

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

1232 Jordan, Stop Acting!

Once again, Randall had obtained the recognition of all the mutants! Not only that, it now included the purple mutants who refused to obey him, Grachev and Shirley!

Jordan looked at Randall in surprise as well. He did not expect Randall to be able to turn the tables after his true strength was exposed. The strength of these two ferocious beasts was clearly above Randall's. It was impossible for Randall to have domesticated them.

Randall placed his hands behind his back and looked smugly at his Mutant Tribe family who had submitted to him. He snorted coldly.

“Linus and Mike, only a little while ago, didn't you say that I, a mere black mutant, am not worthy of being your Chief? Why are you changing your mind now?”

Linus knelt on the ground and trembled. “Chief, please forgive us for not recognizing your strength. We didn’t know that you could tame such a powerful ferocious beast. Just this alone is enough for you to lead us!”

Randall was not a petty person. He did not take revenge on Linus and the others. After all, he had been relying on them in the Mutant Tribe.

Randall looked at Victoria on the stage and said, “I heard that today is the ceremony for Victoria to take over the position of Chief. Victoria, you must be dissatisfied that I snatched your position just like that, right?”

Victoria glanced at the two beasts around Randall and gulped nervously.

“No... No.”

Randall smiled. “There are so many people supporting you as the leader of the mutants today, and they even set up such a grand arrangement for you. If I don’t defeat you and snatch the position of the leader, I won’t be able to do a glorious job as the leader. How about this? Let’s compete and see if your mental control can defeat my ferocious beasts.

If you can make them listen to you, you can be the chief!”

Randall patted the gorilla beside him and pointed at Victoria. “Go!”

When the gorilla saw Victoria, its eyes immediately became fierce and it quickly jumped towards her!

Everyone raised their heads again and perked up. They also wanted to see if Victoria could deal with Randall's ferocious beasts.

Victoria also became serious and activated her mental control on the gorilla.

“Stop!”

Victoria tried to stop the gorilla.

boxn ov el. c o m

However, Victoria's mind control was only effective on humans and couldn't control the gorilla at all. The gorilla didn't stop at all and jumped in front of Victoria. It raised its hammer and was about to smash her.

“Ah! No!”

Victoria also gave up on attacking and covered her head with both hands, begging for mercy.

At that moment, Jordan, who was at the side, stood up immediately when he saw that. He stood in front of Victoria and raised his right hand!

It seemed like he wanted to receive the gorilla's hammer with his bare hands. However, Jordan wanted to create something out of nothing to deal with it.

However, just as Jordan was about to create something out of nothing,

Randall suddenly shouted,

“Stop!”

The mutated gorilla's hammer hung in midair and stopped attacking.

“Come back!”

The mutated gorilla quickly retreated.

Randall smiled proudly. “Now, everyone can see that no matter if it's Grachev, Shirley, or Victoria, none of them are my match. Victoria, do you acknowledge me as the leader of the mutants?”

Victoria's heart was still beating fast after being frightened by the gorilla earlier. She nodded. "I agree. I will be your subordinate from now on and won't covet the position of Chief anymore."

"Hahahahah..."

Randall laughed crazily.

Previously in the capital, he had finally vented his anger after being exposed by Jordan and scolded by his subordinates.

The matter had come to an end. Randall continued to be the chief, and Victoria planned to continue staying in the Mutant Tribe.

Jordan said, "I'm here to attend your Chief Succession Ceremony. Since this matter is over, I'll be leaving."

When Victoria saw that Jordan was about to leave, she quickly went forward and grabbed his arm. "Jordan, thank you... for today."

Victoria was very touched today. Jordan had stood up to save her twice.

The first time was when she was facing Grachev, and the second time was when she was facing the gorilla just now. Jordan stood up to protect her immediately, which moved her very much.

Jordan smiled. "I didn't do anything. There's no need to thank me. Grachev and Shirley were defeated by Randall. It has nothing to do with me."

Jordan also wanted to receive Victoria's gratitude. He also wanted Victoria to know that he had the ability to defeat Grachev and Shirley.

Unfortunately, Randall did not give him the chance.

Victoria looked at Jordan affectionately and said, "No matter what, thank you."

Victoria would not thank Jordan if he did not do anything. Under the circumstances today, it was enough that Jordan was willing to stand up and face Grachev.

Jordan did not say anything else and prepared to walk down.

When he saw Victoria looking at Jordan emotionally, Randall felt a wave of unhappiness. In his heart, Victoria was already his wife, so how could she still not forget his old lover?

Randall went up the stage and walked towards Jordan on his own accord. He said, "Jordan, you did a good job pretending twice just now."

Jordan looked at Randall and said, "What do you mean?"

Randall snorted. "What do I mean? Do you still need me to say it? You're a Deity. You can predict what will happen next. Just now, you pretended to disregard your own life and stood up to fight Grachev to the death because you predicted my arrival in advance, didn't you? Otherwise, how would you dare to fight with Grachev? You can't even defeat a black mutant. A purple mutant torturing you is like cutting melons and vegetables!

"I don't believe you'll die for Victoria. Victoria is already in your past, and Lauren is your only love now. Will you sacrifice your life for your old lover? That's impossible!

“Also, when my mutated gorilla smashed the hammer over just now, you also predicted in advance that I would stop in a hurry, so you stood up and wanted to block the hammer for Victoria, right? You bastard, you’ve really disgraced the family and the Heavenly Deities. You actually used your Heavenly Deity ability to cheat Victoria of her feelings and kiss her?! She’s your elder now!”

As soon as Randall said this, the mutants also spoke up.

“I was wondering why Jordan dared to stand up and compete with Grachev just now. It turns out that he predicted that the Chief would come in advance!”

“He’s really good at pretending. This Deity’s ability is really awesome! Hehe, if it were me, I would also pretend like this in front of my old lover. It would seem so brave, right?”

“That’s right. In any case, he won’t have to fight in the end. He can act however he wants before Chief arrives.”

Randall’s speculation and the mutants’ words made Jordan furious instantly.

In the past, when Jordan was fighting, he did have the habit of predicting in advance. This could ensure his safety and win rate.

However, ever since he became a golden mutant, he did not bother to predict in advance.

This was because he could easily win against opponents of a lower level than him.

However, these people felt that Jordan only dared to do this because he had predicted Randall's arrival in advance.

At this moment, Salvatore stood up and said, "You're the f*cking pretentious ones! Our Mr. Jordan has never bothered to do this! If you don't believe me, let Grachev fight our Mr. Jordan. Let's see if our Mr. Jordan can beat him!"

Linus snorted coldly, "Salvatore, you green mutant, don't find excuses for your master. Now that Grachev has been bitten by the two ferocious beasts of the Chief, he is no longer in his mutant state. If you fight now, what does it mean even if you win?"

Salvatore gritted his teeth. "Damn it..."

Salvatore also felt aggrieved for Jordan.

However, Jordan did not care what others thought. He only cared about Victoria's opinion. He looked at Victoria and asked, "Do you think I did that because I predicted Randall's arrival in advance?"

Jordan did not care what others thought of him, even if they thought of him as a despicable person. However, if Victoria thought so too, Jordan would really be disappointed!

Victoria looked at Jordan with a complicated expression.

1233 Randall's Question!

Jordan looked at Victoria without blinking, waiting for her answer!

Victoria shook her head and slowly spoke. "No, I don't believe that you were faking it. I could clearly feel that when you stood up for me just now, you completely disregarded your own life. I believe that you were willing to die for me! I also believe that our relationship in the past was deep enough to be engraved in your heart, so you're willing to do this for me!

"Jordan, I believe you!"

Victoria chose to believe Jordan. However, Jordan felt a little awkward when he heard that.

This was because Victoria was wrong. Jordan had never thought of dying for her. It was all her wishful thinking.

Women always had such emotional thoughts. They mistakenly thought that the man who loved them would give up everything for them.

However, the current Jordan was just as Randall had said earlier. Victoria was already in his past. Jordan would not do this for Victoria anymore.

Jordan looked at Randall and said, “So what if I’m pretending? Didn’t you borrow two ferocious beasts from someone else to pretend to be powerful?”

Last time, Jordan exposed Randall’s true strength. This time, he pointed out bluntly that Randall’s two ferocious beasts were borrowed from someone else and not his!

Randall’s identity had been exposed by Jordan in the capital previously. It was obvious that he had gone to get reinforcements these few days. The two ferocious beasts were so powerful that they could even defeat a purple mutant. They were definitely not trained by a black-level Randall.

Moreover, these two strange-colored ferocious beasts that he had never seen in the world reminded Jordan of the fiery red fox that was the female guardian of the Immortal Lake.

Jordan guessed that Randall’s two ferocious beasts were borrowed from the female guardian of the Immortal Lake!

Hearing this, Victoria and the mutants were also shocked.

“Borrowed?”

If these two ferocious beasts were not Randall’s but someone else’s, then it would be a little far-fetched for Randall to become the leader of the Mutant Tribe.

boxn ov el. c o m

Randall was furious. “Nonsense! Who told you that I borrowed them? Do you think I’m as pretentious as you? I was the one who tamed these two beasts. Otherwise, why would they listen to me? Have you ever trained an animal? Do animals take orders from others?”

Randall tried to explain the accusations.

If it was someone else’s tamed beast, Randall indeed had no reason to control it. After all, he was only a black mutant.

Randall did not let everyone continue to pay attention to this question. He quickly changed the topic, “Jordan, let me ask you, why were you so sure that I’m not a black mutant last time? How did you know about this? If you don’t tell the truth, don’t even think about leaving this place today!”

Jordan scoffed softly. You want me to stay?

Jordan couldn’t care less about these two ferocious beasts!

However, at that moment, Dragon suddenly went forward and whispered into Jordan’s ear, “Not good, Master. The people outside just told me that Randall brought a lot of fighter jets and weapons of mass destruction this time!”

“What?”

Jordan was shocked. If it was just a competition of abilities between mutants, so what if Jordan fought the entire Mutant Tribe alone?

However, if Randall used these biochemical weapons or missiles, it would be troublesome.

Jordan did not bring any weapons this time. If they really fought, he would not be Randall’s match at all.

Jordan looked at Randall and said, “Did you use the Rong family’s fighter jets and biochemical weapons?”

Randall smiled. “The Immortal Lake is my territory to begin with. It’s only right for me to transfer some over to protect this place. Why? Are you afraid? You don’t have to worry about me throwing missiles here. I love the Immortal Lake and Mount Denali more than you do. I can’t bear to destroy the environment here. Moreover, to deal with you guys, my two ferocious beasts are enough!”

Jordan clenched his fists. He wanted to capture Randall and the person helping him. Then, everything would be resolved.

At that moment, with a whoosh, Rong Bingshao suddenly appeared in front of Jordan and questioned Randall.

“Randall, did you steal this mutated tiger and mutated gorilla from the female guardian of the Immortal Lake?”

Rong Bingshao had always been a die-hard fan of the female guardian of Immortal Lake. After seeing her once, he was completely infatuated.

Earlier, when he heard Jordan say that Randall’s ferocious beast might have been borrowed, Rong Bingshao did not understand what he meant at first. After thinking about it carefully, he realized that Jordan was referring to the female guardian of the Immortal Lake!

Randall was shocked when he saw Rong Bingshao. “Rong Bingshao? You’re not dead? Why are you here?!”

It was only then that Randall noticed Rong Bingshao. Furthermore, from his speed, it was obvious that he was the mutant with godly speed!

Victoria explained from the side, “Rong Bingshao has submitted to Jordan, and he’s Jordan’s subordinate now. Moreover, he went to the Immortal Lake too. He’s a black mutant now and has godly speed.”

Randall found it unbelievable. “A descendant of the Rong family is actually willing to submit to the Steeles?”

Rong Bingshao said, “You’re mistaken. Randall, I’m submitting to Jordan, not the Steeles. Tell me quickly, are your two ferocious beasts from the female guardian of the Immortal Lake?”

“The female guardian of the Immortal Lake?”

Randall was surprised and thought to himself, “The female guardian of the Immortal Lake that Rong Bingshao mentioned... Could it be the Moon Maiden? Damn it, he actually met the Moon Maiden. No wonder they know that I’m not a golden mutant!

“Damn it. I wonder what the Moon Maiden said to them. However, they don’t even know the Moon Maiden’s name. They even call her the female guardian of the Immortal Lake. It seems like they don’t know much about her. No, I have to make them stay and ask Rong Bingshao about it!”

After a pause, Randall said, “Rong Bingshao and Jordan, since you’ve come to participate in our Mutant Tribe’s grand event, don’t leave yet. Stay here for the night. I’ll make sure you’re entertained. By the way, I have something to ask you.”

Jordan thought about it. He also wanted to know if Randall’s two ferocious beasts were from the female guardian of the Immortal Lake. What was Randall’s relationship with the female guardian of the Immortal Lake?

Moreover, Jordan needed time to mobilize his combat strength outside just in case.

Therefore, Jordan said, “Sure.”

Jordan and the others were arranged to rest in an area while Randall was busy with the mutants. He punished Grachev and Shirley and controlled them.

The gorgeous decorations of the succession ceremony were not removed. Instead, the succession ceremony became Randall’s return ceremony. Everyone sang and danced with the ferocious beasts to congratulate Randall’s return.

At 6 pm, Randall sent someone to invite Jordan and the others out.

Randall, Victoria, Grachev, Shirley, Linus, Jordan, Rong Bingshao, Park Sora, Dragon, Salvatore, and the others sat at a round table to eat.

He thought that Randall would fly into a rage out of humiliation at Jordan. He did not expect Randall to still treat him warmly this time, serving him with good food and wine.

However, Jordan could sense that Randall was doing it on purpose for Victoria to see. It was obvious that he was trying to please Victoria. He wanted Victoria to see how magnanimous he was as an uncle. Previously, Jordan had exposed him, but he still treated him with courtesy today.

This was the maturity and stability of a mature man that many women liked.

Although Victoria did not become the Chief, she was still very happy. She took the initiative to raise her wine glass, "Jordan and Randall, let's have a drink."

Randall raised his glass and looked at Jordan with a smile.

Jordan picked up his wine glass as well, and they downed the alcohol in one gulp.

After drinking a glass of wine, Randall suddenly asked, "Rong Bingshao, you're the one who told Jordan that I'm not a golden mutant, right? Who told you about this? Is it a woman? Is it a very beautiful woman who looks like a goddess?"

1234 The Moon Maiden Is My Ex-Girlfriend!

Jordan and Rong Bingshao were shocked. From Randall's description, he seemed to know and have seen the female guardian of the Immortal Lake!

Rong Bingshao was extremely excited. "That's right! The female guardian of Immortal Lake is like a goddess. She's very beautiful! You... know her?"

Randall drank another glass of wine alone and smiled. “The female guardian of the Immortal Lake? Hehe, it seems like you don’t know her well. Actually, her real name is the Moon Maiden.”

“Moon Maiden?”

Rong Bingshao was excited. He had always called that woman the female guardian of Immortal Lake, but he still did not know her name.

“The Moon Maiden? The Moon Maiden?”

Jordan was curious too. Clearly, this was not a person’s real name. She had given it to him herself.

Randall nodded. “That’s right. She’s indeed like a goddess descended down from the moon. Rong Bingshao, since you’ve seen the Moon Maiden, have you seen her ability to manipulate the weather?”

Rong Bingshao was shocked again. “Yes! That’s right! She can fly and control the weather! How do you know so much about her? What’s your relationship with her?”

At this time, Victoria couldn’t help but become curious as well. “Randall, who is this ‘Moon Maiden’ you’re talking about and the ‘Female Guardian of the Immortal Lake’? Why haven’t I heard you mention her before?”

Grachev, who had yet to recover from his injuries, exclaimed, “There’s actually someone in the world who can fly? She can even control the weather. This person’s strength must be terrifying!”

Shirley’s focus was a little different. “Do I want to know if she’s an Asian woman? How beautiful is she? Don’t tell me she’s had plastic surgery too?”

Everyone at the table looked at Randall. The people at the other tables also looked over.

Randall did not talk to Rong Bingshao in private. Instead, he spoke about this in front of everyone. Clearly, he wanted all the Mutants to hear it.

Randall slowly said,

boxn ov el. c o m

“The Moon Maiden... is actually a golden mutant.”

Whoosh!

Hearing this, there was an uproar.

“There really are golden mutants in this world!”

“Where is this Moon Maiden now?”

“Oh my god, the most respected golden mutant in the world! When I see her, I must kneel down and acknowledge her as my master!”

At the mention of the golden mutant, all the members of the Mutant Tribe revealed looks of admiration.

Jordan looked at their expressions and thought to himself, ‘These guys actually worship the golden mutant so much. If they know that I’m a golden mutant, I’m afraid they’ll kneel down immediately!’

Jordan deliberately glanced at Victoria’s expression and realized that she was stunned too. She looked shocked and envious.

Initially, Jordan did not know the Moon Maiden’s true strength. Now that he knew that she was a golden mutant like him, Jordan was relieved.

If she was a golden mutant, Jordan was confident that he could compete with her.

However, Rong Bingshao was not willing to accept this result. “A golden mutant? Is she just a golden mutant? She should be a goddess, the creator of this Immortal Lake, right? Randall, what right do you have to say that she’s a golden mutant? What’s your relationship with her?”

In Rong Bingshao' eyes, the Moon Maiden was obviously one level higher than Jordan and the others.

Randall drank three glasses of wine in a row and sighed.

He seemed to have thought of an unforgettable past and said, "The Moon Maiden... is my ex-girlfriend."

Everyone was shocked!

Jordan, Rong Bingshao, and Victoria were all shocked.

Ex-girlfriend?

Randall and the Moon Maiden were in a relationship?

Randall's predecessor was actually the most respected golden mutant in the world?

Randall said slowly, "Rong Bingshao, you returned to the past Immortal Lake and obtained your mutant ability, right? Indeed, at that time, the person in charge of the Immortal Lake was my ex-girlfriend, Moon Maiden. Actually, she watched me obtain my ability."

"That year, I barged into the Immortal Lake and obtained a mutant ability. At first, I didn't discover the ability to tame ferocious beasts. I thought that I had obtained a useless 'Iron Wall' ability, so I gave up on myself and blamed myself. She was the one who took the initiative to come forward, find me, comfort me, and help me discover other potentials.

"As time passed, we fell in love. Initially, I thought that she, a dignified golden mutant, would not fall in love with me. However, I did not expect her to love me deeply. She even got pregnant and wanted to give birth to my child.

"After that, she handed over the Immortal Lake that she had been guarding to me and allowed me to take charge of it. That was how I managed to take control over the Immortal Lake."

Upon hearing Randall's words, everyone was amazed. They did not expect him to have such a story.

Victoria also looked at Randall in shock. She didn't expect his ex-girlfriend to be even more powerful than her.

Jordan, on the other hand, kept analyzing the changes in Randall's expression, trying to determine if his words were true through his expression.

One had to admit that Randall's disguise was top-notch. Jordan could not judge the authenticity of his words by reading his expression.

Logically speaking, Randall's words made sense.

This was because when Jordan returned to the past, the Immortal Lake was indeed controlled by the Moon Maiden. The next person would be Randall.

This meant that there was indeed a handover procedure between the Moon Maiden and Randall. The Moon Maiden would not have given up on this place for no reason.

However, Rong Bingshao could not accept this. "I can't accept it! I can't accept it! The Moon Maiden should be a flawless goddess. How can she be your ex-girlfriend? She was pregnant with your child and almost gave birth to your child?! No, my goddess can't be pregnant with someone else's child. I can't accept it!"

Randall snorted softly. He could tell at a glance that Rong Bingshao liked the Moon Maiden very much.

Randall looked at the Mutant Tribe brothers and said, "Brothers and sisters, I, Randall, am just a black mutant. I'm indeed not worthy of leading everyone. However, the Immortal Lake was handed over to me by my former love. For her, I can only temporarily be the leader of the mutants. I've wronged everyone. If the Moon Maiden is willing to return in the future, I'll definitely give up my position immediately!"

The Mutant Tribe brothers did not question Randall. Instead, they defended him.

Grachev said, "Chief, please don't say that. You and the Moon Fairy are a couple. It doesn't matter which one of you becomes the Chief."

Shirley also said, "That's right, even if you're only a black mutant, just your ability to tame ferocious beasts is enough to become our Chief."

Jordan watched everything coldly. He knew his uncle well. Randall seemed to be honest now, but in fact, he had successfully controlled these subordinates.

He had a golden mutant as his ex-girlfriend and the ability to tame purple mutant beasts. Who would dare to disobey him now?

Jordan suddenly asked, "When I tested you at my house last time, I realized that the Immortal Water was a little golden. Does that mean that you might have a little golden bloodline in you? Did the Moon Maiden pass it to you? Can the golden bloodline be transmitted?"

Randall nodded. "Jordan, you're indeed very observant! That's right, I do have golden blood in me. It was passed down to me by my ex-girlfriend, the Moon Maiden! Sigh, she really loves me. She said that she doesn't want to be so strong as a woman. She's even willing to pass on the golden bloodline in her body to me! But how can I be so selfish and ask for her ability?"

Hearing this, many mutants were in an uproar.

"Golden bloodline can be transmitted? Heavens, the Chief is too benevolent. He doesn't even want a golden bloodline! If it were me, I would probably do whatever it takes to exchange for the golden bloodline! The Chief is really a good man!"

Victoria also stared blankly at Randall, having a new opinion of him.

"Randall's ex-girlfriend loves him so much. He loves his ex-girlfriend too. I'm nothing compared to her."

Victoria thought that Randall married her because he coveted her purple ability.

In fact, Randall's ex-girlfriend was a golden mutant, and she even wanted to pass on the golden bloodline to him, but he didn't want it.

Jordan fell into deep thought as well. He drank his wine and thought to himself, "So the golden bloodline can be passed on to low-level mutants. If Victoria knows that I'm a golden mutant..."

1235 There Are Other Golden Mutants?

Fortunately, Jordan kept his cool and was not in a hurry to reveal his golden mutant identity. He also did not attack Randall and the mutants. Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to obtain such important information.

The fact that the golden bloodline could be transmitted to low-level mutants meant a lot.

All mutants below the golden level hoped and yearned for greater power, including Victoria. If she knew that Jordan was a golden mutant, she would definitely want to be with him again.

In reality, if nothing had happened between Jordan and Victoria, what did it matter if Jordan sacrificed some of his golden bloodline to pass it on to Victoria?

Unfortunately, the two of them had already separated. Jordan could not do that anymore.

The relationship between Randall and Jordan was no longer as harmonious as before. There was no need for Randall to drink to his heart's content with Jordan. He was only doing this for Victoria and the other mutants to see.

Not long after, Randall stood up and said, "Alright, continue drinking. I won't accompany you anymore. Victoria, accompany me to the helipad. I also brought a gift for you. You'll definitely like it."

“A gift?”

Victoria stood up as well. She glanced at Jordan and said, “Jordan, continue drinking. Rest at the Immortal Lake tonight. You can leave tomorrow morning.”

Jordan nodded. “Sure.”

Jordan could tell from Victoria’s eyes that she seemed to be sending a message. It was as if she was saying, “Don’t leave tonight. I have something to tell you.”

At this moment, Salvatore asked, “Mr. Jordan, do you think what Randall said is true? That the Moon Maiden is really Randall’s ex-girlfriend?”

Dragon was the first to express his opinion. “I think it might be true. Everyone, think back. When we crossed over to the past Immortal Lake, we met the Moon Maiden. As a golden mutant, she had the ability to stop us from entering the Immortal Lake to obtain power. However, she did not do so. Instead, she flew away.

“Salvatore and I definitely don’t have the right to keep the Moon Maiden away from the Immortal Lake. It must be because of Mr. Jordan’s identity. She knew that Mr. Jordan was Randall’s nephew, so she let him enter the Immortal Lake to obtain his ability.”

boxn ov el. c o m

Jordan nodded as well. Dragon’s speculation made sense logically.

However, Rong Bingshao drank a glass of wine and put it down heavily. “Impossible! Randall can’t be the Moon Fairy’s lover. Impossible!”

Salvatore said, “Rong Bingshao, we all know that you have a crush on the Moon Maiden and don’t want to accept this fact, right? Let me ask you, if the Moon Maiden isn’t doing this for Randall’s sake, why did she let us enter the Immortal Lake?”

Rong Bingshao looked at Jordan and said, "I once mentioned the name Randall in front of the Moon Goddess. When she told me that Randall was not a golden mutant, her expression did not change at all. She did not look like she had a boyfriend like him at all!

"Jordan, after I was killed by you last time, I've been reading Chinese books, such as I Ching, Illustrations of the gods, and so on. I'm pretty good at reading people now!"

Jordan smiled. How could he understand these classic Chinese books?

Rong Bingshao continued, "Also, the Moon Maiden seems to have deliberately turned you into a golden mutant. She seems to know that you are a golden mutant. This matter has nothing to do with Randall!

"Perhaps she secretly used the Immortal Water to test you and found out that you were a golden mutant. Then, she asked me to return to the Immortal Lake in the past and obtain the mutant ability because she knew that after I obtained the ability, I would definitely take revenge on you. Once I took revenge on you, you would definitely know the existence of the Time Gate. Then, you would be able to go over and obtain your mutant ability! That must be it!"

Jordan frowned at Rong Bingshao's complicated deduction. "The Moon Maiden is a golden mutant. With her ability, it's easy for her to control the mutants and occupy the Immortal Lake. If she really wanted me to become a golden mutant, why would she go through so much trouble to let me travel through time and space to return to the past Immortal Lake?"

Salvatore also said, "That's right. This doesn't make sense at all. Rong Bingshao, don't make wild guesses. Randall must have an affair with the Moon Maiden. These two ferocious beasts were also borrowed from the Moon Maiden. Mr. Jordan, that Moon Maiden is unfathomable. Moreover, Randall said that the golden bloodline can be transmitted. I'm guessing that that woman might have ill intentions towards you!"

Dragon also said with a serious expression, "Yes, be careful! The Moon Maiden knew that you were going to become a golden mutant, but she did not stop you. This means that she is confident that she can defeat you when she fights you!”

Jordan took two sips of wine and said, “I have to find the Moon Maiden as soon as possible. I can’t let her hide in the dark and keep an eye on me. This feeling is very uncomfortable.”

He recalled that when he jumped into the Immortal Lake that day, he knew that someone was watching him secretly. Although he had obtained a golden ability, he felt very uncomfortable.

Suddenly, Jordan said, “That’s not right. If Randall borrowed the two ferocious beasts from the Moon Maiden, the Moon Maiden would probably tell Randall that I’m a golden mutant. However, judging from Randall’s attitude towards me just now, it’s obvious that he still treats me as a Deity who can only predict the future.”

Salvatore patted his head. “Yeah, what’s going on? Is Randall lying? Didn’t he borrow the beast from the Moon Maiden?”

The Dragon said, “Could it really be as Randall said? The ferocious beasts were tamed by him, and the fox we saw the Moon Maiden that day was also given to her by Randall?”

Jordan shook his head. “Although there’s no concrete evidence, according to my intuition, Randall must have borrowed these two ferocious beasts from someone else. If he didn’t go to find the Moon Maiden, it means that he has another helper who’s not inferior to the Moon Maiden!”

Hearing this, everyone gasped.

Salvatore exclaimed. “F*ck, a helper that’s not inferior to the moon maiden? Could it be that there’s a second golden mutant? Including Mr. Jordan, there are three of them! Gods fighting? F*ck!”

Jordan held his wine glass and thought to himself, ‘Apart from me, it’s not impossible for there to be a few golden mutants. Damn it, why are you guys, who have long obtained golden abilities, hiding in the dark...’

If anything, Jordan thought that he was already low-key enough. Today, his ex-girlfriend was in trouble. He could endure it until the end and did not do anything.

However, the other golden mutants seemed to know how to hide themselves well.

Just as everyone was discussing Randall's secret partner, Park Sora suddenly said, "Alright, stop guessing. Anyway, Randall definitely has a golden mutant backing him. There might be one or several of them. Anyway, he didn't do anything to us today, and he even invited us to drink. Let's not provoke him.

"Right, why don't everyone guess what gift Randall gave Victoria? Hehe, I saw Randall's expression just now. He seemed very excited and confident. It seemed like Victoria would definitely like it after seeing it. She might even want to return to his side, hehe. Why don't we guess what gift Randall will give to Victoria?"
