/ The Alpha's Mysterious Mate by Audrey W
Tessa's POV:

Thankfully, the doctor said that my injuries were not too serious. I would just have to change the dressing on the wounds every day myself.

When I got discharged, Alvin picked me up. He then asked me out for dinner tonight.

I honestly looked forward to it. I agreed and Alvin said that he would pick me up at 6 o'clock. That meant that I had two hours to get ready.

Immediately, I called Patricia to help me get dressed. She picked out a silky, black, and backless dress for me.

At first, I thought that I would be too overdressed if I wore this. I thought it was just going to be an ordinary date.

But Patricia insisted, saying that the dress suited me, and asked me to try it on.

While changing, I heard Patricia gasp out loud.

"Patricia, what's wrong? Are you okay?"

"Tessa, come quick. I have news for you."

Patricia tended to exaggerate on normal things, so I didn't really take her seriously.

After changing into the dress, I walked over to her.

"What news are you talking about?"

"It's about your man, Tessa. Here, have a look."

Patricia handed me her phone.

With both her hands now free, she started to work on my hair.

If anyone would be first to know about any gossip in the Red Maple Pack, it would be none other than Patricia.

After all, she always browsed the gossip section of the pack's home website.

The headline on her phone said, "Beta Alvin, spotted running out from premature ejaculation, perhaps?"

I quickly scrolled down to read more.

The article reported that Alvin was seen at the Haagen-Dazs store very early this morning, but he left in less than three minutes, looking to be in a rush.

Two pictures were included.

One was a woman in revealing clothes holding Alvin's wrist at the door of the shop.

The other was Alvin running out the shop with a tub of ice cream in his hands.

Obviously, I knew why Alvin was there.

But who was that other woman pictured with him? Why was she wearing such clothes so early in the morning? Why was she even holding Alvin's wrist? I wondered what happened between them in the shop.

"Tessa, what do you think about the article? Is it true that Alvin is impotent?"

"I...I don't know...But do you know who this other woman in the picture is?"

"No, I don't. But I can ask around. I'll send that photo to my friends. They should be able to tell me. So, do you still want to go on a date with Alvin?"

"Yes! I do, Patricia."

"Well then, I support you! Ta-da, all done with your hair! Now, let's just add a little color to your face."

Before Patricia even got to finish my makeup, her phone had already buzzed with responses from her friends.

It turned out that the lady at the ice cream shop was Nancy.

She worked in the shop and was known to have quite a promiscuous lifestyle.

A few months ago, she and Alvin were spotted at the same shop during late nights.

"Patricia, don't tell Alvin that I found out about it. I'll talk to him about it myself tonight."

"Okay, Tessa. But if you need any more help, just contact me. My friends and I would love to offer help any time."

"Well... Can you and your friends help me know who else Alvin had slept with in the past?"

"I think we can do that. It'll be a long list, though. But I'll tell my friends about it and we'll get started on it right away!"

I couldn't believe this was how Alvin lived his life. I would surely have to confront him about this! At exactly 6 o'clock, the doorbell rang.

It was Alvin, ready to pick me up for our date. He wore a black polo shirt paired with black suit pants.

Seeing what we were both wearing, he laughed in such a charming way.

"Aw, look, your clothes are matching!" Patricia squealed with excitement.

"Well, I'm not staying to be the third wheel around here. I should go now."

Patricia walked past Alvin and gave him a pat on the shoulder.

"Enjoy your dinner, Beta!"

Once Patricia was out of sight, Alvin looked back at me with a riveting stare.

"Wow, can I... take a picture with you? I just want to prove to my friends that angels do exist."

Humph! What a sweet-talker. I rolled my eyes, but didn't refuse.

He took out his phone and scooted closer to me. We posed for a selfie together.

Alvin then drove us to a 3-Michelin-star restaurant, where he had reserved a table just for us.

"Look, I saw a beautiful girl just now. I've never seen such a stunning lady before," said Alvin.

"Oh, really? Where is she?"

"On your right. But don't look too hard, she might notice us." I turned my head to the right, but saw nobody.

"Look a little further." I continued looking until I saw a mirror, my reflection staring back at me.

I rolled my eyes again, but I couldn't hide the fact that I blushed. Perhaps he had used this trick on his other girls. Alvin raised his hand to call the waiter.

The waiter came and handed each of us a menu.

I wasn't really the type to go to these kinds of restaurants, so I wasn't sure what to order.

Maybe I would just have what Alvin would get.

But I looked at Alvin and he wasn't even opening his menu, only staring at me.

"Aren't you going to see what to order?"

"I'll have whatever you're having, honey."

"My name is Tessa, not Honey," I said firmly.

I wasn't going to fall for his sweet nicknames. I glanced at the waiter, who was trying not to laugh.

Alvin coughed, trying to cover up his embarrassment.

"Well, I guess I'll order for us, then. We'll have two specialty steaks, one bowl of seafood soup, one bowl of tricholoma matsutake mushroom soup, two servings of foie gras, and finally, two servings of vanilla ice cream for dessert. Are all those okay with you, or are you allergic to any of them?" I looked at Alvin.

"They are all good. I guess we have compatible tastes in food."

He wiggled his eyebrows at me. I rolled my eyes for the third time tonight.

"How about some red wine?" the waiter offered.

"No, I don't think the lady would"

"Yes please, a bottle of wine on your recommendation," I said, interrupting Alvin.

I wasn't even sure if I wanted wine, but I just wanted to go against him sometimes.

"Alright. The dishes should be served soon. Please wait here."

Once the waiter left, Alvin started the conversation again.

"Honey, I remember you kissing me before you fainted last night. You should do something about that."

"Oh, yeah? What do you want me to do about it?"

"Just accept the arrangement of the Moon Goddess. Simple as that," he said and shrugged his shoulders.

"Alvin, I still need time to think about all of this very carefully."

"Okay, so how much time will you need? Twelve hours? Twenty-four hours?"

"Depends, really."

"You just can't decide yet, can you? Well then, let me kiss you. Then we'll be even."

He stood up to lean in for a kiss.

"Hello, sir and ma'am. Your food is ready."

The waiter placed numerous plates on our table, just in time. I let out a sigh of relief.

But Alvin didn't stay in his seat. He walked behind me and picked up my knife and fork, slicing my steak for me.

I sat in disbelief, not expecting this action from him.

My hands nervously toyed with the hem of my dress as I blushed.

When Alvin finished slicing my steak, he bent down and kissed the top of my head.

Blood rushed to my cheeks again.

Wow, this playboy really knew how to please a girl! "Okay. Now, we're even."

Alvin smiled smugly. I pursed my lips and took a sip of wine to avoid responding.

During dinner, Alvin told me lots of stories and interesting facts about his different travels.

He was quite the talker.

No wonder it was easy for girls to like him.

"Two servings of vanilla ice cream for dessert, sir and ma'am."

The waiter cleaned out our plates and placed the ice cream before us.

"By the way, how were you able to get the ice cream this morning? Ice cream shops aren't usually open until later, right?"

I took a spoonful of ice cream and asked innocently.

“Yes, I knocked on many shops and they were either closed or the ice creams were sold out. Then I remembered I had an acquaintance who worked in Haagen-Dazs, so I called her up and she was able to give me some.”

“Oh, her?” I frowned and raised my brow.

“Yes...She was an old friend.”

“Well, I’m really sorry for causing trouble to you and your friend. Tell Nancy thank you for me, will you?”

Oh, Alvin. I already had a list of all the women you’d slept with the past year that Patricia gave to me. You just wait and see

Alvin’s POV:

I finally got to ask Tessa out for dinner and she agreed to let me pick her up. I was already at her door earlier than expected.

But I waited until the clock struck six exactly to knock. Patricia was with Tessa inside.

Before she left, she tapped me and said, “Enjoy your dinner, Beta!”

That was weird. But that was Patricia. She was always strange and unpredictable.

Tessa was wearing a black dress that fit her perfectly.

I also happened to be wearing an all-black outfit. I asked her to take a picture with me.

We looked so good together in the picture! When Tessa accepted me as her mate, I would post this on Facebook for sure.

I wanted to let the whole world know about her.

However, Tessa was still acting so cold and even went against me when ordering food. Her harsh tone made me uncomfortable at times.

When she talked about ice cream, my heart started to beat faster.

I didn't know whether I should tell her about Nancy.

Maybe I just didn't have enough courage to tell her everything.

"Well, I'm really sorry for causing trouble to you and your friend. Tell Nancy thank you for me, will you?"

When Tessa said Nancy's name, I thought I was hearing things.

It turned out that Tessa already knew about Nancy before I could even tell her. I should have just told her.

The truth was that nothing happened between Nancy and me this morning.

My decision to hide it was a mistake and would now cause Tessa to misunderstand me.

"Wait, you... How do you know about Nancy? Tessa, I... Let me explain, please."

I stammered through my words from being nervous.

Tessa stared at me and didn't reply. I took the opportunity to tell her everything that happened this morning.

To help prove the truth to my story, I showed her the call history on my phone.

"Wow! I'm sure you must have enjoyed those thrilling games of sex very much, right?"

"Tessa, I swear to you. Ever since I knew you are my mate, I have committed to giving up my old lifestyle. I have never slept with another woman since I saw you."

"Okay, Beta Alvin, how about playing a game?"

When Tessa called me Beta Alvin, I knew she wasn't happy with me. I didn't want to play games. I wanted to prove to her my innocence, but I had no choice.

"Fine, sounds good. What game do you want to play?"

"Truth or Dare!"

I wanted to refuse.

I used to fool around with women using those games.

Now I was the one who was being played by Tessa.

"You don't dare to play this game, do you?" Tessa raised a taunting eyebrow.

"Well, let's see! Bring it on, Tessa. You ask first." I was risking everything now.

"Okay. Truth or Dare?"

"Truth,"

"Tell me about your relationship with Dora and Doreen. Fuck, how did Tessa know about the twins? "

"I... dated them both before, but it was a misunderstanding. I was just going out with Dora at first. She didn't tell me that she had a twin sister. When I first met Doreen, I didn't realize that she wasn't Dora. Doreen didn't refuse my advances, either. Later on, the relationship got too complicated."

"Have you even been in a threesome with them?"

"This round is over, baby. Your turn now. Truth or Dare?"

"Hmm... Truth."

"Actually, I'm not really sure what to ask you. I'll just ask whatever comes to my mind right now. What's your love story?"

"That's too vague of a question! Ask me something more specific."

"Well... Have you dated a lot of men before?"

"Okay, one by one. My first love was this handsome boy in my class three years ago. I confessed to him, only to find out that he wasn't interested in women. He was gay. Last year, I had a boyfriend. It was just our first date, but he already took me to a hotel room that night. He wanted to have sex with me without a condom on. I didn't feel safe. We broke up shortly after."

"So, did you ever have sex with him?"

"Sorry, Alvin. This round is over and it's your turn. Truth or Dare?"

"Dare this time!"

If I chose truth again, Tessa would definitely ask more about the twins.

I knew I wouldn't be able to keep these things from Tessa forever, but I should at least use some delaying tactics.

"Okay. Call Doreen and ask her out now!"

"What?! Can I change to truth instead?"

"Fine, but this is your only chance. Have you been in a threesome with the twins?"

"I... Yes."

Tessa's face darkened immediately. She clenched her fists, obviously disgusted by this information.

"Tessa, are you... Shall we continue on?"

"Fine, go on!"

"Okay... I... I have no question for you now. You can just ask me any question."

"Don't you want to know if I had sex with my ex- boyfriend?"

"I do, but I decided that it doesn't matter to me anymore, Tessa. No matter what happened between you and other men in the past, it will not affect the way I feel about you."

Tessa stared at me, speechless.

After moments of silence, she finally spoke up again.

She brought up the news article that she read earlier.

"What? How can I suffer from premature ejaculation? That's simply impossible and slanderous!" Tessa burst out laughing.

"Of everything that was in the article, that's what you care about?"

"You're right. Well, forget what it says. The whole world can misunderstand me and gossip about me, but nothing matters as long as you believe me. Okay? Let's keep playing."

"No, I think the game's over now. We should head home, Alvin." Tessa's tone was gentle now.

It was the first time she had let go of her harsh tones. Tessa stayed silent the whole ride back.

When I walked her back to her room, I saw that she wanted to say something but hesitated, so I asked her directly instead.

"Is there something else you want to ask about me, Tessa?"

"Yes, actually. It's about you and Kate. What happened between the two of you?"

"Nothing.Nothing happened.She only tried to seduce me the night before the Luna Ceremony."

~Flashback~

The Luna Ceremony was hours away.I was working very late since I was tasked to be the head of security.I had to make sure that everything was ready for tomorrow.

As a Beta, it was my duty to protect the whole pack alongside the Alpha.I was running through my plans of security once again.

Once I was about to finish, I suddenly received a call from Kate.

She was threatening that if I wouldn't agree to meet her, something was going to go wrong with tomorrow's ceremony.

My instincts told me that she was just a troublemaking bitch who was all bark and no bite.So, I didn't take her seriously.

But then she said that she knew about Serena's identity.

Only then did I consider her an actual threat and asked her to come to my office.

"Hello, Beta Alvin.Long time no see."

Kate walked into my office, swaying her hips side to side in perfect rhythm.

"How do you know about Serena's identity? What do you know about it?"

I wasn't planning to waste time, so I was being straightforward.

"Oh, it doesn't matter, I guess."

"Why did you want to meet up with me?"

"I just miss you, that's all.My friends at the bar say that the Beta hasn't been having fun there recently."

She then snaked her hands around my neck.

"What do you think you're doing? Get out of my office if you have nothing to say to me!" I pushed her hands off of me.

"Don't you want to know how I got my knowledge on Serena's identity? Be nice to me, then."

"Don't play tricks on me, Kate.Get out."

In order to make sure that she wouldn't cause any more trouble inside the Maple House, I dragged her out of my office and escorted her downstairs myself.

~End of flashback~

I explained everything to Tessa.

"How do you know about all these women, Tessa?"

"I...have a list of all the women you've been spotted with.It has the names of the twins, Nancy, Kate, and others.I was even sent photos of you and the women."

"Was Patricia the one who gave it to you? Ugh, no wonder she was being strangely nice to me before leaving.I'll teach her a lesson when I see her."

"No, no.Don't do that.It's not Patricia's fault.I was the one who asked for it."

"Hmm, I get it.You need to understand a man's past before accepting him.That's what you wanted to do, right?"

Tessa pursed her lips and didn't answer.

I stepped forward and she leaned back against her door.

I was going to kiss her.

Slowly, I approached closer and closer, and she wasn't dodging me this time.

The Alpha's Mysterious Mate by Audrey W Chapter 46

/ The Alpha's Mysterious Mate by Audrey W
Peter's POV:

We took a plane to California first.A modified Humvee was waiting for us when we landed and we drove straight to Sierra Nevada.

After a few hours on the road, we had finally arrived at the valley beside the forest.Personally, I believed it was a great idea to revisit Serena's hometown for our honeymoon.

This was the place where Serena and I met each other for the first time.Nine years had passed, yet this place hadn't changed much.

Aside from some trees looking taller and thicker, it looked the same.

Serena and I had found the spot by the river, where we had separated.

With our hands intertwined, we entered the forest together.

Even though I had grown a lot since I was last here, the forest still felt huge to me.

Anyone who was not used to this forest would surely get lost.

It was a good thing that Serena still recognized all the special markings.

She led the way and eventually, we had arrived at her old house.

It was a log cabin.

The door was locked, but Serena knew that there was always a key hidden underneath the floor rug.

She told me that it was for her sake that her family wanted to move to the city.

She had spent most of her childhood in the forest.

Occasionally, only her uncle and his adopted son came to visit and even lived with them for a period of time.

Most of the time, she was alone, but she was still able to enjoy herself in the forest and the lake.

When she met me the first time, she wanted badly to go to the outside world, so that she could make new friends.

Later on, her parents went to the city to look for a place.

There, her parents' identities were exposed.

They were killed mercilessly.

"If your parents could see you right now, they would be so happy to see you living a good life. Just think about it that way, honey."

When I noticed that she was starting to get sad, I wrapped Serena in my arms and comforted her.

"I know. I'll be fine. I'm just...worried about my identity. I'm a hybrid. Now, I'm an adult, too. As I get older, the vampire scent on my body will get more and more obvious. If the other packs find out about this, I'm afraid it will just bring trouble to you and the whole Red Maple Pack."

"Honey, you have to remember that it was the Moon Goddess who arranged us to be together, which means that she accepted you. Don't overthink it," I kissed her forehead.

Although, I knew that Serena's worries were warranted.

Once her identity would get exposed to the public, there would surely be great trouble.

But no matter what would happen, I swore to protect her.

After spending a few minutes in the house, Serena then said she would take me to her secret spot.

We walked out of the house and transformed into wolves before running off.

Serena ran effortlessly ahead of me, swift as a lightning bolt.

Nate could not wait to catch up to Molly the moment he saw her.

We frolicked through the woods.

We even ran up the mountain.

Finally, Serena led us into the depths of the forest.

I kept running until I saw her stop at a clear, still lake.

Right in the middle of the forest was a peaceful lake.

From time to time, groups of birds would fly over us.

Just as Nate was about to catch up to Molly, Serena transformed back into her human_ form, revealing her naked body.

I stopped Nate, and turned back into my human form as well.

When I gazed at Serena's body, my dick had immediately gone hard.

Serena saw this and raised her eyebrows, stepping into the lake and swimming to the center.

She looked like a little fish swimming about.

I ran over, jumped up, and fell into the water, creating a large splash. Warmed by the morning sun, the lake's waters felt just right.

Not too cold, not too hot.

"Come catch me." Serena giggled flirtatiously.

When I moved toward her, she tried to run away. I swam and quickly caught her.

“Do you still want to run away from me, baby?”

I wrapped Serena tightly with my strong arms, my dick rubbing against her body from time to time.

Whenever I felt her skin on my dick, I felt limp and numb all over, as if an electric current shot through me.

We embraced each other with our bare bodies.

Serena silently cherished the moment.

She pulled my head down and we began to kiss.

Our tongues intertwined, exploring in each other’s mouth mischievously.

We could feel each other’s desire radiating from our bodies, wanting to fuse as one.

My tongue travelled its way to Serena’s ear.

I knew that Serena’s ears were a sensitive part of her body.

My lips gently nibbled on her earlobes, my warm breath tickling her neck.

Serena raised her head and moaned.

“Oh my God, Peter, you make my ears want to reach orgasm.” I leaned down to kiss Serena’s neck.

My tongue explored every inch of her neck, and I licked it with a greedy passion.

Lowering my head even more, I buried my face between her plump breasts and sucked on them.

I gently nibbled on her pink nipples.

It was as if Serena and I were the only people in this quiet world.

Finally, we could have some long-awaited alone time.

My lower body was underwater, and my dick was still hard. It was eager to go inside where it belonged. I picked up Serena. I carried her to the shallow waters, where the water only reached my knees.

“Pet, fuck me. I want you now.” Serena’s hand held my dick, rubbing it up and down.

I felt so alive with pleasure!

Serena's POV:

I grabbed Peter's dick. Its warmth made me even wetter. I began to imagine how great it felt when Peter thrust his dick in me. Peter's hand went down to my pussy and his fingers stroked it up and down.

"Oh, that's it. That feels so good."

My pussy was getting warmer than ever.

Soon enough, his fingers couldn't satisfy me anymore.

Only Peter's dick could fill me with pleasure.

I looked at Peter and he immediately understood what I wanted.

"The queen is hungry and must be fed now."

I jumped up and wrapped my legs around Peter's waist, snaking my arms around his neck. He aimed his dick at my pussy.

I might need some guidance in this position. Peter kept rubbing his hard penis against my pussy, but he refused to insert it in me.

I felt how absolutely wet my pussy was from the way his dick smoothly gilded. He was definitely torturing me.

Peter grabbed my ass and adjusted his position.

Unable to wait any longer, I held his penis and inserted it into my vagina.

I felt my vagina being filled up with pleasure.

It used to be an empty void, but Peter was here now to fill the emptiness.

Peter started to push inside of me.

His thrusts were slow, but each time he seemed to go deeper than the last.

An infinite sense of pleasure coursed through my body. I let out a louder moan.

"Oh my God! Oh, Peter!"

As Peter's dick slid in and out, I screamed at the top of my lungs.

"How do you like that, baby?"

"I love it, Pet. That's it. Keep going! Harder!"

Peter sped up his pace.

Every time he thrust his dick into the deepest part of my vagina, I could not help but raise my head and enjoy each wave of pleasure.

For a moment, I even felt that I would pass out. My mind had gone blank, only pleasure had filled it.

"I'm yours, baby. You feel so good. Oh my God!"

I moaned again and again. I grabbed Peter's hand and put it on my breast.

He gladly massaged it with passion.

"Ah, ah! I feel like I'm about to reach orgasm," I screamed and bit my lip.

"So quick, baby? I'm not done yet," said Peter, pressing himself against me more forcefully.

In the quiet lake, our cries had probably resounded through the valley.

"Oh, my God! I can't take it anymore!" I exclaimed.

My legs were already shaking.

Peter adjusted his posture and thrust my ass towards him, so that he could slide in and out faster.

"I'm about to come, too, baby."

Peter thrust hard one last time.

With a heavy grunt, he finally stopped.

I felt a warm current flow in the depths of my vagina, and my body quivered as if I had a spasm.

Inside of me, I could also feel Peter's dick tremble.

Peter stopped, but he still didn't slide out of me.

With me still in his arms, he brought us to the grass near the lake.

He laid his back on the grass, and I was lying on top of him.

"Baby, I love you so much," Peter said in between gasps for air.

"I love you, too, Pet."

I kissed his cheek and got up. Some liquid flowed down my thighs.

Peter caught my hand and pulled me back. I fell on top of him.

"What about a round two, baby?"

I felt Peter's dick harden underneath me.

This time, he stayed lying down, I got into a sitting position and inserted his dick into me, bouncing up and down on it.

I found my rhythm and felt like a cowgirl riding her noble steed named Peter.

/ The Alpha's Mysterious Mate by Audrey W
Camille's POV:

After leaving the airport, I booked myself a room in a luxury hotel just within the city. I planned to stay there for quite a long time.

Serena's Luna Ceremony was finally over. Many people had begun to accept her and give their blessing.

I did not have enough time to stop the ceremony even if I wanted to.

I gritted my teeth in hatred.

At least, that stupid bitch Kate had successfully released Henry. However, I did not expect that all the wizards would get killed that night.

"You see, Camille, it was just a small, useless trick,"

Elaine told me.

"I know, I know. It's still better than nothing, though."

"And even if they did succeed with the sneak attack, what would that do to help you with your goal? How would that help in winning Peter's affections?"

"I have to kill Serena first, don't I?"

"Even if Serena did get killed or caught by the wizards, it still would not change the fact that Peter's heart is hers. You might be able to take Serena's place somehow, but you still won't be able to win his love."

"Fine, then what other ideas do you have?"

"I think you need someone powerful on your side."

"Are you talking about the dark witches?"

"Yes. Serena obviously has the Moon Goddess and even the Luck Goddess on her side, so you need someone who can even the playing field."

Elaine was right.

I did need the help of someone powerful.

I happened to know some witches.

Each of them had different abilities and specializations in practicing black magic.

I then remembered a witch named Hecate.

Before she passed away, my grandmother told me about her.

Granny said that Hecate was a very powerful dark witch.

Not only was she good at black magic, she also specialized in magical medicines.

She was known to be a close family friend.

Although, not many people in my family knew about her.

Granny told me to only seek Hecate if I was left with no other choice.

I dialed the number that Granny gave me, and a creepy voice answered the call.

"Hello, who is it?"

"Hello, ma'am. This is Camille Aquitaine. I need your help."

The voice sounded like it came from a very old woman, which gave me some doubt.

Was this old woman really the most powerful dark witch in the world? "Oh, a descendant of the Aquitaine family. I do owe your family a favor... What can I do for you, young lady?"

"I need your help to get two werewolves to break up with each other, but they have already become mates."

"Hmm, I know what you mean. It seems that you are at the age when young people go crazy for love. But since I owe your family a favor, I will help you with this. Who are these werewolves you speak of?"

"Peter Westwick and Serena Meester. They are both from the Red Maple Pack. Peter is my love. I want to be his mate. I'm supposed to be his Luna!"

"Dear, I can only promise to try and separate them. However, I cannot guarantee that Peter Westwick will love you. Love is something that can only happen organically. Magic cannot fake love."

"Well, as long as you help me get Peter and Serena to break up, then I can take it from there. Besides, Serena is a hybrid. She doesn't deserve to be with Peter. There is also this other woman named Kate in the picture, but she is just a pawn to me. She thinks she is in the competition, but she is no match for me at all. Peter will be mine, whatever it takes."

"Oh, a hybrid? It's not going to be as simple as you would think, then. This is not an easy feat. We will need a long-term plan and prepare meticulously for this to work perfectly."

"I'm willing to wait, just as long as Peter will truly be mine."

"You mentioned this girl Kate. She could be useful to us. Tell me about her." I explained to Hecate everything about Kate.

"Another girl crazy in love, it seems. But unlike you, she is brainless. How convenient for you, ha-ha..."

Her dark laugh sent me shuddering.

Kate's POV:

Ding dong!

My doorbell rang. I opened the door and looked down to see a package. Judging by the wrapping, it was an intra-city package. There was no name, but I knew it was from my mysterious ally.

So, it seemed that this ally was within the same city.

I tore open the package, and inside was a large bag. I didn't know what it was for.

"I've received the parcel already. What's this liquid inside? What do we do next?" I texted my ally.

Soon, my ally sent me a detailed plan.

This plan was great, I would admit.

Why hadn't I thought of it myself? This way, two birds would be killed with one stone.

It wouldn't be a fatal blow for Serena and Tessa, but it would surely scare them to their bones.

"How can I trust you? Will this liquid medicine actually hurt others?"

"I don't think you have any other choice but to trust me."

"Can't we meet each other first?"

"No, it's not the right time yet."

Every time I would plan something, it would always fail.

It turned out that winning Peter's heart was going to be harder than I thought.

I thought I could try approaching Alvin first.

On the night before the Luna Ceremony, I walked into Alvin's office.

I saw that there was still no mark on his neck.

I still had a chance.

However, no matter how hard I tried, Alvin refused all my advances.

This wasn't the Alvin I knew. The Alpha's Mysterious Mate by Audrey W Chapter 47

I was at a disbelief how such a playboy could suddenly stop himself from the temptations in front of him! Did it mean that he had really fallen in love with Tessa? No, I needed to win his affections.

The only ones that stood in my way were Tessa and Serena.

Without them, I could get anything I wanted.

It seemed that this mysterious ally of mine knew everyone in this pack.

Who the hell was this person? There was no one that came to my mind at all.

I wanted so bad to find out who this person was and why they were ordering me to do this.

However, I eventually decided to push those thoughts aside and not make a problem out of it.

All I knew was that I needed the help of this ally, and from what I knew so far, they were quite capable.

Tessa's POV:

"Come on, Alvin. Hurry!" It was already dusk.

I transformed into Ivy and ran to the mountains.

We might be able to catch the sunset if we ran faster.

"Right behind you, Tessa."

I led Alvin into a lush forest.

This was my secret place.

"Have you ever been to the highest point in our pack's territory??"

"We can't really go to that place, right?"

Alvin turned to look at me with confusion.

"Perhaps others can't, but I can. Follow me. It's still quite a distance from here."

We ran up the mountain as fast as we could.

The sun was beginning to set on the mountain peak, which was not so far away from us.

I looked behind me and saw the golden light shine majestically on Adonis.

Adonis was quite the handsome wolf.

He tried multiple times to pounce on Ivy and play with her, but Ivy dodged in disgust.

I chuckled to myself, amused by his futile attempts.

It seemed that Ivy still hadn't fully accepted Adonis just yet, which was completely fine.

It was still early in the relationship, after all.

She needed time.

When we were about to reach the end of the road, I led Alvin into a secret passage.

We exited the other side of the secret passage.

The surroundings gradually became open and clear.

We had finally reached the peak.

"Whoa... This is beautiful. How did you even find this place, Tessa?"

"Ivy likes to run long distances. We stumbled upon this place during one of our runs. The secret passage we just took was also one of my accidental finds."

Before I finished my reply, Alvin had already transformed back into his human form.

This was the first time I had ever seen a naked man before me.

I found myself quite enamored with Alvin's body.

He wasn't the most muscular man in the pack, but he still looked very strong and well-proportioned.

I knew I would have no problem looking at it all day.

I felt my cheeks turn red.

This seemed a little too much.

Alvin and I had only started to see each other very recently.

I hid behind a big stone, turned back into human form, and put on a cloak.

"Tessa, I love you!"

Alvin screamed into the wild.

His scream had scared off some birds, the sound of flapping wings filling the air.

Soon, night had fallen, and there were finally stars in the sky.

The Perseid meteor shower was going to happen tonight, and I just knew this spot would be the perfect place to witness it.

We lay by each other on the grass, chatting while waiting for the meteor shower.

Not long after, the first meteor appeared in the sky.

It flew across the sky and disappeared into the night, reminding me of the fickleness of fate.

“Look!”

I pointed at the sky as more meteors appeared.

“You know, they say that if you make a wish on a meteor, it will come true,” Alvin smiled.

“First, you must close your eyes.”

I obeyed and closed my eyes, silently making a wish.

“What did you wish for?” Alvin asked cheekily.

“Of course, I won’t tell you! It has to be a secret, or else it won’t come true.”

“Well, I made a wish that will surely happen immediately.”

“Oh, really? What was your wish?”

“I just wished for a kiss,” Alvin turned to me.

I smiled and pulled him closer to me.

Our lips met in the middle, coming together in a passionate kiss.

Something about Alvin’s scent completely captivated me and made me want to pull him closer.

Our tongues intertwined with one another, our heads moving in perfect harmony.

Alvin’s hands explored around my body.

He reached in between my legs and found that it was wet.

I blushed, feeling a little embarrassed.

Up until now, I was still a virgin.

But my desires guided me on how to respond to Alvin as my hand gently caressed his body.

Eventually, my hand reached for the thing between his legs.

It felt like a warm snake to the touch.

My shyness had gotten the better of me again, making me withdraw my hand. My face turned red and I started to feel giddy. I let out a soft chuckle.

"What's so funny, Tessa?" He looked at me strangely.

"I just...I've never touched...That."

"Touched what?"

"This." My hand held his dick again.

It seemed to grow longer and thicker in my hand.

"Oh, you naughty girl!" Alvin moaned with pleasure.

"Does that feel good for you, Alvin?"

"Yes, yes! I want more, Tessa."

My hand grabbed it again, only this time I moved my hand rhythmically in an up and down motion.

"Wow, it seems to get bigger and bigger!"

"Of course. It's because you're holding it."

Alvin's hand found its way onto my breast and gently massaged it.

His other hand stayed on my labia, stroking it gently. It felt so damn good.

I couldn't stand just being like this anymore.

"Alvin, I want it now. Give it to me."

"No, baby, I'll give it to you next time. For now, let me pleasure you with just my hands."

Alvin's fingers stroked faster and faster, leading me to feel overwhelming waves of pleasure all throughout my body.

"Oh, God! I think I'm going to come!" I shouted at the top of my lungs.

We moaned in pleasure together, without a care for how loudly it echoed through the woods.

Following Alvin's pace on my pussy, I increased the speed of my hand on his penis.

Alvin's POV:

I did not expect that Tessa would take me to such a private place. We were watching the meteor shower by the cliff. It was fun talking to her.

Although we didn't really make love yet that night, we already both had orgasms with just the work of our hands. It was a first for me, Tatts Wo mobic honestly. I didn't even need my dick to get inside Tessa to feel so alive with pleasure. But imagine how amazing it would feel when we could finally make love!

"Alvin, why didn't you have sex with me just now?"

Tessa pouted with her puppy dog eyes.

"Well, I remembered your story with your ex-boyfriend. On just the first date, he already took you to a hotel room and wanted you to have unprotected sex with him. I didn't want to do that to you... Today was unexpected, so I wasn't able to bring condoms either. To be honest, I thought you would still refuse me. Besides, what is most important to me now is that Ivy still has yet to accept Adonis. I guess I have to wait until then."

"Humph, sounds like I'm the one who's impatient now."

Tessa punched me playfully and crossed her arms.

I took the punch and then pulled her into an embrace.

"Anyway, it's only a matter of time. When that happens, we will definitely have the most amazing sex ever. Besides, I prepared a secret place for our first time. I'll take you there and surprise you."

I planned our first night together, wanting it to be extremely special.

The Moon Goddess and the stars would be the witnesses of our love.

"Oh, really? Where are you taking me?"

"You'll know when it's time."

I kissed Tessa one last time before we both transformed into wolves.

It was time to go.

By the time we got back to the Maple House, it was already dark.

I left my phone in my room the whole day, only to find that I had missed several calls.

They were all from a private investigator that I hired. I dialed the number back immediately and waited for him to pick up.

"Beta Alvin, I've been trying to reach you multiple times. I've got some new information for you."

"Have you found Alexander?"

"No, not yet, unfortunately. However, I was able to locate the laboratory. In recent years, both vampire and werewolf teenagers disappeared without a trace, but they were suddenly found in a forest in the suburb of Texas. Perhaps the lab for studying hybrids is somewhere in that forest. I have already sent the specific coordinates to your e-mail. As for Alexander's most recent whereabouts, we're still trying to track him."

I thanked him and hung up the phone to check my e-mail.

It turned out that Alexander had changed his name to Pattinson and bought the entire forest under that name.

Attached in the e-mail was also a photo of a plain man who looked to be around fifty years old.

A wizard had the skill of changing their appearance.

It wasn't a surprise to see him in that appearance.

This was definitely an urgent matter. I forwarded the related information to Peter.

Alexander was being mobile extremely defensive and vigilant.

His whereabouts still remained to be unknown. The longer it took to find him, the more dangerous it would be for our Luna. We surely had a tough battle ahead of us.
