

The Abandoned Husband Dominates - Chapter 853 – 884

The Mantis Stalks The Cicada, Unaware Of The Oriole Behind!

Chapter 853: The Mantis Stalks The Cicada, Unaware Of The Oriole Behind!

Lota was very jealous of Jordan's relationship with Geng Anli.

Why could Geng Anli have Jordan but not Lota?

Lota was clearly younger and loved Jordan more.

When they were on the plane just now, Lota had asked Jordan this question. Jordan told her that he wasn't the one who initiated it at all.

It was Shaun's doing when he possessed Jordan.

When Lota heard this, her first thought was not to blame Shaun. Instead, she was thinking about why Shaun didn't choose to seduce her?

Geng Anli knew that Lota liked Jordan. She smiled.

"Lota, don't worry. I won't harass your man again."

Boom!

Boom!

At this moment, several new artillery shells were suddenly fired into the sky in all directions.

After these were launched into the sky, they would form a terrifying weather weapon!

"Oh no, Rong Bailun has launched his weather weapon. Everyone, get on the plane and get out of here!" Jordan shouted.

Everyone knew that the Rong family's weather weapon was no small matter. No one dared to stand there anymore. They all returned to the plane.

“Jamie, get on the plane!”

Jamie waved his hand. “Got it! Hehe, we’ll call it a day.”

Although Jamie’s laser cannons did not hit Rong Bailun, he felt very satisfied to be able to blast to his heart’s content here. He just loved the feeling of participating in a battle.

Seeing that the situation was not good, he hurriedly boarded the plane and prepared to escape.

After boarding the plane, Jordan quickly started a video chat with Geng Anli and Jamie.

Jordan suggested, “I can’t predict too far ahead for the time being. I suggest that everyone move in the same direction. It’s best for us to fly side by side or one after another. This way, we can take care of each other.”

Geng Anli said, “Why don’t we fly west again? Follow me to Suzhou. That’s my base.”

Jordan said, “No, Suzhou is too close to here. The Rong family’s weather weapon will definitely affect that area.”

Hearing this, Geng Anli continued, “Then let’s go to Hainan Island. I have a base camp there, too, with all kinds of defense systems for intercepting missiles.”

Jordan nodded. “Alright, let’s head there now!”

With that, Jordan and the others headed to Hainan Island at full speed.

“F*ck, why is there another plane following me?!”

Jamie suddenly noticed that there was another plane behind them.

Geng Anli looked around and said, “It’s Dieter. It looks like he’s prepared to follow us and escape with us.”

Jamie sneered. “That coward. But now that he has made the right decision to stand on our side.”

Dieter had no choice. He knew that Rong Bailun was enraged now and might kill him at any moment. Therefore, he could only choose to follow the Geng family.

However, less than five minutes into their flight, the weather suddenly took an ominous front.

Rumble!

Crash!

The sky turned dark, and it started to rain heavily.

If it was just rain and clouds, it wouldn't stop them from flying. However, a powerful tornado appeared out of thin air!

Boom!

"Ah!"

The tornado resulted in heavy turbulence for all four planes!

Everyone in the planes kept bumping into each other.

Beep beep beep beep...

Alarms kept going off.

"Activate Bad Weather Flight Mode!"

"Activate Bad Weather Flight Mode!"

The planes of the secret families all had more powerful functions than ordinary planes. They could fly normally even in extreme weather.

Crash!

However, at this moment, a bolt of lightning struck the Geng family's plane.

"Ah!"

Geng Anli screamed and fell to the ground. She cried out.

"Sh*t, my plane was struck by lightning. I'm worried that I won't be able to make it to Hainan Island. You guys go first!"

Crash!

Another bolt of lightning struck Jamie's plane.

"F*ck! I was struck by lightning too! The quality of my plane is not as good. There is smoke coming out of the tail. Jordan, I think I'd better board your plane."

Crash!

As he spoke, another bolt of lightning struck from the sky.

However, Jordan's plane was not hit.

Jamie felt that it was very unfair. "F*ck, why did lightning hit my plane and Madam Geng's, but not yours? Is it because you're handsome?"

Jordan snorted coldly. He said confidently, "I'm a Deity! Would lightning dare to strike me?!"

Deities were chosen by the heavens. Lightning also descended from the heavens. They were all from the same side!

Why would you hit someone from the same side?

"You are a what?"

Jamie still didn't know that Jordan was a Deity.

Crash!

Before he could finish speaking, another bolt of lightning struck Jordan's plane.

Jamie laughed. "Haha, Jordan, stop bragging. The heavens also don't like you."

Jordan felt embarrassed. The heavens had really made a fool out of him!

"Everyone, stop flying. Land nearby," Jordan ordered.

If they continued to fly under such circumstances, their planes would be destroyed by lightning sooner or later.

Therefore, the four planes were all forced to land near a forest.

...

Meanwhile, in the western China secret base.

Acid rain was falling from the sky. Rong Bailun and his subordinates wore special raincoats to prevent their bodies from being corroded.

Ban Luming walked over and reported. "Master Rong, The planes of the Gengs and the others have all landed near the Tianshan Xueling Spruce Forest. It looks like they plan to hide there."

Rong Bailun said fiercely, "Alright, send all our men to the Tianshan Xueling Spruce Forest. Kill everyone, including Geng Anli. Leave no one alive!"

Ban Luming hesitated for a moment. "Do we really have to do that? The heads of the Geng, Schmid and Haus families, as well as the two descendants of the Steele family, are all there! If we kill them, the eight secret families will no longer exist. Will there be that so-called curse that you were worried about?"

Rong Bailun waved his hand. "What nonsense curse! There is only one true curse of the eight great families, and that is that no one from a secret family will live beyond 80 years old! There's no need to keep the eight great families intact!"

"Didn't Jordan kill Park Sang-jun and Miyamoto Chujiro previously? Do as I say. I will spare one descendant from each of those families. I won't kill them all."

Ban Luming quickly replied, "Yes, sir!"

With that, Ban Luming led everyone to the forest.

'Hehe, Rong Bailun, all your subordinates seem to have left. They all went to kill Jordan, Geng Anli and the others, right? Hehe, there's no one left to protect you but your strongest enemy is still here. What can you do now?'

Chapter 854: Sneak Attack On Rong Bailun!

Actually, no one knew that Shaun had been the first person to arrive at the western China secret base. He was here even before Geng Anli. However, he did not make his presence known but hid in the dark and observed the situation.

Earlier on, the Geng family and Jamie had blasted the Rongs at full power, but Rong Bailun did not return fire.

As a result, Shaun had been a little worried that Rong Bailun would be killed.

But after the battle, Shaun had a clearer understanding of the defense capabilities of the Rong family.

"Too formidable, too formidable. Once the defense system is activated, no weapons can penetrate it. Hehe, Rong Bailun, have you heard of the saying: 'The mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind it'? After I capture you and swap minds with you, all your top technology will be mine!"

Rong Bailun had sent all his men out.

This was because he believed that all his enemies were in the Tianshan Xueling Spruce Forest. There were only about a dozen people left on his side.

Meanwhile, Shaun had brought more than a thousand people!

These were not ordinary people. They were all elites. They were all killers who could fight ten ordinary men each.

Even so, the typically cautious Shaun did not directly lay all his cards on the table and openly declare war on Rong Bailun. He did not reveal himself but remained hidden in the shadows.

He knew very well that some battles could not be won with numbers.

Rong Bailun had many powerful high-tech devices.

Although Shaun had many men on his side, they might not be able to even touch him.

Shaun picked up the walkie-talkie and commanded. "Ace, move out!"

Over the years, Shaun had planted his own spies in the major families, especially the Rong family. He had planted at least 70 of his own men in the Rong family.

However, half of them were already dead while the other half were mostly low-level personnel.

There was only one who could approach within a hundred meters of Rong Bailun.

And that man was Ace!

"Roger!"

One of the men standing on Rong Bailun's side silently moved closer to Rong Bailun.

Rong Bailun was completely unaware. He was still angry at being attacked by the Geng family.

At this moment, Rong Bailun and his other assistant were walking side by side.

"What are our losses at the other bases? Have the explosions been contained?"

The assistant shook his head. "According to the information from the seven bases, the situation is not optimistic. Many places have been destroyed, including our biological laboratory and medical laboratory..."

“Damn it! We installed so many defense systems but still couldn’t avoid being attacked! Fortunately, I have backup copies of all this laboratory information overseas.”

As they were talking, Ace suddenly walked over and pretended to bump into Rong Bailun.

“Sorry, Master!”

Rong Bailun was about to say something when he saw Ace placing a blue weapon in his hand!

Sizzle...

The blue weapon produced electricity, causing Rong Bailun to go into spasms!

“Well done, Ace! Haha, it worked!”

Shaun was very happy to see his man succeed.

The power released by this blue weapon was enough to instantly stun an ordinary person. But to Shaun’s surprise, although Rong Bailun was already middle-aged, his physique was still very good and he was not electrocuted.

The assistant at the side wanted to help but was killed by Ace.

At this moment, Rong Bailun quickly pressed the left side of his body, near his waist.

“Oh? There’s something there!”

Shaun noticed this through the binoculars.

After Rong Bailun pressed that area, his entire body immediately changed drastically.

A robotic voice sounded out from inside his body.

“Master’s body has been detected. He is being electrocuted. Defense and treatment plans have been activated.”

Bang!

A weapon suddenly appeared in Rong Bailun’s hand, and it automatically attacked Ace.

Within seconds, Ace died on the spot and fell to the ground.

“The crisis has been resolved. An abnormality has been detected in Master’s body. CPR is now being performed.”

In the distance, Shaun was completely dumbfounded.

“What kind of advanced technology is this! There’s actually such a defense system installed in Rong Bailun’s body? Damn it!”

Rong Bailun was much more formidable than he thought. The Rong family was indeed the head of the eight secret families. Rong Bailun was indeed terrifying and not easy to deal with.

“Damn it. I’m afraid there won’t be such an opportunity in another 10 years. I must seize today’s opportunity and capture Rong Bailun!”

However, in the current situation, other than fighting Rong Bailun head-on, there seemed to be no other way.

Shaun was confident in defeating Rong Bailun if they fought head-on, but he was not confident of successfully kidnapping him. Rong Bailun could escape very quickly. If he refused to engage with Shaun, there was nothing the latter could do.

At this moment, a woman was suddenly brought over.

“Master Shaun!”

It was Paris Gildon!

Paris Gildon ran forward and said, “Master Shaun, I saw Jordan and Geng Xiqing coming over just now. I was afraid that my identity would be exposed, so I escaped and came to find you.”

Shaun smiled and suddenly thought of a plan. “Paris, you’ve come at the right time. I was just wondering how to deal with that fellow, Rong Bailun.”

Paris Gildon was dumbstruck. “Do you want to use me to deal with him? No, Master Shaun, I can’t. It’s very dangerous. I’m afraid.”

Shaun smiled. “How to achieve future glory and wealth if you don’t contribute anything? Baby, as long as you help me capture Rong Bailun, after I switch minds with him and become the head of the Rong family, I will marry you!”

Paris Gildon had also witnessed the power of the Rong family today. They could completely control this world. If she became Rong Bailun’s wife, it would be the pinnacle of her life’s achievements.

Gritting her teeth, Paris Gildon swallowed before answering. “Alright, Master Shaun, what do you want me to do?!”

Shaun said, "Rong Bailun still doesn't know your true identity. He will believe that you are Geng Anli's daughter. Geng Anli blew up so many of his bases. He must be itching to eat the Geng family alive."

Paris Gildon became worried. "Will he kill me when he sees me?"

Shaun reached out and hooked her chin. He smiled. "That depends on how you appear in front of him. Hehe."

Chapter 855: Rong Bailun Has Been Tricked!

A few minutes later.

"Help! No! Uncle Rong, save me! Uncle Rong!"

Rong Bailun was standing beneath the roof eaves and calculating the losses caused by the explosion.

Suddenly, he heard a girl's voice.

"What's that sound? Go over and take a look!"

The voice came from the back of the house. Rong Bailun and his subordinates rushed over. As they approached, they saw a man pressing a woman down, as if he wanted to do something bad to her.

Rong Bailun took a closer look and realized that it was Geng Anli's daughter, Geng Xiqing!

Of course, he didn't know that Geng Xiqing's body now held the mind of Paris Gildon.

Paris Gildon had been sent by Shaun, and the man on top of her was also one of Shaun's underlings. The man looked like he was going to rape her, but he was actually putting on an act to lure Rong Bailun over.

"Stop, what are you doing!"

Going by the man's uniform, Rong Bailun believed that the man was one of his subordinates. When the man heard Rong Bailun's voice, he quickly turned around and knelt in front of him.

"Master Rong! We discovered this suspicious woman just now and realized that it's the Geng family's Geng Xiqing!"

“She is the culprit behind this war, so I wanted to punish her on the spot to avenge you!”

Paris Gildon cried. “Uncle Rong, I know my mother has offended you. Even if you want revenge, please don’t let a subordinate taint me. I’m a woman from the eight great families! I have fallen into your hands today and I won’t resist whether you want to kill me or do something to me. But it has to be you. No one else is worthy to touch me!”

Her words implied that she was willing to sleep with Rong Bailun.

Rong Bailun glanced at Paris Gildon, who was lying on the ground, covered in sweat and her clothes in a mess.

“Geng Xiqing” was a very charming girl. Naturally, Rong Bailun was very attracted to her.

Although Rong Bailun hated the Geng family to the core, he reprimanded “his subordinate”.

“Who allowed you to take matters into your own hands! Who allowed you to kill Geng Xiqing!”

Following Shaun’s instructions, the man said, “The Geng family dared to declare war on the Rong family. Everyone in their family deserves to die. Master, why would you want to spare anyone?”

Rong Bailun was very angry. “B*stard! Who said I wanted to kill everyone in the Geng family? I was going to keep one member of the Geng family alive, you damned thing. You almost ruined my plans!”

It was true that Rong Bailun did not intend to completely exterminate the entire family. The heads and main threats from the Geng, Steele, Haus and Addington families must be eliminated.

However, he planned to retain one insignificant member from each family.

Geng Xiqing was a suitable candidate.

“I’m sorry! I’m sorry! I shouldn’t have acted on my own accord.”

The man knelt down and begged for mercy. However, Rong Bailun did not like this subordinate’s methods and tone. He took a gun and shot him.

Seeing this, Paris Gildon quickly stood up and walked towards Rong Bailun.

“Thank you for saving me, Uncle Rong. Please don’t kill me. I’m willing to do anything for you!”

Paris Gildon was about to throw herself into Rong Bailun's arms. However, before she could get close, his bodyguards pushed her away.

"Xiqing, I treat you as a junior. I am not a pervert. Although I hate your mother very much now, I won't take revenge in this form," said Rong Bailun. "Xiqing, why didn't you leave with your mother? Why did you stay here?"

Paris Gildon had already thought of an answer. "When you launched the weather weapon earlier, Mom left in a hurry. She thought that I had already boarded the plane. Actually, I happened to step out for a while just now."

Rong Bailun smiled. "Child, you're quite lucky. To be honest, your mother and the rest are trapped in the Tianshan Xueling Spruce Forest. I've already sent all my elite fighters to kill them. If everything goes according to plan, they will all die there. If you had followed them, you would definitely die there."

Paris Gildon knew how to put herself in Geng Xiqing's shoes. She knew that as the daughter of the Geng family, she would definitely kneel down and beg for mercy when she heard that her mother was about to die.

Therefore, Paris Gildon immediately knelt on the ground. "Uncle Rong, please spare my mother. Don't kill them. Please, I'm willing to do anything for you. You can sleep with me. I'll definitely serve you well!"

"What nonsense are you spouting!"

Rong Bailun's expression was serious. "Who wants to sleep with you! I am the master of the world and I don't lack women! Don't think that just because you're pretty, you can use it to exchange for something. Your beauty hasn't reached that level yet. You don't have to plead for mercy. Your mother and those people from the other families will definitely die!"

Shaun was watching everything from afar. He frowned when he heard this.

"Damn it. Rong Bailun is so upright. He's not even interested in a decent girl like Geng Xiqing."

If Geng Anli had just destroyed Shaun's bases and her beautiful daughter appeared before him, Shaun would have no qualms sleeping with her.

"Hehe, you're indeed someone who is meant to do great things! Fortunately, I still have Plan B!"

Shaun smiled confidently.

Seeing that her beauty couldn't tempt Rong Bailun, Paris Gildon changed tack.

“Uncle Rong, I know that my mother and the rest committed a capital crime. Perhaps this is their fate. I hope you won’t kill me. I’m willing to tell you all the secrets of my family!”

Rong Bailun was instantly interested. “Oh? Other than paper bombs, the Geng family has other secret research?”

Paris Gildon nodded. “Yes, we have another heaven-defying secret research! Perhaps it’s not inferior to the Rong family’s!”

“Oh?”

Rong Bailun was shocked. Heaven-defying?

Wasn’t this the same as his own research?

“Interesting. Come upstairs with me quickly. I want to have a good chat with you!”

Rong Bailun brought her to a room on the second floor of the base.

This was exactly what Shaun wanted. He had long guessed that as soon as Paris Gildon said this, Rong Bailun would definitely want to talk to her alone and not let anyone else be present.

In the sealed room, it would be easy for Shaun to make his move!

“Hehe, it’s finally my turn to shine! Jordan, you should really take a look. Although I don’t have the abilities of a Deity, I can still predict Rong Bailun’s every move! When I’m done with Rong Bailun, it will be a battle between me and Jordan!”

Chapter 856: Shaun’s Dream Comes True!

After bringing Paris Gildon to the second floor, Rong Bailun closed the door and the windows. It was as if he didn’t want this shocking secret to be revealed to anyone else.

Walking toward the younger woman, Rong Bailun said, “Xiqing, you just said that your family has another secret. Is it heaven-defying? Hehe, I really want to know what you guys are secretly researching.”

Rong Bailun’s eyes lit up. His manner was no different from before. But from the light in his eyes, it was obvious that he was very eager to know this secret.

Paris Gildon took out something from her pocket and said, “It’s this.”

Paris Gildon took out a QR code from her pocket.

“A QR code? What’s that for?”

Rong Bailun was surprised and even more curious. Their heaven-defying secret was actually hidden in a QR code?

The Geng family was indeed creative!

Their strength was indeed extraordinary!

Rong Bailun was quietly amazed by the Geng family’s secret.

Paris Gildon suddenly stuck the QR code to the left side of Rong Bailun’s waist.

This spot happened to be the button Rong Bailun pressed to activate his physical defense after being electrocuted by Ace.

Although the spot was covered by his clothes, the sharp-eyed Shaun immediately noticed it. He knew there must be a hidden button on Rong Bailun’s left waist area that activated a system to protect and heal his body.

That was why he had sent Paris Gildon to paste the bomb QR code on that location.

Paris Gildon took out a scanner that could detonate the QR code.

Rong Bailun panicked. “Damn it! This is the Miyamoto family’s bomb QR code! You damn woman, you’re here to kill me!”

After Miyamoto Chujiro died, he took over all the research efforts of the Miyamoto family. He suddenly recalled this bomb QR code.

One of them could cause an explosion just by scanning a QR code.

In order not to be attacked by Paris Gildon, Rong Bailun hurriedly used his hands to tear apart the QR code.

Rong Bailun was indeed very strong. With a forceful tug, he tore off his clothes and the “body treatment device” under them!

“Oh sh*t!”

Rong Bailun didn’t expect this QR code to be so sticky. It seemed that this QR code wasn’t the original one developed by the Miyamoto family. It had been improved.

Rong Bailun had tested it before. The previous QR code did not have such adhesion and adsorption power.

This was something Shaun had done on purpose. He wanted Rong Bailun to tear off the healing device on him.

After pulling everything off, Rong Bailun didn't think much of it. He threw it aside and took out a pistol from his pocket. He aimed it at Paris Gildon.

"You can die now!"

However, at this moment, a cat flew over.

Shocked, Rong Bailun quickly swung his arm and smacked the cat aside.

At this moment, Shaun jumped in from the window and grabbed the cat's neck.

"You are... Shaun... urgh... urgh..."

Rong Bailun's eyes shone with unprecedented fear when he saw Shaun. He was nearly suffocated to death and could not finish his sentence.

Shaun's left hand squeezed the cat's neck as if he was squeezing Rong Bailun.

Falling to the ground, Rong Bailun tried to fire his gun, but Paris Gildon snatched it away from him. She wanted to call for help and crawl out, but she didn't have the strength.

Shaun had his signature evil smile on his face.

"The great Chairman Rong, let me introduce myself. I'm Shaun Handley from a small town in the US. I'm very happy to meet you today! Do you know? 20 years ago, I already knew your name and your noble status in this world! From then on, my dream was to become you and replace you! You're the perfect person I've been dreaming of!

"I've thought about you for 20 years, but I've never dared to appear in front of you. Today is the first time I am finally able to meet you face to face. I've always told myself that our first meeting will be the time I replace you!"

Shaun was very excited. He was a very cautious person and knew how to wait and bid his time. He had wanted to replace Rong Bailun for the past 20 years. He had been plotting in the shadows for 20 years.

Over the past 20 years, he had sent many people to make contact with Rong Bailun and infiltrate his side. However, he never dared to appear in front of him in his true body.

Even though he had already been here for a few hours today and had the advantage in numbers, he did not dare to appear until he was certain of victory.

Instead, he used Ace and Paris Gildon to attack first.

All his caution was for the sake of subduing Rong Bailun in one swift move. He could not give him any chance to resist or escape!

“You... are... courting... death...”

Rong Bailun’s face turned red. It was obvious that he was very indignant!

He was the number one person in the world, but today, he had fallen into the hands of a despicable and shameless villain.

Rong Bailun knew very well that Shaun’s methods were extremely mysterious and could not be explained by science. Even someone as technologically advanced as the Rong family could not figure out Shaun’s methods.

Shaun walked up to him and smiled. “I’m sorry, my idol. I should chat longer with you, but time is limited. That’s all I can say for now. I’ll knock you out now. When you wake up again, I’ll have replaced you and become the new Rong Bailun. Hahahaha!”

Rong Bailun looked like he wanted to kill Shaun!

However, Shaun did not give him any chance.

Bang!

Shaun flung the cat against the floor, causing Rong Bailun to faint.

Paris Gildon heaved a sigh of relief. “Oh my god, we’ve finally subdued this ‘overlord’! It wasn’t easy!”

“Master Shaun, congratulations. Your dream is coming true! Don’t forget me in the future!”

Shaun had an excited smile on his face, but he forced himself to calm down.

“It’s not time to celebrate yet! True success is only after I complete the mind-transplant procedure with Rong Bailun! In order not to make the Rong people suspicious, I must complete the mind swap with Rong Bailun as soon as possible before returning to this place. Paris, you must stay here. Don’t open the door until I return. No one is allowed to enter, understand?”

Paris Gildon nodded. “Don’t worry, Master Shaun. I know what to do!”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 857: Pursuit!

Shaun was still worried. Taking out a device that looked like a microphone from his pocket, he handed it to Paris Gildon.

“This is a gadget I previously asked a sound specialist to help me invent. It can imitate the voice of others. I’ve already adjusted it to the parameters of Rong Bailun’s voice. I can imitate his speech with it. Our mind-transplant procedure will take at least a few hours. If any of his subordinates insist on barging in within this time, use this to deal with them. Remember not to let them find out that Rong Bailun is missing!”

Paris Gildon took the microphone and nodded. “Master Shaun, you have really thought of everything. You’ve prepared for everything that might happen. I believe things will be fine!”

“Mm.”

Shaun didn’t say anything else. He left quickly, carrying Rong Bailun. After that, Suzhou took a plane to his temporary base in Suzhou.

His mind-transplant procedure equipment and staff were all waiting there.

Shaun alighted from the plane carrying Rong Bailun, who was at least 40 pounds heavier than him. However, his face was not red and his heart was not racing. He appeared especially relaxed.

At this moment, more than a thousand people raised their arms and cheered. He was like a returning warrior who had been victorious in battle and all the commoners were cheering happily.

Shaun was very happy to hear the cheers. “Men, look who I brought back!”

Shaun’s research team were all very excited to see Rong Bailun.

“It’s Rong Bailun, the head of the eight secret families, the one who controls the world!”

“Congratulations, Master. We’ve finally caught the head of the Rong family!”

“Master endured for 20 years just for today!”

Shaun laughed loudly. But he had no time to celebrate. He had to hurry up and complete the mind-transplant procedure with Rong Bailun!

Carrying Rong Bailun, Shaun walked straight to the laboratory.

The research team placed Rong Bailun and Shaun on the operating table and inserted the equipment into their bodies.

The mind-transplant procedure could begin at any time!

However, just as a scientist was about to inject Shaun with the stabilizer, he suddenly got up from the operating bed.

“Doctor, are there really no problems at all with this mind-transplant procedure? There’s no turning back after I switch minds with Rong Bailun! I have schemed for 20 years. If I die during this procedure, it will be a huge loss to me!”

Shaun was very cautious and timid. He was still worried about the mind-transplant procedure that Jordan had helped to develop.

The doctor replied, “Master, I understand your concern, but data does not lie. You also saw that Ms. Gildon is still in good health after switching minds with Geng Xiqing. We’ve also examined your body in all aspects. It can completely withstand the mind-transplant procedure.”

Shaun sighed and laid down again. He closed his eyes and prayed. “God bless me and wish me success in my surgery! Doctor, let’s begin!”

...

The Tianshan Xueling Spruce Forest.

After getting off the plane, Jordan, Geng Anli, Lota and the rest headed toward the forest.

They all wore protective suits to deal with the extremely harsh weather and were also protected by their bodyguards. They slowly walked forward and looked for a place to hide.

One of Geng Anli’s subordinates looked at the lightning in the sky and said,

“Madam Geng, although the Rong family’s weather weapons are powerful, their method of attracting lightning and rain is the same as ours in our own weather weapon research. This method has a time limit. I predict that it will definitely not last for more than an hour. In another hour, we can fly again and leave this place.”

Seeing that this man seemed to know a lot about weather weapons, Jordan asked, “Anli, who is he?”

Geng Anli replied, "Oh, he's our family's weather weapon research expert, Peng Tai. Our family also dabbles in meteorological weapons, but we can't compare to the Rong family."

"Greetings, Deity!"

Peng Tai bowed respectfully to Jordan.

Seeing this, Jamie walked over curiously. "Jordan, how did you become a Deity?"

Jordan made a shushing gesture and winked at Jamie.

Jamie laughed wickedly and thought to himself: 'Hahaha, you punk. So you lied to them.'

It was not that Jordan didn't want to tell Jamie the truth. But Jamie had tricked him so many times previously that Jordan wanted to trick him this time.

Anyway, they were brothers. Jamie would find out sooner or later.

Geng Anli watched as the brothers exchanged meaningful looks, but she didn't say anything. She absolutely believed in Jordan's identity as a Deity. In fact, she had long guessed that Jordan had some unspeakable secret.

Otherwise, it would be impossible for Jordan to create the Mirakuru serum. He wouldn't have dared to barge into the Park and Miyamoto families alone and kill their heads.

Geng Anli walked up to Jordan and whispered. "Deity Jordan, it looks like we'll be staying in the Tianshan Xueling Spruce Forest for an hour. Can you want to predict if we'll be attacked by the Rong family here?"

Jordan smiled. "There's no need to predict. It will definitely happen. Since Rong Bailun has already started attacking, he won't stop. Therefore, everyone, get ready to fight!"

As expected, in less than 20 minutes, the soldiers guarding the perimeter sent a message.

"The Rong family's men have arrived!"

Jamie immediately stood up. "Rong Bailun, that old fellow, really wants to kill us all! Alright, I'll fight you to the death! Jordan, I'll go over to the perimeter to help. Let's kill a few thousand of his soldiers first!"

Jordan hurriedly said, "Don't go. We have many men and holding the Rong family off won't be a problem for now."

Jamie smiled. "It's alright. I like to fight on land the most. Air combat using missiles is not as fun. Don't worry, I have a laser weapon and Phoenix to protect me. Phoenix has been injected with the Mirakuru serum you gave him. He's very powerful now! He can easily block more than 10 bullets for me! Oh yes, why don't I see Dragon protecting you? Where is he?"

Dragon was now the number one fighter in the world. For such a high-level battle, Jordan should have brought Dragon along.

Jordan replied, "I sent Dragon to the US to protect Victoria."

Jamie was surprised. "I'm impressed. It's such a major battle today, but you didn't get Dragon to protect you? You dote on your beloved Victoria too much, don't you?"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 858: Follow Deity Jordan To Our Deaths!

When Lota heard this, she was very envious of Victoria.

To think that Jordan was willing to place his most capable subordinate with Victoria.

Even in such a dangerous situation today, he didn't insist on bringing Dragon along?

'So, Victoria is the woman whom Jordan loves the most.'

Lota naturally knew the story of Jordan and Victoria. She sighed in her heart. 'It looks like the timing of when you appear in someone's life is really important.'

She knew that Victoria was not the best in terms of family background, beauty or age. However, she appeared in Jordan's life when he was at his lowest point and needed love the most. Therefore, Jordan would always cherish her.

However, both Jamie and Lota had misunderstood Jordan.

Jordan did love Victoria very much, but he let Dragon be with Victoria despite this intense battle, because she needed the protection more.

Jordan had predicted that Victoria would be shot. He knew that something would happen to her one day, so he asked Dragon to protect her 24/7.

Since Jordan was a Deity and had been injected with the Mirakuru serum, he had a lesser need for protection. He also had many other capable subordinates by his side. Compared to Victoria, Jordan could handle danger better.

Jamie led his men and fought with the Rong family subordinates for more than half an hour. Both sides suffered many casualties. This was because Rong Bailun only wanted to kill that group. He didn't want to cause chaos across the world.

Therefore, he did not use large-scale lethal weapons. He didn't want to hurt any innocent bystanders or let commoners know of their battle. So they carried out their fight on land.

And in terms of land combat, the Steele, Geng, Haus and Addington families combined were not inferior to the Rong family.

Ban Luming, who had been sent by Rong Bailun, was furious that he had not been able to enter the forest even after more than half an hour.

"Stop the weather weapon and use fire. Burn them to death!" ordered Ban Luming.

The people from the four families were all in the forest and surrounded by trees. Once a fire was ignited, it would spread far and wide.

"Ah sh*t, they've started a fire. We must escape!"

A subordinate ran over anxiously.

Dieter was very nervous. "Let's continue north!"

Geng Anli said seriously, "No, our planes are all here. We can't stray too far from them. Also, our planes are all damaged and it will take time to repair them. Immediately request for backup. Get someone to send over a fire extinguishing device!"

The Geng and Haus families, as well as Jordan, tried to call for backup.

However, Ban Luming had already thought of this and intercepted their signals, preventing them from calling for reinforcements.

Jordan suddenly asked, "Anli, didn't you say that your family also studies weather weapons? Can you make it rain?"

Dieter cheered up. "That's right, Madam Geng. You have weather weapons too."

Geng Anli felt a little awkward because she wasn't very confident in her weather weapon. But since Jordan made this request, she instructed Peng Tai. "Activate the weather weapon."

Peng Tai fired a weather weapon into the sky. Soon, raindrops fell.

However, the raindrops were too small to have much effect on the fire.

Dieter was exasperated. "Madam Geng, are you kidding me? How can this bit of rain extinguish the fire?!"

Geng Anli was very embarrassed. "I'm sorry, that's all we can do now."

Jordan consoled her. "It's alright. It's enough that you can do this. I can help you increase the intensity of the rain to extinguish a fire."

Geng Anli was shocked. "Are you going to..."

Jordan smiled. "I can help the Miyamoto family make the Mirakuru serum and Shaun develop the mind-transplant procedure. So I can also help you make a weather weapon stronger than the Rong family's!"

Geng Anli knelt in excitement. "Thank you, Deity Jordan!"

Peng Tai also knelt on the ground. "Deity Jordan, our weather weapon research team is on the plane. We will do our best to not let you down!"

Dieter added. "I've also brought my family's top scientific team to help you."

Lota also raised her hand. "I have a team too! Let's study weather weapons together. I believe that with Jordan's Deity ability, we will definitely be able to develop a more powerful weather weapon!"

Soon, an hour passed.

Outside the forest, Ban Luming's mood improved as he watched the flames rise.

"Very good. In another half an hour, they will probably all be burned to death. Otherwise, they would take a risk and come out. In that case, they will fall into our ambush! Master Rong, I'll be able to complete the mission soon!"

The loyal Ban Luming had no idea that at this moment, Rong Bailun and Shaun were undergoing the mind-transplant procedure.

However, at this moment.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The sounds of weapons being fired into the sky could be heard.

“Those are... weather weapons? Hehe, I’ve heard from Master Rong that the Geng family has dabbled in weather weapons as well. However, they are 50 years behind the Rong family!”

But to his surprise, it suddenly rained heavily just two minutes later!

Pitter-patter...

Splish splash!

“Damn! What the heck is with the size of this raindrop! I’ve never seen a raindrop the size of a fist!”

Ban Luming was stunned.

The rain was very intense, and the raindrops were especially heavy. They hurt his head when they made contact! The torrential rain would probably extinguish the fire in the forest in no time!

“Damn it, the technology level of those four families can’t be underestimated. They actually developed such big raindrops. I have to tell Master Rong about this immediately!”

Ban Luming immediately called Rong Bailun, but he did not answer. He knew that his master must be very busy now. Without thinking too much, he took a video and sent it to Rong Bailun.

Meanwhile in the forest, Geng Anli and the others were all celebrating.

“Deity Jordan, you’re amazing. You easily developed a new liquid substance and the rain produced is worlds apart from the earlier weapon! This is probably something we would have taken at least 10 more years to figure out.”

Dieter kept sucking up to Jordan. “Deity Jordan, until today, I didn’t know who the greatest person in the world is! Is it Rong Bailun? No, no, no, he’s not worthy! You are the one who will rule the world in the future! The Haus family is willing to pledge our lives to the Deity!”

“We will follow Deity Jordan to our deaths!”

The people from the four families shouted in unison!

Chapter 859: Shaun: I Did It!!

In an extremely short period of time, Jordan managed to help the Geng family increase the power of their weather weapon.

This terrifying ability stunned the people from the other families.

Dieter, Geng Anli and the rest all knew that only by following Jordan would they have a brilliant future!

Likewise, the Rong family was so powerful now because of help from the previous Deity. Since the death of the previous Deity, the Rong family's technology had actually been stagnant for a long time.

As long as they had Jordan, it would only be a matter of time before the Haus, Geng and Schmid families surpassed the Rong family!

As for the Steele family, they were already in control now!

Jordan saw the proud heads of the eight great families, including Geng Anli and Dieter, kneeling in front of him and submitting to him.

He was also thrilled!

"Grandpa, if only you were alive. If you could see that the other families have all submitted to our Steele family, you would definitely be very happy!"

Seeing that the fire could not burn them to death, Ban Luming once again sent people to fight with the four families.

The battle was a tie. No one had an absolute advantage. It was impossible for Ban Luming's men to infiltrate the forest and kill Jordan, the Gengs and the rest.

Meanwhile, Jordan and his group could not access their planes to escape.

The two sides fell into a stalemate.

More than an hour later, on the second floor of the secret base in western China.

Knock knock!

One of the Rong family's subordinates knocked on the door of the room on the second floor. He called out.

"Master Rong, are you still inside? Are you alright?"

Ever since Rong Bailun had gone upstairs with Geng, he had not appeared again.

It was no surprise that his subordinates were a little worried.

However, they also knew that Rong Bailun wore a protective device. It shouldn't be a problem for him to deal with a little girl.

In the room, Paris Gildon was extremely nervous. She was the only one in the room now. If his subordinates barged in, she would be in deep trouble!

Therefore, Paris Gildon hurriedly used the microphone that Shaun had given her to imitate Rong Bailun's voice. She shouted back.

"Of course I'm inside! Don't disturb me if there's nothing important! I'm talking to Geng Xiqing about something very confidential. If you dare to eavesdrop, I'll blow your head off!"

Outside the door, the subordinate trembled in fear.

"I wouldn't dare! Mr. Ban said that he couldn't contact you, so he asked me to come over and check. Currently, we are in a stalemate with the four families at the Tianshan Xueling Spruce Forest. The firepower of the four families is very strong, and they managed to escape all our traps.

"Mr. Ban said that ordinary attacks aren't working, so he wants to ask your permission to use the Rong family's S-grade biochemical weapons to attack. Right before Mr. Ban left, you said that we can only kill the people from the four families. We are not allowed to use large-scale weapons of mass destruction. We have to minimize the impact on the outside world.

"Once we activate our biochemical weapons, I'm afraid some innocent people will be affected to varying degrees."

"Biochemical weapons?"

Paris Gildon was stunned for a moment. She did not know much about military stuff. All she knew was that biochemical weapons could be poisonous gas or viruses.

And the harm these things could do to a person was fatal.

'No, Geng Xiqing is among them. She's pregnant with my child. I can't let anything happen to my child!'

Paris Gildon suddenly remembered that her original body was currently in the forest.

So Paris Gildon said into the microphone, "You must not use biochemical weapons! You bunch of trash, can't you defeat them without it? If you have to rely on the most advanced weapons for everything, what's the point of me training so many of you?!"

“Yes, yes, yes. I’ll inform Mr. Ban now.”

His subordinate shivered as he quickly responded.

“Wait a minute.”

Paris Gildon stopped him and instructed. “Tell Ban Luming that he can execute everyone else, but he has to spare the life of the American woman Paris Gildon. You don’t need to know the reason!”

“Yes, Master!”

“Leave then! Don’t bother me if there’s nothing else!”

This magical microphone was indeed very powerful. It imitated Rong Bailun’s voice perfectly. However, this disguise was not a permanent solution.

“Master Shaun, please come back quickly. Otherwise our plan might be exposed!”

Paris Gildon prayed with both hands.

...

Four hours later, in Suzhou, at Shaun’s temporary base.

Shaun and Rong Bailun’s mind-transplant procedure had been completed. The two of them were lying on the operating table, unconscious.

Actually, a few hours ago, right after Shaun had been anesthetized and was about to undergo the mind-transplant procedure.

The atmosphere at the scene was very treacherous. All the researchers looked at each other as if they had something to say.

However, in the end, no one spoke.

Actually, at that point in time, everyone had the idea of replacing Shaun to take Rong Bailun’s identity.

Rong Bailun’s body was here in their hands. They could be the one to dominate the world if they switched minds with him.

But in the end, no one dared to try such a dangerous act.

After all, Shaun was too terrifying. Anyone who betrayed him would not have a good ending.

Not long after, Rong Bailun's body began to move slightly.

First, it was a finger, then his feet, then his eyes.

Rong Bailun's eyes slowly opened.

All the doctors in charge of the surgery knelt down.

"Congratulations, Master. The procedure was a success!"

They all knew that the awakened Rong Bailun was no longer the real Rong Bailun, but Shaun!

From the moment Shaun woke up, he looked around as if a lifetime had passed. He frowned because of his headache. He opened his mouth but realized that he couldn't speak.

After more than 10 seconds, Shaun finally managed to form some words. "Doctor, I... I...I... success?"

Everyone nodded. "Yes, Master. You've successfully switched minds with Rong Bailun. You're now the head of the Rong family!"

Hearing this, Shaun was extremely excited. He hurriedly removed the tubes from his body and got off the operating table. He fell immediately after planting his feet on the floor.

"Master, you've just swapped minds with someone else. Your body still needs time to adapt. You can't walk for the time being. Let me help you with whatever you want to do."

Shaun instructed. "Mirror, I want a mirror!"

The doctor put Shaun in a wheelchair and pushed him in front of a large mirror.

Seeing the face of Rong Bailun in the mirror, Shaun couldn't help crying.

"I succeeded! I finally succeeded! I have endured for 20 years and have finally become the number one person in the world. Hahahaha! From now on, everyone in the world will submit to me!"

Chapter 860: I'm Not The Number One In The World!

Shaun cried tears of joy. His long-cherished dream had finally come true today!

For as long as he could remember, he hated his background and his strange “demonic techniques”. He wanted to become a noble man with elite status. He wanted to have sons and daughters with a high-born bloodline.

Now, he could achieve all of this!

Shaun looked at himself in the mirror for a long time. He had never been so narcissistic before. He was satisfied with every feature and organ on his body.

Even if Rong Bailun had been a slovenly person who didn’t take good care of his appearance, Shaun would still feel that he was very handsome!

“Where’s Rong Bailun? Is he still unconscious? Wake him up quickly. I have something to ask him!” Shaun commanded.

He knew that time was tight. Swapping minds with Rong Bailun was only the first step. He had to return to the base as soon as possible. He couldn’t let Rong Bailun’s subordinates know that he had left.

Otherwise, if Rong Bailun’s family found out about this, they might realize that something was wrong with him.

The doctor injected a powerful awakening agent into Shaun’s body. The body soon started to move.

Rong Bailun slowly woke up.

When he opened his eyes, he saw a group of doctors in white coats. He realized that he was on an operating table.

Rong Bailun asked weakly, “Where... Where am I?”

Shaun laughed and said to his subordinate,

“Help him up!”

“Yes!”

Two doctors supported Rong Bailun to a seating position.

When Rong Bailun saw Shaun, his pupils immediately dilated!

He was looking at himself!

How could a person look at himself?

And without a mirror!

“Am I in a dream now? Damn it, I must still be in a dream. Otherwise, how could I see myself?”

Rong Bailun was very confused.

Shaun laughed out loud. “Rong Bailun, you’re not in a dream. This is reality! Do you want to know what happened? We had a mind-transplant procedure! We swapped minds! Now, I’m Rong Bailun while you are me!

“Doctor, give him a mirror. Let him see what he looks like now!”

A doctor took out a square mirror and placed it in front of Rong Bailun.

Rong Bailun saw Shaun’s wretched face in the mirror!

He couldn’t believe that this was real. Fortunately, he was a person who handled the most advanced technology regularly.

As a result, he didn’t lose control of his emotions. He knew that this was possible.

In his anger, Rong Bailun knocked the mirror to the ground and questioned Shaun.

“Mind-transplant technology? Even my Rong family hasn’t developed such technology. How did you do it?!”

Shaun smiled. “Everyone has their own specialization! Ever since I learned that there are secret families and Deities in this world, I decided to focus on developing the mind-transplant procedure. From the beginning, my target was you. However, I knew that you were not easy to deal with, so I used other methods to control the Schmid’s first.

“Even while controlling the Schmid family, I still treat you as my final goal in life. Originally, I still needed at least 20 years to complete the mind-transplant procedure. But by then, you’ll be f*cking 70 years old. You also know that people from the eight families can’t live past 80 years old. I was worried you won’t be able to escape this curse.

“Even if I swap minds with you, I will only have 10 years left to live. It’s not worth it! Fortunately, the heavens don’t disappoint those who work hard. I met a new Deity. It was him who helped me complete the mind-transplant procedure earlier!”

Rong Bailun was stupefied. The shock he felt at this moment was far greater than the shock of knowing that his mind had been switched!

“What did you say? A new Deity has appeared in this world? Is what you said true?!”

Rong Bailun became extremely serious.

Shaun smiled. "I've already switched minds with you. Why would I still need to lie to you? I don't mind telling you. You know the new Deity too. He's Jordan from the Steele family!"

"Jordan!"

Rong Bailun frowned on hearing Jordan's name. "To think that he's actually the new Deity..."

Rong Bailun's mind raced with many thoughts. It was as if he had many things he wanted to re-analyze.

Shaun continued. "Rong Bailun, I've already told you a huge secret. Now, it's your turn. What is the most powerful secret research your family has done over the years? I've completely replaced you now. Even if you don't tell me, I'll find out sooner or later."

Rong Bailun seemed to be still immersed in the fact that Jordan was a Deity Jordan. He paused for a moment before looking up at Shaun with disdain.

"Hmph, you'll probably kill me no matter what, right?"

Shaun laughed out loud. "You are indeed Chairman Rong. Your ability to predict is not inferior to that brat, Jordan! That's right. There can only be one Rong Bailun in this world, and that is me. I can't allow you to continue living in this world. You will be a threat to me!"

Shaun was a very cautious person. He couldn't let the real Rong Bailun remain alive if he wanted to completely replace him. Otherwise, with Rong Bailun's sharp wits and cunning methods, he would definitely find a way to tell the truth to the Rong family.

Rong Bailun had to die!

Rong Bailun shook his head. "Shaun, I have to admit that you're a terrifying fellow. You've been plotting for so long just to take over my body. Apart from you and Deity Jordan, I believe no one else in the world can do this."

After learning that Jordan was the new Deity Jordan, Rong Bailun became extremely respectful to him, even though Jordan was not present.

Shaun smiled. "You flatter me. In order to become you, I've put in a lot of effort, including imitating your accent, learning your hobbies like baking, golf and basketball, and well as watching all your favorite sci-fi movies. Don't worry. After I become you, I'll continue to do what you usually do. It won't disrupt your style."

Rong Bailun snorted. "Shaun, don't be too smug. Do you really think you're number one in the world just because you've become me? Do you really think that by becoming me, you can control the entire Rong family and know the top secret of our family? Let me tell you, you won't get what you want!"

Shaun laughed out loud. "How funny! When I go back, no one will know that I'm an impostor! I can enter any secret base of the Rong family! I will know all the secrets in time! Then let me ask you, why won't I be number one in the world?! Why won't I be able to control the Rong family and the entire world?!"

Rong Bailun replied calmly, "Because I am not number one in the world!"

Chapter 861: Shaun Dominates The Rong Family!

Shaun was stunned. Rong Bailun said that he wasn't the number one in the world?

Who didn't know that Rong Bailun was the head of the eight secret families? If he wasn't the number one in the world, who was?!

Shaun thought for a moment. Rong Bailun didn't have any brothers. He only had an older sister and a younger sister.

The two sisters had never appeared at the great meeting. Shaun heard that they had gentle characters and were not ambitious at all. They couldn't possibly be controlling things from behind the scenes.

As for Rong Bailun's son, he had always been very obedient. He was not as arrogant as the second-generation heirs of the Park and Miyamoto families.

Therefore, they were not threats for the top position in the Rong family.

Shaun analyzed carefully and believed that there was probably no one else in the Rong family.

"Hmph, if you're not the number one in the world, who is?! All these years, any changes in the world were decided by you alone!"

Rong Bailun explained. "Mr. Handley, it's not as simple as you think. Let me go and I'll tell you all the secrets about our family. When the time comes, the two of us and Deity Jordan will work together to do something unprecedented!"

Rong Bailun was inviting Shaun and Jordan to work with him?

Shaun smiled. "Rong Bailun, you said so much just to make me let you go? Hehe, dream on. I'm such a cautious person. How can I fall for your trick?!"

Rong Bailun looked anxious. "I'm not lying to you. I don't care what my body looks like. It doesn't matter to me. My family really wants to understand your dark methods. Deity Jordan will also be a great help to us. This world is very big. We can explore it together!"

Rong Bailun was sincere, but Shaun laughed loudly.

"Do you think I'll believe your nonsense?! Now that I've already replaced you, why should I still cooperate with you?!"

Shaun snatched a gun from his subordinate and pointed it at Rong Bailun.

"I'll give you one more chance. What is your family's secret? If you don't tell me, I'll kill you immediately!"

Rong Bailun shook his head in disappointment. "Shaun, you won't succeed."

Bang!

Shaun didn't say anything else and shot his original self.

He killed Rong Bailun.

Everyone at present looked at each other in fear.

The one who just died was Shaun's original body!

Even when faced with his original body, Shaun didn't care at all. He could kill just him like that.

Silence descended for a full 10 seconds. Then, a doctor asked.

"Master Shaun, what should we do with your body?"

In the eyes of these subordinates, Shaun's corpse was incomparably noble and could not be casually disposed of.

However, Shaun slapped the doctor!

Smack!

Shaun said coldly, "Open your eyes wide and see clearly. I'm Rong Bailun now! As for that corpse, you can do whatever you want with it. Shaun Handley has nothing to do with me!"

Shaun had already transformed into Rong Bailun. He no longer cared about his past self.

“Yes, Master Rong!”

The doctors addressed Shaun as “Master Rong”.

“Hahaha, prepare the plane. It’s time for me to return.”

“Yes, Master Rong!”

Shaun boarded a plane and quickly returned to the secret base in western China.

Upon arrival, he quietly climbed to the second floor. When Paris Gildon saw Rong Bailun appear alone, she instinctively took a step back in fear.

“Are... are you Master Shaun, or...”

Paris Gildon didn’t know if Shaun had succeeded.

Shaun revealed his signature evil smile. From that smile, Paris Gildon instantly knew that this was Shaun!

“Master Shaun, you succeeded!”

Paris Gildon threw herself into Shaun’s arms excitedly.

Shaun patted her shoulder and said, “Remember, from this moment on, call me Master Rong. You’re also no longer Paris Gildon, but Geng Xiqing. Understand?”

Paris Gildon nodded happily. “Yes, yes!”

Shaun hugged her happily. “From now on, this world belongs to us! By the way, did anything happen during the few hours I was gone? Did anyone come in?”

Paris Gildon shook her head. “It’s all thanks to the microphone you gave me. I reprimanded Rong Bailun’s subordinates and they didn’t dare to come in.”

Shaun was very pleased. “Very good. This way, no one will know that I left, and no one will suspect me.”

Holding her hand, Shaun pushed the door open and walked out.

The moment they came out, the Rong family’s personal soldiers surrounded them.

“Master Rong!”

Shaun nodded at them. "Xiqing and I were sleeping in the room earlier, so we were delayed. Listen carefully. Xiqing is my woman now. She will be your madam from now on, understand?"

The soldiers immediately knelt on the ground. "Greetings, Madam Rong!"

Paris Gildon played with her short hair, enjoying this feeling very much.

Shaun asked, "Did anything important happen when I was resting just now?"

A subordinate reported, "Sir, we fought fiercely with the four families for a few hours, but unfortunately, they still managed to board their planes. Now, they've all flown to a secret base camp belonging to the Geng family on Hainan Island. Our men have all rushed over and are preparing for the next attack."

Shaun was very angry. "What? Jordan, Geng Anli and the rest are still alive? You bunch of trash. We are the great Rong family with so many advanced technological weapons. How could you let them escape? What is that fellow, Ban Luming, doing? Did he use any weather weapons? Did he use any biochemical weapons? Did I develop so many powerful weapons just for show?!"

Shaun knew that the Rong family's weapons were terrifying.

If put into use, even with Jordan's ability to predict the future, he would not be able to resist the might of such powerful weapons. But if it was just an ordinary land battle, they would not be able to defeat Jordan's Deity ability.

His subordinate was confused. "Master Rong, didn't you say earlier that we are not allowed to use any biochemical weapons?"

Paris Gildon covered her mouth, her heart pounding in fear.

'Oh no, I forgot to tell Master Shaun!'

Chapter 862: Giving His Daughter As A Gift?

Shaun also felt awkward. He had switched minds with Rong Bailun and finally gained permanent possession of his body.

But there was one flaw. He did not inherit Rong Bailun's memories.

As a result, he had no idea what Rong Bailun did or said before. But luckily this was just a lowly underling, not even a core subordinate like Ban Luming.

Therefore, Shaun did not panic. If this underling suspected something, he could just kill him.

Shaun said steadily, "Don't you know how to move with the times? I didn't want to bring out the big guns just now because I didn't want to attract too much attention. But things are different now! The consequences of letting a tiger escape back into the mountains are very serious. We have to kill them all in one go!

"Prepare the plane immediately. I want to go to Hainan Island myself and kill them!"

Be it Shaun or Rong Bailun, they viewed the four families with the same hatred. They both wanted to kill them.

As for Shaun, he didn't care if the Geng and Haus families, Lota or the rest lived or died.

But Jordan had to die!

This was because Jordan knew all of Shaun's secrets, and he had the ability to predict the future.

If Jordan saw in a vision that he had already switched minds with Rong Bailun, he might inform the Rong Bailun family and ruin Shaun's plans! In addition, Shaun was now the number one person in the world. As the Deity, Jordan was the only threat to him.

As long as he killed Jordan, Shaun would definitely dominate this world!

"Yes!"

The subordinate hurriedly brought him onto the plane. But after boarding the plane, Shaun asked this subordinate to stay behind.

Soon after, this subordinate was secretly assassinated by Shaun's men. As Shaun had misspoken earlier and this subordinate might suspect him.

Shaun was so cautious that he would never leave him alive.

Shaun flew over to Hainan Island to meet with Ban Luming.

When Ban Luming saw Shaun, he knelt on the ground. "I'm sorry, Master Rong! The people from the four families are too difficult to deal with. We couldn't wipe them out in the Tianshan Xueling Spruce Forest and let them escape."

Shaun glared at Ban Luming.

“Ban Luming, I’ve already suffered your incompetence many times. Don’t think that I won’t toss you aside just because you’ve been with me for so many years! If this continues, you’d better retire early!”

Ban Luming was Rong Bailun’s most trusted subordinate. He had been with him for many years and was an absolutely loyal subject. Moreover, he was very familiar with him.

Now that Shaun had replaced Rong Bailun, he would definitely kick Ban Luming out. It was similar to when a new president took position, he would definitely replace all the important ministers with his own people.

It was the same for leaders in the private sector. The new CEOs would slowly turn the core management into their own people. The original management team would be slowly forced out.

In addition, Ban Luming was very familiar with Rong Bailun. Shaun was afraid that he would realize sooner or later that he was not the real Rong Bailun. For safety reasons, Shaun would find an excuse to get rid of him sooner or later.

Of course, Ban Luming was not just any ordinary subordinate. He was Rong Bailun’s most trusted aide. He could not be kicked out just like that. Shaun had to take things slowly.

Otherwise, it would definitely arouse the suspicion of the entire Rong family.

As expected, Ban Luming became very nervous. “Please give me another chance! I won’t disappoint you again!”

Shaun snorted. “Where are Jordan and the rest now?”

Picking up a tablet, Ban Luming opened a map. He projected it in front of Shaun and zoomed in on the capital of Hainan Island, Haikou.

“Sir, they’re currently in this underground fort in Haikou. This fort seems to be the Geng family’s secret base. The defense system is very powerful. It can intercept all our weapons and is comparable to our family.

“Sir, I request to use weapons of mass destruction. With the Geng family’s defense strength, if we attack at our current level, we won’t be able to kill them even if we carry on for 10 years.”

Shaun nodded. Unlike Rong Bailun, he did not care about the lives of ordinary people. As long as Jordan died, he didn’t mind killing millions of innocent people. After all, there were so many people in the world.

Shaun said, "We should have done this earlier! Immediately use our biochemical weapons. Release the poisonous gas!"

Ban Luming got very excited. "Yes, Sir! What kind of poisonous gas bomb do you want to use on them?"

Shaun paused for a moment. He didn't know much about the specific types of poisonous gas bombs. He only knew that they were the most difficult to defend against, and their lethality was terrifying.

"What types are there?"

Ban Luming explained. "There are sneezing gas bombs, tear gas bombs, corrosive gas bombs, and asphyxiating gas bombs."

Shaun thought for a moment and replied, "Release tear gas bombs on them. I want to smile as I watch them cry!"

"Yes!"

...

Meanwhile, in the Geng family's secret underground fort in Haikou.

Jordan, Jamie, Geng Anli, Dieter and the rest sat at a long table and enjoyed food and wine together. Although it was a temporary shelter, Geng had furnished this underground fort beautifully and luxuriously. Moreover, there were all kinds of amenities and supplies, including food, clothes and entertainment.

This was the Geng family's territory. Logically speaking, Geng Anli should be sitting at the head of the table. However, ever since she found out that Jordan was a Deity Jordan, how could she still dare to sit at the head?

She made Jordan take the seat of honor.

Holding a glass of red wine glass, Jamie was already a little tipsy. Over the past few hours, he had fought fiercely and killed many people. He felt very satisfied.

Jamie looked at Jordan. "Jordan, you're really something. You're really a Deity. You lied to me just now. Haha, I didn't expect the new Deity to be from our family. Do you think Jesse will still dare to fight with you for the position of family head after he finds out?"

Jordan smiled. "Let him be the head of the Steele family."

Beside him, Dieter hurriedly said, "That's right. Deity Jordan is the master of the world. Why would he care about a small position in the Steele family? Deity Jordan, you have the genes of a Deity. Your descendants might have the same ability! Please forgive my rudeness, but I have a presumptuous request. I hope you can grant it!"

Jordan asked, "What request?"

Dieter pulled over a girl with a noble aura. "This is my youngest daughter, Mia. She's only 21 years old this year, and I want to offer Mia to you. Please accept her!"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 863: Haus' Fawning!

Mia was a typical German girl. She was tall and had an exquisite face. She looked a little like the popular German model Chloe. She was on the slender side and looked very obedient. She looked very alluring in a white off-shoulder sweater.

Mia lowered her head respectfully. "I will definitely serve Deity Jordan with all my heart and be a good wife."

Previously, the Haus family had been disdainful of Jordan. Now, Dieter was offering up his precious daughter?

It was rumored that Mia was originally set to marry Rong Bailun's son.

Jordan glanced at her and shook his head. He already had two wives, but even if he was single now...

'So what if your daughter is as beautiful as a fairy? Must I take her just because you offered her to me?'

Seeing that Jordan did not seem to be interested in Mia, Dieter hurriedly said, "I have two other daughters. Although they're married, as long as Deity Jordan likes them, I can immediately get them to be with you!"

Jordan continued to drink indifferently.

Jamie laughed loudly and joked, "Dieter, don't you know that my brother likes mature women? Young and beautiful ones are not that attractive to him. I heard that Mrs. Haus was a great beauty 20 years ago. She was the number one beauty in Germany, right?"

Dieter didn't hesitate at all. "I'll call my wife now!"

"Enough."

Jordan put down his wine glass and rolled his eyes at Jamie. "Don't ruin my reputation. I'm a Deity now. My reputation is important, okay?"

Jordan said to Dieter, "You don't have to be so eager to suck up to me. You've always been a pacifist and leaned more toward Rong Bailun's side. I don't trust you at all. You have to follow me and prove your loyalty first before thinking of offering your wife or daughters."

Dieter had been fawning all over Jordan, but the latter did not appreciate it.

If Dieter hadn't shamelessly followed them like a dog, Jordan wouldn't have cared about his life and death.

"Yes, yes, yes. Deity Jordan, my loyalty to you is absolute. You will feel it soon! Mia, hurry up and pour some wine for him!"

Mia walked over and poured wine for Jordan, who did not refuse.

Picking up on her fragrance, Jamie, who was sitting beside Jordan, couldn't help giving Mia a few more glances.

"Tsk, tsk. Mia is really beautiful. Jordan, if you don't want this woman, I'll take her."

Jamie was drunk and wanted to have a good time with Mia.

However, Dieter quickly objected. "Jamie, Mia is dedicated to Deity Jordan. Although you're his biological brother, you're a common man like us. You're just a mortal. You're not worthy of my daughter!"

Jamie was very angry. "F*ck you. My younger brother is a Deity. I have my younger brother to protect me. I can have any woman I want."

With that, Jamie pulled Mia into his arms.

"Ah, no."

Mia clearly didn't like Jamie and kept struggling, but he didn't intend to let go of her.

Previously, Jordan already found the matter between Jamie and Park Sora ridiculous. Jordan had always wanted to berate Jamie for his despicable behavior toward beautiful women.

Therefore, Jordan immediately chided Jamie. "Jamie, let Mia go. Don't be rude to her!"

Jamie didn't go against Jordan's wishes. He smiled and said, "Jordan, you seem to be very worried about her. Alright, I won't snatch her from you then."

With that, he pushed Mia onto Jordan.

“Aiya.”

Mia was a delicate woman. Pushed around like this, she fell into Jordan’s arms in a daze.

Jordan didn’t mind. He could easily catch her with one hand.

Unexpectedly, after Mia fell into his arms, she took the opportunity to kiss Jordan.

“Wow, Jordan, it looks like Mia is really interested in you. You should just have her tonight. Hahaha, don’t waste her good intentions!”

Jamie took the opportunity to tease Jordan.

Dieter smiled. “If Deity Jordan can make Mia pregnant with your child, it will be the glory of our family!”

Jordan was speechless. ‘Wow, to think that the Haus family is one of the eight secret families. But you’re actually so shameless.’

Jordan looked at Mia and said indifferently, “Mia, I advise you to give up. Even Lota can’t conceive my child, let alone you.”

Picking up a tissue, Jordan wiped the lipstick off his face. He sighed inwardly. Fortunately, Lota left right after finishing her dinner and did not see Mia kissing Jordan. Otherwise, she would probably lose her temper.

At this moment, Lota had arrived at a library in the underground fort to look for Geng Xiqing.

Geng Xiqing wasn’t reading. She was sitting quietly on the floor in a daze.

Lota walked over and asked, “Xiqing, why are you here alone? Why didn’t you stay at the dining table for a while longer and chat with the others?”

Geng Xiqing shook her head. “I’ve tried to be close with Mom as before, but I sense a distance between us. It’s as if she’s unwilling to talk to me.”

Lota sighed. “You can’t blame her. You have a completely different face now. Although your mother knows that this is you, she must feel strange looking at this unfamiliar face. Don’t worry, it’ll be fine after some time.”

Geng Xiqing was grateful for Lota’s comfort. “Thank you, Lota. Why did you come looking for me? Shouldn’t you have stayed with your Jordan a little longer? Ever since Dieter’s beautiful daughter Mia found out that Jordan is a deity, her eyes have never left him. You have to be careful that Mia might snatch your Jordan away.”

Lota knew Jordan very well. "No, Jordan only has Lauren and Victoria in his heart now. He won't fancy other women. I came looking for you because I wanted you to continue helping me draw."

"Draw the story between you and Jordan?" Geng Xiqing asked.

Before this, Geng Xiqing had drawn many paintings about Lota and Jordan.

Lota liked those paintings very much. Every time she saw them, it was as if she was reminiscing about the past.

Lota nodded. "Yes."

Geng Xiqing thought for a moment and suddenly smiled wickedly. "Alright, but this time, I want to draw you two while you were in that special room! Tell me how you raped Deity Jordan during those 24 hours. I want to draw all the details!"

Lota's face instantly turned red. "Xiqing, you're the disciple of the world's most distinguished painter. How can you draw such erotic paintings?!"

But right after that, Lota whispered, "Xiqing, after you finish the painting, can you give it to me to keep?"

Chapter 864: Poisonous Gas Attack!

Although Lota appeared resistant on the outside, she was inwardly thrilled. That night in that special room was the only sweet memory she had with Jordan.

However, memories would slowly fade with time. If they could be painted out. It was quite meaningful to turn a mental image into a physical picture.

Geng Xiqing said in a half-joking tone. "No, if I give it to you, won't you be hugging my painting to sleep every night? For the sake of your health, I shouldn't give it to you. Why don't I give it to Jordan after it's done?"

Lota was about to cry. "Xiqing, stop fooling around. Jordan will scold me to death if he sees it."

Geng Xiqing smiled. "I'm just joking with you. Let's go find some paint supplies. I'll draw it for you now!"

Hearing this, Lota happily agreed.

“Yes, yes!”

...

While Geng Xiqing and Lota were happily painting, Jordan was still at dinner with the others. Everyone had drunk a lot. Each person had at least two bottles of red wine.

Currently, the four families were not completely out of danger. The Rong family could attack at any time. But they dared to drink so much as they had a special hangover medicine that only the eight secret families had.

It could release the alcohol from their bodies and help them regain their full senses within minutes. That was why they could be so unrestrained in enjoying themselves.

Dieter had been fawning over Jordan since the meal started.

“Deity Jordan, can you predict what Rong Bailun will do next? Since their people can’t break in now, will they retreat?”

Geng Anli said in a drunken manner, “Hmph. Rong Bailun isn’t someone who will back down when things get difficult.”

Geng Anli had drunk the most. She had lost her son, Geng Weilun, and then found out that her daughter had switched minds with someone else.

Therefore, she needed alcohol the most to numb herself.

Jordan had always been very good at drinking. Coupled with the fact that he had been injected with the Mirakuru serum, drinking two bottles of wine had no real effect on him.

“I’ll make a prediction now and see what Rong Bailun will do next,” said Jordan.

Clap, clap, clap.

Dieter immediately applauded. “We welcome Deity Jordan to begin predicting!”

Jordan immediately closed his eyes and started his prediction.

Dieter instructed his daughter, Mia, “Deity Jordan is working so hard to predict the future for our four families. Mia, give him a massage.”

Mia was also very obedient. “Yes, Father.”

Mia walked up to Jordan and started massaging his shoulders.

'Oh my goodness.'

Jordan sensed Mia's unique fragrance and gentle hands. He knew that Mia was massaging him.

Although he wanted to stop it, he had already started having a vision, so he didn't stop her. Since the Haus family was so eager to be Jordan's slave, massaging him and pouring wine for him, Jordan would just let them be.

But Mia only massaged his shoulders for a few moments before crouching down to massage his legs.

Earlier, Mia had kissed him without permission so Jordan was really worried that she would take advantage of him again. He could only quickly finish his vision of what would happen next.

Soon, a very tragic scene appeared before his eyes.

Poisonous gas was everywhere. Countless citizens wore masks or covered their mouths with cloth as they drove away from the city. The four families also suffered countless casualties with their subordinates!

"Damn it!"

Jordan opened his eyes and saw Mia's increasingly unscrupulous fingers. Mia was crouched in front of him and looked up.

"Are you comfortable? Deity Jordan?"

Smack!

Jordan slapped her. "Who asked you to touch me?! From now on, don't come near me without my permission!"

Jordan withheld his strength. It was just a very light slap. His purpose was just to warn her.

Mia sat on the ground in tears. "I just admire you..."

Jordan snorted. "Admire? Today is not the first time we've met. Why haven't I heard you say that you admired me before? You only started to admire me after knowing that I am a Deity? Let me tell you, Mia. Perhaps you think you have a noble status or that your beauty is unparalleled, but I only like women who were willing to be with me before I achieved greatness!"

After Jordan's identity as a Deity was revealed, countless women threw themselves at him.

However, Jordan did not fancy them at all.

Only women like Lauren and Victoria, who were willing to be with Jordan when he was still in dire straits, were worthy of his love!

Dieter hurriedly stood up and apologized on behalf of his daughter. "Deity Jordan, please calm down. I saw that you had a long day, so I asked Mia to go over and massage your shoulders. Who knew my daughter would be so tactless?"

As they were about to face a powerful enemy, Jordan was not in the mood to fuss about this.

"I've already predicted that the Rong family will use a poisonous tear gas bomb."

Everyone instantly became alert. "What? Poisonous gas?"

Jordan instructed Geng Anli. "The spread of the poisonous gas will be very serious. The citizens nearby will all be affected. Get your subordinates to evacuate the citizens as soon as possible."

Geng Anli nodded and immediately made calls to arrange this. "Can our people defend against the poisonous gas released by the Rong family?"

Jordan shook his head. "No, many of our own people died as well."

Jamie hurriedly consumed the hangover medicine and asked, "Don't we have gas masks? They don't work?"

Jordan said, "I'm afraid they are not very useful. The Rong family's poisonous gas bombs are quite powerful. It looks like we have to customize a gas mask that can defend against their new poisonous gas."

Dieter quickly said, "Only Deity Jordan can do this. I'll get our family's research team to help you."

Ring ring ring.

At this moment, Jordan, Geng Anli and Dieter's phones rang.

Geng Anli glanced at her phone and was shocked. "It's a video-call request from Rong Bailun!"

"Answer it!"

Jordan and the others immediately answered the video call.

Their faces soon appeared in the video call.

Rong Bailun saw Jordan and the other two eating and drinking together. He couldn't help commenting.

"You three damned fellows, how dare you still have the mood to drink and eat here after provoking me!"

For the time being, Jordan could not tell that there was anything strange with Rong Bailun. In order to replace him, Shaun had been imitating his speech and mannerisms.

Jordan said angrily, "Rong Bailun, are you going to use a poisonous gas bomb on us?! Why are you doing this? Do you know how many innocent people will die because of this?! There are also children, some of them only a few years old. Can you bear to see so many lives lost for your own selfish reasons?!"

Chapter 865: Jordan Must Die!

Jordan had already predicted what Rong Bailun would do next. He couldn't help cursing at him.

Made impudent by alcohol, Geng Anli shouted drunkenly at Rong Bailun.

"Rong Bailun, we've known each other for so many years. In my heart, you've always been a responsible person who values the lives of the people of the world. Over the past few decades, you alone have decided the progress of this world. You previously stopped so many terrifying events from happening and gave the world a lot of technological benefits. Why are you choosing to do this today?"

"Bailun, this happened because of me. I thought you killed my son, that's why I attacked you. The Geng family is willing to bear all your losses and make any compensation you want! I want you to stop. Please forgive my mistakes. Is that okay?"

Dieter also said, "Rong Bailun, I'm sure you're very curious, right? How did we know you were going to release a poisonous gas even before you did it? Hehe, to tell you the truth, Jordan is the new Deity!"

At this moment, Jamie suddenly became vigilant. "Shut up, Dieter! What are you doing?!"

Jamie didn't want Dieter to expose Jordan's identity because it might be dangerous to him.

If Rong Bailun knew that Jordan was a Deity, he would definitely try his best to capture him and make him work for him.

Dieter had been fawning all over Jordan, but it was obvious he didn't care about his welfare at all.

Jordan was also startled. He wondered how Rong Bailun would react when he found out that he was a Deity.

But Shaun just laughed out loud. "Jordan is a Deity? Haha, you idiots, you must have fallen into Jordan's trap. He's lying to you!"

Jordan heaved a sigh of relief. It was better if Rong Bailun did not believe that he was a Deity. This way, he would have a higher chance of winning.

However, Dieter insisted on convincing Rong Bailun. "Bailun, Jor..."

Shaun didn't give him a chance to finish. "I've already released the poison gas bomb. I believe you've already experienced the power of my poison gas bomb."

Geng Anli slammed the table angrily. "Rong Bailun! Must the grudge between our two families implicate so many innocent citizens?! If you have any grievances, just target the Geng family! I'm willing to have a proper battle with your Rong family!"

Seeing Geng Anli so agitated, Shaun smiled. "Madam Geng, you've misunderstood. You and I have known each other for many years. I know that you attacked me only because you wanted to avenge your son. I can forgive you!"

Geng Anli was delighted. "Really? Thank you. I knew it. As long as we calm down and talk, there will be room for negotiation!"

"I'm willing to pay 10 times the losses incurred by the Rong family!"

Dieter was also happy. This war started only because Geng Anli attacked the Rong family.

Since Rong Bailun had decided to forgive Geng Anli, this conflict could be resolved. Everyone would be fine.

Dieter was not here to fight a war. He was here to be a peacemaker!

But Rong Bailun had refused to listen to him and insisted on fighting. Moreover, he wanted to get rid of the Haus family as well. As a result, Haus had no choice but to join Jordan and the rest.

Dieter exclaimed happily. "Haha, that's how it should be! Why fight a war? Isn't it better for everyone to get along peacefully? Haha, Chairman Rong, you and Deity Jordan can lead us together in the future. Our families will definitely improve by leaps and bounds!"

Geng Anli also looked forward to that harmonious scene.

It was as if they had returned to decades ago when the first Deity was still around. Everyone lived in peace and with the help of the first Deity, they managed to develop very advanced technology over a short period of time. That was how they achieved their current results.

However, Shaun said, "I can spare your two families, but I must kill Jordan!"

What?

Geng Anli and Dieter were stunned. Rong Bailun wanted to kill Jordan?

Why?

It was Geng Anli who attacked Rong Bailun, not Jordan. Earlier on, Jordan had also persuaded Geng Anli to leave. He was also a peacemaker!

Jamie thought that Rong Bailun wanted to kill Jordan because Jamie had been bombarding him on the battlefield. As Jamie was not part of the video call, he walked up to Jordan and called out to Rong Bailun.

"Rong Bailun! I'll take responsibility for my own actions! I was the one who kept blasting you earlier. It has nothing to do with Jordan. If you have the guts, come at me!"

Shaun chuckled. "You're just trash. You're not worthy of me personally targeting you!"

Jordan pushed Jamie away and looked at Rong Bailun calmly. "Why do you want to kill me?"

Shaun said, "Because your existence makes me very uneasy. Your existence is a threat to me! I have to get rid of you!"

Jordan smiled. "So you do believe Dieter's words. You believe that I'm a Deity?"

Shaun smiled. "It doesn't matter if you're a Deity or not. From the moment you killed the heads of the Park and Miyamoto families, you must die. The eight families won't allow a lawless person like you to exist!"

Jordan clenched his fists. He knew that Rong Bailun had always disliked him. Previously, he had issued a Level One Pursuit Order to kill him.

Geng Anli and Dieter fell silent. Rong Bailun had chosen to forgive them but remained determined to kill Jordan. It was very unexpected.

Shaun said to Geng Anli and Dieter.

“Madam Geng, Mr. Haus, we’ve always been good partners and have always shouldered the fate of the world together. In the future, I hope we can continue to manage this world together. As for Jordan, he’s just an outsider. His family has always been lagging behind. I can choose to let you off as long as you help me kill Jordan!”

He was asking them to kill Jordan?

Geng Anli and Dieter were shocked to their senses! They didn’t even have to take any hangover medicine!

What a joke. Jordan was a Deity. He could predict the future. How could they kill him?!

Geng Anli said, “My relationship with Jordan is not something you can sow discord with just a few words! I will never hurt Jordan!”

Dieter remained silent. If he could kill Jordan, he might really do so.

“Chairman Rong, you must be joking. Jordan is a Deity. How can the few of us kill him?!” Dieter asked.

Jamie was very unhappy. “What do you mean by that? So you would kill my brother if you could?!”

Chapter 866: Jordan, You’re a Coward!

Dieter had always looked down on Jamie.

Especially after he was punched by Jamie at the secret base in western China. He felt very embarrassed by that incident.

Dieter shouted angrily, “I don’t have the ability to kill Jordan, nor do I have the ability to fight Chairman Rong! Deity Jordan and Chairman Rong are both formidable figures. This is a personal grudge between two gods, can we not be implicated? Can you settle this alone? Let me go home!”

Dieter really regretted rushing over to get involved in this matter. Nevertheless, he couldn’t just sit at home while the Geng and Rong families were fighting.

Shaun smiled. "Mr. Haus is right. Jordan, you should come out of the fort and have a proper battle with me. Otherwise, Geng Anli and Dieter will be implicated by you."

Shaun knew Jordan's strength very well. No matter how strong Jordan was, he was the only powerful Steele member. The Steele family's combat strength could not compare to the Rong family at all.

In the face of a mighty physical force, predictions alone were useless. As long as Jordan emerged alone, Shaun would definitely be able to kill him.

Jamie interrupted. "F*ck you. Do you think we'll leave just because you tell us to? If you have the guts, attack us all. Your poisonous gas bombs probably won't be able to enter this underground fort, right?"

Jamie knew that the Geng family fort had top-notch defense. Not only could it block missiles, but it could also block gases. Even if they had to be completely sealed off from the rest of the world, they could still survive.

Suddenly, Mia, who had been throwing herself at Jordan, suddenly changed her attitude towards him.

"So the Deity isn't the most powerful. He doesn't even dare to go out and fight Chairman Rong. It looks like his predictive abilities are not a big deal. Chairman Rong is still the most powerful," Mia said coldly.

Jamie was very displeased. Mia switched sides so quickly.

"Mia, do you want to be Rong Bailun's daughter-in-law again? You don't want to be Deity Jordan's wife anymore?" Jamie asked.

Mia said indifferently, "So what if he's a Deity? He's still being pushed around by Chairman Rong. I'm really glad that someone rejected me just now. Otherwise, I would have come under Chairman Rong's wrath too."

Jordan was very annoyed. She was indeed the type of woman who would just blindly follow whoever was stronger! However, now was not the time for Jordan to show off. If he rashly agreed to fight Rong Bailun directly, he would be the one to die.

Just the poisonous gas outside would poison Jordan to death if he went out now. And the Rong family also had many other amazing high-tech weapons.

Of course, with his Deity ability, he could quickly develop a mask to defend against the poisonous gas.

Jordan could only admit defeat for the time being. "What if I refuse to go out?"

“How cowardly. You are a Deity? Is that for real?”

Mia sneered again.

Mia had always been a proud European girl. She was born into a noble family and was so beautiful. Countless men had been fawning over her all her life. But when she offered herself to Jordan earlier, he had looked at her with disdain and even slapped her.

She took his rejection to heart. She was a Scorpio, a girl who liked to hold grudges.

Jordan glared at Mia.

Jamie said to Jordan as he walked toward Mia.

“Jordan, I reckon you’re no longer interested in this woman. I won’t stand on ceremony then.”

In the past, with Mia’s status, figure and beauty, she might have caught Jordan’s eye. But after Mia said those insulting words, it was impossible for Jordan to have anything else to do with this woman.

Jamie knew that because of Hailey, Jordan hated women who looked down on him.

Jordan loved and cherished women like Victoria, who gave him confidence and was willing to be by his side when he was down and out.

Therefore, Jamie approached the exquisite and beautiful Mia and kissed her.

“B*stard, let go of my daughter!”

Dieter was angered.

After that kiss, Jamie stopped on his own accord. He smiled. “Haha, it felt quite good. Your mouth isn’t as foul as I thought.”

“You...”

Mia knew that Jamie was standing up for Jordan. She hated him very much. But after being punished by him, she didn’t dare to spout nonsense anymore.

Jordan continued to look at “Rong Bailun” in the video.

Shaun said, “Jordan, do you think you’ll be fine as long as you don’t come out? If you continue hiding in the Geng family’s fort? Don’t forget that your two wives are still outside!”

Shaun knew Jordan all too well. He knew that Jordan cared most about his two wives, so he immediately used them to threaten Jordan.

Indeed, Jordan's expression changed drastically. Lauren and Victoria were not by his side now. The consequences would be unimaginable if Rong Bailun killed them!

"Rong Bailun, how dare you!"

Jordan was incensed.

Shaun laughed disdainfully. "Why wouldn't I dare? I know you care for your two wives. One of them is called Lauren Howard, and the other is called Victoria Clarke, right? I know a lot about them. It will be very easy for me to capture and kill them! I'm giving you a chance to choose. Either you come out and die, or you can wait to collect the bodies of your wives!"

With that, Shaun hung up the video call.

"Damn it!"

Jordan was so angry that he pounded the table. He hated it the most when people used his family as hostages.

Shaun had done this previously and now, even Rong Bailun was doing such a despicable thing.

Jordan still did not know that Rong Bailun was now Shaun.

Jamie comforted him. "Jordan, didn't you send Dragon and his team to protect Victoria and Lauren? They should be fine, right?"

Dieter commented nonchalantly. "That's hard to say. The Rong family's technological weapons are far above ours. It's useless no matter how many people you have protecting them."

Jordan once again recalled the scene of Victoria lying in a pool of blood after being shot. He could feel that if something really happened to Victoria, it would be because of Rong Bailun!

"No, I have to go out and rescue them!" Jordan announced.

Jamie reminded him. "But the poisonous gas outside..."

Jordan said, "I'm going to develop a special gas mask now!"

Jordan quickly gathered the researchers from the four families and started the development. He believed that a mere gas mask would not take too much time.

An hour later, Lota received some videos from her subordinates.

In the video, many of the Schmid family subordinates outside the castle were crying and unable to breathe. They slowly fell to the ground and died in pain.

“Oh no, something happened!”

Lota rushed to the hall. “Where’s Jordan?”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 867: Expel Jordan!

Jamie had already sobered up and was fully armed. He walked over and said to Lota.

“Where did you go just now? Rong Bailun called and said that he wanted to kill Jordan’s wives. He is now working with the research team to develop a new gas mask. This fool wants to rush out to rescue his wives! Hurry up and persuade him not to fall into Rong Bailun’s trap.”

When Lota heard this, she immediately became nervous. Without hesitation, she followed Jamie to find Jordan.

At this moment, Jordan had just successfully developed the first special gas mask. This gas mask could block any poisonous gas and had a healing function.

After creating the gas mask, Jordan took it with him and was about to leave.

“Jordan!”

Lota walked over and stopped Jordan. “Where are you going?”

Jordan said seriously, “I have something very important to do. I can’t stay here with you anymore. Stay in the fort and don’t go anywhere until you can leave safely, understand?”

“No, I won’t allow you to leave!”

Lota grabbed Jordan’s arm tightly and refused to let him go.

Lota had just seen the video of many of her subordinates being poisoned to death by the gas. She was already very upset. Now that Jordan was going to risk his own life to go outside, tears immediately started to flow down her cheeks.

“Jordan, you’ll be killed by Rong Bailun if you go out! He’s waiting for you to come out. You’re a Deity. You must have predicted this.”

Lota knew that at this moment, Rong Bailun was definitely watching over the area outside the fort. He was lying in wait, just waiting for Jordan to emerge.

Without the defense system, Jordan would be killed by Rong Bailun’s weapons.

When faced with powerful artillery, it was useless no matter how good Jordan was at predicting. Jordan could not leave now.

In reality, Jordan did not try to predict what would happen next because he knew that the situation would be terrible. However, Jordan could not give up on protecting Lauren and Victoria just because of this.

Jordan looked at the crying Lota, whose heart was aching for him. He reached out to wipe the tears off her face.

“Lota, I’m worried about Lauren and Victoria, just like how you’re worried about me. I can’t leave them in danger.”

Lota’s heart ached. The man she loved so much loved other women.

He loved them the way she loved him.

Although Jordan’s analogy hurt Lota’s heart, it made her understand why Jordan had to go.

If Lota knew that something had happened to Jordan outside, she would not stand by and do nothing. However, Lota still didn’t want Jordan to take the risk. She suddenly said, “Jordan, I’ll get someone to send my invisibility cloaks to Lauren and Victoria, okay? As long as they have the invisibility cloaks, the Rong family won’t be able to find them!”

Invisibility cloak?

Jordan was momentarily taken aback. Although the invention of the Schmid family was not an offensive tool, it was top-notch for self-defense. If Lauren and Victoria were both wearing the invisibility cloaks, it would be difficult to find them in the US.

The Rong family wouldn’t be able to get to them then.

Jamie also spoke up. “That’s right. The Schmid family’s invisibility cloak is so powerful that no one can see them after they put it on. It won’t be a problem for them to hide for half a month.”

Lota promised Jordan. "Yes, yes. I promise I'll get someone to send the invisibility cloaks to them. I can give them a lot of cloaks so that Dragon and his team can wear them as well."

Lota looked at Jordan with a pleading expression. He was very touched.

"Lota!"

Jordan hugged her and said, "Thank you."

A smile appeared on Lota's face. She was relieved that Jordan was no longer planning to leave.

Just like that, another two days passed.

Jordan and the others had been hiding in the underground fort. No one had gone out. Outside the castle, the soldiers of the four major families survived the poisonous gas with the new gas masks.

Although the Rong family had used many weapons and sent many people, they could not break in.

But at the same time, the people from the four families could not leave either.

This was because once they went out, they would be killed by the Rong family without the protection of the defense system.

This made Dieter feel very aggrieved. He had been drinking alone for the past two days. He had drunk a lot of wine that day. After drinking, he ran to knock on Geng Anli's door.

Knock knock!

"Who is it?" Geng Anli asked.

"It's me, Dieter."

Dieter answered.

Putting on a robe, Geng Anli went to open the door. The moment she opened it, she could smell the alcohol on Dieter's breath. Geng Anli pinched her nose in disdain.

"Dieter, can you drink less? You're drunk all day. Do you still look like the head of a secret family?"

Dieter snorted indifferently and walked in. He sat on a soft red sofa in Geng Anli's room.

“Anli, I’ve had enough. I don’t want to stay here anymore!” Dieter complained the moment he sat down.

Geng Anli smiled and pulled her robe closer around her. She walked over. “If you don’t want to stay here, go out. Let me see what kind of missile Chairman Rong will welcome you with.”

Dieter looked dejected. “Anli, this is a personal grudge between Rong Bailun and Jordan. Our families are completely innocent! Jordan has truly failed to live up to the name of a Deity. He actually hid in your fort like a coward, not daring to fight the Rong family head-on!”

Geng Anli sat on a wooden chair and lit a slim lady’s cigarette.

“You can’t say that. Although Jordan is a Deity, he only developed his abilities over the past two years. The Rong family has been researching advanced technological weapons for decades. Whether it’s the number of men or the level of the weapons, Jordan is no match for them. Jordan knows this very well, that’s why he chose to endure this situation.

“I think he did the right thing. Although the Rong family is arrogant now, I believe that in 20 years, the scales of victory will tilt towards Jordan.”

Dieter was furious. “Are we going to stay in this place for 20 years? Do we have to wait for Jordan to develop the ability to fight the Rong family before we can leave?! Anli, we should get Jordan to leave immediately. You’re the master here. I hope you can expel him now! Chairman Rong promised that as long as we get Jordan out, he will spare us after he kills Jordan. He also wants to work with us in the future!”

Chapter 868: Mia’s Scheme!

Geng Anli looked at Dieter curiously. “Did you have another one-on-one conversation with Chairman Rong?”

Dieter nodded. “From Chairman Rong’s tone, he seems to have completely forgiven you and has no grudge against me. He only wants to kill Jordan. Anli, we don’t have to implicate ourselves because of Jordan.

“Kill Jordan or expel him!”

Dieter’s eyes were fierce.

Geng Anli was silent for a moment before shaking her head.

“Jordan is a Deity. If you have the ability to chase him out, do it. I won’t stop you. But I don’t have the ability to provoke him! Alright, don’t stay in my room anymore. You reek of alcohol. I have to spray some perfume.”

With that, Geng Anli pulled Dieter off the sofa and pushed him out.

“Anli...”

Slam!

Geng Anli did not give him a chance to speak again. Afraid that Jordan would see this scene in a vision, she decisively closed the door.

Dieter looked at the closed door, feeling very unhappy.

‘Damn it. Geng Anli clearly hopes to see Jordan leave so that he would not implicate us, but she doesn’t dare to do it. She doesn’t dare to offend him, so she instigated me to do it!’

Dieter fully understood the meaning behind Geng Anli’s words.

‘If you have the ability to chase him out, do it. I won’t stop you.’

But Geng Anli would never take the risk to do it herself. After all, Geng Anli had already offended the Rong family earlier on. If she offended Jordan now...

She would have offended the two most powerful men in this world.

Would the Geng family still be able to survive in this world?

But if Geng Anli didn’t dare to, all the more Dieter wouldn’t dare to either!

Helpless, Dieter went to the bar alone to drink.

Soon after, Mia walked over in her pajamas. She had gone to bed but she couldn’t fall asleep no matter what. She walked out again with a resentful expression.

“Daddy, I don’t want to stay here anymore. When can we leave?”

Mia sat on a stool at the bar and tugged at Dieter’s arm.

Dieter said helplessly, “Mia, if Jordan doesn’t go out and fight with Rong Bailun, we have no choice but to stay here. Rong Bailun said that if Jordan doesn’t come out, we will die with him.”

Hearing this, Mia panicked. "Damn Jordan! Our family didn't do anything and didn't offend anyone. Why should we die here because of him?! To think that he's a Deity. But he doesn't dare to go out and fight the Rong family head-on. I think we shouldn't call him Deity Jordan anymore. Let's call him a good-for-nothing!"

Recalling how she had thrown herself into Jordan's arms and been rejected, Mia felt even angrier.

She poured herself a glass of brandy and downed it before continuing, "Fortunately, that coward Jordan rejected me. Daddy, you offered me to him two days ago. If he really wanted me, I would be disgusted to death now! A piece of trash who only knows how to hide under the protection of the Geng family. Heh, I'm starting to understand why his first wife Hailey betrayed him. If it were me, I would do the same!"

Dieter looked around and said, "My daughter, keep your voice down. It won't be good if Jordan hears you. Although he doesn't have the ability to deal with the Rong family, he is more than capable of dealing with us."

Mia crossed her arms. "I'm not afraid of him! Since we can only be safe after we chase Jordan out, I must find a way to kick him out!"

Dieter said worriedly, "Don't act rashly. You're not his match. Don't be rash."

Mia smiled wickedly. "Don't worry, Dad. I know he's very powerful, so I don't plan to attack him directly. Dad, I heard that Lota and Jordan are very close?"

Dieter nodded. "That's right. Lota has always liked Jordan and wants to marry him. Although Jordan rejected her love, he treats her like a sister. Why are you suddenly asking this?"

Mia smiled evilly. "I don't have the ability to get Jordan to go out, but I have the ability to trick that innocent girl, Lota, to leave this place. Do you think Jordan will go out and save her if she leaves the fort and is exposed to danger?"

Dieter's eyes lit up. "Yes! Of course! Jordan values relationships the most! Mia, this method is feasible, but you have to be careful and quick. Don't give Jordan any time to predict!"

Mia nodded. "Don't worry, Dad. I understand. However, there are a lot of Geng family guards at the exits. I'm afraid that they will ruin our plans."

Dieter took a sip of wine and smiled. "Don't worry, child. Geng Anli will turn a blind eye."

...

At half-past five the following morning.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Mia rushed to Lota's room and kept knocking.

"Lota, Lota, are you in there?"

Mia shouted anxiously from outside.

Lota was still sleeping soundly when she was woken up by the banging on the door. She rubbed her eyes, and couldn't tell who was shouting.

"Who is it? Could it be Xiqing? Ah, could she have finished the painting of Jordan and I?"

Lota was instantly excited and quickly got up.

For the past two days, Geng Xiqing had been hiding in the art studio. Even though the flames of war were raging outside, she did not come out. This was because she knew that her family's fort was very safe and she did not have to worry about being attacked.

Lota wanted to watch Geng Xiqing draw, but the latter refused to let her watch.

On one hand, Geng Xiqing needed an extremely quiet environment to draw. She could not have anyone disturbing her. On the other hand, Geng Xiqing was creating an erotic painting this time. It was not suitable for children's eyes.

How would she be able to draw freely with someone beside her? It would be too awkward.

As for Lota, she had been enduring her excitement for two days. She longed to see what their magical story would look like in a painting.

"Haha, Xiqing, I'm coming!"

Lota hurriedly changed her clothes and ran to open the door. But the moment she opened the door, she realized that it was not Geng Xiqing, but Mia from the Haus family.

"Mia? Why are you here?"

Lota did not have a close friendship with Mia.

Mia looked panicked. "Lota, bad news. I just saw Jordan leaving with his bag. He's leaving the fort!"

Mia knew that Lota was very worried about Jordan and did not want him to leave the fort. Therefore, she deliberately lied to her.

Indeed, the innocent Lota fell for it.

“What? Jordan went out? He’s leaving?”

Lota immediately grew very worried.

Mia pointed in the direction of the exit and said, “If we chase after him now, we might be able to stop him in time!”

Chapter 869: Something Happened To Lota!

Lota was lured by the scheming Mia. Without hesitation, she ran towards the exit!

“Jordan, why are you so silly? You’ll die if you go out!”

Lota was burning with anxiety as she rushed out.

A wicked smile appeared on Mia’s face as she chased after her. “Lota, I’ll come with you!”

Two beautiful girls ran towards the exit.

As everyone was sleeping early in the morning, they did not encounter anyone from the other families along the way. When they reached the entrance of the castle, Lota stopped and panted heavily. Her anxiety decreased a little.

She realized that the exit door was closed and there was no one there.

And of course, Jordan was not here. He was still sleeping.

Mia had already sent away the guard in charge of this exit. She arrived a step later, also panting. “Jordan must have already gone out. Let’s chase after him!”

Almost immediately, Mia pressed the button on the right wall. This button was the switch for the fort door.

After pressing the button, the thick door slowly opened a crack.

Mia didn’t open it completely. She only made a small opening that was enough for one person to squeeze through because there was poisonous gas outside.

“Lota, let’s chase after him!”

Mia continued to urge Lota.

Lota was really silly. She was so focused on Jordan’s safety that she did not realize Mia’s ulterior motives.

As such, she did exactly as Mia said.

Mia asked her to chase after Jordan and she walked out without hesitation. She did not care if there was poisonous gas outside. Her mind was already completely occupied by Jordan. She did not think about anything else.

Even if it concerned her own safety!

Mia smiled evilly as she watched Lota walk out. She did not follow her. Instead, she immediately pressed the button to close the door!

“Goodbye, Swiss Holy Maiden.”

A wicked smile appeared on Mia’s face.

When Lota walked out, she saw that there was no one at all. If Jordan had just left, she should be able to see some traces of him. Just as she was about to ask Mia about this, she turned around and saw that the fort door was closed!

“Mia! Mia!”

Only then did Lota realize that she might have been deceived. She kept knocking on the thick door. The door was soundproof and no one inside could hear her.

Even if Mia could hear her, why would she open the door for her?

Lota panicked. She gradually felt that something was wrong with the air around her. It was the Rong family’s poisonous gas!

In her rush, Lota was still wearing slippers. She had run out without even taking her gas mask! All she thought about was immediately stopping Jordan so that nothing would happen to him!

“Jordan... save me...”

Lota’s tears kept falling. She didn’t know if it was because she was afraid or because she was affected by the tear gas.

Two days ago, Lota had seen the consequences of her subordinates being poisoned. In the beginning, they would keep crying and coughing. Then they would gradually suffocate to death!

The delicate Lota felt very weak. She huddled in front of the door and squatted on the ground.

This was the most helpless moment in her life!

In the fort.

Knock knock!

“Lota, are you awake?”

Geng Xiqing was in front of Lota’s door with a dozen paintings. She knocked happily.

“Lota, I’ve drawn the 24 hours you spent with Jordan. I stayed up all night to draw them. Get up and open the door for me. You’ll definitely love them to death, hahaha!”

Geng Xiqing knocked a few times, but no one answered. She looked down and realized that the door was not completely closed.

She reached out and pushed the door open.

“Lota?”

Geng Xiqing walked into the room and saw that Lota was not inside.

Geng Xiqing was suspicious. “Oh? It’s only five in the morning, but Lota isn’t in her room? That’s impossible. A lazy little pig like her can’t have woken up so early. Haha, don’t tell me she slept at Jordan’s last night?”

Geng Xiqing immediately picked up her phone and made a video call to Lota. She was looking forward to seeing Lota and Jordan in bed together.

She knew that this was Lota’s dream.

As Lota’s good sister, Geng Xiqing had also hoped that she could successfully win over Jordan and be happy with him for the rest of her life.

Ring ring ring.

Unexpectedly, Lota’s phone rang in the room.

“She didn’t bring her phone? No way? Even if she’s with Jordan, it’s impossible for her to not bring her phone. Could she have gone out for something urgent?”

Seeing that Lota didn’t have her phone with her, Geng Xiqing was about to hang up the video call. Unexpectedly, a video image of Lota suddenly appeared in front of Geng Xiqing!

Lota received a video call request from Geng Xiqing while outside the fort!

Although Lota did not bring her phone, the pendant she was wearing could also receive video calls and project holographic images! This technology was no longer exclusive to the eight great families. Many high-tech companies in the US and China had also come up with it.

“Lota? Why are you crying? Where are you?”

Geng Xiqing could see the image of Lota. She was very worried when she saw that Lota was crying and looked very unwell.

Lota said weakly, “Xiqing, come and save me. I’m outside the fort.”

Geng Xiqing was so shocked that her entire body trembled!

“What? You’re outside the fort? Are you crazy?! There’s poisonous gas outside the fort, even if it’s only a meter away from the door! And you’re not wearing a gas mask! You’ll die in a few minutes!!”

Geng Xiqing was also crying with anxiety.

Seeing that Lota was crying non-stop, Geng Xiqing didn’t know if it was because of fear or the tear gas. Seeing how pitiful she was, Geng Xiqing scolded herself for chiding Lota.

She should focus on saving her as soon as possible!

Geng Xiqing quickly comforted her. “Lota, wait for me. I’ll come with Deity Jordan to save you. You’ll be fine!”

Geng Xiqing hurried to Jordan’s room.

Jordan’s room was not in the same area as Lota’s. Fortunately, it was on the way to the fort exit.

Unexpectedly, Mia was already knocking on Jordan’s door.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

“Deity Jordan, come out quickly. Something happened to Ms. Schmid!” Mia shouted in panic.

She had lured Lota out of the castle. This was only the first step.

The death of Lota meant nothing to her. She had to make Jordan leave the fort. Only then could Mia regain her freedom.

Jordan instantly got up from the bed. When he heard what Mia said outside, he immediately conjured a vision!

Jordan saw Lota squatting on the ground outside the fort, crying pitifully!

“Lota!!”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 870: Save Lota!

Why was Lota outside the fort?!

Now, in the entire Haikou, only the Geng family’s fort was in the clear! The other places were saturated with the poisonous tear gas released by the Rong family!

This poisonous gas could take a person’s life in a short period of time!

Jordan jumped off the bed. He didn’t even put on pants or his shirt. He rushed out with a box of special gas masks. He wanted to rush out of the fort as soon as possible to save Lota!

Outside, Mia was about to continue knocking when the door suddenly opened.

When Mia saw Jordan, she immediately told her planned lie. “Deity Jordan...”

However, before she could finish speaking, Jordan rushed out, knocking her into the wall on the other side of the corridor.

Bang!

Mia’s head hit the wall and she instantly felt dizzy.

“Get lost!”

Jordan didn't care who was in front of him. He pushed Mia away. He was in a hurry to save Lota! Jordan had no idea that Mia was the culprit behind this. He didn't mean to hurt her. He was just too anxious.

At this moment, even if it was Geng Anli or Jamie standing outside, they would have the same fate as Mia.

Jordan charged out of his room and ran towards the exit of the fort without hesitation.

Mia rubbed her head and shouted at Jordan.

"Deity Jordan, Lota is outside the fort. She's dying. Hurry up and save her!"

Jordan already knew about this through his vision, so there was no need for him to listen to Mia. This was a complete waste of time for Jordan.

"Hehe, he sure is fast. It looks like he already knows that something happened to Lota."

Mia gave a wicked smile.

Bang.

Mia had just stood up when she was suddenly hit hard again. A gash appeared on her exquisite face and blood flowed out.

Geng Xiqing had also rushed over and chased after Jordan. She was holding a pile of paintings. Her special drawing board scratched Mia's face.

"Sorry, Mia!"

Geng Xiqing apologized and quickly chased after Jordan.

What in the world?!

Mia was furious. She had been hit twice!

Seeing Geng Xiqing and Jordan running towards the exit, Mia snorted.

"Go out and meet your death!"

Geng Xiqing chased after Jordan all the way. She shouted as she ran, "Jordan, Lota is outside. She's already affected by the gas. Let's go save her!"

Jordan hadn't even bothered to put on proper clothes. He only had on a gas mask, so he didn't need Geng Xiqing's urging.

Soon enough, Jordan arrived at the fort exit. He pressed a button.

The fort door opened slowly. Geng Xiqing caught up at this moment, panting heavily.

Jordan squeezed his way out the moment the door opened. Geng Xiqing followed without hesitation.

They were both extremely worried about Lota's current condition!

As soon as they walked out, they saw Lota squatting on the ground, tears streaming down her face.

When Lota cried, her big sapphire eyes usually sparkled and glittered. Even as one's heart ached for her, they couldn't help admiring her beauty.

But at this moment, it was completely different.

Her eyes were lifeless. Tears were flowing, but her eyes appeared dry and listless, making her look especially wretched!

"Lota!"

Jordan rushed over.

"Lota, how are you?"

Geng Xiqing squatted down, deeply concerned.

"Jordan... Xiqing..."

When Lota saw Jordan and Geng Xiqing, her tears instantly welled up again. These new tears made her eyes look moist and more alive. This proved that her earlier tears were caused by that damn tear gas!

"Damn you, Rong Bailun!"

Jordan's heart ached. He wished he could kill Rong Bailun right now!

Over the past few days, because Rong Bailun wanted to kill Jordan, he had released a large amount of poisonous tear gas. Countless innocent citizens in the vicinity had lost their lives because of this!

And today, Jordan witnessed one of the people he loved the most, Lota, suffer such torture!

Jordan quickly tore open the box of gas masks with trembling hands. He took one out and put it on Lota.

After putting it on, Jordan pressed the “active treatment” button for her.

Fortunately, Jordan had added a healing function to the design. Once a person was attacked by the poisonous gas, they could be treated through the mask.

After putting on the gas mask, Lota coughed several times. Her complexion grew better and she gradually regained strength in her speech.

“Thank you, Jordan... you saved me again...”

Through the transparent gas mask, Jordan could see that Lota was crying again. However, Jordan knew that this was because Lota was moved to tears. It had nothing to do with the poisonous gas.

Jordan looked at her pitiful expression and couldn't help crying himself. His left hand gently stroked Lota's hair as he forced a smile.

“Silly girl, why are you thanking me? You're my younger sister.”

“Cough cough...”

At this moment, Jordan did not feel anything. However, Geng Xiqing seemed to start feeling the effects of the poisonous gas.

Jordan had not given Geng Xiqing a gas mask. He hurriedly picked Lota up and said.

“Geng Xiqing, let's bring Lota back.”

“Okay.”

Geng Xiqing quickly turned around as well.

However, when the three of them turned around, the entrance to the fort was closed!

The two of them were too concerned about Lota's safety earlier and did not notice that the door was closed the moment they went out. This door could only be opened or closed from the inside.

There was no way to open it from the outside!

“Damn it, who closed the door!”

Jordan was furious and kicked the thick stone door.

However, no matter how strong he was, he could not kick open the door at all.

At this moment, Lota suddenly realized something and said in shock.

“Oh no, we’ve been tricked!”

Jordan asked, “Tricked? What do you mean? Tricked by whom? By the way, why did you leave the fort so early in the morning? What happened?”

Jordan suddenly realized that this matter might not be that simple.

Lota explained. “Just now, Mia came to my room and said that you were leaving the fort. I was so worried about your safety and I came out to stop you. But right after I came out, Mia closed the door.

“I thought Mia wanted to deal with me. Perhaps she wanted to snatch you from me, so she planned to kill me in this way. I’m so stupid. I finally realized that Mia doesn’t want to kill me, but you!”

Chapter 871: Making It Up To Lota!

Jordan understood what she meant.

Lota was saying that Mia had tricked her to leave the fort not to kill her, but to use her to lure Jordan out. In the end, her ultimate goal was to lure Jordan out.

After Jordan came out, she would close the fort door and not give him a chance to return.

Jordan understood why Mia did this.

The Haus had always hoped that Jordan could go out and fight the Rong family head-on. It didn’t matter to the Haus family if Jordan ended up alive or dead. Either way, they would no longer have to hide in this fort and regain their freedom.

Geng Xiqing remembered that she had just seen Mia at the door of Jordan’s room.

“Oh! Oh my god! Mia, this bad woman. She was knocking on Deity Jordan’s door just now to trick you into coming out!”

Jordan’s gaze was chilly.

“What a vicious woman! The despicable Haus family! You almost killed Lota. I will definitely not let you off. When I see you again, I will tear you to pieces!”

But rather than being consumed by hatred for Mia and Dieter, Jordan was thinking more of Lota's actions. He was very touched by the sight of Lota, having rushed out and just wearing slippers.

"Lota, why are you so silly? Why do you care so much about me? The moment you heard the news, you rushed out without even bringing a gas mask... I... am not worth it."

Actually, after Jordan found out about Lota's situation, he also didn't bother to put on proper clothes and shoes. Nevertheless, he still took the time to take a gas mask.

As for Lota, she hadn't even bothered to bring a gas mask, which was a life-saving item.

Lota's face turned red as she replied affectionately, "You're worth it. You're worth everything to me. Even if I died outside today, I wouldn't regret it."

Hearing Lota's words, Jordan felt a lump in his throat. If he didn't force himself to hold it in, his tears would have flowed non-stop!

"Lota..."

Jordan was completely touched by Lota's love!

He couldn't endure it anymore. He took off Lota's gas mask and kissed her on the lips!

"Oh!"

Geng Xiqing was shocked.

She knew very well that Lota liked Jordan, but he had always treated her as his younger sister.

But now, Jordan had taken the initiative to kiss her!

Geng Xiqing was very happy for her good friend: 'Lota's dream has finally come true.'

Jordan did not forget that he was Lauren and Victoria's husband. He was not a person who had double standards. He wasn't the sort of guy who didn't allow his wife to be intimate with other men, while he could with other women.

He had indeed treated Lota as his younger sister and had never done anything out of line with her.

But at this moment, Jordan just had the urge to kiss Lota!

He felt that only a loving kiss could repay Lota's love!

If Lauren and Victoria knew about this, they would definitely understand why Jordan had to do this!

Lota was also shocked. She had waited so long for this moment!

However, after kissing Jordan for 30 seconds, Lota was the first to move away. She started coughing.

“Cough cough, Jordan, thank you for your kiss. But you seem to have inhaled some tear gas and exhaled it into my mouth. You’d better not kiss me for now.”

Lota continued to cough.

Jordan: “...”

He felt so embarrassed that he got the urge to run two laps around the fort.

How could such a thing happen at such a romantic moment!

Jordan hurriedly put the gas mask on her. “Uh, I’m sorry.”

As Jordan had been injected with the Mirakuru serum, he did not feel the adverse effects of the poisonous gas.

Lota and Geng Xiqing both had the bodies of ordinary people. Jordan also asked Geng Xiqing to put on a gas mask. Just to be safe, Jordan also put on a gas mask.

Meanwhile, in the temporary command hall in the fort.

Early in the morning, Geng Anli, Dieter, Mia and the rest appeared in the command hall dressed neatly. On the huge screen was a surveillance camera showing the entrance of the fort.

They were watching Jordan and the two girls’ every move.

A smug expression appeared on Dieter’s face. “Hehe, Jordan has finally left the fort. It’s time for us to inform Chairman Rong.”

Dieter immediately picked up the phone and called Rong Bailun.

The moment the call went through, Dieter reported, “Chairman Rong, I’ve already tricked Jordan out of the fort as you requested. Now, you can resolve your grudge with him. However, Chairman, I hope you can spare Jordan’s life. After all, he’s the new Deity. We can control him and make him work for us!”

Dieter even thought of letting Chairman Rong capture Jordan and turn him into a slave.

If it was the real Rong Bailun who knew that Jordan was a Deity, he would definitely not kill him.

But the current Rong Bailun was Shaun!

Shaun said, "B*stard! Do I need you to teach me how to do things?"

Dieter didn't dare to retort. "No, no, no. I spoke too much. Jordan is at your disposal."

Shaun immediately hung up.

Shaun woke up Ban Luming and the others.

"Jordan is out of the fort now. Immediately launch an all-out attack. We must kill Jordan today!"

"Yes!"

In the fort, Geng Anli looked at the surveillance footage nervously. She was feeling very conflicted and worried about Jordan.

However, although Jordan was a Deity, his foundation was too shallow. He could not fight against the Rong family at all. And Rong Bailun promised that he would only target Jordan. As long as Geng Anli did not interfere, she would be safe.

Ring ring ring.

Geng Anli's phone suddenly rang.

Dieter immediately asked, "Who's calling? Is it Jordan? Don't answer!"

Geng Anli looked at her phone and said indifferently, "It's Xiqing. Oh, hell, it's Xiqing! The American woman outside with Jordan and Lota is Xiqing!"

Only then did Geng Anli remember that Geng Xiqing and Paris Gildon had switched minds. In the surveillance footage, the woman who looked like Paris Gildon was actually her daughter, Geng Xiqing!

For the past few days, Geng Anli had been avoiding reality. She drank all day and was very averse to meeting Geng Xiqing. This was because Geng Anli couldn't stand the sight of her.

Subconsciously, Geng Anli still believed that Geng Xiqing was the sweet Chinese girl she had watched grow up. The face of Paris Gildon was a stranger.

It was only when she saw Geng Xiqing calling her phone that she finally realized.

Her daughter was also outside the fort!

She was asking for help!

“Don’t answer it!”

Dieter knew that Geng Xiqing must be calling Geng Anli to ask her to open the fort door.

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 872: Can’t Go Back!

“The fort door must not be opened! Otherwise, if Jordan comes in again, all our efforts will be in vain!”

It had not been easy for the Haus family to lure Jordan out. They could not let their efforts go to waste. Also, his daughter, Mia, had lied to Lota and Jordan. If Jordan returned to the fort, Mia’s life would probably be in danger!

However, at this moment, Geng Anli was more worried about her daughter’s life.

Geng Anli said, “My daughter is outside. How can I ignore her!”

Although Geng Xiqing was wearing a gas mask now, it was still very dangerous outside the fort. The Rong family’s various terrifying weapons could kill them.

Dieter quickly said, “That’s not your daughter! She’s the American actress Paris Gildon! You were deceived by that brat Jordan. He said something about a mind-transplant procedure? How can you believe such a ridiculous thing? Do you still remember Shaun? He has mysterious methods to control people’s bodies. Perhaps Geng Xiqing is just controlling Paris Gildon while her real self is somewhere safe!”

Geng Anli paused. In her heart, she couldn’t accept that her daughter had become an American woman.

If Dieter’s deduction was true, she would feel very happy and comforted.

However, Geng Anli insisted on letting Geng Xiqing in. “No matter what, this woman’s life is intimately linked to Xiqing. I can’t let anything happen to her. I have to let her in!”

Geng Anli had guessed that Dieter would attack Jordan, but she did not expect her daughter to be implicated.

Seeing that Geng Anli insisted on answering the call, Dieter had no choice but to take out a blue handkerchief from his upper pocket and cover her mouth from behind.

Less than two seconds later, Geng Anli fainted.

The handkerchief was doused with a special knockout drug made by the Haus family. Anyone who breathed it in would lose consciousness.

This was the Geng family's territory and there were Geng family subordinates in the command hall.

"Madam Geng!"

Seeing that Geng Anli had fainted, the two subordinates took out their guns and aimed them at Dieter.

There were also two Haus family subordinates present. They immediately drew their guns and aimed them at the Geng family subordinates.

The scene immediately became tense.

"Stop! Put the gun down!"

Dieter ordered his two men. He then looked at the two Geng family subordinates in a friendly manner.

"Gentlemen, don't panic. Madam Geng is just unconscious. She's fine. I've known Madam Geng for many years. We've been good friends for many years. I won't harm her. I did this as I don't want Madam Geng to make a wrong decision. You don't want to be implicated by Jordan and hide in this fort for the rest of your lives, right?"

The two subordinates looked at each other and finally decided not to attack.

Outside the fort.

Geng Xiqing stomped her feet anxiously. "What should I do? My mother isn't answering my calls!"

Jordan immediately said, "Call my brother Jamie!"

Fortunately, Jamie was also in the fort. They couldn't contact Geng Anli and the Haus family would never open the door.

"What's your brother's number?" Geng Xiqing asked.

Jordan was about to answer when he heard a thunderclap in the sky.

Roar!

In an instant, dark clouds covered the sky, and it started to rain.

“Damn it, the Rong family has launched another weather weapon!”

Jordan felt that it was too much of a coincidence. He had just come out of the fort, and the weather immediately turned. Accompanied by the strange weather was a strong tornado. The tornado moved silently, unlike rain and lightning which could be heard from afar.

Out of the blue, a strong gust of wind blew towards them. When Jordan saw that the situation was not looking good, he pulled Lota and Geng Xiqing into his arms and instructed them.

“Hold onto me tightly. Don’t let go!”

In the next second, a powerful wind blew. The three of them were swept into the air, far away from the entrance of the fort.

The tornado created by the weather weapon was different from a natural tornado. The former would come to a gradual stop as the winds slowly lost energy. But this tornado was produced by a weapon. The powerful winds came and went within seconds. To restart the strong winds, the weapon had to be fired again.

As a result, the winds came to a sudden stop and the trio smashed heavily onto the ground.

Jordan was carrying two people but fortunately, Lota and Geng Xiqing, or to be precise, Lota and Paris Gildon, had very slim figures.

It was not a problem for Jordan to carry two slender girls on his own. He took most of the impact when they landed. Lota and Geng Xiqing barely felt anything.

“Jordan, are you okay?!”

Lota hurriedly got up and asked Jordan with concern.

Jordan had been injected with Mirakuru serum. He was fine even after jumping off a tall building that was dozens of stories high. Such a landing was nothing to him.

Jordan smiled. “Don’t worry, I’m fine.”

At this moment, Geng Xiqing got up looking very worried. “Oh, bad news. I lost my paintings. It’s in front!”

Only then did Lota realize that Geng Xiqing had brought some paintings with her.

“Paintings? What paintings?” Lota asked.

Geng Xiqing gave a mischievous smile. “What paintings do you think?”

Lota instantly became shy.

Geng Xiqing was about to run over to pick them up when Jordan, worried that she just had a shock, stopped her.

“I’ll help you retrieve them. Stay here with Lota.”

“No!”

Geng Xiqing and Lota refused to let Jordan retrieve the paintings.

Jordan was momentarily taken aback, not knowing why the two of them would stop him.

Geng Xiqing said, “I’ll go.”

Lota agreed. “That’s right. Xiqing can handle it herself.”

Jordan did not stop her again.

When Geng Xiqing returned with the paintings, Jordan reached out curiously. “What paintings are those that are so important. Let me see it.”

“No!”

The two girls rejected him in unison again.

This made Jordan even more curious. What were the two of them up to?

They were already in a life and death situation. What kind of paintings couldn’t be seen?!

Lota said coquettishly, “Jordan, stop looking. This is our little secret. You’re a man. We’ll be embarrassed if you see them!”

Jordan knew that some girls would read pornographic comics in private. Could it be that these two little girls also had such a hobby?

Alright then, Jordan was not that interested in such things anyway.

Jordan said, “The next tornado will arrive at any moment. It’s too dangerous to remain at the entrance of the fort. Let’s go and meet up with our combat team!”

Chapter 873: Brothers Live And Die Together!

Ten minutes later, Shaun launched an all-out war. Be it the airforce or the ground units, everyone was mobilized to kill Jordan!

Gunfire filled the sky outside the fort as lightning flashed and thunder rumbled.

Jamie, who had been sleeping soundly, received a message from his subordinate.

Beep-Beep...

Jamie heard his phone beeping and immediately opened it. He saw that it was a message from Phoenix. He reported that the Rong family had just launched an all-out war.

“Damn it!”

Jamie knew that the situation outside must be very intense. He hurriedly put on his clothes and walked to the command hall.

“The war has started again! It looks like Rong Bailun is serious this time. He’s going to attack us with full force!”

Jamie walked in excitedly. When he saw Geng Anli sprawled on the table, he asked,

“Why is Madam Geng sleeping here?”

Dieter walked over and said, “Oh, Madam Geng is a little sleepy. She’s just taking a break.”

Jamie was speechless. “Sleepy? She’s sleepy at a time like this? Are you kidding me?! By the way, where’s Jordan? He should have predicted this. He should be here.”

At this moment, Mia smiled wickedly. “The famous Deity Jordan? He went out.”

“He went out? Where?”

Jamie was confused.

Mia pointed at the intense battle on the screen.

“He went to the battlefield. If you want to see him clearly, we can zoom in on him.”

Jamie immediately panicked. "What? Why did he go to the battlefield? He's a Deity! How can he go to the front line?! If something happens to him on the battlefield, no one can advise us anymore. We will all die! Why didn't you stop him?!"

Dieter snorted. "You're thinking too much. Chairman Rong only wants to kill Jordan now. We'll be safer now that he is outside."

"That's right," Mia echoed with a wicked smile.

Looking at their dark smiles, Jamie immediately understood that they must have forced or tricked Jordan to go out!

Jamie was furious. He asked Dieter, "Did you trick Jordan to go out?!"

Dieter disdained Jamie and couldn't be bothered to deny it. "So what if I did?"

"You have a death wish!"

Jamie wanted to rush over and punch Dieter again.

However, before Jamie could get near Dieter, two of the Haus family subordinates pointed their guns at his head.

"One more step and I'll kill you!" The Haus subordinate threatened.

Jamie clenched his fists and glared at Dieter.

He was not stupid. He knew that if he acted rashly, he would really die. As for Dieter, he walked smugly to Jamie. He then raised his right hand and punched Jamie!

Bang!

Dieter said, "This punch is for when you hit me two days ago. If you weren't in control of the Addington family now, I would have thrown you out long ago! From now on, you will obediently be the slave of Madam Geng and me!"

"Pfft!"

Jamie spat angrily. "You ungrateful fellows. If not for Jordan, you would have been killed by the Rong family in the Tianshan Xueling Spruce Forest! Now that your crisis has been resolved, you're leaving him to die? Alright, I'll save him if you don't!"

Dieter stopped him. "Stop! Where are you going! I'm warning you, once you leave the fort, you won't be allowed back in! Don't even think about bringing Jordan back to the fort. Once you leave, you can forget about coming in again!"

The situation outside was very serious. The Geng and Haus family soldiers had all retreated. Only the subordinates from the Schmid family, as well as Jordan and Jamie's men were fighting the Rong family.

Even if the Geng and Haus family soldiers were out fighting with everyone, their side was still no match for the Rong family.

Now that those two families had retreated, the difference in strength was even greater.

Therefore, going out now was equivalent to courting death.

Dieter wanted to intimidate Jamie and make him submit obediently. Unexpectedly, Jamie didn't hesitate at all. "Fine, I won't come back in! I definitely won't just sit by and watch Jordan fight alone outside!"

With that, Jamie walked out.

"Stupid idiot!"

Dieter was furious.

Beside him, Mia crossed her slender legs and said, "Dad, if that b*start wants to go out and die, let him. Why stop him?"

Previously, a drunk Jamie had harassed Mia and even forcefully kissed her. As a result, she was furious with him.

Dieter said, "Although Jamie deserves to die, he still controls the Addington family. If we can make him submit to us, there will be many benefits. Forget it. The Geng family also has laser weapons. Let him go out and die with Jordan!"

Jamie gathered his protective equipment and weapons. As he walked towards the exit, he sent a voice message to Phoenix.

"Send me your location. I'll find you now!"

Phoenix sent him the location.

Jamie opened the map. "It's quite close. It's just a few minutes away!"

He opened the door and walked out.

Suddenly, a tornado swept over.

"Oh my god."

Jamie was swept into the air. Unlike Jordan, he did not fall. Instead, he remained suspended in the air.

Jamie had no choice but to quickly send another message to Phoenix. "Phoenix, come and get me. I can't f*cking come down from the sky!"

...

Half an hour later.

Jordan, Jamie, Lota, Geng Xiqing, Phoenix, Pablo and the others had all gathered. They were currently at the back of the battlefield. The soldiers in front were engaged in a very intense battle.

Weather weapons, biochemical weapons, laser weapons, cannons, bullets...

Their impact was not as widespread and dangerous as an atomic bomb. However, this was the first time so many high-tech weapons had appeared in one single place on Earth.

Of course, although the battle here was intense, people elsewhere in the world did not know about it.

When Jordan saw the bruised and swollen Jamie, he said, "Jamie, you shouldn't have come out. There should be at least one of us in the fort."

Jordan was not worried about himself, but he was afraid that if the situation got out of control, Lota and Geng Xiqing would have no way out.

Jamie said, "Dieter and his daughter tricked you into coming out to fight Rong Bailun. How can I just sit inside to watch, knowing that you are outside? When we get back, I must teach that father-daughter duo a lesson!"

Jordan thought about how Dieter and his daughter were behind everything. He was furious and spat out with a cold expression, "I will kill them!"

Chapter 874: Shaun Is Dead?!

The Haus father-daughter duo knew that Jordan was a Deity, but they still dared to use such methods on him. They were just asking for it!

When they set Jordan up, they should have known the consequences of offending him. They dared to do this because they were taking a gamble. They were betting that Jordan would lose to Rong Bailun and that Jordan would be killed by the Rong family!

Jamie nodded. "Yes, after we deal with Rong Bailun, we'll go back and kill this ungrateful father and daughter! By the way, the situation is so complicated now. Hurry up and use your Deity ability to predict what we should do next."

Jordan nodded and immediately closed his eyes. He held his breath and focused on getting a vision.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Intense battle scenes appeared in Jordan's mind. Both sides used all kinds of weapons and suffered countless casualties...

Jordan frowned. The battle situation was too complex. There were all kinds of advanced weapons. He could not find a suitable opportunity to seek out an advantage.

After predicting for a few minutes, Jordan was sweating profusely.

"How is it?"

Jamie and the others asked with concern.

Jordan shook his head. "The battlefield is too chaotic. It's all about large-scale weapons. Even with my visions, I can't find a way to deal with it. The only solution is to not fight back."

Jamie, Lota, and the others were very anxious. The disparity between their weapons and the Rong family's was too great. This was not something that could be resolved in a short period of time.

"Oh my god, are we all going to die here?"

Lota held Geng Xiqing's hand nervously. Both girls looked very gloomy and afraid.

Although Jordan had already expended a lot of mental strength, he said, "I'll try again."

With that, Jordan closed his eyes again and continued to predict.

This time, the image of Rong Bailun appeared in his mind! In this vision, Rong Bailun revealed an extremely strange yet familiar smile!

Jordan had seen this smile countless times in the past six months!

It was definitely Shaun's sinister smile!

Shaun was the only one with such a dark and wretched aura. It was impossible for someone like Rong Bailun to have it!

“Shaun Handley!”

Jordan suddenly opened his eyes and called out Shaun’s name.

Lota was surprised. “What’s wrong, Jordan? What did you see? Is Shaun here too?”

Jamie was also very puzzled. “Doesn’t that fellow like to hide in the dark? He dares to come over at a time like this?”

No one knew about the link between Shaun and Rong Bailun.

But Jordan knew!

For more than half a year, Shaun had threatened and begged Jordan to help him with his mind-transplant procedure. Why?

Wasn’t it so that one day, he could swap minds with Rong Bailun, the number one man in this world?

‘Don’t tell me that he succeeded?’

Jordan wanted to predict again if something had happened between Shaun and Rong Bailun, but he couldn’t.

Jordan immediately instructed Pablo. “Call Salvatore!”

Salvatore was in the US with Dragon to protect Victoria and Lauren.

“Master, phone call.”

After Pablo made the call, he handed the phone to Jordan.

Jordan accepted the phone and asked, “Are Lauren and Victoria alright?”

Salvatore replied, “They’re fine, Master. They’re very safe. They’re all wearing invisibility cloaks and in hiding. No one attacked us. Moreover, Lionel and his Black Ops Team came to help us. They also restricted entry from many countries and regions. Now, current news reported on the internet is becoming increasingly ridiculous. Master, what’s the situation on your side? Do you need help? Dragon is also very anxious.”

As the world's top combat expert, it was torturous for Dragon to not be by Jordan's side during the most important battle in recent history.

However, Jordan was more concerned about Victoria's safety, so he instructed Dragon to protect her.

Jordan said, "You don't have to worry about me. Go to the remote town where Shaun had kept Lauren captive previously. Investigate Shaun's whereabouts and check if he's dead or alive!"

"Got it!"

After hanging up, Lota asked carefully, "Shaun... is he... dead?"

Jordan nodded. "If I am not wrong, it is a possibility."

Lota was not particularly happy, even though Shaun had harbored designs on her and controlled her family for many years. However, as Shaun had said before, he was the one who had raised Lota.

Actually, it was not too much for Shaun to call Lota his half-daughter.

Moreover, in the 18 years before she became an adult, Shaun did not touch Lota at all. He didn't grope or kiss her. He wanted to wait until her 18th birthday to have her.

If it was any other despicable person, they wouldn't care if the girl was an adult or not.

On the news, there were many cases of beastly fathers molesting their underage daughters.

Lota sighed. "Sigh, he's finally dead."

Geng Xiqing asked, "Shouldn't you be happy that the great demon is dead? Why are you sighing?"

Lota said calmly, "I hate him very much. I hate him for controlling my parents for so many years. However, he did raise me for many years. He taught me many things. He can be considered my teacher."

Geng Xiqing was very curious. "Oh? What did he teach you?"

Lota said, "A lot. Languages, singing, dining etiquette, how to socialize and so on. He taught me almost everything I know."

Everyone nodded. Indeed, Lota had been locked in the castle and couldn't go to school. She didn't have any friends, classmates or teachers.

Of course, Shaun had hired some professional teachers to teach her. However, he had been in charge of most of Lota's education.

Geng Xiqing was surprised. "Gosh, how did he know how to teach everything? Don't tell me he's the one who also taught you how to kiss and how to be intimate?"

Lota nodded shyly.

Geng Xiqing laughed out loud. "This great demon is really patient. He actually taught you everything. It's true you should thank him for teaching you so much. Otherwise, you wouldn't know anything. You wouldn't know that a man and a woman can have children together. You probably wouldn't have known how to rape Deity Jordan after you drugged him. Haha."

Lota gave Geng Xiqing a shove. "What? Who drugged Jordan? He took a sleeping pill himself. I just didn't take it. I didn't trick him into taking it."

Jordan: "..."

Jordan felt a little embarrassed: 'You raped me, and now, you are saying it's my fault for taking the sleeping pill?'

Jamie narrowed his eyes and became curious as he listened to their conversation.

"I seem to have missed out on a very interesting story!"

Chapter 875: Jordan Finally Makes His Move!

Half an hour later.

The battlefield became increasingly intense. In the dark and gloomy sky, thunder rumbled and acid rain kept falling. Lit by constant lightning, the Rong, Steele and Schmid subordinates fought fiercely.

During this half an hour, Shaun personally led the Rong family men. Plus the fact that they had an advantage in numbers and weaponry, the Rong side was unstoppable.

The subordinates under Jordan, Jamie, Lota and the others were defeated and killed one after another.

Currently, less than a hundred men were protecting Jordan.

Shaun had gotten tired of killing. He immediately instructed Ban Luming, "Activate the tornado and sweep these people into the air!"

“Yes!”

The tornado had been made into a conventional weapon by the Rong family. It was like a pistol cannonball, ready to be used at any time.

A powerful tornado swept the last group of men protecting Jordan into the air. They were all elites among elites. Of course, because of the uncontrollable nature of the tornado, some of the Rong family subordinates were also swept in.

Nevertheless, Jordan, Lota and the others at the back, as well as Shaun and his core team, were not affected by the tornado.

This tornado had become a weapon. It was no longer just a natural phenomenon. In fact, now that the tornado had already been formed, the others could walk under it without being affected.

It was like a bullet which had already been fired and embedded in the wall. It was no longer dangerous.

At this moment, Jordan and Shaun spotted each other from afar!

“Hehe.”

Shaun smiled smugly.

At this moment, the Haus family had sent out countless drones to gather surveillance footage. The drones that had been sent out previously, even the stealth ones, were all shot down on this merciless battlefield.

Looking at the latest images, Dieter and the others became excited.

“Hahaha, the Rong family is indeed powerful! They have already obtained a crushing victory! Jordan is doomed. He can’t escape. He’s about to be executed by Chairman Rong!”

Dieter saw that hundreds of people had been swept into the air.

Jordan had lost all the men protecting him. He only had Jamie, Lota and Geng Xiqing by his side. These people could not protect Jordan.

At this moment, Geng Anli gradually woke up.

When she woke up and saw the battlefield on the big screen, she immediately became worried.

“Xiqing! Xiqing is on the battlefield!”

Dieter hurried over and said, "Madam Geng, I'm sorry for knocking you out earlier. I'll say it again. The American woman on the battlefield now is not your daughter, Xiqing."

Bang!

Geng Anli punched Dieter in the face and said angrily, "I can recognize my own daughter. I don't need you to tell me! Who do you think you are!"

Mia was very angry. "Old woman, what right do you have to hit my father?"

Dieter reached out and gestured for Mia to calm down. He didn't mind being punched by Madam Geng, whom he had always admired.

Dieter said, "Madam Geng, it doesn't matter even if you think she's your daughter. Chairman Rong only wants to kill Jordan. He won't touch your daughter. I guarantee it."

In the current situation, it was already too late for Geng Anli to send anyone to rescue them. With the Rong family's strength and Rong Bailun's decisiveness, he would definitely kill everyone in less than a minute!

"It better be as you said!"

Geng Anli shot Dieter a resentful look.

...

On the battlefield.

Shaun led Ban Luming and the others towards Jordan and his group.

It was still raining and thunder was still rumbling. But at this moment, no one seemed to be able to hear anything.

Almost everyone on Jordan's side appeared frozen in place.

"Damn it, am I going to die here today? How sad! I've played with so many women in my life, but I never had a single child. I can't pass on my good genes now!"

Jamie had some regrets.

Geng Xiqing had died once before, so she wasn't too afraid.

As for Lota, she was more worried for Jordan.

"Jordan is a Deity. He must not die!"

Ring ring ring.

Jordan received a call from Salvatore.

Jordan pressed the ring on his right finger and answered the call.

Salvatore reported. "Master, I found a tombstone at the entrance of the remote town. It is inscribed: Shaun Handley lies here!"

"Master, that b*stard Shaun is dead! Hahaha! I even specially dug out his coffin and opened it to take a look. It's really Shaun's body inside. The corpse was preserved in some kind of high-tech freezer. I kicked it twice, but there was no reaction. He must be dead."

Jordan suddenly grinned.

He knew that the person who died was not the real Shaun, but Rong Bailun!

The Rong Bailun in front of him was the real Shaun!

That meant Shaun had successfully switched minds with Rong Bailun!

"Terrifying, so terrifying, so powerful! Shaun really succeeded!"

Jordan did sincerely admire Shaun for accomplishing such an impossible feat. Rong Bailun had the highest status in the world and was the most difficult to deal with.

To think that Shaun had actually successfully captured Rong Bailun and swapped minds with him without being discovered by the rest of the Rong family!

He was too powerful!

Even Jordan was not completely confident in being able to do such a thing. Actually, Jordan already suspected that Shaun had succeeded. In fact, Jordan hoped for it! This was because Jordan might not be able to deal with Rong Bailun, but he could deal with Shaun!

Jordan had done something to the stabilizing agent used in the mind-transplant procedure. He had placed something that could control the patient's mind, like the Monkey King's golden headband curse.

He could make his life a living hell!

Jordan hadn't attacked yet as he didn't want to act rashly without 100% confirmation that Shaun had undergone the mind-transplant procedure.

If Geng Xiqing and Paris Gildon were in pain but nothing happened to Shaun, he might realize that Jordan had tampered with the mind-transplant procedure.

By then, Shaun would not undergo the procedure. And Jordan would no longer be able to use Shaun to control the powerful Rong family!

Now, Jordan was sure that he would emerge the eventual victor!

Jordan gave a faint smile and immediately called Professor Liam.

“Master, what can I do for you?” Professor Liam asked.

Jordan smiled. “It’s time to let them know what we have been plotting. Listen to my instructions and prepare to activate our ‘golden headband curse’.”

“Got it!”

At this moment, Shaun and the others had already passed under the tornado with their weapons and arrived in front of Jordan. Shaun was holding a blade that looked like a samurai sword.

But this was no ordinary samurai sword. It was a laser weapon.

He could kill Jordan from afar.

However, he did not do so. He walked toward Jordan and said, “Jordan I will make the world change color today. I will make blood flow like rivers. I will unleash all the most advanced weapons in the world. Just for one single goal: to kill you!”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 876: My Third Brother Is Invincible!

“Don’t kill Jordan!”

Lota stood in front of Jordan, protecting him with her small frame.

Jamie also had the intention to fight to the death. He held a laser sword and said, “My younger brother, Jordan, is invincible! If you take another step forward, you’ll be the one who dies!”

Shaun didn’t take them seriously at all. He ignored their words.

Instead, Shaun said to Jordan, “Jordan, come over and kneel in front of me. Let me cut off your head myself. I can promise you that after you die, I will spare Lota and your second brother.”

Spit

Jamie spat out a mouthful of saliva and cursed. "Are you deaf? Didn't you hear what I said? I said that Jordan is a Deity. He's invincible! Do you know how powerful a Deity is?"

"Whether or not you wet the bed tonight, Jordan can predict it the moment he closes his eyes!"

Shaun laughed out loud. "Jordan, I believe you're a Deity. I also know that you can predict what will happen next. I look forward to it because if you get a vision now, you will see yourself kneeling in front of me and being killed by me."

"You can try if you don't believe me."

Armed with powerful weapons and mighty physical forces, a mere Deity was no longer enough to make Shaun afraid.

At this moment, Jordan finally made his move.

He gently pushed Lota aside.

Lota hurriedly said, "Jordan, don't go!"

Jordan smiled and kissed her forehead. He then took another step forward.

But Jamie grabbed him.

Jamie shook his head with tears in his eyes. "Don't go. The descendants of the Steele family will never lower their heads! At most, I'll die with you today!"

At this moment, Jamie felt very aggrieved. He and Jordan would die bravely here today. But what was their eldest brother, Jesse, doing?!

Jesse hadn't fulfilled his duty to them as their big brother!

Jordan took Jamie's hand off his arm and said,

"Don't worry, your third brother is invincible."

With that, Jordan ignored their objections and walked toward Shaun. Dieter, Geng Anli and the others in the fort were also closely watching this scene.

"Hahahaha, Jordan is going to surrender himself to Chairman Rong. He accepted his fate! The battle is over! We are free again!" Dieter shouted joyfully.

Mia snorted disdainfully. "Hmph, is this the so-called Deity? What trash! It's a waste for such heavenly talent to fall into the hands of a good-for-nothing man!"

Geng Anli couldn't help crying as she watched the scene unfold.

"Jordan..."

At this moment, she no longer viewed Jordan as the high and mighty Deity. Instead, she saw him as the handsome little boy she liked and teased.

Geng Anli suddenly grew furious. "Why must the new Deity be executed?! His ability can improve our families greatly! I really don't agree with Chairman Rong's actions! I'm going to call him and stop him from doing that!"

Dieter hurried over and grabbed Geng Anli's hand.

"Madam Geng, don't. Chairman Rong's decision can't be questioned. If you anger him now, not only will you not be able to help Jordan, but you will also attract trouble!"

Geng Anli hated herself for being helpless. She raised her hand and slapped Dieter again.

Smack!

Mia was furious. "Don't hit my father again, you old hag!"

Geng Anli hated herself for not being able to help Jordan. When she heard Mia's words, she walked over and slapped her too.

Smack!

"Ah!"

Mia didn't expect Geng Anli to slap her after hitting her father.

"How dare you bully us?"

Geng Anli said, "This is my fort. I can kill you if I want!"

Mia held her cheek, feeling very indignant. Dieter hurried over to comfort his proud daughter.

"Forget it, Mia. Madam Geng is your elder. It's within her right to discipline you."

Mia sat back in her chair unhappily and mocked in a cold voice.

“Hmph, no matter how angry you are, your old lover is dead meat.”

With a heavy heart, Geng Anli looked at the video on the big screen again.

On the battlefield, Shaun laughed in satisfaction when he saw Jordan walking over without any weapons.

“Very good. Kneel. I have to see you die with my own eyes before I can be at ease.”

Jordan stared into Shaun’s eyes.

The other parts of Rong Bailun would not reveal anything. He looked exactly like the real Rong Bailun. But the look in his eyes was different. The eyes revealed a person’s soul and thoughts.

The eyes of Rong Bailun definitely reflected Shaun’s soul.

Jordan looked at Shaun. “Your imitation of Rong Bailun is not bad. You’ve been practicing for a long time, right?”

Shaun’s face turned pale. Jordan already knew his true identity!

Although Jordan did not name Shaun, the implication of his words were obvious. Jordan already knew that Shaun had switched minds with Rong Bailun!

Shaun was stunned for a moment before laughing out loud.

“Hahaha, sometimes, it’s useless even if you know a lot. You’re destined to die today!”

Shaun picked up his sword and said to Jordan,

“You’re not kneeling? It looks like you plan to die standing.”

Jordan responded. “Between the two of us, only one needs to kneel.”

Shaun snorted. “As expected of a Deity. Even when faced with imminent death, you’re still so arrogant. Alright, I’ll send you on your way!”

Shaun trembled with excitement. He had killed many people in his life. But this was the first time he would be killing a Deity! After killing Deity Jordan, Shaun would be firmly ranked as the top man in the world. There would be no more threats to his power!

Shaun raised his sword and swung it at Jordan!

“No!”

Lota tried to rush over, but Geng Xiqing held her back.

Jordan did not do anything. He just tapped on the ring on his right hand.

It was a message to Professor Liam.

He could now activate the “golden headband curse”.

Just as everyone thought that Jordan would be killed, Shaun’s sword suddenly slipped from his hand and fell to the ground.

Shaun felt a sharp pain in his head!

“What’s wrong? What happened?! Chairman Rong, why did you put the sword down?”

“He looks very uncomfortable. What did Jordan do to him? But he clearly doesn’t have a weapon.”

Dieter and the others were very surprised to see this development.

“Master Rong, is something wrong?!” Ban Luming hurried forward and asked with concern.

Shaun paused for a moment and realized that the pain in his head was gradually disappearing. He thought that it was just a minor side effect as his mind had not fully merged with this new body.

“I’m fine.”

Shaun picked up the sword again and slashed at Jordan.

Jordan remained standing there, motionless.

“Ah!”

Just as Shaun was about to slash down at Jordan again, his brain suddenly ached violently.

He wasn’t the only one. Behind Jordan, Geng Xiqing was in so much pain that she tossed aside her paintings and gasped.

Thud!

Shaun knelt in front of Jordan in pain!

Chapter 877: Kneel Before Deity Jordan!

In the fort.

Dieter and Geng Anli were completely stunned when they saw this.

Dieter said in surprise, "Oh my god, am I seeing things? Chairman Rong is kneeling to Jordan? What's going on?"

Geng Anli was also astonished. "I vaguely saw Jordan's hands moving. Does he know spells like Shaun?"

Shaun and Jordan were both American. Shaun had previously proven that he knew some ancient spells that science could not explain. In addition, Jordan was a Deity. It was possible that he had methods like Shaun's or even more powerful!

...

On the battlefield.

Shaun was in so much pain that he grabbed his head with his hands. He had already thrown his laser sword onto the ground.

Strangely, Shaun wasn't the only one in pain. Geng Xiqing was also in pain.

Actually, at this moment, Shaun and Geng Xiqing were not the only ones in pain. Paris Gildon and everyone else who had undergone the mind-transplant procedure before were in agony.

This was because the stabilizer Jordan had modified was used for everyone who had undergone the procedure. As a result, everyone who underwent the mind-transplant procedure was automatically affected by the "golden headband curse".

Everyone would feel pain when Professor Liam activated it.

"Xiqing, what's wrong? Are you feeling unwell?" Lota asked in concern.

But Geng Xiqing just shook her head. "I don't know what's wrong. My head hurts for no reason."

On this battlefield, no one cared if Geng Xiqing had a headache or not. Everyone's attention was focused on Shaun.

Jordan looked down at Shaun, who was kneeling in front of him.

"I already said that only one of us has to kneel."

Jordan bent over and asked Shaun in a soft voice.

“Shaun, do you know the saying: ‘the mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind it’?”

Shaun’s headache had finally subsided, but when he heard Jordan’s words, he felt like his mind had just exploded!

The mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind. Wasn’t this what he had wanted to say to Rong Bailun previously?

Shaun was good at scheming. He had always been the one who secretly benefited from a situation! However, after hearing Jordan’s words, Shaun suddenly understood that Jordan had been stalking him all along, just waiting for the right opportunity to pounce on him!

“What... What did you do to me?” Shaun asked in horror.

Jordan leaned close to Shaun’s ear and told him the truth.

“I added something to the stabilizer used for the mind-transplant procedure. Your life and death are completely under my control.”

“What?”

Shaun was stunned. He was such a cautious person. He waited for so many other people to undergo the procedure first, to confirm that they were fine before doing it himself. He had never expected Jordan to be so good at setting things up and being so patient.

Jordan had been able to control Paris Gildon and the others, but he did not do anything. He waited until Shaun and Rong Bailun completed the procedure.

At this moment, Shaun knew that his life was over. He was destined to be Jordan’s puppet.

Even if Shaun killed Jordan now, it was useless. The person handling the actual controls was clearly not present.

Jordan said to Shaun, “I’ll give you two choices now. The first is to die with me. I can tell you clearly that you will definitely die before me. Moreover, you will have a splitting headache and die very painfully. Also, after you die, I might not die. I have the ability of a Deity and can dodge your attacks.

“The second is to be my puppet from now on. You, the number one person in the world, Chairman Rong, will completely obey my orders! It’s your choice!”

With that, Jordan straightened his spine.

As for Shaun, he was still kneeling on the ground, his expression filled with pain, helplessness and regret.

Ban Luming had never seen his master in such a wretched state before. Exasperated, he pointed the gun at Jordan and said angrily, "B*stard, you despicable punk. Are you using a dirty, dark spell like that demon, Shaun?! How dare you use such methods on Master Rong? I will shoot you!"

Ban Luming was not a man who liked to joke. He was really going to shoot Jordan.

However, Jordan did not panic. It was not because he was not afraid of guns, but because he saw that Shaun was already moving.

Shaun got up from the ground, picked up the sword, and slashed Ban Luming to death!

The battlefield was in an uproar!

Everyone was shocked!

Rong Bailun had killed his most trusted aide, Ban Luming!

Dieter and the others in the castle were also puzzled. They did not understand why Rong Bailun would do this. Little did they know that from this moment on, the number one person in the world, Rong Bailun, would be Jordan's puppet!

Jordan looked at Ban Luming's corpse and smiled. He knew that Shaun had chosen the second option.

Shaun was a smart person. He would never choose to die. He would definitely choose the second option.

"Master Rong, why... Why did you kill Mr. Ban?!"

Rong Bailun's subordinates were very confused.

Shaun said angrily, "That b*stard Ban Luming dared to be disrespectful to the Deity. He deserved to die!"

Actually, Shaun already planned to kill Ban Luming because he was Rong Bailun's trusted aide. He was the most likely person to realize that the current Rong Bailun was really Shaun. Therefore, it was very dangerous to keep Ban Luming by his side.

And now was a good opportunity to kill him.

Shaun ordered. "Stop the tornado."

His subordinate pressed the controller. Hundreds of people suspended in the sky fell to the ground.

They returned to their respective camps.

Shaun knelt before Jordan again, right in front of everyone!

"Everyone from the Rong family, kneel down with me!" Shaun shouted.

Hundreds of people behind Shaun were stunned.

The person they had spent so much effort to try and destroy was finally in front of them, but they had to kneel down to him? However, seeing that their master was kneeling, how could they dare to refuse?

"Kneel before Deity Jordan!"

Everyone knelt on the ground and faced Jordan.

Lota, Jamie, Geng Xiqing and the others were dumbstruck.

"How can that be? Jordan... how did he do it?"

A second ago, Lota thought that Jordan would definitely die. Now, everyone had submitted to him.

And Jordan didn't appear to have done anything.

When Jamie saw this, he laughed out loud. "Hahahaha, Jordan is indeed invincible. I wasn't wrong!"

Meanwhile, in the fort.

The Haus father-daughter duo went limp when they saw this scene!

Chapter 878: Dieter Has Another Trump Card!

Dieter's face was pale as he looked at the surveillance footage in disbelief.

"Why is this happening? Why are all the members of the Rong family kneeling to Jordan? Have they all submitted to him?"

Dieter wasn't at the scene, so he could only see a blurry image. He couldn't hear what had happened.

How was this possible? He just couldn't understand. Just seconds ago, Rong Bailun wanted to kill Jordan. But in the next second, he led the entire Rong family to bow down to Jordan.

His beautiful daughter, Mia, also became very anxious, and she tugged at Dieter's arm.

"Daddy, what should we do? It looks like Jordan and Chairman Rong have joined forces. Since we tricked Jordan into leaving, when he comes back, he will definitely not let us off!"

The father-daughter pair knew that since Jordan and Rong Bailun had stopped fighting each other, they would definitely target the Haus family next.

Smack!

Dieter slapped himself. "I'm so muddle-headed! I actually did such a thing to a Deity!"

Almost immediately, Dieter knelt in front of Geng Anli and hugged her calf. He begged for help.

"Madam Geng, please save me and Mia!"

Geng Anli couldn't resist kicking Dieter in the face. She was furious.

"Save you two? I don't even know how to save myself! This fort is mine. You tricked Jordan to leave and refused to let him back in. He might think that I'm in cahoots with you. He might even kill me when he comes back!"

Geng Anli regretted it. She didn't really want to hurt Jordan, but she also did not try her best to protect him. When Dieter said that he had to find a way to get Jordan to leave, Geng Anli didn't try her best to stop him.

Although she had feelings for Jordan, humans were selfish by nature. She didn't want to stay trapped in the fort with him for decades or die here with him.

Dieter said, "They will definitely return to the castle later. Madam Geng, you must not open the door!"

Geng Anli couldn't help slapping Dieter again.

"You want me to repeat the same mistake?! Later, I will take the initiative to open the fort door to welcome Deity Jordan and Chairman Rong. I will also let them deal with me as they please!"

Mia panicked. “No, Madam Geng, you didn’t trick Deity Jordan, but I did. When Deity Jordan returns, he will definitely kill me.”

As Mia spoke, she couldn’t help crying.

Geng Anli looked at Mia in disdain. “You’re so beautiful, but your heart is so vicious! You kept saying that Jordan doesn’t deserve the ability of a Deity and that he’s trash. Mia, you should pay the price for your ignorance!”

“Sobs…”

Mia started crying.

Dieter patted Mia’s head. “Darling, don’t be afraid. You’re beautiful, so Deity Jordan won’t kill you. Now, listen to me. Go to your room and take off your clothes.”

Mia had always been narcissistic, but she had now lost confidence in her looks. “Will it work? I’m afraid that Deity Jordan won’t even look at me. Daddy, let’s leave this place quickly before he comes back.”

Dieter shook his head. “Leave? If it’s just Jordan or Chairman Rong, we still have a chance of escaping. But now, Chairman Rong has completely submitted to Jordan. The two of them are on the same side. The world is big but there’s no place left for us to hide!”

Geng Anli agreed. “No matter where you escape to, Jordan will definitely find you. And the more you run, the more he won’t let you off!”

Dieter said, “Madam Geng is right. Our only solution is to meet this problem head-on and beg him for mercy.”

Mia continued to cry. “Jordan won’t listen. He’ll kill me. I don’t want to die. I want to escape…”

Dieter grabbed Mia’s slender arm. “Mia! Daddy won’t joke about your life! Although the Haus family hasn’t developed any earth-shattering weapons, I dare say that no one is better than us at eavesdropping! Sometimes, information is more useful than weapons, money, status and technology.”

Geng Anli was shocked. She had indeed underestimated Dieter.

Dieter was still the head of a secret family. Although he behaved in a very low and petty manner, he still had unfathomable depths.

Geng Anli asked, “Dieter, do you have any useful information that can help Mia win Jordan’s forgiveness?”

Dieter smiled. "I can't guarantee that we can win his forgiveness, but Mia will definitely become his woman!"

Geng Anli believed that Dieter was just dreaming. "Even before Mia offended Jordan, he already didn't like her. Now, Mia used Lota as bait to lure Jordan out. She nearly had him killed. Do you honestly think Jordan still sleep with her? Dieter, do you think Jordan is that kind of person?"

Dieter just smiled mysteriously. "I have a way. I promise that Jordan will definitely have sex with Mia in the room, and he will call her his wife. Mia, you even have a chance to attack him while he is in the throes of pleasure. We can turn the tables!"

Mia was excited. "Really? Daddy, you're amazing!"

Dieter stroked Mia's hair. "Mia, don't worry. I have let you practice various accents over the years. You'll be fine."

...

On the battlefield, Jordan looked at the hundreds of people kneeling down to him. He was enjoying this moment very much. This was also why he had been waiting for Shaun to swap minds with Rong Bailun before revealing himself.

With Jordan's current strength, it would be difficult and dangerous for him to deal with Rong Bailun directly to learn the secrets of the Rong Bailun family.

However, Shaun was extremely sinister and had studied Rong Bailun for decades.

Jordan could indirectly control the Rong family by making use of Shaun!

Now, the Rong family, the most powerful in the world, was under Jordan's sole control! Jordan could finally know what kind of heaven-defying secrets the Rong family had!

"Rong Bailun, get up."

Jordan did not expose Shaun's identity. Instead, he addressed him as Rong Bailun. He would put on a good show with Shaun and dig out all the valuable secrets of the Rong family.

"Thank you, Deity!"

Everyone started to stand up after stating their gratitude to Jordan.

At this moment, seeing that the entire Rong family had submitted to Jordan, Jamie walked over and punched Shaun on the nose.

“You arrogant b*stard!”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 879: Revenge On Dieter Haus And His Daughter!

Bang!

Shaun’s nose immediately started bleeding.

Previously, in the western China secret base, Jamie had used a laser cannon to blast Rong Bailun for a long time, but he had not been able to hurt him at all. This gave him a deep sense of defeat.

Just now, when the Rong family men swaggered over, Jamie thought that he would die in their hands.

Now that Jordan had the upper hand, Jamie naturally had to vent his anger on Rong Bailun.

Shaun was very annoyed. He had no complaints about being beaten up by Jordan. After all, Jordan was a Deity. But Jamie was just an ordinary playboy. What right did he have to hit him?!

Jordan was also mindful of Rong Bailun’s reputation.

“Jamie, that’s enough. Chairman Rong has so many subordinates here. Leave him some dignity.”

Rong Bailun’s subordinates must have a hundred question marks in their minds. Why did their master suddenly submit to Jordan?

If “Rong Bailun” allowed Jamie to beat him up, these people might really suspect if their master was the real one.

Jordan still did not know the secrets of the Rong family. He could not let the Rong family subordinates know the truth behind Rong Bailun’s identity.

Wiping the blood from his nose, Shaun looked at Jordan respectfully.

“Deity Jordan, where do you plan to go now? Are you going to visit the Rong family residence?”

Jordan said, "There's no hurry. Come with me to Madam Geng's underground fort first. I want to kill two people."

Jamie grew furious when he remembered Dieter and Mia. "Let's go and kill those two b*stards! They're the most disgusting two-faced people I've ever met!"

In the beginning, Dieter kept calling Jordan a deity, saying that he would completely submit to him. He even offered his precious daughter.

However, after Dieter found out that Chairman Rong wanted to kill Jordan and that Jordan refused to face Chairman Rong head-on, Dieter switched alliances to Chairman Rong.

The man was completely two-faced. He would follow whoever appeared stronger at the time.

As for Jordan, he already knew that Dieter was not trustworthy. What disappointed him the most was that he and his daughter were willing to use Lota as bait just to get Jordan to leave!

Jordan wanted to avenge Lota!

Holding Lota's hand, Jordan said, "Let's go. I'll seek justice for you!"

Everyone walked towards the fort.

They thought that no one would dare to open the fort gate for them, or that the Haus or Geng family subordinates would try to stop them.

However, this did not happen.

Jordan and the rest walked straight to the entrance of the fort. When they reached the entrance, Geng Anli was already kneeling there.

"Mommy!"

Geng Xiqing ran over to Geng Anli.

When Geng Anli saw "Paris Gildon" running over, she finally accepted that this American woman was indeed her biological daughter. She hugged Geng Xiqing, and they both burst into tears.

"Baby, are you alright? I'm sorry. Mommy didn't protect you well and you almost died."

Geng Anli kept blaming herself.

Geng Xiqing believed in her mother. Her mother would never just stand by and watch her in danger.

Geng Anli knelt down and looked at Jordan. "Deity Jordan, I am the owner of this fort but I didn't know when you, Lota and my daughter left. I also didn't know that you all tried to come back in but were rejected. I deserve to die. Please punish me!"

Still holding her paintings, Geng Xiqing knelt down and begged Jordan. "Deity Jordan, my mother definitely didn't know anything. If she knew, she wouldn't have ignored my calls!"

Jordan looked at Geng Xiqing and couldn't help stealing a glance at her paintings. He seemed to have seen something inappropriate.

Collecting himself, Jordan looked at Lota again and thought to himself: 'Lota and Geng Xiqing are indeed salacious. What kind of nonsense did they draw in private?'

Geng Xiqing was Lota's good friend and Geng Anli was his old lover. Jordan had no intention of punishing her.

Jordan said, "Go in. I'm here to take the lives of Dieter Haus and his daughter!"

With that, Jordan led everyone into the fort.

"Where's that b*stard, Dieter? Wasn't he very arrogant before I left? He even punched me and pointed a gun at me! Come out, I'm going to beat you to death!" Jamie shouted indignantly.

Not long after, everyone arrived at the hall and saw Dieter. It looked like Dieter had no intention of escaping. He didn't even have a bodyguard with him.

With Jordan and Rong Bailun working together, it would be meaningless even if he had 10,000 bodyguards around him.

When Dieter saw Jordan, he knelt down. "Deity Jordan, I was wrong! Please forgive me!"

Bang!

Jamie kicked and punched Dieter.

"Forgive you? Go to hell and tell the Devil to forgive you!"

Dieter crawled to Jordan with a swollen face. He cried pleadingly. "Deity Jordan, I admit that I made a huge mistake. I trusted the wrong person! You are the greatest, most powerful and most invincible existence in the world! Give me another chance. I swear my loyalty to you!”

Jordan felt disgusted just looking at him. “If I didn’t have any ability, I would be dead now. Who would give me a chance then? You chose to side with Rong Bailun. There are no second chances! Chairman Rong, please help me settle this person.”

Shaun immediately took out a special pistol and aimed it at Dieter.

“Wait a minute!” Dieter continued to plead. “Don’t kill me. I’m still useful! Our family has been eavesdropping on the world all these years. We’ve gathered a lot of useful information! Spare my life. Our gathered information will definitely be very helpful to you!”

Bang!

Shaun shot and killed Dieter.

“Why would the Deity Jordan need to know the information you gathered?! He already knows everything. What an idiot!”

Shaun also felt disgusted by Dieter.

Jordan was indeed not interested in Dieter’s information stash. He was only interested in the Rong family’s secret and Dieter did not have any information on that. Anyway, Jordan could obtain the secrets through Shaun.

After killing Dieter, the next target would be Mia.

Mia was the one who had directly deceived Jordan by luring Lota out of the fort, almost causing her death. It was that sinister woman!

“Where’s Mia?” Jordan asked.

Geng Anli answered, “She’s in her room.”

Jordan said, “She doesn’t dare to come out? Don’t tell me she has already hung herself in her room?”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 880: Mia Got Her Way?

Mia, that heartless woman, had tricked Lota into leaving the fort. Outside the fort, Lota was almost poisoned to death by the tear gas.

Just this point alone made it impossible for Jordan to let her off.

He believed that Mia knew very well how Jordan felt about Lota. Therefore, Jordan guessed that Mia might have committed suicide. Otherwise, what awaited her would be the judgment of the Deity!

The scythe of the Deity had already been raised. All those who sinned against the Deity would be punished!

Jordan asked Lota, "Lota, do you want to go into Mia's room to take a look? Perhaps she's already dead. If she's not dead, you can kill her yourself to vent your anger."

However, Lota felt very uncomfortable at the mention of Mia. "Jordan, I don't want to see that woman again."

Lota was filled with hatred for Mia, but she was a kind girl. She was not the kind of person who would take revenge with violence. She knew that Jordan would seek justice for her, so she didn't want to personally participate in this matter.

Whether Mia lived or died was up to Jordan.

"Alright."

Jordan also did not want Lota to perform violent acts. An innocent and cute girl would no longer be happy after witnessing too much blood and death.

Therefore, Jordan entered Mia's room alone.

After pushing the door open, Jordan looked up at the ceiling to see if Mia had hanged herself.

However, there was no rope hanging from it.

Mia was not dead. Instead, she was wearing sexy red lingerie with black lace. Her posture was charming and her eyes were seductive.

Jordan couldn't help chuckling. "This stupid woman."

Mia was too stupid. She actually thought that she could make up for her sins with her beauty. To men with money and status, beautiful women were a dime a dozen. It was not as if he had never seen a woman before. It was too easy for him to get any beauty.

As for Mia, Jordan had even rejected her before.

Although Mia was very beautiful, after all that had happened, it was impossible for Jordan to be attracted to her!

All Jordan wanted to do was to kill her!

However, Mia jumped off the bed and walked toward Jordan barefooted.

“Hubby!”

Jordan was taken aback.

Why did Mia call him Hubby?

And in an American accent?

While Jordan was still in shock, Mia had already thrown herself into his arms. Jordan felt that something was wrong. Logically speaking, Mia should be kneeling and begging him.

Why wasn't she panicking at all? She even pounced on him intimately and called him Hubby?

Jordan pushed Mia away and said angrily, “You b*tch, you tricked me and Lota, and you still have the cheek to call me Hubby? Today, I'll let you know the consequences of offending a Deity!”

Mia replied, “Hubby, don't do it. I'm Lauren!”

Jordan was about to move his right hand when he was shocked into a daze. “Lauren?”

Only then did Jordan notice the ancient necklace on Mia's neck.

Did Lauren once again control someone to meet him?

This had happened more than once.

Previously, Lauren had controlled Park Anya and Hailey to meet him and even had sex with him using their bodies!

As this had happened before, Jordan's gaze instantly softened. He no longer had the intention to kill Mia.

Jordan was feeling rather emotional. He held Mia's hand and asked, “Lauren, is it really you?”

Mia replied, "Of course it's me. Silly Hubby. Mia is German but I am speaking to you with an American accent now. Would that happen if I am not your wife, Lauren? Do you want to verify my identity? I'm not afraid of you testing me. I'll start by telling you some things first.

"The first time we met was on the battlefield in Syria. You raped me, you bad man. The second time, we were at Café Nostalgia in New York, right? Also, I used this method to meet you previously. I possessed Park Anya and Hailey before. Have you forgotten?"

Seeing that Mia knew so much about what had happened between Lauren and himself, Jordan no longer doubted her identity.

Jordan smiled. "I remember, of course I remember. But how did you know how to control people? Also, why did you possess Mia?"

Mia replied, "Shaun taught me how to control people remotely. I'm well protected by your subordinates in the US now, but I'm very worried about you. I heard that Mia is a bad woman. I was afraid that she would harm you, so I possessed her to see if I could help you."

Mia's words were reasonable. In addition, Lauren had done this before. Jordan did not think too much about it, nor did he use his abilities as a Deity to predict anything.

Seeing that Jordan believed her, Mia suddenly kissed him. "Hubby, I miss you so much..."

Jordan rejected her politely. He felt a little awkward. "Lauren, if you want to be intimate, wait for me to return. I especially hate that b*tch, Mia. She almost killed Lota. I'm not interested in her."

Mia cursed Jordan in her heart, but she did not show it. Instead, she continued.

"Hubby, please don't reject me, okay?"

With that, Mia kissed Jordan again.

This time, Jordan did not refuse. He had no choice. Lauren was his wife, one of the two women he loved the most. Jordan would definitely satisfy her requests.

Mia became even more smug. Actually, Mia was not possessed by Lauren at all.

This was Dieter's plan.

Dieter had been eavesdropping on the entire world. Wherever there were green plants, he would eavesdrop on people's conversations and collect information. Ever since

Jordan started getting more well-known, Dieter ordered his men to pay special attention to him.

Therefore, Dieter and his daughter knew about Jordan and Lauren's relationship experience and what had happened in the past.

In order to understand the conversations carried out across the world, everyone in the Haus family knew more than 10 languages, in addition to their native German. Among them, English, Chinese and French were listed as key languages to study.

Mia felt very smug as she made out with Jordan.

'Hehe, Jordan, so what if you're a Deity Jordan? So what if I deceived you and Lota? Aren't you listening to me obediently now?'

However, five minutes later.

Pfft.

Jordan stabbed Mia in the heart!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 881: Wrong, Completely Wrong!

Mia fell onto the bed. The blood flowing out of her body instantly dyed the white blanket and bed sheets red. She was on the verge of death, but her eyes were still filled with indignance and surprise.

Before she died, she used the last of her strength to ask Jordan.

"How... how could you tell that I'm not... your wife?"

Mia knew that her act had been exposed. Otherwise, Jordan would not have attacked her.

Jordan said indifferently, "My wife is a very pure woman. I'm the only man she has ever had. Your performance just now was too good."

Mia closed her eyes indignantly and departed from this world. She was probably the first woman to be killed by a man because she was too skilled.

Jordan walked out of the room.

Geng Anli and Jamie hurried over.

“Jordan, are you alright?”

Jamie looked very worried.

Geng Anli hurriedly said, “I’m sorry, Jordan. I forgot to tell you just now. Mia and her father seemed to be planning something...”

As the two of them spoke, they suddenly saw that Mia was dead.

Jordan said, “I already knew about the Haus family secret. They use green plants to eavesdrop on the world. I also guessed that they would know a lot about me. How could I be fooled? Dieter and his daughter are both dead, and Lota has been avenged. By the way, where did Lota go?”

Jordan wanted Lota to know this outcome. He wanted her to know that he would always be by her side. If she suffered, Jordan would definitely stand up for her.

Geng Anli said, “Lota and Xiqing went back to Lota’s room together.”

Jamie also said, “That’s right. The two little girls are so secretive and had wicked smiles on their faces. I wonder what they’re up to.”

Meanwhile, in Lota’s room.

Lota took Geng Xiqing’s paintings and hugged them happily.

Geng Xiqing smiled. “Take your time admiring these paintings. I won’t stay here with you.”

Lota nodded happily. “Thank you, Xiqing!”

After Geng Xiqing left, Lota turned off the main lights in the room, before switching on the dim bedside lamp.

She then climbed onto the bed barefooted and laid down to admire the paintings.

“Hehehehe... so embarrassing!”

Lota had not even taken a good look at the paintings but her pretty face was already flushed red. She couldn’t help recalling what she had done to Jordan in that secret room.

Now that Geng Xiqing had drawn everything out, the memories had become more concrete.

Lota turned her phone to silent mode and flipped through the drawings excitedly. However, after looking at them for a while, Lota frowned. She put on her shoes and ran to Geng Xiqing's room with the paintings.

"Xiqing, open the door."

Lota kept knocking on the door.

Geng Xiqing found it very strange. After opening the door, she saw Lota and asked, "What is it?"

Lota pointed at the paintings and asked, "Xiqing, did you draw wrongly?!"

Geng Xiqing frowned. "I drew according to what you described. What's wrong?"

Lota was so anxious that she didn't know how to explain. "It... shouldn't be like this, right?"

Geng Xiqing smiled. She thought that she knew what Lota was referring to. "Lota, although I've never been in a relationship, I know a lot about romantic matters. It is exactly as it is. There's definitely no mistake."

When Lota heard this, she immediately started crying.

"Sob sob sob..."

Lota squatted on the ground and kept crying. It was as though she was suffering from some major grievance.

Geng Xiqing was very confused. "What's wrong, Lota?"

Lota said aggrievedly, "Wrong, wrong, everything is wrong. No wonder I'm not pregnant. Sob sob..."

With that, she threw the paintings aside and ran off.

Lota ran to Jordan.

At this moment, Jordan, Shaun, Geng Anli, Jamie and the others had just arrived at the hall.

"Jordan..."

Tears streaming down her face, Lota threw herself into Jordan's arms.

Jordan asked with concern, "Lota, what's wrong? What happened? Who bullied you? Tell me!"

Jordan thought that another bad woman like Mia had bullied the innocent Lota.

Lota wiped her tears and said, "Jordan, can you invent a time machine and let me go back to a year ago, no, just half a year ago will do!"

Jordan smiled. Lota still had the temperament of a little girl. It seemed that Lota was not bullied. She was just feeling helpless when she recalled the past.

"Go back to the past? I can't do such a heaven-defying thing. I can only predict the future. Lota, what did you want to do six months ago but didn't manage to?"

Lota looked very vexed. She stared at Jordan's face for a long time before saying,

"No! It's not that I didn't manage to do it. I just did it wrongly. Sob sob..."

With that, she plunged into Jordan's arms again and cried noisily.

Jordan kept patting her back and comforting her. "Silly girl, what did you do wrong?"

Seeing that nothing really bad had happened to Lota and that she was just acting out like a little girl, Geng Anli interrupted with a smile.

"Lota, it's normal to make wrong choices in the past. I've done a lot of wrong things in the past year. For example, not spending more time with my son and daughter, not cherishing and respecting Deity Jordan. But since it has already happened, we can only accept it. No one can go back in time and change things."

Jamie was smoking as he said, "Yes, I also did wrong things over the past year. If I could go back to a year ago, I probably wouldn't have gotten involved with Park Sora..."

Jamie had been stunned ever since Jordan told him that Park Sora was their father's daughter. He didn't dare to talk to his father anymore. He prayed every day that he wasn't his father's biological son. He even planned to carry out a DNA test later on.

Jordan hugged Lota and comforted her as he glared at Jamie. "Probably?"

Jamie hurriedly amended himself. "I meant definitely! Definitely wouldn't!"

Lota cried pitifully and raised her voice. She didn't want anyone else to steal her "spotlight". She was the one who was feeling the most aggrieved now.

Lota said, "Jordan, I'm going to kill that b*stard, Shaun!"

Pfft...

Shaun was drinking tea at the side. When he heard Lota mention his name, he spat out his tea.

Jordan was a little curious. What else did Shaun do to Lota that made her so upset now?

Jordan quickly said, "Lota, Shaun is already dead."

Shaun was in Rong Bailun's body now so Lota did not recognize him.

"That's right. The grass on his grave is almost half a meter tall now. Let's not dwell on the past."

However, Lota was still furious. "Jordan, get Salvatore to dig up Shaun's corpse from the cemetery and whip it! Put a few pieces of the Geng family paper inside and blow it up. Blow up his grave to bits!"

At this, Shaun couldn't resist speaking up. "Lota, Mr. Handley raised you after all. You can't treat him like this!"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 882: Jordan Agrees To Lota's Request!

Shaun was about to cry. Lota wanted to whip his original body and blow him to pieces? In the end, Shaun had raised Lota. Although he had restricted her personal freedom, he did treat her well.

Moreover, he had taught her so many things. He was as good as a mentor to her.

But Lota wanted to do such a cruel thing to his corpse.

When Jordan heard how angry Lota was at Shaun, he immediately knew that Shaun must have done something really bad to hurt her.

Jordan glared at Shaun. "Shut up! Wait for me in my room. I'll deal with you later!"

Not daring to refute, Shaun obediently agreed and went to Jordan's room.

Jamie, Geng Anli and the others were dumbfounded when they saw this.

Jordan was too fierce. He dared to reprimand Rong Bailun like this. It was like an adult lecturing a child. They did not know that the current Rong Bailun was actually Shaun, and his fate was all in Jordan's hands.

Jordan helped Lota back to her room.

After carrying her to the bed, Jordan asked, "Lota, what unforgivable thing did Shaun do to you to make you so angry at him? That you can't let him off even though he's already dead. Tell me, I'll avenge you!"

There was no point in venting on Shaun's corpse. But since the real Shaun was by his side, Jordan could take revenge for Lota.

Lota cried. "Shaun is a pervert. He lied to me."

"What did he lie to you about?" Jordan asked.

However, Lota refused to say it. She only looked at Jordan meaningfully and asked,

"Jordan, can we be together? Previously, I felt that it was enough that I got to be your woman for those 24 hours in that room. But now, I realized that I didn't really have you. Jordan, I want to be with you, okay?"

Jordan stroked her hair and said, "Lota, when you fell for Mia's trick, I fell in love with you too. You almost died outside for me, and you had no regrets. How could I bear to abandon you and leave you alone?"

Lota smiled happily. "Really? Jordan, are you really willing to accept me?"

Jordan nodded. "Yes, I'm very willing. But, as you know, I already have two wives. I have to get their permission before I can marry you."

Lota knew that even if Jordan accepted her, she could never compare to Lauren and Victoria. However, Lota was not as domineering as the other women from the eight great families. She was willing to be the third wife, the most neglected one, the one with the lowest status. It didn't matter.

As long as she could become Jordan's wife!

Lota said, "I'll go back to the US with you. I believe Lauren and Victoria will definitely accept me!"

Jordan pinched Lota's cute little face. He also felt that since Lota was so cute and innocent, Lauren and Victoria would probably agree.

Jordan said, "Lota, rest first. I'll look for you later."

However, Lota was reluctant to part with Jordan. She wanted him to stay here with her. After all, Jordan had already agreed to be with her. They could sleep together!

Lota begged. "Jordan, where are you going? Is there anything more important than accompanying me?"

Jordan smiled. "I am going to help you whip a corpse."

Lota was confused.

Jordan did not explain further but just returned to his room. He kicked Shaun the moment he saw him.

Bang!

Shaun knelt on the ground, not daring to resist at all.

Jordan was furious. "Shaun, you b*stard. What lies did you tell Lota in the past that made her so angry that she wanted to whip your corpse?"

Shaun was afraid that Jordan would activate the "golden headband curse" again. He had had enough of that splitting headache. He hurriedly explained, "I'm innocent, Deity Jordan. I've never lied to Lota. Why would I lie to her? What... are you talking about?"

Shaun defended himself confidently. He believed that he had treated Lota very well for the past 10 years. Whatever he taught her was tainted by his own biased viewpoints, but he never told her lies.

But Shaun suddenly thought of something and felt rather abashed. He seemed to recall that he did lie to her about something.

Jordan said, "I don't know either. If I knew, I might kill you!"

Shaun swallowed nervously. He crawled to Jordan and grabbed his leg.

"Deity Jordan, we're the most compatible partners-in-crime. Have you forgotten? We killed the Park and Miyamoto family masters together. We've also destroyed Rong Bailun's overlord status together and successfully developed the mind-transplant procedure. The future will be ours! I'll take over Rong Bailun and dominate the world. Meanwhile, you will control everything from behind the scenes!

"We can't be separated!"

Jordan hated Shaun very much, especially because of the earlier intense battle when he had released biochemical weapons and killed many civilians. However, he had to admit that the two of them were indeed fated.

Moreover, Jordan really could not do without Shaun now.

Jordan said, "I'm not interested in being a world overlord, nor do I want to control the world. The only thing I want to know now is the secret of the Rong family. Even Geng Anli said that the secret of the Rong family must be heaven-defying. I really want to know how heaven-defying it is!"

Shaun stood up. "You are not the only one. I'm going crazy thinking about it! Once we know this heaven-defying secret, it will belong to us, haha. By the way, Deity Jordan, according to my own investigation and speculation, when the Geng family detonated their paper, Rong Bailun immediately fled to his western China secret base. This means that his biggest secret and core invention is there!

"Now, everything from that place has been transported to Fort Rong! In other words, as long as we go to Fort Rong, we will know what the Rong family's heaven-defying secret is! Deity Jordan, since you can't wait, let's go over now!"

It was true that Jordan was very eager to know and didn't want to waste a single second. He couldn't wait to know the secret of the Rong family!

However, his cautious nature prevailed and he declined the suggestion.

"Don't be overly anxious. The core researchers, subordinates and inventions of the Rong family are all there. We know nothing about the things there. We'll be easily exposed if we just rush over now. Moreover, if the Rong family invented some kind of terrifying weapon which we know nothing about, we might die there! It's too risky!"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 883: To The Rong Family Residence!

Shaun was also a cautious person. After carefully considering Jordan's words, he realized that his worries were valid!

If a person from the 1500s obtained a modern-day poisonous tear gas bomb which he had never seen before. He would not know how to use it or realize how much harm it could cause. Nor would he know what to take note of when handling it. He might accidentally activate the gas bomb without wearing any protective gear.

In the end, he might end up being poisoned to death first.

In the face of the Rong family's advanced high-tech and heaven-defying invention, Jordan and Shaun would be like that ignorant person from the 1500s.

They might accidentally hurt themselves.

Of course, the Rong family had top researchers and they knew all the risks and proper procedures. But it was not like public posters listing all the necessary precautions would be pasted on all the walls. Moreover, these researchers would expect the real Rong Bailun to know all the proper precautions and would not think to remind him.

“Should we capture a scientist from the base and interrogate him first?” said Shaun.

Jordan asked, “If you do that, won’t it expose the fact that you’re not the real Rong Bailun?”

Shaun was also very worried about this. He revealed a sinister expression. “We’ll kill him after he reveals everything!”

But Jordan was even more cautious than Shaun. Who knew if these scientists had any secret methods to communicate that something was wrong?

What if this person had tipped off his other colleagues?

What if he could remotely control some of the devices in the base?

Jordan disagreed. “You only know how to kill people. Do you know how valuable a scientist from the Rong family is? How can you kill him just like that?”

Shaun nodded. “Yes, it’s indeed not easy to nurture a good scientific researcher. I spent a lot of effort on my scientific talents. What about you? Do you have any good ideas?”

Jordan said, “Let’s go to Rong Bailun’s residence first to meet his family and check out his living areas. There might be some clues there.”

A smile appeared on Shaun’s face. “You are right. Rong Bailun might even have a habit of writing in his diary. He might have written down his many secrets. We will definitely gain something if we go to his house. Let’s not delay then. Shall we set off immediately?”

Jordan didn’t want to waste any time either. He said, “Lota is resting. We’ll leave immediately after she wakes up.”

...

Rong Bailun’s residence was actually not in some remote, mysterious location. It was hidden in plain sight. It was located in a very well-known residential district.

Chaoyang Park, the most luxurious wealthy district in Beijing.

Many Chinese celebrities including famous actors and directors lived in Chaoyang Park. Multi-millionaires from all over the world also had homes there.

As the head of a secret family, it was unexpected for Rong Bailun to live in such a high-profile place. Of course, this was only one of Rong Bailun's homes. He also owned less conspicuous residences in quieter little towns.

With his identity as Rong Bailun, Shaun invited Jordan, Lota and the Geng family to his home in Chaoyang Park as guests.

By inviting them as guests, he was actually allowing them all to infiltrate the Rong family residence.

Shaun was about to meet Rong Bailun's wife, son and daughter. He was a little nervous now, afraid that Rong Bailun's family would realize he was a fake.

Three Bentleys drove into the mansion in Chaoyang Park.

Rong Bailun's wife had already been informed in advance and was waiting at the entrance with her son and daughter.

Shaun and Jordan sat in the backseat of the car. The driver was Shaun's own trusted aide.

In the car, Shaun spotted a middle-aged woman from afar. He knew that the woman was Rong Bailun's wife, Ming La.

Ming La was in her 40s and she looked her age. She did not bother to take special care of herself like other noble ladies. Her looks and figure were that of an ordinary rich Chinese woman. At most, she had a more refined demeanor and better skin.

She wasn't overly beautiful or young.

Logically speaking, with the Rong family's technological strength, it would be easy for them to make a drug that could make her look 10 or 20 years younger.

But Ming La was not that fussy about her appearance.

Shaun was a superficial guy and he did not like Ming La's face and figure. He could not help complaining.

"I can't believe that the wife of the world's number one person, Rong Bailun, looks so ordinary. She's far inferior to Geng Anli."

Jordan said, "You don't like her? You can just kill her and marry Paris Gildon... Oh, I mean the former Geng Xiqing."

Jordan was actually being sarcastic, but Shaun did not realize it.

Shaun nodded. "Yes, I think so too. Let's get our hands on the Rong family's heaven-defying secret first. Then I'll think about changing wives."

Smack!

Jordan slapped him. "Do you really want to do this? You have already taken over Rong Bailun's body, his wife, son and daughter. Now, you still want to kill them? I'm warning you, you're not allowed to kill Rong Bailun's wife!"

Jordan was about to take over everything in the Rong family, including the various weapons and secrets they had invented over the years.

Shaun had already killed Rong Bailun. Jordan didn't wish anything to happen to Rong Bailun's family.

Otherwise, even if Jordan successfully obtained everything, he would feel like a murderer and a robber. He would feel very guilty.

Shaun obediently complied. "Yes, yes... when we get out of the car later, please let me retain some dignity. Otherwise, my wife and children will suspect..."

Jordan said coldly, "I know what to do."

The car soon came to a stop. Shaun got out of the car and walked over to hug Rong Bailun's wife, Ming La.

"Honey!"

Shaun hugged her intimately before kissing her. He knew that this couple had a good relationship and had been very loving for decades.

Jordan and the others alighted and walked over.

"Mrs. Rong."

Jordan, Geng Anli, Lota and the others greeted Ming La.

Ming La responded politely and invited them into the villa.

However, at this moment, a 19-year-old boy stood in front of Shaun and asked angrily, "Daddy, I heard that you killed Uncle Ban. Is that true?! Uncle Ban treated us so well. Why did you do that?!"

Chapter 884: Finding Clues!

After the boy finished speaking, a 16-year-old girl beside him also asked with tears in her eyes.

“Daddy, tell me it isn’t true. Uncle Ban has been by your side for so many years and has always been loyal. Why would you kill him? This can’t be true...”

The two children were Rong Bailun’s son and daughter. One was called Rong Bingshao and the other was called Rong Oumei.

The two of them were relatively young. They were younger when compared to the second-generation heirs of other secret families.

Shaun shouted angrily, “Ban Luming angered the Deity and started a war. He even wanted to kill Deity Jordan. How could I not kill him?!”

By now, Rong Bingshao and Rong Oumei already knew that Jordan was a Deity.

Rong Bingshao glared at Jordan with great hatred. “He’s just a Deity. Why should the Rong family value him so much that we have to kill Uncle Ban! What’s so great about a Deity?! Isn’t his existence to serve our eight great families?!”

It seemed like Rong Bingshao knew a lot about the secrets of the eight great families.

“Enough, Bingshao. Your father has been with your Uncle Ban for so many years. He must be feeling even worse than you guys. Don’t criticize your father anymore. You’re still children. You don’t understand the difficulties of adults,” Ming La scolded Rong Bingshao.

Rong Bingshao glared at Jordan before turning to leave. But Rong Oumei was still obedient and stayed behind.

“Bingshao! Come back here!”

Shaun pretended to call after Rong Bingshao. In actual fact, he couldn’t wait for this little brat to run away from home.

The relationship between a father and son was usually very close. It was very easy for a son to detect that there was something wrong.

Rong Bingshao was currently in a rebellious state and was very difficult to deal with, so Shaun did not have the patience to deal with him. He was really afraid that he would kill him if he got angry.

After Rong Bingshao left, Shaun said to Jordan and the others, "Deity Jordan, Madam Geng, Lota, I'm sorry. My son lost control of his emotions. He's usually very polite. Please don't take offense."

Jordan nodded. "It's alright."

Jamie walked over and looked at the obedient Rong Oumei. He smiled. "It's alright. Your daughter is still here, that's all that matters to me."

"Hello, little beauty. Your name is Rong Oumei, right? Nice to meet you. My name is Jamie."

Jamie took the initiative to extend his hand to Rong Oumei.

Jordan and Shaun were speechless. This fellow was targeting underage girls again.

Walking into the mansion, Jordan realized that the decor of the Rong residence was no different from those of ordinary rich people. In fact, their decor was simpler compared to some rich families.

This was Shaun's first time here. He looked around before saying to Ming La,

"Honey, stay here and entertain Madam Geng and the rest. I'll bring Deity Jordan upstairs for a tour. He wants to see our living space."

"Wait a minute."

Before Shaun and Jordan could go upstairs, Ming La approached Jordan and said,

"Deity... Deity Jordan..."

Ming La's expression and tone was quite awkward so Jordan said, "Mrs. Rong, you can call me by my name, Jordan."

Ming La smiled. "Mr. Jordan, I know that over the past few days, our Rong family has been at war with four of your families. Many civilians have been implicated. I'm very excited to know that you're a high and mighty Deity who can predict the future. My husband is a person who respects your special status very much. I hope you can be magnanimous and forgive the harm the war has caused to you and your family and friends."

“Actually, Bailun isn’t someone who kills the innocent. He promised me that he wouldn’t release those terrifying weapons unless he had no choice.”

Jordan looked at Ming La. She was not particularly beautiful and was a little plump. However, Jordan felt very comfortable with Ming La. From her tone, it was obvious that she was a gentle and kind woman.

No wonder the world had been so peaceful all these years.

As the wife of the world’s number one person, her good character led to the happiness of the people in the world. If she was a vicious woman, this world would not have had a good life.

Jordan said to Ming La, “Mrs. Rong, don’t worry. Our families have had our differences in the past, but the problem has been resolved. We are all here at your house as guests. Doesn’t this mean that we have put everything behind us?”

Ming La smiled and nodded. “I won’t disturb your tour then. Please call me if you need anything.”

Jordan returned her smile but did not say anything further. He accompanied Shaun upstairs to Rong Bailun and Ming La’s bedroom.

After closing the door and turning on the lights, the two of them immediately started to search the room.

Shaun went to the bedside table. Most people would place some personal items there.

For example, books, diaries, phones or tablets.

However, after searching around, he found nothing.

Shaun was puzzled. “Rong Bailun’s bedroom is too f*cking clean. There’s nothing in it. At least I have a couple of books in my bedroom. Could it be some high-tech product that can be hidden inside the panels or made invisible?”

Jordan closed his eyes and made a prediction before shaking his head.

In Jordan’s vision, the bedroom still looked very simple and uncluttered.

Logically speaking, a person’s regular bedroom shouldn’t be so sparse.

Jordan asked, “Shaun, are you sure this is the house where Rong Bailun usually resides?”

Shaun said, "I'm certain. Although I don't know the Rong family, I've sent many people to follow Rong Bailun's whereabouts over the years. I know very well his usual spots."

Jordan thought for a moment and said, "This house is so big. There must be more than just a few bedrooms. There must be a study, a basement, a wine cellar and other places. Perhaps we can find something there."

"Yes, Deity Jordan is right. Let's continue searching."

Shortly after, Jordan and Shaun walked down the stairs. Ming La went forward and smiled at Jordan. "Mr. Jordan, our room is rather simple. It is quite embarrassing."

Jordan smiled and replied, "Mrs. Rong is too humble. You are the wealthiest family in the world, but you don't show off. We can all learn from you. By the way, Mrs. Rong, there should be a basement below, right? I guess there must be a lot of good wine there. Your decor can be simple but I believe your collection of wine must be very valuable, right? I really want to take a look."

Jordan had searched all the rooms upstairs but did not find any clues.

Only the basement remained.

However, Ming La smiled apologetically. "I'm afraid we'll have to disappoint you, Mr. Jordan. The basement is my husband's private place. He won't even let me and the children in. I'm afraid he won't agree to let you visit it."
