

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

1251 Prediction!

Seeing that Randall was furious about the bird being taken away by Victoria, Jordan asked in confusion, "Didn't you already give that bird to Victoria? Since you gave it away, there's nothing wrong with her taking it away. It's your fault for pretending to be strong and taking someone else's things as your own."

Randall was depressed, but he did not dare to tell Jordan the truth.

Just like that, the few of them boarded the plane and immediately set off for Sapu Sacred Mountain.

As soon as they boarded the plane, Park Sora could not help but make a video call to Rong Bingshao and brag. "Bingshao, where are you? We're going to the Sapu Sacred Mountain. Do you want to come?"

In response, Rong Bingshao said, "You little girl, you should learn some respect for the Rong family from your mother! I'm an adult and you're the little sister! I'm already rushing back. Damn it, I must have missed a good show. Let me guess, has Jordan already subdued the mutants? Is Victoria still alive?"

Park Sora whispered, not daring to let Jordan hear her, "Victoria ran away crying and even took Randall's bird away. You didn't see it. When Jordan attacked, he was so cool! Building buildings, creating cars out of nothing, and spinning things back and forth in the sky. There's also us. We flew together in the sky. Oh, Salvatore even played a very hot-blooded background music!

"Jordan seems to have brought his and Victoria's memories back to reality. In the end, it all ended with a bang. Victoria cried like a dog. Hahaha."

Rong Bingshao was also shocked when he heard the description. "What? Jordan's golden ability actually reached this level? Damn it, I missed a stunning performance! By the way, why are you going to Sapu Sacred Mountain now?"

Park Sora smiled evilly. "I'm looking for your goddess. Hmph, I want to see how beautiful this Moon Maiden is to be able to charm someone like you."

Hearing this, Rong Bingshao was shocked. "What? You're going to find the Moon Maiden? Ah! Wait for me! I want to go too! Accelerate! Accelerate at full speed! Drive as fast as you can!"

"Hahaha."

Seeing how excited Rong Bingshao was, Park Sora couldn't help but laugh.

At that moment, Jordan received a call from Lauren.

"Lauren..." Jordan said softly.

Lauren's gentle voice came from the other end of the line. "Hubby, are you done with your work? When are you coming back?"

She could tell that Lauren missed Jordan very much.

Jordan said, "I was just about to leave the Immortal Lake. However, I have to go somewhere and can't go back for the time being. What's wrong? You don't sound too good."

Lauren said, "I... I'm fine. I just miss you a little."

Jordan smiled. "Didn't I just leave two days ago? You miss me so much after not seeing me for a day. Don't worry. I'll fly back to the capital to accompany you as soon as I'm done here, okay? If you're bored, let Lota keep you company. She's always fun. You won't be bored with her."

Lauren said, "It's not that I'm bored, but... I understand. Hubby, go ahead and be careful outside. Recently, I keep having this awful feeling that something bad will happen. I'm so worried about you..."

This was not the first time Jordan had heard of Lauren's anxiety. He knew that she was pregnant and about to give birth. Perhaps she might have prenatal anxiety.

After all, when she was pregnant for the first time, she had been under a lot of pressure. Her family, relatives, and friends did not support her and felt that she should not have given birth to the child. She didn't even know who the father was. If she gave birth as a single mother, she would be gossiped about.

Jordan comforted her gently, "Lauren, don't worry. I'm very powerful now. I'll be fine. Don't be nervous. Rest well and wait for me to go back."

Lauren nodded. "Yes, you predicted that nothing would happen to me and the child. I... believe you. I... am not nervous or afraid."

After that, Lauren hung up without saying anything else.

After ending the call, Jordan sighed and frowned slightly.

Last time, Jordan saw that Lauren was a little nervous, so he lied to her and said that he had predicted that she and the child would be fine to comfort her.

In reality, Jordan had never predicted that Lauren would give birth.

After some thought, Jordan decided to make a prediction for Lauren.

He was about to close his eyes.

"Cough cough... Yiyawukadadaba..."

Randall, who was sitting next to Jordan, suddenly coughed and started singing in an unknown language.

Jordan glanced at the shifty-eyed Randall. Afraid that Randall would make a move, he gave Dragon a look and asked it to seal Randall's mouth.

"Hey, Jordan, you're too much. You won't even let me sing? Don't touch me... Grrr..."

Jordan looked at Randall. This old fox who had faked his death for so many years had deceived the entire Steele family for more than ten years. He was as cunning as Shaun. It was probably very difficult to make such a person tell the truth.

"Could Randall be lying to me? Is the Moon Maiden really on Sapu Sacred Mountain?"

Jordan suddenly felt that Lauren's call might be a warning to him. Sapu Sacred Mountain might be hiding danger and an ambush!

Jordan immediately closed his eyes and predicted what would happen at Sapu Sacred Mountain.

Jordan slowly entered a predictive state. Gradually, a beautiful scene appeared in his mind. In the extremely clear lake, there were fish of unknown species swimming happily.

In the distance was a snowy mountain and a glacier. On this glacier, Jordan saw himself. In front of him was a woman.

"Ah!"

Jordan could not help but exclaim in surprise. He saw the woman's face. He was stunned by her beauty. Just as Rong Bingshao had said, she was a peerless beauty!

"She looks like Lauren!"

Jordan predicted that he would really see the Moon Maiden at Sapu Sacred Mountain later. Moreover, the Moon Maiden's temperament and appearance were indeed extraordinary. She was comparable to the number one beauty in the capital, Lauren, and they looked very similar!

Coupled with the fact that the Moon Maiden had helped Jordan obtain abilities, it gave Jordan a sense of familiarity!

Jordan did not expect the Moon Maiden to fight him.

However, he predicted another disaster.

BOOM!

Jordan predicted that their plane would be attacked by a missile as soon as Jordan and the others got off!

“Damn it! Randall!”

Jordan opened his eyes immediately and glared at Randall angrily. Jordan knew that this missile was definitely Randall’s doing!

In fact, Randall’s humming in some unknown language just now might have been to tell his subordinates the coordinates!

1252 Arriving at Sapu Sacred Mountain!

Randall, this old fox, was indeed unwilling to be captured obediently. He had already done something in private and asked his subordinates to arrange missiles at their destination.

Even now Randall controlled half of the Rong family’s military strength. With just a word, he could control the use of many large-scale weapons.

Before coming, Jordan wanted to take over his control and replace all his trusted aides and loyal subordinates. However, he was also worried that this would alert the enemy.

He did not expect Randall to be able to contact his subordinates under such circumstances.

Jordan had already predicted the missile attack. Since he had predicted this scene, it could not be changed. The missile attack would definitely happen. It could not be changed by doing anything to Randall now.

However, fortunately, Jordan did not predict that there would be casualties among Jordan and the others.

So Jordan called the Dragon over and secretly told Dragon about this so that he could be prepared in advance. He didn't tell the others because he was afraid that they would be filled with panic.

After all, even a mutant like Park Sora would be in danger if they were attacked by missiles.

The Immortal Lake and Sapu Sacred Mountain were in the western part of the country. Indeed, they were not far away. Coupled with Jordan's fast flight speed, they arrived at this place that was filled with an immortal aura soon enough.

Before the plane landed, everyone looked down from the windows.

Park Sora said excitedly, "Wow, it's so spectacular! Why doesn't South Korea have such a sacred place! Brother, I just saw someone doing a TikTok live broadcast on Sapu Sacred Mountain. There seems to be a lot of tourists below!"

Sapu Sacred Mountain was different from the Immortal Lake. The Immortal Lake was off-limits to tourists. As for the Sapu Sacred Mountain, although the climate was hostile, many people would come here to take photos and visit because of the beautiful scenery.

Jordan did not want outsiders to see his meeting with the Moon Maiden this time. In addition, there would be missiles attacking this place soon. If there were so many tourists here, there would probably be casualties.

Jordan said to Dragon, "Release a few small smoke bombs down and disperse all the tourists."

At this moment, at the Sapu Sacred Mountain.

An internet celebrity wearing cute rabbit ears and sexy black silk high heels was filming a short video.

“I wore black silk to Sapu Sacred Mountain to disturb the minds of these men who came here to travel. I’ll torture them to death, hehe!”

The internet celebrity said her lines while coquettishly filming the video.

However, just as she was filming proudly, a smoke bomb suddenly flew over from the sky.

BANG!

BANG!

BANG!

These smoke bombs were harmless. When they hit the ground, the internet celebrity and the others were so frightened that they immediately fled.

As she was wearing high heels, she accidentally sprained her ankle.

Not long after, there was no one left.

Then, the plane slowly landed in front of a lake on Sapu Sacred Mountain.

“Wow, it’s so beautiful! I want to go down and take a good look!”

Park Sora was the first to disembark and enjoy the view. Meanwhile, Jordan stood up and instructed, “Everyone get off the plane. Leave Randall behind.”

Randall struggled to protest, but Jordan and the rest ignored him and got off the plane.

As soon as they walked down, they saw the clear lake in front of them and the beautiful glaciers and snow mountains in the distance.

As it was a high altitude area, the pilot and crew were all ordinary people. They were a little short of oxygen, but Jordan and the mutants were fine.

However, Jordan said to everyone very seriously, “The missiles are coming soon. Everyone, run!”

Park Sora looked confused. “Missiles?”

In the next second, Jordan activated his supernatural power and created a whirlwind that swept everyone, including himself, into the lake.

BOOM!

With a violent sound, the missile accurately hit the plane where Randall was.

Originally, Randall’s plan was to let the missiles hit everyone. This way, only he, who had an impenetrable body, could survive and escape easily. He did not expect Jordan to predict this in advance.

In the end, only Randall was attacked by this missile.

At this moment, the plane was already damaged, but they did not know if Randall was alright.

After the attack, Jordan, Park Sora, and the others slowly popped their heads out of the lake. Park Sora could not help but curse, “Ah shit, which bastard is it... Gulp...”

Before she could finish, Jordan pressed Park Sora’s head back into the lake.

That was because Jordan noticed a fighter jet flying over from the sky.

BIUBIUBIU!

The fighter jets kept firing at the people on Jordan's side.

"You're asking for it!"

Jordan looked at the few fighter jets in the sky and felt furious.

"Dragon, help me."

When the Dragon saw that Jordan had been looking up at the fighter jet in the sky, he understood what Jordan meant. He immediately activated a whirlwind and swept Jordan out of the lake.

After coming out of the lake, Jordan created a spring cushion and used the elasticity to quickly rise into the air again.

BOOM!

BOOM!

BOOM!

Jordan furiously attacked the fighter jets in the air.

"D*mn, my brother is too handsome!"

Seeing this scene, Park Sora could not help but exclaim.

These fighter jets were flying so high that Park Sora could not do anything. Jordan was probably the only one who could defeat these high-tech fighter jets.

Although the defense of these fighter jets was not bad, they had a fatal flaw. They were flying, and at this stage, there were very harsh conditions for flying.

Jordan could easily destroy a part of the fighter jet or hinder their flight.

Soon, a few fighter planes were knocked down by Jordan. Two more escaped in a panic.

After things calmed down, Dragon went to the destroyed remains of the plane to check. Subsequently, he came over to report to Jordan, “Mr. Jordan, I don’t see Randall’s corpse.”

Park Sora said, “Oh, could he have escaped? What kind of body does he have? He can’t die even like this! Brother, did you already know that he would send missiles to attack us here? Why did you still let him go? We should have grabbed him off the plane together. Then, I would have pressed his head down and let him drink the lake water here!”

Jordan said, “It’s too difficult to get the correct answer from him. Since he’s so eager to leave, let him go. Only by leaving can he lead us to the true answer he’s hiding.”

Park Sora nodded. “That’s right. He must have found a backer to escape to. Is it that Moon Maiden? Then wouldn’t our trip be in vain?”

Jordan shook his head, “No, we didn’t come for nothing. The Moon Maiden is here.”

Pitter-patter...

Suddenly, it started to rain heavily.

Dragon took out the weather forecast on his phone and showed it to Jordan, “Master, the weather forecast says that the Sapu Sacred Mountain has been sunny for the past two days.”

Jordan looked at a beautiful and mysterious glacier mountain in the distance.

“Looks like she already knows that we’re here.”

1253 Meeting the Moon Maiden!

The sudden rain gave everyone a very bad feeling.

The woman who always liked to hide in the dark and observe might already be watching them from somewhere and they wouldn't be able to see her.

Park Sora snorted. "Does Moon Maiden know how to control the weather? This rain must be her doing! I wonder if it's poisonous. I'll hold up my little red umbrella first."

Park Sora held up a cute red umbrella and did not forget to shelter Jordan from the rain.

However, Jordan did not take the rain seriously. A dignified golden mutant would not care about such poison.

Jordan looked at the most hidden peak of the mountain in the distance and said, "That's the highest peak of Sapu Sacred Mountain, right?"

Dragon looked at the information and said, "Yes, that's the highest peak. It's 6,556 meters above sea level. It's called the Sapu Peak."

Jordan nodded. "She should be there. I'll go. Wait for me here."

Park Sora hurried forward. "Brother, I want to go too. Bring me along!"

However, Jordan only took out a set of Iron Man Armor. He put it on himself and flew straight to the peak.

He decided to meet the Moon Maiden alone, because in the scene he had predicted in advance, only the two of them had spoken alone.

Raindrops kept falling on Jordan's armor. However, this rain could not stop the high-tech armor at all.

Jordan flew to the highest peak without any obstruction.

Sure enough, there was another world here!

"Cave!"

There was actually a cave in this place called Sapu Peak. Moreover, the entrance of the cave was filled with immortal energy, like an immortal cave.

Shrugging off his armor, Jordan asked while standing at the entrance of the cave, "Is anyone there?"

After a few seconds, a woman's voice said, "Please come in."

Jordan walked in cautiously. The cave entrance looked very small from the outside and he thought that the space inside was not big. However, after entering, he realized that the space was huge and was filled with all kinds of novel and elegant decorations.

The light at the entrance of the cave was still a little dim, but the deeper they went, the brighter it became.

"This place is so beautiful. It's like a paradise."

Jordan observed the layout of the cave carefully. There were mountains, rivers, birds, and flowers inside. Green trees, red flowers, and almost transparent white butterflies.

Moreover, every place seemed to have a layer of filter, with a little starlight.

Suddenly, a red fox jumped out, scaring Jordan.

Squeak squeak squeak.

The red fox raised its tail and looked at Jordan innocently.

When Jordan saw the fox, he immediately recalled that he had seen it when he transmigrated.

"So it's the Moon Maiden's pet."

Only then did Jordan realize that it was fortunate that he did not kill the fox when he encountered it.

Jordan looked at the beautiful scenery in front of him and thought to himself, "Isn't it too pretentious for the Moon Maiden to decorate her residence like a fairyland? We're all golden mutants. There's no need to do this, right?"

Jordan felt that the Moon Maiden's arrangement was a little overboard. Jordan was also a golden mutant now. He did not intend to renovate his residence or anything else. He would still sleep on the same bed and eat fried dough sticks and buns as he did in the past.

As for the golden mutant Moon Maiden, she had dressed as if she was otherworldly, completely different from ordinary people.

"Maybe girls pay more attention to these kinds of things."

After all, Jordan and the Moon Maiden were different as men and women. They cared about different things.

The red fox left first, and Jordan followed behind it. As expected, they arrived at the Moon Maiden's quarters.

And Jordan saw the back of a graceful woman.

At this moment, she was sitting in front of the dressing table, putting on makeup.

"Smells nice."

As soon as Jordan approached her, he smelled the elegant fragrance on her body.

Jordan noticed that she did not use the modern tube-shaped lipstick when she applied lipstick. Instead, she used lip gloss from what appeared to be the ancient times.

With a light brush, she dabbed the red color onto her lips.

Subsequently, she stood up slowly. Jordan realized that she had a good figure, but she was also the height of an ordinary person. Moreover, she was not too tall, about 1.65 meters.

Subsequently, she turned around and Jordan saw her face.

Although he had predicted the Moon Maiden's appearance in advance, Jordan was still surprised when he saw it with his own eyes.

Before this, Jordan had heard from Rong Bingshao that the Moon Maiden was a supreme beauty. Moreover, she was very fairy-like. The first time Rong Bingshao saw her, he thought that she was the female protector of the Immortal Lake.

After seeing her with his own eyes, itshewas indeed beautiful. Immortals were indeed immortals, but she gave Jordan a very intimate feeling.

“Her facial features are similar to Lauren’s!”

They were both supreme beauties with extraordinary looks. Therefore, when he saw the woman in front of him, Jordan immediately thought of his beautiful wife, Lauren.

It could be said that the woman in front of him was somewhat similar to Lauren or Hailey.

The Moon Maiden smiled and immediately gave off a relaxed feeling. She looked at Jordan and said, “Jordan, we finally meet.”

Jordan was also very polite. His tone was very gentle as he said, “I’m sorry for coming to your residence so presumptuously. Are you Miss Moon Maiden?”

The moon maiden nodded. “I am. You don’t have to be so formal. Do I look like your superior?”

The moon maiden looked to be about 26 years old, about the same age as Lauren.

Jordan smiled and said, “Of course not. Miss Moon Maiden is very young and beautiful. My wife is from the Capital. By being formal, I only mean to show respect. My wife is Lauren. You should know her, right? I think... the two of you are quite similar. Hehe, you’re both very beautiful.”

The Moon Maiden did not seem to like Jordan comparing Lauren to her. She said, "Oh, Lauren. Yes, I know what she looks like. She's indeed very beautiful and has the temperament of a goddess. However, our appearances can be similar, but our abilities are different. She's just an ordinary person, while I'm a golden mutant, correct?"

The Moon Maiden admitted that she was a golden mutant the first time they met!

In fact, with the Moon Maiden's mysteriousness, it was fine for her to lie to Jordan that she was the female protector of the Immortal Lake or someone one level higher than him.

Seeing that the Moon Maiden seemed to be quite frank, Jordan asked her directly, "Miss Moon Maiden, I heard from Rong Bingshao that when I crossed time and space to go to the Immortal Lake, you were the one who let me in. You should have been there when I obtained the golden talent, right?"

"I want to know, why did you help me become a golden mutant? I don't think we knew each other before. What's your reason for helping me? Aren't you afraid that I'll threaten you when I become a golden mutant?"

"Oh? Threaten me? How?"

Jordan stared at the Moon Maiden's beautiful face seriously and said coldly, "For example, if I were to attack you now, you might die in my hands!"

1254 Goddess of the Immortal Lake?

Of course, Jordan would not really attack the Moon Maiden. After all, it was the Moon Maiden who had helped him become a golden mutant and saved Lauren from Rong Bingshao. Jordan was extremely grateful to her. Why would he take the initiative to attack her?

Returning kindness with evil was never Jordan's style.

Jordan only said that to scare her and force the Moon Maiden to tell him the truth.

After all, no one in this world would treat another person well for no reason. The Moon Maiden must have her own motives.

The Moon Maiden was neither angry nor afraid when she heard Jordan's "threat". Instead, she smiled calmly.

"Oh? You want to attack me? Firstly, I can't think of a reason why you want to kill me. Secondly, you're not my match."

The Moon Maiden actually said confidently that Jordan was not her match?

Jordan was also a golden mutant and he was a man. It was embarrassing for her to say that Jordan could not be defeat her, a woman of the same level.

Jordan asked, "Are you sure you can defeat me?"

The Moon Maiden smiled and waved her hand casually. A holographic projection appeared in front of her. The projection was actually Jordan's creation from nothing in the Immortal Lake!

The Moon Maiden said, "You're indeed very talented. To be able to reach this level in such a short period of time after obtaining a golden talent, I'm indeed far inferior to you at the same time."

"However, the time you obtained the ability is too short. You haven't comprehended enough of your golden talent and haven't fully developed your ability, so you're not my match for the time being."

He did not expect the Moon Maiden to create Jordan's image in the Immortal Lake. It seemed like the Moon Maiden had placed surveillance cameras there.

The Moon Maiden did not mean to provoke Jordan. She was merely stating the truth.

In fact, Jordan also felt that as time passed and his understanding of his superpower deepened, his ability would become stronger.

Currently, there were many things that Jordan could not create from nothing. Indeed, his skill had not been fully developed. In this regard, the Moon Maiden was clearly his senior and mentor.

Jordan began to respect her. “Why do you keep paying attention to me in secret? What’s my value to you? If there’s anything I can help you with, you can tell me. You helped me become a golden mutant, and I want to be friends with you. I’ll do my best if I can.”

After hearing Jordan’s sincere words, the Moon Maiden smiled and said, “Let’s go down and talk.”

With that, she walked out of the cave and jumped down from the mountain.

As expected, the Moon Maiden could fly. She was as light as a swallow in the air, just like a heroine in a martial arts drama. She was valiant and heroic. Dressed in a white dress, she looked more like a goddess who had descended to the mortal world.

In comparison, Jordan, who had arrived at the entrance of the cave, did not dare to jump down because he could not fly. He wouldn’t fall to her death if she jumped down, but he would be in a sorry state.

“Damn it, I still have to take out the Iron Man Armor. Why can she fly? Flying isn’t her golden ability. I wonder if I can do the same in the future.”

Jordan wore the Iron Man Armor. After putting it on, he activated flight mode and arrived at the place where the Moon Maiden had landed.

The Moon Maiden came to a place where the lake water was very clear and clean. There were still fish swimming happily in the lake.

After Jordan landed, he immediately took off his armor.

The Moon Maiden asked Jordan, “Do you know what this lake is called?”

Before Jordan came, he had investigated the information here and said, “Sacred Lake. Could it be that this Sacred Lake is the same as the Immortal Lake?”

The Moon Maiden shook her head. “No, this is just a very ordinary and beautiful lake. It doesn’t have the power of the Immortal Lake.”

The Moon Maiden looked at the lake as if she was looking at the immortal lake of Mount Denali.

“Looking at you reminds me of the time when I obtained the golden ability. After I became a golden mutant, I was very excited and crazy. I used my powerful ability to obtain everything I wanted and created a lot of chaos. At that time, I even thought that I would destroy the world, hehe.”

Jordan frowned when he heard that. “Why don’t I remember any major chaos or strange news in the past year?”

If the Moon Maiden had used her golden superpower to cause a lot of trouble, the news would definitely have reported it. However, Jordan did not find anything related to this.

The Moon Maiden smiled and said, “Of course you don’t remember, because you might not have been born that year.”

Jordan was speechless. “Uh...”

At this moment, Jordan realized that the Moon Maiden should be very old. No wonder Jordan felt that this woman was so calm. She did not look like a girl in her early twenties at all.

Clearly, the Moon Maiden had used some method, or perhaps she had taken the medicine of the Park family in South Korea to make herself look so young.

The Moon Maiden did not intend to hide her age. She was not afraid that her age would scare Jordan because she did not intend to attract him.

The Moon Maiden continued, "Later, I used some methods to cover up what I did. The news didn't report it either. Most of the people who saw it are dead now, so ordinary people won't know."

Jordan nodded. It was not difficult for people with golden abilities to do this. In addition, 20 years ago, the internet was not very developed, and not everyone had a phone to take photos. It was relatively easy to stop the spreading of news.

"Then what's stopping you now?"

The Moon Maiden said, "The longer I have the golden talent, the deeper my comprehension of the golden ability, and the more I can feel that my ability doesn't come from me."

Jordan said while smiling, "Of course it's not from you but from the Immortal Lake."

The Moon Maiden said seriously, "It's an Immortal Lake, but it's impossible for a lake to have such an ability."

Jordan asked, "Do you think your ability comes from one person?"

The Moon Maiden nodded. "That's right. Our abilities came from the Immortal Lake, but someone must have left their talent there. That's why we obtained our talents. We're just people chosen by that god! With that thought in mind, I gained enlightenment every day in the Immortal Lake. I realized that the voice in my heart was becoming clearer and clearer. This Immortal Lake was created by the Lord of the World, the Goddess of the Immortal Lake! And the reason why she let us obtain superpowers is to let us save her and wake her up!"

Jordan frowned. He felt that the Moon Maiden was a little crazy at the moment. "Wake her up?"

Moon Maiden exclaimed. "Yes! The Lord of the World is hiding in the Immortal Lake. I dreamed of her!"

Jordan felt that the Moon Maiden's words were getting more and more ridiculous. He asked, "How did you dream of her? What does she look like?"

The Moon Maiden replied very seriously, "I can't see her exact appearance, but I can feel that she's very beautiful. She's a true goddess..."

The Moon Maiden looked at the sacred lake in front of her with a solemn expression.

At this moment, a man placed his hand on the Moon Maiden's shoulder and gently squeezed it.

1255 Big Plan!

This sudden physical contact woke the Moon Maiden up from her furor. She turned around and looked at Jordan.

"What?"

The Moon Maiden was probably old enough to be Jordan's mother. Although the Moon Maiden was beautiful and her figure was like a young girl's, Jordan did not have any improper thoughts about her.

Jordan only patted her to wake her up. "Hey, you're not a god. A dream is just a dream. You can't treat a dream as reality, right?"

The Moon Maiden defended herself. "It hasn't been long since you became a golden mutant. I can understand if you don't believe me. If you had possessed a golden ability for long enough, you would have felt the same as me.

"I'm not dreaming. I'm really seeing and feeling it.

"That day, I was prepared to sacrifice myself to the Lord of the World. I jumped into the Immortal Lake and released all the golden blood in my body in an attempt to save the Lord of the World. However, when my consciousness was hazy, I heard a voice. She told me that I, a golden mutant, could not awaken her with my bloodline alone. She told me that I had to gather five golden mutants to awaken her and bring her back to the world! This is why I helped you become a golden mutant!”

Jordan’s mouth was agape. He was dumbfounded as if he was reading a fantasy novel. He was stunned for a long time before he asked, “You’re saying that the master of your world created the Immortal Lake...”

The Moon Maiden interrupted, “No, she created everything, the entire world was created by her!”

Jordan did not refute, “Okay, okay. So she created everything, just like God, right? Then, she created the Immortal Lake and let many people enter the immortal lake to obtain abilities. But she seems to be trapped or dead. It takes the blood of five golden mutants to awaken her and bring her back to life. Is that what you mean?”

The Moon Maiden nodded. “That’s right.”

Jordan asked, “Have you ever thought that since she’s already the Lord of the World, why does she need us to save her?”

The Moon Maiden replied, “No, it’s not saving, it’s awakening. She’s like a Divine level expert who’s far more powerful than us. It’s as if she’s resting. If we awaken her, she’ll be able to give us more power!”

When Jordan heard the Moon Maiden’s words, he asked, “It’s like we are her puppies. When we’re hungry or we want to go out and play, but our master has been sleeping, we’ll wake her up and ask her to give us food or take us out to play. Is that what you mean?”

The Moon Maiden was overjoyed. “That’s right! That’s what I meant! Jordan, you’re too smart. You understood immediately!”

The Moon Maiden smiled happily. However, Jordan could not smile at all.

This was because Jordan felt that the Moon Maiden was playing him like an idiot.

“Did this Moon Maiden deliberately fabricate this story to deceive me? Could her goal be my golden bloodline?”

Jordan became cautious. He felt that what the Moon Maiden said was too unreal.

He also knew that there was definitely a big secret behind the Immortal Lake, but it might not be as the Moon Maiden had said. There might be a Goddess of the Immortal Lake or a Lord of the World.

However, Jordan did not voice his doubts and pretended to agree with the Moon Maiden.

Jordan said, “No wonder you want me to become a golden mutant. It turns out that gathering five golden mutants can awaken the noble Lord of the World. If that’s the case, then there aren’t five golden mutants in this world. May I ask how many there are now, Miss Moon Maiden?”

The Moon Maiden said, “Including you, there are four!”

Jordan said, “So there is still one more.”

The Moon Maiden said excitedly, “There’s only one left! We’ve been waiting for a golden mutant for a long time!”

Those who were qualified to become a mutant were as rare as phoenix feathers and unicorn horns. There might not even be one in a hundred thousand people who could become a golden mutant.

Take the Moon Maiden and Jordan for example. It had been at least 20 years apart since they became golden mutants!

Jordan asked, “Who are the other two?”

Knowing that there were two golden mutants other than the Moon Maiden, Jordan became curious.

Those two fellows seemed to be quite secretive. All these years, he had never heard any news about them.

The Moon Maiden told him everything she knew. She was very frank with Jordan. "One of them is an Asian, but he's not Chinese. He's an Indian monk called Jiumo Kasyapa."

Jordan nodded. He knew very little about Buddhism and had never heard of this person. He asked, "What about the other person?"

The Moon Maiden smiled. "The other one is an American. His name is Mike Baylor."

Jordan did not react when he heard that until the Moon Maiden added, "He is your uncle, Randall's master."

...

At this moment, 100 kilometers away from the Immortal Lake.

Randall did not die. Instead, he was saved by his subordinates in time.

However, although he was not dead, Randall was half-dead after being hit by Jordan and bombarded by missiles.

As Randall flew toward the South Pole, he called his master, Mike Baylor, to tell him that Jordan was a golden mutant. He thought that he could subdue Jordan by bringing two ferocious beasts from his master. He did not expect Jordan to be a golden mutant.

Now, he had to get his master to personally take action!

"Sigh, are you fishing again? Why aren't you picking up?"

Randall became anxious, but he did not stop calling.

After a few more minutes, Mike Baylor finally picked up Randall's call.

"I hope you keep calling because you have something important to say," Mike Baylor said impatiently.

Randall said hurriedly, "It's a huge matter! Master, my nephew, Jordan, he... he's a golden mutant! He can create something out of nothing!"

Hearing this, Mike Baylor, who was originally expressionless, immediately became energetic. “What did you say? Your nephew is a golden mutant? That second-generation deity? He’s got gold-level talent? Are you sure?”

Randall said, “I’m 100% sure! That brat actually hid his strength, causing me to lose face in front of the mutants! Master, the two ferocious beasts you gave me don’t dare to approach him at all! Moreover, he can create many things out of thin air, such as magma and cars. He’s simply invincible!

“Now, he has already occupied your Immortal Lake. The Mutant Tribe that I worked so hard to manage has also been snatched away by him. Master, only you can subdue this brat now!”

However, Mike Baylor did not seem to be angry after hearing this. Instead, he laughed excitedly. “Hahahaha, after waiting for so long, another golden mutant has finally appeared! Now, we can finally carry out our grand plan!”
