

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

- Chapter 1300 - 1304

Immortal Lake Banquet! -

Goddess of the Immortal Lake!

Rong Bingshao was very curious. "So the Goddess of Immortal Lake is like this? No wonder I mistook you for the Goddess of Immortal Lake the first time I saw her!"

The Moon Maiden replied, "No, I don't know what the Goddess of Immortal Lake looks like. I haven't seen her clearly. I can only vaguely sense that she has this style and temperament.

"Ever since I realized the existence of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake, I've undergone plastic surgery to look like her. Even when I dress and speak, I'm like a goddess. Hehe, actually, I'm a fake after all. How can I compare to the real Goddess of the Immortal Lake?"

The Moon Maiden couldn't help but sigh. It could be seen that the Moon Maiden had been walking the path of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake all these years. Even her appearance was similar to hers.

Her infatuation with the Goddess of the Immortal Lake seemed to be no less than Rong Bingshao's infatuation with the Moon Maiden.

The Moon Maiden paused for a few seconds and looked at Rong Bingshao again. "Now, you know my true appearance. I'm just an old and ugly old woman. Stop fantasizing about me and go after a girl who suits you."

However, even though he knew that the Moon Maiden was originally very ugly, Rong Bingshao still had an infatuated look on his face. "Miss Moon Maiden! I don't care how old you are, or how ugly you were in the past. I only know that at this moment, you fascinate me! As long as I don't see you, I feel that there's no point in living. Please let me stay by your side. You can treat me as a pet or a dog. I don't care!"

"Oh?"

The Moon Maiden cried out in surprise. The descendant of the most noble family in the world, with such a young appearance, was actually willing to be an old woman's dog?

The Moon Maiden became interested in Rong Bingshao and asked, "Are you really willing to let go of your identity, your dignity, and follow me?"

Rong Bingshao nodded very seriously. "Yes, I've already died once. That dignified Rong Bingshao is dead! I don't want to live for the family anymore. I only want to live for myself! I only want to be with the person I like!"

"Hahaha."

The Moon Maiden smiled, seemingly satisfied with Rong Bingshao's response.

She had already let Rong Bingshao know that she had been imitating the "Goddess of Immortal Lake", and she was just maintaining an image to the outside world. In fact, the Moon Maiden was also an ordinary woman and had the needs of ordinary women.

Thus, the Moon Maiden stopped pretending to be cold and aloof. She took the initiative to extend her cold jade-like hand and gently stroked Rong Bingshao's young and tender face. She smiled and said, "What a young aura. It's been a long time since I've felt a man of your age."

Rong Bingshao was pleasantly surprised and asked, "Miss Moon Maiden, does this mean that you... agree?"

The Moon Maiden smiled brightly and nodded. "Yes, kneel down."

Immortal Lake.

After Mike Baylor and Victoria came back, they went to the Immortal Lake together.

After successfully completing the memory tampering with Jordan, Mike Baylor was very happy because he knew that all he had to do next was wait. Soon, Jordan would agree to his grand plan to create the fifth golden mutant and summon the Goddess of the Immortal Lake together!

That afternoon, Mike Baylor rushed all the mutant brothers to the side of the Immortal Lake. The table was filled with wine glasses and food, and everyone drank and celebrated.

Mike Baylor even used a weather weapon with interest, causing a rainbow to appear in the sky that looked very beautiful.

"The Chief seems to be very happy today. This is the first time I've seen him gather us for a drink in broad daylight!"

"That's right, why are you so happy? Could it be that the golden horned dragon's eyes have been healed?"

“No, I went to feed it just now. It’s a one-eyed dragon!”

“Strange, what could possibly make Chief so happy?”

The mutants began to guess why Mike Baylor was so happy.

Even Randall didn’t know the reason. Only Victoria knew. Moreover, Victoria had a reason to be happier than Mike Baylor, because the fifth golden mutant that was about to be created was her!

Previously, when she found out that Mike Baylor was holding a cocktail party, Victoria specially wore a sexy blue low-cut mermaid dress. Her impressive figure was visible to everyone.

Previously, Mike Baylor had said that he despised her for being thin as she lost her original figure. When Victoria came back, she injected herself with a body shaping serum. She had already become more voluptuous than before, and her complexion had also improved.

Holding two champagne glasses in her hands, Victoria walked up to Mike Baylor. “Chief, please raise your glass.”

Victoria was already used to being the vice president. She was very used to what she was doing now.

Mike Baylor glanced at her figure and praised, “Victoria, this mermaid dress is very beautiful.”

“Thank you.”

Victoria smiled and thanked him.

Then, Mike Baylor took the wine glass and said to everyone, “Brothers of the Mutant Tribe, you don’t have to do anything today. Drink to your heart’s content!”

At this moment, someone asked, “Chief, what is it that makes you so happy? Tell us and share it with us!”

Mike Baylor smiled. “My big plan will be realized soon. I’ve waited for this day for many years! Don’t worry, when my strength improves further in the future, I can reach the level of establishing a sect. All of you can be like Randall and be my disciples. I will raise the status of the entire tribe!”

Hearing this, everyone hurriedly knelt down to Mike Baylor. “Thank you, Chief! Thank you, Master!”

“Hahaha...”

Mike Baylor drank happily.

On the side, Victoria slowly placed the wine glass on her red lips with a smile on her face.

However, at this moment, Randall walked over and whispered, “Victoria, come over and have a chat with me.”

Victoria looked at him with disdain. “Have you forgotten the rules of the Mutant Tribe? According to the hierarchy, I am purple while you are black. You should call me Miss Victoria.”

At this moment, Victoria despised Randall very much. In the past, Randall lied to her body and heart.

In particular, Randall insisted on sleeping with her next door that night, causing Jordan to develop a great hatred for her. She even crossed time and space to alleviate this problem. If it was because of Randall that Victoria could not become a golden mutant, and she would hate Randall for the rest of her life.

Randall was very displeased when he heard Victoria’s words. “F*ck, this bitch. When I was the Chief in the past, she was respectful to me. Now, she actually wants me to call her Miss Victoria?”

It was difficult for Randall to have respect for a woman he had already slept with.

However, Randall still suppressed his grievance and called out, “Miss Victoria, can I talk to you for a moment?”

Victoria felt much better after hearing this title, so she took a few steps to the side.

“What is it?” Victoria asked coldly.

Randall said, “Where did you go with my Master? Why is he so happy after you guys came back? Why is he so sure that Jordan will agree to his big plan? Did the two of you do something to Jordan?”

Victoria held her wine glass and recalled the pickled fish that she had personally made for Jordan. It changed Jordan’s memory. Due to her guilty conscience, she took a sip of wine and replied, “No, what can we do to him?”

Randall was skeptical. He knew Victoria’s ambition. She would do anything to become a golden mutant.

Randall looked at Victoria's sexy outfit and smiled. "Victoria, did you serve Master well these two days? Did Master mind that I slept with you? Sigh, if I had known earlier, I wouldn't have chased after you that night."

Victoria was furious when she heard Randall say that he regretted having sex with her. "How dare you say such things? When I just broke up with Jordan and was at my most sad and helpless state, you took advantage of the situation and deceived me with words. Now, you're even saying such sarcastic words?"

"Also, watch your mouth. I have a pure superior-subordinate relationship with the Chief. Don't spread rumors. Otherwise, if I don't attack you, the Chief won't let you off!"

Randall was stunned. "What did you say? You haven't slept together?"

Victoria replied. "Of course we haven't slept together! Who do you think I am? Do you think I will sleep with him just because the Chief is a golden mutant? Randall, don't think that I'm a cheap woman just because I progressed very quickly with you. I can progress very quickly with any man.

"I was willing to be with you for a few reasons.. On one hand, I just broke up with Jordan. I had a grudge in my heart and wanted to vent it. On the other hand, some time before that, I thought that when Jordan died, you were the one who had always cared for me in the name of being his uncle. I was only willing because I had a good impression of you. I'm not a cheap woman who would sleep with anyone casually!"

Victoria hated Randall for using their relationship to infer her relationship with Mike Baylor.

She often encountered such things when she was the vice president of a listed company. She clearly did not have that kind of relationship with the company's president, but her subordinates thought that she, the vice president, must have slept with him.

However, ever since the two of them had transmigrated, their relationship had indeed become a little ambiguous. After all, Mike Baylor had personally seen Victoria's body and the entire process with Shaun.

As soon as Victoria thought of this, she was too embarrassed to look directly at Mike Baylor.

Randall said, "Victoria, don't be angry. I didn't say that you're a cheap woman. Of course, I know that you're definitely not a casual woman. Otherwise, why would I spend so much effort to fabricate a lie about Jordan's death and use so much strength to please you and make you like me? I know that you have a good impression of me. I can also be sure that if Jordan really dies at that time, it won't be long before you really marry me.

“Victoria, I really like you. I know you’re looking forward to becoming the fifth golden mutant, but if I hadn’t recommended you in front of my master, do you think you would have gotten this opportunity?”

Victoria fell silent. Speaking of which, she really needed to thank Randall for this matter.

Randall said, “Victoria, I know you’re very arrogant and don’t want to throw yourself at Master, but for your future and to become a golden mutant, I advise you to seize the opportunity.”

Victoria answered. “The chief has promised me that he will make me the fifth golden mutant!”

Randall smiled. “You sound like a teenage girl. Can you believe everything a man says? If you’re just Master’s subordinate, it’s the same if he choose you or someone else. But what if you’re Master’s woman? Don’t you have a better chance of winning? To make sure you get that spot, I suggest you increase your leverage.”

With that, he left with his wine glass.

Randall’s words made Victoria anxious. She began to wonder if Mike Baylor would go back on his word afterward.

Victoria looked at Mike Baylor, who didn’t take care of himself, and felt very upset.

At this moment, a subordinate suddenly ran over.

“Chief! There are more than ten planes flying towards Mount Denali at high speed. Based on preliminary judgment, they are the Hurricane planes that Jordan took the last time he came to the Immortal Lake! Chief, please instruct us if we should stop them in the air?”

Hearing this, the mutants were all shocked.

“Jordan is here again? How dare he come?!”

“He’s a betrayer! He even killed our good brothers Matt and Aaron. Chief, let’s start a war!”

“Let’s fight! We’ll teach him a lesson this time!”

The mutants were all very excited because they knew that if Jordan did not die, Jordan would still settle scores with them and kill them when they went overseas to have fun in the future.

“What? Jordan is here?”

Mike Baylor was also surprised. He then turned around and looked at Victoria, who was also surprised.

“Could it be...”

Victoria walked up to Mike Baylor and didn't finish her sentence, but Mike Baylor already understood what she wanted to say.

Could it be that their memory tampering with Jordan had taken effect?

Was that why Jordan came to the Immortal Lake? To discuss a collaboration with Mike Baylor?

At that thought, Mike Baylor laughed. “Hahaha, good timing! Pass down my orders. Don't stop Jordan. Bring him in!”

“Yes!”

Linus was puzzled and asked, “Chief, why are you so polite to Jordan? He injured one of your golden horned dragon's eyes the last time he came.”

Mike Baylor said, “Jordan is not here to cause trouble. He's here to give me benefits.”

“Benefits?”

Everyone did not understand. They knew that Jordan was not a good person. Wherever he went, there would be chaos. They had never heard of Jordan coming all the way here to give benefits to anyone.

Mike Baylor smiled and said, “That's right. He must have thought it through and specially came to talk to me about cooperation. Everyone, my big plan is about to come true!”

Hearing this, Victoria was extremely excited. She thought to herself, ‘It must be that Jordan's memory change has already taken effect. He'll definitely be willing to help me be the next golden mutant.’

At this moment, Victoria also felt that she was extremely close to becoming a golden mutant!

“I'm going to change.”

Victoria looked at her sexy mermaid dress. It was low-cut and a bit too revealing. She knew that Jordan was a conservative man, so she put down her glass immediately and walked to her room.

1301 Jordan Is Here!

Victoria felt much better after hearing this title, so she took a few steps to the side.

“What is it?” Victoria asked coldly.

Randall said, “Where did you go with my Master? Why is he so happy after you guys came back? Why is he so sure that Jordan will agree to his big plan? Did the two of you do something to Jordan?”

Victoria hated Randall for using their relationship to infer her relationship with Mike Baylor.

“I’m going to change.”

Victoria looked at her sexy mermaid dress. It was low-cut and a bit too revealing. She knew that Jordan was a conservative man, so she put down her glass immediately and walked to her room.

1302 Fight Again!

Soon, Jordan led Salvatore, Dragon, Park Sora, and the others arrived at the Immortal Lake.

Seeing that Mike Baylor and the mutants were actually celebrating at a banquet, the anger in his heart became even stronger.

How could Jordan tolerate drinking and having fun here after they did so many bad things!

However, Mike Baylor did not notice Jordan’s hatred at the moment. He thought that Jordan came to look for him because his memories had been tampered with.

After Mike Baylor saw Jordan, he smiled happily and said, “Hi Jordan, we meet again! I suddenly feel that I also have some heavenly god-level talent. I have great foresight. I organized a cocktail party in advance to celebrate. Come over, I’ll treat you to a drink!”

Faced with Mike Baylor’s polite invitation, Jordan did not appreciate it at all. He walked over and said furiously, “Mike Baylor, you’ve done all kinds of bad things. These brothers beside me were almost killed by you! You violated your previous promise. You placed your mutated beasts in the capital, disturbed the citizens, and killed innocent people. Today, I’m here to settle the score with you!”

Park Sora also snorted coldly. “Hmph, that’s right. You poisoned me. Today, I’ll make you pay the price!”

In an instant, Mike Baylor was stunned.

Initially, he thought that Jordan had come to work with him after they altered his memories. He did not expect Jordan to still hate him and even want to settle scores with him!

“Are you here because your men got hurt?”

Jordan said, "Nonsense. Do you think I'm here to drink with you?"

Mike Baylor shook his head and thought to himself, "Looks like the memory tampering on him hasn't taken effect yet. Damn it, I was happy for nothing."

At that moment, seeing that Jordan did not come with good intentions, the people from the Mutant Tribe were the first to clamor at Jordan.

Linus said, "Jordan, you're a defeated opponent. You've already lost to our Chief in the previous battle. Are you asking for humiliation by coming again today?"

Linus and Matt had a good relationship. After Matt was killed by Jordan, he was in a bad mood and was very afraid. At that time, Matt wasn't originally going to go with Aaron, but with Linus. As Linus had something on at the last minute, so he didn't go with him.

If Linus had been there, he would have been dead too.

Jordan looked at Linus and said, "You're not qualified to talk to me. If you don't want to die now, scram."

Jordan's domineering aura made Linus afraid to say anything else. He knew that it would be easy for Jordan to kill him.

At that moment, Mike Baylor said, "Jordan, you killed two of my subordinates first. I didn't even settle the score with you. How dare you come to see me again because of this?"

Jordan said, "You should know very well why I killed your two subordinates! You allowed your subordinates to cause trouble everywhere and raped beautiful women. They deserve to die!"

Mike Baylor snorted coldly. "To be blessed by a member of our Mutant Tribe, it's something they would never get in several lifetimes! The bloodline of the Mutant Tribe is one in a million. What's there to pity about those ordinary women!"

Jordan knew that this group of mutants valued the talent of mutants more than anything else. They thought that mutants were nobler than ordinary people.

Therefore, even if they raped women, they would feel that it was their honor.

Jordan also knew that if the public really knew about the existence of the mutants, there would definitely be many women who would fantasize and look forward to having sex with the mutants. They would definitely accept it happily and even show off.

Jordan said, "Alright, I won't argue with you about this for the time being. What if you change our memories?!"

Mike Baylor was shocked. He suddenly panicked. Did Jordan already know that he had changed his memory?

For the first time, Mike Baylor stuttered and pretended not to understand. "What... What did you say?"

Jordan scoffed coldly, "Don't think that I don't know what you did previously! You experimented in the coastal cities and used some seafood products to tamper with the memories of ordinary citizens, causing their memories to be messed up. I'm one of the victims!"

At that moment, Randall stood up and said to Mike Baylor, "Master, it's my fault. Jordan asked me about this before. I must have acted a little flustered, so he saw some clues. This kid has been looking down on authority since he was young. He's very good at guessing what is on people's mind."

Randall thought that Jordan had guessed that Mike Baylor was the culprit because of him. In fact, Jiumo Kasyapa told Jordan himself.

Mike Baylor thought that Jordan knew that he and Victoria had specially transmigrated to change his memory. He relaxed when he heard that it was a small experiment done on many people in the past.

Mike Baylor chuckled and said, "You're very smart to deduce that I did this."

Jordan said angrily, "It's good that you admit it! First, you sent your subordinates to rape women. Then, you sent mutated beasts to disturb the capital. You're so ambitious and changed the memories of people. With these three crimes, I won't allow you to stay here anymore. I want you to leave Immortal Lake immediately!"

Mike Baylor had disregarded the lives and chastity of the innocent people. How could Jordan let him stay here?

Randall said angrily, "Jordan! You have no right to chase my Master away! I've already made it very clear last time about the ownership of the Immortal Lake. You'll fight my master one-on-one. Whoever wins will control this place. If you lose, you have to admit defeat!"

Park Sora suddenly interrupted, "Who said that Jordan lost? It's clearly a draw. Hmph, if they fight again, who knows who will win and who will lose."

Salvatore said, "Sora, how can you say that it's a draw? Mr. Jordan clearly won. Think about it, that golden-horned dragon lost an eye, and our Mr. Jordan is unharmed. Mr. Jordan definitely won."

Their unreasonable words infuriated the mutants.

“You’re being unreasonable! Everyone with eyes saw that Jordan lost last time. He even admitted it!”

“Shameless. You clearly lost, but you said you won. Heavenly god? Pfft!”

The mutants started cursing. Salvatore and the others did not care. They wanted to anger these people and force them to fight Jordan again.

Jordan looked at Mike Baylor and said, “Last time, I was worried that you, the Moon Maiden, and Jumo Kasyapa would join forces to deal with me, so I only used 30% of my strength. This time, I’ll fight you seriously. Let’s have another round to decide who will be the master of the Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe!”

Hearing this, Mike Baylor also became furious. “Thirty percent? You arrogant fellow, you’re really shameless. You were beaten like a dog by my golden-horned dragon last time. If it wasn’t for the fact that you were still useful to me, you would have died at my golden-horned dragon’s hands last time! You actually dare to boast shamelessly?”

“Jordan, who gave you the courage to come here and embarrass yourself today?!”

1303 Escape?

A few days ago, Jordan had just fought the golden-horned dragon. In that battle, it was obvious that Jordan had no way to deal with the golden-horned dragon.

Although he had blinded one of the golden-horned dragon’s eyes through his scheme, in front of absolute strength, Jordan was no match for the golden-horned dragon at all.

In just a few days, Mike Baylor did not think that there would be any qualitative change in Jordan’s strength.

Jordan guessed that Mike Baylor would look down on him, and he urged, “Whether I’m embarrassing myself or not, we’ll only know after we fight!”

Mike Baylor could not tolerate Jordan’s provocation either. He said angrily, “Jordan, you’re fearless just because you’re useful to me and I won’t kill you, right? You blinded one of my golden-horned dragon’s eyes last time. Alright, since you’ve humiliated yourself today, I’ll blind both of your eyes! In any case, what I need is your bloodline. Even if you become blind, you can still be used by me!”

“Golden-horned Dragon!”

“Amitabha!”

Just as Mike Baylor was about to summon his golden-horned dragon, Jumo Kasyapa suddenly appeared in front of everyone, making many people jump.

Jumo Kasyapa looked at Mike Baylor and Jordan, “Mr. Baylor and Deity Jordan, didn’t the two of you just fight once? Why are you fighting again?”

When Mike Baylor saw Jumo Kasyapa, he said loudly, “Monk, you came at the right time. Jordan, this loser, refused to accept his loss and wants to fight my golden-horned dragon again. You’ll be the witness here. Watch how I avenge my golden-horned dragon and gouge out Jordan’s eyes!”

When Jumo Kasyapa heard that Mike Baylor wanted to blind Jordan, he immediately became nervous. “Mr. Baylor, you can’t do that! Deity Jordan is an indispensable part of your master plan. If you hurt him, it will affect your master plan.”

Mike Baylor said angrily, “Don’t worry, I know what to do. Even if he’s blind, he can still summon the goddess!”

Jumo Kasyapa said, “Since the two of you are going to fight again, should we invite the Moon Maiden over first?”

Mike Baylor said, “I’m in charge of Immortal Lake now. Why do we have to invite her for everything? If I say we can fight, we can fight!”

Subsequently, Mike Baylor looked at Jordan with a murderous look, “Jordan, I didn’t let my golden-horned dragon kill you last time. It’s different this time. You better watch yourself!”

With that, Mike Baylor immediately waved his hands and summoned the golden-horned dragon that was resting in the distance.

After hearing the call, the golden-horned dragon immediately woke up and rose into the air. Knowing that it was going to fight, it let out a series of violent roars.

Roar!

Roar!

At this time, Victoria was in her room, having just changed from her revealing attire. She couldn’t help but tremble after hearing the golden-horned dragon’s astonishing roar.

Victoria stopped dressing up in front of the mirror and walked out immediately. As soon as she walked out, she saw everyone gathered around. Jordan had also arrived at the Immortal Lake.

“Jordan...”

Victoria was about to walk over and greet Jordan. At the same time, she wanted to test if Jordan's memory modification was successful.

However, in the next second, the golden-horned dragon circling in the sky immediately went crazy when it saw Jordan. It attacked Jordan instantly.

BOOM!

BOOM!

The golden-horned dragon used the power of lightning to hit Jordan.

When Victoria saw this from afar, she was frightened on the spot.

As the saying went, when enemies met, their eyes would turn red. Not long ago, Jordan had just blinded one of the golden-horned dragon's eyes. Now that the golden-horned dragon saw Jordan again, its anger was simply monstrous!

Mike Baylor also instructed the golden-horned dragon, "Big baby, blind his eyes. This time, don't hold back. Beat him to death!"

After receiving the order, the golden-horned dragon became even more fearless. It used its full strength, wanting to kill Jordan.

"Damn, although this golden-horned dragon is blind in one eye, it feels much fiercer than last time! I wonder if Mr. Jordan can deal with it."

Salvatore and the others were forced to hide at the side. They could not help but worry about Jordan when they saw that the golden-horned dragon seemed to be even more difficult to deal with than last time.

"Brother, come on!"

Park Sora did not dare to go forward and could only stand at the side to cheer.

The mutants began to discuss among themselves.

"Who do you think will win this battle?"

"Although Jordan's strength is not good, he's a Deity. He must have predicted the outcome before coming. He won't fight a battle he's not confident in."

"Hmph, I think he's just a piece of trash who came to seek revenge for his subordinates. How could he have thought of a way to deal with the golden-horned dragon in just a few days?"

Jordan did not respond directly to the golden-horned dragon's attack. Instead, he transformed into his Iron Man armor and flew up.

Instead of flying up to fight the golden-horned dragon directly, he flew away into the distance, leaving Immortal Lake.

"F*ck! Jordan ran away!"

"No way? He just started fighting and ran away? Didn't he arrange this fight?"

"Could it be a diversion? He must have set up a trap somewhere outside!"

When the golden-horned dragon saw Jordan flying out, it immediately flew out as well.

Mike Baylor frowned and thought about why Jordan did this. He flew up and followed him to take a look. The others also used their superpowers or took a plane to watch the show like last time.

Just as Jiumo Kasyapa was about to follow, a woman's hand suddenly grabbed him.

"Master Jiumo."

The woman's voice was gentle and sweet. It was Victoria.

When Jiumo Kasyapa saw Victoria in red, he quickly said, "Ah, so it's Miss Victoria. I'm happy to see you again."

Victoria was also very polite to this golden mutant. She said, "Master Jiumo, hello. I'm also very happy to see you again. I went to change my clothes just now. Can I ask Master Jiumo what happened just now? Why did Jordan and the golden-horned dragon fight?"

Jiumo Kasyapa said, "I don't know the reason either. When I arrived just now, I heard that Deity Jordan and Mr. Baylor were going to have a second battle. It seems that Deity Jordan was not satisfied with the result of the last battle and wanted to challenge him again to fight for the ownership of Immortal Lake."

When Victoria heard that, she thought to herself, "I can't believe Jordan is here to fight a second round with Mike Baylor. It seems like our memory tampering on Jordan hasn't taken effect yet."

After a slight pause, Victoria asked with a smile, "Master Jiumo, I heard that the golden-horned dragon is very powerful. I'm very worried that something will happen to Jordan, and I'm also very concerned about their competition. However, I don't know how to fly. Can I ask Master Jiumo to give me a ride to their duel?"

Only then did Jiumo Kasyapa know that Victoria had come to hitch a ride with him.

Jiumo Kasyapa smiled and said, "Of course."

Victoria was also very happy. "I can just grab your arm, right?"

Ever since she was teleported twice by Jiumo Kasyapa, Victoria had fallen in love with this feeling. The feeling of reaching another place in an instant was too wonderful!

1304 Avoiding Battle?

Not to mention Victoria, even Jordan enjoyed the feeling of being teleported to another place in an instant.

Sometimes, Jordan was very envious of Jiumo Kasyapa and hoped that he had this ability.

Jiumo Kasyapa said respectfully, "Yes, please hold on to me, Miss Victoria. Deity Jordan and the others are heading west. They are still flying and haven't landed yet, so we may need to teleport to several places along the way. We won't arrive as quickly as last time."

Victoria nodded repeatedly. "I understand, I will hold on tight. Teleport as fast as you can, don't worry about me, I won't lose you."

After that, Victoria grabbed Jiumo Kasyapa's arm tightly. As he said, the teleportation this time was indeed a little "turbulent". As Jordan had been flying without stopping, after Jiumo Kasyapa teleported to a location, he saw Jordan fly away from the sky and continue to the next location ahead.

Finally, Jordan stopped at a mountain range where he had fought the golden-horned dragon last time.

When he arrived at the mountain range, Jordan did not continue flying forward. Instead, he arrived at the ground in advance and found a place to hide.

Mike Baylor and the mutants were not far behind. They arrived around the same time as Jordan.

Seeing that Jordan was no longer flying, the mutants also jumped down from the plane and landed on the ground. They started discussing.

"Why didn't Jordan fight at Immortal Lake? Why did he fly to this place? Did he set a trap here?"

“That’s unlikely. This place isn’t far from Immortal Lake, and it’s also under the watch of our Mutant Tribe. If anyone came or made any movements nearby, our people would have reported it to the Chief long ago.”

“Don’t forget that last time, Jordan blinded the golden-horned dragon here. This is where Jordan’s confidence gathers! It’s also the golden-horned dragon’s nightmare! Look, the golden-horned dragon is clearly a little afraid when it comes here.”

“Looks like he wants to continue blinding the golden-horned dragon’s second eye here. If the golden-horned dragon is blind, it might really not be Jordan’s match!”

The people of the Mutant Tribe began to guess Jordan’s motive for coming here.

At this moment, Jumo Kasyapa and Victoria also teleported here. In fact, they had already passed by. Just now, they were teleported to a memory point in front of them. They thought that Jordan would continue to fly. When they saw Jordan stop here, they retreated.

At this moment, Victoria let go of Jumo Kasyapa’s arm and asked him, “Master Jumo, why do you think Jordan chose to fight here? Will he have a better chance of winning here?”

Jumo Kasyapa was probably the only person who could guess Jordan’s thoughts. However, he replied, “Deity Jordan’s actions are mysterious and his thoughts are detached. I cannot fathom why either.”

Mike Baylor flew in the air and arrived at this place again. He could not help but recall the tragic state of the golden-horned dragon the last time it was here.

“Brat, you still want to use such a despicable method to plot against my golden-horned dragon? Do you think I’m that stupid to play with you on the ground?”

Mike Baylor had experienced Jordan’s cunning tricks last time and knew that he had many ways to deceive the golden-horned dragon.

After all, dragons were dragons. Although they had an absolute advantage in defense and strength, they were still inferior to humans in terms of intelligence and schemes.

Therefore, Mike Baylor did not intend to let the golden-horned dragon fall into Jordan’s trap again.

Thus, Mike Baylor instructed the golden-horned dragon, “Don’t go down, just bombard him from the sky. I don’t believe he won’t come out!”

After receiving the order, the golden-horned dragon directly used the power of lightning and continuously attacked the direction where Jordan was dodging.

Not long after, the mountain rocks kept cracking, and the rocks at the top of the mountain kept rolling down.

In the beginning, everyone could still see Jordan's shadow. Gradually, his location was completely buried by the rocks.

Not only that, but the golden-horned dragon also spat out flames. The raging flames pierced through the cracks in the mountain rocks the place where Jordan was hiding to force him out.

Jordan was constantly being hunted down. The rocks on his body were getting higher and higher, but he did not counterattack or appear.

“Hahaha, that coward Jordan has been hiding inside and doesn't dare to come out. He came all the way to Immortal Lake to challenge me. I thought he had some amazing methods, but in the end, he's just hiding and not fighting! What dog sh*t heavenly deity? He's simply trash! He's not even as good as last time! Last time, at least he still had a lot of methods, fighting back and forth with the golden-horned dragon. This time, he directly holed up in his cave, not daring to fight anymore!

“Hahaha, he must have known that with his current ability to create something out of nothing, he wouldn't be able to injure the golden-horned dragon no matter how he attacked, so he didn't dare to attack recklessly and waste his stamina. Otherwise, like last time, he would be exhausted in a few hours. Hahaha.”

Seeing that Jordan had been suppressed by the golden-horned dragon and did not have any means to counterattack, and that he had been hiding in the rock without coming out, the mutants began to mock him.

At that moment, Victoria felt uncomfortable when she saw Jordan being mocked. However, she felt much more relaxed.

“As long as Jordan is fine, it's fine. If you can't beat him, then don't fight. There's nothing to be ashamed of, right, Master Jiumo?”

Victoria looked at Jiumo Kasyapa.

At the scene, only Jiumo Kasyapa knew that the reason why Jordan hid below and did not fight back was not because he was afraid of the golden-horned dragon, but because he was holding back his ultimate move!

Yes, Jordan was loading his Hell Space!

As Hell Space was not just one thing, but a large number of things, it could be said to be an enclosed world. Therefore, it was not easy to create it out of nothing. It would take a long time.

Before the Hell Space was loaded, Jordan had to find a good position to resist the golden-horned dragon's attack. When Hell Space came out, he could fight back.

In Jiumo Kasyapa's opinion, Jordan was still a little anxious. He came to Immortal Lake to challenge Mike Baylor as soon as Hell Space was completed. Based on his judgment of Jordan's ability, he would definitely be able to shorten the time needed to load the Hell Space in time. He would not have to be in such a sorry state now.

Jiumo Kasyapa smiled and said, "Miss Victoria is right. I'm sorry to ask, but isn't Miss Victoria a mutant? Why are you still thinking about Deity Jordan?"

Victoria asked back. "Master, have you ever been in love?"

Jiumo Kasyapa shook his head and said, "I have been studying Buddhism since I was young, and I have never had any romantic feelings."

Victoria sighed. "If you have been in love before, you will know that you have no right to speak about a man you have loved."

Jiumo Kasyapa smiled and nodded. "Although I have never been in a relationship, I believe that people who value relationships will definitely be rewarded. Miss Victoria can still care so much about Deity Jordan after breaking up with him. I believe that if you encounter any difficulties or need anything, Deity Jordan will definitely help you."

Jiumo Kasyapa's words could be said to have touched Victoria's heart.

Victoria hoped that she could become a golden mutant and obtain Jordan's support.

Of course, the vote of golden mutant Jiumo Kasyapa was also very important. This was also one of the reasons why Victoria specially came to greet him and build a good relationship.

Although Jiumo Kasyapa's status among the golden mutants was very low, as long as the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor agreed, he would definitely agree.

Usually, stupid women would not be too concerned with men who did not have much say. They would only curry favor with powerful men.

The reason why Victoria could become the vice president of a listed company was that she was smarter than others. She would not treat Jiumo Kasyapa differently from other golden mutants just because his status was low. Instead, she respected him as much as she respected Mike Baylor.

Just like that, a few minutes later, Jordan was still at the bottom of the mountain. He was attacked but he did not come out.

Meanwhile, the mutants stood at the side and mocked Jordan. All the while Jordan remained indifferent to their derision.

In fact, even Mike Baylor shouted at Jordan in the air, “Jordan, you piece of trash. You were almost buried in the ground by my golden-horned dragon. Are you here to play dead? If you don’t come out, I’ll make a tombstone above your head!”

At that moment, Victoria frowned. She looked at the calm Jiumo Kasyapa and said, “Master, based on my understanding of Jordan, he definitely won’t tolerate others bullying him like this for so long. The more Jordan hides below, the more I feel that he has a way to deal with the golden-horned dragon. Master, who do you think will win this time, Jordan or the golden-horned dragon?”

Jiumo Kasyapa smiled and said, “Everything is an illusion. Today, Jordan defeated the golden-horned dragon, and in the future, someone will defeat Jordan. No matter who wins or loses, the essence of everything is the void. Just like when you start a fire with wood. You think it’s a fire, but when the wood burns out, the fire doesn’t exist.

“Miss Victoria, why are you so obsessed with these illusions? Why don’t you clear your heart and not think about anything? That way, you’ll feel more at ease.”

Victoria didn’t know how to respond to Jiumo Kasyapa’s Buddhist speech. She was silent for a moment and carefully recalled Jiumo Kasyapa’s words. But in the end, Victoria didn’t listen to Jiumo Kasyapa’s profound words. Instead, she remembered the two hypotheses he said.

“He said that Jordan would defeat the golden-horned dragon today... Is this a metaphor or Jiumo Kasyapa’s prediction of this competition?”

Victoria looked at Jiumo Kasyapa, but she couldn’t see through his true thoughts.

Just like that, another ten minutes passed.

Jordan was still hiding under the rock and did not come out. More and more rocks landed on him. Mike Baylor even ordered someone to make a sign for him on it like a tombstone.

However, it was shattered by Park Sora’s freezing power.

“How dare you give my brother a tombstone!”

Park Sora was very angry and shouted at Linus, who was playing with the tombstone.

Linus snorted and mocked, “If you don’t want us to humiliate him, ask him to come out! What does he mean by hiding down there? Did you come all the way here just to see your master under a rock?”

Park Sora stomped her feet in anger. "It's none of your business! You're in a hurry to reincarnate! Can't you die later? Brother is tired. Can't he rest for a while?!"

Linus and the others laughed out loud. "What a joke. If he can't beat him, then he can't beat him. Why are you still saying so many excuses? Rest? It's best if he rests for the rest of his life. Hahaha!"

Park Sora retorted. "You..."

At this time, Salvatore suddenly said, "Sora, don't quarrel with them. Come and play King of Glory."

Park Sora walked over and slapped Salvatore's head. "Do you want me to hit your head?! Brother is being bullied like this, and you're still in the mood to play games? Are you thinking of betraying me? If you dare to betray me, I'll be the first to kill you!"

Dragon said, "Sora, you've misunderstood. How can Salvatore betray us? He thinks that if even we act very anxious, the other party will laugh at us even more fearlessly. If we act very relaxed, the other party might think that we have a chance of winning and not dare to do this."

Park Sora thought for a moment and said, "What you said makes sense! Then let's play games!"

Hence, Salvatore and Park Sora really played a game on the spot.

Park Sora shouted in the game, "Hey General, do you know how to play? You betrayed your teammates and you still have the cheek to say that your damage is full? Do you believe that I will report you?!"

In the game, General also replied, "I don't know how to play? I'm a general on the signal tower at the top of Mount Everest! Solo kill!"

Park Sora complained. "You took my target!"

Park Sora had specially turned on the microphone when she was playing the game. Furthermore, she was speaking very loudly to the people in the game. The people from the mutants beside her could hear her clearly.

Seeing how calm they were, the mutants began to suspect something.

"Could Jordan really have some ultimate move? Otherwise, why aren't Park Sora and the others panicking?"

"Hmph, they're just trying to be mysterious. It's impossible for a coward like Jordan to..."

As they were talking, everyone noticed that Jordan, who was pressed against the mountain rock, suddenly moved!

The mountain rock began to shake. Jordan was about to get up!

“Hmph, you finally dare to come out? I don’t want you to come out now!”

Mike Baylor let the golden-horned dragon fly above Jordan’s head and pressed down on the rocks with its huge body to increase the pressure on Jordan.

“Hahaha, Jordan is being sat on by the golden-horned dragon.”

Everyone laughed again.

However, in the next second, a powerful force erupted from below the golden-horned dragon.

BOOM!

All the rocks on Jordan’s body erupted at that moment.

In the next second, everyone’s vision blurred!

“Damn it, why can’t I see anything all of a sudden!”

At that moment, Jordan had completely loaded his Hell Space. Meanwhile, his Hell Space was surrounded with smoke. People outside the space could not see what was going on inside.

“Oh sh*t!”

Mike Baylor suddenly had a bad feeling. At that moment, his golden-horned dragon was trapped in Hell Space by Jordan.

On the other hand, Mike Baylor and the golden-horned dragon were spiritually connected. He could feel that the golden-horned dragon had suddenly become very flustered.

“Randall!”

Mike Baylor called out to Randall. Randall naturally understood what his Master meant. He wanted him to take a look in the fog. However, when Randall approached the fog, he suddenly stopped moving forward.

“It’s a barrier! Master, there’s a barrier around here. We can’t enter!” Randall shouted to Mike Baylor.

Mike Baylor frowned. He had a bad feeling.

“What is Jordan trying to do?!”
