

Quick Explanation!

HI GUYS!

So like many, I have fallen into the clutches of the Eternals and especially Druig.... So I have decided to attempt a fanfiction! Now, I will be going in the direction of a human love interest and an interesting plot twist (or not that interesting actually) towards the end...

My story will be based on the movie and a little more, and I won't exactly follow a true marvel comic experience so I hope that is okay! I want to add a little spin to the end to which I think could technically work... (well at least for me hehe)

I hope you all enjoy my little story!
