

The Abandoned Husband Dominates –

Chapter 1131: Victoria: You're Not Worthy Of Me Anymore!

Victoria's arrival stunned everyone.

"Victoria!"

When the mutants saw Victoria, they greeted her politely.

It was obvious that Victoria had a very high status in the Mutant Tribe and was respected by them.

This respect was not only because she was the Chief's wife, but also because she was a purple-level mutant and could control people in an entire district.

"Victoria, why are you here?"

Randall also looked at Victoria in surprise.

Victoria nodded at Randall before walking towards Jordan. "Let's go over there and talk."

Jordan smiled and nodded. Together with Victoria, he walked to the other side of the beach.

The two of them walked to the wall with the lyrics of "Girl's Prayer" and stopped.

Jordan glanced at the lyrics on the wall. "I pray for the heavens to let go of a pair of lovers. I'm afraid that what happened will never happen." His love for Victoria resurfaced in his heart. He missed the good times between the two of them.

Victoria also looked at the wall, then looked at Jordan and asked gently, "You came to find me?"

Jordan nodded. Seeing that Victoria looked a little haggard, he asked, "How's your health? I heard that you fainted last night."

Victoria said indifferently, "I'm fine. It's nothing. You don't have to come to see me because of this. Randall will take care of me."

Jordan said, "Victoria, I came to find you because I have something very important to tell you. Now that you're listed as an SS-grade dangerous person in the US, they will do anything to get rid of you. I believe you've already seen the first batch of killers."

"It's not safe for you to be in the US. You'll make those people feel uneasy. I don't want you to fight with them."

"Victoria, how about I take you to US? We can go to LA, New York, where the Rong family used to live."

Victoria was a little surprised. "To the US? Us two?"

Jordan nodded and held Victoria's hand. "Yeah, let's make up. Let's forget about the unhappy past and get back together, okay?"

Victoria gradually became excited. She never expected Jordan to take the initiative to get back together.

After what happened, Jordan could actually forgive her.

However, Victoria was not touched. Instead, she said, "Why do you want me again? Haven't you always despised me?"

Jordan explained, "I've never despised you."

Victoria shook off Jordan's hand. "You clearly do. You already planned to abandon me. From the moment you got someone to remove the idea implanted in me, you planned to abandon me!"

Jordan said, "Yes, at that moment, I did think of breaking up with you, but when I came back from the past, I had no more intention of doing so."

"If Shaun hadn't told you about this before he died, I wouldn't have broken up with you. Believe me."

Victoria sneered coldly and said, "The night we broke up, you didn't ask me to stay either, which meant that you still wanted to break up with me. It doesn't matter who mentioned it."

"You don't have to force yourself to be with me again."

Jordan said, "I'm not forcing myself. I'm serious. I know you still love me. If you don't marry someone you love, do you want to spend the rest of your life with someone you don't love? Will you be happy then?"

Victoria suddenly said, "Jordan, you've misunderstood. I... no longer love you."

Jordan smiled. "Is that so? If you don't love me, why did you take the initiative to come out and see me."

Victoria said, "That's not love, but pity..."

Jordan frowned. "Pity?"

Victoria said awkwardly, "Actually, I noticed it since you came. I also saw your battle with Park Sora. I saw you lose to her."

"I took the initiative to meet you because I pity you and don't want you to be too embarrassed. I don't mean anything else."

Victoria's words made Jordan dumbfounded!

Pity? Pity?

Victoria actually used such words to describe Jordan and their relationship!

Jordan sneered. He was a Deity and had always been the object of Victoria's admiration. Now, he had become her pitiful target!

Victoria said, "Jordan, let's accept reality. Perhaps there's a reason why the heavens arranged for us to be separated. If we don't break up, I won't be able to be with your uncle. Your uncle won't let me become a purple-level mutant, and I won't be able to have everything I have now."

"I really enjoy my current ability and identity as a mutant. I'm starting to have my own world. We've already... drifted."

Jordan sneered. "Drifted further away? Are you saying that I'm becoming less and less compatible with you?"

Victoria lowered her head. "Although these words might hurt you, the reality now is that it will be easy for me to kill people like Park Sora and Lincoln, but you can't even defeat them..."

Jordan laughed loudly. "Hahaha, I understand now. The reason why you're unwilling to go to the US with me is not because you feel guilty about me, but because you don't dare to face me after William's matter. It's because you think that I'm very weak and not worthy of you, right?"

Victoria didn't answer directly. "I wasn't worthy of you before."

Jordan definitely did not expect Victoria to reject him with such a reason.

If Victoria had other reasons, such as being unable to face the past or feeling very ashamed, Jordan would hold her hand tightly and take her away. He would work hard with her to forget the past and be together with her again.

However, Victoria rejected him because she felt that Jordan was not worthy of her.

Jordan was a very prideful person. Since a woman already looked down on him as a man, he would never beg her again.

Jordan said agitatedly, "Alright, I understand. You're right. I can't even defeat a little girl like Park Sora. How can I have the cheek to come over and tell you that I want to protect you?"

"Hehe, I really overestimated myself!"

"You're a purple-level mutant now. You can protect yourself. Moreover, you have a noble status. If I get together with you now, I'll be considered greedy and wanting to gain benefits from you."

"I heard that my uncle has a gold-level mutant. In the world, only people who are gold-level mutants are worthy of you, right?"

Victoria sighed softly. She knew that Jordan must be feeling very upset at this moment.

If it wasn't necessary, Victoria wouldn't have been so direct.

However, at this point, Victoria hoped that Jordan would forget about her as soon as possible. She did not mind showing her heartless side.

Only if she behaved ruthless enough would Jordan forget about her sooner.

Victoria said, "Yes, only gold-level mutants can be considered compatible with me."

Chapter 1132: Time Gate Destroyed!

Victoria's straightforward words rendered Jordan speechless.

Although Jordan was a Deity and had the ability to predict the future, even a black-level mutant was able to defeat him.

Indeed, Victoria admired truly powerful men.

The current Jordan could no longer be admired by Victoria.

Although he didn't know what Randall's gold-level mutant power was, he was the only mutant with a gold-level power.

Victoria had already expressed her intentions very clearly. She might love Jordan a little more, but she wanted to stay by the side of an expert like Randall and broaden her own horizons. This was something that she wanted instead of returning to Jordan's side to support the weak.

Ever since he was betrayed by Hailey and judged on for being weak, Jordan once again experienced the feeling of being looked down on by the woman he liked.

Jordan clenched his fists and said, "Alright, I wish you happiness!"

After saying that, Jordan turned around and left.

In fact, Jordan might also be a gold-level mutant!

However, Jordan did not tell Victoria about this.

Jordan hesitated for a few seconds, wondering if he should tell Victoria about his dream.

boxn ov el. c o m

If he told Victoria, she might leave Jordan and get back together with him. The two of them would return to their sweet life.

However, Jordan did not do so.

He wanted to use love to lure Victoria back, not those so-called external things like money, power and power.

Jordan had never bothered to use such things to attract girls.

If Jordan did that, he would be no different from those rich second-generation heirs who spent money to find girlfriends. Women would love his money and not him.

Jordan felt that the love between him and Victoria was deep enough to ignore everything else.

Looking at Jordan's back as he left, Victoria felt very helpless. She did not try to make him stay. This time, she hoped to live for herself.

"Mr. Jordan..."

Seeing Jordan walk back with a gloomy expression, Salvatore and the others realized something.

"Let's go."

Jordan only said one word. He did not greet anyone and walked straight to the plane.

The mutants were full of jeers and mocking again.

"Get lost, loser. Haha, behave yourself in the future!"

"Deity Jordan, let me tell you a secret. Our Mutant Tribe has more than a hundred black-level mutants. This means that more than a hundred people can beat you up. Don't be so arrogant in the future."

Salvatore was very unhappy with the mockery.

After boarding the plane, he said, "Mr. Jordan, these mutants are too f*cking arrogant! Kill them with cannonballs! I don't believe their bodies can't be killed by cannonballs!"

Jordan said, "The Rong family's high-tech weapons are controlled by us and the Mutant Tribe. We're not the only ones with cannonballs. They can use them too. I will pay them back in their own ways to take revenge for today's humiliation! When I encounter these mutants again, I want them to kneel and talk to me!"

Didn't people of the Mutant Tribe determine the level of their talent?

Alright, when Jordan became a gold-level mutant, let's see if they still dare to look down on him!

Salvatore was overjoyed. "Boss, are you..."

Jordan nodded. "Let's set off immediately to Hawaii!"

Jordan couldn't wait. He wanted to go to Hawaii and use the Time Gate to return to the past. He would find a time to jump into the Immortal Lake.

He wanted to obtain the gold-level ability that the Immortal Lake had given him!

He wanted Victoria to regret not leaving with him today!

...

In the Rong family's base in Hawaii.

The mutants had sent ordinary soldiers to guard this hidden place.

Dragon suddenly appeared with his men.

Dragon was quite famous. The subordinates of the Mutant Tribe had all heard of him and knew that he was once the king of ordinary people.

A soldier said, "You're Jordan's subordinate, Dragon? What are you doing here? This place is guarded by the Mutant Tribe."

Dragon had just received Jordan's order to come early and control the situation.

Salvatore also secretly sent a message and told Dragon about how Jordan had been humiliated in front of the Mutant Tribe.

Hearing this, how could Dragon not be angry? He did not waste his breath on the other party. He reached out and killed the ordinary soldiers sent by the Mutant Tribe.

"Mutants... are just trash with cheats. Apart from your superpowers, you guys are nothing!"

Dragon, who had trained his body and honed his skills since he was a young boy, looked down on the Mutant Tribe.

Dragon was confident that if he had the same superpowers, he could definitely defeat all the mutants, including Randall.

Before long, Jordan's plane landed in Hawaii.

Dragon personally went to meet him. "Mr. Jordan, are you alright? I heard that Park Sora attacked you. Although she has the superpower of freezing, I'm confident that I can find an opportunity to secretly kill her. Do you need me to do that?"

Jordan said, "Let's not talk about this anymore. Dragon, come with me to the Immortal Lake and see if we can awaken our superpowers. This is the era of superpowers. Without the talent from the Immortal Lake, it will be very difficult to deal with those mutants."

Dragon was also looking forward to it. He was already at the pinnacle of combat techniques. If he was given another superpower, he would be a terrifying existence!

Salvatore was also looking forward to it. "I'll go too. I'll go too!"

The three of them arrived at the place where the Rong family had placed the Time Gate.

Opening the thick entrance door, the three of them walked in together.

However, after entering, Jordan and the other two were dumbfounded.

“How is that possible?”

The Time Gate in front of him was already in a mess and damaged beyond recognition!

Dragon was also very puzzled. “How... how did this happen? I killed the guards sent by the Mutant Tribe just now. They didn't come in to see the situation here.”

“It looks like this Time Gate was destroyed before I came. No wonder I felt that the guards here are a little weak. It turns out that they've been protecting a broken thing.”

Salvatore cursed, “F*ck, it must be someone from the Mutant Tribe. They were afraid that Mr. Jordan would return to the past, so they destroyed it! F*ck! This is the last Time Gate. Mr. Jordan has already blown up the previous one. Now, this one is also broken. What should we do? How can we go to the Immortal Lake? If not, let's start a war with Randall!”

Dragon reminded him, “The Mutant Tribe has taken over many of the Rong family's weapons, including weather weapons and laser weapons. If we really fight them, I believe it will be another world war!”

Jordan was furious. He picked up the phone and called Randall!

Chapter 1133: There's Another One?!

At this moment, Randall, who had received Jordan's call, revealed a meaningful smile.

Actually, at this moment, he already knew why Jordan was calling.

Moreover, he already knew that Jordan had gone to Hawaii. He even knew that Jordan wanted to return to the past through the Time Gate and jump into the Immortal Lake to try and obtain a mutant superpower.

Randall deliberately waited a few seconds before answering. “Jordan.”

Jordan said angrily, “Uncle, I want to ask you, why did you destroy the Time Gate left behind by the Rong family? This is the only Time Gate in this world. This is an epoch-making technology. Why did you destroy it?”

Randall pretended to be surprised. "What did you say? The Time Gate was destroyed? When did this happen?"

Jordan asked in surprise, "You don't know?"

Randall explained, "That place is indeed guarded by my men, but I've never heard of the Time Gate being destroyed. We agreed back then to take over everything in the Rong family together. You have a say regarding this Time Gate. If I wanted to destroy it, how could I not ask for your opinion?"

Jordan didn't know if Randall was telling the truth.

Randall pretended to be concerned and asked, "Jordan, what do you need the Time Gate for? Do you want to return to the past? What do you want me to do? Is there anything you need my help for?"

Randall could definitely help Jordan with the matter of going to the Immortal Lake, but would he be willing? After all, Randall had rejected Jordan once before.

Now that his ex-girlfriend had become Randall's wife, she was willing to stay by his side and admired him very much.

boxn ov el. c o m

As a man, Jordan was also very jealous of Randall. He would never lower himself to beg him.

Jordan said, "No need, I'll think of a way myself."

Jordan hung up.

Randall chuckled and put away his phone. He said to Lincoln, "Well done, Lincoln."

Lincoln smiled. "Haha, the Chief is indeed good at predicting. I knew your nephew would want to return to the past to enter the Immortal Lake and obtain his talent. However, hasn't Jordan already tested that the lake won't change color? Why are you still so wary of him?"

Randall said, "Jordan has already obtained his superpower, but his situation is different from ours. No one knows what will happen after he jumps into the Immortal Lake. Most importantly, if he's unwilling to join our Mutant Tribe and isn't on our side, I won't let him in."

Lincoln smiled. "Now, our only chance to make a comeback has been ruined. Jordan's life is over. He can only be a pathetic little Deity who only knows how to predict things. He will never get Victoria's favor again."

Randall smiled in agreement.

Meanwhile, Jordan hung up the phone. Salvatore asked, "What did Randall say?"

Jordan said, "He said he didn't know."

Salvatore snorted. "He didn't know? His men are guarding this place. How can he not know that such a big thing has been destroyed? Who is he fooling?! Mr. Jordan, your uncle is really hypocritical. He thinks you're easy to bully, so he's been mocking you!"

Dragon added. "Master, I know you had a good relationship with Uncle when you were young, but times have changed. After all, you haven't seen each other for so many years. He has experienced so much over the years. Perhaps he's no longer the uncle you know."

Jordan said, "Alright, I know how to handle my relationship with my uncle. The problem now isn't my uncle. Even without him, Victoria will still look down on me and won't return to my side."

Dragon sighed. "Sigh, it's a pity that the only remaining Time Gate has been destroyed. I'm afraid it will take a long time to reconstruct it. Can you wait that long?"

Salvatore said, "How long must we wait? Not a year or two. If it's two years, Victoria might have already given birth to Randall's child!"

Jordan handed the available data to Little Steele for analysis and asked it to deduce how long it would take to create another Time Gate.

Little Steele said, "The core information on the construction of the Time Gate is not complete. We can't deduce the exact time."

Jordan also calculated the impact of his prediction ability on the progress of his research and development.

Little Steele said, "It will take at least three to five years, and the success rate cannot be guaranteed."

The three of them sighed.

The Rong family did not leave behind any information about the construction of the core Time Gate. In fact, Jordan could not even find out who was involved in this invention.

Therefore, it was extremely difficult to create another Time Gate.

Jordan was puzzled. "Strange, I clearly dreamed that I jumped into Immortal Lake. Why is the possibility of me entering the Immortal Lake getting lower and lower now?"

Dragon asked, "Master, did you dream of the Immortal Lake at this time or in the past?"

Jordan had never considered this problem. He only remembered that he had entered the Immortal Lake and caused it to change color.

"That's right. The Immortal Lake at this time is different from the one in the past."

Salvatore also said, "Yes, yes. The Immortal Lake at this time has a barrier. Moreover, there are Mutant Tribe flags everywhere in the Immortal Lake. These things definitely didn't exist in the past."

Jordan closed his eyes and recalled that dream carefully. In the dream, when he entered the Immortal Lake, he realized that the surroundings of the Immortal Lake were different from the scene when Jordan went to the Immortal Lake previously.

There were no signs or flags of the Mutant Tribe.

Jordan said, "It should have been the Immortal Lake in the past."

Dragon thought for a moment. "Since Master dreamed of it, this will definitely happen. But isn't the only remaining Time Gate in the world destroyed?"

Salvatore was also puzzled. "That's right. Little Steele also said that it will take at least three to five years to create another one. By then, Victoria will have given birth to a few children for Randall. Sigh, what's the use of obtaining abilities then?"

With his Deity intuition, Jordan did not think that he would dream of three to five years later. This was because he didn't have the ability to dream of what would happen five years later.

Jordan said, "There's another possibility."

Dragon and Salvatore looked at Jordan.

Jordan said, "Rong Huangde is lying. He told me that the Time Gate in Hawaii was the last one. He was actually lying to me. Just like when I first saw the Time Gate. He also said that it was the only one in the world. In the end, he had a backup. With how cunning he is, I'm guessing that there should still be another Time Gate hidden in this world!"

Chapter 1134: Rong Bingshao Is Not Dead!

"There's another Time Gate?"

Salvatore and Dragon were surprised. If there was still a Time Gate, they could return to the past together and jump into the Immortal Lake to obtain their abilities.

Dragon frowned. “Unfortunately, the Rong father and son are dead. Even Rong Bingshao, the only one qualified to inherit the family, is dead. Even if the Rong family still has a Time Gate, we don’t know where it is. The world is so big. I’m afraid it will take a long time to find it.”

Salvatore said, “Doesn’t Rong Bailun have a wife and a younger daughter? Force them to confess. Let’s see if they know!”

Dragon shook his head. “It shouldn’t be of much use. We’ve already sent people to interrogate them and used a lie detector the entire time. They don’t know the secrets of the Rong family.”

Jordan believed this. “Even Rong Bingshao might not know much. Rong Bingshao only found out about the secret of the Time Gate by accident because he wanted to take revenge on me and followed me. Sigh, if I had known earlier, I wouldn’t have killed him back then.”

Dragon said, “Master, you don’t have to worry too much. Since you’ve already predicted that you will definitely jump into the Immortal Lake, it’s just a matter of time.”

Salvatore said anxiously, “The biggest problem now is time! Dragon! Victoria will have children soon!”

Dragon, who had always been calm, retorted angrily, “Are you done? Can you not mention about her giving birth?”

Jordan was actually very anxious. Of course, he didn’t want to see Victoria and Randall so happy together and her bearing his uncle’s child. However, that was not what Jordan was most worried about now. He wanted to obtain his ability as soon as possible so that the people of the Mutant Tribe, especially Victoria, could see whether he was worthy of her or not!

“Is there still another Time Gate? If so, where is it...”

Jordan muttered to himself.

Meanwhile, in the Rong family’s mansion in Chaoyang Park.

Although the Rong family had completely fallen and was completely taken over by Jordan and Randall, Rong Bailun's wife and daughter were still living here and leading a rich life. This had not changed.

This also reflected Jordan's benevolence. This was a separate matter. Since Rong Bailun did not tell his family's secret to his wife and daughter, they were not implicated.

As such, Jordan was willing to give them a way out.

It happened to be Rong Bailun's youngest daughter and Rong Bingshao's younger sister, Rong Oumei's birthday.

Rong Bailun's wife, Ming La, specially spent time making a cake for Rong Oumei's birthday.

Ming La kissed Rong Oumei's cute little face.

However, today's birthday girl, Rong Oumei, did not have a smile on her face. She kept a straight face and did not blow out the candles or eat the cake.

"Daddy and Rong Bingshao are no longer around. I don't want to celebrate this birthday!"

With that, Rong Oumei ran back to her room in tears.

In the past, Rong Oumei would be accompanied by her father and brother on her birthday every year. However, there was no one this year, which disappointed her.

"Cries... why did you all leave me?"

When Rong Oumei returned to her room, she hugged her pillow and cried.

The more important a holiday was, the sadder a person would be. However, as she cried, she suddenly heard some movement and got up to take a look. There was a viola in the room.

Rong Oumei walked forward and realized that there was a card on the strings with "Happy Birthday" written on it.

Rong Oumei was shocked. "This is a Michael Conner viola! It must be a gift from Rong Bingshao! He's the only one who knows what I want! Bingshao, where are you? Are you there? Please come out quickly with Daddy, okay? This prank is really not fun! You guys are too much!"

However, no matter how Rong Oumei called out, there was no response.

At this moment, there was indeed a well-dressed person quietly leaving near the mansion. This person soon arrived at a place called Danish Village.

He walked into a seemingly ordinary winery, but only after entering would one realize that there was actually a huge world inside.

There was a secret door here, and what was behind it was what it really looked like.

“Master Rong!”

“Master Rong!”

Many people inside greeted him respectfully when they saw him return.

The man took off his hood and revealed his true appearance.

It was indeed Rong Bingshao, who had not appeared for a long time!

Jordan had killed Rong Bingshao previously, but he was saved immediately.

However, for the sake of Rong Bingshao’s safety, Rong Huangde had been hiding this from Jordan, not letting him know that Rong Bingshao was alive.

In fact, Rong Bingshao had been recovering during this period of time. He also had to hide his strength and bide his time to enhance his abilities!

During this period of time, he had calmed down and read many books, including many Chinese books, such as “Sun Tzu’s Art of War”.

After being forced to become truly mature, he realized how childish and weak his original self was. No wonder he had lost to Jordan.

Now, he believed that he was countless times stronger than before.

He wanted to avenge himself!

He still wanted to avenge his grandfather!

“Master Rong, did you go out?” An extraordinary-looking man asked.

This man’s name was Nick. He had been with the Rong family for many years and his ability was not inferior to the late Ban Luming. His status in the Rong family was actually higher than Lee Su-ji’s.

However, he had suddenly retreated previously. As for why, it started when Rong Bailun learned that Rong Bingshao had traveled back in time.

Rong Bingshao said indifferently, "Today is Rong Oumei's birthday."

Nick said, "I know you and Rong Oumei have a close relationship, but we must be careful for now. If Jordan or Randall finds out that you're not dead, I'm afraid it will be troublesome! When your father learned that you had traveled back in time to find Ban Luming, he predicted that something would happen next. Therefore, he specially asked me to leave the Rong family and hide. He wanted me to secretly establish a team outside the Rong family to assist you.

"Sigh, now that your grandfather and father have been killed, if anything happens to you again, I really won't be able to face Master Rong Bailun!"

Rong Bingshao clenched his fists. "Shaun killed my father, Jordan killed my grandfather, and Jordan even almost killed me once! I must take revenge!"

"It's not just Jordan. There's also the despicable Mutant Tribe and Randall. I want to kill them all!"

Chapter 1135: Rong Bingshao's Black-Level Ability!

After the eight secret families collapsed one after another, everyone believed that Jordan and Randall were the masters of the world. Little did they know that the powerful Rong family was not completely controlled by them.

Rong Bingshao, the third generation of the Rong family, was not dead at all. Moreover, he had been secretly monitoring them and accumulating energy.

He was ready to attack!

The reason that Jordan could not find any scientific information about the researchers of the Rong family who invented the Time Gate was because Rong Bailun had already separated these core members.

At the same time, the team led by Nick was not any weaker than Ban Luming's team, and Rong Bingshao also had the most advanced weapons here.

However, Rong Bingshao did not attack and declare war on Jordan and Randall immediately. After all, he had already died once. He had died previously because he was too young and impulsive.

This time, he had to wait for the best opportunity. Once he attacked, he had to win!

If they failed again, the Rong family would really be finished.

“For Mom and Sister, I have to win!”

Rong Bingshao clenched his fists. He was hiding in the dark now and did not even tell his mother and sister.

Rong Bingshao asked coldly, “How’s that b*stard Jordan doing recently?”

Nick said, “Jordan’s situation hasn’t been too good recently. Ever since his woman, Victoria, was snatched away by his uncle, Randall, he seems to have been suffering from bad luck. According to our spies in the Mutant Tribe, Jordan just went to Nags Head to look for Victoria, but he lost to his half-sister, Park Sora.”

boxn ov el. c o m

When Rong Bingshao heard this, he snorted in contempt. “Hmph, Jordan, haven’t you always been invincible? I didn’t expect you to lose to a black-level mutant. If your uncle Randall were to beat you up, wouldn’t you be done for?”

Rong Bingshao was very happy to hear that Jordan had failed.

This was because when Rong Bingshao fought Jordan one-on-one previously, he was always the one being defeated.

Nick continued, “Jordan and Victoria chatted alone on the beach for a while. Jordan seemed to want to take Victoria abroad to escape the US pursuit order, but Victoria didn’t agree.”

Rong Bingshao snorted again. “Victoria has now elevated in status to a new level. Of course she won’t be willing to be with Jordan anymore. Randall is clearly a stronger existence than Jordan. I know this b*tch too well! It’s a pity. I thought I had slept with her once, but I was hypnotized by that b*stard Shaun. He implanted fake memories into me! If I can really sleep with a purple-level mutant, my life will not be in vain!”

Rong Bingshao had also learned from the Mutant Tribe that Shaun had slept with Victoria in the capital.

When Rong Bingshao found out, he was very unhappy because Jordan had killed him because of this. If he had done it, he wouldn’t have died for nothing. In the end, he didn’t do anything at all.

Nick continued. “Jordan went to Hawaii after that. He wanted to use the Time Gate we left in Hawaii. Unfortunately, it was destroyed by Randall in advance.”

Rong Bingshao narrowed his eyes. "Randall is indeed ruthless. In order to stop his nephew, he's willing to destroy such a heaven-defying invention of the Rong family. But why did Jordan want to return to the past?"

Nick said, "Jordan must want to return to the Immortal Lake and obtain his ability."

Rong Bingshao said, "Of course I know. He traveled back in time because he wanted to go to the Immortal Lake. I mean, what makes him think that he can obtain an ability by going to the Immortal Lake? Doesn't he already have the ability to predict the future? Can this ability be upgraded if he jumps in again?"

Nick shook his head. "I don't know about that either. Maybe he just wants to take another gamble. Master Rong, speaking of the Immortal Lake, have you considered this matter? Do you want to try?"

Rong Bingshao took a deep breath, feeling very stressed.

"That b*stard Jordan must be in despair now. He thinks that the Time Gate in Hawaii is the only Time Gate in the world. Little does he know that I have another one here! I can do what Jordan can't! I can return to the past at any time and enter Immortal Lake without the control of the Mutant Tribe to obtain an ability! If I have a gold-level power... then I can rule the entire world alone!"

Nick also said, "Even a woman like Victoria has a purple-level ability. I believe that Master Rong's talent will be no less!"

With that, Nick took out a small bottle. It contained the "Immortal Water" from the Immortal Lake. It could be tested in advance to see if a person was qualified to be a mutant.

However, Rong Bingshao was a little concerned. He had already obtained this Immortal Water, but he had never dared to test it. He was afraid that he did not have the potential to become a mutant!

After all, the chances of becoming a mutant were too low.

Rong Bingshao said, "Forget it, Nick. All of you have tested it. None of you can make this Immortal Water change color. The probability is too low. I don't think I can be a mutant. I don't want to do anything that will affect my confidence now!"

Nick felt a little exasperated. "Forgive me for being blunt, Bingshao. But if it was your father, even if he lost once, he would never be afraid of trying it even if he ended up being an ordinary person. You've already died at Jordan's hands once. Don't you want to return the favor?"

“Now, Jordan wants to return to the past, but he can’t. You can go to the Immortal Lake to obtain your talent at any time, but you don’t dare to. If Jordan finds out, he will definitely laugh at you!”

Rong Bingshao was furious. He gritted his teeth. “Jordan... Alright! I’ll test it. Even if I don’t have the talent, I can still kill Jordan and avenge Grandpa!”

With that, Rong Bingshao reached out a finger and placed it in the small bottle.

Everyone was looking forward to seeing this scene. Everyone shouted in unison.

“Color! Color! Color!”

In the first few dozen seconds, nothing changed. Just as Rong Bingshao thought that he had no talent, the water in the bottle suddenly began to turn black.

“Black! Congratulations, Master Rong! You’re a black-level mutant!”

“Congratulations, Master Rong!”

Rong Bingshao also shouted excitedly, “Hahahahaha, I have a black-level talent! Although it’s not as good as Victoria’s purple-level talent and Randall’s gold-level ability, a black-level talent is enough to kill Jordan! Let’s go. Follow me to the Immortal Lake immediately. I want to awaken my abilities! When I awaken my ability, it will be the day you die, Jordan!”

Chapter 1136: Female Guardian Of The Immortal Lake?

Rong Bingshao also had a mutant ability!

This was something that even he didn’t expect. He had always thought that he came from a good family and his life was too smooth sailing. He didn’t think that he would receive any more favor from the heavens.

Ordinary people like Victoria might have a higher chance of becoming a mutant and changing their fate.

Who would have thought that he could obtain the ability of a black-level mutant?!

Based on their understanding, a black-level mutant was enough to defeat Jordan!

Black-level mutants like Lincoln and Park Sora could defeat Jordan. If he had a special ability and the remaining Rong family soldiers, he was confident that he could avenge himself and his grandfather!

Rong Bingshao said impatiently, "We'll set off for Malta immediately!"

"Yes!"

Malta was where the Rong family had placed the third Time Gate. It was a pocket-sized country that very few people knew about. However, it had another beautiful name, "the Mediterranean Center".

Rong Bingshao and the others quietly arrived. Many people did not know that the entire Malta was filled with the Rong family's subordinates. As such, Rong Bingshao could enter and leave any place without being detected.

There was an intoxicating blue hue everywhere. The third Time Gate was also hidden in a blue lake called the Blue Lagoon. Wasting no time, Rong Bingshao and his subordinates entered the lake and entered the "underwater world".

In the water, they could still speak freely. This also reflected the high-tech level of the Rong family.

Nick said, "Master Rong, which year do you want to go to and visit Immortal Lake?"

Rong Bingshao said, "The earlier the better. The earlier it is, the safer it will be."

Nick said, "This Time Gate can only let you go back 30 years. Moreover, I suggest that we go to the timeline as close as possible to the present. It will be safer this way."

Rong Bingshao thought for a moment and said, "Alright, 15 years ago then. The Mutant Tribe was established only 10 years ago. 15 years ago, there was definitely no Mutant Tribe at the Immortal Lake."

Nick said, "Yes!"

Nick immediately set the date to January 2006 at Mount Denali.

Nick and the others put on their equipment and traveled back to 2006 with Rong Bingshao.

"Whoosh... whoosh..."

As soon as he traveled back in time, he felt a bone-piercing cold wind and snowflakes drifting in the sky. There was snow in front of him. With a single step, he would fall into the thick snow.

Nick also felt a little cold and explained, "I chose this time because I felt that there would be fewer people in the winter and less unnecessary trouble."

Rong Bingshao didn't mind. He said excitedly, "I've been injected with the Mirakuru serum. Do you think I'm afraid of the cold? Let's go to the Immortal Lake!"

The group began to walk towards the Immortal Lake. His subordinates were all armed and ready to fight at any moment. However, he didn't see anyone along the way.

Just as they expected, Randall's Mutant Tribe had yet to be established and was not stationed here.

"We're at Immortal Lake. There's no barrier here. Randall hasn't come here yet! Hahaha."

Rong Bingshao was excited. He had already seen the Immortal Lake and couldn't wait to jump in.

Just as he was about to run over, Nick suddenly shouted, "There's someone! Master Rong, be careful!"

As Nick spoke, he ran to Rong Bingshao to protect him.

At this moment, Rong Bingshao also looked forward in fear. He saw a woman with long hair and a white dress suddenly take off with the wind in the snow. Then, she disappeared.

"That woman can fly!"

Rong Bingshao and the others were shocked. This was the first time they had seen a woman who could fly.

"Look at her side profile. She looks like she's Caucasian. Oh my god, although I only saw a third of her side profile from afar, her aura and appearance are definitely that of a beauty!"

The others did not see a third of the woman's face. Rong Bingshao had been injected with the serum, and his vision far exceeded that of ordinary people. That was why he could see her face.

The Rong family was all prepared to fight, but this woman flew away.

Rong Bingshao glanced at the woman and was completely stunned. He had only ever liked European women. This was the first time he was so attracted to a woman!

Initially, he thought that Victoria and Emily were already the most outstanding women in the US. However, when he saw this woman, he finally knew what beauty was! This was not something Victoria could compare to at all!

Rong Bingshao grabbed the nervous Nick. "Who was that woman just now? She can fly. She must be a mutant too!"

Nick said, "I'm not sure either. Based on what we know about the members of the Mutant Tribe, no one inside can fly, nor is there a female mutant with such a figure."

Rong Bingshao sighed. "It's 2006 now. She became a mutant before Randall awakened his ability. She might not have joined the Mutant Tribe. Oh my god, who is she?! I think her talent is at least purple-level! Victoria is purple-level, but she can't even fly!"

Nick also sighed. "This woman is indeed a little mysterious. She actually obtained such a demonic ability in 2006. But in the past decade or so, I've never heard of such a person. She's really low-key. I wonder what she has been doing over the past decade. However, although this woman is very capable, she didn't go against us or stop us from entering the Immortal Lake. Instead, she left quietly. It looks like she doesn't have any ill intentions."

Rong Bingshao looked at the departing woman in a daze. "She's like a goddess. Didn't Randall always say that there are immortals in the Immortal Lake? Perhaps she's immortal! Perhaps she's the female guardian of the Immortal Lake!"

Nick was shocked. "The female guardian of the Immortal Lake?"

Nick never expected Rong Bingshao to be so attracted to this woman.

Rong Bingshao said, "That's right. She must be the female guardian of the Immortal Lake! She glanced at me. With her ability, she could have killed me easily, but she didn't do so. She didn't stop me because I obtained her recognition! Then she flew away just now to allow me to enter the Immortal Lake and obtain my ability!

"Everyone, kneel down and worship the female guardian of the Immortal Lake with me!"

Rong Bingshao led the way. Everyone bowed respectfully in the direction of the mysterious woman.

Chapter 1137: Godly Speed!

“The noble female guardian of the Immortal Lake. Oh, beautiful goddess. I hope to see you again when I return!”

Rong Bingshao muttered to himself.

Nick could tell that Rong Bingshao seemed to be infatuated with this woman. He smiled. “Master Rong, although I didn’t get a clear look at this female guardian’s face just now, her figure is so perfect and mature. She should be at least 20 years old.”

“20 years old in 2006, plus 15 years. That makes her 35 years old. She seems to be twice your age.”

Rong Bingshao smiled. “I don’t know if it’s because of Victoria. Although I didn’t really have sex with her that night, Shaun’s hypnosis made me very happy and infatuated. I find myself liking mature women more and more. I don’t like teenage girls anymore.”

Although Rong Bingshao was very young, he had already experienced a near-death experience and a major change in his family. He was already much more mature than his peers.

Hence, the women he liked were more mature.

“Alright, let’s quickly enter the Immortal Lake!”

Rong Bingshao put away his curiosity about the female guardian of the Immortal Lake and quickly ran forward.

Due to the cold weather, the surface of the lake water had already frozen, but Rong Bingshao still took off his shirt and jumped down.

“Master Rong, be careful!”

Nick and the others had also prepared all the rescue methods. But Rong Bingshao was very confident that he would be fine.

boxn ov el. c o m

“Randall succeeded. Victoria succeeded. I can’t fail!”

After jumping into the lake, the ice slowly melted. A minute later, the lake water began to turn black.

“Success!”

Nick was very excited to see this.

At the same time, there were also people from the Rong family who were in charge of recording this scene. They had even begun to extract the lake water and prepared to bring it back for research.

The US was indeed a technological powerhouse. It could even create a heaven-defying invention like the Time Gate. They really placed all their hopes on digitalization and technology.

Compared to Randall's so-called "legend of immortals", the Rong family scientists wanted to use science to completely explain the existence of the Immortal Lake.

Five minutes later.

Bang!

Rong Bingshao suddenly rushed out of the lake!

"Master Rong! How do you feel?!"

Nick walked forward excitedly.

Rong Bingshao kept panting, his emotions surging.

Nick asked excitedly, "Master Rong, do you feel any different now? What superpower did you obtain?"

The others also asked, "Sir, quickly share with us what superpowers you have now?"

Rong Bingshao kept exhaling. "I... I don't know."

The water of the Immortal Lake could not speak. It would not tell Rong Bingshao what talent it had given him.

Nick said, "Master Rong, punch me!"

Rong Bingshao was shocked. "Huh?"

Nick said, "Punch me. Let's see if your strength has increased!"

"That's... Well, okay."

Rong Bingshao didn't want to hit Nick at first. After all, Nick was a veteran of his father's family and an elder who admired him as much as Ban Luming.

However, on second thought, he realized that the Rong family's medical skills were so advanced that even if he died, he could still be saved. Rong Bingshao had only punched him once. He should be fine.

Rong Bingshao clenched his fists and punched Nick in the chest.

Nick was burly and was not afraid of ordinary attacks. Facing Rong Bingshao's punch, he stood rooted to the ground.

Rong Bingshao hesitated. "Well..."

Rong Bingshao immediately felt awkward and disappointed. Did his strength not increase?

But Nick could tell that Rong Bingshao's punch was completely different from before!

Nick said, "Master Rong, your strength might not have increased much, but your punching speed is much faster than before!"

The others chimed in. "That's right. I felt that Master's punch was so fast this time. I didn't even see how he attacked before it hit Master Nick."

Rong Bingshao was stunned. "Speed?"

Rong Bingshao instantly stepped forward.

Swish.

Swish.

Rong Bingshao's footsteps were light and he moved quickly like a ghost.

"Oh my god, Master Rong, how did you... become so fast?! Your black-level ability is lightning speed!"

Only then did Nick know that Rong Bingshao's talent far exceeded ordinary speed!

Nick also liked to record everything. He immediately ordered, "Test Master Rong's 100-meter speed immediately!"

"Yes!"

Nick ordered someone to make a 100-meter track and asked Rong Bingshao to test how long it would take to complete this 100-meter track. The 100-meter record for ordinary humans was 9.58 seconds for Usain Bolt.

Of course, Jordan, who had been injected with the Mirakuru serum, could already break this speed. Jordan's 100-meter speed was about five to six seconds.

Now, it was Rong Bingshao's turn to break the human limit again!

Rong Bingshao was already in the starting position when Nick started to count down.

"Three."

"Two."

"1."

"Begin!"

Swish!

A gust of wind blew past. Rong Bingshao reached the end of 100 meters in the blink of an eye!

Nick was overjoyed. He asked the statistician, "How many seconds?"

The statistician said, "Less than a second!"

"Hahahaha... I'm the Flash! My speed is unparalleled in the world! This is not my limit. If I slowly familiarize myself with my abilities and learn how to accelerate, I will become even faster! Jordan, you're finished. I can hit you 10 times a second, but you can't see me at all!"

Everyone knelt down.

"Congratulations, Master Rong, on your new speed abilities!"

Nick was so excited that tears flowed down his face. "Master Rong, you have to revive the Rong family and snatch it back from Jordan and Randall!"

Rong Bingshao was very smug. "Don't worry, Nick. I'll definitely do it! When I go back to train for a month, it will be time for me to kill Jordan! After I kill Jordan, I'll slowly play with that old fogey, Randall!"

...

A month later, in the capital.

Jordan was in the courtyard, drinking tea and chatting with the pregnant Lauren.

As time passed, Lauren's stomach slowly expanded. Her first child with Jordan was about to be born. For the two of them now, stability was the most important.

Therefore, for the sake of Lauren and his child, he was temporarily unwilling to have any conflict with Randall.

However, Jordan did not have a good month.

Seeing that Jordan was not in a good state, Lauren took the initiative to speak.

Lauren knew that Jordan was still troubled by Victoria. She said, "Victoria's relationship with the capital seems to have improved a lot recently. The two sides have stopped fighting. Victoria seems to have made some promises, and the capital is planning to let her off."

Jordan did not expect Lauren to take the initiative to mention Victoria. Now, she was the only one who dared to mention Victoria's name in front of Jordan.

Jordan said indifferently, "That's impossible. Victoria's ability is too dangerous. It's impossible for them to let her off. It's just a temporary reprieve. In the future, there will definitely be another conflict between the two sides. However, this has nothing to do with me anymore. Victoria is a purple-level mutant and she has a gold-level mutant by her side. The two of them are stronger than me. Even if something happens to her, I don't have the ability or the right to protect her."

Lauren could tell that Jordan was just saying those words in a fit of anger. She had heard about what happened in Nags Head from Salvatore. He knew that Victoria was unwilling to leave with Jordan and despised him.

Lauren comforted him. "Hubby, don't take Victoria's words to heart. She has such a deep relationship with you, so why would she look down on you? Perhaps she wants you to completely forget her. That's why she deliberately said those words."

Jordan didn't want to talk about this anymore. He got up and said, "I'm going to take a shower."

Lauren looked at Jordan's back and sighed.

She was naturally the person who understood Jordan the best. Even if Jordan knew that Victoria was just saying those words in a fit of anger and did not really look down on him, he would still look down on himself.

After all, Jordan was a very competitive person. How could he allow himself to be inferior to his former woman?

Lauren knew that over the past month, Jordan had been investigating the whereabouts of the Rong family's hidden Time Gate. Unfortunately, this was like finding a needle in a haystack. There were no clues at all.

...

Meanwhile, in a certain residence in the capital, Rong Bingshao and the others had already quietly arrived.

boxn ov el. c o m

After a month of training, Rong Bingshao had already mastered his lightning speed. It was time to take revenge on Jordan!

In the room, Rong Bingshao sat quietly smoking a cigar. At such a young age, he was becoming more and more like a big shot.

At the side, Nick, who had a thick beard and was tall and muscular, asked in a rough voice, "Master Rong, what should we do next?"

When they arrived at Jordan's territory, the next step was naturally to kill Jordan and avenge Rong Huangde.

However, Jordan was a Deity. They had to discuss carefully how to kill him.

Rong Bingshao said, "According to our military strategy, only by knowing one's enemy can one win every battle! Nick, let me ask you, what is Jordan's greatest characteristic and advantage?"

Nick thought for a moment and said, "He has high intelligence, cunning thoughts and unpredictable acting skills. However, his greatest advantage is that he can predict what will happen in the future."

Rong Bingshao nodded. "That's right. He can predict what will happen next. Therefore, if we want to deal with him, it's very likely that he will know an hour in advance before we do. Since he will know in advance that we will attack, how can we succeed?"

Nick narrowed his eyes. "Yes, that's why we have to arrive suddenly! We have to kill him immediately when he's caught off guard. We can't let him notice us in advance."

Rong Bingshao said, "Ever since we came to the capital, we've been very careful. He won't suspect anything for the time being. Other than that, I think the safest way is to distract him with something so that he won't be in the mood to predict the future. This way, we can find an opportunity."

Nick looked at Rong Bingshao in surprise. "Master Rong is right! However, Jordan has always been self-disciplined and doesn't have the habit of getting addicted. Beauty, games and other things don't seem to be able to distract him."

Rong Bingshao smiled. "As long as he's human, there must be something that can intoxicate him. Grandpa said that Jordan has two characteristics that can be exploited. One is patriotism, and the other is love!

"Jordan values relationships very much, especially his love for women. Back then, for Lauren's sake, he didn't hesitate to be Shaun's puppet and perform a heaven-defying mind-transplant procedure for him. In order to save Victoria, he was even more willing to help Grandpa travel back in time."

When Nick heard this, he asked, "Now that Victoria is no longer by his side, can we kidnap Lauren when Jordan isn't paying attention first and use her to blackmail him into giving in? Lauren is pregnant now. With her under our control, it will be much easier for us to kill Jordan!"

Rong Bingshao nodded. "Yes, that's what I planned to do. But that's not what I wanted to say. Currently, Victoria is the only person who can make Jordan lose his rationality. We can use this to lure Jordan out first and make him immerse himself in Victoria's love. We'll take this opportunity to kidnap Lauren. When the time comes, I'll kill Jordan and he will die!"

Nick said, "Victoria is now Jordan's aunt. Jordan must be feeling very uncomfortable. This woman is indeed the easiest way to provoke Jordan. However, Victoria is now a purple-level mutant and is personally protected by Randall. We can't provoke her."

Rong Bingshao said, "Don't worry, Nick. I'm a black-level mutant and Victoria is a purple mutant. She's even more powerful than me. I'm not so stupid as to provoke her. You don't know this, but there's a woman in the capital who looks very similar to Victoria. Jordan knows this woman too. We can use her to make Jordan drunk! I can guarantee that he will definitely take the bait!"

Nick looked at Rong Bingshao in awe. "Master Rong, you're really smart and brave now. You've even surpassed your teacher. You've truly matured and become powerful! Jordan will definitely die at your hands!"

Rong Bingshao was so young, but he had come up with such a flawless method to lure the Deity out. Even the experienced Nick was inferior.

Nick knew that Rong Bingshao was no longer a child. He had really become a leader and an opponent qualified to fight a Deity!

Rong Bingshao clenched his fists and thought to himself. "Jordan, you will see another side of me. This time, I will be so powerful that you will kneel down and beg for mercy!"

Chapter 1139: Victoria's Fake Singing!

Another three days passed.

That night, Jordan was having dinner with Lauren and their daughter, Chloe.

Salvatore suddenly walked in, but he didn't say anything. He just stood at the side and watched the three of them, as if something was wrong.

Soon, Lauren wiped Chloe's mouth. "Chloe, we're done eating. We're going back to our room."

Chloe was also very obedient. "Alright, when can I play cards with Brother?"

Lauren's child had already been confirmed. It was a boy.

Lauren stroked Chloe's head and said, "It will take years to play cards but you can make him laugh this time next year."

The beautiful mother-daughter duo walked out of the living room warmly.

At this moment, Jordan looked at Salvatore and said, "What's the matter? You've been jittery since you came in."

Jordan could tell that Salvatore had something to say, but because Lauren and Chloe were here, he did not report it directly.

Lauren was a smart woman and could tell at a glance, so she left early with Chloe.

boxn ov el. c o m

Salvatore said, "Mr. Jordan, you're really smart. You know everything I want to do. There's indeed something I want to report to you. Mr. Jordan, do you still remember the hostess who had plastic surgery to look like Victoria Clarke?"

Jordan nodded. "Of course. Didn't that woman go to jail on behalf of Victoria? How is she now? Did something happen?"

Victoria's impostor had gone to jail in her place back then. However, now that Victoria had become an SS-grade dangerous person in the US and the two of them looked almost identical, it was very likely that she had been killed by mistake.

Salvatore said, "No, she's been released. She's now singing at a bar. I just went over to take a look. Hey, she sang really well. There were many viewers. Mr. Jordan, do you want to go take a look?"

Salvatore knew that Jordan still missed Victoria. Unfortunately, Victoria was no longer the same as before and looked down on Jordan. Moreover, she was still by his uncle's side.

Therefore, Salvatore thought that he could let Jordan see this imitation in the capital for fun.

Anyway, this counterfeit was at Jordan's disposal. She would do whatever Jordan asked her to do.

Salvatore whispered, "Mr. Jordan, I went to the bar to take a look just now. This imitation looks very similar to Victoria. If the lighting isn't too strong, it's impossible to tell who's who. I know Mr. Jordan still misses Victoria. Now that she doesn't like you anymore, why don't you quench your thirst with this imitation first?"

Bang!

Jordan kicked him. "I'm a Deity. Why would I sleep with a fake woman? Do you think I'm a man like Russell?"

Victoria was Jordan's woman to begin with, and Jordan had always deeply liked and admired her. It would not be a problem for Jordan to sleep with her no matter what!

Salvatore hurriedly apologized. "I'm sorry, Mr. Jordan. I was wrong. I was vulgar! I'll get going first..."

"Wait a minute!"

Jordan stopped Salvatore and continued, "Although I'm not interested in this woman, I still have to go to the bar to take a look. I have this strange feeling that this woman would suddenly come out to sing. Could it be that Lionel's people deliberately did this?"

Salvatore also thought for a moment. "Now that Victoria is listed as a SS-grade dangerous person, if a woman similar to Victoria appears in the capital, she will definitely be arrested. This woman looks exactly the same. Someone must be watching her from Lionel's side!"

Jordan frowned. "Let's go to the bar and see what Lionel is up to."

"Yes!"

Jordan and Salvatore immediately took a car to a newly opened LIVE HOUSE in the capital. After entering, the two of them found a booth and sat down.

At this moment, the lights in the bar were dim and only the stage lights were on. There was a band playing live on the stage. There were keyboardists, drummers and guitarists. In the middle of the stage was a fake Victoria who was singing with a microphone.

“The sky is so gray that it looks like it has cried. After leaving you, there was no freedom.”

“The sour air can smell the distance between us.”

Jordan was intoxicated by her voice.

Not only was her voice clear and moving, her enunciation and breathing were also very special. There was a sense of casualness and melancholy.

This was Jay’s song, “Stand Back”, which Jordan and Victoria had once heard together.

Listening to the song and looking at the woman who looked exactly like Victoria, Jordan couldn’t help but recall their past.

The first thing that appeared in Jordan’s mind was Victoria smiling at him and saying, “I’ll take care of you.”

She had spent money to buy a villa in New York City and Jordan was only working as a courier. However, Victoria did not look down on him. The two of them spent their sweet time in the villa every day. This was what Jordan missed the most.

“Why? Why did a woman who didn’t love money back then cared so much about power now?”

Jordan sighed when he thought of their current situation.

At some point, the waiter had already filled the table with alcohol. Listening to fake Victoria’s singing, Jordan downed a large glass of beer in front of him.

Salvatore showed off to Jordan smugly. “Haha, Mr. Jordan, I told you, right? You must have felt it, right? Looking at this woman with plastic surgery from this distance and listening to her singing, she looks exactly like the real Victoria. To be honest, this woman’s singing is much better than Victoria’s!”

Jordan glared at Salvatore. “Get lost and find Lionel. He must be in this bar now.”

Salvatore hurriedly left his seat. He didn’t know why Jordan was so sure that Lionel would be here.

Jordan did not need to predict to guess that Lionel must be nearby. Although he was not an idle person, no one was more important than Victoria now, even if she was an imitation.

A woman who looked so much like Victoria dared to sing at a bar?

Without the permission of the Black Ops Team, Jordan would never believe it.

Indeed, before he could finish singing the song, Salvatore pulled Lionel over.

“Mr. Jordan, Lionel is here!”

Salvatore said stubbornly.

Lionel bowed respectfully when he saw Jordan. He sat opposite him and said, “Mr. Steele, what a coincidence. Are you here to listen to music too?”

Jordan rolled his eyes at Lionel and ignored him. He quietly listened to Victoria’s impostor sing a song.

Jordan then said to Lionel, “Captain Lionel, you arranged for this woman, who is 90% similar to Victoria, to sing at a bar in the capital. I have to admire your courage. Aren’t you worried that someone might secretly turn the fake Victoria into the real Victoria? Wouldn’t the entire capital be under Victoria’s control?”

Chapter 1140: Lionel’s Intention!

Lionel was a little frightened by Jordan’s words. His expression instantly changed.

However, after confirming it in his heart, Lionel smiled. “Mr. Jordan, don’t scare me. You can’t joke around. If Victoria really comes to the capital, I’m afraid it will really be a life and death situation.”

Jordan snorted and drank another glass of wine. He asked, “What exactly do you mean by bringing this counterfeit to the bar to sing? Are you trying to anger Victoria or me?”

Lionel said, “Actually, coming to the bar to sing is what this woman with plastic surgery wants. However, I don’t dare to lie in front of Mr. Steele. Indeed, I agreed to let her sing at the capital bar because I wanted her to attract you, Mr. Jordan.”

Jordan took a sip of wine and asked, “What for?”

Lionel said, “To be honest, although we’ve temporarily reconciled with Victoria, she’s really a ticking time bomb. It’s impossible for us to be completely at ease with her. What if she becomes emotionally unstable one day or is bewitched by others? The only person we trust is you, Mr. Steele. Only when Victoria returns to your arms and is watched over by you will we be willing to completely trust her.”

“That’s why I asked this woman to sing here. I hope to attract you to come over and sit down. I want you to recall your beautiful moments with Victoria and make you court her!”

Jordan knew that Lionel had ulterior motives.

Ever since he knew that Lionel was hiding something from him, Jordan’s attitude towards him was no longer as good as before.

Jordan said coldly, “Victoria and I have already broken up. It’s impossible for me to be with her again.”

Seeing how determined Jordan was, Lionel decided to change his approach. “Jordan, I’ve always thought that you’re the most charming and powerful man in the world. There’s nothing in this world that you can’t do. I didn’t expect you to be unable to get your ex-girlfriend back!

boxn ov el. c o m

“Aren’t you a Deity? Aren’t you omnipotent? Why can’t you make Victoria fall in love with you again? Why are you inferior to your uncle?”

Smack!

Jordan flew into a rage and slammed the table.

Jordan said angrily, “Lionel, don’t try to goad me. Do you think I’ll be used by you? I’ve already done enough for you and the US! Back then, in order to save the people in the capital, I could only sacrifice Victoria and be humiliated. You owe me and Victoria this!”

Lionel only found out about this later.

Lionel lowered his head in respect. “Mr. Jordan, I’m sorry. I have high respect for you. I had no choice but to let you resolve this matter. Sigh, if Victoria is still your woman, all the problems will be solved. If she can’t return to your side, we can only kill her. But once we kill her, you will target us. We are in a dilemma now!”

Jordan lit a cigarette and shook his head. “Lionel, you’re wrong. Even if Victoria returns to my side now and even if she’s my wife now, the problem can’t be resolved. In the past, Victoria listened to me because I was far better than her in terms of family background and ability. However, she’s too powerful now. She’s even more powerful than me. Even if we get together again, with her personality, I can’t stop her from doing whatever she wants.”

Lionel couldn't help taking a sip of wine. "Mr. Steele, your analysis is right. I didn't think of that. However, you two have a deep relationship. With you by her side and Victoria being a good woman, our worries will be minimized.

"Mr. Steele, you should still give it a try and get Victoria back."

At this point, Lionel snapped his fingers and instructed someone to call down the counterfeit Victoria, who had just finished singing.

"Mr. Lionel."

Victoria's impostor called out to Lionel respectfully.

Lionel instructed the woman, "Sit near Mr. Steele."

"Yes!"

Victoria's impostor sat beside Jordan and said with a smile, "Mr. Jordan, long time no see."

The two of them had interacted several times.

However, Lionel continued, "Sit on Mr. Steele's lap."

Victoria's impostor was a little afraid. "... I don't dare to."

Victoria's impostor was still very afraid of Jordan. Moreover, she knew that Jordan did not like her.

Lionel said forcefully, "What are you afraid of? Mr. Steele won't hit you. Do as I say."

Jordan was very unhappy. "Why do you insist on letting her sit on my lap?"

Just as Jordan was about to argue with Lionel, the woman who had undergone plastic surgery had already sat down.

As it was a nightclub performance, the dress the woman had undergone plastic surgery had a short skirt, revealing her fair and long legs.

Not only did she have the same face as Victoria, her figure was also extremely similar. When she sat on Jordan's lap, he smelled the perfume that was similar to Victoria's and looked at her side profile.

At this moment, in a daze, Jordan really had the illusion that the person sitting on his lap was Victoria!

Seeing this scene, Lionel smiled. He wanted Jordan to feel nostalgic for Victoria. Only then would he be determined to win her back.

To them, only when Jordan got Victoria back would the world be peaceful.

Victoria's impostor used to work as a karaoke hostess. As such, she was very good at coaxing people and observing their expressions.

"Mr. Jordan, I haven't seen you for a while. Why do you look so haggard? My heart aches for you. What's there to be unhappy about? Tell me and I'll cheer you up."

Although Jordan enjoyed this moment, he would not be immersed in falsehoods.

Even if Jordan wanted to hug someone, it would be the real Victoria. What was the point of having a counterfeit?!

In particular, this counterfeit could imitate Victoria's aura. However, ever since Victoria became a purple-level mutant, her domineering aura was completely different from before.

This woman had never seen the current Victoria before. She couldn't imitate her cold, arrogant and domineering aura at all.

Jordan did not push her away immediately. Instead, he looked at Lionel and asked, "You have really put in a lot of effort. In order to let her charm me, you even changed her voice. Her current voice quality is top-notch even among professional singers."

As soon as Jordan entered the bar to listen to the girl's singing, he could tell that her voice had changed. It was more recognizable and advanced than before.

Ordinary people's voices would not change so easily. Jordan guessed that Lionel must have given her some medicine.

Lionel was stunned. "What? Change her voice? I didn't. Didn't she always sing like this?"

Victoria's impostor was so shocked that she swallowed hard and avoided eye contact.

At this moment, they did not notice that in the crowded and lively bar crowd, there was a muscular man drinking wine and staring at Jordan's booth from time to time.

It was Rong Bingshao's subordinate, Nick.
