

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

- Chapter 1263 – 1265

1263 Jordan and Mike Baylor's Duel!

Mike Baylor was extremely provocative and looked down on Jordan. He did not take Jordan seriously at all.

However, when Jiumo Kasyapa heard Mike Baylor's words, he quickly said, "Mr. Baylor, please don't say that. I only have a skill that enables me to escape. I am definitely not Jordan's opponent."

Although Jiumo Kasyapa said that to not embarrass Jordan, Jordan still felt that he had been seriously provoked and insulted.

Jordan looked at Mike Baylor and said, "It's useless to say anything else. Let's fight!"

Seeing that the conflict between the two had intensified, the Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa both stepped forward to mediate.

The Moon Maiden looked at Mike Baylor. "Mike, you're so much older than Jordan. Why are you arguing with a junior like this?"

Subsequently, she looked at Jordan, "Jordan, I think you're in a bad mood today. Let's talk about this another day."

Jiumo Kasyapa also said, "Yes, yes. We should give Deity Jordan more time and not be too hasty."

When Mike Baylor saw that, he stopped forcing Jordan and said, "You really don't know what's good for you!"

Jordan knew that the Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa were two golden mutants who were powerful enough to mediate the fight. He and Mike Baylor could not fight, which left him very depressed.

"In that case, please leave!"

These three golden mutants wanted Jordan's golden bloodline as soon as they met. Jordan felt that the three of them were very unfriendly. It was very likely that they were lying to him about his golden bloodline. Therefore, he did not stand on ceremony and asked them to leave.

However, Mike Baylor sneered at him. "You want us to leave? Do you have the ability? The Immortal Lake is under my control now, and I am the master here!"

The Moon Maiden reminded Jordan as well, "I forgot to tell you that Mike Baylor and I have been in charge of the Immortal Lake for 20 years each. It's not time for him to take charge yet."

So it turned out that the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor had each been in charge of the Immortal Lake for 20 years. It seemed that they had neglected Jiumo Kasyapa, who was the weakest.

Jiumo Kasyapa took the initiative to say, "As my strength is insufficient, I don't have the ability to control the Immortal Lake. Mr. Baylor and the Moon Maiden have indeed agreed to govern it for 20 years each. I was also there when this agreement was made. I am not lying to you. Now that Deity Jordan has joined us, Mr. Baylor, the Moon Maiden, and Deity Jordan should be in charge for 20 years each."

Mike Baylor let out a derisive snort. "I still have a few more years before the expiration date. After I'm done, it'll be the Moon Maiden's turn. If you want to be the owner of Immortal Lake, wait another 20 years!"

When the Moon Maiden saw that she looked at Jordan and said, "How about this? After a few years, when Mike's control expires, I'll hand over the control of the next 20 years to Jordan."

Jiumo Kasyapa put his palms together. "Amitabha, the Moon Maiden is magnanimous."

The Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa thought that their actions would satisfy Jordan.

However...

Jordan said slowly, "I'm sorry. I've already taken over the Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe. This is my territory now. I won't give it up!"

The Immortal Lake was within his domain. How could Jordan let a foreigner take charge of such a mysterious and valuable place?

Mike Baylor also felt the serious provocation. His face was filled with anger. "Who do you think you are? You only defeated Randall, and Randall is just a dog that I placed in Immortal Lake. How dare you say that Immortal Lake is yours?"

Jordan did not back down at all. "Aren't you here now? I just need to defeat you again."

There was no way Jordan intended to let go of the battle for the Immortal Lake. He wanted to fight to the end.

Mike Baylor sneered. "Alright, I'll give you an opportunity!"

Moon Maiden still wanted to dissuade him, but Mike Baylor said, "Moon Maiden, you don't have to speak for him. He doesn't agree with our grand plan. He can't be in charge of Immortal Lake. Think about it. If he seals off the Immortal Lake from now on and doesn't give anyone a chance to become a mutant, we will never be able to wait for the next golden mutant. We will never be able to carry out our grand plan!"

When the Moon Maiden heard this, she fell silent. Indeed, to her, that grand plan was more important than anything else.

Jordan said, "Alright, let's decide the ownership of the Immortal Lake with victory and defeat!"

Mike Baylor snorted coldly. "You won't give up until it's over. Brat, don't think that you can be on equal footing with me just because you're a golden mutant. There are also levels among golden talents!"

With that, Mike Baylor walked out of the room first. If it was a competition, this small room was not enough.

As soon as he walked out, Randall went up to him and said, "Master, are you alright? I see that you're very angry. Did Jordan make you angry? Are you going to teach him a lesson? Sigh, that kid should indeed be taught a lesson! However, you can just cripple his lower body and make him stop being a man. Or break one of his hands. He's my nephew after all. Master, please spare his cheap life."

Mike Baylor kept walking toward the open space in front of him. Randall followed quickly and pretended to plead for Jordan. In reality, he hoped that Randall would avenge him.

In reality, Randall had heard the conversation between Jordan and the rest in the room. Having been in charge of the Immortal Lake for so long, which room didn't have his decorations?

Even in the room where the four of them were gathered, there was a bug that Randall had placed earlier. Randall heard their conversation clearly outside the door.

Hearing that Mike Baylor wanted to compete with Jordan, the other mutants were excited.

At this moment, Jordan, the Moon Maiden, and Jiumo Kasyapa walked out of the room.

Park Sora was the first to step forward and asked, "Brother, Randall said that his master wants to teach you a lesson. Is that true? Do you want to fight him?"

Salvatore said angrily, "F*ck, I knew he wasn't a good person! He's here to cause trouble!"

Soon, Jordan and Mike Baylor arrived beside the Immortal Lake. Likewise, the others gathered around to watch and discuss.

"The Chief is really going to start a war with the previous Chief's master! Heavens, between the two golden mutants, who is more powerful?"

"Chief Jordan can make things up out of nothing. We've already seen it before. I think he's very strong! I guess Chief Jordan will win!"

"You're too naive! Randall casually brought two ferocious beasts with him to defeat the purple mutants, Grachev and Shirley. His master must have an even more ferocious beast. Jordan might not be able to resist it!"

"I wonder if the other two golden mutants will join the battle? Heavens, I can really feast my eyes today!"

"That's right. Haha, the battle between the golden mutants will definitely be very exciting!"

Amidst the enthusiastic cheers, the Moon Maiden stood between Jordan and Mike Baylor and said, "Jordan, Mike, you can use force to fight for the control of the Immortal Lake for the next few years. I also declare that the winner will only be in charge of it for the next five years. If anyone wants to continue being the owner of this place, they'll have to fight me. In this fight, everyone should stop when the victor is decided. Don't harm each other's lives. Do you understand?"

Although the Moon Maiden was only a woman, she had an extremely strong aura. After all, she was the earliest golden mutant. Mike Baylor and Jordan had her to thank for becoming golden mutants.

She had obtained her talent the longest and was probably the strongest. Therefore, her words were still very intimidating and dignified.

"As long as he doesn't have such thoughts, I naturally won't either," said Jordan.

Jordan had to give the Moon Maiden face as well. However, all of this still depended on Mike Baylor's attitude. If the other party wanted to use this opportunity to get rid of him, they could snatch his golden bloodline directly.

Then, Jordan would use the same method to get rid of Mike Baylor!

The Moon Maiden said to Jordan, "You're part of our grand plan. Mike won't kill you."

After saying that, the Moon Maiden walked to the side and left the battlefield to Jordan and Mike Baylor.

“Brother, come on!”

“Best of luck, Mr. Jordan!”

“Master, you can do it!”

Park Sora, Salvatore, Randall, and the others cheered for the two of them.

On the other hand, the mutants did not cheer.

“Gosh, who should we support? Although Deity Jordan is our new Chief, we’ve actually been the other mutant’s subordinates all these years!”

“Why are you thinking so much? We’ll support whoever wins. Only the winner will truly become our leader.”

“Hehe, I hope Chief Jordan loses. Working under him is too boring. We can only do righteous things. In the future, he can’t kill or commit arson or rape beautiful women at all!”

“That’s right, that’s right. If the other golden mutant wins, we can still be as carefree as before! If we can’t stand anyone, we can kill them. If we like any woman, we can f*ck them! This is the life of a mutant!”

Most of the mutants were used to living a superior life compared to ordinary people. They were used to doing so-called “bad things” and did not like a leader like Jordan who had a sense of justice.

At that moment, Mike Baylor looked at Jordan with a sharp gaze. “Jordan, you’re my disciple’s nephew. I’ve heard him talk about you since a long time ago. At that time, if I wanted to kill you, it would be like stepping on an ant.”

Jordan did not doubt Mike Baylor’s words. Previously, Jordan did not have the ability to create something out of nothing. He probably only could predict the future. Facing an opponent like Mike Baylor, he would die. Moreover, Mike Baylor might have known about him when he was not a deity.

Jordan said, “There’s a saying I’ve heard. A scholar who has been away for three days should be treated differently. I, Jordan, am no longer the same as before. Put down your pride. Talent emerges with every generation. You’re no longer invincible!”

Jordan knew that Mike Baylor must have been very domineering in the past few years. Other than the Moon Maiden, he could not find a match at all.

The Moon Maiden was a woman and so beautiful. Mike Baylor couldn't fight her. Although Jiumo Kasyapa was a man, he was a humble and gentle monk, and it was impossible for him to fight with others.

Therefore, Jordan would be the first powerful opponent Mike Baylor had encountered since he became a golden mutant!

Mike Baylor laughed out loud. "Hahaha, good! I admire your courage! To be honest, ever since I became a golden mutant, I've always had a good relationship with the Moon Maiden and the monk and we've rarely even sparred. I can't find an opponent at all. I also want to fight to my heart's content! Since you dare to accept the challenge, then... Come!"

Mike Baylor said "come" and suddenly emphasized his voice. Not only that, but he also spread his arms and looked up at the sky.

It seemed like it was not only directed at Jordan. There seemed to be someone else.

Jordan also realized that something was wrong. He did not attack rashly.

"His talent is controlling animals. Could he be summoning his ferocious beasts?"

Jordan was right. In the next second, a roar came from the sky. The roar was low and heavy, making one's ears tingle.

In the next second, Dragon, who was watching the battle from afar, suddenly reported, "Master, the drones in charge of patrolling the sky near us suddenly fell. They seem to have been attacked!"

Dragon's reminder confirmed Jordan's suspicions.

"Mike Baylor is indeed summoning his mythical beast. Moreover, this mythical beast is flying over from the sky!"

Previously, Randall had brought back the black tiger and the gorilla. They were both land animals. This time, the mythical beast brought by Mike Baylor could fly!

In Jordan's impression, animals that could fly were not too powerful.

However, after a few seconds, the roar got closer and closer. Suddenly, a huge dragon circled in the sky and appeared in everyone's line of sight!

The moment the golden dragon appeared, even the sky changed color. The originally clear sky suddenly became dark and ominous.

Under the oppressive clouds, there was still a faint hint of lightning approaching!

“Oh my God! Look! It’s a dragon! I can’t believe my eyes! There really are dragons in this world! This isn’t a legend!”

“Too domineering! This dragon is too domineering! Was this personally tamed by Randall’s master? Oh my god, so Randall was lying to us previously. This beast-taming ability belongs to his master!”

“This is a horned dragon! It’s a creature from ancient Chinese legends! Mike turned it into reality! I wonder how strong this dragon is and if it can fight against the golden mutant!”

“It definitely can! Look, once it appeared, even the world changed greatly, and the weather changed! This dragon can affect the weather, so you can imagine its power!”

Everyone was shocked by the appearance of the golden-horned dragon. Randall was also very excited.

Even the Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa looked shocked.

Jiumo Kasyapa asked the Moon Maiden, “Moon Maiden, have you seen this horned dragon before?”

Moon Maiden also looked up at the domineering and mighty horned dragon and shook her head. “No, I didn’t even know that Mike actually successfully developed a dragon.”

Jiumo Kasyapa put his palms together. “Amitabha. This dragon has such powerful pressure. I’m afraid that Deity Jordan will have a tough battle.”

A tough battle?

The Moon Maiden felt that Jiumo Kasyapa’s words were a little tactful. In her opinion, this dragon could change the weather like her. Its ability was extraordinary, and it had already reached the level of a golden mutant.

Jordan, who had just become a golden mutant, was definitely not a match for him.

The horned dragon was hovering above Mike Baylor’s head, and above the horned dragon’s head was a strange vortex of dark clouds that flickered.

Mike Baylor said proudly, “Jordan, to show my respect for your double identity as a golden mutant and a second-generation Deity, I took out my most powerful ferocious beast, the top-notch mutated golden horned dragon! If you can defeat it today, I’ll give this Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe to you!”

Jordan was already in full combat mode. Compared to arguing with these golden mutants who he could not figure out, he might as well fight to his heart’s content!

However, Jordan did not target the golden-horned dragon above his head.

No matter what, this was a competition between Jordan and Mike Baylor. As long as Jordan could subdue Mike Baylor, he would win. There was no need for him to fight the dragon.

Therefore, Jordan took the initiative and attacked Mike Baylor by surprise!

“Master, be careful!”

Randall reminded when he saw Jordan sneak attack Mike Baylor.

As for Mike Baylor, he was a dignified golden mutant. How could he be so stupid? He flew into the air and landed on the golden-horned dragon, avoiding Jordan’s sneak attack.

“My God, Mr. Baylor can fly! It’s so cool!”

“He’s like a god! Although Jordan is also a golden mutant, he doesn’t seem to have the ability to fly!”

The members of the Mutant Tribe started to worship Mike Baylor.

Mike Baylor smiled at Jordan from above and said, “You want to fight me directly? No, you won’t have the chance.”

Then, Mike Baylor patted his dragon and said, “Big baby, teach this guy a lesson!”

In the next second, the golden-horned dragon immediately roared and attacked Jordan!

Roar!

The golden-horned dragon used the Divine Dragon Tail Swing first. Its mammoth tail slowly attacked Jordan from the sky.

Initially, when the horned dragon was in the sky, Jordan did not see how huge its tail was. However, as it got closer and closer, Jordan realized that the horned dragon’s tail was massive!

As such, Jordan did not dare to be careless. He immediately stood up to dodge and attacked the horned dragon’s tail.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Jordan launched lava and fireball attacks at the horned dragon's tail!

"Ah!"

Sensing the scorching flame attack, the horned dragon immediately roared.

"What is this!"

Mike Baylor, who was in the sky, was slightly shocked when he saw that. He did not expect Jordan to be able to launch such a fire attack.

The Moon Maiden and Jumo Kasyapa had the same feeling. They continued to watch Jordan's attacks seriously.

Initially, Jordan thought that he could use such an attack to injure the horned dragon. However, he did not expect the horned dragon's defense to be too strong. Moreover, it was too big and only a small portion of it was burned. It was not affected at all.

Roar!

Enraged by Jordan's attack, the golden-horned dragon launched an even more violent attack. It opened its mouth and spat flames at Jordan!

"Heavens, this dragon can spit fire!"

"The Divine Dragon spits fire! So powerful! Jordan is doomed this time!"

Jordan was also shocked. He did not expect the horned dragon to have the ability to attack with fire. Moreover, this raging fire was attacking him very fiercely.

Jordan dodged quickly, but his body was too small compared to the horned dragon. Moreover, the horned dragon was in the sky while Jordan was on the ground.

It was like a person teasing an ant on the table. No matter how you ran, you would not be able to escape.

"Damn it!"

Jordan was a little frustrated. He did not expect that the dragon created by Mike Baylor was really as the legends said. It could spit fire and he believed that it could spit water too.

"No, this dragon is too powerful. I can't wait for death. I have to take the initiative to attack!"

Jordan took out the Iron Man Armor and forcefully took a flaming attack from the horned dragon. Then, he soared into the sky. He was at the same height as the golden-horned dragon.

Seeing that Jordan had also flown up, Mike Baylor flew down directly and stood beside the Moon Maiden and Jumo Kasyapa.

Mike Baylor smiled and said, "It doesn't seem wise for this kid to fight my Horned Dragon in the sky."

Jumo Kasyapa also said, "Amitabha. Deity Jordan has yet to awaken his flying ability. I don't know how long he can last with his technological armor."

Mike Baylor snorted. "Two more spits of fire and his armor will turn to ash."

The Moon Maiden looked at Jordan in the sky. "He should know that he's no match for him in the sky. Why do I feel that he has other motives?"

The moon maiden's guess was correct. Jordan had flown up specifically not to fight the golden-horned dragon in the sky, but to seal the horned dragon's "mouth"!

Since the golden-horned dragon could spit fire, Jordan would seal its mouth directly!

Jordan took the initiative to fly in front of the golden-horned dragon to lure it to attack.

As expected, the golden-horned dragon was tricked. It immediately opened its mouth and prepared to attack Jordan again.

However, the moment the golden-horned dragon opened its mouth, Jordan was the first to create something out of nothing. He created piles of rocks the size of the dragon's mouth and stuffed them into the horned dragon's mouth!

"Oh sh*t!"

Mike Baylor, who was on the ground, realized what Jordan was thinking.

Bang bang bang bang bang bang!

Incomparably hard rocks were stuffed into the golden-horned dragon's mouth one after another.

Other than rocks, Jordan had also conjured a lot of things. Rubber, rotten trees, and poisonous grass. To fill the golden-horned dragon's mouth as quickly as possible, Jordan did not have time to think. He conjured whatever came to mind.

There was even a box of Durex stuffed inside.

Salvatore was also shocked. "Damn! Mr. Jordan is mighty! I saw some familiar things! Can that sort of thing be digested if fed to the horned dragon?"

Rong Bingshao was also dumbfounded. "Jordan really has a hundred ways to deal with the enemy. Thankfully, he didn't use this move against me when he fought me. If he stuffed so many things into my mouth, I would feel worse than dying."

In just a few seconds, Jordan had conjured hundreds of things and stuffed them into the golden-horned dragon's mouth.

The golden-horned dragon was completely unprepared and many things were swallowed.

"Don't eat it!"

Mike Baylor warned the golden-horned dragon, but it was too late.

The huge body of the golden-horned dragon began to sway in the air.

After a few seconds...

Blargh...

The golden-horned dragon actually vomited!

"Damn! The Horned Dragon vomited! F*ck, the smell is so strong, I'm going to vomit too."

"To be able to make such a powerful golden-horned dragon vomit, Jordan is extraordinary!"

At this moment, Mike Baylor did not look too good. The Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa looked impressed. They were both stunned by Jordan.

The Moon Maiden even praised him directly, "Jordan, this young man, always has wild ideas. If it were me, I would never have thought of using this move to deal with the golden-horned dragon."

His incomparably mighty golden-horned dragon had vomited in public, making Mike Baylor feel very embarrassed.

Mike Baylor directly reprimanded, "Don't embarrass me anymore! Use your strength!"

When the golden-horned dragon heard Mike Baylor's order, it pulled itself together. Coupled with Jordan's humiliation just now, it was furious!

The golden-horned dragon danced continuously in the sky. The sky also changed abruptly, and lightning kept appearing.

BOOM!

The golden-horned dragon drew a bolt of lightning and attacked Jordan!

1266 I Can't Lose!

Not only could the golden-horned dragon spit fire, but it could also borrow the power of lightning!

At this point, even the Moon Maiden could not remain calm. Panic appeared on her face. It was obvious that she was also shocked by the dragon's ability.

This was because controlling the power of lightning was something that only the Moon Maiden could do. But now, even Mike Baylor's horned dragon could do it.

At this moment, Mike Baylor had a smug expression on his face. He smiled at the Moon Maiden and said, "Letting my baby use the power of lightning in front of the Moon Maiden is called showing off in front of an expert, right? Hehe, I can't help but feel a little shy!"

The Moon Maiden replied seriously, "You're too humble. The power of the lightning used by your dragon is not inferior to mine. Mike, it seems that your strength has increased again. I'm afraid I'm not your match anymore."

Mike Baylor smiled and said, "You're flattering me by saying that. I know that I can't compete with the Moon Maiden. Hehe, but it's more than enough to deal with someone like Jordan!"

It was obvious that Mike Baylor was still a little afraid of the Moon Maiden. However, he remained disdainful of Jordan.

And now, it was indeed Mike Baylor's golden-horned dragon that had the upper hand.

BOOM!

BOOM!

BOOM!

The golden-horned dragon continued to bombard Jordan with lightning power, causing him to dodge continuously.

"Damn it! Do you think you're the only one who can control the weather? I can do it too!"

Jordan waved his hands as well. Instantly, yellow sand filled the sky!

“Damn it! What the hell is this?!”

On the ground, Mike Baylor and the others could not help but cover their eyes. This was because yellow sand kept pouring in front of them and along with it was the onslaught of a violent wind.

When the Moon Maiden saw that Jordan seemed to be changing the weather as well, she could not help but say, “It seems like controlling the weather is no longer my Moon Maiden’s specialty.”

In the past, only the Moon Maiden could do such a thing. However, now, Mike Baylor’s Horned Dragon could do it, and so could Jordan.

When Salvatore saw that Jordan had made something out of nothing again, turning the scene into a sand dune, he cheered, “Mr. Jordan, the sand this time doesn’t feel as fierce as before!”

Park Sora said as she covered her eyes, “There was background music before, but there’s no background music this time!”

Only then did Salvatore remember that the last time Jordan did this in front of Victoria, he played a pure song.

Salvatore laughed and said, “Hahaha, so it has to be enhanced by BGM. I’ll play it now. What’s that song called again? My English isn’t good. Do you remember?”

Not long after, Salvatore found the song “Liberators” with Park Sora’s help and clicked play.

Salvatore shouted at Jordan, “Mr. Jordan, I played a song for you to liven things up. Can you connect it to a Bluetooth speaker?”

When Jordan heard that, he immediately took out 20 speakers and played the song. As expected, Jordan could not help but think of Victoria after hearing the music. His power instantly elevated a few levels.

“I just got control of the Immortal Lake from Victoria and chased her out. If I lose to Mike Baylor now, she will definitely laugh at me. I can’t lose!”

“Arghhh!”

Jordan roared as well. In an instant, the yellow sand surged even more. A stream of yellow sand swept into the sky like a pillar of light and rushed towards the golden-horned dragon in the sky!

“What the hell?! How did Jordan suddenly become so powerful?!”

Mike Baylor was shocked by Jordan again. He did not know why Jordan was suddenly so motivated.

BOOM!

The yellow sand continuously attacked the golden-horned dragon’s face, especially its eyes.

Roar!

Roar!

The golden-horned dragon also continuously roared, and the entire Immortal Lake became blurry. Be it humans or animals, no one could see clearly.

Jumo Kasyapa said, “It seems that Deity Jordan wants to make the horned dragon unable to see his target. In this way, it won’t be able to attack him with lightning.”

The Moon Maiden couldn’t help but look at Mike Baylor and tease him. “When you created this dragon, did you make sure its vision was good?”

Under such a sandstorm, the golden-horned dragon wasn’t able to gauge Jordan’s position.

BOOM!

BOOM!

Under such circumstances, the golden-horned dragon could only attack aimlessly in hopes it would get its target.

“Ah!”

One of the mutants was injured by the golden-horned dragon’s lightning and immediately spat out blood.

“Ah!”

Park Sora also saw a bolt of lightning coming toward her. Rong Bingshao instantly used his lightning speed to take her away, allowing her to escape.

Even Mike Baylor and the other two were not spared, so the three of them had already flown away.

The Moon Maiden said, "That dragon of yours has gone crazy. Does it want to blast everyone here to death?"

Mike Baylor was also embarrassed. He had agreed to deal with Jordan alone, but now, the golden-horned dragon was attacking aimlessly and had injured many innocent people.

"It's all Jordan's fault. Jordan insisted on using such an improper method and angered my Horned Dragon. I can't guarantee that Jordan's life will not be in danger next!"

When Mike Baylor said this, the Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa became nervous.

Jiumo Kasyapa said, "Amitabha. Since the master plan must involve Deity Jordan, nothing must happen to him."

All three of them looked at Jordan.

Jordan planned to take advantage of the chaos and fly over to blind the horned dragon. However, the horned dragon seemed to be able to smell his aura. Once Jordan approached, the horned dragon would immediately spit fire to attack. Coupled with his continuous lightning attacks, Jordan had nowhere to hide.

"No, I still can't fight. I have to change places."

Jordan was worried that the Horned Dragon would accidentally hurt his subordinates when he heard the wails coming from beside him. Therefore, Jordan controlled his armor and flew out.

"Chase after him!"

Seeing that Jordan was about to escape, Mike Baylor immediately ordered the golden-horned dragon.

The golden-horned dragon immediately flew up and chased after Jordan in the sky.

Mike Baylor, Jiumo Kasyapa, and Moon Maiden, the three golden mutants, also flew up and chased after him.

"Get on the plane! Get on the plane!"

When Salvatore and the others saw that, they were worried about Jordan's safety and immediately took a plane to chase after him.

BOOM!

BOOM!

Along the way, the golden-horned dragon kept attacking Jordan. Parts of Jordan's armor were damaged.

"This isn't a solution. I'm no match for him in the sky. I have to find a place that's not suitable for him to fight."

As Jordan flew, he noticed a mountain range below. He immediately dived down.

Once he reached the bottom of a mountain, he blasted a hole and hid inside.

Mike Baylor and the other two flew very quickly and followed closely. They saw Jordan hiding in a cave.

The Moon Maiden praised, "Jordan is very smart. Whether he fights in the sky or the water, Jordan is no match for the horned dragon. In the narrow space at the foot of the mountain, Jordan can dodge the horned dragon's attack."

However, Mike Baylor said disdainfully, "He's just a coward. When he chose to hide in such a place, he already lost!"

After Jordan hid in the cave, the golden-horned dragon lost its target and kept attacking the mountain peak where Jordan had disappeared.

However, these mountains that had stood for thousands of years were not so fragile. They would not disappear easily like bubbles.

When Mike Baylor saw that, he thought to himself that not only could his golden-horned dragon not completely destroy the mountains, but even if it could shatter these mountains and press these rocks on Jordan, he firmly believed that Jordan would not die under these rocks. Instead, it would be even harder to find him.

Mike Baylor thought that Jordan was acting shamelessly and did not dare to come out now. On the other hand, he wanted to let the Horned Dragon chase after him and defeat Jordan directly to end the battle.

"Big baby, go down and find him!"

Mike Baylor shouted at the golden-horned dragon.

After the golden-horned dragon heard the order, it stopped attacking and slowly flew down.

The golden-horned dragon was not unaccustomed to being on land. Even though the sky and sea were the areas where it was most adept at fighting, with its terrifying size and power, it was the overlord of the land.

At that moment, Jordan already knew that the golden-horned dragon had come down to look for him. Hiding in the cave, he began to seriously think of a countermeasure.

“With my current abilities, it’s impossible for me to kill this dragon in a short period. Its defense and endurance are too strong. It’s much stronger than a golden mutant like me.”

Without the help of weapons, humans could not compare to animals in terms of physical strength.

Previously, no one had been able to kill a tiger alone. Now, with Mirakuru’s serum and mutant talent, some people could defeat these ferocious beasts.

But what if these ferocious beasts also evolved further?

Just like the golden-horned dragon in front of him. If a golden mutant was simply competing with it in terms of endurance and strength, he would not be able to compare at all.

Although Jordan could create something out of nothing, just as Mike Baylor had said, he could not conjure everything. His current attack ability was still very limited, so he could not kill the golden-horned dragon in one strike.

“If I want to defeat the golden-horned dragon, why don’t I create a golden-horned dragon too?”

Jordan could create most of the things he had seen, including animals. Therefore, he thought that if he could create an identical horned dragon, he could let this horned dragon fight it.

Just as Jordan had the thought of trying, a buzzing sound sounded in his head.

“This won’t do. This golden-horned dragon’s cultivation level is too high. It can spit fire and also borrow the power of lightning. I can’t create something exactly like it. If I can really create it, I still shouldn’t do it! Because Mike Baylor can control all animals. If I transform into another horned dragon, it will be a huge gift to him!”

Jordan immediately rejected the idea as soon as he had it.

Roar!

Jordan heard the roar that was getting closer and closer outside the cave. Tremors filled the cave.

There wasn’t much time to think. He had to think of a countermeasure as soon as possible!

“I got it! I can still turn into a horned dragon to deal with it, but it might not have to be real! I can create a fake one!”

Jordan suddenly thought of using a fake horned dragon to attract the golden-horned dragon’s attention before launching a surprise attack on it!

“Looks like I have to calm this horned dragon down first.”

Many of Mike Baylor’s mythical beasts were created by inspiration from the Classic of Mountains and Seas. Coincidentally, Jordan had also read the Classic of Mountains and Seas some time ago.

Jordan knew the environment that Horned Dragon liked very well.

Outside the cave.

“That’s right, it’s the cave in front. Hurry up and find him!” Mike Baylor urged the golden-horned dragon.

The golden-horned dragon strode forward step by step with its thick dragon claws.

All of a sudden, the golden-horned dragon and Mike Baylor were stunned.

They saw that the environment in front of them had suddenly changed.

What had once been a bare mountain range was now a green jungle. The sparkling lake water, the light from the sky shining through the gaps in the tall trees, the sound of birdsong, and the occasional cute rabbit running.

“This is...”

When Mike Baylor, Moon Maiden, and Jumo Kasyapa saw this, they were all stunned.

They knew that the environment would not change for no reason. This must be Jordan’s masterpiece!

Mike Baylor had a bad premonition, “Damn it, what the hell is this brat doing again! The environment he arranged is very similar to the place where the golden-horned dragon usually stays... How did he know what kind of environment my horned dragon usually lives in!”

The Moon Maiden and Jumo Kasyapa became even more curious and watched with anticipation.

After the golden-horned dragon stepped into this environment, the anger on its body gradually dissipated and gradually became gentle. This was because this place was like its home. It was as if it had returned home.

Just like that, the golden-horned dragon walked forward step by step. When it suddenly arrived at a place, it stopped moving completely. The entire dragon was stunned!

A horned dragon suddenly appeared in front of him! And it was purple!

The purple-horned dragon was slightly smaller than the golden-horned dragon, but they were about the same, and their shapes were almost identical. However, the purple-horned dragon looked more delicate, and it was clearly a female.

When the golden-horned dragon saw the purple-horned dragon, it drooled on the spot and its entire body became even more restless!

Moreover, it made a whimpering sound!

This was what the horned dragon would do when it wanted to seek something!

“No! This isn’t a real horned dragon. This is a holographic projection. This is fake!”

Mike Baylor suddenly panicked. He originally thought that it was a real dragon, but he could control all the animals in the world, and his perception of animals was extraordinary. He immediately saw that it was a holographic projection that was fake. It was not real at all.

However, the golden-horned dragon did not have such judgment, nor did it know what a holographic projection was. When it saw it, it believed that the purple-horned dragon in front of it really existed!

Ever since the golden-horned dragon was created, it had never encountered its own kind. Moreover, its age had long reached the point where it had beastly desires.

Now that he saw the beautiful purple-horned dragon, he could not control himself at all.

“That’s fake. Don’t get close! Don’t get close!”

Mike Baylor kept reminding the golden-horned dragon. However, at this moment, the golden-horned dragon was completely focused on the purple-horned dragon and completely ignored Mike Baylor’s words.

The golden-horned dragon approached the purple-horned dragon step by step.

When the purple-horned dragon saw the golden-horned dragon approaching, it slowly lay on the ground and made a seductive expression.

Unable to control itself, the golden-horned dragon obediently lay on the ground like a purple-horned dragon and gazed at it affectionately.

“Damn it! Big baby, get up! Get up!”

Mike Baylor knew that his Horned Dragon was in great danger and kept reminding him.

However, the golden-horned dragon, who was deeply in love, could not listen to anyone’s orders.

At this moment, Jordan suddenly appeared!

Just as the golden-horned dragon was attracted by the opposite sex and was tempted, Jordan suddenly appeared!

Jordan flew to the front of the golden-horned dragon’s head and faced the huge eye that was as dazzling as an alien planet. He attacked immediately!

Ten thousand arrows were fired at the same time!

Jordan conjured countless poisonous silver needles and shot them all at one of the golden-horned dragon’s eyes.

Not only did Jordan shoot ten thousand arrows at the same time, but he also created many chemical products that were harmful to the eyes, such as industrial alcohol, methanol, and so on. He liberally doused the combination of chemicals all over the golden-horned dragon.

“No!”

In the distance, Mike Baylor cried out in pain when he saw this scene.

Howl!

Howl!

When the golden-horned dragon’s eyes encountered an intense attack, it wailed continuously. Its eyes that were attacked instantly bled and festered. It seemed like it was blind!

Jordan wanted to take this opportunity to blind the golden-horned dragon’s other eye. As long as the dragon was blind, it would only be a matter of time before it was eliminated no matter how strong its strength and defense were!

However, before Jordan could do anything, the golden-horned dragon’s huge tail suddenly swung over.

BANG!

The dragon's tail hit Jordan's body and sent him flying dozens of meters away in his armor.

"Damn it, I almost died!"

If he missed this great opportunity, with the golden-horned dragon's intelligence, he probably wouldn't fall for it again.

Roar!

Roar!

Having lost one eye, the golden-horned dragon entered a berserk state. It destroyed everything in front of it and attacked Jordan continuously. Its posture was wild and aggressive.

"Ah! My horned dragon is blind in one eye! No!!"

When Mike Baylor saw this scene, his heart ached so much that he was about to cry. To him, the golden-horned dragon was like his son. Now that he saw the golden-horned dragon injured, his heart ached as if his son had been blinded.

The Moon Maiden could not help but be shocked by Jordan when she saw that. She did not expect Jordan to be able to fight the golden-horned dragon for so long and even injure it.

It was actually a good thing for the Moon Maiden that this terrifying golden-horned dragon had lost an eye.

The Moon Maiden looked at Mike Baylor in a relaxed tone. "You should remind your dragon that it's completely crazy now. Don't let it really kill Jordan. Otherwise, our plan will be ruined."

After realizing that Jordan was so powerful, how could Mike Baylor let his mythical beast hold back? He was already blind in one eye. If he held back, would he not die in Jordan's hands?

Mike Baylor comforted the golden-horned dragon as he said to it, "Beat him up. He's right in front of you. Don't let him go!"

With that, the golden-horned dragon charged at Jordan, who was teasing it, like a madman. It kept spitting fire and throwing electric bolts.

The entire mountain shook because of it.

“Damn it!”

When Jordan saw that, he knew that there was no way to get close now. He could only quickly conjure his armor and fly out to escape.

On the other hand, the golden-horned dragon that had turned into a one-eyed dragon had been chasing after Jordan relentlessly.

Jordan and the golden-horned dragon fought from the Immortal Lake to the Sapu Sacred Mountain’s sacred lake, then from the sacred lake to the Immortal Lake.

Mike Baylor and the other two, as well as Salvatore and the Mutant Tribe, followed along.

...

Five hours later.

Jordan and the golden-horned dragon fought for a full five hours, but it was still a draw.

When he arrived at the Immortal Lake again, Jordan stood by the lake, panting. He could not even stand steadily.

Similarly, the golden-horned dragon also expended a lot of energy due to its injuries. Although it was flying in the air, it could no longer fly too high.

In the distance, everyone could not help but sigh when they saw this scene.

“It’s not easy for Chief Jordan. He fought with this golden-horned dragon for five hours! Moreover, he blinded one of its eyes!”

“Damn, it’s a pity that he still has to lose in the end. Jordan no longer has any stamina. He can’t even stand steadily. Moreover, if it weren’t for the fact that he has various methods and keeps teasing this dragon, I’m afraid Jordan would have lost long ago!”

“You can’t say that. When humans fight animals, of course they have to use their brains. Although Chief Jordan has lost his stamina, the dragon is seriously injured. Moreover, I’m afraid his stamina is running out.”

Listening to everyone’s analysis, Randall clenched his fists when he saw that Jordan could fight the golden-horned dragon for five hours without dying.

“How is this brat so strong!”

At that moment, Jordan had won Randall’s respect. However, Randall did not want Jordan to win.

Randall walked towards Mike Baylor, who had a worried look on his face, and said, "Master, that golden-horned dragon looks a little tired. Why don't you let your other two ferocious beasts come out and fight?"

Mike Baylor looked at Randall and asked in confusion, "Oh?"

Randall smiled. "Have you forgotten? The last time I came, I brought the mutated black tiger and mutated gorilla from you. They're at the Immortal Lake now."

Jordan was so weak that it was difficult for him to even stand. On the other hand, the mutated gorilla was equivalent to a purple mutant. If the two ferocious beasts attacked Jordan at this moment, Jordan would probably find it difficult to withstand three ferocious beasts at the same time!

Park Sora immediately stood up. "How can you do this? We agreed to fight one-on-one! You're not allowed to call on anything else!"

Randall looked at Park Sora and said with a scornful smile, "Haha, little girl, you don't know the rules. Before the competition, we agreed on a one-on-one fight. However, it was a one-on-one fight between my master and Jordan. It's not a one-on-one fight between the golden-horned dragon and Jordan!

"The golden-horned dragon is only one of my master's creations. Just like how Jordan can conjure many creations. The mutated black tiger and mutated gorilla are also ferocious beasts trained by my master. They're also my master's creations. Why can't he use them?"

Mike Baylor narrowed his eyes. Initially, he wanted the golden-horned dragon to kill Jordan alone. He did not expect it to be so difficult. He did not want to waste any more time.

Mike Baylor immediately whistled and summoned the imprisoned mutated black tiger and mutated gorilla over.

Roar!

Roar!

The mutated black tiger and mutated gorilla ran over excitedly. When they saw their master, Mike Baylor, they were extremely excited.

Mike Baylor stroked them affectionately and said, "Go and end this battle!"

Previously, the mutated black tiger and mutated gorilla did not dare to attack Jordan. However, now, with their master's support, their eyes were filled with killing intent when they faced Jordan again!

Jordan clenched his fists tightly and could not stop trembling. He was afraid that he would not be able to defeat the combined attacks of the golden-horned dragon, the mutated gorilla, and the mutated tiger!

Just as the mutated black tiger and gorilla were about to attack Jordan, a bolt of lightning that was much sharper than before suddenly descended from the sky and hit the road in front of the mutated black tiger and gorilla.

Even the golden-horned dragon in the sky was shocked.

This bolt of lightning clearly didn't come from the exhausted golden-horned dragon but from the Moon Maiden.

Stepping forward, the Moon Maiden blocked the path of the mutant black tiger and gorilla, not to interfere in the battle, but to announce the result. She walked slowly to Jordan and said softly, "Jordan, you've done your best. Let's end this here. I don't want to see you lose to a group of low-level animals in the end."

The reason why the Moon Maiden attacked was to let Jordan lose in a dignified manner. She did not want Jordan to lose to a mere tiger and gorilla.

Jordan's performance with the golden-horned dragon had already won her respect.

Although Jordan was at his wit's end, he still said stubbornly, "I can't let the Immortal Lake fall into his hands! I can still fight!"

The Moon Maiden, who had always been arrogant, extended her fair hand and placed it gently on Jordan's shoulder.

"We are the same in that this is our territory. Like you, I won't allow others to ruin this sacred land of ours. Mike won't do anything rash. In the past few years, Mike has always been in charge of Immortal Lake. Wasn't the country fine?"

The Moon Maiden's words made Jordan gradually give up. Although he was unwilling, Jordan could only admit defeat.

After more than ten seconds, Jordan said slowly, "Alright, I admit defeat."

Salvatore, Park Sora, and the others felt extremely bitter when they heard those words. Park Sora even ran over to hug Jordan and comfort him.

The once invincible God of War had actually lost today!

Randall, on the other hand, felt that his master had avenged him. He said loudly, "Jordan, now you finally know that there's always someone better than you! You ignorant brat! You'll have to give up the Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe today!"

As he spoke, Randall looked at the Mutant Tribe members and asked, "As everyone can see, Jordan lost to my master. Now, I announce that the Mutant Tribe and the Immortal Lake belong to my master, Mike Baylor! Are you guys going to continue following Jordan, or are you planning to follow my master like me?"

The members of the Mutant Tribe were also a little flustered. They had just been shocked by Jordan's golden talent. Now, they had seen the terrifying golden-horned dragon.

As the saying went, the winner takes all. No matter how strong Jordan was, he still lost to Mike Baylor.

Therefore, all the members of the Mutant Tribe knelt down to Mike Baylor. "We are willing to follow Chief Mike Baylor!"

Randall smiled smugly. Meanwhile, Mike Baylor looked down at them as if they were ants and didn't care if they submitted to him.

At that moment, Randall continued to mock Jordan, "Loser, since you've lost, why aren't you leaving? Are you planning to recuperate here? We won't provide you with divine water!"

Jordan glared at Randall and left without saying anything more.

Many members of the Mutant Tribe snickered as they watched Jordan and the others leave.

"Haha, Jordan is finally gone. I can tear the letter of repentance apart now."

"That's right. Haha, I'll be able to live a happy life again in the future. It's so tiring to work under Jordan. He even talked so much about justice previously. Haha, what a joke."

"Justice, justice, f*cking justice!"

Some people even imitated Jordan's tone when he lectured the mutants to mock him.

"You bunch of dogs..."

Salvatore could not help but want to settle scores with this group of mutants.

"Salvatore, let's go!"

However, Jordan turned a deaf ear to it and let Salvatore leave.

Jordan was in a bad state. His stamina had been completely exhausted by the golden-horned dragon, so it was not suitable for him to fight anymore.

When they arrived in front of the plane, a figure in a red monk robe suddenly appeared in front of Jordan and the others.

“F*ck!”

Salvatore shouted. Jordan and the others were shocked too.

There was originally no one in front of them, but a figure suddenly appeared, and this person was the golden mutant Jiumo Kasyapa who was beside them just now.

Park Sora said, “Why are you like a ghost, monk? You come and go like a ghost. You scared me to death!”

Jiumo Kasyapa quickly put his hands together and bowed his head. “I apologize for disturbing Miss Park.”

Jordan said immediately, “Sora, don’t be rude to Master Jiumo.”

Jiumo Kasyapa was a golden mutant. He was on the same level as Jordan, so he should be respected.

Subsequently, Jordan looked at Jiumo Kasyapa, “Master Jiumo, why are you looking for me?”

Jiumo Kasyapa also looked at Jordan very respectfully, “The battle between Deity Jordan and the golden-horned dragon just now has broadened my horizons! Deity Jordan created something out of nothing and used it to perfection. His offense and defense can be said to be perfect. I’m impressed!”

Park Sora and the others were a little unhappy that Jordan had lost the competition. They said, “Are you saying these words to mock Jordan on purpose?”

Jiumo Kasyapa quickly explained, “I definitely don’t mean that! I only admire and envy Deity Jordan’s strength. Deity Jordan fought with Mr. Mike’s golden-horned dragon for five hours and injured the golden-horned dragon. He even blinded one of its eyes. If it were me, I would probably only be able to escape. If I were to fight it head-on, I would die at the hands of this golden-horned dragon in less than ten seconds.”

Hearing what the other golden mutant said, everyone was happy for Jordan. This proved that Jordan was not bad at all! It was not embarrassing to lose!

Although Mike Baylor had obtained his talent earlier than him and it was reasonable for him to lose, Jordan still could not accept it.

Jordan said expressionlessly, “Thank you for your consolation, Master Jiumo. I have nothing to say about losing to Mike Baylor today, but one day, I will challenge him again and win back what I lost today. Master Jiumo, I am going back now. We will meet again if fate allows.”

Jiumo Kasyapa said, “Amitabha. With such a fighting spirit, Deity Jordan will definitely improve in the future! I wonder if I can exchange contact information with Deity Jordan. If you need my help in the future, you can look for me directly.”

Jordan was stunned. It turned out that Jiumo Kasyapa was here to ask for his contact information. He did not expect the golden mutant to ask for a means to communicate.

“Sure.”

With that, Jordan and Jiumo Kasyapa exchanged phone numbers, Telegram accounts and other contact information. Jiumo Kasyapa said, “Then I won’t disturb Deity Jordan anymore. Goodbye, everyone.”

Jiumo Kasyapa put his hands together and disappeared in an instant, leaving only a weak circle of light.

Park Sora said, “This monk’s talent is really fun. He left just like that. I want it too!”

Rong Bingshao was also envious. “This is much better than my Lightning Speed!”

Jordan looked at the weak halo left behind by Jiumo Kasyapa and sighed in his heart.

“What a powerful ability!”

1270 Randall’s Suggestion!

If he were to have this ability, he could teleport across regions and instantly reach all the places he had been to. He could go wherever he wanted.

To Jordan, this was a very powerful and terrifying ability!

Although this was indeed a godly escape skill as Jiumo Kasyapa had said, Jordan did not think it could only be used to run away.

If it was Jordan, he could also use it to attack!

He could instantly arrive behind the enemy and attack them when they were not paying attention!

Perhaps during a battle, the enemy might be on guard and not leave his back to him.

But what about when he slept?

Humans had to sleep, and the golden mutant was no exception. If he suddenly teleported to the other party's residence when he was resting, wouldn't it be easy to kill him?

"This monk must not be provoked!"

Jordan thought to himself.

Fortunately, Jiumo Kasyapa was friendly enough to Jordan. The two of them should not become enemies.

...

Jiumo Kasyapa quickly returned to his original position and appeared in front of the Moon Maiden again.

The Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor, these two old friends, were already used to Jiumo Kasyapa's sudden arrival.

Mike Baylor walked over with a worried expression. "I have to treat my big baby first. Wait in the VIP room. I'll entertain you later."

The Moon Maiden said, "No need, I'll be going also. I don't really like crowded places."

Mike Baylor was in a hurry to treat the golden-horned dragon, so he did not force them to stay. "Alright, I'll look for you when I have time."

Then, without any more pleasantries, he left with the golden-horned dragon.

Jiumo Kasyapa said respectfully, "Moon Maiden, let me see you off."

Jiumo Kasyapa accompanied the Moon Maiden out of the Immortal Lake.

The Moon Maiden asked as she walked, "Kasyapa, what do you think of Jordan's strength?"

Jiumo Kasyapa said, "Deity Jordan's strength is amazing. He uses the ability to create something out of nothing to perfection. In time, if he can produce something more powerful, I'm afraid he won't be able to find an opponent in a one-on-one fight!"

The Moon Maiden nodded and continued to ask, "Then do you think he used his full strength in that battle just now?"

Jiumo Kasyapa looked puzzled. "Did he not? Deity Jordan seemed to be at the end of his rope."

The Moon Maiden smiled. "If he was really at the end of his rope, he would have lost to the golden-horned dragon long ago. It's impossible for him to be in a stalemate for so long. Not only does he hate Mike Baylor, but he also suspects the two of us and thinks that we're trying to cheat him of his golden bloodline. With how cautious he has been in the past, I don't think he can show all his strength in front of the three of us."

Jiumo Kasyapa put his hands together and said, "Thank you for your advice, Moon Maiden. This little monk is slow-witted and didn't think of this."

The Moon Maiden looked at Jiumo Kasyapa meaningfully. "A stupid person can't become the famous Buddhist master in the country."

"I'm leaving. You don't have to send me off. Let's wait for the day Jordan comprehends it. I hope it won't be too far away."

With that, the Moon Maiden flew into the air like a white crane and drifted away.

...

Soon, the night deepened.

After several hours of treatment, Mike Baylor finally returned to the luxurious residence that Randall had arranged for him.

"Master, it's been hard on you. Please sit down. I made your favorite latte for you."

Randall quickly became attentive.

Mike Baylor took a sip of coffee and could not help but vent, "Jordan, that brat. Didn't he just become a golden mutant? How can he be so strong? He actually injured my golden-horned dragon to this extent and blinded his eyes! How despicable!"

Clearly, Mike Baylor did not expect his golden-horned dragon to be injured so badly when fighting Jordan.

Randall asked with concern, "Can't its eyes be cured?"

Mike Baylor said, "There's no way to cure it for now. I'm afraid it'll take a long time."

Randall was also heartbroken. "This brat is despicable! He used despicable methods to hurt your beloved pet, Master! However, Master, your horned dragon showed its might today and defeated Jordan. Jordan is probably vomiting blood at home now!"

Seeing that Mike Baylor was unmoved, Randall continued, "Um, Master, I accidentally overheard your conversation with Jordan and the other two golden mutants in the room during the day."

Mike Baylor raised his eyebrows as he held his coffee cup and said, "Oh? It doesn't matter if you overhear me. You're my apprentice. I was going to tell you anyway. In fact, I should have told you long ago that I needed a golden mutant. That way, you wouldn't have let your nephew off. He would have become a golden mutant long ago."

Randall was puzzled. "Can we really summon the goddess if we gather five golden mutants? Could it be a demon? I think your abilities are already very strong now. There's no need to take the risk."

Mike Baylor smiled. "You're a black-level, so of course you think that gold-level mutants are enough. Just like some people, with a monthly salary of $3,000, they will think about the day their monthly salary reaches $30,000. However, when their monthly salary reaches $30,000, they will think about a monthly salary of $300,000. Even if their monthly salary is $3,000,000, they won't be satisfied after a long time."

Randall nodded. He naturally knew about the greed within the human heart.

Mike Baylor continued, "I've already stayed in the ranks of the golden mutants for too long. My current abilities can no longer satisfy me. I must improve further! I can feel that the Goddess we will awaken is the source of our abilities. As long as we are the ones to wake her up, she definitely won't harm us because there's no need. Compared to her, we're like stars among the sun and moon. We can't be a threat to her at all.

"I have a feeling that after we awaken her, she will give us even more powerful abilities. Moreover, not only us golden mutants have a chance, but you low-level mutants also have a chance. Perhaps it will be a reshuffle. At that time, the abilities you obtain at the black level might not be inferior to mine!"

Hearing this, Randall was also excited. He had always been dissatisfied with the fact that he was only at the black level, let alone have a useless ability. If the cards could be reshuffled, Randall also hoped to draw a better skill and change his life!

Randall hurriedly knelt on the ground. "Your disciple will definitely die ten thousand times to help his master fulfill this wish! I will help you gather the five golden mutants and awaken the Goddess of the Immortal Lake!"

At this moment, Mike Baylor sighed. "Sigh, this could have been done now. Although we only have four golden mutants, we can create a golden mutant from the purple mutants. Unfortunately, your nephew thinks that we're coveting his golden bloodline and refuses to agree. This just infuriates me!"

Randall gritted his teeth as well. "Jordan really doesn't know what's good for him! It's a blessing for him, but he's so suspicious! He's really judging a gentleman with his own narrow-mindedness!"

After some thought, a smile suddenly appeared on his face.

“Master, I’ve thought of someone. Perhaps she can convince Jordan!”

Hearing Randall’s words, Mike Baylor immediately became excited. “Who?”

“Victoria!”

Randall continued, “Victoria is a purple mutant, and she’s undoubtedly a very ambitious woman. If she has the chance to become a golden mutant, she’ll do anything.

“Jordan and Victoria have a very deep relationship. The two of them have been in love for many years. Although they’ve broken up now, I can tell that their feelings for each other have not changed, especially since Jordan owes Victoria a lot. If Victoria comes forward to persuade Jordan, perhaps Jordan will agree! However, in that case, the purple mutant candidate for the golden mutant can only be Victoria.”

Randall was worried that Mike Baylor already had other purple mutant candidates.

Mike Baylor waved his hand and said, “It doesn’t matter. I don’t care who becomes the next golden mutant. I just want to gather five as soon as possible. Yes, you’re right. Victoria is a purple mutant and Jordan’s old lover. Jordan seems to be a very stubborn person when it comes to relationships. Men can’t convince him, but perhaps women can... Alright, go and do this. Talk to that pretty woman of yours and ask her to persuade Jordan to see if it can work.”

However, this time, Randall was not in a hurry to accept his master’s order.

Randall thought for a bit and said, “Master, why don’t you go find Victoria yourself?”

Mike Baylor was stunned. This was the first time Randall had disobeyed his order. “What? You’re unwilling to go?”

Randall said, “Of course I wouldn’t dare to disobey Master’s orders. However, since Victoria is also part of Master’s grand plan and might become a noble golden mutant in the future, I’m not suitable to see her again.

“Master, this woman, Victoria, is the best among the women in our country. Not only is she beautiful and elegant, but she’s also like a famous tea. The more one tastes it, the more flavorful it is. People want to have it even after getting it once. When Victoria becomes a golden mutant, you will be the only one qualified to have such a noble woman.”

Randall lowered his head and did not look directly at Mike Baylor. His words clearly meant that he wanted to offer Victoria to Mike Baylor.

Mike Baylor smiled. He naturally understood what Randall was implying. “Victoria is your wife, and I am your master. It’s not good to steal someone’s love, right? If the Moon Maiden and the big-eared monk find out, I don't know what they would say about me."

Randall quickly said, "No, no, no. Victoria has never been my wife. She only loves Jordan and has only been with him. My wedding with Victoria was ruined by Jordan. It was not acknowledged at all. I've always had a low-level relationship with her. The next time I see Moon Maiden and Master Jumo, I'll take the initiative to explain this to them."

Randall knew that Mike Baylor still cared about his reputation and did not want Mike Baylor to have any worries.

Mike Baylor said, "Victoria is not your wife, but Jordan's ex-wife. Jordan and I are both golden mutants and part of the master plan. We're like teammates. It's not good for me to look for his ex-wife like this, right?"

It could be seen that although Mike Baylor was not afraid of Jordan, he was afraid of rumors. It was apparent that he cared very much about legitimacy and reputation.

Randall said, "Master, I forgot to tell you that Victoria was expelled from the Mutant Tribe by Jordan earlier. When she left the Immortal Lake, she took your winged bird, Irene! This bad woman stole your treasure. It's reasonable for you to ask her for it back!"

Mike Baylor seemed to be nervous. "What? Irene was taken away by Victoria? Damn it, I told you to take good care of it. Irene is a gift I prepared for the Goddess of Immortal Lake. If anything happens to it, I won't let you off!"

Randall was scared on the spot. No wonder Mike Baylor spent so much effort to tame an animal that only had looks but no combat power. It turned out that it was dedicated to the future Goddess of the Immortal Lake.

Randall immediately knelt and apologized, "I'm sorry, Master! I... I didn't expect Victoria to be so shameless. She cut ties with me and still took the gift I gave her. Sigh, women are like this. Even if they break up, they won't return what a man gave them. Please forgive me."

Mike Baylor coldly snorted and stood up. He looked into the distance with a faint smile on his face. "It seems like I really have to personally find this woman, Victoria. Victoria, do you have the honor of becoming the next golden mutant?"

...

The capital.

After Jordan returned to the capital, he came home to reunite with Lauren.

Seeing that Jordan was exhausted and covered in injuries, Lauren was very worried.

After resting for a few hours, Jordan's stamina and complexion finally recovered a little.

Jordan hugged Lauren on the sofa and kissed her forehead. "Honey, I won't leave this time. I'll stay at home with you until our baby is born, okay?"

Jordan knew that Lauren had been nervous and worried recently, so he decided to accompany her until she gave birth.

Lauren burrowed her head into Jordan's arms and came out a minute later. "Hubby, I feel so warm being hugged by you like this. It's as if you've healed a hundred years of my trauma."

Jordan did not expect Lauren to give him such a high evaluation. He said gently, "If you like it, I'll hug you tightly every day. Unfortunately, you're pregnant now. When you give birth to our second son, I can hug you even tighter."

Lauren asked Jordan, "Did something happen recently?"

Jordan told Lauren about the Moon Maiden, Mike Baylor, Jumo Kasyapa, and the others.

When Lauren heard this, she quickly said, "Hubby, don't believe them. What awakening the Goddess of the Immortal Lake? I think it's a story made up to cheat you of your golden bloodline. You can't give up your golden bloodline."

Lauren looked worried.

Jordan smiled and said, "Don't worry, Lauren. I'm not stupid. Why would I believe them? However, they're too strong. I can't be too ruthless for the time being. I'll defeat them one by one when I'm stronger!"

Lauren believed in Jordan's strength. Jordan had never lost to anyone since the Eight Great Families.

"How are you and Victoria...?"

Jordan shook his head. "I'm completely done with her. I chased her out of the Mutant Tribe. She said that I've let her down and even complained that she was the one who was captured by Shaun's wife instead of you. Sigh, I didn't expect us to end up like this. We can't even be friends anymore."

Taking Jordan's hand, Lauren said, "Victoria is actually quite pitiful. If she hadn't been captured by Shaun's wife back then and that happened, perhaps everything would be different now. Next time you see her, don't be angry anymore, okay? Even if you can't be lovers, you shouldn't be enemies."

Jordan lifted his head and looked at the chandelier in the living room. He sighed and said, "I'm afraid we won't have the chance to meet again."

Two days later, in a northwestern village not far from Mount Denali, there was a desert with beautiful poplar trees.

There were only a few dozen people in the village, and most of them were old people, but now, there was a beautiful young woman.

It was Victoria.

Victoria was wearing a thin red dress with shoulder-length hair. The wind was strong and messed up her hair. She didn't seem to care about her image and was only wearing a pair of slippers.

She was sitting under a poplar tree with a blue bird.

An old man slowly walked up to her and handed her the food she prepared for the bird. He even asked her what she wanted for lunch.

The people in this village were controlled by Victoria. She wanted to live here quietly for some time without being disturbed.

Victoria gently stroked the bird's beautiful feathers and whispered. "Cherry, you are the only one by my side now. Only you are still willing to accompany me."

Victoria named the bird Cherry.

Two days ago, when Victoria left Immortal Lake, she didn't take the initiative to take it away. Although this bird was a gift from Randall, since Victoria wouldn't be with him in the future, she naturally wouldn't take such a precious gift away.

However, when she left, the bird took the initiative to look for her and refused to leave.

Victoria liked it, so she took it away with her.

The winged bird, Cherry, continued to eat with her head lowered. Victoria looked at its beautiful appearance and liked it more and more.

"Cherry, you're too beautiful. A beautiful baby needs someone to dote on her. I've never been doted on like this, but I'll always protect and love you."

Victoria treated the bird like her own daughter.

However, at this moment, a whirlwind suddenly blew in the sky. There seemed to be a figure flying over quickly.

“Who is it!”

Victoria immediately became alert.

However, sensing that person’s aura, the bird, Cherry, also put down its food excitedly and flew up.

“Cherry, don’t go! It’s dangerous!”

Victoria became nervous after seeing this.

Gradually, Victoria saw that there was indeed a person, and it was a black man. Without a word, she immediately used her Spiritual Energy to control him to prevent him from hurting Cherry.

However, she found that she couldn’t control him mentally!

“How is it that this man is immune as well!”

Victoria had already encountered several people who were immune to her mental control. Grachev, Shirley, Jordan, and even Randall could resist her for a long time.

Now, another one had appeared!

The black figure appeared. He was Mike Baylor.

For the past two days, Mike Baylor had been busy treating the golden-horned dragon. Only then did he have the time to look for Victoria. He could rely on his perception of animals to detect the locations of the bird and Victoria.

He thought that it would take a long time to find her, but he didn’t expect her to be not far from Mount Denali. With Mike Baylor’s flying ability, he quickly found her.

“Oh, my little cutie, there you are.”

Mike Baylor was also very happy to see Irene flying towards him. He propped up his right arm and let the Winged Bird land on his shoulder.

“Let go of Cherry! Don’t hurt her!”

Victoria didn’t know where this black man came from, but she was very brave and fearless.

Mike Baylor slowly landed on the ground with the bird. He glanced at the plainly-dressed Victoria and nodded.

As far as Mike Baylor was concerned, exquisitely dressed women didn't appeal to him. A woman's temperament and train of thought were the most important. Of course, her figure couldn't be bad.

Overall, Mike Baylor's evaluation of Victoria was not bad, but it was not to the point of attracting him.

The only thing that made Mike Baylor feel that Victoria was special was her purple mutant status and the fact that he was Jordan's ex.

Mike Baylor looked at Victoria and smiled. "Cherry? This is the name you gave it? Not bad, I'll accept it."

Victoria angrily shouted. "Release it or I won't be polite to you!"

Mike Baylor smiled. "Save it, Victoria. You're just a purple-colored mutant. Your mental control is useless against me. Also, can't you tell that it was Cherry who took the initiative to look for me? I didn't catch it. You brought the pet that I personally developed and domesticated here. Shouldn't I be the one getting angry?"

Hearing this, Victoria was stunned. "Cherry is your pet? Who... Who are you?"

In the past two days, Victoria also realized that Randall was full of lies. This bird was definitely not his pet. She thought it was the Moon Maiden's, but she did not expect it to be a man.

Mike Baylor did not hide anything from her. "My name is Mike Baylor. Didn't Randall tell you that this bird belongs to his master?"

Victoria was shocked. "You... you are Randall's master?"

Mike Baylor nodded. "That's right. All these years, I've been domesticating pet beasts in the South Pole. The Immortal Lake and the mutants have been handed over to Randall to manage. This kid did a good job. He discovered a purple mutant like you. When I found out that there was someone who could control minds and was a purple-level mutant, I was very happy."

Victoria was a bit shocked. It turned out that all these years, it wasn't Randall who was in charge of the Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe, but this black man in front of her!

Moreover, he already knew that Victoria was a purple mutant.

At the thought of this, Victoria couldn't help but feel a bit more respect for Mike Baylor. "I'm very sorry, Mr. Baylor. Randall previously gave Cherry... to me. He didn't say that this was your pet. I thought it was his, so I brought it with me."

"Now that you've found it, it should return it to its rightful owner. Take it."

Victoria realized that the person in front of her could control the Immortal Lake for so many years and was Randall's master. Moreover, he was immune to her mental control. It was very likely that he was a golden mutant like Jordan!

Thus, she didn't dare to compete with him.

However, Mike Baylor glanced at the bird and raised his arm, allowing it to fly into Victoria's arms.

Victoria was stunned. "You..."

Mike Baylor smiled and said, "I'm very proud of this winged bird. Even a golden mutant like me can't suppress it sometimes. It's very difficult to control. And you, a purple mutant, can actually take it away and make it stay here obediently for two days. This proves that it likes you very much. Although this is a very precious Winged Bird to me, since you two are fated, I'll give it to you!"

To think that Mike Baylor actually gave such a precious winged bird to Victoria!

Victoria was also very flattered. She naturally wanted this bird. She happily hugged Cherry and was too excited to speak.

Choosing to accept the gift, Victoria didn't take back her words and gratefully said, "Thank you! I will take good care of it!"

Looking at Victoria's happy expression, Mike Baylor nodded, turned around, and walked towards the village in front. As he walked, he said, "Victoria, why did you choose to come here? You're so young. Do you also like the quiet and elegant life of an old man?"

In Mike Baylor's opinion, a young and fashionable woman like Victoria would prefer to live in the city.

Victoria hugged the bird and followed Mike Baylor's footsteps. "As my ability is very threatening, I'm forbidden from living in the big city. I'm afraid it will disturb the lives of the citizens. This place is quite good. Cherry and I like it here. Moreover, this place is close to Immortal Lake..."

It could be seen that even though she had left the lake and the Mutant Tribe, she still cared about that place. Thus, she chose a place close to the lake.

For the past two days, she had been fantasizing and looking forward to the day when Jordan would suddenly find this place in the Immortal Lake and come to see her to invite her back to the Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe.

Victoria felt that with such a unique ability, she might really be able to be useful to Jordan in the future.

Mike Baylor said, "You're a purple-level mutant of our Mutant Tribe. Who dares to forbid you? If you're tired of staying here, come back to Immortal Lake. I can give you the position of deputy chief."

Victoria paused and asked. "Back to the lake? Isn't the lake..."

Victoria wanted to say, "Isn't Jordan in charge of the Immortal Lake? Why does Mike Baylor have the right to speak?"

Mike Baylor stopped as well. He turned to look at Victoria and said with a smile, "Hehe, are you trying to say that the Immortal Lake is Jordan's territory? And you're curious as to how I am qualified to invite you? In the past few years, I've always been in control of Immortal Lake. Jordan only took advantage of my absence to defeat Randall and forcefully occupied it for one day. Right now, I have already defeated him and snatched the Immortal Lake back from him."

Victoria's mouth was agape. She couldn't believe that something so important had happened after she left.

Mike Baylor said, "Why? You don't believe that I can defeat Jordan? I have a video here that I can show you."

With a wave of his hand, Mike Baylor created a holographic projection, playing the video he had recorded previously.

On the screen, Jordan looked exhausted. His clothes were tattered as well. He said unwillingly, "Alright, I admit defeat."

After that, it was time for Jordan to lead everyone out of the Immortal Lake.

Victoria covered her mouth. She could not help but feel sorry for Jordan when she saw the scene. At the same time, she was also very surprised that the man in front of her was so powerful that he could defeat the golden mutant Jordan!

Mike Baylor said proudly, "I only sent out one of my golden-horned dragons and easily defeated Jordan. He's not qualified to snatch the Immortal Lake from me!"

Victoria asked with concern, "Is Jordan alright now? Did you hurt him?"

Mike Baylor smiled and said, "You and Jordan are indeed in love! He treated you so badly before and even expelled you from the Mutant Tribe. You don't hate him, but you're still concerned about his safety. Hehe. Don't worry, your sweetheart is fine. We stopped when he admitted defeat and I let him go.

"Although I can easily defeat Jordan, you don't have to worry about me hurting him because we're partners. He's very important to me."

Victoria became curious. "What do you mean? You want to work together?"

Mike Baylor said, "It wouldn't hurt to tell you. You have something to do with it, too."

After that, Mike Baylor told Victoria about their grand plan.

"We need to gather five golden mutants to complete this matter. Including Jordan, there are only four. We're still short of one. Therefore, I want to pick one of the purple mutants. We four golden mutants will each give him a little golden bloodline to help them become a golden mutant. This way, we can carry out our big plan in advance. But your paranoid lover thought that we were lying to get his golden bloodline and refused to agree! How infuriating!"

After listening to Mike Baylor and hearing that they wanted to choose one of the purple mutants to be promoted to gold, Victoria became excited and her heart was restless!

Wasn't she a purple mutant?

If he chose her, she would become a golden mutant!

If she could become a golden mutant... then she would be the most respected person in the world. There was no need to think highly of anyone!

If she could live an honorable life on her own, who would need love and men?!

Victoria yearned for this plan to be implemented, so that she could also have a chance to be selected among the purple mutants.

However, Victoria still spoke up for Jordan, "Mr. Baylor, Jordan has just become a golden mutant. As you said just now, he might not have comprehended what you've comprehended. He's not particularly familiar with you golden mutants. It's understandable that he's so vigilant."

Mike Baylor snorted. "Understand my ass! I can accept it if he's an ordinary person, but he's a deity who can predict the future. What's he afraid of?! Besides, if we really want his golden bloodline, we three golden mutants can kill him in minutes and take his bloodline away. What can he do?"

“Victoria, do you also think that we can’t deal with him, so we teamed up to lie to him?”

Victoria didn’t know how to respond.

“You saw the scene of me defeating Jordan one-on-one. I’ll show you the Moon Maiden’s strength again.”

As he spoke, Mike Baylor played another video in front of Victoria. In the video, the weather was very terrifying. Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled. In this bad weather, there was actually a graceful figure in the sky. It was the Moon Maiden!

“Wow, the Moon Maiden is so beautiful...”

Victoria did not expect the other golden mutant to be so beautiful. She was suddenly worried that Jordan, who had become a golden mutant, would have something to do with this beautiful woman.

Rumble!

Rat-a-tat-tat!

The Moon Maiden guided the lightning down from the sky and bombarded the ground and the lake.

In an instant, the ground shattered and the lake kept erupting. It felt as if the entire world was about to be destroyed by her!

After watching this video, Victoria was stunned. “Oh my god... Such power...”

Mike Baylor smiled and said, “This is a video of her venting her anger when she was in a bad mood. This should not be her strongest ability. Do you think Jordan would be a match for the Moon Maiden?”

1274 World Tour!

Victoria was shocked. Not only was this Moon Maiden beautiful, but she was also so powerful.

In comparison, she really lost to her in all aspects.

Seeing Victoria’s shocked expression, Mike Baylor smiled. “Oh, right, there’s also that big-eared monk. That big-eared monk’s talent is spatial teleportation. He can instantly go anywhere he wants. I’ll call him over and show you his ability.”

With that, Mike Baylor called Jiumo Kasyapa. “Hello, where are you? Come here, I’m here... Forget it, you haven’t been here before. Go to Immortal Lake first. When you reach Immortal Lake, take a plane. This place is not far from Immortal Lake. I'll share the location with you later."

Victoria was listening to Mike Baylor call another golden mutant. She realized that they were both golden mutants, but Mike Baylor was ordering him around as if he was his underling.

It could be seen that Mike Baylor's strength and status should be greater than Jiumo Kasyapa's. As for Jiumo Kasyapa, although he could teleport, he could only go to the places he had been before but this power was already very strong.

Victoria thought that she would have to wait for a long time, but a few minutes later, an unfamiliar figure suddenly appeared.

When Mike Baylor saw Jiumo Kasyapa, he was also surprised. "Oh, so soon? I thought you were coming by plane. Have you been here before?"

Jiumo Kasyapa stepped forward with a smile and said respectfully, "I have been to the poplar forest nearby. When I arrived at the Immortal Lake, I saw that the location was very close, so I directly teleported and walked over."

Mike Baylor nodded. "With your ability, you're indeed efficient. Let me introduce you to the purple mutant, Victoria!

"Victoria, he is one of the golden mutants I told you about, the Indian monk, Jiumo Kasyapa."

When Victoria learned that the other party was a golden mutant, she quickly bowed respectfully, "Hello, Master Jiumo. It is a pleasure to meet you!"

However, to Victoria's surprise, Jiumo Kasyapa also bowed to her, "Miss Victoria is too polite. This monk is also very honored to meet Miss Victoria."

"Don't, don't, don't. I'm just a purple mutant, I'm not worthy of your politeness."

Mike Baylor waved his hand. "Don't mind him, Victoria. He's like that. He treats everyone like that. Let's cut to the chase. I've called the monk over to let you see the strength of this monk! Monk, take us around the world!"

Jiumo Kasyapa naturally acceded to Mike Baylor's request. He looked at Victoria and asked, "I wonder where Miss Victoria wants to go now?"

Victoria was stunned for a moment. After all, this was their first time meeting, how could she have the nerve to make a request?

Victoria nervously replied. "... I'm fine with anything."

Mike Baylor said, "Don't stand on ceremony, Victoria. Just tell the monk where you want to go. He's been to many places around the world. Basically, he knows all the famous places. Tell him one and he'll take you there immediately."

Victoria thought for a bit and didn't stand on ceremony. "The Eiffel Tower!"

Jumo Kasyapa smiled, and a weak circle of light appeared in front of them. Jumo Kasyapa said, "Please follow me."

As they spoke, the three of them stepped into the circle of light. In the next second, the three of them arrived at the world-famous Romantic Holy Land, the Eiffel Tower!

"Oh my God..."

Victoria was astounded. It was still morning just now, but it was almost night by the time she arrived.

Under the Eiffel Tower, countless people were walking.

They had really come from the other side of the world to France in an instant!

Chirp chirp chirp.

Cherry also seemed to like this sudden change of scenery and started dancing excitedly.

"I'm sorry, can I play with Cherry for a while? I'll take a few photos of her. A few minutes will be enough!" Victoria pleaded.

Mike Baylor said, "Sure."

After that, Victoria took the eye-catching bird and excitedly took a photo with it. She was as happy as a little girl. As she was afraid of being noticed by the tourists, she didn't stay for long and soon returned.

Jumo Kasyapa said, "Miss Victoria, please tell us the next place."

Victoria pondered for a bit before asking. "Giethoorn Village. Is that alright?"

Jumo Kasyapa smiled, "Miss Victoria is indeed a person with good taste. I have been to such a beautiful town."

In the next second, the three of them arrived at the beautiful town in Holland and were on a ship!

The three of them rode the wooden boat through the beautiful village. It was almost evening in Holland. Victoria was so excited that she wanted to cry.

“Oh my god, I love this place so much. I came here once ten years ago. I was thinking of coming over to take a boat to experience it again, but I never had the time. I didn’t expect to come here just like that...”

“Thank you, Master Jumo. Thank you, Mr. Baylor.”

Victoria was very grateful and admired the two of them.

Jumo Kasyapa put his hands together. “Amitabha. It is my blessing to be able to help Miss Victoria get what she wants.”

Mike Baylor smiled and said, “Victoria, let the monk go wherever you want to go today. You can go all over the world in a day. Just say the word!”

Hearing this, Victoria couldn’t help but feel a bit touched. When she looked at Mike Baylor, she gradually had a good impression of him. She didn’t expect this unfamiliar man to be willing to do this for her. Only the most romantic boyfriend in the world would be willing to do these things for a woman, right?

Although Victoria and Jordan had been in love for many years, neither of them had the chance to go to many places in the world together.

Although Jordan’s ability was very strong and he was now a golden mutant, it had nothing to do with Victoria. His golden ability had never been used to please Victoria, even if it was just to create a flower to make her happy.

Victoria gently looked at Mike Baylor and said, “I don’t dare to disturb Master Jumo’s precious time. I have already fully appreciated the power of Master Jumo. It is really enviable!”

Mike Baylor smiled and said to Jumo Kasyapa, “Great monk, you can leave now. By the way, don’t tell the Moon Maiden about today’s matter for the time being. I met Victoria purely because she took away my bird. I have no other purpose.”

Jumo Kasyapa said, “I know. I won’t disturb you two anymore. Goodbye.”

With that, Jumo Kasyapa disappeared.

“God, what a magical ability. Mr. Baylor, thank you so much for letting me meet such a person and experience such a magical thing.”

Mike Baylor smiled and the two of them sat on the boat. The wooden boat slowly moved forward on the pure lake water of the village. The villagers on both sides looked at the two of them. Although their skin color was different, everyone felt that they looked like a couple from Victoria's happy smile.

1275 Choose Me?

The two of them were like a couple as they sat leisurely on the boat.

"Now that you've roughly understood the strength of the three of us golden mutants, do you still think that we're coveting Jordan's golden bloodline? If we really want his golden bloodline, do you think the three of us can't take it?"

Victoria knew how powerful the three golden mutants were. Not to mention the three of them working together, even one of them could defeat Jordan.

And Mike Baylor had already done it.

Victoria said, "Mr. Baylor can already defeat Jordan alone. If we include Miss Moon Maiden, who can control the weather, and Master Jumo, who can teleport everywhere at will, even if Jordan can create something out of nothing, he will definitely not be a match for the three of you. That's why I believe that you guys sincerely want to work with Jordan and not lie to him."

Mike Baylor nodded in satisfaction. "Victoria, you're indeed a smart woman. I thought you were all so suspicious, stupid, and ungrateful! We're clearly giving him good fortune, but he suspects that I'm harming him!"

Victoria explained, "Mr. Baylor, you can't blame Jordan. He did experience some bad things in the past few years, so he became very suspicious. Previously, his wife, Hailey, betrayed him during the marriage and even gave birth to a child that wasn't his. Ever since then, he no longer trusted anyone."

Mike Baylor smiled and said, "Oh? There's such a thing? Hehe. But he's a deity and can predict the future. I don't understand why he doesn't dare to cooperate with us even with such an ability. Victoria, you're a smart and capable woman. If your ability reaches the golden level, you will be even more powerful. If you only stay at the purple level, it'll be a pity."

"If you're willing to persuade Jordan to accept my suggestion, I'm willing to promote you as the next golden mutant. We'll turn you from a purple mutant to a golden mutant. Are you willing?"

Hearing this, Victoria was stunned. She could not believe it. "Me? You want to choose me... to be a golden mutant?"

Victoria naturally hoped that she could become a golden mutant. For this, she was willing to give up anything!

Mike Baylor said, "That's right. However, don't think that I'm begging you. If you're unwilling to persuade Jordan, I don't mind. At most, I'll wait for Jordan to comprehend it himself and spend more time. During this period, we might be able to wait for the fifth golden mutant. There's no need to create one through the bloodline transmission method. But you'll forever lose the chance to advance to a golden mutant!"

Victoria quickly replied. "Mr. Baylor, I don't think this way at all. You are giving me a good opportunity, how can I think that you must have me? To be honest, I really want to become a golden mutant. However, I've already broken up with Jordan. He doesn't love me anymore. I'm afraid I don't have the ability to make him change his mind."

Mike Baylor smiled and said, "Victoria, you're underestimating yourself. I heard from Randall that you have a deep relationship with Jordan. He's always been a man who values relationships and loyalty. He once crossed time and space to save you. How could he give up his love for you so easily? I'm sure he'll agree if you step in. But I also know that you've broken up. Perhaps you don't want to see him or beg him. Don't worry, I won't force you. It's up to you."

At this point, Mike Baylor stood up. "I'm going to the nearby area to choose some food and medicinal herbs for my horned dragon. Think about it carefully."

Seeing that Mike Baylor was about to leave, Victoria anxiously stood up and called out to him, "Mr. Baylor!"

"Yes?"

Mike Baylor was about to get up and fly out when he turned around.

Victoria asked. "Mr. Baylor, may I ask why you chose me? I have never met you before and have no relatives or friends. Why did you choose to give me such a great fortune? I believe that any purple mutant would risk their lives to fight for this spot."

Victoria knew that this was a great fortune for her. The improvement from purple to gold was no less than an ordinary person becoming a mutant. It was a qualitative change.

Among the purple mutants, Victoria was not the strongest. Previously, Grachev and Shirley had almost killed her.

"It's just... because I'm Jordan's ex-girlfriend and I can persuade him?" Victoria gently said.

Mike Baylor smiled and joked, "What else could it be? Because you're very beautiful? Are you the number one beauty in the country?"

Victoria lowered her head in embarrassment. "I-I didn't mean that."

Mike Baylor smiled and said, "Victoria, you've always been my subordinate. It wasn't Randall who helped you become a mutant, but me. Your master has always been me. You've always been my subordinate. Since you're under me, I naturally have an obligation to make you stronger."

Victoria couldn't help but feel touched after hearing this. She had always been a woman who lacked love because her father wasn't around. Although her personality was independent, her heart yearned for a man to take care of her and help her.

Even though this was the first time Victoria and Mike Baylor had met, they already had fate. It was because of Mike Baylor that she had the chance to become a mutant.

And now, this strange man actually wanted to help her become the most honorable golden mutant.

He didn't ask for anything from Victoria!

Victoria gratefully bowed to Mike Baylor, "Thank you, Chief!"

When Victoria called out to Chief Mike Baylor, it meant that she had become a member of the Mutant Tribe again.

Victoria was already a purple mutant. It was impossible for her to return to her normal life. Although the world was vast, only the Mutant Tribe could accommodate her. This was also an inevitable choice.

Mike Baylor nodded in satisfaction and walked towards Victoria. He looked at her and gently patted her head with his big hand. Then, he took the initiative to wipe away the tears on her face.

Mike Baylor said, "Yes, not bad. You're indeed a beauty. Your figure is not bad."

Victoria was a little surprised by Mike Baylor's evaluation. Was her figure just alright?

Foreigners always like curvier bodies. Victoria's figure was perfect for American men, but for others, she might be a little thinner, especially her hips.

Mike Baylor said, "This is my communication QR code. Take note and contact me if anything happens. If you encounter any dangers, you can report my name or contact me directly. You're a member of my Mutant Tribe, and I won't let anything happen to you."

Mike Baylor quickly jumped into the air and left.

Victoria, who was left alone on the ship, was still agitated and uneasy.

When Jordan expelled her from the Mutant Tribe, she really felt that she would never be able to go back. She did not expect that she would go back in such a short period of time. Moreover, she was invited back by a stranger she had never met.

Of course, Victoria had been in the business world for so many years. She wasn't stupid. She knew that he was only willing to treat her like this because she was useful.

However, it was precisely because she had been in the business world for many years that she had long felt that it was very normal to be used by others. People should be used when they were alive, and they had to work hard to obtain the capital to be used.

If you didn't have the ability, no one would want to use you, but you would still be abandoned by the world.

It was the same no matter how thrilling the love between her and Jordan was. However, if Victoria had not maintained her figure for so many years and if she was not a beautiful goddess-level woman, would Jordan have fallen in love with her?

Impossible.

Victoria had already seen through many things. However, she still hesitated for a long time when she agreed to persuade Jordan.

...

On the third day.

Victoria remained in this leisurely and beautiful village. She stroked the bird's wings with her slender hand and asked.

"Cherry, do you think I should look for Jordan?"

When Cherry heard this, she flew away impatiently.

This was the umpteenth time Victoria had asked this question. An animal like it was tired of hearing it. If it could speak, it would have answered long ago.

"Cherry, don't fly around. Don't go to crowded places!"

Victoria stood up and reminded Cherry.

The winged bird, Cherry, was very intelligent. Even though it couldn't speak, it could understand almost everything Victoria did, and it would follow her orders obediently. Thus, Victoria didn't mind letting it play alone for a while.

On the other hand, Victoria continued to think about this problem while sitting on the boat that she had taken with Mike Baylor and Jumo Kasyapa.

Perhaps she was too engrossed, but she didn't let go of the mooring line and let the boat start.

At this moment, a white man in his sixties walked over and smiled. "Good morning, beautiful lady."

Victoria snapped out of her reverie and looked at the stranger. She smiled and nodded. "Good morning."

The Caucasian man smiled. "I see you've been sitting on the boat daydreaming for the past two days. Is there something you're unhappy about? Maybe you can try to tell me. Maybe I can help you. Believe me, there's nothing in this world that can't be solved."

Victoria smiled. It turned out that this white old man thought that she wanted to commit suicide, so he came over to enlighten her.

Coincidentally, Victoria also wanted to find someone to talk to. This old man seemed to have experienced many things. Perhaps his experience could help her.

"I'm a business person and have a deal I'm considering right now. I need to find my ex-boyfriend, but I don't know if I should go to him or not. We were very in love before, but we went through some things..."

Naturally, Victoria couldn't tell this old man everything. Instead, she described it as a collaboration between companies.

The old Caucasian man said, "I understand. This is indeed difficult to say. I can tell that you still love that man. That's why this matter has tormented you. I'd like to ask, are you simply asking him for help in this collaboration, or will he be able to obtain some benefits after the collaboration?"

Victoria quickly added. "He can also get benefits. After we work together and my company becomes stronger, I can even help him and form a powerful alliance with him. This way, no one in the market will dare to attack him."

Victoria knew very well that this matter was also of great benefit to Jordan. After summoning the Goddess of the Immortal Lake, Jordan's golden talent level would definitely rise to another level.

Moreover, even if Victoria did not decide to summon the goddess after she became a golden mutant, it would be extremely beneficial to Jordan!

The four golden mutants, Moon Maiden, Mike Baylor, and Jiumo Kasyapa had a good personal relationship. They had known each other for many years, so they could be considered as one group.

On the other hand, Jordan was alone. As the saying went, two fists could not defeat four hands. If the three of them really wanted to deal with Jordan, Jordan would be in great danger.

But what if Victoria turned into a golden mutant?

Although the two of them had broken up, no matter what, they had once loved each other deeply. At the critical moment, Victoria would definitely come out to protect Jordan!

After hearing this, the white old man said, "In other words, this business deal is also beneficial to your predecessor. Moreover, from your tone, it seems that his company might be sniped by his opponent in the market. If he helps you, you can even help him if you join forces, right?"

Victoria agreed.

The old man said, "Then I don't think you have anything to hesitate about. You're embarrassed to see him because of your past emotional entanglement, but this is business. You're not going to get back together with him, but to discuss collaboration as a businessman.

"You shouldn't be ashamed to go begging, because after you've grown strong, you'll protect him too. You'll both win. It's even possible that he'll be crushed in the future without your help. In order to prevent him from being defeated by other opponents in the future, you should put down your pride and facilitate this cooperation."

Upon hearing the old man's words, Victoria was suddenly enlightened. She thought to herself, 'That's right. Why would I feel ashamed to face Jordan? Is it because he knows what happened between me and his uncle that night? Perhaps it was my fault that time. Perhaps he no longer wants to see me. However, if I become a golden mutant, I will protect him. I can have a chance to make it up to him! And if I remain a purple mutant, I will never have the right to help Jordan. I will never have the chance to make it up to him. I will never have the chance to get his forgiveness!'

At that moment, Victoria was even more convinced that only by becoming a golden mutant could her relationship with Jordan be eased!

As a purple mutant, she was of no help to Jordan at all. If the other three golden mutants wanted to deal with Jordan, Victoria could not help him at all. Only by turning into a golden mutant could Victoria make it up to Jordan and make up for the mistakes of her past.

Perhaps, in the future, Jordan would be grateful for Victoria's help and accept her again!

Victoria was suddenly enlightened. Getting up her feet, her beautiful eyes lit up. "Sir, thank you for enlightening me. I have already thought it through. I want to go find him. I no longer care what he thinks of me or what others think of me. When I have the ability to help him, then I will have the ability to make up for the past. The truth will prove everything!"

Two days later, Jordan's villa in the capital.

On this day, Jordan was playing cards with Lauren and their daughter, Chloe, on the first floor of the villa.

"55667788, I only have one card left!"

Jordan waved the cards in his hand.

Chloe, who had her hair in a bun, threw out two trump cards. "I won, hahaha!"

Chloe clapped her hands happily. Jordan and Lauren smiled too. Jordan patted Chloe's head and praised, "Chloe, you're awesome!"

Lauren's face was also filled with a blissful smile. Ever since Jordan returned, with him and her daughter by her side, Lauren's nervousness and uneasiness gradually disappeared. She was no longer worried about what would happen when she gave birth. Jordan's presence alone gave her a great sense of security.

As long as Jordan was by her side on the day she gave birth, Lauren believed that Jordan would help her resolve anything.

However, just as the family of three was happily having fun and preparing to continue the next round, Dragon suddenly walked in with a solemn expression.

Jordan could tell from Dragon's expression that he did not want he did not want to intrude upon their family time. He gestured to Dragon, indicating that he should send a message and not tell him in front of Lauren and his daughter, Chloe.

However, Lauren's eyes were also very sharp. She could tell at a glance that Dragon had something urgent. She asked directly, "Dragon, what's the matter?"

Dragon glanced at Jordan. After getting Jordan's permission, he said slowly, "Victoria is here. She brought a gift."

Jordan and Lauren were instantly shocked. They did not expect Victoria to take the initiative to look for Jordan!

After so many things had happened and Jordan mercilessly expelled Victoria from the Mutant Tribe, Victoria was still willing to take the initiative to meet him. Moreover, it was a very risky trip to the capital. One had to know that Victoria was not allowed to come to the capital.

Victoria's arrival left Jordan at a loss.

However, Lauren appeared very calm. She held Jordan's hand and said softly, "Hubby, we all know that Victoria is a very proud person. She now knows that you're a golden mutant and your level is higher than hers. She feels inferior in front of you. It's really not easy for her to take the initiative to look for you in such a situation. Don't worry about the past. Just calm down and have a good chat, okay?"

Jordan sighed. He thought that he would not meet Victoria again. He did not expect Victoria to take the initiative to look for him so soon.

Jordan nodded. "Since we can only be friends in the future, let's forget about the past."

Lauren said to Dragon, "Dragon, bring Victoria in."

"Yes."

The Dragon quickly brought Victoria in.

Just as Dragon said, Victoria didn't come empty-handed. She was carrying gifts with both hands.

Lauren took the initiative to welcome her and extended her hands to Victoria with a smile. "Victoria, thank you for coming to see us. Is this a gift for us?"

Victoria also smiled and held Lauren's hands. The two beauties held each other's hands intimately and stood together.

"Yes, this is for you. I hired someone to use the water from the Immortal Lake to specially concoct it. It will be very beneficial for your pregnancy. This is for Chloe. Cherry found a very unique piece of jade in the forest in the Netherlands. Also, can I call Cherry in? Perhaps Chloe will like it."

Lauren smiled and nodded. "Oh, of course. Cherry is..."

Soon, a blue bird flew in.

"Wow, a blue bird! It's so beautiful!" Chloe exclaimed in excitement.

Lauren called Chloe over and said, "Chloe, did you call Godma? Godma even brought you a gift. Thank Godma."

Previously, when Victoria and Lauren were Jordan's wives, Victoria automatically acknowledged Chloe as their goddaughter.

Chloe was young and did not know what happened between adults. Victoria was very good to Chloe and Chloe liked her very much.

Chloe happily said to Victoria, "Godmother! You're amazing! Is this bird your pet? Can I play with it?"

Lauren smiled and said, "Chloe knows that you have superpowers now. She admires you."

Victoria dotingly hugged Chloe and gently said, "Of course. Baby, go and play with it."

After that, Victoria told the bird, "Cherry, play with Chloe in the courtyard for a while. Be careful not to hurt her."

After getting permission, Chloe happily brought Cherry to the courtyard.

Lauren invited Victoria to sit down. Seeing that Lauren's stomach was already very big, Victoria asked, "Lauren, are you about to give birth? How has your health been recently?"

Lauren smiled and nodded. "I'm fine. I'm about to give birth to a second one. For some reason, I feel even more nervous than the first one."

Victoria held Lauren's hand and said, "Lauren, you're such a good person and there are so many people taking care of you. Nothing will happen."

Lauren nodded. She knew that Victoria was definitely not here to visit her, so she said, "Victoria, I'm afraid that Chloe is insensible and will scratch Cherry, so I'll go to the courtyard to watch her. Sit down and have a cup of tea first."

Victoria responded with a grateful smile. "Okay."

Subsequently, Lauren walked out and closed the door. Only Jordan and Victoria were left on the entire floor.

After Lauren left, there was a short silence.

Jordan did not know what to say to Victoria. The last time he was at the Immortal Lake, he had created something out of nothing. He had recreated many of their past experiences and made them disappear. He was already telling Victoria that the two of them were completely over.

Now that he thought about it, Jordan felt that he was a little impulsive. Perhaps he was too angry after seeing the intimate scene between Victoria and Randall.

“Jordan.”

After a minute, Victoria spoke first.

Jordan smiled too. “I’m very happy that you’re here to see Lauren and Chloe. Lauren said that we can’t be lovers, but we don’t have to be enemies. I think she’s right.”

Victoria replied, “Lauren is a good woman and a good wife. I am ashamed of my inferiority. I know you don’t want to see me. After you found out about what happened between Randall and me that night, you didn’t want to see me anymore. I know.

“Actually, I hesitated for a long time. It took me a long time to muster up the courage to look for you. When I entered just now, Park Sora looked at me with a look of disdain, as if she thought that I would have the face to look for you again. In their eyes, I might be a shameless woman.”

Jordan sighed. He knew that it was not easy for Victoria to take the initiative to look for him.

Not wanting to waste any more time, Jordan asked directly, “Why are you looking for me? If you want to return to the Mutant Tribe, I’m afraid I can’t help you because that place is no longer under my jurisdiction.”

1278 Rejecting Victoria!

Jordan admitted to this matter generously. He was not like Randall who liked to lie. Of course, Jordan still felt embarrassed to tell his old lover about this.

Victoria wasn’t surprised at all and nodded. “Yes, I know.”

Jordan was shocked and asked in confusion, “You know?”

Victoria nodded. “I’ve met Mike Baylor. He told me about it and his grand plan.”

Jordan did not expect Victoria to have met with Mike Baylor. He could not help but wonder why Victoria was here this time.

“Why are you here?”

Victoria did not beat around the bush anymore. “Jordan, I’ve heard their grand plan and witnessed the power of the three golden mutants. I don’t think they’re lying to you. Think about it. If they really want to harm you, why would they go so far as to make you only give up a quarter of your bloodline? With their strength, wouldn't it be more straightforward for the three of them to gang up on you?

"And I don't think the three of them have any wild ambitions. Think about it. They've been golden mutants for so long, but they haven't dominated the world or created chaos. If they're really bad people, the world couldn't have been controlled by the Eight Great Families for the past few decades."

From her words, Jordan immediately saw through Victoria's purpose for coming here. He asked directly, "Are you here to persuade me to agree to their conditions and create another golden mutant? Did Mike Baylor promise you to be the fifth golden mutant?"

Victoria didn't hide anything. "Yes, as long as you agree, I think the Moon Maiden and Jumo Kasyapa won't refuse. I admit that I really want to become a golden mutant, just like you... Jordan, can you fulfill my wish?"

No wonder Victoria took the initiative to meet Jordan after they broke up at Immortal Lake. It was because she wanted to become a golden mutant!

Victoria had always been a very ambitious woman. Jordan had long guessed that if she knew that a purple mutant had the chance to become a golden mutant, she would definitely be tempted.

Jordan said to Victoria directly, "I can understand your desire to become a golden mutant. If I were a purple mutant and had the chance to become a golden mutant, I might be as excited as you. However, I won't agree to cooperate with them. Mike Baylor is definitely not a good person. I suspect that he has something to do with the fact that the memories of many people have been tampered with. As for the Moon Maiden and Jumo Kasyapa, although they seem friendly, who knows if they are feigning civility and harboring evil intentions?"

Victoria retorted, "Even if they are bad people, you have the ability to predict the future, so you don't need to be afraid of them."

Jordan chuckled softly, "If my prediction ability was so invincible, I wouldn't be like an idiot. After all, I didn't even know that you and my uncle were sleeping in the room next to mine."

Victoria knew that Jordan still blamed her for that night with his uncle. She felt that Jordan was unwilling to agree because he hated her for that.

Victoria said guiltily, "Jordan, I ran out of your room that night. I wanted you to chase after me, but you didn't come. I was a little angry, so... I'm sorry. No matter what, I shouldn't have had sex with your uncle. I formally apologize. Also, I made a mistake when you pretended to be William in the capital. I'm sorry. I hope you can forgive me."

Victoria apologized to Jordan consecutively.

Even when Jordan revealed his golden mutant identity, Victoria did not beg for forgiveness. She even slapped Jordan.

However, Victoria, who had always been arrogant, had never felt that she had done anything wrong. She thought that Jordan was in the wrong. Now, she formally apologized to Jordan.

If Victoria had apologized with such an attitude on the night Jordan and Victoria broke up, Jordan might have forgiven her.

Jordan knew that just a few days ago, Victoria thought that Jordan was the cause of all this. It was Jordan and the Steeles who had let her down.

But now, it was impossible for her to change her mind so quickly.

'She's only apologizing to me because she wanted to become a golden mutant,' Jordan mused in his mind.

Victoria continued, "Jordan, if you think that those three people are bad and want to harm you, you should agree to let them turn me into a golden mutant. If I become a golden mutant, once they want to deal with you, I can join forces with you and help you deal with them. If my mental control is raised to the golden level, I believe that I can even control Mike Baylor and the others!"

Jordan was very grateful that Victoria was willing to help him. However, he still shook his head.

"Victoria, those three are extremely intelligent people. If they wanted to harm me, why would they create a golden mutant helper for me? This matter is not that simple."

Hearing this, Victoria said, "Is it because you're overthinking things? Or is it because you hate me for letting you down, so you don't want to agree? You don't want to see me become a golden mutant, right? You don't think I'm worthy, right?"

Jordan was speechless. "I didn't."

Victoria suddenly burst into tears and started sobbing.

After a few seconds, Victoria knelt in front of Jordan with both legs. She said with tears in her eyes, "Jordan, I beg you, I beg you, please help me this time, okay? This is also helping yourself. After I become a golden mutant, I will definitely not harm you. Can you give me a chance to make it up to you? You saved my life. I'm willing to return it to you!"

Jordan did not expect Victoria to kneel to him!

“Victoria, what are you doing!”

Jordan quickly helped Victoria up. He was in a mess because of Victoria.

Outside, Lauren could not help but peek into the room curiously when she heard Jordan’s sudden heavy tone. She was also extremely shocked to see Victoria kneeling to Jordan.

“Did Victoria ask her husband to get back together?”

Lauren thought that Victoria wanted to get back together with Jordan.

In the room, Jordan pulled Victoria up. He felt helpless as he looked at Victoria who had been crying.

Victoria had already said that she was willing to help Jordan after she became a golden mutant. She was even willing to return her life to him at a critical moment. Jordan could not blame her anymore.

Jordan said helplessly, “Victoria, it’s not that I don’t want you to become a golden mutant. If you have the chance to become a golden mutant, I’ll be happy for you too. However, I can’t agree to their request just because of you. I’m sorry. No matter what you say, I won’t agree to this!”

Jordan did not care about their past relationship at all and rejected Victoria firmly.

Today, whether Victoria knelt or apologized, she could not change Jordan’s decision.

Victoria said with tears in her eyes. “So after falling out of love with someone, a man can become so heartless. Previously when you loved me, you were willing to do anything for me even if you had to take a greater risk than now.

“If Lauren were a purple mutant today and she came to beg you, you would help her. You would definitely be willing to take this risk for her because you have never been afraid of anything, not even the three golden mutants! I’ve already put down all my pride to beg you today. Even so, it turns out it’s useless. I have nothing more to say.”

With that, she left the room with tears in her eyes.

She knew Jordan well. He would not cower and not dare to cooperate just because he was afraid that someone would snatch his golden bloodline. In the past, Jordan would not blink even if the situation was more dangerous.

Just like how you could never wake someone who was pretending to be asleep, Victoria felt that Jordan no longer had any love for her. No matter what she said, it was useless.

Victoria sadly pushed open the door and was crying. The winged bird in the courtyard, Cherry, immediately broke free from Chloe's hand and flew over, flapping its blue wings to comfort her.

Without a glance back, Victoria walked out and didn't say anything to the crowd. She was as cold as usual and headed straight for the door, ready to leave.

However, seeing Victoria like this, Lauren followed her out worriedly and stopped her at the door.

"Victoria."

Lauren slowly stopped Victoria and asked with concern, "Victoria, what's wrong? Did Jordan say something to make you sad? Now that you two have just separated, Jordan might not have calmed down yet. Perhaps you came a little early. If you come again half a year or a year later, Jordan won't be like this."

Lauren had secretly seen Victoria kneeling down to Jordan just now. She thought that Victoria had failed to get back together after kneeling, so she ran out sadly.

Lauren held Victoria's hand and said, "Victoria, come back in half a year. I'll persuade Jordan to try to accept you again during this period."

Victoria shook her head. "You've misunderstood. I'm not here to beg Jordan to get back together. He already has two perfect wives, you and Lota. He doesn't need me anymore."

Lauren was a little surprised. "Then what was the reason for your visit this time..."

Lauren didn't think there was anything else that could make the proud Victoria kneel in front of the person she loved the most.

Victoria asked, "Do you know about the golden mutant's grand plan?"

Lauren nodded. "Jordan told me. He said that they want to choose one of the purple mutants... Ah, right, you're a purple mutant! Is that why you're here? Is it that you want to become a golden mutant?"

Lauren immediately understood Victoria's purpose for coming this time. It turned out that Victoria knelt down to Jordan to beg him to help Victoria become a golden mutant!

Victoria did not hide it. She nodded and said, "Yes, but I didn't want to become a golden mutant out of selfishness. I admit that I have some vanity and want to become the highest-level mutant. However, part of the reason I did this is for Jordan."

“Lauren, you should know that there are four golden mutants now. Other than Jordan, the three of them are stronger than Jordan. Moreover, they’re in cahoots with him. If they deal with Jordan, none of the people around Jordan, such as Salvatore, Dragon, or even Rong Bingshao, can help him. A golden mutant can completely crush a low-level mutant. Without golden mutant powers, one can’t help Jordan at all.”

Lauren was shocked. “You... want to help Jordan?”

Victoria nodded and said, “If that day really comes and the three golden mutants really want to deal with Jordan, I, Victoria, swear to stand on Jordan’s side. Don’t tell me you don’t believe me? Do you think I’ll help those outsiders deal with Jordan after I become a golden mutant?”

Lauren held Victoria’s hand tightly. “Victoria, of course I believe that you’ll help Jordan. He’s our husband. You’ve been husband and wife before. Besides, you still love him now!

“Actually, ever since I found out that there are three other golden mutants in this world, and that they’ve been golden mutants for a long time and are even stronger than Jordan, I’ve been very worried. No one can guarantee that they’ll always be friendly to Jordan.

“If Jordan can get a golden mutant who is on his side, he can at least maintain a balance so that they won’t dare to act rashly against him. Victoria, I’m relieved to hear what you said today. After all, I’m just an ordinary woman. I can’t do anything for Jordan. Victoria, if possible, you have to help Jordan.”

Lauren asked Victoria nervously and excitedly.

Victoria sighed. “I also want to help him, but he won’t give me the chance. Lauren, please persuade him. He really needs help. Although he doesn’t like me, I am the only one who can help him right now.”

Lauren quickly watched Victoria leave. Then, Lauren returned to her room. Jordan was drinking tea alone.

Lauren sat beside Jordan and said softly, “Victoria told me about what happened just now.”

Jordan said, “That woman is crazy about becoming a golden mutant. You don’t have to pay attention to her. I won’t put myself in danger.”

Lauren said, “Hubby, of course I want you to stay away from those golden mutants. It’s best if you never come into contact with them. However, they’ve already targeted you. We can’t escape. I think Victoria is right about one thing. You need helpers. You can’t deal with the three of them alone. Creating another golden mutant won't do you any harm. Instead, it can prevent them from joining forces to deal with you.

"I want to know, did you reject Victoria just because you don't trust Mike Baylor and the others? Or... do you not want Victoria to become a golden mutant? Or, let me be more direct. If one day you also have an epiphany and you are as anxious as Mike Baylor, wanting to quickly gather the five golden mutants, would you choose Victoria?"

Jordan lowered his head and did not give an affirmative answer. He could not lie to Lauren.

Lauren said, "I understand. Sigh, it looks like Victoria won't have this chance. But if you choose someone else, there's really no one trustworthy among the purple mutants. It would be great if Dragon or Salvatore were purple mutants. Let's not talk about it anymore. You must be more troubled than me. I'll go and find Chloe."

"Lauren!"

After Lauren stood up, Jordan suddenly stopped her.

Jordan stood up and asked Lauren, "Lauren, do you think that I was too heartless to Victoria after I broke up with her?"

Lauren had seen that Jordan and Victoria were once very much in love. Now, Jordan was so heartless to Victoria and was unwilling to help her become a golden mutant.

Jordan was afraid that Lauren would feel the same way. She would think that Jordan would do the same to her if they broke up.

Lauren lowered her head and said, "If we separate one day and I need your help with something, will you... will you do the same to me?"

Jordan was right. Lauren indeed had such thoughts!

Moving forward, Jordan comforted her immediately, "Lauren, you're different from Victoria. You've never done anything to hurt me. I would never do this to you. Besides, I promise you that we'll never be separated!"

Jordan was already a high and mighty golden mutant, while Lauren was just an ordinary woman. Jordan knew that Lauren must be feeling very insecure.

Pulling her into his arms, Jordan hugged Lauren gently. Lauren hid in Jordan's arms and nodded. "Yes, let's never be apart..."

...

Victoria quickly left the capital. She knew that as long as she was in the capital, many people would watch her, giving others a great sense of insecurity.

Perhaps Victoria's crazy and presumptuous behavior before was just like when she was in Nags Head, controlling many people. But now, after knowing the existence of the four golden mutants, she didn't dare to act recklessly.

There were too many people who could subdue her. When she was in Nags Head, she felt that she was invincible.

After leaving the capital, Victoria made a video call to Mike Baylor.

"Hey, Victoria, do you have good news for me?"

Mike Baylor knew that Victoria had gone to look for Jordan. He was hoping that Victoria could persuade Jordan.

However, Victoria said, "I'm sorry, Chief. I couldn't persuade Jordan. He still doesn't agree to create the fifth golden mutant."

Mike Baylor was very disappointed. "What? Even you can't persuade that stubborn guy? Damn it, I thought the relationship between the two of you was deep, but it seems like it's nothing much!"

Victoria lowered her head and apologized. "I'm sorry to disappoint you."

Mike Baylor sighed. "You're likely the most disappointed one. If he doesn't agree, you'll never become a golden mutant. Perhaps you're destined not to have this fate. Alright, I have something to do. You don't have to return to Immortal Lake for the time being. Think of another way!"

Mike Baylor, who was at Immortal Lake, hung up the video call. His face was still filled with undisguised disappointment.

"That despicable Jordan actually disagreed. Do you really want me to wait for another ten years? After people grow old, they lose interest in most things in the world. The current me lives very boringly every year. I don't want to suffer for another ten years!"

Mike Baylor clenched his fists angrily and smashed the wooden table on his right.

For someone with Mike Baylor's ability, it could be said that he could have anything he wanted. If he wanted money, he could get it. If he wanted women, there was no one in the world that he couldn't get other than the Moon Maiden.

Therefore, Mike Baylor was no longer interested in many things. Money and women could no longer excite him.

“Jordan, if you make me unhappy, don’t think about being happy”

Soon, Mike Baylor gathered all the mutants.

“Chief!”

Everyone was very respectful when they saw Mike Baylor.

Randall stood at the front and asked, “Master, you suddenly called us over. Do you have something to tell us?”

Mike Baylor nodded. “Yes, I heard you say that when Jordan was in charge of the mutants, he forced each of them to write a letter of repentance and asked them to write down all the crimes they committed in the past. Is that true?”

Linus replied, “Yes, Chief! After Jordan took over the Mutant Tribe, he told us to walk the path of justice and not let us play with women and kill people like before.”

Mike Baylor snorted. “Who does he think he is? He’s not worthy of upholding justice!”

Mike quickly chimed in when he saw Mike Baylor’s attitude, “That’s right. Jordan has a few women too. Moreover, he doesn’t care about taboos. He has probably slept with Park Sora and her Korean mother!”

The others were also indignant.

“Why can he kill whoever he doesn’t like, but we can’t? This is called only allowing the provincial officials to set fire and not allowing the commoners to light lamps!”

“Yes, Chief. In the past few years, although we have occasionally done such things, we have always listened to you and Randall. We have already kept a low profile!”

“That’s right! Besides, we’ll pay for it later. If they don’t want money, I’ll let those women know that I’m not an ordinary person. Although they cried very hard before, they’ll be happy to be my women after knowing!”

Although these mutants were all slaves in the Mutant Tribe, they were all billionaires and had a lot of money in their bank cards.

In fact, they could have relied on money to get the women they liked. It was just that they found it troublesome. There were also mutants who were proud and arrogant and were unwilling to do so.

After listening to everyone, Mike Baylor said, “Yes, Jordan is a hypocrite. He’s not a good person to begin with. When he fought my golden-horned dragon, he used despicable methods repeatedly and even injured one of my golden-horned dragon's eyes. It can't be cured now!

"I'm different. I can be honest with you. After I became a golden mutant, I killed many people like you. I raped many Hollywood female celebrities and singers. As a mutant, how can I suppress myself?"

Hearing Mike Baylor's words, everyone was happy. As long as Mike Baylor agreed, they could live as wantonly as before!

Mike Baylor said, "You guys must have been holding it in for a long time. Go outside and relax. I heard that there are many fair, rich, and beautiful women in the capital. There are also many celebrities and internet celebrities. It's a good place to go."

Linus and the others looked at each other and smiled. "Thank you for your approval, Chief!"

...

Two days later.

Salvatore and Dragon were munching on melon seeds outside Jordan's villa when they suddenly heard a group of lackeys discussing something. They asked immediately, "Hey, what are you talking about?!"

The subordinates hurriedly walked over and took out his phone to show Salvatore. "Salvatore, look. Last night, in a five-star hotel in the capital, a female celebrity was raped!"

Salvatore took the phone. "Damn, it's this woman. This woman always occupies trending topics and flirts all day long. No wonder the male fans can't help it. Eh, that can't be right. The man who raped her jumped down from the 18th floor?"

1281 Provoking Jordan!

Salvatore saw on the news that the man had escaped through a broken window of an 18-story building, and no one's body was found on the ground.

Salvatore was instantly surprised. "Level 18? He jumped just like that, and he's not dead yet. Damn, could it be that he was injected with the Mirakuru serum?"

It was not only the people of the Mutant Tribe who could do this. Jordan had also injected many of his subordinates with the Mirakuru serum. Now, the people on Jordan's side had also grown much stronger.

The subordinate said, "Salvatore, we've always listened to Mr. Jordan's orders and never dared to act rashly. This is definitely not done by our brothers!"

Salvatore nodded as well. He believed that his subordinates would not dare to cause trouble under Jordan's watch.

Salvatore said, "If it's not one of us, could it be a mutant? Damn, I have to report this to Mr. Jordan!"

Salvatore immediately ran into the house and told Jordan about this.

After Jordan saw the news, he immediately realized that something was wrong. The man who raped a female celebrity was obviously not an ordinary person.

Immediately after, his subordinate ran in. "Mr. Jordan, there's another piece of news. An hour ago, a female internet celebrity with millions of fans was dancing in a short skirt by the roadside. She was suddenly kidnapped by two people. They just found the woman's corpse. She was raped before being killed."

Jordan took the phone and glanced at the video of the female internet celebrity being kidnapped. The man who kidnapped the woman was wearing a hood. He could not see his face clearly, but he could see his eyes.

"Mike!"

Jordan recognized him at a glance. It was Mike from the Mutant Tribe.

Salvatore also leaned forward to take a closer look. "F*ck, it's really that bastard Mike. It's him with those blue eyes!"

"Mutant Tribe, it seems that these two things were done by the mutants. Previously, when you became the Chief, you told them not to do such things again. They promised but now that you're no longer the Chief, they're lawless. It seems like they did this on purpose for you to see!"

Jordan scoffed coldly, "These scumbags are used to playing with the lives of ordinary people. How can they change their ways so easily? That bastard Mike Baylor doesn't do anything even though he's the Chief. Instead of teaching his subordinates well, he lets them do whatever they want. He's not qualified to be the Chief of the Mutant Tribe at all."

Salvatore said, "That guy is a foreigner. He might even be very happy that this group of mutants raped our beautiful women!"

Jordan was furious. "How dare he do such a thing in my territory? He's courting death. Call Rong Bingshao and Park Sora over!"

Soon, the black-level Rong Bingshao and Park Sora arrived. Jordan briefly explained the situation to them.

Jordan said, "Bingshao and Sora, these mutants dare to cause trouble in the capital. Go and capture them. If they refuse, kill them directly."

Rong Bingshao agreed. "Roger that!"

Park Sora said, "Ah, killing people. It's so scary. I don't dare to do it, but I should be able to kill such scumbags who insult women. Hehe, I know their abilities very well. Mike or someone else, they can't beat me. Don't worry, brother!"

Jordan sent Rong Bingshao, Park Sora, Salvatore, and Dragon to do this together. Unfortunately, he could not find any traces of them after searching for the entire afternoon.

"Mr. Jordan, they've probably left the capital!"

Salvatore was a little depressed.

Rong Bingshao said, "I rushed over as fast as I could, but I couldn't catch up. They must have fled immediately. I think they might be deliberately luring Mr. Jordan to Immortal Lake to find them."

Park Sora thought of Mike Baylor at Immortal Lake and said immediately, "Don't go to Immortal Lake. That dragon is terrifying. Jordan is not a match for that dragon yet. There's no way to settle scores with them even if we go."

Jordan felt extremely aggrieved. If he could think of a way to deal with the golden-horned dragon now, he might really go to Immortal Lake to settle scores with these scumbags in a fit of anger.

Jordan said fiercely, "These bastards dare to provoke me like this just because they have Mike Baylor backing them!"

Dragon said, "Master, you had a huge battle with Mike Baylor previously and haven't fully recovered yet. It's not suitable for you to go to Immortal Lake to look for Mike Baylor for such a small matter. Even if you go, I'm afraid we're not their match. The only way now is to get rid of them somewhere outside Immortal Lake. Mike Baylor's men made mistakes first. If we kill them, Mike Baylor can't blame us."

Jordan nodded. Mike Baylor would definitely stop him from killing these mutants in Immortal Lake. Jordan would only have a chance outside Immortal Lake.

"Contact some female internet celebrities on TikTok who like to dance in short skirts. Get them to go outdoors in the middle of the night to take videos and live streams.

Then, you guys will ambush them nearby. If Mike and the others appear, take them down immediately!"

Jordan decided to bait these scumbags.

"Yes!"

The task of choosing female internet celebrities was handed over to Salvatore. There happened to be many female internet celebrities with good figures on his follow list. He immediately hired them at a high price and told them to live stream outdoors.

Unfortunately, after a whole night of live streaming, not a single mutant came.

This made everyone wonder if these mutants knew that Jordan had made a move and no longer dared to do it.

However, the next morning, Jordan received another piece of news. Several female internet celebrities had been raped in other states.

In just two days, many beautiful women had been violated. This also caused a heated discussion online. The girls cursed the men one after another, accusing them of being trash and said that they should all be killed.

Many men also retorted that it was all because these female internet celebrities were flirting all day long.

The girl continued to retaliate. "We dress well for ourselves, not for you men!"

The men retaliated by saying that the people who tipped the female internet celebrities in the live stream were all men. The female internet celebrities' short videos attracted men too. They relied on men to earn money.

The girl continued to retaliate. We rely on men to earn money. It's reasonable and legal. Rape is illegal!

Jordan could not help but feel annoyed as he watched the increasingly intense conflict between men and women on the internet.

Is that what this is all about, Mike Baylor?

Jordan clenched his fists. He knew that something bad would happen if he handed Immortal Lake and the mutants to Mike Baylor. That was why he tried his best to fight him back then.

Salvatore said, "Mr. Jordan, what should we do? These mutants are all scattered in different places. We can't rush over to catch them immediately. I think they'll change places once we go over!"

Jordan frowned as well.

'There's only one person who can help me catch them now.'

The person Jordan thought of was none other than Jiumo Kasyapa, whom he had just met.

Jiumo Kasyapa had the ability to teleport to another place in an instant. With his help, Jordan believed that capturing this group of bold and provocative mutant members would be a matter of minutes.

However, Jordan was considering whether he should go to Jiumo Kasyapa because of this.

Although Jiumo Kasyapa was very friendly to Jordan, they had only met once after all. Moreover, they had never communicated in depth.

On the contrary, Jiumo Kasyapa and Mike Baylor had known each other for many years. It seemed a little unreasonable to ask Jiumo Kasyapa to help Jordan deal with Mike Baylor's people.

"Jiumo Kasyapa is a golden mutant, but he doesn't have much of a presence among the golden mutants. Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor each took turns controlling the Immortal Lake for 20 years. Jiumo Kasyapa has nothing to do with them. I don't believe that Jiumo Kasyapa doesn't have any complaints."

Jordan also analyzed it from Jiumo Kasyapa's point of view. He felt that Mike Baylor obviously looked down on Jiumo Kasyapa. They were both golden mutants, but Mike Baylor treated him like an underling.

If it were Jordan, he would definitely be unhappy.

Although Jiumo Kasyapa was an eminent monk, a Buddhist master who had taught Jordan since he was young had said that no one in this world could truly see the gains and losses of the world, including eminent monks and masters like them.

As long as this person was still alive, he would definitely be affected by this world.

Jordan believed that no matter how strong Jiumo Kasyapa's temperament was, it was impossible for him to cultivate to the state of having a heart that was like a rock and not have any emotions.

This was also the reason why Jordan wanted to call Jiumo Kasyapa.

Victoria was right about one thing. Jordan alone would not be able to deal with three golden mutants. If there was a chance to break the relationship between the three of them and join forces with one of them to turn the situation into a two-on-two, Jordan would have a chance of winning!

Just as Jordan was hesitating if he should ask Jiumo Kasyapa for help, Lauren, who was pregnant, suddenly came over with a very beautiful middle-aged woman.

Jordan was stunned when he saw the beautiful middle-aged woman. He must have seen her before, but he could not remember who she was.

This woman looked to be around 40 years old, but her figure looked to be 18 years old. Her legs were straight, and her legs looked like a girl's.

The beautiful woman looked very sad. There were still tears at the corners of her eyes. When she saw Jordan, she walked over and grabbed his hand. She said excitedly, "Jordan! Jordan! You have to save Clarice. We're family. Clarice is your sister too!"

Upon hearing Clarice's name, Jordan immediately remembered that the beautiful middle-aged woman in front of him was Clarice's mother, the second wife Lauren's father had married.

Jordan pushed her away. He did not want this woman to have too much physical contact with him. It would not be good if others saw it.

Jordan did not ask her directly. Instead, he asked Lauren, "Lauren, what happened?"

Lauren replied, "Auntie came to look for me just now and said that Clarice was on vacation when a bad person broke in through the window. She can't contact her anymore."

Clarice's mother broke down emotionally. She cried and said, "I was video chatting with Clarice just now. She was bathing in the bathtub of a five-star hotel. That bathtub happened to be beside the French windows. She lived on a very high floor. I wanted to remind her to pull the curtains to avoid being secretly photographed. Who knew that two men would suddenly break through the window and enter? Then, I heard Clarice scream twice before her phone was disconnected. Sobs, Jordan, I beg you to save her. Only you can save her in this world. I'm kneeling down to you!"

Clarice's mother knelt in front of Jordan on the spot.

Lauren quickly said, "Auntie, don't be like this."

Previously, Clarice and her daughter had never gotten along with Lauren. However, ever since they found out about Jordan's identity, their attitude changed drastically. They treated Lauren's family extremely well and no longer dared to fight with them.

Jordan was also very embarrassed. Logically speaking, Lauren should call this woman her stepmother. To Jordan, she was also an elder. However, she was kneeling in front of Jordan now.

Jordan quickly reached out and grabbed Clarice's mother's arm. "Auntie, don't kneel to me. It won't be good if my father-in-law sees you like this."

On the other hand, Clarice's mother insisted while crying, "I won't get up if you don't agree to save Clarice! Jordan, Clarice and I treated you badly before. When you save Clarice, we'll be your servants. We can serve you however we want as long as you're willing to save her! Please!"

At this moment, Lauren's father and mother, Stefan and Marissa, rushed over after hearing the news. They were shocked to see Clarice's mother kneeling in front of Jordan and begging.

Jordan was embarrassed when he saw his in-laws.

Unexpectedly, Clarice's mother pulled Stefan and said, "Hubby, kneel down to Jordan too and beg him to save our daughter."

Stefan was embarrassed. Marissa walked forward and held Jordan's hand. She said, "Son-in-law, Clarice is Lauren's sister. We're all family. Please help her."

Although Jordan's current status was far from what the family could compare to, Stefan and Marissa were his in-laws after all. Jordan respected them very much and would definitely not let them beg him shamelessly.

Therefore, Jordan helped Clarice's mother up forcefully on the spot. "Auntie, don't worry. Clarice will be fine. I'll send someone to save her now. Tell me which hotel she's in."

Initially, Jordan was still hesitating if he should ask Jumo Kasyapa for help. However, now that something had happened to Jordan's wife's family, it seemed that it was also the work of the mutants. Jordan had no choice but to make this call.

If Clarice was insulted by the mutants, Jordan would lose his face too.

Clarice's mother wiped her tears. "Hyatt Hotel!"

Jordan patted Clarice's mother's shoulder and comforted her, "Alright, I'll send someone over now. Don't worry, there's still time!"

Clarice had a good mother. When her daughter was in trouble, she knew to come to Jordan for help immediately. She was right. In this world, only Jordan could help her now.

Before Jordan knew Jiumo Kasyapa, even Jordan would not have been able to help.

Walking to the side, Jordan called Jiumo Kasyapa.

After two rings, Jiumo Kasyapa picked up the phone. "Deity Jordan! I'm very happy to receive your call. I wonder how Deity Jordan is doing?"

Jordan said politely, "Master Jiumo, I'm fine. It's an emergency, so I'll say it directly. My wife's sister was taking a shower in the Hyatt Hotel when someone from the Mutant Tribe broke in through the window. If I am a little later, I'm afraid she will be killed. I wonder if Master Jiumo will be able to get there immediately to save my sister-in-law?"

1264 Golden Horned Dragon!

Although the Moon Maiden was only a woman, she had an extremely strong aura. After all, she was the earliest golden mutant. Mike Baylor and Jordan had her to thank for becoming golden mutants.

She had obtained her talent the longest and was probably the strongest. Therefore, her words were still very intimidating and dignified.

"As long as he doesn't have such thoughts, I naturally won't either," said Jordan.

Jordan had to give the Moon Maiden face as well. However, all of this still depended on Mike Baylor's attitude. If the other party wanted to use this opportunity to get rid of him, they could snatch his golden bloodline directly.

Then, Jordan would use the same method to get rid of Mike Baylor!

The Moon Maiden said to Jordan, "You're part of our grand plan. Mike won't kill you."

After saying that, the Moon Maiden walked to the side and left the battlefield to Jordan and Mike Baylor.

“Brother, come on!”

“Best of luck, Mr. Jordan!”

“Master, you can do it!”

Park Sora, Salvatore, Randall, and the others cheered for the two of them.

On the other hand, the mutants did not cheer.

“Gosh, who should we support? Although Deity Jordan is our new Chief, we’ve actually been the other mutant’s subordinates all these years!”

“Why are you thinking so much? We’ll support whoever wins. Only the winner will truly become our leader.”

“Hehe, I hope Chief Jordan loses. Working under him is too boring. We can only do righteous things. In the future, he can’t kill or commit arson or rape beautiful women at all!”

“That’s right, that’s right. If the other golden mutant wins, we can still be as carefree as before! If we can’t stand anyone, we can kill them. If we like any woman, we can f*ck them! This is the life of a mutant!”

Most of the mutants were used to living a superior life compared to ordinary people. They were used to doing so-called “bad things” and did not like a leader like Jordan who had a sense of justice.

At that moment, Mike Baylor looked at Jordan with a sharp gaze.

“Jordan, you’re my disciple’s nephew. I’ve heard him talk about you since a long time ago. At that time, if I wanted to kill you, it would be like stepping on an ant.”

Jordan did not doubt Mike Baylor’s words. Previously, Jordan did not have the ability to create something out of nothing. He probably only could predict the future. Facing an opponent like Mike Baylor, he would die. Moreover, Mike Baylor might have known about him when he was not a deity.

Jordan said, "There's a saying I've heard. A scholar who has been away for three days should be treated differently. I, Jordan, am no longer the same as before. Put down your pride. Talent emerges with every generation. You're no longer invincible!"

Jordan knew that Mike Baylor must have been very domineering in the past few years. Other than the Moon Maiden, he could not find a match at all.

The Moon Maiden was a woman and so beautiful. Mike Baylor couldn't fight her. Although Jumo Kasyapa was a man, he was a humble and gentle monk, and it was impossible for him to fight with others.

Therefore, Jordan would be the first powerful opponent Mike Baylor had encountered since he became a golden mutant!

Mike Baylor laughed out loud. "Hahaha, good! I admire your courage! To be honest, ever since I became a golden mutant, I've always had a good relationship with the Moon Maiden and the monk and we've rarely even sparred. I can't find an opponent at all. I also want to fight to my heart's content! Since you dare to accept the challenge, then... Come!"

Mike Baylor said "come" and suddenly emphasized his voice. Not only that, but he also spread his arms and looked up at the sky.

It seemed like it was not only directed at Jordan. There seemed to be someone else.

Jordan also realized that something was wrong. He did not attack rashly.

"His talent is controlling animals. Could he be summoning his ferocious beasts?"

Jordan was right. In the next second, a roar came from the sky. The roar was low and heavy, making one's ears tingle.

In the next second, Dragon, who was watching the battle from afar, suddenly reported, "Master, the drones in charge of patrolling the sky near us suddenly fell. They seem to have been attacked!"

Dragon's reminder confirmed Jordan's suspicions.

"Mike Baylor is indeed summoning his mythical beast. Moreover, this mythical beast is flying over from the sky!"

Previously, Randall had brought back the black tiger and the gorilla. They were both land animals. This time, the mythical beast brought by Mike Baylor could fly!

In Jordan's impression, animals that could fly were not too powerful.

However, after a few seconds, the roar got closer and closer. Suddenly, a huge dragon circled in the sky and appeared in everyone's line of sight!

The moment the golden dragon appeared, even the sky changed color. The originally clear sky suddenly became dark and ominous.

Under the oppressive clouds, there was still a faint hint of lightning approaching!

"Oh my God! Look! It's a dragon! I can't believe my eyes! There really are dragons in this world! This isn't a legend!"

"Too domineering! This dragon is too domineering! Was this personally tamed by Randall's master? Oh my god, so Randall was lying to us previously. This beast-taming ability belongs to his master!"

"This is a horned dragon! It's a creature from ancient Chinese legends! Mike turned it into reality! I wonder how strong this dragon is and if it can fight against the golden mutant!"

"It definitely can! Look, once it appeared, even the world changed greatly, and the weather changed! This dragon can affect the weather, so you can imagine its power!"

Everyone was shocked by the appearance of the golden-horned dragon. Randall was also very excited.

Even the Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa looked shocked.

Jiumo Kasyapa asked the Moon Maiden, "Moon Maiden, have you seen this horned dragon before?"

Moon Maiden also looked up at the domineering and mighty horned dragon and shook her head. "No, I didn't even know that Mike actually successfully developed a dragon."

Jiumo Kasyapa put his palms together. "Amitabha. This dragon has such powerful pressure. I'm afraid that Deity Jordan will have a tough battle."

A tough battle?

The Moon Maiden felt that Jiumo Kasyapa's words were a little tactful. In her opinion, this dragon could change the weather like her. Its ability was extraordinary, and it had already reached the level of a golden mutant.

Jordan, who had just become a golden mutant, was definitely not a match for him.

The horned dragon was hovering above Mike Baylor's head, and above the horned dragon's head was a strange vortex of dark clouds that flickered.

Mike Baylor said proudly, "Jordan, to show my respect for your double identity as a golden mutant and a second-generation Deity, I took out my most powerful ferocious beast, the top-notch mutated golden horned dragon! If you can defeat it today, I'll give this Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe to you!"

1265 Fighting the Horned Dragon!

Jordan was already in full combat mode. Compared to arguing with these golden mutants who he could not figure out, he might as well fight to his heart's content!

However, Jordan did not target the golden-horned dragon above his head.

No matter what, this was a competition between Jordan and Mike Baylor. As long as Jordan could subdue Mike Baylor, he would win. There was no need for him to fight the dragon.

Therefore, Jordan took the initiative and attacked Mike Baylor by surprise!

“Master, be careful!”

Randall reminded when he saw Jordan sneak attack Mike Baylor.

As for Mike Baylor, he was a dignified golden mutant. How could he be so stupid? He flew into the air and landed on the golden-horned dragon, avoiding Jordan’s sneak attack.

“My God, Mr. Baylor can fly! It’s so cool!”

“He’s like a god! Although Jordan is also a golden mutant, he doesn’t seem to have the ability to fly!”

The members of the Mutant Tribe started to worship Mike Baylor.

Mike Baylor smiled at Jordan from above and said, “You want to fight me directly? No, you won’t have the chance.”

Then, Mike Baylor patted his dragon and said, “Big baby, teach this guy a lesson!”

In the next second, the golden-horned dragon immediately roared and attacked Jordan!

Roar!

The golden-horned dragon used the Divine Dragon Tail Swing first. Its mammoth tail slowly attacked Jordan from the sky.

Initially, when the horned dragon was in the sky, Jordan did not see how huge its tail was. However, as it got closer and closer, Jordan realized that the horned dragon’s tail was massive!

As such, Jordan did not dare to be careless. He immediately stood up to dodge and attacked the horned dragon's tail.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Jordan launched lava and fireball attacks at the horned dragon's tail!

"Ah!"

Sensing the scorching flame attack, the horned dragon immediately roared.

"What is this!"

Mike Baylor, who was in the sky, was slightly shocked when he saw that. He did not expect Jordan to be able to launch such a fire attack.

The Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa had the same feeling. They continued to watch Jordan's attacks seriously.

Initially, Jordan thought that he could use such an attack to injure the horned dragon. However, he did not expect the horned dragon's defense to be too strong. Moreover, it was too big and only a small portion of it was burned. It was not affected at all.

Roar!

Enraged by Jordan's attack, the golden-horned dragon launched an even more violent attack. It opened its mouth and spat flames at Jordan!

"Heavens, this dragon can spit fire!"

"The Divine Dragon spits fire! So powerful! Jordan is doomed this time!"

Jordan was also shocked. He did not expect the horned dragon to have the ability to attack with fire. Moreover, this raging fire was attacking him very fiercely.

Jordan dodged quickly, but his body was too small compared to the horned dragon. Moreover, the horned dragon was in the sky while Jordan was on the ground.

It was like a person teasing an ant on the table. No matter how you ran, you would not be able to escape.

“Damn it!”

Jordan was a little frustrated. He did not expect that the dragon created by Mike Baylor was really as the legends said. It could spit fire and he believed that it could spit water too.

“No, this dragon is too powerful. I can’t wait for death. I have to take the initiative to attack!”

Jordan took out the Iron Man Armor and forcefully took a flaming attack from the horned dragon. Then, he soared into the sky. He was at the same height as the golden-horned dragon.

Seeing that Jordan had also flown up, Mike Baylor flew down directly and stood beside the Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa.

Mike Baylor smiled and said, “It doesn’t seem wise for this kid to fight my Horned Dragon in the sky.”

Jiumo Kasyapa also said, “Amitabha. Deity Jordan has yet to awaken his flying ability. I don’t know how long he can last with his technological armor.”

Mike Baylor snorted. “Two more spits of fire and his armor will turn to ash.”

The Moon Maiden looked at Jordan in the sky. “He should know that he’s no match for him in the sky. Why do I feel that he has other motives?”

The moon maiden's guess was correct. Jordan had flown up specifically not to fight the golden-horned dragon in the sky, but to seal the horned dragon's "mouth"!

Since the golden-horned dragon could spit fire, Jordan would seal its mouth directly!

Jordan took the initiative to fly in front of the golden-horned dragon to lure it to attack.

As expected, the golden-horned dragon was tricked. It immediately opened its mouth and prepared to attack Jordan again.

However, the moment the golden-horned dragon opened its mouth, Jordan was the first to create something out of nothing. He created piles of rocks the size of the dragon's mouth and stuffed them into the horned dragon's mouth!

"Oh sh*t!"

Mike Baylor, who was on the ground, realized what Jordan was thinking.

Bang bang bang bang bang bang!

Incomparably hard rocks were stuffed into the golden-horned dragon's mouth one after another.

Other than rocks, Jordan had also conjured a lot of things. Rubber, rotten trees, and poisonous grass. To fill the golden-horned dragon's mouth as quickly as possible, Jordan did not have time to think. He conjured whatever came to mind.

There was even a box of Durex stuffed inside.

Salvatore was also shocked. "Damn! Mr. Jordan is mighty! I saw some familiar things! Can that sort of thing be digested if fed to the horned dragon?"

Rong Bingshao was also dumbfounded. "Jordan really has a hundred ways to deal with the enemy. Thankfully, he didn't use this move against me when he fought me. If he stuffed so many things into my mouth, I would feel worse than dying.”

In just a few seconds, Jordan had conjured hundreds of things and stuffed them into the golden-horned dragon’s mouth.

The golden-horned dragon was completely unprepared and many things were swallowed.

“Don’t eat it!”

Mike Baylor warned the golden-horned dragon, but it was too late.

The huge body of the golden-horned dragon began to sway in the air.

After a few seconds...

Blargh...

The golden-horned dragon actually vomited!

“Damn! The Horned Dragon vomited! F*ck, the smell is so strong, I’m going to vomit too.”

“To be able to make such a powerful golden-horned dragon vomit, Jordan is extraordinary!”

At this moment, Mike Baylor did not look too good. The Moon Maiden and Jiumo Kasyapa looked impressed. They were both stunned by Jordan.

The Moon Maiden even praised him directly, “Jordan, this young man, always has wild ideas. If it were me, I would never have thought of using this move to deal with the golden-horned dragon.”

His incomparably mighty golden-horned dragon had vomited in public, making Mike Baylor feel very embarrassed.

Mike Baylor directly reprimanded, “Don’t embarrass me anymore! Use your strength!”

When the golden-horned dragon heard Mike Baylor's order, it pulled itself together. Coupled with Jordan's humiliation just now, it was furious!

The golden-horned dragon danced continuously in the sky. The sky also changed abruptly, and lightning kept appearing.

BOOM!

The golden-horned dragon drew a bolt of lightning and attacked Jordan!
