

The Abandoned Husband Dominates –

Chapter 1111: Jordan Comes To Disrupt The Wedding?!

Previously, Jordan had gone to the Rong family base with Little Steele to upload all the scientific data about the Time Gate.

After uploading it, Little Steele compared the “memory disorder” that Jordan just discovered with the information about the Time Gate.

The conclusion was the same as Jordan’s initial conjecture. Traveling to the past would not cause the collective memories of only some people to be messed up.

This had nothing to do with time travel.

After eliminating the Rong family’s Time Gate, Jordan immediately determined that this matter must be related to the Mutant Tribe!

The mutants all had special abilities. Among them, there must be someone with the ability to change a person’s memories.

This could lead to something major. Although only some unimportant memories had been changed, it could be used to do something more terrifying in the future.

It meant that the mutants could use this to easily control the memories of the world and all of humanity!

As one of the masters of the world, Jordan had the responsibility to figure this out. Therefore, he immediately rushed to Mount Denali with Salvatore and the rest. He wanted to ask Randall about this.

Along the way, Jordan was very agitated.

Clearly, he wasn’t going to Mount Denali just for the memory issue. He knew that Randall and Victoria were about to get married at the Immortal Lake...

Jordan could have called Randall to ask about this, but he didn’t.

boxn ov el. c o m

He had to personally go to Immortal Lake.

Salvatore, who had been with Jordan for a long time, understood his feelings very well.

Jordan had said that they were going to Mutant Tribe to ask if the Mutant Tribe had anything to do with the memory disorder.

But Salvatore could sense Jordan's inner turmoil.

Salvatore thought to himself: 'Oh f*ck. This time, Mr. Jordan will definitely fight his uncle! Mr. Jordan is going to disrupt the wedding this time! Victoria is really a femme fatale, causing uncle and nephew to turn against each other. Sigh, it would have been good if you had listened to me and married Emily instead. F*ck, I don't think we have enough people. I wonder if we can defeat them at the Immortal Lake later!'

Salvatore was very anxious. He behaved like he was going into a battle.

Salvatore swallowed and asked nervously, "Mr. Jordan, um, are we bringing too few people? Should we call Dragon over? Or should we discuss our strategy first before going to the lake? The mutants are not easy to deal with."

Jordan did not reply.

All he knew was that he wanted to reach the wedding venue as soon as possible. He was not going there to fight with his uncle.

Soon, Jordan's plane landed near the Immortal Lake in Mount Denali.

Jordan, Salvatore and the rest alighted from the plane. After getting off the plane, some people immediately surrounded them.

"Who are you? This is a private place. No one is allowed to enter! Leave this place immediately!"

These people were all holding guns. They were just ordinary guns, not laser weapons.

Jordan glanced at the men and realized that they were all wearing the same uniform. They looked like ordinary soldiers and not like the people from the Mutant Tribe.

Members of the Mutant Tribe dressed in very unique and individualistic outfits that represented their own characteristics.

Moreover, Randall and Victoria's wedding was a major event for the Mutant Tribe.

At this moment, all the mutants were probably attending their wedding in the Immortal Lake. They would not be out here as guards at all.

Would Jordan stop because of these insignificant foot soldiers?

Jordan completely ignored them and continued walking forward.

“B*stard! Don’t you understand what I’m saying?! If you take another step, I’ll shoot!”

Crack!

Salvatore snatched the person’s pistol and broke it with his hand. He then punched this person until he was bleeding profusely.

His men quickly dealt with the other soldiers.

Soon, Jordan and the others arrived at the barrier at the entrance of the Immortal Lake. There was a barrier here. It was very difficult for outsiders to enter.

Even someone like Shaun couldn’t figure out the secret. Likewise, it would have also taken Jordan a long time to crack the secret. However, Lauren had already told Jordan how to enter the barrier.

“Use the slowest speed possible to inch your body in bit by bit,” Jordan instructed the others.

He then moved forward to demonstrate. Although it was his first time trying, he was still a Deity after all. His comprehension ability was extremely high, and he was able to enter without any problem.

Salvatore and the others also slowly entered the barrier.

After successfully going through the barrier, Jordan instantly heard lively sounds.

It was a lavish and romantic atmosphere. There were roses, cherry blossoms, wine glasses and flowers suspended in the air. There were also Randall and Victoria on stage!

“Victoria...”

When Jordan saw Victoria from afar, he was instantly stunned. He stood rooted to the ground, unable to move another step.

Victoria was wearing a white wedding dress. She was tall and slender. Coupled with her extraordinary aura after becoming a mutant, she was much more beautiful than before!

Beauty was in the eye of the beholder. With the regret of loving someone but not being able to be with her, in Jordan’s eyes now, Victoria was simply the most beautiful woman in the world!

Even surpassing Lota whom he had just married!

Salvatore and the others walked over one by one. When they saw the scene of Randall and Victoria's wedding, they stood behind Jordan without taking a step forward.

"Mr. Jordan..."

Salvatore knew the relationship between Jordan and Victoria the best. Right from the moment they fell in love, Salvatore was there and witnessed everything. Although Salvatore had always wanted Jordan to marry Emily, he knew very well how sad Jordan would be when he saw Victoria marrying someone else. Not to mention that the groom was his uncle!

Salvatore wanted to persuade Jordan, but under such circumstances, would Jordan listen to his subordinate?

A song played out in Jordan's heart.

Victoria had recommended this song to Jordan back then.

It was called "We Will Part At The End Of This Song".

Looking at the newlyweds dressed up on stage in such a romantic atmosphere, Jordan kept hearing the melancholy guitar solo of that song in his heart.

"Pfft..."

Jordan almost vomited blood from the wave of sadness that hit him. Although his body was impregnable after being injected with the Mirakuru serum. But his heart was still vulnerable. In fact, because his body was so strong now, the backlash on his heart was even more intense when he became especially agitated.

This was also the biggest drawback of the Mirakuru serum.

On the stage, a female mutant host said, "Chief, please put the wedding ring on Elder Sister Victoria!"

The wedding of members of the Mutant Tribe was not particularly complicated. Just the act of putting a wedding ring on the other party meant that they were officially married.

Randall smiled and held Victoria's slender hand. He had the wedding ring in his other hand and was prepared to put it on her.

After putting on this wedding ring, which symbolized eternal love, the two of them would officially become husband and wife.

Lifting her hand, Victoria smiled at Randall. She was also looking forward to a new beginning.

However, for some reason, Victoria suddenly thought of Jordan.

She remembered that Jordan had come to find her when she was getting married to Russell.

Almost subconsciously, she looked into the distance and her mouth dropped open in shock!

“He’s really here!”

Victoria spotted Jordan!

Chapter 112: I’m Not Here For The Wedding!

A gentle breeze blew on Victoria’s beautiful side profile and lovely hair. Randall was about to put the wedding ring on her finger but Victoria wasn’t gazing at him affectionately.

Instead, she was looking into the distance.

Actually, Jordan, Salvatore and the rest did not make any sound after entering the Immortal Lake.

Jordan just stood there in a daze. He didn’t even have the strength to take another step.

This time was different from the last time in Houston. That time, Jordan had barged in and cursed Russell for snatching Victoria away.

But this time, he had no right to stop them.

Victoria didn’t hear any strange commotion, nor did she hear anyone calling her. She only sensed that Jordan was here. Perhaps although she believed that Jordan would not come, she couldn’t resist turning around and taking a look.

She didn’t expect to really see Jordan when she turned around!

Victoria covered her mouth in surprise.

When Randall saw this, the smile on his face froze as he followed Victoria’s gaze.

All the mutants also turned around to look.

Jordan Steele!

boxn ov el. c o m

“Jordan Steele! Why is he here?”

“Didn’t the Chief not invite him? What is he doing here?”

“Damn it, how did he enter the Immortal Lake? He knows how to break through the barrier?”

The mutants were in a fluster when they saw Jordan.

Even though Jordan didn’t even say a single word, his sudden appearance alone was enough to halt Randall and Victoria’s wedding ceremony.

Lincoln was very rude. He walked forward and questioned. “Jordan, what are you doing here?! Today is a wedding celebration of the Mutant Tribe. You’re not a member of our tribe. You have no right to come in!”

Randall was also very surprised to see Jordan.

‘Jordan was able to come to the Immortal Lake... I’m afraid he already knows how to break through the barrier.’

Randall glanced at the Immortal Lake behind him and then at Jordan. He suddenly felt very flustered. It was a very bad thing for Randall that Jordan had come to Immortal Lake.

Breaking the silence, Randall was the first to walk off the stage. He went up to Lincoln and said, “Lincoln, stand down. Don’t be rude to my nephew!”

Thereafter, Randall held Victoria’s hand and took the initiative to walk toward Jordan.

Randall smiled. “Jordan, I was afraid that you would feel awkward, so I didn’t invite you and the other Steele family members. I didn’t expect you to be willing to personally attend our wedding and wish us well. Jordan, I’m very happy!

“I knew it. The descendants of our Steele family are all broad-minded people! You were able to let go of your past with Victoria and personally come to wish us well. You’re really magnanimous. You didn’t disappoint me!”

Randall kept praising Jordan.

Victoria also looked at Jordan and said gently, "Jordan, no matter what, thank you for coming."

Jordan looked at Victoria. At this moment, she was only one step away from him. He had stood in front of Victoria like this countless times. However, at this moment, although they were only a step apart, Jordan felt that there was a vast gulf between them.

Jordan said to Victoria, "I... have never seen you in a wedding dress before."

Actually, Jordan had seen Victoria in a wedding dress before. When she was marrying Russell in Houston, that was her first time wearing a wedding dress.

Jordan's memory was not messed up. He remembered that time when he disrupted her wedding.

What he was actually trying to say was that although Victoria had been with him for so long, she had never worn a wedding dress for him.

The two of them had been in love for so long, but never officially married. Now that Victoria was officially getting married, the groom was not Jordan.

Victoria lowered her head. "Perhaps we're not meant to be."

Hearing their conversation, Randall felt very uncomfortable.

It was obvious that they still had feelings for each other. They had yet to completely let go of their love. Their words were filled with regret.

Lincoln felt indignant for Randall. What's the point of saying such nonsense on the day of the Chief's wedding?!

But Randall was Jordan's uncle and he was marrying Jordan's ex. He couldn't possibly criticize Jordan in public.

Randall immediately instructed. "Park Sora, hurry up and get Jordan some wine. My nephew specially came to attend my wedding banquet. Hehe!"

"Yes!"

Park Sora plucked a champagne glass from the air and handed it to Jordan. "Here."

Jordan did not accept the glass.

Randall immediately said angrily, "Sora, that's your brother! Did you call him brother?!"

It was no secret that Park Sora had never liked Jordan. The first time she met him, he had interrupted her loving moment with Jamie. However, she had no choice but to obey Randall's orders.

"Brother, please accept this drink," Park Sora said respectfully.

This was the first time Park Sora had called Jordan "Brother".

Jordan was actually very happy that Park Sora finally called him brother. She was finally acknowledging that she was a member of the Steele family.

However, Jordan still did not accept it.

Jordan was not here for the wedding at all!

Jordan said seriously, "I'm sorry, I'm not here for the wedding!"

The moment he said that, the atmosphere became tense.

All the mutants became vigilant. They all knew about Jordan and Victoria's previous relationship.

Lincoln controlled an object and was ready to attack at any moment. He said, "Jordan, you're not here for the wedding. Are you here to snatch the bride? Hmph, I've heard some things about you. I heard that any woman who has anything to do with you, the moment they intend to get married to another man, you will appear at the wedding venue to cause trouble and snatch the bride. I'm warning you, you better not cause trouble here!"

Salvatore hurried forward and shouted, "B*stard! Mr. Jordan can do whatever he wants to do! Do you think you have the right to interfere?"

The mutants and Jordan's subordinates glared at each other with hatred, as if they were about to fight at any moment.

Randall didn't know Jordan's real motive for coming and thought that he was really here to snatch the bride. "Jordan, haven't you let go of Victoria? You can't accept me marrying her?"

Beside them, Emily was extremely excited by this turn of events.

'Ah, Jordan is here to snatch the bride! So exciting!'

Younger girls always felt that such things were the most romantic.

Meanwhile, Norman stood at the side with mixed feelings. He knew that Jordan and Randall were the most powerful people in the world. If they came into conflict because of his daughter, he would feel really ashamed and guilty.

Chapter 1113: You Still Love Victoria?!

The atmosphere became abnormally tense.

If Jordan was really here to snatch the bride, Victoria would be in an extremely awkward and difficult position. Victoria definitely loved Jordan more in her heart, her short relationship with Randall could not compare to her unforgettable romance with Jordan.

If Jordan really came to snatch her away, she didn't know what she would do.

The previous time in Houston, she could kiss Jordan without hesitation at the wedding and leave with him.

But this time, Victoria knew that she couldn't do it.

After all, Randall was Victoria's benefactor. He was the one who gave her the chance to enter Immortal Lake and obtain her superpowers.

As for the other members of the Mutant Tribe, they would definitely not let Jordan take away their Chief's wife so easily. The moment Jordan and his subordinates made a move, the mutants would immediately stop them!

Randall also looked at Jordan, waiting for his answer!

Jordan said slowly, "Uncle, I'm not here to snatch your bride. I have no intention of stopping you from marrying Victoria."

Randall felt relieved. The other members of the Mutant Tribe immediately relaxed their guard and were no longer so tense.

However, Victoria felt conflicted. She felt relieved and happy, but also a little disappointed...

Wasn't Jordan here for her?

boxn ov el. c o m

Randall smiled gently and said, "Haha, I knew you wouldn't disrupt my happy day. Why are you here today then?"

Jordan nodded. "Yes, there's something very important I want to tell you. I discovered a very strange phenomenon. The memories of many people are disordered. Some people have a different set of memories from others. I suspect that someone is secretly altering people's memories."

Randall's gaze shifted slightly, but he didn't seem particularly surprised. He asked, "Memory disorder? Could it be caused by the Rong family's Time Gate? As you know, Rong Huangde often travels back in time. He must have changed things in the past. Perhaps this will cause people's memories to differ."

Jordan said, "I thought so too at first, but I asked Little Steele to analyze it. This has nothing to do with the Rong family's Time Gate."

Randall asked, "Then who do you think is connected?"

Jordan replied bluntly, "The Mutant Tribe."

Before Randall could respond, Lincoln shouted angrily, "B*stard! Just because of an AI robot's conjecture, you accuse our Mutant Tribe. You even barged into the Immortal Lake and disrupted our Chief's wedding because of a groundless accusation. Jordan, aren't you going too far?!"

Jordan ignored Lincoln and looked at Randall. "Little Steele and I have analyzed all the possibilities. The biggest possibility is that someone from the Mutant Tribe is tampering with people's memories. The mutants all have various superpowers. It's not strange at all if one can tamper with people's memories."

Randall smiled. "So, you came to my wedding to question me because of this? What a coincidence. You didn't come to ask me before my wedding. You didn't come after my wedding. You only appeared right at the moment I was about to put the wedding ring on Victoria's finger."

Randall avoided discussing the "memory disorder". Instead, he changed the topic to whether Jordan was deliberately causing trouble at his wedding.

The other mutants chimed in.

"That's right. What do you mean by memory disorder? You're spouting nonsense! You're just fabricating a random reason. Your goal is to stop our Chief's wedding!"

"Hmph, a great Deity is doing such a despicable thing. Spouting nonsense and ruining his reputation for the sake of an ex-girlfriend!"

Jordan did feel quite embarrassed. He looked at Randall. "I'm not here to stop your wedding. I didn't expect it to be such a coincidence when I arrived."

Salvatore also spoke up for Jordan. "That's right. After Mr. Jordan arrived, he didn't speak at all. We didn't make any noise. If he intended to stop you, he would have done something the moment he arrived. Victoria is the one who has some kind of telepathic link with Mr. Jordan. He was just standing there and she sensed him!"

Salvatore's words made Randall's expression turn grim.

He was right. Just now, even Randall didn't notice that someone had barged in, but Victoria did.

This was the telepathic link between her and Jordan.

Jordan continued. "Uncle, I don't want to say too much. I came today to find out why so many people's memories are messed up. Is it connected to the Mutant Tribe?"

Randall replied bluntly, "It has nothing to do with us! If there's nothing else, I'm going to continue my wedding with Victoria."

Randall held Victoria's hand and was about to return to the stage.

He did not ask Jordan to stay nor did he ask him to leave.

"Wait a minute!"

Jordan was unwilling to leave just like that. "I'm sorry, Uncle. It's not that I don't trust you. This matter is very important. After our analysis, it's very likely that someone wants to rule over all of humanity by tampering with people's memories. He's only tampering with a small portion of each person's memories now. If he can manipulate more in the future, he can completely control that person.

"Also, he can affect more than one person. He can affect tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of people at the same time. This is terrifying. To be safe, I want a list of all the mutants, including their abilities."

Jordan was not trying to disrespect Randall. He had to get to the bottom of this, or he would feel uneasy.

Now that the uncle and nephew had taken control of the Rong family together, they were close working partners. Jordan felt that his uncle shouldn't reject him.

But before Randall could say anything, Lincoln shouted, "B*stard! Do you think you're worthy to get information on our Mutant Tribe? Even among us, we don't know what everyone's abilities are. Jordan, you're asking for too much!"

Randall agreed. "Jordan, I won't give you this list. It's not because I'm guilty and am trying to hide anything, but because I can tell that you're not here for this. What memory disorder? What Little Steele analysis? The Mutant Tribe is the culprit? You're fabricating everything. You did all this for Victoria, right? You still love her, right?"

Victoria also felt that Randall was speaking the truth. She stood at the side and looked at Jordan awkwardly.

Chapter 114: I Am William!

Jordan came from a noble family and was very well-mannered. He respected his uncle very much. Even though Jordan still had feelings for Victoria, he didn't do anything disrespectful to Randall. At the same time, he tried his best to avoid drawing attention to his past relationship with Victoria.

However, Randall took the initiative to raise this matter and directly asked Jordan in front of everyone if he still loved Victoria.

Jordan and Victoria had just broken up. They had a very long and deep relationship and Jordan was not a heartless man. Of course he still loved Victoria. It was obvious.

But how could he have the audacity to say such a thing now?

Seeing that Jordan did not comment, Victoria knew that he still had feelings for her. She felt very awkward.

It was her and Randall's wedding day after all. As Randall's wife and the wife of the Chief of the Mutant Tribe, she couldn't embarrass Randall in front of this group of mutants. Therefore, Victoria said to Jordan, "Please don't do such childish things anymore! You were the one who gave up on me and broke up with me. Why are you stopping me from getting married now? If you really love me, why did you break up with me?"

From her words, it was obvious that Victoria was still furious and upset with Jordan for breaking up with her.

Randall also wanted to blame Jordan, and he said, "That's right, Jordan. Victoria and I only got together after you guys broke up. I'm your uncle. I would never snatch a woman from you. After Victoria broke up with you, she was in a lot of pain and wanted to commit suicide. I knew that she had the potential to be a mutant and brought her to the Immortal Lake to give her a new life. That's how we fell in love.

"Jordan, you can't be so capricious and fickle. You can't reject a woman only to ask her to come back. I don't know what to do with you like this."

Randall looked very helpless.

The other mutants also mocked Jordan.

“Hehe, in my opinion, Jordan already fell out of love with Elder Sister Victoria. He dumped her so that he could marry another new wife. But after knowing that Elder Sister Victoria is a purple-level mutant who can control the minds of others, he regrets it!”

boxn ov el. c o m

“I see! I didn’t expect a Deity to be so snobbish! When Elder Sister Victoria was an ordinary person, he treated her like a toy and threw her aside as he pleased. Now that Elder Sister Victoria is so powerful, he started wooing her again. Does he really think he will succeed?!”

The slander left Jordan very unhappy.

Jordan had always been an open and aboveboard person. He hated snobbish people the most. When choosing his friends or lovers, he never considered their backgrounds or abilities.

However, he was now being described as a petty person who only cared about personal gains.

Randall added. “Jordan, did you really come because Victoria has purple-level superpowers? Actually, you don’t have to be like this. Victoria is my wife, which means she’s a member of our Steele family. We’re all family. If you need anything in the future, just tell me. Victoria will help you.”

Jordan tried to explain. “I didn’t…”

Victoria actually believed that Jordan was such a person. She said angrily, “Jordan, if I were still an ordinary person today, you wouldn’t have come to disrupt my wedding, right?”

Although Victoria didn’t want Jordan to cause trouble at her wedding, she was still pleased that he came!

As a woman, she could clearly feel that Jordan still loved her!

She couldn’t deny that she wanted to be loved by Jordan. She had been feeling very dismayed ever since she was inexplicably abandoned by him.

Jordan was shocked. He didn’t care if others had such an opinion of him, but he didn’t expect Victoria to think the same, that he only came because he coveted her abilities.

Jordan looked at Victoria. "How have I treated you over the years? Do you really think I don't truly love you? Do you think I'm the kind of person who will only cling to you because you're capable?"

This left Jordan incredibly emotional. He had experienced so much with Victoria!

He had been with Victoria ever since he divorced Hailey. During that period, Jordan had pretended to be bankrupt, while the Steele family was being targeted by the other secret families. Also, a series of things happened between Victoria and Russell.

How could Jordan accept Victoria questioning his feelings for her?

But Victoria only replied coldly, "I really don't know. I thought I knew very well that you loved me as deeply as I loved you, but you abandoned me so mercilessly. I didn't do anything wrong. Why don't you want me?!"

Victoria became hysterical.

Equally agitated, Jordan asked, "Alright, you want to know why?"

Victoria was insistent. "I want to know why!"

Jordan immediately responded. "Because of William!"

His words instantly made Victoria back down, and she looked a little ashamed.

"William? Who's William?"

Everyone present became curious.

Randall frowned as well. There were actually people and things that he didn't know about?

Randall asked Victoria, "Who is William?"

But Victoria just remained silent with a grim expression. She was too embarrassed to explain herself to anyone.

Victoria knew what Jordan was saying. In her life, she had committed one major mistake, and it was on the night of Jordan and Lauren's wedding.

She shouldn't have slept with William.

Victoria had once promised Jordan that she would not hide anything from him.

But no matter what, Victoria just couldn't tell Jordan about this.

And yet, Victoria didn't feel that she had done anything wrong. Jordan was also having his wedding night with Lauren then, and he didn't have to explain himself to her! Victoria was an independent woman in the new modern era. She wouldn't accept that men could have multiple wives.

Therefore, since Jordan and Lauren got married that night, it meant that she and Jordan were over. No matter what Victoria did with another man, she could not be considered betraying Jordan.

However, even as she tried to comfort herself, Victoria still didn't have the courage to say what she was thinking to Jordan.

Victoria looked at Jordan guiltily and asked, "How... how did you know?"

Victoria knew William well. She knew that he wanted her and Jordan to have a blissful marriage. He would never tell Jordan about this as it would harm their relationship.

Jordan looked at Victoria and told the truth.

"Because I'm William!"

Chapter 115: Victoria Breaks down!

Boom!

Victoria's mind exploded!

This revelation was a huge blow to Victoria!

Victoria already felt very ashamed when Jordan mentioned William and that he knew about her and William.

But now, Jordan was saying that he was William.

In other words, Jordan knew all the details of how Victoria asked William to sleep with her that night! It meant that Jordan knew everything that had happened that night!

He had personally experienced it all!

Victoria's face turned red. No woman could accept this fact!

Victoria stared at Jordan in surprise. "What... did you say..."

Jordan hadn't wanted to say anything. He wanted to end things with Victoria quietly and didn't want her to know the truth. But now that things had come to this, there was no need to hide it anymore.

"I'm sorry, Victoria. I pretended to be William. At that time, you were seriously injured and in a coma. In order to save you, I could only return to the past and implant the idea into you, that you want to spend your entire life with me so that you would have the will to live. Only then would you wake up.

"Therefore, I made up the identity of William to get close to you. Then, I brought you to the capital and asked you to undergo the implant procedure. Actually, there was no real William all along. Right from the beginning, it was me."

Hearing Jordan's explanation, Victoria's tears fell.

No wonder Victoria had always felt that William was so similar to Jordan. No wonder Victoria was subconsciously attracted to William and ended up liking him.

It turned out that William was Jordan, the man whom Victoria loved the most!

Victoria recalled what Jordan had done when pretending to be William, getting close to her, especially on the night of Jordan and Lauren's wedding. Victoria had asked William to sleep with her, but he initially refused. His behavior the entire night was rather puzzling.

Now, Victoria finally understood why.

Smack!

As Victoria cried, she raised her hand and slapped him.

Victoria sobbed. "Jordan, you didn't want me because I slept with you? I didn't cheat on you at all, nor did I have another man! The person I slept with was just another version of you. He was also you! You're the one who deceived me. Why are you still treating me like this?!"

Men and women had different thoughts. In Victoria's heart, since William and Jordan were the same person, Victoria had done nothing wrong.

At the very least, Jordan shouldn't abandon Victoria because of this.

However, to Jordan, even though William was him, Victoria did not know that then. So he felt that Victoria had betrayed him that night.

Of course, Jordan had no right to criticize her. That same night, he had also slept with Lauren.

Jordan sighed. "I would rather that William wasn't me. I don't blame you for what happened that night. I just..."

Victoria said, "Enough! Stop talking! Jordan, I hate you! Why did you save me?! Why did you pretend to be someone else to get close to me and treat me well?! You even deliberately used my father's voice to approach me when I thought he was dead. Do you know how happy you made me then?!"

"You pretended to be William and made me fall in love with you, but in the end, you blamed me for doing so. Moreover, you abandoned me and humiliated me because of my love for another version of you!"

"I know why you don't want me anymore. I finally know. You must have despised me for what I did that night. You must have been mocking me and thinking that I'm a rotten woman like Hailey, right?"

Jordan said, "Victoria, I never..."

Victoria's tears fell like rain. "Why didn't you just let me die? If I died, at least I can prove my love! You saved me only to humiliate me. Jordan, I hate you. I never want to see you again!"

In her agitation, Victoria pushed Jordan away and ran off crying.

Randall didn't expect Victoria to be so agitated. When he saw that she was about to run away, he immediately went forward to pull her back.

"Victoria, where are you going? The wedding isn't over yet."

Randall and the others were confused by what they had just heard. He was a smart person. He immediately understood that Jordan had pretended to be William and slept with Victoria.

However, he didn't understand why Victoria was so agitated.

Victoria looked at Randall apologetically and said, "I'm sorry, I want to be alone for a while."

Victoria shook off Randall's hand. At this moment, she was no longer in the mood to go through the wedding. Her thoughts and emotions were completely occupied by Jordan.

As a Chief, Randall was too proud to continue chasing after her. However, today was their wedding day. How could he let Victoria leave before the wedding was over?

Wouldn't Randall become a laughing stock?

Therefore, Randall shot Lincoln a look.

Lincoln immediately understood. He waved his hands and controlled many wooden boards to obstruct Victoria's way.

"Don't hurt Victoria!"

When Jordan saw Lincoln attacking Victoria, he sent Lincoln flying with a palm strike!

Pffft!

Lincoln was a master at controlling objects, but his physique and combat skills were only average. Caught off guard, Lincoln vomited blood and took a few steps back.

"Damn it..."

Lincoln glared at Jordan furiously.

At this moment, Jordan noticed that the wooden boards were all driven into the ground in front of Victoria. None of the boards hurt her, but only stopped her from leaving.

Randall said, "Jordan, you overreacted. The members of the Mutant Tribe won't hurt each other. Lincoln just wanted Victoria to stay."

The path in front of Victoria was sealed off. However, this did not stop her determination to leave this place.

If it was in the past, Victoria might have chosen to compromise helplessly. However, the current Victoria was no longer the same as before!

Victoria turned around and glared at Lincoln. Her eyes, which were red and swollen from crying, suddenly turned several times redder. She looked extremely terrifying!

Victoria aimed her hands at Lincoln and attacked!

"This is..."

This was the first time Jordan was witnessing Victoria's superpower. He stared at her in disbelief.

Chapter 1116: She's Your Aunt!

Victoria waved her hands and glared fiercely at Lincoln, who was trying to block her path. Her slender hands seemed to have an invisible force quickly reaching toward Lincoln's body.

Faced with Victoria's terrifying gaze, Lincoln took two steps back in fear.

However, it was useless. In the blink of an eye, Lincoln's eyes changed!

His blue eyes turned purple!

"This is..."

Jordan was shocked. Lincoln's entire body seemed to have stiffened. He looked like he was being controlled by Victoria.

And that was indeed the case.

At this moment, the gadget master, Lincoln, was being controlled by Victoria! Victoria controlled Lincoln and wanted him to remove everything that was blocking her way.

Swish!

Swish!

Swish!

The wooden boards instantly flew up from the ground and landed beside Lincoln. Soon, Lincoln was surrounded by wooden boards. He had trapped himself!

boxn ov el. c o m

Of course, Lincoln wouldn't do that to himself. This was Victoria's doing!

"Oh my god, Victoria... is so powerful!"

Jordan couldn't help admiring Victoria's ability.

Even for a Deity like Jordan, his chances of winning against a gadget master like Lincoln was not very high unless he was very careful and planned in advance with his predictive abilities.

However, Victoria easily subdued Lincoln!

Victoria's ability to control people's minds seemed harmless, but she would become strong when faced with formidable opponents. No matter how powerful the opponent was, they would end up being her puppet and work for her!

No one could hurt Victoria!

After Victoria removed the obstruction in front of her, she did not hurt Lincoln. She removed her control over him and walked away alone.

The other mutants did not dare to step forward.

Each of them had their own unique skills and various methods to stop a person, but none of them was confident that they could stop Victoria. If they angered Victoria, she could control them and use their abilities to harm themselves. That would be no joke.

Victoria was very upset and walked out of the Immortal Lake barrier.

“Victoria!”

Randall and the others quickly chased after her.

“Victoria...”

Jordan ran after her as well. He was also very worried about Victoria!

‘Victoria actually stopped her wedding with Uncle. This proves that she still thinks about me. Although she said that she blamed me for using my identity as William to get close to her, she must be very touched. I traveled back in time to save her!’

Jordan thought to himself.

Not only did Victoria have the ability to control others, but her speed was also much faster than before. Her footsteps were light and quick. She quickly ran to the tarmac and boarded a plane.

Before long, the plane started to take off.

Randall wanted to board the plane too but Victoria had locked the cabin door.

“Damn it, Victoria! Victoria, where are you going?!”

Randall shouted, but the plane had already started to move. It was so loud that Victoria couldn’t hear him.

Randall panicked and asked, “Who’s the pilot of this plane? Contact him and make him stop immediately!”

Yumi picked up a walkie-talkie and tried to contact the pilot a few times before reporting. “There’s no response. He’s probably being controlled by Elder Sister Victoria.”

“Damn it! Get on a plane immediately and follow Victoria!” Randall ordered.

“Yes!”

Seeing that Randall was going to chase after Victoria, Jordan was also worried about her safety.

Victoria was very agitated now. Jordan was afraid that she would do something stupid or extreme. After all, Victoria had attempted suicide before. Since she had done it before, she might try it again.

Jordan immediately said, “Uncle, I’ll go with you!”

Randall stopped him. “Jordan, don’t follow me. Victoria is my wife and your aunt now. I don’t think it’s appropriate for you to get too close to her!”

Randall didn’t speak too harshly but he was firm in stopping Jordan and Victoria from interacting further.

Yumi spoke up for Randall. “Jordan, you’ve already stopped our Chief’s wedding. Please don’t cause more trouble. I believe your father wouldn’t want you to do this.”

Hearing this, Jordan felt a little embarrassed and did not insist on following.

If Victoria’s groom was someone else today, Jordan wouldn’t care about his feelings. He would still chase after Victoria.

Before Randall boarded the plane, he called Lincoln over.

“Are you alright?”

Lincoln was still in a daze. “Yes, Elder Sister Victoria has already removed her control over me.”

Randall whispered to Lincoln, “I’m going to chase after Victoria. Gather a few of our most powerful people and remain at the Immortal Lake. Keep a good watch on Jordan and make sure he leaves this place. Also, outsiders already know about the barrier around Immortal Lake. Immediately change the rules of the barrier.”

Lincoln nodded. “Yes, Chief!”

After giving his instructions, Randall flew off on his plane to chase after Victoria.

Jordan stood rooted to the ground and did not follow them. But he had already quietly placed a tracker on Randall’s plane. This way, Jordan would know where Victoria had gone.

'Uncle still likes Victoria a lot. With him around, Victoria should be fine...'

Jordan could tell that Randall valued Victoria very much. Whether it was true love or because he treasured her ability, Randall would never let anything happen to her.

It was undeniable that Victoria's powerful abilities were very valuable to the Mutant Tribe and Randall.

After the two planes left, Lincoln looked at Jordan, who was still standing there. He said in a slightly mocking tone, "Mr. Jordan, what are you still looking at? Please leave. You've already successfully stopped our Chief's wedding. You've already achieved your goal. Aren't you going back to celebrate?"

Salvatore couldn't stand Lincoln at all. He cursed, "F*ck you! Mr. Jordan didn't come here to stop your Chief's wedding at all. We're here to get the list of mutants! One of you mutants must have something to do with the memory disorder! If you know what's good for you, hand that mutant over quickly. Perhaps Mr. Jordan might let him live. If we have to find out for ourselves who it is, only death awaits him!"

When Lincoln heard this, he laughed out loud. "Hahahaha, you're just an ordinary piece of trash. Who gave you the confidence to threaten us mutants like this?"

"If your Mr. Jordan is so capable, then go ahead and investigate. I'm telling you, not everyone in the Mutant Tribe is like Black Mamba, who underestimates his enemies and is easy to kill! If you dare to touch anyone in our tribe, you'll be the ones to die!"

Chapter 1117: Enter The Immortal Lake?

"You b*stard..."

While Salvatore and Lincoln were cursing each other, Jordan remained calm. He wasn't angry or anything because of Lincoln's words.

At this moment, he was thinking about something else.

"Immortal Lake..."

When he entered the Immortal Lake earlier, he was consumed by thoughts about Victoria and her wedding, so he didn't pay attention to the lake.

The Immortal Lake could be said to be the most magical place on Earth. Those with talent would obtain superpowers after entering!

If their aptitude was very high, they could obtain purple-level abilities like Victoria. Few in the world were a match for her.

At this moment, Jordan recalled his dream.

In his dream, Jordan jumped into the Immortal Lake, and the water turned golden!

“Will I awaken a gold-level ability?”

Jordan was excited. Since he had come here, he might as well give it a try!

So he started walking toward the lake.

boxn ov el. c o m

Lincoln, who was arguing with Salvatore, immediately rushed over when he saw Jordan’s movements.

“Jordan, where are you going?!”

Salvatore immediately said, “F*ck you. It’s none of your business where Mr. Jordan goes!”

When Jordan arrived at the barrier of Immortal Lake again, Lincoln immediately panicked.

Swish!

Swish!

Swish!

Lincoln controlled all the objects nearby and placed them in front of Jordan, blocking his path.

Lincoln shouted, “Jordan, give up. I won’t let you enter Immortal Lake. You’re not from the Mutant Tribe and have no right to enter. I haven’t settled the score with you for barging into Immortal Lake just now!”

Jordan narrowed his eyes. He was very unhappy with this Lincoln who was always in his way.

Last time, when Chester robbed that bank in the capital, although he did not see Lincoln at the scene, Jordan knew that he was also involved in this matter.

Just the crime of robbery and murder alone, Jordan could not let him off.

However, Jordan had no intention of attacking Lincoln. He said calmly, "I left something behind. I'm going to the Immortal Lake to get it."

Lincoln laughed. "Left something behind? Hehe, I think you're lying. You just want to enter the Immortal Lake! Didn't our Chief already tell you? You have already obtained your mutant superpower. It's useless to jump into Immortal Lake again.

"Hehe, or is it that you think your prediction ability is useless? You can't even compare to your ex-lover, Victoria. She can defeat you and make you kneel in front of her! Hahaha..."

Lincoln started to mock Jordan.

When Salvatore heard what Lincoln said, he realized that Jordan wanted to enter the Immortal Lake to obtain superpowers!

Salvatore immediately picked up a laser gun and aimed it at Lincoln. "F*ck, you b*stard. I can't stand it anymore. Mr. Jordan, should we destroy this kid and barge into the Immortal Lake?!"

Swish!

Lincoln was not afraid of Salvatore's weapon at all. He waved his hands and the laser gun flew out.

Lincoln said confidently, "You want to force your way into the Immortal Lake? Hehe, Jordan, don't blame me for looking down on you. You only have predictive abilities. You don't have any practical offensive abilities! I can easily stop you on my own. Plus I have a group of men with special abilities with me. If you don't believe me, you can try!"

Salvatore had an unwavering trust in Jordan. "Mr. Jordan, kill them!"

Jordan hesitated for a moment and decided not to enter the Immortal Lake for the time being.

On the one hand, Lincoln's confidence was not without basis. He was a gadget master. Although it would be difficult to completely trap Jordan, Lincoln could still easily obstruct Jordan by controlling various objects.

Even if Jordan could defeat Lincoln and his group, and really enter the Immortal Lake. After he entered the Immortal Lake, more mutants would definitely appear.

Jumping into the Immortal Lake was a very dangerous thing in itself. If anyone attacked Jordan at a critical moment while he was in the lake, he would be finished.

Moreover, Jordan did not want to have an outright conflict with his uncle, Randall.

Randall didn't do anything to Jordan even though he had disrupted his wedding. Logically speaking, Jordan should not have barged in.

So Jordan said to Salvatore, "What are you doing? Who said I'm going to jump into the Immortal Lake?"

Jordan looked at Lincoln. "Lincoln, for Uncle's sake, I won't go in today. But remember, it's not that I'm afraid of you or don't dare to enter. I want you to know something. I was already the master of the world long before you guys were! I have the final say in this world!"

After saying that, Jordan turned around and left.

"Arrogant a**..."

Lincoln was very unhappy. He returned to Immortal Lake to check but did not see anything left behind.

"Jordan really had an ulterior motive to enter Immortal Lake. The Chief sure is wise and far-sighted. Before he left, he instructed me to change the rules of the barrier entry."

Jordan already knew that he had to enter the barrier very slowly to pass through it. However, Lincoln and the others had already changed the rules for the barrier.

When Jordan returned to the plane, the first thing he did was look for Randall's flight direction.

"He's going east..."

Salvatore said excitedly, "Mr. Jordan, do you really want to enter Immortal Lake and jump in? Even Ms. Victoria has become such a powerful "man-controlling mage". I want to try too! If I have superpowers, I'll be the first to help Mr. Jordan take Lincoln down!"

Jordan said, "Yes, I do have plans to enter the Immortal Lake. Even if I don't jump in, I have to study that place properly. It's too strange that there's a lake on Earth that can give people such powerful abilities. Moreover, who knows how long this lake has existed? How many people have become mutants? According to my sixth sense, I'm afraid that there are definitely more mutants than what we saw today. The real number of mutants must be far more than we know now."

Shaun nodded. "That's right. Your uncle has only been controlling the Immortal Lake for a few years. Many people already visited Immortal Lake before he controlled it. Shaun's uncle and father, for example. I think what your uncle said about your Deity ability was nonsense. He claimed that he brought you to Immortal Lake back then and it already gave you your ability."

“At that time, he was still fighting with your father for the position of the head of the Steele family. If he already knew about Immortal Lake, would he still care about the family head position? Mr. Jordan, you have to jump into Immortal Lake. We’ll help watch over you! Perhaps you’ll awaken a purple-level ability too!”

Jordan assured him. “Salvatore, don’t worry. I’ll definitely jump into the Immortal Lake!”

Chapter 1118: Victoria Feels Guilty!

Jordan would definitely enter the Immortal Lake because he had already dreamed that he could make the lake water golden. He might obtain a gold-level ability.

This was an ability even more powerful than Victoria’s.

Salvatore said, “Then let’s go back! You’re already a Deity. If you obtain superpowers, you’ll be invincible. When Ms. Victoria finds out, she’ll definitely return to your side.”

Jordan shook his head. “The Immortal Lake is under my uncle’s jurisdiction. I don’t want to be in direct conflict with him for the time being. We’ll pretend to go home first. Then we’ll secretly return late at night.”

Salvatore laughed sinisterly. “Haha, that’s a good idea. Put on the invisibility cloak and no one will know. Hahaha!”

On Victoria’s plane, she sat in the cabin and cried uncontrollably. From time to time, she would beat the seat or herself.

“Ah! Why! Why did William turn out to be Jordan?! Why am I so stupid? I should have guessed that they were the same person! That night, on Lauren’s wedding night, I actually took the initiative to ask Jordan to sleep with me, and I was so...

“Just let me die! How can I face Jordan?! He knows everything. He saw everything. Sobs... In order to save me, he actually crossed space and time. No man has ever done that for me, but I did such a hurtful thing to him, and right in front of him... Jordan, I’m sorry, I’m sorry, I’m sorry...”

Victoria blamed Jordan one moment and apologized the next. It was as if she had schizophrenia.

It was unclear if she still loved Jordan and wanted to be with him.

However, one thing was certain. Victoria's heart was completely occupied by Jordan at this moment. There was no room for Randall at all.

boxn ov el. c o m

Before long, under Victoria's instructions, the plane landed in a city near the sea in the east of America.

Victoria liked to come to the beach when she was sad.

The plane landed on the sea near the beach, scaring away many people who were strolling along the beach.

It was just as well. Victoria needed peace and quiet to calm down.

Victoria sat alone on the beach and looked at the sea. She hugged her legs tightly like a little girl.

Randall's plane soon landed nearby.

The older man walked over slowly. He gently pressed Victoria's shoulder and said, "Victoria, come back with me. We still have a lot of things to do."

However, Victoria shook him off. "Randall, I'm sorry. Can you leave me alone?"

Randall said, "I'm worried about you. Besides, you don't have to be so sad. Jordan is the one in the wrong. He pretended to be someone else to get close to you, seduced you, and then slept with you. And then he turned around and blamed you for being disloyal. Is this something a man should do?"

Victoria shook her head. "No, you don't know what happened. He didn't do anything wrong. I was the one at fault..."

Previously, at Immortal Lake, Victoria had slapped Jordan and blamed him. Those who did not know the truth believed that it was Jordan's fault.

Actually, Victoria was just finding an excuse to save her pride in front of the mutants. She knew very well that Jordan never acted dishonorably. She was the one in the wrong.

She couldn't accept that the man she loved had crossed time and space to save her, but she had cheated on him right in front of him.

"Leave. I don't want to see you or anyone else!"

Victoria took another step forward and prepared to leave.

'Victoria!'

Randall grabbed Victoria's hand.

"Get lost!"

Victoria instantly flared up. Her long hair flew up as she roared at Randall.

At the same time, her eyes turned purple-red again as she launched a mental attack on Randall!

Randall held his chest and instantly took a step back. He could also feel the pressure of Victoria's purple-level ability.

Victoria didn't say anything else and turned to leave. Randall didn't dare to chase after her.

Clenching his fists tightly, Randall was left feeling furious. 'Jordan... Look at what you did! You made my wife attack me!'

Randall originally thought that after marrying Victoria, he would be able to completely control this purple-level goddess.

Who knew that such a thing would happen on the first day of their marriage?

Yumi saw the two of them arguing from afar. She walked forward and comforted Randall. "Chief, give Elder Sister Victoria some time. After all, she and Jordan have been in love for so many years and have experienced so many things together. She just found out the truth behind why Jordan dumped her. It will take time for her to digest it.

"She knows that Jordan personally experienced how she cheated on him. As a woman myself, I can guarantee you that no matter how much Victoria likes Jordan, she won't be with him anymore."

Randall nodded. "Yes, Victoria is a very proud woman. Jordan witnessed such an embarrassing scene. I don't doubt this at all. Alright, I'll give her some time to calm down here. We'll watch over her. By the way, what is this place called again?"

"Nags Head, North Carolina."

Randall nodded. "Alright, send someone to get chummy with the mayor here. I predict that Victoria will probably do some extreme things in her current state. She's no longer the ordinary person she used to be."

Yumi said, "That's right. You previously told us that as mutants, we can't be so easily swayed by our emotions. Ordinary people can have emotions because even if they do, it won't affect this world much. But mutants are different. Other people might die if we get emotional."

Randall nodded and smiled. "There's not a single mutant who hasn't killed before. Victoria is no exception. Alright, let her stay here in Nags Head. In the future, she won't have any more scruples when working for me."

It was clear from Randall's words that he had plans to groom Victoria into an assassin by his side.

At night, Victoria went to a nearby bar to drink. She had yet to change after leaving Immortal Lake and was still wearing her beautiful wedding dress. Therefore, the moment she entered, she attracted everyone's attention.

"F*ck, this woman is gorgeous! She's even wearing a wedding dress! Is she a runaway bride? Or was she ditched at the altar?"

"Haha, that must be it. Look at her sad expression. Brothers, this is a good opportunity, hehe."

"Don't snatch her from me. I want this woman! Check out those long legs. They're f*cking awesome!"

"F*ck you. Why should I give her to you? Let's play rock-paper-scissors. Whoever wins will get her!"

"No need to play such childish games. We can have her together, hahaha..."

"Yes, yes, yes. Let's have her together!"

Chapter 1119: The Consequences Of Provoking Victoria!

In the bar, five men who had already drunk a lot walked toward Victoria with their glasses.

"Babe, want to drink together?"

"What do you want to drink? Let me treat you."

"That's right. What's the point of drinking alone? Look at you, still wearing your wedding dress. You must have been dumped by your husband-to-be. We'll help you drown your sorrows!"

As they spoke, they sat down beside Victoria.

Faced with these men with ill intentions, Victoria was not afraid at all.

She was no longer a little girl. Even if she wasn't a mutant, with her Taekwondo skills, it wouldn't be a problem for her to beat up these drunkards in a dimly lit bar.

Victoria said with disdain, "You guys? You guys want to drink with me?"

After Victoria became a mutant, her alcohol tolerance increased like Jordan's. She had long surpassed ordinary people. In fact, Victoria's alcohol tolerance had always been very high. Many men were not her match.

After becoming a mutant, it was even harder for her to get drunk. Even ten men combined would not be able to win against her.

Hearing the mockery in Victoria's words, these men became somewhat affronted.

"Wow, are you looking down on us? Why can't we drink with you? Don't think that just because you're beautiful..."

boxn ov el. c o m

"Hey, that's not what she meant. She just thinks that we can't beat her in drinking."

"Haha, looking down on our alcohol tolerance? Girl, we're all men. Do you know how much we can drink?"

"How about this? We have more people, so we can't bully one little girl. We'll let the guy with the worst alcohol tolerance among us compete in drinking with you. How about that, babe?"

Victoria sneered. "No need. I can compete against all of you combined."

With that, she said to the bartender, "Six bottles of whiskey, six bottles of red wine, and six bottles of brandy."

Victoria ordered a lot of alcohol, which made these men very happy.

"Hahaha, this is interesting. Brothers, this babe is obviously going to drink to her death. When she's drunk, shall we take turns?"

"Of course! I'll be the first!"

" ... "

One of the men made the first move. "Babe, let me have a glass with you first!"

Victoria shook her head. "Who said we're using glasses?"

The man was stunned. "What are we using if we don't use glasses?"

Victoria replied, "Drink straight from the bottle."

The men were all stunned.

Drinking beer straight from the bottle was fine, but wine and hard liquor?

The man smiled. "Look at you. You must have drunk too much. How can we drink wine and hard liquor straight from the bottle? Hehe."

Victoria didn't say another word. She was here to drown her sorrows. She picked up a bottle of red wine and downed it in one gulp!

The five men were so shocked that their jaws dropped.

She really drank straight from the bottle!

One of the men refused to be outdone. "Alright! You have guts! I like bold women! I'll do it with you!"

"Me too!"

"I'm not afraid of drinking alcohol. It's just a bottle of wine, right? Cheers!"

The five men forced themselves to chug the wine down straight from the bottles.

Many people couldn't help laughing when they saw the scene.

"These big burly men are drinking in such a messy and pathetic manner, spilling half the wine out the corners of their mouths. Not like the bride who is properly draining every single drop."

"That's right, they're cheating! How embarrassing!"

One of the men pointed at the person beside him. "Shut up! If you don't want to be beaten up, don't poke your nose into other people's business!"

The man then looked at Victoria. "We've drunk the wine too. Can we get to know each other better? I guess you'll faint soon. You should get to know us while you're still sober."

Victoria grinned. What was a single bottle of red wine?

She opened a bottle of whiskey and downed it as well.

“F*ck! Is she for real?!”

“Oh my god, this woman is too fierce!”

The men were all shocked.

She was drinking alcohol like it was water!

One of the men gathered the others and whispered. “This woman is crazy. We don’t need to compete in drinking with her, she will collapse on her own in less than 20 minutes.”

“That’s right. We can just wait until she faints, then we can pick her up and carry her away!”

“Hehe, you’re right!”

The five men waited for an opportunity to take advantage of Victoria after she got drunk.

After 20 minutes, one of the men said, “Brothers, it’s about time. She must have fainted. Let’s do it!”

The five men surrounded Victoria again.

“Bride, you’ve drunk too much. We’ll send you back to the hotel.”

“Your husband doesn’t want you, but we do. Hahaha.”

Victoria held her wine glass as she looked at these hooligans coldly. She was already irritated that these people didn’t drink from the bottle with her. She just chose not to kick up a fuss about that as she was not in the mood to argue with these hooligans.

But now, since they were deliberately provoking her again, Victoria couldn’t be blamed for what happened next!

“Let’s go, babe. I’ll carry you!”

One of the men was about to reach out to Victoria when she immediately controlled him.

Smack!

The man's hand did not land on Victoria's body. Instead, it landed on one of his companions.

"F*ck you! Why did you hit me?!"

The person who was hit shouted unhappily.

But his friend seemed to have gone crazy as he continued to chase after him.

"F*ck you! Are you crazy?! Are you trying to snatch this woman from me? I'll fight you to the death!"

The person who was hit picked up a wine bottle and started fighting with his friend.

The other three hurriedly tried to stop the fight.

"Hey, what's wrong with you two? How many years have you been good brothers? Why are you suddenly fighting now?!"

"F*ck, didn't you two already resolve your previous issue? It was just a money matter. There's no need to fight over that!"

"That's right. We're all good brothers. We are just out to have fun with women together!"

The two of them were about to be pulled apart by their friends. But would Victoria let these scoundrels have a good ending?

Victoria controlled another person and made him join in the fight.

In an instant, it was chaos as the five of them attacked each other crazily.

In the end, all five of them were killed by each other.

Many customers left in fright, but Victoria watched everything coldly without any ripples in her heart.

She had a very strong sense of superiority now. Who cared about the lives of these ordinary people? Moreover, these people were b*stards who wanted to harm her.

Soon, the police came and took the dead bodies away. They even reprimanded the bar owner.

After receiving the complaint, the bar owner walked over and said to Victoria, "Miss, I'm really sorry. Because of the murder case in the bar, we have to close for the night. You should go back and rest early."

He was asking Victoria to leave?

Victoria was just starting to get a little tipsy. Would she leave?

Victoria looked at the bar owner, and his eyes quickly turned purple.

The bar owner said, "Miss, please continue to drink here. It doesn't matter how long you stay here. You can drink for as long as you like!"

Chapter 1120: I Didn't Do Anything Wrong?

Victoria had always been a unique, aloof and cool woman. However, it was only now that Victoria could truly do whatever she wanted without caring about anything or anyone.

When she was a CEO in Orlando, although she had autonomy most of the time, there were still times when she was restricted by the company and the business environment. In order to do business, she had to do things she didn't want to do and meet people she didn't want to see.

But now, Victoria could do whatever she wanted. No one could stop her.

The police and bar owner could not influence her decisions. She just needed to look at them and they would obey her.

Of course, Victoria was still immersed in her regret for Jordan and did not feel the joy of becoming a mutant.

The bartender looked at the bar owner strangely. Five people had just died. He thought they were going to close the shop and go home.

Unexpectedly, the bar owner allowed this customer to continue drinking here.

Since a customer was still here, the bartender couldn't leave. As a result, he continued to stay at the bar to serve Victoria. The other people in the bar had already left.

As the bartender wiped the glasses, he asked, "Miss, some people just died here. Aren't you afraid?"

Victoria held her wine glass and said with a dazed expression, "Afraid? I've already died once. What's there to be afraid of?"

As a bartender for many years, he had heard his fair share of customers bragging. But he knew that this woman was definitely not bragging.

The bartender looked at Victoria sympathetically and said, "Since you've already experienced death, why are you so upset over a relationship?"

boxn ov el. c o m

Due to her wedding dress, the bartender guessed that something must have happened to her romantic life. That was why she came over to drink.

The bartender was just too embarrassed to talk to her about this directly.

However, upon seeing that Victoria did not answer, the bartender's curiosity overcame him. "With your beauty, I believe no man will be stupid enough to abandon you. Did the man you like cheat on you and do something wrong? If you really love him, forgive him this once. Don't think that just because you're so beautiful, no man would ever cheat on you.

"I'm telling you, I've done my research. The more beautiful a man's wife is, the more likely he will cheat! For example, the world's number one beauty, Audrey Hepburn, was married to three different men, and each of them cheated on her! And didn't Jay-Z cheat on Beyonce too? The kind of man who seeks out women like you is the most lecherous. He can't be changed!"

Perhaps she felt that the bartender's words made sense. At the very least, he wasn't an ignorant person who didn't have any opinions. Victoria started to talk.

Victoria asked, "Do you want to know my story?"

The young bartender nodded.

Victoria downed the wine in her glass and said, "Then give me the strongest drink you have!"

After a while, Victoria downed a glass of the strongest cocktail the bartender could make. The young bartender was shocked. This was the first time in his life that he had seen such a fierce woman.

Thereafter, Victoria told him about her relationship with Jordan.

Of course, she didn't go into detail or reveal things like time travel. Although she had drunk a lot of alcohol, she was still very clear-headed. She knew that it would be very troublesome if she exposed these things. Moreover, the bartender would think that she was drunk and talking nonsense.

Only then did the young bartender know that Victoria had done something wrong to the man she liked.

The young bartender said in surprise, "I didn't expect the two men you liked to be the same person. I don't think that could be considered cheating."

Victoria was taken aback. "Not considered cheating? Did I not describe the situation clearly?"

The young bartender clarified. "No, I am well aware of your situation. First of all, there's something wrong with that man. He shouldn't have pretended to be someone else to get close to you.

"Secondly, you only slept with another version of him, it's not considered cheating. We have to understand the definition of cheating. Cheating is a betrayal. It's a betrayal of your love for him, right? But your love for both men is the same! You liked the same person!

"If he has a special ability and can replicate clones of himself, like in those fantasy novels, would it be considered cheating if you were with one of his clones? It definitely wouldn't be considered cheating!"

Victoria narrowed her eyes and felt a little calmer. She just wanted to hear someone tell her that she wasn't that bad, that what she did wasn't that wrong.

When she thought of what she had done to Jordan, she felt endlessly ashamed.

However, after hearing the bartender's words, Victoria felt much better.

Victoria said, "That's right. The two men I liked are actually the same person. How can it be considered cheating? If William was someone else, I would never have done anything with him. Only Jordan has the ability to move me!

"It was my uncontrollable love for Jordan that led to everything that happened between me and William. The root of all this is because of my love for Jordan. How could it be said that I let him down?"

Victoria finally resolved this issue in her heart.

At first glance, it was 100% Victoria's fault. But after careful analysis, what she did wasn't that wrong.

The young bartender said, "That's right. It's good that you've thought it through. Miss, it's getting late. Go back and rest."

The young bartender knew how to talk to the customers and make them happy.

To be honest, people had just died in the bar. Victoria wasn't afraid, but he was.

Actually, from a man's perspective, he knew very well that after a woman betrayed a man like this, there was no way the man would ever forgive her.

However, he couldn't say that because it would make Victoria drink even more.

Victoria was stubborn. "No, I haven't had enough. Continue to bring out more drinks. You're very thoughtful. I like talking to you."

The bartender said, "Miss, you've drunk enough. Why don't you... Alright, Miss. Please wait a moment. I'll bring more drinks to you immediately!"

An hour later.

Victoria drank another dozen bottles of alcohol. The young bartender watched as she drank glass after glass.

"Oh no, oh no. You drank so much. You're going to die! You're so beautiful. I can't watch you drink yourself to death."

The young bartender secretly called an ambulance during his bathroom break.

Soon, the ambulance arrived.

The moment the medical staff entered, the bartender rushed to the door and reported. "This woman has drunk dozens of bottles of alcohol. Hurry up and take her to the hospital. If you delay, she might die!"
