

The Abandoned Husband Dominates –

1171 Big Shark!

“Yes!”

The subordinates received the order. One group continued to attack Jordan with their underwater weapons while the other immediately started to rescue Rong Bingshao.

They pressed a button on their diving suits. In an instant, their speed increased as they charged towards Rong Bingshao.

When Jordan saw the ripples caused by those people charging over, he thought to himself:

“Rong Bingshao’s subordinates are even stronger than the ones he met previously. They are definitely the most elite troops of the Rong family! They actually carry underwater weapons and equipment with them. How terrifying.”

Although he could tell that the Rong family was not to be trifled with, Jordan would not agree to save Rong Bingshao just like that.

“Hmph, if you want to save your master, you have to ask me if I agree!”

Bang!

Jordan quickly conjured a huge stone out of thin air and pressed it against Rong Bingshao.

Rong Bingshao smiled when he saw his subordinates coming to save him. He thought that he was saved.

However, his body was suddenly pressed against the ground by a huge rock.

“Oh, hell, that b*stard Jordan!”

If it was on the ground, Rong Bingshao would be able to overturn even a thousand-pound boulder. However, he was in the water now, and he was seriously injured. He could not exert any strength at all, and his lightning speed was completely restricted.

“Oh no, Master Rong is being crushed by a huge rock!”

A subordinate said through the communication device.

Nick was speechless. "What? A huge rock? Where did this huge rock come from?!"

The subordinate said, "I don't know. It suddenly appeared."

Nick flew into a rage. "Don't talk about anything else. Hurry up and save him! The rest of you, shoot Jordan immediately. If you can't kill him with a bullet, get close to him and kill him at close range. Slice his neck or make sure he doesn't suffocate to death. Anything is fine!"

"Yes!"

Another wave of button pressing happened and bullets quickly approached Jordan.

Jordan was instantly surrounded by more than 10 people.

"Go!"

One person made a gesture and more than 10 people instantly swarmed forward!

One of them grabbed Jordan's left leg, one grabbed his right leg, and the other tried to grab Jordan's arm, only to be killed by his sword.

However, even if Jordan killed a few people, it was nothing to the Rong family.

If one died, ten more would come.

It was not enough for Jordan to kill them one by one.

"These detestable fellows!"

Jordan frowned. There were really too many of them.

He glanced at Rong Bingshao, who was pressed against a huge rock not far away. There were four or five of Rong Bingshao's subordinates working together to lift the huge rock, and were all exerting a lot of effort.

"Work harder, you idiots. Haven't you eaten yet? Lift it up!"

Rong Bingshao was also very anxious.

Finally, they used all their strength to move the huge rock. They were about to move it away and save Rong Bingshao.

Rong Bingshao's eyes lit up with hope.

However, just at that moment...

Boom!

Another larger boulder descended from the sky and appeared on Rong Bingshao's body!

Now, it was two boulders pressing down on him!

"No!!! Jordan, you can't do this!"

Rong Bingshao was on the verge of breaking down. He knew that all of this was Jordan's doing. He felt like he was about to be played to death by Jordan.

"If there's an afterlife, I don't want to meet Jordan again. I don't want to meet anyone from the Steele family!!"

Rong Bingshao cried. He felt that he was really doomed this time. As long as Jordan did not die, it was impossible for him to be saved.

Rong Bingshao pointed at Jordan and said to his subordinates, "Kill him! All of you, kill him!"

It was useless for these people to save Rong Bingshao now. With Jordan around, no one could save him.

Therefore, everyone from the Rong family rushed towards Jordan!

In an instant, Jordan was surrounded by more than a hundred people!

As the saying went, two fists were no match for four hands. Moreover, Jordan was facing more than a hundred armed men!

"All of you, attack! Use all your weapons! I don't believe that Jordan can survive the onslaught of more than a hundred people underwater! If he doesn't die, I'll acknowledge him as my father in the future!"

Nick stood at the door and ordered his subordinates.

This time, victory was in his hands. Jordan would definitely die!

"Good lord, looks like you guys really don't know how powerful I am if I don't play hard!"

Jordan's strong fighting spirit was also aroused. He had just turned the city venue into an open sea, shocking Rong Bingshao.

This time, Jordan wanted to do something more powerful!

“What should I do?”

Jordan pondered carefully.

However, at this moment, these 100 people had already charged towards Jordan.

Swish! Swish! Swish! Swish!

Countless bullets hit Jordan’s body. He was surrounded and had no choice but to cover his face.

Dozens of people grabbed Jordan’s body and kept trying to kill him.

That really angered Jordan!

At this moment, Jordan wanted to eat someone!

“Oh yes, a shark!”

Jordan suddenly thought that he could conjure a shark and eat all of them!

However, he had never conjured a living creature before. He did not know if he could. So Jordan focused and imagined what the shark would look like. He then used his superpower and waved his hands.

“Ah!”

A six-meter-long great white shark really appeared opposite Jordan!

“Success!”

Jordan was extremely excited!

“Shark???”

When Rong Bingshao saw this, he fainted in despair.

The hundred or so subordinates were all facing Jordan and did not realize the huge object behind them!

“Arghhh!”

The great white shark ate someone in one bite!

After eating one, the shark continued to bite another person!

Soon, the indoor ocean was dyed red by blood. One by one, Rong Bingshao's subordinates were bitten to death by the shark!

"Shark...?"

When Nick saw this, he broke down completely!

"What's going on today? What's going on?! Why is there seawater here? Why are there sharks?! This is a f*cking gymnasium. It's the city center of the capital. How can there be sharks in the city center?!"

Seeing that his subordinates were about to be bitten to death, Nick knew that if he didn't come up with a solution, their master would really be finished.

Nick suddenly ordered, "Everyone, retreat! Everyone, retreat!"

Nick suddenly asked his subordinates to retreat.

Jordan also saw the remaining dozen or so people pressing the buttons to quickly return. He was immediately puzzled.

With Nick's loyalty, it was impossible for him to let Rong Bingshao die here and not save him.

"Could it be... this isn't good!"

1172 Saving Lauren!

Seeing this strange phenomenon, Jordan immediately activated his Deity ability to predict the future.

In the next second, a terrifying thing appeared in Jordan's mind: a torpedo!

"Damn it, that's a torpedo! Rong Huangde's subordinates actually launched a torpedo!"

Torpedoes were underwater weapons that could precisely attack underwater targets. They could automatically find targets, and their explosive power was very high!

Having predicted that the Rong family would use such a weapon in advance, Jordan couldn't help feeling nervous. He knew that because the density of water was 800 times that of air, and the compression was only 1/2,500 of air, the power of a torpedo was far greater than an explosion in the air.

Jordan had been injected with the Mirakuru serum and had experienced the baptism of a gold-level mutant, strengthening his body again.

However, he still didn't dare to take the risk!

This was because he really couldn't figure out the Rong family's technological and military strength. He didn't know how much more powerful their research and development was than the current world.

Jordan thought about it carefully. In a short period of time, he could not think of anything that could be used to stop the torpedo.

Torpedoes were detonated by impact. It was fine if you didn't produce anything, but if you produced something to "oppose" the torpedo, it would accelerate the detonation.

Even if there was something that could intercept the torpedo, it required a high tech invention. Jordan had never even seen it before, much less understood its structure. How could it be produced?

Jordan had to be very familiar with that thing before he could conjure it.

Jordan suddenly took out an "Iron Man armor". He had to prepare to escape!

At this moment, the people who had not been eaten by the sharks after killing Jordan earlier quickly returned to the door with guilty expressions.

"Master Nick, I'm sorry. We didn't complete the mission. We couldn't kill Jordan, much less save Master Rong!"

"Lord Nick, please punish me!"

However, Nick's expression was serious. "Men, it's not your fault. I can already tell that Jordan is not just a Deity. He has even more powerful abilities! Although I don't know exactly what he has, I know that it's impossible for us to defeat a Deity! It was a mistake to fight a Deity from the beginning!"

One of his subordinates said, "But what should we do now? How should we save Master Rong?"

Nick said coldly, "Since we can't save Master Rong from the Deity, there's only one way. Kill them all!"

When the subordinates heard this, they were so shocked that they took a step back.

Kill them all?!

Kill even Rong Bingshao?

Was Nick rebelling? Was he going to kill Rong Bingshao and take over the Rong family?

With his status in the Rong family, he naturally had the ability to take over and make many people follow him. However, Rong Bailun had specially arranged for Nick to assist Rong Bingshao.

Rong Bailun had always been smart. Why would he arrange for a rebel to be by Rong Bingshao's side?

Nick said, "I'm fighting to the death. Deity Jordan is too powerful. We have to take out our strongest weapon and kill them all to defeat him. Don't worry, Master Rong has a critical moment emergency system installed on him. When he encounters a huge impact and explosion, it will automatically activate. In addition, he's currently being pressed down by two large rocks. He should be fine.

"Even if he really dies, at most, we can revive him like last time. This is the only way. Activate S-MINI9967 immediately!"

At Nick's command, a torpedo developed by the Rong family immediately appeared in the huge sea in the center of the Cadillac Center!

The torpedo was very well-hidden. It entered the water quietly like a stealthy fish. However, everyone knew that this seemingly calm object could explode with astonishing power.

"Damn it, it's really here!"

When Jordan saw the torpedo, it charged straight at him. If it hit him, he would either die or be crippled.

Swish.

Jordan immediately pressed the button on his armor and escaped.

Actually, he could escape from above. This way, the torpedo would not be able to catch up to him.

However, Jordan did not want to leave just like that.

Although Rong Bingshao was young and was no match for Jordan now, there was no way to resolve his grudge with him. If he let Rong Bingshao go, he would be a problem in the future. Therefore, Jordan wanted to kill him, including everyone in the Rong family.

As Jordan swam in the water, dodging the torpedo, he asked Dragon, "Did you save Lauren?!"

After a few seconds, Dragon replied, "I just saved Madam from the Rong family!"

Jordan finally heaved a sigh of relief. "Take Lauren away from here immediately. There's going to be an explosion soon. Leave this place as soon as possible. Hurry!"

When Dragon saw that the Rong family was retreating, he hurriedly said, "Yes! We'll fly away now!"

In the center of the Cadillac, Jordan kept flying up and down in the arena while the torpedo kept tracking him. It was getting faster and faster.

Jordan's armor was meant to be used in the sky, and it was also greatly reduced in the water.

"Damn it, I can't hold on anymore!"

Jordan looked at the time. Lauren and the others should be far away by now. He pressed a button and immediately soared into the sky!

Bang!

A hole appeared in the sky above the Cadillac Central as Jordan flew out of the sea!

"Go to hell!"

Wasting no time, Jordan conjured another huge stone and smashed it against the torpedo.

Boom!

There was a thunderous bang!

The entire arena exploded violently in the water!

The surface of the water was already very high. With this explosion, the water surged into the sky!

Many citizens of the capital were shocked when they saw this scene. The residents of the nearby 28-story high-rise residential estate looked up at the distant sky. They were dumbfounded!

Putting aside the destructive power, it was quite a spectacular scene.

However, Jordan did not have time to admire such a scene. He flew away immediately and arrived at Dragon, Salvatore and the others.

“Lauren!”

Jordan saw Lauren, who had yet to be untied.

Lauren was drenched and her hair was a little messy. She didn't look too good either. Fortunately, she didn't appear to be injured.

“Hubby!”

Lauren and Jordan hugged each other tightly!

Jordan caressed Lauren's face and asked, “Are you alright? Are you hurt?”

Lauren cried excitedly. “I'm fine. The child and I are fine. Hubby, what about you? Did you receive my note? Have you already gone to the Immortal Lake? Did you obtain your ability in the Immortal Lake?”

Jordan was also very touched. He looked at Lauren and held her hand. “Yes, I went to the Immortal Lake and was able to obtain an ability. Lauren, this is all thanks to you. If not for you, I wouldn't have been able to find the location of the Time Gate so quickly.

“Lauren, you were captured by Rong Bingshao and your life was in danger. But at that time, you didn't care about yourself. You didn't write on the note asking me to save you. Instead, you only told me the whereabouts of the Time Gate. Silly wife, you were still thinking about me at that time.”

Lauren was a little embarrassed by the praise. She replied, “I know you've been investigating the whereabouts of the Rong family's Time Gate. I saw that Rong Bingshao was young and impetuous, so I tried to get some information from him. Of course, I had to tell my husband in time. Moreover, Rong Bingshao has lightning speed. Only by obtaining the talent of the Immortal Lake can you save me.

“By the way, Hubby, what superpower did you obtain?”

Lauren was also very curious about Jordan's ability. She hoped that Jordan's ability could surpass Victoria's mental control and even be on par with Randall.

This way, Jordan would not have to feel inferior when facing Randall and Victoria.

Seeing that Lauren wanted to know his ability, Jordan smiled. A bouquet of lilies appeared in his right hand and he handed it to Lauren.

“Wow!”

Lauren was surprised that Jordan could produce flowers out of thin air!

Jordan said, “A bouquet of flowers doesn’t seem to be enough. How about we create a garden here?”

Jordan waved his hand, and countless flowers quickly appeared under their feet. There were lilies, roses, and peonies!

A beautiful garden instantly appeared in the empty space!

Lauren was shocked. “Hubby, you can create things out of thin air?”

Jordan nodded. “Yes, I can create material from nothing. I was the one who created the sea in the ice hockey arena just now. I also created a great white shark, but it has probably been killed by the Rong family’s torpedoes. You won’t be able to see it.”

Lauren was dumbfounded. She couldn’t believe that her husband was so powerful!

Creating matter was something only a Deity could do!

Her husband was truly like a god!

While Lauren was happy, she also felt a little inferior. “Hubby... Hubby, you’ve become stronger and more magical. I... I’m even less worthy of you now.”

Lauren couldn’t deny that she felt inferior. Her husband was a Deity and a mutant. He could create things from thin air and was like an immortal.

On the other hand, she was just a child from a rich family. The key was that in terms of family background and wealth, the Howards could not compare to the Steeles!

Jordan caressed Lauren’s shoulder and comforted her. “Silly girl, why are you saying such things? You’re the most perfect woman in the world and the best wife in the world. You’ll never be unworthy of me, and I’ll never distance myself from you just because my identity has changed. Don’t let your imagination run wild, understand?”

Lauren looked at Jordan emotionally and nodded gently.

“Lauren, you’ve made a great contribution this time. Not only did you help me, Dragon and Salvatore also went to the Immortal Lake with me. They’re all mutants now.”

Salvatore stepped forward and said, "That's right, Ms. Lauren. Thank you so much. Thanks to you, I have superpowers now. Look."

Salvatore showed off his "Hand of Hell".

Lauren was very impressed.

Dragon added. "Ms. Lauren, my ability is silver-level. I can create powerful whirlwinds. I used my superpower to bring you here just now. You should have already seen it. I won't show it again."

Lauren nodded. "Good, very good. You've all become stronger. With you by my side, I'll be even more at ease!"

Jordan kissed Lauren and said, "Lauren, it's unknown if Rong Bingshao is dead or alive. Most of his subordinates are still alive. We still have to continue fighting the remaining forces of the Rong family. I'll get Dragon to take you back first. You're pregnant, so don't stay here anymore."

Lauren was also very sensible. She knew that the battle between the two sides was not over yet and that she would be a burden here, so she left first.

On Jordan's side, he immediately sent people to attack the Rong family members who wanted to escape.

The Rong family and Jordan's men fought here. Both sides used weather weapons.

All of a sudden, lightning flashed and thunder rumbled in the capital. There were also storms and sleet. The citizens were so frightened that they did not dare to go out.

As expected of Rong Bailun's most trusted general. He managed to escape with Rong Bingshao and quickly left the US.

On the Rong family's invisible plane, Rong Bingshao was being treated by the family's top doctor team and AI robots.

This time, Rong Bingshao was not dead. The protective system on his body had saved him, but because he had been seriously injured by Jordan previously, his current situation was not good.

After half an hour, Rong Bingshao gradually woke up.

"Nick..."

Rong Bingshao looked at Nick weakly.

Nick hurried over. "Master Rong, I'm here. Don't worry, you're fine. We've already left the US. It was indeed a little irrational of you to take the initiative to take revenge on Jordan."

"Next, we'll find a place to hide and recuperate. I believe Jordan won't be able to find us anytime soon. Even if he can find us, our large weapons are enough to fight him."

But Rong Bingshao shook his head. "No, go to the Heart of the Mediterranean immediately."

Nick was shocked. "To Malta? What for?"

Nick knew where the Time Gate was, but Rong Bingshao had already obtained Lightning Speed. There was no point in going there again.

Rong Bingshao sighed. "I thought that with my personal ability, I could kill Jordan to avenge myself and resolve the knot in my heart. However, I was wrong. I can't compare to Jordan in the end. Jordan is too powerful. He's the strongest person in the world!"

"I can never kill Jordan on my own. I have to find a powerful helper."

Nick was stunned. "Helper? Who are you looking for? Don't tell me it's someone who's already dead?"

When Nick saw that Rong Bingshao was going to use the Time Gate to find help, he knew that he might be looking for someone who was already dead. If he wasn't dead, he wouldn't have to go through so much trouble to travel back in time. He could find him now.

"Do you want to revive your father, Rong Bailun?"

Rong Bingshao hesitated for a moment before looking at Nick. "Can I... do that?"

1174 Victoria's Surprise!

Nick sighed and stood up. He looked into the distance as if he was recalling something. A sad expression appeared on his face.

After pausing for a moment, Nick spoke again. "Do you still remember the first time you used your family's Time Gate to return to the past to find Ban Luming? At that time, your father was also in the western China secret base. He saw you."

"At that time, your father had a premonition that something would happen to the Rong family in the future. He also had a premonition of danger. Therefore, he hid me and a portion of the core team just so that if anything happens to him, we can assist you."

“At that time, I also asked him if something had really happened to him, could I return to the past through the Time Gate and change everything to revive him. But your father shook his head and asked me not to do that. He personally participated in the development of the Time Gate. He knows best what a time machine can do.

“What should have happened has already happened. Shaun killed your father and swapped minds with him. No matter how you return to the past, you can’t change this fact.”

Rong Bingshao sighed. “That’s right. I know I don’t have the ability to save my father and grandfather. They don’t have the ability to stop themselves from dying, let alone me.

“Actually, I don’t want to use the Time Gate to return to the past. I don’t want to revive someone who died. The helper I’m looking for must still be alive now. It’s just that I don’t know where to find her. I can only return to the past to find her.”

Nick was stunned. “Master Rong, who are you referring to? Deity Jordan is already so powerful. In the entire world, I’m afraid only his uncle, Randall, can defeat him. The helper you’re looking for has to reach Randall or Victoria’s level.”

Rong Bingshao laughed as he got up from the bed. “Haha, what’s so good about Randall and Victoria? They’re not even worthy of cleaning her shoes! Nick, you’ve seen the helper I want. She’s the female guardian of the Immortal Lake!”

Nick was shocked. “Ah! You mean the flying woman we met at the Immortal Lake in the past?”

Rong Bingshao nodded. “That’s right, it’s her! She has always been guarding the Immortal Lake. She must be the owner of the Immortal Lake! Moreover, her ability is definitely not inferior to Jordan’s! Jordan is gold-level, but she is at least gold-level too!

“That b*stard Jordan can make things now, but his body can’t fly like a bird. This beautiful woman can! I firmly believe that the female guardian of the Immortal Lake will definitely help us kill Jordan!”

Nick could tell that Rong Bingshao had been infatuated with that ethereal woman since the last time he saw her at the Immortal Lake.

It was no wonder. Rong Bingshao was not even 20 years old. He was at the age where he would be attracted to women, especially the woman at the Immortal Lake. She was indeed stunningly beautiful, like a goddess.

However, Nick reminded him. "I definitely believe that the female guardian of the Immortal Lake is stronger than Randall and Victoria, or even Jordan! But it's precisely because she's too powerful, too mysterious, too unfathomable and too dangerous. Isn't it too risky for us to go to her for help? Moreover, she might not help us."

Rong Bingshao said confidently, "She will definitely help me! After all, didn't she allow me to enter the Immortal Lake to obtain my ability? She has been guarding the Immortal Lake. If just anyone wanted to enter, they would definitely not be allowed to. However, she let me in and I even obtained the speed of lightning. This proves that she is friendly to me and likes me!"

Nick also thought about it again. When that woman saw them go to the Immortal Lake that day, she immediately flew away.

With her ability, she could have stopped Rong Bingshao and prevented him from entering. Or she could have secretly ambushed him after he entered.

However, that woman did not do so. From this, it could be seen that the female guardian was indeed friendly toward Rong Bingshao.

Nick said, "The Rong family has ruled the world for many years. Perhaps the female guardian of the Immortal Lake has also received our favor!"

Rong Bingshao was delighted. "Haha, Nick, you're right! That must be it! There's no time to lose. Let's go to Malta immediately. I want to find the female guardian of the Immortal Lake!"

Nick agreed. He also wanted to know who that woman was, how strong she was, and what her goal was.

Two hours later.

Jordan had also returned to the villa to reunite with Lauren. He had launched all sorts of intense confrontations with the Rong family.

Although he had killed a large number of them, Rong Bingshao had still managed to escape.

This was the capital. There were people everywhere. If Jordan wanted to completely kill them, he would have to use large-scale weapons. This would implicate many people.

At this moment, Randall and Victoria had already seen the news report and the video sent by the Mutant Tribe subordinates.

Randall and Victoria were dumbfounded when they saw the shocking scene of the seawater soaring into the sky.

Randall asked, "Oh my god, what's going on? Why is there so much seawater in the arena in the city center? And the corpse of a great white shark? In addition, another weather weapon has appeared in the capital. This must be Jordan's doing. This matter is definitely related to Jordan!"

Randall really wanted to know what had happened in the capital and who Jordan was fighting. It actually triggered such a shocking scene.

He had also called Jordan just now, but Jordan did not answer.

The anxious Randall looked at Victoria. "Victoria, there's something wrong with the situation in the capital. This is not a scene that ordinary people can create. There must be mutants interfering, and they're very powerful mutants. I called Jordan just now, but he didn't answer. Why don't you call him and ask him?"

Victoria was also a little embarrassed. Given her current situation, she was too embarrassed to take the initiative to call Jordan.

However, looking at the shocking scene in the video, she was also very curious and wanted to know what happened there.

Victoria said, "I'll call Lauren and see if she's okay."

Randall nodded. "Alright."

Victoria tried to call Lauren. Coincidentally, Lauren had already retrieved her phone and answered Victoria's call.

"Hello, Victoria."

Victoria was surprised to hear Lauren's calm voice. "Lauren, are you alright?"

Previously, when Lauren took the initiative to call Victoria, she was carried away by Rong Bingshao halfway through her sentence. Victoria was shocked.

Lauren said, "Yes, I'm fine now. My husband saved me."

Victoria was shocked.

"Jordan?"

Victoria was surprised. Jordan had personally saved Lauren? One had to know that the other party was a mutant with lightning speed. He was at least a black-level mutant.

Victoria knew that with Jordan's strength, he could not defeat a black-level mutant. It was difficult for her to imagine how Jordan did it.

"Lauren, who was it that kidnapped you?"

Hearing this, Lauren hesitated. She knew that Victoria also knew about Rong Bingshao, and she didn't know if she should tell her that Rong Bingshao wasn't dead.

This was because once she revealed it to Victoria, it would be equivalent to telling Randall and the entire Mutant Tribe.

Logically speaking, Jordan and Randall had taken over the Rong family. The head of the Rong family was still alive. If Jordan found out, he should have informed Randall to take precautions.

However, the relationship between the uncle and nephew was very complicated now, so Lauren looked at Jordan and prepared to seek his opinion.

Lauren covered the receiver and looked at Jordan. "Hubby, Victoria wants to know who kidnapped me. Should I tell her?"

Jordan thought for a moment and reached out his hand. "Give it to me. I'll talk to her."

After taking Lauren's phone, Jordan took the initiative to say, "Hello."

"Ah, Jordan."

When Victoria heard Jordan's voice, her emotions immediately changed and she began to feel a little awkward.

After a few seconds, Victoria was the first to speak. "Um, I heard from Lauren that you saved her. Congratulations, and I'm glad that you're fine. Can you tell me who kidnapped Lauren?"

Jordan did not tell her directly. "It's a black-level mutant with lightning speed."

Victoria said, "Ah, so it's really a mutant. Do you... still think that person was sent by Randall?"

Jordan said, "No, I asked him. He wasn't sent by Uncle."

Victoria's expression relaxed. "Yes, I've already said that Randall is not that kind of person. He won't send anyone to attack family. Jordan... I want to know how you saved Lauren from this black-level mutant. This black-level mutant has lightning speed. I'm afraid even people like Lincoln and Park Sora are not his match. I'm afraid only I or Randall can subdue him. How did you manage to do it?"

Jordan couldn't help snorting. "You sound like you don't want to believe it. I subdued a black-level mutant. Am I that useless in your eyes that I can't even save my own wife?"

Jordan was very displeased to be underestimated by Victoria!

In the past, he had always been the object of Victoria's admiration, no matter where he was!

Victoria said, "Jordan, I'm not looking down on you. I'm just stating the facts. You can't even defeat Park Sora, right? Lightning speed is not an ordinary ability. His speed is so fast. It's useless no matter how good you are at predicting things. Even I would find it difficult to deal with such an opponent, let alone you."

Jordan laughed out loud without saying anything. "Hahahaha..."

At this moment, Randall was holding an iPad and pointing at an image inside. He showed it to Victoria, indicating for her to ask the question.

Victoria said, "Alright, forget it if you don't want to tell me. Anyway, I'm very happy for you that you can save Lauren. Perhaps love can stimulate a person's potential. She's the woman you love the most. You must have thought of many ways to save her."

Victoria sounded a little jealous.

At this, Jordan wanted to refute Victoria and tell her that the woman he loved the most in the past few years was clearly her!

Victoria continued, "There's another problem. We saw some videos and realized that the people on your side didn't use technology to save Lauren. They seemed to have mutant abilities. Are there mutants among your subordinates?"

Jordan asked, "My uncle asked you to ask this question, right?"

Victoria didn't hide it. "Yes, Randall wanted to ask."

Jordan thought about it and did not refute. "Yes, I have mutants under me too."

Victoria was shocked. "How is that possible? Why do you have mutants under you? How many? Why didn't they join the Mutant Tribe? Instead, they joined you?"

Victoria's question made Jordan feel very uncomfortable.

“Who said that mutants have to join the Mutant Tribe? Why can’t they join me? Every mutant is an individual. They have the right to choose who to join. Just like a person, they have the right to choose who to be with.

“Sometimes, it seems only right for two people to be together, but she chose someone else. What can I do? Anyway, Lauren has just been rescued and her emotions are still unstable. I want to accompany her. If there’s nothing else, I’ll hang up now.”

After Jordan hung up, Victoria couldn’t calm down for a long time. She could tell that Jordan was referring to them.

Indeed, everyone was an individual. Who could control where they chose to go?

Victoria didn’t care about this, but Randall did.

Randall was very angry. “How outrageous! How can a mutant not join my Mutant Tribe? Not only did he not join the Mutant Tribe, he even joined Jordan! I can’t understand this! Victoria, why don’t you ask Jordan which subordinate he is referring to? What superpowers does he have?”

Victoria said helplessly, “Randall, Jordan and I have been in love for a few years after all. When I talk to him now, I feel uneasy. How can I ask him these questions calmly?”

Randall patted Victoria’s shoulder and apologized. “I’m sorry, Victoria. I was too agitated. However, the sudden appearance of so many mutants in the capital is too strange. I have to figure it out. Men, call Park Sora and Lincoln over!”

Soon, Park Sora, who was wearing a simple white dress, and Lincoln walked in.

“Chief!”

The two of them bowed respectfully to Randall.

Randall nodded. “Lincoln and Sora, I have a mission for you. There are a few mutants in the capital now. One is a mutant with lightning speed. He just captured Lauren, but she has been saved by my nephew. But I believe that Jordan definitely doesn’t have the ability to kill him, so that mutant must still be alive. Find out what that person’s name is and what he looks like.

“In addition, I learned that there are mutants among Jordan’s subordinates. I want you to go to the capital and find out who they are. After we find them, talk to them and persuade them to join our Mutant Tribe!”

“Yes!”

It was apparent that Randall wanted to snatch Jordan's subordinates. This was not the first time he had done such a thing.

Victoria was a good example.

Of course, it was also because Jordan and Victoria had broken up, giving Randall a chance.

After Lincoln and Park Sora received the order, they rushed to the capital.

When Victoria heard this, she said, "Randall, isn't this inappropriate? Since those mutants have already joined Jordan, why do you want to snatch them from him?"

Victoria spoke up for Jordan, thinking that Randall shouldn't snatch his nephew's men.

Randall glanced at Victoria and was a little surprised. As his "wife" and second only to him in terms of status in the Mutant Tribe, Victoria actually spoke up for Jordan.

"Victoria, you and Jordan have been separated for a while. I didn't expect you to still love him and think of him."

Victoria avoided eye contact. "No... no, I just feel that if he had mutants by his side, he could protect him and Lauren better. What happened today wouldn't have happened again."

Randall comforted her. "Victoria, don't worry. I'll soon find out who that mutant who captured Lauren is. After I find out, I'll naturalize him first. If he's unwilling to join the Mutant Tribe and listen to my orders, I'll kill him for Jordan!"

Victoria probed. "Speed mutants are not easy to kill... they're good at sneak attacks. Even if it was me, I might have died at his hands if he had ambushed me when I was completely unprepared."

Randall laughed. "Silly, don't forget that I'm at the gold level. So what if he has lightning speed? The difference between a black-level mutant and a gold-level mutant is worlds apart. I can easily kill such a person. You don't have to worry about me!"

With that, Randall turned around and drank a cup of coffee. He frowned and thought to himself.

"Strange, why would this mutant with lightning speed be so persistent in dealing with Jordan? It's as if he has a grudge against him. Why do I feel that Jordan and this mutant have a history?"

Randall really wanted to know who this mutant was. If he could recruit this person, their Mutant Tribe would be even stronger!

Lightning speed was undeniably useful!

...

A few hours later.

“Master! I found out. Rong Bingshao and his men seem to have gone to Malta!”

Dragon suddenly went forward to report.

Salvatore supported his chin with his left hand. “F*ck, why are they going to Malta? Are they going to use the Time Gate? Hasn’t Rong Bingshao already jumped into the Immortal Lake? Or did his subordinates not jump in? Does he want them all to jump in?”

When Jordan heard this, he felt that this matter was not that simple. If he wanted to test if his subordinates had mutant talents, there was no need to go through so much trouble. They could just test the water with their fingers.

Of course, he couldn’t rule out the possibility that Rong Bingshao was anxious after losing and wanted to take a gamble by making everyone jump into the Immortal Lake.

Jordan closed his eyes and tried to predict the future.

He did not predict anything. Instead, the figure of that fox flashed across his mind again.

Jordan felt a little uneasy. “We can’t let Rong Bingshao return to the past. I have a feeling that he might invite some terrifying figures over. Let’s set off immediately to Malta!”

“Yes!”

Jordan and the others immediately prepared to leave.

But at this moment.

Tim suddenly walked in and reported, “Master, Lincoln and Ms. Park Sora from the Mutant Tribe are here. They want to see you.”

Jordan frowned. “Lincoln and Park Sora? What are they doing here?”

Salvatore exploded when he heard their names. “F*ck, these two b*stards. At the beach, they both wanted to fight Mr. Jordan one-on-one. Lincoln couldn’t afford to lose and he said that there was no object for him to control. He wanted to defeat Mr. Jordan where there were many things. That Park Sora is even more lawless. She has no manners at all. To think she actually embarrassed Mr. Jordan in front of so many people!”

Dragon was not present at that time, but he already knew what happened. He knew that these two people had embarrassed Jordan.

Dragon wanted to avenge Jordan. “Master, Randall must have sent them. Anyway, Rong Bingshao has already traveled back in time. We can’t stop him even if we rush over. Why don’t we let them in first and see what their motive is?”

Jordan nodded. “Alright, let them in.”

Soon, Lincoln and Park Sora walked in.

After entering, they did not show any respect when they saw Jordan. Instead, they had arrogant smiles.

When Salvatore saw this, he couldn’t help mocking, “Lincoln, what are you wearing? It’s all over your body and you think it’s very fashionable? Don’t you f*cking think it’s too heavy to walk?!”

Lincoln sneered. “Ever since my last battle with Jordan, I realized that I have to have something around me for me to control at all times. The environment might not allow it at all times, so I have to carry it along.”

Jordan sneered. “You were the one who asked the person beside you to wear so many accessories, right?”

“Are you here to fight? If so, you don’t have to be so worried. You can choose where you want to fight. You can have as many things as you want.”

Lincoln smiled. “Hahaha, not bad. I haven’t seen you for a while and you’ve learned to brag. Jordan, I’m not here to fight you. We’re here on the Chief’s orders to give you the miracle water.”

With that, Lincoln took out a bottle of miracle water from his pocket and threw it at Jordan.

Jordan took the miracle water. Randall had given it to him once before. This miracle water was indeed useful and beneficial to the body.

However, Jordan now knew the location of the Time Gate. He could return to the Immortal Lake at any time to extract the lake water and process it himself.

Jordan's research team would definitely be better than Randall's. The finished product would definitely be better than the miracle water. Therefore, Jordan did not care about such a gift at all.

Lincoln said, "This miracle water is priceless. As you've used it before, you should know how precious it is. Our Chief has treated you well and often gave you such expensive things. As your Uncle's nephew, you should return the favor. I heard that one of your subordinates is a mutant. Tell me now!"

So that was it. Jordan knew that Lincoln and Park Sora had come here for a purpose!

Salvatore beat him to it. "What bullsh*t miracle water? You treat it as a treasure. When it comes to us, it's just foot-washing water! Also, Lincoln, you'd better be more polite to Mr. Jordan! Don't you want to know who the mutant is? Alright, I'll lay my cards on the table. I'm a gold-level mutant. Call me Daddy, hahaha!"

Lincoln looked at Salvatore in disdain. "Hmph, you? No matter how many times you reincarnate, you aren't worthy to join the Mutant Tribe! You want to be a mutant? Dream on!"

Salvatore told Lincoln the truth that he was a mutant, but unfortunately, he didn't believe him.

Salvatore was furious. "You don't believe me? Believe it or not, I'll punch you to the Atlantic Ocean!"

Salvatore was about to fight Lincoln.

At this moment, Jordan stopped him and asked Lincoln, "Why does my uncle want to know which one of my subordinates is a mutant? Does he want to snatch someone from me?"

Placing his hands behind his back, Lincoln sneered at Jordan in contempt. "Hahaha, so what if he does? Mutants should join the Chief and let more capable people lead them. Jordan, do you think you're qualified to be the leader of our Mutant Tribe? You can't even defeat this underage girl beside me. Hehe!"

From beside Lincoln, Park Sora had a proud expression on her face, but she did not say anything for the time being. She remembered that the last time they met, Jordan had said that he would treat her as a stranger when they met again.

This time, Jordan did not greet Park Sora. He completely ignored her.

In the past, every time the two of them met, Park Sora could feel the love in Jordan's eyes.

This time, it was completely gone.

Salvatore was furious. “Lincoln, you’re courting death! Who gave you the guts to come here and talk sh*t!”

Lincoln looked at his subordinates in the room and said, “I’m not spouting nonsense. Last time, Jordan lost to us in a one-on-one fight. He lost completely to Sora. Salvatore, you were there too. Why don’t you dare to admit it?”

“Hehe, mutant brother, I don’t know if you were present. If you were, listen to my advice. A good bird chooses a good tree to live in. A smart disciple chooses its master. Jordan can’t even defeat a black-level mutant. What right does he have to be your master? Why don’t you go back with me and join the Mutant Tribe? Our Chief is a gold-level mutant. Only he has the right to lead us!”

Jordan clenched his fists in anger. Lincoln was simply lawless. How dare he come to his territory and snatch his subordinate in front of him?

Previously, Jordan was already very angry that Randall had snatched his woman away. How could he tolerate this now?!

Although he knew that Dragon and Salvatore would not leave with him, Jordan still stood up.

“Lincoln, pick up your sorry a** and scram. Tell your Chief that if he wants to snatch my people, he can come over personally to ask for them. I will personally accept the challenge of his gold-level ability! You are not qualified!”

This was the first time Jordan had challenged Randall!

Randall had indeed provoked Jordan this time. He actually dared to poach Jordan’s subordinates and completely disregarded him! How could he take this insult!

Unexpectedly, Lincoln laughed out loud. “Hahahaha, Jordan, you’re too funny. You want to challenge our Chief? Are you worthy? How can a mere Deity like you withstand a gold-level ability? You can’t even defeat me and Sora, and you still want to defeat the Chief? Dream on!

“Jordan, do you dare to fight me one-on-one? If you lose, tell me the identity of the mutant who kidnapped your wife and your subordinates. Do you dare?!”

The bold and brazen Lincoln actually issued a challenge to Jordan!

Now that Jordan had a gold-level superpower, hitting Lincoln was like an adult hitting a child!

Jordan said, "Since you don't know what's good for you, fine, I'll fulfill your wish!"

Just as Jordan was about to attack, Dragon stopped him. "Master, such low-level trash is not worthy of you to attack him personally. Let me deal with him!"

The last time Jordan was humiliated in the sea, Dragon was not present. He hated himself for not doing his best. Now that Lincoln and Park Sora had come to humiliate Jordan like this, Dragon had to avenge his master!

Salvatore also walked over. "That's right! Mr. Jordan doesn't need to do anything to trash like Lincoln! Dragon, he's not worthy to fight you. Let me do it. I can cripple him!"

Salvatore wanted to replace Dragon and fight Lincoln one-on-one.

However, to be safe, Dragon rejected Salvatore. "Salvatore, let me do it. Lincoln has obtained his superpower for a long time. His usage of his superpower has probably already reached the advanced level. It's probably still risky for you to hit him."

After all, Lincoln was a black-level mutant. Even Dragon was a level below him, and Salvatore was two levels below him.

Since he was volunteering on behalf of his master, Dragon had to guarantee that he would win.

Salvatore said, "Alright, you beat him up then."

Jordan also looked at Dragon, feeling a little worried. After all, Dragon had a silver-level talent, which was a level below Lincoln.

"Dragon, are you confident?"

Dragon cupped his fists. "I will never embarrass Master!"

Jordan also believed in Dragon's ability. If he fought Lincoln, there would be no suspense. Moreover, if he fought, his gold-level ability would be exposed.

He might as well let his own subordinates fight and watch a low-level vs high-level battle.

"Alright, fight him then," said Jordan.

Dragon walked up to Lincoln. "Lincoln, I'll fight you. I know your superpower is to control objects. You have requirements for your environment. You can choose any location."

Not only was Dragon not afraid of challenging a high-level opponent, he even let him choose the most advantageous position to defeat him!

Lincoln sized up Dragon and smiled. "Hehe, interesting. A mere lackey dares to challenge a black-level mutant like me. I know that you once fought a king one-on-one, but that was against ordinary people. You can't deal with mutants at all! Since you want to humiliate yourself, fine, I'll torture you first before I torture your master!

"There are many expensive things in this house. I'm afraid that if I damage them, the Chief will say that I'm rude. How about this? Let's go to the courtyard to fight."

While Lincoln's words sounded dignified, in fact, the things in the courtyard were more suitable for him to control to defeat his opponent.

Everyone followed him to the courtyard where they saw a Porsche, some flowers, trees, tables, chairs and many other messy things.

Seeing so many items, Lincoln smiled.

'Hehe, Jordan, I won't show mercy on your subordinate! Watch me play him to death!'

Lincoln's superpower was to control objects. He could control everything in the courtyard. Coupled with the things he had brought, they were enough for Lincoln to use.

Before the fight started, Lincoln didn't forget to mock Jordan again. "Jordan, I really didn't expect you to let your subordinates suffer humiliation for you. Hehe, that's right. You're a Deity. You can't lose to me in front of so many of your subordinates. Otherwise, it will be so embarrassing, right?"

Dragon didn't want to hear Lincoln continue to harrass Jordan. He said fiercely, "Lincoln, I'll count to five before your fight with me officially begins. Don't find any excuses when I hit you."

Lincoln smiled at Dragon. "There's no need to count down. Let's start now. Come on, attack me. Hehe."

Lincoln smiled confidently. He knew that Dragon had been injected with the serum and was very powerful. He wouldn't be able to withstand a punch from Dragon.

However, he was confident that Dragon would never be able to get close to him!

Dragon knew this very well, so he said to Lincoln, "You're a guest. I'll let you make the first move."

Lincoln smiled. “Hehe, are you sure? You want me to make the first move? I have to remind you that if I make the first move, you won’t be able to fight back at all. You won’t even be able to throw a punch. The battle will be over.”

Dragon stretched out his hand and stood there calmly, indicating for Lincoln to attack as he pleased.

Lincoln snorted. “Indeed, like master, like subordinate. All of you are so arrogant and pretentious! Alright, I’ll let you have a taste of my needles first.”

Lincoln took out 20 very sharp silver needles from his bag. The color of these silver needles was a little strange. They were probably poisonous.

Lincoln smiled and threw all the silver needles into the air.

However, in the next second, these silver needles did not land one after another. Instead, they floated in the air!

At this moment, Lincoln was already waving his hands and controlling the silver needles!

“Wow!”

Some of Jordan’s subordinates, who had never seen such a situation before, also exclaimed.

At this moment, Lauren walked out and looked at the situation worriedly. “Hubby...”

Jordan stretched out his hand and said, “It’s fine.”

Lincoln controlled these long silver needles and gathered them in front of Dragon’s face. There were long silver needles pointed at Dragon’s face.

But Lincoln did not do anything. He asked Dragon, “How is it, kid? Are you afraid? With a gentle wave of my hand, these silver needles in front of you will shoot at your face! I know you’ve been injected with the Mirakuru serum and are not afraid of being pricked by needles, but let me tell you, my silver needles are all poisonous. Once you’re stabbed, the skin on your face will quickly rot. By then, your handsome face will turn into mush!

“Hehe, are you afraid? As long as you kneel down and beg me and say that the Mutant Tribe is the greatest, that our Chief is the ruler of the world, I’ll spare you. How about that?”

Faced with so many poisonous needles, Dragon remained calm. "You sure talk a lot of nonsense. If you think these silver needles can stab me, come and try!"

Lincoln said disdainfully, "You're still so stubborn. Alright, in that case, I won't hold back!"

"Hey!"

Lincoln waved his hand, and the silver needles floating in front of Dragon instantly shot towards his face!

"Fester!"

Lincoln smiled sinisterly, looking forward to seeing the battered face of Jordan's subordinates.

However, the moment the silver needle almost pierced Dragon's face, a powerful whirlwind suddenly appeared around him.

This whirlwind made the silver needles turn around and stab in Lincoln's direction!

"What the f*ck? Oh, sh*t!"

Lincoln was smiling when he suddenly saw the silver needles change direction. He was completely caught off guard. In an emergency, he immediately controlled a table to block the silver needles. However, one of the silver needles was not blocked.

Like that, the silver needle pierced the right side of Lincoln's face, which quickly rotted!

"Well done!"

"Dragon is mighty!"

"Hahaha, this dog's face has turned into mush. He's so f*cking ugly. He reaped what he sowed. Haha!"

Salvatore and the others kept cheering for Dragon.

Lincoln was being mocked by everyone. His face was in a sorry state as he immediately took the antidote. However, even if he took the antidote, it would take time for his damaged face to recover.

Coincidentally, Lincoln cared a lot about his image. He covered his face with his hand and pointed at Dragon.

"I saw a whirlwind change the direction of my needles just now. How did you do it? Are you the mutant we're looking for? That's right, it's you! I saw that video. It was a whirlwind that saved Lauren. You're the mutant who can create whirlwinds with both hands!"

Lincoln never expected the mutant he was looking for to be Jordan's most capable subordinate, Dragon!

Dragon didn't hide it anymore. "That's right, it's me!"

Lincoln covered his face and immediately changed his attitude. "Dragon, it's only after a fight that we can get to know each other. I didn't expect you to be a mutant! I've heard of your story. The Steele family trained you since you were a child. It was our Chief's father who trained you.

"Therefore, it's only right for you to come to the Mutant Tribe and work for our Chief! This way, not only will you be worthy of the Steele family's nurturing, you can also come to our tribe for a family reunion. Come with me!"

Dragon said, "If you know my story, you should know that my only goal was to assist Mr. Jordan, not Randall. Even Mr. Jordan's father can't control me, let alone his Uncle. Lincoln, don't even think about it. I won't leave with you."

Lincoln was very angry. "How stupid! Why do you have to serve a good-for-nothing? Someone far inferior to you!"

Dragon was furious. "You've insulted my master time and time again. It's my turn now!"

Whoosh...

Dragon immediately created a powerful whirlwind that attacked Lincoln. Wasting no time, Dragon increased his power. Lincoln followed the whirlwind and kept moving towards Dragon!

"Damn it, you want to pull me over!"

Lincoln knew that he was not as strong as Dragon. If he got too close to Dragon, he would definitely be beaten up.

"Naive!"

When Lincoln was only a meter away from Dragon, he suddenly controlled the Porsche in the courtyard.

The car flew up and stood between the two of them. Dragon's fist hit the car, instantly creating a hole.

Dragon's mutant ability was a level lower than Lincoln. In terms of experience in using abilities, Lincoln had the advantage.

It seemed that it would not be easy for Dragon to subdue Lincoln and beat him up.

Lincoln smiled and took a step back. He looked at the Porsche luxury car with a big hole in it and laughed out loud.

"Hahahaha, Jordan, your subordinate destroyed your car. How are you going to punish him? Do you want to expel him? We don't mind picking up things you don't want, hehe."

Lincoln provoked Jordan calmly.

At this moment, Jordan also noticed that Dragon was struggling. He firmly believed that as the competition progressed, with Dragon's focus and endurance, he would definitely find an opportunity to defeat Lincoln.

However, Dragon would not be able to win for at least 20 minutes.

There were too many things in this courtyard. Coupled with the things that Lincoln had brought with him, it was enough for him to have an advantage.

Since Dragon wanted to stand up for him, he couldn't just stand by and not help.

However, Jordan knew Dragon's pride. If he hit Lincoln, it would have nothing to do with Dragon.

Jordan thought for a moment and immediately conjured another Porsche.

Jordan said, "Who said Dragon destroyed my car? Wasn't it there?"

Lincoln was speechless. "You idiot, that car was clearly..."

He pointed to the spot where the Porsche had parked earlier. However, when he looked over this time, he realized that there was another Porsche there!

Lincoln was stunned!

"How did this happen? Why is this car still parked here? I clearly controlled it just now."

Lincoln was shocked. He looked at the car in front of him that had been punched by Dragon. A car had clearly appeared out of thin air!

When did it arrive? Why wasn't there any movement?

Park Sora was also surprised.

“A chance!”

Just as Lincoln’s attention was focused on the car that suddenly appeared, Dragon realized that Jordan was giving him a chance. He immediately activated the whirlwind again and pulled him in front of him!

“Ah, damn it!”

Lincoln’s body was suddenly pulled over by the whirlwind. This time, he was caught off guard. By the time he wanted to control the newly emerged car to defend himself, it was already too late.

This time, Lincoln was too close to Dragon. Dragon grabbed him in less than a second.

Bang!

Bang!

Bang!

Dragon grabbed Lincoln and punched his rotten face three times!

Although Lincoln was a black-level mutant, his physical endurance was average. He was only slightly better than an athlete. After being punched three times by Dragon, his face was swollen and bleeding.

Lincoln tried his best to break free from Dragon. He kept controlling the various things in the courtyard to smash Dragon.

Flower pots, chairs and stones kept attacking Dragon’s head.

However, Dragon was relentless and still grabbed Lincoln tightly. Even though his head was bleeding, he kept punching him.

He wanted to avenge Jordan!

When Salvatore saw this, he jumped up excitedly. “Dragon, well done! Kill this dog! Those few punches were for Mr. Jordan. Now, punch for me a few more times! Hahaha!”

“Alright!”

The others kept cheering for Dragon.

Park Sora couldn't stand it anymore. She immediately went forward. "Stop!"

Just as Dragon was about to punch Lincoln in the face, Park Sora's slender hand pressed down on Dragon's thick arm!

The difference in their figures was huge. Dragon's figure was the strongest among men, while Park Sora's figure was considered thin among women.

Therefore, the seemingly weak Park Sora wanted to use her strength to block Dragon's punch. It seemed like she was overestimating herself.

However, that was not the case.

The moment Park Sora pressed down on Dragon's arm, it was immediately frozen and he could no longer punch!

"Ah!"

Dragon felt a chill run down his spine, especially his right arm. It was frozen solid and kept emitting cold air.

This was Park Sora's black superpower, freezing power!

When Jordan saw this, he thought to himself: 'Park Sora's ability has become stronger again. The last time, her frost power was not used to this extent.'

Park Sora's ability was indeed powerful, but the last time they fought, Park Sora was still very young. She only knew how to use the freezing power after Jordan taught her.

Lincoln was beaten up very badly. His face was covered in blood. He couldn't help falling to the ground. He said to Park Sora, "Sora, help me teach this damn b*stard a lesson and regain our pride!"

Park Sora glanced at Dragon and hesitated.

As for Dragon, he had yet to hit him enough. Although his right hand was temporarily frozen, he could still activate his superpower with his left hand.

Dragon waved his left hand and used a whirlwind to pull Lincoln over.

"What a ruthless fellow!"

Seeing this, Lincoln immediately controlled the car with a hole in it to block him. He then said to Park Sora, "Sora, freeze the car. That kid won't be able to pull me over with a whirlwind!"

Park Sora nodded. Without any hesitation, she pressed her hands on the Porsche in front of her. Instantly, the surroundings around the car were frozen.

It was as if there was a small snow mountain in front of Lincoln and Park Sora.

Dragon activated his special ability again, wanting to use a whirlwind. However, his whirlwind could not break through the frozen car.

Park Sora said proudly, "Dragon, don't waste your efforts. If I'm not wrong, your superpower should be below black. With your level, it's impossible for your whirlwind to break through my frozen power."

Salvatore cursed as he walked down. "F*ck, we agreed on a one-on-one fight. Why are you adding more people? Your Mutant Tribe doesn't even dare to fight one-on-one! Alright, we'll add one more person!

"Dragon, let me help you. It's a two-on-two. Let's destroy them!"

Dragon looked at Lincoln and Park Sora. "Are you willing to fight two against two?"

Lincoln spat out a mouthful of blood in disdain. "Pfft, Salvatore is trash. What's the difference? We don't care!"

Dragon gave a rare smile and looked at Salvatore. "Salvatore, can you help me smash the frozen car in front of Lincoln? With that thing around, I can't use the whirlwind."

1180 Salvatore's Time to Shine!

Hearing that Dragon was asking Salvatore for help, Lincoln and Park Sora were stunned.

Now, the frozen car was as thick and hard as a small snow mountain. Even Dragon, who had been injected with the Mirakuru serum, could not break it with a single punch, let alone Salvatore.

Park Sora felt that her ability had been insulted!

"Dragon, you underestimate my freezing power. You can forget about breaking this frozen car!"

Now that the Porsche was tilted and had a layer of ice around it, it was about two meters thick.

The ice formed by Park Sora's freezing power was not ordinary ice. Her special ability produced ice that was abnormally hard. It was not something that could be broken through by temperature or ordinary external forces.

It had to be broken by force!

Previously, when Park Sora was fighting Jordan, Jordan had temporarily broken through her freezing power.

On one hand, Jordan's strength was at the human ceiling. On the other hand, Park Sora had just obtained her superpower and had yet to undergo training.

Now, her frost power was even more terrifying than before.

Dragon said indifferently, "I know I can't break it, that's why I asked Mr. Salvatore for help."

Park Sora and Lincoln were confused. If Dragon couldn't solve it, how could Salvatore do it? Everyone knew that Dragon was Jordan's number one general. Although Salvatore had been injected with the serum, his combat strength was not at all comparable.

Lincoln was disdainful. "Hehe, that good-for-nothing? If he can break this frozen car, I'll take his last name!"

Salvatore snorted. "Lincoln, you looked down on Mr. Jordan previously, and now you're looking down on me. You arrogant piece of trash. Today, I'll let you know what it means by the phrase there's always someone better than you!"

Salvatore slowly walked forward, but Lincoln did not stop him. He felt that there was no need. He would just let this clown embarrass himself.

They wanted to see how an ordinary person could break through the freezing power of a black-level mutant!

"Salvatore, you can do it!"

"Go, Salvatore, kill them!"

Outside the arena, many people cheered for Salvatore.

Salvatore came to the frozen car, clenched his fists, and punched out with his right fist!

"Hand of Hell!"

Salvatore shouted. His seemingly ordinary right fist hit the frozen car with a bang.

With a bang, Salvatore's entire fist shattered the frozen car and was implanted inside!

The frozen car instantly shattered!

Shattered ice blasted towards Park Sora and Lincoln.

“Ahhh!”

As Park Sora and Lincoln were hiding behind the frozen car, they were very close. They were hit by the flying ice shards and car fragments and fell to the ground.

Park Sora was sent flying a few meters by a frozen tire. She fell to the ground and spat out blood.

Lincoln was also hit in the head by a frozen tire. He spun in circles.

“Beautiful!”

Jordan couldn't help cheering for Salvatore. His beloved car was completely useless now.

However, Jordan was happy for Salvatore!

“Wow, Salvatore's punch is so cool!”

Seeing Salvatore smash the frozen car with a punch and knock Park Sora and Lincoln to the ground, Lauren couldn't help praising him.

In the courtyard, Jordan and Salvatore's subordinates cheered excitedly, as if they were basketball players watching their teammates on the court!

“Salvatore is awesome! Salvatore is so handsome!”

“Now you know who's trash. Foolish Mutant Tribe!”

“Salvatore has the final say in the capital. Looks like you haven't heard of this before. Hahaha!”

Salvatore also found it very satisfying. After succeeding, he still clenched his fists tightly and stood rooted to the ground, posing!

Standing tall, Salvatore looked at the battered Park Sora and Lincoln coolly. “Can you withstand my punch in 20 years?!”

Salvatore's words were actually a line from the movie “Fearless”. Everyone was ecstatic, and many of the subordinates roared in laughter.

“Salvatore, have you been practicing martial arts for the past 20 years? Impressive.”

“Hahahaha...”

Salvatore scolded his subordinates, “Which b*stard peeped at me? How shameless! Is there something wrong with him?”

“Hahaha...”

Everyone laughed again.

However, Park Sora and Lincoln’s expressions were the opposite.

Lincoln looked at Salvatore in disbelief. “You... you’re a mutant too?”

Park Sora said firmly, “You... you definitely don’t have the strength of a normal person. You’re also a mutant!”

Salvatore snorted. “That’s right. I’m a gold-level mutant with the highest level. I have the Hand of Hell that can smash Earth with one punch. I’m going to lay my cards on the table. I’m not pretending anymore! Don’t you two want to rope in mutants to join your Mutant Tribe? Come, come, bow to me 10 times first. I’ll consider it.”

Lincoln immediately felt humiliated. He knew very well that Salvatore had been with Jordan for a long time. He would never betray Jordan, let alone join Randall.

Lincoln said angrily, “Damn it, a person like you can actually become a mutant. It’s really the tragedy of our Mutant Tribe! The last time I saw you, you were all ordinary people. Why did you all become mutants this time? The restriction on the Immortal Lake hasn’t been broken. How did you obtain your superpower?”

Salvatore said, “You don’t deserve to know! You’ve humiliated Mr. Jordan and me time and time again. Today, I’m going to avenge Mr. Jordan!”

“Arghhh!”

Salvatore roared as the “Hand of Hell” attacked Lincoln again!

Lincoln had suffered heavy blows and was a little weak. As he retreated in a panic, he controlled another car to smash it at Salvatore.

However, Salvatore was not afraid of Jordan’s car at all. This car was lighter and easier to cut through. After all, the things conjured were different from handmade things.

Bang!

Salvatore’s right hand slashed the car in half. At the same time, his right hand continued forward. He wanted to slash Lincoln!

Lincoln panicked and immediately prepared to control something to block Salvatore.

With the distance between the two of them, he could block it in time.

However, he had miscalculated.

Dragon used the power of a whirlwind to push Salvatore in front of Lincoln.

Swish!

Salvatore raised his hand and cut off one of Lincoln's arms!
