

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

- Chapter 1308 - 1310

1308 Death!

In fact, Jordan had referenced a setting in zombie movies he had watched. Daoist priests could use talismans to stick on the zombies' heads to suppress them.

However, there was no need to do so here, because even the zombie horned dragon was fake, so how could there be a talisman that could suppress it?

Wasn't it because Jordan could do whatever he wanted?

The reason why Jordan did this was actually to cause more mental damage to the golden-horned dragon.

Jordan had learned psychology from a famous teacher in his early years. He was already at the level of a psychologist. His grasp of human psychology and animal psychology were actually the same.

If he only created a zombie horned dragon to scare the golden-horned dragon, it would only be an elementary method to scare the dragon. If he wanted to make the golden-horned dragon even more afraid, he would first make it go from being afraid to not being afraid.

It was like an electronic song. If one wanted to make an impact during the climax of the drop, there had to be the calm before the storm.

If he wanted to make a person extremely sad, he had to make him feel extremely happy first.

It was the same for a relationship. If you had never loved someone and did not have many happy experiences with her, you would not be sad when you separated. The happier they were when they were together, the more painful it was when they were apart.

Jordan had experienced the two women, Hailey and Victoria, so he understood this principle very well.

Therefore, he had set up a talisman that could seal the Zombie Horned Dragon and made the golden-horned dragon deeply believe this, giving it a chance to breathe.

Sure enough, after the zombie horned dragon was suppressed by the talisman, the golden-horned dragon gradually relaxed. It was no longer as nervous, and Mike Baylor, who was outside the space, also felt much more at ease.

However, it was obvious that Jordan would not let it go so easily forever.

Two minutes later, just as the golden-horned dragon gradually relaxed, Jordan suddenly conjured more than ten huge coffins that rushed towards the golden-horned dragon in unison.

Roar!

The golden-horned dragon was so frightened that it hurriedly retreated. When it saw more than ten coffins like before, its eyes widened in horror!

It knew what was hidden inside. This time, it did not dare to open it again!

Jordan knew that it did not dare to open it, so he opened it for it!

“Open!”

More than ten coffin lids suddenly shattered, revealing that they were all sealed zombie horned dragons!

The golden-horned dragon was so frightened that it didn't even dare to make a sound or breathe! He was afraid that he would wake up this terrifying zombie horned dragon!

Jordan smiled. Looking at the golden-horned dragon's terrified expression, he knew very well that it must be thinking that as long as the seal on these zombie horned dragons was not removed, he would be fine.

Suddenly, a strong wind blew!

Strong winds constantly blew towards these coffins, and the talismans stuck to these zombie horned dragons all began to sway!

Roar!!!!

When the golden-horned dragon saw this scene, it paced back and forth anxiously. It surrounded these coffins and was very anxious, afraid that this sudden gale would blow away these talismans.

Once these seals were blown away...

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Just as the golden-horned dragon was at its most nervous state, Jordan suddenly removed all the seals on the zombie horned dragons' head!

In an instant, the zombie horned dragons lying in the coffins opened their terrifying eyes and walked out of the coffins, heading straight for the golden-horned dragon!

Roarrrr!!!!

The golden-horned dragon let out a heaven-shaking roar!

At this moment, its fear reached its peak!

This roar shocked everyone outside the space. Even the people on Jordan's side looked over in disbelief.

Salvatore was shocked. "This golden-horned dragon... What's wrong? Why is it roaring so loudly?"

Park Sora said, "I don't know. This... this is too exaggerated, right?"

Dragon said, “Unbelievable. Even if Mr. Jordan had the means to deal with the horned dragon, he wouldn’t have been able to make the horned dragon let out such a roar. Generally speaking, to be able to make the opponent scream like this, one’s martial strength must be at least several levels higher. It’s like a child who would only feel such fear when they encounter a tiger or wolf.”

Dragon had the most combat experience and understood various battle situations.

Jordan and the golden-horned dragon were both at the golden level. Even if Jordan could defeat the golden-horned dragon, logically speaking, he should not have made the golden-horned dragon let out a sound like this.

At this time, Mike Baylor also had a bad premonition. “Not good, something is about to happen to the golden-horned dragon. Quickly come out, quickly come out, stop fighting!”

However, it was already too late.

The golden-horned dragon completely believed in zombies now. It knew that it could not defeat so many of its own kind no matter what. It was terrified that it would become one of them.

Therefore, it did not dare to fight at all. Facing the approaching zombies, it only wanted to escape with its life.

Bang!

Bang!

The golden-horned dragon kept banging its head against the boundary of the space in an attempt to escape. However, Jordan’s boundary was the same. The more one exerted strength, the more one could not escape. Instead, the rebound force was greater.

However, the golden-horned dragon didn't understand all of this and continued to ram into it. It smashed its head until it bled and wailed like a mad monster.

Outside the space, Mike Baylor heard the golden-horned Dragon's continuous wails and felt his heart ache. Seeing the continuous sounds coming from the spatial border, he felt helpless. He did not dare to enter the space to save it. All along, he had been controlling his ferocious beasts from afar.

On the other hand, the people from the Mutant Tribe, including Jordan's side, stopped arguing. They were also shocked by the noise and watched in silence and surprise.

Just like that, time passed minute by minute. Just as Jordan was about to make his first missile, the golden-horned dragon fell to the ground and stopped moving.

"Listen, there doesn't seem to be any sound anymore!"

"Yeah, it's so quiet... I wonder how the battle is going. Did the golden-horned dragon win or Jordan..."

Everyone waited nervously for the result.

After a few more seconds, the fog in front of them suddenly dissipated, and everything returned to its previous appearance.

Jordan removed the Hell Space. Everyone saw the bloodied golden-horned dragon lying on the ground.

"Oh my god, Jordan won!"

Seeing this scene, the mutants were all shocked.

"Horned Dragon!"

Mike Baylor immediately flew over and kept slapping the golden-horned dragon, but it no longer responded.

“Heavens, could the golden-horned dragon be dead? Jordan killed the golden-horned dragon? How did he do it?!”

Seeing that Mike Baylor was unable to awaken the golden-horned dragon, everyone guessed that the golden-horned dragon was already dead!

“Doctor! Get me a doctor!”

Mike Baylor roared.

In fact, Mike Baylor himself was the best beast doctor. No one understood the golden-horned dragon’s current state better than him. He sensed that the golden-horned dragon was already dead, but he was unwilling to believe this fact.

Soon, a doctor rushed over and carefully examined the golden-horned dragon’s condition. He said, “I’m very sorry, Chief Baylor. Your golden-horned dragon has already died from excessive shock!”

1309 Moon Maiden Appears!

“What? The golden-horned dragon was scared to death? How is this possible!”

“Heavens, what method did Jordan use to scare the golden-horned dragon to death?!”

“It’s too terrifying! The last time Jordan used hundreds of methods to deal with the golden-horned dragon, I was already amazed! I didn’t expect him to scare the golden-horned dragon to death this time!”

“Hmph, although this golden-horned dragon’s defense is strong, it has just been born not long ago. Its mental endurance is probably not strong. The chief probably has never considered cultivating its mental endurance. Jordan is smart. He knew that he could not kill the horned dragon with a weapon, so he used a mental attack.”

“He has always had many unexpected methods and performances! When he first joined the Eight Great Families, the Steeles was originally the weakest among the Eight Great Families. However, he was able to destroy the Park Family, Miyamoto Family, and other powerful families one after another. Even the head of the Rong Family died at his hands! At that time, he was not a golden mutant!”

At that moment, even the people of the Mutant Tribe began to change their opinion of Jordan.

In the distance, Victoria covered her mouth in shock when she saw Jordan kill the golden-horned dragon alone. Beside her, Jiumo Kasyapa revealed a faint smile. He looked calm as if he had already guessed this outcome.

Jiumo Kasyapa took a step forward and was about to congratulate Jordan when he suddenly received a call from the Moon Maiden.

Jiumo Kasyapa answered the call and saw the Moon Maiden’s appearance.

The Moon Maiden still looked like a perfect fairy. However, in the video, her expression was slightly unnatural. She stroked her long hair and asked, “You were looking for me?”

Jiumo Kasyapa quickly said, “Yes, Moon Maiden, Deity Jordan came to the Immortal Lake again and declared war on Mr. Baylor!”

The Moon Maiden panicked immediately. “What? Jordan fought with Mike Baylor’s golden-horned dragon again? Damn it, it’s been so long. Did anything happen to Jordan?”

Jiumo Kasyapa said, “Deity Jordan is safe and sound. Not a hair of his is missing, but Mr. Baylor’s golden-horned dragon is dead.”

The Moon Maiden looked very surprised. “How is that possible? Come over and take me there immediately!”

Jiumo Kasyapa replied. “Yes!”

After Jiumo Kasyapa received the Moon Maiden's order, he immediately activated his teleportation skill and left.

"Sigh, Master, wait..."

Victoria suddenly wanted to follow Jiumo Kasyapa to find the Moon Maiden. She also wanted to get to know the Moon Maiden and see where she lived.

After all, the Moon Maiden's lifestyle was Victoria's current goal. When she became a golden mutant, she wanted to live like the Moon Maiden. She had many things to learn from her.

At the scene, everyone was shocked that Jordan had killed the golden-horned dragon.

Salvatore shouted at the scene, "This is dominance! This is combat power! So what if it's the golden-horned dragon? It was still scared to death by Mr. Jordan! Mr. Jordan is the ceiling of the golden mutants, the most powerful golden mutant! You guys are blind. You followed the wrong leader. Just wait to regret it, hahahaha!"

Park Sora was also overjoyed. "Brother is awesome! If I knew that the golden-horned dragon was so timid, I would have scared it to death. I think I should go too! I've watched many horror movies in our country, so I'm very experienced!"

Randall could not help but take a few steps back in fear when he saw this outcome. Jordan's strength had already made him, his uncle, unable to believe that this was his nephew.

If he had known that his nephew was so powerful, why would he have taken that man as his master?

At this moment, Mike Baylor was kneeling sadly in front of the golden-horned dragon's corpse. The golden-horned dragon could be said to be his child, and it was he who had developed it bit by bit from nothing.

Mike Baylor was a playboy. He had many children outside, but he did not care about the lives of these children. Only the death of this child in front of him, the death of this golden-horned dragon, left him heartbroken. Tears continuously fell from his eyes.

A month ago, Mike Baylor would never have believed that someone could make him cry like this.

However, Jordan did not sympathize with the sad Mike Baylor at all.

He walked towards Mike Baylor step by step, his eyes still filled with killing intent. "Mike Baylor, I'm not only here to take back Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe today. You have wild ambitions and ulterior motives. If I keep you alive, everyone in the world will be harmed by you in the future.

"Therefore, I'm going to kill you today too!"

BOOM!

A scorching flame instantly appeared on Jordan's right hand!

"What did you say? You reckless little sh*t!"

Mike Baylor was equally furious. He glared at Jordan. He wanted to avenge his golden-horned dragon!

However, in Jordan's opinion, although Mike Baylor could still control other animals, his most powerful ferocious beast, the Golden-horned Dragon, was already dead. The other ferocious beasts could not reach the golden level. Jordan did not care at all!

"I'll send you to hell!"

Jordan flew up and charged at Mike Baylor.

Everyone looked at this scene in a daze. No one dared to interfere. It would be suicidal for low-level people like them to interfere in a battle between golden mutants!

“Jordan, stop!”

However, at this moment, a beautiful woman in a white dress suddenly appeared in the sky. Then, the bright sky suddenly darkened.

BOOM!

An extremely powerful lightning power descended from the sky and slashed at Jordan!

“Heavens, what powerful lightning!”

Previously, everyone had seen the golden-horned dragon invoke the power of lightning. However, the power of lightning in front of them was much stronger than the golden-horned dragon’s. It could be seen from the brightness and range.

BANG!

Jordan was struck by the lightning power and was sent to the ground!

A hole instantly appeared in the ground. No one could see Jordan’s body from the ground. He had already sunk deep into the ground.

“Oh my god, it’s the Moon Maiden! She sent Jordan underground with a bolt of lightning!”

“She’s too strong! She’s the strongest golden mutant! This bolt of lightning seems to have split the sky and the earth!”

“The ground is cracked, man. You can try if you don’t believe me.”

“Could Jordan have been struck to death?”

“Jordan!”

At that moment, Victoria ran over nervously when she saw that something had happened to Jordan. She went to the hole and found Jordan lying in a deep pit. Victoria jumped in immediately and kept shaking Jordan’s body.

“Jordan, are you okay? Please be alright. Jordan, I’m sorry. It’s all my fault. I shouldn’t have asked Master Jiumo to invite the Moon Maiden. I really didn’t expect her to attack you. I thought she would help you... I’m sorry...”

Victoria cried sadly. On one hand, it was because she did have feelings for Jordan. On the other hand, her only goal now was to become a golden mutant.

If Jordan died, she would never be able to become a golden mutant in her life.

1310 Restoring Immortal Lake!

The battle between Jordan and Mike Baylor became even more complicated with the addition of the Moon Maiden. If the Moon Maiden was on Mike Baylor’s side, Jordan would not be able to fight two golden mutants alone.

In the deep pit, Victoria kept shaking Jordan’s body sadly, wanting to wake him up.

Soon, Jordan opened his eyes slowly.

After all, Jordan was a golden mutant. Moreover, he had been injected with serum. His physical defense could be said to be the best among the few golden mutants. It was impossible for him to be killed by the Moon Maiden in one strike.

Moreover, the Moon Maiden had never thought of killing Jordan.

Jordan had just fainted for a moment. He still felt dizzy and his mind was in a mess. It was like a phone that had just been switched off and restarted.

He opened his eyes and saw the crying Victoria. He instinctively called out. “Victoria...”

Victoria smiled immediately when she saw that Jordan had woken up. "Jordan, it's great that you're fine! I knew you wouldn't die so easily!"

After the joy, Victoria suddenly realized how Jordan addressed her.

"He called me Victoria... not my full name."

Ever since he found out that Victoria and Randall were next door to Jordan's room on that rainy night, Jordan had called her by her full name.

Calling her by her full name meant that he was treating her like a stranger. Just calling her Victoria meant that he didn't hate her as much.

"Could it be..."

Before she could think too much, the Moon Maiden descended from the sky like a fairy descending from the heavens.

Seeing the Moon Maiden flying down, Victoria immediately became nervous. She extended her arms to block Jordan and said, "Moon Maiden, you're the earliest and most respected golden mutant. Jordan has always respected you. Please don't attack Jordan again!"

The Moon Maiden sized up Victoria from head to toe while she stared back at her.

"The Moon Maiden is so beautiful... I wonder if she's originally so beautiful. If she is, then she's really the luckiest woman in the world."

Victoria was very envious of the Moon Maiden. She envied her looks and her mutant level.

"Amitabha."

At this time, Jiumo Kasyapa also flew down and said, "Miss Victoria, don't worry. Moon Maiden was too anxious just now, so she hit Deity Jordan a little too hard. Moon Maiden definitely has no intention of hurting Deity Jordan."

Jiumo Kasyapa was very clear about the Moon Maiden's thoughts. He knew that the Moon Maiden was afraid that Jordan would kill Mike Baylor, so she attacked in a hurry without killing Jordan.

After all, Jordan became a golden mutant with the help of the Moon Maiden. If the Moon Maiden wanted to kill him, why would she wait until now?

The Moon Maiden looked at Jordan with a slightly apologetic expression. She said gently, "Jordan, I'm sorry. I was a little harsh. I heard that you killed Mike Baylor's golden-horned dragon alone just now. I thought your strength had increased by a lot, so... Are you alright?"

Jordan had experienced the Moon Maiden's lightning power and finally knew that she was the strongest among the golden mutants.

If he was not in his Hell Space, Jordan would not be able to fight the Moon Maiden at all. Jordan could not resist the Moon Maiden's ultimate lightning power no matter what move he used.

"It's okay," Jordan said calmly.

At this moment, Jordan's mind was blank, and he only responded instinctively. He had a favorable impression of the Moon Maiden, especially since he had relied on her to advance to a golden mutant. In addition, Jordan was not confident that he could defeat the Moon Maiden. After being beaten by the Moon Maiden, it was impossible for him to return the favor.

Jiumo Kasyapa said, "Let's go up first."

Victoria quickly helped Jordan up. "Yes, let's go up, Jordan."

Jiumo Kasyapa and Victoria both had relatively high EQ. They knew that the deep pit they were in was a very embarrassing place for Jordan.

After all, there were so many people watching outside.

"No, I can do it myself."

When Jordan saw that Victoria wanted to help him up, he immediately spoke. He was a dignified golden mutant, so he could not be helped up.

The four of them jumped up and returned to the ground.

At that moment, Mike Baylor, who was flying in the air, made sarcastic remarks. "Moon Maiden, what are you doing here? I was just about to teach Jordan a lesson for being lawless!"

The Moon Maiden said coldly, "Do you have a ferocious beast more powerful than the golden horned dragon?"

Mike Baylor said, "Hmph, I can control all the animals in the world. My flying speed is faster than his armor. I can attack or retreat. It won't be so easy for Jordan to kill me!"

At this moment, Salvatore and the others ran toward Jordan.

"Mr. Jordan, are you alright?"

"Brother, that really scared me!"

Salvatore shouted at Mike Baylor, "Don't f*cking act cool. The Moon Maiden saved your life, so just snicker!"

Park Sora also hated this Mike Baylor who was always hanging in the sky. So what if he could fly? Could he not walk on the ground if he could fly? Why did he have to be so arrogant in the sky?

Park Sora said, "Moon Maiden, we respect your strength and don't dare to fight you, but we also hope that you can uphold justice. We've agreed that either Jordan or Mike Baylor will be the master of Immortal Lake. Now that Brother has killed Mike Baylor's golden-horned dragon, it's time to return Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe to Brother!"

The Moon Maiden's lightning power had frightened Park Sora, Salvatore, and the others, so they did not dare to be impudent to the Moon Maiden.

They knew very well that Jordan had no chance of winning if he fought the Moon Maiden. Moreover, the two of them had a good relationship previously, so they tried their best to be friendly..

The Moon Maiden nodded. “Yes, Jordan. You’ll be in charge of Immortal Lake for the next few years.”

The Moon Maiden said that there were only a few years left. If Jordan still wanted to occupy this place after a few years, he would probably have to fight the Moon Maiden.

Mike Baylor had no objections to this. His golden-horned dragon was dead. He had lost completely today and could no longer compete with Jordan.

At this time, the mutants were all panicking.

“Sigh, we’re so unlucky. We just transferred from Jordan to Mike Baylor. If we go back now, I’m afraid Jordan won’t want us anymore, right?”

“Not necessarily. We were selected from billions of people in the world. We’re the only ones in the world who can obtain mutant power. It can be said that we were chosen by the heavens. Deity Jordan won’t do anything to us!”

After some discussion, all the members of the Mutant Tribe knelt down to Jordan.

“Congratulations to Deity Jordan for regaining control of the Mutant Tribe! We are willing to follow you to the death!”

Before Jordan could speak, Salvatore could not help but rush forward and scold, “Follow us! You bunch of fawning dogs. Who’s awesome and who’s not? We don’t want you!”
