

The Abandoned Husband Dominates –

Chapter 1141: Something Happened To Lauren!

Jordan could guess that this counterfeit Victoria was related to Lionel from the Black Ops Team, but he could not guess that there was someone behind her who even Lionel did not know about.

Holding his brandy glass, Nick looked at the time with a smug smile.

“Master Rong, we can begin.”

...

At this moment, an ordinary-looking white Toyota Aerfa was parked outside the villa area where Jordan and Lauren lived.

The people in this car were Rong Bingshao and his subordinates.

The screen in the middle showed the scene in the courtyard of Lauren’s villa. At this moment, an invisible drone was monitoring Lauren’s situation.

One of his subordinates reported, “Master, Master Nick is currently watching Jordan at the bar. He has confirmed that Jordan has been lured out and is immersed in the fake Victoria. For the time being, according to your prediction, he won’t use his Deity ability to predict the future. Therefore, if we kidnap Lauren now, our chances of winning will be close to 100%.

“However, Lauren is still in the villa, and she’s on the second floor. Although there’s not much distance, there are many doors. It’s still a certain obstacle for you. Therefore, I suggest that we wait for a while. When Lauren comes to the courtyard, you can use your lightning speed to bring her to the car as soon as possible.”

Rong Bingshao had a mature mind and appearance. He deliberately didn’t shave to make himself look older.

Rong Bingshao said, “Yes, I checked Lauren’s thermal imaging. She will come out in less than five minutes. A pregnant woman won’t like to stay at home.”

His subordinate immediately flattered him. “Master Rong, you’re so amazing! Let’s wait for five minutes!”

It was unknown if Rong Bingshao's strength had really increased or if it was just a wild guess. At this moment, Lauren was indeed walking into the courtyard with her phone.

Jordan was not at home now, so Lauren could do something to talk to Victoria!

Lauren started a video call with Victoria. In this world, not many people dared to have video calls with purple-level mutants.

However, although Victoria had a noble status and outstanding abilities, she did not reject Lauren's video call request and immediately answered it.

"Lauren..."

"Victoria."

Two beauties appeared on the phone screen. One was from a wealthy family, and the other had a noble aura.

In the past, the two of them were sisters and were Jordan's wives. They had a very good relationship and could be said to be family.

Lauren took the initiative to ask, "Victoria, how have you been recently? How are you? How are you feeling? Did Uncle take you around to have some fun?"

Although Victoria was smiling, she was very cautious. "Lauren, why are you so concerned about my situation?"

Lauren smiled. "We're sisters. Have you forgotten how close we used to be? When Jordan wasn't at home, we would sometimes sleep in my current room together. Sometimes, we would chat for the entire night. Haha, sometimes, when Jordan is around, the three of us will sleep in the same room. Jordan is really bad. He seems to be quite honest usually, hehe."

Lauren kept talking about the sweet times they shared. However, Victoria wasn't smiling. When she thought of the past, she sighed with emotion.

Victoria lowered her head. A few seconds later, she looked up again. "I know we have a good relationship. I'm not ignoring you just because I've become a purple-level mutant. I'm not someone who doesn't care about our past relationship. However, it's precisely because we were so close in the past that I know you very well. You're so concerned about me. I'm afraid it's not just because we're sisters, right?"

Lauren was embarrassed for a moment. As she walked into the courtyard, she replied, "Alright, I admit that I have other thoughts. As you know, Jordan loves you so much. He has sacrificed more for you than me and Lota. Although he didn't say anything, I know he still cares about you. I just want to know how you're doing. If there's anything, you can tell Jordan in time."

Victoria snorted. "Lauren, I know Jordan still loves me, but I think he wants to know more about whether I still love him and whether I want to be with him, not my state and emotions. You've been asking about my state and emotions. I'm afraid you're not asking for Jordan, right?"

"I know your family background very well. Did your grandfather arrange for you to keep an eye on me? Why? Are you afraid that I'll be in a bad mood one day and control many people like I did in Nags Head?"

Lauren's expression completely changed. She didn't expect Victoria to be so good at guessing people's minds.

Lauren didn't dare to deny it and admitted openly, "Yes, Victoria, I am indeed..."

Swish!

At this moment, a strong wind suddenly blew over from afar. Lauren was instantly swept up and disappeared!

There were indeed guards arranged by Jordan outside the villa, but none of them saw it.

However, Victoria, who was video chatting with Lauren, saw everything clearly.

"Lauren! Lauren, what's wrong?!"

Victoria shouted over the phone. However, two seconds later, the image completely disappeared and the call was cut off.

Victoria called again, but no one answered.

At this moment, Randall happened to be beside Victoria. When he heard her shout, he hurriedly walked over and asked, "Victoria, what's wrong? What happened?"

Victoria said, "I was on a video call with Lauren just now, but as I spoke, Lauren was suddenly carried away by a figure! That person was very fast. He was wearing a mask so I couldn't see his face..."

Randall frowned. "Give me your phone."

Victoria handed her phone to Randall.

After Randall got his phone, he started to check the video call between the two of them.

Their phones allowed them to view the recording of video calls.

Randall repeatedly checked the two-second video and said, "Look at Lauren's background. In just two seconds, Lauren went from the courtyard of the villa to the outside..."

"This is godly speed..."

Victoria was also surprised. "The person who kidnapped Lauren has lightning speed? Oh my god, he... he's from our Mutant Tribe? Randall, who is he? Did you send someone to do this?"

Randall shook his head. "Victoria, no one in our Mutant Tribe has lightning speed. I don't know who this person is!"

Chapter 1142: It's Better If It Has Nothing To Do With You!

Victoria was also stunned. "What? You don't know who he is? The Immortal Lake has been under your jurisdiction for the past 10 years. Could he be a senior who obtained an ability from the Immortal Lake talent previously? Why did this person kidnap Lauren?"

Randall shook his head. "I don't know either. I only know that this person kidnapped Lauren because of Jordan."

"Jordan..."

Victoria immediately picked up the phone and was about to call Jordan.

Randall wanted to say something but hesitated. He then said, "Yes, we should tell Jordan about such an important matter immediately."

At this moment, in the capital bar, Jordan's expression suddenly changed when he heard Lionel say that he did not change Victoria's voice.

Jordan grabbed the woman's slender wrist and questioned, "How did your voice change? Your original voice wasn't like this. Who gave you the medicine?!"

With the current medical standards of the world, it was impossible to improve a singer's voice in a short period of time. Only the technology of the eight great families could do it.

Victoria's impostor panicked. "... I don't know that person either. She told me that she can help me become a singer, but she asked me to suggest to Herman that I come to the bar to sing."

Lionel was stunned. "Damn it, even I was tricked!"

Jordan suddenly had a bad feeling. "Oh no, Lauren..."

boxn ov el. c o m

He immediately realized that this might be the enemy's evil plan to lure him here and hurt Lauren!

At this moment, Jordan's phone rang.

Jordan was suddenly stunned. It was Victoria!

Lionel was excited when he saw the caller ID. "Mr. Jordan, Miss Victoria called you at such a late hour, which means that she still has feelings for you. You have to have a good chat with her."

Afterwards, he instructed his subordinates to ask everyone here to leave because there were too many people and it would be too noisy. It would affect Jordan and Victoria's conversation.

"Hello."

Jordan whispered, surprised that Victoria would take the initiative to call him. He thought that Victoria was here to catch up with him, but he didn't expect her to talk anxiously.

"Jordan, something happened to Lauren! Go save her!" Victoria could not hide the agitation in her voice.

Jordan immediately panicked. A second ago, he already had a premonition that this matter might be related to Lauren.

Jordan composed himself and asked, "What happened to Lauren? How did you know?"

Victoria said, "Lauren video-called me just now. As we were chatting, she was suddenly taken away by a figure. That person was very fast. He might be a mutant with lightning speed!"

When Jordan heard that it was a mutant, he was furious. "A mutant with lightning speed? Where is my uncle? Ask him immediately which b*stard under him dared to touch my wife! I don't care if he agrees or not. I don't care if he knows or not. This person dared to touch my pregnant wife. I must tear him into pieces!"

Victoria hurriedly explained, "Jordan, you've misunderstood. Although this person might be a mutant, he's not from our Mutant Tribe. He might be a mutant senior who obtained his superpower more than 10 years ago, or even earlier than your uncle."

Jordan snorted. "Most of the mutants have been recruited by Uncle. In the past 10 years, I've never heard of anyone with lightning speed. This must be a newly-acquired mutant talent. Don't tell me Uncle was the one who instigated this?"

When Victoria saw that Jordan was suspecting Randall, she immediately said angrily, "Jordan! Why are you so unreasonable? What does this have to do with your uncle? I asked him just now. He told me himself that there's no such thing as lightning speed in the Mutant Tribe. He won't lie to me. I know you're jealous and upset that I'm with your uncle now, but can you be more mature? Don't let your imagination run wild just because of our relationship?"

"Now, the most important thing is how to save Lauren. Randall and our Mutant Tribe are also very curious about this person with lightning speed. We're willing to help you save Lauren and find this mutant with lightning speed. However, Randall wants to recruit this person and let him join the Mutant Tribe. What do you think?"

Jordan said angrily, "Enough! Stop deceiving yourself! You can say that I'm jealous or unhappy. You can say that I don't want you to become my aunt. It's up to you! But let me tell you, with my Deity intuition, if there was a mutant with lightning speed more than 10 years ago, it's impossible for my uncle not to know!"

"Ever since he took over the Immortal Lake, what he has been doing every day is gathering his strength to find those with talents and those who have already obtained them in the past. This fellow with lightning speed was so reckless that he came to the capital to steal from me. I don't think he's some low-key expert who will hide in the mountains for more than 10 years. I don't believe that this matter has nothing to do with my uncle! You guys are just putting on an act!"

Jordan's deduction was very accurate. Randall had only taken over the Immortal Lake for a short period of time, and there were many mutants before him.

However, Randall knew more about the mutants who had obtained their superpowers before him. Moreover, he had been hiding things from Jordan.

Victoria said, "Jordan, don't be like this. We really want to help you. That person is clearly targeting you. Moreover, he's very fast. He's at least a black-level mutant. You can't defeat him."

Jordan could not defeat a black-level mutant. This was the last thing Jordan wanted to hear now!

As long as Jordan jumped into the Immortal Lake and obtained his gold-level mutant ability, a black-level mutant would be like an ant that could be stepped on as he pleased!

Jordan's pride was affected. He immediately said, "No need! I can save my wife myself! Moreover, I will definitely find out the truth. It's best if this matter has nothing to do with the Mutant Tribe. Otherwise..."

Jordan hung up without saying anything harsh.

However, Victoria had probably already understood what Jordan meant.

Lauren was Jordan's most cherished wife now. Moreover, she was pregnant. Jordan would definitely not let anyone who hurt his wife at this time off.

After hanging up, Victoria asked Randall again, "Randall, is this mutant really not from our Mutant Tribe? Jordan said that if he was a mutant from more than 10 years ago, you should know. Randall, how much do you know about the mutants before you? Are there any that you haven't recruited?"

Hearing her questions, Randall immediately avoided eye contact.

Chapter 1143: Lauren Meets Rong Bingshao!

Clearly, although Victoria had slept with Randall, she didn't gain his complete trust.

There were many secrets about the Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe that Randall did not share with Victoria.

Randall frowned and thought for a moment. "This matter is indeed a little strange. No wonder Jordan suspects me. His analysis is right. If it's a mutant senior who obtained his lightning speed more than 10 years ago, it's impossible for him to hide for more than 10 years and kidnap a pregnant woman as soon as he appears. This is too embarrassing for us mutants.

"But the Immortal Lake has always been under my jurisdiction. If it's a new superpower, I should know. Anyway, Victoria, I swear to you that I really didn't do this. Believe me, I won't do anything to my niece-in-law."

Seeing that Randall was willing to swear, Victoria nodded. "Yes, I believe you. Sigh, it's a pity that Jordan doesn't want our help because of his pride. I wonder if he can save Lauren with his prediction ability."

...

Randall, Victoria, Jordan and the others were all guessing who the mutant with lightning speed was.

At this moment, Lauren, who had just been brought to a secret place and was tied up, had already seen the true appearance of the mutant in front of her.

“Rong Bingshao?”

Lauren was completely shocked by Rong Bingshao’s appearance!

Although Lauren did not fully participate in the grudge between Jordan and the Rong family, she knew the exact process very well. She knew that Jordan had killed Rong Bingshao before. Rong Bingshao was supposed to be dead.

But today, Rong Bingshao appeared in front of her again.

Rong Bingshao snorted. “Ms. Lauren, you have good eyesight. You actually recognize me. I have another name, Canine Steele. I was once a hero in your country!”

Lauren looked at Rong Bingshao in horror. “Mr. Rong, you... you’re not...”

Rong Bingshao snorted. “Are you going to ask if I’m dead? Why am I alive again? That’s right. I did die once before. I was killed by your brave husband! He almost ended my life like this! It’s a pity that I was born into the world’s greatest Rong family. Jordan can’t kill me easily. My grandfather saved me again. You didn’t expect this, right? Hahahaha...”

“Now that I’ve been revived, what do you think I’ll do to Jordan? What will I do to such a beautiful wife?”

Lauren swallowed hard. Whoever was killed and revived would definitely seek revenge on that person!

Needless to say, Rong Bingshao would also want to kill Jordan!

Not only for himself, but also for his grandfather!

Lauren knew that the situation was very dangerous. The person in front of her was also a very terrifying existence. However, she forced herself to calm down and not panic.

Lauren became calmer and said gently, “Mr. Rong, please calm down first. My husband has always respected the Rong family. After Shaun died and we took over the Rong family, my husband also ordered that we must not hurt the Rong family. Although we took over the Rong family, we didn’t touch your family. Moreover, we let them live a rich life in the past. This was all my husband’s idea.

“If Randall took over the Rong family alone, he might have attacked your family!”

Lauren was telling the truth now. She wanted Rong Bingshao to understand Jordan’s goodwill towards the Rong family.

Rong Bingshao snorted. "If that dog Jordan dared to hurt my mother and sister, do you think I would still talk to you here? Do you think you'll sit here unscathed?"

Rong Bingshao clearly already knew about this, but he was unwilling to admit that a person who had almost killed him had a praiseworthy side.

Lauren had long understood Rong Bingshao's kindness towards Jordan.

"Mr. Rong, it's great that you can be revived. Actually, my husband has always felt that he killed you wrongly. He killed you because he thought that you had insulted Victoria, but later on, he realized that it wasn't true. That matter had nothing to do with you at all. It was Shaun who framed you.

"The culprit is Shaun. Jordan often said that he shouldn't have been so impulsive as to be so ruthless to you back then. He also often said that if you didn't die, you could have become very good friends."

Rong Bingshao laughed out loud. "Hahaha, Ms. Lauren really knows how to talk. However, do you think a person who has already died once will give up on revenge just because of your words?"

Lauren knew that although Rong Bingshao was young, he was not a fool. It was impossible for him to be convinced so easily.

However, as Jordan's wife, she had to fight for her husband even if there was a chance.

Lauren continued, "Mr. Rong, you were the one who carried me out of the courtyard just now, right? I can tell that it was your scent."

Rong Bingshao had no intention of hiding it. He admitted generously, "It was indeed me."

Lauren looked at him with admiration. "Oh my god, Mr. Rong, why are you so fast? It was at least a few hundred meters from the courtyard of the villa to the entrance, but I felt like I was out in an instant. How did you obtain such speed? Did you go to the Immortal Lake too? Do you also have the talent of a mutant?"

Rong Bingshao was very smug. "Hahahaha, you didn't expect this, did you? Ms. Lauren, the descendants of the Rong family can also have mutant talent! That's right. I jumped into the Immortal Lake and obtained my lightning speed. Now, I'm as fast as lightning. I can come and go anywhere as I please. It will be easy for me to kill your husband, Jordan!"

Lauren knew that the current Rong Bingshao was very terrifying, but she was more curious about how he obtained his ability by entering the Immortal Lake.

Lauren thought to herself, 'Randall has always been merciless to the Rong family. He will never cooperate with Rong Bingshao or allow him to enter the Immortal Lake. By the way, the Rong family invented a Time Gate. Could there be another Time Gate in this world? Did he obtain this ability in the past?

'Jordan has been searching for the whereabouts of the last Time Gate. I must help my husband get the location!'

Lauren ignored him for her own safety and stopped thinking about how to escape. Instead, her first goal was to get information from Rong Bingshao!

Chapter 1144: Lauren Tricks Him!

Rong Bingshao was no longer a crisis to Lauren. Instead, this was an opportunity.

"Mr. Rong, how did you enter the Immortal Lake? The current Immortal Lake is under Randall's jurisdiction, and there are restrictions at the entrance. It's not easy to enter. Could it be that you returned to the past through the Time Gate and entered the Immortal Lake?"

Rong Bingshao nodded. "That's right. You're very clever. I did return to the Immortal Lake in the past and obtained my talent. I don't want Randall to know of my existence for the time being. There's no need to take the risk at his place."

Lauren continued to ask, "But hasn't the last Time Gate been destroyed? How did you return to the past? Could it be that... your family still has another Time Gate? Actually, Jordan and I have always felt that your grandfather is a deep and far-sighted person. He won't tell us the truth. We didn't believe him when he said that the Time Gate in Hawaii was the last one.

"You have a Time Gate hidden elsewhere, right?"

Rong Bingshao said, "Of course my grandfather won't tell you everything! That's right. Our family has another Time Gate!"

Lauren asked excitedly, "Where?"

Rong Bingshao looked at Lauren and smiled. "Hehe, Mrs. Lauren, do you think I'm a fool? Do you think I can't tell what you're thinking? You're trying to get information out of me, right? Jordan has always wanted to find out the whereabouts of the Time Gate. Do you think I don't know? You want to get the information about the Time Gate from me and then secretly tell Jordan, right? Will I let you have your wish?!"

Rong Bingshao voiced out Lauren's thoughts.

Lauren also felt that Rong Bingshao was indeed harder to deal with than before.

“Mr. Rong, you’ve captured me now. Do you think I can escape from here and go back to pass on a message to my husband? Or knock out your subordinate and call my husband?”

boxn ov el. c o m

Rong Bingshao said confidently, “Of course you don’t have the ability! The people around me are not crippled soldiers, but the elites of my family! Since I’ve captured you, don’t even think about escaping!”

Lauren said, “That’s right. Since I can’t tell my husband, what does it matter if you tell me? You don’t dare to tell me because you don’t have confidence in you and your subordinates?”

Rong Bingshao paused and thought about it carefully.

It was true that Lauren would not be able to escape. Rong Bingshao would soon use Lauren and the child in her womb to kill Jordan.

Jordan was about to die, so Rong Bingshao didn’t have to worry about Lauren leaking the location to Jordan.

Lauren’s words made sense.

However, Rong Bingshao was still unwilling to tell Lauren. Perhaps he had become more cautious after almost dying once.

Rong Bingshao said, “Lauren, don’t provoke me with words. Of course I’m sure you don’t have the ability to escape, but there’s no need for me to tell an outsider about my family’s secret. Similarly, I’m also very curious. Why is your husband so eager to find the Time Gate and go to the Immortal Lake? Hasn’t he already obtained a skill from the Immortal Lake? Why does he still want to go there?”

“Your husband has the ability to predict the future. Did he predict what would happen at the Immortal Lake?”

Lauren thought for a moment and said, “No. He desperately wants to go to the Immortal Lake because he wants his subordinates, Dragon and Salvatore, to try. Both of them have a high chance of obtaining special abilities.”

Rong Bingshao snorted. “Those two pieces of trash. Hehe, you think too highly of the probability of mutants.”

Rong Bingshao and the others had all tried. Only Rong Bingshao had the qualifications to be a mutant.

Lauren understood what Rong Bingshao meant. “Is the probability of mutants very low? How many of you and your subordinates are mutants?”

Rong Bingshao replied, “I have so many people. I’m the only one qualified to become a mutant, and I’m only a black-level mutant. Don’t think that just because Victoria is a purple-level mutant, that any one of you can be like her. People with her talent are rare. There are not many in the world!”

Lauren continued, “Oh my god, the probability is so low? It looks like even if Jordan finds the Time Gate and returns to the Immortal Lake, he might not get what he wants. Sigh, during this period of time, he has been searching all the secret bases and sparsely populated places in the world, trying to find the Time Gate. Looks like his efforts were in vain.”

When Rong Bingshao saw Lauren’s disappointed expression, he laughed out loud. “Hahaha, that idiot Jordan actually went to those secret bases and sparsely populated places to search. He really underestimated my grandfather’s intelligence! The last Time Gate is not in those so-called mysterious places at all. Instead, it’s right under the noses of many people! It’s a place that many people can see! So it’s true that the more dangerous a place is, the safer it is. Jordan thought that we would hide the Time Gate, but it’s the opposite. Hahaha.”

Lauren’s eyes lit up. She had deliberately tried to lure out Rong Bingshao’s information about the Time Gate.

Now, she had received an important piece of information. The Time Gate was not in those strictly protected places in the world, but in a public place where everyone knew about it.

That narrowed the scope for Jordan!

Lauren continued to ask, “But if everyone can see it, won’t it be very dangerous? What if a stranger finds out?”

Rong Bingshao smiled. “Is my family’s technology meant to be seen? I mean, everyone can see that place, but not the Time Gate. Lauren, stop asking. If you ask again, I won’t tell you. It’s not that I don’t dare to tell you, but you’re not qualified! Next, it’s time for me to take revenge!”

Rong Bingshao picked up his phone and called Jordan.

Meanwhile, Jordan rushed to his residence, only to find that Lauren had already been kidnapped.

Salvatore and the others all knelt on the ground. "I'm sorry, Mr. Jordan! We didn't notice at all. That person was too fast. As soon as Mrs. Jordan walked out of the courtyard, he instantly brought her out of the villa area. The surveillance cameras on the road outside the villa have been destroyed, but our people have already been sent out in several batches. They're searching every road with all their might. We must find Ms. Lauren!"

Jordan clenched his fists angrily. If the other party had the intention to hurt Lauren, she would be dead by now!

"It must be aimed at me! I'll play with him however he wants!"

At this moment, Jordan's phone rang. It was an unfamiliar number.

Chapter 1145: Jumping From The Building!

"Who is it!"

Jordan quickly answered the call. He already had a feeling that the caller was the person who had kidnapped Lauren!

"Jordan Steele!"

An unfamiliar man's voice came from the other end. It was just two words but it was filled with hatred as if he wanted to beat Jordan up.

"Who are you?! Is my wife with you?!"

Jordan asked angrily.

The person on the other end of the line was naturally Rong Bingshao. However, he had used a voice changer to change the parameters of his voice. Jordan couldn't recognize his voice.

It had been a long time since he contacted his old enemy, Jordan. Rong Bingshao was very excited to hear Jordan's voice again. He wished he could kill Jordan on the spot to take revenge!

"Jordan, your wife is in my hands now. With a word from me, you will never see her or your unborn child!"

Jordan clenched his fists, his anger already overflowing. "You b*stard, who are you?! Are you from the Mutant Tribe? Who asked you to do this, my uncle? Or are you that smelly bug's best friend or family member?"

Jordan was already certain that the other party was from the Mutant Tribe.

boxn ov el. c o m

Jordan had killed “smelly bug” before, so he guessed that it was very likely someone who was close to him.

Rong Bingshao smiled. “That’s right. I’m from the Mutant Tribe. I was sent by your uncle to torture you. Hehe, you overestimate yourself. How dare you snatch your uncle’s woman? You’re really lousy. Can you do it? Hahaha...”

The other party mocked Jordan.

However, Jordan could tell something from his words.

The members of the Mutant Tribe were extremely respectful to Randall and addressed him as Chief. However, this person did not address him as Chief.

Rong Bingshao said, “Jordan, your wife is in my hands now. You have to do whatever I tell you to. Now, I want you to run to the top of the tallest building in the capital and jump down!”

Jordan was shocked. “You want me to jump off a building? Why? I can tell you that I’ve been injected with the Mirakuru serum. Even if I fall from a high altitude, I won’t die.”

Rong Bingshao snorted. “Don’t show off your bullshit serum to me. I know that thing! It can indeed strengthen a person’s body, but it’s not omnipotent. If it’s high enough, you will still fall to your death!”

Jordan asked, “You want me to die?”

Rong Bingshao said, “Of course I want you to die! And I want to slowly play with you until your death!”

Jordan clenched his fists. He could vaguely feel that this fellow seemed to hate him very much, as if he had a blood feud with him.

If he was just following Randall’s orders, he wouldn’t be so agitated.

Rong Bingshao said, “I don’t want to waste my breath on you. Remember, your wife is in my hands. Do as I say! Otherwise, I might choose to slash your beautiful wife’s face!”

Jordan immediately became nervous. “Beast! If you touch a single strand of my wife’s hair, I will definitely make you regret coming to this world! Alright, do you want to play me to death? I’ll play with you then. I’m going to the tallest building in the capital to jump off a building now. Come over and watch!”

Rong Bingshao snorted. "Don't worry, I'll naturally send someone to watch you jump off the building. Hurry up and go, fool. Hahahaha..."

After hanging up, Dragon and Salvatore asked anxiously.

"Mr. Jordan, how is it? Is it that mutant with lightning speed? Has Randall really officially declared war on you?" Dragon asked.

Salvatore said angrily, "F*ck, Randall is really a scumbag. How dare he be so shameless as to snatch Mr. Jordan's two wives! He even used them to threaten you. F*ck, our weapons are not afraid of him at all!"

Although Jordan was very worried about Lauren's safety, he was abnormally calm at this moment.

Jordan analyzed calmly. "This person's voice is very unfamiliar. I've never heard it before, but I feel that his tone is a little familiar."

Dragon was shocked. "Familiar? Could it be someone Master knew? His former enemy? Could it be a remnant of the seven families?"

Jordan thought for a moment. He couldn't think of any enemies who had the chance to obtain the Immortal Lake's superpower.

Jordan said, "There's no time to think about this now. That b*stard wants me to jump off the roof of the tallest building in the capital. Salvatore, which is the tallest building in the capital? Bring me there immediately."

As the three of them walked quickly, Salvatore said angrily, "F*ck, that b*stard asked you to jump off a building? F*ck, if I knew who it was, I would definitely kill him!"

Dragon had already opened the car door and walked to the driver's seat. "The tallest building in the capital is 528 meters high. Master, although your body has been injected with the serum, I'm afraid you won't be able to survive a fall from such a high altitude."

Jordan said, "Drive. I won't let him play with me. I'll really fall to my death."

Dragon drove Jordan to the tallest building in the capital.

Lionel and the others followed Jordan up.

"Mr. Jordan, what happened? What are you doing here? Do you need us to do something for you?" Lionel said nervously.

Jordan looked at Lionel. "I'm going to jump down from here now. If you want to do something, place a cushion below."

Lionel hurriedly picked up the walkie-talkie. "Evacuate the crowd downstairs immediately!"

Lionel hurried over. "Mr. Jordan, why are you jumping off the building for no reason? Who asked you to do this? Is it one of your uncle's men? Oh my god, if your uncle starts an official war, then... then the situation will be out of control!"

Jordan looked at Lionel coldly. "That's all thanks to you. You released that counterfeit and made her a singer to lure me to the bar. If I was at home, that fellow might not have had the chance to pick up my wife."

Lionel was very ashamed. "I'm really sorry, Mr. Jordan. Don't worry and jump. I'll send someone to give you a buffer space in the middle of this building. With your physique, nothing will happen."

Jordan nodded.

After Lionel made the arrangements, Jordan called Rong Bingshao.

Rong Bingshao answered. "Jump. I can see you from here."

Jordan said, "After I jump down, I want to see my wife."

Rong Bingshao snorted. "Jump first and speak later if you don't die first!"

Rong Bingshao hung up.

Jordan was furious. "Who is this b*stard? I'll definitely find you!"

Holding his breath, Jordan leaped up from the top of the tallest building in the capital!

Chapter 1146: Could It Be Shaun?

"No!"

On Rong Bingshao's side, they were monitoring the situation on the top floor through invisible flight equipment. Therefore, the moment Jordan jumped off the building, Rong Bingshao and Lauren could both see him in the room.

Lauren was very worried when she saw Jordan jump down from such a high floor. She was about to cry.

In the past, although she was envious of Jordan for traveling back in time for Victoria and doing many things for her, she couldn't bear to see him do those things for her!

She was such a kind and loving woman. She could choose not to be the woman he doted on the most. As long as she could be by Jordan's side and their child was fine, she was already very satisfied.

On the other hand, Rong Bingshao smiled in satisfaction when he saw Jordan jump off the building.

Jordan descended quickly, and so did the surveillance equipment. They kept up with Jordan's speed and kept a close eye on him.

Lauren was very worried. She knew that although Jordan had been injected with the serum, it was impossible for him to be fine after jumping down from such a high place.

On the other hand, Rong Bingshao smiled in satisfaction when he saw Jordan jump off the building.

"What? What is this?!"

Rong Bingshao was shocked.

boxn ov el. c o m

After a slight buffer, Jordan only jumped about 200 meters.

This height was not a problem for him.

Soon, Jordan slowly landed on the ground, completely fine.

Rong Bingshao immediately called Jordan and cursed. "F*ck! Jordan, you b*stard, you cheated!"

Jordan replied, "How am I cheating? You asked me to jump off the tallest building in the capital. I jumped. Now, I want to see my wife!"

Rong Bingshao said, "Shameless. I knew it. You're still so shameless. You despicable fellow, you pretend to be righteous all day long and act like a Deity. But you don't even dare to jump off a building and are still playing such tricks!

"Jordan, you've fallen. Where did your former Deity aura go? You used to fight against Shaun, Rong Huangde and Rong Bingshao. You even killed them! But now? Your wife was snatched away by that good-for-nothing Randall. You can't even defeat a black-level mutant under him. That mutant was your half-sister. Hehe, she's still an underage girl! The current you is actually so lousy! I'm really disappointed in you, Jordan!"

When Jordan heard these words, he immediately realized that this fellow might really not be from the Mutant Tribe, but someone he was very familiar with in the past!

He knew his past glory!

He might have even witnessed the process of his battle with Shaun and the Rong family!

Jordan suddenly had a terrifying thought. Was Shaun not dead?

To be honest, among all the opponents Jordan had met in the past, the only one he found difficult to deal with and feared was Shaun!

Of course, Rong Huangde was also very powerful, but he was old after all. In terms of ambition and actions, he was no longer as capable as young people.

Jordan asked coldly, "Who are you?! You're definitely someone I know. Moreover, something must have happened between us."

Rong Bingshao laughed out loud. "Jordan, take your time to guess. However, before you guess, you have to continue being tortured by me! Now, I want you to soak in the deepest sea in the capital. You're not allowed to come out or wear any equipment. Stay in the sea until you suffocate!"

Jordan could tell that the other party was deliberately toying with him. He snapped angrily, "You idiot, there's no sea in the capital. Are you Chinese?"

Rong Bingshao paused for a moment before continuing. "Then let's go to the lake! If there's no lake, let's go to the reservoir! Anyway, I want to torture you in all ways! Hurry up and call me when you arrive!"

Rong Bingshao hung up.

"How is it, Mr. Jordan?"

Salvatore and the others walked over.

Jordan frowned. "This b*stard... is my enemy from half a year ago. He knows about me and the Rong family. Moreover, although he can speak English, I don't think he's from the US. Now, he wants me to go to the lake and drown myself."

Salvatore said, "Damn it, why do I feel that this behavior is a little like that of a descendant of the Miyamoto family? Could he be a descendant of the Miyamoto family?"

Jordan said, "I was the one who killed the Miyamoto family and the Park family in South Korea. I was also the one who destroyed the Addington and Haus families. Their destruction is also related to me. It's possible for the person to be from any of these families. By the way, how's Shaun's wife now? Is his child about to be born?"

Salvatore was puzzled for a moment before saying, "Ah, you mean Paris Gildon?"

Jordan said, "I mean the current Geng Xiqing."

Paris Gildon had swapped minds with Geng Xiqing. She was once Shaun's woman and was pregnant with his child.

After the two of them switched minds, Paris Gildon became Geng Xiqing, and Geng Xiqing became Paris Gildon. When Geng Xiqing obtained Paris Gildon's body, she promised to give birth to the child.

Jordan did not kill this child and agreed to let Shaun's child be born.

Of course, Jordan would keep an eye on the child. If he was a kind child, Jordan would keep him. However, if this child had demonic attributes like Shaun, Jordan would deal with him when he was a few years old and not let him endanger the world.

Salvatore wasn't sure either. "She should be giving birth soon, right?"

Jordan said, "Go to the Golden Sea Lake immediately. On the way, ask Geng Xiqing about her current situation."

"Yes!"

The few of them quickly drove to the Golden Sea Lake. Jordan spoke to Geng Xiqing on the phone.

"Xiqing, how have you been recently? Is the baby due soon?" Jordan asked.

Geng Xiqing replied, "It will be some time before I give birth. What's wrong, Jordan?"

Jordan asked, "Have any strangers contacted you recently?"

"No."

Jordan was only suspicious of Shaun. He said, "Oh, it's alright. Inform me immediately if you encounter anything suspicious. Take care."

Salvatore asked, "F*ck, could it be Shaun? He revived? F*ck, I think that fellow is even more difficult to deal with than Randall. I'd rather fight Randall than meet Shaun again!"

Dragon's expression immediately changed when he thought of Shaun. "If Shaun isn't dead and still has godly speed, with his abilities and methods, I'm afraid even a purple-level mutant won't be his match!"

Chapter 1147: I'm Sure It's Europe!

It was obvious that everyone was very afraid of Shaun.

In the past, only Shaun had taken advantage of Jordan. In fact, in the past, Jordan had “died” at Shaun’s hands.

If Shaun hadn’t mistakenly thought that Jordan was dead and let his guard down, it would have been very difficult for Jordan to kill him.

Therefore, although Jordan had killed Shaun and Rong Bingshao, everyone subconsciously imagined that it was Shaun. They did not think about Rong Bingshao at all.

This was because when people were afraid, they would often think of the person they were most afraid of.

Jordan carefully recalled the scene of him killing Shaun. He remembered that scene more and more clearly. As such, he couldn’t guarantee that Shaun was definitely dead.

“Don’t think too much about it first. Let’s go to the Golden Sea Lake first,” said Jordan.

When they arrived at the Golden Sea Lake, Rong Bingshao called again.

“Jordan, jump into the lake. You can’t come up unless I tell you to. Moreover, you’re not allowed to use any diving equipment. The longest submerging time in the world is 22 minutes. I won’t make things difficult for you. Just hold on for twice as long. How about an hour?”

Jordan clenched his fists. An hour was three times the record. This b*stard!

Just as Jordan was about to say something, the other party smiled and said, “Remember, you have no choice!”

boxn ov el. c o m

“Is this beast... Shaun or not...”

Regardless, Jordan had no choice but to jump into the lake.

Beside the lake, under the black night sky, there was Rong Bingshao’s invisible surveillance equipment. Jordan’s people knew this, so they did not dare to fake it.

At this moment, Lauren was very worried when she saw Jordan jump into the lake for her without wearing any safety equipment.

Lauren scolded Rong Bingshao. “Why are you torturing my husband like this?! My husband has only been injected with the serum and his body is just a little stronger.

He's not a mutant, and he doesn't have the ability to breathe underwater. It's impossible for him to stay in the water for an hour. You want him to die!"

Rong Bingshao smiled. "He doesn't have the ability? You should blame him for being incompetent. Why are you blaming me? Hehe, his South Korean sister has the ability to freeze people. His ex-wife can control people's minds. But he doesn't have any abilities. He really doesn't deserve his current status.

"Lauren, perhaps you should consider changing partners to a stronger man, such as me."

Lauren reprimanded very seriously, "Rong Bingshao! Don't even think about getting any ideas about me! If you dare to be rude to me, I'll bite my tongue and commit suicide! By then, my husband will definitely avenge me and might even save me."

Rong Bingshao snorted. "Lauren, you're too narcissistic. Your original self is indeed quite good-looking. Now, you're just a pregnant woman. I'm so young. Why would I want a pregnant woman? I heard many people say that you're the most beautiful type of woman, but I don't think so!

"You're far inferior to the woman I met at the Immortal Lake! The female guardian of the Immortal Lake who can fly is my dream lover. I'm not interested in an old woman like you who has been with Jordan for years!"

The female guardian of the Immortal Lake who could fly?

Lauren was shocked to hear that.

However, Lauren couldn't bear to see Jordan gradually feeling uncomfortable in the lake. "Rong Bingshao, if you're a man, fight him fair and square. By then, no matter who wins or loses, you will have to rely on your own abilities. But now, you're using such methods to torture my husband. It's really unfair!

"Why don't you dare to see my husband? Don't you have lightning speed? Even if you do, you're still afraid that my husband will kill you, right? When you see my husband, will you be so frightened that your legs will tremble? You won't be able to help recalling the scene of him killing you, right? Rong Bingshao, you've indeed changed. You've become more pathetic and cowardly!"

Smack!

Lauren kept provoking Rong Bingshao. He finally couldn't take it anymore and slapped her.

Rong Bingshao cursed. "I don't want to hear what a b*tch like you has to say. Someone, bring her to the room next door and lock her up."

“Yes!”

A subordinate immediately walked over and picked up Lauren’s chair. He carried her to another room.

The subordinate warned Lauren. “You’d better behave yourself. We don’t have to use you as a hostage. If you’re disobedient, we can kill you at any time.”

Lauren knew that she couldn’t offend these subordinates who had nothing to do with her, so she changed her attitude.

So Lauren said gently, “I’m just a pitiful woman. My husband and the father of my child are being tortured by Master Rong. I’m just a normal woman. I hope you don’t mind. I know. You guys just came to the capital from Europe to make my husband pay. I know...”

The subordinate did not hear the probing in Lauren’s words and nodded. “Yes, it’s good that you know.”

“So it’s really Europe...”

Lauren had suddenly said “Europe” for no reason. She was actually deliberately testing where the last Time Gate was. Lauren’s sixth sense told her that the Rong family was most likely hiding in Europe.

First, she excluded Asia because it was too close to Jordan. Rong Bingshao also said that there were no restrictions or defenses around the Time Gate. Anyone could see it and approach it.

Being so close to the US and the Steeles was not something Rong Huangde would do.

It was also impossible for it to be in China because the previous one was in China. Therefore, Lauren guessed that Europe was the most likely place.

When Lauren said that they had returned from Europe, this subordinate did not refute. This meant that they were indeed from Europe.

Lauren remained calm and said, “Alright, I’ll definitely cooperate with you and not make things difficult for you. Can you untie my hands? I want to go to the washroom.”

The subordinate hesitated.

“Or you can get a woman to help me.”

The subordinate said, “Forget it, it’s too troublesome. Anyway, you can’t escape from here. I’ll say it again. If you dare to do anything funny, I’ll kill you.”

Lauren nodded sincerely. "I won't be silly."

The man untied Lauren's hands and left her alone in the room.

However, she wasn't going to the toilet.

Meow~

Chapter 1148: Notification!

A weak cat meowed and a black, thin but fierce-eyed, wild cat jumped in through the window.

It had been summoned by Lauren!

Ever since the Mutant Tribe was revealed, everyone's attention was focused on those with mutants. It seemed like many people did not remember Shaun's spells.

Although Shaun was dead, Lauren was his disciple and knew how to control cats.

However, Lauren's skills were still limited. She could only summon cats to do something for her.

"Meow."

The little wild cat meowed at Lauren.

"Good girl."

Lauren happily stroked the little wild cat's head with her hand. She found a pen and paper and wrote a line on it.

Europe, where everyone can see – Rong Bingshao.

The note was meant for Jordan. Lauren did not write much on it. She did not even write her name. Instead, she only penned crucial information to go to Jordan.

boxn ov el. c o m

She hoped that when Jordan saw it, he would quickly find the Time Gate and return to the Immortal Lake in the past to obtain his talent.

Only then could he truly defeat powerful enemies like Rong Bingshao and Randall.

Lauren's handwriting was very small. She tore the note into a small portion and placed it in the little wild cat's mouth.

“Little one, you have to help me send the note to the Golden Sea Lake. You look like you’re only a few months old. Such a mission is a little difficult for you,” Lauren said softly.

“Meow.”

The little wild cat cried out stubbornly again, as if it understood Lauren’s words. It seemed to be retorting that it was not weak and could do any job.

Lauren stroked the little stray cat’s head happily and said, “Be good, and don’t worry. I’ll help you.”

Afterwards, Lauren tore off another piece of cloth and dug a hole. She put it on the little wild cat’s head and wrote: Send me to the Golden Sea Lake!

After that, Lauren controlled the kitten to leave the room and made it run to a spot where there were pedestrians.

There happened to be a park nearby and a few middle-aged people were chatting.

“Meow.”

Suddenly, the little wild cat appeared and meowed at them fiercely.

“Yo, what’s that? You scared me. So it’s a kitten.”

“Old man, you’re too timid. You’re so frightened by a kitten.”

“No, look at this cat. There seems to be something on its neck.”

A middle-aged man seemed to have realized something and reached out to remove the cloth from the cat.

The few of them gathered around and read at the same time, “Send me to the Golden Sea Lake.”

“Oh my god, this is really magical. Why do you think we should send it to the Golden Sea Lake?”

“It must be that its owner is at the Golden Sea Lake, so he asked us to send it over.”

“But who wrote this?”

“It must be another owner. Does this cat know how to write?”

“Meow!”

The few of them kept discussing. The little wild cat was getting impatient and kept shouting.

“Yo, you’re so anxious. Why? Are you really sending it to the Golden Sea Lake?”

“Let me tell you, before I went out this time, I did a divination and met a benefactor. This cat is definitely my benefactor. If you don’t want to send it off, I’ll do it!”

“Hey, wait. We have nothing to do anyway. We’ll go with you!”

With that said, the three middle-aged men really drove the kitten to the Golden Sea Lake.

On the way, a man received a call.

“Hello, my dear wife, I’m going to the Golden Sea Lake with Mr. Lee and the others to send a cat.”

After hanging up, the man said, “My wife said that the three of us are idiots.”

The other two were silent. After thinking about it carefully, they realized that they were indeed a little silly!

“No, let’s drive back. We must be crazy to send a cat to the Golden Sea Lake at night!”

However, just as he was about to turn back, the driver was punched several times by the little wild cat.

“F*ck, don’t hit me, don’t hit me! I’ll do it, I’ll do it, okay?!”

“F*ck, this cat is definitely a god. Can it understand human speech?!”

Just like that, the three of them did not dare to be negligent and drove to the Golden Sea Lake at a very fast speed.

At this moment, Jordan had almost reached his limit in the Golden Sea Lake.

Salvatore, Dragon and the others stood by the lake, their hearts aching.

“I can’t take it anymore. It’ll be over if Mr. Jordan doesn’t come up. Dragon, bring Mr. Jordan up!”

Salvatore looked at Dragon.

Dragon knew Jordan's personality. "Master knows what he's doing. It's impossible for him to drown here. If he dies, who will save Ms. Lauren? Perhaps he wants to test the limits of his body. It's been a long time since I've seen our master so competitive."

Dragon and Jordan had known each other for the longest time. When Jordan was very young, the two of them would compete together.

At that time, how could Jordan be a match for Dragon?

However, Jordan was very strong. He would always force his limits during his battle with Dragon.

However, ever since he became a Deity, Jordan had rarely been like this. He could predict many things with his mental strength. He did not need to do anything. He just needed to close his eyes and predict. As such, he could resolve many things.

However, the recent appearance of the Mutant Tribe, especially after Jordan was defeated by a black-level mutant, made him yearn for greater physical strength!

Especially in terms of offensive ability!

"Sigh."

Salvatore sighed. It was not enough that he had been bullied by Randall and Victoria previously. Now, he was being bullied by a stranger. He felt too aggrieved!

He hoped to see the former Deity Jordan return to glory as soon as possible!

"This is the place, right? F*ck, why are there so many people?"

As soon as they arrived at the lake, three middle-aged men's cars were stopped by Jordan's subordinates.

"What are you here for?"

Jordan's subordinate asked.

When the man saw that the other party was fully armed, he was so frightened that his voice trembled. "I'm here to deliver... a cat."

They were all very afraid that the other party would think that they were teasing them and shoot them dead.

"Meow."

Fortunately, the kitten flew out and ran towards the lake.

“Cat!”

“Salvatore!”

His subordinate reminded Salvatore.

Salvatore turned around and took a look. As it was too dark, he couldn't see anything approaching. Suddenly, the little wild cat leaped onto Salvatore's body.

“F*ck, what the hell is that?!”

Salvatore threw the thin kitten dozens of meters away!

When Dragon saw this, he realized that something was wrong and immediately chased after it. He realized that it was a little wild cat and found it even more strange.

One had to know that Lauren liked raising cats very much. Moreover, she had the ability to control cats!

“Ah, Mrs. Steele must have sent it!”

Dragon immediately realized the little black cat's intentions. Indeed, he saw a note in its little mouth.

Dragon opened it and saw the words “Rong Bingshao”!

Chapter 1149: It's Rong Bingshao!

“Rong Bingshao!”

Dragon never imagined that the person who kidnapped Lauren and was doing everything he could to torture Jordan was Rong Bingshao, who had been killed by Jordan previously!

“Strange, how did he come back to life...”

While Dragon was puzzled, Salvatore had already walked over and asked, “Dragon, is everything alright? I didn't see clearly just now. Something flew at me, so I threw it aside. It's not broken, right? What is it?”

Salvatore walked up. Dragon put away the note and said seriously, “There's that person's surveillance equipment here.”

Salvatore said, “Of course. It's in the lake. From the moment Mr. Jordan entered the lake, he followed him in. That thing was invisible at first, but later on, it stopped being invisible and captured his face.”

Dragon said, "Destroy all the other party's possible surveillance equipment and call Master up."

Salvatore already had this idea, but he was afraid that Dragon would not agree. When he heard Dragon's words, he immediately did as he was told.

Bang!

The surveillance device in the lake was shattered by Salvatore, before he then dragged Jordan up by force.

On Rong Bingshao's side, Rong Bingshao was enjoying watching Jordan being tortured. He was very unhappy when he suddenly saw the surveillance footage disappear.

boxn ov el. c o m

"Damn it, Jordan is going to cheat again. He can't even last an hour. Is he still considered a man?! What a good-for-nothing!"

Rong Bingshao immediately called Jordan.

At this moment, Jordan came out of the lake. He was in a very bad state and could only speak after a while.

Jordan was not grateful to Salvatore. Instead, he complained, "Salvatore, do you know that you might have angered him by doing this? What if he's unhappy and does something to Lauren?"

How could Jordan want to be at the mercy of others?

However, for Lauren's sake, he had no choice but to do this. He couldn't guarantee that the other party wouldn't hurt her. Even if he didn't kill her or just hit her, Jordan couldn't bear to let his wife suffer like this.

Dragon walked forward and crouched beside Jordan. He whispered, "Master, I asked Salvatore to do this. Look at this note first."

Dragon immediately handed the note to Jordan.

The moment Jordan saw the note, he immediately recognized that it was Lauren's handwriting!

Lauren could actually send a note over!

"Rong Bingshao? It's actually Rong Bingshao?"

When Jordan saw the note, all his doubts were answered.

Jordan had already guessed that this person had a grudge against him in the past. Moreover, he was familiar with Shaun and the Rong family.

Initially, Jordan thought that Shaun was still alive. After all, he was more cunning. But on second thought, although Shaun had a grudge against Jordan, he would not ask him to jump off a building or go into the sea to do such a childish thing.

It was obvious that only children liked to do such things.

“F*ck, so it’s that brat, Rong Bingshao! How is he alive again?!”

Salvatore cursed.

Jordan said, “Rong Huangde is indeed powerful. The Rong family’s medical technology is indeed invincible. It can actually revive a dead person. Think about it carefully. After I killed Rong Bingshao that day, Rong Huangde appeared very quickly. However, when he saw his grandson die in my hands, he didn’t want to avenge him.

“Actually, with his martial arts skills, if he really wanted to fight me to the death back then, my chances of winning were not high. It’s not that he doesn’t want to kill me, but he wants to bring Rong Bingshao’s corpse back immediately for resuscitation.”

Dragon also praised. “The Rong family’s medical skills are really amazing. Unfortunately, although we have taken over the Rong family now, we don’t seem to have such top-notch medical talents and technology.”

Jordan nodded. “If I’m not wrong, the top medical talents of the Rong family, including the geniuses who created the Time Gate, should be with Rong Bingshao. So it turns out the Rong family was not defeated. Rong Huangde and Rong Bailun were indeed the masters of the world for many years. They’ve really broadened my horizons!”

Jordan couldn’t help admiring the Rong family’s powerful foundation and the power of the two Rongs. He knew that without Rong Bingshao’s father and grandfather, it was impossible for Rong Bingshao to have the chance to fight him now.

Ring ring ring...

Jordan’s cell phone rang again.

After knowing that it was Rong Bingshao, Jordan was no longer as flustered. He was in no hurry to pick up. He knew Rong Bingshao’s characteristics very well. He was not a murderer. Lauren would not be in any danger for the time being.

Dragon asked, “Master, do you understand what Mrs. Steele meant?”

Europe, where everyone can see.

Jordan looked at the note again and was touched. He had long understood his wife's deep meaning.

Jordan said, "Lauren... has already gotten Rong Bingshao's information for me. This line represents the location of the Rong family's last Time Gate."

Dragon and Salvatore were shocked.

Salvatore said, "That's right. Rong Bingshao was nothing before. Now, he actually has lightning speed. He must have obtained it through the Time Gate hidden by his family. Ms. Lauren is really impressive. She managed to get information out of him even after being captured. Moreover, she managed to send the information here. I'm impressed!"

Dragon said worriedly, "Rong Bingshao's current strength can't be underestimated. Coupled with his lightning speed, this ability is probably at least at the black-level. Master, you killed him once. The current him is very dangerous!!"

Jordan was a little flustered previously, but now that he knew who his opponent was, he did not panic at all.

"Rong Bingshao will never be my match. It's useless even if he's at the gold level. This time, he took the initiative to provoke me. It's a little like giving me benefits."

Dragon and Salvatore smiled.

Salvatore smiled. "That's right. We've been searching for the whereabouts of that Time Gate in the past, but we couldn't find it. Now, we finally have some clues. However, everyone in Europe can see it... It doesn't seem to be easy to find."

Jordan said, "I can already guess where Rong Huangde was hiding. It can't be a place like England or Germany where there are other secret families. It's very likely a small country. As for what everyone can see, it's impossible for everyone to really see it. Otherwise, wouldn't pictures of such a great invention have been uploaded to the Internet long ago?"

"I'm guessing that he might have hidden the Time Gate in a lake."

Chapter 1150: Creating An Accident!

Perhaps it was because Jordan had just come out of a lake, or perhaps it was because an illusion had appeared when he was gradually unable to hold on.

He saw a Time Gate in front of him.

Initially, he wondered if he had seen the illusion at the bottom of the lake because he was too eager to find the Time Gate.

Now, he realized that perhaps it was not an illusion, but a vision.

He jumped into another lake and saw the Time Gate.

Dragon was also delighted. "Master's analysis must be right. Coupled with Little Steele's data, I believe it won't take long to find the lake of a small European country."

Jordan instructed, "Send our men stationed in Europe to investigate the various small countries. Since the Rong family has placed such an important Time Gate there, that place will definitely be protected by their men."

Dragon replied, "Yes!"

After making the arrangements, Dragon said worriedly, "But although we can quickly confirm where the Time Gate is, Master, you're being watched by Rong Bingshao now. You can't go to Europe."

Salvatore was put in a spot. "That's right. Ms. Lauren is still in the hands of that b*stard Rong Bingshao. Moreover, Rong Bingshao has been toying with him. If he suddenly goes to Europe, he will probably withdraw the Time Gate in advance!"

This was not a big problem for Jordan.

boxn ov el. c o m

Now that Jordan roughly knew the location of the Time Gate, he had to find it as soon as possible and travel to the Immortal Lake to obtain his talent.

Ring ring ring...

Jordan's phone was still ringing non-stop.

Jordan looked down at his phone.

Salvatore cursed. "Rong Bingshao must be urging Master again. He won't stop for a while. Sigh, how can we go to Europe like this?!"

Salvatore was extremely melancholic.

Initially, Jordan also felt that the current situation was very bad because he didn't know who his opponent was. Now that he knew who his opponent was, Jordan was no longer worried.

After all, he was familiar with his opponent, Rong Bingshao.

“Hello.”

Jordan answered Rong Bingshao’s call.

Rong Bingshao cursed. “Jordan, you piece of trash, you cowardly fellow! You didn’t complete my mission! Do you not take my words seriously? Do you believe that I’ll destroy your beautiful wife’s face now?!”

Jordan knew that his opponent was Rong Bingshao and did not expose himself. He continued to pretend not to know.

“If you dare to touch my wife, I won’t play this game with you anymore. Moreover, I promise to make you die miserably! Listen, I didn’t disregard your words. I did whatever you asked me to do. I wasn’t the one who wanted to come up from the lake just now. My subordinates saw that I couldn’t hold on anymore, so they forcefully pulled me up.

“I’ve already taught them a lesson earlier!”

Rong Bingshao snorted. “Jordan, it’s fine if you’re a coward, but you’re still finding excuses to say that it’s your subordinates. You’re just a coward. Let me ask you, do you still dare to accept my challenge?”

Jordan said, “Come on, why would I be afraid of you? You want me to jump off a building? I’ll do it. You want me to jump into the lake? I’ll do it too. You can torture me however you want. Let’s see if you want me to go to a volcano in Europe or freeze to death in Antarctica. I’ll accompany you!”

Jordan took the initiative to mention that a volcano had erupted in Europe. Rong Bingshao thought for a moment.

Rong Bingshao covered the phone receiver and asked his subordinate, “I remember there was an erupting volcano in Europe in the past two days, right?”

The subordinate said, “Yes, it’s in Sicily, Italy. It’s called Mount Etna. It’s very serious now. A large number of volcanoes and lava erupted there, causing an earthquake. The airport was forced to close. No one dares to go there anymore.”

Rong Bingshao laughed. “If no one dares to go, let our Deity Jordan go.”

Rong Bingshao continued to pick up his phone. “Jordan, you have a good suggestion. I’ve decided to let you go to Mount Etna in Europe. The scenery there is spectacular. You can stay at the volcano for two days, hahaha.”

Jordan said angrily, "B*stard, I was just making a casual remark. Mount Etna has erupted. Aren't you sending me to death by asking me to go over?"

Rong Bingshao laughed. "Then you can't blame me. Who asked you to mention this?"

Jordan said, "I also mentioned Antarctica. I'd rather go to Antarctica and suffer the cold!"

Rong Bingshao smiled. "Haha, don't think I don't know that a body injected with the Mirakuru serum is the least afraid of catching a cold. It's decided. You will go to Europe immediately. Leave immediately, do you hear me?!"

Jordan was very smug, but he replied, "Alright, I can go to Europe, but I want you to come with me. We'll fight to the death on Mount Etna. How about that?"

Rong Bingshao laughed out loud. "You want to die with me on the volcano? Tsk tsk, Jordan, you're not qualified! I haven't played with you enough. When I'm done playing with you and you're still alive, don't worry, I'll definitely stand up and kill you with my own hands!"

Jordan was furious. "You b*stard, I want to talk to my wife. I want to ensure her safety!"

Rong Bingshao said, "I won't give you a chance to talk to each other alone. But don't worry, I said I won't touch your wife for the time being. Now hurry up and go to the volcano. I can't wait to see Deity Jordan running around the volcano. When the time comes, you can use your prediction ability, hahaha."

With that, Rong Bingshao hung up.

"Hmph, this idiot hasn't grown up yet."

Jordan hung up the phone.

Salvatore said, "Master is awesome. He cajoled Rong Bingshao into letting him go to Europe with just a few words. But isn't Mount Etna in Italy? What if the Time Gate isn't in Italy?"

Jordan said, "The Time Gate can't be in Italy. As I said, the Time Gate is in a small country. Therefore, we have to create an accident this time."

Accident?

Dragon and Salvatore did not understand what Jordan wanted to do.

Jordan instructed Dragon. "Dragon, I'll be with Salvatore later, so you can fly on another plane. Then, disguise yourself as a fighter jet of the Mutant Tribe and bomb our plane. We'll choose an ordinary plane so that it'll be easier for you to shoot it down."

Dragon immediately understood what Jordan meant. "Master, you want me to pretend to be a mutant and kill you? After you fall from the plane, you can take the opportunity to find the Time Gate!"
