

The Abandoned Husband Dominates –

Chapter 1159 - 1159 Offending A Deity? Die! -

Dragon and Salvatore looked at each other before replying, "Alright, since you're also here to kill Jordan, I'll hand him over to you."

With their mission completed, Dragon and Salvatore quickly took the initiative to leave.

Rong Bingshao's subordinate sat in the helicopter and looked at the disheveled Jordan with disdain and mockery.

"I didn't expect the mighty Deity Jordan to almost be killed by two mutants. Hehe, we really overestimated his prediction ability in the past."

"That's right. In front of powerful mutants, his prediction ability is useless. Master Rong will definitely be able to kill this person easily!"

The two of them mocked Jordan before throwing him a phone.

The phone began to ring as soon as it reached Jordan's hand.

It was Rong Bingshao.

"Hello."

"Hello." Jordan answered the phone.

Indeed, Rong Bingshao's voice came from the other end of the line.

"Hahaha, Jordan, I thought you were lying to me. You pretended to be being chased by the Mutant Tribe to escape my punishment. I didn't expect Randall to really send someone to hunt you down.

"Jordan, how does it feel to be hunted down by your own uncle? Hahaha, not only did your uncle snatch your woman, he also wanted to kill you and monopolize this world. Your world and your woman have all been snatched away by your uncle. Tsk, tsk, tsk. What a pitiful child. If I hadn't helped you just now, you would have been killed by two mutants! You good-for-nothing! Hahaha!"

Jordan already had a gold-level ability and no longer cared about Rong Bingshao's speed.

However, Rong Bingshao was still controlling Lauren. Jordan had no choice but to put on an act for the time being.

Jordan ignored Rong Bingshao's mockery and asked with concern, "How is my wife?"

Rong Bingshao chuckled. "You really love your wife very much. You're about to die, but you're still concerned about her. Don't worry, your wife is fine I said that as long as you do as I say, I won't hurt your wife. I'm different from your hypocritical uncle. I keep my word."

Jordan asked, "You're not from the Mutant Tribe, are you?"

Rong Bingshao smiled. "So what if I am? And what if I'm not? There's no point in knowing this. Be good and do what I asked you to do. Now, listen to me. Fallen Deity, get up from the ground and go to Mount Etna in Sicily. I want to see the scene of our one and only Deity in our world merging with the magnificent volcano, haha."

Jordan stood up from the ground and said into the phone, "Alright, I'll go to the volcano. I'll do what you want me to do, but I have a request. After I do as you say this time at the volcano, I want to see you and my wife. I want to fight you to the death!"

Rong Bingshao smiled. "Hehe, no problem. After this, you should be exhausted. After this, I'll see you and kill you with my own hands! Oh, don't worry. I'll only kill you. I won't touch your wife. Hehe."

Jordan said, "Alright, it's a deal!"

Rong Bingshao said, "Cut the crap. Hurry up and go to the volcano. Whether you can survive the volcano or not is another matter. Hehe."

Jordan chuckled. Before he became a gold-level mutant, he would definitely have a death wish if he tried to challenge the volcanic magma at a temperature of 1,000 degrees celsius just by relying on his body that had been injected with the serum.

However, he was no longer afraid.

Actually, at this moment, Jordan already knew what his gold-level ability was. In fact, he had already tested his ability in the Immortal Lake. Moreover, he could predict what he would do with his gold-level.

At the thought of this ability, Jordan couldn't help feeling excited. This was simply a magical and heaven-defying ability!

He felt that he could fight against anyone in the world!

No one was his match!

It didn't matter if it was the speedy Rong Bingshao, Lincoln, who could control objects, or Park Sora, who could instantly freeze things.

Even Victoria, who could control people's minds, wouldn't faze him!

The only person who could make Jordan worry was probably Randall, who also had a gold-level ability.

"Alright, I'll be right there."

Soon, Rong Bingshao's subordinate said to Jordan, "Heh, Deity, come up. We'll take you to the volcano to meet your maker. This will be faster, haha."

In the beginning, Jordan ignored them. However, they said that their master had ordered them to let Jordan board their plane. They even used Lauren as a threat.

Clenching fists in anger, Jordan had no choice but to board their plane. After entering Rong Huangde's plane, Jordan remained expressionless and silent.

Rong Bingshao's two subordinates kept talking.

"Deity Jordan, I think you should kowtow to the two of us first. In your view, saving a life should be a huge favor, right? We saved your life just now."

"That's right. If not for the two of us helping you, you would have been killed by those two terrifying mutants."

Jordan remained expressionless and said coldly, "You're just two dogs who obey orders. What right do you have to make me kneel down to you?"

The two men were very angry, but Jordan was right. It was indeed not their idea to save Jordan just now, but Rong Bingshao's orders. They were just following orders.

One of his subordinates said angrily, "Damn it, you're being played by our master. You're about to taste volcanic lava!"

The subordinate quickly flew the plane to Mount Etna in Sicily and above the volcano.

"Hahaha, very good. It's here. Look down. The volcano is really spectacular. Do you see it? It's still erupting below. Tsk, tsk, tsk. This spectacular and gorgeous red-orange color is really intoxicating! Deity, you're about to enter it! You'll turn to ashes soon!"

Another subordinate picked up his weapon and aimed it at Jordan. "Jump down from here immediately!"

Jordan snorted. These two subordinates had a death wish. How dare they be so rude to a Deity and a gold-level mutant!

A dagger suddenly appeared in Jordan's hand and he slashed the man's wrist, knocking away his weapon. He then kicked the man out of the plane!

"Ah! Save me!"

The subordinate reached out his hands in fear for help. However, no one could save him in such a short period of time.

He fell into the extremely terrifying red-hot molten volcano!

1160 Jordan's Gold-level Ability!

The incomparably gorgeous and terrifying red-orange volcano welcomed a human and instantly turned him into ashes.

At this moment, people realized how truly insignificant humans were in front of nature.

"No!!"

On the plane, another subordinate roared. He saw his brother being kicked into the volcano by Jordan. There was no way to save him.

The subordinate roared, "Ah, you deserve to die! Master Rong will see all of this. He will never let you off!"

"Hmph."

Jordan humphed coldly and immediately wanted to capture the remaining man. This subordinate was still a pilot, but Jordan did not care. He could fly a plane himself and did not need anyone's help.

However, at this moment, the subordinate seemed to have pressed an emergency call button. Rong Bingshao called.

As Lauren was in Rong Bingshao's hands, Jordan had no choice but to answer quickly.

"Hello."

Rong Bingshao cursed on the other end of the line. "Damn it, Jordan, what are you doing?! Why did you kick my subordinate into the volcano?! Are you trying to play tricks again but don't dare to jump into the volcano? You coward, don't forget that your wife is in my hands!"

Jordan replied calmly, "Your subordinate deserves to die. He dared to provoke a Deity and be disrespectful to me. Of course I have to kill him!"

Rong Bingshao mocked, "F*ck you, Deity! The world has already entered the era of mutants. You still treat your lousy Deity status as a treasure! If a Deity was really that powerful, would your wife run away with another man? Wake up. You can't even defeat your former woman and her daughter! You piece of trash!"

Jordan clenched his fists and suppressed his anger. "Don't worry. Since I said I would jump into a volcano, I will definitely jump. However, don't forget what you promised me. As long as I jump into the volcano, you will meet me and fight me to the death and let my wife go!"

Rong Bingshao said, "Hehe, I will naturally keep my word. Since you dare to jump into the volcano, jump quickly. I'm watching from here. As long as you dare to jump into the volcano, even if you only stay for a second before climbing back up, it will be considered a success. Haha!"

Rong Bingshao knew how terrifying volcanic lava was. The temperature inside was so high. How could he come and go as he pleased?

Ordinary people would definitely be reduced to ashes. Although Jordan had been injected with the serum and his body was incomparable to ordinary people, even if he did not die, his body would definitely be crippled if he was lucky enough to climb up.

By then, Rong Bingshao would have the advantage in speed. Wouldn't there be no suspense if he fought Jordan?

Jordan said, "Alright, I believe you. I'll jump now. However, I want you to keep your damn drone away from me. Don't film my face like you did in the lake previously. I don't want my wife to see me in pain in the volcano!"

Rong Bingshao was even happier when he heard Jordan mention that he would be in pain when he reached the volcano.

A chuckle erupted from Rong Bingshao. "Hahaha, you Americans are so prideful. Alright, I promise you. The temperature is so high over there. Although my drone is higher-end than the drones on the market, it can't withstand such high temperatures. Don't worry, I've already removed the drone. I can only see where you jumped into the volcano. As for your painful struggle after jumping into the volcano, your wife and I won't be able to see it. You can jump boldly now!"

Jordan answered, "Deal!"

Jordan hung up the phone, full of fighting spirit.

The remaining subordinate on the plane cursed at Jordan. "Trash Deity, today is the day you die! You will jump into a volcano. Even if you don't die, you'll be crippled! There's no chance of survival!"

Jordan looked at Rong Bingshao's subordinate and snorted. "If I come back alive, I'll be the first to kill you!"

The subordinate laughed out loud. "Hahaha, you will jump into a volcano and you still want to come back alive? Don't make me laugh. You should call the Miyamoto family and ask them if their bodies can withstand the magma!"

It was indeed impossible to escape unscathed from the volcano with just the Mirakuru serum.

However, they had no idea that Jordan was not relying on a volcano, but his gold-level ability: Creating something out of nothing!

That's right. Jordan already knew about it and had already tested his new ability. He could create substances out of thin air!

This was the definition of a heaven-defying ability!

Matter could be transformed from nothing to something. It was simply against human science.

Lincoln from the Mutant Tribe was already a very powerful enemy. He could control objects, but he could only use the nearby objects.

If there was nothing nearby that he needed, there was nothing he could do.

However, Jordan was different. He did not need these things nearby. He could create them himself.

Of course, these objects were things that Jordan had seen before. They were just substances. He could not conjure anything out of thin air.

Jordan was already standing at the hatch of the plane, facing the red-orange volcano and preparing to jump.

At this moment, Lauren, who was in the capital, was so worried that her heart raced when she saw the small figure from afar.

"No, don't jump! Bingshao. I beg you, don't torture my husband anymore. He'll die. He'll die if he jumps into the volcano!"

Rong Bingshao watched all of this coldly. He picked up a glass of red wine to celebrate. "Ms. Lauren, calm down, calm down. I know he might die. You have to know that I died once too."

A smile appeared on Rong Bingshao's face. Jordan had killed him once. Now, he had finally avenged himself!

In the image, Jordan leaped up from the plane and jumped into the volcano!

"No!"

Lauren shouted. She had to pretend that she couldn't accept it, but in fact, Lauren knew Jordan well. She knew that her husband never fought a battle he wasn't confident of winning. Since Jordan jumped so decisively, it meant that he had a way to deal with it.

At this moment, Lauren's true thoughts were, 'Does Hubby have a new ability? Can his ability deal with volcanoes? That's a thousand degrees...'

Jordan did not expect to encounter such a huge volcano after obtaining a gold-level ability. If it were elsewhere, Jordan could easily deal with it. However, he was facing a volcano. He had to take it easy.

"Yes!"

Seeing Jordan jump, Rong Bingshao raised his arm high. He was certain that Jordan's outcome would be very tragic!

However, Jordan remained extremely calm in the air.

Jordan slowly fell into the volcano.

Bang!
