

The Abandoned Husband Dominates – Chapter 698 – 729

Jordan To Marry Hailey Again?! -

Chapter 698: Jordan To Marry Hailey Again?!

“Grandpa!”

Jesse cried out in excitement. Even he was surprised that his grandfather had chosen him as his successor.

Deep inside, Jesse knew that his grandfather had always doted on Jordan the most. Recently, it was only because of Jordan’s efforts that the Steeles had been saved from being kicked out by the other secret families.

If not for Jordan, the Steeles would no longer be a member of the eight great families!

It came as no surprise that Jesse thought he had lost to Jordan.

Jesse burst out in excitement. “Grandpa, don’t worry. I swear, I will take good care of Jamie, Jordan and our sisters. I will take good care of everyone in the Steele family! I will definitely bring the Steele family back to our former glory! I will not lose to any other family!”

Victoria and Lauren continued kneeling on the ground. Although they felt indignant for their husband, they remained well-mannered and dignified. Charleston was already on his final breath. How could you argue with an old man who was about to die?

Jordan lowered his head. He did not show any reaction to this outcome. But it was impossible that he wouldn’t feel a little upset by it!

After all, Grandpa should have seen Jordan’s ability. Jordan had also completed all his training missions very well. It was only because of Jordan’s abilities that the Steeles were able to survive! Otherwise, they would have been kicked out by the other secret families!

More importantly, Jordan’s grandfather knew that Jordan might be a Deity! As a Deity, Jordan would definitely be able to lead the Steele family to glory and trample the other seven families under his feet!

So why did Charleston choose to hand over the position of family head to Jesse even though he knew Jordan’s special identity?

Jordan did not refute or question his grandfather.

He knew that his grandfather must have his reasons for doing this. He chose to respect and accept any arrangements his grandfather made!

No one dared to raise any objections, except for Hailey, the only outsider in the room.

“That’s not right, Grandpa. Among your grandchildren, isn’t my ex-husband, Jordan, the most outstanding? You should pass the position of the family head to him!”

Hailey spoke up for Jordan not because he was her ex-husband, but for her benefit. She knew that the relationship between Jesse and Jordan was now strained. If Jesse controlled the Steele family, he might expel Jordan from the family. Jordan might be left with nothing.

If Jordan was left with nothing, his son with Hailey would also be left with nothing!

Although Victoria and Lauren hated Hailey, she had voiced out what they wanted to say but didn’t dare to. This made them look at her in a different light.

But Jesse flew into a rage!

Jesse glared at Hailey, a murderous intent flashing across his face. “B*tch! How dare you question my grandfather’s decision! What right do you have?! You cheated on Jordan when you were married to him! Jordan is so innocent and kind-hearted. He’s the most capable and good-natured among us brothers! When I found out that you hurt Jordan, I couldn’t wait to kill you! If he hadn’t pleaded for mercy on your behalf, you would have already died! Men, quickly drag this b*tch out!”

“No.”

Jesse was about to speak when someone stopped him.

It was Charleston!

“Grandpa…”

Jesse turned to his grandfather in surprise.

Charleston had called Hailey over. It was obvious that he had something for her.

‘Is Jordan’s grandfather going to give me money? Oh my god, I’m so excited… will he give me a few million? That’s the least he could do, right? After all, I gave birth to a son for the Steele family! Hahaha, fortunately, I only had a daughter with that good-for-nothing Brad. Otherwise, I might not have the right to kneel here today!’

Hailey was extremely excited. She was already calculating how much money she would get! Even a person as shameless as Hailey only thought about getting a share of the Steeles' wealth.

She would never even dare to dream about what Charleston said next!

Charleston looked at Jordan and Hailey. "The second thing I want to announce... Is that..."

"Jordan, I want you to marry... Hailey again."

Boom!

"Oh my God..."

"What?"

"Uh..."

The originally silent room was now in an uproar. Everyone couldn't help exclaiming in shock!

Charleston's request was too shocking. It was even more shocking than the announcement of who the head of the family was!

He wanted Jordan to marry Hailey again?

But Hailey had cheated on Jordan before!

Didn't that mean he had to forgive her?

Even if Jordan chose to forgive her, this was a matter between Jordan and Hailey. Why was Charleston interfering with the two of them?

Jordan already had two beautiful wives. He was not lacking in this area at all!

"Why would..."

Victoria was dumbfounded. She looked down on Hailey ever since she was in Orlando. She never expected Jordan's grandfather to ask Jordan to marry Hailey again. In that case, wouldn't Victoria, Lauren and Hailey be one family?

Lauren also bit her lip and looked at Hailey. Actually, the two of them did look somewhat similar. Lauren felt that Hailey was quite beautiful.

But among everyone at present, Hailey was the most shocked! Her mouth was wide open, forming an O shape. She was completely dumbfounded!

“Marry... Jordan... again?”

Hailey thought that Charleston had called her over to give her some inheritance. After all, she had given birth to a son for the Steele family and was qualified to inherit something. She never expected such an unbelievable outcome!

Of everything in her life, Hailey’s biggest regret was divorcing Jordan and missing the opportunity to become the daughter-in-law of a wealthy and powerful family. She tried all means to win Jordan back, but he did not give her a chance at all. Eventually, she had to give up.

Never had she expected Jordan’s grandfather to fulfill her wish and give her another chance!

“Grandpa...”

Jordan looked at Charleston with a distressed expression. He had been upset when Charleston announced that Jesse would be the new head of the family. Even so, Jordan did not display any reaction.

However, Jordan could not remain silent about this!

How could that b*tch Hailey be worthy of being Jordan’s wife?

It was true that Jordan had once loved her deeply. The two of them also had a son together. However, during their marriage, Hailey betrayed Jordan several times and hurt him.

If Jordan chose to forgive her, wouldn’t it imply that it was fine for a woman to have an affair?

In the future, all the women in the world could cheat if they wanted to!

“Grandpa, you know what Hailey did to me in the past. How can you ask me to marry her again?”

Chapter 699: Jordan’s Grandfather Passes Away!!

Jordan had already witnessed the scene of his grandfather’s death in his dream. His grandfather was about to die, and as his filial grandson, no matter what instructions his grandfather had, he should follow them.

He had no objections to the family head's succession. However, for the matter of marrying Hailey again, he had no choice but to voice his anguish, even though his grandfather was about to die.

It had to be said that although Jordan had two wives who were both beautiful and talented, Hailey was the one who really agitated Jordan!

Charleston did not explain to Jordan. Instead, he continued. "I want you to... marry Hailey again. Moreover, you have to... hold the wedding on the beach."

Hailey was very touched by Charleston's words. "Oh my god, Grandpa is so good to me. He even thought of where we would hold our wedding!"

Meanwhile, Jordan fell into deep thought when he heard Charleston's words.

'A beach wedding...'

Jordan's grandfather knew about this as Jordan had told him. It wasn't long ago that Jordan had discussed this with his grandfather. If Jordan was a Deity, his dreams would become reality.

Jordan's grandfather was trying to make his dream come true. If Jordan and Hailey got married, this would mean that Jordan's dream came true and he was really a Deity!

He began to understand why his grandfather was doing this!

It was because his grandfather wanted Jordan to become a Deity!

"Grandpa..."

For a moment, Jordan didn't know what to say. Apart from him and his grandfather, no one else knew that he might be a Deity.

This included Jesse, Jamie and even Jordan's two wives.

Jordan was in a dilemma.

Seeing that Charleston was about to die, Rowan didn't want to see his father leave this world with regret. He walked forward and pressed Jordan's shoulder. "Jordan, promise Grandpa."

After winning the position of the family head, Jesse became more cordial toward Jordan. He whispered in his ear, "Agree for now."

Jordan let out a long sigh and nodded. "Alright, Grandpa. I agree to all your requests."

A calm smile appeared on Charleston's face. His eyes were fixed on Jordan, not the next head of the Steele family, Jesse. He seemed to be still placing the future of the Steele family on Jordan alone.

Gradually, he could no longer hold on. Charleston slowly closed his eyes and his hand fell over the edge of the bed.

"Grandpa!"

Like that, Charleston passed away as Jordan and his brothers cried out.

The curse of the Deity still existed, and no one in the Steele family could escape it.

Everyone started crying. Jordan looked at everything with teary eyes. It was exactly the same as the scene he had seen in his dream!

'I'm definitely a Deity! I definitely have the ability to predict the future! I will be the ruler of this world! No one can bully me! Absolutely nobody!'

Jordan once again firmly believed that he had extraordinary abilities!

He cried for a long time. After an unknown period of time, he went to the washroom to wash his face. When he came out of the washroom, his father, Rowan, happened to walk over.

"Dad."

Rowan looked at him. "Jordan, come with me. Let's have a chat."

Rowan brought Jordan to a nearby room. He closed the door, took out a box of cigarettes from his pocket, and smoked one.

After about two minutes, Rowan asked, "Jordan, you must be very unhappy with what your grandfather told you before he died. Are you upset with him?"

Jordan did not reply.

Although Jordan was unwilling to accept both of Charleston's announcements, he was his grandfather after all. Now that he had just passed away, how could Jordan be upset with him?

Rowan continued. "Actually, before your grandfather went into the cryo-chamber, he was afraid that he would die during the process. So he discussed with me in advance about the candidate for the family head position. At that time, he already chose your brother, Jesse."

Jordan took a sip of water with a calm expression. His grandfather always planned for the long-term. He was about to be frozen for a year so it was natural that he would make some arrangements in advance.

Rowan said, "I asked him why he didn't choose you. You saved our family, and you're more capable than your brother. Also, you're very close to Lota from the Schmid family, and that little girl likes you very much. She's the head of the Schmid family now, and the only child. If the two of you were to get together, the Schmid family would be yours."

"So I asked your grandfather if it was because of Lota. Once you marry Lota, you can become the head of Schmid, while Jesse can be the head of the Steeles. This way, the two of you can each be the heads of a secret family. Not only will you not compete with each other, but you can also work together to improve the Steele family."

Rowan's thoughts had some logic to them.

Lota was very innocent and liked Jordan very much. In addition, Jordan had saved the Schmid family. He believed that when the time came, Jordan could definitely take charge of the Schmid family. Tom and his wife would not have any objections!

Rowan continued. "Your grandfather replied that not only would you take charge of the Schmid family, but you would also be able to lead all the eight great families. With your ability, it doesn't matter if you become the head of the Steele family or not. It's not the same for Jesse. He has been pursuing the Steele family head position his entire life. If he hadn't been chosen, he might fall into depression or become your enemy!"

Jordan snorted coldly. Was he saying that Jordan had become too powerful to inherit the Steele family?

In the end, Grandpa still doted on Jesse more!

Rowan asked curiously, "Jordan, why does your grandfather think that you can lead all the secret families?"

It was apparent that Charleston had not told Rowan that Jordan might be a Deity. This matter was very important to Jordan so he also did not intend to tell his father. He only shook his head and did not respond.

Rowan just nodded, with no intention to probe further. He said, "As for marrying Hailey again..."

Jordan immediately cut in. "Dad, I have no objections to letting Jesse be the head of the family, but I'm absolutely unwilling to marry Hailey again. You saw what happened just now. I was forced to agree. Please forgive me for being unfilial. I don't intend to follow Grandpa's last wish. I don't intend to marry Hailey again!"

...

Chapter 700: Hailey: I'm Going To Be The Third Wife!

Jordan and Hailey were from two different worlds. If not for the training mission arranged by his family, the two of them would never have been together.

Rowan understood Jordan's feelings. "Alright, I agree. I'll tell Jesse later."

"Thank you, Dad," Jordan said.

A moment later, Jordan asked suddenly, "Dad, can I ask you a question?"

Rowan nodded. "Go ahead."

Jordan continued. "Logically speaking, the Steele family head position should be passed down from one generation to the next. Grandpa should have passed it to you first, and then you can pass it on to me or Jesse. Why did Grandpa skip you? I can see that your relationship with Grandpa is quite good. Moreover, you've always been quite obedient to Grandpa. You've also done quite well under Grandpa's arrangements. You are not estranged from him at all.

"Besides, in terms of ability, I don't think you are inferior to us."

Rowan was not a fool. Anyone could tell he was a capable man so Jordan could not understand why Charleston did not favor him.

At Rowan's current age, he was the most suitable candidate to be the head of the Steele family. He would have more gravitas when dealing with other families.

Rowan smiled. "Thank you for your recognition, child. However, I'm not interested in being the head of the Steele family. I mentioned this to Grandpa many years ago. I told him that the head of the family should be directly passed onto your generation."

"Huh? Why? Dad, why don't you have the fighting spirit? Did something happen to you?" Jordan asked curiously.

Rowan sighed. "Many years ago, when your uncle Randall was still alive, the two of us fought fiercely over who would be the successor. Our battles were a hundred times more intense than those between you and your brothers. However, later on, he died because of me. I've always felt guilty and believed that I had let him down. Therefore, I swore not to fight for power anymore and gave up the position of the head of the Steele family.

“Don’t think that I’m old and boring now. When I was young, I was even more popular than Jamie. I was also a playboy. I still remember that I once asked the Deity to teach me a trick to pick up girls. It’s the ‘voodoo’ technique that you recently learned. Sigh, now that I think about it, I’ve let down many good girls!”

Jordan was shocked by Rowan’s confession. His father, who appeared to have no worldly desires and was steady and calm, was actually a playboy who was even wilder than Jamie when he was young?

Not only that, he was even more obsessed with power and winning the position of the family head than Jesse?

Jordan had always prided himself on being a good judge of people. No one could escape his eyes. But now, it seemed that he was still too inexperienced. He didn’t even understand his father.

Jordan asked in confusion, “How did Uncle die because of you? It was Shaun Handley who killed him!”

“Shaun Handley? What do you mean?” Rowan frowned.

Jordan quickly explained, “Looks like Grandpa didn’t tell you about this. After we saved Tom Schmid and his wife, Tom said that when Shaun Handley first came to them, he was with Uncle Randall. Moreover, he also said that Uncle Randall was being controlled by Shaun with evil techniques then. Uncle Randall was not himself at all at that time!”

Boom!

There was an explosion in Rowan’s head like thunder!

Rowan, who had always been calm and steady, suddenly became very agitated. He grabbed Jordan’s clothes and asked hysterically, “What did you say? Randall was being controlled? He was controlled by Shaun Handley? He was not himself at that time?”

Jordan nodded affirmatively. “Yes!”

Rowan sighed. “Ah! I should have seen it back then! Why would Randall be so vicious toward me?! Why would he fight with me so ferociously?! So it was all Shaun Handley’s doing all along! Ah!! Shaun Handley! You killed my brother and made me feel guilty for so many years. Demon! Demon!”

At this moment, Jordan finally knew the truth behind his father.

Previously, Jordan thought that he had triggered a grudge between the Steele and Handley families by killing Shaun's mother.

But he then found out that many years ago, Shaun had caused his uncle's death!

Now, he realized that the incident also caused his father to think that he was the murderer. Rowan felt guilty and sank into oblivion, causing the Steele family to have no successor in the second generation. That was why his performance had been inferior to the other seven families over the past decades!

"Damn you, Shaun! I'll definitely tear you into pieces!"

Jordan clenched his fists and said to Rowan, "Dad, don't worry. I will definitely kill that demon with my own hands!"

Rowan was also furious. "Good, my good son! You can do it! You can definitely do it! You must avenge your uncle!"

Jordan nodded. "Yes!"

Meanwhile, Victoria, Lauren and Hailey were in the female washroom.

Hailey handed a couple of black veils to the other two. "Victoria, Lauren, here are your veils."

Although she should be in mourning, Hailey was smiling happily. "Victoria, Lauren, from now on, we're family! I'm the youngest, so I'll be the third wife. Don't worry. I won't keep hogging our husband. Just give me one day a week, hehe."

Victoria and Lauren were speechless from disdain. They never expected that they would become a family with a woman like Hailey!

Victoria asked, "Hailey, what did you do to Jordan's grandfather during your stay in the castle? Why did he ask you to marry Jordan before he died?"

In response, Hailey quickly said, "Victoria, what do you mean by that? Do you think I gave Grandpa some bewitching drug? I just did my job as a servant in the castle. Grandpa must have seen my good attitude and forgiven me.

"Besides, why can't I marry Jordan again? I gave birth to a son for him. Did you two give him any sons? My son will inherit the Steele family business in the future. Grandpa must have wanted my son to grow up in a complete family. That's why he wanted us to get back together!"

Victoria snorted. "Grandpa won't even give the current family head position to Jordan. The position will never be passed down to your son. That's definitely not the reason. It must be you. I don't know what despicable methods you used again!"

Hailey was infuriated. "What despicable means can I use? Jordan's grandfather is already 80 years old. I can't possibly have used my body to seduce him, right?"

Seeing the argument become more heated, Lauren tried to smooth over the situation. "Alright, alright, stop arguing. Since Grandpa has decided, Hailey, please behave yourself in the future. Don't be like before."

Hailey was still annoyed. "Lauren, what do you mean by that? What do you mean 'behave myself'? What kind of behavior are you referring to?!"

Chapter 701: How Can I Forgive You!

Hailey didn't like Lauren and Victoria's attitude toward her. They were obviously biased against her! They didn't treat her like part of the family at all!

Feeling affronted, she said indignantly, "I'm the granddaughter-in-law selected by Grandpa himself. What right do you have to not acknowledge me? Grandpa was the one who chose me to be Jordan's wife four years ago. Now, he has chosen me again!

"What about you? Which one of you was personally chosen by Grandpa? Both of you are just shameless hussies who went after my husband. If I hadn't made a mistake and cheated with Tyler then, would you have had the chance to be with my husband? It's already very unfair for me to be downgraded to third wife status!

"And now, you two dare to treat me like this! Hmph, since you don't like me, I won't try to be nice to you anymore! I had planned to invite you two to my beach wedding with Jordan, but it looks like I don't need to!"

With that, Hailey left in a huff.

Victoria and Lauren were puzzled. She was a woman who cheated on her husband. What right did she have to be so arrogant?! Lauren had all the right in the world to give her advice!

Victoria sighed. "Hailey is still as proud and self-centered as before, just like a princess. As long as she's happy and comfortable, she doesn't care about others' feelings! If she really marries Jordan again, she will probably be humble and obedient for a while. But as time passes and she gets used to living the life of a billionaire's wife, I don't know what tricks she will be up to again!"

Lauren nodded. "We must keep an eye on her. We can't let her humiliate our husband anymore. Victoria, since Grandpa decided this matter, we can't change it. In the future, we should treat Hailey better so that Jordan won't be put in a difficult position."

Victoria agreed.

After Hailey left, she took a hot towel and went to look for Jesse.

When she found him, Jesse was still kneeling in front of Charleston's corpse, while the others had gone to wash their faces. He was the only one who hadn't. He was pretending to be the most filial grandson.

Hailey said to Jesse, "Mr. Jesse... oh, no, I can call you Jesse now. Here's a hot towel for you to wipe your face."

Jesse glanced at her before taking the towel.

Hailey smiled gently. "Jesse, don't take what happened just now to heart. I had no intention of doubting you. You're the eldest son. It's only right for the Steele family to be handed over to you. I just hope that after you become the head of the Steele family, you can take care of me, Jordan and our children."

Jesse nodded. "Yes, don't worry. Jordan is my third brother. Tell him that I won't treat him badly. Apart from control over the various research teams, he can choose any of the other assets."

Hailey was delighted. "Really? Thank you, Jesse. I knew you were the best!"

The naive Hailey knew very little about the eight secret families. She had no idea what was the most valuable thing in the Steele family. Even if she knew, for a woman like her who was from a third-rate family in Orlando, a few billion dollars was more than enough for her. She would not fight for anything more.

At this moment, Rowan walked over.

"Dad!"

Jesse and Hailey called out at the same time.

There was nothing wrong with Jesse calling him that, but Rowan frowned.

"The two of you, come with me for a moment."

Although Jesse was now the head of the Steele family, Rowan was still his father. As such, Jesse still had to listen to him.

The three of them went to the room next door. Before Rowan could speak, Jesse knelt down, startling Hailey, who was adjusting her clothes to make her boobs stand out more.

“Dad!” Jesse was on his knees as he looked up at Rowan. “You’re in your prime, and your experience and abilities surpass mine. You should be the head of the Steele family! I’m willing to hand over the position!”

Hailey was delighted. Was Rowan going to snatch the position of the family head?

That would be great. If Rowan took over, Jordan would still have a chance to assume the position in the future.

Rowan said, “Jesse, get up. Grandpa has arranged for you to be the head of the Steele family. I will support you from now on. I don’t want to participate in the matters of the eight secret families anymore.”

“Dad...”

“Okay.”

Jesse rose and stood before his father respectfully.

Rowan said, “I talked to Jordan just now. He said that he isn’t willing to marry Hailey. You saw the situation just now. Your grandfather was on his last breath, and Jordan just didn’t want him to die with regrets. You understand, right?”

As the head of the Steele family, Jesse was in charge of all matters, big and small. Therefore, Rowan and Jordan had to ask for Jesse’s permission.

Jesse said, “I understand! How can we make Jordan marry this fickle woman? I agree to his request!”

When she heard her dreams being smashed to pieces, Hailey cried and begged, pulling at Jesse. “Jesse, you can’t agree! My marriage to Jordan was Grandpa’s dying wish. Grandpa just passed away. How can you be so unfilial!”

Smack!

Jesse slapped her across the face. “B*tch! How dare you speak to me like that! Do you know who I am?! I’m not just some ordinary billionaire! I control the Steeles, one of the eight secret families! You are a lowly woman from a third-rate family. Do you know what a secret family means to the world?!”

Having just become the head of the family, Jesse couldn't wait to show off his authority in front of others.

But then, he did have the right to show off.

Hailey knew that her words had no influence on Jesse, so she ran to find Jordan.

“Jordan! Hubby! Why did you reject the marriage arranged by Grandpa? It's been so long. Why haven't you forgiven me? I promise you that I won't cheat on you again. After I marry you, I won't interact with other men, okay? I'll stay at home and look after the children. I'll listen to you, Hubby.”

Hailey hugged Jordan's leg and begged.

Jordan looked down at her and said, “You knew the consequences and should never have cheated in the first place! I can more or less understand your tryst with Tyler. I can even understand you and Brad because you were forced to do it. However, your affair with Cayden really exposed your true nature! By then, I was already the richest man in Orlando. I had already given you a luxurious house and expensive car, to let you enjoy the life of an elite upper-class housewife!

“But you were still not satisfied. You secretly met up with Cayden and did those shameful things behind my back! How can you expect me to forgive you?!”

Chapter 702: Dividing The Steele Family Assets!

Hailey begged Jordan, but he was determined to not give her any chance!

Actually, from a personal and family standpoint, Jordan should have agreed to this marriage.

‘If it was my brother, he would definitely agree, right?’

This was because Jordan had dreamed of his and Hailey's beach wedding. If he could realize this dream, it would prove that he was a Deity.

In other words, if Jordan was really a Deity, the dream would eventually become reality. No matter how he tried to escape it, it would still happen in the end.

Actually, Jordan no longer cared much about Hailey's cheating. He was more concerned about whether his dreams were destined to come true!

'I successfully predicted the deaths of Shaun's mother and my grandfather. That should be enough to prove that I'm a Deity. I don't have to marry Hailey again, right? But are my dreams destined to come true? Or can I change my fate?'

Jordan was a little confused about this point.

At this moment, Jordan thought of a world-famous movie director and a good friend of the Steeles, Christopher Nolan! In Nolan's movie "Inception", he explored the mysteries behind dreams. In his movie "Interstellar", Nolan showed how the past and the future were interlinked.

Although he was only a movie director, he had hired the world's top physicists to consult on those two movies. He had done in-depth research in those fields. As a result, Jordan wanted to ask for his opinion.

Jordan called Nolan.

"Jordan, I haven't heard from you in a long time. Are you well?" Nolan was happy to hear from Jordan.

Jordan said, "I want to ask you about something. Do you think the future can be changed? Hypothetically, if I know that something will likely happen in the future, can I still change the outcome?"

If Jordan had asked someone else, they would definitely be confused. However, Nolan immediately understood his question.

Nolan didn't answer directly. Instead, he asked, "I say, Jordan, I asked you to watch my new movie, Tenet, some time ago. I guess you haven't seen it yet, right?"

Nolan had indeed recommended his latest film to Jordan a few times. Jordan said apologetically, "Yes, I've been too busy this year."

Nolan said, "I explored that point in that movie. Everything that happens is destined to happen. If it is already part of the future, it will happen."

Jordan frowned. Was his marriage to Hailey inevitable?

However, Jordan had already rejected Hailey. Jesse and the others had also agreed. Who would make Jordan marry Hailey again?

Jordan continued to ask, "What if you try to change it?"

Nolan said, "You can't change what is already part of the future. Jordan, you have to remember that although the future has not presented itself to us yet, it has actually already happened. Unless you want to spend another two hours discussing parallel worlds with me."

Jordan said, "Okay, I understand. Thank you, Nolan."

Nolan said, "No problem. Jordan, go and watch my movie, Tenet. Go and watch it immediately. You'll understand what I'm talking about after watching it!"

Jordan promised him. "Oh, I'll definitely watch your movie, but I'm afraid I don't have time now."

"What's wrong? Jordan, your voice is hoarse and you don't sound well. What happened?" Nolan asked.

Jordan did not try to hide anything. "My grandfather just passed away."

"What? Mr. Steele passed away? Oh my god, I'm so sad to hear this! Is it convenient for me to attend his funeral?" Nolan sighed.

Jordan said, "I'm afraid it's not a convenient time now. Thank you for your kind intentions. I hope you can keep this a secret."

"Definitely. I promise. God bless him. He must have passed well and gone to heaven."

Meanwhile, not long after Charleston passed away, the other seven families apart from the Steeles suddenly held a video conference!

Park Sang-jun was excited and in high spirits. "Everyone! I received news that a few hours ago, the head of the Steele family, Charleston, suddenly suffered serious injuries! He was sent back to their castle in England for treatment. Until a minute ago, there was still no answer on his phone. I guess he's already gone!"

The other six families were very agitated by the news.

Madam Geng said, "My God, even the Steele family couldn't escape the curse!"

Chairman Rong nodded. "That's right. I've also received news that Charleston has passed away!"

Lota attended this video conference on behalf of the Schmids. She covered her mouth in disbelief. "No, Grandpa Steele will be fine. He's so nice. I'll call Jordan now to verify it!"

Lota did not believe that Charleston died. After all, she had just seen him not long ago. Charleston was still in good condition at that time.

The other families knew that Lota and Jordan had a good relationship. They quietly watched as Lota made her call.

However, Jordan did not answer the call.

Park Sang-jun snorted. “Jordan must be kneeling in front of Charleston’s bed now and crying. He’s not in the mood to answer your call! Charleston is almost 80 years old. He will definitely die from the curse. There’s no doubt! With Charleston’s death, the Steele family will be without a leader. The second generation of the Steele family, Rowan, is a spineless coward. The third generation is just a bunch of brats.

“I suggest that we expel the Steeles from our ranks. We can go down to the Steele Castle now to divide up the Steele family assets!”

Park Sang-jun was still bent on getting rid of the Steele family.

At that time, he had the support of the Miyamoto family, but now, the Miyamotos were behind the Steele family.

The Miyamoto family was the first to object. Miyamoto Chujiro said, “I object! Even if Mr. Steele dies, they still have Jordan and Jesse to support this family! Moreover, the Steele family’s strength is unfathomable. Everyone saw it last time. They created a pill that can make people 20 years younger. They also successfully developed the Mirakuru serum! This is something that our family has been researching for decades and has yet to succeed!”

In order to obtain the Steele family’s help for the Mirakuru serum, the Miyamoto family put in a lot of good words for the Steeles.

Lota protested even more vehemently. “What right do you have to take the Steele family’s assets?! Aren’t all eight secret families part of the same group? If they’re in trouble, we should help them! I will never allow anyone to hurt my Jordan!”

Chapter 703: The Seven Families Attack The Steeles!

The Schmid and Miyamoto families were both on the Steeles’ side. As such, they protested vehemently against Park’s suggestion.

Park Sang-jun didn’t care about Lota’s objections at all. He only cared about the Miyamoto family’s opinion.

After all, the Schmid family had previously been controlled by Shaun. They had just escaped and had yet to recover from their ordeal. Moreover, the Schmid's health was not good. So they handed their power to the 18-year-old Lota.

Park Sang-jun did not care about the opinion of a little girl!

Therefore, Park Sang-jun ignored Lota and only replied to Miyamoto Chujiro, "Mr. Miyamoto, I've already told you that Jordan is a liar. You can't believe what he says! The Steele family didn't develop any divine medicine at all. The pills which he gave Chairman Rong and Madam Geng were stolen from our Park family. Moreover, the pills can't make people 20 years younger. It can make them 10 years younger!"

Chairman Rong spoke up. "I've already let my subordinates try the pill that Jordan gave me. It can indeed only make a person 10 years younger. In addition, Mr. Park gave me the drug developed by his family. After comparison, we discovered that the two pills are identical. Therefore, I believe Mr. Park's words. Jordan deceived everyone."

Miyamoto Chujiro did not know if this was true or not. He said, "But the Steele family has indeed developed the Mirakuru serum!"

Park Sang-jun asked, "Mr. Miyamoto, why do you believe that they have successfully developed this serum?"

Miyamoto Chujiro replied, "My son has a subordinate called Dragon. His combat ability is almost invincible. We especially sent him to challenge Jordan, but he was easily defeated after Jordan took the serum. This is enough to prove that the Steeles have developed something comparable to the Mirakuru serum!"

At this moment, another person suddenly appeared on Park Sang-jun's screen. It was his son, Park Chan-young.

"Apologies, everyone. Please allow me to interject. Mr. Miyamoto, you mentioned a subordinate called Dragon. Is he a 1.9 meters tall man with long hair?"

Park Chan-young's curiosity was piqued at the mention of "Dragon". He knew that Jordan also had a subordinate called Dragon!

Miyamoto Chujiro nodded. "That's right. You've seen him before?"

Park Chan-young hurriedly said, "Mr. Miyamoto, you've been deceived! That guy is Jordan's subordinate! He's a spy planted by Jordan in your family!"

"What did you say?" Miyamoto Chujiro was incensed.

Park Chan-young said, "I've seen this subordinate of Jordan's. He fought one of my men previously! I swear that it's true! Lota can testify!"

Lota stammered, "I... I don't know."

Miyamoto Chujiro was in a fluster and commanded Miyamoto Masaki. "Call Dragon to come over immediately!"

"Yes!"

Dragon was somewhere nearby. He had no idea what had happened when he was summoned.

However, as soon as he entered the room and saw the six holographic projections floating in front of him, one of which was Park Chan-young, Dragon immediately panicked!

"It's him! He's Jordan's subordinate!" Park Chan-young immediately identified Dragon.

"Ah! B*stard! I trusted you so much. You're actually a spy sent by the Steele family! Jordan beat me up during our fight, it must be because you secretly gave him our family's strength-enhancing medicine! Dragon, I'm going to cut you into pieces!!"

Miyamoto Masaki was furious. He picked up his gun and charged at Dragon.

Dragon saw that the situation was dire. He had a strength-enhancing medicine on him and he immediately consumed it. Dragon's physical strength increased exponentially and he knocked out the Miyamoto subordinates before escaping through the window!

"Capture him! Capture him! Kill this traitor. Show him no mercy!"

Miyamoto Masaki shouted and ran after Dragon.

Miyamoto Chujiro broke out in a cold sweat. He flew into a rage. "That b*stard Jordan dared to deceive my family. I even put in so many good words for the Steeles!"

"Mr. Park, I now agree with your decision. We'll fly to England and take over the Steele family. We must tear that brat Jordan into pieces!"

Lota spoke up again. "No! I don't agree! You can't do this! No one is allowed to hurt my Jordan!"

Park Sang-jun snorted. "Lota, your parents haven't recovered yet. You should stay at home and take care of them. We will understand if you don't come with us. Don't worry, when we are dividing up the Steele family assets, we will still give a share to the Schimds!”

“Chairman, shall we set off immediately?”

Chairman Rong nodded. “Yes, whether we kick the Steele family out or not, Charleston has passed away. We should go over and pay our respects.”

“Everyone, let’s meet up at the Steele Castle!”

With that, the families switched off their projections.

Only Lota was left shouting in the video conference. “Hey, no, Chairman Rong, you can’t do this!”

However, none of the families paid attention to her.

“Jordan, I won’t let anyone hurt you!”

At Steele Castle.

Rowan and his three sons were gathered in a room, discussing how to deal with Charleston’s death in a low-profile manner. With the Steele family’s wealth, they had the resources to have a grand funeral and make the entire world mourn.

However, the Steeles were a secret family. On top of that, they did not want the other seven families to know for the time being.

This was because the other families had always planned to get rid of the Steeles, but were held back by Charleston’s presence. Now that Charleston was dead, the families had one less reason to hold back.

Rowan received a call.

Chapter 704: Expel The Steele Family!

Jordan and Jamie had the same view. When faced with a powerful enemy like the seven families, it was useless to admit defeat. They could only fight with all their might!

“We should contact the relevant departments in the US immediately!” Jordan instructed.

Jesse shouted, "No one is allowed to contact anyone! I'm the head of the family now! I have the final say! No one is allowed to go against the seven families! As the head of the Steele family, I have the responsibility to protect everyone! Listen to me. We will all head out to welcome the seven families!"

Jesse was completely different from Jamie and Jordan. Although he was mature and steady, he was also timid and afraid of trouble. He was used to bowing and scraping in front of the other secret families and only knew how to curry favor with them.

The Steeles went out and waited outside the castle for the seven families to arrive.

Before long, gusts of wind blew by. The weather was calm so it was obvious that the wind was produced by something flying overhead, but nothing could be seen.

Gradually, the winds faded off and the seven invisible planes appeared.

It was the seven families!

Apart from Lota.

"Jordan!"

Lota's hair danced in the wind. Compared to before, she was dressed more maturely today. She already had the aura of a lady-in-charge.

However, her face was still pure and innocent.

"Lota."

Jordan nodded gratefully at her.

The people from the other six families stood opposite the Steeles with serious expressions.

Miyamoto Masaki was the first to curse at Jordan. "Jordan, you beast, liar, b*stard, trash! You planted Dragon as a spy in my family! In our previous fight, you only won because you took my family's strength-enhancing medicine! You even lied that your family developed the Mirakuru serum. F*ck you! You tricked the Miyamoto family. I'll tear you into pieces today!"

With that, Miyamoto Masaki walked over to challenge Jordan.

Miyamoto Masaki did not manage to capture Dragon earlier. So he decided to settle the score directly with Jordan.

However, Chairman Rong raised his hand and stopped him. "Let's get down to business first. Let's talk about personal grudges later."

Park Sang-jun agreed. "That's right. Let's see Charleston's body first!"

Park Sang-jun shouted at the Steeles. "Jordan, where's your grandfather? Why didn't he come out to greet us? Is he dead? Hahaha... that old thing, I knew he wouldn't be able to survive for long!"

Charleston had just passed away. How could Jordan tolerate others insulting his grandfather?

Jordan clenched his fists tightly. He wished he could rush up and knock all of Park Sang-jun's teeth out! "B*stard, what did you say?!" Jordan roared, his eyes flashing furiously.

Park Sang-jun snorted. "You know very well what I'm talking about. Tell me, is your grandfather dead?!"

Just as Jordan was about to retort, Jesse stopped him. They could not let the other secret families know about Charleston's death.

Chairman Rong chimed in. "I heard that Mr. Steele suddenly fell seriously ill. I'm afraid he won't be able to make it. Is that true?"

Jesse smiled. "Chairman, thank you for your concern. My grandfather is only suffering from a minor illness. He is resting now."

Chairman Rong said, "Oh? Is that so? Let's go in and see him."

With that, the six families took a few steps forward. The Steeles were in a fluster.

"No!" Jamie stopped everyone. "How can you barge into our family's castle just like that?!"

With that, Jordan stepped forward to support his brother. "You can only enter our castle if we invite you!"

Chairman Rong smiled. "Jordan, you know that you won't be able to stop us all. At least we came in peace today. If we decide to treat the Steeles as our enemy and blow up your castle, it will be a piece of cake for us to do so. Do you want us to come to arms?"

Jesse panicked at Chairman Rong's threat.

Jesse whispered to his family, "They must already have confirmation of Grandpa's death. We can't hide it. Why don't we let them in?"

Without waiting for the others to agree, he said loudly, "Alright then, please come in!"

Jesse led the seven families to Charleston's room. Charleston's body had already been cleaned and changed into a fresh set of clothes.

The seven families entered and saw Charleston's corpse. The Rong family even used an AI robot doctor to assess Charleston's death.

"Sigh."

Chairman Rong shook his head in resignation and muttered to himself. "Will none of us from the eight secret families ever escape the curse? Myself included?"

Chairman Rong was already in his 50s and was getting closer and closer to the cursed age of 80. Therefore, Charleston's death was a huge blow to him. He had hoped that Charleston could defy the heavens and escape this curse.

Although Park Sang-jun was about the same age as Chairman Rong, he did not sigh when he saw Charleston's corpse. Instead, he smiled smugly.

'Shaun is really an expert. He didn't use any weapons but still managed to kill Charleston. He didn't even need to see him!'

Park Sang-jun admired Shaun but he was also guarded against him.

After confirming Charleston's death, Chairman Rong turned around and walked to the door. He said to Jordan, "Jordan, you're the head of the Steele family now, right? Prepare a larger room for us to hold a meeting. We have something to tell you."

Before Jordan could respond, Jesse rushed over. "Chairman, you've misunderstood. I am the one in charge of the Steele family now. If you have anything to say, say it to me!"

...

Jesse was afraid that others would misunderstand that Jordan was the head of the family.

Chairman Rong looked at Jesse indifferently. "Alright, I don't care which of you is the head. You can all come over. We have something to tell your family."

Jesse quickly said, "Yes, please follow me. I'll bring you to a more spacious room."

Arriving in the living room, Jesse asked the servants to prepare some tea and snacks before instructing them to leave.

Chairman Rong sat in the main seat and said solemnly, "In the previous great meeting, we discussed whether to expel the Steele family from our ranks. The Steeles have repeatedly violated the rules and their technology is lagging behind. They are not on the same level as the other seven secret families. By right, they should be expelled. However, Jordan used deception to help the Steele family avoid being expelled. He made us think that the Steele family was very powerful.

"But now, we've already figured out the truth. The Steeles' so-called cutting-edge medicines were stolen from the Park and Miyamoto families. As for their development of the Mirakuru serum, it was also an outright lie. Therefore, I've decided to call another vote on whether we should expel the Steele family!"

Chapter 705: Jesse Becomes A Dog!

They were indeed not here for a friendly visit!

Charleston had just died, and the seven families were already poised to devour the Steele family! It had only been a few hours since his death. If he knew about this, he would never have been able to die in peace!

As soon as Chairman Rong finished speaking, Park Sang-jun was the first to raise his hand. "I agree! The Steeles are not worthy of sharing the same ranks as us!"

Miyamoto Chujiro also raised his hand. "I also agree! The Steeles are liars without any real abilities!"

The other families, including Chairman Rong, also raised their hands.

Only Madam Geng hesitated.

"Madam Geng." Chairman Rong looked at her very seriously.

Finally, Madam Geng also raised her hand.

The six families all agreed to expel the Steeles.

Lota suddenly spoke up. "I don't agree! I'm the head of the Schmid family. I don't agree with you guys doing this!"

Chairman Rong said, "Six to one. Your vote has no effect, child."

Chairman Rong announced loudly. "Alright, I officially announce that from today onwards, there will only be seven secret families in the world! The Steele family is officially expelled!"

"No!"

In his hysteria, Jesse knelt on the ground in front of the six families!

"Sirs and Madams, please don't expel the Steeles. We are willing to do anything for you. We are willing to share all our technology and assets. Please don't expel us!"

Jesse had just become the head of the Steeles family and the first thing he did was kneel on the ground to beg the six families!

Jordan could not stand it anymore. This was too cowardly! He shouted, "B*stards! You dare to disobey the decree of the Deity and decrease the number of secret families from eight to seven! Aren't you afraid of the Deity's curse? By doing this, you're going against the Deity. The moment there are no longer eight secret families, all of you will die! Every one of you will die a hundred or ten thousand times more miserable than my grandfather!"

Jordan had just experienced his grandfather's death and was very emotional.

Chairman Rong was already worried about the curse. After hearing Jordan's words, he panicked and asked,

"What do you mean when you say that we are going against the Deity?"

Jordan said angrily, "Don't forget that the eight great families were chosen by the Deity! Why did she choose eight instead of seven? There's a deeper meaning to all of this! The moment the group is splintered, all of you will be cursed!"

Actually, Jordan had no idea why the Deity had chosen eight. He was just spouting nonsense to scare them. When the six families heard this, they all started discussing seriously. They all felt a little afraid.

Madam Geng said, "Jordan is right. The secret families have existed as eight for nearly a hundred years. Once this stable relationship is broken, no one can tell what will happen."

"What if it's really as Jordan said and we will be cursed?"

"I suggest that we continue to keep the Steele family and not expel them!"

The Addington and Haus families had the same cautious attitude.

Chairman Rong was hesitating. He had come this time to take down the Steele family.

Madam Geng knew Chairman Rong was ambitious. She also knew that since he already said all those harsh words, he was determined to take the Steele family alive today.

So she continued, "Why don't we do this? In ancient times, there was a position called a 'regent'. The seven families can be the 'regents' of the Steeles. The Steele family head can still be someone from within the family, but the real control will be in our hands."

Chairman Rong was delighted with this suggestion. "Yes, this sounds like a good idea! I wonder if the Steele family would agree?"

Hearing that the Steele family need not be expelled, Jesse immediately agreed. "I'm willing! The Steeles are willing! We're willing to respect all of you as our regents! We'll listen to your orders!"

On the contrary, Jordan was furious. He shouted at Jesse, "Jesse! Do you know what you're saying?! You want our family to be their dog!"

Jamie was also very unhappy. "That's right. Why should we agree?! Our family can't be humiliated like this!"

Jesse had knelt down and begged the six families, but to his brothers, he roared angrily. "Shut up! I'm the head of the Steele family! I have the final say!"

Right now, Jordan was so enraged that he could kill a bull with just one punch! However, Jesse was right. Their grandfather had indeed passed the position of family head to Jesse, not Jordan. If Jordan went against Jesse now, he would be officially challenging Jesse for power.

"Alright, I don't care anymore. If you're willing to be the dog of the other families, you can do it yourself! I will never agree to it!"

With that, Jordan turned to leave.

However, Park Sang-jun stopped him. “Stop! B*stard, did I say you can leave?”

Park Sang-jun stood up. “You’ve humiliated the Park family again and again. Now, we are the regent of your Steele family. We control the life and death of your family! Your life is also under my control! You can only live if I let you live. If I want you to die, you have to die!”

Park Sang-jun hated Jordan to the core. Jordan had beaten him and his son before, and he seemed to have conquered his daughter. This made him feel very humiliated!

Miyamoto Masaki also stood up. “That’s right! Jordan, I will make you pay for what you did previously!”

Seeing that the Park and Miyamoto families wanted to punish Jordan, Lota suddenly stood in front of Jordan. “Don’t hurt Jordan! Whoever dares to touch him will be going against the Schmid family! Don’t forget that we have successfully developed a quantum invisibility cloak. Moreover, I’ve already recruited more than a thousand kamikaze warriors. If you go against me, I’ll... I’ll... I’ll send them to assassinate you in their invisibility cloaks!”

Gasp...

Park Sang-jun, Miyamoto Masaki and the others gasped. They did not expect Lota to say such fierce words to the Park and Miyamoto families for Jordan! The quantum invisibility cloak was a very terrifying thing. It was impossible to guard against!

“Lota...”

Jordan was extremely touched at this moment. Previously, Lota’s parents wanted them to get married, but Jordan had rejected their proposal. Not only did Lota not hate Jordan for his rejection, but she was also now helping him without any qualms.

Park Chan-young liked Lota and he felt very indignant. “Lota, I already know about you and Jordan. After the two of you entered the room that day, you both took sleeping pills and slept for 24 hours. You didn’t do anything in the room. You’re still a virgin! Jordan is not interested in you at all. He doesn’t even want to touch you! He’s not your husband. He’s not worth you standing up for him like this!”

Chapter 706: Forcing Jordan To Get Married!

Miyamoto Masaki was surprised by Park Chan-young’s revelation. “What? Lota, you’re still a virgin? Jordan didn’t touch you?”

The families all knew that Jordan and Lota had entered a room filled with aphrodisiacal gas. They thought that the two of them must have already gone many rounds in the room.

Although Miyamoto Masaki was married, he was not married to a woman from the eight secret families. His family still hoped to matchmake him and Lota.

“Well...”

Lota’s shy expression could make people go crazy for her. It was not an exaggeration to say that she was the cutest girl in the world. She looked especially doll-like with her fair skin, blonde hair and big, round blue eyes.

At the age of 18, she was also in the prime of her youth and beauty. It was every girl’s dream to give her prime self to the man she loved.

Jordan looked at Lota’s shy manner and couldn’t resist thinking how cute she was.

‘We didn’t do anything. Why is she so shy? Seriously, what a silly girl.’

Madam Geng smiled. “I think Jordan is cute and has a good character. Moreover, he has helped me become ten years younger. Therefore, I agree not to hurt him.”

Park Chan-young quickly said, “Madam Geng, the pill he gave you comes from the Park family, not the Steeles!”

Madam Geng said coldly, “So what? It was still Jordan who gave it to me. If not for him, I would never even know about the existence of this medicine. I would never get the chance to take the pill, right?”

Madam Geng looked at Chairman Rong. “Chairman Rong, although Jordan deceived everyone and falsely reported the strength of his family, he was the one who revealed to us the research done by the Park, Miyamoto and Schmid families. If it weren’t for him, would we have been able to get the Park family’s youth-enhancing pill? Would we have known that the Miyamoto family was researching the Mirakuru serum? Would we have known that the Schmid family had already made a quantum invisibility cloak?”

“Chairman, you’ve been wanting to know about the private research of the various families for a long time, right? Didn’t Jordan help you in this aspect? You should thank him.”

Chairman Rong pondered about this and nodded in agreement.

For the past few decades, none of the secret families were willing to share their private research. The moment Jordan appeared, he managed to uncover the research of three families. It was true that Chairman Rong had indeed benefited.

Chairman Rong said, “Madam Geng is right. We shouldn’t kill Jordan. Mr. Steele treated us well in the past. It will be too cruel to kill his grandson right after his death!”

With Chairman Rong’s decree, Jordan’s life was spared. However, Park Chan-young said angrily, “No! We will be letting him off too easily then! This b*stard belittled the Park family and even dared to hit my father. I have to punish him!”

Miyamoto Masaki was in agreement. “That’s right! This b*stard has deceived us for so long. He even used Dragon to gain my trust! I can’t let him off easily!”

“Well…” Chairman Rong did not expect these two young people to speak against his decree.

It seemed like they really hated Jordan.

Jordan glared at Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki. Even without the support of the Steele family, he was not afraid of them at all!

As the two sides were locked in a stalemate, Jesse suddenly spoke. “Everyone, please listen to me. My good Park and Miyamoto brothers, I can understand your anger! Jordan has indeed behaved outrageously. Just because he has some ability, he dares to do whatever he wants! I’ve already warned him not to provoke you, but he refused to listen and caused so much trouble!”

Jordan looked at Jesse in surprise. He didn’t care what others said about him, but his own brother actually spoke against him like that!

If he had not “caused so much trouble”, the Steeles would have already been kicked out during the previous great meeting!

Jesse continued. “You are not the only ones who want to teach him a lesson. My foolish kid brother has been a disappointment. As his eldest brother, I’ve always wanted to teach him a lesson too!”

Jamie couldn’t endure it any longer. “Jesse, you are not even as accomplished as Jordan? What right do you have to say that he has been a disappointment?”

“Shut up! One more word from you and I will kick you out of this room!”

Jordan patted Jamie’s shoulder, indicating for him not to argue with Jesse.

After his outburst, Jesse turned to the six families and smiled obsequiously. “Right now, I have a perfect solution. We can spare Jordan’s life as requested by Madam Geng and Chairman Rong, but we can also appease the Park and Miyamoto families.”

“Oh? What do you suggest? Tell us!” Miyamoto Chujiro demanded. Everyone was curious.

“Jesse, shut up!”

Jordan had been quietly listening, wanting to know Jesse’s plan. Would he really suggest something beneficial for Jordan?

However, when Jesse mentioned Hailey’s name, Jordan knew what he wanted to do and immediately shouted at him to stop!

Seeing Jordan’s agitation, Miyamoto Masaki laughed. “Jesse, continue! The more Jordan doesn’t want you to say, the more I want to know! Haha!”

Park Chan-young agreed. “Tell us quickly!”

Even Madam Geng, who had been speaking up for Jordan, smiled curiously. “Continue, I want to hear it.”

Jesse rolled his eyes at Jordan and continued. “Grandpa asked Jordan to remarry his ex-wife, but Jordan refused. After Grandpa died, he went back on his promise to Grandpa. I think he’s very unfilial! Therefore, we can force Jordan to remarry Hailey as a punishment!”

Everyone was confused. Only Park Chan-young rubbed his chin thoughtfully as he gave a wicked smile.

Miyamoto Masaki was puzzled. “What kind of punishment is that?! How can that appease my anger?!”

Before Jesse could explain, Park Chan-young answered with a smile. “Mr. Miyamoto, you might not know this, but I’ve investigated Jordan’s past. His ex-wife, Hailey, is a commoner whom he married as part of his family’s training mission. She comes from a low-class family with insignificant assets. Nonetheless, she’s quite beautiful.

“However, this woman cheated on Jordan! Hahaha, the young master of one of the eight secret families was made a cuckold by a low-class beauty. Everyone, isn’t that hilarious?”

The crowd burst into laughter!

Miyamoto Masaki also laughed. “Now I understand why Jordan rejected his grandfather’s final wishes. Hehe, this is a good suggestion! Jordan, the more you don’t want to remarry Hailey, the more we want you to be with her again!”

Chapter 707: I’m A Deity!

“Hahaha, yes indeed. Jordan, you must marry a woman who betrayed you before. Every day, every time you see her, you will remember all the things she did to you! You will remember the scenes of her having fun with other men! This kind of mental torture is a hundred times better than beating you up! I agree with this suggestion!”

Miyamoto Masaki laughed loudly. He felt that this suggestion was very good. It was even better than killing Jordan.

For a secret family like the Miyamotos, how difficult was it to kill someone? They were already numb to it!

This kind of mental torture was the only way they could satisfy their sick urges!

Park Chan-young also smiled. “I agree too! If Jordan marries his ex-wife again, we don’t even have to do anything. He will anger himself to death. Hahahaha.”

Chairman Rong nodded too, but Madam Geng said, “Isn’t that a little too cruel?”

In response, Chairman Rong said, “Compared to killing him, it’s crueller to let Jordan marry a woman he once loved? Perhaps Jordan is a magnanimous man and can forgive his ex-wife to live a blissful life again.”

“Hahahaha... Chairman Rong is so sarcastic.”

“Chairman Rong is right. Jordan can choose to be a spineless man and forgive his wife. Hahaha.”

Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki started mocking Jordan again.

Madam Geng pondered this for a moment. To her, it was not a big deal to get remarried. After all, she was a woman herself. She also hoped that a woman could be forgiven for her past mistakes.

“Alright. As long as Jordan isn’t physically hurt, I agree to all other proposals.” Madam Geng finally agreed.

Chairman Rong nodded and said loudly, “Alright, I officially announce that Jordan Steele must remarry his ex-wife, Hailey! The Steele family must carry it out as soon as possible!”

Jesse hurriedly bowed. “Yes, Chairman! I will personally arrange Jordan’s wedding!”

But Jordan shouted angrily, “F*ck you! What right do the six families have to decide on my wedding?! It’s my own business who I want to marry and who I don’t. It’s none of your business!”

Jesse scolded his brother. “Jordan! Shut up! I’m the head of the Steele family. I order you to remarry Hailey. As a member of the Steele family, you must listen to me!”

However, even as the head of the Steele family, Jesse failed to suppress Jordan!

“The head of the Steele family is nothing! The heads of the secret families are nothing! All of you are lowly animals in my eyes!”

Jordan was very agitated as he shouted.

Park Chan-young was furious. “How dare you! You don’t know your place! It’s fine if you look down on us, but you even scolded Chairman Rong! You are claiming that Chairman Rong is inferior to you? Are you crazy?”

Miyamoto Masaki also shouted, “We are low-level animals? Who the f*ck are you!”

Jordan was forced into a corner. The six families had barged into his house and were trying to force him to accept a wedding that he was unwilling to accept.

Initially, Jordan did not intend to reveal his secret. But now, he could not hold it in anymore!

‘You’re all looking down on me? Do you know who I am? I should be the one looking down on you!’

Jordan looked at Chairman Rong, Madam Geng and the other families arrogantly. “Who am I? Alright, I’ll tell you who I am today!”

“I am the new Deity!!”

Deity!

All members of the secret families would feel deep veneration when they heard this name. This was because without the Deity, they would not be as prosperous as they were now.

It could be said that the Deity was the divine omnipotent ruler of all the eight secret families.

Jordan had no choice but to reveal this secret!

This was because he knew what a Deity meant to the secret families. Ever since the first Deity died 20 years ago, their research had stagnated. Everyone was looking forward to the arrival of the new Deity.

Once Jordan admitted that he was the new Deity, he would be worshiped by all the secret families! His status would surpass even the Rong family!

However, after Jordan's big reveal, everyone just burst out laughing! Rowan was the only one who didn't laugh but he looked stunned.

"Hahahaha... what did you say? You're a Deity?" Park Chan-young clearly didn't believe him. "I'm dying of laughter. A piece of trash like you have the cheek to pretend to be a Deity?"

"Jordan, don't joke around! Do you know what a Deity is?!" Park Sang-jun became serious. He didn't like people joking about the Deity. The older generation respected the Deity very much.

Even Jesse issued a warning. "Jordan, stop spouting nonsense! Did you go crazy from Grandpa's death?! We came from the same parents and are just ordinary humans. How can you be a Deity?!"

Jamie retorted, "So what if we were born from the same parents? Every single person is unique. For example, you are so ugly while Jordan is so handsome."

"You..." Jesse was annoyed at Jamie's insult.

Jordan looked at Park Sang-jun and snorted. "Of course I know what a Deity is. A Deity has the ability to predict the future in his dreams!"

Park Sang-jun continued to ask, "Are you saying you have this ability too?"

Madam Geng and Chairman Rong looked at each other solemnly and cautiously.

Could Jordan be telling the truth?

Park Chan-young knew that Jordan was a liar and loved to brag. He hurriedly said, “What nonsense are you spouting! You are just a useless piece of trash, how can you possibly predict the future? If you’re really a Deity and can predict the future, would your ex-wife, Hailey, have cheated on you? Shouldn’t you have predicted that she would sleep with other men and stop her? Why did your ex-wife manage to cheat on you? And more than once!

“Also, I heard that when Hailey’s twins went for the paternity test, Jordan was so nervous that he couldn’t even eat. When he heard the results and found out that one of them wasn’t his, he was so angry that he wanted to kill someone!! If you were a Deity, wouldn’t you have predicted the results? Why would you need to do a paternity test? Why would you be so shocked?”

That’s right. If Jordan was really a Deity and had the ability to predict the future, his ex-wife would never have the chance to cheat on him! Jordan would have already stopped her before she could cheat.

Based on these facts alone, Jordan’s claim that he was a Deity was just bullsh*t!

Chapter 708: Hailey Meets The Secret Families!

Miyamoto Masaki also laughed out loud. “Hahaha, you think you’re a Deity? You couldn’t even predict that your wife will cheat on you, you good-for-nothing! Think of a way to stop being a cuckold before fantasizing about anything else! Jordan, you’re worse than trash!”

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

Everyone started to mock Jordan.

Jordan was furious. He didn’t expect that no one would believe him. Instead, he was humiliated and mocked by the six families!

“Miyamoto Masaki, I’m going to kill you!”

Hailey was still the woman who could agitate Jordan the most. Jordan was deeply provoked by Miyamoto Masaki’s words.

By this stage, Jordan could no longer control himself. He didn't care how many opponents there were or if he had consumed any strength-enhancing medicine. He charged forward.

He wanted to beat Miyamoto Masaki to death!

However, the six families had come with their most capable bodyguards. How could they let Jordan succeed?

Swish!

A dart pierced into the back of Jordan's head.

And the person who shot the dart was not from any of the six families. Instead, it was Jordan's eldest brother, Jesse!

Jordan was completely unprepared for an attack from behind. He did not expect his own family to attack him. He collapsed to the ground, unconscious.

Jamie immediately cursed Jesse. "Jesse, what did you do?!"

Jesse replied coldly, "Don't worry. It is a tranquilizer dart gun. I only knocked him out. Take him back to his room to rest. Don't let him cause more trouble for our family!"

Crouching down, Jamie supported Jordan as he glared at Jesse. "We're brothers. Instead of helping Jordan, you sided with the six families to attack him? What kind of elder brother are you? What kind of family head are you?!"

"How dare you!" Jesse roared. "If I hadn't pleaded on his behalf, Jordan would be dead by now! Besides, it was Grandpa's dying wish for him to marry Hailey. What did I do wrong?!"

"You..."

Jamie was about to say something when Rowan said, "Alright, stop arguing. Listen to your brother and bring Jordan back to his room to rest."

Jamie didn't say anything else. He carried Jordan out of the room.

Lota looked at Jordan worriedly. She wanted to follow him and watch over him, but she had to stay behind. If the six families made any decisions that were disadvantageous to the Steele family, at least she could vote against them here.

Chairman Rong said, "Alright, bring us to see your family's research labs. Since we are the regents of the Steele family, we have the right to control all your research labs."

Although the Steeles were not as formidable as the Rong family, they had their strengths. Although the Rong family was powerful, it was impossible for them to be strong in every field.

Chairman Rong knew that the Steeles must have certain strengths that the Rong family didn't have yet. This was a good opportunity to take over them.

The other families also wanted to take over the Steele family's assets. They all stood up excitedly.

However, Park Chan-young said to Park Sang-jun, "Dad, the Steeles' research is just child's play. I'm not interested. You can go with my elder brother. I won't be going."

Park Sang-jun only brought along his two sons to Steele Castle. He did not bring Park Anya.

That was for the best. After all, Jordan liked Park Anya. It was best that she did not witness Jordan's current sorry state now. He would not have wanted her to see him being bullied by the six families. It was too humiliating.

Park Sang-jun was puzzled. "What else are you going to do here?"

Park Chan-young chuckled. "I heard that Jordan's ex-wife is extremely beautiful. She's the number one beauty in Orlando. Hehe, I want to meet her."

Park Sang-jun smiled in exasperation. "You punk."

Park Sang-jun knew that his son was a playboy. He would not give up on any chance to meet beautiful women.

Miyamoto Masaki also said to his father, "Dad, I won't follow you guys either."

Clearly, Miyamoto Masaki also wanted to see how beautiful Hailey was!

Even Madam Geng's young son, Geng Weilun, said, "Mom, I want to stay too."

Madam Geng said, "Why, son, are you interested in Jordan's fiancée too?"

Geng Weilun smiled. "Of course not. My taste isn't that bad. I just don't think the Steele family has any research worthy enough to interest me. They're too lousy."

Madam Geng replied, "Okay, whatever."

With that, Jesse led the others to the Steeles' research labs. Meanwhile, Geng Weilun, Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki stayed behind. They sent someone to call Hailey over.

When Hailey arrived, she was still wearing the Steele family maid uniform. The moment she walked in, her looks and figure immediately stunned the three of them, especially Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki!

Park Chan-young exclaimed. "Oh my god, Jordan's ex-wife is too beautiful! She's impeccable!"

From beside him, a Miyamoto Masaki shook his head in disbelief. "Is this really just a woman from a third-rate family? My wife is the number one beauty in Japan, but even she is not as beautiful as this woman!"

"Oh my god, this face is too perfect. It's like a fairy who has descended to the mortal world! And her figure... has she really given birth? This is definitely not the figure of a mother!"

Hailey had always known that her greatest advantage was her good looks. While her body did undergo some changes after giving birth, however, she was very disciplined and very quickly regained her original figure.

If she changed into a high school uniform, no one would doubt that she was a high school student!

On the contrary, Geng Weilun crossed his legs and leaned back, unlike the other two who leaned forward when they saw Hailey.

Geng Weilun took a sip of tea and said, "Jordan's ex-wife has a good figure, but is she really as beautiful as you say? Why do I feel that she's just average? Gisele Bundchen and Adriana Lima are more beautiful."

Geng Weilun was Chinese but he was a huge fan of Brazilian supermodels, especially those from Victoria's Secret. He frequently compared women to them.

Park Chan-young said, "Weilun, you clearly have different tastes! You prefer Brazilian supermodels but this is one of the most beautiful women we have ever seen from the US!"

Geng Weilun shrugged and didn't argue. "Each to their own. Happy for you that you like her."

Chapter 709: Special Arrangements For The Wedding!

Park Chan-young spoke to Hailey in English and she immediately replied in perfect English with a hint of a posh London accent.

“Yes, sir. My name is Hailey Camden.”

Hailey felt that her American accent was not upper-class enough so after arriving in England, she specially hired a speech tutor at the castle and worked on her accent every day. She even started studying other languages too.

It could be said that the past few months had been the most hardworking period of her life. She had never studied so seriously in school.

Park Chan-young smiled. “Hailey, what a lovely name. Hailey, I heard that you betrayed Jordan before? And more than once?”

Hailey didn’t know who the three men in front of her were. But she could feel that they had powerful auras. They were sitting in the living room of the Steele family, but they behaved like they owned the place.

Hearing the other party’s question, Hailey hurriedly replied, “That was a long time ago. I was young and insensible back then. It was my fault. I won’t do this again. Help me tell Jordan to forgive me, okay?”

Park Chan-young smiled. “Hailey, you didn’t do anything wrong! You did well! Your actions make me want to give you an award! Do you really want to be with Jordan again? Earlier on, we helped to convince everyone to make Jordan marry you again. Only an ‘outstanding’ woman like you is worthy of Jordan. Hahaha!”

Hailey was still downcast. “Thank you for your kind intentions. Unfortunately, Jordan won’t agree.”

Park Chan-young snorted. “So what if he doesn’t agree? Who does he think he is?! If I want him to marry you, he has to marry you! Let me tell you, the Steeles are now a puppet of the other seven secret families. We are the real masters! Jordan is just our dog. He will go wherever we tell him to go. He will do whatever we tell him to do!”

Seven secret families?

The Steeles had become puppets?

Hailey was instantly confused. She knew nothing about the eight secret families in the world, nor did she know about the relationship between the Steeles and the other families.

So she asked worriedly, "Is the Steele family finished? Are they inferior to even an ordinary family now? Will Jordan still have money in the future?"

In the end, Hailey still valued money the most. When she heard that the Steeles were being controlled by others and had become their dog, her mood turned sour.

If the Steeles were finished, Hailey would have to reconsider marrying Jordan again!

Park Chan-young sneered on the inside: 'Hmph, she's indeed a materialistic woman. No wonder she cheated!'

"Don't worry. Although the Steeles are now under our control, we are only interested in their secret research. We are not interested in their wealth! The Steeles' monetary assets still belong to them. We won't take even a single cent from Jordan."

Which one of the eight secret families wasn't rich? Money was just scrap paper to them!

Rob the Steeles of their money?

Even if a billion dollars was placed in front of them, they couldn't even be bothered to look at it!

When Hailey heard this, she immediately smiled. "Really? Is Jordan still a billionaire? That's great! I want to marry him again. I like him so much. We've been together for more than four years. Apart from him, I can't imagine living with another man. Thank you for helping us remarry! My god, you guys are so nice. I don't know how to repay you."

At this moment, Miyamoto Masaki was looking at Hailey's exquisite curves with a serious expression. From the moment Hailey entered, he had taken a liking to this woman. He had to have her.

Miyamoto Masaki chuckled. "You're so beautiful. It's very easy for you to repay us. Haha, you just need to..."

"Eh..." Park Chan-young suddenly reached out and blocked Miyamoto Masaki, not letting him continue.

Park Chan-young said, "If you want to thank us, it's very simple. We will arrange your wedding with Jordan as soon as possible. During the wedding ceremony, you have to “speak your wedding vows, right? When doing so, you will deliberately say Jordan’s name wrongly!”

Hailey was shocked. “Say his name wrongly? What do you mean? Whose name should I say then?”

Hailey was a little ashamed and said softly, “Ty... Tyler Collins.”

“Say Tyler Collins! Say ‘Tyler Collins, I love you’ to Jordan at the wedding in front of everyone. He will definitely be angered to death, hahaha!” Park Chan-young laughed evilly.

Clap, clap, clap.

Miyamoto Masaki clapped his hands. “Park Chan-young, you are indeed amazing! Impressive, admirable! This will be much more satisfying than beating him up!”

Beside them, Geng Weilun also gave a wicked smile.

Only then did Hailey realize that although the three men in front of her had helped her remarry Jordan, they only did so to humiliate him.

These were Jordan’s enemies!

Hailey had always treated Jordan as her husband. Faced with her husband’s enemies, Hailey’s attitude turned unfriendly.

“No, I went through so much trouble to remarry Jordan. How can I say this on my wedding day to provoke him?! Besides, I don’t love Tyler at all. He’s just a useless piece of trash from a third-rate family. I was too foolish back then, that’s why I fell for such a mediocre man!”

The more Hailey thought about Tyler, the more she regretted it!

The other two men whom she cheated with, Cayden and Brad, were both rich and handsome.

Hailey was a woman from a third-rate family. Cayden and Brad were considered to be very good catches for her. On the contrary, Tyler was just from a third-rate family who aren’t even millionaires. She was foolish to have given her first time to him.

She often mused that if she hadn’t been seduced by Tyler back then, so many things wouldn’t have happened between her and Jordan.

She hated Tyler!

Bang!

Hearing Hailey's objection, Park Chan-young immediately slammed the table in anger. "B*tch! You're just a common woman. What right do you have to reject me?! If you don't agree, I can replace you at any time! Anyway, Jordan doesn't want to marry you!"

"Don't... don't replace me." Hailey panicked. She bit her lip and said, "Alright, I... promise."

"Hahaha..." Park Chan-young laughed loudly. "Very good, I'm looking forward to your wedding! I believe that on your wedding day, you will definitely make Jordan so angry that he will vomit blood. Hahahaha, I must attend your wedding!"

Chapter 710: Lauren Was Captured!

Jamie gently placed Jordan on the bed and helped him take off his shoes before covering him with a blanket. He then stood in front of the bed and looked at Jordan quietly. Tears flowed down his face, but his right hand was clenched tightly.

For the first time in his life, he felt grief and indignation!

Jamie looked at the unconscious Jordan and said, "Jordan, I'm sorry. I was the one who harmed you. I chose Hailey for you. Back then, I only cared about finding a beautiful woman but didn't consider her character. That's why you were implicated by her today. The Steele family is finished. Jesse is willing to be a dog for the other seven families. I don't plan to stay in this family anymore.

"Jordan, help me pay my respects to Grandpa. I'm leaving. This time, I'm not leaving just to go and enjoy myself. I'm going to use my strength to deal with the other families. I want them to pay with their blood! I want all of them to be exterminated! Bear with it for a while. Wait for me to come back and save you. Goodbye, Jordan. I hope you can hold on..."

Jamie wiped his tears and turned to leave.

Before long, he flew his Zephyr Two away with Phoenix and his handsome subordinates.

Not long after Jamie left, the door to Jordan's room was pushed open again. The person who came was not from the Steele family or a servant. He was dressed in black and wore a cap. He was very well-hidden. Just half of his face was exposed, but it gave off a chilling feeling.

“Hehe...”

The man walked into the room, closed the door. He clearly knew that Jordan had been shot by a tranquilizer dart and was unconscious.

After the man walked in, he relaxed and smiled. “Hahahaha, the people from the seven families are a bunch of idiots! Jordan told you that he is a Deity, but no one believed him! You idiots think you can rule the world? Hmph!

“Heaven’s will, it’s all heaven’s will! If you had believed Jordan and treated him like a treasure, would I be able to do anything? I am destined by the heavens to enjoy his abilities alone. Hahahaha!”

The person was none other than Shaun Handley, who had previously controlled the Schmid family!

Shaun slowly walked towards Jordan’s bed. His walk was very strange. He didn’t move in a straight line. Instead, he walked in a zig-zag manner.

When he came to the bed, Shaun stopped smiling. Killing intent surged in his eyes as he looked at Jordan’s face!

“Damn you, Jordan! You caused my mother’s death, killed my wife and even took away Lota, whom I have specially groomed for many years! I can’t wait to cut you into pieces and eat you alive!”

Shaun’s hatred for Jordan was intense. If it were anyone else, they would have attacked long ago.

“But I can’t kill you. You’re the only one who can help me complete the mind transplant! However, although you’re a Deity, your ability is progressing too slowly! If you had better control over your abilities, would you be forced into such a wretched state by the other families? Would you be plotted against by your brother? Hehe, but it doesn’t matter. Even though your ability is progressing slowly, I can help you!”

“Jordan, do you know what this is?”

Jordan was unconscious now, so he naturally couldn't hear nor could he answer.

Shaun muttered to himself, "20 years ago, the Deity passed away. The people from the eight great families all rushed to the place where the Deity lived and took all her daily necessities for research. In the end, the Rong family, who have the most advanced medical technology, identified that this bottle of medicine can stimulate the brain. In other words, it can allow a Deity to make predictions more efficiently and not just rely on dreams.

"The people from the eight great families were very happy. They thought that they had obtained a treasure, so they tried it on everyone. However, they realized that it was useless to ordinary people! But Jordan, you are not an ordinary person. You're a Deity. It will definitely be useful for you!"

Shaun smiled smugly. He admired himself for having the foresight to secretly steal this bottle of medicine. Taking out a syringe, Shaun drew some medicine before injecting it into Jordan.

"Jordan, when you wake up, you will really become a Deity. Don't forget to thank me, hehe."

Squish...

With those words, Shaun injected the entire bottle of medicine into Jordan's body.

Jordan immediately became hot and his head felt heavy. He kept fidgeting.

"Hehe, Jordan, your prediction ability will only become stronger in the future. I'm afraid it won't be easy for me to deal with you then. Therefore, to make you work for me, I will kidnap your wife, Lauren. Don't worry, I will never touch her or hurt her. What? You're asking me why I am kidnapping Lauren and not Victoria?"

Jordan was unconscious now. After being injected with the medicine, he had fallen into an even deeper sleep. He could not hear anything, so how could he ask questions?

Shaun lived in the darkness and seldom interacted with others. He was used to talking to himself.

Shaun continued, "Hehe, because Lauren is younger and more beautiful! Of course, Hailey is not bad either, but you wouldn't care if I kidnapped her. Also, she has been with too many men. I still prefer someone as pure as Lota! I'll leave a woman like Hailey for you to slowly enjoy, hahaha!"

Shaun also mocked Jordan.

At this moment, footsteps suddenly came from outside the door.

“Someone’s coming!”

Shaun became very vigilant and hid behind the door.

Immediately after, the door was pushed open and Lauren walked in.

As Shaun looked at the pure and beautiful Lauren, an evil smile was on his face.
“Hehehe, speak of the devil. I was just about to look for you when you came knocking on my door.”

Puff...

Shaun blew a white powder at Lauren from behind her, causing her to faint on the spot. He then carried Lauren on his shoulder and quickly escaped.

...

Hailey muttered to herself as she walked toward Jordan’s room.

“Who were those three men? Why are they so detestable? They are forcing me to say Tyler’s name at my wedding to anger Jordan. I’m already in Jordan’s bad books. How can I do this? Seriously, what am I going to do!”

Chapter 711: Shaun: I’m a Gentleman!

“Hubby!”

Hailey hurried forward. When she saw Jordan’s agonized expression, she immediately shouted in fear, “Ah! Help! Jordan is dying!”

Luckily, Victoria was also heading to Jordan’s room. She had just learned that Jordan had been knocked out by his brother’s tranquilizer dart and wanted to keep him company.

When Victoria heard Hailey’s shouts, she walked in and said angrily, “Hailey, why are you shouting like that?! Who is dying?!”

When Hailey saw Victoria enter, she rushed over and held her hand. "Victoria, look. Is Jordan... dying?"

Hailey had never seen anyone in this condition before. She knew nothing about medicine. When faced with such a situation, apart from panicking, she didn't know what else to do.

She was your typical pretty but brainless airhead.

Victoria saw Jordan lying on the bed and foaming at the mouth.

"Oh no, in this sleeping posture, he might die at any time!"

Victoria immediately became very anxious! She was older and had more life experience. Jordan was sleeping on his back. If he vomited, he would choke on his vomit.

And he might die of suffocation!

People who fell unconscious from drinking too much or doing drugs sometimes vomited in their sleep and ended up choking to death on their own vomit!

Rushing forward, Victoria pushed Jordan to his side, so that his vomit would flow out of his mouth.

As she patted Jordan's back, she scolded Hailey. "You only know how to stand at the side and scream? Why didn't you help turn Jordan to his side when you saw that he was vomiting? Do you know that he might choke to death?!"

Hailey was confused. "Why do I need to turn him to his side..."

Victoria was exasperated. "You were Jordan's wife for three years. He likes to drink but you don't know how to take care of him when he's drunk?"

Hailey said aggrievedly, "His alcohol tolerance is so good. Even my father and uncle can't beat him. I've never seen him dead drunk!"

Victoria was speechless. "Hurry up and call Butler Frank over!"

Other than being beautiful and good at bearing children, Hailey seemed to be completely useless in their marriage!

She was really a typical bimbo.

“Okay.”

At the very least Hailey knew how to call for help. She had lived here for a long time and quickly called Butler Frank over.

Butler Frank immediately brought Jordan to the medical room. When Rowan and Jesse heard the news, they also rushed over.

“How’s Jordan?” Jesse entered in a fluster.

Victoria stood at the door of the medical room, her eyes filled with hatred as she looked at Jesse. “Jesse, what did you do to my husband?! You’re already the head of the family, and my husband has no intention of snatching the position from you. Why did you have to kill him?!”

Jesse looked very helpless. “I didn’t! I just anesthetized him! I don’t know why he’s like this now!”

Rowan also stared suspiciously at Jesse.

Jesse saw that Rowan was trying to analyze his face and words to see if he was lying.

Jesse asked, “Dad, you don’t believe me either?”

Victoria said coldly, “Jesse, if anything happens to Jordan, I’ll make you pay with your life!”

Jesse was furious. “B*tch! Who do you think you are?! How dare you speak to me like that?! I’m the head of the Steele family! I can easily send someone to kill you!”

Victoria wasn’t afraid at all. She stared at Jesse. “You can try to kill me, but you’d better make sure I am really dead. As long as I am alive, I will definitely avenge my husband!”

“You…” Jesse was also shocked by this formidable woman.

Although Hailey was a beautiful woman, she was a blip in Jordan’s love life. After her, Jordan’s next two wives, Victoria and Lauren, were both exemplary women who were not only beautiful but also had talent and good character.

Rowan cut in. “Alright, we’re family! I believe Jesse won’t do that, and I believe that Jordan will be fine.”

Ding.

10 minutes later, a doctor under the Steele family walked out of the treatment room and took off his mask.

Victoria and Hailey hurried forward and asked anxiously, "How's my husband?"

"How is Jordan? Is he still alive?" Jesse asked anxiously.

He was already the head of the Steele family, so he was no longer against Jordan. There was no need for him to kill his brother, nor did he want anything to happen to him.

The doctor turned to Jesse. "Mr. Jordan is fine. I have given him an injection and he has stabilized."

Hearing the doctor's words, everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

However, at this moment, another piece of bad news arrived.

Butler Frank rushed in. "Bad news! Bad news! Young Madam is missing. She was abducted!"

Jesse frowned. "Which young madam? Isn't my wife in Japan?"

Butler Frank clarified. "Mr. Jordan's wife, Lauren!"

"What?" Victoria's jaw dropped.

...

10 hours later, in a remote town in the US.

It was a very small, sparsely-populated rural town surrounded by mountains and rivers. Now and then, there would be some novelty tourists to the area, but news reports of them dying from unknown causes soon spread in the media.

At this moment, in a small wooden house in the village, a man and a woman were cooking on the stove.

The man was Shaun and the woman was Lauren.

Shaun was roasting a chicken drumstick. It looked very tender and delicious. He specially added some condiments and walked towards Lauren, wanting to give them to her.

"Don't come over. If you come over, I'll kill myself!"

Lauren held a dagger in her hand. The moment Shaun stood up, she had already placed the dagger at her fair neck.

The lights in the room were dim, but the darkness still couldn't hide Lauren's beauty.

Along the way, Shaun swallowed hard countless times as he looked at Lauren's face and figure.

Shaun was very polite to Lauren. He didn't treat her as a captive at all. He said, "Ms. Lauren, why are you doing this? If I wanted to do something to you, wouldn't I have already done it earlier when you were unconscious? Perhaps you don't know me very well. Actually, I'm a gentleman with noble aspirations!"

Chapter 712: Lauren: Can You Teach Me?

Shaun moved towards Lauren.

"Don't come over! Shaun, you demon! I won't believe you! My husband killed your wife. I am now in your hands. I accept my fate! My only request is that you don't desecrate my corpse after you kill me. Please be humane!"

Tears welled up in Lauren's eyes. Ever since Shaun revealed his identity, Lauren knew that she was doomed. After all, Jordan had just killed Shaun's wife, and now, Shaun had kidnapped Jordan's wife. How could Shaun let her off?

However, on the way from England to the US, Shaun was surprisingly polite and respectful to Lauren. He never had any intention of taking advantage of her.

Shaun shook his head helplessly and said, "This drumstick is delicious. I've been cooking this since I was 10 years old."

He moved back to his seat and took a big bite. He ate with relish and asked,

"Why do you think I would harm you? Even if I... I want to take revenge for my wife and kill Jordan, I won't implicate you. You're so beautiful, fair and pure. I really can't bear to kill you, hehe."

Lauren squeezed her legs together and pulled her shirt tightly around herself.

"If you don't want to kill me, why did you kidnap me?" Lauren asked.

Shaun chuckled. "Jordan is very important to me. My future depends on him, so I will never kill him. Do you know what kind of person your husband is? He's a Deity. He has the ability to predict the future!"

Lauren believed that Shaun was spouting nonsense. "Nonsense, don't talk to me about deities and spirits and whatever. I don't believe in such things, nor am I... afraid of such things!"

The house was a little cold. It was not like her home in the capital where there was heating and air conditioning. Lauren was also a little afraid so she was trembling.

Shaun insisted. "I'm serious. Jordan really has the ability to predict the future! Is it that difficult to believe? Ms. Lauren, you know too little about the world. Even I can predict some things as I have some knowledge about divination! Moreover, this isn't an ability that only modern people have. Since ancient times, there have been records of fortune-tellers across the world!"

Shaun seemed to want to make a good impression on Lauren. He kept praising himself.

Lauren asked, "If you can make predictions yourself, why do you still need to rely on my husband? There's no need to take me hostage."

Shaun smiled and shook his head. "That's different. I'm just using divination. I read the signs to make an informed guess about the future. It is not always accurate. But your husband is different. He's not an ordinary fortune-teller. He can actually see future events! This is fundamentally different!

"Especially when he sees future breakthroughs in technology. His ability can shorten the time needed for research and development. He can give scientists specific and accurate suggestions!"

Lauren continued to stare at Shaun seriously. She didn't understand what he was saying.

Nevertheless, Shaun continued. "Hehe, actually, I want to ask your husband for a favor. As long as he can help me, I won't hold my wife and mother's death against him!"

Through the dim light, Lauren realized that the person sitting by the stove was not that scary. Looking at his dopey smile, Lauren felt that this person was just an ordinary country bumpkin.

Although he had lived a luxurious life in Switzerland for decades, he could not show his face in public and rarely interacted with others. As a result, Shaun's temperament had not changed much.

Lauren felt that Shaun wasn't that scary anymore. She said gently, "Actually, my husband didn't mean to kill your family. It would be best if you could turn the hostility between you two into friendship. By the way, Mr. Handley, what do you want my husband to do for you?"

Shaun smiled again. "Mind-transplant."

"What?"

Lauren was so frightened that her face turned pale. A second ago, she thought that this person was a little simple-minded and relatively harmless. Now, she suddenly felt that he was a demon!

He actually wanted to remove someone's mind!

This was too perverse!

Shaun smiled. "In this world, only Jordan can help me get a breakthrough in mind-transplant technology. I will need his help in the future, so don't worry, I will never harm you. I know that Jordan loves his wives. If I hurt you, he will definitely not be willing to help me."

Lauren nodded. She finally believed that Shaun was telling the truth.

Just like that, the two of them were silent for more than 10 minutes.

After Shaun finished the delicious drumstick, Lauren suddenly said, "Um..."

Shaun immediately turned around happily. "Haha, you're hungry, right? How can you not be hungry after not eating for more than 10 hours? I'll make you another drumstick!"

"Uh, no," Lauren replied, "Um, I wanted to ask if it's true that you can control other people's bodies?"

Shaun was taken aback. He did not expect Lauren to suddenly ask this question.

"Yes, it's true. Jordan should have told you. Why?" Shaun asked.

Lauren asked, "Well... can I learn?"

Shaun's eyes widened as he looked at the pure and lovely Lauren. He never expected that this top-notch rich beauty would want to learn such despicable sorcery!

...

Half a month later, on Gaathafushi in the Maldives.

This was one of the best islands in the Maldives. It was located in the middle of the Alifu Alifu Atoll and surrounded by green-blue waters, which made the island look like an embedded pearl.

This island had already been completely taken over by the Steele family.

In the warm and comfortable room, Jordan lay on the bed. The warm sunlight shone through the window onto his face. The sound of waves crashing against the reefs could be heard.

The environment here was perfect, romantic, and relaxing.

A woman sat beside Jordan's bed. She was wearing a short dress that revealed her lovely shoulders. Her long hair was shoulder-length and dyed pink. From the back, she looked like a fairy.

It was Jordan's ex-wife, Hailey.

Suddenly, Jordan slowly opened his eyes.

"Ah, Jordan, you're finally awake!"

...

Hailey put down her phone. She was so happy that she nearly jumped up in joy.

Jordan felt very tired. The first person he saw when he opened his eyes was Hailey, who had changed her hair color and hairstyle. He felt as if a lifetime had passed.

Although he hated Hailey, her new hairstyle and color suited her well. She was stunning. Jordan was momentarily taken aback.

Lauren and Hailey were both top-grade beauties, but Lauren was from an upper-class family in the capital. So she was more conservative. She wasn't as vain or ostentatious as Hailey, so she wouldn't beautify herself to such an extent.

Chapter 713: Prediction Ability Upgraded!

Although Jordan had just woken up, he had subconsciously heard the sound of the waves crashing against the reef for a long time. He also noticed that the sea was right outside the window. As a result, he knew that he was no longer in Steele Castle in England.

Hailey said indifferently, "We're in the Maldives. Jordan, do you know? You've been unconscious for half a month. You're finally awake. I thought you would become a vegetable and never wake up again!"

Jordan was very shocked. "What? I was unconscious for half a month?"

Jordan couldn't help feeling very worried and flustered. Before he fainted, the seven families had gone to the Steele Castle to take over the Steele family.

The Steele family was facing such a major crisis, and Jordan had fainted at that critical moment. Moreover, he had been unconscious for half a month!

Jordan hurriedly asked, "Did anything happen in the past two weeks? Are Lauren and Victoria alright?"

Jordan was very worried about his two wives, especially Victoria because he had dreamed of her death! Lauren had been kidnapped and was nowhere to be found, but Hailey did not intend to tell Jordan about this.

"They're fine. Everything is fine."

Jordan continued to ask, "Where are they? Why aren't they here?"

Jordan found it strange. Since the two of them were fine, they should be the ones taking care of him while he was unconscious.

Hailey said, "This is where we are going to hold our wedding. Why would they be here? Victoria wanted to accompany you, but I didn't let her."

Wedding?

Jordan recalled his recurring dream. In that dream, Jordan and Hailey's wedding was held on the beach!

And now, the two of them were in the Maldives!

'The prophecy... is it going to happen here?'

Jordan more or less believed he was the Deity, but in his heart, he was still unwilling to marry Hailey!

Jordan sat up. "Stop dreaming. I won't marry you."

With that, he tried to get off the bed. However, just as he was about to do so, an image flashed across his eyes.

Hailey got up in a panic and knocked a cup to the floor. She knelt on the ground and begged Jordan...

“Eh? What’s going on?”

Jordan shook his head. Why was he hallucinating all of a sudden? Perhaps it was because he had been unconscious for too long. Jordan didn’t think too much about it and continued moving out of bed.

Then, a miraculous scene happened.

As soon as Jordan got off the bed, Hailey stood up in a panic. She accidentally knocked over a cup.

“Uh...”

Jordan was not surprised that Hailey would kneel down to him. This b*tch had once vowed that she would never kneel down to apologize to him. However, after his identity as a billionaire was revealed, she would often kneel and beg for forgiveness.

What surprised him was that this scene had just flashed across his mind!

‘Oh my god, my prediction ability has been upgraded!’

Jordan was overjoyed. He was already certain that he was a Deity. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have successfully predicted his grandfather’s death. However, his previous ability was not good enough to facilitate any breakthroughs in the Steeles’ research, nor could it help him fight against the seven families.

However, Jordan’s ability seemed to have improved. He no longer saw the future only in his dreams. Now, when he saw an item, it would automatically trigger a related future scene to flash across his mind.

This ability was so awesome!

If this could continue, Jordan would be able to control everything. It would not be a problem to deal with the seven families!

At this moment, Hailey knelt on the ground and begged, “Jordan, I beg you. Marry me. I promise you that I won’t dare to cheat again. Park Chan-young said that if you’re not willing to marry me, we’ll both die... so no matter what, let’s get married first.”

Jordan clenched his fists and grew furious. "Damn you, Park Chan-young!"

Park Chan-young wasn't the only one. There were also the Miyamoto and Ross families. Apart from Lota, the other six families were Jordan's enemies!

They had taken over all of the Steele family's research and were even trying to force Jordan to marry a woman who had once betrayed him!

However, at this moment, Jordan had no choice but to submit. This was because the Steeles were now completely under the control of the other secret families. Park Chan-young might really kill him at any time!

"Where there's life, there's hope. If I go against Park Chan-young and reject this wedding, my life might be in danger. I can still protect myself, but my two wives will probably be implicated! There's a saying that goes: 'one has to endure hardships to gain courage'. I'm just marrying a woman. That's not even really a hardship. Besides, she is a woman whom I once loved deeply!

"Now, the most important thing for me is to regain control of the Steele family and escape the control of the other families. I will also kill everyone from those six families!! Also, my prediction ability seems to have upgraded. With this ability, I can secretly develop research and strive to be ahead of the other families!"

Jordan thought about many things. After waking up, his mind was calm and his thoughts were clear.

He was no longer as reckless as before. He decided to use this experience to learn how to endure hardships and gain courage. He would marry Hailey according to Park Chan-young's wishes!

Jordan looked at Hailey. After this woman dyed her hair, she looked like a high school girl. Moreover, she seemed to be even thinner than half a month ago. Her arms were very slender. Of course, she was still curvy in places where there should be curves.

Jordan sighed. "Hailey, do you know? When I first married you, I knew that I owed you a dignified wedding. Actually, I had always planned to give you a wedding one day. And in my plan, our wedding would be on the beach, like this place."

Hailey was touched. "Jordan..."

Jordan reached out and grabbed Hailey's slender arm. "Get up. Perhaps it's fate for us to hold a wedding here. It's destined and unavoidable. I'll accept it!"

Hearing Jordan say "I accept", Hailey jumped up happily and hugged him tightly in excitement.

“Hubby, thank you. Thank you for giving me this chance again. I swear that after marrying you, I will definitely be a virtuous wife. I will never...”

Just as Hailey was going to continue swearing, Jordan suddenly reached out and stopped her. “Hey, there’s no need to say anything else. Just keep those words in your heart.”

“Yes, yes.” Hailey happily took the initiative to kiss him.

However, Jordan was thinking: ‘Hailey, I don’t want your promises. It’s not because I believe you, but because I don’t care anymore!’

Chapter 714: Almighty Power Who Did Not Tolerate Irreverence!

Jordan and Hailey’s marriage was to temporarily hold off the other secret families from killing them. Meanwhile, Jordan would hide his true strength and bide his time. He would use his prediction ability to regain power and develop more advanced technologies and weapons than the other families!

In order to not let the other families ruin his plans, he had to pretend to obey and be resigned to his fate. This way, they would lower their guard against him!

As for whether Hailey had turned over a new leaf, Jordan did not care at all.

Of course, after the two of them got married, Hailey would be Jordan’s wife in name. He would never allow her to mess around with other men and affect his reputation.

Men cared a lot about their reputations.

At this moment, a man in a doctor’s coat walked over with a smile. “Thank goodness, you’re finally awake! What exactly did that guy inject you with that caused you to have such a huge reaction? We kept giving you sedatives to stabilize you, that’s why you were unconscious for so long.”

Jordan was puzzled by the doctor’s words. “A guy? Injected me with something?”

Who was that guy?

Did that guy have anything to do with his improved prediction ability?

Jordan stared at the doctor. He wanted to use his “superpower” to predict what this doctor would do to him next. However, this time, when he was fully focused on trying to get a vision, all he could see was a very blurry image.

‘Damn, I’m so tired. My head hurts.’

Jordan could only vaguely see the doctor checking his body. As for what the doctor was saying, he could not hear it at all.

‘It seems that I need a lot of mental strength to predict what will happen next. I’m too weak now...’

Jordan realized that his current mental strength was not enough to get good visions.

As expected, the doctor walked over and asked Jordan to sit down again. He then conducted a physical examination on him.

After the examination, the doctor said happily, “Congratulations, Mr. Jordan. You’re fine now. You should be very hungry. Go have a beer and eat something nice.”

With that, the doctor left.

While Jordan was having his check-up, Hailey had already peeled a pear and handed it to him. “Hubby, have some fruit first.”

Before long, the doctor returned and said, “Mr. Jordan, Mrs. Jordan, Master Park Chan-young instructed that your wedding will be held at the beach tomorrow afternoon. He said that he will personally attend the ceremony.”

It turned out that the doctor had gone out of the room earlier to inform Park Chan-young that Jordan was well.

Jordan found this doctor a little familiar. He asked, “Are you a doctor under the Steele family?”

The doctor replied, “Yes, I was recruited by Mr. Rowan 15 years ago.”

Jordan was furious. “You’re our doctor, but you call me Mr. Jordan while you call Park Chan-young Master? Can’t you tell who your real master is?!”

The doctor smiled. “Mr. Jordan, I’m afraid I’m not the one who doesn’t understand. The Steele family only exists in name now. Even the head of the Steele family, your elder brother Jesse, has become a servant of the seven families. The seven families have become the regents of the Steeles and control everything. There is nothing wrong with me calling Park Chan-young 'master'."

The doctor sounded extremely condescending toward Jordan.

Jordan was fuming. The Steele family had hundreds and thousands of subordinates like this doctor. They cherished talents and treated their subordinates very well. The Steeles were always respectful and did not behave like a high and mighty master. They also paid their subordinates very handsomely!

Now that the Steeles were controlled by the other secret families, this doctor switched sides so quickly. It was like he had completely forgotten the kindness which the Steeles had shown him in the past 15 years!

Jordan looked at the doctor. "Yes, you are right. You did the right thing. Tell me your name!"

The doctor snorted disdainfully. "What? You want to know my name and take revenge on me? Hehe, I'm not afraid. You're not even the head of the Steele family now. Even your brother, Jesse, is a dog of the other families. You? You're worse than a dog!"

Before Jordan could flare up, Hailey blew up first. "How can you say such things? Why are you scolding my husband? My husband only asked for your name. If you don't want to say it, then don't say it. Why do you have to insult him? You're so ill-mannered!"

The doctor was still hostile. "Hmph, so what if I insult him. What can he do to me? F*ck you! I never liked the Steeles to begin with! Back then, I wanted to work for the Addington family but I wasn't hired. I had no choice but to settle for the next best thing and come to you. I never wanted to work for the Steeles!"

By now, Jordan was certain that this fellow was just a detestable beast who would bite the hand that feeds it! Without hesitation, Jordan snatched the fruit knife from Hailey's hand and stabbed it into the doctor's throat!

With lightning speed, Jordan killed the doctor!

"Since you don't want to say your name, just die!"

Jordan wanted to know the doctor's name so that when he finally regained his status, he would call that doctor over to punish him, to make him regret his betrayal! But since the doctor refused to reveal his name, Jordan went ahead to just kill him.

Jordan was a Deity. He was an almighty power who did not tolerate irreverence!

“Ah! Hubby, why did you kill him...”

Hailey was so frightened that her face turned pale.

Jordan did not bother explaining himself to Hailey. He went to the washroom and washed his face.

Picking up his phone, he called Lauren, but no one answered.

“Hello, Hubby?” Victoria immediately picked up his call, sounding very anxious.

Jordan answered. “Yes, it’s me.”

Victoria was extremely excited. “Hubby, you’re finally awake. Do you know how worried and scared I was the past two weeks?”

Jordan smiled faintly. “I’m sorry for making you and Lauren worry. By the way, where are you now?”

Victoria replied, “I’m back in the US.”

Jordan said, “Back in the US. That’s good. You should be with Lauren, right? I called her just now, but she didn’t answer. I called to tell you something. Hailey and I are getting married tomorrow. Don’t worry, I won’t really treat her as my wife. This is just a temporary measure. Wait for me. After I have enough strength to deal with the other families, I’ll get Hailey to scam as far as possible.”

Hearing Jordan’s words, Victoria fell into a dilemma.

Chapter 715: Jamie Is Being Hunted!

Although Victoria wanted to say something, Jordan told her that he was going to bide his time and wait for an opportunity.

Victoria changed her mind because she knew that once Jordan knew that something had happened to Lauren, he wouldn’t be able to lay low. For the woman he loved deeply, he would do anything.

Hence, Victoria replied, "Oh, Lauren went out just now and might not have brought her phone with her. Hubby, don't worry about us. We believe in you. We believe that you can definitely defeat those bad people!"

After hanging up, Victoria sighed.

Salvatore asked, "Is Mr. Jordan alright? Why didn't you tell Mr. Jordan that Ms. Lauren was kidnapped?"

Victoria and Jordan's subordinates, Salvatore, Tim, Harry and the others, were searching for Lauren. Of course, after the Howard family found out about this, they also started their own investigation, focusing on the US.

They all felt that Shaun, who had abducted Lauren, was originally from the US and was very likely to have brought her somewhere in the US.

Victoria sighed. "Jordan has been unconscious for half a month and just woke up. I don't want him to worry. Where did this damn Shaun take Lauren? He'd better not have hurt her!"

Salvatore also said worriedly, "I think that with Shaun's strength, if he wanted to harm Ms. Lauren, he would have already done so back in the castle. In a one-on-one battle, I don't think that even Mr. Jordan is a match for that evil sorcerer. He must have taken Ms. Lauren away as a hostage to threaten Mr. Jordan. Ms. Lauren is definitely safe for now.

"However, even if he doesn't kill her, I'm just worried that that b*stard will have designs on Ms. Lauren. She's so beautiful..."

Victoria was also worried about this. "That's right. I'm also worried about this. If Lauren is really tainted by that demon, what should we do? I really wished that I was the one kidnapped instead. In her entire life, Lauren has only ever loved Jordan. If something happens to her, my husband will definitely be very sad..."

Salvatore said, "Ms. Victoria, don't worry too much. That dog wouldn't dare to do anything to Mr. Jordan's wife! Let's just continue to search for Ms. Lauren. Um, do you want to tell your cousin about this? Emily travels extensively and might encounter them!"

Victoria nodded. "Okay."

Maldives, Gaathafushi Island.

Jordan ate something and walked out of the room to the beach. He looked out toward the blue sea in a daze. At this moment, Jordan suddenly heard hurried footsteps behind him.

“Someone’s here!”

Jordan turned around and became very vigilant. However, as the figure slowly approached, he realized that it was none other than his capable subordinate, Dragon!

Dragon came over and knelt in front of Jordan. “Greetings, Master. Congratulations on your recovery!”

Jordan hurriedly helped him up and held his hand happily. “Dragon, it’s great that you’re fine! I was worried about you just now. The Miyamoto family uncovered your true identity. They didn’t do anything to you, right?”

Dragon said, “Miyamoto Masaki has been sending people to hunt me down. There are also some of his spies nearby. Therefore, I can only secretly protect you from afar. I can’t be right by your side. Please forgive me, Master.”

Jordan hurriedly said, “What are you talking about? It’s good that you’re fine. Miyamoto Masaki is a narrow-minded person who will definitely take revenge. We played him for a total fool and if it weren’t for Madam Geng and Lota pleading for mercy on my behalf, I would have already been killed by them. As for you, he won’t be satisfied until he kills you. By the way, are our plane and men still here?”

Now that the Steeles were under the control of the other secret families, apart from money and other such financial assets, everything related to advanced technology no longer belonged to the Steeles.

This included Jordan’s Zephyr Three. Therefore, Jordan was very worried that his invisible plane would be taken away.

This plane was a life-saving tool. Furthermore, it was the key difference between him and an ordinary rich second-generation heir. Apart from money, he had nothing else.

Dragon replied, “Yes, I have Zephyr Three. However, the six families regard Zephyr Three as a huge threat. They have already ordered the immediate destruction of Zephyr Three once it is discovered. They will also kill all of your subordinates. The Park and Miyamoto fighters have been on our tail for the past two weeks. Many of our men have died.”

“Damn!”

Jordan clenched his fists in anger. He was furious at the news that the Park and Miyamoto families had killed many of his men. He wished he could destroy these two families now!

“Park Sang-jun, Park Chan-young, Miyamoto Chujiro, Miyamoto Masaki, since you dare to kill my men like this, I will definitely kill you with my own hands!”

Dragon said, “It’s not just your subordinates. Mr. Jamie’s Zephyr Two and his men are also under attack. The six families have even issued a kill order against Mr. Jamie. He is to be killed on sight.”

“What?” Jordan was shocked. “They want to kill Jamie? Why?”

The three Steeles brothers had not done anything. Why wouldn’t they let Jamie off?

Dragon said, “Mr. Jesse is now the head of the Steele family and has already submitted to the other families. However, Mr. Jamie didn’t submit to them and snuck away. I heard that Mr. Jamie secretly bombed several bases belonging to the six families with his Zephyr Two, so he is on their blacklist.”

“Sigh.”

Jordan sighed. He understood Jamie’s proud and brash character. He had been powerful and free all his life. He liked to enjoy himself and live life without any restraints. How could he be willing to be a dog of the other secret families?

Previously, Jordan had also wanted to go against the six families and bomb them with his Zephyr Three. But now, he no longer thought this way.

If he did that, he would win the battle but lose the war. Such actions would not destroy the six families or save the Steeles.

The only way was to rely on the abilities of a Deity to develop more advanced technology and weapons to rule over them!

“Is Jamie alright now?” Jordan asked.

Dragon said, “Master, don’t worry. I didn’t receive any news of Mr. Jamie being killed. He and Phoenix are best at hiding. I believe the six families might not be able to find them.”

Even so, Jordan was still worried. “If they kill Jamie, I will make them pay with their blood!”

The current situation was worse than he had imagined!

Jesse had become a lackey and Jamie was being hunted by the six families. His life was in constant danger. And tomorrow, he would be forced to marry a woman he no longer loved!

Dragon said, "Master, I placed a listening device in your room. I heard about your wedding with Hailey tomorrow. Master, if you want to leave, I'll bring you out of here immediately. Zephyr Three is already prepared. The six families will not be able to find us!"

Chapter 716: The Camden Family Gathers!

Jordan shook his head. "No, I don't intend to come with you."

Dragon was puzzled. "May I ask why?"

Having been under Jordan for so long, Dragon knew very well that Jordan hated Hailey. He also knew that no one in this world could force Jordan to do something he was unwilling to do. Therefore, Dragon did not understand why Jordan was not leaving.

Of course, Dragon did not know about Jordan's current state of mind and plan.

So what if they escaped? So what if they had an invisible plane and wouldn't be detected by the six families? He would end up having to live in the dark for the rest of his life. He would not dare to show his face and would have to scurry around like a stray dog!

Jordan wanted to live in the open. He wanted to quietly blossom under the noses of the six families and then overturn their oppression!

"It's destined that Hailey and I will hold a wedding on the beach. Even if I leave with you now, I will have to come back here sooner or later to marry Hailey."

Actually, Jordan had already rejected her once. And what were the consequences? Rowan and Jesse had agreed but then the six families suddenly came over and forced him in that direction again.

Recalling Nolan's words: "You can't change what is already part of the future", Jordan was certain that his wedding with Hailey would happen. It was useless to continue avoiding it.

Of course, Dragon could not understand Jordan's decision.

Dragon hurriedly said, "No, if you don't want to leave, then I'll stay here and secretly protect you!"

Jordan shook his head. "There's no need, I don't need your protection. If the six families wanted to kill me, they would have done so when I was unconscious. Go and gather your forces in secret. Then think of a way to contact Jamie. Don't let anything happen to him. Also, after finding him, tell him not to act recklessly again. Don't fight with the six families for the time being. Tell him to wait for me. I will soon trample all six families under my feet!"

Those words made Dragon look at Jordan in admiration!

Even in his current predicament, Jordan was still so confident. Moreover, he did not need any help. He could defeat the six families alone!

Dragon was very happy. His master was a peerless hero!

After all, Dragon was also a hero at heart, and he was very glad that he had a master whose courage and fighting spirit surpassed his!

If his master was Jesse, who had been reduced to a lackey, Dragon would still have to obey his orders. But Dragon could never respect Jesse.

"Yes, Master! Be careful, I will be leaving now!"

Jordan hugged Dragon before watching him leave.

Leaning back onto the recliner, Jordan was pensive as he looked at the sea and listened to the waves. He sat there for many hours.

After a long time, Hailey walked over and held Jordan's arm happily.

"Hubby, I just ordered you a suit for our wedding tomorrow. Come and see if it fits."

Jordan was still looking at the sea. "No need. It will definitely fit."

Hailey smiled like a flower. "Hehe, you're so confident in me. That's right, how can I not know your size? We've been together for so long, right?"

Jordan was speechless. He didn't say that to express his confidence in Hailey. It was because he had already witnessed the future wedding scene and in it, he was wearing a suit that fitted very well.

Hailey continued, "By the way, I called my family just now, and they're rushing over. It will be more lively with the Camdens around tomorrow."

Jordan responded. "I'm sure you didn't just call your Camden family. You must have also called your good friend, Rachel, right? Is she coming with her ex-husband, Cory?"

Hailey was so shocked that her mouth fell open. She patted Jordan's shoulder. "Oh my god, Hubby, you're too amazing. You managed to guess this! That's right. I invited Rachel too. After all, she witnessed our first marriage. Also, Cory is no longer Rachel's ex-husband. They've already remarried!

"Everything is perfect. We've gotten back together. She and her husband have also gotten back together. Destined lovers will always end up together! Hubby, I suddenly thought of a poem. It's very compatible for the four of us!"

Jordan was curious. "Which poem?"

Jordan was puzzled. When did Hailey, who only knew how to put on makeup and clothes, start reading poetry?

Hailey recited, "Like the heavens that never age, our love is everlasting. Our hearts are intertwined like a silk net with a thousand knots in it!"

"Urgh..."

"Hubby, what's wrong?"

"I... feel like vomiting."

"Oh dear, you just woke up, so don't eat so much."

Jordan was speechless. Hailey was so shameless to recite such a love poem. Whose heart was intertwined with hers? Who had an everlasting love for her?!

Hailey and Rachel were two bad women who cheated on their husbands. One cheated three times, and the other probably cheated 30 times. In the end, the two of them managed to hang onto their marriages. Was that really what you would call everlasting love?

If anything, Jordan believed that the heavens were blind! Jordan didn't want to continue conversing with Hailey. He was afraid that he would really vomit.

It was now three in the morning. However, Jordan, who had been unconscious for half a month, was not sleepy at all. He still felt wide awake.

Hailey went to take a nap but was woken up by her phone ringing. She rubbed her eyes and walked over to Jordan. She said, "Hubby, my parents just flew in on a chartered plane. They have just arrived on the island. Shall we go and welcome them together?"

Jordan continued to look at his phone and did not respond. It was already a pain to marry Hailey, and now she wanted Jordan to go and welcome her family? She must be dreaming!

The lack of response didn't appear to phase Hailey. She put on a jacket and walked out.

Soon, there were sounds of laughter and chatter and a large group of people entered the room. It was Hailey's parents, Benedict and Sylvie, as well as her cousins Drew and Elle. There was also Hailey's best friend, Rachel, and her husband Cory.

Sylvie was walking in front. She was all smiles and dressed in branded clothes. Most importantly, she looked 10 years younger than before!

Previously, Jordan had brought Sylvie to the Park family's hospital in South Korea. The Steeles had taken the Park family's youth-enhancing medicine and became younger. Although Sylvie looked younger, her mannerisms still made Jordan feel that she was an old woman in her 40s.

Sylvie walked over with a smile and grabbed Jordan's hand. "My good son-in-law, I knew it. I knew that you and Hailey would definitely remarry. Haha, my wonderful son-in-law, thank you so much. You brought me to South Korea previously. Now that I'm 10 years younger, my friends are so envious of me! I really love you to death!"

Chapter 717: The Fault Of The Father!

Indeed, no matter how old a woman was, appearance was the most important to her.

Given that Jordan had helped Sylvie become 10 years younger, it was not an exaggeration to say that he had given her a new lease on life. She was already completely on Jordan's side and was no longer dissatisfied with him.

During the three years he was married to Hailey, Jordan had served his mother-in-law obediently but she still disliked him. If he had known that she valued looks so much, he would have gotten some beauty medicine from his family for her. He wouldn't have to suffer so much those three years then.

Behind Sylvie, Elle, who had already changed her name to Jenny, walked over and greeted Jordan. "Jordan, long time no see."

Jordan glanced at Elle and nodded. "Yes, long time no see."

They had a secret between them. The last time they met, they had slept together in a big mansion in South Korea. Jordan had taken her virginity!

Jordan had always been tempted by this sister-in-law. Her figure and face were extremely alluring. However, her outfit today was surprisingly conservative. She was not wearing clothes that accentuated her figure, like how she usually did. Her current outfit only revealed her figure by about 60-70%.

Actually, this was even better. In the past, her outfits were so revealing that they looked a little vulgar. After Elle became a celebrity, her taste had clearly improved.

Her recent social media photos were artistic shots that were not overtly sexual but subtly seductive. She said that she had learned this new style from some internet celebrities.

Elle said coquettishly, "Jordan, now that you and Hailey are married, I can call you brother-in-law again. That's great. I hope we can still maintain our previous relationship."

Elle's words were a little ambiguous. On the surface, there was nothing wrong with her calling him brother-in-law. However, her words "maintain our previous relationship" was a little intriguing. What did she mean by that? What kind of relationship?

If she was referring to those three years when he was married to Hailey, then there was nothing untoward.

But what if she was referring to that time in South Korea?

If it were any other man, they would be very tempted by her words. They would feel that they had gotten a good two-for-one deal from this marriage.

"Okay." Jordan didn't say much.

"Jordan, congratulations. Hope you have a happy marriage. This is a gift for you. Hope you like it!" Drew also walked over and congratulated him with a smile.

Ever since Drew found out about Jordan's true status, he was smart enough to not provoke him again.

After that, Rachel and her husband walked over and gave their congratulations. "Congratulations, Mr. Jordan. It's our honor to attend your wedding."

Jordan was equally cold to the couple. He had nothing to say to them, especially Rachel's husband, Cory!

Jordan had been forced to remarry Hailey. It was a fate that Jordan had tried several times to avoid. But Cory? What reason did he have to forgive Rachel?!

At this moment, Hailey's father, Benedict, said, "Why are all of you trying to curry favor with him?! Can't you tell that he doesn't want to talk to any of you? But you are still trying to suck up to him. Don't you have any shame?! Jordan, what's so amazing about you? Why are you so proud? My daughter is about to marry you. You brat, you haven't greeted your parents-in-law. You didn't even come out to welcome us!

"If you were really capable, would you have turned back and married our Hailey? The Steele family is finished, yet you still dare to put on airs in front of us! Cheap fool!"

Benedict's face was red and he reeked of alcohol. It was obvious that he was drunk.

Hailey hurriedly said, "Dad, don't spout nonsense. The Steeles family isn't finished. They still have a lot of money."

Benedict retorted, "What's the use of just having money?! Power is the real deal! You don't have the right to speak. No matter how much money you have, it's not yours. It'll be taken away sooner or later!"

Afraid that Jordan would be angry, Hailey went to his side and coaxed him. "Hubby, my father drank too much. Don't be angry."

Jordan was indeed very annoyed. It was true that the Steeles were in dire straits now, but the Camdens had no right to mock them. They were just a third-rate family from Orlando!

Jordan walked up to Benedict. "You claim that I'm arrogant and ignoring you? When I first married Hailey, did you care or respect me? Also, you're a man, but what capabilities do you have? You lost to your big brother. You failed to fight for the inheritance, so you're putting the responsibility of saving your family on your daughter. If you hadn't forced her to fight with your big brother's family, she wouldn't have borrowed money from Tyler and wouldn't have cheated on me! You brought harm upon her and your own family. What right do you have to criticize me?!"

Every single word of Jordan's was true. He was not maligning him at all. Back then, when Jordan first met Hailey, she was still innocent and lovely. She was very shy and demure.

However, her parents kept putting pressure on her to fight with her uncle's family. This gradually distorted Hailey's values. She believed that she could only obtain happiness with money.

It was the fault of the father when a woman erred!

Benedict was drunk and felt very embarrassed by Jordan's public reprimand. He shouted, "B*stard, I'm your father-in-law. How dare you lecture me? You brat, your own family is finished anyway. I'll slap your useless face today!"

With that, Benedict tried to attack Jordan!

"Drew, stop your uncle!" Sylvie became very anxious.

Drew quickly grabbed Benedict to prevent him from attacking as he knew Jordan's strength very well. Benedict was drunk and 20 years older than Jordan. But even in his prime, he still wouldn't be Jordan's match!

"Uncle, are you crazy? Our family is counting on Jordan. If you hit him, the Camdens will be doomed!" Drew tried his best to stop Benedict.

Benedict shouted as he struggled. "Count on him my ass! Look at how ungrateful he is. So what if Hailey cheated on you? How can you blame her? She wouldn't have cheated on you if you hadn't pretended to be poor. You deserved it! If you continue to pretend, I'll make sure Hailey cheats on you again!"

Benedict struggled even harder. His lighter fell to the ground and was kicked to the side.

The lighter hit the leg of a tall stool. The stool was made of wood, so it should be very sturdy. However, it swayed as if it was about to fall apart after being struck by the small lighter.

Jordan was furious at Benedict's words and had clenched his fists, ready to punch his father-in-law. But after he saw the stool, he immediately changed his mind.

Chapter 718: Teaching Father-in-law A Lesson!

He would make his daughter cheat on Jordan again?!

Jordan was furious. Benedict's words were unforgivable! As a father, not only did he fail to teach his daughter better morals, he would encourage her to make more mistakes?

He was courting death!

Jordan was a Deity. He was an almighty power who did not tolerate irreverence! After Jordan found out that he was a Deity, he swore to himself that he would never let anyone bully him again!

No one had the right to because he was a Deity!

“Hubby, please don’t do it. He’s my father after all.”

Hailey seemed to have guessed that Jordan might make a move and hurriedly came over to stop him.

“That’s right, Mr. Jordan. Hailey’s father drank too much. You’re a magnanimous person. No need to bother about him, right?” Rachel and Cory also came over to mediate.

Jordan and Hailey were about to get married. He also did not want to beat up his father-in-law at this time. Moreover, he already knew how to take revenge on Benedict.

“Alright, you all move aside. I won’t hit anyone.”

Jordan walked to Benedict’s side as the stool was over there.

Jordan faced Benedict and said, “Go away. Don’t block my way. I want to sit on the stool over there.”

When Benedict saw that Jordan did not dare to hit him, he was even more certain that the Steele family had declined. “Hmph, can’t you see that I want to sit on that stool? You go away. That’s my seat!”

It would have been fine if Jordan hadn’t said that he wanted to sit on that stool. The moment he did, Benedict immediately wanted to sit on it first.

Jordan had already expected this from Benedict. Therefore, Jordan quietly waited to enjoy the impending spectacle.

Benedict walked to the high stool and sat down without hesitation. The older man weighed about 75 kilograms. After he sat down, the wooden stool instantly broke from the weight, and Benedict immediately collapsed to the ground!

“Ah!”

Benedict cried out in pain. Falling on his butt like this was not a small matter for Benedict. Jordan remembered that Benedict had once fallen off an old stool at Hailey’s grandmother’s house and sustained an injury which lasted for a long time. Back then, Benedict had to be sent to the hospital.

Pfft.

Benedict spat out blood from the fall. It seemed that he was gravely injured.

'I am indeed ruthless and sly!'

Jordan quietly praised himself. It was a good thing that Benedict came and created a scene, causing his lighter to hit the stool. Otherwise, Jordan would not have known the stool was faulty in the first place and might have sat on it.

Who else would He have to blame for injuring himself?

'Who wanted to harm me? I killed a doctor just now. Could it be his family or friends?'

Jordan was very sure that this faulty stool was a trap meant for him. And he had "gifted" it to Benedict for provoking him.

"Ah... pain... pain. Jo... Jordan, you... you..."

Benedict pointed at Jordan accusingly.

Jordan sneered and said to Hailey, "Quickly send your father to the medical room. However, you'd better watch him with your own eyes. Otherwise, the doctor might do something to your father. Don't let him catch another illness before his current injury has recovered."

Hailey was confused. "Hubby, what do you mean by that? Are you saying that the doctors here are up to no good?"

Jordan said, "What else? Do you think I have the time to prepare a broken stool in advance and wait for your father to sit on it?"

Hailey recalled that Jordan had recently killed a doctor here and was instantly enlightened. "Ah, I understand. Dad, Jordan had nothing to do with this. It was the doctor who wanted to harm us. You took the bullet for us. I'm sorry, Dad!"

"I took a bullet for him?" Benedict wanted to cry. "I knew I shouldn't have come. Argh!"

Jordan said, "Alright, stop shouting. I want to see who dared to set a trap for me. Let's go. I'll bring you to the medical room."

With that, Jordan brought Benedict and the others to the medical room. The Steeles had specially set up this medical room for Jordan. However, although these doctors were originally under the Steeles, they already switched sides a long time ago. They were now loyal to the six families.

When they arrived at the medical room, there were five or six people inside, comprising both men and women.

Jordan led the group, walking tall and upright. He was perfectly fine. On the other hand, Benedict had to be supported by someone. He appeared to be seriously injured.

A bespectacled man narrowed his eyes in surprise at the sight of them.

Jordan strode into the medical room and asked, "Who placed the stool in my room?"

The medical room was silent. No one dared to make a sound. Everyone pretended not to hear or know anything.

The bespectacled man secretly sent a message in the group chat: "Guys, don't panic. As long as none of us speak, he won't be able to guess who did it. Just ignore him. He's no longer our master!"

Sure enough, even after waiting for more than 10 seconds, no one responded to Jordan. They pretended to be busy with work.

Sylvie was supporting Benedict. She couldn't resist speaking up. "Why are these doctors like this? They are completely ignoring us. It's fine if they ignore Benedict, but Jordan is their boss, right? He's paying their salary, right? They don't even bother to greet him?"

Jordan said coldly, "The few of you look very familiar. I must have met you before. You must have been under the Steele family for a long time. The Steeles have been kind to you in the past but I won't mention that anymore. It's meaningless as humans only care about the present. Now that the Steeles have fallen, you look down on us and choose to follow the six families! Nevertheless, it's your choice and I have nothing to say about that.

"But now that you've set a despicable trap for me and provoked me, don't think that everything will be fine just because you remain quiet. Even if you don't say anything, I will know who did it!"

The medical room remained silent, but the doctors' expressions were filled with disdain.

None of them believed Jordan's claim. If none of them confessed, there was no way Jordan could guess who did it.

But what they didn't know was that Jordan was the Deity. It was easy for him to deal with this small matter.

Jordan first analyzed the doctors' microexpressions to filter out the most likely suspect. It was the bespectacled man.

Boom!

An image flashed across Jordan's mind!

It was the image of Jordan hitting the bespectacled man, who was begging for mercy. "I'm sorry, I was wrong. I won't dare to do this again."

"Hmph, so it's you!"

After Jordan confirmed that the bespectacled man was the culprit, he didn't bother asking any more questions. He didn't give him any chance to explain himself and just went up to hit him!

Bang!

The bespectacled doctor was shocked. How did Jordan know it was him?!

The other doctors were also surprised. Jordan's guess was too accurate!

Chapter 719: Three Secret Families Attend The Wedding!

After the bespectacled doctor was hit, he hurriedly shouted, "Jordan, you hit the wrong person! What makes you think that I did it?! You didn't even interrogate me! Also, what right do you have to hit me? I'm no longer under the Steeles. I'm under the six families! You dare to hit me, aren't you afraid that the six families will deal with you?!"

This bespectacled doctor was the same as the one Jordan had killed. He had already switched sides to the six families. Jordan's grandfather had only been dead for two weeks, but these long-time subordinates of the Steele family had all switched sides.

Or perhaps, those who refused to bow down to the six families had already been blacklisted like Jamie or even killed?

Jordan was furious. "Would I be afraid of the six families?"

It would have been fine if the doctor did not mention the six families, but his mention of them made Jordan even angrier. He punched the man even harder.

Bang!

Jordan threw two more punches, causing the doctor to be in even more pain. He spat out blood.

The bespectacled doctor knelt on the ground and looked at Jordan, still unconvinced. "Why... why do you think I was the culprit?"

There was naturally no need for Jordan to tell the doctor that he had the ability to look into the future.

Jordan said fiercely, "I don't need to confirm if you are the culprit or not. I just need to beat you all up one by one. One of you must be the culprit."

Hearing Jordan's words, the other doctors in the room couldn't sit still anymore.

A female doctor hurriedly stood up and said, "Mr. Jordan, you're right. He did it. We had nothing to do with it!"

Another male doctor also stood up. "Yes, he's the only one who wants to harm you. The doctor you killed earlier is his good friend and he wants to avenge him. He wanted you to fall off the stool and injure yourself, and then do you more harm when you come in here for treatment."

"Boss, you guessed right. There's no need to hit the rest of us!"

These doctors were clearly afraid of Jordan.

Some people might think that Jordan was in a coma for half a month and should be very weak now. There was nothing to be afraid of.

However, these doctors had treated Jordan every day during that two weeks. They had injected all kinds of expensive medicine and health-boosting tonics into his body. He was even stronger than if he had been eating normal meals every day!

"F*ck! You betrayed me!"

The bespectacled male doctor knew that he had been exposed and hurriedly begged for mercy. "I'm sorry, I was wrong. I won't dare to do this again."

Jordan smiled coldly. Hadn't he witnessed this scene earlier?

However, Jordan did not let him off. Instead, he grabbed the doctor's hand and crippled it!

“Argh!”

“Arghhhhh!”

The bespectacled doctor cried out in pain as Jordan crushed both his hands.

In a matter of seconds, he was now a cripple.

Everyone was too frightened to speak, including the Camdens. They had known Jordan for a long time. From their surprised gazes, it was clear that Jordan was not like this before.

Jordan had become more ruthless!

Jordan looked at the doctors and said coldly, “Listen carefully. Look carefully. If you provoke me or try to harm me in any way, you will either die or be crippled. If you want to be like those two guys, you can try. All these years, the Steeles have treated you well. Now that my family is in trouble, I can understand if you have your difficulties and have no choice but to submit to the six families.

“But if you have willingly submitted to the six families because you have always thought that the Steeles are not worthy of being your bosses, then I won’t let you off! Also, whether you believe it or not, the six families are just a bunch of low-class scum. Sooner or later, I will trample them under my feet! I will take back everything that once belonged to the Steeles!”

Everyone was shocked by Jordan’s words. His domineering aura was far more impressive than Jesse, the current head of the Steeles.

“Hubby, you’re right. I also believe that you will succeed!” Hailey looked at Jordan with admiration.

Drew also buttered Jordan up. “Brother-in-law is awesome!”

A few hours later, it was almost noon. By now, Jordan and Hailey had already changed into their wedding attire.

At this moment, three invisible planes suddenly appeared on Gaathafushi Island. Three people walked out of the three planes. They were Park Chan-young, Miyamoto Masaki and Geng Weilun.

After Park Chan-young and the other two greeted each other, they walked side by side. Park Chan-young laughed happily. Those who didn’t know better would think that he was here to attend his good brother’s wedding, which was why he was so excited.

In fact, he had specially come to Jordan's wedding to humiliate him.

Park Chan-young smiled. "I can't help feeling excited at the thought of witnessing the humiliation of that brat Jordan later on. Haha!"

Miyamoto Masaki said, "This brat was unconscious for half a month. I thought he was going to die. Fortunately, he didn't die. Otherwise, it would have been too easy on him. I was still thinking of fighting him again to avenge my previous humiliation!"

Geng Weilun, on the other hand, was more aloof. He just smiled and did not say a word.

The Geng family's status was higher than the Park and Miyamoto families, so Park Chan-young took the initiative to speak to Geng Weilun. "Mr. Geng, we didn't expect you to personally come and witness Jordan's humiliation. It seems that you have a lot of resentment towards Jordan."

Geng Weilun snorted. "Although Jordan has never offended me, I can't stand how my mother is always defending him and speaking up for him! What right does this kid have to receive my mother's love?!"

Park Chan-young nodded. "Yes, I think it's strange too. Madam Geng often defends Jordan and praises him. Could it be that she has taken a liking to Jordan?"

In Park Chan-young's opinion, Jordan was quite handsome. It was normal for him to be able to capture the fancy of a middle-aged woman.

However, Geng Weilun was offended by his comment. He grabbed Park Chan-young's shirt with both hands and shouted angrily, "B*stard, what nonsense are you spouting?! Would my mother like a piece of trash like Jordan?! Are you trying to insult me?!"

Miyamoto Masaki quickly pulled them apart and tried to mediate. "Mr. Geng, don't be angry. I don't think that's what Mr. Park meant."

Sensing the escalating situation, Park Chan-young hurriedly explained. "I definitely didn't mean that! It's my fault. How can a lowly person like Jordan capture your mother's eye? I'm sorry, I won't mention it again."

"Hmph! You'd better not!" Geng Weilun snorted.

But Park Chan-young was actually feeling very indignant on the inside: 'Damn that Geng Weilun. He's younger than me, but he dares to shout at me just because his family is more powerful! Anyone who isn't blind can see that your mother has taken a liking to Jordan! She might have even slept with him already! You idiot! Jordan might even become your future stepfather!'

Chapter 720: Jordan, We're Here!

Park Chan-young was annoyed with Geng Weilun but he didn't dare to voice his displeasure because the Geng family was second only to the Rongs.

The three of them had come together but they were not on the same level. Nevertheless, they were all here to laugh at Jordan.

As the three of them walked, they suddenly realized that the wind seemed to have gotten stronger and the sound of the waves had become much more turbulent.

Seeing this, Miyamoto Masaki changed the topic to ease the awkwardness. "By the way, did you guys consult your family's meteorology team? Before I came, an elder in my family warned me that the weather here is strange and even advised me to cancel my trip."

Park Chan-young nodded as well. "Yes, my father also warned me that the winds will be very strong here. There's even the possibility of an earthquake nearby."

However, Geng Weilun smiled disdainfully. "My meteorologists didn't issue any warning so there's no need for you guys to be so nervous. Don't worry, if anything happens, I'll receive news immediately."

Geng Weilun clearly felt that his family's meteorologists were far better at predicting the weather than the Park and Miyamoto families. In fact, the other two thought so too and were no longer worried. They chatted and laughed as they walked.

However, Geng Weilun soon received a message from his family: "Mr. Weilun, don't go near the Maldives for the time being."

Geng Weilun was shocked. He had just announced to the other two that things were fine. And now, his family had issued a warning. However, Geng Weilun completely ignored the message and did not tell Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki.

With their abilities, even if they encountered bad weather, it should not affect their journey at all.

Soon, the three of them arrived at Hailey's room.

At this moment, Hailey was putting on makeup while Jordan was in another room.

"Hehe, the bride is so beautiful!"

With his hands in his pockets, Park Chan-young leered at Hailey's reflection in the mirror. Hailey was in a white, low-cut wedding dress. Her great figure made it impossible to tell that she had given birth before.

Miyamoto Masaki also drooled when he saw Hailey.

When Hailey saw the three of them, she quickly stood up and bowed slightly. She knew that these three men were of very high status.

Park Chan-young smiled. "Hailey, do you still remember what I told you last time?"

Previously, Park Chan-young had instructed Hailey to say "Tyler, I love you" when reciting her wedding vows to Jordan. It was meant to anger and provoke Jordan, to humiliate him at his own wedding.

Hailey bit her lip and nodded. "I remember."

Park Chan-young smiled. "Very good. Where's the wedding officiant? Call him over so that you can both coordinate to find a suitable opportunity to say this!"

Soon after, the wedding officiant came in and Park Chan-young asked him about the wedding procedures.

The officiant said, "As the couple is exchanging rings, they recite their wedding vows to each other. I will guide them. For example, I will say to the bride, Ms. Hailey Camden, please repeat after me: With this ring, I thee wed. In sickness and in health, in poverty or in wealth, till death do us part. I will love you and protect you. I will be your loyal wife!"

Park Chan-young cut in. "Right here! Right after saying 'I will be your loyal wife', Hailey, you must say 'Tyler, I love you'. Do you hear me?"

Hailey hated Park Chan-young to death. This was such a romantic wedding vow and she believed that Jordan would be very touched after hearing it! He might even forgive her then and there!

But Park Chan-young was forcing her to say the wrong name to humiliate Jordan.

This was like two people having sex and one of them called out the name of someone else. It was too cruel.

Miyamoto Masaki clapped and cheered. "Haha, Mr. Park, this move is superb. I can't wait to see Jordan being humiliated by his new wife."

Geng Weilun also smiled. "This must be the most interesting wedding in the world. However, Park Chan-young, based on my understanding of Jordan, if Hailey humiliated him like this in front of everyone, he would be so angry that he would hit her. Wouldn't you be harming this beautiful bride? Haha."

When Hailey heard this, she hurriedly said, "That's right, Mr. Park. Please, don't make me say that. I slept with Tyler and Jordan saw it with his own eyes. Jordan was so angry that he even castrated Tyler. If I mention Tyler's name, he will definitely beat me to death. Jordan is so strong that just one slap from him and I will be disfigured ."

However, Park Chan-young was indifferent to Hailey's pleas. "Don't worry, Jordan is now our dog. With us around, would we allow our dog to bite people? If he dares to disrupt this wedding, I will teach him a lesson!"

At this moment, Miyamoto Masaki was sizing up Hailey, who had an excellent figure and face.

He couldn't help whispering to Park Chan-young, "Mr. Park, that little b*tch, Hailey, is really tempting. Especially when she's wearing a wedding dress, she's so beautiful that no one can compare! There's still some time before the wedding. Why don't we get the makeup artist to leave this room? The three of us can have a taste of Hailey first, okay?"

However, Park Chan-young rejected this suggestion in a low voice. "Mr. Miyamoto, why are you in such a hurry? After Hailey gets married to Jordan, she will become our servant too. She will have to respect us as her masters. After the wedding, you can play with her however you want."

Geng Weilun had the same thought. He wasn't as perverted as Miyamoto Masaki to want to do something like this to Hailey just an hour before her wedding.

"Come on, shouldn't we go into the next room and check on the groom too?" Geng Weilun said.

Park Chan-young smiled. "Of course we should! Haha."

With that, the three of them swaggered next door. Park Chan-young even arrogantly kicked the door open!

"Jordan, we're here to attend your wedding!" Park Chan-young declared.

The moment Jordan saw Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki, he felt the urge to kill them! These two bastards were currently pursuing Jamie and Jordan's subordinates, as well as his Zephyr Three. As soon as Jordan found a suitable opportunity, he would definitely not let either of them live!

Bang!

Park Chan-young tossed a box over. "This is a wedding gift from Lota. She asked me to deliver this to you as she won't be coming. You were unconscious for half a month and I thought you were going to die. Fortunately, you're fine. Otherwise, you wouldn't get to see me and Lota being married. Haha!"

Jordan took the gift and asked, "What did you say? You and Lota? Married? Are you dreaming? Would Lota like you?"

Chapter 721: Hailey Disobeys Park Chan-young?!

Jordan knew that Park Chan-young had always coveted Lota and wanted to marry her, but Jordan knew that her heart already belonged to him.

How could a woman who had already fallen in love with Jordan like a despicable person like Park Chan-young?

Park Chan-young was furious. "B*stard! Jordan, don't think that just because Lota liked you, you can be so arrogant. You're no longer from the same world as Lota. Wake up! Also, I'm not afraid to tell you that the three of us have come to attend your wedding just to laugh at you!"

Now that the Steeles were being controlled by the other secret families, the status of the other families was well above that of the Steeles. Why would any of them deign to attend the wedding of a Steele?

Jordan sized up the three of them. He was not surprised that Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki were here to laugh at him. After all, there was a deep grudge between them.

But why was Geng Weilun here?

Jordan had no feud with Geng Weilun. He didn't even have much interaction with him in the past. Jordan did not understand why Geng Weilun would be in cahoots with Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki.

Geng Weilun looked at Jordan arrogantly. "That's right. I'm here to laugh at you too! Why else do you think I'm here?"

Jordan said, "I thought your mother sent you to congratulate me."

"B*stard! Don't you dare mention my mother, you brat!" Geng Weilun was instantly incensed.

Park Chan-young was secretly thrilled. He knew that Geng Weilun was very sensitive about the relationship between Jordan and his mother.

How could Jordan tolerate being reprimanded by this fellow!

In response, Jordan retorted, "You're the one who's a b*stard! Even your mother is polite to me and doesn't dare to speak to me like this. How dare you scold me!"

Geng Weilun became even angrier. "Damn it! I told you not to mention my mother again. I'll kill you, you b*stard!"

With that, Geng Weilun was about to attack Jordan! However, Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki stopped him.

With Geng Weilun's status, it would be easy for him to deal with Jordan. However, Park Chan-young did not want him to do that.

Park Chan-young said, "Weilun, if you injure Jordan now and he is unable to hold his wedding, how are we going to see him humiliated?"

Miyamoto Masaki also coaxed. "That's right. It's not difficult to beat him up, but that is not satisfying enough. Men like him who engage in combat are used to being beaten up. It will not be a big blow to him. The humiliation and mental torture will be the fatal one!"

Park Chan-young looked at Jordan. "Jordan, don't think that I'm helping you by persuading Weilun not to hit you. If I didn't want to see you humiliated at your wedding, I would have sent someone to teach you a lesson long ago!"

At this moment, Park Chan-young's arrogance only infuriated Jordan. Unfortunately, now was not the right time for them to fight it out.

"See me humiliated? How am I going to be humiliated?" Jordan asked instead.

Park Chan-young laughed. "You want to know? You'll find out at the wedding ceremony later!"

"Tell him now! So what if he knows? Can he do anything?!" Geng Weilun suddenly said. "Jordan, let me tell you. Park Chan-young came up with a great idea to humiliate you. He asked your wife-to-be, Hailey, to say the words 'Tyler, I love you' during the exchange of your wedding vows. Hahaha, you should know who Tyler is, right?"

Park Chan-young was speechless. Why was Geng Weilun telling Jordan his plan in advance?!

It seemed that Geng Weilun felt very frustrated at being stopped from beating Jordan up. He insisted on telling him the plan in advance so that he could mock him now. He wanted to see Jordan's angry expression.

Although Jordan did not take this wedding seriously and was not a willing party, there would be so many old friends attending the ceremony. How could he accept being embarrassed in front of his guests?!

Since Geng Weilun had already exposed his plan, Park Chan-young didn't try to deny it. He laughed out loud and said, "That's right, Jordan. This is my plan! We will make Hailey mention Tyler's name at the wedding ceremony. I heard that you castrated Tyler. Why? Just because he slept with your wife? Hahaha, you're too petty! Isn't there a saying that one must endure in order to achieve success? No wonder you're such a failure now. You haven't endured enough. Hahaha."

Bang!

"Ah!"

"Mr. Park, be careful!"

Miyamoto Masaki suddenly attacked from the side. He met Jordan's fist and helped Park Chan-young deflect the punch. In a battle of pure strength, Miyamoto Masaki had the upper hand and forced Jordan back.

Previously, Jordan had beaten up Miyamoto Masaki so badly that his father barely recognized his face. It was obvious that Miyamoto Masaki had taken the strength-enhancing medicine before coming.

Park Chan-young held his face and glared at Jordan. "You b*stard, if I didn't want to see you humiliated at the wedding later, I'll definitely get someone to beat you up now!"

At this moment, because of Jordan's actions, a few tall bodyguards entered the room to protect Park Chan-young. It would be very difficult for Jordan to strike Park Chan-young again.

Since he had the support of the bodyguards, Park Chan-young provoked him. "What? You don't believe me? Ask your good wife if I'm telling the truth. Haha!"

Jordan was a Deity now and his prediction ability had been greatly upgraded. There was no need to ask Hailey to confirm. He could see it in a vision!

Boom!

An image immediately flashed across Jordan's mind. It was the wedding ceremony that was about to take place! In the vision, Jordan was wearing his current suit, while Hailey was wearing her white wedding dress. The two of them stood on the stage and spoke their vows in front of the wedding officiant.

Hailey looked at Jordan affectionately and said, "With this ring, I wed thee. In sickness and in health, in poverty or in wealth, till death do us part. I will love you and protect you. I will be your loyal wife! Jordan, I love you!"

Below the stage.

Chapter 722: Do You Dare To Bet!

Park Chan-young was so confident that Hailey would say "Tyler, I love you" at the wedding ceremony to agitate Jordan.

However, this was not what Jordan saw in his vision. Hailey did not mention Tyler's name. Instead, she said, "Jordan, I love you."

Just now, Park Chan-young had vowed to make a fool out of Jordan. Jordan was sure that this b*stard had definitely instructed Hailey to do so. It was not empty talk.

But why didn't Hailey do as she was told?

Jordan was shocked: 'Hailey disobeyed Park Chan-young's orders? Isn't she afraid of offending the Parks, Miyamotos and Gengs?'

Although Jordan was unwilling to admit it, the truth was that the Steeles were now being controlled by the other secret families. Even the head of the Steele family, Jesse, didn't dare to disobey Park Chan-young's orders. But Hailey dared to?

'Hailey... why... did she do that? She must know about the Steele family's current situation. Isn't she afraid of Park Chan-young's revenge? Or is she... unwilling to hurt me?'

For some reason, Jordan suddenly felt a lump in his throat! Jordan would not have been so surprised if it were Lauren or Victoria, or even Lota. Jordan believed that they would not listen to Park Chan-young.

But the fact that it was Hailey managed to move Jordan's heart.

This was how the world was. It was taken for granted that a good person would do the right thing. No one would feel especially touched or grateful. However, if a bad person suddenly did something good, everyone would be very pleasantly surprised.

To be honest, during their three years of marriage, Hailey had never done anything for Jordan. She lived the carefree life of a rich wife. Even after knowing Jordan's identity, she still didn't do anything for him.

So it came as a shock that Hailey would be making her biggest sacrifice for Jordan during their impending wedding ceremony.

Did Hailey not care about her life? She dared to disobey Park Chan-young and insist on saying Jordan's name during her vows?

'This damn silly woman. Why would she do that? I'd rather she obey Park Chan-young and piss me off!'

Jordan was already used to hating Hailey and he was disgusted at himself for being moved by this detestable beautiful woman!

The other three did not know that Jordan had already taken a look at the future. They all thought that he was just distracted.

Geng Weilun looked at Jordan and laughed. "That cheating b*tch, Hailey. I believe she has done all sorts of bad things to you. I am sure you won't be shocked at whatever she says to you. Chan-young's suggestion is too light a punishment for you!"

Miyamoto Masaki also smiled. "That's right. Women who have cheated deserve to die! Men whose wives cheat on them are all trash! But Jordan, you're not the worst. At least you know that your wife cheated on you. Do you know what the most useless kind of man is? One whose wife has cheated on him but he still doesn't know. Haha!"

Jordan was brought back to his senses at Miyamoto Masaki's words. He couldn't help feeling amused. Miyamoto Masaki had slapped himself in the face without realizing it.

'Damn you, Miyamoto Masaki. You have the cheek to say that? Your wife slept with Dragon and you still don't know, right? Hehe, I wonder how you will react when I show you photos of your wife and Dragon!' Jordan thought to himself but did not expose this matter immediately.

Nevertheless, Jordan was very annoyed by their insults toward Hailey!

Hailey was not a good woman and Jordan had rebuked her before. But it was not up to other men to criticize her! No matter what, Hailey was Jordan's ex-wife and fiancée.

What right did other men have to judge his woman? What right did they have to call her a b*tch?!

Jordan glared at Geng Weilun and Miyamoto Masaki, before turning to Park Chan-young. "Park Chan-young, you keep saying that you'll make a fool of me at the wedding later. What makes you so sure?"

Park Chan-young laughed out loud. "Hahaha, Jordan, have you been unconscious for too long that you have become slow? Isn't that obvious? I've already instructed Hailey to do this, so of course she'll obey me. Do you think she'll go against me? Do you think she's like your two loyal wives? She's just a woman who's greedy for money!"

It was apparent that Park Chan-young looked down on Hailey. He felt that she was immoral and vain. She would never dare to disobey him.

His opinion of Hailey was naturally one-sided!

Although Hailey had done things that let Jordan down, she had never thought of really hurting him. She never meant for Jordan to find out about her and Tyler.

She had never deliberately tried to humiliate Jordan in public before.

Moreover, not only were they married for three years, but Hailey also bore his child. How could she humiliate the father of her child?

Jordan said, "Although Hailey can't compare to my other two wives, I was once married to her for three years. We go back a long way. A woman who loved me would never do such a thing to me. I don't believe that Hailey will do as you say!"

Park Chan-young laughed again. "Haha, you fool! You've been played by that woman so many times, yet you still believe her? Hahaha, you deserve to get cheated on then! Isn't that right, everyone?"

"Hahaha..."

Geng Weilun and Miyamoto Masaki joined in the laughter.

The detestable sound made Jordan want to beat the three of them up. However, now was not the right time so he could only think of other ways to vent.

Jordan said, "Since you're so sure, why don't we make a bet? I bet she won't mention Tyler's name at the wedding."

Park Chan-young was provoked. "I bet she will definitely do as I say! She doesn't have the guts to go against me!"

Jordan nodded. "Alright, if I win, I want you to immediately hold a video conference with the other secret families. During the meeting, kneel down and kowtow to me! Do you dare?"

Since they were going to have a bet, the stakes had to be high. What Jordan needed the most now was the respect of the other secret families! Jordan wanted to show the other families that he was not their dog or their servant!

He was the master!

"B*stard, what did you say?" Park Chan-young was furious when he heard the stakes.

Jordan smiled. "Why? You don't dare to bet? It's fine if you don't dare to, but then, please don't spout so much nonsense!"

"You..." Park Chan-young was definitely not Jordan's match in a verbal exchange.

Park Chan-young thought for a moment. Since he believed that Hailey would never disobey him so he said loudly, "Alright, I agree to the bet! If you lose, I want you to kneel down and kowtow to me and call me Grandpa!"

"Deal!"

Chapter 723: Jordan And Hailey's Beach Wedding!

Jordan and Park Chan-young made a bet. Meanwhile, Miyamoto Masaki and Geng Weilun watched on excitedly.

Geng Weilun laughed. "Not bad, not bad. I can't believe the two of you are betting with such high stakes. You're betting all your dignity. What's even more interesting is that you both truly believe that you will win. Not bad. I like your confidence. This is more interesting."

Miyamoto Masaki said, "Jordan, I'm afraid you would have to call Park Chan-young 'Grandpa'! Haha, your grandfather has just died and you are already so eager to acknowledge Park Chan-young as your grandfather. You're so unfilial!"

Jordan glared fiercely at Miyamoto Masaki. He swore in his heart that one day, he would smack the photo of Dragon with Miyamoto Masaki's wife on Miyamoto Masaki's face so that he could have a good look!

"Park Chan-young, what if you lose and go back on your word?"

Jordan knew that Park Chan-young valued his reputation very much. Even if he lost, with the current disparity in their status, he would probably refuse to kneel down to Jordan.

At this moment, Geng Weilun said, “Hey, since it’s a bet, there is always a possibility of winning or losing. No one has a 100% chance of winning. Jordan, don’t worry. Miyamoto Masaki and I are witnesses to this matter. If you win and Park Chan-young loses, we promise that we will make him fulfill his promise.”

Miyamoto Masaki nodded. “Yes.”

“Alright, we’ll see who wins at the wedding ceremony later. I still have to prepare. You guys can leave!” Jordan ordered the three of them to leave.

Park Chan-young snorted. “You’re already an adult man, yet you still have fantasies about a b*tch. Let’s see how you lose later!”

An hour later, the wedding officially began.

On the island, the green sea, the white beach, the pink ribbons floating in the sea breeze. The flower arch was undoubtedly spectacular. The most beautiful flowers and the most luxurious decorations were used to create this majestic and flower arch.

On the walk down to the flower arch, petals were also strewn all over the bride and groom.

The green waves rippled and the sea breeze danced, making one’s heart skip a beat.

Not many people were invited to the wedding, most of them were from the Camden family. In addition, Park Chan-young, Miyamoto Masaki and Geng Weilun were uninvited guests, and so not that familiar with everyone else.

Nevertheless, the ceremony was completed in a very grand manner and a large staff was assigned to attend to all the arrangements.

At the wedding were dozens of wedding employees, plus subordinates under the Camden, Park, Miyamoto and Geng families. As a result, it was a very lively scene.

Soon, the music started. There was a musical performance before Jordan and Hailey were to make their appearance. In order to liven up the wedding, Hailey specially invited the famous band, Maroon 5, who sang the cheerful song "Sugar".

"Tsk tsk, not only is Hailey delicious, her younger cousin is not bad either. Hmm, we can all play together in the future."

Maroon 5 soon finished their performance and everyone applauded. A string orchestra came on next with violins and cellos. The atmosphere became more solemn and regal.

As the wedding officiant spoke, Hailey walked down the aisle toward the flower arch, holding Jordan's arm.

"Oh, Hailey is so beautiful!"

Drew and Elle cheered loudly.

Sitting in the center, Geng Weilun crossed his legs and smiled. "Hehe, these two look quite compatible. No wonder Jordan doesn't like Lota."

Park Chan-young said confidently, "Hehe, soon, Lota and I will be like them, walking down the aisle at a romantic wedding venue. When the time comes, you must come to our wedding."

Miyamoto Masaki played along. "Of course. I've already prepared your wedding gift!"

However, Geng Weilun was nonchalant. "I have to see if I am free then."

After the couple arrived at the flower arch, the wedding officiant started the ceremony.

The officiant said, "Although today is their wedding, the two of them already have a very cute baby and were married for three years! Mr. Jordan, can you talk about what this delayed wedding ceremony means to you?"

The microphone was placed by Jordan's mouth, but he did not reply.

'What does it mean to me?'

'It means destiny! It means humiliation!'

'Should I say this out loud?'

He ignored the officiant's question.

The officiant continued, "As everyone can see, there's a piano here. We all know that Mr. Jordan has very good piano skills. On such a special day, shall we invite him to play a song for Ms. Hailey?"

"Okay!"

From the crowd, Elle was the first to cheer loudly. She was now part of the entertainment industry and knew many musicians. And she knew that 80 to 90% of those professional musicians were not as good as Jordan.

Elle believed that if Jordan was willing to enter the entertainment industry, he would become an instant star in both acting and music!

Although everyone was looking forward to Jordan's performance, he had no intention of performing for Hailey. He had only sung one song for her, "A Thousand Reasons to Be Sad". After that, his feelings for her were sealed off!

However, after Jordan rejected the officiant, Hailey suddenly said, "I have a song that I want to sing for my husband."

With that, Hailey walked toward the piano. A flower girl helped Hailey arrange her long train so that she could sit down properly.

Jordan stood in front of the flower arch in disbelief. What was this woman up to? She was taking the initiative to sing a song by herself during their wedding ceremony?

Hailey said, "I want to sing 'To Love You More' by Celine Dion."

Hailey's fair and slender hands pressed against the black and white keys. There was no wedding ring on her finger, and her hands were pristine.

The sea breeze was very strong today, but when Hailey played the first chord, the sound of the wind seemed to fade to the background.

All Jordan could hear was Hailey's playing.

"Take me back in the arms I love..."

“Touch me once again...”

Chapter 724: Wedding Ceremony!

At the romantic and luxurious beach wedding venue, Hailey was in a white wedding dress as she played and sang a moving love song on the piano. Although Jordan had already seen the vision of their wedding today, he didn't expect Hailey to perform.

Hailey knew how to play the piano and sing. Like Jordan, her family arranged piano lessons for Hailey since she was a young girl. Although her piano skills were not as good as Jordan's, it was not a problem for her to play most songs.

Jordan had always liked girls who played the piano. After knowing that Hailey had been playing the piano since elementary school, he had always wanted to hear her play.

However, during their earlier three-year marriage, Jordan had never heard her play. There was a piano in their living room but she never sat before it.

Hailey said that playing the piano was meaningless to her. It couldn't help her family obtain more wealth.

From then on, her mind was filled with thoughts of how to get more money, and she ignored the other beautiful things in her life, such as the piano and her loved ones.

‘I'm the one who wants to love you more...’

“You will see I can give you everything you need...”

“Let me be the one to love you more.”

Hailey continued to sing with much emotion. This song was before her time but she chose it as she found the lyrics well-written, and because a famous socialite in the US had sung this song at her wedding.

Although the song was old, Hailey's singing style was on-trend. With her performance, it sounded very modern.

Park Chan-young and the other two listened to her performance with smiles on their faces. They enjoyed it very much.

Miyamoto Masaki also admired her very much. “Her looks and figure are already perfect. And now, she’s also pretty skilled at the piano and singing. I must have such an outstanding woman!”

After witnessing Hailey’s talent, Miyamoto Masaki’s desire to have Hailey intensified. Of course, he didn’t really want to be with Hailey permanently. He just wanted to fool around with her.

Even Geng Weilun, who didn’t consider Hailey a “top beauty” earlier, kept nodding. “This woman does have some skills. A pity she isn’t singing a Chinese song.”

Hailey was singing an English song and the three men were not that familiar with it. Nevertheless, they still appreciated her voice and piano skills, as well as her face and figure.

After the song ended, everyone applauded. However, Hailey did not get up. Instead, she remained seated at the piano and said to Jordan, “Jordan, this song represents my thoughts. After I lost you, I’ve been listening to this song. Ever since our divorce, you’ve been determined to ignore me. How many times have I hoped that you would reveal that you still think about me? Even if you had just given me a tiny hint, I would gladly fall into your arms again.

“You’re the only man I’ve ever loved. The thing I regret the most in my life is leaving you. I swear that from today onwards, I will never do anything to hurt you again. I want to be with you forever!”

Park Chan-young and the other two sneered at Hailey’s love confession.

“What a joke. That b*tch actually confessed her love to Jordan. There’s a saying in South Korea that whores have no hearts and performers have no morals. Hailey is both a whore and a performer, but she’s pretending to be devoted. What a joke!”

Miyamoto Masaki laughed. “Haha, Hailey said so many touching words to move Jordan. When she says Tyler’s name later, won’t it humiliate Jordan even more?”

Park Chan-young clapped his hands. “That’s right. Let Jordan be touched first before hurting him later. This will be even more interesting. I can’t wait to see Hailey humiliate Jordan! Haha!”

Jordan held Hailey's soft and slender hand with one hand and the ring with the other.

The officiant said, "Mr. Jordan, please repeat after me. With this ring, I thee wed."

Since Jordan had agreed to the wedding, he had to follow this necessary process. He looked at Hailey, who was pursing her lips in excitement.

"With this ring, I thee wed."

Jordan repeated. "In sickness and in health, in poverty or in wealth, till death do us part."

The officiant: "I will love you and protect you."

Jordan: "I will love you and protect you."

The officiant: "I will be your loyal husband!"

Jordan: "I will be your loyal husband!"

Hailey was so touched that she was about to cry. She had hoped for this day to come for so long. Even in her wildest dreams, she thought that she would never be with Jordan again. She did not expect fate to favor her so much and give her a chance to have Jordan again!

'This time, I will cherish you and never betray you again, Jordan!' Hailey said to herself.

"Hahaha, we are about to watch a good show!" Park Chan-young was excited.

Geng Weilun and Miyamoto Masaki also had evil smiles on their faces. They looked forward to seeing Jordan being humiliated!

A man's wife speaking another man's name as they exchanged their wedding vows. What could be more humiliating than this?

The officiant said, "Ms. Hailey, please repeat after me. With this ring, I thee wed."

The officiant "In sickness and in health, in poverty or in wealth, till death do us part."

...

Hailey: "In sickness and in health, in poverty or in wealth, till death do us part."

The officiant: "I will love you and protect you."

Hailey: "I will love you and protect you."

The officiant: "I will be your loyal wife!"

Hailey: "I will be your loyal wife!"

After saying this, the officiant took a step back. He had finished his lines. Next, it was Hailey's turn to make her vow.

Park Chan-young slapped his thigh excitedly. "Hahaha, it's coming, it's coming! That little b*tch Hailey is going to humiliate Jordan now!"

Miyamoto Masaki took out his phone to take a video. "I want to take a video of this. The next time I meet that little b*stard Jamie, I'll send it to him and let him see how his beloved brother was humiliated by us. Haha."

Hailey paused for a moment, her eyes still filled with affection as she slowly spoke.

Chapter 725: Hailey: I Won't Wrong Jordan Again!

"Jordan, I love you!"

Hailey confessed her love to Jordan!

Although Jordan had already seen this scene in his vision, he was still very nervous. He didn't know for sure whose name Hailey would eventually say.

Therefore, when Hailey said this, Jordan was still shocked and touched.

This was not a simple confession. When Hailey said Jordan's name, it meant that she was very likely to be punished by Park Chan-young.

Hailey was a weak woman but she was not afraid of Park Chan-young and went against his wishes.

'It wasn't easy for me to salvage our relationship. How can I destroy it with my own hands?!

After saying this, Hailey pounced on Jordan and kissed him...

Meanwhile, Park Chan-young and the other two were completely dumbfounded, especially Park Chan-young.

"Damn! This damn b*tch dared to disobey my orders! Does she not want to live?!"

As for Geng Weilun and Miyamoto Masaki, apart from being a little surprised and disappointed, they were also gloating at Park Chan-young's expression.

It was a bit of a downer they couldn't see Jordan humiliated but it was no big deal to them. It didn't matter to those two if Hailey said Tyler or Jordan's name.

But things were completely different for Park Chan-young.

Park Chan-young and Jordan had just made a bet. If Hailey did not mention Tyler's name, Park Chan-young would have to hold a video conference with the other secret families and kowtow to Jordan in front of everyone!

With the stakes so high, Park Chan-young could not afford to lose!

At this moment, in front of the flower arch, Hailey took the initiative to kiss Jordan but he rejected her. He agreed to marry Hailey, but it didn't mean that he really wanted to be with her like before.

Park Chan-young suddenly stood up from his seat and shouted, "Hailey, you b*tch, get the hell down here. You still have the cheek to kiss Jordan? Did I allow you to kiss him?!"

He hated to see Jordan happy!

At this moment, Jordan, who had wanted to push Hailey away, immediately felt rebellious when he heard Park Chan-young's words.

'Park Chan-young, you b*stard. Since you don't want to see me kissing Hailey so I will purposely kiss her!'

Therefore, Jordan did not push Hailey away. Instead, he kissed her in front of the flower arch. Jordan loved doing such things. He liked to use this method to aggravate others.

Previously, at Victoria and Russell's wedding, Jordan had stolen the limelight. He had given Victoria a deep kiss in front of Russell! Russell had almost exploded from anger.

Sure enough, Park Chan-young was furious. Seeing that Jordan and Hailey disobeyed his orders, he stomped his feet in anger. "Damn it! B*tch! B*stard! I told you to stop, didn't you hear me? Stop! Stop!"

However, Jordan and Hailey ignored Park Chan-young.

Jordan did it on purpose, while Hailey really wanted to kiss Jordan, so she ignored Park Chan-young.

As a regent of the Steele family, Park Chan-young felt very embarrassed that Jordan and his wife were ignoring his commands.

Geng Weilun stood up as well. He stuffed his hands into his pockets and mocked Park Chan-young. "Chan-young, you are one of the regents of the Steele family, but Jordan and his wife ignored you. You've embarrassed the Park family, haha."

Park Chan-young was ashamed and furious. He shouted at Jordan, "Jordan! You idiot, trash! You're actually willing to kiss a woman who cheated on you! Don't you feel disgusted? Hailey, that b*tch, has kissed Tyler before! How can you f*cking kiss her?!"

Jordan was incensed. No one had ever dared to say such things to him!

Whoosh!

"Arghh!"

"Master, how are you?"

Park Chan-young's subordinates were also scared out of their wits.

Jordan said to Park Chan-young, "Park Chan-young, you're courting death! How dare you say such things to me on my wedding day! Who are you to humiliate me!"

Sylvie said, "Good job, Jordan! You and Hailey are so close now. What is this person saying? It's disgusting!"

Drew was also amazed. "Jordan is too fierce. He dared to hit a member of the Park family..."

When Park Chan-young touched his lips, he realized that Jordan had made him bleed. He was furious. "Men, chop off Jordan's limbs and head. Kick his head over to me!!"

"Yes!"

"Ah! Hubby, let's go!"

Hailey screamed in fear and grabbed Jordan's arm. However, Jordan pushed her behind him, not thinking of escaping at all.

He had taken a strength-enhancing medicine from the Miyamoto family and charged at Park Chan-young's subordinates. With this medicine, Jordan's strength had increased greatly. It was not a problem for him to deal with a few bodyguards!

Bang!

Park Chan-young's subordinates fell one after another!

When Miyamoto Masaki saw this, he was furious. "Damn it, how dare you use our family's medicine to beat up people from the other secret families!"

Miyamoto Masaki said, "Chan-young, don't worry. I'll deal with him myself!"

Jordan remained disdainful when he saw Miyamoto Masaki walking over. Both of them had taken the medicine, which would increase their strength in proportion to their actual strength.

Miyamoto Masaki threw a heavy punch.

Jordan was not afraid at all. He also threw a punch at Miyamoto Masaki. Their fists met.

"Argh!"

Jordan took two steps back and couldn't help shaking out his hand. He felt pain in his right hand.

"How did this happen? We took the same medicine. Why are you stronger than mine?"

Jordan was very puzzled.

Miyamoto Masaki laughed. "Idiot, that's because my family has upgraded the medicine! Since we found out about Dragon, we specially upgraded our medicine over the past two weeks to deal with him."

"The medicine I took is much more powerful than the one you took! Jordan, you're no longer a match for me!"

Chapter 726: A Tsunami Is Coming!?

Jordan had not expected that the Miyamoto family would develop another medicine that was even more powerful than the previous one. As a result, Miyamoto Masaki's strength now surpassed Jordan's!

He ran towards Jordan again. Jordan wanted to rely on his agility and defense to dodge and not fight him head-on. However, this time, he realized that it was not that easy.

"So fast!"

“Hahaha, Masaki, you are too cool! Beat up Jordan, that piece of trash! Beat him to death!”

Park Chan-young was thrilled to see that Miyamoto Masaki was dominating Jordan. “Kill that b*stard Jordan for me. I’ll go teach that b*tch Hailey a lesson!”

With that, Park Chan-young walked toward Hailey angrily and said fiercely, “Hailey, you b*tch, how dare you disobey my orders? I’ll smash your face today!”

Park Chan-young was so ruthless that it was entirely possible that he would beat Hailey to death today. When the Camdens saw this, they naturally panicked. Sylvie was the first to run over to protect Hailey. She stood in front of Hailey and said, “Don’t hurt my daughter!”

Smack!

Park Chan-young slapped Sylvie’s face, and she fell to the ground as he raged at her. “You old hag, you only became so youthful after taking my family’s medicine. Instead of visiting my bed at night to thank me, you dare to try and stop me! Your daughter disobeyed me. The fate of anyone who disobeys me is death! No one can stop me! Men, capture every member of the Camden family!”

Park Chan-young’s subordinates immediately captured the Camdens. They wailed as they were forced to their knees.

Jordan was incensed by the sight. Although he didn’t like the Camdens, he had married Hailey today. They were his in-laws! An attack against the Camdens was like an attack against Jordan himself!

However, he couldn’t even deal with Miyamoto Masaki. Dragon wasn’t around, so he had no time to help Hailey and her family.

“I got it!”

Jordan remembered that his prediction ability was now upgraded. He could use this ability to find a way to resolve his current predicament.

Boom!

In critical moments like this, his prediction ability was especially effective. Almost instantly, an image appeared in Jordan’s mind.

Not only was it very high, but it was also very fast!

It flooded all the buildings almost instantly!

“A tsunami? There will be a tsunami here later?”

Jordan realized that a huge tsunami would befall this quiet island in the Maldives!

Although the secret families had very advanced technology, it seemed that they were still lacking in the aspect of natural disasters!

No one could stop the arrival of a tsunami. In fact, any one of them could die here!

Jordan was overwhelmed with emotions. His family had fallen from grace and had become the puppets of the six families. His subordinates were being pursued and had to go into hiding instead of fighting his enemies head-on.

If he didn't want to be humiliated and killed by Park Chan-young and the other two, he could only make use of nature!

‘Tsunami... in the last tsunami disaster, more than 200,000 people died! This time, I'm afraid there will only be more. Why can't Park Chan-young be on the list of deaths! Miyamoto Masaki! Geng Weilun! They're the ones who deserve to die!’

Bang!

Jordan continued to fight off Miyamoto Masaki by instinct as he pondered this. Miyamoto Masaki's current strength was now above Jordan's. He could not win even if he went all out, let alone if he was distracted.

As a result, Jordan suffered a punch from Miyamoto Masaki.

“Hahaha, trash! I am able to hit you as easily as I hit a dog!”

Miyamoto Masaki became arrogant.

Park Chan-young also laughed. “Masaki, you fight so beautifully! Continue to fight. Kill that b*stard, Jordan!”

However, at this moment, Jordan stood rooted to the ground. He stopped fighting and laughed instead.

"Jordan, what are you laughing at!"

Jordan looked at Park Chan-young. "Park Chan-young, your diversionary tactic worked! The Park family is indeed the most shameless and cowardly of the eight secret families. No wonder people say that your entire family is made up of timid, dirty rats!"

What?! Park Chan-young was instantly furious. His family valued cleanliness and good looks the most. How dare Jordan say they were dirty rats?!

He hated hearing people say such things!

Park Chan-young said angrily, "B*stard, you're the dirty rat! What diversion? How am I a dirty rat?"

Jordan snorted. "Stop pretending! Have you forgotten our previous bet? If Hailey doesn't say Tyler's name, I win and you lose! If you lose, you have to hold a video conference with the other secret families. You have to kowtow to me and call me Master!

"Hmph, now that you have lost, you are immediately trying to have me killed so that you won't have to fulfill your promise. Heh, you can kill me, but before that, you have to fulfill the bet and do what you promised! Otherwise, you're not a man!"

Jordan predicted that a huge tsunami was about to arrive. He had to stall for time and think of a way to let Park Chan-young and the other two stay in this area so that they would drown in the tsunami.

As expected, Park Chan-young looked a little abashed. "B*stard, you dog slave. What right do you have to make me kneel?!"

However, to his surprise, Geng Weilun stood up and said, "Chan-young, you can't say that. Just now, you agreed to the bet with Jordan. As a member of the seven secret families, how can you go back on your word?"

Park Chan-young looked at him helplessly. "Weilun, you won't make me kneel to Jordan, right? Wouldn't that be an insult to all the families!"

Geng Weilun responded. "No, you're wrong. If you kneel to him, it will be an insult to your own Park family's reputation. It has nothing to do with the other families. As one of the regents and as a witness to your bet, I have the authority to let Jordan receive fair treatment before he dies. Chan-young, you must kneel before Jordan!"

Actually, Geng Weilun had always looked down on Park Chan-young. They were not real friends so he was more than happy to see Park Chan-young embarrass himself.

Seeing this, Park Chan-young looked at Miyamoto Masaki. "Buddy, what do you think?"

Miyamoto Masaki was in a dilemma. After a long time, he said, "Well... what Weilun said makes sense. Since you agreed to the bet, you should honor it!"

Chapter 727: Make Park Chan-young Kneel!

Park Chan-young's expression was extremely ugly. He had never been so embarrassed in his life. If not for Geng Weilun and Miyamoto Masaki, he would have definitely gone back on his word.

How could he kneel down to Jordan? And in front of the other great families!

'Damn it, why was Jordan so confident in Hailey? How did he know that she would definitely say his name? With Jordan's current situation, Hailey should be more afraid of me.'

Park Chan-young kept hesitating and refused to speak.

Jordan said, "Park Chan-young, I know you don't have the guts to fulfill your promise. You can't afford to lose face. It's fine if you don't kowtow to me, but you have to get out of my wedding venue now! And you're not allowed to harass me and my family in the future!"

Jordan was Park Chan-young's mortal enemy. How could Park Chan-young let him off?!

Park Chan-young said angrily, "Damn you, Jordan! It's just a kowtow. It will be over in the blink of an eye. There is nothing I don't dare to do! Alright, I'll do as you wish and kowtow to you! But I have to remind you that after kowtowing to you, I'll kill you and your wife! And before I kill you, I will play with that little b*tch Hailey in front of you first!"

Jordan hated Park Chan-young so much that he wanted to kill him now. However, he knew that everything was going according to his plan.

Park Chan-young wanted to kill and humiliate him? Not that easy!

Jordan smiled. "Alright, since you're willing to fulfill your promise, let's cut the crap. Immediately hold a family video conference and kowtow to me and call me Master!"

Park Chan-young said, "I don't have the right to ask for a video conference with the other families. Only the head of the family, my father, has the right to do this. As one of the eight families, you should know this! I'll kowtow to you now. That will be it!"

After saying this, Park Chan-young was about to kneel, but Jordan hurriedly interrupted, "No! You have to kowtow to me in front of the other families! This is what we agreed on previously. You can call your father and ask him to call for a video conference."

Park Chan-young said angrily, "B*stard! What should I tell my father? I want to hold a video conference to kowtow to you? He will beat me to death!"

Jordan sneered. "That's your problem. No matter what, you have to do what you promised!"

"Damn it..."

Park Chan-young was furious, but he had no choice and had to call his father.

"Hello, Dad."

"Chan-young, did you go to the Maldives? The weather there isn't good. Don't stay there for too long. Come back early."

"Yes, I understand, Dad. I called to ask you about something. I want to call for a video conference with all the other secret families."

"What? A video conference with all the other secret families? What do you have to say to them?"

"I..."

How could Park Chan-young tell him the truth? His father would go crazy if he knew!

Park Chan-young stammered, not knowing what to say. At that moment, Geng Weilun took over the phone. "Uncle Park, this is Geng Weilun."

Park Sang-jun was delighted. "Ah, it's Weilun. So you're with my son. Haha, very good. You young people should have a lot in common. I've already told Madam Geng Weilun that our families can hang out more!"

Geng Weilun said, "We have something we need to discuss in a video conference with the families. Please call for one. If you don't think that it's a good idea, I'll get my mother to call for it."

Now that it was Geng Weilun asking for the video conference, Park Sang-jun didn't ask for the reason anymore. He immediately assented. "No need, no need. There's no need to trouble Madam Geng. I'll call for a video conference now."

Soon, Park Sang-jun organized the video conference. There were a total of eight video screens, including Park Chan-young's side, but there was no Steele representative.

Jordan really wanted Jesse to see what was going to happen next, so he asked, "How can the Steele family be absent from a meeting of the eight great families?"

Park Chan-young retorted, "B*stard, your family is just our puppet. What right do the Steeles have to participate in this video conference?"

On the contrary, Geng Weilun was very helpful. "Mom, please invite Jesse to join."

Madam Geng nodded. "No problem."

At the conference, Lota saw two screens belonging to the Park family. One was of Park Sang-jun, and the other was of Park Chan-young.

On Park Chan-young's side, there were also Miyamoto Masaki and Geng Weilun. Most importantly, there was Jordan!

"Jordan!" Lota was very happy to see him.

When Jordan saw Lota, he smiled and nodded.

Lota was still as beautiful as ever. In front of others, she was the dignified head of the family, but in front of Jordan, she behaved like a cute little girl.

Lota said, "Jordan, I know today is your wedding day. I'm sorry I couldn't attend your wedding."

Jordan replied, "It's alright, Lota. It's a good thing you didn't come."

When Park Chan-young heard this, he thought Jordan meant that it was a good thing so that Lota wouldn't have to see Park Chan-young humiliated and Jordan killed. But in reality, Jordan was glad Lota didn't come or her life might be in danger later.

Soon, Jesse joined the video conference.

Since Park Sang-jun had called for this meeting, he spoke up first. "Everyone, we have suddenly called for a video conference today because my son, Park Chan-young, has something important to announce to everyone! Now he's with Miyamoto Masaki and Geng Weilun. My guess is that the child wants to execute that reckless brat Jordan!"

Park Sang-jun guessed that Park Chan-young was planning to kill Jordan, that's why he suddenly asked to hold a video conference.

When Lota heard this, she immediately shouted, "No! Park Chan-young, didn't you promise me that you will let Jordan live? Why are you still chasing after him? I won't allow anyone to hurt Jordan!"

Madam Geng also frowned. "You children, there's no end to your petty grudges. It's not as if either of you killed the other's parents. Why are you still clinging onto past scores?"

Jesse hurriedly pleaded for mercy. "Mr. Park Chan-young! Master Park Chan-young! I hope you can let my brother off."

Jesse then turned to Jordan. "Jordan, what did you do to provoke Mr. Park Chan-young again?! Kneel and apologize to him immediately! Beg for his forgiveness! If you continue to court death like this, I won't be able to protect you. When you die and see Grandpa in the afterlife, don't blame me for not being a good brother!"

Jordan looked at Jesse. "Jesse, I was unconscious for half a month and the very first thing you say to me is to ask me to kneel before someone else?"

Jesse said, "Of course! If you don't kneel before Park Chan-young, do you expect him to kneel to you?! You are daydreaming all the time. Grandpa claimed that you're the most capable person in the Steele family. But how can you compare to me?! What shit abilities do you have?!"

Chapter 728: Shocking The Great Families!

Jesse was Jordan's brother but the only help he could give Jordan was to demand that he kneel before Park Chan-young and act like a dog in front of the other families.

He had no idea who was the one who would be kneeling next!

Park Sang-jun also laughed. "Jordan, your brother is right. If you kowtow to my son and admit your mistake now, he might let you live and not kill you."

Faced with the ridicule and disdain of the various families, Jordan looked at Park Chan-young. "What are you waiting for? Hurry up and do what you promised!"

Park Chan-young's expression was ugly, but he knew that there was no way out.

Getting his teeth, he knelt down before Jordan, as the other secret families watched on!

He also shouted, "Master!"

Everyone in the video conference was so shocked that their jaws nearly dropped to the ground!

Chairman Rong said, “Oh, hell, what did I just see! Park Chan-young knelt before Jordan and even acknowledged him as his master? Isn’t Park Chan-young planning to kill Jordan?”

Madam Geng chuckled. “Wow, Jordan is really a man who is full of surprises. Who would have thought that under these circumstances, when even his elder brother has to bow respectfully to Park Chan-young, Jordan could make Park Chan-young kneel down to him?”

Miyamoto Chujiro said, “Oh my, the US is indeed powerful! No wonder they are one of the major world powers!”

Everyone from the secret families was shocked. They now had a renewed sense of respect for Jordan and the Steele family.

Meanwhile, Park Sang-jun was enraged. He shouted, “Park Chan-young! What are you doing?! Why are you kneeling down to that lowly Jordan and calling him master?! You are a disgrace to the Park family! How can we face the other families now?!”

Jordan looked at the surprised faces of the various families in the video and felt extremely happy. He stated proudly. “Listen carefully. No matter who it is, whoever provokes me and the Steele family will end up like this!”

Beep.

As soon as Jordan finished speaking, Park Chan-young turned off the video. He did not want Jordan to continue bragging in front of the other families. By this point, Park Chan-young was so angry that his face turned red. He got up from the ground and took a gun from his subordinate, aiming it at Jordan and Hailey.

“Jordan! Hailey! You beasts! You made me suffer such humiliation today! I’ll kill you now! I’ll send you to hell!”

Park Chan-young was very agitated and might shoot at any moment. However, at this moment, Miyamoto Masaki stepped forward and advised. “Chan-young, don’t be so rash. Killing them directly like this, wouldn't you be going too easy on them? Hailey is a rare beauty. Why don't we play with this b*tch first?"

Miyamoto Masaki had been lusting after Hailey for a long time, so he didn't want Park Chan-young to kill her. If he wanted to kill her, he should do it after they had enjoyed themselves with her first.

Throwing a glance at Hailey, who was wearing a wedding dress, Park Chan-young inwardly considered her figure and face. Indeed she was a tempting sight.

He put down his gun and said to Jordan, "Alright, I'll play with your new wife in front of you. I'll cuckold you first before sending you to hell. Hahahaha!"

Jordan frowned as he considered how to deal with the current situation.

'The tsunami is coming soon. I have to keep them on the beach.'

Jordan suddenly said, "Park Chan-young, I know that I've humiliated you today. Only one of us can leave this island alive today! If you want to kill me, I won't resist. But before I die, I have a wish. I hope you can let me complete it!"

Park Chan-young had just knelt down before Jordan in front of the other great families. He was utterly humiliated so he retorted. "I don't care about whatever wish you have!"

However, Geng Weilun spoke up at this moment. "I would like to know what Jordan's dying wish is. Jordan, although I don't like you very much, you are indeed one of the most respectable Westerners I have ever met. You can be considered a hero. I would like to know what a man like you would wish for before you die."

Miyamoto Masaki nodded too. "Yes, I also want to know what Jordan wants to do. He's not even afraid of death. It must be something very important and noble!"

Park Chan-young relented. "Alright, what is your wish?"

Jordan said, "Today is my wedding day with Hailey. I hope you can give us a complete wedding ceremony."

Park Chan-young frowned. "You've exchanged your rings and said your vows. The wedding ceremony is already over. Isn't it complete enough?"

Jordan shook his head. "The wedding ceremony will only come to a proper end after the bride and groom consummate their marriage."

Geng Weilun was stunned. "Consummate? Oh, Jordan, you good-for-nothing. I thought you were going to do something great. So you just want to sleep with a woman who has cheated on you?"

Park Chan-young also laughed out loud. “Hahaha, Jordan, you’re too interesting. I would be able to understand if the woman was Lauren. But you’re so reluctant to part with a b*tch like Hailey even when faced with death. Have you forgotten how she betrayed you? Have you forgotten about her sleeping with Tyler and the rest? Don’t you feel disgusted sleeping with her again?”

Miyamoto Masaki agreed. “That’s right. If my wife betrayed me like Hailey did, even kissing her would make me feel disgusted! Jordan, you’re willing to accept such a woman? You’re indeed different, hahaha!”

Meanwhile, Hailey was so touched that she was about to cry. “Hubby... Hubby, he wants to be with me right before he dies. Hubby really loves me the most. Sobs...”

These people did not understand Jordan’s intentions at all!

Was he really going to sleep with Hailey?

Of course not!

This was just a temporary measure to stall for time! He had to wait for the tsunami to arrive. He couldn’t die before that!

Park Chan-young laughed. “Haha, since you and Hailey love each other so much, I won’t be too cruel on your wedding day. Alright, I’ll let you consummate your marriage, but I’ll only give you half an hour!”

Jordan said, “Alright, there’s a luxurious yacht over there. You can wait for me there.”

Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki looked at the yacht by the sea. At this moment, the waves were still relatively calm, and there was no sign of a huge tsunami.

Chapter 729: No Matter How Beautiful They Are, They Are Just Mistresses!

Geng Weilun said, “Hehe, I didn’t expect Jordan, whom I’ve always had some respect for, to end up like this. Jordan, I’ve overestimated you. You’re not worthy of me to have come here personally! What a waste of time. You guys continue playing. I’m leaving!”

Seeing that Geng Weilun was about to leave, Miyamoto Masaki hurriedly asked him to stay. "Weilun, why are you leaving so soon? Don't you want to enjoy Hailey? She's a top-notch woman!"

He then turned toward Jordan. "Jordan, I don't think you will ever have the chance to see my mother again. The reason I hate you no longer exists. Rest in peace. I will tell my mother about your death."

With that, Geng Weilun walked towards his private plane and left.

'Geng Weilun is lucky. He actually escaped death.'

Jordan looked at Geng Weilun's back and sighed on the inside. Like Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki, Geng Weilun wanted to humiliate Jordan, so he must also suffer the impact of a tsunami!

Park Chan-young ordered his subordinates, "Bring them to their room. We'll only give them half an hour to have sex. Once the time is up, regardless of whether they're done or not, kick the door open and bring the woman over to us!"

One of his subordinates lowered his head and said, "Got it! Do you want us to immediately execute Jordan after?"

Park Chan-young thought for a moment. "Not yet. After Masaki and I are done playing with his wife, I'll personally send him to hell. Haha."

"Yes, sir!"

More than 10 subordinates with guns aimed at Jordan and Hailey forced them to move forward. Meanwhile, Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki headed toward the yacht at sea.

"You can look forward to your deaths!"

Watching the two of them head towards the yacht, Jordan was certain that they would be mercilessly overwhelmed by the tsunami!

When the tsunami really came later, even the luxurious villa Jordan was in would be destroyed, not to mention a tiny yacht at sea!

It would be a huge disaster, and many people were destined to die. Jordan wanted to do something for the innocent people nearby, but he was trapped and there was nothing he could do now.

He could only think of a way to get rid of Park Chan-young and Miyamoto Masaki first, before seeing if he could do anything.

“Go, go quickly. Move faster!”

“Our master is too good to you. You can still enjoy yourself one last time before you die. You should kneel down and thank our master!”

Jordan clenched his fists. He swore that when the tsunami came later, Park Chan-young’s subordinates would all die too! Even if the tsunami didn’t kill them, Jordan would hunt them down!

When they arrived at the room, the subordinates pushed the two of them into the room and said loudly, “We’ll only give you 20 minutes. The countdown starts now! We won’t wait a minute longer. You’d better be dressed in 20 minutes. Otherwise, hehe, don’t blame me for seeing your wife in all her naked glory!”

With that, Park Chan-young’s subordinate turned on the countdown timer on his phone and set it to 20 minutes.

Hailey was indignant. “Your master just said that he would give us 30 minutes. Why did you change it to 20 minutes?”

Park Chan-young’s subordinate shouted, “Your husband is a good-for-nothing. Even 10 minutes is too much, so 20 minutes is more than enough. Cut the crap and hurry up. My timer doesn’t wait for anyone!”

Hailey complained, but Jordan remained expressionless. He walked to the window in the room and looked in the direction of the yacht by the sea, observing the changes in the waves.

Suddenly, Hailey hugged Jordan from behind.

“Hubby! Hubby, you’ve finally forgiven me. I knew that one day, you would forgive me and be with me again! Oh my god, your last wish before you die is to be with me. I’m so touched. I knew that those two scheming women, Lauren and Victoria, couldn’t compare to me. No matter how beautiful they are, they are just your mistresses! I am your legitimate first wife!”

Jordan turned around in disgust and said to her, “Hailey, stop being narcissistic. Who forgave you? Also, don’t compare yourself to Lauren and Victoria. You’re not worthy!”

Hailey smiled. “You’re so stubborn on the outside but I know you are soft-hearted on the inside. Jordan, I know you’re testing me, right?”

“Test you? What do you mean?” Jordan asked.

Hailey said, “Who the hell is Park Chan-young? He said he wanted to kill us and even said that the Steeles are in dire straits. Actually, you’re just putting on an act, right? How can there be such a coincidence? The moment I am going to marry you, something like this happened to your family. I was deceived by you last time. That’s why I was so stupid as to divorce you and choose Cayden. Ever since then, I swore that as long as I’m with you again, no matter what happens or who appears, I won’t waver anymore. In this life, I’ll only choose you and only you!”

Jordan thought about it. That was indeed the case. Every time Jordan was with Hailey, he would be in a bad situation.

During his first marriage to Hailey, he had to hide his identity and rely on the Camden family to support him. After they reconciled, he had to lie to her that he had been expelled from the Steele family in order to leave her.

This time, coincidentally, the Steeles were expelled from the secret families right when they were about to get married again.

No wonder Hailey was suspicious and thought that Jordan was testing her.

Jordan smiled and said, “No wonder you called me by my name at the ceremony and not Tyler’s name like Park Chan-young ordered. So you thought this is all an act. Hehe, Hailey, I admit that I lied to you last time. But now, I can swear to the heavens that I didn’t lie to you. I swear to you in the name of my grandfather. The Steeles are now really just puppets under the other secret families. They can kill me at any time.

“You must regret what you just did, right?”

However, Hailey shook her head. “No, I believe you. Hubby, I believe that you’re the most capable person in the world. If I’m with you, you’ll definitely be able to protect me and give me a happy life. In the past, I was doubtful of your ability, which led to my repeated mistakes. I’ll never doubt you again!”

Jordan was stunned for a moment. It seemed Hailey truly believed in Jordan's ability. She was really a smart woman because she definitely didn't know that Jordan was a Heavenly God.

Hailey looked at Jordan affectionately and held his hand. "Hubby, we only have 20 minutes. Don't waste any more time!"
