

The Abandoned Husband Dominates –

Chapter 1151: Finding The Time Gate!

Jordan nodded. “That’s right. When I go to Europe this time, Rong Bingshao will definitely send people to keep an eye on me. With them keeping an eye on me, I can’t find the Time Gate. Even if I do, I won’t dare to enter. Therefore, I have to create an accident and make him think that I’m dead.

“Currently, only my uncle’s Mutant Tribe can kill me. I have no choice but to let my uncle take the blame.”

Hearing this, Salvatore laughed. “Hahaha, that’s a good idea! Mr. Jordan, you’re really something. This is asking him to take the rap. Your uncle is family. Hasn’t he always treated you very well? I believe he can understand. Hahaha.”

Dragon couldn’t help laughing. “Alright, I’ll create some more information about the mutants so that Rong Bingshao will be more convinced. In addition, Master, you and your uncle do have a conflict. I believe Rong Bingshao knows this too.”

Jordan nodded. “Yes, sure. There’s no time to lose. Let’s split up immediately!”

Jordan and Salvatore boarded an ordinary plane while Dragon painted the Mutant Tribe’s “hexagon” symbol on another plane.

A few hours later.

On the plane, Jordan and Salvatore had already put on their modified “Iron Man armor”.

Next, the plane would be destroyed by Dragon’s cannonball. Jordan and Salvatore would take the opportunity to fly out and find the Time Gate.

After setting everything up, Jordan asked Salvatore, “Is Dragon ready?”

Salvatore said, “Yes, I’m ready. Dragon should be here in less than... a minute.”

Jordan nodded and immediately called Rong Bingshao.

“What is it?”

Rong Bingshao seemed a little sleepy, as if he had just taken a nap.

Jordan said, "I'm about to reach Sicily."

Rong Bingshao glanced at the time and replied, "Heh, you were slower than I expected. Jordan, you're moving a little too slowly this time. Are you deliberately stalling for time? Let me tell you, it's useless. The volcano will erupt next week. Even if you go an hour later, you won't be able to escape!"

Jordan said, "You're so smart. You know that I'm deliberately stalling for time. I'm starting to suspect that Shaun has come back from the dead. Among the opponents I've interacted with in the past, only Shaun can guess what I'm thinking."

Rong Bingshao smiled. "Hehe, Shaun, that fellow is indeed a talent. It's also your nightmare, right? You're most afraid of him, right?"

Jordan continued to stall for time. "Oh? From what you're saying, you're not Shaun?"

Rong Bingshao said, "I'm Shaun's father!"

Jordan continued, "Oh? Shaun's father? You're Harvey Handley? We met once in the past. Do you still remember me?"

Rong Bingshao was speechless. "I'm not Harvey Handley! I mean..."

At this moment, Rong Bingshao suddenly heard a loud bang!

Boom!

The intense sound made Rong Bingshao's eardrums tremble.

"Oh my god! What happened?!"

Rong Bingshao heard a violent explosion on Jordan's side, accompanied by Jordan's cries!

Rong Bingshao immediately instructed his subordinates. "Go and investigate what happened to Jordan's plane near Sicily!"

Nick replied, "Master Rong, according to the images sent by the drones over there, a plane was shot down by a cannonball near Sicily and crashed. After the plane landed, it suffered a second bombardment. It's all reduced to dust now."

Rong Bingshao was shocked. "What? Could it be Jordan's plane? Why is his plane so lousy?! Who attacked Jordan? Apart from me, who else in this world dares to provoke Jordan?!"

Nick opened an image and showed it to Rong Bingshao. "Look, we found a hexagonal fighter jet nearby."

Rong Bingshao was shocked. "Mutant Tribe? Randall's men? Damn it, Randall is declaring war on Jordan! Damn it, why did he choose this time?! Send people to search the vicinity immediately. Jordan is a Deity. He won't die so easily. That b*stard Jordan must die in my hands!"

Nick said, "Yes!"

Meanwhile, a second before the plane crashed, Jordan and Salvatore had already flown out and rushed to Malta.

Jordan had already confirmed that the last Time Gate was in Malta.

The reason that Jordan was an hour and a half later than Rong Bingshao expected was partly because the plane was not working and not the best one. On the other hand, he was indeed stalling for time.

Jordan wanted his subordinates in Europe to determine where the Time Gate was hidden.

After Little Steele's analysis, Malta became the first target to be investigated. Indeed, their people quickly discovered that there were unusual guards in this small country. They immediately confirmed that they were from the Rong family.

Now, these people had been secretly killed by Jordan's men.

Before long, Jordan and Salvatore arrived in Malta.

"Blue Lagoon."

Jordan and Salvatore arrived and looked at the intoxicating blue in front of them. They immediately felt relaxed and happy.

Salvatore said, "I didn't expect Rong Huangde to place the last Time Gate in such a beautiful place. This old fellow is indeed something, hehe!"

Jordan smiled. "The last one? Not necessarily. Perhaps there's another one besides that. We just don't know. Fortunately, Rong Huangde is dead. Otherwise, with his arrangements on Earth in this era, it would be a little difficult for the Steele family to fight him."

Salvatore said, "That's all thanks to you, Mr. Jordan. If you hadn't killed Rong Huangde, would your uncle have dared to come out? Now, not only did he reap the benefits, he even snatched your woman. Mr. Jordan, go to the Immortal Lake and obtain your gold-level ability. Then you can go to Randall's place and snatch Victoria back!

"When you become a gold-level mutant, Victoria will definitely think highly of you and return to your arms!"

Jordan clenched his fists. "Victoria, Park Sora, Lincoln, Uncle... I wonder what you will think of me when I become a gold-level mutant? Lauren, wait for me. When I have the ability to attack, I'll definitely save you and teach that b*stard Rong Bingshao a lesson!"

The two of them couldn't wait to enter the Immortal Lake. However, they still had to wait for Dragon to come over.

This was a rare opportunity. Jordan was not the only one who wanted to enter the Immortal Lake. He also planned to let Salvatore and Dragon enter the Immortal Lake to test their luck.

Soon, a figure jumped down from a plane in the sky.

Dragon landed and came to Jordan. "Master, sorry to keep you waiting. Let's go to the Immortal Lake!"

Chapter 1152: Finally At The Immortal Lake!

With that, Jordan, Dragon and Salvatore jumped into the lake together!

In the lake, they soon saw the familiar Time Gate!

The moment he saw the Time Gate, Jordan was very excited. He couldn't live without this thing. Ever since he used it to change some things, he couldn't bear to leave it.

"Rong Huangde, oh Rong Huangde, you probably never thought that I would come here one day, right?"

Jordan slowly swam to the Time Gate and set the time. He set it to 20 years ago, about the same time as Rong Bingshao's previous time-travel.

Even without the Rong family's reminder, Jordan knew that it was not appropriate to set it back too long. Moreover, this machine might not be able to go to the past for too long.

Without further delay, Jordan, Dragon and Salvatore immediately put on their protective suits and walked into the Time Gate with their weapons!

In the next second, when the three of them opened their eyes again, they had already arrived at Mount Denali 20 years ago!

Previously, Jordan had traveled back in time with Shaun. This time, he suddenly thought of Shaun.

On second thought, the Handley family had come into contact with the Immortal Lake earlier than Randall. If they had Randall's ambition and established a Mutant Tribe, they would have already dominated the region.

"Haha, have we arrived 20 years ago? Why do I feel that there's nothing different?!"

boxn ov el. c o m

Salvatore was extremely excited about his first time-travel and kept looking around.

Dragon also looked around to see if there was any danger. "This isn't a city. 20 years doesn't seem to have changed many things."

Jordan asked, "Do I need to give you guys some time?"

The first time the two of them traveled back in time, their bodies might not be used to it. When Jordan first traveled back in time, he specially went to a hotel to rest for an hour.

Although Salvatore was feeling a little uncomfortable, he smiled. "It's alright, we don't have time to waste. Mr. Jordan, let's go straight to the Immortal Lake!"

Dragon nodded. "Let's go, Master. We're fine."

Jordan nodded. He couldn't wait to go to the Immortal Lake.

The three of them walked forward. They did not move especially quickly. On the one hand, their bodies needed to calm down. On the other hand, they had to move forward cautiously, afraid that there would be others.

Jordan suddenly stopped in his tracks.

"What's wrong, Mr. Jordan?" Salvatore asked.

Jordan gestured for Salvatore to keep quiet. He then listened carefully to the sounds nearby.

After a while, Jordan said, "Someone is here."

Hearing Jordan's words, Salvatore and Dragon immediately became vigilant. They raised their laser weapons and aimed them to the left and right, ready to attack the enemy at any time.

Dragon was experienced in combat and had sharper judgment. He kept walking towards the empty space on the left and suddenly sped up, running behind a rock.

Swish!

"Ow!"

An animal's cry suddenly sounded.

Jordan saw Dragon walking over with a fox.

Dragon grabbed the fox and reported to Jordan, "Master, it's a fox."

Jordan and Salvatore walked forward and looked at the fox.

This fox was not big, but it was very beautiful. Moreover, it was completely red, especially its tail. It was really beautiful.

"F*ck, this is the first time I've seen such a red fox!"

Salvatore was surprised.

Jordan asked Salvatore, "Have you seen foxes of other colors?"

Salvatore scratched his head. "Hehe, I've never seen one before."

Jordan walked towards the fox and touched it. Looking at the fox's charming gaze, the fox did not growl or attack Jordan.

"What a cute and beautiful fox. There should be many girls who want to raise it as a pet, right?"

Jordan fell in love with this fox at first glance. He believed that if a girl saw it, she would be even more defenseless.

Salvatore smiled. "Why don't you bring it back and give it to Ms. Lauren? Ms. Lauren loves to raise small animals so she has a lot of cats. She will definitely like it if you give her a fox."

However, Jordan shook his head and said, "Let them go."

When Dragon heard Jordan's words, he threw the fox to the ground. The fox quickly ran away. However, after putting some distance between it and the three of them, it stood still on the rock and looked at them.

Jordan also looked at the fox. He had a nagging feeling that this fox was not ordinary.

"Strange, why would there be foxes in Mount Denali..."

However, the three of them did not take this fox seriously. They continued forward and soon arrived at the Immortal Lake.

Indeed, there were no restrictions on the Immortal Lake this year. The three of them easily entered.

"Hahahaha, we're finally at the Immortal Lake. Randall stopped us from entering last time. Can he stop us now? Hmph!"

Salvatore exclaimed happily.

"Mr. Jordan, quickly jump in."

However, Jordan frowned as he stood beside the Immortal Lake. He was not in a hurry to jump in.

Dragon thought that Jordan was worried that there was something wrong with the Immortal Lake at this moment, so he said, "Master, there's no hurry. Why don't I jump into the Immortal Lake first and explore it for you?"

Salvatore also said, "That's right, that's right. We should open a path for Master first. I'll jump in. Hahaha, I want to try first! If there's a problem, Dragon, save me!"

Salvatore was eager to take off his shoes.

However, Jordan grabbed Salvatore. "Wait a minute."

Salvatore and Dragon looked at Jordan in confusion. "What's wrong, Boss?"

Jordan frowned. "Someone's here!"

Jordan once again said that there was someone nearby!

Salvatore and Dragon immediately raised their weapons and aimed them at their surroundings. However, as far as the eye could see, it was empty. There was no one, not even animals.

However, at this moment, the wind suddenly became stronger and the sky changed color.

Jordan said, "I keep feeling that there's someone here. It's as if they're hiding somewhere and watching me."

Jordan did not notice anyone, but his sixth sense made him feel that way.

Dragon took out a drone and said, "I'll use a drone to probe."

Dragon controlled the drone to scan the vicinity, but he did not find any signs of life.

"Master, I didn't notice anything."

Dragon shook his head at Jordan.

Salvatore asked, "Mr. Jordan, aren't you worrying too much? If there was someone, they would have attacked us before we even reached the Immortal Lake. Would they have let us in?"

Jordan said, "In this era, only the Handley brothers discovered such a magical place. I definitely don't believe it. Before my uncle ruled this place, someone must have been here and obtained an ability here."

Jordan knew very well that Randall was not the only leader of the Mutant Tribe. There were definitely others who had yet to join.

After thinking for a moment, Jordan cupped his fists and faced the empty space around him. "Senior Mutant, I'm Jordan. In order to save my wife, I have no choice but to come to the Immortal Lake to try my luck. If we disturb you, please tell us. We'll leave immediately!"

Chapter 1153: Green-Level!

Jordan, Dragon and Salvatore turned around and looked around.

However, the surroundings became even quieter than before. There was not even the sound of the wind or any movement.

This silence did not make Jordan feel relieved. He kept feeling that someone was watching him nearby.

Jordan's words earlier were not meant to lure these people out and then try to kill them.

There was no need for Jordan to fight with the people here. If the Immortal Lake was occupied this year, he could just go to another year.

Since Rong Bingshao could choose a year when no one was watching over the Immortal Lake, Jordan would definitely be able to find the right time.

After a full five minutes, Salvatore said, "Mr. Jordan, either they don't want to give you face and are unwilling to come out, or there's indeed no one here. You might be overthinking things. If there's no way someone will watch us come to the Immortal Lake to obtain a great opportunity, why don't you just jump in?"

Salvatore couldn't wait.

Jordan thought about it. Should he go back first and come back another year?

However, if he were to change it again, he would have to do it earlier.

After some thought, Jordan said, "Alright, Salvatore, give it a try first."

boxn ov el. c o m

Salvatore was elated. "Alright!"

Salvatore took off his shoes and even his pants. He took off his shirt and jumped into the lake.

Salvatore and the other two couldn't pass the test with the Immortal Water, so they didn't know if they had any mutant ability.

Jordan and Dragon stood by the lake and carefully observed the ripples on the lake to see if there were any changes.

"Dragon, be ready to rescue him at any time."

Jordan instructed Dragon.

Jordan knew very well that the probability of being a mutant was very low. The probability of Salvatore being a mutant was not high.

"Yes!"

Dragon bent down and picked up the rescue equipment, ready to scoop Salvatore up at any time.

After a few minutes, Dragon felt that it was about time. Afraid that something would happen to Salvatore, he immediately threw a smart rescue rope at him. Once this rope entered the water, it would automatically activate the search mode. After finding the person, it would immediately tie him up.

Dragon could just pull them from the outside.

Click.

The smart rescue rope quickly found Salvatore in the lake and tied him up.

Dragon felt Salvatore's weight and immediately pulled.

Soon, Salvatore surfaced and hurriedly waved his hand. "It's green! It's green below! Wait a moment!"

Salvatore dove into the lake again.

Dragon looked at Jordan in surprise.

Indeed, in less than a minute, the lake water turned green!

"Green-level talent!"

Jordan was surprised. He didn't expect Salvatore to have the qualifications to be a mutant!

Although he was the lowest-level green mutant, it was better than nothing. Moreover, the green level did not mean that he was useless.

For example, Yumi's green-level ability would make people faint after kissing them. As long as the opponent did not know about this, they could easily use it to kill people.

Swish!

Before long, Salvatore jumped out of the lake, overjoyed.

"Hahahaha, Mr. Jordan and Dragon, did you guys see that? I'm a green-level mutant!"

Salvatore was delighted.

Dragon smiled. "I saw it. Salvatore, you're amazing. You actually have a mutant ability. I'm afraid I'm no match for you in the future. Quickly try and see what superpower you obtained."

Salvatore couldn't wait to know what he had become.

Salvatore said, "Dragon, kick me and see if my physical defense has improved."

Dragon kicked Salvatore away.

Salvatore got up from the side. As he put on his clothes, he complained, "F*ck, isn't he still very weak? So what if he became a green-level mutant? He can't withstand a single blow. Brother Dragon is still an ordinary person, not a mutant. What bullsh*t Immortal Lake is this?"

Salvatore was a little unhappy.

Jordan said, "Salvatore, a green mutant will have some physical enhancements, but not that much. Yumi is also a green mutant, but in the eyes of her opponents, she still has the body of a woman who is easy to kill. If I'm not wrong, you should have obtained offensive abilities, not defensive ones."

Salvatore said happily, "I like the offensive type. Dragon, do you dare to let me kick you?"

Dragon was on guard. "Come on."

Salvatore was also prepared. "I'll use all my strength to kick you. Don't blame me if you get kicked away, hehe."

Dragon was also a little worried. He was afraid that Salvatore's strength had increased by another level. He wouldn't be able to withstand it.

This was because Dragon and Salvatore had been injected with the serum.

Salvatore prepared for a few seconds before kicking Dragon.

Bang!

Dragon was on guard, but he only fell to the ground. He was not kicked away.

It seemed that Salvatore's strength had not increased.

"Ah! This pisses me off! My attack and defense haven't improved at all! Where did my green-level superpower go?! F*ck!"

Salvatore scratched his head in frustration.

However, Jordan realized that Salvatore's head was suddenly bleeding!

"Stop!"

Jordan grabbed Salvatore's wrist to stop him.

"What's wrong, Mr. Jordan?"

Salvatore asked in confusion.

Only then did he notice that blood was flowing down his face.

“Oh my god, so my ability didn’t improve at all. I was injured after entering the Immortal Lake? Is this Immortal Lake fake?”

Salvatore was even more speechless.

However, Jordan smiled. “Salvatore, don’t be ignorant. You have indeed obtained a superpower. Your right hand is no longer ordinary.”

Salvatore was stunned for a moment before looking at his right hand.

Dragon also stood up. He saw Salvatore scratching his head. However, there was no blood on his left hand. Only blood immediately flowed out from his right hand.

Salvatore realized something and immediately raised his right hand to run towards Dragon again.

“Dragon, let me try again!”

Salvatore became excited.

Dragon, who had always been fearless, retreated. “No, no, no. Salvatore, try it with a stone.”

Dragon picked up a stone beside him and threw it at Salvatore.

Salvatore clenched his fist and punched the stone.

Bang!

The stone shattered!

“F*ck!”

Salvatore shouted, “Mr. Jordan, my right hand...”

Jordan smiled. “You don’t have to use your fists. You can just slash them.”

When Salvatore heard this, he hurriedly found a larger stone and slashed with his right hand, cutting the stone in half!

“Hahahahaha... I have a special ability. My right hand can cut through iron like mud now!”

Bam!

Bam!

Bang!

Salvatore kept searching for something to test his evolved right hand.

Chapter 1154: Dragon Is Also A Mutant!

Seeing that Salvatore had completely transformed, Jordan and Dragon were very happy. Salvatore's situation had really changed drastically.

Dragon looked at Salvatore enviously. At this moment, Dragon was probably no longer Salvatore's match.

Dragon looked at Salvatore, who was testing his right hand. "If only Salvatore had such astonishing strength in his left and right hands, as well as his legs."

Jordan smiled. "If his entire body could cut through iron like mud, the lake water would have been at least black."

Dragon nodded. "If only I had a mutant ability. Even if it's green..."

Jordan looked at Dragon. He knew that Dragon was very envious of Salvatore and hoped that he would be like him and have the ability of a mutant.

Jordan couldn't help but make a prediction. He saw the lake water in front of him change color again.

"Dragon..."

Jordan was about to excitedly tell Dragon the good news when Salvatore walked over happily and shouted.

"Mr. Jordan, my right hand is too awesome now. Did you see that? I destroyed all the stones over there. I think I should give my invincible right hand a domineering name! Mr. Jordan, I'm not very cultured. Give me a domineering name that can scare those mutants to death!"

Jordan smiled. The weakest mutant in the Mutant Tribe was a green mutant on the same level as Salvatore. With Salvatore's current ability, he was probably not enough to scare those people.

boxn ov el. c o m

However, Jordan did not want to dispel Salvatore's confidence. He thought for a moment and said, "Let's call it Hand of Hell then!"

"Hand of Hell! Haha, what a good name. I like it! My punches and palms can send those b*stards from the Mutant Tribe to hell!"

Salvatore liked this name very much.

Jordan reminded Salvatore. "Salvatore, don't be too happy. Your right hand is very sharp now. You have to be careful. Don't accidentally cut your neck. It will be a huge loss if you accidentally kill yourself in your sleep."

Salvatore was so nervous that his face turned green. "Ah... why didn't I think of that possibility..."

Dragon smiled. "That's not all. Be careful when you go to the toilet. Don't accidentally become a eunuch."

Salvatore's expression turned even grimmer. "Am I never going to jerk off again?"

Jordan and Dragon laughed. As Jordan's subordinate, Salvatore could have any woman he wanted. But Salvatore said that these were two different experiences. Sometimes, fantasies felt better than real women.

Jordan stopped teasing Salvatore and patted Dragon's shoulder. He did not tell him the good news in advance. He said, "Dragon, jump into the lake and give it a try."

Dragon became nervous. "Yes."

"Dragon, you can do it. I'm green. You're at least silver. Trust yourself!"

Salvatore also took advantage of Dragon's jump to cheer him on.

Jordan looked at Salvatore in surprise. "How did you know that he has a silver-level ability?"

Salvatore looked at the lake and said, "Hey, I was just..."

Salvatore suddenly turned to look at Jordan. "F*ck, is Dragon really a silver-level mutant?"

A few minutes later, ripples began to appear on the lake. These ripples were clearly more intense than when Salvatore was in the lake.

The surface of the lake slowly turned silver!

Salvatore cheered. "Awesome! As expected of Dragon! His physical talent is innate. Silver-level ability is too low for him!"

Jordan also felt that Dragon would definitely be a mutant. The silver level was indeed low.

If Dragon had purple or gold talent and world-class combat ability, no one in the world would be his match, not even Randall.

Swish!

Dragon jumped out of the lake, extremely excited.

"Master, Salvatore, I... I'm a mutant too! I have a superpower too!"

Dragon was extremely excited. He had received the most cruel training since he was a child. In the past 20 years, he had never slacked off.

However, when he saw that group of men with different figures and even weak women had become so powerful that he could not defeat them, Dragon felt very upset! He felt that this was unfair to him, who had worked hard for decades.

Now that he had a silver-level talent, he was not afraid of black-level mutants!

Salvatore said excitedly, "Haha, Dragon, quickly try out your ability. Come, I'll give you a stone. Or, can you kick me?"

Dragon shook his head. "There's no need. I can already feel what my ability is."

Dragon looked at Jordan. "Do you want to try here?"

Jordan hesitated for a moment, but he still nodded. "Sure, let's try."

Dragon waved his hands and drew a circle in the air.

Whoosh...

Whoosh...

The sound of the wind became louder and louder. As Dragon waved his hands, a huge gust of wind could be produced!

Jordan could tell that the wind was very strong. The small stones that had just been shattered by Salvatore were sucked in.

Dragon waved his hands and said to Salvatore, "Salvatore, thank you for your hard work. I'll use you as an experiment."

Salvatore asked, "What?"

Boom!

Dragon immediately attacked Salvatore with both hands.

Salvatore flew up and was swept into the lake by the strong wind.

Salvatore took a sip of water and slowly climbed up. He shouted, "Dragon, you're still the best! You're too awesome. You just obtained your superpower and you're already using it so well. Are you even human?"

As Dragon was very experienced in combat, he did not need time to adapt to his abilities. He could maximize the use of his abilities the moment he obtained them.

Of course, he would have to slowly study the use of the many variations in the future.

Jordan also praised him. "Not bad, Dragon. In the past, you were invincible in close combat. Now, you have long-range control. Your ability can attack and defend. Coupled with your many years of assassination ability, I believe that the current you is not inferior to any black-level mutant in the Mutant Tribe."

Dragon cupped his fists. "Thank you for your praise, Master. Thank you for giving me this opportunity to obtain my superpower!"

Salvatore also walked over. "I have to thank you too, Mr. Jordan. If I hadn't followed you back then, I would still be a hooligan in Orlando!"

Jordan was very gratified to see both of them transform into such powerful figures.

However, while feeling gratified, he suddenly felt a little pressured.

Jordan muttered, "The two of you are stronger than me..."

In a one-on-one fight, Jordan was probably no match for Dragon and Salvatore. Faced with his subordinates who were now stronger than him, it made Jordan feel incredibly awkward!

Chapter 1155: Gold-level Ability!!

Dragon and Salvatore knew that ever since Randall appeared, Jordan had bad luck.

First, Randall snatched his woman away. Then, he caused trouble with him using the Mutant Tribe.

Actually, Dragon knew Jordan's strength very well. If Jordan really treated Randall as his opponent, he wouldn't be in such a predicament now.

In the past, Jordan had been able to defeat Shaun and the powerful Rong family despite being at a disadvantage. Randall might not be as difficult to deal with as Shaun and the others.

It was just that Randall was Jordan's uncle, so Jordan had his reservations. Moreover, Victoria was once Jordan's woman, so Jordan could not treat her as the enemy.

Emotional factors tied Jordan down, causing him to be unable to unleash his full strength and potential.

Unless Jordan was far stronger than Randall and Victoria, he would always be the passive party.

Dragon said, "Master, don't say that. We're all your subordinate, and we're in charge of protecting you. You're a Deity. You have the ability to predict the future. You're already very powerful."

Salvatore added. "That's right, Mr. Jordan. Don't give yourself too much pressure. Even if you really can't obtain any more talents today, it's alright. We'll just help you fight! There's no need for you to do anything about Lincoln. Dragon and I can kill him!"

Now, one of them had the "Hand of Hell" and the other had the "Hand of the Whirlwind". It was more than enough for them to join forces to deal with Lincoln.

Jordan believed in their abilities and loyalty. However, he still wanted to have such offensive abilities.

boxn ov el. c o m

This was because he wanted to obtain Victoria's respect, admiration and love that had gradually been lost!

"Gold-level ability... It can't be wrong..."

Jordan heaved a sigh of relief. He held his breath and slowly walked into the Immortal Lake.

Before jumping into the Immortal Lake, Jordan said to Dragon, "Pay attention to your surroundings."

Dragon knew that Jordan suspected that there was someone behind them, so he nodded. "Don't worry, Master. With me around, you can enter the Immortal Lake in peace. I won't let anyone hurt you."

With Dragon and Salvatore around, Jordan believed that he would be fine under normal circumstances.

Therefore, Jordan did not waste any more time. Victoria's face appeared in his mind and he jumped into the Immortal Lake!

Splash!

As Jordan jumped into the Immortal Lake, Dragon and Salvatore stood back to back, one looking at the lake and the other at the back, guarding Jordan in all aspects.

After Jordan jumped into the Immortal Lake, the sky suddenly changed color. The originally clear sky was immediately filled with dark clouds. It became gloomy, and there was faint thunder.

The sound of the wind became increasingly intense.

"F*ck, could it be that someone activated a weather weapon? Why did the weather change so quickly?"

Salvatore became a little nervous.

It was fine when Salvatore and Dragon jumped into the lake just now. Why did Jordan cause so many changes?

Dragon was also very cautious. He looked around and said, "It shouldn't be a weather weapon. Before a weather weapon is activated, there will be a roar in the sky. I didn't hear it. Moreover, if the other party has the ability to activate their weather weapons, they don't have to hide in the dark and can just attack us. There are only three of us. We won't be able to resist their weapons.

"This should be a phenomenon caused by our master jumping into the Immortal Lake."

Salvatore was delighted. "In that case, Master will definitely obtain a special ability this time! I'm really looking forward to it!"

Salvatore kept staring at the lake to see if there were any changes.

After five minutes, the color did not change.

"How is it? Has there been any change?"

Dragon, who was leaning against Salvatore, asked. He kept staring in the opposite direction, not daring to slack off at all.

Salvatore shook his head and said, "No."

After another ten minutes, Dragon asked again.

Salvatore said, "No, but the lake water is starting to boil a little. It's even more vigorous than when you jumped into the lake just now!"

Dragon was very excited. "Soon. The lake water should change soon!"

Salvatore was also very excited. "I wonder what color it is. Mr. Jordan is a Deity. He should at least have purple-level or black-level ability, right? God, please be kind and at least give him purple-level ability. Let that woman Victoria fall in love with Mr. Jordan again. Mr. Jordan can't let women look down on him!"

Salvatore was praying when he suddenly saw the boiling Immortal Lake turn into a dazzling golden color!

"Ah!"

Salvatore couldn't help covering his eyes and crying out.

Dragon immediately became nervous. "What happened?!"

Dragon couldn't help turning to look at the Immortal Lake. He thought that something had happened to Jordan.

Unexpectedly, when he turned around, he saw that the Immortal Lake had completely turned golden. The surface of the lake was shining with golden light!

The originally gloomy sky was now clear.

The sunlight shone on the golden lake, blinding them!

Dragon was overjoyed. "Oh my god! Gold! Master Jordan obtained a gold-level ability! This is the highest level! The highest level for humans!"

Salvatore shouted excitedly, "Mr. Jordan is awesome! I knew you were the most powerful person in the world! Randall and Rong Bingshao can't compare to you at all! Hahaha!"

While Dragon was happy for Jordan, he didn't forget to remind Salvatore, "Salvatore, be careful. Be careful that someone might have the opportunity to run over and hurt Master."

Salvatore also raised his right hand, ready at any time.

However, it was still silent.

Another 20 minutes passed.

Swish!

Jordan jumped out of the Immortal Lake and rose to a very high altitude before landing.

Jordan was immersed in the sparkling golden lake water. From afar, he did not look like a person at all. He looked more like a statue or a god from the sky!

Dragon and Salvatore knelt down at the same time. "Congratulations on obtaining a gold-level ability, Master!"

Jordan was also in high spirits. There were obvious changes in his expression. He was very excited and helped the two of them up with both hands. "Good brothers!"

After Dragon and Salvatore stood up, Salvatore said excitedly, "Mr. Jordan, you're a gold-level mutant now. You're on the same level as your uncle! You don't have to be looked down on by your uncle anymore. Hahaha, Ms. Victoria will definitely like you again! Rong Bingshao too! With his lightning speed ability, meeting you is like a mouse meeting a cat. Hahaha."

"Mr. Jordan, quickly try and see what your gold-level ability is. Let us broaden our horizons!"

Salvatore really wanted to know what Jordan's gold-level ability was.

However, Jordan said seriously, "Let's leave this place immediately!"

Chapter 1156: The Game Has Just Begun!

Unlike Salvatore and Dragon, Jordan did not test his newly obtained abilities at the Immortal Lake.

He was very cautious. After transforming into a gold-level mutant, he did not say anything else and immediately chose to leave.

Dragon and Salvatore also knew that before Jordan jumped into the Immortal Lake, he had always felt that there was someone nearby.

They knew very well that perhaps Jordan was worried that his gold-level ability would be discovered by the people in the dark, so he did not dare to show it here.

As such, the two of them did not waste their breath and quickly left the Immortal Lake with Jordan.

Even Dragon and Salvatore did not notice that Jordan had secretly planted a listening device here when he left.

After the three of them left, Jordan immediately put on his earphones and eavesdropped on the Immortal Lake.

Jordan said, "Walk slowly. There's no hurry to go back."

Dragon looked at Jordan's earpiece and asked, "Master, did you plant a listening device in the Immortal Lake?"

Jordan nodded.

If Jordan's guess was right, there were indeed hidden people at the Immortal Lake. After Jordan and the others left, these people would definitely appear.

Therefore, Jordan was not in a hurry to travel back to the present. Instead, he wanted to hear if there were any conversations after he left.

By the time Jordan and the other two were further and further away from the Immortal Lake, it was still quiet.

However, at this moment, the red fox appeared in the Immortal Lake. It accurately walked to the spot where Jordan had secretly thrown the listening device. It then used its mouth to hold the tiny listening device in its mouth.

Creak!

The fox bit the listening device into pieces.

Buzz...

Jordan could still hear the wind near the Immortal Lake. Now, he suddenly heard the buzzing sound of the connection being disconnected.

Jordan gloomily took off his earphones.

"What's wrong, Mr. Jordan? Why aren't you listening anymore?"

Salvatore asked.

Jordan sighed. "There's no signal. The listening device I planted might have been damaged."

Salvatore was immediately dumbfounded. "Huh? F*ck, there's really someone! Mr. Jordan is really a fortune-teller! If there was really someone just now, wouldn't they have seen my superpower and Dragon's?"

"Hey, I was testing my Hand of Hell just now. If I had known earlier, I wouldn't have shown off there. I've been exposed!"

Salvatore also knew that with his abilities, it was best to secretly practice and not let anyone know.

Jordan said, "You and Dragon only have low-level abilities. It doesn't matter if others find out. Those people hiding in the dark might be at least purple-level. They don't care about your abilities to begin with."

Dragon nodded. "That's right. Fortunately, Master didn't display his ability there. Otherwise, once they know what your gold-level ability is, even if they are purple-level mutants, they might have a chance to deal with you."

Although mutants were divided into colors and levels, in Dragon's opinion, high-level mutants were not necessarily stronger than low-level mutants.

As long as they used their abilities well, low-level mutants would still have a chance to kill high-level mutants.

Salvatore immediately felt his hair stand on end. "F*ck, who are those people? They're so sinister!"

Jordan also wanted to know who the person hiding in the Immortal Lake was and what their motive was.

"My uncle must know more about the Mutant Tribe. Unfortunately, my relationship with my uncle is not good now. I can't ask him. Forget it. These people are all old fogies from 20 years ago. They might have already died in our era. There's no need for us to worry about them. Let's hurry back!"

Salvatore laughed. "Mr. Jordan is right. If these mysterious fellows were really capable, they wouldn't have watched the Steeles become the masters of the world. Hahaha."

The three of them did not say anything else and immediately returned to 2022.

After coming out of the Blue Lagoon in Malta, the three of them quickly left the scene.

Jordan's men had subdued some of the Rong family's spies, but the Rong family could send someone over at any time.

Jordan could not let Rong Bingshao know that he was here. Otherwise, Rong Bingshao might kill Lauren immediately.

"Mr. Jordan, no one is spying on us anymore. Quickly try out your gold-level ability!"

Salvatore was excited and couldn't wait to know what Jordan's gold-level ability was.

However, Jordan was not in the mood. As he walked towards the plane, he said, "Go and find out what Rong Bingshao is doing now. After I faked my death, Lauren is in a very dangerous situation. I can't let anything happen to my wife and child!"

Salvatore hurriedly asked his subordinates about the situation. He replied, "Mr. Jordan, that b*stard Rong Bingshao doesn't believe that you're dead. He sent many people to search for you near Sicily. He wants to see you dead or alive!"

Jordan nodded. "Very good. As long as he doesn't believe that I'm dead, Lauren won't be in danger for the time being. Salvatore, immediately evacuate all our men at the Blue Lagoon to fly to Italy with us!"

Salvatore was shocked. "Evacuate everyone? The Time Gate is such a precious thing. Aren't we going to leave some people to watch over it?"

Jordan said, "No, before Lauren is completely safe, I can't let Rong Bingshao have the chance to lose his temper at her. We already know the location of the Time Gate. He won't be able to move away for a while. It won't be too late to occupy this place after I save Lauren."

Salvatore knew that Jordan was very concerned about Lauren's safety, so he had no objections. Hence, the three of them immediately took a plane back to Sicily.

On the plane, Salvatore specially made a cup of watermelon juice for Jordan and handed it to him. "Mr. Jordan, I made this watermelon juice myself. Try it."

Jordan asked suspiciously, "Personally?"

Salvatore smiled. "Haha, that's right. I made it myself. I squeezed it out with my right hand. Hahaha."

"Um, Mr. Jordan, we have time now anyway. Why don't you try what your gold-level is? It'll be an eye-opener for us!"

Jordan shook his head. "No need. A gold-level superpower is no small matter. Victoria's purple-level superpower can affect a street or even an area. If my gold-level ability is out of control, our entire plane might be torn apart. It's better to be safe on the plane now."

Dragon added. "Yes, Rong Bingshao doesn't dare to see Master now. Master won't be fighting for a while. When we reach Sicily, Master will have plenty of time to test his new ability!"

Jordan took a sip of watermelon juice and smiled.

"Rong Bingshao, the game has just begun!"

Chapter 1157: Let Lauren Make Her Choice!

Jordan was very angry when he learned that Lauren had been captured by Rong Bingshao. However, because of this incident, Jordan found the Time Gate he had been looking forward to and obtained a gold-level ability!

Sometimes, some things might seem like a disaster, but it was actually a turning point. It was true that every cloud had its silver lining.

Malta was not far from Italy. Soon, the three of them returned to Sicily.

When they arrived near Sicily, Jordan and the other two realized that there were many Rong family planes patrolling nearby.

"Rong Bingshao is indeed looking for me like a lunatic. I have to appear now. However, in order to make the act more realistic, Salvatore, Dragon, you two have to pretend to be mutants to hunt me down. Let Rong Bingshao's men see clearly that my uncle did send someone to kill me. I wasn't the one who directed everything just now," Jordan said to the two.

Salvatore said, "No problem! We're mutants now. Hehe, there's no need to pretend at all. We just need to change our appearance, hehe."

Dragon said, "Don't disguise yourself. It's too much of a waste of time. Just wear a mask."

Salvatore said, "Dragon, you're not detailed enough! Look at those people from the Mutant Tribe. They're all so arrogant because they're mutants. Which one of them doesn't care about their image? Who would wear a mask when they go out? This doesn't match their characteristics!"

Jordan added. "Now that the Mutant Tribe controls the world, there's no longer a powerful enemy like the Rong family. They don't wear masks when they go out now. Salvatore is right. Salvatore, quickly put on some makeup. I'll go out first. After you guys change your appearance, come out and hunt me down. Put on an act for Rong Bingshao's men."

"No problem!" Salvatore erupted in excitement.

Jordan continued, "Also, before I leave, Salvatore, torture me first so that I look like I've been chased and injured."

Salvatore was a little afraid. "Can I really do it? My Hand of Hell is not a joke. I don't really want to hurt Mr. Jordan."

Jordan smiled. "Don't worry, I know your ability very well. I'm a gold-level mutant now, and my physical defense has increased greatly. You can't kill me."

Salvatore smiled. "Hehe, alright then."

Swish!

Swish!

Swish!

Salvatore waved his right hand and used only two fingers to attack Jordan's body.

Soon, Jordan's clothes were torn by Salvatore, and wounds and blood kept appearing on his body.

Jordan deliberately made himself look a little disheveled. After scruffing himself up, he left the plane first.

Before leaving, Jordan shared the location with Salvatore and Dragon. This way, they could find him at any time.

Jordan walked out and arrived at a hill in Sicily.

After about 20 minutes of walking, he saw a plane flying towards him. It should be the plane sent by Rong Bingshao to search for Jordan's corpse.

In the capital.

Rong Bingshao had been waiting for news from Jordan. He pulled Lauren back here.

Lauren kept crying after hearing that Jordan's plane had been blown up. However, Lauren looked very sad on the surface, but she knew very well in her heart that it was very likely that Jordan was deliberately pretending. His goal was to go to the Time Gate and obtain his superpower!

Suddenly, Rong Bingshao's subordinate sent a message.

"Master Rong! Jordan was discovered in a mountainous area in Sicily!" The subordinate reported.

Rong Bingshao was furious. "Ah! Damn Jordan! He's really not dead! I knew it! What bullsh*t Mutant Tribe pursuit and bombardment? It's all an illusion. His uncle didn't attack at all! He's teasing me!"

Bang!

Knowing that Jordan was not dead, Rong Bingshao threw something angrily.

Rong Bingshao walked straight towards Lauren.

Lauren felt a little guilty, but she looked surprised. "Master Rong, you said that my husband isn't dead? Is that true? He wasn't killed by the Mutant Tribe?"

Rong Bingshao was furious. "Lauren, I told you long ago that I'm no longer the Rong Bingshao who was toyed with by others! I'm no longer the same as before! Do you think I'll fall for your husband's trick and believe him? Randall didn't send anyone to kill him at all! He orchestrated everything himself!

"Damn Jordan. His wife is clearly in my hands, but he still dares to play this trick on me. He doesn't take me seriously at all! I have to punish Jordan!"

With that, Rong Bingshao took out a dagger from his subordinate.

He then walked towards Lauren again.

Lauren swallowed nervously. She realized that Rong Bingshao was very angry now and believed that Jordan was mocking him. Therefore, it was very likely that Rong Bingshao wanted to hurt Lauren to warn and punish Jordan!

Lauren was tied up now. Even if she wasn't, with Rong Bingshao's speed, she wouldn't be able to dodge if he wanted to kill her or attack her.

Lauren asked nervously, "What... what are you going to do?"

Rong Bingshao slowly placed the dagger on Lauren's fair and tender face. This was a face that all women dreamed of having. If there was even a trace of damage, it would be an extremely huge regret!

Lauren didn't dare to move at all.

Rong Bingshao said, "I'll give you two choices now. The first is for me to scratch your beautiful face. The second is for you to kiss me deeply with all that you have. I'll give you 10 seconds to consider. You can make a choice now. Hehe."

Rong Bingshao had hurt Lauren and taken revenge on Jordan.

Lauren became increasingly nervous and afraid. She knew that Rong Bingshao was not joking.

Lauren begged for mercy. "Master Rong, don't be like this. If you had attacked me, my husband wouldn't have done as you asked. You shouldn't go back on your word. You promised him that you wouldn't touch me."

Rong Bingshao snorted. "Your husband was the first to disobey the rules of the game! Not me! He pretended to be chased by the Mutant Tribe to mock me first!

"Now, you still have five seconds."

"Five..."

"Four..."

Rong Bingshao squatted in front of Lauren, holding a dagger as he slowly counted down.

"Three..."

"Two..."

When Rong Bingshao counted to the last number, Lauren pursed her charming cherry lips tightly, closed her eyes, and raised her head.

The meaning was obvious. Rong Bingshao was allowed to cut her face with a dagger.

Rong Bingshao chuckled. "You're really Jordan's good wife. You're actually unwilling to kiss me. Alright, since you're so loyal, I can only stab your beautiful face!"

Rong Bingshao picked up the dagger and aimed it at Lauren's fair face.

With his speed, he would instantly injure Lauren's face!

Chapter 1158: Rong Bingshao Saves Jordan!

Lauren had already decided to accept her fate. At most, she would be disfigured!

Fortunately, with the Steele family's current medical skills, even after being disfigured, she could still return to her original appearance. She would only suffer a little physical pain.

Even if Lauren could not return to her former beauty, she believed that Jordan would not stop loving her just because she had become ugly.

She had the utmost confidence in their love!

Rong Bingshao was indeed not joking. He really planned to attack Lauren. However, just as Rong Bingshao's sharp dagger touched Lauren's fair skin...

"Master Rong, Jordan is being chased by two mutants!" His subordinate suddenly shouted.

Rong Bingshao was stunned. He had been on the phone with his subordinates in Sicily and had not hung up.

Rong Bingshao stopped what he was doing.

Lauren opened her eyes in surprise. She did not expect Jordan to really be chased by the Mutant Tribe. She found it unbelievable.

Rong Bingshao was a little puzzled. "Send me the scene over there."

In Sicily, Rong Bingshao's subordinates used a drone to capture the scene of Jordan fleeing in panic in the hills. In the image, Jordan was fleeing in a sorry state. His clothes were tattered and there were many injuries.

boxn ov el. c o m

Behind him, two men in strange clothes were chasing after him.

One of them was fat and wore a western cowboy hat. He had a thick beard. The other man was tall and muscular. He had blonde hair and looked like a Caucasian.

These two people were actually Salvatore and Dragon.

After a simple disguise, it was impossible to tell who they were without looking carefully.

Even if Rong Bingshao had seen Dragon and Salvatore before, he would never recognize them.

Rong Bingshao frowned as he looked at the scene. He was trying to confirm if the people chasing after Jordan were mutants.

In the image, Jordan picked up a large rock and threw it at the two of them.

However, Salvatore raised his right hand and cut the big stone in half!

“Oh, sh*t!”

Rong Bingshao was shocked.

“Nick, did you see that? Oh my god, that guy in the western cowboy hat actually cut such a big stone in half with one hand!”

Nick walked over and said, “I saw it. It’s really an amazing right hand. How did he do it without using a weapon? Even if he was injected with the Mirakuru serum, it’s impossible for him to have such power!”

Rong Bingshao said, “This is definitely a mutant. This fellow is from the Mutant Tribe!”

Nick frowned. “But based on what we know about the Mutant Tribe, no one seems to have this superpower.”

Rong Bingshao chuckled. “I already said that we only know a third of the information about the Mutant Tribe’s subordinates. It might not even be enough. Randall won’t expose all his trump cards so easily.”

Nick looked at Salvatore’s unique skill again and nodded in agreement. “That’s right. That fellow is indeed a mutant.”

At the same time, Dragon began to perform the superpower he had just obtained.

Dragon quickly ran forward and spun his hands as he ran. A powerful wind instantly surged.

“Oh, what the hell is that?!”

Rong Bingshao was shocked.

Before he could react, Dragon threw a whirlwind at Jordan. It wrapped around him and pulled him in front of him!

“Oh, holy shit! What... what is this!?! It’s like a hand grabbing Jordan! His hands can create whirlwinds. Damn it, he’s also a mutant! And he’s a mutant of a higher level than the person beside him!”

“It’s true. Jordan is really being chased by his uncle. It’s true that he was bombarded on the plane just now. He’s not acting. He’s really being chased by the mutants now! Moreover, he’s about to die at their hands!”

When Lauren saw this, she couldn't tell if Jordan was pretending or not. She hurriedly said, "Bingshao, save my husband! Don't you want to continue playing games with my husband? Don't you want to see him jump into a volcano? If he's killed by the mutants, you won't be able to take revenge!"

Lauren's words reminded Rong Bingshao.

Only by killing Jordan with Rong Bingshao's own hands could it be considered a perfect revenge.

Rong Bingshao had enough ability to complete his revenge now. Why would he let his enemy die at the hands of others?

Rong Bingshao immediately ordered his subordinates in Sicily, "Stop those two mutants immediately. Don't let them kill Jordan."

After giving the order, Rong Bingshao looked at the disheveled Jordan in disdain.

"Hehe, Jordan, you're really weak. You were tortured by these two fellows from the Mutant Tribe. Their levels should not be higher than mine. You can't even defeat someone lower than me. Hehe, if you encounter me, won't you only be beaten up?"

Rong Bingshao was even more confident that he could kill Jordan alone.

Meanwhile in Sicily.

Salvatore smiled wickedly and shouted at Jordan, "Hehe, Jordan, your uncle sent us to kill you. Today, you will die at the hands of our Mutant Tribe!"

Just as the three of them were enjoying their act...

Bang bang bang bang...

The helicopter slowly landed. The people inside held laser guns and kept firing at Salvatore and Dragon, preventing them from killing Jordan.

Salvatore and Dragon were stunned. Salvatore shouted, "Where did this b*stard come from? Is he Jordan's subordinate? If not, get lost quickly. Don't hinder our Mutant Tribe!"

However, Rong Bingshao's subordinates did not know English. They replied, "Stop attacking! Stop attacking immediately! Otherwise, we will shoot you!"

When these subordinates saw that the other party was from the Mutant Tribe and had their own unique skills, they were a little afraid and did not dare to shoot them directly.

“What are they talking about?”

Salvatore looked at Dragon.

Dragon replied, “Who are you people? We’re here on orders from our Chief, Randall, to kill Jordan. Jordan is Randall’s nephew. This is our family’s private matter. I hope outsiders won’t interfere in the matters of the Steele family and the Mutant Tribe!”

Rong Bingshao’s subordinate said, “We have no intention of interfering in the affairs of the Mutant Tribe. However, we have orders to kill this person in front of you. Please hand him to me. We guarantee that he won’t live long!”
