil! “That damned b*stard dared to treat you like this. Sora, you did the right thing. Such a man isn’t worthy to be your adoptive father. He deserves to be killed!”

Park Sora said, “You’re not a good person either!”

Jordan was exasperated. Since he couldn’t convince her, he could only use force.

Taking a pill out, Jordan stuffed it into Park Sora’s mouth.

After taking the pill, Park Sora panicked and asked, “What did you give me?!”

Jordan said, “It’s a drug that can stiffen a person’s body. No matter what I do to you later, you won’t be able to move or resist.”

“Why... why did you give me such a drug?!”

Park Sora could already feel her body slowly stiffening.

Jordan said, “You’re right. Like your adoptive father, I’m not a good person. Since I’m not a good person, of course I have to do something bad.”

“You b*stard!”

Park Sora wanted to reach out to hit Jordan, but she realized that she could not move.

Jordan approached her body.

Park Sora was shocked. Indeed, it was true that Jordan was also a pervert who molested young girls like her adoptive father, Cheon Ji-hoon.

“Jordan, I didn’t expect you to be such a person! How could you do this to me! I’m your younger sister! I’m your father’s daughter!”

Jordan examined Park Sora’s long hair and neck and did not find anything special. He replied, “Didn’t you deny being a member of the Steele family?”

Jordan continued to examine her.

Park Sora was still extremely nervous. “Didn’t you say that you and my mother are lovers? You romanced my mother and now you have designs on me. Aren’t you too shameless? You’re a Deity. If word gets out, what will others say about you? Also, I’m your second brother’s woman. Have you forgotten? How can you snatch your second brother’s woman!”

Jordan smiled and continued to scare her. “I’ll tell you some unfortunate news. My second brother was castrated and is no longer a normal man. He asked me to take care of you in the future.”

“What?”

Hearing that something had happened to Jamie, Park Sora became very anxious. It seemed like this girl really liked Jamie.

“How did that happen to Jamie?! Which b*stard did it?! Was it you?! You must have done it on purpose to stop us from being together!”

Park Sora was furious.

At this moment, Jordan found what he wanted to find on Park Sora.

A red button.

Park Sora was shocked. “So you’re not trying to take advantage of me, but looking for something!”

Jordan tapped Park Sora’s forehead with his finger. “Of course. As rude as you are to me, I won’t do anything despicable to you. You people from secret organizations usually have some device on you. If something happens to you, you can contact the people in the organization to save you.

“This thing is what you use to contact people from the organization, right?”

Park Sora was shocked. “No, Jordan, don’t press it. This button is not...”

Jordan looked at Park Sora's desperate denial and was even more certain that this button was used to contact the organization.

Therefore, he immediately pressed the button.

He then placed the button back into Park Sora's pocket.

Jordan said, "I'm sorry, Sora. I have to use you to lure one of your accomplices here. I have to know who the head of your Hexagon Organization is and who the man who saved my girlfriend is. I can't force a confession out of you, but if it's a stranger, I can use any method to make him tell me everything. The person who is coming to save you, he better tell the truth. Otherwise, I won't be polite to him."

Park Sora cursed at Jordan. "You're despicable and shameless! You're a Deity, but you actually used such a method. If you have the ability, why don't you predict it? Guess who our chief is!"

Jordan was shocked.

Jordan was a little surprised to hear the word "Chief".

Not "boss" or "leader" or "master". Instead, it was "chief".

"What chief? Tribal chief?" Jordan asked.

Park Sora realized that she had accidentally exposed the fact that the head of their organization was addressed as "Chief". Her arrogant expression instantly disappeared and she became silent.

Jordan said softly, "If you don't tell me, I'll ask the person who is coming to save you."

With that, Jordan placed Park Sora on a chair and found a place to hide.

Park Sora's body stiffened. She sat there and couldn't move. She could only talk.

Jordan also instructed the guard standing outside to withdraw about half of their men from the grounds. He was worried that the person from the organization would not be able to infiltrate, so he decided to reduce the difficulty for this mysterious guest.

After all, people from this organization were probably not bad folks.

For example, the man from earlier had saved Victoria from being raped.

As for Park Sora, although she was mischievous and willful, she could be considered a good person.

Just like that, time passed by.

The entire house and the entire street outside became quieter and quieter.

Suddenly...

A figure broke through the window!

“He’s here!”

It was a woman. She was wearing a mask and a hat to hide her face. She looked very mysterious.

“Sister, how are you? I received your distress signal and came to save you!”

Park Sora sat there stiffly with a grim expression. She said to the woman who had come to save her, “Sister, leave quickly! It’s a trap!”

Before she could finish speaking, Jordan had already appeared behind the woman.

The woman immediately turned around in a fluster. She wanted to attack Jordan, however, Jordan was so fast and had already planned this beforehand. She had no chance to attack.

Bang!

Jordan punched the other party in the stomach.

When Jordan saw that she was a woman, he did not kill her. Instead, he grabbed her neck and pressed her against the wall.

After subduing her, Jordan took off her hat and mask, wanting to see her face.

Jordan was shocked.

“Sister-in-law?”

The woman who had come to rescue Park Sora was Jesse’s wife, Yumi!

Yumi was very elegant. Jordan heard from his brother that she had been a model for a period of time before she married into the Steele family. She had deep-set eyes and beautiful facial features.

Yumi was also shocked to see Jordan. "Jor... Jordan?"

The situation became very awkward. Yumi didn't want to see Jordan under such circumstances as it exposed her identity.

Over the past few years, Jordan's image of Yumi was that of a very refined and proper sister-in-law.

But now, she had transformed into a female assassin.

Jordan didn't want to see Yumi at this time either. He did have plans to find her and ask about her background.

But now, Jordan hoped that it would be a stranger. This way, he could use cruel methods to force out who their chief was.

Jordan had previously overheard Lee Su-ji say that Yumi was also a member of this organization. So he was actually not that surprised that she had come to save Park Sora.

But Jordan was curious about one thing. "Yumi, did you just call her sister?"

Over the years, Yumi had a good relationship with Jordan. They were family and had a conflict.

Yumi said awkwardly, "Oh, yes. I heard that she's your father's daughter. Doesn't that make her our younger sister? I'm not wrong, right?"

Jordan looked at Yumi. "Aren't you and my brother divorced? You called her sister because you're from the same organization, right?"

Yumi avoided eye contact. "Organization? What organization? I don't know what you are talking about."

As Yumi spoke, she walked toward Park Sora.

Park Sora couldn't turn around. "Elder Sister Yumi, I didn't tell him about our organization. Don't tell him either."

Hearing that Park Sora did not reveal their secret, Yumi felt relieved.

Jordan continued to ask Yumi, "Aren't you the successor of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction? Why are you involved with this Hexagon Organization? You married Jesse and into our Steele family. What are your intentions? All these years, have you ever done anything to hurt my family?"

Yumi was shocked. "How do you know about the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction?!"

Jordan was frank. "I've seen your mother before. Your mother is called Uehara Yumi, right? Is she still alive?"

Yumi was surprised again. "Oh my god, Jordan, I've always treated you as a little brother. I didn't expect you to become so powerful during this period of time. You actually know everything. You're much more powerful than your brother. If I had known earlier, I would have married you back then."

Yumi gave a charming smile.

But Jordan maintained his serious expression. "Stop joking. You haven't answered my question. Why are you, a member of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction, willing to join this organization? Or are you in this organization as an undercover agent too? To kill the chief?"

Yumi immediately became serious. "Idiot! Don't doubt my loyalty to the Chief! There's nothing special about the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction. I'm indeed the successor of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction, but I'm also loyal to our Chief. In this world, no one is greater and more noble than our Chief. Not you, not Rong Bailun, not even Rong Huangde. And Shaun is not even worth mentioning!"

Jordan was a little surprised that Yumi held such a high opinion of their Chief. It was clear that she believed that the most respected person in the world was not Jordan, who was a Deity, or the Rong family, who ruled the world.

But the Chief of this mysterious organization?

Jordan became even more curious about this Chief. What kind of ability did he have to make the arrogant Park Sora of a secret family willingly submit to him?

He could even make the successor of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction, Yumi, willingly become his subordinate?

Jordan grabbed Yumi's wrist and asked seriously, "Tell me, who is your Chief?! Do I know him? Also, what is your organization doing? Why did someone take Victoria away? Was it your Chief who took Victoria away?!"

Yumi looked like she was in pain. "Stop it! You're hurting me!"

However, Jordan refused to let go of her wrist. "Tell me! I won't show mercy just because you used to be my sister-in-law!"

Chapter 1058: Jordan Fell For it!

The people from the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction were all terrible.

Yumi's mother, Uehara Yumi, had killed many innocent citizens in the Handley family town in 1978. If not for Jordan's high-tech weapons, he would also have died at her hands.

As for Yumi, she had hidden her true identity and infiltrated the Steele family. When the Steele family was in trouble, she immediately fled. Now that she had divorced Jesse, she was no longer part of the Steele family.

Therefore, Jordan did not need to be too nice to her.

"Jordan, I'm your sister-in-law. How can you hold me like this? I heard from your brother that you've always had a crush on me. One time, when I was changing in my room, you peeped at me. I didn't believe it at first, but it turns out that it's true. You're indeed interested in me," said Yumi.

Park Sora couldn't move so she used her words to help. "Jordan, so you're that kind of person. How shameful for you to do that to your sister-in-law. What right do you have to criticize Jamie and order him not to contact me and force us to break up? Aren't you the same type of person yourself?!"

Park Sora and Jamie had not been in contact for a long time. Even after learning about their true relations, Park Sora still liked Jamie.

This girl was unwilling to admit that she was born in the US.

However, Jordan had given a very strict order to Jamie not to contact Park Sora again.

Although Jamie also wanted to see Park Sora, he didn't dare to disobey Jordan's orders.

When Park Sora found out, she blamed Jordan for being a busybody.

Jordan hurriedly defended himself. "Nonsense! I've always respected you! I respect you as my sister-in-law and never dared to have any improper thoughts about you!"

Yumi smiled wickedly. She knew that Jordan was a good boy and never had any crooked thoughts. She found such good boys very cute and continued to tease him.

“Come on, stop pretending. Anyway, your brother and I are divorced now. You’re so strong. Since you want to take advantage of me, fine, I won’t resist. You can do whatever you want.”

Jordan was exasperated and immediately let go of Yumi’s wrist.

He didn’t want anyone to misunderstand that he had designs on Yumi!

Yumi smiled at Jordan and walked to Park Sora’s side. “Jordan, what did you do to Sora? Why is her body so stiff that she can’t move?”

Since he had already successfully lured a member of the organization to come to save Park Sora, Jordan gave her the antidote.

Soon, Park Sora could move again.

Jordan said, “Yumi, Park Sora, one of you is my former sister-in-law, and the other is my half-sister. You can be considered my family. I hope you can tell me why you joined this organization. And where is my girlfriend, Victoria?”

Yumi asked, “If we don’t tell you, you won’t let us go?”

Jordan nodded. “If you don’t tell me, you won’t be able to leave this room unless you can defeat me.”

Yumi lowered her head and pondered. She seemed to be comparing the difference in strength between her and Jordan.

Jordan stood there confidently. He had fought with Yumi’s mother before. He could already guess that Yumi’s strength was definitely not higher than her mother’s.

In fact, she was probably far inferior to Shaun.

Therefore, even if Yumi knew some spells, Jordan was not afraid.

Yumi thought for a moment and replied, “Alright, I’m afraid we’re not your match even if we join forces. How about this? Kiss me and I’ll tell you the answer.”

Jordan was shocked and quickly said, “Yumi, stop fooling around. I really have no feelings for you. I swear I’ve never done those things before. You can take a look at the women I’ve had in the past. Hailey, Victoria, Lauren and Park Anya. Which one of them isn’t outstanding? Which one of them isn’t far superior to you? Sorry, I might be a little too direct. You're an attractive woman, but you're still some distance away from my standards."

Yumi was a woman after all. She was very unhappy to be compared like this.

However, Jordan was telling the truth. Be it their looks or figures, those women were better than Yumi.

His women were all considered top-notch beauties anywhere in the world.

Yumi said, "I know you're not interested in me, but I am interested in you. I've always liked you. It's just that I was too embarrassed to confess to you because of our relationship. Now that I'm divorced from your brother, I'll be frank. I like you, Jordan. I regret marrying your brother instead of you. If I had married you back then, I would be Mrs. Deity now. How cool."

Yumi's words made Jordan feel very awkward.

"Anyway, if you don't kiss me, I won't say anything."

Park Sora chimed in. "That's right. It's just a kiss. Are you really a Deity? You don't even have the guts. Are you afraid that Elder Sister Yumi will eat you?"

He didn't expect Park Sora to agree with Yumi.

It seemed like she did not hate Jordan that much. Otherwise, she would say that Jordan was not worthy of kissing her beloved Elder Sister Yumi.

Jordan was a person who did not care about trifles. He did not want to waste time on such a small matter.

For the sake of the world and to find out the secret of that organization as soon as possible, Jordan was willing to kiss Yumi just this once.

Jordan said, "Alright, since you insist, fine. I can kiss you, but not for too long!"

Yumi chuckled. "Sure, you have a time limit?"

Jordan thought for a moment and said, "No more than a minute!"

Yumi continued to smile. "Alright, it won't take more than a minute. Let's begin."

Yumi pulled Jordan to Park Sora's pink bed and sat down.

Jordan suddenly became a little nervous.

Park Sora followed them and looked at them with a smile as if she was watching a good show.

Jordan said to Park Sora, "Turn around and don't look."

Park Sora smiled and said, "Tsk, you already saw everything between me and Jamie, so why can't I see yours? Aren't you being unfair?"

Jordan couldn't win against her and stopped talking.

At this moment, Yumi was already gently caressing Jordan's face and slowly approaching him.

Jordan and Yumi had just kissed for less than three seconds when he felt a little dizzy. As more time passed, this dizzy feeling became more intense.

'Damn it... what's happening?!

Jordan felt light-headed. Everything in front of him was spinning!

Was Yumi's lipstick smeared with a drug?

Impossible. Jordan was a Deity. Even if her lipstick was poisonous, Jordan would be absolutely immune to it!

Moreover, Yumi did not have any lipstick on at all!

"Hahaha..."

While Jordan was feeling dizzy, he heard Yumi and Park Sora laugh loudly.

Thank you for reading on

This was unbelievable!

Yumi's strength far exceeded Jordan's imagination!

Jordan originally thought that Yumi only knew some of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction's spells. He had already experienced those techniques and was not afraid at all. However, Yumi seemed to know more than her mother and Shaun.

Why did this kiss make Jordan feel so dizzy?

How did Yumi do it?

With Jordan's current physical condition, he was immune to all poisons. What Yumi did was definitely not just some mere poison!

It seemed that Yumi had a powerful mental strength that was not inferior to his!

Moreover, from Park Sora's reaction, it was clear that she knew Yumi had such an ability. That was why she had encouraged them to kiss.

When Park Sora saw that Jordan was in a daze, the desire for vengeance burned again she picked up her dagger.

However, Yumi grabbed Park Sora. "Sister Sora, don't waste your efforts. He's a Deity. You and I can't kill him so easily. If it was anyone else, they would have fainted after kissing me. He's just feeling a little dizzy. His mental strength is too strong. He might recover soon. We have to leave this place quickly!"

Park Sora recalled that Jordan's body seemed to be invulnerable. Even a knife could not kill him. So she had no choice but to listen to Yumi. However, before she left, she couldn't resist a little revenge on Jordan. She punched his crotch.

Jordan cried out in pain and wanted to curse. Park Sora was too lawless!

Park Sora was very smug. "Serves you right! Don't interfere with me and Jamie in the future! So what if I want to date him? I don't care if he's my brother or not!"

Yumi was a little taken aback. But she quickly recovered and pulled Park Sora away. They jumped out of the window.

After the two of them left, Jordan, who had pretended to be in pain, instantly resumed his normal expression.

He summoned Little Steele. "Little Steele, I'm very dizzy now. Think of a way to treat me."

Little Steele immediately examined Jordan's body. Jordan's dizziness gradually subsided.

"Phew..."

Jordan took a deep breath. He never expected Yumi to be able to subdue him like this.

Jordan said to Little Steele, "I just placed a mini listening device on Yumi. Tune in to it now."

"Yes!"

Jordan could immediately hear their conversation.

Actually, although Jordan did feel dizzy from Yumi earlier, he still had Little Steele as his backup. If he had summoned Little Steele, he could definitely subdue the two women.

Little Steele was a robot. Yumi's mental control was useless against it.

And with Park Sora's mediocre skills, it was even more impossible for her to be Little Steele's match.

Jordan deliberately let Yumi and Park Sora go because he couldn't get the information he wanted from them.

One of them was his sister-in-law, and the other was his younger sister. Jordan could not bear to do anything too cruel to his family.

Therefore, Jordan let them go and placed a listening device on them to monitor them.

This way, he would be able to follow the clues and find out more about their organization and who their leader was!

Afraid that they would not be able to escape successfully, Jordan even instructed the guards outside to go easy on them and let them escape safely.

Soon, Yumi escaped to the streets with Park Sora and got into a Porsche 911. While this car looked like a 911, it was actually a future car that could fly.

Yumi immediately activated the flight mode. The car sped through the air, and the two of them were finally safe.

"Phew..."

They both heaved a sigh of relief.

As they drove, Yumi asked, "Sora, why did you do something like that to Jordan before we left just now?"

Park Sora snorted. "He deserves it. He kept interfering in my relationship with Jamie. Moreover, he ordered someone to castrate Jamie. I was just giving him a taste of his own medicine!"

Yumi smiled and shook her head. "Dear sister, you're too willful. I think he did the right thing. Jamie is your half-brother. You really can't continue with him."

"Unless..."

“Unless what?”

Park Sora was very interested.

Yumi smiled. “Unless Jamie isn’t Rowan’s son.”

“Tsk.”

Park Sora waved her hand. She thought that Yumi had a good idea.

How could Jamie not be Rowan’s son? Which great family would help another person raise their son for free?

Yumi said, “Don’t be so sure. I’ve been the daughter-in-law of the Steele family for many years. I think Jamie doesn’t look like Rowan at all. Jamie is too reckless. He’s crazy, cynical and likes to stir up trouble. On the other hand, look at Jesse and Jordan. They’re both calm and steady types. Like Rowan, they are not so wild. Also, I’ve always felt that the Chief is quite concerned about Jamie.”

Park Sora was shocked to hear this. “Elder Sister Yumi, are you saying that Jamie might be our Chief’s son?”

“Shh, I didn’t say that. Lower your voice,” Yumi said fearfully.

Overhearing this, Jordan was speechless.

“What nonsense are these two women spouting? What do they mean by Jamie isn’t my father’s son? My father isn’t a fool. Why would he help another man raise his son for free? The rule of the Steele family is that after a child is born, he will definitely undergo a paternity test. Unless my father knows that Jamie isn’t his son but still helped to raise him. Otherwise, it’s impossible.”

In terms of personality, Jamie was indeed not like the rest of the family. However, Jamie did not believe that his father would be a fool for so many years.

This kind of thing was only possible in ordinary families.

A bad woman secretly cheated on her man and hid the truth. However, for a family with unlimited wealth like the Steeles, they would never pass down their assets to outsiders. Therefore, they always made sure of their descendants.

Jordan hoped that Yumi and Park Sora wouldn’t gossip so much and quickly talk about more useful topics!

At this moment, Yumi suddenly said, “Jordan didn’t die in the past. We have to report this to the Chief!”

The Chief!

Hearing this, Jordan became excited. He could finally hear the voice of this “Chief”?

Jordan had a feeling that this Chief was very likely the mysterious man who had saved Victoria!

Yumi called the Chief.

“Hello.”

Yumi was driving so she put her phone on speaker. As a result, Jordan could hear the chief’s voice.

The moment he heard his voice, Jordan felt his body tremble!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1060: Randall Is Not Dead!

The moment he heard this voice, Jordan felt a long-lost sense of familiarity, stimulating his entire body!

He had definitely heard this voice before, many, many times!

In the car.

Yumi reported, “Chief, I have something to report to you. Jordan isn’t dead. Sora and I saw him just now. He’s fine and not injured. However, Lauren doesn’t seem to be with him.”

The Chief on the other end of the line was very calm as if he was not surprised by this piece of news.

“Got it.”

Yumi asked, “Okay well, Chief, where should Sora and I go now?”

The Chief said, “Come to Mount Denali. Shaun has already led his troops to attack this place. Soon, he will find our secret. We will have a big battle with him.”

“Yes, Chief!”

The Chief continued, “Yes, don’t forget to change your clothes.”

After saying that, he hung up the phone.

After ending the call, Yumi started the automatic driving mode. Thereafter, she and Park Sora took off their clothes and threw them out of the car. If other men saw this erotic scene in the car, they would probably have a nosebleed.

They were doing this as they were worried that someone would place some high-tech and undetectable listening device on their clothes.

This organization was more cautious. Every time they came into contact with outsiders, they had to change their clothes before setting off for another location.

Otherwise, outsiders could easily follow them.

After Yumi and Park Sora changed their clothes, the signal on Jordan’s side cut off.

Even so, Jordan did not show any reaction.

He was completely stunned.

He had heard the voice of the Chief.

If this was his real voice, Jordan would cry tears of joy.

In fact, he had already done so.

“Uncle... it’s Uncle!”

Jordan couldn’t believe it. He was about to cry!

...

At 9 PM, in a luxurious house somewhere in North America.

Victoria and the mysterious man who had saved her were in a room there.

The decor of the room was very stylish. This particular area was relatively poor, so it was really surprising to see such a luxurious and stylish place here. The room was filled with a pleasant fragrance. All the furniture was spotless.

When she first arrived, Victoria even worried that her clothes and shoes would dirty the place. She washed them in the courtyard before entering.

Now, Victoria was barefooted as she stepped on the comfortable wooden floor. Wearing black silk, she walked slowly towards the mysterious man with elegance and sexiness.

Victoria couldn't tell the mysterious man's true age. His body was different from ordinary people. He could jump down from more than 10 stories with ease, so it wouldn't be surprising if he had undergone youth-enhancing procedures.

He looked to be in his 30s, not old at all, but he had the composure of a middle-aged man.

However, Victoria was a CEO and had met countless men. Although this man was handsome and did not look old, his real age was definitely above 40.

Victoria knew very well the difference between a 30-year-old man and a 40-year-old man. Their posture and the way they spoke were completely different.

After spending a few hours together, Victoria was certain that he was not young.

Victoria walked forward and asked, "Sir, thank you for saving me today. May I know your name?"

The mysterious man did not answer. Instead, he continued his task. He was preparing some flowers and a place to hang a photo.

"What are you doing?" Victoria asked again.

The mysterious man said, "Your husband is dead. I'm making an altar for him."

Victoria was both touched and sad. Tears welled up in her eyes. "Jordan is really dead?"

The mysterious man said, "I have known Shaun for decades and understand him very well. If he said that Jordan is dead, then Jordan is really dead. Shaun has always been careful with his words. If Jordan wasn't dead, he wouldn't dare to say such things, much less mess with Jordan's woman.

"Victoria, accept the truth. My condolences."

"How can this be..."

Victoria sobbed. She wanted to hug her head and cry. She wanted to cry here for a few hours.

However, seeing that the man who had saved her was here and paying his respects to her late husband, it didn't seem right for her to sit on the ground and cry.

Victoria had always been a woman with a strong heart. She could suppress her sadness for the time being.

Wiping her tears, Victoria said, "Thank you. Thank you for being willing to do this for my husband. Do you need a photo? I have his photos on my phone. What's your number? I'll send it to you. Then, you can help print it out."

It was a high-definition and artistic photo in black and white.

When Victoria saw it, she was shocked. She immediately snatched the photo over and asked, "Why do you have my husband's photo? I don't think I have this photo... Who are you?! What's your relationship with my husband?!"

Victoria realized that this man might know Jordan.

Victoria covered her mouth in surprise.

"What? You're Jordan's uncle? You're Uncle Randall?"

Victoria knew that Jordan had an uncle called Randall Steele. But she heard that he had been dead for many years. Only now did she know that Randall wasn't dead at all!

No wonder Victoria felt that this man looked a little similar to members of the Steele family when she saw him.

He exuded the aura of a noble upper-class man!

Randall looked at Victoria and nodded. "I'm sorry, Victoria. You're the wife of my beloved nephew, but I didn't let you know about me until today."

"Uncle!"

In her excitement, Victoria threw herself into Randall's arms and cried.

It turned out that the person who had sacrificed himself to save her was not an outsider, but her husband's uncle!

Unfortunately, Jordan was already dead. He couldn't see his uncle alive and well with his own eyes!

When Victoria thought of this, she became even sadder.

Randall patted Victoria's shoulder. "Child, don't be sad. Jordan has already left, but you're the daughter-in-law of our Steele family. In the future, I'll take care of you on his behalf. Don't worry, with me around, no one will dare to bully you."

"Uncle Randall..."

Victoria looked at Randall with tears in her eyes. Weighed down by the immense pain in her heart, she finally felt a sliver of comfort!

Chapter 1061: Randall's Secret!

Randall took back Jordan's photo and placed it in the frame. He then positioned the frame carefully on the altar.

Soon, a subordinate walked in with a black dress.

Randall took the dress and said to Victoria, "You should change into a black dress. You are his widow after all."

"Oh, alright. Thank you, Uncle."

Victoria accepted the dress and went to another room to change. She was originally worried that Randall wouldn't know her size and that the dress wouldn't be suitable. But the dress was tailor-made for her and fit perfectly.

In the black dress, Victoria exuded the aura of a noblewoman. Her hair was tied up in a bun, and her face filled with sorrow. She looked every part the elegant widow.

After that, Victoria joined Randall at the altar.

Soon, wave after wave of people entered.

This group of people all had imposing auras. It was obvious at a glance that they were not ordinary people.

Just from their gaze, one could tell that they were confident and extraordinary.

As outstanding as these people were, they were all Randall's subordinates and called him "Chief".

"We gather here today to pay our respects to Deity Jordan!"

“He was a great man.”

“He accomplished many spectacular feats.”

“But was also a loving family man.”

“Rest in peace.”

Victoria was still getting her bearings straight and Randall had already carried out Jordan’s funeral.

Although Victoria and Jordan were not officially married, she still fulfilled the role of a wife at her late husband’s funeral. With this funeral, Victoria was even more certain that Jordan was dead.

Victoria was extremely sad. She cried the entire night and even fainted.

The next morning, at 9 AM.

Victoria slowly opened her eyes. Her face was extremely haggard and her lips were dry.

Randall was sitting in front of her.

“You’re awake?”

Randall asked gently.

Victoria was puzzled to see Randall. “Uncle Randall... how... how did I get here?”

Randall said, “You were too sad last night and fainted from crying. I was the one who helped you to the bed. How are you now? Are you feeling better? Sigh, I know you love my nephew deeply, but you have to face reality soon.”

Victoria was sad again. “Without Jordan, I don’t know how to live the rest of my life. I don’t want to live anymore.”

Randall said, “You can’t think that way. Jordan wouldn’t want you to be like this. You should lead the rest of your life well and continue down the path that Jordan was meant to walk with you. Don’t worry, I will protect you.”

Fortunately, Randall was around. Otherwise, Victoria would definitely be so distressed that she would want to commit suicide.

Victoria paused for a moment and asked, “Uncle Randall, how did my husband get killed by Shaun? The last time he came to see me, he left with Lauren without even bidding me farewell. Where on earth did they go?”

“I was unconscious for a long time. I don’t know what happened recently. I don’t even know why Shaun looks like Rong Bailun. Also, Uncle Randall, aren’t you dead? Weren’t you killed by Shaun? Why have you appeared again?”

Faced with Victoria’s questions, Randall smiled and said softly, “If you want me to answer all your questions, you have to drink this soup first. You haven’t eaten since noon yesterday. You cried the entire night and exhausted so much stamina and energy. If you don’t eat now, your body won’t be able to take it.”

Randall brought Victoria a bowl of chicken soup.

Victoria sat up, feeling a little embarrassed. “Thank you, Uncle.

“Ah, it’s so hot.”

Victoria took a sip and realized that the soup was still very hot.

Randall picked up a spoonful of soup and blew on it to cool it. “Let me help you.”

Victoria was embarrassed. “No, no. I can do it myself. I heard from the people yesterday that you’re their Chief. You seem to have a high status.”

Victoria was very curious about Randall’s current identity.

Randall was a member of the Steele family. Victoria had never heard Jordan mention that the Steele family had a chief.

Randall could tell that Victoria was curious about him. He smiled and said, “Don’t worry. After you finish this bowl of soup, I’ll answer all your questions. Come, open your mouth.”

Randall personally fed Victoria spoonful by spoonful. Although Victoria was embarrassed, her body was indeed weak now. Secondly, she felt a strong domineering aura from Randall.

She didn’t dare to oppose him!

She had never felt such dominance from anyone else.

When Randall didn’t smile, he gave off the feeling that he was the overlord of the world.

Victoria also noticed his subordinates’ respectful gazes yesterday. It left a deep impression on her.

After a while, Victoria finally finished the soup.

Putting down the bowl, Randall then stood up as well. He started to tell Victoria all the answers.

Randall said, "Let me tell you first what Shaun and Jordan have been doing recently. Shaun previously used Lauren to force Jordan to develop a mind-transplant procedure. Shaun then successfully switched minds with Rong Bailun. Unfortunately, he didn't know that there was an even more senior Rong in the family, Rong Huangde, who is Rong Bailun's father.

"Not only did Rong Huangde manage to control Shaun, but he also invented a machine to travel into the past. He has always wanted to know the origin of the Handley family's spells, so he returned to the past with Jordan to explore this secret. They returned to 1978. I don't know what happened there, but I know that Shaun planned to work with his father and uncle to kill Rong Huangde and Jordan. This way, after he returns safely, he will be the master of the world and no longer have any opponents.

"I've known Shaun for more than 20 years and I know that he has always been cautious, a hypocrite and very good at hiding himself. He usually doesn't make a move easily. Once he does, he must have been 100% confident of it. So, when he told you that he killed Jordan, he must have succeeded."

Victoria was very shocked to hear this. Jordan had died in the past?

She had originally wanted to find Jordan's corpse.

Victoria sighed. "Fate is really unfair! Why did a terrible person like Shaun succeed while my husband failed? Poor Lauren. She just got pregnant with my husband's child..."

Victoria was feeling very sad for Lauren and didn't know how to inform the Howard family of this.

Victoria kept silent for a moment before asking, "Uncle Randall, why did you fake your death back then? What have you been doing all these years? How did you become the Chief?"

Chapter 1062: Mutant Tribe!

Randall looked at Victoria seriously and said, "Victoria, what I'm about to tell you is a world-class secret. It's an answer that countless people have spent countless lives wanting to know. I treat you as one of my own so I can tell you. But you must remember not to tell anyone. Otherwise, you might be killed!”

Hearing this, Victoria also became nervous. “Yes, I won’t tell anyone.”

Randall nodded. “Back then, Shaun and his wife knew that I was from the secret Steele family, so they deliberately got close to me. At that time, they wanted to control a secret family from behind the scenes. They were American so they naturally thought of the Steele family first.

“Of course I didn’t let him do that. Besides, he knows very well that my father is not an ordinary person. He can’t control him easily. But I admired Shaun’s spell abilities very much and wanted to figure out how he obtained them, so I pretended to be friends with him. After that, he found his next target. It was the Schmid family. He asked me to contact them on his behalf.

“Speaking of which, I’m really sorry about Tom Schmid and his wife. At that time, it was indeed because of me that Shaun and his wife successfully got to know them and then controlled them for more than a decade. If not for Jordan’s appearance, I’m afraid the Schmid family would still be under the control of Shaun and his wife.”

Victoria listened carefully. She had heard a little about this matter.

It was Jordan who had unraveled the secret of the Schmid family being controlled, while he was trying to save Lota. He ended up provoking Shaun.

Randall continued, “I helped Shaun then, but when he saw that I was useless, he wanted to kill me. Shaun didn’t do it himself. Instead, he asked his wife to do it. Perhaps in his view, as I don’t have any special abilities, his wife alone was more than enough to settle me.

“That night, I almost died at his wife’s hands. Clara thought that she had successfully killed me, but she didn’t know that I had been guarding against her and Shaun. I had a friend secretly watching over me at all times. That night, after Clara left, my friend immediately appeared and saved me.

“Ever since then, I’ve pretended to be dead and disappeared from the world. I wandered around, preparing to find a random woman in the countryside to live an ordinary life and be a person with no worries...”

Victoria also knew that Randall had been in a very intense “power struggle” with his brother, Rowan, who was also Jordan’s father. Jordan also said before that his uncle was a very ambitious person.

She guessed that after Randall almost died at Shaun’s hands, he had an epiphany and stopped pursuing fame and fortune.

Actually, in Victoria's opinion, with Randall's impressive capabilities, his outstanding family background and handsome face, it would be a pity for him to marry an ordinary country girl.

Randall continued. "But somehow, I ended up at Mount Denali after traveling to the north region, and ended up discovering a shocking secret! There's an immortal lake in Mount Denali. It's really not an exaggeration to call it an immortal lake. It really seems to have immortal techniques that can give ordinary people extraordinary abilities! Shaun's father and uncle obtained their spell abilities by bathing in this immortal lake!"

Victoria looked a little incredulous after hearing this. Could there really be immortal techniques in this world?

However, judging from Shaun's abilities, their Handley family's spells were not immortal techniques. Immortal techniques were probably more powerful and profound. The Handleys just had some special abilities.

Victoria asked curiously, "Can everyone obtain superpowers after bathing in the immortal lake?"

Randall shook his head. "No, the lake will determine if the person is qualified to obtain superpowers. If so, it will give the person a special ability exclusive only to him. If not, it will devour the person alive."

Victoria covered her mouth. "If one enters this lake, they will either obtain superpowers or die?"

Randall nodded. "Yes, either become extraordinary or end up dead. However, with the help of my powerful team, we can save the person before the lake swallows them. You don't have to worry about that."

Victoria was stunned. "Me... worried? Uncle Randall, I... I didn't mean that."

Randall smiled. "Victoria, you don't have to hide your desire. Anyone who knows such a magical place will want to try and see if they have the luck to obtain superhuman abilities. I'm the Chief of the Mutant Tribe. That immortal lake is completely under my control. You're my nephew's wife, so of course I have to give you this opportunity."

Victoria was very grateful. She knew that such an opportunity was something that countless people fought for. It was something that countless rich people in the world were willing to pay for even if they had to sacrifice all their assets.

"Mutant Tribe? Chief?"

Randall smiled and said, "Yes, I call the people who obtained extraordinary abilities after being recognized by the lake as mutants. They are all extraordinary. I've established and expanded the Mutant Tribe. My goal is to let the Mutated Tribe rule the world. We should be the most noble people in the world. Those who have not received the approval of the immortal lake are mere mortals. Ordinary people are not worthy to lead this world!”

Victoria finally understood why she felt that Randall had a domineering aura that she had never experienced before.

So, Randall wanted to rule the world!

Moreover, he had the ability to do so now!

Since she was a young girl, Victoria had always admired capable men. Now, she admired Randall even more.

Victoria asked, “Uncle Randall, are you also a mutant? Do you have superpowers too?”

Randall smiled. “Of course. If I were an ordinary person, how could I have jumped down more than 10 stories with you and still be safe and sound?”

Victoria said, “I thought you were injected with my husband’s Mirakuru serum.”

Randall laughed. “Haha, I don’t need that.”

After knowing that Randall also had superpowers and was the Chief of the Mutant Tribe, Victoria became even more respectful of him.

Victoria asked, “Are your subordinates all mutants with superpowers?”

Randall nodded. “Yes, they all have extraordinary abilities. They’re all upper-class people chosen by the heavens. Other than those from yesterday, there’s another person you should know. She also awakened her superpower at the immortal lake. She’s your ex-sister-in-law, and Jesse’s ex-wife, Yumi.”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1063: Immortal Lake Barrier!

“Jordan’s sister-in-law is also a mutant? What superpowers does she have?”

In Victoria’s impression, Jordan’s sister-in-law, Yumi, had always been a gentle and virtuous woman who looked weak and delicate. She didn’t expect her to be a mutant with extraordinary abilities.

Randall told Victoria everything he knew and didn't hide anything. He smiled. "Her ability is rather special. She can make people dizzy by kissing them. Whenever she kisses someone, she can easily confuse the other party's brain and make them faint. Of course, it's only limited to the opposite sex."

Victoria couldn't believe that there was such a strange ability.

Randall smiled again. "Yumi doesn't look like the sexy vixen type. I'm considering letting her undergo some plastic surgery. I think her ability is more suited to you. You're a sultry woman. Any man will have indecent thoughts when he sees you. It's easier to lure the enemy in."

Victoria said in embarrassment, "Uncle Randall, you flatter me. I... I'm just a very ordinary woman."

As an ordinary mortal, Victoria naturally wanted to have superpowers, but she didn't want that kind of ability. To make use of her ability, she would have to kiss many men.

Victoria was not a casual woman. She had high requirements for her partners, and would not kiss just anyone.

If anything, she felt that this ability was more suitable for Hailey. That woman would do anything to get what she wanted. She had no moral limitations.

If Yumi already had such powerful abilities, Victoria knew that the others under Randall would also be extraordinary.

And Randall's strength was probably even more unfathomable!

Hence, Victoria knelt down in front of him.

When Randall saw this, he was shocked and hurriedly said, "Victoria, what are you doing? Get up quickly."

Victoria said with tears in her eyes, "Chief, you control the most powerful mutant tribe in the world. You're the only one who can fight against Shaun now! I beg you, please kill Shaun and avenge me and my husband! Shaun, that b*stard, killed my husband, Lauren and her child. He even raped me. As long as Shaun doesn't die, I won't feel content!"

Randall reached out to help Victoria up. "Alright, Victoria, I promise you that I will definitely help you seek revenge and kill Shaun! Shaun and the Rong family are our greatest enemies. This time, I can get rid of them all at once! By then, this world will belong to the mutant tribe! Victoria, if you don't have anywhere to go, you can stay by my side and rule the world with me!"

Victoria stared at him in shock. “Huh? Rule the world with you?”

Victoria was both excited and confused, not understanding what Randall meant.

Randall held Victoria’s slender hand and said, “Victoria, you’re not an ordinary woman. You used to be the woman of a Deity. There aren’t many men in the world who are worthy of you. You’ve married a Deity before, so you’re destined to never choose an ordinary man. I’ve said it before. I’m willing to take care of you on behalf of Jordan. If you’re willing, I want you to be my woman and let you enjoy the highest rights and best treatment in the world.

“Jordan will be happy for you when he finds out that you’re doing so well.”

Victoria was completely stunned. She felt her entire body heat up. When she looked at Randall, her gaze was actually filled with love. She felt that she really shouldn’t develop such feelings for another man during such a sad and painful situation.

Just as Victoria was hesitating, Randall slowly approached her and kissed her.

Victoria was stunned for a few seconds. Her body seemed to be unable to resist. However, she forced herself to regain her rationality and pushed Randall away.

“Uncle... I’m sorry. I’m just an ordinary woman. You’re the Chief of the mutant race and will rule the world in the future. How am I worthy of you?”

Randall smiled and said, “If Jordan was still alive, he would also be the man who will rule the world. If you’re worthy of him, why aren’t you worthy of me? Besides, I don’t think you’re an ordinary woman. I have a feeling that you’ll be a member of our mutant race!”

Victoria was instantly excited. “Really? You’re saying that I can also awaken my superpowers?”

Randall nodded. “Yes. Over the years, I’ve seen many people succeed and many people fail. In my experience, you will definitely be recognized by the Immortal Lake. Now, the Immortal Lake is firmly under my control. Shaun has sent his men to attack it. But don’t worry, he won’t be able to enter. After we finish him off, I’ll bring you to the Immortal Lake.”

Victoria nodded gratefully. “Yes, thank you, Uncle!”

Meanwhile, Shaun had already led the Rong family elite troops to the vicinity of Mount Denali.

Lee Su-ji reported. "Master, there are guards ahead."

Shaun looked at the thermal map and realized that there weren't many guards. Their military strength was average.

Shaun thought for a moment. "Although this place belongs to the US, I guess the country doesn't know about the existence of the Immortal Lake yet. Otherwise, they wouldn't have so few guards. Let's keep it quiet so we don't alert the others. Send assassins to finish them off and replace them with our men."

"Yes!"

After settling the matter, Shaun continued forward and arrived at the Immortal Lake, also known as Wonder Lake.

However, Shaun's plane was blocked before it could reach the lake.

"What's going on? Why have we stopped? Continue flying forward. We haven't reached the Immortal Lake yet!" Shaun shouted.

Lee Su-ji said, "Master, there seems to be an invisible barrier ahead. Our plane can't fly through!"

"Oh?"

"Land."

After the plane landed, Shaun alighted and tried to walk into the Immortal Lake. However, when he reached a certain point, although there was clearly no physical obstruction in front of him, he just couldn't cross it!

"Strange, what's going on? Get a military expert to study this immediately!"

Soon, military and scientific experts from the Rong family immediately started probing the area.

Half an hour later, a scientific expert reported. "Sir, a very mysterious barrier has been set up around the lake. We tried to use drones, animals and microchips, but we couldn't penetrate it. At our current level, we can't understand the structure and technology of this barrier!"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1064: Shaun Wants To Marry Lota!

“A barrier?”

Shaun was in disbelief. Who had set up this barrier?

Who had the ability to set up such a barrier?

One had to know that the Rong family represented the world’s top technological power. But even the researchers from the Rong family couldn’t figure this out. They had never seen such technology before!

Standing at the side, Lee Su-ji was also amazed.

They all thought that the Rong family was already the most powerful in the world. Now, they realized that the world was wide and there would always be someone out there who was better!

Shaun was very unhappy. He instructed Lee Su-ji. “Blast it open with your weapons! I don’t believe this barrier can withstand cannons and rockets!”

“Yes!”

Lee Su-ji immediately ordered the subordinates to use laser cannons to attack the barrier.

Bang!

A powerful laser cannon shot over.

However, the laser cannon did not cause any damage to the barrier.

“Use missiles!” Shaun roared.

Lee Su-ji ordered the subordinates to launch missiles. After the missiles hit, there was a huge sonic boom.

Even then the barrier remained fine. Instead, the people and things in the surrounding suffered a huge backlash.

One of the Rong family planes fell apart!

“Damn it! This barrier is so difficult to deal with!”

Shaun couldn’t help feeling a little troubled. He grabbed the scientific expert and asked, “How long will it take to find a way to break through the barrier?”

The expert was very nervous and uncertain. "It's hard to say. Just researching what it is might take a year or two. Perhaps 10 years, or even longer. It would have been easier with Deity Jordan's help. Three years or even just a few months."

Shaun sighed and thought to himself: 'Damn it. If I had known this would happen, I wouldn't have killed Jordan so fast. This barrier doesn't look like advanced technology. If it's technology, it can't be so many years ahead of the Rong family. It might be an immortal technique!'

At this thought, Shaun suddenly thought of someone. Uehara Yumi!

'Could it be that woman, Uehara Yumi? Decades ago, Uehara Yumi had been investigating the origin of the Handley family's spells. Although she was chased away by Jordan in 1978, she couldn't have given up on digging into the secrets of our family. She was the first to explore the secrets of the Immortal Lake, even earlier than Rong Huangde. Perhaps she already discovered this Immortal Lake and was the one who created the current barrier!'

After some analysis, Shaun believed that it was definitely Uehara Yumi who put up this barrier. From what he knew, Uehara Yumi had very powerful spell abilities. With the help of the Immortal Lake, it was not impossible for her to create such a powerful barrier.

'Sigh, my father and uncle were indeed just small-town folks. They don't have the ability to see the big picture. After knowing about a place like this Immortal Lake, why did they return to their small town to hide? You were the first to discover it. You should occupy this place. If our Handley family had occupied this place first, Uehara Yumi wouldn't have gotten the chance!'

After confirming that it was Uehara Yumi, Shaun immediately ordered Lee Su-ji, "Su-ji, pass down my orders. Search the entire world for Uehara Yumi and her daughter Yumi Kaner. Also, interrogate Jesse and ask him if he has any contact with Yumi Kaner."

Now, the only way to break through the barrier was to find Uehara Yumi or Yumi Kaner.

Lee Su-ji quickly passed down the order.

Lee Su-ji said, "Master, what are your plans next? Do you want to wait here for news?"

Shaun shook his head. Whether it was Uehara Yumi or her daughter, it would probably take a long time to find them.

"Let our family's researchers study here and see how to break through this barrier. As for me, hehe, I don't have anything special to do now anyway. I might as well go to Switzerland and get married!"

“Married?” Lee Su-ji was taken aback.

Shaun smiled. “My dear Lota, my heart has been itching for her for a long time. Fortunately, due to my wrong teachings, nothing physical happened between her and Jordan. Hahaha, what’s mine is still mine. I’ll go to Switzerland to marry Lota and wait for your good news there!

“I’m going now!”

Shaun immediately took a plane and left Mount Denali. He assigned many people to remain and guard this place.

At this point in time, Lauren called Jordan. She had been using Sakura to spy on Shaun’s situation.

“Lauren, how’s it going on your side? Shaun should have reached Mr. Jordan already, right?” Jordan asked.

“Yes, Shaun arrived at Immortal Lake, but he didn’t go in. There seems to be some kind of barrier around the lake that no one can breach. He tried to bombard it with cannons and missiles, but it didn’t work. Just now, Shaun ordered his people to search the entire world for Uehara Yumi and Yumi. This barrier might have been set up by Uehara Yumi! I didn’t expect her to know the Handley family’s secret and control this place.”

Hearing this, Jordan said, “No, it’s not Uehara Yumi. It’s my uncle, Randall.”

Lauren was shocked. “What? Your uncle?”

Jordan said, “Yes, I saw Yumi just now. It seems that she’s my uncle’s subordinate now. Even Park Sora has joined him. Also, my uncle was the mysterious man who saved Victoria in the capital. I’m guessing that my uncle has established a huge faction, so he should be the one controlling this Immortal Lake.”

When Lauren heard this, she heaved a sigh of relief for Jordan. “Oh my god, so Uncle isn’t dead. That’s great! So Uncle saved Victoria. Hubby, you can rest easy now. Did you try to contact Victoria and your uncle?”

Jordan said, “Victoria doesn’t have her phone with her. I already sent her a message. As for my uncle, I really don’t know how to contact him.”

Lauren paused for a moment and suddenly said, “Oh yes, don’t worry about anything else for now. Go to Switzerland to save Lota first! Shaun just said that he’s going to Switzerland to marry Lota. He’s already set off!”

“What?”

Jordan became very anxious when he heard that. His heart naturally ached for Lota.

“That dog is still lusting after Lota! Lauren, continue to stay in Mount Denali and observe the situation there. If the barrier is opened, don’t enter first. Tell me the situation first and I’ll give you a prediction before making a decision. I’ll go to Switzerland to save Lota now. After that, I’ll meet you at Mount Denali!”

Jordan already let Shaun hurt Victoria. He would never let Shaun hurt another woman who loved him!

Chapter 1065: Marriage Proposal!

The problem at Immortal Lake was not something that could be resolved in a short period of time. It was no surprise that Shaun wanted to find Uehara Yumi or Yumi Kaner first before entering the barrier.

Before that, the new “Lord of the World” would naturally continue to enjoy his noble status.

Lota was the woman whom Shaun had lusted after for more than 10 years. After grooming her for so long, he planned to wait for her to become an adult before having her.

He never expected Jordan to ruin his plans.

Now that Jordan was dead, no one in the world could stop him from getting Lota.

Shaun flew to Switzerland with the Rong family subordinates. Mid-way, he made a pitstop to buy some gifts. After all, Lota’s parents were still alive. He had to buy some gifts for his future parents-in-law as a sign of respect.

When they reached the castle, Shaun looked at the place where he had lived for more than 10 years and couldn’t help feeling emotional.

‘When I was forced to leave this place, I thought it would be the beginning of a wretched, lonely life. I didn’t expect Jordan to indirectly aid in achieving what I have today!’

With a happy smile, Shaun brought Lee Su-ji and the servants to the castle’s VIP hall.

When Tom Schmid heard about the Rong family's visit, he was extremely excited and dressed up to welcome them.

"Chairman Rong, long time no see. Welcome."

Tom still didn't know that Shaun and Rong Bailun had swapped minds. He thought that the person in front of him was Rong Bailun. In addition, after learning that Rong Huangde had faked his death, this made the Rong family even more unfathomable to the rest. The Rong family was still the leader of all the secret families. Tom respected the Rongs very much.

Shaun shook hands with Tom and smiled. "Tom, long time no see. You look well, haha."

No one knew Tom's body better than Shaun. Over the past decade or so, Shaun had controlled the Schmid couple.

Now, Shaun behaved in a friendly manner toward Tom, unlike in the past when he was more domineering and forceful. In the past, Shaun had no choice but to use coercion. But now that he was truly powerful, there was no need to use threats or force.

With the power of the Rong family, Tom did not dare to disobey Shaun.

Tom asked Shaun to sit down and asked, "Chairman Rong, what would you like to drink?"

Shaun didn't stand on ceremony. "Your most premium tea. There's a 100-acre tea garden in the north of the castle. The tea here is not inferior to anywhere else."

Tom laughed out loud. "Chairman Rong is indeed an expert. You even know that we have tea here. Someone, brew a pot of our top-grade tea for Chairman Rong immediately."

Shaun smiled. Of course he knew. After all, he had planted the tea garden himself. It would be strange if he didn't know.

"Where's Lota?"

Tom replied, "Oh, she should be in the technology laboratory. I've already asked her to come."

Shaun nodded.

When Tom saw that Shaun had brought a few large elaborately-wrapped boxes, he couldn't help asking, "Chairman Rong, why the sudden visit today?"

Shaun smiled. "I'm here to propose marriage."

“Su-ji, present the gifts.”

“Yes!”

Su-ji opened all the large boxes, but they were not filled with gold or precious stones. They were all secret families and were as rich as a country. It would be too vulgar to give such things.

Shaun’s gifts were all technology-related. There were AI robots, clothes with healing functions, and some new weapons.

“There are also two very exquisite flying cars. I’ve parked them outside.”

When Tom saw this, he was also surprised. He knew very well that the Rong family’s technological strength far exceeded that of the Schmid family.

The Schmid family only had some achievements in the quantum invisibility cloak technology, but the Rong family had developed extensively in all aspects. They were very powerful in all areas, including the quantum invisibility cloak technology that the Schmid family was good at.

Tom said, “Marriage? Actually, I do hope to see Lota and Bingshao get married. In the entire world, only your son is compatible with our Lota. Unfortunately, I heard that Bingshao was killed by Deity Jordan. Is he not dead?”

Shaun said, “Sigh, Bingshao is dead. That b*stard Jordan killed my beloved son, the only descendant of our family! He’s simply lawless!”

Jordan was the savior of the Schmid family. Tom did not dare to say anything bad about him.

Tom said, “Since Bingshao is dead, who are you proposing marriage for? Do you have an illegitimate son?”

Shaun smiled. “Tom, you’ve misunderstood. I’m not proposing on behalf of anyone. I’m proposing marriage for myself! I want to marry your daughter, Lota!”

“What?”

Tom was stunned!

Rong Bailun and Tom were from the same generation. Actually, Rong Bailun was even older than Tom. Rong Bailun was already so old, yet he wanted to marry Tom’s daughter?

Shaun patted Tom's shoulder kindly and said, "Tom, your family has been in a nightmare-like predicament for more than a decade. Don't worry, when we become in-laws, no one will dare to bully you again!"

Tom naturally wanted to become in-laws with the Rong family, but...

Tom was in a dilemma. "Chairman Rong, there's a huge age gap between you and Lota. Moreover, she has always preferred young men. I'm afraid she won't agree."

Shaun said, "How can that be? Lota is now the head of the Schmid family. For the sake of the family's interests, even if she's unwilling, she should agree to be my woman. Tom, as her father, you just have to persuade her..."

At this moment, a beautiful girl with a proud figure walked in.

It was Lota!

Because it was her own house, Lota did not deliberately dress up. If she went out, she would deliberately dress more maturely. After all, she was now the head of the Schmid family, so she had to appear more mature.

However, she was actually a little girl who had just reached adulthood. She was not that mature. As such, her home outfits were very girly.

When Lota saw Shaun, she grew very angry. "Shaun, I won't agree to marry you. Stop dreaming!"

Shaun and Tom were shocked.

"She actually knows my identity..."

Shaun was surprised.

Lota and Jordan were very close. Before Jordan traveled back in time, he had already told her this secret.

However, Lota had yet to tell her parents.

Tom asked curiously, "Lota, who are you calling Shaun?"

Lota pointed at Shaun and said, "Dad, he's Shaun. He switched minds with Rong Bailun. He's the demon who imprisoned our family for more than 10 years!"

Chapter 1066: Lota Is Controlled!

Tom was shocked. The person he hated and feared the most in his life was Shaun! Now that Shaun's identity had been exposed and given the bad blood between them, Tom would definitely not be nice to him.

Therefore, he decided to strike first!

Almost immediately, he shot Lee Su-ji a look and she ordered their men to attack.

Inside and outside the castle, their men acted almost at the same time. Although the Schmid family had the home advantage, their weapons and combat abilities were still far inferior to the Rong family.

Before long, the entire castle was under Shaun's control.

Tom and Lota were also being restrained by Shaun's men.

"Let go of me! Shaun, you b*stard. You've already tortured us for more than 10 years. What else do you want to do to us?!" Lota said angrily.

Shaun walked forward and stroked her flawless face. He smiled. "Baby, although I've controlled your family for more than 10 years, I didn't kill any of you. Moreover, I raised you until you were fair and lovely. You look like a fairy."

Lota said, "You raised me so well because you wanted to have me! It's not that you have good intentions!"

Shaun smiled. "That's right. I admit that I have my selfish motives. Lota, you should thank me for raising you and having such strict requirements over the years. If I didn't let you maintain such a perfect figure and have such a flawless face, do you think Jordan would like you?"

Lota was known as the Swiss Holy Maiden. She looked like a woman who did not belong to the human world. Even a Deity like Jordan couldn't resist having feelings for her.

Although Lota knew that her looks and figure were indeed very good, she refused to thank Shaun.

Lota said, "Jordan has always doted on me. There was a time when he even promised to marry me. You better not mess around. Jordan is a Deity and he won't let you off!"

Shaun laughed out loud. "Baby, you know me for so many years, but you still don't understand me well enough. If Jordan was still alive, do you think I would dare to come looking for trouble with you?"

Lota was thunderstruck. She asked in disbelief, "What did you say? Jordan... is dead? Impossible! You're lying! Jordan is a Deity. He can't be dead!"

Shaun snorted. "So what if he's a Deity? Yes, I killed a Deity! I'm the master of the world! Not only did I kill Jordan, but I also killed Rong Huangde. Now, the entire world is under my control! Lota, I advise you to give up on Jordan! Be my wife obediently. I've raised you for so many years. Don't worry, I'll let you live a life that all the women in the world would envy!"

Lota was furious. "I don't want that! You murderer, why aren't you the one who died?! Why did you kill Jordan?! He helped you so much!"

Shaun smiled. "Jordan, that beast, ruined my plans. If not for him, I would have gotten you long ago! I thought you were already his woman. It's all thanks to my special education. Haha, Lota, I'm really surprised that you are still a virgin! I'll invite the other secret families to attend our wedding. Lota, you will be my bride and enjoy many nights with me!

"Su-ji, change Lota into a bridal outfit and bring her to the special room in the west corner. Send people to guard it closely. Don't let her slip out."

"Yes!"

Lota kept struggling, but she was a weak woman and could not escape from Shaun's subordinates.

Tom's heart ached as he watched from the side.

Shaun smiled. "Tom, we've known each other for so many years and are old friends. Don't worry, I won't kill you or occupy the Schmid family like in the past. Now that I have the entire world, I don't need to control your family anymore. Just obediently be my father-in-law. Isn't that good?"

Tom had been controlled by Shaun for more than a decade in the past, and he no longer had any fighting spirit in his heart.

Now, Tom didn't even shed any tears. By pure habit, he humbly lowered his head. "Perhaps this is Lota's fate."

Shaun laughed. "Hahahaha, yes, just accept your fate! Hahaha."

Meanwhile, Lee Su-ji brought Lota to the special aphrodisiacal room and personally dressed her in a wedding dress.

Shaun knew Lota's body very well. The wedding dress he chose for her accentuated her figure.

“Let go of me. I’m not wearing this wedding dress!”

Lota kept struggling, wanting to tear the wedding dress apart.

Smack!

Unexpectedly, Lee Su-ji slapped Lota.

Lota fell silent and looked at Lee Su-ji in a daze.

Lee Su-ji said, “Lota, stop throwing a childish tantrum! You’re the head of the Schmid family! If you continue to resist and anger Shaun, do you know how many people in your family will die with you?! Your parents will be among them! Your parents have been tortured and controlled by Shaun for the past 10 years. Now that they finally enjoyed a year of peace, do you want them to go back to suffering?!”

Tears welled up in Lota’s eyes.

She could tell that Lee Su-ji was not a terrible woman.

Lota looked at Lee Su-ji. “Su-ji, weren’t you very loyal to the Rong family previously? Why are you willing to work for a despicable person like Shaun?”

Lee Su-ji said, “What should I do then? Should I die to express my loyalty to the Rong family?”

Lota looked down. “No, I didn’t mean that.”

Sighing, Lee Su-ji placed her hands gently on Lota’s shoulders. “Lota, I’ve also thought about dying. I also thought about dying rather than submitting to Shaun. But Shaun raped me. After that humiliation, I swore that I wouldn’t die just like that! I want to stay by his side and work for him. I want to do everything I can to please him and gain his trust.

“And then...”

A murderous glint appeared in Lee Su-ji’s eyes.

Lota said, “And find a chance to kill him?”

Lee Su-ji quickly retracted the killing intent in her eyes and regained her composure. “Anyway, I don’t want you to continue doing these useless things, much less commit suicide. Suicide is the most useless act. Lota, accept reality. The reality is that Jordan lost and Shaun won. He has the final say in this world. If you want to avenge Jordan, you should make yourself stronger!

“That’s all I can say. I’m leaving now.”

Chapter 1067: Lota Finally Got Her Wish!

After Lee Su-ji left, Lota thought for a long time.

Yes, now that things had come to this, what was the use of struggling? If she angered Shaun, he might really kill everyone in her family.

If that happened, the Schmid family empire, that Lota had painstakingly rebuilt, would be destroyed by Shaun again.

“I want to avenge Jordan! I can’t let him die in vain! I will never commit suicide. I must see Shaun die before I do!”

Lota clenched her fists in determination.

But in the next instant, the scent in the aphrodisiacal room softened Lota’s will.

Lota looked at the decor in the room. It was exactly the same as when she and Jordan were here. She also wanted to be like Lee Su-ji and endure impending humiliation by Shaun, while waiting for an opportunity to assassinate him.

However, Lota and Lee Su-ji’s situations were different. After all, Lee Su-ji had already given her first time to the person she loved.

But Lota hadn’t.

“Jordan, you died too early. If I had known that you would die so early, on the plane back to the US, I would have... sigh.”

Lota kept sighing.

What she didn’t know was that Jordan had already arrived in Switzerland, and was outside her castle. Jordan checked the situation inside and outside the castle using a drone.

“It looks like Shaun has already taken over the Schmid family. Lota has also been locked up.”

It was already midnight. But according to Jordan's observation, Shaun had no intention of sleeping at all. He was in an important discussion with Lee Su-ji the entire time. Moreover, he didn't seem to be in a hurry to seek out Lota.

Perhaps he believed that since Jordan was dead, no one could save her anymore.

Therefore, Jordan found an opportunity to sneak into the castle.

The castle was filled with the subordinates of the Rong family, so Jordan had to be very careful and not barge in carelessly. Otherwise, if Shaun was alerted to his presence, not only would he not be able to save Lota, but he might also die here.

With Jordan's ability, it was easy for him to escape the eyes of these guards. But the two guards standing right in front of the door were the most troublesome.

Jordan shot two stun needles into their necks, causing them to faint. He then pushed the door open and entered.

Lota was lying on the bed when she was startled by the sound of the door being pushed open. She trembled in fear.

She thought it was Shaun.

With tears in her eyes, Lota sat up without looking at the door. She took out a box of medicine and said,

"Shaun, I know I cannot escape your clutches. I accept my fate. However, I hope you will allow me to take a sleeping pill and fall asleep. Then, you can do whatever you want to me. My heart will always belong to Jordan!"

When Jordan heard this, he sighed with feeling. He had always reserved his love for Lauren and Victoria and didn't give much care to Lota.

Even so, Lota loved him as much as anyone else.

As Lota spoke, she started to stuff the medicine into her mouth.

Jordan walked over and stopped her.

Lota was furious. "Why do you have to..."

Just as she turned around, she suddenly saw that the person in front of her was not Shaun, but Jordan!

"Jordan!"

Lota jumped up in shock and threw herself into Jordan's arms! She was so excited that she cried. "Shaun said that you're dead. I thought you were really dead. Sobs... I knew the man I love wouldn't be killed so easily."

Jordan said to Lota, "Shh, lower your voice. I'm not dead, but I can't fight Shaun head-on yet. Don't worry, Lota. With me around, I won't let anyone bully you."

Lota kept nodding. Although tears were streaming down her face, she was beaming.

Jordan held her hand and said, "Let's go. I'll take you out of here."

But Lota stood rooted to the ground.

Jordan was surprised. "What's wrong?"

Lota looked at him affectionately and said, "Jordan, I don't want to leave."

This was Shaun's special room. Anyone who stayed here for a long time would develop amorous feelings. Lota's face was already as red as a peach blossom. Seeing the man she loved so much, she could barely move her legs.

Lota said, "Jordan, I want to be your woman officially. If you don't agree, I won't leave."

Jordan felt very awkward. "Lota, stop fooling around. Your life is the most important. Come with me quickly. When Shaun comes later, you won't be able to leave even if you want to."

However, Lota was very insistent. "Shaun has gathered the other secret families to attend our wedding. Su-ji said that he will only come to find me tomorrow morning. Moreover, Shaun never planned to kill me. He wants me to be his. But the only man I love is you, Jordan. What happened last time... is my lifelong regret. If I can't be your woman, I won't be happy for the rest of my life."

Jordan was in a dilemma. He did not expect such a thing to happen.

Actually, Jordan and Lota had already gone beyond just being friends. The last time Jordan brought Lota to the US, he had every intention to officially marry her. Lota had almost lost her life for Jordan.

However, Victoria objected to it. That was why Lota was sent home.

If Victoria had agreed, like Lauren did, Lota would have already been Jordan's wife.

Lota asked, "Are you worried that Victoria will be unhappy if she finds out?"

Jordan shook his head. "Lota, actually, Victoria and I might have to part ways."

Lota was shocked. "What? Really?"

Jordan nodded. "Yes, it might be better if Victoria and I are only friends in the future."

When Lota heard this, she was very happy. Victoria was the only one who objected. Lauren had agreed and was willing to accept her!

Lota jumped up happily. "Jordan, I won't hold back then!"

With that, she took the initiative to kiss him.

...

An hour later.

Lota finally got what she wanted and officially became Jordan's woman.

Jordan did not expect the "Swiss Holy Maiden", with her flawless face and perfect figure, to be so easily satisfied. For a man like Jordan, if stripped of his extraordinary status and abilities, most ordinary women might not even be attracted to him, thinking him to be just an average guy.

But Jordan was able to make the most perfect woman in the world feel that her life had not been in vain.

"Jordan, I feel that I can die without regrets now!"

Lota held Jordan's arm happily.

Jordan didn't know if he should feel proud or not. He felt that as a man, he had to be accountable to his women.

Especially Lauren.

"Lota, for the time being, let's not tell Lauren about today, okay?"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 1068: Who Is It?!

Lota nodded happily. "Okay, Jordan!"

Jordan looked at Lota's obedient manner. He liked it very much.

Who wouldn't like an innocent girl who had just become an adult and was willing to give everything to you?

The more romantic relationships a woman experienced, the less she would be willing to sacrifice for her next man.

It was the same for men.

Therefore, there was no such thing as pure love between men and women after a certain age. Neither party was willing to sacrifice foolishly. They were just playing games to get what they wanted from the other person.

Jordan held Lota's hand and said, "Alright, let's go."

"Mmm... I don't want to go." Lota acted coquettishly.

Jordan was surprised. Lota didn't want to leave just now because she wanted to become Jordan's woman and make up for her previous regret.

Now that the deed was already done, why didn't she want to leave?

Lota said, "I want to stay in this room with you for a while longer. I like the atmosphere in this room very much!"

In the past, Lota had thought that Shaun was a pervert with ulterior motives. He actually designed this kind of room.

But now, she was especially grateful to Shaun for his meticulous design. Staying in such a romantic room with the man she liked was the greatest enjoyment in the world.

With a beauty by his side, Jordan naturally liked this room too. However, unlike women who only cared about enjoying themselves, men did not lose their rationality so easily. They knew how to get their priorities straight.

Jordan said, "What if Shaun comes in later? We should leave this place first. It's safer!"

Lota said, "What are you afraid of? Aren't you a Deity Jordan? Can't you just predict when he will come in? I want to stay with you for a while longer. Jordan, please."

Jordan had no choice but to oblige this "little vixen".

Soon, it was dawn.

Geng Anli especially took a private plane to the castle to attend the wedding.

“Ms. Geng, welcome to my wedding. You must have a few more drinks today, haha!”

Shaun had already changed into a tuxedo.

Geng Anli shook Shaun’s hand and said in surprise, “I didn’t expect you to be the one to marry Lota. Are you doing this on behalf of your late son?”

Shaun smiled. “Haha, Anli, you are allowed to sleep with young men but I can’t marry little girls? We are the same.”

Geng Anli recalled that in the past few years, she wasn’t much better than him in terms of her private life. She smiled awkwardly and didn’t say anything else.

“Sigh, Chairman Rong and Lota are getting married today. Logically speaking, the eight families should gather together to celebrate such a moment. It’s a pity that the eight great families only exist in name now. Other than our three families and the Steeles, the heads of the other four families have either died or retreated. By the way, where is Deity Jordan? I know you two have grown very close, like brothers. I didn’t expect you two to be so close that he is willing to give up his woman to you.”

Everyone knew that “Rong Bailun” had a good relationship with Jordan. The two of them often held secret discussions and operations. Geng Anli tried to participate several times, but they didn’t include her.

Shaun sighed. “Sigh, Anli, let me tell you some unfortunate news. Deity Jordan, the man you once liked, is dead!”

Geng Anli was shocked. “What did you say? Jordan is dead? How did he die?”

Shaun shook his head. “He and my father fought a very cruel battle because of Bingshao. In the end, they both died. Sigh, one is my best friend while the other is my father. Their deaths make my heart ache! Before Jordan died, when he was on the verge of death, he held my hand and told me to marry Lota. He knew that I was the only one in the world who had the ability to take care of her.

“Actually, putting aside my fondness for Lota, my marriage to her today is also to fulfill Deity Jordan’s dying wish!”

Geng Anli was feeling a little upset, but she quickly held back her sadness and said, “Anyway, congratulations. Where’s the bride?”

Shaun smiled sinisterly. Lota had been locked in the special room for the entire night. She had probably been corroded by the aphrodisiacal atmosphere and couldn’t take it anymore. If Shaun entered the room now, Lota would definitely not reject him.

“Madam Geng, please take a seat first. My wedding today will be different from your usual traditional wedding. I’ve decided to consummate my marriage to Lota first before coming out to hold the wedding. It might take a long time.”

With that, Shaun happily walked toward Lota’s room.

‘Lota, I groomed you for 18 years just to have you today!’

Shaun excitedly pushed the door open. He walked in happily, only to realize that there was no sign of Lota!

“Where’s Lota? Where’s Lota?! Lee Su-ji!”

Lee Su-ji immediately came in. When she saw that the room was empty, she panicked. She quickly questioned the guards, but they didn’t know what was going on. They said that they didn’t see anyone come out.

Lee Su-ji immediately knelt on the ground. “I’m sorry, Master. It looks like Lota escaped. She might have an invisibility cloak, so our men didn’t see her!”

Smack!

Although Lee Su-ji knelt down and apologized, Shaun still slapped her in anger!

Shaun spat furiously, “Why would she have an invisibility cloak?! Did you give it to her?!”

Lee Su-ji looked up at him and said, “I’m loyal to Master. I will never betray you!”

“Hmph! You wouldn’t dare!”

Shaun examined the room. He suddenly realized that there were traces of blood on the luxurious bed! He immediately went to have a closer look.

“Damn it, this is Lota’s... Ah! Someone broke into the castle and saved Lota! He even took her virginity! Who was it?! Who was it?!”

Shaun was about to go crazy.

He thought that nothing would go wrong now that the “marriage-wrecking maniac” Jordan had died. He never expected that there would be someone else who would ruin his wedding!

Not only did this person ruin Shaun’s wedding, but he also snatched away his bride and her chastity!

Lee Su-ji was also curious. "Could it be the man who saved Victoria in the capital?"

Shaun was furious. "It must be him, it must be that b*stard! I keep feeling that I know him and that we have a grudge between us. He must be the one who took away Lota's chastity. Ah, this b*stard. Who is he? Why can't I remember!!"

Chapter 1069: Immortal Water!

Shaun ranted angrily and was about to smack himself in the head. It was as if he wanted to jolt his brain into remembering that person's identity.

Lee Su-ji hurriedly reached out to stop him. "Master, please don't hurt yourself like this! You might have lost some of your memories after the mind-transplant procedure. It's useless even if you beat yourself up like this!"

Shaun calmed down and asked, "Is that so? Actually, I really feel that sometimes, some of my memories seem to be missing... Forget it. No matter who that man is, I'm certain that he must be directly related to Uehara Yumi and the Immortal Lake barrier! Therefore, Uehara Yumi is still the key. Find her. You must find her or her daughter, Yumi Kaner."

...

Meanwhile, on Jungfrau in Switzerland.

A plane landed on the magnificent snow mountain. A few people alighted from the plane. They were Randall, Victoria, Yumi, and Park Sora.

Randall was wearing thin clothes but didn't feel cold on the snow mountain at all. Meanwhile, Victoria and Yumi were wearing thicker clothes.

Victoria was wearing a ski jacket because Randall had said that he would take her skiing here. Stepping on the snow and looking into the distance, Randall said to Yumi, who was following behind him.

"Yumi, Shaun has been searching for your mother and you all over the world. He must have seen your mother in the past and thinks that she was the one who created the Immortal Lake barrier. This is an opportunity for us. Now that Shaun is preparing for his wedding, you can deliberately approach him and pretend to be caught by his men."

“After that, lure him into that special room and let him kiss you. He will definitely faint. Once he faints, send us a signal. We’ll rush in immediately and take his life while he’s unconscious!”

Yumi was very respectful toward Randall. “Yes, Chief!”

Randall said in a very dignified manner, “Okay, it’s getting late. The wedding should be starting soon. Go and prepare now. Remember, wear something sexy. Your looks are far too different from Lota’s. If you don’t deliberately seduce him, I’m afraid he won’t like you.”

Instead of feeling offended, Yumi replied respectfully, “Yes Chief. I’m wearing black silk inside. Do you want to take a look?”

Randall replied with a straight face, “There’s no need. You can head down the mountain.”

“Wait a minute. Elder Sister Yumi, I’ll accompany you down.”

Park Sora followed Yumi.

Yumi turned around and glanced at Randall. She didn’t dare to bring Park Sora along without his permission.

Randall knew that the two girls got along well, so he agreed. “Sora, we don’t need you for this mission. After accompanying Yumi down the mountain, you have to come back and meet us, understand?”

Park Sora replied obediently, “Okay, got it. Goodbye, Chief.”

After the two of them left, Randall set aside his dignified posture and smiled gently at Victoria. He even held her hand and said, “Do you want me to teach you how to ski?”

Victoria smiled. “I address you as Uncle but do you think I’m a child? Our age gap is not that wide, I am just a few years behind you in skiing.”

Randall smiled. “From your tone, it sounds like you want to compete with me?”

Victoria said, “Let’s compete then. I might not lose to you.”

Victoria had always liked to ski. She would go skiing resorts in Japan or Europe almost every year.

Randall was very happy. “Alright, I like this kind of headstrong woman!”

He immediately called for someone to bring over two sets of skis.

Victoria looked very professional as she asked, "Are you wearing this to ski?"

Randall smiled and nodded. "That's right. You probably haven't seen someone wearing short sleeves when skiing, right? In order to give you a brand new experience, I deliberately wore this. Let's begin!"

Randall had no intention of showing mercy to the fairer sex. Before Victoria could react, he had already started.

Victoria was unwilling to fall behind. She had always been competitive and did not want to lose to men.

So she kept chasing after him.

Looking at Randall's athletic and dashing movements in the snow, Victoria couldn't help sighing in her heart.

'This man is so handsome! Why are the Steele family members so outstanding...'

Meanwhile, Yumi and Park Sora were on a train heading down the mountain.

The train passed through the 7122-meter-long tunnel on Mont Aiguille and would arrive at Kleine Scheidegg station. Park Sora accompanied Yumi to that station.

As Randall had already sent people to seal off this place, there were no tourists on the train. Instead, it was filled with their people.

In the car, Yumi and Park Sora looked at the beautiful scenery of Jungfrau as they chatted.

Park Sora asked, "Why do you think the Chief didn't let us tell Victoria that Jordan isn't dead? Victoria looks like she will still cry if she hears Jordan's name!"

Before they met Victoria, Randall had specially instructed them not to mention seeing Jordan. As Randall's subordinates, they naturally didn't dare to disobey.

Park Sora was puzzled before suddenly giving a wicked smile. "Haha, do you think the Chief has taken a liking to Victoria? Is he going to snatch Jordan's woman? That's great. I really want to see Jordan's woman being snatched away by someone else. Hmph, he deserves it for interfering with Jamie and me."

Yumi said seriously, "The Chief has always put the interests of the world first. He won't turn against his nephew for a woman. I'm guessing that Victoria is not an ordinary person. She should be a mutant too!"

Park Sora was surprised. "Oh, right. Chief seems to have something that can test if a person is a mutant. What's it called?"

"Immortal Water," Yumi said.

Park Sora asked, "Immortal Water?"

Yumi patted Park Sora's head. "It's water extracted from the Immortal Lake. The Chief believes that there are immortals in the lake, so he called it the Immortal Water. With this Immortal Water, a person doesn't have to jump into the lake to know if he is a mutant. He just needs to put his hand in the Immortal Water as a test!

"The talents of different people are divided into several levels according to color. From low to high, they are green, silver, black, purple and gold."

Park Sora said excitedly, "Yes, yes, I know that. The Chief told me that I tested as silver! Yumi, you're green, right? When I awaken my abilities at the Immortal Lake, I'll be stronger than you in the future."

Chapter 1070: Sent Herself To Our Doorstep

Park Sora was able to join the Mutant Tribe not only because she came from a secret family with a noble status.

Before this, Randall had secretly sent Yumi to test her. Her result was the silver level. This result was already enough to defeat 99% of the people.

Yumi pinched Park Sora's beautiful face and smiled. "When you become more powerful in the future, it'll be your turn to protect me."

"By the way, what kind of abilities do you hope to have?"

Park Sora thought for a moment and stretched out her slender hands. "I want to have a pair of indestructible hands! I want to be able to break the hardest thing in the world!"

Park Sora said, "No, I want to castrate Jordan. His body has been injected with the serum so I can't hurt him now."

"Sora, why are you so hostile to Jordan? He's your brother after all."

Park Sora snorted. "So what? He and Rowan never took care of me. I hate them! Rowan abandoned my mother while Jordan killed my mother. They all deserve to die!"

Yumi didn't say anything else. It was difficult for an outsider like her to completely empathize with Park Sora's bitterness.

"Yumi, why do you say that Victoria is also a mutant? Has the Chief already tested her with the Immortal Water?"

Yumi nodded. "It's very likely. Actually, before your mother died, the Chief sent me to secretly test you. Over the past few years, Victoria has been the closest woman to Jordan. It's not a surprise if the Chief has already secretly tested her."

Park Sora was curious. "Then, what color do you think Auntie Victoria is?"

Yumi didn't like hearing Victoria being called "Auntie" as she was about the same age as her.

Yumi replied, "I'm guessing it's at least black! Purple is also possible!"

Park Sora was shocked. "How is that possible?! There are so few black-level mutants in our tribe, and only two purple ones! Our Chief is gold-level, right?"

Yumi nodded. "Yes, otherwise, how could he be the Chief? He's the only one who can turn Immortal Lake golden. He has the most powerful ability. He's the chosen one! That dogsh*t Shaun is not even worthy to be compared to our Chief!"

Park Sora added. "Yes, yes. I also think that the Chief is so domineering and powerful! If only my mother hadn't been killed by that baddie Jordan. If my mother met the Chief, she would definitely fall in love with him! The Chief is much more outstanding than Jordan! I'm a woman and I'd choose Chief too!"

Yumi smiled. "Little girl, don't even think about being our Chief's woman. We are not qualified at all. However, you can pray that my previous conjecture is true. If Jamie is really our Chief's son, then if you marry him, the Chief will become your father-in-law."

Park Sora cheered Yumi on.

However, they had no idea how powerful Shaun was. He had killed Rong Huangde and almost killed Jordan!

In the castle.

Shaun was drinking tea with Geng Anli in the hall when Lee Su-ji rushed in in a panic.

"Master, we caught a woman sneaking around near the castle. Guess who it is?"

Shaun was annoyed. "My bride has already run away. Do you think I'm still in the mood to play riddles with you?"

Shaun immediately got up excitedly. "What did you say? Yumi Kaner? Uehara Yumi's daughter, Yumi Kaner? She actually sent herself right to our doorstep?"

Lee Su-ji smiled and nodded.

Shaun laughed loudly. "Hahahaha, it really didn't take much effort! I thought it would take at least a few months to capture this mother-daughter duo. The heavens are treating me well. Bring her up quickly. I want to interrogate her myself!"

"Yes!"

Geng Anli asked curiously, "Bailun, why did you capture Yumi? Isn't she Jesse's wife? And I heard that they're divorced."

Shaun replied, "Anli, you don't know this but Yumi Kaner is from the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction. Have you heard of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction? It's a very powerful and sinister organization in Japan. Yumi Kaner is a descendant of the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction. She's very dangerous. I have to capture her and control her."

This was the first time Geng Anli had heard about the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction. "Thank you for your efforts, Chairman Rong."

Soon, Yumi was brought up. She was wearing a very sexy white top, a short black skirt, and black silk high heels.

However, Yumi was not a naturally seductive woman. She was the more virtuous type, so the outfit looked a little mismatched on her.

When Shaun saw Yumi, he couldn't help laughing. "Yumi, you are trying to be a spy in this outfit? Hahaha, didn't your mother teach you what to wear when spying on the enemy?"

Yumi glanced at Shaun and then at Geng Anli beside him.

"Ah!"

The person restraining Yumi suddenly fell to the ground. Taking this opportunity, she quickly escaped.

Surprisingly, Yumi did not flee to the outside. Instead, she fled deeper into the castle.

"Chase after her! Take her down immediately!"

Lee Su-ji didn't expect Yumi to be so powerful. She immediately issued the order.

Shaun smiled faintly and said, "No need. You guys can leave. I can settle it myself!"

The grudge between the Handley family and the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction had started in the previous generation.

Yumi's mother had tortured Shaun's uncle and father for a long time. She tortured Shaun's uncle so badly that he ended up in a tragically wretched state.

Shaun looked vengeful as he thought to himself: 'Uncle, Daddy, I'll take revenge on her daughter for what she did to you! I'll make Yumi Kaner wish she was dead!'

Chapter 1071: Yumi Failed!

Catching Yumi would be like shooting fish in a barrel. She had fled deeper into the castle. How could she hope to escape from Shaun's clutches?

"Hahaha..."

Shaun chased after her with a wicked smile. The two of them exchanged blows, but it was obvious that Yumi was not his match.

Shaun had already assessed Yumi's strength. If she was stronger than him or her mother, she would never have been so easily captured by Shaun's men.

Yumi fled towards the special room designed by Shaun. Seeing this, Shaun couldn't help laughing.

"Yumi, you sure know how to choose a place to hide. You actually chose the room where I was supposed to sleep with Lota. You're even dressed so sexy. Aren't you like a lamb entering the tiger's den?"

Shaun smiled sinisterly and walked into the room.

What he didn't know was that Yumi had deliberately chosen this room. Her goal was to be intimate with Shaun. Only then would her superpower be effective.

However, she could not make it too obvious. Otherwise, if Shaun sensed her intentions, he would not be fooled.

She heard from Randall that Shaun was the most cautious person he had ever met.

When Shaun walked in, he immediately locked the door and walked toward Yumi with a wicked smile.

Yumi detected the charming fragrance in the room and pretended not to know what it was. "Damn, the scent in this room... why is it so strange? What is this place?"

Shaun smiled wickedly. "Yumi, you chose this room yourself. I didn't force you to come in. Let me put it this way. Even if a nun without emotions and desires enters this room, she will become even more amorous than those vixens on film. You've always considered yourself a virtuous young mistress of the Steele family. Guess what will happen to you if you stay in this room for half an hour?"

Yumi was furious. "B*stard, I won't let you humiliate me!"

With that, Yumi attacked Shaun. She reached out and pressed her hand on his head, wanting to control him mentally.

But Shaun knocked her to the ground. "With your level, you still want to launch a mental attack on me? You're overestimating yourself! Looks like you didn't receive your mother's true teachings at all!"

Uehara Yumi could beat up Shaun's father and uncle together, but Yumi Kaner was no match for Shaun.

And Shaun's powers were far inferior to his father and uncle.

The younger generation failed to match up to the previous generation.

Yumi fell to the ground and spat out a mouthful of blood. She pretended to be helpless. "Shaun, what are you trying to do?"

Shaun smiled again. He was not surprised that Yumi knew his identity. Walking forward, Shaun grabbed Yumi's neck. He threatened, "Yumi, tell me immediately. Where is your mother now? Also, did your mother set up the barrier at Immortal Lake? Where is she?!"

Yumi was stubborn. "Even if you kill me, I won't tell you. I will only submit to a man who has conquered me! Unless you can conquer me, I... won't say anything!"

"Conquer you?"

Shaun slowly let go of her and sized up her legs. In this special room, even an ordinary woman could arouse a man. Moreover, Yumi's figure was not bad.

"Alright, I'll conquer you now! I'll make you submit to me willingly!"

Yumi pretended to be afraid. "What are you doing? Don't mess around! I... I'm the daughter-in-law of the Steele family. You can't do this to me!"

Shaun laughed. "You and Jesse are already divorced. But even if you two are still husband and wife, will that trash Jesse dare to stand up to me? In the past, the Steele family still had Jordan to support them. Now that he is dead, I can play with the Steele family however I want!"

With that, Shaun reached out to Yumi.

At this moment, in a car at the foot of a snow-capped mountain in Switzerland, Randall and Victoria had just finished skiing. They were drinking hot drinks and listening to the surveillance equipment.

Yumi had surveillance equipment on her, so Randall could hear everything between her and Shaun. When Randall heard this, he immediately instructed a subordinate through a mini walkie-talkie, "Black Mamba, prepare to attack the castle at any time. If nothing goes wrong, Shaun will faint within a minute.

"Kill him after he faints!"

He soon received a reply from a man with a deep voice. "Got it."

Victoria asked curiously, "Who's Black Mamba? I only know that the basketball star Kobe's nickname is Black Mamba."

Randall smiled. "It's also the nickname of one of our brothers. He's the most powerful assassin in our tribe. As long as Shaun faints, I believe Black Mamba will definitely be able to chop him into meat paste within minutes."

Victoria nodded anxiously. She was also looking forward to Shaun receiving his retribution. Therefore, she quietened down and listened seriously to Yumi's situation.

Gradually, Yumi's cries could be heard in the car. Her cries made Randall and Victoria, who were sitting in the driver and front passenger seats, feel very awkward. Their faces turned red, especially when they inadvertently looked into each other's eyes. It was even more awkward.

Victoria felt extremely embarrassed and asked awkwardly, "Um... Uncle Randall, why hasn't Shaun fainted yet?"

Randall said, "They haven't kissed yet. It looks like Shaun was just raping Yumi and didn't kiss her. Unfortunately..."

Victoria felt that Yumi was making a huge sacrifice. "If he doesn't kiss Yumi the entire time, wouldn't she have sacrificed herself for nothing..."

Randall said, "We won't let her sacrifice herself for nothing. We still have a Plan B."

10 minutes later.

As Victoria surmised, Shaun did not kiss Yumi the entire time. She could not take the initiative, so she could only accept the fact that she had been raped.

Yumi's eyes were filled with tears, and she felt very aggrieved. Even after sacrificing her body, she did not manage to knock Shaun out.

Was her charm really not enough?

Once again, Yumi recalled Jordan's evaluation of her. Only then did she realize that these elite men really valued looks too much. They disdained to kiss ordinary women!

Chapter 1072: Cloud Lake Town!

Looking at Yumi's aggrieved tears, Shaun felt extremely smug.

"I've finally avenged my uncle. Yumi, do you know how much your vicious mother tortured my uncle? Compared to your mother's viciousness, what I did to you is nothing!"

Yumi looked at him with tears in her eyes and asked, "Shaun, why... why didn't you kiss me? Am I... really that unattractive?"

Hearing this question, Shaun was momentarily stunned before laughing out loud.

"Hahaha, Yumi, I didn't expect you to want me to kiss you. Looks like you've been completely conquered by me. Hahaha, I am indeed powerful! However, Yumi, you came at the wrong time today. Although you're not a great beauty, you're still soft and lovely.

"It's a pity that my bride, Lota, has just been kidnapped. I just wanted to vent the frustration in my heart. My mind is filled with thoughts of Lota. I'm not interested in your face! Haha, I'm sorry. I hope it didn't hurt your pride. However, if you're not satisfied with your face, I can introduce a doctor to you."

Yumi put on her clothes and glared at Shaun. "No need!"

When Yumi stood up, Shaun grabbed her arm and said, "Yumi, can you tell me now where your mother is? You should know me. I can do anything. Raping you is just the appetizer. If you don't tell me, I can torture you in a hundred ways and make you wish you were dead!"

Yumi looked at him fiercely and said, "You want to see my mother? You want to break through the barrier of Immortal Lake? I'll bring you there!"

Shaun was overjoyed. "Not bad, this is a smart woman! Tell me, where is your mother?!"

Yumi coldly said, "Cloud Lake Town."

At this moment, in a hotel dozens of kilometers away from the castle.

Jordan and Lota were also spying on the conversation between Yumi and Shaun. Before Jordan left with Lota, he had specially placed a listening device in the room to monitor Shaun's arrival. He believed that Shaun would give orders to his subordinates in this room after he discovered that Lota had been kidnapped.

Jordan's original intention was to eavesdrop on Shaun's orders. He didn't expect to have an unexpected gain. Yumi actually found Shaun.

Moreover, she had such a ridiculous incident with Shaun. In the end, she even revealed a new location: Cloud Lake Town.

Jordan's eyes lit up. He immediately called Dragon and asked him to prepare a plane and weapons to go to Cloud Lake Town. Meanwhile, Lota had been clinging onto Jordan's arm ever since she became his "wife". She looked like she couldn't bear to leave him.

Lota looked a little sad. "Yumi is so pitiful. She was actually raped by Shaun. That demon deserves to die! How many women has he raped?! Jordan, if you hadn't saved me twice, I would definitely have had the same fate as Yumi and Lee Su-ji... I'm really a blessed woman."

Jordan patted Lota and said, "Yumi is not a fool. She has superpowers. Her kiss will make people dizzy. I'm guessing that she took the initiative to go near the castle because she wanted Shaun to capture her. She also went to that special room because she wanted to have intimate contact with him.

"Once Shaun kisses her, he will faint. Perhaps with his abilities, he won't be unconscious for long. However, even if he loses consciousness for only a minute, it's enough for their organization to take action. It's a pity that Shaun wasn't that interested in Yumi. He only raped her and didn't kiss her."

Lota listened carefully and said, "Are you saying that Yumi's teammates are outside the castle? Once Shaun faints, her teammates will barge in and kill him?"

Jordan nodded. "That must be it."

Jordan surmised that his uncle, Randall, had come up with this plan.

Lota continued to ask, "Yumi finally revealed her mother's location. Did she really yield to Shaun? Was she lying? Is her mother really in Cloud Lake Town?"

Jordan said, "Since Yumi revealed this location so quickly, I guess that it is part of her plan. Since I was a young boy, my uncle taught me that no matter what I do, I have to have Plan B. If the first plan doesn't work, I have to proceed with Plan B immediately.

This should be their Plan B. Lure Shaun to Cloud Lake Town and ambush him there to kill him!"

Lota became excited. "Jordan, are we going to help too?"

Jordan nodded. "Of course. This will be the best opportunity to kill Shaun. My uncle has a group of capable people under him. In addition, he has already set up an ambush. He will definitely be able to defeat or even kill Shaun! I want to personally go over and kill Shaun to avenge Victoria!"

At this moment, at the foot of the snow mountain in Switzerland, Randall suddenly held Victoria's hand and said, "Victoria, let's set off for Cloud Lake Town. I want to personally kill Shaun to avenge you!"

Victoria nodded gratefully. "Yes, thank you, Uncle Randall! However, Shaun said that Lota was kidnapped. Did you send someone to do it?"

Randall knew very well that it was Jordan who had abducted Lota.

"It should be one of my subordinates. There's no time to lose. Let's not bother about such details for now. Let's set off quickly."

"Alright!"

10 hours later.

Cloud Lake Town.

This place had very magnificent natural scenery and should have been very popular with sightseeing tourists.

However, Cloud Lake Town was located in a steep area. Also, many accidents had happened in recent years, so no one dared to enter.

Shaun had just brought Yumi to Cloud Lake Town. He had also brought the Rong family's elite troops with him. Not only were there many soldiers, but there were also many weapons and various scientific experts.

Although Uehara Yumi was alone, Shaun had seen how powerful she was and did not dare to be careless. He wanted to gather the power of the entire Rong family to deal with Uehara Yumi.

After landing, looking at the large number of people and planes, Yumi said to Shaun in disdain, "Shaun, you're really a coward. My mother is the only person in the entire town. But you actually brought so many people! You're really not a man!"

Chapter 1073: Uehara Yumi!

Shaun looked at her in disdain. "You little b*tch, are you being cheeky now that you're here? Tell me, where is Uehara Yumi?"

Yumi gazed toward the front. "In the innermost area."

At the moment, Yumi was being held by Shaun's men. Her hands were cuffed as she led the way.

Shaun and the others followed behind.

The natural scenery in Cloud Lake Town was unbelievably beautiful. It was difficult to imagine that in the era of the internet, there would be such a wonderful paradise that no one knew about.

It seemed like Uehara Yumi had used some methods to prevent outsiders from approaching the town, much less taking photos and uploading them online. Otherwise, such a beautiful place would have long become an Instagram hotspot for those online influencers.

However, Shaun was very nervous as he looked at the beautiful plants and trees.

"What a deserted place. It's so big, but there's no one here."

Shaun had an ominous feeling.

Before long, Yumi brought Shaun to a wooden house and said, "My mother lives here."

Shaun glanced around. Although it was a wooden house, it was very exquisite. The exterior and interior were made of expensive wood that looked very finely textured. Outside the door were nine pots of chrysanthemums.

"Ask your mother to come out."

Yumi said, "My mother hasn't left this house in 10 years."

Shaun was shocked. "Do you think I'm a three-year-old child? Would I believe your nonsense? I'll torture you a little. I don't believe she won't come out!"

Smack!

Smack!

Shaun immediately started beating up Yumi at the door.

Yumi cried out in pain.

However, no matter how Yumi screamed, there was no reaction from inside.

Shaun shouted. "Uehara Yumi, if you don't come out, I'll rape your precious daughter before killing her!"

But Shaun's actions were in vain.

"Damn it, looks like this woman really doesn't dare to come out."

Shaun instructed Lee Su-ji, "Bring your men and go in with me. You must be careful at all times. Uehara Yumi is very powerful. She's not an ordinary person. Protect me."

Lee Su-ji nodded. "Yes!"

Shaun and his men escorted Yumi in.

Shaun became increasingly nervous. Uehara Yumi's spells were so powerful that even Shaun's father and uncle could not withstand them.

And Shaun's strength was inferior to his uncle's.

In a one-on-one battle, Shaun was no match for Uehara Yumi.

However, Shaun did not come alone today. He brought the top technology and elite troops of the Rong family. He could easily kill a hundred Uehara Yumis!

Moving forward, Shaun approached the innermost room step by step.

Suddenly, he saw a white-haired, disheveled woman sitting on a futon.

"Uehara Yumi!"

Although he could only see a third of her face, Shaun was certain that she was Uehara Yumi!

Seeing the other party's terrifying appearance, Shaun's heart pounded in fear. He believed even more that Uehara Yumi was the culprit behind the Immortal Lake barrier. She looked like a master of immortal techniques now.

"Mother..."

When Yumi saw Uehara Yumi, her heart ached.

Uehara Yumi's eyes remained closed, and one could barely detect her breathing. This mysterious situation made Shaun feel that she was even more unfathomable.

Shaun smiled sinisterly. "Uehara Yumi, can you guess who I am?"

Uehara Yumi still did not open her eyes, but she slowly said, "I feel a familiar aura from you..."

In 1978, Uehara Yumi's English was not very good. But now, she spoke the language fluently.

Yumi said, "Mom, he's Shaun Handley. He's from the Handley family!"

Uehara Yumi immediately opened her eyes and looked at Shaun, who was in Rong Bailun's body.

Uehara Yumi asked curiously, "A descendant of the Handley family?"

Shaun snorted. "Uehara Yumi, you didn't expect this, right? A descendant of the Handley family has become the lord of the world! I know very well that you bullied my family and tortured my father and uncle in the past!

"Weren't you quite glamorous in 1978? You were extremely beautiful and dashing. Your slender figure made people drool. You're much better than that ordinary daughter of yours! Why are you so old now? Did you jump into the Immortal Lake and obtain an even more powerful immortal technique? But you are only focused on cultivating now?"

"Tell me, did you set up the barrier at the Immortal Lake?!"

Uehara Yumi was shocked. "In 1978...how did you know about what happened in 1978?!"

Shaun smiled. "Of course I know, and I saw it with my own eyes."

Uehara Yumi was surprised. "What? Are you also... Pfft..."

Uehara Yumi spat out a mouthful of blood.

Shaun was so frightened that he took a step back. He didn't know what was wrong with Uehara Yumi.

He felt that something was wrong with her. He grabbed Yumi Kaner tightly. "What's wrong with your mother?!"

Yumi's heart ached. "Don't mention 1978 anymore. When my mother hears about it, she will get very upset."

Uehara Yumi looked very weak. "I met someone I shouldn't have in 1978. Ever since then, my path of cultivation has been destroyed. For the past 10 years, I didn't dare to go out, afraid that I would meet that man. I can't meet him again. My karma has already been tainted by him. If I see him again, I will definitely die!"

Many people did not understand Uehara Yumi's words, but Shaun did!

She was talking about Jordan!

Shaun laughed out loud. "Not bad, not bad! You met Jordan from 2022 in 1978 and learned about things that you shouldn't have known. Therefore, you're destined not to be able to live as freely as before!

"Damn it. In that case, was it fate that my father and uncle had to die tragically a few years later? Although my mother isn't dead, she hid in the Swiss castle with us all day long. She lived a wretched life. In her later years, she had dementia and died at Jordan's hands. Looks like it's all karma. Having too much knowledge of the future!"

Uehara Yumi nodded. "That's right. It's all karma!"

Shaun laughed out loud. "In that case, not only have your spells not improved over the years, you're not as good as before? In that case, I have no reason to be afraid of you! Haha."

Just as Shaun was about to gloat, his expression suddenly darkened.

"No! If your spells haven't improved and you haven't been out for 10 years, that means you didn't set up the Immortal Lake barrier! Oh f*ck! I've been tricked!"

Chapter 1074: You're Not Dead!

Shaun suddenly realized that he might have fallen into Yumi Kaner's trap!

Turning around, Shaun looked at Yumi Kaner and realized that she was taking the initiative to kiss one of the men guarding her. That man seemed to have taken a liking to Yumi and did not reject her.

However, just as he kissed her, the man's eyes suddenly rolled back and his head spun. He fell to the ground.

Flipping over, Yumi jumped into a secret door in the room, escaping Shaun's control.

Although she still had the handcuffs that Shaun had put on her, it was just a matter of time for the people from the Nine Chrysanthemum Faction to get rid of them.

"Damn it! This little b*tch actually has such a strange ability! Thank god, I didn't kiss her in the room previously!"

Shaun felt a lingering fear. He didn't expect Yumi to be able to make someone faint after kissing him. If Shaun had kissed Yumi when he raped her, perhaps he would have been killed by her now!

When he thought about how Yumi had taken the initiative to come near the castle to be captured and how she was dressed so sexily, Shaun realized that she had definitely planned this!

Shaun was anxious and angry. "Yumi Kaner! You b*tch! You ran away and don't care about your mother? Alright, I'll kill your mother now!"

With that, Shaun immediately picked up his pistol and aimed it at Uehara Yumi.

Swoosh!

A ball of flames suddenly burned at the muzzle of Shaun's gun. Under intense fire, the pistol exploded!

Uehara Yumi said, "Who told you that I'm not as good as before?"

Shaun gulped in fear at the thought that his father and uncle had been dominated by Uehara Yumi!

Uehara Yumi was alone and she would definitely die if all his subordinates worked together to attack her. However, Shaun's only thought now was not to kill Uehara Yumi or find Yumi Kaner.

It was to escape!

Escape this place as soon as possible!

The situation here was different from what he had expected. Whenever Shaun encountered a situation beyond his control, his caution would prompt him to escape to a safe place.

“Everyone, retreat immediately!”

Shaun wanted to flee from Cloud Lake Town first before using a cannonball to blast this beautiful paradise into ashes. Be it humans or animals, flowers or grass, not a single one would be spared!

However, just as he was about to leave the room...

Bang!

With a loud bang, a thick steel door suddenly blocked their path!

Shaun tried to push it away but to no avail.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Lee Su-ji also used her gun and laser knife to attack it, but she couldn't penetrate it. There was only some superficial damage.

“The other side!”

Since the door on this side was blocking their way, Shaun decided to jump out of the window on the other side.

Even if there was no window and the other side was a wall, unless it was specially reinforced, Shaun's men could easily blast it open.

However...

Bang!

Three more thick doors flew over and blocked all the exits.

“Oh no, Yumi Kaner lured me here. It was indeed premeditated! Who is it? Who is the person who conspired with Yumi Kaner?!”

Shaun became nervous.

Meanwhile, Jordan, Lota, Dragon, Salvatore and the rest had already arrived. However, they remained stationed outside Cloud Lake Town and did not enter.

Before Shaun arrived, they had already found out where Uehara Yumi lived and installed surveillance cameras and listening devices inside.

Lota was overjoyed. "Shaun is trapped! Many of his people are outside and can't help him! Your uncle should be here soon, right?"

Jordan nodded. "Yes, he'll appear soon."

Dragon said, "Master, should we go over and help? Fight against Shaun's subordinates?"

Jordan reached out to stop him. "Don't make any moves first. My uncle will be talking to Shaun. I want to hear their conversation."

"Yes!"

No one dared to speak again.

Meanwhile, in the room where Shaun was trapped.

A figure suddenly appeared behind Uehara Yumi. It was not Yumi Kaner, but a man wearing a hat.

Shaun recognized this man's outfit. "You're the man who saved Victoria! You planned all of this? Who are you? If you're a real man, you'll reveal your face!"

The man took off his hat and smiled confidently.

"Randall Steele!"

Shaun took a step back in fear.

"How is that possible... you... you're not dead!"

Shaun clearly remembered getting his wife to kill Randall.

Randall had a smile on his face. "Shaun, it's been a long time. I didn't expect you to become Chinese the next time we met. However, even though you're in a different body, your movements and tone of voice are still familiar to me. You must be very surprised, right? You got your wife to kill me. Unfortunately, I was saved by my friend.

“I’ve been in hiding for the past 10 years. Shaun, you’ve caused me a lot of trouble!”

Shaun became extremely nervous. When he first saw Randall in the capital, he already felt that gaze was extremely familiar. He never expected it to be Randall, who he believed had been dead for more than 10 years!

“Randall, since you’ve been hiding for so long, why did you appear in the capital that day and take the risk to save Victoria from me?”

Randall said, “Victoria is the wife of my dearest nephew, Jordan. She’s my niece-in-law. Of course I have to save her. How can I watch my niece-in-law be humiliated by a scumbag like you?”

Hearing this, Jordan was extremely touched.

“Uncle is so good to me.”

From Jordan’s childhood memories, Randall had always treated him very well and taught him many principles in life. Compared to his father’s stern manner, Jordan preferred to be with his uncle.

Lota was also very happy to have an uncle who would risk his life for Jordan.

“Jordan, it’s all thanks to your uncle. Otherwise, if Shaun tainted Victoria again, with her character, she would probably jump off a building and commit suicide.”

Jordan nodded in agreement. Victoria loved him so much while he had yet to get a chance to break up with her.

Victoria definitely still treated herself as Jordan’s wife.

As Jordan’s wife, if she was tainted by another man again, she might really commit suicide!

Chapter 1075: Shaun Battles Randall!

In Uehara Yumi’s room, Shaun snorted. “Hehe, Randall, you sure are nice to your nephew. However, I’m very curious. You carried Victoria and jumped down from such a high building, but you’re still safe and sound. Are you also injected with the Mirakuru serum?”

Jordan had been very curious about this previously, but after knowing that Randall was the Chief, he was no longer surprised. If Yumi had superpowers, as her superior, it was only right for Randall to be even stronger than her.

Randall said, "The Mirakuru serum developed by Jordan and the Japanese is indeed a must-have in battle. It's very good. I plan to get my subordinates to be injected with it as well. However, I don't need it myself because I've already obtained this ability from the Immortal Lake."

Immortal Lake!

Hearing this, Shaun became excited. "So you are the one who set up the barrier around the Immortal Lake! Randall, what have you been doing all these years?! Did you create the Hexagon Organization? I remember that you used to like hexagons!"

Randall explained with a smile. "I didn't expect your memory to be so good after the mind-transplant procedure. Yes, I've established an organization, but that's not called the Hexagon Organization. We are the Mutant Tribe, and I am the leader of the Mutant Tribe."

"Mutants? You're all mutants with superpowers?"

Shaun immediately understood what Randall meant.

Randall nodded. "That's right. Ever since I obtained the recognition of Immortal Lake, I've been looking for other mutants like me. Over the past decade, I've been expanding my influence. I think that since the heavens bestowed superpowers only to some people while others remained mediocre, those who obtained the favor of the heavens should rule this world."

Shaun was stunned. "Rule the world?"

Shaun's heart skipped a beat. After not seeing him for more than 10 years, he could feel that the Randall in front of him was no longer the lackey he used to be!

If anything, his domineering aura and ambition far exceeded his own!

Randall smiled at Shaun. "Do you find this phrase very familiar? Do you still remember who planted this dream in my heart? It's all thanks to you, my good brother, Shaun!"

Shaun clenched his fists. He naturally recalled what had happened in the past and knew what Randall was talking about.

He felt both regretful and ashamed.

Randall had been holding these words in his heart for many years. Now that he started talking, he couldn't stop.

Randall continued. "Back then, when we met, I wasn't too ambitious. I just wanted to inherit the Steele family business and improve the status of the Steeles among the secret families so that they wouldn't look down on us.

"You know, I've always been unwilling to admit defeat. I didn't think my elder brother was stronger than me, so I wanted to fight with him for the position of family head. But after getting to know you, you said that I was too short-sighted and was only focused on the position of head of the Steele family.

"Back then, to make use of me, you deliberately ingratiated yourself with me. You praised me, claiming that I had the appearance of an emperor and that ruling the world should be my ultimate goal! Ever since then, ruling the world has become my ultimate dream! Shaun, it's all thanks to you."

Shaun's expression was very grim. He had indeed tricked Randall like this back then.

To trick someone, one had to say things that would resonate with the target. Shaun felt that since Randall was ambitious and gullible, he would purposely praise him as the "future ruler of the world".

But in actual fact, ruling the world was Shaun's own dream.

Shaun suddenly laughed out loud and said, "That's right, Randall. Now that you mention it, I recall those wonderful times we had. More than 10 years ago when the two of us drank and talked about life, the grand statements we made!

"Actually, when my wife wanted to kill you, I kept persuading her otherwise, but she still attacked. After knowing that you were dead, I felt regretful! I was sad for three days and three nights because I lost someone who had the same dream as me! But no matter what, I'm responsible. Even so, you can't blame me for what happened.

"At that time, you were just an ordinary person with no superpowers. Moreover, it was impossible for you to obtain the right to lead the Steele family. On the other hand, I inherited the Handley family's spells. You and I were on completely different levels. But it's different now. I'm the head of the Rong family, and you're the head of the Mutant Tribe! Randall, you and I can rule the world together now!"

Shaun actually invited Randall to rule the world with him!

Lota asked worriedly, "Will Uncle agree?"

Jordan smiled. "Uncle knew that Shaun was a capricious villain earlier than I did. Uncle has already been killed by him once. How would he fall for it?"

Randall laughed out loud.

“Shaun, it’s been so many years. Do you think I’ll fall for your tricks again? Pretend to curry favor and treat the other party as a good buddy. Then, find an opportunity to stab the other party in the back. This is the kind of trick played by some immature newbie. What level are we at? Do you think I will believe you?”

“You used this move to kill me and my nephew Jordan, and even ruined Victoria. Today, I’m here to take your lousy life!”

Shaun was also furious. “I am trying to be nice to you. How dare you reject my offer! Do you think I’m afraid of you?! Kill him!”

With that, Shaun instructed his subordinates to attack Randall. However, he had no intention of fighting Randall himself. Instead, he quickly ran to a door and attacked it crazily, wanting to break through the thick door and escape.

“Damn it, what are you useless people doing outside? Hurry up and move this damn door away!” Shaun shouted into the walkie-talkie.

He had no idea that his subordinates outside had also been attacked.

The attacks came in all sorts of strange manners which no one had ever seen before. The attackers were all mutants with various types of abilities. They had been sent out by Randall.

“Argh!”

“Arghh!”

“Arghh!”

Shaun’s subordinates kept screaming outside.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

In the room, Lee Su-ji and her subordinates kept attacking Randall and Uehara Yumi. However, in this small and dark room, the two of them flashed here and there in unpredictable patterns. Their movements were very agile and they successfully dodged every time.

Especially Uehara Yumi, who could attack Shaun from afar.

Swish.

Chapter 1076: Jordan Has A Secret?

A sinister smile appeared on Uehara Yumi's face. She was able to torment Shaun's father and uncle in the past, and she could do the same to Shaun now!

In fact, in 1978, Uehara Yumi did not completely back down after being defeated by Jordan. Instead, she disguised herself and found another chance to return to the US.

She also investigated Jordan thoroughly.

Unexpectedly, she ended up getting to know Randall. It was purely a chance encounter. With Randall's help, Uehara Yumi finally knew the source of the Handley family's spells. It came from Immortal Lake.

After that, Uehara Yumi became a member of the Mutant Tribe. She could be considered a founding member of the Mutant Tribe.

Uehara Yumi believed that she could kill Shaun on her own.

However, she had underestimated Shaun.

Shaun had witnessed Uehara Yumi's ability in 1978. He had long expected what would happen if he fell into her hands. Therefore, he had already prepared all his defenses.

Shaun suffocated only for a short period of time before his breathing returned to normal.

"What?!"

Uehara Yumi was confused.

After Shaun's breathing returned to normal, he jumped up and charged at Uehara Yumi, brandishing the laser knife in his hand.

"Ahhhh!"

Uehara Yumi cried out in pain as one of her arms was cut off by Shaun!

Shaun laughed loudly. "You want to kill me? You're not qualified!"

When Randall saw this, he hurriedly supported Uehara Yumi. Uehara Yumi looked at Randall in shame. How had she failed in her attack?

However, Randall knew what had happened. He comforted her. "Yumi, Shaun has the Rong family's emergency system on him. You can't kill him with your methods."

Shaun narrowed his eyes. He didn't expect Randall to know this secret! He thought that he was the only person who had been hiding in the dark all these years, waiting for the right time to take over everything.

He didn't expect there to be someone else quietly hiding behind him!

Shaun was extremely afraid of Randall. He knew very well about Uehara Yumi and her abilities. However, he had no idea what Randall had obtained from Immortal Lake.

Shaun had seen Randall jump down from a 10-story building unscathed. As a result, Shaun felt that he shouldn't waste time attacking Randall. With his physique, he was definitely invulnerable like Jordan. He would not be able to kill him within a short period.

Bang!

Shaun waved his laser weapon and fought with Randall.

"I'm not that easy to kill!"

However, just as Shaun was focused on Randall...

He did not notice a figure appearing behind him.

The black figure spun and flew toward Shaun's lower body.

Pfft!

The black figure spun and cut off Shaun's legs!

"Arghhh!!"

Shaun cried out in pain.

“Emergency! Emergency! Master’s body is injured. He needs surgery immediately! He needs surgery immediately!”

The emergency system on Shaun issued a danger warning.

Shaun was shocked. He didn’t even see who attacked him just now. Where did the attacker come from and what weapon did he use?

The attacker stopped and revealed an evil smile.

Looking at his hands, he was not holding anything at all. In other words, he had cut off Shaun’s legs without using a weapon.

Instead, he relied on spinning his body!

Shaun realized that this fellow also had superpowers!

Randall smiled smugly and praised the assassin who had successfully injured Shaun. “Black Mamba, well done!”

Once again, Randall moved forward like a ghost. The heavily injured Shaun could no longer stop him with his laser weapon.

By this point, Shaun could no longer move and had no strength left.

Randall pressed Shaun’s head, eager to get rid of him once and for all.

Shaun knew very well that Randall would definitely not show any mercy to him.

Therefore, Shaun hurriedly cried out. “Randall! Don’t kill me! I have a huge secret to tell you!”

Randall sneered. He knew that Shaun was probably so afraid of death that he deliberately fabricated another lie.

“I don’t want to know. Bring it with you to hell.”

Randall was about to make a move when Shaun cut in. “It’s about Jordan! Don’t you want to know the secret that your nephew personally told me?”

Randall paused when he heard Jordan’s name.

He seemed to be tempted.

Outside the town, Jordan said, “Ah sh*t, Uncle is being deceived. Shaun is stalling for time. He’s lying. I don’t know what he’s trying to do.”

Bang!

A thunderous roar suddenly sounded in the sky outside.

“Go out and see what’s going on.”

Jordan and Lota walked out. When they saw the shells and explosions in the sky, Lota immediately knew what was happening even without Jordan telling her.

In the room.

Randall seemed to value information about Jordan very much. He asked, “What did my nephew say?”

Shaun endured the pain and sneered. He knew that Randall was hooked. He had already informed the people outside to release their weather weapon. He would be saved soon.

So Shaun continued to stall for time. “You should know that Jordan... is a Deity. He can predict the future. He once predicted something very important. He told me about it. Before, I couldn’t understand it. Now that I have met you, I finally understand.”

Randall exerted some pressure on Shaun. He squeezed his head and threatened, “What did Jordan predict? Tell me!”

Shaun smiled. “Randall, let me go and I’ll tell you.”

Randall said, “I’ve endured for more than 10 years just to kill you today. How can I let a tiger return to the mountains? Are you going to tell me or not? If you don’t, I’ll kill you right now!”

Shaun hurriedly said, “Alright, I’ll talk, I’ll talk... He predicted...”

At this moment, a very fierce wind suddenly swept across the entire Cloud Lake Town. All the trees in the town were uprooted and the dilapidated houses collapsed!

Shaun’s subordinates and the mutants outside were also swept into the sky!

“Oh no!”

When Randall heard the violent wind and the shouts of his comrades outside, he realized that something bad was happening!
