Chapter 794 – 825

The Addington Family Secret! -

Chapter 794: The Addington Family Secret!

A few hours later, on Shaun's "battered" invisible plane.

Seated on a special yellow rosewood seat, Jordan slowly woke up and opened his eyes. When he opened his eyes, he saw a blurred figure walking over.

As his vision gradually cleared, Jordan saw that it was Shaun. He was holding two glasses of red wine, one of which was handed to him. He still had that strange and unfathomable smile on his face.

"Deity Jordan, you're awake. Come, let's celebrate!" Shaun handed the wine glass to Jordan.

At this moment, Shaun was no longer controlling Jordan's body. The past few hours had made him very happy. He had controlled many people before, but he never had such an experience.

If Jordan hadn't instructed Shaun not to control him for too long, Shaun would have definitely used Jordan's body and identity to have fun for a few more hours and play with a few more women.

Jordan accepted the wine glass and asked anxiously, "Is Miyamoto Chujiro dead?"

Miyamoto Chujiro had killed innocent Orlando citizens. This was something Jordan could not tolerate!

Shaun smiled. "With the two of us working together, we are as good as invincible! Killing Miyamoto Chujiro is just a simple matter. Hahaha! If you don't believe me, you can ask your subordinates. Miyamoto Chujiro really died in our hands!"

"Alright!"

Jordan shouted and stood up.

Shaun held up his glass of red wine to clink glasses with Jordan. Jordan did not refuse.

However, after clinking glasses, Jordan asked, "Apart from killing Miyamoto Chujiro, you didn't use my body to do anything bad, right?"

Shaun was an old fox and hid it very well. "Of course not. We're partners on the same side. How can I harm you? Don't worry, everything I do is beneficial to you. Now, we can return to the US in peace and continue our research on the mind-transplant technology, right?"

Jordan nodded. Now that Park Sang-jun and Miyamoto Chujiro were dead, he had no more enemies to kill.

A month later.

While Jordan was doing research in Shaun's laboratory, he suddenly received an unfamiliar call.

"Who is it?" Jordan asked.

"Hahaha, Jordan, can't you tell who I am?"

An old man with an English accent sounded from the other end.

Jordan was no stranger to this voice. He recognized it on the spot. "John Addington?"

There was no way Jordan would remember wrongly. This voice definitely belonged to the head of the Addington family, John Addington!

Jordan couldn't understand why John Addington would call him. Although the Steeles were also in England, the Addington family did not have a close relationship with them.

The Addingtons had always been a follower of the Rong family. They disdained to be associated with the Steeles.

John said, "That's right. I'm John Addington. Your brother Jamie is in my hands now. If you don't want him to die, come to Gibraltar immediately!"

"No, Jordan, don't come. He has..."

Jamie's voice sounded from the other end of the line!

But before he could finish, John hung up.

Jordan was terrified. "Why is Jamie in John Addington's hands?"

Half an hour ago.

Between the southernmost part of Spain and northwestern Africa, in a place called the Straits of Gibraltar, there was a huge warship called the USS Addington.

This part of the sea had previously been claimed by Spain and the United Kingdom. However, since the Addington family's warship had sailed over, Spain had given up.

The USS Addington was the largest known in the world.

On this day, as per usual, John Addington arrived to board his warship, accompanied by many subordinates.

However, just as he was about to board, dozens of figures suddenly emerged from the sea! They were like sharks lurking in the waters, suddenly leaping out to take John's life!

"Ah!"

John was so frightened that his face turned pale. "Guards! Guards! It's Jordan! Jordan is here to kill me!"

At that point in time, John thought that it was Jordan. After all, he had just killed the heads of the Park and Miyamoto families a month ago.

However, this kind of sneaky ambush was not Jordan's style.

Jamie was the real perpetrator, who had been hiding here for a long time!

Ever since his grandfather passed away and left the family, Jamie appeared to have left England. In reality, he hadn't.

He continued to lurk in England in order to get close to the Addington family. He wanted to find out their secret and snatch it back to save the family.

After following John for a long time, he realized that he would come to this warship from time to time. He believed that this warship must hold the secrets of the Addington family!

Bang bang bang bang!

Bang bang bang bang!

John's subordinates hurriedly took out their pistols and shot these uninvited guests.

...

However, Jamie and his men were too fast. Moreover, they were leaping out at random from the deep sea. It was impossible to guard against them.

Moreover, Jamie had the expert Phoenix, who immediately took control of the situation.

In less than 10 seconds, a gun was aimed at John's head.

"Don't move! Otherwise, I'll kill your master!" Phoenix held a gun and threatened John.

John quickly said, "Everyone, stop! Stop!"

Only then did John's men stop attacking. They were all furious.

Jamie walked towards John and smiled. "Uncle Addington, to ambush you, we endured being underwater for three days and three nights. You made me endure a lot!"

John looked at Jamie. "Are you Jordan's second brother?"

"That's right!"

Bang!

Jamie punched John in the face. "This punch is for my dead men and researchers! I didn't expect that after being in England for so long, not only did you not help the Steeles, you even harmed our people. To think that my grandfather treated you as a friend and was so good to you!"

John laughed. "Ignorant fellow! How can your family be worthy of making friends with my noble Addington family! You overestimate yourself!"

Bang!

Jamie punched John's face again.

"B*stard! How dare you be disrespectful to Lord Addington! I will definitely tear you into pieces!"

One of the subordinates said angrily to Jamie.

How could Jamie stand being threatened by others?

He picked up his pistol and shot that person dead on the spot!

Bang!

John was a little frightened. He did not expect Jamie to be even more decisive than Jordan when it came to killing!

Immediately after, Jamie aimed his gun at John and said, "Addington, if you don't want to die, bring me to your warship. Let me see what secrets your family is hiding!"

Chapter 795: Laser Weapon!

According to Jamie's investigation into the Addington family during this period of time, he was certain that their secrets were on this warship.

This was because John would come here from time to time. Sometimes, he would even carry out a large-scale clearing operation. No human or plane was allowed to approach within a few hundred kilometers of the surrounding waters!

It had not been easy for Jamie to set up this plan. Today, he had found the best opportunity to subdue John.

As for sneaking into the warship while John was away, that was impossible. The security of the Addington family's warship was top-notch among the eight secret families.

Without John's authorization, even a fly couldn't sneak in!

John stared fiercely at Jamie. He had always looked down on Charleston and never imagined the day when the latter's grandson was able to successfully capture him.

John said, "It's my own fault for focusing all my energy on capturing Jordan recently. I forgot that the Steele family also has a little troublemaker like you. If Jordan hadn't caused such a huge uproar, you would have died long ago."

Previously, the secret families had discussed killing Jamie. With the abilities of the secret families, if they were serious about doing it, Jamie would have been discovered by now.

Jamie smiled. "I don't deny that I have an outstanding younger brother. When I heard that he killed Park Sang-jun and Miyamoto Chujiro, I was overjoyed. This is the consequence of offending the Steeles! Alright, enough nonsense. Bring me to your warship immediately!"

John had no choice but to bring him up.

After boarding the warship, there was another checkpoint. One had to undergo a physical and facial scan to enter.

“Ding! Unauthorized users detected. Do you want to kill all of them?” An electronic system voice inquired.

Jamie was a little nervous. Fortunately, John was here. Otherwise, he would have been killed!

John was in Jamie’s hands now. He had no choice but to say, “No.”

The system continued to ask, “Do you want to give these personnel temporary or permanent authorization?”

John said, “Give them temporary authorization.”

Jamie immediately pointed his gun at John. “Hey, what do you mean by only giving us temporary authorization? I want permanent authorization. We all want permanent authorization!”

John was furious, but he had no choice. “Give them permanent authorization!”

The system: “Permanent authorization has been successfully granted. Everyone can enter safely.”

Only then did Jamie and his men dare to enter.

After entering, Jamie immediately brought John to the top level of the warship.

This was because, during his observation of the Addingtons during this period, he realized that there was a very secret area at the top level of the warship. It was sealed off and could not be seen from the outside.

Jamie wanted to know what was inside.

As they gradually approached, it was obvious that John was getting increasingly nervous.

“What’s in there, John? It’s a weapon, isn’t it? Why lock it up for fear of being seen?” Jamie asked directly.

John hesitated for a moment before answering. “It’s perfectly normal for warships to be armed. Why are you asking me such a stupid question?”

Jamie chuckled. “It is indeed normal to have weapons on a warship, but it’s not normal for you to be so afraid of it being seen by outsiders. Open it. I want to see what weapon is inside!”

John didn't comply. "Jamie, I was indeed a little cold to your family previously. However, I'm not like the Park and Miyamoto families, who were ruthless to the Steeles. There's no need for us to..."

Bang!

Jamie punched him again. "Don't talk nonsense with me! Do whatever I tell you to do! Open it!"

Bang!

Jamie shot John in the leg when he hesitated.

"Argh!"

John screamed in pain.

Jamie said coldly, "John, listen to me. After my grandfather died and the other families occupied the Steeles, I swore that I would eradicate all of you! Don't test my patience!"

John didn't hesitate anymore. He used his fingerprints to open the hatch.

After the hatch was opened, a white cannon appeared. It was supported by a very heavy and complicated chassis.

"Wow."

Jamie's subordinates were all amazed. This cannon was really beautiful and looked very unique.

"This shouldn't be an ordinary cannon." Phoenix piped up.

Jamie looked at John. "Explain."

John said, "This is just an ordinary cannon on a warship. I don't know anything about this. I'm not an engineer. How do I explain it to you?"

Jamie snorted. "You're not going to tell me about it? Alright, I'll try it out myself!"

Jamie wanted to try it out, but after studying it for a long time, he still couldn't figure out how to launch it.

"Are you the only one who can activate it?" Jamie asked.

Given John's cautious nature, where one must be authorized to even board this ship, he must have set it such that only him and a few trusted men could do fire their special weapons/

John nodded reluctantly.

Jamie ordered, "Do a trial run on the cannon immediately. Show me how it works."

...

"Okay."

This time, John didn't hesitate. Perhaps he was afraid that if he hesitated again, Jamie would shoot him. He came to the front of the cannon and pressed his right hand against a transparent area.

"Fingerprint identification." Jamie watched from the side, focused on this unfamiliar weapon.

However, at this moment, John suddenly grabbed a glowing green weapon from under the chassis!

"Sh*t!"

Jamie and Phoenix shouted at the same time. It turned out that John had hidden a weapon under the chassis. He wanted to take this opportunity to escape from Jamie's control!

"You are asking for it!"

Phoenix immediately picked up the pistol and aimed it at John's wrist. He was extremely fast. He was confident that he would win against an old fellow like John.

However...

Whoosh!

"Ah!"

Phoenix was knocked to the ground!

John's green weapon was an extreme killing weapon. It could shoot faster than a bullet and there was no need to even aim properly first!

He just pointed the weapon in the general direction of Phoenix and the latter immediately collapsed. He didn't even have the chance to fire back!

“Damn it, it’s a laser weapon!”

Jamie was shocked. No one could beat an expert like Phoenix in a one-on-one gunfight, let alone a pampered old man like John.

The weapon in John’s hands was too advanced!

“Run!”

Phoenix knew that the laser weapon in John’s hands was very powerful. Using the last of his strength, he led Jamie to escape.

Chapter 796: Rescuing Jamie!

The greatest characteristic of laser weapons was their extremely fast speed. It could shoot at the speed of light. The efficiency was really too high. It was five to 10 times faster than the super high-frequency weapons that had been developed previously.

Therefore, Phoenix did not hesitate to escape. He grabbed Jamie and jumped from the warship into the sea.

John’s laser weapon was useless now that they were in the water. Its attack power and range were limited.

John ordered his man. “Activate the deep water explosives! Blow up that audacious Jamie!”

In the water.

As soon as they jumped into the sea, an “underwater device” automatically popped up on Jamie and Phoenix’s bodies. Not only could this device allow them to move more quickly in the water, but they could also use it to communicate with each other.

Phoenix said, “Master, I’m bleeding. I can’t be with you. Otherwise, they will find us by following my blood. You go first!”

Jamie couldn’t bear it. He was afraid that Phoenix would die here, but at such a critical moment, it wasn’t the time to be soft-hearted.

“Damn John! It’s my fault for being careless! Phoenix, be careful!”

With that, Jamie sped up and left. He couldn’t stay in the water forever. He had to go ashore quickly. John saw him jump into the sea and would definitely attack the waters. Therefore, it was very unsafe to remain in the waters.

Jamie soon surfaced and boarded his Zephyr Two as quickly as possible!

“Lord Addington, Jamie has boarded his plane!”

The Addington family subordinates were about to attack the surrounding waters when they realized that Jamie had already surfaced.

John smiled. “Jamie, you wanted to know what kind of weapon my cannon is? I’ll let you experience it now. Men, aim at Jamie’s plane and shoot that lousy aircraft down!”

“Yes!”

His men immediately scanned the area. Before launching, they asked John for instructions. “Sir, we have locked onto the target. It will be within our range in the next nine seconds! Please authorize the launch!”

This laser cannon was extremely powerful. Every shot, even during drills, required John’s personal authorization.

John took his time. He walked over and placed his palm on it for fingerprint verification.

“Fire!”

John cried out.

Bang!

The moment John issued the command, a green light instantly attacked Jamie’s Zephyr Two and broke one of its “wings”!

With its wing broken, Zephyr Two lost its ability to fly. It instantly fell to the bottom of the sea.

Soon after, John captured Jamie.

John did not kill Jamie after capturing him. Instead, he used him to lure Jordan over!

John was delighted after his call to Jordan. “Hehe, Jordan, if I get rid of you, Chairman Rong will be very pleased with me. He will definitely share more of their family’s secrets with me, and give my family more benefits and support.”

Meanwhile, Jamie, who was tied up at the side, spat on John’s pants. “Pfft! You’re the dignified head of the Addington family, but you’re willing to be the lackey of the Rong family! If you have the guts, go and challenge my younger brother openly. Don’t use such despicable methods!”

John glanced at the spit on his pants and was very angry. "Men, break one of his fingers!"

"Yes!"

"Arghh!"

John was indeed ruthless.

John snorted. "Ignorant, arrogant trash of the Steele family! You have no idea how powerful the Rong family is! You can't even deal with me, yet you dare to spout nonsense and look down on Chairman Rong? You're frogs at the bottom of a well!"

"If the Steeles were worthy enough to be privy to this, you would have known that Chairman Rong's research is at a heaven-defying level! It's on a completely different level than the rest of us! Jamie, I will offer the deaths of you and your brother as a gift to Chairman Rong!"

A small, remote town in the US.

Shaun happened to be beside Jordan when he answered the call. Seeing Jordan's expression change, he immediately asked, "Jordan, who called you? I heard you say that it's John Addington? Why are you still in contact with this old thing?"

Jordan was expressionless. "John Addington captured Jamie!"

"What?"

Shaun was speechless. It had not been an easy task to finally have Jordan stay here in peace for a month to concentrate on the research. There had been a huge improvement in the mind-transplant technology, but there was still a long way to go before complete success.

But now, something had happened to Jamie. Needless to say, Jordan would definitely leave this place again.

Shaun was dumbfounded. "It must be Jamie who took the initiative to provoke John Addington. And now, he has been captured. Wouldn't it be better if he just stayed hidden like a good boy? Why does he have to cause trouble everywhere? His target is the Addington family. He really knows how to pick them. The Addington family is behind only the Rong and Geng families!"

Jordan didn't blame Jamie. "Back then, when Grandpa passed away and the other families controlled the Steeles. Jamie and I made the choice to leave our family and rely on our own strength to reclaim everything. If he was a cowardly person who only wanted to live a comfortable life, he would have chosen to obey the other families like Jesse. Now that he has fallen into John's hands. I have to save him!"

Jamie had helped Jordan a lot in the past. He was the one who introduced Jordan to his two wives. It was also Jamie who told Jordan the secrets of the family.

Shaun thought for a moment and smiled. "Are we going to merge again?"

The combination of Jordan and Shaun was an invincible existence!

But at this moment, Dragon suddenly sent a video call invitation. Jordan quickly answered it.

Dragon wasn't the only one in the video call. It was a three-way call with Jamie's subordinate Phoenix!

Dragon said, "Phoenix contacted me just now. He has something to ask of Master."

Phoenix appeared to be injured and drenched. He bowed to Jordan. "Greetings, Mr. Jordan!"

Jordan hurriedly said, "Phoenix, we're all family. There's no need to be so formal. Where are you?"

Phoenix cried out. "I'm in the Straits of Gibraltar. Master Jamie has been captured by the Addington family. Please save him!"

Jordan replied, "I already know about this. I'm preparing now to go save him."

Phoenix was very touched. "Thank you, Mr. Jordan! However, the Addington family has laser weapons. You have to protect yourself well. It's best if you can find a fighter plane that is harder than Zephyr Three. Master Jamie's Zephyr Two was destroyed by Addington's laser cannon."

"What?"

Jordan and Shaun were both astounded!

Chapter 797: What Did You Do, Shaun?!

Shaun was extremely excited and squeezed in beside Jordan. He had always wanted to know what the Addington family's research was. However, John was a cautious person. The subordinates who knew the Addington family secrets were all people who had been nurtured by the family since they were young children. The family rarely recruited any adults.

Therefore, it was very difficult for Shaun to infiltrate the Addingtons with his own spies.

Shaun asked Phoenix, "What did you say? The Addington family has laser weapons? His laser cannon can destroy the Steeles' Zephyr planes?"

Jordan was also very surprised. In his opinion, their Zephyr planes were the top of the class. Ordinary artillery weapons would barely leave a scratch.

However, the Addington family's laser weapons could easily destroy them?

Phoenix responded. "Yes, laser cannons and other laser weapons like swords and clubs. They're extremely fast and automatically aimed at the target. They can hit the target instantly. There's no way to defend against them.

"Master Jamie had already boarded his Zephyr Two to escape, but when the laser cannon fired, the plane's defense device was instantly destroyed and one of its wings broke off. Master was captured because of this."

Jordan and Shaun sighed. Although they had not personally witnessed the scene, they could tell from Phoenix's description that the Addington family's laser weapons were very terrifying!

What was the most important thing in a battle?

Speed!

How to fight if one couldn't even react in time after being attacked?

Shaun said to Jordan, "Jordan, you can't go!"

"Why?" Jordan asked.

Shaun said with a serious expression, "Addington has a laser weapon. Even if the two of us join forces, we will not be a match for it. We will only die if we go! I will never let you take this risk!"

Jordan was also afraid of laser weapons. He had been injected with the Mirakuru serum but so what if he had the strongest physique? How could he withstand laser weapons?

It seemed that John had a laser sword and with just a casual slash, Jordan would not be able to get close to him at all!

Even if he used his ability to predict the future, it was useless. This would only let Jordan know in advance whether he would win or lose.

Jordan looked at Phoenix. "Phoenix, wait for me there. I'll contact you when I arrive."

Phoenix shed tears of gratitude. "Thank you, Mr. Jordan!"

"Dragon, be on standby to receive my orders."

"Yes!"

With that, Jordan hung up the video call.

Shaun was furious. "Jordan! Are you crazy?! The Addington family's laser weapons are not to be underestimated. These European families are not as easy to deal with as the Asian families. Don't think that we can kill the heads of all the other families just because we killed Park Sang-jun and Miyamoto Chujiro! This is unrealistic!"

Jordan said, "I'm not arrogant. I know that if I go over like this, I'll just end up dying. However, I can't ignore Jamie's life. I am a Deity. If I can't even save my own brother, can I still be considered a Deity?"

Shaun knew that Jordan and Jamie had a good relationship, so he suggested, "Jordan, if you insist on going, call Madam Geng and ask her to help you."

"Madam Geng?" Jordan asked.

When Shaun controlled Jordan's body, he made Madam Geng a very happy woman. In addition, Shaun had lied to Madam Geng and claimed that Jordan was willing to be under her. She would not leave him in the lurch.

Shaun said, "That's right. Didn't you give her the formula for the Mirakuru serum a few days ago? She will definitely help you."

A few days ago, Madam Geng had indeed looked for Jordan and asked him to give her the perfected formula for the Mirakuru serum.

The five families had issued a Level One Pursuit Order on Jordan. It was all thanks to Madam Geng's intervention that it was canceled. She even offended Chairman Rong by doing so.

Jordan was very grateful to Madam Geng, so he returned the favor and gave her the Mirakuru serum.

"Alright!"

Jordan immediately picked up the phone and called Madam Geng.

“Hey, my little baby, I was just about to call you,” Madam Geng said affectionately.

Jordan was not used to such intimate terms of address, but when he thought about how they had already kissed in the virtual game, he didn't think much about it.

“Madam Geng, there's something I don't know if I should ask you. This is a private matter. I don't want to trouble you, but I'm afraid I can't do it on my own.”

Jordan was very direct.

Madam Geng could tell that Jordan was in trouble. She asked worriedly, “Oh, dear, what are you talking about? You are already my man, aren't you? Your problems are my problems. Feel free to tell me what happened.”

‘I am your man?’

Jordan immediately realized that something was wrong. He turned to look at Shaun.

Sensing Jordan's probing gaze, Shaun avoided it.

‘Damn it, that b*stard Shaun must have slept with Madam Geng when he controlled my body! Argh, that damn b*stard!’

Jordan was 100% sure that Shaun had used his body to do something that he had not told Jordan yet. After that time, Madam Geng would speak to Jordan in a very offhand manner. Sometimes, her tone sounded like she was ordering him around.

‘This damned Shaun. Don't tell me he's playing some sinful master-servant game with that old woman, Madam Geng!’

Jordan cursed in his heart.

However, now was not the time to pursue this matter.

Jordan said, “My second brother, Jamie, has fallen into John Addington's hands. Now, John wants me to go over. He might capture me alive and offer me to Chairman Rong, or he might just kill me directly!”

Madam Geng was worried. “My dear, the Addington family's strength is unfathomable. The Park and Miyamoto families can't compare. I've checked out the Addington family. They have very powerful weapons. It's impossible for you to save your second brother from them. Promise me you won't go. Don't take any risks. I don't want to lose you, understand? We only made love with each other once. You can't die so soon.”

'Damn it! Damn it! I did sleep with that old woman, Madam Geng!'

Madam Geng herself had verified Jordan's conjecture!

Jordan glared at Shaun.

"Who the hell left the window open? What if some spy device flies in? Seriously!"

Shaun did not dare to look at Jordan. He hurriedly found an excuse and ran to the side.

Jordan sighed. Madam Geng had helped him time and time again. He would just treat it as repaying her kindness. He had slept with her—so be it!

Saving Jamie's life was more important now!

Since he had already slept with her, Jordan no longer addressed her formally.

Jordan said, "Anli, I already know the Addington family's trump card!"

Chapter 798: Jordan, I'm Your Master!

Geng Anli was pleasantly surprised. "What? You mean you know the Addington family secret? What is it? Tell me!"

Geng Anli and the Addington family had a close relationship, but she still didn't know what they were researching. All she knew was that it was related to weapons.

Jordan said, "Laser weapons!"

"Laser weapons!" Geng Anli was shocked.

Jordan explained, "Jamie has been lurking around John Addington during this period of time. His subordinate told me that he saw John use a laser cannon to shatter one of Zephyr Two's wings."

Geng Anli did not doubt Jordan's words because this was very close to her own conjecture!

Geng Anli said, "So the Addington family has been working on laser weapons. It looks like their laser weapons research has reached a very impressive level. What a frightening guy! Jordan, you have done well! I knew you were a capable person. I didn't expect you to tell me such valuable information so quickly. I will reward you well!"

It seemed that Geng Anli treated Jordan as her "servant".

After all, “Jordan” had humbly submitted himself to her that time. Geng Anli did not know that it was not the real Jordan then.

Jordan said, “Thank you. I don’t need any reward. I just want to save my second brother now. I know that the Geng family is not inferior to the Addington family. Can you help me? I don’t have anything here that can resist his laser weapon. It’s too fast.”

“Well…”

Geng Anli hesitated. Of course the Geng family had weapons that could compete with the Addington family. However, Jordan was just a “servant”. He was not worth them taking their weapons out and revealing them to outsiders.

Also, if the two sides started a fierce battle, Chairman Rong would be very unhappy. In fact, Chairman Rong might punish the Gengs if they attacked the Addington family.

Moreover, if the two families fought with their secret weapons, the resulting impact would be massive. It would become a major global event.

Geng Anli said, “Jordan, there’s no need to make this so complicated. You don’t have to fight Addington head-on. You can outwit him. How about this? I’ll get my son, Weilun, to drop in for a visit with John. While John is being distracted, you can find a chance to save your second brother. What do you think?”

Jordan thought about it. This was a good idea. As long as Jordan could get close and safely reach Jamie’s location, it would be much easier to save him.

“Alright!”

Jordan hung up and grabbed Shaun, who had his back facing him.

It was like catching a little chick.

Thump!

Jordan threw Shaun on the sofa and said angrily, “Shaun! You claimed that you didn’t use my body to mess around? You slept with Geng Anli!”

Shaun said in embarrassment, “I had no choice! I tried using words to convince Geng Anli but it was useless. I had to conquer her with my body before she was willing to help you! Hehe, let’s not argue over this. Don’t worry, I definitely didn’t embarrass you in that aspect. That old woman loves you to death now!”

What was done was done. Jordan knew that it was useless to pursue the matter. "F*ck you. She loves me because my body is powerful. What has this got to do with you?! Let's set off immediately. Geng Weilun will send her son to visit John. We'll meet up with Weilun first."

A few hours later.

El Hierro, Canary Islands.

Jordan and Shaun had been here for almost an hour. They had arranged to meet Geng Weilun here.

Soon, a plane gradually appeared and slowly landed on the ground, and a handsome man in sunglasses walked out of the plane.

It was Geng Weilun.

Geng Weilun walked in an imposing manner. There were not many subordinates behind him as he approached Jordan.

This time, Geng Weilun was no longer as antagonistic as before when meeting Jordan. Instead, he chuckled in delight.

Geng Weilun walked up to Jordan, took off his sunglasses, and chuckled. "Hahahaha, I didn't expect that the arrogant fellow who killed the heads of the Park and Miyamoto families would be willing to follow my family and be our dog. Jordan, you have good taste. Well done!"

Geng Weilun immediately started mocking Jordan the moment they met.

For the time being, Jordan only knew that Shaun used his body to sleep with Geng Anli. He did not know that he had sworn to follow the Geng family.

"What did you say?" Jordan did not understand.

Geng Weilun said, "Alright, stop pretending. My mother told me everything. She said that you're a servant of the Geng family. I'm your master. I can order you to do anything! In the past, you have displeased me. However, on account of the fact that you told us the secrets of the Addington family, I will let bygones be bygones.

"Now, kneel down and clean my shoes!"

Geng Weilun wanted Jordan to kneel down and clean his shoes! He wanted to show that his status was higher than Jordan's.

At the side, Dragon sneered. “Mr. Geng, the person who can make my master kneel down and wipe his shoes hasn’t been born yet!”

As they needed his help now, Dragon did not say anything too nasty.

Geng Weilun snorted and looked at Jordan. “Jordan, are you unwilling?”

Jordan thought to himself: ‘Damn Shaun. He must have done more than just sleep with Geng Anli. He must have made me do something lowly! However, I can’t offend Geng Weilun now. He is vital to saving Jamie!’

Jordan composed himself and smiled. “Mr. Geng, as you can see, there are many of our subordinates around. You know that I’m a person who cares a lot about my reputation. Can we not do this in front of so many subordinates? Let’s go inside. When it’s just the two of us, I will help you polish your shoes?”

“Hahahaha...” Geng Weilun laughed. “Anyway, you have indeed proven yourself a courageous man and no ordinary person. Alright, I’ll save your pride and not embarrass you in front of your subordinates.”

Geng Weilun ordered his subordinates. “You don’t have to follow me in. I’ll board Jordan’s plane to take a look. No, his plane should be considered the Geng family’s property as well.”

One of his subordinates said worriedly, “Will something happen? Master, it’s better to be more cautious.”

Geng Weilun replied, “Don’t worry. With Jordan’s relationship with my mother, he won’t dare to attack me. Now that Chairman Rong wants him dead, only my mother can protect him. He won’t dare to hurt me. Hahaha!”

...

Chapter 799: The Rong Family Secret?

Feeling very smug, Geng Weilun boarded Jordan’s Zephyr Three.

Jordan led the way like a guide. His current plan was to lure Geng Weilun onto his plane and have Shaun knock him out. Then, he would let Shaun control his body to meet John.

Shaun would then use his identity as Geng Weilun to negotiate with John while Jordan would take the opportunity to save Jamie.

After Geng Weilun got on the plane, he took a casual look around. He wasn't amazed. Zephyr Three was a top-notch plane to ordinary people, but to Geng Weilun, it was only so-so.

"Your plane is quite a distance away from my family's planes in terms of internal performance and external structure. However, it's more than enough for the likes of you, haha."

With that said, Geng Weilun found a comfortable sofa and sat down. Meanwhile, Jordan made a cup of coffee and handed it to Geng Weilun, pretending to be submissive.

In fact, Jordan had already seen Shaun quietly approaching Geng Weilun from behind.

Shaun was wearing a sinister and terrifying mask. Jordan wondered if Shaun intended to scare Geng Weilun unconscious.

"Please have some coffee, Mr. Geng." Jordan offered.

Geng Weilun smiled smugly and accepted the coffee. He rather enjoyed being Jordan's master now.

"Jordan, I didn't expect an insufferably arrogant person like you to kneel down to my mother and seek out the protection of the Geng family. Hehe, you are quite flexible. That's how a man should be! If you only know how to be rash, you won't have any future!"

Geng Weilun spoke in a lofty manner.

Jordan smiled. "Mr. Geng, you are saying this because you want me to polish your shoes now?"

Shaun had closed the distance between him and Geng Weilun. He could attack at any time. Geng Weilun could not wait to see Jordan polish his shoes.

However, at this moment, Geng Weilun changed his mind. "Forget it. I hated you previously because my mother always wanted to protect you. Also, I can't stand your arrogance. How can a brat from a low-level family be so arrogant? But now that you are under the Geng family, you're mine. As long as you focus on working for our family and making my mother happy, I won't make things difficult for you."

Jordan was stunned. He did not expect Geng Weilun to give up a chance to humiliate him. This made things difficult for Jordan.

This was because Jordan planned to have Shaun quietly knock Geng Weilun unconscious when he was distracted by Jordan bending over his shoes.

Geng Weilun took a big gulp of coffee. Perhaps he was thirsty. He said slowly, "Jordan, since you're a member of the Geng Weilun family now, I'll tell you the truth. Actually, I've always admired you!"

"Uh..."

Jordan was momentarily taken aback. Shaun, who was already behind Geng Weilun, also spread his hands as if asking: 'Why is this kid praising you? Do you still want to knock him out?'

Jordan shot Shaun a look, indicating him to wait a moment. He wanted to hear Geng Weilun's honest opinion of him.

Geng Weilun continued. "Do you know about the true situation of our eight secret families? Before your appearance at the recent great meeting, every family was very guarded against each other. Each family was also very eager to know the secrets of the others. But over the years, every family has guarded themselves very well. No one dares to make any rash moves. Therefore, the eight great families have a very complicated relationship with each other!

"But after you appeared, you immediately broke this standstill! First, you exposed the Park family's secret. Then, you told us that the Miyamoto family's secret research was the Mirakuru serum. Thereafter, because of you, we learned that the Schmid family's secret was the quantum invisibility cloak. In addition to your own family's traditional medicine, we found out the secrets of half of the eight families in a short period of time!

"And today, you discovered that the secret of the Addington family is laser weapons. Jordan, I have to praise you. You're too amazing! You've let us know the full strength and trump cards of so many other families!"

Jordan had never thought about this before, but after hearing what Geng Weilun said, it was true.

In the past, the eight great families were all very mysterious. However, after Jordan appeared, one by one, their mysterious masks were removed.

What was the most terrifying thing?

The unknown was the most terrifying!

Major families like the Geng and Rong families would no longer have to be afraid of those families whose secrets had already been exposed.

It was like playing poker. If I knew your cards, I could choose to continue betting or fold.

No matter how we play, I will never lose.

“Mr. Geng, you flatter me. It was just a coincidence.”

Jordan pretended to be modest. Not only did he know the secrets of the families mentioned by Geng Weilun, but he also knew the secrets of the Haus family!

However, there was no need for Jordan to tell him that.

Currently, among the eight great families, only the secrets of the Rong and Geng families were unknown to Jordan.

Jordan had tried to use his Deity ability to see them but he could not have visions of events that were too far off into the future.

Unless, Jordan were to dream of it, like his beach wedding with Hailey, which he had dreamed of a year ago.

Geng Weilun took another long sip of coffee. “Don’t be modest. I know you’re a very capable special agent!”

Jordan cursed in his heart: ‘Damn it, what special agent? Who wants to be your damn special agent!’

Geng Weilun said seriously, “Jordan, I’ve decided to give you a mission!”

“Oh? What mission?” Jordan asked.

Geng Weilun said, “I want you to infiltrate the Rong family and uncover their secret!”

Jordan snorted in his heart. This kid really knew how to order people around.

Geng Weilun looked very serious. “Now, almost all the secrets of the eight great families have been revealed. Although I don’t know what the Haus family’s secret is, I can guess that it won’t be that amazing. The only one to fear is the Rong family!”

“Actually, my family has been trying to get close to the Rong family all these years. From our current deductions, the Rong family’s secret is no small matter. It will definitely be a revolutionary and heaven-defying research!”

Jordan was a little shocked. He did not expect Geng Weilun to use such terms.

Revolutionary and heaven-defying!

Jordan asked, "What do you mean by revolutionary and heaven-defying?"

Geng Weilun explained. "You know the power of the Deity, right? Predicting the future is heaven-defying because science can't explain it at all. And the Rong family secret is definitely heaven-defying, just like the superpowers of the Deity!"

Chapter 800: Infiltrating The Addington Warship!

Jordan was the new Deity. Of course, he knew that the abilities of a Deity were heaven-defying.

However, he firmly believed that he was the only chosen one in the world. No one else could be on the same level as him!

Jordan was a little jealous. "You've defined the Rong family's secret research to be on the same level as the Deity. Are you thinking too highly of them?"

Geng Weilun shook his head. "Jordan, you don't have much contact with Chairman Rong. That's why you're saying this. The more you interact with him, the more you'll know that he's unfathomable. Based on our many years of dealing with Chairman Rong, the secrets of the Rong family are definitely beyond our imagination. It's not as simple as weapons or high-tech applications!"

Jordan pondered this deeply. Was the Rong family that powerful?

Shaun, who was behind Geng Weilun, nodded as if he agreed with his evaluation of the Rong family.

Jordan said, "Alright, since the Rong family's secret is so heaven-defying, I also want to know what it is. I'll accept this mission!"

Anyway, even if Geng Weilun hadn't requested this, Jordan would have probed into Chairman Rong on his own accord and exposed his family's secret.

As the Deity, he would not allow there to be secrets in this world that he did not know about.

Geng Weilun was thrilled. He took another sip of coffee and said, "Very good, Jordan. I believe you can complete the mission successfully! If you need any help, my family will do our best to help! However, if you are accidentally caught by Chairman Rong during the mission, you can't expose the Geng family's hand in this!"

Jordan smiled. "This is something I decided on my own. What has it got to do with your family? It's just that I have a good relationship with Madam Geng, so I am willing to share the secret with her after I find out."

"Hahahaha, well said, well said. I like smart people like you!" Geng Weilun was delighted.

Jordan didn't want to waste time talking to Geng Weilun anymore. If they continued to chat like this, Shaun might not be able to endure any longer and would attack Geng Weilun.

Since their current conversation was rather cordial and Jordan was not an evil person at heart, there was no need for Shaun to do anything to Geng Weilun.

"You've finished your coffee. Let me make you another cup."

Jordan walked forward.

Geng Weilun handed his coffee cup to Jordan. "Yes, your coffee is very good. Make me another cup."

This time, Jordan drugged Geng Weilun's coffee.

After drinking it, Geng Weilun soon fainted on the sofa.

Shaun, who was hiding at the side, took off his mask. "This saves me the trouble of doing it myself."

Jordan looked at Shaun. "What do you think of his evaluation of the Rong family?"

Shaun said, "I think his evaluation is accurate. He didn't exaggerate. This is also the reason why I want to swap minds with Rong Bailun. If I can become Rong Bailun, hehe, I will be the strongest in this world!"

Hearing this, Jordan was also filled with curiosity about the Rong family's secrets. He decided that in the future, he would definitely sneak into the Rong family and investigate.

However, he had to save Jamie first.

Shaun soon took control of Geng Weilun.

When Geng Weilun emerged from Zephyr Three with Jordan, even Geng Weilun's subordinates did not know that their master had become Shaun!

Half an hour later.

On the Geng family's plane, Shaun dialed John Addington's number.

John was puzzled for a moment before answering the phone.

"Uncle Addington, good afternoon." Shaun imitated Geng Weilun's speaking manner and expressed his condolences.

John was also very polite. "Haha, so it's Weilun. Why did you suddenly call me?"

Shaun looked at a plane in front of him. "I'm flying towards the Straits of Gibraltar now, but I was suddenly threatened by a plane. Listen..."

"Attention, unidentified aircraft. Leave this area immediately. Otherwise, we will attack you!"

Shaun continued on the phone. "I saw the logo of your Addington family on that fighter jet. It should be your plane."

John hurriedly said, "I'm sorry. I'll give the orders for them to step down. I won't let my subordinates hurt you."

Shaun laughed. "Mr. Addington, you think too highly of your family. Our Geng family's fighter jets are the best in the world. If it weren't for the fact that this plane belongs to your family, I would have shot it down long ago."

John dared not argue. The Geng family's status and strength were indeed above that of the Addington family.

"I wonder why you have suddenly come to the Straits of Gibraltar?"

Shaun said, "I came to look for you. I know you're here. I've already spotted your warship. Let's meet."

John panicked. He did not expect Geng Weilun to know his current location. He had obviously come prepared. The Addington family's secret laser weapon was hidden in the warship. He would never let strangers approach the warship, let alone enter.

John said quickly, "Weilun, actually, I am there..."

Just as he was about to find an excuse to reject this meeting, Shaun hung up.

"Damn it!"

John was indignant.

“It must be Jordan. He called Madam Geng for help. That’s why Geng Weilun is here! Damn Jordan. Why are so many women willing to help him? If it weren’t for Lota and Madam Geng, he would have died ten times over!”

He had no choice. Since Geng Weilun already knew that John was here, he couldn’t refuse. Otherwise, he would offend the Geng family. Although he followed Chairman Rong, the Geng family was an existence he was unwilling to provoke.

Soon, a plane flew directly to the Addington family’s warship.

Jordan was also on the plane.

...

In case Geng Weilun knew the secret of the Addington family, John urgently ordered the laser guns to be locked up again. All the laser weapons were hidden.

When Shaun got off the plane, John stood outside to welcome him personally. After a simple greeting, John invited Shaun to sit in the living room of the warship and ordered someone to prepare seafood and beer.

John smiled. “Geng Weilun, your visit caught me off guard. I guess you’re here to plead on behalf of that kid, Jordan? Hehe, Jordan has a close relationship with Madam Geng. He might have already... hehe, I believe you can guess without me saying anything. I didn’t expect you to be willing to help Jordan after he insulted you so much. I’m disappointed in you!”

John could tell that Geng Weilun’s sudden visit was definitely because Jordan had asked Madam Geng for help, and she had sent her son. Otherwise, Geng Weilun would never have known John’s current location.

This annoyed John greatly. He was worried that because of the Geng family’s interference, they would not be able to resolve the hidden danger of Jordan. Therefore, he mocked Geng Weilun.

When Shaun heard this, he slammed the table in anger. “John! What do you mean by that?!”

John laughed. “Smart people don’t talk nonsense. Weilun, your mother must have asked you to come here, didn’t she? She must have wanted you to help Jordan, right? I only told Jordan my current location. No one else knows!”

Shaun put himself in Geng Weilun’s shoes and said, “That’s right. My mother asked me to save Jordan, but I don’t intend to save him! I’m here to kill him!”

John was slightly surprised. "Oh?"

Shaun said, "I wanted to kill that b*stard Jordan a long time ago! You're right. His relationship with my mother is not ordinary. They're lovers! Do you remember the last time we went to the Miyamoto family residence in Japan? My mother disappeared to the toilet for a long time."

John said, "Yes, I remember. Madam Geng was indeed gone for a long time. When she returned, she proposed to cancel the Level One Pursuit Order on Jordan. I don't know what happened."

Shaun snorted. "Hmph, my mother was with Jordan for more than half an hour! Jordan, that b*stard, he... he... sigh, I can't bring myself to say it! I can only tell you that I saw the video later. That b*stard actually wants to be my stepfather. I will never allow such a thing to happen. I will kill him!"

Shaun was hysterical and looked like he was about to go crazy. However, in reality, when he recalled what happened with Madam Geng during that half an hour, he was rather aroused.

At that time, it was Shaun who had slept with Madam Geng, not Jordan.

John was shocked. "What? Jordan was there at that time? And he was in the toilet with Madam Geng... oh my god, it's not that I want to criticize her, but your mother is a little too open. How can accept any man like that."

Shaun chuckled. It was none of his business that Madam Geng was open-minded. He couldn't be happier.

After composing himself, Shaun said, "In short, you and I have the same goal. We both want to kill Jordan! Only by killing Jordan will I not be humiliated by him in the future! Otherwise, I will feel uncomfortable every time he dates my mother!"

John smiled. Geng Weilun definitely had the motive and reason to kill Jordan. "Okay, since you want to kill Jordan too, that's great. But how do you plan to do it?"

Shaun said, "I've made an arrangement with Jordan. I am supposed to come here and distract you, while he quietly sneaks over to save his second brother. Later, I'll call Jordan and tell him that now is a good time to come over. The moment his plane approaches, you can blast him to death with your cannon! The plane and everyone inside it will be blown to pieces!"

John nodded. "Yes. I was worried that Jordan would be afraid to come here. With this arrangement, he will definitely come."

Shaun smiled. "Then should we have a drink to celebrate Jordan's death in advance?"

The two of them chatted happily. Shaun was cunning and knew the matters of the eight great families very well. Even after chatting for some time, John failed to realize that this "Geng Weilun" was a fake.

An hour later, Shaun felt that the time was ripe, so he pretended to call Jordan.

"Hey, Jordan, I've already gotten John drunk. Hurry up and fly over!"

After hanging up the phone, Shaun raised his glass again and clinked it with John's. "Jordan will be flying over soon. Uncle Addington, how are you going to send him to the afterlife?"

John smiled mysteriously. "I'm afraid I can't tell you that. Later, please stay here and don't move. As you know, every family has its secrets."

Shaun smiled back at John. "You don't want me to see your secret weapon? Hehe, it's just a laser weapon, right. What's so rare about it? When my family was researching laser weapons, you haven't even started yet. How laughable. You're actually afraid that I'll find out!"

John was shocked. He did not expect the Geng family to know his family's secret!

John believed that he had already killed or captured Jamie and his men. However, John did not know that Phoenix had escaped. He thought that the secret of their laser weapons had not been leaked.

"Weilun, when... when did you learn my family secret?"

Shaun said, "I knew it 10 years ago! To think that you always thought it was a secret! To tell you the truth, in terms of laser weapons research, the Geng family is a hundred times better than you! You better believe it!"

John nodded repeatedly. "I believe you, of course I believe you! How can my Addington family compare to the great Geng family? In the future, we will have to consult you on laser weaponry."

Shaun nodded. "Yes, I'll give you some pointers when I have the chance. Now, let me see how far you've progressed. Let's see if you have a tenth of what our family has."

"Yes! Mr. Geng, this way please!"

John no longer hid anything. Instead, he became solicitous and invited Shaun to visit his family's laser weapons. He knew that for the Geng family to have their current status, their technology was definitely above theirs. Therefore, he did not doubt Shaun's claims at all.

When they arrived at the laser cannon, Shaun asked for a few parameters, such as power output, systems and weapons that could intercept this, etc.

John answered accordingly, with Shaun constantly interrupting to brag that the Geng family's standard was several levels higher than theirs in each aspect.

John was impressed.

Soon, an invisible plane slowly approached the Addington family warship.

"Lord Addington, we detected an invisible plane flying over, but we can't confirm its exact location for the time being." One of his subordinates reported.

John smiled. "That little b*stard Jordan is here. Do you think I can't kill you just because you are flying an invisible plane? Hehe, looks like you still don't know how powerful my laser cannon is. I don't need to see you. I just need to determine the approximate direction. I can still kill you!"

With that, John personally activated the laser cannon and fired at the empty space in front of him!

Boom!

A green beam shot into the sky above the distant sea.

Chapter 802: Jordan Pretends To Die!

It was impossible for this first shot to hit the invisible plane right on target.

And John did not expect to hit his target with a single shot.

He controlled the laser cannon, drawing out a circle with the green beam.

John's subordinates had given him the parameters of the estimated area where the invisible plane was located. This circle covered the entire area. John then launched an all-encompassing attack annihilating everything within that circle!

Bang!

There was a loud bang. John had indeed hit an invisible plane. The moment the plane was hit, it shattered into pieces and sank to the bottom of the sea.

"It was so close!"

The invisible plane became visible after it was hit. At this moment, they realized that this plane was already very close to the warship. It seemed like it was flying at full speed.

John was surprised. Shouldn't one move more slowly and cautiously when sneaking onto a warship to save someone?

Why had Jordan flown so fast?

Something else surprised John. The entire plane immediately shattered after being struck by his laser cannon.

Wasn't that plane too fragile? He had hit Zephyr Two earlier and only managed to damage a wing.

Why was Jordan's plane so much more fragile?

In reality, the invisible plane just now was just one of Jordan's backup planes. It was not his usual Zephyr Three.

If it was Zephyr Three, the laser cannon would never have been able to blow up the entire plane in just one shot. Not only that, there was no one on the plane just now, so it was flying at full speed.

Apart from that, Jordan and Shaun also gave John a gift.

Although there was no one on the plane, there was gas!

This gas was specially developed by Shaun. It was an aphrodisiacal gas that could arouse the desires of men and women!

Now that the plane had been blasted apart, all the gas had spread across Addington's warship.

Slap! Slap!

Shaun clapped his hands and took the initiative to shake John's hand. "Thank you Uncle Addington, for killing Jordan for me. I don't need to worry about this dog harassing my mother anymore!"

John happily returned Shaun's handshake. "It was nothing. But now that Jordan has died, it will be very difficult for you to report to your mother."

Shaun waved his hand. "This is a small matter. You don't have to worry about me."

John nodded. "Okay. Excuse me for a moment. I have to make a call."

"Be my guest."

Now that he believed Jordan was dead, John couldn't wait to call Chairman Rong.

"Chairman, I have good news for you. I just killed Jordan in the Straits of Gibraltar! I have killed Jordan Steele!"

John sounded like he was asking for credit as he excitedly told Chairman Rong the news.

Chairman Rong was surprised and a little dubious. "Oh? You killed Jordan? Are you sure you killed him?"

John said, "There's no mistake. I caught his second brother, Jamie. This kid values kinship very much. He won't leave his second brother to die. When he flew his plane toward me just now, I directly blasted him into pieces! Even if he has been injected with the Mirakuru serum, he definitely won't be able to withstand my laser cannon!"

Chairman Rong nodded. "Well, if it was just your laser sword, it might not be enough to kill him. But if it was your laser cannon, he'll definitely die! Sigh, but it's a pity he died before I found out how that kid developed the Mirakuru serum.

"But this guy's presence makes me very uneasy. Now that he's dead, so be it. John, you've done well. Come by sometime. I'll send someone to give you some more pointers."

Even though John was thousands of miles away, he still bowed respectfully. "Thank you, Chairman. To be able to receive your guidance is better than studying on our own for 10 years. I won't disturb you anymore. Goodbye!"

At the same time, Shaun sent Jordan a message. "We can take action now!"

After receiving Shaun's message, Jordan immediately walked out of Geng Weilun's plane. He wore a wig and makeup and looked very different.

Along with him were more than 10 women with enchanting figures!

They were all top-notch beauties. Jordan specially recruited these women before coming here.

This was because after John destroyed the plane, the aphrodisiacal gas would quickly spread across the warship. The guards on the warship were all men.

Their bodies were strong, but their discipline might be lacking. Especially under the influence of the aphrodisiacal gas, they would yearn desperately for women. With these women in tow, it would be very easy for Jordan to save Jamie.

As expected, as the gas spread, many men on the warship began to show varying degrees of discomfort.

“Ah, damn it, is this gas poisonous? Why do I suddenly have the urge to have a woman now?!”

“Yes, LeBlanc, I’m the same. My mind is filled with fantasies about a woman’s body now. Damn it, I can’t concentrate at all!”

Previously, after Shaun landed the plane on the warship, John had sent his men to watch over it, afraid that some unauthorized personnel would sneak out and infiltrate the warship.

Now, these guards were finding it increasingly difficult to control themselves.

At this moment, Jordan walked down with more than 10 sexy babes.

When a guard saw this, he immediately said, “Geng family subordinates, please stop! According to Lord Addington’s instructions, you are not allowed to leave the plane!”

Seeing that they did not recognize him, Jordan said, “Oh, you’ve misunderstood. We are not leaving the plane. I saw that you were feeling a little fidgety, so I specially brought a few women down to help you.”

“Oh, damn it. Is your warship doing some kind of test on a new gas? Why is this smell so arousing? Fortunately, Master Geng has many beauties with him. Otherwise, it would be really difficult.”

As Jordan spoke, he pushed the women onto the guards. These beauties were all very professional. Some of them were even porn stars and knew how to make men happy.

Looking at these women’s enchanting figures and sexy clothes, the guards drooled.

“Gulp...”

“No, no. We are soldiers specially trained by Lord Addington. How can we neglect our duty and play with women?!”

One of the guards looked very determined.

Jordan smiled. "You don't want to? Alright, I won't bother about you anymore. You can settle it yourselves. However, if you change your mind, you're welcome to board the plane anytime. By the way, one of these beauties is Madam Geng's biological daughter. She's bold and unrestrained, and she loves to play.

"If any of you can make her pregnant, your status might immediately soar into the sky. You might become a son-in-law of the Geng family."

Chapter 803: Jamie's Crazy Idea!

"Madam Geng's biological daughter? And she's bold by nature? My God, is he telling the truth?"

"Don't listen to his nonsense. Madam Geng's daughter is extremely noble. Why would she like us? You should focus on your duty and stop dreaming!"

The guards guarding the plane were tempted by Jordan's words.

Jordan knew very well what these guards were thinking. They escorted people of high status all year round, serving the masters and madams of top families. It was only natural for these men to fantasize about the eldest daughter under their guard.

In addition, they were now bewitched by the aphrodisiacal gas. They wouldn't be able to resist even a normal woman, not to mention the noble Young Mistress Geng!

"Damn it! Damn it, it's too uncomfortable! I can't take it anymore! I want to go to the plane to relieve myself!"

A guard ignored the order he had been given and walked onto the plane. Those remaining could no longer stand still, especially when they heard some ambiguous noises coming from the plane.

"Lord Addington asked us to keep an eye on the remaining people on the plane and not let them run around. There doesn't seem to be any difference if we keep an eye on them from the outside or inside, right?"

"You're right, man. Let's go up too!"

With that, the remaining guards also boarded the plane.

Jordan took the opportunity to sneak out and enter the warship.

"Where is Jamie locked up?"

Jordan walked slowly along the aisle when he suddenly heard a song.

“I’m fascinated every time I see you. It’s a pity that you and I have our roles. Even if we exceed our friendship in a lonely dream...”

Jordan recognized it as one of Jamie’s favorite love songs!

“Good lord, Jamie will always be Jamie. He’s still in the mood to sing at a time like this!”

Jordan smiled and followed the voice to a room.

Jordan was still rather cautious. He did not barge in directly because he was afraid that Addington’s subordinates had laser weapons.

He was not afraid for himself. Even a laser weapon should not be able to kill him. He was worried that Addington’s subordinates would kill Jamie.

The laser weapon was too fast for Jordan to stop.

However, through his high-tech thermal sensor, Jordan saw that the person inside was holding a normal gun and not a laser weapon. In that case, Jordan had no reason to worry.

What Jordan did not know was that because of Geng Weilun’s sudden visit, John ordered his men to lock up all the laser weapons on the warship in advance.

After all, Geng Weilun was from the powerful Geng family. John would never fight him.

If it was just normal guns, Jordan was all too familiar with this combat mode. Therefore, he did not waste any more time and just kicked open the heavy door!

Bang!

“I only love you in the dark... oh my god!”

Jamie’s singing stopped as the door was kicked open.

“Jordan Steele!”

The guards immediately recognized Jordan!

They immediately prepared their guns, but to Jordan, their movements were all like in slow motion. From the moment Jordan entered, they had already lost the first movers’ advantage!

Bang!

Bang!

Jordan appeared in front of them in a flash and killed them with a punch!

Jordan couldn't help sighing at the fact that he could kill Addington's men with a single punch. John's subordinates were too weak. They were inferior to the Miyamoto family's subordinates.

This was because the subordinates of the Miyamoto family had all taken their strength-enhancing medicine. Their physiques were stronger than ordinary people. Jordan could not kill them with a single punch.

On the other hand, the Addington family did not focus on their subordinates' physiques as they had laser weapons.

Jamie was overjoyed when he saw Jordan. He joked, "I was just about to scold the b*stard who barged in and disturbed my singing. But it's you, Jordan. Hahahaha!"

Jordan did not waste time bantering with his brother. He quickly removed his handcuffs. While removing Jamie's handcuffs, Jordan suddenly realized that one of his hands was stained with blood and missing a finger!

"Jamie, your finger..." Jordan's heart ached.

Jamie waved his hand nonchalantly. "One of them was chopped off by that old fellow John Addington. But it's fine. I can just reattach it. At most, I'll change to a metal finger."

With the superb medical skills of the eight great families, it was indeed not a big deal to lose a finger.

However, Jordan was still very angry. He could not tolerate others hurting his family!

"Jamie, you're too reckless. I've been looking for you during this period. I also tried to send a message to you, telling you that I will definitely revive our family and for you not to mess around in the meantime. You just have to wait quietly. Why did you provoke the Addington family?"

Jamie was a proud person. "As a descendant of the Steele family, how can I let you shoulder everything? As your brother, I have to do something. The Addington family is also in England. Grandpa used all sorts of methods to befriend them and form an alliance with them, but they never reciprocated and looked down on us. I hate John's arrogance, so I came over to keep an eye on him."

Jordan nodded. He should have guessed that John Addington was Jamie's target.

“Alright, stop talking. Let’s leave this place quickly first. Sometime in the future, I’ll definitely pay John Addington back for cutting off your finger.”

Jordan pulled Jamie away as he spoke.

However, Jamie did not move.

Jamie said, “Jordan, I don’t want to leave. I’ve been tracking the Addingtons for so long and finally found out that their secret research is laser weapons. I have to steal their laser weapons! If we have laser weapons, we don’t need to fear anything. The two of us can revive the Steele family and make the other families respect us!”

Jordan was stunned. He did not expect Jamie to be so persistent.

“But the Addington laser weapons aren’t that easy to steal, right?” Jordan asked.

Jamie nodded. “Ordinary laser swords and batons are fine. They can be immediately put to use. However, the laser cannons on this warship can only be activated with John’s fingerprint authorization. Jordan, can you help me control John? If we take possession of this warship, we can sail to the South China Sea and declare war on the Rong family!

“When the time comes, I will worship you as the head of the Steele family. I will listen to everything you say!”

Jordan was silent for a moment. He thought that he was the most combative person in the Steele family, but it seemed that Jamie was even more fond of battle than him.

Not only did he want to snatch the Addington family’s warship, but he also wanted to start a war with the Rong family!

This was too f*cking fierce. Even Jordan did not dare to do this now.

However, after carefully analyzing the current situation, Jordan realized that it was indeed a pity to leave just like that.

If they could take over this warship and control the laser weapon, Jordan would be able to better protect his family!

Chapter 804: Control John Addington!

Why did the five families dare to issue a Level One Pursuit Order on Jordan?

Why did the families dare to provoke Jordan and capture his family members?

It was because Jordan did not have any powerful weapons or equipment. He only had his abilities. If he had laser weapons, the others would not dare to hurt Jordan's family anymore.

"Alright, we can't be so passive anymore. Our lives should not be in the hands of others. We should let the high and mighty Rong Bailun know that we can also attack him!"

With that, Jordan agreed to Jamie's suggestion and immediately called Shaun, who was beside John.

At this moment, John had finished reporting to Rong Bailun and was raising his glass to celebrate "Jordan's death" with Shaun.

Receiving a call from Jordan, Shaun picked up the call without batting an eyelid. The first thing he said was, "Mom, what's the matter?"

When Jordan heard Shaun's words, he knew that he was with John now, so it was not convenient for him to speak directly.

However, the two of them had spent enough time together to have some sort of tacit understanding. They could understand each other even without speaking in direct terms.

Jordan said, "I've already rescued Jamie."

Shaun said happily, "Oh, really? That's great! I knew that hairstylist would suit you. Hahaha, you must be very beautiful now."

Jordan continued. "However, Jamie doesn't want to leave just like that. He wants to control John and snatch this warship and the laser weapons!"

"What?" Shaun's expression changed drastically. "Oh, my god, this is too ridiculous. You can't dye it green. Mom, that color doesn't suit you!"

Jordan knew that Shaun felt that it was very risky and was reluctant to follow their plan. From the looks of it, Shaun was beside John now. If they wanted to control John, Shaun was the best person to take action.

"Yes, green hair does not suit Madam Geng." John agreed with a smile.

Jordan went on. "Not only that, after snatching this warship, we plan to sail to the Rong family's secret base in the South China Sea. We will use the laser weapons to start a war with the Rong family!"

Shaun exploded on the spot. “F*ck you! Are you crazy?!”

Hearing the outburst, John was confused.

Jordan said, “This is Jamie’s decision. He has to do this and I respect his decision. I order you to cooperate with us to take over John and his warship. To be honest, I’m tired of threatening you. I’m sure you know what the consequences will be if you don’t, right?”

With that, Jordan hung up.

“Arghh!”

Shaun was so angry that he was about to go crazy.

This was too much. This was too much!

They had previously agreed to escape after saving Jamie, but now, Jordan wanted Shaun to deal with John.

Not only that, after controlling John, they would sail the warship with the laser cannon over to bomb the Rong family?

Did they know who was the Rong family?

They had the most advanced and powerful weapons in the world!

Wouldn’t they be courting death?!

The mind-transplant technology was still in development. Shaun wanted to keep a low profile and not cause any trouble.

Meanwhile, John didn’t know what was happening. He thought “Geng Weilun” had just been on the phone with his mother.

John asked, “Weilun, what happened? Why are you so agitated?”

Shaun scratched his head and shouted, “I hate green!!”

Since he couldn’t tell the truth, he could only vent his emotions in this manner.

John frowned. “Weilun, as your elder, I have to say something. How could you swear at your mother just now? Madam Geng is a highly-respectable person. Even Chairman Rong and I treat her with the highest level of courtesy when we meet. Madam Geng gave you everything you have now. You can't be so rude just because you're her son and she dotes on you!"

John couldn't understand why "Geng Weilun" had sworn at his mother.

Shaun was very gloomy. He knew that once Jordan decided on something, even 10 armies combined would not be able to stop him.

In addition, Jordan was a Deity now. What he decided to do would definitely happen. It was useless for Shaun to refuse. He could not fight against fate.

Therefore, Shaun composed himself. When he looked at John again, there was already a murderous glint in his eyes.

Bang!

Shaun punched John in the face. "F*ck you. It's none of your business who I swear at!"

John thought that "Geng Weilun" was angry because of what he said.

However, in the next second, Shaun used some unknown dark method to control John.

"Ah... ah... Weilun, why... why are you doing this?"

John felt that his breathing was about to stop, and his subordinates did not dare to act rashly. Shaun had warned them that if they dared to move, John would go to hell the next second.

"Cut the crap and follow me!"

Shaun held John hostage and went to the lower floor to meet up with Jordan and Jamie.

John was completely dumbfounded when he saw Jordan. "Jordan, you're not dead! Damn it, I was tricked! Geng Weilun, you tricked me!"

Shaun smiled. "John, you can only blame yourself for being too stupid. You can't blame me."

John was furious. "Damn it, I won't let you off for using me like this!"

At this moment, Jamie walked over with a knife in his hand. "Do you think you will have a chance? From now on, you will become my puppet and will never have a chance to make a comeback."

Swoosh!

Jamie cut off one of the fingers on John's left hand. This was because they needed John's right hand to activate the laser cannon.

"Ah!"

John cried out in pain, but there was nothing he could do now that he was in their hands.

After cutting off one of his fingers, Jamie took out a few pills from his pocket and forced them down John's throat.

Shaun asked worriedly, "What medicine did you give him? He won't die, right?"

Jamie looked at "Geng Weilun" in front of him and commented. "You're Shaun, right? You're quite impressive. You can control others from thousands of miles away and do whatever you want. I like this ability. Teach me when you have the chance. One day, I'll control one of Rong Bailun's subordinates and sleep with his wife. Hahaha. No, one isn't enough. Can you control 10 people at the same time?"

Chapter 805: War Against The Rong Family!

This was Shaun's first time meeting Jamie, but even before this, he already knew that Jamie was more unrestrained than Jordan and Jesse combined.

Shaun said very seriously, "Jamie, don't be rash. John's status is extraordinary. He's not an ordinary person. Don't kill him on impulse."

A big shot like John Addington was in charge of many things in this world. He could impact many things in this world with a single flick of his finger.

Jamie smiled. "Don't worry, Mr. Handley. I know what I'm doing. I won't kill him. I still have to use him to control the laser cannon to hit that b*stard Rong. How can I let him die? I gave him a drug from the Haus family. I call it the 'Thoughts Elimination Pill'."

'Drug from the Haus family?'

Jordan and Shaun exchanged looks.

The Haus family was also a formidable force. They were able to use green plants as spyware to listen in on the world. Their drug research would doubtless also be very advanced.

"What do you mean by 'Thoughts Elimination'?" Shaun asked.

Jamie explained. "After taking the medicine, his brain won't be able to form cognitive thoughts. He won't be able to even think of escaping. However, this doesn't stop him from performing habitual actions, such as going to the toilet, eating, walking, sleeping, and so on.

"Also, if you ask him a question, he will answer what he knows without any qualms. This way, you can guarantee the authenticity of his words."

Jordan and Shaun were astonished. They did not expect the Haus family to have such an amazing drug.

"So, why do you want to control John? Are you really going to sail to the Rong family's secret base in the South China Sea to fight them?" Shaun asked.

Jamie said, "Of course! I want Rong Bailun to know that the Steele family is not to be trifled with! I also want to use this battle to warn the other families and the entire world not to offend me!"

Shaun looked at the murderous Jamie and thought to himself: 'Jamie is indeed more reckless than Jordan. He dares to do anything. However, I can also take this opportunity to see the strength of the Rong family and see what methods they will use to deal with the Addington family's laser cannons!'

The Rong family had always been regarded as the head of the eight great families. Everyone believed that they were the strongest. But actually, no one had ever verified their strength.

Shaun wanted to swap minds with Rong Bailun and become the head of the Rong family. But what if the Rong family was just all bluster and no substance? What if they didn't have true strength?

Of course, the probability was very low. Even so, Shaun wanted to take this opportunity to see the true strength of the Rong family!

He believed that the Rong family would reveal their true strength when faced with the Addington family's laser cannons.

Shaun said, "Since you insist on doing this, I won't stop you. However, Jordan, I have to tell you that I won't participate in this battle. I will disconnect from Geng Weilun soon. I advise you not to participate in this fight in person."

Jordan nodded. "I'm the same as you. I just want to take this opportunity to see if the Rong family is really that powerful. I won't make any rash attacks on them for now."

Shaun said, "Alright, that's good. Let's see what methods the Rong family will use to resist the Addington family's laser cannons!"

A few hours later.

Shaun disconnected from Geng Weilun and the latter gradually woke up.

When he woke up and realized that he was in an unfamiliar environment. The last thing he remembered was his meeting with Jordan. Geng Weilun was immediately furious. He walked towards Jordan and grabbed his collar.

"B*stard! What did you do to me?! Where am I?! Where did you take me?! Are you trying to rebel?!"

Jordan replied calmly, "Didn't you give me a mission to find out the secrets of the Rong family? We're going to find Rong Bailun now."

"Rong Bailun?"

Geng Weilun was momentarily taken aback before running to the window. He realized that it was the endless sea outside!

"I'm at sea!"

Geng Weilun asked Jordan, "Whose warship is this?"

"It's John Addington's."

At this moment, Jamie walked in with John. He had tied a chain around John's neck and led him over like a dog.

John, who had never taken the Steeles seriously, never imagined that he would one day be humiliated by the descendants of the Steele family in this manner.

"You're... Jordan's second brother, Jamie? You are controlling John Addington?" Geng Weilun looked at Jamie in surprise.

Jamie answered proudly, "That's right. John and his warship are already under our control."

Geng Weilun was furious and shouted at Jordan, "B*stards! Who asked you to do this! Do you know that you're playing with fire?!"

Jamie hated Geng Weilun's attitude and snapped back waspishly, "Geng Weilun, who allowed you to speak to us in such a tone!"

Jordan reached out his hand, indicating for Jamie to calm down. He then walked towards Jamie and pulled him aside.

“Jamie, Geng Weilun is still useful to me. The Geng family thinks that I have submitted to them, so why don't we just endure it for now? It won't be too late to lay all my cards on the table after we uncover the secret of the Geng Weilun family.”

Apart from the Rong family, Jordan was also eager to find out the true strength of the Geng family. Jordan would only rest easy after the trump cards of these two families were revealed.

Jamie nodded. He knew that Jordan was planning something big and he would not ruin his plans.

Therefore, Jamie changed his attitude and said to Geng Weilun, “Mr. Geng, I didn't know that Jordan had already submitted to you. Please forgive me for offending you just now!”

Geng Weilun clasped his hands behind his back and snorted arrogantly.

Jamie continued. “Since Jordan is now a member of the Geng family, I'll also follow your family. How about that? I control the Addington family now and have the most advanced laser weapons. I think I have the right to join you, right?”

Geng Weilun was pleasantly surprised.

If Jamie was willing to join the Geng family, the strength of the Addington family would be under the command of the Gengs too!

Geng Weilun asked, “Are you really willing to join my family?”

Jamie smiled. “Jordan saved my life. Since he's yours now, what reason do I have to go against either of you?”

Geng Weilun was thrilled. He said to Jordan, “Good, well done! Haha, no wonder my mother thinks so highly of you. You're indeed capable! From now on, the two of you are my right-hand men. Follow me and we can rule the world together!”

Chapter 806: Weather Weapon!!

It seemed that Shaun, Miyamoto Chujiro and Rong Bailun were not the only ones who wanted to be the ultimate overlord of the world. Geng Weilun also had such aspirations.

These guys all wanted to dominate the world. They completely disregarded Jordan, who was the new Deity.

However, now was not the time to tell others that he was a Deity. Shaun knew and he was already blackmailing Jordan for his ability. If the other families knew as well, they would definitely find ways to make use of Jordan.

A few hours later...

A secret base in western China. One of the most secretive and restrictive areas in the world.

Media reports had often speculated on the purpose of this secret base, some guessing that the government was developing advanced military aircraft here. In short, this was an absolutely restricted area. No member of the public could approach it, photograph it, or enter it...

If a plane flew past, it would be immediately shot down, regardless of its purpose.

At this moment, Rong Bailun was in this secret base.

Suddenly, one of Rong Bailun's subordinates ran up to him in a panic. "Bad news, Chairman Rong. The Addington family warship is approaching the South China Sea. We have a secret base there. We will be within striking range soon."

Rong Bailun was shocked. "What? Are you sure it's the Addington family's warship?"

It was hard to believe. After all, hadn't John just called him a few hours ago to report Jordan's death? He had sounded like a loyal follower as usual.

Why would the Addingtons suddenly approach the Rong family's secret base in the South China Sea?

And in a warship!

His subordinate said, "We have verified it. The government also called to ask if they should stop them."

Rong Bailun quickly said, "Don't let them act rashly! The Addington laser cannons are powerful. They can melt even the country's most advanced missiles! They are no match for the Addington family!"

The subordinate nodded. "Got it! But do we do nothing then?"

Rong Bailun said, "I need to make a call first."

Rong Bailun immediately initiated a video call with John Addington, but the other party did not answer.

Rong Bailun frowned as he realized that something might have changed. He sent John a text message.

"Friend or foe?"

Jamie saw the message from Rong Bailun. He replied: 'Rong Bailun, I want to f*ck you over!'

Rong Bailun saw the reply and was certain that the Addington family had come to declare war on him!

"Damn it. John wouldn't dare to provoke me like this. Is Jordan not really dead?"

Rong Bailun suddenly felt that it was very possible. He always had a feeling that Jordan was not an ordinary mortal and would not die so easily.

Suddenly, his subordinate reported. "Chairman, the Addington family's warship has suddenly accelerated. We estimate that they will reach within striking range of our South China Sea base within 10 minutes. If we don't act now, we might be attacked by them!"

Rong Bailun started to become quite anxious. To be honest, although the Rong family had always been the overlords, they had almost no combat experience.

This was because no one had ever dared to provoke them or declare war on them!

It was just like Kevin Durant going to a middle school to teach basketball. No student would dare to challenge him one-on-one!

Rong Bailun was quite agitated, deviating from his usual calm self. "Hmph, no matter who challenges me, I don't care if that person is John Addington himself, Jordan Steele, or anyone else! Let them come! No matter who my opponent is, I will tell them the same thing. No one in this world will be a match for the Rong family!"

His subordinate hurriedly knelt down and shouted, "Long live the Rong family! Long live Chairman Rong! Chairman, how should we fight the Addington warship?"

Rong Bailun said, "The Addington family's laser weapons are very powerful. If they attack our secret base with their laser cannons, our secret base will probably be destroyed! Therefore, we must not allow them to fire their laser cannons!"

"Activate the weather weapon!"

Meanwhile, on the Addington warship.

Jamie, Jordan, Geng Weilun and the others were also exceptionally excited.

“Hahaha, we’ll be within range in three minutes. I’m going to blow up the Rong family’s secret base!”

Jamie was very excited.

Geng Weilun was also in high spirits. “Not bad. It’s time to make Chairman Rong lower his head. If he’s attacked and defeated this time, I’ll make things difficult for him at the next great meeting. I’ll make him withdraw from the position of Chairman and have my mother take over!”

Everyone wanted Rong Bailun to experience defeat!

After all, Chairman Rong had been high and mighty for too long. However, Jordan was very cautious. He instinctively felt that this matter would not be so easy.

Therefore, he used his Deity ability to predict what would happen a few minutes later.

He really wanted to know if Jamie’s crazy operation would succeed!

“Rumble!”

A very grand scene appeared in Jordan’s mind. It was not the scene of a laser cannon bombarding the Rong family’s secret base, but the weather!

It was wind, lightning, a violent storm! Moreover, it was accompanied by massive waves!

“Damn it!”

Jordan quickly checked the weather forecast. It showed that it would be sunny and breezy over the next few hours!

“How is that possible?”

Jordan became worried.

“What’s wrong, Jordan? Why aren’t you excited? Why do you look so worried?”

Geng Weilun patted Jordan on the shoulder as he asked.

Jordan replied, "Better safe than sorry. We should prepare a plane and be ready to leave at any time."

Geng Weilun said, "Oh? Why are you so unconfident? Do you think this attack won't succeed? But as my subordinate, I have to praise you for being worried about my safety and taking precautions."

Jordan had already predicted that their attack would not succeed.

However, Jordan could not tell them.

Geng Weilun and Jamie continued to be very excited.

"Hahaha, we're almost within range. Rong Bailun, die!"

Jamie was exhilarated. Geng Weilun was holding a glass of wine and enjoying himself very much. But to their surprise, the clear sky was suddenly filled with dark clouds and it started to rain!

"Strange? Why is it suddenly raining so heavily?"

"Damn it, this is chemical rain. It has a corrosive effect. Everyone, get inside quickly. Don't let the rain touch your body!"

Chapter 807: Visiting The Geng Family!

Pitter-patter...

Raindrops kept falling, thunder kept rumbling, and lightning kept striking the warship!

Rumble!

It was still sunny a minute ago, but the weather suddenly changed completely.

Not only was there a thunderstorm, but there was also smog.

"Damn it, it's a weather weapon! The Rong family is indeed powerful. They actually developed a weather weapon!"

Geng Weilun was overcome with emotion.

Weather weapons were a very terrifying kind of weapon with a power comparable to nuclear weapons. China had been researching such weapons since World War II.

Thereafter, with the help of the Deity, the Rong family's weather weapons had reached a very terrifying level!

Jamie started to get anxious. "What should we do? Can we still attack the Rong family's secret base?"

John, who was being controlled at the side, shook his head stiffly. "We can't. Fog and torrential rain are the natural enemies of laser weapons. Fog can scatter laser beams and greatly reduce their lethality. We can't fire laser cannons in this weather."

Jamie was furious. "Damn it, such a powerful laser cannon has now been reduced to nothing?! Damn it, how could Rong Bailun have such a heaven-defying weather weapon?!"

Jordan said, "We've already confirmed one thing. The Rong family's reputation is well-deserved. Their true strength is indeed worthy of being the head of the eight great families. Even a laser cannon can't go against them. Rong Bailun will attack us at any moment. For safety's sake, let's get out of here immediately."

Actually, everyone knew very well that the Rong family was extraordinary. It was impossible for them to be defeated just like that.

Everyone had come this time just to probe the Rong family.

Now, they had achieved their goal.

Geng Weilun said, "Well, your earlier backup plan was very apt. Let's get out of here."

Geng Weilun and Jordan immediately turned their plane back. Jamie also controlled John to sail the warship away.

After leaving the South China Sea, Geng Weilun said to Jordan, "Although Jamie's crazy idea didn't succeed, your bold attempt also exposed the Rong family's secret weapon, it's a weather weapon."

"Jordan, I have to praise you again. You're really the lucky star of the Geng family. As long as you are around, we can always uncover secret information that we haven't been able to obtain over the past few decades. It means a lot to my family to know about the Rong family's weather weapon!"

If not for Jordan and Jamie, even though the Geng and Rong families had a close relationship, it would probably be impossible for them to witness the power of the Rong family's weather weapon anytime soon.

Jordan smiled. "Mr. Geng, you flatter me. You asked me to find out the secrets of the Rong family. Have I completed my mission? Does the Geng family have anything that can resist weather weapons?"

Jordan also wanted to know the true strength of the Geng family.

Geng Weilun shook his head. "You're too naive. Do you think that's all the Rong family has? Do you think weather weapons are their biggest secret? That's impossible. I dare tell you that. Utterly impossible.

"That's because the Geng family is also researching weather weapons! That is definitely not the only secret that the Rong family has up its sleeve! Their biggest secret must be at the heaven-defying level! The kind that can scare our pants off!"

Geng Weilun still believed that the Rong family possessed further secrets that were even more unbelievably shocking.

Jordan snorted coldly. It seemed that the second-ranked Geng family was the Rong family's greatest admirer!

"Tell your second brother to return to England and continue controlling John Addington." Geng Weilun commanded. "I want the Addington family to become a pawn of my family. Also, you've made a huge contribution this time. Do you want to go back with me to receive your award?"

"You mean, to your house?"

Jordan suddenly looked forward to it. He also wanted to visit the Geng residence.

Geng Weilun smiled. "That's right. You're already a member of our Geng Weilun family. You've also contributed greatly to us. You're already qualified to enter our house."

"Sure."

Jordan instantly agreed. He wanted to take advantage of this good opportunity to find out the Geng family secrets.

Even though Jordan had a good relationship with the Geng family now, they erroneously believed that he was their subordinate and at their mercy.

There was always a possibility their relationship might break down in the future and the two sides might become enemies. As the saying went, knowing one's enemy was the key to victory. Jordan wanted to understand more about this family that might become his opponent in the future.

Jordan and Geng Weilun flew to Suzhou, China on the same plane.

During this period, Shaun called and messaged Jordan, but Jordan did not respond.

It was obvious that Shaun was urging Jordan to go back and carry on his research. But Jordan had his own agenda. He didn't want to be tied down by Shaun.

The plane landed in a scenic area with lush vegetation. There were horse ranches, golf courses and clean lakes.

Being in Suzhou was like coming to a paradise. It was very delightful. Needless to say, the entire city belonged to the Geng family. Geng Anli lived here.

After getting off the plane, Jordan sat in an unmanned car which drove him to a luxurious hall. When they arrived at their destination, the car door opened automatically. There was no one around.

Jordan got out of the car and walked in.

As soon as he entered, he realized that Madam Geng was already waiting inside. A sumptuous dinner had already been prepared.

“Jordan, welcome to my place!”

Madam Geng was dressed in an elegant white dress. She smiled graciously at Jordan.

Apart from Madam Geng, there were many other people present. They were probably her family members or trusted associates. Most of the people were Chinese, but there were also a few other races present.

“Welcome home, Young Master Weilun!”

One of the men knelt in front of Geng Weilun and greeted him respectfully.

...

Jordan glanced at this man. He was Caucasian and should be around 23 years old, with long hair and was very handsome.

“Mmm.” Geng Weilun obviously knew him, but he didn't say much as he sat down.

Madam Geng waved at Jordan. “Jordan, come in quickly. I'll introduce you.”

“These are my daughters, Suqing and Xiqing. This is my other son, Kailun.”

“This is the CEO of the Geng family's military division, Bao Luo. This is the CEO of our technology division, Tai Sun.”

Madam Geng happily introduced everyone to Jordan.

Finally, when it was the Caucasian man’s turn, Madam Geng said, “His surname is Steele, just like yours. He’s also from the US. His name is...”

“My name is Quillon Steele! Pleased to meet you!”

Chapter 808: The Geng Family’s Interrogation!

Quillon’s gaze and tone were not very friendly. Moreover, he clearly exerted more strength than necessary when he shook hands with Jordan.

It was a blatant challenge!

Jordan gave a faint smile. He didn’t care if he encountered disdain or discrimination in this unfamiliar environment. In his eyes, even Madam Geng was just an ordinary person. The people under her were not worthy of affecting his mood.

Therefore, Jordan was not angry, nor did he increase his handshake pressure. He was afraid that if he used more strength, the man’s hand would be crippled.

Jordan asked politely, “Mr. Steele, what are you in charge of?”

All the people at present were probably part of Madam Geng’s inner circle or very important talents to the Geng family.

Jordan also wanted to know what this fellow did. He actually dared to treat him like this in public.

Quillon avoided eye contact, but he still forced out a reply. “I’m Madam Geng’s Chief Personal Assistant, in charge of all her daily necessities!”

Jordan was momentarily stunned. Quillon made it sound like he had a very important job.

However, wasn’t he just a manservant?

Jordan gave another faint smile. He immediately understood that Quillon must be Madam Geng’s gigolo!

Over this time, Jordan already noticed that Madam Geng liked handsome men. Since she was willing to be intimate with Jordan, she must have had many male partners before him.

And it was very likely that Quillon was one of them. This could also explain why Quillon was so unfriendly toward Jordan. He treated him as a love rival.

Jordan was rather speechless. He was a Deity, but a gigolo now viewed him as a love rival...

“Jordan, please sit down,” Madam Geng said.

“Okay.”

After Jordan took his seat, Quillon immediately sat beside him.

Madam Geng said happily, “Jordan, after you joined the Geng family, you have made great contributions time and time again! Not only did you discover the secret of the Addington family, but you also forced the Rong family to reveal their weather weapon. We have desperately wanted this information for decades!”

CEO of the military division Bao Luo, also raised his glass. “Jordan, thank you for telling us the secret of the Addington family. After knowing that their research is on laser weapons, I can finally be more relaxed. At least we don’t have to be too afraid of this family. The Geng family is confident in dealing with the Addington family!”

Geng Weilun smiled. “Bao Luo, there’s no need to deal with the Addington family. John Addington is now controlled by Jordan’s second brother, Jamie. I’ve ordered Jamie to continue controlling John and make the Addingtons submit to the Geng family. They have since returned to England, and I believe Jamie is handling the takeover.”

“What? Jordan’s brother managed to control the Addington family?”

“Oh my god, Jordan is indeed the most outstanding descendant of the Steele family. His abilities are astonishing!”

“Jordan, let me toast you! Respect!”

Many people stood up and toasted Jordan.

Jordan stood up politely and raised his glass to drink with everyone.

These people all held important positions in the Geng family. With their affirmation, it would be easier for Jordan to explore the secrets of the Geng family in the future.

Madam Geng's youngest daughter, Geng Xiqing, a short-haired girl in her early 20s, suddenly spoke up.

"Jordan, I have a question for you."

Jordan looked at Geng Xiqing. This girl was quite cute.

"Ms. Geng, please go ahead." Jordan smiled.

Cupping her chin, Geng Xiqing asked, "I heard from my mother that you rejected Lota from the Schmid family. Lota is a Swiss saint. Isn't she beautiful? Why did you reject her? Instead, you ended up with my mother?"

To Geng Xiqing, who was a young girl in her early 20s, such a choice made no sense.

Back then, Jordan had rejected Lota because he already had Lauren and Victoria, and did not want to get another wife.

However, he couldn't use this reason now.

If you didn't want to do anything to let your wives down, why did you have sex with Madam Geng?

It was all Shaun's fault for causing such trouble when he controlled Jordan's body. Now, Jordan had no choice but to maintain this persona.

Jordan thought for a moment before replying. "Lota is indeed very beautiful, just like you, Xiqing. However, I don't like young and innocent girls. I prefer mature women."

Geng Xiqing smiled and crossed her arms, placing her elbows on the dining table. "Do you really like women older than you? Why? I heard that you have a wife who is 10 years older than you? Are women of my age completely unattractive to you?"

From her question, Geng Xiqing seemed to be very interested in Jordan. She kept asking him about his romantic life.

Jordan did not know how to answer. "How can that be? Xiqing, you're so beautiful and cute. Any man would fall for you."

Geng Xiqing continued to interrogate him. "Then if you can only choose one woman, between my mother and I, who will you choose?"

'Damn it! This was a question with no right answer!'

Nevertheless, Jordan replied quickly, "I choose Madam Geng."

“Hahaha...”

Everyone laughed.

Geng Xiqing smacked the table unhappily, but then asked, “Will you like me after another 20 years then? Mom, are you willing to give Jordan to me then?”

Madam Geng said, “Xiqing, stop messing around. This is Jordan’s first time at our house today. Don’t scare him off.”

Geng Xiqing shot Jordan a very meaningful look.

‘Is this girl... into me?’

Jordan felt that Geng Xiqing had completely inherited her mother’s “boy-crazy” nature.

It would be utterly ridiculous if Madam Geng shared him with her daughter.

Seeing that even Geng Xiqing was expressing her fondness for Jordan, Quillon became even more jealous.

Quillon drank a glass of wine and suddenly asked, “Jordan, I heard from Madam Geng that you killed the heads of the Park and Miyamoto families all on your own. How did you do it?”

Jordan did not like his tone and attitude. He did not take Quillon seriously and was unwilling to answer him.

Instead, Jordan replied, “I’ve already told Madam Geng about this. There’s no need to explain it to you.”

Quillon was very unhappy. “Alright, then explain why you joined the Geng family! I have serious doubts about your loyalty! I suspect that you have ulterior motives!”

Chapter 809: Protect Emily!

The atmosphere immediately became rather strange.

Everyone knew that Madam Geng liked Jordan very much, so everyone kept praising him. But Quillon, who was the only other American at present and even had the same surname as Jordan, was so antagonistic toward Jordan.

This was Jordan’s first visit so no one felt it was their place to speak up for him.

And actually, to most of those at present, Jordan's sudden decision to follow the Geng family was indeed worthy of suspicion.

Quillon said, "You have the ability to kill Park Sang-jun and Miyamoto Chujiro on your own. You are also invulnerable, having been injected with the Mirakuru serum. Since you are so capable, why would you degrade yourself and seek the protection of the Geng family? Do you have ulterior motives?!"

Jordan frowned at Quillon. This fellow really knew how to cause trouble.

Madam Geng was not a fool. She was a woman who controlled the entire Geng family. Furthermore, she was the one who had led the Geng family to its high position, second only to the Rong family. She was definitely not a foolish lovesick woman.

She would not believe everything about Jordan just because she liked him.

She had her own judgment about Jordan's loyalty. She didn't need Quillon's reminder at all.

So Quillon's words made everyone feel very awkward.

Madam Geng did not say anything. She wanted to hear Jordan's answer.

Jordan answered. "After I killed Miyamoto Chujiro, Chairman Rong suggested that I be hunted down. If it was just me, I wouldn't care, but I still have family and friends. I can't protect them all and I don't want them to be harmed because of me."

Jordan's explanation was perfectly reasonable.

Many people knew that Jordan was a kind person. Although he had killed Park Sang-jun and Miyamoto Chujiro, that was only because they had forced him into a corner first.

Quillon was unconvinced. "Oh? Who are these family and friends you mentioned? Aren't your wives and children very safe?"

Jordan continued. "There are also people who aren't my wives and children. For example, there's a woman who looks very similar to my wife, Victoria. She took the fall for my wife for a criminal matter and helped her a lot. I don't want her to be implicated."

Beep.

Madam Geng held a remote control in her hand and pressed it. A holographic image suddenly appeared in the middle of the dining room.

It was the woman who looked like Victoria!

“That’s her, isn’t it?” Madam Geng asked.

Jordan was shocked. He did not expect Madam Geng to have already investigated everything about him. She even knew about this woman!

Jordan suddenly felt that he had underestimated Geng Anli!

Quillon clearly knew a lot about Jordan’s past too. He sneered. “You’re too soft-hearted! Why are you so grateful toward a despicable woman just because she took the fall for your wife? It’s only right for a lowly person to die for their master! Besides, she didn’t go to jail, right? I heard that this woman used to be a KTV hostess? Hehe, is the life and death of such a person worth your attention?”

Jordan glared at Quillon and continued. “Also, my wife, Victoria, has a younger sister called Emily...”

Beep.

Madam Geng pressed the remote again.

The image switched to Emily!

Emily’s photo was that of her in a flight attendant uniform.

Madam Geng asked, “Is that her? I quite like this girl. I like her looks. In my opinion, she’s prettier than her sister, Victoria.”

Quillon suddenly cut in. “Young Master Weilun, I also think that Emily is not bad. I think she’s very compatible with you! Do you want to call her over and get to know her?”

Looking at Quillon’s wicked smile, Jordan immediately understood that this b*stard wanted Geng Weilun to play with Emily!

How could a noble young master like Geng Weilun take a fancy to Emily, who had an ordinary background!

Geng Weilun rubbed his chin as he looked at Emily’s photo. “Yes, not bad. I like her looks too. Perhaps you Americans think that Hailey is the number one beauty, but I think Emily is prettier than her. Jordan, ask Emily to come here.”

“No!”

Jordan immediately rejected Geng Weilun's request.

"B*stard! How dare you reject Young Master Weilun's request! Jordan, know your place! Young Master Weilun is your master. You have to listen to all of his orders! Even if he wants your wife Victoria, you have to agree!" Quillon said loudly.

Jordan glared at Quillon, wishing that he could hammer him to death on the spot.

If not for him, Geng Weilun probably wouldn't be interested in Emily.

Once this kind of powerful young master became interested in a certain woman, he would not stop until he got her!

Seeing that Jordan was about to beat Quillon up, Geng Weilun hurriedly said, "Hey, don't say that. Jordan has found so much useful information for our Geng family and is our hero. How can I be so shameless as to ask for his wife?"

"However, Emily is only your sister-in-law and unmarried. With my status, it should be her honor that I fancy her, right? Jordan, why did you refuse?"

Jordan said, "Emily is my wife's younger sister. I treat her as family too. She's not a commodity. I will never allow anyone to hurt her!"

He did not hesitate to risk offending Geng Weilun in order to protect Emily! Also, Emily was not just Jordan's sister-in-law. She was also Jordan's woman...

Jordan had to admit that he had feelings for Emily!

He liked Emily too!

And he liked her not only because of her beauty or figure but also because Emily had given Jordan something which Victoria couldn't.

Victoria's first man was not Jordan. She was already 30 years old when he met her.

But Emily's first man was Jordan.

Victoria and Emily were biological sisters, so they naturally had many similarities. Therefore, sometimes, Jordan would treat them both as his wives. He would not allow anyone to touch them.

Some time ago, Emily had posted on her social media account that she had a boyfriend. Jordan couldn't deny that he was a little jealous.

After knowing that she was joking, he instantly felt much better.

Jordan would never interfere with Emily's freedom to date, have boyfriends and get married. Nevertheless... it could not be denied that he was a little possessive toward her!

Chapter 810: Capture Emily!

Jordan would protect Emily like he was protecting Victoria. He wanted to see her happy and would never allow a playboy like Geng Weilun to play with her feelings!

Seeing that Jordan cared so much about Emily, Madam Geng said, "Weilun, there are billions of women in this world. You can choose any one of them. Why must you choose Emily? Jordan has made great contributions to our family. This dinner is to welcome him. Don't upset one of our own."

Madam Geng still valued Jordan very much and cared about his feelings.

Geng Weilun's attitude towards Jordan had changed a lot. Although he was displeased, he acquiesced.

"Alright then, I won't touch Emily. Anyway, I think this girl is too chubby."

In the eyes of the Chinese, the sexy curves of Caucasian women were considered too chubby. To the Chinese, thin was beautiful.

Quillon was very unhappy. He didn't expect Madam Geng and Geng Weilun to care so much about this "servant's" opinion.

Refusing to back down, he continued. "Jordan, don't you have another sister-in-law who's a celebrity? I heard that she has a good figure and a pretty face. You won't mind if Young Master Weilun chooses her, right?"

Beep.

Madam Geng pressed the remote control again and Jenny's face appeared. There were two photos of her. One was of her before plastic surgery, and the other was of her after.

Jordan hasn't expected the Geng family to investigate so carefully. They even found out what Jenny looked like before her plastic surgery. He said to Geng Weilun. "Jenny is a vain woman. If she knew your identity, she would probably be very happy to date you."

Although both Jenny and Emily were Jordan's sisters-in-law, his attitude toward them was worlds apart.

Jordan was willing to protect Emily like he did Victoria, but he did not have much affection for Jenny. When he was first married to Hailey, Jenny often mocked Jordan. Although she later on treated Jordan very well and even expressed her love for him, that was only after she realized that Jordan was rich.

At the end of the day, Jenny was just like the rest of the Camden family. They only liked rich people.

If it was a man of Geng Weilun's status, Jenny would be all too eager for something to happen between them. There was no need for Jordan to prevent Geng Weilun from going after Jenny.

However, Geng Weilun shook his head after looking at the photo. "Her figure is quite sexy. Unfortunately, I don't like women who have had plastic surgery."

Geng Weilun did not like Jenny.

After two hours and three rounds of wine, Madam Geng looked slightly tipsy. She went over and placed her hand on Jordan's shoulder.

"You're almost done eating, right? This is your first time here today. Come, I'll show you around."

From Madam Geng's suggestive expression, everyone could tell that after eating and drinking to their heart's content, Madam Geng was going to have a little fun with Jordan, her new lover.

"Madam Geng..."

Quillon spoke up indignantly.

Madam Geng said, "Oh, Quillon, you haven't been home to see your parents for a long time, right? I don't need you these few days. You can go home and visit your family."

With that, she left, leading Jordan by the hand.

"Damn it! Damn it! Damn it!"

Quillon returned to his room and was so angry that he started trashing things.

"Mr. Quillon, please calm down."

A subordinate knelt in front of Quillon.

Quillon was Madam Geng's favorite gigolo. It could be said that he was also her favorite. He was also an ambitious man. Unwilling to just be a gigolo, he used his current status to rope in a group of subordinates with a certain level of strength.

"I can't let that brat Jordan snatch my position! I must expose his true colors and make him offend Madam Geng or Young Master Weilun! Tom, I order you to send someone to the US immediately and capture Emily. Young Master Weilun has taken a liking to her and I want to offer her to him!"

The southeastern region of the US.

In a luxurious resort, a pure and cute girl with fair skin, wearing shorts that revealed her long legs was drinking from a coconut and eating snacks. She was sitting cross-legged on the sofa and watching a movie.

This girl had soft, long hair that reached her shoulders. Her firm, smooth cheeks also confirmed that she was a young and natural beauty.

It was Emily!

"Sob sob sob, Kate Beckinsale is really too beautiful! When I'm 40 years old, I must take good care of myself and remain as beautiful as her!"

Emily looked at the elegant woman on the screen with envy and admiration.

She was watching the American action-comedy "Jolt".

"Sigh, it's all Victoria's fault for finding such an outstanding husband, causing my standards to be so high now. How can there be another Jordan in this world? Won't I be all alone until I die..."

Emily pouted with a melancholic expression.

At her age, she should be eager to go out on dates. She was so beautiful that it was too easy for her to attract men. However, after experiencing being with Jordan, Emily realized that she no longer liked other men.

Most of the time, Emily would silently reminisce about the time she spent with Jordan in the car...

Every time she thought about it, she felt very happy.

“Ah!”

Emily was so frightened that she scattered her snacks on the ground. She wanted to use the pillow as a weapon, but she felt that even if she risked her life, she probably wouldn't be able to defeat this man.

Hence, she placed the pillow on her lap to block the view of her beautiful legs. She did not want this intruder to have any wicked thoughts.

However, the man didn't do anything to Emily.

“Ms. Emily, a group of unknown people have suddenly turned up and they mean you harm. I've never seen their weapons before. I'm afraid I won't be able to protect you this time,” the man reported.

Emily sat on the sofa with a pillow. “You're an unknown person yourself. Who are you to say that about others?”

The man said, “Ms. Emily, actually, I've been secretly protecting you recently. I won't hurt you. If it weren't for today's sudden incident, I wouldn't have revealed myself and disturbed your vacation.”

Emily's eyes suddenly lit up. “Ah, did Jordan send you to protect me?”

The man paused for a moment. “Uh, we removed the person Mr. Jordan sent to protect you. I was sent by another person, who can be considered Mr. Jordan's friend.”

Emily was a little confused, but she felt that this man was not a bad person. He was with Jordan.

Emily smiled. “Okay then. Since bad people are coming now, quickly take me away!”

Chapter 811: Emily Arrives At The Geng Residence!

Emily quickly got up from the sofa barefooted and started packing her things.

“Wait for me. I want to get my bag and a dress I just bought.”

The man scratched his head and looked at the cute Emily, not knowing what to do.

“Alright, I'm done packing. Let's go!”

Emily walked over happily.

Smack!

The man gently thumped a spot on Emily's neck, and she fainted on the spot.

"I'm sorry, Ms. Emily. Master's orders are not to bring you to escape."

Eight hours later.

A plane landed in Suzhou where the Geng family lived.

Emily alighted from that plane!

Several Caucasian men escorted her into an unmanned car. Soon, Emily was brought to Quillon's room.

"Mr. Quillon, we have brought Emily Clarke!"

One of the men reported.

Quillon smiled and looked at Emily. He sized her up and realized that this girl was indeed delicate and cute. She was a rare gem.

"Are you Emily Clarke?" Quillon asked.

Emily shook her head. "No, you caught the wrong person. I'm not Emily Clarke. My name is Emma Clarke!"

Quillon said angrily, "B*tch! You're clearly Emily Clarke. I already have your photo, and you still want to deny it?"

Emily said, "Then you're the one who is really strange. Since you know that I'm Emily Clarke, why are you wasting your breath asking me again? Are you senile? You don't look that old."

Quillon didn't expect Emily to have such a sharp tongue. Not only was she not afraid, but she even dared to mock him!

"You're courting death! You wild girl, since I can't vent my anger on Jordan, I'll vent it on his sister-in-law first!"

Quillon reached out and was about to slap Emily!

However, Emily was quite agile. She retreated and dodged Quillon's attack.

Frustrated, Quillon moved closer to her and Emily reached out her right foot to trip him.

"OUCH!"

Quillon fell to the ground and cried out in pain.

"You know kung fu? Damn it, why wasn't it in the report about you!"

Quillon was very unhappy.

Emily crossed her arms and said mockingly, "Tsk, tsk, tsk. Sir, you're too weak. You can't even defeat a small girl like me. With your physique, you can't be a villain, understand? I advise you to be a good person."

"B*tch! I'll scratch your face and see if you still dare to mock me!"

It was true that Quillon only looked handsome and had little strength. He used to work out regularly, but after being under Madam Geng, he realized that he no longer had the energy to go to the gym.

But even when Quillon took out his knife, Emily stood there calmly without any fear.

Quillon frowned in disbelief. He thought to himself: 'That's not right. The information shows that Emily grew up in an ordinary family. Other than being an air stewardess, she doesn't have much experience in life. Logically speaking, she should be very afraid of me. Why is she so calm?'

Of course Quillon wouldn't really scratch Emily's face. He had brought her here to offer to Geng Weilun.

Geng Weilun already felt that Emily was too voluptuous and was only attracted to her face. He would not want her at all if her face was ruined.

"What's wrong? Are you afraid to attack?"

Emily even deliberately provoked Quillon to make a move.

Quillon threw away the knife and snorted. "Hmph, brat, I don't have time to teach you a lesson. You're going to be presented to the great Young Master Weilun. If you dare to treat Young Master Weilun with such an attitude later, you can wait for death!"

"Let's go, bring her to Young Master Weilun!"

Ding-dong.

“Who is it?”

“Young Master Weilun, it's me, Quillon.”

“Enter.”

Quillon brought Emily in with his subordinates.

At that moment, Geng Weilun was wearing his VR goggles and skiing in the virtual world.

They had to wait for a full 20 minutes before Geng Weilun took off his goggles.

Quillon hurried forward and said, “Young Master Weilun, I know that you have taken a fancy to Jordan's sister-in-law, so I sent someone to bring Emily Clarke here. Look!”

...

Geng Weilun looked in the direction of the door. There was indeed a pure and lovely young lady!

Initially, Geng Weilun thought that Emily was too plump from the photos. However, on closer inspection, he realized that her curves were sexy in real life.

“Yes, not bad, not bad at all. But what's wrong with you? Why did you bring Emily here? Didn't you hear what my mother said?” Geng Weilun reprimanded Quillon.

Quillon said, “Young Master, Madam Geng dotes on Jordan too much. She's even willing to ignore your preferences for him. I think that as a member of the Geng family, he should take the initiative to offer you whatever you like. He has no right to reject you!”

Geng Weilun was also displeased that Jordan had rejected him. He wasn't even asking for Lauren or Victoria. What right did he have to reject him? It was his sister-in-law's honor that he had taken a fancy to her!

“You're right. I don't have to care what a subordinate thinks!”

With that, Geng Weilun walked toward Emily. Quillon hurriedly reminded him, “Young Master, this wild girl has a very stubborn temper. She might not be too willing. Why don't we give her some medicine to make her more obedient?”

Geng Weilun was incensed. “B*stard, who do I think I am? Do I need to use such despicable methods to get a woman?”

Geng Weilun had always been arrogant. He firmly believed that he was the most respected person in the world. In the future, he would be the ruler of the world. Therefore, he would never use despicable methods to get someone.

If Geng Weilun liked a woman and that woman didn't reciprocate, he would just kill her!

With a smile on his face, Geng Weilun walked toward Emily and said gently, "Hello, beautiful Ms. Emily."

Unexpectedly, Emily didn't treat him like she did with Quillon. Instead, she looked at him with admiration. "Ah, you're so handsome. Are you the one who kidnapped me?"

Quillon was shocked. Emily called Geng Weilun handsome?

Why was her attitude towards Quillon so bad just now?

Was Quillon not as handsome as Geng Weilun?

This made him very unhappy!

Geng Weilun was very happy to be praised. "I'm sorry, sweetheart. I wasn't the one who kidnapped you. It was my subordinate who acted on his own accord. Did it scare you?"

Emily said, "They were so scary and fierce! Moreover, this person wanted to molest me just now."

Quillon was terrified. "Young Master, don't listen to her nonsense. I... I definitely didn't!"

Chapter 812: Something Happened To Emily!

Smack!

Geng Weilun slapped Quillon's handsome little face in fury.

"It's fine if you brought her here without permission, but you know that I fancy Ms. Emily, yet you dare to touch her? Have you forgotten your status?! Do you want my mother to personally order your execution?!"

Quillon knelt on the ground and said in anguish, "Young Master Weilun, I really didn't. Don't believe her. She wasn't like this just now..."

Emily continued to look at Geng Weilun with admiration. "You were so dashing when you hit him just now! You are so manly. I like men like you the most!"

"Is that so?"

Geng Weilun smiled smugly. He kicked Quillon.

“Argh!”

This kick was very powerful, and Quillon vomited blood.

“This damned Emily...”

Quillon knew that Emily was deliberately provoking Geng Weilun to attack him.

“The information on her is all wrong. It’s all f*cking wrong...”

Quillon blamed the Geng family for getting Emily’s information wrong. The report on her described her as an innocent and cute girl who was very easy to deal with. However, Quillon realized that this woman was simply vicious and sinister. She was not simple and cute at all!

Just two sentences from her were enough to have Quillon beaten up. This girl was definitely not naive!

“Wow, Mr. Weilun is so awesome!” Emily clapped again.

Geng Weilun asked Emily, “Do you already know my name?”

Emily was stunned for a moment before explaining seriously. “I heard him calling you Young Master Weilun, that’s why I know your name. But you are right, we haven’t been formally introduced!”

Geng Weilun took the initiative to extend his hand and said in a very gentlemanly manner, “Hello, Ms. Emily Clarke. Nice to meet you. My name is Geng Weilun.”

Emily also reached out happily to shake hands with him.

However, this was not just a simple handshake. After grasping Emily’s hand, Geng Weilun deliberately held it tightly, wanting to test her attitude towards him.

If Emily was anxious to pull her hand away, it meant that she was a little resistant to him.

But Emily did not do that. No matter what Geng Weilun did, she did not seem resistant.

Geng Weilun smiled. “Looks like we can become very good friends.”

Unexpectedly, Emily replied, “Just good friends? I want to be your girlfriend, Mr. Weilun. It’s best if I can marry you and be your wife!”

Geng Weilun was taken aback. He was still thinking about how to flirt with Emily, and didn’t expect her to be so direct. And she was so straightforward. She said that she wanted to marry him and become his woman!

“Hahahaha... alright, if you do well and you may have the opportunity, hahaha.”

Geng Weilun was delighted. Sleeping with Jordan’s beautiful sister-in-law was a good way to vent his frustrations.

Witnessing this scene, Quillon thought to himself: ‘Hmph, I didn’t expect this girl to be so proactive. I thought she was a pure and innocent woman! Hehe, Jordan, you care so much about your little Emily. If you know that she slept with someone else, your heart will ache, right? Don’t worry, I’ll tell you the good news soon!’

...

In Madam Geng’s room.

Geng Anli and Jordan had been intimate for a long time. Jordan had played along with her and grew to appreciate Madam Geng’s elegance and charm.

He felt that there was no need for Geng Anli to feel inferior about her age and appearance. Instead, he felt that the real Madam Geng was even more attractive than the so-called “Hollywood number one beauty” Marilyn Monroe.

While Geng Anli was putting her dress back on, Jordan came to a desk. He realized that there was a lot of white paper on the desk. The papers were all blank and stacked on the table.

Strangely, there were no pens on the table either.

“What are you looking at?”

Geng Anli had already gotten dressed. She walked over and gently stroked Jordan’s right ear with her right finger.

“Oh, nothing. Do you like to write? Or draw? Why are there so many blank sheets of paper here?”

Geng Anli leaned charmingly on the desk and asked, “Darling, are you trying to find out some secrets from me? Are you really here because you want to know our family secrets?”

Jordan quickly said, "No, Madam Geng. Do you doubt my intentions?"

Geng Anli said, "There's no need to get so anxious, dear. Even if you are, it doesn't matter. I won't be angry or punish you for it. In this world, everyone uses one another. I have what you need. That's why you're here. It's nothing new. Everyone gets what they want. You can make me happy and I can protect you from the Rong family. That's fair, isn't it?"

Jordan smiled. Geng Anli was indeed formidable. She was indeed the head of the second-ranked family after the Rongs. She was not a fool like the Miyamoto family.

It seemed that Geng Anli knew right from the start that Jordan was not sincere about following the Geng family.

Geng Anli continued. "I appreciate you helping me find out the secrets of the other families, but I'm sorry, I can't tell you our family secret I'm afraid you won't be able to find the answer from me."

Jordan nodded. "It's very normal. Everyone has secrets. I have secrets too. You don't know them either."

"Oh? What's your secret?" Geng Anli asked.

"Do you want to know? We can do an exchange. You go first," Jordan offered.

"Naughty brat, do you think our secrets can be exchanged one for one just like that?"

Geng Anli pinched Jordan's high nose bridge and smiled. "I have something on. I'm going out for a while. I'll look for you later."

"Bye."

Jordan waved goodbye. After Geng Anli left, he smiled and muttered to himself. "Geng Anli, it's true our secrets can't be exchanged one-for-one, but it's not because my secret can't compare to yours. On the contrary! How can your family secret be compared to mine!"

Jordan was a Deity, and could predict the future. He kept feeling that these blank white papers were very strange. They did not look like ordinary papers.

Jordan sat on the desk and tried to get a vision...

"I hope I can get a vision of the Geng family secret here..."

Jordan did not know what kind of vision he would get. In the end, he did not predict any secrets of the Geng family. Instead, he saw a shocking scene!

Geng Weilun, hugging a pure and lovely girl from behind.

And that girl was Emily!

Chapter 813: Let Go Of That Girl!

“What?”

Jordan stood up from his seat in shock.

“Why is Emily with Geng Weilun?! Did he kidnap her?”

Yesterday, Jordan refused to offer Emily to Geng Weilun. However, Geng Weilun was clearly attracted by Emily’s innocence and beauty. Perhaps he had secretly sent someone to kidnap her!

“Damn it, Geng Weilun. If you dare touch her, even your mother won’t be able to protect you!”

Jordan rushed out of the room anxiously. He quickly walked towards Geng Weilun’s wing of the huge residence. On the way, he met Quillon among some flowerbeds.

Quillon had deliberately hung around the area to bump into Jordan. When he saw him, he immediately went forward. “Jordan, I have something to tell you. Hehe.”

Jordan glanced at Quillon. “Go away. I don’t have time to talk nonsense with you now.”

Quillon wanted to tell him about Emily and provoke him into action. How could he let him leave just like that? With that, he grabbed Jordan’s sleeve, wanting to pull him back.

“F*ck you!”

Jordan suddenly swung his arm, causing Quillon to fall to the ground.

Quillon knew that Jordan’s body was very strong after being injected with the Mirakuru serum. An ordinary person like Quillon, who didn’t have any combat experience, could never stop Jordan.

However, Quillon only wanted to tell Jordan a piece of information. He could just use words.

Before Jordan got too far away, Quillon quickly shouted out, “Jordan! Don’t leave yet! Let me tell you a piece of good news. Your beautiful sister-in-law, Emily, is currently having a romantic time with Young Master Weilun in his room. Hahaha, guess what positions they will use?”

Jordan wanted to hurry over to Geng Weilun’s place as soon as possible and not be delayed by Quillon. However, Jordan stopped in his tracks when he heard Quillon’s words.

Jordan turned around and grabbed Quillon. “Why is Emily here? Who kidnapped her and brought her here? Was it you, you b*stard?!”

Quillon didn’t like being manhandled by Jordan. He tried his best to break free, but no matter how hard he tried, he couldn’t break free from Jordan’s grip.

Even so, Quillon remained very arrogant. “That’s right. I was the one who sent someone to bring Emily here to present her to Young Master Weilun. Tsk tsk tsk, your beloved sister-in-law is being played by Young Master Weilun now. Does your heart ache? It’s useless to feel heartache. As servants, we have to sacrifice everything to make our master happy. Jordan, are you used to being a young master? Have you not learned how to be a servant? Then you have to learn from me.”

Jordan was furious and punched him. “I’ll learn f*ck all from you!”

“Ah... you... you... how dare you hit me... I’m Madam Geng’s man. She likes my face the most. How dare you hurt my face...”

Quillon’s blood flowed as he shouted.

Jordan’s punch had basically rearranged his face.

Jordan was filled with rage. He had already seen the vision of Geng Weilun hugging Emily. He treated Emily as family and would never allow anyone to hurt her. But today, Emily had come to harm because of Quillon!

How could Jordan let him off!

Jordan grabbed Quillon’s neck and there was a cracking sound.

He killed Quillon on the spot!

Quillon’s eyes were filled with shock and disbelief. He had not believed that Jordan would dare to kill him just like that.

Killing Madam Geng’s gigolo at her own home.

“Anyone who offends the Deity will die!”

Jordan glanced at Quillon and didn't say anything else. He quickly hurried to Geng Weilun's room.

“Where does Geng Weilun live? Take me to him!”

As soon as he reached another wing of the residence decorated in a different style, Jordan saw Geng Weilun's subordinates and shouted at them.

A man stopped Jordan. “You can't enter Young Master Weilun's room!”

“Get lost!”

Jordan didn't care about Geng Weilun's status. Whoever bullied Emily would die!

Jordan pushed the door open and rushed in. The subordinates followed him in. However, after entering, everyone was surprised because there was no one inside.

A maid walked over. “Young Master Weilun and a Caucasian have already come out of their room. Didn't you see them?”

Jordan hurriedly asked, “Where did Geng Weilun bring that girl?”

The maid said, “They went to another room. But Young Master Weilun didn't bring her. She was the one leading him.”

Jordan: “???”

At this moment, in a colorful and unique room.

Emily and Geng Weilun were in the room. As soon as Emily entered, she looked around the room like she was searching for something.

Geng Weilun looked at Emily's charming back profile. “Ms. Emily, we'll rest in this room. How about that?”

Emily looked around and shook her head. “No, let's change rooms.”

Geng Weilun was exasperated. “Change again? You've already requested to change rooms 17 times! How many more rooms do you need to see before you're done? It's just a place to sleep. Do you have to be so picky?!”

Emily pouted coquettishly. "I want to choose a room I like to serve you properly, Mr. Weilun. Let's change to another room."

Geng Weilun had already lost all his patience after being tormented by Emily. His interest in her was almost gone. He said angrily, "What other room do you want to go to?"

Emily thought for a moment and said, "Why don't we go to your mother's room?"

Geng Weilun was dumbstruck. "Are you crazy?! How can I let you enter my mother's room?! It's even more impossible for us to fool around in there! Besides, Jordan is still there. Emily, you've created so much fuss. Are you trying to find Jordan for help?"

Emily smiled. "What for? Why would I ask him for help? I don't need his help."

Geng Weilun laughed. "You don't need his help? Hehe, I don't think so. You're a weak woman. If you want to resist me, how will you do it without his help? For example, if I force myself on you now, can you stop me?"

Emily gave a strange smile. "You can try."

In Geng Weilun's eyes, her strange smile looked provocative.

Geng Weilun pounced on her and hugged her from behind. "Yes, little baby, stop running around. Let's have fun in this room, haha."

Geng Weilun thought that he was about to succeed, but he did not notice Emily's calm and disdainful expression. In the next second, she gently raised her right hand and was about to make a move on Geng Weilun.

But a familiar voice came from outside.

Chapter 814: Emily Is Actually Shaun!

"Jordan?"

Stunned, Geng Weilun turned around. It was indeed Jordan.

Jordan's aura was astonishing. He had killed the heads of the two secret families, Park Sang-jun and Miyamoto Chujiro. His reputation alone was enough to put fear in Geng Weilun's heart.

“Jordan, you’re finally here!”

Emily pushed Geng Weilun away with a strength that he didn’t expect. She then threw herself into Jordan’s arms and kissed him.

Jordan: “Uh…”

Jordan felt a little awkward. Although the two of them had slept together before, Jordan hoped she would forget about it. He hoped that she would put it behind her and not be so intimate with him whenever they met.

Especially when there were outsiders present.

Geng Weilun was shocked when he saw that. “What… what is your relationship?!”

Jordan glared at Geng Weilun. “Weilun, I clearly told you not to have designs on Emily. Did you not understand what I was saying?! Let me tell you, Emily is not only my wife’s sister, she’s also my woman!”

“What?”

Geng Weilun was stunned. No wonder Jordan cared so much about Emily and refused to let him have her. However, the strangest thing was that Emily also had the same shocked expression as she stared at Jordan.

“Damn, are you serious?”

Geng Weilun was surprised to see this. “Jordan, did you sleep with Emily? How come it looks like she doesn’t know?”

Jordan also found it strange. Emily had been fully conscious when they were in the back of the Buick. She was fully aware of what had happened.

Jordan asked Emily, “Emily, how could you have forgotten? That day, you were drugged. We were in the car… you should remember.”

Emily looked confused. “I don’t know anything.”

Geng Weilun cursed. “Jordan, I thought you were some kind of hero. When you rejected Lota, I admired you for it. I thought you had your own principles when it came to women! But you didn’t even let your wife’s sister off. You raped her while she was drugged and unconscious!

“As a descendant of a secret family, you actually did such a despicable and embarrassing thing! I look down on you! Emily has been ruined by you. I’m not interested in her anymore!”

With that, Geng Weilun stalked out of the room.

Jordan was furious and tried his best to explain. “I didn’t! I didn’t make the first move! Come back!”

Jordan felt very exasperated. He asked Emily, “Emily, what’s wrong with you? Why did you pretend not to remember? You were the one who took the initiative that time!”

A smile was on Emily’s face. “Jordan, you were the one who took a fancy to your sister-in-law, so you took advantage of her when she was drugged, right? Hahaha, since you dare to do it, why don’t you dare to admit it?”

Hearing Emily’s way of speaking and noting her mannerism, he immediately felt that she was a little different.

“You’re not Emily!”

It was then that Jordan saw Shaun’s signature evil smile on Emily’s face!

That’s right. The “Emily” in front of him was actually Shaun. She had been controlled by Shaun ever since she was kidnapped.

Shaun smiled. “Deity Jordan, we meet again in this way. How is it? Are you satisfied with the passionate kiss I just gave you? I know you like your sister-in-law, but you’re too embarrassed to be intimate with her, so I deliberately took the initiative to kiss you using her body. How are you going to thank me?”

Jordan nearly puked when he thought about how that wretched Shaun had kissed him just now!

“You disgusting ahole, I’m going to beat you to death!”

Jordan grabbed “Shaun’s” neck.

Shaun said, “Be careful, Deity Jordan. Emily’s skin is so soft and tender. She won’t be able to withstand your strength. If you accidentally kill her, you’ll regret it.”

Jordan looked at Emily’s cute face. How could he bear to hurt her? He had no choice but to lower his hand.

Jordan said fiercely, “Shaun, you’ve caused so much trouble. I’ll definitely beat you up after I save Lauren!”

Shaun smiled. "No problem, Deity Jordan. After you successfully develop the mind-transplant procedure, I'll return Lauren to you. By then, you can hit me however you want. Anyway, I'll have already switched minds with Rong Bailun. I don't need my current body anymore, hahaha."

Jordan secretly sighed at how scheming Shaun was. It would probably be very difficult to take revenge on him.

"What are you doing here?" Jordan asked.

Shaun took two steps forward and said, "I called you, but you didn't answer. You didn't even reply to my messages. Coincidentally, your sister-in-law was going to be kidnapped, so I possessed her to come over to talk to you. Deity Jordan, research on the mind-transplant procedure is almost done. We only need another month or two to successfully develop it. Don't waste time. Come back with me. You don't want Lauren to stay alone in that old hut, right?"

Jordan felt guilty at the thought of Lauren.

After helping Shaun successfully develop his research and saving Lauren, Jordan would use his greatest effort to make up to her!

"I'm not here to play. I want to take the opportunity to see the secrets of the Geng family. Now, the secrets of nearly all the great families have been revealed. The Geng family is the only one I don't know yet."

Although he did not know the true secret of the Rong family, Jordan had already uncovered their "weather weapon".

However, Jordan knew nothing about the Geng family.

Shaun nodded. "Yes, I also want to know what the Geng family is researching. How was it? Did you gain anything? Did that old woman, Geng Anli, reveal anything to you when she was playing with you?"

Jordan rolled his eyes at Shaun and shook his head. "No, she knows that we're using each other. She will never tell me. However, I found some papers in her room. My intuition tells me that there's something wrong with them. They're definitely not ordinary papers."

Shaun thought for a moment and said, "It's probably just normal paper. Even if there's something special there, it's at most an insignificant invention of the Geng family. It's not a major secret. Jordan, let's not waste time here. Let's return to the US and do our big thing!"

Jordan considered it. After all, Shaun had personally come to urge him to go back. In addition, Shaun had helped Emily greatly by controlling her. Otherwise, Quillon's subordinates' might have already molested Emily on the plane ride here.

But with Shaun controlling her, they didn't have the chance.

"Alright, let's go!"

Just as Jordan was about to leave, an exquisite girl suddenly walked over angrily.

It was Geng Anli's daughter, Geng Xiqing.

Chapter 815: Geng Xiqing: You Have A Crush On Me?

As Geng Xiqing approached, the smell of Miss Dior Sweetheart perfume wafted over. Hailey liked this scent a few years ago, so Jordan was familiar with this perfume.

And the current Geng Xiqing was indeed similar to the Hailey from a few years ago. They were similar in terms of age and bearing.

This did not matter. Instead, Jordan was just worried that this girl would like him as much as Hailey did.

Geng Xiqing walked up to Jordan angrily and said with a resentful expression, "Jordan, I didn't expect you to be such a hypocritical and dirty person! I misjudged you! I thought you were the most courageous man in the eight great families!"

The story of Jordan fighting against the seven families alone had definitely roused Geng Xiqing's admiration.

Jordan looked innocent. "How am I hypocritical? How am I dirty?"

Geng Xiqing said angrily, "You said that you don't like young girls and like mature women, but you took advantage of your young sister-in-law? You drugged her and had sex with her. Aren't you hypocritical? Aren't you dirty? Hmph, you clearly like young girls like us, but you don't dare to admit it. You are clearly lying to get my mother's protection. You're so hypocritical!"

Jordan was speechless. "Did your brother tell you that? He doesn't understand anything and just spouted nonsense. It's not what you think."

Geng Xiqing crossed her arms and asked proudly, "Alright, tell me what happened. Also, what kind of girl do you like? How's your relationship with your two wives? Tell me the truth!"

Although Jordan wanted to tell her, he was put off by her arrogant attitude. It was as if she was the master asking a servant a question.

Jordan was a Deity. Why did he have to explain to her?

“Boring. Why should I tell you anything?!” Jordan did not intend to tell her.

“You...”

Geng Xiqing was about to flare up when Shaun suddenly looked at her with a wicked smile and asked gently, “You’re Madam Geng’s daughter, Geng Xiqing, right?”

Geng Xiqing didn’t even look at “Emily”. She said coldly, “You’re not from the eight great families. You have no right to talk to me.”

As the daughter of the Geng family, Geng Xiqing was very arrogant. She did not treat children from ordinary families as normal people. In their eyes, the people born in the eight great families were at the top of the pyramid. The others were at the bottom and belonged to the lower class.

Shaun naturally wouldn’t be angry over such a small matter. He turned to look at Jordan. “Jordan, is this the Ms. Geng Xiqing you have a crush on?”

Hearing this, Geng Xiqing’s arrogant body tensed up and her face turned slightly red.

Jordan knew that Shaun was up to no good again. He hurriedly said, “Sha... Emily, stop fooling around! When did I have a crush on her?”

Shaun smiled. “You just told me that you met a girl called Geng. She’s especially beautiful and cute. You even said that if she wasn’t Madam Geng’s daughter, you would have slept with her!”

“You b*stard!”

Jordan was furious. He grabbed “Shaun’s” arm and wanted to hit him.

When Geng Xiqing saw this, she quickly stepped forward to smack Jordan’s hand.

“Jordan, how could you hit a girl! Moreover, she didn’t do anything wrong. She just revealed your dirty thoughts! You’re not allowed to hit her. I like her courage!”

Geng Xiqing stood in front of “Emily” to protect her.

Shaun hurriedly pretended to be afraid and hugged her. "Xiqing, I'm so scared. I just wanted to let you know the truth, but Jordan hit me."

Jordan was speechless when he saw this.

This wretched Shaun actually took this opportunity to take advantage of Geng Xiqing! But Geng Xiqing didn't feel like she was being taken advantage of at all. She even treated "Emily" as her sister and protected her.

Geng Xiqing said, "Alright, Jordan. You actually want to sleep with me. I'll go tell my mother now. Hmph!"

With that, Geng Xiqing walked out. She thought that Jordan would chase after her in fear and beg her not to tell Madam Geng.

But he didn't.

"Strange, why didn't Jordan follow me?"

Geng Xiqing really went to the laboratory to find Geng Anli.

"Xiqing, what are you doing here?"

Geng Anli was puzzled when she saw Geng Xiqing.

Geng Xiqing played with her hair like a young girl in love, looking a little shy. "Uh, I missed you, so I came over to see you."

She had no intention of telling her mother that Jordan liked her.

However, at this moment, a subordinate suddenly stepped forward and reported, "Madam, Jordan has just left by plane."

When Geng Xiqing heard this, she immediately became agitated. "What? He left? How could this baddie leave just like that? Mom, quickly get someone to stop him! He's only served you for a day. How is that enough?!"

On the other hand, Geng Anli was calm. She said, "He called me just now and told me about this. Weilun captured Emily. So Jordan is displeased and wants to send her back. Xiqing, you have to remind your brother not to provoke Jordan again. Fortunately, nothing happened today. If your brother really slept with Emily..."

Geng Xiqing snorted. "So what if she slept with him? Weilun is from a secret family, and Emily is just a commoner. It's her blessing that my brother likes her. Besides, Jordan is just a servant of our family. What can he do? Does he dare to mess around in our territory?"

Geng Anli stroked Geng Xiqing's short hair and smiled. "Child, you underestimate Jordan's ability. If he was really angry, we would have to detonate all the paper in this room just to stop him."

The two of them looked at the endless sheets of white paper in the laboratory.

Soon, these were transported to an unmanned truck.

One of his subordinates asked, "Madam, for this batch, are we still sending the highest number to China, second to the US and third to England?"

Geng Anli thought for a moment. "We've already delivered a lot to the US. Let's not arrange a delivery to them for this batch."

"Yes!"

Chapter 816: The Last Step!

Jordan said, "I don't want you to waste my precious time anymore! These days, for the sake of your lousy procedure, I can't do anything!"

Shaun smirked. "Oh, Deity Jordan is angry. Hurry up and give him a cup of tea to calm him down."

The beauty walked to Jordan's side.

"Deity Jordan, please have some tea," the woman said gently.

Jordan said indifferently, "No need."

Jordan looked at Shaun. "This woman seems to have been with you for a few months, right? During this period of time, I've been working hard with your research team. Meanwhile, you've been having fun with beauties every day. Hmph."

Shaun hugged the woman's waist and said, "Haha, you can have her if you want."

Jordan rolled his eyes. Such a woman would never catch his fancy.

Shaun said, "Don't underestimate her. Her name is Paris Gildon. She used to be a celebrity in the entertainment industry and was quite famous. She had potential and could have become an A-list celebrity. Unfortunately, her nude photos were leaked out. Now, everyone in the US has seen her naked. She has no chance of becoming an A-lister anymore."

After Shaun's description, Jordan seemed to have some impression of her. There was a time when she was an online trending topic.

There were very strict requirements for female celebrities in the entertainment industry. Once tainted by such a scandal, it would be very difficult for members of the public to accept her, and directors would never dare to cast her anymore.

If this Paris Gildon had been ostracized by the entertainment industry for other reasons, she could become popular again with Shaun's help.

However, with something like this, no one could change what had already happened. Even Jordan, a Deity, could not change the past.

At this moment, Paris Gildon suddenly knelt in front of Jordan. "Deity Jordan, please develop the mind-transplant procedure quickly so that I can return to the top of the entertainment industry!"

Jordan was shocked. "What does the mind-transplant procedure have to do with your return to the entertainment industry? Wait a minute, are you thinking of..."

Shaun smiled and hugged her. "That's right. I'm going to let her swap minds with one of the most popular female celebrities in the entertainment industry. I'll help her fulfill her dream and make her the most popular female celebrity in the entertainment industry!"

"You're crazy!" Jordan shouted angrily.

The female celebrities in the entertainment industry had gotten to where they were today because of hard work and making the best of opportunities. Why should they be sacrificed for her?

Jordan got angry and didn't feel like continuing the mind-transplant procedure research when he thought about how Shaun would use it to do bad things.

Shaun smiled. "Deity Jordan, let's talk about this later. We've already wasted a lot of time because of your little detour. The research team is waiting for you. Go over quickly!"

Just like that, three months passed.

From winter to early summer.

The mind-transplant procedure had also progressed from about 40% to 80% and then to 90%.

They were only one step away from success!

However, Jordan did not get to feel the joy of reuniting with Lauren. Every night when he went back to rest, he would smoke non-stop on the balcony.

It was the same tonight.

“Sigh...”

Jordan looked at the night sky and exhaled a mouthful of smoke. His thoughts were still troubling him.

“The mind-transplant procedure will be successful soon, but I can’t let Shaun have this technology just like that! Shaun is a ruthless person. If he has this technology, who knows how many innocent people will die! Especially if he succeeds in switching minds with Rong Bailun and becomes the head of the Rong Bailun family. The entire world will probably be under his control! This is too terrifying!

“But if I don’t help Shaun, I won’t be able to save Lauren... I have to think of a way. I have to get Shaun to release Lauren. I have to take the initiative and cannot let him just do whatever he wants.”

Soon, a few hours passed.

“Yes, I can tamper with the stabilizer!”

The stabilizer was used during the mind-transplant procedure. In order to stabilize the body after the procedure, a large number of injections were needed. It was something necessary for the mind-transplant procedure.

Jordan suddenly thought of something. He could tamper with the stabilizer and add some drugs that would have a delayed detrimental effect.

This way, by the time Shaun or his men start to feel the effects, Jordan would be the only one who could save them!

“I have to develop the poison and antidote, and quietly add them into the stabilizer. I can’t let Shaun’s research team discover them. It will be a major project. I have to start building my own team.”

There was no time to lose. Thinking of this, Jordan immediately ran to look for Shaun.

Jordan knew the location of Shaun’s room, and the latter’s subordinates did not dare to stop him. Jordan pushed the door open and entered.

Unexpectedly, Shaun was currently being intimate with Paris Gildon.

Jordan averted his eyes when he realized what they were doing. But Paris Gildon didn't feel embarrassed at all. She adjusted her clothes and walked over warmly. "Deity Jordan, you're here. Please sit."

Jordan looked at her and realized that she was smiling happily.

"You're smiling so happily. Have you already thought of who you want to swap minds with?" Jordan asked.

Paris Gildon smiled. "Yes, I want to swap minds with the A-list celebrity, Liza Shelby. Hehe, actually, my top candidate is Jenny. She has participated in a variety show and a period drama. She's very popular now. Moreover, she's young and has a good figure. She will definitely be the most popular female celebrity in the entertainment industry in the future. However, Master Shaun said that Jenny is your wife's younger sister and can't be touched."

Shaun chimed in. "How can I allow anything to happen to Deity Jordan's family and friends? Don't worry, no matter who it is, it won't be someone you know."

Jordan was very angry. "Even if I don't know Liza Shelby, I won't allow you to swap minds with her! She's well and alive. What right do you have to do that to her?!"

Seeing this, Shaun coaxed Jordan. "Alright, alright, alright. I won't allow her to swap with Liza Shelby. I won't hurt Liza Shelby, alright? Anyway, you came to find me for something?"

"I miss my son. I want to go to Hawaii," Jordan said.

...

Indeed, Jordan's child and Hailey's family were currently in Hawaii on vacation.

"What? You want to visit your son at this critical time? Stop fooling around, Deity Jordan. The mind-transplant procedure is already at 90%. There's only one last step left. How can you leave now?!" Shaun was anxious.

Chapter 817: Shaun: You're My Daddy!

Jordan said, "Shaun, I'm not your tool. I'm not a machine that works endlessly. Even if the progress has reached 99%, no one can stop me if I want to leave!"

Paris Gildon had a sweet appearance and a gentle voice. She held Shaun's hand and said, "Master Shaun, Deity Jordan has worked so hard these past three months. He's been doing research here every day. Let him go home and take care of his child. Let him relax a little."

Shaun also knew that he could not offend Jordan at the critical moment. Therefore, Shaun softened his tone and smiled. "Paris is right. Deity Jordan, you haven't seen your child for so long. You should go back and visit him. I'll get someone to send you over!"

"No need! I can take the plane myself!"

Jordan glared at Shaun and turned to leave.

When he arrived in Hawaii, Jordan first went to the Begonia Bay Villa District where Hailey was staying.

This was a holiday resort. There were hundreds of villas here, and the environment was very good.

When Jordan first went to Begonia Bay to settle Hailey and her family there, he secretly bought the villa next to Hailey's. He gathered Dragon and the Steele family research team to secretly settle there.

"Hubby, you're finally here to see us! Look at our baby. He's grown so much. Look, his hair has grown longer. Baby, say Daddy."

Hailey happily went to Jordan, carrying their one-year-old baby.

Jordan took the child and was very happy. He thought to himself: 'Child, you're living a miserable life now. I don't dare to let you travel around. I swear that when you grow up, you can go anywhere in the world. No one will dare to stop you!'

For the sake of the child's health and safety, Jordan ordered Hailey to stay in the vicinity of the villa and not come into contact with strangers.

Jordan said to Hailey, "From today onwards, I want to stay here. Prepare a room for me."

Jordan knew that Shaun must be secretly monitoring him. Therefore, he could not stay in the same place as the research team, lest Shaun discovered his plan.

It was very reasonable for Jordan to stay in Hailey's villa and would provide a cover.

Of course, Hailey was very happy. "Really? That's great. There's no need to prepare a room. We can just stay in the same room."

Jordan snorted. "Stay in the same room? Have you forgotten what I said? We're not husband and wife, and you're no longer my woman. If we stay together, what will Lauren and Victoria think?"

Hailey said indignantly, "Lauren has been locked up for so long. I don't know what she looks like now. She's definitely not as beautiful as me. As for Victoria, hehe, Hubby, there's something I don't know if I should tell you!"

Jordan retorted. "I don't want to hear anything from your mouth. Stop talking."

Hailey stomped her feet in anger, but she did not dare to provoke Jordan.

That night, while everyone was asleep and the lights in the villa were turned off, Jordan put on his Invisibility Cloak and quietly went to the villa next door.

The invisibility cloak was to prevent Shaun from discovering him.

"Greetings, Master!"

"Greetings, Master!"

When Dragon and the scientists saw Jordan appear out of thin air, they all knelt down as if they were greeting a god.

Jordan nodded at everyone and gestured for them to get up.

"Everyone, I believe everyone knows that I'm helping that demon Shaun develop his mind-transplant procedure. I have to admit that Shaun's research team is very strong. With our nearly half a year of cooperation, the mind-transplant procedure has been progressing rapidly. Now, development has already reached 90%. I'm afraid it will only take another couple of days for the research to be completed!"

The scientists all exclaimed.

These were all outstanding talents in the top academic circles. They had some understanding of things like mind-transplant and felt that this was a great breakthrough invention for mankind.

"Master is still the powerful one. Shaun failed to have any breakthrough in his research for decades. Master only helped them for a few months and they finally succeeded. However, this kind of surgery is too terrifying. In addition, Shaun has evil intentions. I believe that after the mind-transplant procedure succeeds, there will be endless trouble!"

Jordan nodded. "You're right. I don't want to commit this sin against all of mankind either. I definitely can't let Shaun do whatever he wants. He can casually swap minds with others and trample on their dignity and bodies. Therefore, I've decided to tamper with the stabilizer used in the mind-transplant procedure to control Shaun."

When everyone heard this, they started discussing it.

“It’s not difficult to add something like poison. We’re all elite experts here and can make it very quickly. The difficult thing is not to be discovered by Shaun’s team.”

“That’s right. I’ve interacted with the researchers from Shaun’s team. They are all top-notch talents. They will definitely check carefully to ensure that there are no mistakes before administering anything.”

“Not only that, even if we can deceive his team, we still have to make this poison fuse with the stabilizer. It’s best if its effects are delayed. If the test subject dies immediately after being injected, Shaun would never inject it into himself.”

Jordan nodded. “That’s right. Before Shaun undergoes the mind-transplant procedure, he will definitely test it on at least 10 other people first. He will only do it after ensuring that there are no adverse risks. Everyone, we have to make sure that nothing goes wrong. Moreover, we have to hurry. Shaun is impatient and won’t give us much time.”

“Yes, Master!”

Just like that, a month passed.

Ring ring.

At nine in the morning, Jordan’s phone rang.

It was Shaun.

During the month in Hawaii, Shaun called Jordan almost every morning. In the first few days, he called to say hello and even pretended to assure Jordan that there was no need to rush back, that Jordan could stay in Hawaii a little longer to play with his child.

A week later, Shaun started asking when Jordan would be back.

And more recently, he had been urging Jordan like crazy to come back.

“Hello.”

Jordan picked up the call. If Lauren wasn’t in Shaun’s hands, he wouldn’t have picked up.

“Deity Jordan, it’s time to come back! Everyone is waiting for you! You have accompanied your child for a whole month. Aren’t you tired of seeing him? Come back and see me! I’m so miserable!”

Jordan replied, "Why should I go back to see you? You're not my son!"

Shaun immediately shouted, "Daddy! Daddy Jordan! Can I acknowledge you as my father! Please come and see your poor son!"

Shaun was willing to throw away his dignity for his mind-transplant procedure.

It was no wonder he was in such a hurry. There was only one last step before the mind-transplant procedure was successful. He had been looking forward to it for decades. Just as he was about to succeed, Jordan abandoned the work and ran away. Who wouldn't be anxious?

Jordan replied, "How ugly must the woman be to bear a child like you! Don't bother me! I'll go back when I am ready!"

Chapter 818: Jenny's Boyfriend!

Jordan hung up right away.

Before he could successfully develop the poison for the stabilizer, Jordan would never return. This was because once he helped Shaun complete the mind-transplant procedure, Jordan would no longer be useful to him.

He had to hold back for now so that he could control Shaun in the future.

At this moment, Hailey walked over in a white tank top and a pair of white shorts.

In the month that he had spent with Hailey in the villa, she changed to a different outfit every day. 30 days, 30 different outfits. Sometimes, she would change two or even three times a day. Jordan finally saw how much clothing she had.

Hailey was probably doing this for Jordan.

Over the last month, Hailey had been very sensible and obedient. She knew that Jordan wouldn't listen to her, so she didn't provoke him or talk about her feelings to him. She seemed to be getting increasingly confident, especially when she mentioned Lauren and Victoria. No one knew where her confidence came from.

Hailey had the first mover's advantage. She had gotten Jordan earlier than Lauren and Victoria. However, she ruined her good luck, and now, she couldn't compare to the two women who came later.

Hailey walked over and said gently, "Hubby, Elle called just now. She said that she and her boyfriend are coming to Hawaii tomorrow and want to visit us."

During this period, Jordan heard from Hailey that her younger cousin, Elle, who was also a celebrity who went by the name Jenny, had a boyfriend. This boyfriend was a rich second-generation heir. He had helped her a lot in the entertainment industry and given her many resources, springboarding her fame and success.

But Jordan did not care about this woman at all. Whether she found a boyfriend or not was not worth mentioning to Jordan.

Jordan said indifferently, "Jenny can come, but her boyfriend can't. Outsiders are not allowed to enter this place."

Jordan's son lived here. How could he let outsiders visit?

He had killed Park Sang-jun and Miyamoto Chujiro. The two secret families had many subordinates. Perhaps the remaining underlings of the two families might try to sneak in and avenge them.

Hailey said, "Yes, I know you won't allow it, so I told them already. Her boyfriend said that he wants to treat us to a meal outside. Will you come?"

"No, you're Jenny's cousin, but I'm not her in-law. I have no reason to go."

Jordan did not acknowledge Jenny as his sister-in-law at all. Therefore, whether she became even more popular in the future or married and had children, it had nothing to do with Jordan.

"Okay, okay. I'll go by myself tomorrow."

Hailey had become especially sensible now. If Jordan said no, she wouldn't insist.

Jordan liked this form of interaction.

The next day, a Bentley drove along the road.

The sunlight here was very dazzling and the scenery very beautiful. A young man and woman sat inside the luxury car.

The woman was the popular female celebrity Jenny. Head bent over, she was playing with her phone, reading her fan comments.

"Honey, I love you! Jenny, you're the number one beauty across a thousand years!"

“Woooo, I want to marry you!”

“Ahhh, Jenny is so beautiful. Her figure is superb!”

Fans who posted these comments were actually all women. The men would send her private messages, and some even sent her all kinds of vulgar photos. However, Jenny found them very interesting and was used to it.

At this moment, a young man in his early 20s reached out to ruffle Jenny’s freshly-dyed pink hair. He placed his other hand on her thigh. Jenny did not react and continued to play with her phone.

Clearly, the two of them had an intimate relationship and had already slept together.

The young man looked at Jenny’s side profile and figure and praised, “Jenny, your face is really beautiful. I can’t tell that you’ve had plastic surgery before.”

Jenny grinned. “It’s all thanks to my brother-in-law who gave me a bottle of medicine. After I applied it, any traces of plastic surgery completely disappeared. It’s awesome!”

To the eight great families, it was too easy to develop a medicine that could erase all traces of plastic surgery.

Jordan happened to know that someone in the Geng family had created this, so he asked for a bottle and gave it to Jenny.

This was because he knew that many people on the internet were blasting Jenny, saying that she was a plastic surgery freak. It was obvious that she had undergone plastic surgery and they posted all sorts of insulting comments, such as claiming that she was uglier than their grandmother without plastic surgery.

It couldn’t be helped. The more popular a celebrity became, the more anti-fans they would have. Ever since Jenny used the medicine Jordan gave her, there were fewer people scolding her online.

The young man frowned. “What exactly does your brother-in-law do? I’ve never heard of this kind of medicine. How did he get it?”

Jenny’s eyes lit up at the mention of Jordan. “My brother-in-law is the most powerful man in the world! He is omnipotent!”

“Hmph, I know he’s your first man. But you don’t have to be so obsessed with him!”

The young man was a little jealous. He moved his hands away from Jenny’s body, looking a little jealous.

Jenny hurriedly put down her phone and kissed the man. "My darling Xavier, don't be angry. I'm your girlfriend now."

The young man's name was Xavier Show. As his name suggested, he liked to show off because he had a very powerful father.

Xavier said, "Hmph, it's good that you know. Maybe your brother-in-law is a little capable, but compared to my father, your brother-in-law is just a piece of trash, a commoner! Who is my father? My father is a war hero! He has fought on the battlefield and won many honors!"

Jenny quickly humored him. "Yes, yes, yes. Your father is so awesome. I want to be your father's daughter-in-law too!"

Xavier smiled and pinched Jenny's chin. "Why don't you give birth to a child for me first? That will be more of a guarantee."

"You're so annoying." Jenny pushed him away coquettishly.

Two hours later, at the most luxurious restaurant in Hawaii. Xavier had invited Hailey over for a meal.

The moment he saw Hailey, Xavier couldn't take his eyes off her. Although Jenny had undergone plastic surgery and there were no signs of it, she still couldn't compare to Hailey in terms of looks.

Hailey was simply too beautiful. She had the most beautiful face in the world!

"Hai... Hailey..."

Xavier suddenly became a little wooden.

Jenny introduced them. "Sis, let me introduce you. This is Xavier."

"Hello, Xavier. Welcome to Hawaii." Hailey took the initiative to extend her hand.

Xavier quickly shook her hand and introduced himself. "Hello Hailey. I'm Xavier Show, the son of John Show, a war hero! My father has defeated and killed countless enemies on the battlefield. He has contributed greatly to the country and holds an extraordinary status!"

Chapter 819: Why Should I Be Jealous?

Hailey couldn't help giggling. This was the first time she had seen someone introduce their father instead of themselves.

Other than his father, there was probably nothing worth mentioning about such a person.

Hailey had seen people like Martin Howard, Jordan and members of the eight great families. It could be said that she had seen all the big shots in the world. However, she was still polite and acted very amazed. "Wow, so you're the son of a war hero. My cousin is really lucky to have such a great boyfriend."

After everyone sat down, Xavier said to Hailey, "Hailey, I heard that your husband is also a rather capable person. My father likes talented people. In the future, if Jenny marries me, we'll be a family. How about this? To show my sincerity, I'll let your husband go to the battlefield and work for my father. I promise that after two years under my father, he will definitely achieve success and become famous. He will be extraordinary!"

Hailey nearly burst out laughing at this.

Let Jordan work under Xavier's father?

He did not know Jordan's identity at all. Jordan was a thousand times more capable than Xavier's war hero father! He had no idea that the battles his father had experienced were just small skirmishes in the eyes of the eight great families!

The military power of the eight great families could easily sweep them away like a gust of wind.

Hailey smiled. "Xavier, thank you for your kind intentions, but it's impossible for my husband to go."

"Why? Not everyone has the opportunity to work under my father!" Xavier exclaimed.

Hailey continued smiling. "Xavier, don't blame me for being too direct. Jordan probably wouldn't think much of being your father's subordinate. In fact, he might not even accept your father as his subordinate."

"What?"

Xavier was stunned. Was Jenny's brother-in-law so arrogant?

'Damn it, what does he do? He's so arrogant! And he also stole my girlfriend's first time. I must find him and teach him a lesson!'

Xavier really liked Jenny. He wasn't just fooling around with her. He wanted to marry her. He knew Jenny's past like the back of his hand. He knew the story of Jenny and Jordan.

The more Xavier knew about Jordan, the more he felt that this man was very powerful. And so, he was very eager to see with his own eyes if he was really that amazing.

After that, the three of them didn't talk about this anymore and had a pleasant meal.

Once the meal was finished, Jenny stood up eagerly. "Sis, I miss my nephew so much. Let's go home first. I want to see him!"

Jenny and Hailey were very close to each other now. They would video chat with each other every few days and Jenny would see Jordan's son then.

Previously, the two cousins had been at loggerheads for many years as they fought over the Camden family assets. However, after meeting Jordan and encountering so many big shots, they realized how wide the outside world was and how narrow-minded they had been.

Now, the two of them had changed. They would no longer argue over the smallest matters, so their relationship improved.

Hailey nodded. "Yes, my baby misses you too, haha."

Unexpectedly, Xavier made a request. "I want to see your son too. I even brought a bracelet for him."

Hailey rejected him. "Xavier, thank you for your kind intentions, but my husband said that he won't let strangers into the house. You can come to my house after you get married."

With that, Jenny left with Hailey.

"Damn it!"

Xavier angrily pushed the plates on the table to the ground.

"What's so amazing about Hailey's husband?! My family is the one who doesn't allow outsiders to enter. What right does he have to imitate my father?! He doesn't have my father's achievements! Damn brat, I will definitely force you to show yourself!"

Hailey brought Jenny to the villa in Begonia Bay.

Jordan would spend the daytime at Hailey's villa as he knew that Shaun was monitoring him.

Seeing Jenny enter, Jordan turned around. He felt that Jenny looked very different from before.

Previously, when she was still Elle, she was unruly and willful, fighting with her sister over everything. Now that she had become a celebrity with millions of fans, she had become gentler, more gracious and more beautiful...

Sometimes, Jordan would also read her fans' comments online. Many people dreamed of coming into contact with Jenny, even if it was just shaking hands with her. If they knew that Jordan had already taken away Jenny's first time, they would definitely be envious.

"Brother-in-law!"

Jenny called out when she saw Jordan.

Jordan immediately said, "I'm not your brother-in-law, and your cousin is not my wife. We don't have that kind of relationship. You can just call me Jordan."

Jenny knew that Jordan had not forgiven Hailey. The two of them had gotten married because they had no choice. He was living here now for the sake of his child.

So Jenny immediately changed her greeting. "Jordan, long time no see. How are you?"

Jordan nodded. "I'm fine. You've changed a lot. I haven't seen you for a few months and you've become a big star. You're the most popular celebrity in the entire country now, right? You are on the list of trending searches every few days. I heard that you have a boyfriend? If your fans know about this, they won't be able to take it."

Jenny and Xavier's relationship was obviously private and a secret. It couldn't be revealed to the public.

Jenny asked, "What about you, Jordan? How did you... react when you found out that I have a boyfriend?"

Hailey was also present so she was too embarrassed to ask Jordan directly.

Actually, she wanted to ask if Jordan was dismayed that she had a boyfriend.

But Jordan looked nonchalant. "Why should I have a reaction?"

It was obvious that Jordan had no feelings for Jenny.

Jenny was a little disappointed. It was said that men wouldn't cherish you after having you. But they would start to regret it after losing you and seeing you in the arms of another man.

She wanted to make use of this logic to provoke Jordan, but unfortunately, he remained indifferent. After all, Jenny was not like Hailey, who had been Jordan's wife for three years. Therefore, there was no real sense of nostalgia.

Half an hour after Jenny arrived at the villa, Xavier also arrived at the entrance in a Bentley.

"Hmph, this should be Hailey's home. You won't let me in? My father has so many military accolades. There is no place in the US where I can't enter!"

Chapter 820: Your Father Is My Subordinate!

Xavier wanted to barge in and see what kind of superman Jenny's brother-in-law was!

However, the moment he got out of the car and approached the entrance of the villa, two men appeared out of nowhere and grabbed him.

"This is a private residence. You are not allowed to approach!"

The two men obstructed Xavier.

They were Jordan's subordinates. This was where Hailey and her son with Jordan lived. No one could enter.

Xavier was shocked because just a second ago, he didn't see anyone nearby at all. These two people were too fast. However, Xavier had already expected that there would be guards here.

Previously, when Jenny told Xavier that she had lost her virginity to Jordan in South Korea, she mentioned that Jordan had a group of subordinates who killed the president of a bank in South Korea.

To be honest, Xavier also felt that Jordan had guts. He actually dared to be so arrogant in a foreign country.

Xavier also wanted to be like this. Unfortunately, his father had strict orders not to allow him onto the battlefield, so he could only be a rich second-generation heir who did nothing all day.

Puffing up his chest, Xavier said to the two of them, "Hehe, you're Hailey's husband's subordinates, right? I'm not an outsider. I'm Jenny's boyfriend. Your master and I will be working together in the future. Do you understand?"

The two of them ignored him. "Without Master's permission, it's useless no matter how close you are. Leave immediately!"

"B*stards! How dare you use such an attitude on me? Do you know that I'm... ouch!"

Xavier was thrown out before he could finish speaking.

"Damn it... damn it, you guys don't take me seriously at all. You're not the only one with subordinates. I have them too!"

Xavier was furious. He immediately called his two bodyguards and shouted proudly, "These two are men who have been on the battlefield with my father! They are one of the top 10 professionals under my father. You're finished! Black Tiger, Scorpion, attack!"

The two tall and strong men with the code names Black Tiger and Scorpion looked like they really knew how to fight. They charged fiercely at Jordan's subordinates.

Unexpectedly, there was no need for both of Jordan's subordinates to fend them off. Within five seconds, the one standing in front immediately beat up the two "professionals", Black Tiger and Scorpion, until those two could not even get up from the ground.

"What? How can... this be!"

Xavier was so frightened that his face turned pale. He couldn't believe that Jenny's brother-in-law's subordinates were actually so powerful!

Xavier was indeed a little unlucky. One of the men assigned to protect Jordan and his son was second only to Dragon.

And the other had been injected with serum...

It was like an adult beating up a child.

"B*stards! How dare you hurt my subordinates! Do you know who they are?!"

Xavier continued to shout.

Jordan's subordinate began to get impatient and kicked Xavier away again.

"If you don't get lost, you'll die!" Jordan's subordinate warned Xavier.

How could Xavier let this go? He couldn't defeat them, so he could only shout, "Hailey's husband, come out! Come out if you have the guts! Jenny, call your brother-in-law out. I want to settle a score with him!"

Xavier's shouting alarmed Jordan and the others. Soon, Jordan, Hailey and Jenny walked out together.

"What happened?" Jordan asked.

Jordan's subordinate hurriedly bowed and reported. "Master, this person said that he's your brother-in-law and has been trying to barge in. He refuses to leave. We have already been very polite."

If Xavier had not claimed to be Jordan's brother-in-law, they would have already hauled him far away.

Xavier immediately walked over to Jordan. "Kid, you're Jenny's brother-in-law and Hailey's husband? Alright, you're quite arrogant. I'm Xavier Show. My father is the war hero John Show. Just now, your subordinates injured my father's men. Do you know the trouble you are in? Apologize to me now!"

Jordan sneered. "Apologize to you?"

Xavier said, "Hmph, if it weren't for the fact that we're connected, I would have skinned you alive! Who am I? I'm the son of the war hero John Show! Do you know how much my father has contributed to the country?!"

Jordan was actually quite curious about Xavier's background now.

In fact, Jordan was also a person who had contributed greatly to the country. He also wanted to know if Xavier's father was really a national hero. If Jenny could marry into such a family, it would definitely be a huge gain.

However, Jordan believed that this kid was exaggerated. Within seconds of their first meeting, he had already mentioned his father twice. He was most likely a liar.

Jordan picked up his phone and called Lionel.

"Captain Lionel."

"Mr. Jordan, at your command!"

"Does our country have a war hero called John Show? Apparently, he has contributed a lot to our country and received many military honors."

Lionel was slightly confused. "War hero? I do know a John Show. He did serve in war zones previously but he has since returned to the country and been transferred to the Black Ops Team. He's working under me."

Jordan smiled. "Oh, I see. Is he with you now?"

"He's right beside me! Do you want to talk to him?" Lionel asked.

Jordan said, "Change our call to a video call."

"Hey, is this your father?" Jordan asked Xavier.

Xavier looked disdainful. "Do you know who my father is? How can a commoner like you contact him on the phone? Oh my god, Dad!"

Xavier didn't believe it at first, but when he looked at the video, it was really his father.

When John saw Jordan, he knelt down on the spot. "Greetings, Mister..."

"Call him Sir," Lionel reminded John. As there were outsiders present, he could not let them know Jordan's identity.

In reality, commoners were not allowed to casually name-drop people with truly high statuses like Jordan.

Therefore, when Jordan heard Xavier name-dropping his father so frequently, he knew that his claims were most likely exaggerated.

"Greetings, Sir!" John knelt on the ground.

Xavier was completely dumbfounded. "Dad, why are you kneeling to him? He's my girlfriend's brother-in-law. He's nothing."

"Shut up! You degenerate!" John shouted at Xavier. He then looked at Jordan sincerely.

"Sir, it's all my fault for not disciplining him well. He has provoked you. If you want to kill or torture him, do as you please. I won't object!"

Xavier was so frightened that his hair stood on end. Jordan's status must be unimaginably high for his father to say such things!

Chapter 821: Shaun's Evil Intentions!

When Xavier saw that even his father couldn't protect him, he hurriedly admitted defeat to Jordan.

"Brother-in-law! We're connected! We're family! I heard about your heroic deeds from Jenny, so I admired you and audaciously barged in to see you. I'm your fan!"

Jordan saw that Xavier was just a child who liked to flaunt his father's reputation. He did not have any truly sinister intentions. Also, his father, John, was currently in the Black Ops Team and was Jordan's subordinate.

He was very grateful to the members of the Black Ops Team. Previously when they were pursuing Shaun's wife, she had killed many members of the team.

Jordan was very touched that they would risk their lives for him. Therefore, on account of his father, he didn't take Xavier's offense to heart.

Jordan said, "Get out of this place immediately and don't come near again. If you do this again, I'll get your father to personally come over and throw you into the sea to feed the sharks!"

Xavier hurriedly nodded. "Yes, yes, yes. I'll get lost now!"

Xavier didn't dare to say anything else. He made a "call me" gesture to Jenny, indicating that she should call him later. He quickly got into the car and urged the driver to drive away quickly.

Jenny was a little disappointed to see Xavier behave in such a cowardly fashion in front of Jordan. After all, Xavier was her current boyfriend, but he could not compare to Jordan at all.

Women liked powerful men. If anything, Jenny's liking for Jordan intensified. However, she knew that even if she became the most popular female celebrity in the whole world...

Even if she had captured the hearts of billions of men, Jordan would probably still not fancy her.

Xavier was furious. He got out of the car and saw that it was a cheap Chevy. He immediately scolded the owner of the car. "Are you blind?! The road is so wide, how did you manage to hit my car? Do you know how to drive?! This is a Bentley worth over a million dollars. You will need to pay me at least $100,000 to compensate for the damage. Pay up!"

Unexpectedly, the car owner was very calm. He did not come out of the car at all. Instead, a man wearing sunglasses emerged from the front passenger seat and grabbed Xavier.

“Hey, what are you doing? Men!”

Xavier was just about to call for help when he saw his driver and subordinates knocked unconscious. In a matter of seconds, Xavier was obediently stuffed into the backseat of the Chevy.

A middle-aged man sat in the backseat. He looked wretched and terrifying.

It was Shaun!

Desperate for Jordan to return, Shaun could no longer sit still in his small town. He personally came to Hawaii to see what Jordan was up to. He did not dare to look for Jordan directly because he knew that Jordan did not want to see him. He was afraid of causing more trouble if he made Jordan angry.

As he was only one step away from successfully developing the mind-transplant procedure, he had to be extremely cautious!

Xavier was a little afraid when he saw Shaun. However, he was the kind of guy who loved to act tough, so he shouted.

“B*stard! You dare to kidnap me? Do you know who I am? My brother-in-law is the war hero Jordan! If you dare to provoke me, my brother-in-law will throw all of you into the ocean to feed the sharks!”

Shaun laughed.

Xavier said fearfully, “What are you laughing at? I’m not bragging. My brother-in-law is powerful. He’s a war hero! The very awesome and ruthless kind!”

Shaun lit a cigarette and stretched out his hand. “Alright, you don’t have to say anymore. I know that Jordan is very powerful. I don’t doubt that.”

Shaun thought to himself: ‘Jordan is not just a war hero. In fact, calling him a war hero is an insult! Jordan is the one and only Deity! He is above everyone in the world!’

Shaun was in no hurry. He gestured to his driver to start the car. After the car started, Shaun took a puff of his cigarette and asked, “I saw you coming out of Jordan’s house, so I brought you here to ask. You said you’re Jordan’s brother-in-law?”

Xavier said, "Are you spying on Jordan? B*stard! My war hero brother-in-law is someone who has made a huge contribution to the country. Why are you spying on him? Tell me the truth!"

Shaun slapped Xavier and warned him. "Kid, if you don't want to suffer, don't talk so much nonsense. Just answer my questions."

Surprisingly, Xavier was not afraid at all. "I am the son of John Show! My father is... is a big shot! How can I embarrass my father! Kill or torture me, it's up to you. I won't even frown!"

Shaun was stunned. He stared at Xavier as if he was looking at a fool.

Sitting in the front passenger seat, Shaun's subordinates couldn't help laughing.

Xavier had always dreamed of being a hero since he was a young boy. He wanted to serve his country, but unfortunately, he never had the chance. Now that an opportunity had finally presented itself, he was very fearless.

Unfortunately, he had no idea that the person in front of him was not an ordinary criminal. He was one of the most terrifying demons in the world.

Shaun knew a lot of different ways to torture Xavier if he wanted to. However, he just gave him a thumbs up in admiration. "You have guts. As expected of the son of a loyal military general."

"You know my father's position?" Xavier was pleasantly surprised.

Shaun smiled. "Of course. Jordan didn't beat you up after you caused such a scene in front of his house. It must be because of your father."

"Haha." Xavier chuckled. "You seem to know Jordan quite well. Are you his friend?"

Shaun nodded. "Yes, we're very good friends and partners. You said that you're his brother-in-law, which means that you're the boyfriend of the big star, Jenny?"

Seeing that Shaun knew the relationship between Jenny and Jordan, Xavier was convinced that he was not an enemy but a friend.

Xavier nodded repeatedly. "That's right. Jenny is my girlfriend. I single-handedly made her famous. She cost me a lot of money! I wanted to go and meet her brother-in-law Jordan, but he didn't let me in. Can you introduce me to Jordan?"

Shaun sized up Xavier and muttered. "Jenny's boyfriend... Give me your phone."

"Huh?"

Without waiting for Xavier to agree, Shaun took his phone out of his pocket and unlocked it.

Xavier was about to reach out to stop Shaun, but he realized that no matter how hard he tried, he could not move his hands!

Shaun opened Xavier’s photo album and started looking through it.

Shaun gave a satisfied smirk when he saw a set of erotic photos and videos.

Chapter 822: Jordan Becomes A Trending Topic!

In the photos and videos, Jenny was the female lead while the male lead was naturally the owner of this phone, Xavier.

After learning that Xavier’s girlfriend was the celebrity Jenny, Shaun was certain that this young man would definitely take some private photos of themselves.

Any man who pursued a female celebrity would want to do this. The only difference was whether someone else would film it for them.

Men who pursued female celebrities all felt that these ladies were liked by tens of thousands of fans and had high and unattainable status. Once a guy successfully got a female celebrity, he would definitely want to take photos or videos as a trophy or to show off.

As for Jenny, Xavier had single-handedly made her popular. It was less likely that Jenny would refuse his request to take photos or videos of their intimate moments.

Shaun chuckled.

Xavier said angrily, “What are you trying to do?! You can’t post it. Jenny is a celebrity in the entertainment industry. If this gets out, her career will be over!”

It could be seen that Xavier still cared about Jenny. He had never thought of sharing these photos with others and only kept them as souvenirs. On the other hand, Shaun was a demon who killed without batting an eyelid. He only did things for his own benefit. Why would he care about Jenny?

Shaun admired the photos again before saying, "You're quite cautious. You didn't show your face and only showed Jenny's face."

Xavier said, "I can't embarrass my father!"

Shaun snorted. "Your actions have made things easier for me. I'll get someone to post this video and say that the male lead is Jenny's brother-in-law. Then, I'll expose the address of Jordan's current villa. By then, with Jenny's popularity and influence, reporters and fans from all over the country will definitely swarm all over this place. Hehe, Jordan, you'll have no choice but to leave then!"

For the past month, it was as if Jordan's feet were stuck there. He refused to leave no matter what. He did not go out during the day or at night.

Shaun didn't know what Jordan was thinking. Why was he so persistent in staying in this villa all day, as if he was a full-time nanny?

Shaun needed to find a way to make Jordan leave this place and return with him to continue his research.

Half an hour later in the villa where Hailey lived.

Jenny and Jordan were playing with the child.

Suddenly, Jenny's phone rang. It was her manager.

"Hello Sally, what's the matter?" Jenny asked.

The manager shouted crazily, "Jenny! Did you take private intimate photos and videos with Xavier?!"

The manager knew that Jenny and Xavier were in a relationship. After all, Xavier had invested so much money in Jenny. It was impossible for her manager not to know.

Jenny's face turned pale. She realized that something might have happened. "Sally, don't scare me. It's impossible for Xavier to post them online. He has no reason to do so. His family background is so prominent, and his father is a big shot. It won't be good for him if they are leaked!"

The manager said, "You silly girl, you've been deceived by him! After the video was released, there was another revelation. The male lead in the video is your brother-in-law!"

“What?!”

The manager continued, “Your sister and brother-in-law’s villa address have been leaked online too. A large number of reporters and fans are currently on the way over!”

Jenny’s phone fell to the ground.

Jordan was beside her. Seeing Jenny lose her composure, he knew that something big had happened.

“What’s wrong? Is it your grandmother...”

Old Mrs. Camden was already very old and her health was deteriorating year by year. Had she passed away?

Jenny cried. “Bad news Jordan, something seems to have happened. We...”

“We?”

Jordan was stunned.

Jenny didn’t know what to say. “Um... I...I’ll look at my phone first.”

Jenny hurriedly picked up her phone and went online. With such a major thing happening, Jenny would definitely be in the headlines.

As expected, Jenny was at the top of the list of trending topics. The internet was going crazy because of her. She clicked on a link and saw netizens reposting the photos and videos of Jenny.

Although the platform moderators kept deleting such inappropriate content, there were still many users spreading it. It was very easy to find them.

Jordan snatched the phone and casually opened a video. After watching for more than 10 seconds, he immediately closed it.

“I’m so disappointed in you!”

Jordan couldn’t help chiding Jenny in disdain.

As a celebrity, why didn’t she focus on improving her acting skills and singing skills? What was she doing all day?!

However, Jenny was not Jordan’s girlfriend. There was no need for Jordan to care about her private life. Jenny was very ashamed. She had always loved to show off her figure. Now, the entire world could see it in all its full glory.

“Jordan, I’m sorry...”

Jenny apologized to Jordan.

Jordan said, “You don’t have to apologize to me. This is to your own detriment. It has nothing to do with me.”

“It has something to do with you.” Jenny pointed at her phone and said, “Look, you’re the male lead in the news. Your current residence has been leaked too.”

“What?”

Jordan was dumbstruck. After reading the text accompanying the video, he realized that it was indeed so!

Jenny’s brother-in-law had also become a trending topic!

“Damn it!”

Jordan was from a secret family and had always kept a low profile. Now, he was actually a trending topic online. Fortunately, no photos were released. Otherwise, he would have to trouble Lionel to shut down the internet.

But the problem now was that his current residence had been exposed.

Jordan was furious. “Call your boyfriend and ask him how he wants to die!”

Jenny’s boyfriend was clearly the perpetrator of this incident. Jordan was already very unhappy that Jenny had found such a vulgar boyfriend who liked to show off.

After all, Jenny had been Jordan’s sister-in-law for three years. He had always treated her as his younger sister. When they were in South Korea, Jenny had even become Jordan’s woman.

Jordan did not object to Jenny having a boyfriend, but she had chosen someone so low-class and despicable. This greatly annoyed Jordan!

Jenny quickly called Xavier.

“Jordan, I can’t get through to him.”

“Damn it!”

Jordan was about to pick up his phone to call Xavier’s father when a subordinate ran in.

“Mr. Jordan!”

Jordan found it a little strange. His subordinates were all elite professionals. Even if there were intruders, they wouldn’t be so flustered.

The subordinate said, “Bad news. There are many reporters and agitated youths outside. They seem to be Ms. Jenny’s fans!”

Chapter 823: You’re Not Worthy For Me To Save You!

Jordan was surprised. “What? Reporters and fans found my residence so quickly? Did they come by rocket? Also, isn’t the security of this villa district quite good? How did they get in?”

He was speechless. Jenny’s photos and videos had just been leaked, and now, reporters and fans were already at his door. Shaun had naturally informed the reporters and fans in advance. He had also killed the guards at the villa district.

At this moment, the district was currently unguarded and anyone could enter.

Jordan’s subordinate replied, “We don’t know how they entered the villa district either. Master, should we... kill these reporters and fans? They’re very agitated and won’t listen to us. I’m afraid it’s useless even if we just verbally warn them.”

If the people who came were criminals, it would be easy to deal with them. They could just directly kill them off.

However, these were just ordinary folks. They were media reporters and a group of youths. It was a dilemma for Jordan’s subordinates. They didn’t know how to deal with it, so they came up to seek guidance from Jordan.

Jordan hurriedly instructed, “Don’t do anything! If something happens to this group of reporters, the matter will only blow up. Jenny has millions of fans, and too many people know about this place now. We can’t shut everyone up. And we must not make things worse.”

Bang!

Smack!

They suddenly heard a loud sound. It was as if something had smashed into the glass window on the second floor of their villa. Jordan hurried to the window and took a closer look. He realized that it was eggs and tomatoes!

“Damn it! These brainless fans actually brought eggs and vegetables!”

Jordan was speechless.

When the youths saw Jordan, they shouted at him, “You shameless man! You slept with your sister-in-law and even posted the photos online. You’ve killed our beloved Jenny! Go to hell!”

Bang!

Another egg was thrown at Jordan, hitting the glass pane in front of him.

Jordan was furious. However, he could not refute this fanatical fan because he had indeed slept with Jenny!

“Waa waa...”

Jordan’s son was frightened and started crying.

Hailey picked up her son and comforted him. “Don’t cry, don’t cry. Baby, don’t cry.”

Hailey turned to Jordan. “Hubby, our address has been exposed. Jenny has so many fans. There will definitely be even more fans here later. Let’s leave this place quickly.”

The presence of these reporters and fans would disrupt the normal lives of Jordan and the rest, especially his child. Even so, Jordan could not be ruthless to them.

However, Jordan had to stay here and do something very important. His secret laboratory was in the villa next door!

He could not leave!

Jordan said, “Hailey, take the child and leave first. I’ll get someone to escort you to another safe place. I want to stay here.”

“What? You still want to stay here? Why? These fans think that you slept with Jenny. They will be very nasty to you, but you can’t retaliate as they are just a bunch of youths.”

Hailey did not understand.

Seeing that Jordan insisted on staying here, Jenny spoke up. “Jordan, if you don’t leave, I won’t leave either! I’ll stay here with you. I definitely won’t let my fans hurt you!”

Jordan rolled his eyes at Jenny. 'Your fans are just a bunch of little kids armed with rotten eggs and tomatoes. They can't hurt me at all. I have a body that has been injected with the Mirakuru serum!

But Jordan did not bother to explain anything to her. He just instructed Hailey. "Hailey, quickly take the child away. Jenny, whether you want to stay or not, it's up to you."

After Hailey and the child left, only Jenny and Jordan were left in the villa. Jenny drew all the curtains in the villa. She even turned on the speaker and played music to prevent Jordan from being affected by the noise outside.

As for Jordan, he was actually not too affected. He sat on the sofa in the living room and surfed the internet on his phone.

Coincidentally, Jordan saw a beautiful woman with a good figure doing a very seductive dance. As her figure was extremely provocative, the number of likes had already exceeded a million.

It was just a featured post pushed out by the social media platform. Jordan usually didn't like to watch such videos. He preferred posts on NBA, film, technology and lifestyle.

When Jenny saw this, she immediately stepped forward. "Jordan! I know how to perform this dance too. Don't look at her. Her figure and dance moves are inferior to mine. If you don't believe me, look!"

The video was still playing on Jordan's phone. As it was in automatic replay mode, the short video started again after it ended.

Following the background music of the video playing on Jordan's phone, Jenny started to dance passionately in front of him.

Jenny was indeed a female celebrity who had become popular in a short period of time. In the entertainment industry, no one could match her figure. She did the same dance in front of Jordan. Watching her, Jordan couldn't resist sighing in his heart: 'This little vixen!'

After Jenny entered the entertainment industry, she had become even more flirtatious than her cousin!

Jordan knew that she was sensuous. Many men dreamed of getting her, but Jordan was still the one she liked.

After Jenny finished dancing, she took the initiative to sit on Jordan's lap. "Jordan, I'm really sorry this time. I've implicated you. Now that Hailey has left, let me make it up to you."

But Jordan stood up and said coldly, "Jenny, you should think about your path in the entertainment industry. What should you do next? Now that you've encountered such a thing, I reckon your future will be the same as that female celebrity Paris Gildon. No producer will hire you in the future."

Jenny was indignant and pounced into Jordan's arms again. "My career is over. The only person who can save me now is you!"

Ignoring her pleas, Jordan mercilessly pushed Jenny onto the sofa. "I do have a hundred ways to save you, but you are not worthy of being saved by me. Don't play these boring tricks anymore. That time in South Korea was a one-off. Don't fantasize anymore!"

Jordan was a Deity. How could a materialistic woman from a third-rate family like Jenny, who had undergone plastic surgery, be worthy of being Jordan's woman?!

"Sobs..."

Meanwhile, in the backseat of a Chevy near the villa.

Shaun frowned in confusion. "What? Only Hailey and the child left? Jordan and Jenny didn't leave? Strange, why did Jordan insist on staying there? Is he secretly doing something behind my back?"

Chapter 824: Lauren Is Going To Have A Breakdown!

Shaun began to suspect Jordan's motives. Why did Jordan refuse to quickly finish up the mind-transplant procedure, and instead chose to come here to see his son at this critical time? And he stayed for a month?

Didn't he want Lauren to leave that lonely, dark house as soon as possible?

"No, I have to know what Jordan is doing in the villa!"

Shaun felt very uneasy. He had to know Jordan's movements in the villa!

Apart from Jordan, Jenny was also in the villa.

“If I can possess Jenny, I can come into contact with Jordan.”

Shaun wanted to control Jenny himself, but on second thought, she was not an important woman to Jordan. He did not like her at all.

In fact, Jenny was even worse than Hailey. At the very least, Hailey knew the secrets of the eight major families. Jenny didn't know anything at all.

Therefore, even if Jordan had a secret plan, he would not tell Jenny.

In addition, Jordan had already seen Shaun's ability to possess people many times. He would be able to instantly recognize the ancient accessories that were used to control someone.

Moreover, Jordan was a Deity. It was not easy to deceive him.

It was better to get Lauren to control Jenny. He could make use of Lauren to monitor Jordan's movements!

A small, remote town in the US.

Knock-knock.

“Ms. Lauren, is it convenient to come in?”

One of Shaun's subordinates knocked on the wooden door. Shaun had instructed him to treat Lauren with extreme respect. It was necessary to knock before entering. What if she was changing her clothes and it was not a good time? If these subordinates offended Lauren, Jordan would definitely blame Shaun for it.

When Lauren heard the knock on the door, she excitedly ran to open it.

A ray of sunlight shone on Lauren's face. She used to be the number one beauty in the capital. In the entire country, only Hailey could compare to her in terms of looks.

But now, under the sunlight, her narrowed eyes and messy hair made her look rather drab.

At this moment, she was probably not even as good-looking as Jenny.

Lauren had been locked up in this house for half a year. She had been able to tolerate it for the first month or two. She thought of Jordan every day and waited for him to save her.

Although she was alone in the house, she followed a consistent schedule. Waking up, washing up, eating and going to bed at regular times.

But as time passed, she couldn't bear it anymore.

She gradually started to let her imagination run wild. She wondered if Jordan was unable to save her if he would stop loving her, and if he would forget about her.

Was she never going to get out of this place?

Therefore, she became increasingly passive. Sometimes, she didn't wash her face for an entire day.

Shaun had prepared enough expensive cosmetics and facial masks to last her a few years, but she didn't touch them at all.

No matter how beautiful she looked, what was the use? What was the use of washing herself and primping every day?

No one was looking at her at all!

Lauren opened the door and saw Shaun's subordinate. She grabbed his arm and asked, "Has my husband saved me? Can I leave now?"

Shaun's subordinate shook his head. "Ms. Lauren, it's Master Shaun on the phone. Please answer it."

His subordinate handed the phone to Lauren.

"Hello."

"Ms. Lauren, how have you been?" Shaun gave a wicked smile.

Lauren begged on the phone, "Mr. Handley, please let me out. I really can't take it anymore. If I stay any longer, I'll really die!"

Shaun didn't have an ounce of mercy in him. He just smiled and said, "Ms. Lauren, we agreed previously that I will let you go after your husband helps me develop the mind-transplant procedure. We have to abide by the agreement. Your husband had already completed 90% of the research. He could have finished up our little project a month ago and saved you.

“But for some reason, he suddenly wanted to go to Hawaii to accompany Hailey and their child. Oh, Jenny is also there now. Hehe, the Camden sisters have good figures and looks. Jordan must have been enjoying himself with them so much that he seems to have completely forgotten about you. Otherwise, why didn't he just finish up the research in one go and rescue you? Why did he insist on making you suffer for another month? Don't you think so?”

When Lauren heard this, tears streamed down her face uncontrollably. This strong girl from the capital had been tortured by Shaun until she had lost nearly all her willpower.

Hearing Lauren's sobs, Shaun continued with a smile. “Actually, there's only one last step to complete the mind-transplant procedure. Without Jordan, our research team will still be able to complete it in a few years. I've already waited for decades. It's not like I need Jordan at this stage! However, if Jordan doesn't help me finish this last step, I won't let you go!

“Now, I'll give you a chance. Control Jenny and use her body to talk to Jordan. Tell him what I think and ask him if he still wants to save you. If he doesn't, I'll go back immediately and rape you! I'll make you my woman! Tell him that it's just a few more years until completion. I'm not worried even if he doesn't help me anymore!”

After hanging up, Shaun immediately ordered someone to make a move on Jenny.

Jenny was currently locked up in the villa. Moreover, Jordan's subordinates were outside the villa, and Jordan himself was inside. It would not be easy to reach Jenny.

However, this was still not a problem for Shaun. He used a cat to solve this problem.

Half an hour later, Jenny, who had fallen asleep in the washroom, slowly woke up.

At this moment, she had already become Lauren.

Lauren slowly got up and looked around. This was not the first time she had controlled others. Previously, she had controlled Madam Park Anya and Hailey.

Right now, she didn't feel as excited about this new skill as the previous two times. She just wanted to go out and breathe fresh air!

“Hubby...”

Lauren knew that Jordan was in this villa. She quickly ran out of the washroom to look for him.

“Hubby! Hubby! Hubby, where are you?”

Lauren finally found Jordan downstairs. She happily bounced over.

Jordan pushed her away. "Jenny, didn't you hear what I said?! If you disturb me again, don't blame me for being rude!"

Lauren said with teary eyes, "Hubby, I'm Lauren, not Jenny."

Only then did Jordan notice the ancient accessories on Jenny. Lauren had done this a few times before, so Jordan did not doubt it.

"Honey, why are you here?" Jordan asked.

Chapter 825: I'll Take You To See The World!

Lauren knelt down and begged Jordan. "Hubby, please save me. I don't want to stay in that small dark place for another second. I'm going to go crazy! Please..."

Jordan's heart ached when he heard that. He felt very guilty and ashamed!

His wife was actually begging him to save her. One could imagine the amount of agony she was in now!

Jordan hurriedly hugged "Lauren", no longer rejecting Jenny's body. Seeing Lauren like this, Jordan's heart ached and he cried.

"Honey, why are you doing this? Of course I'll save you. Why are you begging me?"

If it was Hailey or a stranger, Jordan would understand if they had to beg him like this. Lauren was the woman Jordan loved the most. Even if she didn't say anything, Jordan would overturn the mountains and seas for her!

Lauren sobbed. "I thought you had forgotten about me. I thought you didn't want me anymore."

Hearing this, Jordan felt his heart wrench. "Lauren, how can you think that of me? We've been through so much. You're the woman I love the most. How can I not want you?"

Lauren said, "Then why have you been in Hawaii for the past month? Why didn't you help Shaun finish up the last part of his mind-transplant procedure? I heard from him that there's only one final step left. You can easily complete it."

Jordan was in a dilemma. He wanted to explain to Lauren, but he was afraid that Shaun would overhear their conversation.

If that happened, all his hard work for the past month would be in vain.

Jordan could only apologize profusely. "I'm sorry, Lauren. It's my fault. It's all my fault. I promise you, I'll go back soon and save you. Believe me."

Lauren threw herself into Jordan's arms. "Hubby, Shaun said that he doesn't intend to beg you anymore. He said that even without you, he would be able to complete the final step in a few years. He also said that he wants to rape me and force me to be his woman... sobs..."

As Jordan hugged Lauren, he clenched his fists, a killing intent surging in his heart.

'Damn you, Shaun! If you dare to touch my wife, I'll skin you alive!'

Jordan knew that Shaun had purposely gotten Lauren to send him this message, to lure him back. This was because Jordan had been refusing to pick up Shaun's calls.

Jordan understood Shaun well. He knew that Shaun would definitely not want to wait for another few years. He would think of all sorts of ways to lure Jordan back.

Waiting another few years, there were too many variables. Now that the eight great families were in turmoil, the world could change at any time. The Rong family had also been targeting Shaun. He might not be able to survive the next few years.

Jordan patted "Lauren's" shoulder gently and comforted her. "Don't be afraid, honey. He won't dare to touch you. He's just scaring you. Don't be afraid. With your husband around, no one will dare to touch you."

Lauren said, "I haven't seen or spoken to anyone in half a year. I want to return to my normal life. I want to visit so many places with you. I want to give birth to another child for you..."

Lauren was actually not that afraid of being touched anymore because she had not even been allowed to see anyone for months.

"Alright, alright. Let's have another daughter. We'll have her in a couple of days. Wait for me."

At this moment, it was 2 a.m.

After Lauren finally fell asleep, Jordan immediately put on his invisibility cloak and quietly jumped down from the window. He hurried to the villa next door.

The moment he entered, Dragon and the others immediately asked with concern.

“Master, are you alright? I saw that there are still some fans outside your villa. It is even more chaotic today. I’ve been awaiting your orders.”

Jordan looked at Dragon. “It’s just a bunch of die-hard fans of Jenny. It’s fine. Dragon, don’t stay here anymore. I must return to Shaun’s immediately to save Lauren. Go and protect Victoria now. I don’t want anything to happen to Victoria after I rescue Lauren.”

“Got it!” Dragon said.

Just as Dragon was about to leave, Jordan pulled him back and continued to instruct. “After you see Victoria, you must not leave her side for at least the next 24 hours. Also, be prepared for a gunfight at any time. I predict that a gunfight will happen near Victoria! The other party’s strength must not be underestimated!”

Jordan recalled the dream he had previously. It was the dream where Victoria was shot.

His dream of his beach wedding with Hailey had come true. So it was very likely that his dream of Victoria being shot and falling into a pool of blood would come true too!

Therefore, Jordan wanted Dragon to protect Victoria 24 hours a day.

Now that Dragon had also been injected with the Mirakuru serum, it could be said that he was already the most invincible existence in the world!

Initially, Jordan also wanted Victoria to be injected with the serum, but she rejected him. She said that she would become very muscular after being injected with this serum. She would not look like a woman and was afraid that Jordan would not like her.

This silly woman. How could Jordan not like her just because her figure had changed?

With that, Dragon quickly left.

Jordan called Professor Liam over. “How are things progressing?”

Professor Liam smiled. “It has progressed very smoothly. We created an active factor that can perfectly fuse with the mind-transplant procedure stabilizer. It is a factor that can be controlled remotely. After adding it to the stabilizer, this factor will be gradually activated as the mind revives. By then, we can remotely control the factor and make the subject have headaches, dizziness and other symptoms.”

Jordan was overjoyed. "Isn't this the same as the Monkey King's golden headband curse? If Shaun undergoes the mind-transplant procedure, it will be like he's wearing a headband around his head which I can tighten and loosen at any time! Well done! How long will it take? My wife can't endure anymore!"

Professor Liam said, "It only takes an hour!"

"Very good. In an hour, I'll return to Shaun's place with this remote control factor!"

An hour and a half later, Jenny, whom everyone in the US was crazy about, was lying in Jordan's arms. Of course, this was not the real Jenny. Otherwise, Jordan would not be hugging her so intimately.

Lauren slowly opened her eyes and saw Jordan. She called out softly, "Hubby."

Jordan stroked her hair and said gently, "You're awake?"

Lauren nodded. "Hubby, when... when are you going back to Shaun's place? I'm sorry, I shouldn't have pressured you. I know you must have your reasons for being here..."

Jordan smiled. "It's alright. I'll go back now. I'll go back to help Shaun complete the final step. Then, I'll take you to see the world!"
