

The Abandoned Husband Dominates - Chapter 885 – 916

Unexpected Discovery! -

Hearing this, Jordan and Shaun were both excited!

This was exactly what they wanted to hear. A secret lair where Rong Bailun did not allow anyone to enter, not even his immediate family. It would be meaningless if anyone could enter the basement.

The more Rong Bailun restricted an area, the more it meant that there was something special there. This was exactly what Jordan and Shaun were looking for!

Jordan and Shaun looked at each other in anticipation. Shaun naturally did not immediately agree to let Jordan tour the place. If he did, he would be behaving off-character.

'You usually don't allow your immediate family to enter, but you're suddenly so generous as to let an outsider in today?'

As Rong Bailun's wife, how could she not suspect him?

Shaun also came over and patted Jordan's shoulder.

"Deity Jordan, my wife is right. The basement is my private space. Actually, there's nothing there. It's just some of my personal belongings. There's nothing to see, haha."

Jordan joked. "Could it be that Chairman Rong is hiding a mistress in the basement?"

"Hahaha..."

Shaun and Ming La laughed.

Ming La smiled. "If that's the case, I'll have to ask Deity Jordan to uphold justice for me. By the way, dinner is ready. Mr. Jordan, please take a seat."

In the distance, Lota, who had already taken a seat at the dining table, waved at Jordan. "Jordan, come and sit down. Mrs. Rong has prepared a lot of delicious food!"

Lota was already eating heartily. This girl really didn't hold back when it came to food. Compared to the first time Jordan saw her, she was much more voluptuous now.

However, while she liked to eat, she was also very careful about her figure. Her waist remained relatively slender.

The few of them had a pleasant dinner and drank some wine. Thereafter, they went to their respective rooms for the night.

Lota wanted to stay in the same room as Jordan, but he rejected her. Although he had agreed to accept Lota, Lauren and Victoria had yet to agree to it. Jordan wouldn't be able to be with Lota if the two of them didn't give their approval.

In addition, Jordan and Shaun had something important to do tonight. It was not suitable for Jordan to stay in the same room as Lota.

At midnight, Jordan kept staring at the time anxiously.

'Why hasn't Shaun come to find me yet?'

Jordan and Shaun did not make a fixed appointment, but with their tacit understanding and Shaun's intelligence, he could definitely guess Jordan's thoughts.

Ming La had already revealed that there was something secretive in the basement. Shaun would definitely think of bringing Jordan to investigate the basement after everyone fell asleep.

Knock knock!

Suddenly, there were two very soft knocks on Jordan's door.

Before Jordan could answer, Shaun pushed the door open and entered.

Shaun walked in. "Deity Jordan, sorry to keep you waiting."

Jordan stood up and asked, "What took you so long? You drank a lot just now. You could have told Ming La that you are too drunk and want to sleep in separate rooms. This way, you can avoid having too much close contact with her. She's the person who knows Rong Bailun the best and can easily expose your identity."

Shaun smiled. "Hehe, I could tell at a glance that Ming La is a very innocent woman. It's very easy to deceive her. I slept with her just now and tried to get some information from her. But she doesn't seem to know anything about what's at Fort Rong."

Jordan was very angry. "You're really a beast. Didn't you complain earlier that she wasn't good-looking? But you turned around and slept with her? Also, we've already analyzed their bedroom upstairs. There are no personal belongings of Rong Bailun in the bedroom. This means that his wife doesn't know about any of his secrets.

“His wife is a very kind person and wouldn’t agree with Rong Bailun doing too many risky and dangerous things. Therefore, Rong Bailun must have kept his core secrets from his wife and two children.”

Shaun said, “I know that too. However, although Ming La isn’t too beautiful, she’s still the wife of the number one person in the world. With her status, she is still very noble. I have to conquer such a noble woman.”

Jordan looked at Shaun in disdain. Shaun came from a humble background, and his greatest sense of accomplishment was conquering those noble women.

Jordan said coldly, “Let’s go to the basement.”

The two of them left the room and walked toward the basement. Reaching the basement door, it required “Rong Bailun” for facial recognition and fingerprint verification to enter.

After entering, they turned on the lights in the basement and were surprised.

The basement here didn’t seem to be a place for wine or storage. Of course, there was wine as well, but it felt more like a place for living.

Shaun walked forward and stroked an antique motorcycle.

“Hey, look. A 1950s BMW motorcycle, an R50. This is so cool. It’s great to be rich. In the remote town where I grew up, there wasn’t even a bicycle around.”

Jordan was slightly surprised. Rong Bailun was about 40 years old. Why would he collect a motorcycle from the 1950s?

Did this fellow like to collect antiques?

Jordan and Shaun also found some other things from the 50s and 60s.

Shaun said, “I didn’t expect Rong Bailun to be so nostalgic. I have spied on him for so long but never noticed this. What a miscalculation.”

Jordan walked to a desk.

There was a pile of books on the desk but Jordan was in no hurry to open them. He had spotted something even more interesting. There was a photo frame on the table.

The person in the photo was not Rong Bailun, but a white-haired old man.

“This old man is...”

Shaun walked over. “This is Rong Bailun’s late father. His name is Rong Huangde. It looks like Rong Bailun loves his father very much. His father has been dead for so long, but he still keeps his photo here. Look, everything here is spotless. He must come over often to clean up.”

However, Jordan felt that something was amiss. He asked, “How long has Rong Bailun’s father been dead?”

Shaun thought for a moment and said, “I believe Rong Huangde has been dead for almost 10 years? So he probably died when he was about 70 years old. Sigh, people from your eight great families won’t live past 80 years old.”

Jordan thought for a moment. “I remember hearing from Grandpa that Rong Huangde is the same age as him, or even older. In other words, Rong Huangde would be over 80 now if he was still alive, right?”

Shaun nodded. “Yes, he would be 81 years old. What’s wrong?”

Jordan placed the photo frame back on the table and said, “In that case, I suspect that he might have faked his death 10 years ago!”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 886: To The Rong Family Base!

Rong Bailun’s father faked his death?!

Hearing this, Shaun’s face instantly turned pale. He recalled what Rong Bailun had said to him when he killed him.

“I’m not the number one in the world!”

If Rong Huangde wasn’t dead, then of course Rong Bailun couldn’t be called the number one in the world. His father was.

Shaun became nervous. “Deity Jordan, is it really possible that Rong Huangde pretended to be dead? Now that we killed his son, will he take revenge on us?”

Jordan said, “The possibility of Rong Huangde faking his death is very high. Look at the things here. It doesn’t look like someplace where a man in his 40s lives. Instead, it looks more like the living quarters of an old man in his 70s or 80s. However, you don't have to worry. Even if Rong Huangde faked his death back then, he's definitely dead now.

"Because he's already more than 80 years old. No one can escape the curse of the eight great families. My grandfather wanted to escape the curse by freezing his body, but something happened the moment he walked towards the device."

Shaun nodded. "That's right. Even the grandfather of a Deity couldn't avoid it. Rong Huangde definitely can't either."

Jordan did not say anything else and started to flip through the books on the desk.

The first book he saw was "Mayan Prophecy". There was also the Dresden Codex, the Madrid Codex and the Paris Codex.

These books were all documents left behind by the ancient Mayans.

Everyone knew that the Mayans liked to forecast the future. They even predicted that the current generation would have high-tech gadgets such as planes and cars. They also predicted that someone like Hitler would appear and even predicted his birth and death dates.

Of course, their prophecy that the world would end in 2012 did not come true.

After flipping through them briefly, Jordan went on to read the other books.

There were also some Chinese books.

"Yuan Tian-gang's Autobiography", "Li Chunfeng's Autobiography", "Jiang Ziya", "Zhuge Liang"...

Shaun was surprised by all those books. "Why do Rong Huangde have all these books?"

However, Jordan noticed something in common.

"Look, these books are all related to predictions. These are all famous ancient prophets. It seems that the Rong family is very interested in the prediction ability of the Deity. My guess is that they wanted to find a common point. They wanted to dig out the origin of the prediction ability."

Shaun smiled. "No wonder. Ever since the first Deity appeared, the eight great families went from being unknown to dominating the world. Anyone would be curious about your ability."

Jordan did not say anything and continued to read.

The books on the right were all on American folklore.

Jordan casually took out a book: Legend of Cocodrie, Louisiana.

Shaun took two steps back in fear when he saw the title.

Cocodrie was Shaun's hometown!

Why was the Rong family reading books on Cocodrie?

Shaun was born in Cocodrie.

Moreover, there had always been many mystical urban legends about Cocodrie among the people. As a result, there were some books published about them.

Shaun hurriedly flipped through the next few books and realized that they were all about his hometown, Cocodrie!

"Damn it! Why did Rong Huangde buy so many books on Cocodrie?! Could it be... because of me? Was he investigating my background and my past?"

Shaun's hair stood on end. He was a cautious person and was always very scared of people secretly investigating him.

Jordan nodded. "Shaun, it looks like the Rong family is not only interested in the prediction ability of the Deity, but also your family's demonic techniques. He must know that you possess demonic techniques that can't be explained by science. You can control people and kill them using a cat. That's why they specially investigated your background. Actually, I've always wanted to ask you how you got your skills."

Shaun replied, "My family ancestors passed them down."

Jordan asked again, "Then how did your ancestors get them?"

Shaun shook his head. "I don't know about that. My father and uncles taught me these things but all died when I was still young. My mother was the one who brought me up. My mother doesn't know much about these things."

Jordan knew that Shaun would not dare to lie to him anymore. He probably really did not know.

After flipping through the books, they didn't find anything else suspicious.

Jordan and Shaun still had no clue about the core secret of the Rong family.

Shaun asked, "What should we do, Deity Jordan? There are no clues here. We only discovered that the Rong family has been investigating us."

Jordan narrowed his eyes. He could feel that the Rong family was indeed not simple.

The Rong family had their sights set on Jordan and Shaun, the two most capable people in the world, for a long time. Perhaps the Rong family hoped to obtain what Jordan and Shaun had.

Jordan said, "I can't wait to know the secrets of the Rong family. Apart from their super weapons and highly-advanced technology, what else is there?! What kind of core secrets do they have, that they can be so arrogant? Shaun, let's go to Fort Rong now and uncover the truth!"

Hearing this, Shaun was very excited. "Alright! I don't want to wait for a second longer! With Deity Jordan with me, I feel braver."

If there was really some unknown danger there, Jordan could predict it in advance. There would be less risk of them dying there.

Without hesitation, the two of them called their subordinates over and flew to Fort Rong.

Fort Rong was located in Chengdu and the military had been developing biological weapons there since the mid-1900s.

Now, this place completely belonged to the Rong family. Many people at the fort had received news of their arrival in advance and greeted them at the door.

"Master Rong!"

A group of men with guns slung over their backs saluted Shaun respectfully.

Shaun nodded. "Is everything alright?"

One of the men said, "Yes, Master Rong, everything is operating business as usual!"

Shaun said, "Very good. I've already told Deity Jordan about the secret here. He is now a good friend of our family and will help with our research. You have to treat him with the utmost respect, understand?"

The subordinates gazed at Jordan respectfully. "Greetings, Deity Jordan!"

Jordan did not say anything and just walked through the door with Shaun.

Beep-Beep...

Chapter 887: Meeting An Old Friend At The Fort!

Just as Jordan was about to walk through the door, an alarm suddenly sounded. The ear-piercing alarm made Jordan and Shaun extremely nervous.

After all, Shaun was not the real Rong Bailun so he was constantly afraid that others would see through him.

The Rong family's most elite troops were all gathered here.

If exposed, even with Shaun's demonic techniques and Jordan's predictive abilities, they would definitely die if they were attacked by the Rong family's sophisticated weaponry!

Jordan was also nervous. His heart was in his throat. He had a vague feeling that there was a major danger hidden here. The sixth sense of a Deity could not be ignored.

Before he came, he had tried to make a prediction, but he could not see anything! The unknown increased Jordan's fear of what would happen next!

More people ran out with weapons in their hands when they heard the alarm.

One of them even carried a rocket launcher!

When he saw the new rocket launcher that was at least 20 years ahead of its time, Shaun's legs went limp.

No matter how many cats Shaun had, it was useless!

With the press of a button, Shaun would instantly turn into dust.

Jordan had been injected with Mirakuru serum and his physical body was stronger. Even so, he would be half-dead or crippled!

At this moment, a woman with black hair tied into a ponytail walked up to Shaun and called out respectfully.

"Master Rong, so you're here. I thought there was an enemy ambush."

The woman reached out and gestured for the armed men to put their weapons down.

Shaun heaved a sigh of relief. His subordinates had provided him with information on some of the high-ranking personnel around Rong Bailun.

As a result, Shaun knew who this woman was. She was Lee Su-ji, who was one rank lower than Ban Luming and was in charge of the safety of the Rong family's various bases.

Lee Su-ji was from Korea. She came to China to study when she was in high school. Rong Bailun took a liking to her and kept her by his side.

Shaun looked at Lee Su-ji. "Yes, I brought Deity Jordan here to take a look."

Lee Su-ji looked at Jordan and bowed respectfully. "Greetings, new Deity."

Jordan nodded back and sized her up. One could hear her Korean accent from her speech. For some reason, when Jordan was reminded of "Madam" Park Anya.

'If Madam isn't dead, she might be the one accompanying me here to explore the secrets of the Rong family.'

Jordan couldn't help feeling emotional. Park Anya was the woman Jordan had liked before. She was also the woman who was most compatible with him in terms of career.

Ultimately, Lauren and Victoria's backgrounds were too ordinary. They couldn't interfere with the matters of the secret families. Although Lota came from a secret family, she had been raised in an enclosed environment by Shaun for the past 18 years. She was an innocent and cute little girl.

Park Anya was different. She was ambitious and very capable. She would definitely be of great help to Jordan in his career. The two of them could charge into a tiger's den together. She was not the kind of woman who would stay at home obediently.

However, Jordan had killed her with his own hands. If he could go back in time, Jordan might not have done it...

Lee Su-ji suddenly said, "Master Rong, this fort doesn't have a record of Deity Jordan's face, so the alarm was triggered. Why don't I put him on the approved list first before you bring him in?"

Only then did Shaun realize why the alarm had suddenly sounded.

Shaun slapped his forehead. "Oh, it's all my fault for being so excited that I forgot about this. Su-ji, quickly add Deity Jordan into the approved list."

Jordan rolled his eyes at Shaun. 'You still have the cheek to say that? You spied on Rong Bailun for 20 years, but you don't even know this!'

Lee Su-ji quickly registered Jordan's facial profile and the two of them entered.

Just as they entered the fort and arrived on the first floor, Jordan and Shaun were shocked by a huge object.

There was a huge white object spinning in front of them.

There were multiple clocks on the walls, but they did not display the various time zones across the world. Instead, they displayed different years.

Such as 1920, 1940, 1970, and so on.

Jordan glanced at Shaun before looking at the huge object. He wanted to ask: "Is that thing the core secret of the Rong family?"

But Shaun gave a subtle shake of his head.

When Rong Bailun transferred the core invention from the western China secret base to this place, Shaun had seen the process very clearly. They used a truck and then a plane to transport it.

The huge object could not possibly fit into a truck or plane at all. It was too big. The items that were transported would at most be the size of a small car.

Having arrived at the core base of the Rong family, the two of them grew increasingly nervous. They didn't know anything. They had no idea what anything here was for!

At that moment, a man suddenly walked toward Jordan and got down on one knee. "Greetings, Deity Jordan!"

Jordan found this voice very familiar.

Looking down, Jordan was shocked. "Director Nolan?"

This was Jordan's favorite director. He was also a frequent guest at the Steele family residence. He was the Hollywood director who had filmed the movie "Inception"!

Nolan was clearly joking around with Jordan. He stood up and shook Jordan's hand with a smile.

"Haha, Jordan, I didn't expect you to become a Deity! I believe your grandfather will be very happy to know this. Even when you were just a young boy, I could already tell that you were different. Haha."

Jordan was very surprised. "Director Nolan, why are you here?"

To Jordan, Nolan was just a normal director. He did interact with the Steeles, who was a secret family. But that was also because his movies were good and Jordan was a great fan of his work.

However, this was the core secret base of the Rong family. How could a normal movie director like him appear here?!

Unless he was also a member of the Rong family!

Nolan smiled. "Haha, looks like Master Rong didn't tell you that I've been working for the Rong family."

Shaun was momentarily taken aback. He had never seen the movie "Inception" and he didn't know who this man was.

But now, he had to pretend. "Haha, that's right. Director Nolan is one of my men. Deity Jordan, you didn't expect this, right?"

Nolan asked Jordan, "Yes, you must have seen my new movie, 'Creed', right?"

This was at least the fifth time Nolan had asked Jordan to watch this movie.

"Don't tell me...?"

Chapter 888: The Rong Family's Ultimate Secret!

Jordan had a strange feeling. Why did Director Nolan feel that Jordan must have watched his movie just because he appeared here?

Could these two things be related?

Director Nolan had known Jordan for a long time. He could read Jordan's expressions.

Director Nolan was shocked. "No way. You haven't seen it yet?"

Jordan didn't lie and said truthfully, "As you know, too many things have happened to me in the past two years. I haven't had the time to watch movies at all."

If he remembered correctly, Nolan had been urging Jordan to watch "Creed" since a year ago.

At first, Jordan was busy divorcing Hailey. Later on, a series of things happened and he gradually forgot about it.

Director Nolan smiled. "Alright, you're here anyway. I believe Master Rong has already told you the secret here. It doesn't make any difference whether you see it or not. Haha, but it will be quite interesting for you to watch the movie after learning the secret. You'll definitely be surprised and say, 'Hey, why did this fellow turn the world's top secret into a movie? He must be crazy to tell the whole world!'

"Hahaha, that's right. That's what Master Rong said to me when I wanted to film this movie."

Shaun felt a little frustrated at being mentioned again but had no idea what had happened. He complained in his heart.

'Nolan is really a lunatic but Rong Bailun still agreed to his crazy idea!'

Nolan nodded. "Yes. Everyone thinks whatever is in a movie is make-believe. There's a saying: the most dangerous place is the safest place, right?"

Jordan said indifferently, "You know that I can never beat you when it comes to arguing."

Nolan smiled. "Alright, I won't disturb you guys anymore. I still have a film festival to attend. We'll talk later."

"Bye."

With that, Jordan bid farewell to Nolan. Shaun and Jordan heaved a sigh of relief. After Nolan left, Shaun brought Jordan to an empty place in front and whispered, "Deity Jordan, did you hear what Nolan said just now? He made a movie out of this secret. Why don't we go back and watch the movie before coming over? That's safer!"

Flying home to watch a movie so late at night?

Jordan said, "Since we are already here, how can you leave just like that? This will arouse suspicion. Get your subordinates to leave."

Shaun was a cautious person. According to his character, he would definitely go back and watch the movie first before coming back. However, since Jordan had given the order, Shaun had no choice but to obey.

"Su-ji," Shaun called Lee Su-ji over and instructed her. "Tell everyone in the base to wait outside. I have something important to discuss with Deity Jordan."

"Yes!"

Lee Su-ji didn't ask anything. She immediately brought everyone out and closed the door.

After everyone left, Jordan and Shaun finally heaved a sigh of relief. Their stiff bodies relaxed.

"Damn, I was scared to death just now."

Shaun heaved a sigh of relief.

Jordan pointed at the huge object in front of him and asked, "Wasn't this thing transported from the western China secret base?"

Shaun shook his head. "No, whatever was transported from the western China secret base is not this big. This must have been here all along."

Jordan looked up. "What we want is upstairs. Let's go upstairs."

Be it his intuition or his experience, it was impossible for the core secret to be placed on the first floor.

It must be in one of the rooms upstairs.

Jordan headed up the stairs.

Shaun still felt that it was too risky to go straight to the core secret room. He advised Jordan. "Deity Jordan, wait. Don't be anxious. Didn't Nolan ask us to watch his movie first? We can go up after we watch it. I have a video-streaming program. I'll search for 'Creed' now. Let's take a look before going up."

However, Jordan ignored him and continued upstairs.

Shaun had already taken out his phone and opened the program. He searched for "Creed" and clicked "play".

"Oh my god, it's a restricted movie. I have to pay extra to watch it. Wait a minute, I'll top up my account to buy the movie."

Shaun pulled Jordan's arm.

Still, Jordan ignored him and continued walking.

Shaun was as anxious as an ant on a hot pan. From the looks of it, Jordan really did not intend to watch the movie first. He was going to barge in!

Jordan was not reckless. He knew that there must be very important information in "Creed".

However, he was not as worried as Shaun.

Jordan was very familiar with Director Nolan. Director Nolan's works were basically related to time, memories, consciousness, dreams and other illusory things.

Since Nolan said that the core secret of the Rong family was related to his movie, Jordan was certain that this core secret was not a dangerous weapon like poisonous gas. Even if Jordan and Shaun fiddled with it without wearing any protective gear, they would not be in any danger.

As they explored the upper level, they reached a white door. This was not an ordinary door. It seemed to require a button to open it.

Jordan shot Shaun a look. "Try putting your right hand on the panel."

Shaun was very reluctant, but he had no choice. He placed his right hand on the right side. Indeed, his handprint opened the door.

The two of them walked forward.

Beep beep.

The alarm rang again.

A system voice suddenly sounded. "Unauthorized personnel detected. Activate kill sequence?"

On the ceiling, a mini cannon was already aimed at Jordan!

Shaun hesitated for a second.

Jordan immediately placed his hand on the ring. This ring was connected to the researchers of the Steele family. They could determine Shaun's life and death remotely.

Seeing Jordan's actions, Shaun immediately said, "No! Don't kill him!"

The system's voice sounded again. "Do you want to authorize this personnel?"

Shaun said, "Yes, give him access rights."

System: "Personnel has been authorized."

Jordan and Shaun both heaved a sigh of relief.

It was really dangerous to enter the Rong family's secret base. If they were careless, they would die without even knowing it.

At this moment, Jordan and Shaun finally saw the ultimate secret of the Rong family! When they looked at the thing in front of them, their eyes filled with surprise and delight!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 889: Rong Huangde Is Not Dead!

It was another white door. They were still not able to see what was inside.

However, on this extremely luxurious door made of an unknown material were two words.

Time Travel!

Shaun was excited. "I remember now. Rong Bailun's western China secret base was also called the TT Experimental Base! TT is an abbreviation for time travel! Is there a time-travel machine behind this door? Oh my god, it's not an alien or a fatal weapon. It's time travel!"

Jordan kept nodding. He believed it without a doubt because time travel was in line with the style of Nolan movies.

Shaun saw a device beside the door for fingerprint verification.

"Are we going to open the door? Will we be sucked in?"

Shaun was always very cautious about the unknown.

Jordan took some time to calm down his excitement. "Let's watch the movie first."

They turned on Shaun's video-streaming program and paid for the movie. The two of them watched Director Nolan's "Creed" in this secret room.

It was a very difficult movie to understand. Many people were confused after watching it.

But Jordan and Shaun did not care much for the plot of this movie.

They only paid attention to one thing, which was the revolving door that could allow one to return to the past.

In the movie, this revolving door was invented by people in the future.

The protagonist and the antagonist passed through this revolving door many times to return to the past and promote the development of the plot.

After watching the movie, Shaun asked fearfully, "Could this door in front of us be the Time Gate mentioned in the movie? It... really exists?"

Jordan sighed. If it was true, the Rong family secret could really be considered heaven-defying.

One could actually travel back in time!

All Jordan could do was predict the future, he could not change it. But if a person could travel back in time, many things could be rewritten!

Jordan said to Shaun, "Open it and take a look."

Shaun walked over nervously. After hesitating for a while, he reached out and verified his fingerprints.

Beep beep beep...

After his fingerprints were verified, the thick door was immediately opened.

A huge revolving door came into view!

The revolving door was different from the one in the movie. However, it was obvious that this was a space-time revolving door!

One could return to the past if he walked through this door!

Of course, someone could also come from this door.

Shaun kept swallowing. He took a few steps back.

"Deity Jordan, what should we do now? Do you want to try and see if you can travel to the past?"

Jordan glared at Shaun.

Shaun hurriedly said, "I will never go in. I don't want to return to the past. My most glorious moment is now."

Jordan smiled. "Don't you want to go back to a month ago before you underwent the mind-transplant procedure? You can take out what I added into the stabilizer. This way, you won't be under my control."

Shaun paused for a moment as if he did have such thoughts.

"No, I don't believe in this. The future has already happened and going back to the past won't change things. Even if something changes, it will be a parallel world, right? Meanwhile, I'll still be in the same world."

Jordan shook his head. "It looks like you haven't understood Nolan's movie. There's no such thing as a parallel world. Even if you travel back in time and change something, it'll still be the same world."

Shaun raised the classic paradox: if you traveled back in time and killed your grandfather, how would you be born?

Jordan and Shaun were not scientists. They did not need to figure this out. They only needed to confirm if this thing in front of them was a space-time revolving door.

"I don't believe that the Rong family can develop such a heaven-defying thing. They might be lying to us," said Jordan.

Shaun looked around cautiously. "If this was a trap, a group of people would have already appeared and surrounded us. In this sealed room, we will definitely die if the two of us are attacked."

Jordan was also very puzzled. What was going on?!

He closed his eyes and predicted what would happen next.

In Jordan's vision, he and Shaun were still in this room. Suddenly someone rushed out from the revolving door!

Jordan immediately opened his eyes and said, "Someone is going to come out from that door!"

Shaun immediately got into a fighting stance. "Who is it? How many? Are they armed?"

Jordan said, "He was alone. I couldn't see his face clearly. He was all wrapped up."

Before they could get ready, a man wearing a helmet and a thick protective suit suddenly walked out of the revolving door.

Jordan and Shaun were so frightened that they took a few steps back. From their angle, all they could only see was darkness inside the door. There was nothing.

However, someone emerged from it.

Shaun immediately took out a gun and aimed it at the stranger. "Who is it?! Don't move! Hands on your head!"

However, this stranger was not frightened and did not do as Shaun instructed.

Instead, he took off his helmet and the oxygen mask over his mouth.

The person responded in a relaxed tone. "Hey, what are you doing, my stupid son? Why are you pointing a gun at me? Today isn't April Fool's Day. This isn't funny, child."

Jordan and Shaun were shocked to realize that the old man in front of them was actually Rong Bailun's father, Rong Huangde!

"Rong Huangde!"

Jordan and Shaun were dumbfounded. Rong Huangde was still alive!

"That's impossible!"

Jordan was shocked. Even if Rong Huangde had faked his death 10 years ago, he must be over 80 years old by now.

According to the curse of the eight great families, no one could live past 80 years old. How did he survive? Had he lied about his age and was not even 80 yet?

Rong Bailun wasn't that old. That was a possibility.

When he saw that it was his "father", Shaun immediately put his gun down and looked very guilty.

"Dad... haha, I was just joking with you. I didn't expect to scare you. Haha," Shaun hurriedly explained.

Jordan kept cursing Shaun in his heart: 'Shaun, that idiot. He should shut up. The more he says, the more Rong Huangde might notice that something is wrong!'

Rong Huangde had raised Rong Bailun. How could he not know what his son was like?!

However, Rong Huangde didn't seem to suspect Shaun. He smiled and said, "Haha, son, you're still so naughty."

Rong Huangde glanced at Jordan. The moment their eyes met, Jordan felt like he was staring into deep eyes which contained an endless abyss.

Rong Huangde pointed at Jordan. "You brought a friend?"

Shaun hurriedly said, "Yes, Father. Let me introduce you. This is..."

"Be careful!!" Jordan suddenly shouted.

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 890: Rong Huangde's Power!

Shaun had just turned around and was about to introduce Jordan to Rong Huangde when Jordan noticed that Rong Huangde had thrown something that looked like a chip at Shaun's back.

Jordan already sensed that Rong Huangde was unfathomable and extremely dangerous. He immediately became vigilant.

Pulling Shaun over, he kicked the chip away before it could land on him.

Bang!

The chip exploded with a loud bang!

The walls of this room were clearly bulletproof, so there was no damage. However, from the loud bang, it could be heard that this small chip was a powerful explosive.

An ordinary person like Shaun would definitely be blasted into pieces!

Shaun was shocked. Fortunately, Jordan was here and saved his life. Otherwise, he would have died.

"Damn it, he saw through me!"

Shaun realized that Rong Huangde had seen through his ruse.

He could only blame himself for being too vigilant just now. Shaun immediately pointed a gun at Rong Huangde the moment he appeared and said those strange words.

Rong Huangde naturally suspected Shaun's identity.

Jordan did not dare to underestimate this old man. Although he was already 81 years old, he had been the number one person in the world for decades. Even Rong Bailun had probably been following his orders all these years.

Jordan said to Shaun, "Deal with it quickly!"

This was the Rong family's secret base. The people here were all under the Rong family. The moment Rong Huangde contacted the people outside, his subordinates would definitely attack Jordan and Shaun.

No matter how capable they were, they would not be able to escape.

Jordan charged toward Rong Huangde like lightning, preparing to subdue this old man as soon as possible.

Rong Huangde was shocked when he saw Jordan move. "Genetic modification? What incredible speed!"

Although Rong Huangde was old, his movements were also very agile. He quickly took a step back. He then took out a chip and threw it at Jordan.

Bang!

All Jordan had thought about was attacking and subduing Rong Huangde as soon as possible. He did not bother about defense. As a result, he was sent flying into the air by the chip.

"Pfft..."

Jordan fell to the ground and spat out blood.

Rong Huangde was shocked. "What an astonishing body! You were only slightly injured after being blown up by my chip bomb."

Shaun also made his move. He took out his trump card intending to kill Rong Huangde!

Meow!

A black cat suddenly jumped into the air and flew towards Rong Huangde.

Rong Huangde's expression changed as his shock deepened. "Demonic technique! You're indeed not my son!"

Shaun chuckled. "So what if you know now? You'll soon die at my hands!"

Shaun had killed countless people with this move. He was very confident of killing an 80-year-old man.

However, he had underestimated the number one person in the world.

Rong Huangde calmly took out a rectangular mirror from his pocket. The mirror looked ordinary, but it had definitely been processed with special materials. It also contained the most advanced technology.

Placing the mirror over his eye, Rong Huangde directed it at the black cat.

The black cat met its own eyes in the mirror. The mirror immediately shot a pink ray of light at the black cat.

The black cat died instantly and fell to the ground!

“What? That’s impossible!”

Shaun and Jordan were both stunned!

Someone managed to hack Shaun’s mysterious spell!

Even Jordan did not know how to deal with this move. At most, whenever a cat flew over, he would just close his eyes and not look at it.

This was because once a person looked into the cat’s eyes, he would have a strange connection with it. By then, Shaun could kill the connected person by killing the cat.

However, Rong Huangde seemed to have known about this technique long ago. He even developed a magic mirror that could deal with such methods!

Rong Huangde took the mirror off his eye and looked at Shaun.

“You’re from the Handley family and you’re Shaun Handley? What did you do to my son?!”

Shaun was shocked. “How... how did you guess my identity? Also, how did you know how to deal with my family’s spells?”

Rong Huangde said, “You’re indeed Shaun Handley. You must have killed my son. Since you’ve barged in here today, I’ll send you to hell to avenge my son!”

With that, Rong Huangde suddenly shouted, “Dr. T!”

The system’s voice sounded in the room. “Yes, Master? What can I do for you?”

Rong Huangde ordered. “Kill the two people in front of me immediately!”

Dr. T: “Got it!”

“Sh*t! We have to get out!”

Jordan realized that the situation was bad and immediately prepared to escape with Shaun.

However, the door had already been closed. The two of them were electrocuted and became immobile.

“Damn it...”

Jordan wanted to predict if there was a solution. But under the intense electric shock, he couldn't think of anything.

Shaun's body was even weaker and he couldn't withstand the intense electricity. Seeing that he would not be able to hold on for much longer, Shaun hurriedly said, “Dad, Dad, I'm your son. Don't kill me... And that's the new... Deity. We can't kill him.”

Hearing the words “the new Deity”. Rong Huangde hesitated before commanding.

“Dr. T, cancel kill mode!”

The electric shock was instantly dispelled. Shaun and Jordan fell to the ground. The two of them had lost all their strength from the electric shock. Smoke was coming out of Shaun's head.

Jordan had been injected with the Mirakuru serum but even he could not withstand this intense electric shock.

Rong Huangde walked toward Jordan and asked, “You're... the new Deity? Is that true?”

Jordan sat motionless for a while before he had the strength to speak.

“It's true. I'm the Deity. Mr. Rong, it was Shaun who killed your son and switched minds with him. I had nothing to do with it. My grandfather has always been on good terms with you, and I've never hurt anyone from your family.”

Rong Huangde asked curiously, “Who is your grandfather?”

Jordan answered, “Charleston Steele.”

Realization dawned upon Rong Huangde. “So you're from the third generation of the Steele family. Yes, I believe you're a Deity. Otherwise, your body wouldn't be so strong, and Shaun wouldn't join forces with you. I really didn't expect the new Deity to be a descendant of the Steele family. Your grandfather must have passed away by now, right? If he knew, he would feel very happy.”

Rong Huangde was friendly toward Jordan after learning that he was the Deity. He even took out a pill from his pocket and handed it to Jordan.

“Take this. You will feel much better after eating it. Otherwise, the electric shock just now will cause irreparable damage to your body.”

“Thank you.”

Jordan accepted the pill.

Shaun, who had been hurt more severely by the electric shock, also stretched out his arm. “Dad, I also want...”

Chapter 891: Back To The Past?

After being electrocuted, Shaun felt dizzy. What was worse was that it was very difficult for him to breathe. He felt like he was about to die at any moment.

The electric shock from the Rong family was clearly different from ordinary electric shocks.

Rong Huangde glared at Shaun. “You b*stard, you only know how to hide in the dark. Die in pain. You’re not worthy of taking the antidote.”

Shaun hurriedly asked Jordan for help. “Deity Jordan, you have the Mirakuru serum to protect you. You’ll be fine after resting for a while. Can you give me the antidote?”

Jordan hesitated for a moment with the antidote in hand. Although he felt unwell and weak all over, he was still able to endure it. But Jordan could not be sure if the pill was really an antidote.

Now that Rong Huangde knew that Jordan was a Deity, would he give him a drug to control him?

Therefore, Jordan tossed the pill to Shaun. He wanted to use Shaun as a test subject.

Shaun immediately swallowed it. Soon, his breathing and complexion improved.

Rong Huangde smiled. “Hehe, so the Deity doesn’t dare to take my pill. Are you worried that I’ll give you poison?”

In return, Jordan said, "I don't need it. As long as I can get out, with my predictive ability, I can develop an antidote myself."

Rong Huangde nodded. "Good, you have a backbone. You have the style of a Deity! Ah, I didn't expect to meet two Deities in my life! You must have helped Shaun with his mind-transplant procedure, right?"

Jordan didn't deny it. "That b*stard Shaun kidnapped my wife and threatened me. I had no choice."

After taking the antidote, Shaun felt a lot better. He immediately crawled to Rong Huangde and knelt down to grab his leg.

"Master Rong, please let me live! If you want, I can be your son and be filial to you on behalf of Rong Bailun. If you're unwilling, I can scam as far as possible. I promise I won't appear in front of you again!"

"Sigh."

Rong Huangde was no longer angry. Instead, he sighed.

"It's heaven's will. It's all heaven's will. I killed your father and uncles. Now, you killed my son. It's really karma!"

Rong Huangde sighed heavily.

Shaun and Jordan were stunned.

Shaun asked in disbelief, "What? You killed my father and uncle 30 years ago?"

When Shaun was about 10 years old, something happened to his family. His father and some uncles all died. His mother fled the village with him and his wife-to-be.

Shaun had no idea that it was Rong Huangde who killed them!

"Why did you kill them?" Jordan asked.

Rong Huangde replied, "I didn't intend to kill them. I just wanted to know how the Handley family obtained their methods."

"I kept going back in time to find them. I used all sorts of methods, but unfortunately, I didn't get any results. Deity Jordan, in this world, there are two things that confuse me. One is the prediction ability of a Deity, and the other is the Handley family's techniques.

“These two abilities are beyond science. They can’t be explained by science at all. I’ve been tracing the origins of the world. I believe that as long as we figure out these two things, we might know the true meaning of the entire world!”

Jordan recalled that the books in the basement of the Rong family residence were all related to prophecy and the Handley family’s hometown of Cocodrie.

Rong Huangde said to Jordan, “Deity Jordan, I sincerely invite you to join me. Go back to the past and figure out the origin of the Handley family’s methods, as well as the origin of the Deity. I’m just an ordinary old man. Even if I return to the past, the things I can do are limited.

“But you’re different. You’re a Deity. You can predict the future. I believe that as long as you’re willing to do it, you will definitely succeed in discovering the secrets!”

No wonder Rong Huangde suddenly became so polite to Jordan. He wanted Jordan to help him.

But Jordan shook his head. “No, I won’t return to the past. I have two wives now. No, three. If Lauren and Victoria agree to accept Lota, I will have three wives. I have three beautiful wives, a son and a daughter. I want to stay here with them. I won’t take any risks heading back to the past.”

Although Jordan did not know much about time travel, he knew that it must be a very risky thing to do.

What if he traveled back in time and couldn’t return?

What would happen to his three wives and two children?

Rong Huangde became very angry. “How can you give up on such a great thing because of some mortal relations? We’re exploring the ultimate mystery of the world! Don’t you want to know how your power came about? Don’t you want to know who taught the Handley family their spells?

“Don’t you want to live past 80?”

Jordan was a little curious. “Mr. Rong, you seem to be the same age as my grandfather. Why aren’t you affected by the curse?”

Rong Huangde smiled. “When I was 70 years old, I returned to the past and seldom came back. I haven’t spent more than 71 years in this present world.”

Jordan was shocked. He didn’t expect Rong Huangde to use such a method.

Rong Huangde continued to persuade him. "Think about it. If you return to the past and help me find out these secrets, you might be able to remove the curse of the eight great families. Then you and your children can live a long life!"

But Jordan still shook his head and refused. "It's enough for me to live to 80 years old. I don't even want to live that long. I won't have any regrets even if I only live for 60 years. The most important thing for a person is to live an exciting and enriching life. Sorry, I won't travel back in time. I want to be with the people I love in this world and this time."

Rong Huangde looked disappointed. He sighed. "Alright, since you don't want to, I won't force you. However, I believe that you will agree one day. Because as long as people are alive, they will have regrets. No one can endure the temptation of returning to the past to make amendments."

Jordan had regained some strength and slowly stood up. "Mr. Rong, can I leave?"

Rong Huangde stretched out his hand. "Deity, do as you please. All of our eight great families' achievements are thanks to you. I will never dare to be disrespectful to you."

Jordan nodded. "Alright, sorry to disturb you. We'll meet again if fate allows."

Seeing that Jordan was about to leave, Shaun struggled to his feet. "Mr. Rong, take care. We'll meet again if fate allows!"

Swish.

Rong Huangde grabbed Shaun like an eagle catching a chick.

"Good son, you cannot leave."

Chapter 892: Marry Lota To Be His Third Wife!

Shaun had switched minds with Rong Bailun and even killed him. How could he still dare to stay by Rong Huangde's side?

Even if Rong Huangde did kill Shaun, he would torture him to the end of time!

Not only that, Shaun's demonic techniques were completely useless against Rong Huangde.

Although Shaun was younger than Rong Huangde, the old man was covered in high-tech weapons. He could blast Shaun to pieces with a single chip bomb.

Moreover, the AI system Dr. T, and the subordinates outside would probably only listen to Rong Huangde's commands.

Although Shaun had transformed into Rong Bailun, he had no chance of winning against his father.

As a result, Shaun pleaded with Jordan for help.

"Deity Jordan, don't leave. Save me. We came together. We have to leave together! Jordan, you can't be so heartless! You were the one who insisted on coming over in the middle of the night. If it was up to me, I would come at another time and be fine! Jordan, you b*stard, don't leave me here!"

Shaun kept pleading with Jordan for help. He even chided him. Jordan ignored him and walked out.

Rong Huangde smiled as he looked at Jordan's back view.

"Jordan, you will definitely come looking for me again."

...

After leaving the fort, Jordan took a plane back to Chaoyang Park.

Jordan had just suffered the effects of the explosive chip and electric shock. His entire body was extremely weak and he kept vomiting blood. However, compared to the damage to his body, the mental shock he suffered was even greater.

Jordan sat on the soft seat of the plane and looked out the window at the starry night sky. He sighed.

"The Rong family is indeed the head of the eight great families. I thought that after dealing with Rong Bailun, I would be able to control the Rong family. I didn't expect the real master to be Rong Huangde. To think that the technology level of the Rong family has already reached an unfathomable level. They can actually create a space-time revolving door that can travel to the past!

"If I am only 20 years old and had no wife or children, perhaps I wouldn't be able to resist giving it a try. But now, I have three women I love, as well as a daughter and son. I can't take this risk. I want to stay in this world and live a happy life."

Jordan had already decided that after returning to Chaoyang Park, he would bring Lota back to the US and live a happy life with Lauren and Victoria.

“Rong Huangde, you can continue being the number one person in the world. I just want to live a simple and happy life!”

Soon, the plane arrived at Chaoyang Park.

Before Lota and the others woke up, Jordan and the researchers developed a drug that could treat electric shocks.

Jordan felt much better after taking the drug.

When it was time for breakfast, everyone gathered again.

Ming La asked Jordan, “Mr. Jordan, why isn’t my husband here? Did he go out with you?”

Jordan replied, “Mr. Rong went to Fort Rong. You can call him.”

Now that Shaun was in Rong Huangde’s hands, he wondered if the old man would let him live. If Rong Huangde killed Shaun, then Ming La and her children would lose a husband and father.

If it were Jordan, he would have kept Shaun alive.

At the very least, Ming La and her children would not suffer the loss of a husband and father.

Ming La smiled. “No need. He always does this.”

Jordan said, “Mrs. Rong, we’ve already taken up so much of your time and hospitality. We should leave.”

Lota said coquettishly, “Jordan, let’s not leave so early. Let’s enjoy ourselves in Beijing for two days. Besides, the food at Mrs. Rong’s place is quite delicious. It suits my taste.”

Jordan smiled. “Why? You don’t want to return to the US with me and be my wife?”

Lota’s mouth opened in surprise, then she jumped up in excitement.

“Ahhh, really? You’re bringing me back to the US?”

Jordan nodded. “Yes, I want to bring you to the US so that you can meet Lauren and Victoria.”

A sense of happiness surged in Lota’s heart.

“Yes, yes. I have to prepare two big gifts. I must make Lauren and Victoria accept me!”

Geng Anli smiled and congratulated the couple.

“Congratulations. You must invite me to your wedding. I must be there to congratulate you.”

Ming La also said, “Congratulations, Mr. Jordan, Ms. Schmid. You two are really a match made in heaven. This is a joyous occasion for the eight great families. Bailun and I will also attend your wedding with our children, to offer you our blessings.”

Unexpectedly, at this moment, Rong Bingshao came down the stairs and glared at Jordan.

“I won’t go! This person killed Uncle Ban. He doesn’t deserve happiness!”

“Shut up!”

Ming La hurriedly reprimanded him before turning to Jordan. “Deity Jordan, my son had a good relationship with Ban Luming and is overly upset at his death. Please don’t hold it against him.”

Jordan stared into Rong Bingshao’s eyes. As a child from the world’s top family, Rong Bingshao had a lot of pride.

However, his mother usually disciplined him well. In addition, he was still young and did not cause too much trouble like the second-generation heirs of other families.

Rong Bingshao’s eyes were filled with hatred as he glared at Jordan.

Jordan knew that this little fellow must hate him very much.

However, Jordan could not discipline him.

His grandfather was too powerful!

“He’s just a child. I won’t hold it against him,” said Jordan with a smile.

Jordan and the others did not linger on. They boarded their plane and left.

From there, Jordan and Lota took the same plane to the US capital. Lauren and Victoria were staying in a villa in the capital. He had called them in advance and told them that he was coming back.

Jordan’s plane landed at the villa in the afternoon.

Lauren, Victoria, Dragon, Salvatore and even Hailey were waiting at the door to welcome them.

“Hubby!”

Victoria was the first to run over and hug Jordan.

Victoria’s eyes were red from crying.

“Hubby, I saw the news and the photos sent over from China. They said that you guys fought very hard. I was so afraid that something would happen to you.”

Jordan wiped Victoria’s tears and said gently, “Silly wife, I’m a Deity. How could anything happen to me?”

Victoria said, “It’s not as if Deities can’t die. They can die if they are hit by a cannonball. Why didn’t you let Dragon help you? Instead, you let him stay with me. I would have felt better if Dragon was by your side to protect you.”

Jordan said, “Victoria, I was more worried about you. Only by ensuring that you’re fine can I kill enemies on the battlefield in peace. Otherwise, no matter how well protected I am, I would still be worried.”

Hearing this, Victoria was extremely touched. She stood on tiptoes and kissed Jordan...

Thank you for reading on

Victoria was dressed very beautifully today. She still had the flair of a CEO.

Dressed in a simple shirt, an ordinary-looking, short and fat woman would look vulgar in it. But with Victoria’s tall figure, she looked especially elegant in it. She was also wearing a flesh-colored short skirt, revealing her fair legs.

Although Victoria was already over 30 years old, her legs looked like those of a teenage girl. She was too beautiful!

Jordan had experienced so much. He felt very happy to be kissing Victoria again. Even after knowing Victoria for so long, Jordan still found it very enjoyable to kiss her.

This was the charm of a woman like Victoria!

At this moment, Lauren stepped forward jealously.

“Hubby, it looks like you still like Victoria the most. However, Victoria is indeed worthy of your love. I won’t be jealous, haha.”

Jordan walked toward Lauren and hugged her. "Lauren, I'm also worried about your safety. I love you too."

Everyone felt that Jordan loved Victoria more because he had sent Dragon to guard her 24/7. But it was because Jordan had predicted that Victoria's life would be in danger.

Of course, if Jordan had to choose the one he loved the most among his women, it would indeed be Victoria. She was more important to him than Lauren.

Seeing Jordan being intimate with his two wives, Lota felt a little awkward. She was already prepared to be the third wife and did not mind Jordan's intimate relationship with the others.

Lota walked forward with two exquisite gifts.

"Lauren, Victoria, I brought some of our Schmid family's inventions for you. They're all excellent skincare products and health supplements. See if you like them."

Lauren and Victoria both felt a little pressured when they saw Lota. They knew that this sweet girl who looked like a Barbie doll was the head of the secret Schmid family!

Her status was much higher than theirs.

Victoria and Lauren felt too embarrassed to accept the gifts.

Victoria said, "Ms. Schmid, you are our esteemed guest in the US. We can't accept your gifts."

Lauren added. "That's right, Ms. Schmid. I heard from my husband that you've been helping him with the eight great families. We should be the ones thanking you and giving you gifts."

The two of them thought that Jordan still only treated Lota as his younger sister.

Lota pressed the gifts into their hands. "Please don't stand on ceremony. We'll be interacting often in the future. Just accept it."

With that said, Lauren and Victoria did not refuse anymore.

"Ms. Schmid, please come in," Victoria invited Lota to come in.

Jordan and Lota entered.

At this moment, Jordan noticed that Hailey was also in the villa. He asked curiously, "Why are you here?"

Hailey was impeccably decked out today. Of everyone at present, she was the one who cared the most about appearances.

But so what if she was the most beautiful among these beauties? No matter how good-looking a woman was, she would not attract a man like Jordan without a good character.

Hailey replied, "Didn't you say that the Rong family would assassinate us? Dragon and Salvatore gathered us in one place to protect us. I heard that you were coming back to the US, so I came along."

Jordan nodded. "Oh, it's alright now. The Rong family won't attack us anymore. You can leave now and go wherever you please. No one will kill you and the child. Don't worry."

Hailey lowered her head and rubbed her hands.

She also knew that this villa in the capital was where Jordan, Lauren and Victoria lived.

She had no right to live here.

Hailey whispered. "I haven't eaten yet..."

Jordan was speechless. It seemed like Hailey wanted to stay here a little longer.

Whatever. Jordan had long learned to ignore this woman. Ignoring her, Jordan walked straight into the living room of the villa.

The moment they entered, they smelled the delicious fragrance of food. The greedy little Lota immediately swallowed her saliva and became excited.

"Wow, it smells so good. Have you guys prepared a meal?"

Victoria smiled. "I prepared a few dishes myself. I hope Ms. Schmid likes my cooking."

Lota grinned. "Victoria, you're amazing. You can even cook. I'm sure I'll love it!"

Jordan was very happy to see Lota and Victoria getting along very well. He was going to officially announce the news regarding Lota to them today.

Inwardly, Jordan was a little uneasy. He didn't know if they would agree. Lota had almost died outside the fort because of him. Jordan couldn't bear to abandon her again.

Soon enough, they all sat at the dining table and started eating.

Lota ate happily, while Hailey only drank water. She only picked up a couple of spoonfuls and ate very little.

It seemed like she wasn't that hungry after all.

Hailey suddenly asked, "Jordan..., why did you bring Lota home this time? Moreover, you two... seem to be very close."

Victoria and Lauren both thought that Jordan and Lota were just ordinary "siblings". But Hailey had sharp eyes. She could tell at a glance that the two of them looked especially intimate.

After all, Hailey and Jordan had been husband and wife for three years. They had interacted with each other for a longer time, so she could detect more about Jordan.

Jordan stopped eating and officially introduced Lota to Victoria and Lauren.

Holding Lota's hand tightly, Jordan faced Victoria and Lauren.

"Victoria, Lauren, I want to tell you something. I've already promised Lota that I'll be with her. Lota is a very innocent and kind girl, and she has always liked me. Initially, I only treated her as my younger sister. However, during this period of time, she almost died from poisonous gas because of me. I have feelings for her and want to protect her, just like I want to protect you.

"Victoria, Lauren, can you accept her?"

At this, Victoria and Lauren instantly stopped eating too. They really did not expect their husband to bring a third wife home.

Lauren looked at Lota with jealousy in her eyes. Before Lota appeared, Lauren was the noblest woman Jordan had ever met. She was from the capital, and her father and grandfather were powerful men who could be of great help to Jordan in the US.

Lauren appreciated everything the Howard family could offer. This gave her the confidence of playing the role of Jordan's wife. However, after knowing about the secret families, Lauren realized that the Howard family was nothing compared to the eight secret families. With all this in mind, Lauren and the Howard family could not really help Jordan at all.

"Lota is young, beautiful and kind. And like Hubby, she's a noble descendant from a secret family. In the future, she will definitely be able to help you in many ways. She can help you in things I can't do for you. I'm willing to accept Lota."

Jordan and Lota were overjoyed. Lauren had agreed!

She had accepted Lota!

Jordan and Lota turned toward Victoria, waiting for her answer!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 894: Victoria Betrayed Him?!

Lota held Jordan's hand, her palms sweating nervously.

One of Jordan's two wives had agreed.

'Since Lauren has agreed, Victoria would agree too, right?'

That was what Lota thought. She had heard from Jordan that Lauren and Victoria were very good women. Hailey was the only exception.

If Hailey was still Jordan's wife, Lota guessed that she would definitely not agree.

Victoria looked very grim. A second ago, she was still very happy. However, Victoria's expression immediately changed when she heard about Jordan and Lota.

Victoria was silent for a long time before she finally spoke.

"I can't accept this!"

Jordan and Lota felt as if they had been dealt a heavy blow.

Victoria continued, "Hubby, I can't accept you marrying another wife. Since I was a young girl, I've always dreamed of being together with a man for life. We only have each other. That's the love I pursue and dream of. Lauren gave birth to your daughter a long time ago, so I couldn't object to the fact that you married her.

"But this is the limit to my acceptance. I can't accept more. You have so many women. I don't like sharing you with many women! Hubby, I know you come from a secret family. Your status is higher than ours, and you're a Deity. Logically speaking, it will be reasonable even if you have a harem of 3,000 beauties. But I can't accept it. I just can't accept the man I love having so many women!"

Jordan gradually let go of Lota's hand.

Before coming, Jordan had told Lota that he would only marry her and be with her if both Victoria and Lauren agreed.

If they didn't agree, Jordan wouldn't go against their wishes.

Lota lowered her head, feeling very sad.

As a woman, how could she not understand Victoria's feelings?

If Jordan had met Lota first and married her first, she would not have agreed to let him marry another woman. She might allow her man to have other women and mistresses outside.

However, she would not allow him to marry them.

This was a direct challenge to her status as a wife.

Silence descended.

Lota felt very embarrassed. She felt as if she had been humiliated.

However, she was still a very gracious woman. She did not use her noble status to belittle Victoria.

Lota said gently, "I'm sorry, Victoria, Lauren. I've upset you. I... I'll leave now."

Lota got up and was about to leave.

Jordan did not move.

According to their agreement, if either Victoria or Lauren objected, Jordan would not keep Lota by his side.

He was also very helpless!

However, at this moment, Hailey suddenly stood up. She got up and walked towards Lota. She grabbed her arm and stopped her.

Hailey said, "Lota, don't leave. You're so beautiful and cute. You're also from a secret family. In the past year, you've helped Jordan countless times. The rest of us can't compare to you!"

"I agree to you being with Jordan!"

Jordan was rendered momentarily speechless, before saying angrily, "Hailey, are you crazy? What's the use of you agreeing? Did I ask for your opinion?"

Hailey felt very aggrieved and wanted to argue with Jordan like before. However, given Jordan's current status, Hailey could only swallow her words.

Victoria saw Hailey purposely stepping forward to go against her.

These two women, who had been enemies since Orlando, were like firecrackers.

Victoria also scolded Hailey. "Hailey, what right do you have to accept Lota? You're not Jordan's wife at all!"

Hailey replied proudly, "How am I not? We even held a beach wedding in the Maldives! We exchanged kisses at the wedding! Lauren has also held a wedding with Jordan. You're the only one here who hasn't held a wedding with him, right? Hmph, I wonder who is the one who isn't qualified."

Almost immediately, Jordan stood up for Victoria.

"Hailey, did you not hear me clearly? I was forced to attend that beach wedding. It doesn't count. You and I were completely finished the moment you cheated with Cayden!"

Victoria couldn't help chiding Hailey.

"Hailey, you're really the most shameless and narcissistic woman I've ever seen in this world! What's in your brain? Are you that arrogant? You believe that you can disregard anything just because you're beautiful? You betrayed Jordan twice! Oh, no, including Lauren's brother, it was three times!

"You cheated on him three times during your marriage. You slept with other men while married to Jordan. How can you have the cheek to appear in front of Jordan after doing such shameless things? This is my home. Please get lost immediately! I don't want to see a b*tch who hurt my husband!"

Being scolded and humiliated by Victoria, Hailey's face turned red with anger.

Hailey said angrily, "Victoria, what right do you have to scold me?! You're no better than me!"

Victoria stood up angrily. "I don't dare to boast about how outstanding I am as a wife and how much I can help Jordan. But at the very least, I'm not like you, who cheated on your husband!"

Unexpectedly, Hailey didn't feel chastised. Instead, she laughed loudly.

Hailey smiled smugly. "Haha, you believe that you've never betrayed Jordan?"

Victoria grew even angrier. "Of course not! I am not as despicable as you!"

Hailey said, "Victoria, don't make yourself sound so innocent! You slept with an 18-year-old boy!"

Victoria was furious. "You... you're spouting nonsense! How dare you slander me?"

Jordan was also furious. He slammed the table angrily.

“Hailey, if you continue to spout nonsense here, I’ll slap you until your face is disfigured!”

Jordan was very angry. Hailey was too detestable. Over the past few weeks, Jordan felt that Hailey’s personality had improved. But she had returned to her former self today. In fact, she was even worse than before, slandering Victoria!

She knew that Jordan would never stand for this.

Hailey was not afraid at all. “Jordan, I’m not spouting nonsense! I’m not slandering your good wife! If you don’t believe me, you can ask Lauren.”

At those words, Jordan and Victoria looked at Lauren.

To their surprise, Lauren lowered her head and avoided eye contact, not daring to respond!

Chapter 895: Lauren Reveals The Truth!!

When Jordan saw Lauren’s fearful expression, he instantly panicked.

Whether it was the psychology books he had read or his intuition as a Deity, Jordan could sense from Lauren’s expression that she was hiding something!

Lauren’s guilty conscience and Hailey’s certainty...

Could it be that Hailey was right?

Had Victoria betrayed Jordan?

Victoria was very angry at Hailey’s slander. She had a clear conscience ever since she had gotten together with Jordan. She knew that she never had any ambiguous relationship with a man other than Jordan.

Not only that, she didn’t know any 18-year-old boys!

Victoria asked Lauren, “Lauren, do you think I slept with an 18-year-old boy? Am I that kind of promiscuous and shameless woman?!”

However, as Victoria's good friend, Lauren lowered her head and did not respond.

The response left Victoria shocked. "Lauren, do you really think I'm the kind of woman who would betray our husband? So you think of me that way too!"

Seeing how agitated Victoria was, Lauren hurriedly stood up and explained, "Victoria, of course I know you're a good woman and a good wife. I've always treated you as a role model. Why would I view you as the same kind of woman as Hailey?"

Victoria said aggrievedly, "Then why aren't you willing to stand up for me? How can you let that vicious woman slander me and say I slept with a young boy!"

Lauren lowered her head guiltily again, not knowing how to respond.

Hailey said smugly, "Hmph, Lauren, are you still unwilling to tell the truth? How long are you going to lie to Jordan?! You're such a good wife. Victoria cheated on Jordan, and as Jordan's most trusted wife, you helped her hide it. Are you still worthy to be his wife?!"

Hailey insisted that Victoria had betrayed Jordan. It seemed like she had concrete evidence. Otherwise, she would never dare slander Victoria like this in front of Jordan.

Jordan was now a Deity. Insulting and spreading rumors about the wife of a Deity... even if Hailey had borne Jordan a son, he would never let her off!

Lauren was also filled with self-hatred. She realized that Jordan had already sensed something amiss, but he was just keeping quiet about it.

Lauren asked Hailey, "How did you know?!"

Hailey smiled. "Your good brother told me."

Victoria's expression immediately changed.

"Lauren, what do you mean? Why is Hailey so determined to say that I cheated on Jordan? I never cheated on him! Do you know something that even I don't know? Tell me what happened!"

Victoria was originally very confident because she knew that her love for Jordan was absolute. She had a clear conscience and had never done anything with another man.

However, Victoria gradually realized that something was wrong.

Hailey, Lauren and even Lauren's younger brother seemed to know something about her that Victoria herself did not know.

With a furtive glance at Victoria, Lauren then shot a look at Jordan. She knew that it was useless to hide it any longer.

Lauren took a deep breath and said, "I'm sorry for hiding this from you guys for so long. Hailey is speaking the truth."

Boom!

Jordan and Victoria felt an explosion go off in their heads!

Hailey spoke the truth?

Did Victoria really sleep with an 18-year-old boy?

Did Victoria betray Jordan?

Victoria was completely stunned. Her face turned pale and her body stiffened. She kept shaking her head.

"No... no... I didn't. I didn't. I don't know any 18-year-old boys at all. Lauren, why would you say something like this? What happened? Why don't I... I know anything about it?"

Victoria knew that Lauren would never collude with Hailey to slander her. She was not that kind of woman. On the contrary, Lauren was a good woman who would rather sacrifice herself to make Victoria happy.

Therefore, she believed Lauren's words without a doubt.

However, Victoria really didn't remember anything.

Lauren asked, "Victoria, do you still remember how Shaun's wife controlled your body more than half a year ago?"

Realization dawned upon Victoria. "I remember, I remember... I was controlled by that woman. That woman knocked me out. I don't remember anything after that... Don't tell me...?"

Lauren nodded. "Shaun's wife controlled your body. Not only did she use your body to kill people, but she also... Slept with an 18-year-old boy in a hotel."

Boom!

Victoria and Jordan nearly fell over when they heard this.

To this loving couple, it was like a lightning bolt from nowhere! In an instant, Jordan suddenly recalled the scene of him killing Shaun's wife, Clara.

At that time, Jordan had sneaked into Clara's room while wearing the invisibility cloak.

He then stabbed Clara in the heart!

However, before Clara died, she revealed a strange expression when she saw Jordan's face. This strange expression had always puzzled Jordan. All along, he did not understand why she had that expression.

When Clara saw Jordan, she smiled and said, "Darling, did you not eat today? Go harder."

At that time, Jordan was furious and stabbed her a few more times. However, Clara was still not afraid and allowed Jordan to stab her with increasing force.

Now, Jordan finally understood that Clara's words were not directed at him!

Clara had been controlling Victoria's body to be with the 18-year-old boy at the hotel!

She was saying those words to that boy!

Jordan clenched his fists. Thinking of Victoria's situation back then, he felt like he was about to go crazy!

"Damn that Clara!!"

Meanwhile, Victoria looked like she had lost her soul. She had been so confident that she would never betray Jordan. She had felt so righteous!

But now, she was like a deflated balloon.

At that time, she had been controlled by Clara then so she really didn't know what happened. Clara had even dared to commit murder, what would this be to her? Lauren was not lying!

Victoria started crying.

"I... I actually... betrayed my husband?"

Hailey was very smug. "Hmph, Victoria, you finally know what you did, right? We've both cheated on our husband. You have no right to look down on me anymore! Didn't you say previously that I am not qualified to be Jordan's wife because I cheated? So now, you're not qualified to be his wife either!"

Chapter 896: You're Still My Beloved!

At Hailey's provocative words, Victoria kept crying. Her tears fell like sparkling raindrops.

She had always been a domineering CEO.

She was high and mighty and confident.

She had a clear conscience, so she felt very righteous.

However, now that she knew that something like that had happened to her, she no longer had the confidence to speak dominantly.

She had become a dirty woman like Hailey. The kind of woman she had once despised the most.

Jordan was also feeling very distressed. Victoria didn't remember what happened at all, but Jordan now knew!

Recalling Clara's words, Jordan felt extremely upset!

Jordan loved Victoria the most. She was beautiful and elegant, but she was ruined by Clara, that despicable woman! However, Jordan was not in the mood to be angry about this. His heart ached on seeing Victoria cry!

Hurrying forward, he took Victoria's hand. "Victoria, don't cry. I don't care about any of that. You're still my wife! I'll love you like before. Nothing has changed between us!"

Jordan did not choose to complain or make a fuss. He just wanted to comfort Victoria as soon as possible! He wanted to tell Victoria that he would never abandon her because of this!

Hailey was stunned.

She thought that Jordan would be very angry and despise Victoria because she knew that Jordan couldn't stand being cheated on.

Back then, when Jordan found out that Hailey had an affair, he had almost gone crazy.

Hearing Jordan's words, Hailey shouted, "Jordan, aren't you too unfair to me? We both cheated on you. But you hit and scolded me, saying that I'm unclean and that I'm a b*tch and a dirty woman. That the thought of me with another man disgusted you, and that you didn't want to touch me or be intimate with me anymore!

"Why is it different for Victoria?! Why can you forgive her? Why can't you forgive me?!"

Hailey felt extremely aggrieved. Why did Jordan treat her and Victoria so differently?

Hailey had been with Jordan longer than Victoria. She had even given birth to a son for him!

Lauren said, "Hailey, please don't confuse Victoria with yourself. You knowingly cheated on Jordan. Victoria didn't even know what happened at all. It was Shaun's wife who did that to take revenge on Jordan. At that time, Brad found Victoria at the hotel and told me about this. I feel that Victoria is completely innocent and so we shouldn't let her suffer for it. So, I asked Brad to lie for me and say that he found Victoria in the cinema.

"I'm sorry, Hubby, Victoria, I lied to you both."

Actually, Lauren had good intentions. She didn't want Jordan and Victoria's relationship to break down because of this. She had even especially given Victoria a birth control pill before she woke up, afraid that she would get pregnant with that boy's child.

If Lauren was a selfish woman, she could have told the truth. In that way, she might be able to have Jordan all to herself.

Victoria didn't blame Lauren. She didn't even have the strength to blame Clara. She only blamed herself. She kept crying as she said to Jordan, "I'm sorry, Hubby. I'm sorry... I'm sorry..."

Over and over Victoria kept crying and apologizing, which made Jordan's heart ache.

"Victoria, you don't have to apologize. That incident has nothing to do with you. You're also a victim. If anything, it's all my fault. I provoked Shaun and his wife, causing you to be implicated. It's my fault."

However, Victoria still blamed herself. She felt that she was too ashamed to face Jordan.

"Hailey is right. No matter what, I've wronged you. I'm no longer a clean woman. I'm not worthy of being your wife anymore. I'm not worthy of being a member of the secret family. I'm not worthy of being the wife of a Deity."

Jordan hugged Victoria tightly in his arms.

He wanted to use a warm and firm hug to convey his love for Victoria.

Jordan said, "You're absolutely worthy. No woman in the world is more qualified to be my wife than you. Victoria, promise me not to let your imagination run wild, okay? You don't remember the incident anyway. Just pretend that it never happened, okay?"

However, Victoria pushed Jordan away and cried. "How can I pretend that nothing happened?! I did something wrong to you! I no longer have the right to stay by your side!"

With that, Victoria rushed towards the door.

Worried, Jordan grabbed Victoria's arm. "Victoria, where are you going? I won't let you leave!"

Jordan held onto Victoria tightly, not allowing her to escape.

Seeing this, Lota couldn't help persuading Victoria. "Victoria, since Jordan has forgiven you, don't be so sad. The one who did bad things is that demoness, Clara. You don't have to blame yourself for what she did."

Hailey thought for a moment. If Victoria really left Jordan, then it would be impossible for her to reconcile with Jordan in the future. On the contrary, if Jordan and Victoria could continue to live happily together, Hailey would have a chance to get back together with Jordan.

At the very least, Hailey would have another point in her favor. They both made mistakes during their marriage. Since Jordan forgave Victoria, he should forgive Hailey too.

Therefore, Hailey said, "Victoria, although you're older than me, I got married earlier than you. I can still teach you about marriage! Marriage is a long journey. It's inevitable that you'll encounter some bumps or commit mistakes! However, as long as two people truly love each other, they will forgive each other. Don't leave, either. Be like me, repent and don't make any more mistakes!"

Lota didn't know what Hailey was thinking and thought that she was really trying to help Victoria. So she agreed with Hailey. "Yes, yes."

"All of you, shut up!"

Jordan shouted at Hailey and Lota.

This was the first time Jordan had spoken to Lota in such a tone. She was so frightened that she did not dare to speak.

Jordan was extremely frustrated. He didn't want to hear what anyone else had to say and didn't need anyone to interfere!

Jordan held Victoria's hand and said, "Victoria, this is your home. If anyone has to leave, it should be someone else. You're the mistress of this home. You can't leave."

However, Victoria tried her best to break free from Jordan. She cried and said, "I beg you, let me be alone. I really can't face you now!"

Jordan could stop Victoria if he used brute force.

However, he couldn't bear to do so.

Victoria wanted to flee now as she needed to be alone for the time being.

And so Jordan let go of her. Victoria ran to the courtyard with tears streaming down her face. She quickly drove her Porsche Palmera away.

Chapter 897: Victoria Wants To Break Up!

"Victoria!"

Worried, Jordan walked out and summoned Dragon.

"Dragon, take a car and follow Victoria. Also, arrange for drones to follow Victoria's car at all times!"

"Yes!"

Jumping into action, Dragon drove a futuristic car made by one of the secret families. With Jordan in the passenger seat, they followed Victoria. In order not to let Victoria notice them, they didn't follow too closely.

There were also drones tracking her in the air, so they were not afraid of losing sight of her.

After Jordan left, Lota said dejectedly,

"Lauren, I... I'll head back now."

Lauren was a little surprised. "Ms. Schmid, are you leaving the US?"

Lota nodded.

She came to the US because she hoped to be Jordan's wife. Unexpectedly, Victoria objected.

Moreover, such a ridiculous scene had occurred.

Earlier on, Jordan had been so angry that he even shouted at her. Lota was a sensitive and innocent girl. She was worried that Jordan hated her now.

After all, if Lota hadn't come to the US and asked to be Jordan's wife, Victoria's matter wouldn't have been exposed today.

It would be bad if Jordan blamed all of this on Lota.

Lota did not want Jordan to hate her.

Therefore, she decided to leave immediately. She didn't want to linger around and further annoy Jordan.

Lota said, "Jordan is occupied with Victoria now. If I stay here, I'll only make him angry."

Lauren nodded. She also felt that Jordan currently did not have the time to care about Lota's feelings.

Lauren said, "Ms. Schmid, I know you're a good girl. Since Jordan likes you too, I'm happy to accept you. As for Victoria, she didn't agree earlier. But now that she knows about her previous situation, perhaps she will change her mind and accept you."

Lota was delighted. "Huh? Really? Is that possible?"

Lauren smiled. "It's okay. If Victoria changes her mind, I'll let you know. You can come to the US to find Jordan again then."

Lota shook Lauren's hand happily. "Thank you, Lauren. You're the best."

Lauren was a woman who could see the big picture. She knew that as a member of the secret family, Lota would definitely be able to help Jordan in the future.

It was something that neither Lauren nor Victoria could do.

...

On the highway out of the capital.

Victoria sped out of the capital.

Meanwhile, Jordan had been following behind and taking care of the cars in front of Victoria. Victoria was in a distraught mood. It was very easy for something to happen if she drove fast.

Therefore, Jordan predicted the route she would take in advance and diverted all the cars in front of her.

At this moment, Dragon had already switched their car to automatic driving mode. It kept a safe distance from Victoria's car.

Dragon asked, "Master, should we..."

Dragon wanted to say that the 18-year-old boy had violated the woman of a Deity and he was guilty of a capital crime. Just like Tyler and Cayden, he should suffer the consequences.

But Jordan roared angrily. "Shut up! No one is allowed to mention this again!"

Jordan was a Deity now. Killing an ordinary child was as easy as stepping on an ant. However, at this moment, Jordan was not thinking about revenge. He did not want to think about that incident anymore. He was only worried about Victoria!

Finally, when it was almost dark, Victoria's car was nearly out of gas.

Victoria parked at a small hotel in the suburbs and entered the building.

The wife of the richest man in the world chose to stay in such a lousy hotel. Jordan's heart ached for her. However, it was not appropriate for him to do anything for Victoria now.

Dragon could tell what Jordan was thinking and said, "I'll give the hotel owner some money and get him to prepare the best food and daily necessities for Ms. Victoria."

Jordan nodded.

Dragon asked again, "Master, do you want to stay in this hotel, or somewhere nearby?"

Jordan shook his head. "I'll just wait in the car for Victoria to come out."

Looking at the hotel, Jordan thought to himself, 'Victoria, I'll give you time to calm down. I hope that after you calm down, you can understand that I won't despise you because of such a thing. I hope you can understand my love for you!'

Late at night, Jordan sent Victoria a very long message. He wrote many things to Victoria and told her his viewpoint.

He even used Hailey as an example.

When Hailey first cheated on Jordan, Victoria was in Orlando as Jordan's deputy president. She had witnessed the incident.

Back then, even after he saw Hailey and Tyler checking into a hotel, Jordan finally chose to forgive Hailey.

As for Victoria, her situation was completely different from Hailey's. Hailey had knowingly committed her mistake. Victoria had no idea what happened as it was Clara who did it.

Jordan told her that he would never leave her because of this.

However, Victoria did not reply. Moreover, she stayed in the hotel for three days.

Meanwhile, Jordan had been monitoring Victoria's condition through high-tech methods to ensure her welfare. For the past three days, Jordan stayed in the car and guarded the entrance of the hotel.

Finally, on this morning, he saw Victoria emerge from the hotel!

Victoria drove to the gas station first. After refueling, she drove towards the capital.

Dragon followed her with Jordan.

Dragon said, "Master, looks like Ms. Victoria is returning to the capital."

Jordan had not slept for the past three days and was in a very bad state. It wasn't that he didn't want to sleep. Firstly, he was worried about Victoria. Secondly, he would have nightmares the moment he fell asleep.

He dreamed of what Clara said to him before she died.

In his nightmare, Clara's face would then morph into Victoria's. He had taken a lot of drugs these past few days to stop himself from thinking about this.

Jordan nodded. "Yes, I hope Victoria has finally come to her senses."

Jordan still did not disturb her, giving her space.

Soon after, Jordan realized that Victoria was really driving back to their villa in the capital!

"Victoria is going home! This is the way home! Victoria has finally come to her senses!"

Jordan was overjoyed.

Dragon also smiled. "Congratulations, Master. The incident had nothing to do with Ms. Victoria in the first place. She brooded for three whole days and should have figured things out by now."

The two of them believed that Victoria was returning to the villa because she had finally resolved her internal conflict.

Victoria's car stopped in the courtyard of the villa. Jordan's car quickly followed.

Getting out of the car, Jordan ran forward to hug Victoria.

"Honey, you're finally home! I miss you so much! You want children, right? Let's have them now!"

However, Victoria pushed him away.

"I'm here to pack my luggage."

Chapter 898: Victoria Commits Suicide!

When talking to Jordan, Victoria's eyes and words were extremely cold.

She looked at Jordan as if he was a stranger.

Jordan was reminded of the time when Victoria found out that it was Jordan's father who had killed her father. She deliberately distanced herself from Jordan and went to Houston and got married to Russell.

Jordan asked, "Pack your luggage? You're leaving?"

He didn't expect Victoria to return to the villa just to pack her stuff and leave him!

Victoria said coldly, "Jordan, I've thought through everything for the past three days. I've also tried to persuade myself countless times to forget about that matter and pretend that it never happened. If you were just the CEO of a small company like Ace Corporation, if you only had me as your wife, perhaps I would kneel down and beg you to forgive me. Then, we would live happily together like before."

Jordan hurriedly grabbed Victoria's hand. "That's how it should be! I've already forgiven a b*tch like Hailey once. You're even more worthy of forgiveness! You didn't even do anything wrong!"

However, Victoria pushed his hand away and said, "But you're not. You're not an ordinary CEO. You're from a secret family. You're the one and only Deity in the world with the most noble status! If I stay by your side, I will only become a stain on your reputation. I will only make the people of the eight great families laugh at you!

“I’m no longer worthy to be the wife of a Deity. Only pure women like Lauren and Lota are worthy. We met at the best time. I’m already very happy and satisfied to have you for the past two years. I’m sorry that I can’t accompany you for the rest of my life.”

Victoria’s words became increasingly resolute. She was about to break up with Jordan again.

This was the second time Victoria was breaking up with Jordan. The previous time, Victoria inexplicably said that she wanted to marry Russell.

This made Jordan very upset. He had finally snatched Victoria back from that old dog Russell. How could he let her leave again?!

Jordan didn’t know what to say. He knew that Victoria had thought about it for the past three days and was determined. It was useless no matter what he said.

Therefore, Jordan hugged Victoria’s slender waist and forcefully kissed her!

He wanted to use this intense kiss to show Victoria that he loved her!

No matter what happened in the past or what will happen in the future, Jordan would always be with her!

But Victoria still pushed Jordan away resolutely.

“Don’t be like this. I’ve already thought it through. Don’t try to persuade me anymore. Let me leave with dignity.”

With that, Victoria went upstairs to her room.

Jordan chased her to her room. When he saw her packing her luggage, he couldn’t help feeling extremely angry. He kicked her luggage into pieces, and the clothes inside were all torn!

Bang!

Jordan was furious. “Victoria! I won’t let you leave! I’m a Deity. I can’t change that. But for you, I’m willing to be an ordinary person in the future! What bullsh*t eight families? What ultimate secret of the Rong family? I don’t care about any of that! I’ll kill whoever dares to laugh at me! No matter what, I definitely can’t let you suffer because of a crime committed by Clara!”

Jordan then shouted downstairs, “Salvatore!”

Salvatore was outside and he immediately ran in.

“Master, what can I do for you?”

Salvatore waited for his orders.

Jordan said to Salvatore, “Keep an eye on Victoria. Other than eating and going to the toilet, she’s not allowed to go anywhere else, much less leave this house! Also, get Emily to accompany her.”

After giving his instructions, Jordan turned to look at Victoria. “Victoria, I’ll hold a wedding with you in the capital in a week. I want everyone in the world to come and congratulate us. I want you to become a bride that all the women in the world will envy!”

With that, Jordan walked downstairs and immediately called his former colleagues, subordinates and friends, telling them that he was going to marry Victoria.

Soon, Ashley Rose, Stella Weston and the rest sent messages to Victoria.

Ashley said, “Ms. Clarke, you’re getting married. Congratulations. You’re finally getting married to Mr. Jordan! I watched you two from the day you two fell in love until today. Leave the wedding arrangements to me. I wish Mr. Jordan and Ms. Clarke a happy marriage and to have children soon!”

Stella said, “Victoria, your husband personally called me! When I first saw you two in New York, I knew you would definitely end up together! At that time, your husband was pretending to be poor. He was clearly a billionaire, but he dressed so simply. When I made things difficult for him and saw how your heart ached for him, I knew that you would definitely end up being Mrs. Jordan. Haha.

“Thank you for inviting me. I will definitely be there to give my blessings. Love you! Be happy!”

Even Victoria’s father, Norman, sent her a message. “Victoria, Jordan called me just now. He said that he wants to hold the most amazing wedding for you! Seeing you marry a man who loves you so much, your late mother and I are very happy.”

Even Russell received the news and sent Victoria a message:

“Victoria, you’re finally getting married to Jordan! I will never forget the scene of you and Jordan kissing passionately on our wedding day. At that time, all I felt was anger. I believed that you just wanted to humiliate me. But now that I think about it, I could sense the undeniable love between the two of you. You were willing to do anything for each other. You should be together!

'Although Jordan invited me, I won't be attending the wedding. However, I want to tell you that I wish you and Jordan eternal happiness!'

Seeing the well-wishes of so many family and friends, Victoria's determined heart softened again.

"Sobs..."

Victoria squatted on the ground and cried again.

"Why? Why are you so good to me? I'm clearly not worthy. I'm not worthy of you being so good to me, Jordan."

Victoria cried as she muttered to herself.

When Salvatore saw this, he walked over and handed Victoria a stack of tissues.

"Ms. Victoria, don't go against Mr. Jordan. He loves you so much. Why do you want to leave him? There are so many women who want to be his wife but he doesn't even look at them."

Victoria cried. She was powerless to change the truth, nor could she convince herself to pretend that this had never happened.

She suddenly saw the gun in Salvatore's pocket.

Overwhelmed by her emotions, Victoria snatched the gun away.

"Ms. Victoria, what are you doing?!"

Salvatore was shocked. Victoria was skilled and even Salvatore couldn't react in time.

Victoria pointed the gun at herself.

Bang!

Victoria fired two shots at herself!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 899: Death Depression!

At this moment, Jordan was still downstairs calling Victoria's colleagues and friends. Suddenly, he heard two gunshots.

Slam!

Jordan's phone instantly fell to the ground.

Almost immediately, Jordan realized that something bad must have happened!

He did not even bother to take the stairs. He jumped up to the second floor and rushed to Victoria's room.

But it was too late.

Jordan had dreamed of this scene before.

He was a Deity. No matter how ridiculous the dream was, it would eventually become reality.

Just like Jordan and Hailey's beach wedding. Jordan had tried to stop it, but he could not escape fate.

He knew that this would happen one day.

Therefore, he placed his most capable subordinate, the world's strongest Dragon, by Victoria's side 24/7.

Not long ago, he was in a war between the eight great families and was caught in the most difficult fight he ever had and almost died. He didn't call Dragon over to help him then. Instead, he let him stay by Victoria's side.

Because he was worried that Victoria would be killed!

But now, Jordan knew that Victoria had not been murdered. She had committed suicide!

She had shot herself!

Salvatore was trembling in fear as he knelt on the ground. "I'm... I'm sorry. Ms. Victoria snatched my gun..."

Jordan rushed over and held Victoria.

At this moment, Victoria was still alive.

Victoria looked at Jordan and said weakly, "Hubby, I'm sorry. I can't... accompany you anymore."

Jordan cried. "Why are you so foolish?"

A smile was on her face. "In my next life, I don't want to only meet you when I am 30. I want to meet you when we are still teenagers. I want to go to school with you and date you. I want to be your first woman. I want you to be my only man. Hubby, in your next life... remember... to... find... me... earlier."

With that, Victoria closed her eyes.

"Victoria!"

Jordan roared in pain!

However, he did not let his sadness disturb his rationality. As a member of the eight secret families, he knew very well their medical standards. They could resolve ordinary gunshot wounds that modern medicine could not.

To the people of the eight secret families, being shot did not mean death at all!

Previously, Park Chan-young had also been shot by Jordan. It was like a small injury that healed soon.

Jordan quickly picked Victoria up and said, "Victoria, you won't die. I'll save you. We don't have to wait for our next life. We can be together forever in this life!"

Jordan decided that as long as he could save Victoria, he wouldn't even want Lauren anymore. He only wanted Victoria!

Since Victoria hoped for a monogamous relationship with him, Jordan would give her all of himself!

Carrying Victoria, Jordan immediately went downstairs and transported her to the Steele family's secret medical laboratory as quickly as possible.

The Steele family's most elite doctor treated Victoria as quickly as possible.

Jordan and Lauren waited outside the operating theater. Lauren was very anxious, not knowing if Victoria would survive.

However, Jordan was confident in the Steele family's medical skills. He knew that Victoria wouldn't die!

A few hours later, Dr. Tanner, who was in charge of this surgery, walked out.

“How is it, Dr. Tanner?”

Dr. Tanner took off his mask, his expression grim. “Master, we removed the bullets from Ms. Victoria’s body. Her wound is also being treated and is healing quickly.”

Jordan was overjoyed. “I knew it. A mere gunshot wound is not a problem for our eight great families! Has Victoria woken up? I want to go in and talk to her!”

Jordan was about to walk in when Dr. Tanner stopped him.

Dr. Tanner sighed. “Master, the situation isn’t that optimistic. A gunshot wound is indeed a small matter for our eight great families. It’s like a headache and a cold. It’s not an incurable illness. But Ms. Victoria did not only suffer a gunshot. She was technically dead for a short period of time.”

Jordan grabbed Dr. Tanner’s collar. “So what if she was technically dead?! Didn’t you save her? You just said that her wound is healing quickly!”

Dr. Tanner said, “We did save Ms. Victoria’s body but she is suffering from a form of depression. It is the unprecedented ‘death depression’.”

Jordan was shocked. “Depression? What depression? My wife never had depression! Did she develop depression during the past two hours?”

Dr. Tanner replied, “Yes!”

Jordan was furious. “Nonsense! How can anyone develop depression during surgery?!”

Dr. Tanner said, “We wouldn’t dare to lie to you. Although Ms. Victoria was saved, she is determined to die. Even though her body has returned to normal, she refuses to wake up. We’ve never heard of such a situation before. We don’t know how to resolve it. Master, you’re a Deity. I’m afraid we’ll have to trouble you to help us.”

Jordan was a Deity and could predict the future. He had previously helped Shaun develop a mind-transplant procedure.

Now, he could also help Dr. Tanner and his team develop a way to treat Victoria’s “death depression”!

Jordan hurriedly said, “What are you waiting for? Let’s start immediately!”

Jordan immediately conducted a series of experiments with the Steele family’s medical team.

Just like that, a month passed. Victoria's wounds had long disappeared and her body was as smooth as before. It was impossible to tell that she had been shot. However, she remained lying on the bed and could not regain consciousness.

For the past month, other than thinking of a solution with his team, Jordan spent the rest of his time by Victoria's bed talking to her.

However, he couldn't wake Victoria up.

Dr. Tanner said, "Master, Ms. Victoria has become a vegetable who is determined to die. There's only one thought in her mind, and that is death. We've used all the methods we can think of in the past month, but they have no effect at all. I'm afraid..."

Jordan grabbed Dr. Tanner's collar and shouted, "I won't allow you to give up! I will never give up on treating Victoria!"

"Yes, yes, yes..."

Dr. Tanner knew how Jordan felt about Victoria. Even if there was no hope for Victoria, he didn't dare to continue persuading Jordan to give up.

"Maybe it's because our abilities are limited. Why don't we contact the Geng and Rong families? Their medical team is of a higher level. They might be able to find a way to treat Ms. Victoria's 'death depression'!"

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 900: Shaun Is Here!

"The Geng and Rong families?"

Jordan lifted his head, and his dull eyes lit up for the first time in a long while.

'The Rong family can even develop something as heaven-defying as a space-time revolving door. They might have a way to save Victoria from a simple mental illness!' Jordan thought to himself.

It was true that he admired Rong Huangde's abilities very much. He knew that this old fellow was unfathomable. In terms of medicine, the Rong family's medical team was definitely much stronger than Jordan's!

The previous Deity had helped the Rong family for decades, helping them develop their technology!

Although Jordan was a Deity, this was not something that he could surpass in a short period of time. Therefore, Jordan hurriedly said to Dr. Tanner, "Alright, contact them and ask them to help."

"Yes!"

10 hours later, private jets from the Geng and Rong families flew directly to the secret base where Jordan and Victoria were.

At this moment, Jordan was still watching over Victoria in the ward. He held her hand and spoke to her from time to time.

"Oh my god, you're Madam Geng, right? Thank you for coming!"

Lauren was outside the ward. When she saw Geng Anli, she hurriedly stood up and greeted her respectfully.

Geng Anli naturally knew everything about this beauty in front of her.

With Geng Anli's arrogance, she usually disdained interacting with common women. However, Lauren was Jordan's official wife, and Jordan was a Deity. On top of that, Geng Anli had a past relationship with Jordan. As a result, Geng Anli was very friendly and humble toward Lauren.

Taking the initiative, Geng Anli extended her hand and smiled. "You must be Jordan's wife, Lauren from the Howard family. I'm very happy to see you, the number one beauty in the US."

Lauren was a little embarrassed. "Thank you for your praise, Madam Geng. I don't deserve the title of the number one beauty in the US."

Geng Anli smiled. "You're indeed the number one beauty in the US. Your husband and I have discussed this matter before. However, to be honest, you're not in your best condition now. I know that you were imprisoned by Shaun for half a year and lost a lot of weight. Why haven't you recovered yet? You don't look too well either."

Lauren lowered her head. Actually, she had been gradually recovering.

However, Victoria suddenly committed suicide.

For the past month, Jordan had not been able to eat or drink. He only cared about Victoria and stayed by her side. As Victoria's good friend and Jordan's wife, how could Lauren be in the mood to take care of herself and eat properly?

Lauren said, "With Victoria and my husband like this, I don't have much appetite these days."

However, Geng Anli shook her head. “Ms. Lauren, I know that you have a good relationship with Victoria and you’re very worried about your husband. However, Jordan has been injected with the Mirakuru serum after all. His physique far exceeds that of ordinary people. Even if he doesn’t eat or drink for a few days, nothing will happen to his body.”

“But you’re just an ordinary person. Jordan mentioned to me more than once that when he first met you at the cafe, he was instantly attracted to your beauty. His heart palpitated like crazy. Since your beauty is a big factor in attracting your husband, what reason do you have to not preserve it?”

Hearing this, Lauren was enlightened. “Thank you for your advice, Madam Geng!”

Geng Anli greeted Jordan.

Jordan got up and walked over. “Madam Geng, thank you for bringing your team over.”

Geng Anli said, “Of course. However, in terms of medical skills, our Geng family can’t compare to the Rong family. I think it will depend on the Rong family whether we can save Ms. Victoria this time.”

Jordan asked with some uncertainty, “Has the Rong family... also sent a team?”

“Hahaha, of course we did!”

A familiar voice rang out. “Rong Bailun” strode forward with a group of doctors in white coats.

“Chairman Rong! Welcome to the US!”

Lauren bowed respectfully when she saw “Rong Bailun”.

Lauren didn’t know that Shaun had swapped minds with Rong Bailun as Jordan hadn’t told her.

‘Shaun Handley!’

Jordan was the only one who knew that this fellow was Shaun!

‘So he managed to stay alive.’

When Jordan and Shaun parted ways previously, Rong Huangde had made Shaun stay at Fort Rong.

Shaun had killed Rong Huangde's son and occupied his body. Jordan thought that Rong Huangde would kill Shaun in a fit of anger.

Walking forward, Shaun said, "Deity Jordan, long time no see. I didn't expect such a thing to happen after our last meeting. Sigh, what bad luck! But don't worry, I've already brought our family's most elite medical team over. We'll do our best to treat your wife!"

Jordan didn't expose Shaun's identity. He cupped his fists in respect and said, "Thank you, Chairman Rong and Madam Geng."

Everyone didn't waste any more time and started to work on the "death depression".

During this period, Shaun kept wanting to talk to Jordan in private, but he was rejected.

Jordan's mind was only filled with Victoria. He didn't want to talk about anything else. Even if it was about that mysterious space-time revolving door that few people on Earth knew about.

Just like that, the Rong and Geng families' medical teams, along with the Steele family's medical team, observed and researched for half a month.

But in the end, they still failed to find a solution for the "death depression".

One day, on a sunny afternoon.

Jordan was still sitting on the chair, holding Victoria's hand and watching over her.

Victoria wasn't dead. Her hands and body temperature were normal, but she just couldn't wake up.

Knock knock!

Geng Anli and Shaun knocked on the door and entered.

Seeing that Jordan was still looking at Victoria both affectionately combined with a miserable aura, Geng Anli couldn't help sighing.

"Sigh, Jordan, you're really a good husband who values relationships. Unfortunately, our medical teams can't help you. If it's just a physical wound, no matter how serious it is, we have the confidence to treat it. However, I'm afraid no surgery or medicine can treat this kind of suicidal state of mind.

“Jordan, since I can’t help you, I won’t linger here anymore. I hope you can pull yourself together as soon as possible. I still have to rely on you to improve this world.”

With that, Geng Anli bid farewell to Jordan and Shaun and left.

Shaun was about to approach Jordan when he asked him to leave.

Shaun didn’t do so. “Jordan, don’t chase me away. I’ve been wanting to talk to you in private for the past few days. Now that I finally have the chance, I have something very important to discuss with you!”

Chapter 901: Rong Huangde Can Save Victoria!

Shaun had a lot to say to Jordan.

Jordan had somehow become Shaun’s best “friend” and “partner” in this world. After all, the two of them had collaborated and done too many things together in the past year.

Walking over, Shaun patted Jordan’s shoulder.

To Shaun, this was a friendly gesture but it instantly angered Jordan!

Jordan got up from his seat, turned around, and punched Shaun in the face!

Bang!

Jordan was furious. “You b*stard, how dare you appear in front of me? If your wife, Clara, hadn’t controlled Victoria’s body and made her sleep with an 18-year-old boy, Victoria wouldn’t have committed suicide and wouldn’t be unconscious now!”

“Ding! Face bleeding detected. Beginning treatment.”

A mechanical voice rang out from Shaun’s body.

Shaun was wearing a Rong family invention that could defend and treat the body. But Shaun didn’t bother. He said to the system, “Stop the treatment.”

Retrieving a tissue from the small table by the balcony, Shaun wiped the blood from his nose. He then said to Jordan, "Jordan, can you be reasonable? You were the one who caused my wife and me to be homeless first. You exposed us and chased us out of the Schmid family."

Jordan said angrily, "That's Lota's home, not yours at all!"

Shaun said, "Alright, even if you were right to uphold justice, didn't you kill my wife with your own hands? It has been so long since you killed my wife. Did I try to take revenge on you? Did I ever scold and hit you like you did to me just now? If I had killed your wife, would you be willing to speak to me in a friendly manner?"

"My wife and I were childhood sweethearts. We knew each other since we were young children. You've only known Victoria for just over two years, right?"

From the looks of it, what Jordan did to Shaun was indeed more cruel than what Shaun had done to Jordan.

After all, Jordan had killed Shaun's wife with his own hands. On the contrary, Jordan's wife had attempted suicide and was not dead yet, just in a coma.

When Clara controlled Victoria, she never intended to really hurt her physically. If Clara had jumped down from a building dozens of stories high when she was controlling Victoria's body, even Jordan would have been helpless to stop her.

What happened to Victoria was considered not that bad in the scheme of things.

Jordan said coldly, "You can also kill me to avenge your wife!"

Shaun said, "Don't always talk about fighting and killing. We have to foster a harmonious society! Just because we can't save Victoria doesn't mean Rong Huangde can't!"

"Rong Huangde?"

At the mention of the unfathomable Rong Huangde, hope rose in Jordan's heart.

"Can Rong Huangde save Victoria? By the way, why didn't Rong Huangde kill you after I left?"

Shaun complained resentfully. "Thank you. You finally remembered to show some concern for me! I've been here for half a month, but you only asked me this question today. As your best partner for the past year, I'm so disappointed!"

Jordan stated coldly, "Whether you die or not has nothing to do with me. If you don't want to tell me, then don't. I'm not that interested."

Exasperated, Shaun hurriedly said, "Rong Huangde is not a simple character. You b*stard, you were so disloyal. You flew me to Fort Rong in the middle of the night. When we reached the fort, I told you to go back and watch the movie first, but you disagreed. You were the one who insisted on barging into the second floor of the fort. In the end, I begged you so hard, but you didn't bring me with you when you left. We've known each other for a long time. Couldn't you have shown me some kindness?"

"After you left, I thought Rong Huangde would kill me. But he didn't. He actually endured the fact that I killed his son. Instead, he fed me poison to control and use me.

"Sigh, I thought that after switching minds with Rong Bailun, I would be the number one person in the world. I could kill whoever I wanted. Everyone in the world would have to listen to me! Who would have thought that I would just end up becoming a puppet of you and Rong Huangde? Both of you have your methods of controlling me.

"F*ck, if I had known that it would be so frustrating after becoming Rong Bailun, I wouldn't have swapped minds with him!"

Jordan snorted. "Blame your greed. You can't blame anyone else."

Rong Huangde didn't kill Shaun. Instead, he poisoned him and held his life in his hands.

On one hand, it was for the sake of his family.

"Rong Bailun's wife, son and daughter don't know that you're a fake, right?" Jordan asked.

Shaun nodded. "They don't know. Rong Huangde didn't tell them."

Jordan had guessed correctly.

Now that Victoria was unconscious, Jordan understood the pain of losing a beloved family member.

Ban Luming was just an outsider but his death already made that brat Rong Bingshao so angry that he wanted to kill Jordan. He had cried until tears streamed down his face.

If he knew that his father had been killed and his mind replaced, he would not be able to withstand such a blow.

Jordan asked, "You said that Rong Huangde can save Victoria?"

Shaun smiled. "I can only say this. If Victoria can still be saved and there's only one person in this world who can do it, then that person will be Rong Huangde. That old b*stard Rong Huangde is too f*cking unfathomable. He even knows our Handley family's secret techniques. Is there anything in this world that he hasn't seen before?"

“You’re a Deity. Just rely on your intuition to analyze if Victoria will wake up one day. If you believe that she’ll wake up, then come with me to find Rong Huangde at Fort Rong. If you believe she’ll be like this for the rest of her life, lying on the hospital bed like a vegetable, never waking up, never calling you husband again, then don’t come with me.”

It could be said that Shaun was an expert at persuasion.

His goal was not to help Jordan at all. Instead, he wanted to trick Jordan into going to meet Rong Huangde.

Rong Huangde had given him this mission.

Shaun seemed to be giving Jordan a choice, but in fact, he was not giving him any choice at all. As Victoria’s husband, how could Jordan believe that she would never wake up?

In fact, Jordan had fantasized countless times that after Victoria woke up, she would cry and tell him that she would never do such a foolish thing again. They would live happily ever after.

However, Jordan did not immediately agree. Instead, he asked cautiously, “Did Rong Huangde ask you to invite me?”

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 902: Going To Meet Rong Huangde!

Shaun smiled. “That’s right. Rong Huangde did ask me to advise you to return to the fort and have a good chat with him about returning to the past and exploring the secrets and origins of the secret techniques of the Deity and the Handley family. Regardless, I stand by what I said earlier. Rong Huangde is indeed the only one who can save your wife now. You have to go find him.”

Jordan thought of the old man who had almost killed him and still felt a lingering fear.

If he wasn’t a Deity and Rong Huangde wasn’t in awe of him... If Jordan didn’t have the abilities of a Deity and of use to Rong Huangde...

Jordan would have died then and there.

“Rong Huangde is not a simple person. I don’t want to come into contact with him. As the number one person in the world, he pretended to be dead for 10 years. Over the past 10 years, not only did he control our world, but he was also exploring it. He knows everything about me and you. Even if we join forces, we won't be his match.

“Do you know why I rejected him so decisively and refused to help him?”

Shaun thought for a moment and suddenly frowned.

With his understanding of Jordan, he should be very interested in something as magical as a space-time revolving door!

Jordan liked Nolan's movies so much because he was obsessed with time, science fiction and dreams. It was impossible for him not to want to try going back in time.

Moreover, Jordan would definitely want to know the secret of Deities. How did he become a Deity? What was the origin of Deities?

Jordan was also very interested in Shaun's mystical techniques.

However, Jordan rejected Rong Huangde resolutely.

Shaun said, “Are you worried that Rong Huangde will kill you after using you? Just like what I did to you previously?”

Jordan said, “It's not that simple. You've underestimated Rong Huangde. My gut tells me that Rong Huangde is even more terrifying and ambitious than you!”

Shaun was shocked. His ambition was to become the number one person in the world!

This ambition was already the greatest. Rong Huangde was a half-dead old man. Even if he was given a beautiful girl, he might not be able to get it up. How could he have greater ambitions than Shaun?

Jordan said, “Once he discovers the origins of Deities and your Handley family's secret techniques, perhaps he might understand how to recreate them. By then, Rong Huangde can become a creator and modifier. He can travel to the past at any time. He might change the parameters of my Deity ability or your techniques.”

Shaun was shocked. “Oh my god, can this be done? It's like the author of a novel. He can modify the settings and ability parameters of a character.”

Jordan sighed. “It's possible. There are so many major secrets in this world. No one knows what they are. I only know that the closer you are to the truth, the more dangerous it will be. The more powerful and terrifying existences you will come into contact with.”

Shaun cursed angrily. "F*ck, every time I see that old thing, I tremble! I feel like even a strand of his beard can blow me up. You're right. This damn old man isn't willing to die at 80 like your grandfather. That's why he created such a heaven-defying thing. Only a lunatic would dare to play with such a thing.

"But Jordan, although Rong Huangde must have some terrifying plan in mind, you really have to beg him if you want to save your wife."

Jordan gave a big sigh. "You're right. Although I don't want to see him and become his chess piece, I have no choice for Victoria's sake. Shaun, I'll come with you."

Shaun was delighted. If he could bring Jordan back to Fort Rong with him, he would complete the mission Rong Huangde had given him. He could finally receive the antidote on time.

Before Jordan left, he walked to Victoria's bed again and held her hand. He kissed her forehead and looked at her sleeping face.

"Victoria, wait for me to come back. No matter what it takes, I'll definitely wake you up."

Shaun smiled meaningfully. "Maybe the next time you come back, she will already be awake."

Jordan did not say anything else and walked out with Shaun.

At this moment, Lauren had just sent Geng Anli and the rest off.

Seeing Jordan and Shaun walking out together, Lauren was a little surprised.

"Is Chairman Rong leaving too?"

Shaun smiled at her. Actually, she could be considered his disciple. After all, Shaun had taught Lauren all about remotely controlling another person.

However, Shaun did not expose his identity. Since Jordan chose not to tell Lauren, why go asking for trouble?

Although he had taught Lauren some spells, he also imprisoned her for more than half a year.

Shaun smiled. "Ms. Lauren, I'm not the only one leaving. Your husband will also be leaving with me."

Lauren looked at Jordan in surprise. "Hubby, really? You're leaving too?"

For more than a month, Jordan had been watching over Victoria day and night. Lauren didn't expect him to leave.

Jordan nodded. Under the dazzling sunlight, this was the first time over the past month that he noticed Lauren's haggard and thin face.

He knew that Lauren had suffered this month.

Reaching out, Jordan gently touched her face. "Lauren, I'm going to China. You should go home and rest for a few days. You don't have to stay here all the time. Victoria won't wake up anytime soon. There's nothing you can do here. Just let Salvatore and Emily watch over her."

Lauren asked, "Hubby, have you forgiven Salvatore? Ever since Victoria shot herself, Salvatore has been so anxious that he can't sleep at night. He was afraid that you would come and punish him one day. He also said that if you want to execute him, he would accept it without any complaints."

Victoria had killed herself after snatching Salvatore's gun. As Salvatore didn't react in time, he blamed himself. He was indeed somewhat responsible.

However, Jordan had previously already dreamed of Victoria being shot.

Even if Salvatore managed to stop her in time, Victoria would find other opportunities in the future to commit suicide with a gun. It was inevitable.

Jordan nodded and caressed Lauren's face. "Hurry up and go home."

Lauren could feel Jordan's love and instantly felt a wave of happiness. All the hardship she had suffered the past month melted away.

"Hubby, when will you be back?" Lauren asked with concern.

Jordan shook his head. "I'm not sure. It might be very soon or it might be much longer."

Jordan knew that he might end up like the Ghost Rider.

The Ghost Rider had sold his soul to the devil.

Chapter 903: Forming An Alliance With Shaun!

Jordan and Shaun flew straight to Fort Rong.

Arriving at this place again, Jordan no longer felt as nervous and awed as when he first came. After knowing the Rongs' heaven-defying secret, he had already started treating it as normal.

But he did not see Rong Huangde when he entered the secret room.

"Where's Rong Huangde?" Jordan asked.

Shaun said, "You know, this old man is already 71 years old. He's only a few years away from turning 80. So he has been living in the past. He went back in time a few days ago. He won't be back until two days later."

Shaun snapped his fingers and ordered. "Dr. T, bring out two bottles of red wine and a few snacks. I want to have a drink with Jordan here."

A system voice sounded. "Yes, Master."

A claw-shaped object emerged from a wall with red wine, glasses and some tasty-looking dishes.

Jordan knew that Dr. T was the artificial intelligence system in this room. Previously, when Rong Huangde had ordered Dr. T to kill Shaun and Jordan, they had almost died.

It seemed that now that Rong Huangde was not around, Shaun was the master.

Shaun was also very arrogant and wanted to show off. "Although I'm controlled by you and Rong Huangde now, I am having a pretty glorious life when you two are not around."

With that, he snapped her fingers again. "Dr. T, give us some fries and meatloaf."

Dr. T replied, "What is meatloaf? This item isn't on the system menu."

Shaun said in disdain, "Trash, to think that you're the most advanced artificial intelligence in the world. You don't even know how to make a simple meatloaf. Serve us the fries first."

Shaun raised his wine glass and clinked it with Jordan's. "This red wine was already opened and given time to breathe. Come, let's drink."

Jordan picked up his wine glass. Ever since Victoria's accident, he had not touched alcohol. Now, he really wanted to drown in his sorrows.

Taking a sip of wine, Jordan asked, "Why did you order all these dishes?"

Shaun took a sip of wine and sighed. "Ever since you left me to my fate in this place, my heart has been cold. Rong Huangde forced me to drink a poison specially developed by their family. I have to take the antidote once a week, or my body will turn into a puddle of water and disappear. Rong Huangde time-travels every day. I really pray for him every day. If something happens to him and he doesn't return, I'll be doomed!"

Jordan asked cautiously, "Where did he go again? Did he go to Cocodrie 30 years ago to investigate your Handley family?"

Shaun nodded. "Yes, Rong Huangde is very familiar with my little town now. He might be even more familiar with it than I am. He knows all the streets and the location of each shop and household.

Jordan asked, "Why didn't he bring you along? You're from the Handley family after all. You'll be of some help to his investigation while he is there."

Shaun took another sip of wine. "How can I help? My father never met me as an adult and he kills people without hesitation. He'll probably murder me in the blink of an eye. I'm no match for him. Besides, I have to stay here and convince you to come over to help Rong Huangde. You are a Deity and I'm not as useful as you are."

Jordan downed a glass of wine and poured another for himself. He said, "Shaun, I have a feeling that in order to save Victoria, I might have to agree to enter the Time Gate and return to the past."

Shaun was delighted. "Did you predict this?"

Jordan shook his head. "No, but I don't need to predict it. I know it will happen. Shaun, no matter what, we've worked together many times in the past year. You and I can be considered good partners. If I really have to travel back to the past, I hope you can come with me. Your abilities will be very useful to me."

Jordan wanted Shaun to come along. It was very dangerous to travel back in time. His own abilities were not enough to ensure his safety.

Shaun said, "If I help you, will you get rid of my golden headband curse?"

Jordan nodded. "Sure. I only did this back then because I was worried that you would do something to destroy the world order after you became the number one person in the world. But now, this world is not being controlled by you. Rong Huangde is the one controlling it. I don't have to worry about that anymore."

Shaun was delighted. He raised his wine glass. "Alright! From now on, I'll help you with anything you do! Of course, we are good brothers and must help each other. Jordan,

I'm not as cold-blooded as you, not caring if the other party lives or dies. It's better for this world to fall into our hands rather than the Rongs, right?"

Jordan clinked glasses with Shaun.

To deal with an unfathomable fellow like Rong Huangde, Jordan had to cooperate with Shaun.

...

Two days later.

Jordan and Shaun were drunk and lying on the soft bed in the room.

Rumble! Rumble!

A rumbling sound could be heard as the white door opened.

Rong Huangde walked out of the Time Gate.

Rong Huangde was overjoyed to see Jordan. "Hahahaha, Deity Jordan, I didn't expect to see you so soon. This is much earlier than I expected!"

Jordan and Shaun also hurriedly woke up.

Shaun got up and brought a cup of hot water over. "Dad, how did things go over there? Did you gain anything? My town is cold and there are no heaters. You must be cold, right? Have some hot water first."

Rong Huangde took off his oxygen mask but pushed the cup aside, and did not drink the water. "I went back to the month of August, 30 years ago. It was not wintertime."

Rong Huangde shook hands with Jordan. "It's good to see you again."

Jordan returned Rong Huangde's handshake respectfully. He said sincerely, "Mr. Rong, I'm here for my wife, Victoria."

Rong Huangde wiped his hands with a hot towel and nodded. "Yes, I heard that Victoria committed suicide, right? She also contracted a new illness called death depression. Shaun, have you sent our family's medical team over?"

Shaun replied, "Yes, Dad. The top doctors in our family can't cure her either. This is a mental illness. Victoria is determined to die. Unless we can change her mind, she won't wake up."

At this moment, Rong Huangde let out a meaningful laugh.

Jordan could feel from his laugh that Rong Huangde seemed to have a way to save Victoria!

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 904: Implanting An Idea!

Jordan hurriedly cupped his hands and said, “Mr. Rong, your family’s technology and medical standards have long reached perfection. Please save my poor wife. If you can save my wife, I’m willing to help you in any field and help you improve your strength in every aspect!”

Rong Huangde was very polite to Jordan. He smiled. “Thank you for your generosity, Deity Jordan. However, from what you said, it sounds like you think that the medical team we sent to help you isn’t our best one?”

Jordan did think that. He felt that the team which Shaun brought was the best under Rong Bailun’s level. And now, Jordan knew that Rong Huangde was the real mastermind.

Perhaps he had a group of even more powerful experts that he had yet to reveal.

Rong Huangde smiled and did not answer the question directly. Instead, he asked,

“Deity Jordan, medicine has been developing for thousands of years, right? Over the years, we’ve conquered countless illnesses. We can treat them with medicine now. However, even though medicine has been progressing for thousands of years, is there any medicine or surgery that can change a person’s state of mind?”

“Do you think there is a medicine that can change a person’s personality and thoughts? To make them happy or sad? There isn’t, right?”

“Ms. Victoria’s current situation can’t be resolved with just high medical standards. Even if we develop for another thousand years, I believe no medicine can make her go from begging for death to being determined to live. She is suffering from a mental illness, and one that can’t be resolved with medical skills.”

Jordan’s expression instantly turned to despair. “So even you can’t save Victoria?”

If even Rong Huangde couldn’t do anything, then Jordan really didn’t know who to look for.

Perhaps, there was really no hope for Victoria.

Unexpectedly, Rong Huangde smiled again. "Actually, there is a solution."

Jordan immediately became excited. "Can you save my wife? How?"

Rong Huangde said, "The problem with your wife is that she's already dead inside and doesn't have any desire to survive. Her mind died the moment she was shot. Even after the doctor healed her gunshot wound, her mind is still in a dead state. Therefore, if you want to save her, you have to plant an idea in her mind, that no matter what difficulties she encounters, she has to be positive and live on!"

Jordan hurriedly asked, "How?"

Rong Huangde pointed at the Time Gate he had just walked out of and said, "Go back in time. You definitely need to do it now. You have to go back in time to complete this."

Indeed, Rong Huangde was enticing him to go back in time.

However, after thinking about it carefully, Jordan realized that Rong Huangde was right. The only solution now was to return to the past.

Rong Huangde continued, "After you return to the past, you can subtly instill an idea in her whenever you're with her. For example, you can frequently mention how you two would be decades later when you and she have become an old couple. The two of you would still hold hands and take walks in the park together. You will get to hug your grandchildren together and so on.

"When her heart is filled with anticipation for this future and she remembers this deep inside her heart, she will be filled with hope. That is what will allow her to wake up."

Jordan slowly thought about the feasibility of this matter.

"Implant an idea in her?"

Jordan suddenly remembered Nolan's movie "Inception".

In the movie, in order to make an heir of a financial group give up his father's assets, the protagonist implanted an idea into the heir via an illusory dream. They influenced him that money was not the most important thing. Family and love were.

In the end, after waking up, that heir indeed gave up on inheriting his father's business and chose to live an ordinary life.

If Jordan returned to the past, he could implant an idea in Victoria's mind, the idea that she must stay with Jordan until she grew old.

As long as this idea was strong enough, Victoria would definitely wake up and not seek death!

Shaun said, "Dad, there's no need to go through so much trouble. Victoria committed suicide because my wife controlled his body and slept with that boy. Go back in time and stop my wife from sleeping with him. Jordan, if you do this, I don't mind you slapping my wife a couple of times. This woman actually cheated on me to take revenge on you."

However, Rong Huangde said bluntly, "Shaun, stop calling me Dad. Your IQ is not worthy to be my son. Didn't you guys watch Director Nolan's 'Creed'? I had him explain the concept of time travel very clearly in the movie. What happened in the past cannot be changed. Victoria and the little boy slept together and she chose to shoot herself, these two things cannot be changed.

"Once you try to change either one of the events, a new timeline will appear, which is..."

"A parallel world!" Jordan answered quickly.

Rong Huangde nodded. "That's right. In this parallel world, your wife wasn't violated. She didn't commit suicide and is living well. But the Victoria in this world is still unconscious."

Jordan quickly said, "No, I don't want to create a parallel world. I won't change the past. I don't care about Victoria and that boy. I just want her to wake up!"

Parallel worlds were what Jordan was most afraid of. He did not want to create a new flow in time.

Rong Huangde smiled. He knew that Jordan was a person who saw the bigger picture. He said, "Jordan, what happened has already happened. Anyway, you can't create a parallel world even if you want to. At the very least, in my long experience of time travel, I've never been able to create a parallel world."

At this moment, Shaun felt a little dizzy. He asked, "Dad, since you can't change what happened in the past, why did you ask Jordan to return to the past? Didn't what should have happened already happen? In the past, Jordan didn't instill this idea in Victoria. If he goes back to the past and instills this idea, wouldn't it be equivalent to changing the past?"

Jordan was also a little puzzled by this.

Rong Huangde pointed at Shaun and said in a gratified tone. "This is a good question. You are qualified to be my son. Now, I want to tell you about another very important time travel concept. You must listen carefully."

Thank you for reading on

Chapter 905: Time Travel Concept!

At those words, Jordan and Shaun became very attentive.

Rong Huangde said slowly, "Before we talk about this concept, I want to tell you a little story. Perhaps you've heard it before. Legend has it that this world originally didn't have a moon. God only created Earth. Earth was the only planet in the entire universe. But as time passed, suddenly one day, a fellow called Galileo invented a telescope that could look beyond the skies of Earth. God was shocked and hurriedly created a moon.

"It means that the moon doesn't exist until you have the ability to see it. Only when you have the ability to see it will the moon be placed there. Do you understand what I mean?"

Shaun was confused, but Jordan seemed to have understood something.

Jordan said, "You mean that what I saw with my own eyes in the past will still happen? But what I didn't see it, I can still change it?"

Clap! Clap! Clap!

Rong Huangde clapped happily and praised Jordan. "As expected of a Deity! As expected of a descendant of the Steele family! Jordan, you're too smart. That's exactly what I meant!"

Shaun had a low education level. While he was good at his demonic techniques, he knew nothing about physics and science. He tugged at Rong Huangde's arm.

"Dad, I don't understand. What do you mean? What are you talking about? Can you explain to me?"

Now, Shaun would call Rong Huangde "Dad" every time he saw him. As Shaun was indeed using Rong Bailun's body, Rong Huangde would sometimes mistake this person in front of him to be his real son.

This was also the reason why Shaun insisted on calling him "Dad". It was to confuse this old man and make him sympathize with him.

Rong Huangde explained patiently, "Let me give you another example. If you drive to work in the city in the capital, you will encounter many cars along the way. However, you only remembered seeing two cars: a black Audi A8 and a white Ford Focus. There were hundreds of cars you didn't remember seeing. And you can change all of them.

"I can change a Tesla that has been following your car to a Porsche, or I can change a Volkswagen that was far away into a Buick. Do you understand?"

Shaun swallowed. He... still didn't quite understand.

Seeing how confused Shaun was, Jordan quickly intervened to explain. After all, they had already agreed to work with each other.

Jordan said, "Let's not use such complicated examples about the past and future for now. Let's just talk about the present. We're in this room now, right?"

Shaun nodded blankly.

Jordan asked, "What's outside this fort?"

Shaun was stunned for a moment before replying, "There are lawns, soldiers and weapons outside the fort."

Jordan said, "No, I say that it's a desert outside this fort."

Shaun smiled. "That's impossible. This is Chengdu, a large city. There are other cities nearby too. How can it be a desert?"

Rong Huangde smiled and joined in. "I say that outside this fort is the sea."

Shaun's expression changed. "Did something happen to your brains? Why don't you let Dr. T examine you?"

Rong Huangde smacked Shaun's head. "You fool, why can't you understand? Let me ask you, can you see what's outside the fort now? Let's not talk about when you came in. Let's talk about now. Can you see it this very second?"

Shaun shook his head.

Rong Huangde said, "So it can be the sea or the desert outside. Only when you really walk out of the fort and see those lawns can they really exist."

Shaun was enlightened. "I understand! We've all experienced the past, but everyone's understanding of the past is limited. It's impossible for one person to experience everything in the past. So we can return to the past and can change things that we didn't experience personally! Is that what you mean?"

Jordan and Rong Huangde nodded. Shaun finally understood. And this was indeed a very difficult concept to understand.

Jordan thought for a moment and said, "If we want to go back to the past and implant an idea into Victoria, I can't do it myself because I didn't do it in the past."

Rong Huangde smiled and nodded. "That's simple. Put on a mask or disguise yourself as an old man or an ugly freak and quietly approach her. Make her listen to you and then slowly implant that idea."

Jordan said, "If I travel to the past, there will be another me in the past, right? It's equivalent to having two Jordans at the same time."

Rong Huangde nodded. "That's right. Therefore, you must never meet your past self, or your worldview will collapse. But you don't have to worry about that. Like I said, what should have happened has already happened. If you've really seen your other self in the past, it's impossible for you not to know now."

Shaun felt a little dizzy when he heard this.

However, he understood one thing. Jordan could return to the past and save Victoria. Moreover, he was about to do so.

Jordan said, "Mr. Rong, please let me return to the past and save my wife!"

He had confirmed that as long as he returned to the past and found an opportunity to implant the idea of growing old with Jordan into Victoria, she would wake up.

Jordan couldn't wait to do this now!

However, Rong Huangde stretched lazily. "Ah, I'm so tired. Dr. T, give me a glass of whiskey."

Rong Huangde ignored Jordan and walked to the side to drink.

Jordan knew that Rong Huangde would not help him so easily. Since he had chosen to come here, Jordan was already prepared to pay any price.

"Mr. Rong, if you're willing to send me back to the past and save my wife, I'm willing to return to 30 years ago to help you explore the secrets of the Handley family, as well as the origin and secrets of the Deity."

Rong Huangde was delighted. "Hahaha, Deity Jordan, you're finally enlightened! Actually, you're not helping me. You're helping yourself and the entire human race. As long as I can know the Handley family's spells and the secret origins of the Deity, I will have no regrets even if I die! Let's not delay a moment longer. Why don't we start immediately?"

Jordan said, "Before I help you, I have to save my wife, Victoria."

Rong Huangde became cautious again. "Deity Jordan, your condition seems a little too much. Since you're begging me to help you, you should solve my problem first before I can help you."

Jordan was very determined. "I must save my wife first. I promise you that after I save my wife, I will definitely help you finish what you started. If you don't trust me, you can let me take the poison you gave Shaun to control me!"

Chapter 906: Back To Two Years Ago!

Jordan offered to let Rong Huangde control him with poison so as to dispel Rong Huangde's worries about him.

All for the sake of waking Victoria up as soon as possible. On one hand, he was doing this because he loved Victoria deeply and wanted her to wake up quickly. On the other hand, it was also for safety's sake.

If Jordan helped Rong Huangde explore the secrets of the Handley family's ancestors first, who knew what kind of danger he would encounter? He might never return. If Jordan died, who would save Victoria?

Jordan didn't think Rong Huangde would be so kind as to save a woman who was as good as a stranger to him.

In addition, Rong Huangde had explored the Handley family's secrets for so many years, but he had not discovered anything. Even if Jordan was a Deity, it would definitely take a long time.

Jordan didn't want Victoria to wait that long.

Rong Huangde frowned as he quietly considered the feasibility of this matter. The Rong family's poison was the most advanced in the world. It was not something other normal poisons could compare to.

Even if Jordan was a Deity and had a top-notch medical team behind him, he might not be able to develop an antidote in a short period of time.

One had to take the antidote once a week or they would die.

With this thought in mind, Rong Huangde was confident that he could use this poison to control Jordan.

However, he was reluctant to do so.

He didn't want their relationship to be based on a threat.

Rong Huangde hurriedly said, "Jordan, what are you talking about? Why would I poison you? I'm not a demon who will poison people to control them. I gave Shaun the poison because I was worried that he would use my son's identity to do nefarious things.

"As you know, he is a demon. He has killed countless people and enjoys the pleasure of being a ruler. Previously, he didn't hesitate to use biochemical weapons to endanger so many innocent lives! If I was really someone who liked to kill and threaten others, I wouldn't have spared Shaun's life after he killed my son!"

Looking at Rong Huangde's sincere gaze, Jordan was slightly moved. Perhaps this old man really had a good heart.

He had been the number one person in the world for the past few decades, and the world developed well. He had not abused his power or used advanced technology to commit bad deeds.

Jordan's grandfather mentioned to Jordan before that Rong Huangde was a respectable person.

Rong Huangde sighed. "Jordan, it must be hard on you to love this ordinary woman so much. Alright, I'll let you save your wife first. Then, we'll discuss other things."

Jordan was very excited. "Thank you, Mr. Rong!"

Rong Huangde agreed to let Jordan save Victoria first.

Shaun stood up. "Dad, I want to travel to the past with Deity Jordan, okay?"

Rong Huangde was a little surprised. "Aren't you very afraid of traveling to the past?"

Shaun smiled awkwardly. "I'll be following Dad sooner or later to explore the secrets of our Handley family. I'll treat this expedition as training. After all, this particular trip wouldn't be that dangerous."

Rong Huangde smiled. "As long as Jordan agrees, I have no objections."

Jordan nodded. "Alright, let's go together. If anything happens to me, you can come back anytime and report to Mr. Rong."

Jordan didn't want to reveal that Shaun was going to help him. He didn't want Rong Huangde to see that he had a good relationship with Shaun. Instead, Jordan made it sound as if Shaun could be used as a way to help Rong Huangde monitor him.

All of a sudden, Shaun said, "Dad, this is our first time traveling. As we are not familiar with the process and might take a long time. Can you give me the antidote for two weeks first?"

Shaun had to take the antidote once a week, or he would die.

Rong Huangde glanced at Jordan before agreeing to Shaun's request.

Rong Huangde said, "I hope you can finish this within two weeks. Two weeks is enough to instill an idea into a simple woman like Victoria. If it were me, I would do it within a week."

Victoria was not in a special profession, such as a special agent or assassin. She was just an ordinary businesswoman. To someone like Rong Huangde, he would find her very easy to deal with.

"Jordan, how far back in time do you plan to go?" Asked Rong Huangde.

Jordan thought for a long time. How far back in time should he return to?

One week? Or one month?

After pondering for a long time, Jordan said, "I want to go back to the first time I met Victoria. Two years ago!"

For some reason, Jordan suddenly wanted to go back to the first time he met Victoria. He wanted to experience the process of falling in love with Victoria all over again.

Moreover, the earlier he could implant the idea, the deeper it would take root in her heart and become an unshakeable notion.

Rong Huangde didn't object. "Tell me the exact date. The year, month and day. I need to set the date for you on the Time Gate."

Shaun smiled. "Deity Jordan, do you still remember the first time you met Victoria? I'm afraid you've already forgotten, haha."

Jordan blurted out, "10 April 2020 was the first time I met Victoria. How could I forget?"

“Victoria isn’t the only one. I also remember very clearly the date I first met Lauren at the coffee shop.”

Rong Huangde went to set the date on the Time Gate.

Reaching out his old fingers, he set the date on the touch screen to 8 April 2020.

“Why did you set it two days early?” Shaun asked curiously.

Rong Huangde replied, “This is your first time travel. There will definitely be many things that you won’t be able to adapt to. You will need at least a day or two to adjust. Therefore, I brought forward the date by two days. The location is Orlando, right?”

Rong Huangde set the time-travel location to Orlando in the US.

“Now, come and collect this backpack which you will need.”

Rong Huangde asked Dr. T to give Jordan and Shaun a backpack each.

Opening the bag, there were many things inside, such as oxygen masks, protective suits, bank cards, cash, expensive watches, weapons and drones.

Shaun sighed. “This backpack is really comprehensive. Thank you, Dad!”

Rong Huangde looked at Shaun. “When you reach Orlando from two years ago, you have to protect Jordan at all times, understand? Jordan is a Deity, an important figure who can affect the world. Even if you die, you can’t let him die.”

Shaun smiled. “Don’t worry, I’ll definitely protect him.”

Rong Huangde turned toward Jordan and extended his hand. “Jordan, congratulations on starting this exciting journey. I can guarantee that after this, you will fall in love with time travel. I wish you success!”

Chapter 907: Orlando Two Years Ago!

Jordan was indeed quite excited. He didn’t know what would happen and what would change if he traveled back to two years ago.

This would be the most daring and exciting thing he had ever done in his life!

The two of them did not waste any more time. They put on their oxygen masks, carried their backpacks, and walked towards the Time Gate!

The white Time Gate kept spinning. One could vaguely see the dazzling light from another space-time.

The two of them walked to the door and realized that there was a mirror on the left wall. An image appeared in the mirror.

It was the image of Jordan and Shaun emerging from the Time Gate.

Rong Huangde saw the image and said with a smile, "You will return safely. Jordan, go back to two years ago and do it boldly. Make up for your regrets over the past two years within the rules. This is the purpose of time travel, right?"

Rong Huangde knew that Jordan was a cautious person and was not too worried that he would mess around with the past. On the contrary, he wished that Jordan would be a little bolder and not be too cautious in his actions.

Only when Jordan was completely familiar with time travel would he be able to explore the secrets of the Handley family to his greatest ability.

"Mm."

Jordan nodded and didn't say anything else. With that, he entered the Time Gate with Shaun!

"Don't f*cking hold my hand!"

"Sigh..."

Rong Huangde couldn't help sighing when he saw Shaun and Jordan travel back to two years ago.

Rong Huangde muttered to himself. "Interesting. To think that the new Deity and the descendant of the mysterious Handley family travel back to the past together using my Time Gate. Hehe, Jordan, Shaun, both of you have huge secrets. I suspect that both your secrets are like rivers that will eventually converge at the same spot.

"I hope you both will have a good time over there. Have fun and resolve all your regrets, such as Hailey betraying you. You will only help me like a good boy after you have no more regrets."

If Jordan was still here, he would definitely be very surprised.

Rong Huangde knew about Jordan's entire history with Hailey. He knew everything about Jordan's past relationships.

Rong Huangde picked up his glass of whiskey again and ordered Dr. T, "Dr. T, pull up all the video conversations between Jordan and Shaun in this house over the past two days. I want to see them."

"Yes, Master!"

Meanwhile, Jordan and Shaun had already arrived at their destination.

8 April 2020.

Beep beep beep...

F*ck...

Beep beep beep...

Jordan and Shaun felt dizzy. They could hear a lot of noises.

There was the honking of cars, the meowing of cats and the barking of dogs, as well as the sound of construction going on. Moreover, these noises seemed to have some major "delay" audio effect, creating a constant echo in their ears.

When Jordan opened his eyes, he saw the dazzling sky. The sun was at its strongest at noon, and the sunlight was so bright that no one dared to look straight at it.

Jordan realized that Shaun was still holding his hand. He hurriedly shook him off.

"Why are you f*cking holding my hand!"

Just now, when Jordan and Shaun were walking towards the Time Gate, Shaun suddenly grabbed Jordan's hand from behind.

Shaun was also feeling very dizzy. He kept gasping and replied, "I was afraid."

Jordan was speechless: 'I formed an alliance with you because I wanted you to protect me. How have I become your protector!'

Jordan and Shaun took two steps forward, but they stumbled to the ground after just a few steps.

“Oh no, I’m too dizzy. It’s fine if I close my eyes, but if I open them and see anything, I’ll feel like spinning. What should I do?”

Shaun started to worry.

No wonder Rong Huangde had them travel back to a date two days in advance. It would indeed take some time to adapt to their first trip back in time.

Jordan was also sitting on the ground. He looked at the cars on the road and realized that they were all driving in reverse.

Shaun also realized that humans and animals walked in the opposite direction. He asked, “Jordan, we should have returned to the year 2020 now. Are things in this past world supposed to be the opposite?”

Jordan shook his head. “If this was a permanent thing, Rong Huangde would definitely tell us in advance. I guess it’s because we just experienced the Time Gate and were spun around, so everything we see is the opposite. Things should return to normal after a while.”

The two of them rested for more than half an hour before finally getting used to this new world and being able to walk slowly.

After walking for a while, the two of them arrived near a commercial district with more traffic.

Jordan said, “Find someone to confirm if it’s 2020.”

Shaun nodded. Just as he was about to ask someone, he suddenly saw a traffic police officer giving a ticket to a car that was illegally parked.

After the traffic police issued the ticket, Shaun walked over and retrieved it for Jordan to see.

The date on the ticket was clearly stated.

“Jordan, look. It’s indeed 8 April 2020. We’ve successfully traveled back in time!”

Shaun was overjoyed.

However, Jordan still felt uneasy. He was worried that he might fall into a trap set by Rong Huangde. He was worried that there was no such thing as time machines in this world.

Therefore, he had to confirm that he had really traveled back two years ago. Hence, he grabbed a beautiful woman who was walking toward them. She had a good figure and was wearing shorts.

“Ah, what are you doing!”

The beauty cried out.

Jordan said, “Pretty lady, I want to see your phone.”

The girl glanced at Jordan with a look of disdain. “If you want someone’s number, you should at least dress up before coming out. This is the most fashionable place in Orlando! Look at what the two of you are wearing. You’re both wearing oxygen masks as if you don’t have long to live. You don’t even dare to show your faces. I don’t even know what you two look like. How would I dare to give you my number?”

Shaun was impatient. “Why are you so polite to this silly girl? You can just snatch her phone!”

As the “world’s number one man”, Shaun didn’t have the patience to waste time with an ordinary pretty girl from Orlando. He snatched her phone and waved it in front of her face to unlock it with the facial recognition function.

“Hey, why are you like this? Why did you snatch my phone?”

The girl became angry.

Jordan didn’t waste any time. He took over her phone and opened the calendar. He saw the date on the phone.

It was indeed 8 April 2020.

Jordan was finally certain that he had indeed returned to two years ago!

Chapter 908: Meeting His Past Self From Two Years Ago!

“We have gone back in time. We’ve really returned to two years ago!”

Jordan suddenly felt as if a lifetime had passed. He felt that all of this was like a dream. It was too magical. He could actually return to the time two years ago and meet and talk to people from two years ago.

Two years ago, he was still the son-in-law of the Camden family and was still undergoing the mental training arranged by his grandfather.

He was still in love with that b*tch Hailey and had yet to meet Victoria and Lauren.

Jordan had a subconscious feeling that he would be doing many things during this trip back in time!

Not just implanting an idea in Victoria.

“Are you crazy? Why are you looking at my calendar? Don’t you have a phone?!”

The pretty lady snatched her phone back.

She looked at Jordan and Shaun as if they were crazy before walking away.

Shaun patted Jordan’s shoulder and smiled. “How f*cking insane. We’ve really returned to two years ago! At this time I was still in Switzerland. Do you think I should go to Switzerland now and send a message to my past self to ask him to quickly bring Lota away? Otherwise, you’ll be snatching her away in another year!”

Everyone had past regrets, including Shaun.

One of his regrets was Lota.

He had raised Lota because he wanted to take her as his woman when she turned 18. However, just before she turned 18, she met Jordan and asked him to save her from the Swiss castle.

Jordan rolled his eyes at Shaun and threatened, “You can try.”

Shaun laughed. “I’m just joking. Hahaha, what will happen has already happened. Since you’ve already taken away Lota’s first time, even though I have come back in time, I can’t change that fact, right?”

Jordan shook his head. “No, Lota’s first time is still with her. She didn’t give it to me.”

Shaun was shocked. “Damn, stop fooling around. Didn’t you two sleep together?”

Jordan said, “On our way to the US from Chaoyang Park, she alluded to it. She said something about how she still hadn’t given away her first time. I don’t understand what she meant. Previously, she clearly said that when I was unconscious in that special room in Switzerland, she did it with me.”

Shaun couldn't help chuckling. Jordan didn't know the reason, but he did. However, he was too embarrassed to tell Jordan. He was also afraid that Jordan would beat him to death if he knew the truth.

Jordan could tell that something was up with Shaun. He asked, “Do you know something? What nonsense did you teach Lota?”

Shaun quickly changed the topic and pointed at a cafe in front. “I'm thirsty. I'm going to get a cup of coffee. Do you want some?”

Shaun walked to the cafe and was about to order a cup of coffee.

At this moment, a delivery rider suddenly attracted Shaun and Jordan's attention! When Shaun noticed the young man wearing a helmet and delivery uniform, he suddenly felt a sense of familiarity.

Jordan was taken aback by the sight of that delivery man.

The young delivery man turned around. Shaun and Jordan got a good look at his face at the same time!

“F*ck! It's you!”

Shaun was shocked. He realized that the young man delivering takeout was none other than Jordan from 2020!

At this time two years ago, Jordan was indeed a delivery man!

[I'm the happiest every morning. I'll meet you again on this train.]

After Jordan was injected with the Mirakuru serum, his hearing had improved a lot. He could even vaguely hear the music playing in Jordan's Bluetooth earpiece.

It was his favorite song to play when he was out delivering takeout.

He didn't expect to meet his past self from two years ago!

Jordan remembered Rong Huangde's advice. He could not let his past self see him.

Otherwise, if a person saw someone who looked exactly like them, they would realize that something was wrong and their worldview would collapse.

Therefore, Jordan hurriedly took out a cap from his backpack and put it on. He lowered the cap so that his past self wouldn't get a chance to see his face clearly.

Shaun was amused. He was looking at two Jordans at the same time.

Shaun said to Jordan, "Deity Jordan, how about I go greet your past self from two years ago?"

Jordan became nervous. "Don't mess around!"

But Shaun just lowered his head and walked over.

At this moment, the Jordan from 2020 had just finished retrieving the takeout order from the cafe. He turned back to leave.

Bump!

Shaun deliberately bumped shoulders with Jordan from 2020.

"Excuse me."

Jordan from 2020 was often in a hurry to deliver his orders. He thought that he was the one who had accidentally bumped into someone due to his haste. Therefore, he apologized first.

Without waiting for the other party to respond, he left on his motorcycle.

But Jordan frowned and said, "I remember. I remember what happened just now."

"Huh?" Shaun didn't understand what Jordan was talking about.

Jordan said, "I remember two years ago, I was at a cafe in this district. After retrieving the takeout order, I bumped into a man wearing an oxygen mask. This really happened two years ago!"

Jordan suddenly recalled this incident. What just happened actually existed in his mind for the past two years!

Shaun smiled. "Indeed, what should happen has already happened. I understand more and more how time travel works."

The two of them ordered two cups of coffee. Shaun took off his oxygen mask. After taking two sips, he couldn't take it anymore and put the mask back on. They had just experienced a space-time reversal. For the time being, they could not survive without the mask.

Shaun was a little frustrated. "I'm tired and dizzy now. Let's find a hotel to rest in. Anyway, you'll only see Victoria the day after tomorrow."

Jordan nodded and said, "But we won't go to a hotel. Let's go to the New City residential estate."

Shaun felt that this place sounded a little familiar. He had previously investigated Jordan's background and remembered that the New City residential estate was where Jordan lived with Hailey when he was married to her.

"Why are we going to the New City residential estate? Isn't that where you live now?" Shaun asked.

Jordan said, "Yes, let's get a house opposite my old house to monitor my past self."

Shaun didn't say anything. If it were him, he would also want to find a secret place to monitor his past self.

The two of them took a taxi to the New City residential estate.

"Which building did you and Hailey stay in?"

Shaun asked Jordan as they entered the estate.

Jordan pointed at the building in front.

Shaun smiled. "That one. Alright, let's find a place opposite that building to monitor you and Hailey's every move in 2020. Hehe, let's go and rob someone. Let's see which family is so unlucky!"

Chapter 909: Spying On Jordan And Hailey!

Jordan and Shaun arrived opposite the building where Hailey lived. Their apartment was on the ninth floor so Jordan also went to the ninth floor of the opposite building.

Knock knock!

Jordan knocked on the door.

A woman's voice rang out. "Who is it? What do you want?"

This was a high-end district in Orlando. There were cameras at the door and the woman inside could see Jordan and Shaun, and how they were dressed.

The two of them were wearing oxygen masks and completely wrapped up. They did not look like decent folk.

Jordan knew that she would not open the door so easily.

Shaun said impatiently, "Open the door quickly. We're here to buy your house!"

"Buy my house? Don't treat me like a three-year-old. I can tell at a glance that you're not good men. Hurry up and leave, otherwise, I'll call the police!" The woman threatened.

Shaun was about to speak again when Jordan stopped him.

Jordan shouted at the door, "You are Yasmine, right?"

Shaun was stunned for a moment. Jordan actually knew the owner of this apartment. No wonder he chose the ninth floor.

Actually, if it was for surveillance, it would be better to choose a higher floor.

The woman inside suddenly panicked. "How did you know? Why does your voice sound so familiar? Do you also live here?"

Jordan knew the owner of this apartment because he had come here before to deliver takeout. Coincidentally, they lived in the same neighborhood and were on the same floor, just from different buildings.

As this woman was quite good-looking and had a good figure, Jordan was able to remember her. In fact, not only did Jordan know her name, but he also knew her little secret.

Jordan said, "Yasmine, open the door. Otherwise, I'll call your husband and tell him that you slept with someone else behind his back."

Shaun was dumbstruck. This woman was having an affair?

Good lord, so many cheating women in this little estate.

"This place should be renamed Cuckold Residential Estate." Shaun chuckled.

Jordan was not trying to fool her. He did know about her dirty little secret. He didn't follow her on purpose. It was just a coincidence that he met Yasmine many times and knew what her husband looked like.

Occasionally, when he passed by a hotel entrance, he would see Yasmine holding the arm of an unfamiliar man as they entered the hotel.

Yasmine panicked. "You... you're spouting nonsense! If you dare to spread lies, I'll call the police to arrest you!"

Jordan said calmly, "Alright, call the police. Call your husband over too. I can send a photo of you and that man sleeping together to your husband to enjoy."

Shaun was getting impatient. "B*tch, open the door quickly. Without evidence, do you think we'll knock on your door?"

Yasmine opened the door shakily and let Jordan and Shaun in.

Yasmine's house was quite luxurious. It was not much different from Jordan and Hailey's place.

Yasmine was very nervous. "What do you want? Are you here to extort money from me? I can give you money if you promise not to tell my husband. However, I can only give you $10,000 at most. This is all the cash I have now."

Jordan sat on the sofa and said, "We don't want money. We just want you, your husband and your family to move out."

Yasmine widened her eyes. "You want my house? That's impossible. This house is worth more than $2 million!"

Shaun said angrily, "Cut the crap. We won't be staying here for long. Just treat it as us renting this place. This is the rent!"

Taking out an exquisite watch from his backpack, Shaun threw it at Yasmine.

Yasmine looked at it and was overjoyed. "Oh my god, it's an Audemars Piguet watch from the Royal Oak Offshore Collection. It's worth over a hundred thousand dollars!"

Jordan knew her secret and they were still offering a watch worth a hundred thousand dollars in rent. As a result, Yasmine immediately agreed.

"Alright, I'll persuade my husband to rent this house to you."

Shaun urged, "Hurry up and move your things. I'll give you two hours!"

Shaun was tired and didn't want any trouble. Otherwise, he wouldn't be bothered to give an expensive watch to this cheating woman.

Soon after, Yasmine moved her family's personal belongings out of the house.

After Yasmine left, Jordan and Shaun fell asleep from exhaustion. They only woke up at eight in the evening.

Shaun rubbed his eyes. He no longer needed an oxygen mask and could breathe steadily now.

He took a big gulp of cold beer and said, "Finally, I don't feel dizzy anymore. Even strong people like us have to rest for a long time after traveling back in time. That old man Rong Huangde will probably need to sleep for a day and night?"

Jordan was also awake but he did not answer. Instead, he took out a pair of binoculars from his backpack and looked at the building opposite. He saw that the lights on the opposite floor, in the apartment where he and Hailey used to live, had just been turned on.

"Yo, are you and Hailey home?"

Shaun also picked up his binoculars and took a look.

As they were too far away, Shaun could only see and not hear anything. He smiled. "I'll install a surveillance camera and a listening device at your house. This way, you won't have to keep looking through binoculars."

As a member of the eight secret families, these high-tech devices were easily available to him.

Controlling an invisible drone, Shaun discreetly installed cameras and listening devices in various rooms in Haileys' house, including the bedroom, living room and even the washroom.

Seeing that Shaun had installed cameras in the washroom, Jordan hurriedly stopped him. "Why are you installing cameras in the washroom? Remove them!"

Shaun smiled. "Why are you so nervous? You don't love that b*tch anymore."

Jordan punched him. "F*ck you. No matter what, Hailey is my ex-wife. How can I let you peek at her bathing?"

Shaun chuckled and put the camera away. He only installed a listening device in the washroom before controlling the drone to fly back.

All the surveillance equipment was ready. Jordan and Shaun sat on the sofa. They could see Hailey and past-Jordan's every move.

At this moment, Jordan was cooking for Hailey.

Hailey was wearing a white Chanel T-shirt and white shorts, revealing her fair and beautiful legs. She was also wearing a pair of cute red slippers.

"Hubby, hurry up and make dinner for me. I'm starving," Hailey said coquettishly.

She was already at the dining table and couldn't wait to eat.

"Alright, it's almost done."

Chapter 910: The Night Before The Beginning!

Hailey took off her slippers and lifted her long and fair legs. She placed her fair and tender feet on the chair. Meanwhile, she hugged her knees with her slender arms. She was also holding a phone scrolling through social media.

At this moment, Hailey was still a virgin. She was also very young, and many people her age were still in university. She still exuded an innocent and childish aura.

[When I think of you, I feel like crying.]

[Oh, oh, oh, oh. Burn the paper and bury the willow tree.]

Hailey was watching a short reel on her phone. The tune playing in the video was the most popular song on the Internet in the past few days.

This was a characteristic of TikTok's short videos. After a certain song became popular, about half of the videos you watched would feature that song. Hailey had only watched three videos, and two of them had this song as their background music.

Just this song alone was enough for Jordan to confirm that the current year was indeed 2020. Traffic police tickets and the calendar of a passerby's phone could be deliberately altered.

However, this particular song was only popular in April 2020.

If it was in 2022, it would be impossible to continuously hear this song on social media.

It was apparent that Hailey enjoyed this song. She would nod her head in time to the tune. She put on her shoes again and walked to the kitchen. She asked Jordan, who was cooking,

“Jordan, listen to me sing this song.”

[When I think of you, I... oh, oh, oh, oh. I wish I hadn't slept for so long.]

“How is my singing?”

As Jordan cooked, he turned to look at her with a blissful expression. At this moment, Jordan still liked Hailey very much. The two of them had been together for three years and were getting used to each other.

If one of them would be returning home late due to work that day, the two of them would call each other and chat for a long time.

Jordan smiled. “Which part are you referring to? If it's the words part, it's just so-so. But your “oh oh oh” was quite nice.”

Smack!

Hailey smiled shyly as she smacked Jordan on the back. “Annoying! Jordan, you pervert!”

Hailey had a smile on her face. She did not mind Jordan teasing her.

“Hurry up and cook. I've had a long day and want to eat.” Hailey urged Jordan before scrolling through her phone as she returned to the dining table.

Handing her a fork and spoon, Jordan said, “I am not just good at cooking, I have many other merits.”

Hailey said with a look of disdain, “Forget it. You're just a little handsome and cook well. What else are you good at? But never mind. You married into my family. I can't ask too much from you.”

After eating, Hailey said coquettishly to Jordan, "Hubby, my shoulder aches a little. Come and give me a massage."

Jordan, who was still eating, quickly put down his spoon and walked behind her.

Before he could reach out, Hailey reminded him. "Hey, you can only massage my shoulders. Don't think about touching other parts of me, understand?"

Jordan felt aggrieved. This was not the first time Hailey said such things to him.

As Jordan massaged her shoulders obediently, he asked, "Hailey, we've been married for three years. When can we be a real couple?"

In the three years they had been married, Hailey slept in separate rooms from Jordan. The two of them were very close and often said many sweet nothings to each other.

However, the two of them had not made much progress in the bedroom.

Hailey said, "We'll see when you can obtain my parents' approval."

Hailey also felt that it was unfair to Jordan, but she had no choice. Her mother, Sylvie, often reminded her not to sleep with Jordan.

Otherwise, if she divorced Jordan in the future, it would be difficult for her to marry again.

Jordan looked relaxed.

He calculated the dates. Tomorrow would be 9 April 2020.

On this day three years ago, Jordan began the "live-in son-in-law" training mission arranged by his family.

Tomorrow would be the day the mission came to an end!

In other words, after tomorrow, Jordan could tell the Camdens that he was the son of a billionaire! By then, Sylvie and Benedict, these money-loving snobbish parents, would be begging Jordan to sleep with their daughter!

Hailey noticed Jordan's smile. She asked, "What are you thinking about? Why are you so happy?"

Jordan naturally couldn't tell her what he was thinking about. Otherwise, the mission he had endured for three years would be wasted.

Jordan said, "Oh, it's nothing. I just remembered that tomorrow is our third anniversary."

Hailey's expression became a little awkward.

Jordan was familiar with psychology and could tell at a glance that she was a little nervous. He asked, "What's wrong? Do you have something on tomorrow? Aren't you coming back tonight?"

Hailey hesitated for a moment before saying, "I should be able to come home at night. What are you planning?"

Jordan said, "I'll make a few of your favorite dishes. Let's have some wine to celebrate, okay? Tomorrow, I have something very important to tell you."

Beep.

Hailey didn't read the message because Jordan was standing behind her and could see her phone screen. She pressed the lock button and held the phone in her hand, afraid that Jordan would snatch it away.

"Oh, let's talk about it tomorrow. I'm going back to my room to rest," she said instead.

With that, Hailey returned to her room.

The moment Hailey opened it, Jordan ordered Shaun, "Zoom in and point the camera at Hailey's phone screen."

Shaun had planted a hidden camera in Hailey's room.

Although it was so small that it was invisible to the naked eye, the clarity was very high and it could zoom in very close.

Shaun operated the device. Soon, they could clearly see the contents of Hailey's phone.

'Baby, is it convenient to video call? I miss you.'

The sender was Tyler Collins!

Chapter 911: I'm Deity, How Can I Endure Such Humiliation?!

Seeing the name Tyler again, Jordan suddenly felt like this was only yesterday!

For the past two years, after Jordan left Orlando, he had interacted with many big shots. The people who went against him had changed from small-time second-generation heirs to men like Park Chan-young, Miyamoto Masaki and Shaun.

However, when he saw the message on Hailey's phone, Jordan still felt very angry at Tyler, this small-time heir from a second-rate family in Orlando!

Shaun looked at the contents of the surveillance screen and asked with a smile, "This Tyler is the unlucky kid who seduced your wife back then and was castrated by you, right? Hehe, Jordan, when I saw your interaction with Hailey just now, I felt that the two of you were quite sweet.

"You're so good to Hailey. You really dote on her. She's also quite coquettish in front of you. I can tell that you two love each other. I thought you were having a miserable time as a live-in son-in-law, being ordered around by that bad woman, Hailey. But it looks like her attitude towards you wasn't that bad."

Outsiders like Shaun, Geng Anli and the Rong family had all investigated Jordan's past. They all knew that Hailey was a bad woman who had betrayed Jordan. With this first impression of Hailey, they all believed that she was a particularly bad person.

However, in reality, during the three years he lived with the Camdens, Hailey's attitude towards him had been rather good.

After all, she was from a well-to-do family and had basic manners. She would not say anything too nasty.

On the other hand, Hailey's parents often said nasty things to Jordan because they were his elders and did not like Jordan as their son-in-law.

Jordan and Hailey did love each other at that time.

Especially during their first year of marriage. They were tentative but sweet with each other, and Jordan missed those hazy days very much.

At that time, Hailey was still a university student. She was very innocent and had not turned bad yet. If Hailey was really a promiscuous woman with a bad attitude, how could Jordan fall for her?

By then, even if Hailey cheated on him, Jordan wouldn't be so angry. He would not have sung that sad song after finding out that Tyler had successfully proposed to Hailey.

Jordan did not say anything to Shaun. It was all in the past. Shaun was not a friend worth sharing his feelings with.

Hailey clicked on the video chat function and called Tyler.

"Yo, their video call is starting."

Shaun took a bag of peanuts and started snacking and drinking. As he drank, he looked at the surveillance screen with interest.

Tyler soon answered the video call.

Hailey nodded. "Yes, I just ate."

"What did you eat?"

Hailey replied, "Stir-fried shrimp with cucumber. My husband made it for me. It's delicious and I love it, hehe."

As Jordan watched the screen and listened to the sound from the listening device, his face was filled with anger.

Actually, Jordan remembered the conversation with Hailey in that living room and kitchen two years ago.

However, Jordan did not know about Hailey and Tyler's video chat. He thought about how he was dutifully cleaning up after dinner, yearning for the next day when his mission would end so that he and Hailey could live a happy life.

Meanwhile, Hailey was having a flirtatious video call with another man. Jordan was so angry that he wanted to thrash someone!

Tyler replied, "Tsk, what's the use of knowing how to cook? Your husband is only useful around the house. He can't help you in your career! Hailey, your Landmark Realty business needs a lot of capital. Can your useless husband give it to you?"

Hailey had been very happy about showing off her husband's culinary skills. However, the smile on her face instantly disappeared after hearing Tyler's comments.

She was truly a very impressionable woman.

In the first year of her marriage to Jordan, Hailey really liked him very much. She felt that he was handsome, polite and treated her well. They also had similar tastes and interests.

Money did not matter to her.

But as time passed, all her good friends got married to rich men. Hailey gradually felt that it was shameful to have such a poor husband.

It was then that she started to complain about Jordan.

Hailey said gently, "Tyler, can you help my family with this? My grandmother said that if we can attract investments and let my father be the person in charge of the project. I might be able to be the deputy director."

Tyler smiled wickedly. "Hailey, you know that money is nothing to my family. I can invest a few hundred thousand in you."

Hailey was overjoyed. "Really?"

Tyler said, "Hehe, I can definitely invest if you want me to, but you have to be my woman. Hailey, I've asked you out so many times. You should agree, right?"

Hailey instantly became shy. She bit her lips, looking like she was in a dilemma.

"Tyler, you know that I... have a husband."

Hailey was conflicted.

Tyler said impatiently, "He's just a useless son-in-law who lives off your family. What's there to worry about? Besides, he won't know if you don't tell him, right? He goes to work during the day to deliver takeout, doesn't he? Then let's meet at noon. Delivery at that time is always the busiest. He definitely won't have time to check on you. How about that?"

"Hailey, my patience is limited. If you don't agree, don't come looking for me for investments then."

Hailey was conflicted, but in the end, she agreed. "Alright, tomorrow at noon then!"

Tyler laughed happily. "Hahaha, alright! I'll book a hotel now. How about the Roxy Hotel? It's a five-star hotel!"

Hailey smiled shyly. "Yes, anything you choose is fine."

Smash!

Hearing this, Jordan angrily smashed a cup on the ground!

"Buddy, that was my wine glass."

Shaun looked exasperated.

Jordan was furious. "Hailey, that b*tch. I was so good to her, but she treated me like this!"

Shaun asked, "Didn't you know about this two years ago? Why are you still so angry now? Forget it. Anyway, you don't love Hailey anymore. You have Lauren and Victoria by your side. Your two beautiful and beloved wives. Don't bother about Hailey. Let her sleep with Tyler or Dick or Harry if she wants."

With that, Shaun retrieved another wine glass and prepared to pour.

Smash!

Jordan grabbed the wine glass and smashed it again!

"B*stard! I'm a Deity. How can I endure such humiliation?! How can I let others ridicule me about this?!"

Shaun looked helplessly at another broken wine glass. "You can't change what has already happened."

Jordan replied very seriously, "Who says I can't change the past?! If I can't change the past, why did I travel back in time?! Now that I've managed to return to two years ago. I won't stand by and watch Hailey betray me again!"

Chapter 912: I Want To Stop Hailey!

Shaun was more than a little confused and asked, "Didn't you say that what happened can't be changed? Moreover, you personally witnessed Hailey and Tyler's affair."

Previously, Jordan had mentioned that it could be a desert or a sea outside the fort as long as one couldn't see the outside. It made Shaun understand that he could change something if he hadn't experienced it personally.

However, Jordan had seen Hailey with Tyler with his very own eyes.

He wondered if Jordan was being a little too emotional. He had forgotten this basic concept because he wanted to stop Hailey from humiliating him.

But Jordan said, "Who said I saw it with my own eyes? I only saw Hailey in a bathrobe in the same hotel room as Tyler. I didn't see them actually do it with my own eyes."

Shaun was speechless.

Shaun thought to himself: 'Buddy, of course they couldn't possibly have performed in front of you for you to watch.'

However, Shaun recalled Jordan's example about outside the fort. Since Jordan didn't see Hailey actually committing the act, did that mean that there was a chance to change it?

Shaun was taken aback. "You want to change it? How?"

Of course, Jordan had to stop this from happening! Jordan had traveled back in time to 2020 to save Victoria. The original date was the day Jordan and Victoria first met, 10 April 2020.

But Rong Huangde took the initiative to set their arrival date by two days earlier.

The day before Jordan and Victoria first met, which was tomorrow, was 9 April.

That day, Jordan had discovered Hailey cheating on him when he was delivering takeout. He had immediately packed his luggage and left that night.

The next day, 10 April, was Hailey's grandmother, Old Mrs. Camden's 80th birthday. It was at this birthday banquet that Jordan met Victoria for the first time.

"Fortunately, I came two days earlier. Otherwise, I would have been cheated on again!"

Jordan clenched his fists. He would never allow this tragedy to repeat itself. By now, Hailey had already hung up the video call with Tyler.

Sitting on the bed, Hailey looked a little dejected.

“Sigh, Jordan, I didn’t expect to give my first time to someone else after being married to you for three years. If you knew, you would definitely be furious. You pig head, why are you so honest? You don’t dare to come to my room just because I said so? I’ve been looking forward to you barging into my room and doing something with me...”

Shaun laughed out loud when he heard this. “Jordan, I agree with Hailey. You two are officially husband and wife. You liked her very much back then, and your family is more powerful than her family. Why were you so honest? To think that you really didn’t touch her for three years. Even if you did, what could the Camdens do to you? You’re not afraid of such an insignificant family!”

When Jordan heard her words, he actually regretted it a little. If he had known that she had such thoughts, he wouldn’t have endured for three years!

Women’s hearts were unfathomable. Every time the two of them had intimate contact, Hailey would sternly stop Jordan from going too far.

But in reality, she was looking forward to Jordan doing it.

Jordan said, “At that time, I was too proud. As a descendant of the Steele family, I always thought that after my identity was exposed, Hailey would be begging me to bed her.”

Shaun nodded. As a billionaire, Jordan did disdain forcing a woman.

Hailey got off the bed and walked to her closet to choose her clothes.

She chose a very sexy black lace dress.

“Damn it! Damn it! Damn it! This b*tch! I won’t let her and Tyler succeed!”

Jordan grew angry again when he saw this.

As Shaun cleaned up the broken glass, he said, “I support you. Let’s do it! How can you let someone else taste your wife, whom you’ve taken care of for three years? I can understand you because I was very angry when you snatched Lota away! I raised her for 18 years!”

Jordan began to think carefully about how to change this past event.

“Although I didn’t personally see Hailey and Tyler having sex, I heard it. Cayden sent me a recording. In that recording, I could clearly hear Hailey and Tyler’s voices. This includes Hailey’s surgery thereafter. These things can’t be changed. In other words, Hailey must lose her virginity tomorrow!”

Hearing the facts, Shaun felt that this matter was a little too difficult.

Shaun thought for a moment and said, “Hailey has to lose her virginity at the hotel tomorrow, but she definitely can’t lose it to that kid, Tyler. Jordan, you’ve been married to Hailey for three years. You’ve done so much for her and loved her for three years. Her first time should be yours.”

Jordan thought for a moment and shook his head. “I don’t have any feelings for this woman anymore. I didn’t come for her this time. I came for Victoria.”

Shaun smiled. “You don’t want to? That’s alright. I’ll help you. I’ll help you take Hailey tomorrow, haha.”

Shaun shrugged. “You said it yourself. Hailey will definitely lose her virginity tomorrow at noon because this has already happened and you know of it. It can’t be changed. You can’t accept that but you refuse to let me help you. Why don’t you choose someone else then? Why don’t you call your playboy brother Jamie to help you?”

Let Jamie sleep with his ex-wife?

What a joke!

Jordan frowned and thought for a moment. There was no solution to this matter.

If he didn’t want to be cheated on, Jordan would have to sleep with Hailey himself.

“Alright, I’ll sleep with her tomorrow. I’ve been married to her for three years. Her first time should have been mine. However, I heard that recording. What should I do?”

Jordan was trying to find an opportunity to change some of his past regrets before they happened.

Hailey and Tyler checked into a hotel room and the recording of their voices. These two things had happened and Jordan personally witnessed them. It meant that he could not change them.

Shaun smiled. "That's simple. I have a device here. As long as you input a person's voice parameters, you can simulate their speech. Previously, when Rong Bailun and I were undergoing the mind-transplant procedure, I had Paris Gildon use this device to imitate Rong Bailun's voice to fool his subordinates.

"Why don't you wear this device tomorrow and imitate Tyler?"

Jordan accepted the device that could be clipped to his ear and thought of the email he received two years ago. It contained the recording of Tyler and Hailey's voices.

"So I was the one who simulated Tyler's voice in the recording?"

Chapter 913: I Was The Culprit!

These two years were actually a closed loop.

What should have happened had already happened.

If Jordan successfully acted as planned tomorrow, it meant that Tyler's voice in the recording he heard two years ago was himself!

Tyler had never gotten Hailey!

It was Jordan in 2022 who cuckolded Jordan from 2020.

When Jordan thought of this, he couldn't help rubbing his forehead.

"F*ck, the culprit I've always hated is actually myself... Tyler was innocent. I even sent someone to castrate him."

Shaun laughed. "Innocent? He invited your wife to a hotel. Even if he didn't do anything, he still must be punished for seducing the wife of a Deity."

Jordan nodded. This was not the time to be soft-hearted.

"Can we retrieve Tyler's voice from the video chat between Hailey and Tyler?" Jordan asked.

The video chat between Hailey and Tyler was saved on Jordan's computer.

Shaun nodded. "Alright, I'll make it for you now."

Soon enough, Shaun found the surveillance footage and extracted Tyler's voice. After setting it up, Shaun took the initiative to try it out on the device.

"Babe, have you eaten?"

Jordan had met Tyler many times. When he heard what Shaun said through the device, he exclaimed. It sounded exactly like Tyler himself!

The voice was too similar!

Jordan took the device and sighed. "I didn't expect that as a Deity, I would have to pretend to be that loser Tyler just to get my wife's first time."

Shaun smiled. "Be content. It's already good enough that you can change the past to this extent. At least you won't be cheated on. Tomorrow, I'll get some knockout drug for Tyler to make him think that he succeeded. Hehe, this silly boy. He probably never expected someone to travel back in time and ruin his plans."

The next day, at seven in the morning.

Ring, ring.

Lying on the sofa in the living room, Jordan suddenly heard the ringing of a phone. However, it wasn't his phone. It was Hailey's phone, which he had been monitoring.

To monitor Hailey at all times, Jordan slept on the sofa in the living room the entire night. He rubbed his eyes and watched as Hailey answered the call.

"Hello."

Hailey was already awake.

"What? Grandaunt Lily in the hospital? Is she alright? Is it serious? What did the doctor say? Oh, then I'll go visit her the moment I have some free time."

After saying that, Hailey hung up.

It was a call informing Hailey that her Grandaunt Lily's condition wasn't too good, and asking her to go visit her when she was free. Grandaunt Lily really wanted to see Hailey.

Hailey walked out of the room. At this moment, Jordan had already woken up and prepared a cup of honey water for her.

Honey water was good for one's complexion and health. Hailey had to drink this every morning when she woke up. For the past three years, Jordan never once forgot to brew this honey water for her. He always delivered it to Hailey's hands the moment she woke up.

Accepting the cup, Hailey said, "Hubby, I got a call just now that Grandaunt Lily seems to be sick. It's quite serious."

Jordan was quite anxious. "What? Grandaunt Lily is seriously ill? Oh no, your Grandaunt Lily hasn't been in good health for the past two years. Since they called you to go visit her, I'm afraid things are serious."

Hailey also looked very worried. "Huh? No way. It's not that serious. She said that she just wanted to see me. She's so nice to still remember me."

Jordan from 2020 had no idea what all this meant, but Jordan from 2022 knew everything. Of course, Grandaunt Lily missed Hailey the most. She knew Jordan's true identity and was afraid that Hailey would ruin her marriage to such a good husband!

Grandaunt Lily had saved Jordan's life. He quickly said, "Hailey, let's go to South Daytona to visit Grandaunt Lily now?"

Hailey immediately refused. "No, I said that it's fine. What's the hurry? It's not like Grandaunt Lily is dying now."

Jordan said anxiously, "Hailey, you don't understand. Your family didn't tell you about her illness directly. But since they took the initiative to call you, it means that her illness must have reached a critical juncture. Your Grandaunt Lily treats us both very well. We should go to South Daytona to visit her now."

Hailey placed the cup on the table angrily. "I said I'm not going! Who do you think you are? How can you diagnose my Grandaunt Lily's illness from so far away? If you were so powerful, would you be delivering takeout? Wouldn't you have become a big boss long ago?"

Hailey had an appointment with Tyler at noon, so she naturally couldn't go to South Daytona with Jordan now.

As he was depending on the Camdens at this point, Jordan could only compromise. "Alright then, we'll go visit her whenever you're free these couple of days."

Hailey nodded. "Yes, um, I have a business meeting with a client this afternoon. Don't call me unless there's an emergency."

Jordan nodded stiffly. "Yes, I'm very busy at noon. I don't think I'll have time to call you."

Hailey knew that Jordan delivered takeout and noon was his busiest time of the day.

A smile instantly appeared on Hailey's face. She even helped Jordan adjust his white shirt in an intimate manner.

"Yes, it is only right to be busy with work and your career. There's no distinction between high and low in professions. Drew, Elle and the others always say that you've embarrassed us Camdens by delivering takeout. But I don't think so. My husband is great in everything he does! Hehe, have a good afternoon delivering takeout."

"Okay."

Jordan smiled happily at Hailey's praise.

"Idiot!"

On the opposite building, Jordan cursed at his past self.

Hailey appeared to be so encouraging, praising Jordan for delivering takeout, but in fact, she was just relieved that Jordan would be busy at that time and wouldn't have the chance to check on her and find out about her dirty deeds!

His past self had been fooled by her and even smiled at her!

"Hahaha, Deity Jordan, who are you cursing so early in the morning?"

Shaun had just woken up and he walked over.

He looked at the surveillance screen and saw Jordan and Hailey gazing lovingly at each other.

Shaun smiled. "Haha, the two of you seem to be very in love. Hailey is really talented at acting. She managed to trick you the first time she cheated on you. Before that, she even made you serve her honey water. Hehe, what a pity. After she returns tonight, that's when her nightmare will begin!"

Chapter 914: Too Much Money!

It was finally 9 April 2020.

Today would be the beginning of a new chapter and the end of Jordan's life as an ordinary man. Since he had caught Hailey having an affair and divorced her, Jordan had embarked on a colorful and exciting life.

First, he found out his family secret. Then, he found out that he was the new Deity. In just two years, his thoughts, abilities, the people around him and his personal life had changed drastically.

Shaun said, "Hailey has left. We should go out and prepare, right?"

If Jordan wanted to prevent Hailey from cheating, he had to arrive at the hotel room before the cheating couple did, so he could set up an ambush.

Shaun thought for a moment and said, "Roxy Hotel. It's a five-star hotel. It won't be easy to get past security. How about this? I'll use a drone to blow up the glass in that hotel room. You have good stamina. No matter how high it is, you can just climb up. After you enter, you can replace the glass. Or should we sneak in and steal the room card?"

Jordan shook his head. "There are cameras everywhere in that hotel, and there are service staff everywhere. Let's not take the risk. We've never been here before. Don't do such sneaky things. It'll be troublesome if we mess it up. It's just a five-star hotel. We have plenty of money."

Schmid slapped his thigh. "That's right. We can just spend money to buy the hotel! Ever since I took control of the Schmid family, I've been sitting on assets worth billions of dollars, but I haven't had the chance to spend any money. It's been suffocating me! I'll pay for the purchase of the Roxy Hotel. I have at least a few billion in my bank card. The card Rong Huangde gave me has at least one to two billion.

"There's so much money. There's no way I can finish spending it all and no one around to help me spend it. How annoying!"

Shaun was truly troubled over this and Jordan had the same worry as him.

When Jordan found out that the Steele family was one of the eight secret families in the world, he realized that they had too much money to spend.

He was now a Deity. If the Rong family was not around, he would have the final say in the world.

Jordan could spend as much money as there was in the world. His wealth could not be exhausted even in the next hundred or thousand years.

Moreover, at Jordan and Shaun's level, many things did not require money at all. They just had to point a laser or weather weapon at the target, and he would obediently hand over anything.

Therefore, both of them had an urgent desire to spend money!

Jordan said, "No, I have to pay for this. I have more money than you. I feel bad if I don't spend it."

Shaun said, "I will feel even worse! I'm poisoned and might be killed by you and Rong Huangde at any time. Don't you know that the most painful thing in life is when a person dies before he manages to spend all his money?! I don't even have any descendants. Who should I leave these billions of dollars to?!"

Jordan couldn't win this argument, so he agreed to let Shaun pay.

Roxy Hotel belonged to the former richest man in the US, CEO Wyatt. Jordan knew his phone number and bank account. CEO Wyatt had some interaction with the Steeles previously.

Therefore, Jordan asked Shaun to transfer $500 million to CEO Wyatt's account.

Beep.

Meanwhile, in the CEO office of a certain CBD building.

CEO Wyatt was sighing as he looked at the clouds outside the window when he heard a message tone.

During this period of time, CEO Wyatt's business and personal situation were not too good. He was in urgent need of cash flow.

Opening his phone, he saw that his bank account had suddenly increased by $500 million. He was stunned.

"Who... who... who did this? Who sent me so much money? Huh?"

Just as CEO Wyatt was wondering, an unknown number suddenly called him.

Ordinary people couldn't know the private number of someone like CEO Wyatt. All who could call him were not ordinary people.

Therefore, CEO Wyatt picked up the call and heard Jordan's voice.

"CEO Wyatt, I transferred $500 million to you just now. Did you receive it?" Jordan asked.

CEO Wyatt was overjoyed. "Ah, I just received it. I was wondering who transferred the money to me. May I know who you are? I don't think I know you. Why did you suddenly transfer so much money to me?"

Jordan said, "I'm Jordan from the Steele family."

CEO Wyatt exclaimed, "The Steele family! Charleston Steele? From your youthful voice, you should be Mr. Steele's grandson, right? Oh my, CEO Waldon and I have always wanted to see Mr. Steele again. I wonder how his health is. We haven't been able to find the time. By the way, you suddenly transferred $500 million to me. Is there something you need my help with? Tell me, I'll definitely do it!"

Jordan smiled and said, "That's right. It's very simple. I want to buy your Roxy Hotel in Orlando."

When CEO Wyatt heard that he hurriedly said, "Oh, you want my hotel? Isn't that simple? Just say the word and I'll give it to you. There's no need to pay me. Seriously. Also, you've given me too much. My hotel is worth only about $100 million at most. It's not worth $500 million."

Jordan said, "The money belongs to my friend. I've also told my friend that he just needs to transfer $250 million. However, he has too much money and can't spend it all. If he doesn't transfer more, he will feel uncomfortable. It's not that much, so just accept it."

CEO Wyatt felt like crying. He was always the one who was able to flaunt his wealth with calm indifference. So much so that others couldn't stand it.

Now, he was jealous that someone else could flaunt their wealth in this manner.

'This guy has too much money? He is able to casually dispense an extra $250 million? I want such friends too!'

CEO Wyatt hurriedly said, "Mr. Jordan's friends are really generous! If there's a chance, I hope to meet you and your friends. Are you taking over the hotel now? I'll instruct my hotel staff to get out and hand it over to you!"

Jordan said, "No, don't touch anyone. I'll bring my family's jade pendant to the hotel later to prove my identity. Just inform your staff and ask them to cooperate with me."

CEO Wyatt said, "Alright, alright, I'll definitely get them to cooperate with you!"

After hanging up, Jordan and Shaun took a taxi to the Roxy Hotel.

At this moment, the entire hotel was in chaos, especially the female staff at the front desk. They were whispering to each other.

“Hey, did you hear? Someone bought our hotel for $500 million!”

“Who is it? Who’s so rich?”

“I heard that the new boss’s surname is Steele, and he’ll be here soon. Everyone, stay alert. Don’t end up not recognizing the new boss.”

Jordan and Shaun arrived at the front desk of the hotel wearing masks and caps.

The beautiful receptionist asked with a smile.

The female staff at the front desk were so frightened that their legs went weak.

“Greetings... CEO Steele!”

Chapter 915: Tyler Did It On Purpose!

The female staff at the front desk had already received news that the new boss would be proving his identity with a piece of jade. They were both curious and afraid of the mysterious boss who spent $500 million to buy a hotel on a whim.

Seeing the men, the female employees gazed at the eyes of Jordan and Shaun with admiration.

Jordan looked at a petite and cute receptionist with a ponytail. He remembered this girl.

Two years ago, he had come here to deliver takeout and greeted the front desk. At that time, this girl kept staring at Jordan, making him feel very embarrassed.

Jordan thought that he was so charming that this beautiful receptionist couldn’t help staring at him. On second thought, she might have noticed that his eyes were too similar to their new boss’.

At this moment, a man in a suit who looked like a manager walked over.

“Greetings, CEO Steele! I’m the manager here. You can just call me Robby. If you need anything, please let me know.”

Robby bowed, his expression full of awe.

Jordan put away his jade pendant and nodded. “Okay, bring me to room 1111.”

Jordan remembered very clearly that Tyler had booked room 1111. It was a premium room.

“Yes!”

Robby hurriedly brought Jordan and Shaun to the elevator and went upstairs to Room 1111.

As Robby opened the door to 1111 with his master key, the receptionist’s voice rang out from his walkie-talkie suddenly.

“Mr. Robby, the room that CEO Steele wants to see has already been booked by a client!”

“Okay, I got it,” Robby answered.

Robby reported to Jordan. “CEO Steele, this room has been reserved by a client. He will probably be here soon. This isn’t the best room in our hotel. The most expensive suites are upstairs. If you want to rest, why don’t we head over to one of those?”

Shaun said impatiently, “Cut the crap. If we had wanted to stay in those, why would we ask to come here?”

Robby didn’t dare to refute. He hurriedly said, “Then, I’ll get the front desk to call the client and give him a refund. We’ll also give him another room.”

“Don’t.” Jordan stopped him. “Don’t refund his order. Let him stay in this room. Don’t interfere in this matter. Just pretend you don’t know, understand?”

Robby didn’t dare to probe further. “Yes, CEO Steele! I won’t say a thing!”

Jordan waved his hand to signal Robby to leave.

After Robby left, only Jordan and Shaun were left in the entire corridor. The door had already been opened and Shaun had stepped inside the room. When he turned around, he saw that Jordan was still standing outside.

“Why are you still standing outside? Why don’t you come in?” Shaun asked.

Jordan just gave a bitter smile. He recalled the scene two years ago when he wanted to rush into this room to hit Tyler, but ended up being reprimanded by Hailey.

At that time, Hailey said to Jordan, "Jordan, look at how poor you are. How dare you step into a five-star hotel room!"

Jordan couldn't resist the urge to laugh when he recalled her words!

'Hehe, Hailey, did you know that I'd already bought this five-star hotel when you said that?! I'm the boss here! But you actually said that I'm not worthy to step in!'

Holding his breath, Jordan finally stepped into Room 1111 of this "distinguished five-star hotel".

He looked around. This expensive room was quite spacious.

Jordan and Shaun had enough places to hide.

Shaun did not touch anything in the room, afraid that Tyler would notice something amiss when he came in later.

"Jordan, how do you want me to deal with Tyler later?"

Jordan replied, "You're good at mind control. In addition, you have some drugs on you. Just knock him out for a while and make him think that he slept with Hailey."

Jordan did not comment. Shaun really understood Jordan.

That's right. If he didn't care about the consequences, Jordan wouldn't have to do things in such a complicated manner. Sneaking into this room in advance, drugging Tyler and influencing his memories.

With Jordan's ability, killing Tyler was as easy as stepping on an ant.

However, he couldn't do that.

Because what should happen had already happened. What had already happened could not be changed.

Tyler's fate was to be castrated by Jordan in the future. He could not die now.

If Jordan killed Tyler now, he would end up creating a parallel universe.

It would not help save Victoria.

Sniff sniff sniff.

Jordan suddenly sniffed hard because he detected a very familiar fragrance.

That aphrodisiacal scent...

Jordan looked at Shaun and saw that he was indeed releasing the scent.

Jordan cursed. "Shaun, what are you doing?! Why are you spraying this aphrodisiacal scent?!"

Jordan was all too familiar with this scent. It had filled that special room in Switzerland. This was also the culprit behind Jordan and Lota's relationship.

Jordan suddenly recalled the recording of "Tyler" and Hailey.

'No wonder an innocent girl like Hailey became so open-minded. It was because Shaun sprayed this scent.'

At 10 AM, Jordan and Shaun heard the door open and hurriedly hid.

A familiar figure walked in. It was Tyler!

Tyler looked excited. After walking in, he sniffed the air.

"Yo, this room smells good. Not bad. I like this fragrance. Haha."

Tyler walked to the middle of the room and did a few push-ups and squats.

He muttered to himself. "Hehe, Hailey, I've pursued you for so long. I'm finally going to subdue you! The number one beauty in Orlando married a useless delivery man. What a f*cking waste. That piece of trash is not worthy of having a wife like you!"

Tyler picked up the phone and called someone.

"Hello Lenny, do you know who's in charge of UberEats in Orlando?"

"Oh, I wanted to ask if I could order takeout to be delivered by a specific delivery man. But I don't want him to know that I specially requested him. Let him think that it was a random assignment. Can you really help me settle it? Alright, I'll leave it to you!"

“The delivery man I want is Jordan Steele from Ubereats!”

Chapter 916: Cripple Him First!

Jordan and Shaun, who were hiding in the hotel room’s closet, were shocked.

It turned out that it was not a coincidence that Jordan would be delivering takeout later. Tyler purposely arranged it!

Shaun said in surprise, “Tyler is really courting death. He deliberately arranged for you to deliver takeout so that you can see with your own eyes that your wife slept with him. He wouldn’t have ended up in such a wretched state in the future if he didn’t do that.”

Tyler relied on his status as a rich second-generation heir to look down on Jordan. Little did he know that this would become a turning point in his life.

Jordan was also furious. Tyler was too arrogant!

Actually, he already found it strange when he received this order two years ago.

This was because very few guests who stayed in five-star hotels would order takeout. Wouldn’t a five-star hotel have all sorts of delicious food?

He finally realized now that Tyler had deliberately arranged it.

However, two years on, Jordan was grateful to Tyler for doing this.

If Tyler hadn’t done that, Jordan wouldn’t have found out about Hailey’s affair today.

At night, Jordan would confess his identity to her and tell her that he was a billionaire.

In that case, wouldn’t Hailey be so happy that she could fly into the sky? She would definitely be obedient to Jordan and be his good wife from then on. The two of them would not get a divorce.

If that was the case, even if he met Victoria tomorrow and was attracted by her aura as a female CEO, Jordan and Victoria would not be together.

Jordan was a faithful man. Since he already had a wife, he would not mess around anymore.

Jordan sighed happily.

After Tyler ended the call, he basked in his evil plan for a while before suddenly thinking of another problem.

“No, it’s not enough to just specify Hailey’s husband to deliver my takeout. This is a five-star hotel. The hotel won’t allow delivery men to come to the rooms. If Hailey’s husband doesn’t come up, he wouldn’t see us.”

Tyler walked to the landline by the bed and picked up the phone to call the front desk.

Tyler said, “Hello, is this the front desk? I’m a customer from room 1111. I’m going to order a food delivery later. Get the delivery man to send it directly to my room, do you hear me?”

The receptionist said, “Sir, are you dissatisfied with our food? We’ve hired the best chefs in Orlando.”

Tyler said impatiently, “I want to eat street food. I don’t want to eat your high-end dishes. Do you have any in your hotel? Stop talking nonsense. Before I leave, I’ll give you a hundred dollars as a tip.”

The receptionist said, “Ah, thank you, sir. Alright, I’ll personally bring the takeout to your room after it’s delivered.”

The service in a five-star hotel was very good. Some hotels would even have staff who would press the elevator buttons for you.

Tyler quickly said, “No, I don’t want you to deliver it. I want the delivery man to deliver it personally. He has to deliver it personally, do you hear me?”

The receptionist said, “Alright, I understand. I’ll do as you instructed.”

Satisfied, Tyler hung up the phone.

“Hehe, Jordan, don’t blame me for being so ruthless. But a poor man like you is worthy of having a one-in-a-million beauty like Hailey. You’re occupying a place you don’t deserve, so you have to bear the humiliation!”

In the closet, Jordan clenched his fists. He wished he could rush out of the closet and beat Tyler to death.

Shaun quickly advised. “Jordan, calm down. Anyway, you’re going to castrate him in the future. Let him be smug for a while more. It won’t be long before he’s castrated.”

Jordan still felt that it was not enough to vent his anger. He wanted Tyler to be punished immediately!

Jordan asked, "Can I kill him first before reviving him?"

Shaun was speechless.

The medical skills of the eight great families were brilliant. They indeed had the ability to revive someone.

Shaun said, "Why don't we beat him until he's half-crippled? I have medicine that can quickly heal the body. He will recover very fast."

Jordan nodded.

At 11 AM, Hailey finally arrived.

Knock knock!

Hailey knocked on the door.

Tyler quickly went to open the door. When he saw Hailey wearing a sexy black dress, his heart surged with lust and emotion.

Tyler hugged Hailey the moment she entered the room.

Influenced by the scent in the room, Tyler couldn't hold back when he saw Hailey.

Hailey immediately broke free from Tyler's embrace. "Tyler, don't be like this. Take a look at the business contract and the proposal first. Our family business has been growing steadily over the past few years. If you invest in projects with us, we guarantee that you will make money!"

Hailey took out the contract from her bag and showed it to Tyler.

Tyler picked up the contract and tossed it behind him. "Hailey, I don't care if I make money or not. As long as I can get you, I'm willing to pay for it!"

Hailey felt rather abashed. Suddenly, she detected the aphrodisiacal scent in the room and felt that something was wrong.

"Tyler, what did you spray in the room? Why do I smell something strange? Did you..."

Tyler felt a little guilty because he could also feel that this scent was no ordinary fragrance. After inhaling it over a period of time, it would make one fall head over heels in love.

Of course Hailey didn’t believe him. However, since she was already here, she didn’t care too much if Tyler played some tricks.

Hailey said, “Let’s have a drink first. I... I’m a little nervous.”

Tyler smiled. “Hahaha, alright. Have a drink first. There’s no hurry!”

Clink.

Tyler smiled again. “Damn, Hailey, your alcohol tolerance is not bad. Come, come, let’s make another toast.”

Tyler quickly poured another glass for her.

Hailey pretended to be shy. “Annoying. Are you trying to get me drunk? My alcohol tolerance is very low. I’ll feel dizzy after only one drink.”

“Come on, have a little more. This red wine is just like soda. It won’t make you drunk.”

After drinking three glasses of red wine, Hailey’s face turned red and she felt a little dizzy.
