“Let me take a look at a photo of her from her younger days,” Doctor Byung requested.

Jin-woon immediately handed over a photo of a young Sylvie.

Taking the photo, Doctor Byung exclaimed when he saw how Sylvie looked when she was young.

“Oh, my god, so beautiful! The boss will definitely reward you handsomely for finding such a top-notch candidate.”

Jin-woon smiled. “We still have to rely on your brilliant methods to bring this lady back to her glory days. When the time comes, as long as our boss is happy, our rewards will be substantial.”

Doctor Byung nodded. “Yes, not bad. Don’t worry, I’ll personally oversee the entire process this time. I won’t let anything happen to this lady.”

Doctor Byung finally noticed Jordan.

He asked Jin-woon, “Who is this man?”

Jin-woon replied, “He’s this lady’s son-in-law.”

Doctor Byung laughed out loud. “Why did you bring her son-in-law here? Does he want to personally witness his mother-in-law entering the tiger’s den? Hahaha. Besides, you know that this is the Park family’s private hospital. Outsiders are not allowed to know of this place. Aren’t you afraid that he will be killed by the Park family if you let him in?”

With that, Doctor Byung said to Jordan in broken English, “If you don’t want to die, get lost!”

Jordan was a little annoyed and replied in Korean, “I will be going in with my mother-in-law.”

Jin-woon added. “Yes, Doctor Byung. He can be this lady’s interpreter.”

Disliking Jordan’s attitude, Doctor Byung snapped, “No need! We have professional interpreters here. Make him leave!”

The Park family’s medicine would definitely be well-hidden and secured. How could Jordan hope to steal it if he didn’t go in?

Thinking on his feet, Jordan immediately said, "My mother-in-law doesn't know how to speak standard English. She only knows how to speak a regional English dialect that is quite different. I'm sure you don't have an interpreter who knows all the regional English dialects in the US, right?"

Doctor Byung kept silent for a moment. There were indeed multiple regional English dialects and accents in the US, many of which could sound quite different from standard English.

Their South Korean interpreter could only understand standard English.

"Alright, since you're the only one who can translate, you can come in as well. However, I have to remind you that this isn't a place where anyone can enter and leave just like that."

With that, Doctor Byung gave Jordan a wicked smile and left.

Jordan understood what Doctor Byung meant. He was hinting that Jordan might not be able to come out alive if he entered!

There were many secrets here. The Park family might kill Jordan to silence him after using him!

But Jordan was already prepared so he was not afraid.

"Jordan, I'm a little scared..."

Sylvie suddenly became rather timid. She held Jordan's hand as her entire body trembled. After all, Sylvie was just the wife of a man from a rich family. But the family was based in a small city. She did have some worldly experience but had never come into contact with someone so powerful.

"It's alright. I'm here," Jordan comforted her.

Taking Sylvie's hand, they walked forward slowly.

However, Jin-woon did not follow them. He said, "Mr. Steele, the medical aesthetics team is up ahead. That's a place I can't enter. I'll wait for you here."

Jordan nodded and said nothing.

Sylvie and Jordan followed Doctor Byung step by step. Sylvie whispered to Jordan, "Jordan, if I die here, you have to fulfill my dying wish!"

Jordan asked, "What is it?"

This was the Park family's territory. Although Sylvie would not really die, if Jordan failed to bring her away with him, she would definitely end up being a plaything for Park Chan-young. If Sylvie had any last wishes, Jordan would be happy to help her fulfill them as a form of compensation.

"Marry Hailey."

Jordan was speechless. "Don't worry. In order not to fulfill your dying wish, I promise to bring you out safely."

Was Sylvie really stupid enough to believe that he would forgive Hailey and marry her again?

Soon enough, Jordan and Sylvie were brought into a strange and high-tech-looking elevator. The glass interior of the elevator alone amazed Sylvie. Doctor Byung did not press any button after they entered the elevator. But the elevator started moving by itself.

Not only could the elevator move up and down, it could also move left and right!

Sylvie was shocked. She squeezed Jordan's hand tightly. "Jordan, Jordan! What's wrong with this elevator? Is it going left? Shouldn't elevators only move up and down? How can this elevator move left and right?"

Doctor Byung snorted in disdain at Sylvie's shocked expression. "Country bumpkin."

However, he noticed that Jordan did not react at all when the elevator moved left and right. His expression remained the same and he did not look nervous or amazed.

"This brat... hmph, he must be pretending to be calm!" Doctor Byung thought to himself.

In reality, Jordan already knew about this technology! In the Steele family's private hospital, there was also an elevator that could move left and right. This was no longer a new technology to the eight families. They already had it decades ago.

Jordan explained to Sylvie, "This is the multi-directional elevator. There is no cable but the elevator is mounted on a metal track instead. It's powered by a straight-line engine and can bring us to different levels through magnetic acceleration. The elevator can also rotate at intersections along the track, so that we can move horizontally along the floor. Auntie, don't make a fuss. It's not a big deal. Don't let this South Korean look down on us!"

After Jordan's explanation, Sylvie straightened her back and resumed her dignified posture.

Doctor Byung glanced at them. His English was not good so he did not really know what Jordan was saying.

Soon, the elevator door opened to reveal a spacious medical workspace. Dozens of people in doctor's uniforms were busy working.

"This is the medical aesthetics team of the Park family's private hospital!"

Jordan knew that they represented the world's top medical geniuses, especially in terms of medical aesthetics!

"If only we could poach all these people to our side!"

As a Steele himself, Jordan really wanted to do something to help his family.

"Come with me."

Doctor Byung said coldly to Jordan. He led them into a private room.

"Doctor Chul."

Doctor Byung called out to the other doctor in the room.

"Doctor Byung." Doctor Chul nodded at him. He glanced at Jordan and Sylvie. "You have brought another one?"

There was a nod from Doctor Byung. "She is someone whom the boss values very much. We must be very careful. Don't let anything happen to her, lest he blames us."

Doctor Chul looked at Jordan. "Why is this man here?"

The Abandoned Husband Dominates Chapter 582

Doctor Chul said to Doctor Byung very cautiously, "The Park family Hospital is filled with secrets. How could you bring a stranger in so easily? Moreover, you brought him into our medical team's core treatment room?"

Hearing this, Doctor Byung pulled Doctor Chul to the side and whispered, "I didn't agree to it at first. However, this woman can't speak standard English. Only this man can translate. Don't worry. After the treatment is over, we can just kill him, right?"

Doctor Chul nodded seriously. "He definitely has to be silenced!"

The two of them spoke softly. However, Jordan had the ability to read lips. Coupled with his strong instincts and the ability to accurately deduce human nature, he could guess what they were talking about.

“Hmph, you want to silence me? We’ll have to see if you have the ability!”

Jordan was disdainful.

Doctor Byung took out the photo of Sylvie when she was young and handed it to Doctor Chul. He smiled wickedly. “Doctor Chul, take a look. Wasn’t this woman a top-notch beauty when she was young?”

The photograph surprised Doctor Chul. “This woman has changed a lot over the past decade. Going by how she looks now, I really can’t tell that she was so lovely when she was young!”

Doctor Byung whispered, “Doctor Chul, I have something to discuss with you. After we make her 10 years younger, I mean... can you not immediately report it?”

Doctor Chul was shocked. “You want to...”

/ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL(dot)COM.

Doctor Byung chuckled. “Don’t you want to enjoy such a top-notch woman? Let’s enjoy ourselves with her for a few days before reporting it. It won’t be too late to hand her over to Mr. Park then. Anyway, the treatment will take many days. If you and I keep quiet, who will know how things are going?”

Doctor Chul glanced at Sylvie, who was standing in a dignified pose. He shot an extra look at her fair calves before turning to the photo of her when she was young.

After hesitating for a long time, Doctor Chul finally agreed. “Alright. Mr. Park doesn’t lack women anyway. We can spend a couple of days teaching her the rules!”

Doctor Byung laughed. “Haha, I think so too!”

Feeling a sense of exhilaration at what was to come, Doctor Buying continued to leer at Sylvie again and could not help drooling.

Sylvie would soon become their plaything!

Looking at Jordan again, Doctor Byung thought to himself, “This silly son-in-law actually sent his mother-in-law to us. Haha, he’s not afraid of death and even took the initiative to be her interpreter. I have to thank him!”

Doctor Byung handed Jordan a cup of water. He smiled. “Kid, thank you for sending your beautiful mother-in-law here. Hahaha...”

Jordan suddenly knocked the cup to the ground and grabbed Doctor Byung’s arm.

“Ah! Pain! So painful! Stop!”

Doctor Byung immediately cried out in pain.

Jordan was furious. “Damn you, you dare to speak about playing with my mother-in-law in front of me? Do you think I don’t understand Korean?! If not for the fact that you are the one who is going to carry out the procedure, I would have killed you on the spot! You two are immoral doctors, apologize to my mother-in-law immediately!”

As the head doctor of the Park family’s medical team, Doctor Byung was proud and arrogant. He completely disregarded about 99.9% of all the other doctors and humans in the world. Would he apologize to these people?

Doctor Byung also grew angry. “Damn it, so what if I talked about your mother-in-law in front of you? You brought her here, so you should know the price! You want me to apologize to a lowly country bumpkin like you? Pfft! Let go immediately, or I’ll call for someone to break your limbs!”

Jordan said coldly, “You can call for help, but I promise that I can break your arm before help arrives!”

Smack!

Jordan was not all talk and no action. He immediately twisted Doctor Byung’s arm.

“Ah! I apologize! I apologize!”

Doctor Byung immediately admitted defeat. A wise man knew when to back down. Although this was the Park family’s territory, he was currently in Jordan’s hands and was in danger of having his bones broken at any moment.

As such he would bow to him for now. In the end, this country bumpkin would definitely be killed by the Park family after this.

‘There’s no need for me to argue with a person who will be dead soon!’ Doctor Byung thought to himself.

With that in mind, Doctor Byung bowed respectfully toward Sylvie. “Madam, please don’t take my words to heart. I have no intention of being disrespectful to you. I would never do anything rude to you!”

Even as he apologized, he was thinking in his heart, “Hmph, you old woman. After I make you 10 years younger, I’ll play with you until you beg for mercy!”

Smack!

Jordan slapped him.

Doctor Byung covered his face and looked at Jordan guiltily. Didn't he already apologize? Could it be that Jordan could read minds?

Of course, Jordan could not read his mind. He said, "My mother-in-law doesn't know Korean. How would she know what you're talking about? Apologize in English!"

Doctor Byung felt aggrieved. Since Jordan's mother-in-law didn't understand Korean, she wouldn't realize that he had said rude things about her earlier?

She wasn't even angry. Why should he apologize?!

In fact, Sylvie, who couldn't understand Korean at all, was standing there all confused, not knowing what was going on.

Doctor Byung gritted his teeth and said in broken English, "Sorry! Sorry! I'm a pig! Sorry!"

Jordan finally calmed down. He then looked at Doctor Chul. "Do I need to prompt you?"

Doctor Chul was also frightened and hurriedly bowed to Sylvie. "Sorry, sorry!"

Doctor Chul's English was even worse than Doctor Byung's. He only knew the word "sorry", and his pronunciation was not standard.

Sylvie was confused and asked, "Jordan, why are they apologizing to me?"

Jordan said, "South Koreans are always bowing and apologizing for no reason. Don't mind them."

Jordan instructed the two doctors, "Don't waste time. Use the medicine on my mother-in-law immediately. I want to see how you guys can make a person younger."

By now, the two doctors were already deeply fearful of Jordan.

Doctor Byung said, "Before we officially administer the medicine, we still have a few procedures to do. First, we need to get your mother-in-law to cooperate with us in a lie detector test."

"A lie detector test? Why?" Jordan asked.

Doctor Byung answered, "Our medicine is very rare and extremely expensive. We can't use it recklessly. We have to make sure that this lady really looked like this when she was young. Otherwise, it would be a waste of our precious medicine!"

The Abandoned Husband Dominates Chapter 583

Jordan thought for a moment. The woman had to be beautiful when she was young for them to do this. It was a non-negotiable condition.

In other words, they were not just reconstructing how the woman looked 10 years ago. They were truly reversing the aging process to how the woman used to look 10 years ago.

This was a terrifying notion!

Anyway, Jordan was not deceiving them. That was indeed a photo of Sylvie when she was young. Therefore, Jordan said to Sylvie, "Auntie, you need to undergo a lie detector test. They suspect that the woman in the photo isn't you. So just answer their questions accordingly."

Sylvie nodded.

With Jordan acting as the interpreter, Sylvie underwent the lie detector test.

In the end, it proved that Sylvie was not lying.

Once they were satisfied that she was telling the truth, the two of them asked Sylvie to lie on a bed so that they could conduct a high-tech facial analysis. After fussing for a long time and making complicated calculations on the computer, they finally decided to use medicine on Sylvie.

"Can we do it now?"

Jordan was getting impatient. If not for the fact that he was afraid that snatching the medicine would trigger the alarm system, Jordan would have forced them to take it out.

Doctor Chul nodded. "All the data has been calculated. Your mother-in-law can take our medicine now. Please go out for a while. We need to get the medicine."

Jordan observed the room carefully. From what the doctor said, the medicine was in this room? However, this was a very sparse room and there was no medicine cabinet.

'Could it be hidden?'

Jordan knew that with the eight families' current technology, they could hide things in plain sight.

Doctor Byung smiled. "There's no need to ask him to go out. It's useless even if he sees it. How can a boor like him understand the technology that's decades ahead of the world? Hehe."

Doctor Byung's tone was filled with disdain for Jordan.

Actually, he could not be blamed for being arrogant. If Jordan was not from one of the eight families, he really would not have understood what Doctor Byung was doing.

Doctor Byung went to the wall on the north side and made a unique gesture by intertwining the thumbs and index fingers of both hands. Thereafter, Doctor Byung grasped at the empty air. A red medicine packet appeared in his hand!

Doctor Byung boasted to Jordan, "How is it, kid? Wasn't that amazing? You don't understand how I got the medicine, do you? Haha, Doctor Chul, look at his blank expression. I already told you there's no need to ask him to leave. It's as if someone from medieval times came to the 20th century. If you gave him a computer, would he know how to use it?"

Nevertheless, Doctor Chul was still cautious. "Doctor Byung, only the Park family has this medicine. The other families are all watching us. It's better to be more careful!"

However, Doctor Byung remained indifferent. Jordan was going to die soon anyway. So what if he knew where the medicine was hidden?

Could he bring it out?

Jordan was not in a hurry to get the medicine. Instead, he watched Sylvie take it.

Sylvie was a little nervous. She was very timid and afraid of death. She only swallowed it after Jordan spent a long time coaxing her.

After swallowing it, Sylvie fainted.

"What happened? Why did she faint?" Jordan asked in a panic.

Doctor Byung smiled. "This kind of heaven-defying medicine will drastically change the skin and body of a human being. Therefore, we added a little sedative to the medicine. Don't worry, she'll be fine. She's Mr. Park's woman. We won't kill her, hahaha."

Their dismissive comments made Jordan narrow his eyes and his fists were clenched. He had just taught this doctor a lesson and he had been very obedient. Why was he so arrogant now?

Doctor Chul also looked at Doctor Byung nervously.

Doctor Byung smiled. "Doctor Chul, don't be afraid of him. I've already called for help!"

At this moment, the door suddenly burst open and four burly South Korean men barged in.

"That's the kid. Tie his hands and feet up immediately!" Doctor Byung shouted at the four bodyguards.

Jordan scoffed and said to Doctor Byung with a smile, "So, you've called security. No wonder you dared to provoke me again. I thought you were no longer afraid that I would break your arm!"

Doctor Byung smiled. "That's right. I'm fearless now. Let me tell you, these are not your usual security guards. They are all killers! I had no choice but to yield to you earlier. Apologizing to a lowly person like you is the biggest humiliation of my life! Now, I want you to kneel and beg for mercy. I want you to say that your mother-in-law is a b*tch!"

"You are asking for it!"

Jordan was furious and charged at Doctor Byung. "I see that you don't need your arm anymore!"

Doctor Byung retreated hastily. "Guards! Capture him immediately!"

The four burly men charged at Jordan at the same time.

Jordan was not afraid at all. "Hmph, I want to see how powerful the Park family guards are!"

The Park family was also a secret family like the Steeles. Their bodyguards were probably not people that ordinary folks could deal with. Jordan was bare-fisted, and his four opponents were similarly unarmed.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

The five men attacked each other quickly. Jordan was surrounded by the four of them as they kept throwing punches at him!

"Not bad. Your fist is very hard. It hurts."

Jordan could roughly sense that these people were much more powerful than ordinary thugs.

However, Jordan had been practicing martial arts since he was a young boy. Apart from Dragon, Chimera and Phoenix, no one else in the world could defeat him!

Bang!

Smack!

Jordan took the opportunity to destroy them one by one. He knocked one of the men to the ground with one strike. He could not get up again.

“What? How did this happen?”

Doctor Byung and Doctor Chul were completely stunned by the sight.

Bang!

Jordan finished off the fourth guard with one final punch. His hands were already stained with blood. “You want to compete with me in hand-to-hand combat? Has there been a martial arts master in your country in the past few hundred years? Hmph, it’s better that you focus your efforts on beautifying people!”

Jordan was absolutely confident in his combat skills. He believed that no one in South Korea could match up to him. The Park family could never compare to the Steele family!

Panicked at the unexpected turn of events, Doctor Byung was ready to run out to call for help when Jordan stepped forward and grabbed his arm, breaking his joint!

“Whimper whimper!”

Jordan covered Doctor Byung’s mouth to prevent him from screaming.

Doctor Chul was so frightened that he knelt on the ground. “Please don’t attack me!”

Jordan scoffed and knocked him out with a punch. He then gave each of the four guards an injection, making sure that they remained unconscious.

Thereafter, Jordan went to the wall and copied what Doctor Byung did earlier.

There was still nothing in front of him. He could not see anything, but Jordan could vaguely hear the sound of something approaching.

Suddenly, Jordan grabbed at the empty air and successfully obtained a medicine packet!

This was the medicine that could make a person 10 years younger!

The Abandoned Husband Dominates Chapter 584

Like that, Jordan had obtained the Park family's most advanced medicine! This medicine could make a person 10 years younger. In the entire world, even among the eight secret families, only the Park family had it.

With this medicine, the Steele family could analyze its composition and then successfully replicate it!

Just like a highly-skilled musician hearing a song for the first time, he would be able to analyze how the song was arranged and what instruments were used.

The Steele family's skills were at such a level.

After putting the medicine packet in his pocket, Jordan immediately went to Sylvie, who was unconscious on the bed.

"Auntie Sylvie, Auntie Sylvie, Sylvie, Sylvie!"

Jordan called out to Sylvie and even slapped her face a few times. However, she did not wake up.

Jordan picked her up.

"Gosh, she's quite heavy, at least 20 pounds heavier than Hailey..."

Sylvie was much fatter now than when she was young. This was also why it was impossible to tell that she was a beauty when she was young.

/ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL(dot)COM.

It was like Christina Aguilera who was very slim when she was young but gained a lot of weight after giving birth to her first child. It was impossible to tell that she was once a sexy beauty.

Unlike Elizabeth Hurley or Halle Berry, even though they were in their 50s, it was obvious that they were drop-dead gorgeous when they were young.

At that moment, an imposing man arrived at the private hospital...

Jin-woon was pacing back and forth at the door. He was anxious and praying non-stop. "Dear God, please bless Mr. Steele and let him come out safely. If anything happens to him, I won't be able to live either."

"Haha, Jin-woon!"

Suddenly, a strong hand patted Jin-woon's shoulder.

Jin-woon turned around and realized that it was his boss, Park Chan-young!

Thud!

When Jin-woon saw him, his legs went weak and he collapsed to his knees. He thought to himself: 'It's over, it's all over. Mr. Park has come. Mr. Steele won't be able to leave!'

Park Chan-young looked very happy. Even though he was the boss, he bent over to help Jin-woon up. He smiled. "Jin-woon, you did well in your recruitment mission. You managed to find an SS-grade beauty for me! I heard that you've already brought that beautiful lady here?"

Jin-woon slowly got up and swallowed nervously. "Boss, why... why are you here?"

Jin-woon knew Park Chan-young's habits. He would wait until the woman had successfully become young before meeting them. He didn't want to see what they were like before their treatment, so as to not spoil his appetite.

Park Chan-young smiled. "I usually don't want to see them before they become young. But this new woman you found is very well-maintained even though she's 40 now. It's fine for me to meet her. Has Doctor Byung already treated her? Let's go in and take a look."

With that, Park Chan-young strode towards the elevator.

With that, Park Chan-young arrived at the treatment room and pushed the door open, only to see several people lying on the ground. There was also an unfamiliar man carrying a middle-aged woman.

Park Chan-young glanced at the middle-aged woman's face. She didn't look like Marissa at all.

Park Chan-young was shocked. He asked Jordan. "Who are you? Why are you here?!"

"Damn it!"

Jordan was now in a tight spot. This person must be from the Park family!

Hadn't he said he had a strong premonition that he would meet someone from the Park family this time? He did not expect his premonition to come true!

Outsiders could not enter this place at all. Only Jin-woon could bring outsiders in.

Park Chan-young looked at Jin-woon. "Did you bring them in?"

Jin-woon knelt on the ground and wailed. "Boss, he poisoned me. I was forced to do it. Boss, please forgive me!"

Park Chan-young was furious and kicked Jin-woon to the side. "B*stard! How dare you betray me?"

He glanced at Jordan before instructing his two subordinates, "Get this brat out and kill him!"

"Yes!"

The two bodyguards immediately attacked Jordan.

Jordan put Sylvie down and got ready for battle. Faced with their powerful attacks, he used his martial arts skills to neutralize them one by one. Soon, he knocked them both to the ground!

Bang!

Bang! Bang!

The two guards now had two black eyes each.

"Nice moves!"

Park Chan-young couldn't help feeling a sense of admiration. His bodyguards were world-class. The fact that this man could defeat them meant that his skills were world-class.

"Who are you? Why are you here?" Park Chan-young asked.

Jordan said coldly, "Why should I tell you?"

Park Chan-young snorted. This was his territory. He could summon as many subordinates as he wanted, but he didn't.

Instead, he cracked his fingers and moved his muscles as if he wanted to fight Jordan.

"Oh."

Jordan was shocked. Did the Park family members also learn martial arts from a young age like Jordan and his brothers? However, judging from Park Chan-young's exquisite attire, he didn't look like a very capable opponent.

Instead of attacking, Park Chan-young went to a wall and pressed a button.

Suddenly, the floor beneath their feet started to move!

“Seesaw floors!”

If an ordinary person were to stand on this floor, he would definitely fall to the ground. However, Jordan did not fall. He only felt a little unstable, but soon, he managed to stabilize his center of gravity.

At that moment, Park Chan-young aimed a kick at Jordan’s head.

Although the floor was moving up and down, Park Chan-young was not affected at all.

“Hehe, do you think I’ll lose to you just because you are making the floors move? What a joke. My house has this type of floor too!”

Jordan easily controlled his balance and dodged Park Chan-young’s attack.

The Steeles also used seesaw floors as a precaution against invaders. The three brothers had practiced fighting on this kind of floor before.

After dodging, Jordan leaped up from the ground and kicked Park Chan-young.

“Damn it! How is he able to move so quickly on these floors?!”

Park Chan-young was shocked. He barely dodged Jordan’s attack.

Bang!

Although he dodged Jordan’s kick, he failed to dodge his subsequent punch. Jordan punched Park Chan-young in the stomach, causing him to scream in pain!

“Argh! That’s impossible! How are you not falling?!”

Seeing that the seesaw floor was useless against Jordan, Park Chan-young pressed the stop button. The floors quickly stopped moving.

However, because of all that movement earlier, the previously-smooth floors were in a wreck.

Park Chan-young looked at Jordan in surprise. “Only people from the eight families can possibly have experience with seesaw floors. You must be from one of the eight families!”

The Abandoned Husband Dominates Chapter 585

As expected of the successor of a secret family. To think that Park Chan-young so easily guessed Jordan's identity!

Park Chan-young pointed at Jordan. He asked in English, "Since you're also from one of the secret families, why are you sneaking around? The eight families are one. The world is in our hands! Which family are you from? You don't dare to say your name? Isn't that too cowardly!"

After guessing that Jordan was from one of the eight families, Park Chan-young's tone became more polite.

Together, the eight great families controlled the lifeline of the world. They were still closely linked to one another, and they would hold one to two gatherings every year.

A few decades ago, the first and second generations of the eight families were as close as a real family.

Since he had already guessed it, Jordan was not someone who would not dare to admit his identity. So Jordan said confidently, "I'm Jordan from the Steele family!"

"What? The Steele family? Haha, so you are trash from the Steele family!"

Park Chan-young gave a faint smile when he heard that Jordan was from the Steele family. His eyes were filled with disdain, and he was no longer as respectful as before.

"What did you say?" Jordan clenched his fists in anger.

Park Chan-young smiled. "Why? Did I say anything wrong? The Steeles have always been the lousiest family among the eight. Your father is just trash. Who doesn't know that he has zero ability to lead the family? The gap between your family and the rest of us is getting wider and wider. In another two months when the families meet, we will kick your family out. You will no longer be part of us! Hmph, what bad luck. I thought you were from one of the other families."

/ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL(dot)COM.

No wonder Park Chan-young still showed some respect for Jordan. He thought Jordan was from one of the other families. If he had known that Jordan was from the Steele family, he would have maintained his arrogant attitude!

Jordan was furious. "Who are you? Which member of the Park family are you?"

Park Chan-young tidied his clothes and stuffed his hands in his pockets.

"I'm the third young master from the second generation of the Park family, Park Chan-young!"

“Park Chan-young!”

Jordan clenched his fists when he heard that name!

He remembered that in the virtual game, “Marilyn Monroe” from the Geng family told him that Park Chan-young was the one who had crashed into him!

That b*stard had gone offline after crashing into Jordan in the game. Jordan could not find him again in the virtual world no matter how hard he tried and had nowhere to vent his anger. Now that he was seeing Park Chan-young in person, how could Jordan miss this chance to settle his score with him?!

Jordan glared at Park Chan-young fiercely. He asked, “Were you the one who crashed into me with your SUV in the virtual game that day?”

Park Chan-young laughed out loud when he heard that. “Hahaha, that’s right. I was the one who crashed into you that day. Haha, your sports car disintegrated. You spun 720 degrees in the air and fell to the ground. I even took a photo for memories’ sake, hahaha. Oh, right. I also placed that photo on the photo wall in the virtual world for the other families to admire. Hahaha, you’re famous now, mate. Everyone can admire your handsome stance the moment they enter the game. You should thank me!”

Park Chan-young didn’t deny it at all. Instead, he was very proud.

Jordan’s fists were already cracking. “On account that you’re from one of the eight major families like me, I’ll give you a chance to apologize. Bow down and apologize to me!”

If Park Chan-young had crashed into Jordan in real life, Jordan would have retaliated without hesitation.

However, it happened in a virtual game. It was just a minor prank that caused no real harm. If Jordan attacked Park Chan-young because of this, he was worried that the other families would say that the Steeles were petty people.

Park Chan-young laughed. “Apologize to someone from the useless Steele family? Are you crazy, kid? I can knock you down whenever I want. I’ve knocked down your brother Jesse countless times in the game! The last time he was fishing by the lake, I kicked him into the lake. Guess what happened to your brother? He ended up catching a fish in the lake and asked me if I wanted to share the fish with him. Hahahaha.

“You are just lowly trash, lower than the other seven families. I knocked into you because I think highly of you, but you still dare to ask me to apologize?”

Jordan had already given him a chance to apologize, but since he was unwilling...

Smack!

Jordan suddenly stepped forward and slapped Park Chan-young!

Jordan and Park Chan-young were standing very close and Jordan attacked so quickly that the latter could not react in time! With that one slap, Park Chan-young's mouth started bleeding!

"Ah... blood..."

Park Chan-young had just endured a punch from Jordan. Now, he had been slapped and was bleeding. He was completely incensed!

"You... you are trash from the lousy Steele family but you dare to hit me? Do you know your family's status among the eight families?!"

Park Chan-young couldn't believe it. A Steele dared to attack a Park! The Steele family was currently the worst among the eight families. Grandpa had already told Jordan about this. However, Jordan still chose to fight Park Chan-young head-on!

"Park Chan-young, listen to me. I am not my brother. He won't hold things against you and he is willing to suck up to you, but it's impossible for me! You're asking for it!"

Park Chan-young knew that he was no match for Jordan in a one-on-one fight. Instead, he pressed his ring and more than 10 men rushed over from outside. They were all holding guns aimed at Jordan!

Since reinforcements had arrived, Park Chan-young grew even more audacious.
"B*stard, kneel and apologize to me immediately! Otherwise, I'll shoot you!"

However, Jordan remained as still as a mountain. He asked, "You dare to kill me? As a member of the eight families, you dare to kill me? You dare to declare war on the Steeles?!"

The Steele and Park families controlled the ability to change the world. It was not an exaggeration to say that each family had the ability to make the entire world tremble!

Park Chan-young also knew about the Steele family's power, but he just scoffed.
"Hmph, an unfilial descendant like you who doesn't know the immensity of heaven and earth will only cause trouble for your family. Your brother will thank me for killing you! Are you going to kneel or not?! If not, I'll get someone to shoot your leg. By then, I'll have you kneel even if you don't want to!"

The Abandoned Husband Dominates Chapter 586

Jordan was not intimidated. Instead of retreating, he charged forward even when there were over ten people pointing guns at his head! He took the initiative to take a step closer to his opponents!

Glowering at Park Chan-young, he challenged the man with a sneer on his face. "You dare to shoot me? You want the Steele family and the Park family to fight?"

Park Chan-young replied, "Your family won't do anything for you..."

Before he could finish, Jordan continued loudly, "How dare you risk putting the world in turmoil?!"

If Jordan died here, the entire world would be in chaos if the Steele family unleashed all their advanced technology and weapons onto the public markets! By then, even the eight families would not be able to find a safe haven on this Earth!

Park Chan-young was furious. "F*ck you! Don't make yourself sound so important! Whether you die or not doesn't affect this world at all! Who do you think you are! I'm going to kill you today! I want to see if the Steeles dares to start a war with the Park family just because of you!"

Just as Park Chan-young was about to order his subordinates to shoot at Jordan...

There was a loud bang!

Bang!

The loud noise came from outside the building, but everyone inside could feel the building shaking.

"Damn it!"

Park Chan-young held onto the wall to steady himself. He panicked. "Go and investigate what that sound was!"

Meanwhile, Jordan remained as still as a mountain. "Park Chan-young, you guys from the Park family are the real good-for-nothings. If I wasn't prepared, would I have come here? To tell you the truth, my subordinates can see every move I make here!"

At this moment, Park Chan-young's subordinate immediately took out a futuristic-looking iPad and showed him the scene outside the building through a holographic projection.

"Boss, a fighter jet is attacking our building!"

Park Chan-young frowned. "Damn it, it's the Steeles family's Zephyr!"

The Park family knew about the Steeles' Zephyr planes. Previously, Jamie had come to South Korea to look for Park Sora with Zephyr Two. In the end, Jamie had even fought against the Park family's fighter planes.

As such, Park Chan-young knew how powerful Zephyr jets were.

Jordan said, "Park Chan-young, I can promise you that the moment your subordinate fires at me, my Zephyr will blast the entire building into pieces with a cannonball. You'll be buried with me then! If you want to die with me today, then do it!"

Clenching his fists in fury, Park Chan-young didn't dare to act rashly.

'I'm the official successor of the great Park family. He's just trash from the lowly Steele family. It's not worth dying with him!' Park Chan-young thought to himself.

Left with no choice, Park Chan-young instructed his subordinates, "Everyone, put down your guns!"

All the guns were immediately retracted. At the same time, the bombardment outside the building stopped.

Since Park Chan-young could not kill Jordan, he chose to insult him with words. "Jordan, your family is useless! What are you doing in our family's private hospital? You must be here to steal our medicine, right?"

"Heh, your family is truly trash. You don't have the ability and can't match up to our standards, so you are trying to steal it. Even if you manage to steal our stuff, your family is still trash. Who doesn't know that the Steeles are the trashiest family among the eight!"

Jordan was furious. He knew that the arrogant Park family looked down on the Steeles! He hated how arrogant the Park family was!

However, Jordan chose not to retort.

Having experienced so much in life, he was much more mature in his actions. He recalled that when he married Hailey, he was looked down upon by her family and everyone else. They thought that he was a freeloader and useless trash. Even then, Jordan did not make any impulsive remarks.

He would just smile calmly because he knew that he was richer than them. Their mockery was just a joke in his eyes!

The current situation was the same. If Jordan got angry and fought with Park Chan-young, the Park family would really feel that the Steeles were useless and crass!

'No, this time, I will definitely make the Park family respect the Steeles!'

Jordan did not retort. Instead, he laughed out loud.

"Hahahahah..."

Park Chan-young found it strange when he heard Jordan laughing. He asked, "What are you laughing at?"

Jordan smiled. "I'm laughing at your ignorance and stupidity! You actually think that the Steeles are the worst among the eight great families? Hahahaha, this is ridiculous! You actually think that my family will steal trash like the Park family's medicine? What a joke!"

Park Chan-young was furious when he heard that. "How dare you! The Steeles are the worst among the eight major families. This is publicly acknowledged by all the other major families! Even Jesse and your grandfather admit to this fact! What right do you have to mock our family's medical skills? Your family won't be able to reach our level even in the next hundred years!"

Jordan was still not angry. He said with a smile, "The medical skills of the Park family are indeed not bad. Even my grandfather praised you. The Park family managed to develop to this level..."

Park Chan-young became smug. "Hmph, at least your grandfather can recognize the truth. I've seen him once during the great meeting. He admires our family's medical skills very much!"

Jordan said, "I'm not done speaking. My grandfather said that the Park family managed to develop to this level, much to his surprise!"

Park Chan-young's expression immediately changed. "What did you say? How is it surprising? Your family dares to look down on the Park family?"

Jordan responded, "Of course we look down on you. That's why we're surprised. How can a doctor who started his career in plastic surgery be a good doctor? As quickly as you guys managed to develop your medical skills, you are still not worth mentioning when compared to the Steeles!"

Park Chan-young laughed out loud. "Hahahaha, you sure know how to boast. In terms of medical standards, even the other six families don't dare to speak so arrogantly in front of my family. But you dare to claim that our family's medical skills are not comparable to yours?"

“Jordan, it looks like your grandfather didn’t tell you about the Steele family’s situation. Your family’s medical skills are stuck in the period when the Deity was still helping us. And that was decades ago. Meanwhile, the other families have already made breakthroughs after decades of hard work! If you want to blame someone, go back and blame your useless father! Hahahaha!”

The Abandoned Husband Dominates Chapter 587

Park Chan-young was even more arrogant than Jordan imagined! Not only did he look down on Jordan, but he also looked down on his father!

South Koreans valued seniority. They would always be respectful to someone who was from an older generation! But now, Park Chan-young dared to call Jordan’s father trash!

Jordan was enraged. How could a junior like him criticize his father’s abilities?!

Even if he didn’t produce any results, it wasn’t his place to say anything!

Jordan snorted coldly. “Park Chan-young, how dare you talk about others like that? Why don’t you take a good look at yourself in the mirror! As the successor of the Park family, you actually sent people to recruit middle-aged women from all over the world. You have such basic pursuits. How are you different from the other ordinary rich second-generation heirs out there?”

Park Chan-young was furious. “You dare to compare those trash second-generation heirs to me?”

In reality, Park Chan-young was not the only one who felt superior to other rich second-generation heirs. Jordan felt the same way. The descendants of the eight great families always believed that they could control the lifeline of the world.

How could ordinary rich second-generation heirs compare to them?

Jordan smiled, “You’re not even as good as those ordinary rich brats. The middle-aged women have already been used by those second-generation heirs countless times during their younger days, yet you still treat these used women like treasures!”

Park Chan-young was so angry that his face turned red. He felt humiliated!

/ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL(dot)COM.

He wanted to continue arguing. He wanted to tell Jordan that this was what he liked! He liked the charm of mature women!

However, such words were not easy to speak out loud.

After pausing for a long time, Park Chan-young said angrily, "You sure have a sharp tongue. Your brother is so good and honest, how did he have such a roguish brother?!"

Jordan sneered. "You haven't met my second brother Jamie yet."

Among the three brothers of the Steele family, Jamie was the most vicious in terms of words and methods. His second brother was the one who could infuriate someone to death just by words alone.

Park Chan-young said, "I won't waste any more time talking to you. Immediately take out what you stole!"

Park Chan-young believed that Jordan came here with the motive to steal.

Jordan was in a dilemma. He did not know what to do. He did have the Park family's medicine on him. If they were to search his body, he would definitely be found out.

The fact that someone from the Steeles stole from the Park family might be brought up at the great meeting. The Steeles would be criticized by everyone then. Not only would Jordan humiliate the Steele family, but Jesse would also make things difficult for him.

Although Jordan could not think of a solution yet, he could stall for time first.

Sometimes, there was no obvious solution. One had to improvise and slowly find one's way out.

Jordan continued to feign arrogance. He smirked. "Park Chan-young, you're hilarious. I told you that your family's medical skills are trash in our eyes. As a Steele, why would I covet your family's trash?"

Park Chan-young did not believe Jordan. "There's a saying that goes: 'one never visits unless they need something'. Why did you come to our private hospital if you didn't intend to steal from our family?!"

Jordan glanced at Sylvie, who was still unconscious. "This is my mother-in-law. Your people lured her here. I'm here to save her."

Park Chan-young snorted. "Stop trying to deny things! I don't care what kind of excuse you have. You have to let me search your body before you can leave!"

The Park family's medicine was very important. In fact, none of the eight great families would ever let an outsider steal from them so easily.

Jordan responded. "How dare you! The Park family is not worthy of searching me!"

By this stage, Park Chan-young was livid. The Steeles' medical skills were clearly not as good as the Park family's, but Jordan kept insisting that his family was the most impressive. This made it difficult for Park Chan-young to feel superior in front of Jordan.

“Jordan, you keep saying that your family's medical skills are better than ours. Do you dare to compete with me?”

Jordan was calm. “How?”

Park Chan-young shouted, “Men, bring one over!”

One of Park Chan-young's subordinates brought over an unconscious blonde woman. She was only wearing a thin shirt which was very ruffled. One couldn't help wondering if she had met with some mishap earlier...

Park Chan-young took the woman and hugged her with joy on his face. “My dear Black Widow, congratulations on returning to your peak looks!”

Pushing the woman's hair away from her face, Park Chan-young showed her face to Jordan.

Jordan was shocked. “It's the Black Widow, Scarlett Johansson!”

Scarlett Johansson was the famous sexy Hollywood star who became well-known for playing “Black Widow” in the Marvel movies. It was undeniable that she had bewitching looks when she was young. Even the two-time NBA champion and FMVP Kevin Durant once said: ‘I want to drink Scarlett Johansson's shower water!’

Park Chan-young said smugly, “Look carefully. How old is Scarlett Johansson?!”

Jordan had actually seen Scarlett Johansson in person three to five years ago.

Back then, Jordan already felt that she looked a little old and her skin condition was not as good as before. But now, Scarlett Johansson's skin was smooth and exquisite. She looked like she was in her 20s!

Park Chan-young smiled. “I've successfully turned the 40-year-old Scarlett Johansson into a 30-year-old. This is the power of our family's medicine! You keep saying how powerful the Steele family is. Can your family do such a heaven-defying thing?”

Jordan paused for a moment and said with a disdainful smile, “You are only able to make people look 10 years younger, yet you're already so smug. The Steeles can make people look 20 years younger!”

The smug look on Park Chan-young's face immediately turned to anger. "You... you're full of sh*t! That's impossible! Even the Park family hasn't reached that level yet, no way the Steeles have accomplished that! Jordan, stop bragging!"

Jordan was not one to brag without giving evidence. He said, "Grandpa didn't want me to reveal this, but you insulted my family so many times today. Alright, I'll tell you now. The Steeles have the help of a new Deity! Therefore, our family's technological development is faster than yours!"

"New Deity!"

Park Chan-young was stunned.

The eight great families could surpass everyone else in the world because of help from the Deity.

Could a new Deity have appeared after the previous one passed on?

And had it shown itself to the Steele family?

The Abandoned Husband Dominates Chapter 588

Jordan was obviously talking nonsense with his claims about this new Deity. Words alone could not make the Park family respect the Steeles. But then again, they could not prove that Jordan was lying.

Park Chan-young shouted, "That's impossible! Your family definitely doesn't have a new Deity! Even if a new Deity appeared, it would have approached our Park family first! My family prays to God every day, begging him to give us a new Deity. Do the Steeles practice the faith? Why should the new Deity come to your family?!"

Jordan smiled. "You are asking why? Go and ask God yourself! Oh, right, perhaps God doesn't like you. He gave you such good medical technology, but you're only using it to play with women. How low-class!"

Park Chan-young said angrily, "Jordan, don't keep spouting nonsense. Alright, since the Steele family is so awesome and has the help of the new Deity, prove to me how amazing your family's medical skills are! Make Scarlett Johansson look another 10 years younger!"

Jordan glanced at Scarlett Johansson. "Why would I carry this kind of medicine around with me? How about this? Let me take Scarlett Johansson away. I'll show you her face in three months."

Park Chan-young laughed. "I think you just want to take Scarlett Johansson away to play with her for three months, right? I haven't even played with her yet. How can I let you have the chance? Show me your family's medical skills if you have the guts!"

Judging from Park Chan-young's attitude, he would never let Jordan out of the door if he did not show his skills.

If this stalemate continued and the other members of the eight families found out, it would probably have a negative impact.

After all, Jordan had trespassed the Park family's territory.

Jordan said, "Alright, Grandpa instructed me repeatedly not to reveal our family's true strength in front of the other families. He told me to put on a pretense of weakness like Jesse and make the other families think that the Steeles are the worst. But I am young and impetuous. How can I endure the disdain of others?!"

"Today, I'll let you know the true medical skills of the Steele family! Now, find me a patient that your Park family can't treat. I'll treat him on the spot!"

Treating a patient whom even the Park family could not treat!

Park Chan-young believed that Jordan was just spouting nonsense. He agreed. "Alright, since you're so confident, I'd like to see if your family is really trash or just pretending so!"

After thinking for a moment, Park Chan-young made a phone call.

Soon, a wheelchair-bound woman in her 60s was pushed in. The woman looked very dispirited and weak.

"Third Aunt."

Park Chan-young held her hand respectfully.

Park Chan-young's third aunt smiled and nodded at him, but it was obvious that her smile was forced.

Park Chan-young introduced her to Jordan. "This is my third aunt. She's 61 years old and has been feeling dizzy for the past six years. She has coronary heart disease, gastric ulcers, gallstones, hypertension, high blood pressure and lacunar infarcts.

"My family has already used the most advanced technology to treat her. Although we managed to let her remain lucid, and have normal speech and limb mobility, we can't get rid of her persistent dizziness. Moreover, she is always feeling a lack of energy. If you can completely cure my third aunt's illness, I will believe what you just said!"

Jordan sized up the patient. Although he was not a professional doctor, he pretended to go over and take her pulse.

After taking her pulse, Jordan said, "Your third aunt is old and weak. Her spleen and kidneys are weak. She has not been eating well and suffers from indigestion. The Park family can't even treat such a minor illness. Your family's medical skills are really trash!"

Jordan would take every opportunity he could to insult Park Chan-young's family.

Park Chan-young was shocked. "Are you sure you can cure her?"

Jordan replied confidently, "Of course!"

After all, Jordan had just learned voodoo from Dr. Zielinski. It would be a piece of cake to treat such an illness!

Park Chan-young said, "Alright, do you dare to make a bet with me? If you can't cure her, I want you to strip naked in front of all of us to prove that you didn't steal our medicine! Don't misunderstand. It's not that I want to see you naked. I am just letting the women in our hospital have a look.

"I've heard many rumors that men from your country have grown smaller over the years. I want to let the women of South Korea have the chance to witness solid proof!"

Jordan was furious. He wished he could give Park Chan-young another thrashing!

However, there were indeed such vicious rumors being spread online.

"Damn you!"

Jordan did not expect to be humiliated in front of this South Korean just because of some baseless online rumors! The first thing he would do after returning home would be to clean up those forums that were still spreading these nasty rumors!

"What if I cure her?"

Park Chan-young said, "If you can cure my third aunt, I won't search your body. I'll let you leave with your fat mother-in-law."

Jordan scoffed. "No, it's not that simple. You crashed into me in the game previously. Someone from the Geng family witnessed it and you made me lose face. If I cure your third aunt, I want you to return to the game and let me crash into you!"

Jordan was a man who believed in an eye for an eye!

Park Chan-young snorted. "Alright, it's a deal! Cut the crap and quickly treat her! I don't believe that you can treat an illness that even our family's medical team can't!"

Jordan took out a paper and drew a charm pattern. He then threw the paper into the sky. It floated in mid-air.

"Amazing!"

Jin-woon and the other Park family subordinates exclaimed at the sight.

"Hmph, just a little magician's trick." Park Chan-young was not amazed at all. Anyone from the eight families could perform such a stunt.

Jordan instructed Park Chan-young. "Take off your third aunt's clothes."

Park Chan-young was incensed. "Jordan, you b*stard! How dare you disrespect my elder!?"

The Abandoned Husband Dominates Chapter 589

Park Chan-young believed that Jordan was just trying to provoke him.

In response, Jordan only said seriously, "F*ck you. Do you think I have the same taste as you? Do you think I like old women? Even if so, look at how old your third aunt is. She's a sick person. No matter how hardcore I am, would I want to take advantage of her? My treatment method requires me to press my hand on her back. There can't be any clothes in between!"

Park Chan-young thought for a moment. His third aunt was indeed not considered a beauty. Besides, she was already 61 years old. And because of her illness, she looked even older.

His third aunt was as thin as a matchstick and looked lifeless. Even if Jordan was a pervert, it was impossible for him to be interested in such a sick person.

With that thought in mind, Park Chan-young finally agreed. "Alright, I'll believe you this once!"

Park Chan-young called a female doctor over and found a private place to help his third aunt change her clothes. She soon came out in her wheelchair, wearing only a shirt with an open back. It was perfect for Jordan's treatment.

Jordan didn't say anything but just pressed his right hand on the woman's back.

Instantly, a wave of immortal aura surged!

Park Chan-young and everyone else was startled.

“Damn it! Where did this white mist come from?!”

/ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL(d0t)COM.

“It is coming from Jordan’s hand! Does he know immortal spells?”

Even Park Chan-young was secretly shocked: “That’s impossible. How could a person’s hand produce some mystical mist? Even the Park family can’t do this. Could the Steele family really be stronger than us? Have they been hiding their true strength?”

In reality, Jordan’s right hand was able to produce the mist because the Deity taught his father this flashy trick back then. Indeed, this trick was not something that even the other seven great families could do. However, it was not of much value. It was purely for show and did not affect treating illnesses...

However, it was perfect for Jordan’s current purpose. The others were awed by the display.

Jordan said to the patient in Korean, “Extend your right hand and look at the pattern on the charm before you. Draw out the same pattern in the air with your finger. When you’re done, your illness will disappear!”

Park Chan-young’s third aunt was in a daze now and she obediently followed Jordan’s instructions.

Gradually, a heartwarming scene appeared in front of the aunt...

“Baby, oh, my cute child. Let Grandma hug you. Grandma will teach you how to ride a bike. Grandma will teach you how to swim, okay?”

In the scene, Park Chan-young’s third aunt was no longer sitting in a wheelchair. Instead, she was standing on the grass, running on the lawn, swimming in a blue swimming pool, with a very cute little girl beside her.

Voodoo would cause the patient to hallucinate, and the imaginary scene would often portray what the patient yearned for the most.

Park Chan-young’s third aunt was dizzy and weak all year round. She was confined to a wheelchair and had no strength to accompany her granddaughter. She yearned to become healthy so that she could accompany her granddaughter to play outdoors.

Gradually, a smile appeared on the face of Park Chan-young’s third aunt!

“Third Aunt is smiling! She is actually smiling!”

Park Chan-young looked at his aunt’s face in surprise. He still remembered how his third aunt doted on him when he was young. However, ever since her illness six years ago, he had never seen her smile again.

At that moment, Park Chan-young was extremely excited!

“The Steele family’s medical skills are indeed amazing!”

Meanwhile, the entire room had become misty because of Jordan’s “power.”

Jordan urged the patient. “Continue drawing the pattern. You’ll recover after you complete it!”

Park Chan-young’s third aunt did as Jordan said and kept drawing symbols in the air. She was amazed when she saw the colored symbols appear in the air. She felt like she was being saved by an invincible genius doctor!

“My illness is cured!”

The woman soon finished drawing the pattern. Her drawing merged with the charm paper floating in the air. In the next instant, a ball of fire erupted and everything disappeared without a trace.

Jordan retracted his hand.

“Ah!”

Park Chan-young’s third aunt shouted as she stood up from her wheelchair!

“Third Aunt, are you alright?!”

Park Chan-young hurriedly went to support her, afraid that she would fall.

However, his third aunt was in high spirits. “Chan-young, I’m well again! I’ve been treated by this god-like doctor! I feel like my body is filled with power. I feel like I can fly!”

Park Chan-young was dumbfounded. “Third Aunt, you don’t feel dizzy anymore? Has your headache completely disappeared?”

The third aunt nodded. “Yes, child. My dizziness has completely disappeared. No headache at all! I’m going to play with my granddaughter now. I’ll bring her cycling. I want to play with my precious granddaughter!”

Seeing his aunt's excited expression, Park Chan-young felt very happy for his aunt. He immediately instructed, "Send my aunt home now!"

Park Chan-young looked at Jordan in astonishment. "The Steele family's medical skills are indeed impressive! Even our family couldn't treat her illness. How did you manage to cure my third aunt so quickly?! What method did you use just now?"

Jordan replied, "Traditional medicine."

Park Chan-young said, "My father guessed that you have been developing traditional medicine over the past few decades. But I didn't expect your treatment to be so wondrous!"

Jordan felt very satisfied when he heard Park Chan-young's praise.

'Rascal, you finally stopped looking down on the Steele family!'

Jordan said, "Cut the crap. Since I won the bet and cured your third aunt, you have to admit defeat and enter the game!"

Park Chan-young's expression turned grim as he cursed inwardly: 'This brat sure knows how to take revenge. If I had known that he wasn't as easy to bully as his brother, I wouldn't have crashed into him that day!'

Seeing that Park Chan-young was not moving, Jordan asked, "Why? Is a member of the Park family going back on his word?"

Park Chan-young quickly retorted. "B*stard! Our family's word is gold! Alright, I'll go with you into the game!"

Park Chan-young asked someone to bring his VR goggles over. Jordan also got the drone flying outside to deliver his own VR goggles.

With that, the two of them soon entered the virtual world.

Jordan could not wait to avenge himself. "There are two cars here. Get in!"

Park Chan-young refused. "No!"

Jordan asked, "Are you trying to back out now?"

Park Chan-young said, "I'm not trying to back out, but I have a request. If the Schmid family Holy Maiden is online, I will never let you crash into me!"

"Before you crash into me, I have to confirm if the Swiss Holy Maiden is in the game!"

The Abandoned Husband Dominates Chapter 590

Jordan was curious. "Swiss Holy Maiden? From the Schmid family? Who is she? Why do we have to see if she's online?"

Jordan was rather attracted by the name "Swiss Holy Maiden".

This was because Holy Maidens usually referred to young and beautiful girls, girls who were unique from other ordinary females. More importantly, women who were called Holy Maidens usually did not have boyfriends or husbands.

Holy Maidens were pure and holy women. She had to be celibate and could not have personal feelings or desires.

Park Chan-young explained, "Her full name is Lota Schmid. She's from the third generation of the Schmid family, the secret family in Switzerland. She's only 18 years old this year."

"She... is the girl I like..."

Jordan smiled. He immediately understood.

So Park Chan-young liked this Holy Maiden and wanted to woo her. Therefore, he could not let her see him being humiliated by Jordan in the game.

Jordan smiled. "Park Chan-young, you're such a weirdo. You usually play with middle-aged women, but in the end, you still like an 18-year-old girl!"

Park Chan-young didn't know how to explain. "Lota is a candidate for my future wife. Only a beautiful and pure girl like her is worthy of me. Our family has always wanted to form an alliance with the Schmid family! It will be a strong alliance!"

/ please keep reading on MYBOXNOVEL(d0t)COM.

Jordan scoffed. "She's worthy of you but are you worthy of her? She's 18 years old and a pure virgin. What about you? Don't infect her with your diseases."

"B*stard, don't spout nonsense! It won't be good if Lota hears you!"

Park Chan-young was very anxious.

He walked around the game and kept shouting "Holy Maiden".

"Lota, Lota, are you there?"

After shouting for a few minutes, no one responded.

Jordan followed behind and said, "Stop stalling. Your Lota is definitely not in the game. Get in the car."

At this moment, several people suddenly appeared. Only members of the eight great families could appear in the game.

"Hey Park, long time no see."

A muscular man dressed in bright colors took the initiative to greet Park Chan-young. Clearly, the two of them knew each other.

Park Chan-young looked a little embarrassed, but he still smiled. "Hello, Mr. Rong, Mr. Addington, Mr. Haus. You guys are here too?"

One of the men replied, "Yes, we want to play a 2v2 football game on the beach. We are missing one player. Do you want to join?"

Park Chan-young glanced at Jordan before replying, "I'm sorry, but I'm not free now. You guys go ahead."

The men turned to look at Jordan. "Who is this?"

One of them suddenly said, "Oh, isn't this the pitiful fellow whom Park Chan-young crashed into previously? He's from the Steele family, right?"

Jordan was furious when he heard that. All the other families knew about that incident!

Fortunately, Jordan did not reveal his real name in the game. Instead, he used Jamie's name.

Jordan said sternly, "That's right. I'm Jamie from the Steele family!"

Park Chan-young looked confused. Wasn't he Jordan? Why was he claiming to be Jamie now?

Just as he was about to speak, Jordan shot him a look.

Jamie was clearly already famous. The three men immediately cheered.

"Hey, buddy, you're really awesome. I heard that you've slept with more women than the three of us combined!"

"Buddy, you're so good at playing with women. Why did you get bullied so badly by the Park family in this virtual world?"

“Hahaha, Park posted a photo of him crashing into you the last time. You flew right through the air. We all saw it.”

Jordan was very angry at being mocked by everyone. He had been humiliated before these guys even before he met them.

In a rage, he marched forward and tore off all the photos.

“Park Chan-young, you caused me to lose all face in front of all the families and made the Steeles a laughing stock. You lost a bet to me today. I will humiliate you the same way you did to me!”

Jordan got into an SUV and ordered Park Chan-young. “I’ll give you a minute. Get in now!”

Park Chan-young said, “Hmph, fine. I’ll give you a chance to have your revenge! However, whether you can hit me depends on your ability. I won’t stand still and let you crash into me!”

As soon as he uttered the words, Park Chan-young quickly drove off in a modern sports car.

“Oh, are these two going to race? Guys, should we join them?”

“Sounds like a good idea.”

Jordan lowered the car window and said to the three men, “You guys will have to keep up with me. Otherwise, you won’t be able to see Park Chan-young being sent flying through the air!”

He stepped on the accelerator and raced toward Park Chan-young.

Park Chan-young raced far into the distance. He clearly did not want to be humiliated by Jordan in front of those three men.

But would Jordan let him have his way?

“Jordan, you have to be able to catch up if you want to knock me down,” Park Chan-young said smugly.

“Hmph!”

Jordan snorted coldly. In the game, he would not die no matter how he drove. It would be easy for him to crash into Park Chan-young without any worries for his own safety!

Jordan kept closing in on Park Chan-young. He was getting nearer and nearer to him!

“Damn it!”

Park Chan-young was a little scared now.

At that moment, Jordan suddenly noticed a sweet-looking girl in a white dress on the right side of the road.

“Oh my god, only a virtual game can produce a girl with such goddess-like looks!”

Jordan was attracted by her beauty. He had never seen such an exquisite and beautiful woman.

Of course, this was just a virtual game. The players could create avatars to be as perfect as they wanted to be.

“Lota!”

Jordan suddenly called out.

“What? What did you say?”

As expected, Park Chan-young was fooled. He immediately looked around.

Jordan had no idea who the girl was. He knew that Park Chan-young liked Lota, so he used her to distract him.

Indeed, Park Chan-young slowed down while Jordan crashed into the tail of his car at high speed, knocking Park Chan-young’s vehicle into the air!

“Ah!”

Park Chan-young cried out.

Similar to what happened to Jordan previously, Park Chan-young’s car fell apart in mid-air. Meanwhile, the man himself flew through the air.

He fell heavily to the ground.

Coincidentally, he fell right in front of the exquisite girl.

The girl was surprised and reached out a hand to him. She asked in concern, “Mr. Park, are you alright?” The girl’s voice was gentle and her appearance was incomparably exquisite. She was like an angel!

Unexpectedly, Park Chan-young broke down when he saw the girl. “Jordan, I hate you!”

With that, Park Chan-young quickly went offline without saying a word to the girl.
