

The Alpha's Rejected Heir by Icon_Brat101 Chapter 28

/ The Alpha's Rejected Heir by Icon_Brat101

Third-person POV

AJ drove the stolen ambulance with trembling hands and a racing heart towards the edge of howling moon territory.

To say he wanted to be anywhere, but where he was at the moment would be putting it very lightly. He, like everyone else, has heard the stories of how ruthless and unforgiving the alpha of that pack is, so it baffled him as to why Alessandro would want to go there of all places despite the numerous warnings he gave him.

Aj, Brandon, and sage knew little about Alessandro's past, mainly that he was born in Italy and his mom died six months ago at the hands of the man, they currently had in the back of the ambulance. However, despite their lack of knowledge of his life, they trusted him because that one boy had saved and protected them more times in the past six months than anyone has in their entire lives. Besides it wasn't as if he knew all their secrets, so it didn't bother them because they knew no matter what he would never hurt or betray them as everyone else had, and that's why even though they were all scared to cross into alpha Black's territory the unfaltering trust, they had in their friend gave them the courage to do something they never imagined before.

With shaky breaths and trembling hands, Aj drove to the forest line leading to the southern border of the territory they are about to cross. He parked the ambulance, his heart pounding in his chest. He turned in his seat to look at his companions

"Well we're here, it's now or never," he says

"Look, guys, I know you all would rather be anywhere but here so I appreciate you guys helping me with this" Alessandro told them sincerely, a bit of sadness in his eyes

"It's cool, dude, we owe you our lives, without you we wouldn't even have the chance to be here contemplating whether or not to cross into another alpha's territory" Brandon replied

"Thanks, Brandon, that means a lot. Before we go, I need to ask you guys something, do you trust me?"

"Of course" his three friends replied at the same time

"Do you trust me with your lives?" He asked again

"Al, of course, we trust you with our lives, otherwise we wouldn't be here. You have done more for us in the past months, we've known each other than our own families have done our whole lives; you protected us when we ambushed, robbed, and framed you. After we almost got you killed... twice you still protected us, you gave us home so, of course, we trust you alpha" the sage replied laughing at the way he cringed when she called him alpha.

Of course, they all knew Alessandro was an alpha wolf another reason why they all followed him as they saw him as their alpha, their leader even though he protests against them calling him that.

"Listen, guys, you will learn things about me today that you didn't know or wouldn't expect. You will see a part of me, I wish you wouldn't have to but just know that no matter how bad it gets I will protect you guys with my life and I will never hurt you. We are a family and family means no one gets left behind; so let's begin with the plan and when this is all over I will explain everything."

They all nodded as they gathered their courage ready to take on the world.

Alessandro grabbed Kevin by his neck as he threw him over his shoulder. He was no longer unconscious but remained quiet due to the duct tape attached securely to his mouth. He walked out of the back of the ambulance with sage and Brandon in tow, they all walked to the front of the vehicle just in front of the edge of pack lands they were about to intrude.

The moment the four friends stepped towards the border 7 angry wolves immediately stepped from behind the trees growling at them. Alessandro glanced at his shaking friends, they looked utterly terrified.

It wasn't that they couldn't fight why they were afraid, on the contrary, they could easily defeat these seven wolves by themselves, Alessandro made sure of that. It was the fact that they didn't have confidence in themselves especially seeing as they were average rogue wolves with no significant status who had been abandoned by their own families.

The seven large wolves shifted then walked closer to the four teens as the biggest of them all growled out "Who are you and what are you doing here!?"

"We're not here to cause trouble but we need to speak with your alpha and beta" Alessandro replied cautiously stepping forward.

"And why would I allow that rogue" the tall man spat out

"Just tell beta Michael that Rafi is here to see him he'll know who I am," Alessandro said softly using the pet name his uncle gave him when he was young

"Leave now and I'll allow you to live," the man told them

"Please we just need five minutes of his time if you could just call your alpha or beta. I know we're just rogues and you have no obligation to honor our request, but I'm asking you to please just call them we'll wait right here" sage spoke up pleading with the warrior.

She was so caught up in convincing the scary man to do as they asked, she hadn't realized she was moving closer to him until she crossed onto the border without noticing. The warrior wolf snarled at her, grabbing sage by the neck as she had trespaed into their territory.

"Sage!!" Alessandro Brandon and Aj yelled instantly

"Uh uh uh" the warrior wolf tsked at the three boys as they were about to make a move

His nail lengthened into a claw as he placed it at sage's neck halting her friends in their place

"Please am sorry I didn't mean to cross over I didn't realize I was moving" sage pleaded as she tried and failed to free herself from the man's choking grasp

"Oh come on, do you think I'm gonna believe that? How gullible do you think I am" the warrior snarled throwing her to the ground

"You filthy rogues are cy thinking you can just waltz into our territory as you please demanding to see our alpha and beta. We are warrior wolves the first line of defense for this pack, what kind of protector would we be if we allowed rogues onto our land" he said kicking sage in her side

The other wolves laughed as she screamed out in pain. The warrior then grabbed her hair yanking it backward.

When the wolf kicked sage in her side Alessandro could hear the snap of ribs being either broken or cracked, Brandon immediately doubled over as his mate's pain spread throughout his body. A Alessandro saw was red as he let out a menacing growl. He was beyond livid as he threw Kevin from his shoulders, his eyes changing to pitch black as he let his beastly wolf come forward.

Everyone present gasped in shock as Alessandro partially shifted into a wolf-man creature with pitch-black eyes. He bared his canines at the seven men in front of him as he let out a threatening growl, then with the inhumane speed he closed the distance between him and the wolf who had kicked sage earlier. The man surprised at Alessandro's speed was frozen in place as the creature suddenly appeared in front of him.

With his anger skyrocketed Alessandro expressed no hesitation as he grabbed the tall burly man by his head holding his hair in a vice grip then pulled until he felt the head detach from its place between the man's shoulders, as his body fell to the ground with a thud.

Seeing their fellow pack member murdered in front of their eyes all hell broke loose as an all-out battle began between the howling moon wolves and Alessandro's friends.

After shifting back to his human self and making sure sage was ok Alessandro went back to grab a fright-stricken Kevin who was being monitored by Aj.

Kevin was gaping utterly terrified at the form Alessandro had taken on. Never in all his life had he seen a wolf able to transform partially without being unstable or without the use of drugs. He was somewhere between shocked and angry. Shocked because of all these months of watching Alessandro trail him around the world he never once saw or suspected he was capable of such a transformation, he was angry because he had tried and failed many times to reach the state that b mutt was now sporting.

Alessandro picked Kevin up once again making sure to cover his head in case one of the warriors recognized him, he had already masked Kevin's scent so they wouldn't know who he was.

He then crossed over the territory again as his friends gave the warriors an a whooping of a lifetime. He watched as his three friends subdued the warriors one by one. Alessandro made his way further into the territory as a gigantic wolf lunged at him aiming at his neck. He quickly dodged then kicked it into a tree. The wolf got up again and shifted then ran towards Alessandro as he dropped Kevin and the two engaged in hand-to-hand combat.

After a few minutes of kicks and punches, Alessandro got irritated and landed a roundhouse kick sending his opponent flying backward where he landed at someone's feet. Alessandro could feel eyes boring into the back of his head as he picked up Kevin from the ground.

He turned around ready for a fight but halted in his steps as he came face to face with his shock-stricken uncle. He did a double-take rubbing his eyes just to make sure they weren't playing tricks on him.

"A-Alessandro?" Michael asked not believing his eyes

"Uncle Michael" Alessandro breathed in disbelief

"Rafi!!!" Michael yelled as he ran towards his nephew with open arms

"Where have you been we've been searching for you for months but you just vanished. And that one time in New York we were so close but then you disappeared" Michael says

"I'm sorry uncle I knew you guys were looking for me but there was something that I had to do" Alessandro apologized

"Well I'm just glad you ok," Michael says

He glanced over at the three teenagers just as Brandon t the last warrior.

“Could you please untie them, I kind of need them to protect our territory” he says

The three kids looked at Alessandro for confirmation before they hesitantly untie the men they had just subdued. When one of the warriors lunged at Aj Michael yelled in his beta voice

“Stop!”

The warrior immediately halted his actions as Michael walked towards them.

“I asked them to untie you so you could go get yourselves checked out not attack the people who just defeated you. At least keep whatever dignity you have left after getting defeated by kids and you call yourselves warriors” he scolded

“But beta they crossed our territory without permission and killed Mick” the warrior argued

“We asked you guys to call your beta and alpha to speak with them. We had no intentions of crossing your borders” Brandon said

Yeah right and did that girl over there not cross our borders” the man scoffed

“By accident!!” Sage yelled

“And your freak of a friend killed our fellow pack member” he retorted

“I killed him because he chose to put his hands on an innocent girl who hadn’t caused him any harm” Alessandro spoke up

“Wait you killed Mick?” Michael asked in surprise looking at the warrior’s headless body

“He attacked sage after she accidentally crossed the border, and even though I know it’s normal for them to react this way towards rogues she wasn’t attacking him or anything yet he broke three of her ribs, so I ripped his head from his body” Alessandro replied nonchalantly

“Ok ok pause. Normally in a situation like this, you should all be killed but there’s no way in hell I’m attacking my nephew and there’s too much to be discussed”

“Three of you bring Mick’s body to the pack hospital and let Carmichael deal with it the rest keep watch until I send your replacements then you can go get checked up” Michael instructed

"Alessandro you and your friends come with me you guys need to be checked as well and like I said there's a lot of things to discuss which will take some time so I'm glad your back"

"I'm not staying uncle Michael I just have some loose ends here that I need to tie up and say goodbye to you and grandpa. I've done something I can't go back from so it's not safe to stay here. Besides, I have obligations now" Alessandro says pointing to his friends

"Wait what loose ends and as for everything else, Alessandro there's something that you need to know, your mother"

"Don't!!!" Alessandro yelled as he felt a stabbing pain in his heart at the mention of his mother

Michael looked confused for a second at Alessandro's reaction then it clicked, he remembered that Alessandro thinks Rosalyn is dead. Deciding to resolve the issue before it goes on any longer Michael opened his mouth to talk but was cut off by a growl.

"What the hell happened here!?" Kashaun yelled

"Why did I just past three battered warriors carrying Mick's body without his head? And why is there-" he stops and sniffs the air before turning to Aj Brandon and sage who were shaking in their booths.

"Rogues" he growled before shifting and lounging at the three teenagers

Realizing the alpha's intent Alessandro quickly stepped in front of his friends before molding his hand onto a fist and punching him square in the jaw as the giant wolf is sent into the ground.

"Don't you dare touch them or I'll kill you" Alessandro growled out as his eyes turned pitch black

Shocked gasps came from everyone present as Kashaun reverted to his human form before getting to his feet, anger rolling off him in waves. He looked up at his attacker, his eyes wide as saucers when he saw who it was.

"A-a-Alessandro" he stuttered

"B-but how!? When did you get here and why didn't I smell your scent" he asked

"I've been here the whole time and I masked my scent that's why you didn't smell me. As for your decapitated warrior that was my doing and like I said before if you harm my friends I'll send you" he says menacingly as veins appeared around his black eyes

"What the hell are you!?" Kashaun asked trying to fight back the fear slowly creeping up his chest

"Something you never want to make angry" Alessandro grabbed as his canines dropped further than they ever have before.

"Ok everyone that's enough," Michael says walking in between Alessandro and Keshawn. Alessandro retracted his canines as his eyes turned back to normal while Keshawn took Michael's advice and backed off.

As Keshawn stepped back he looked over at Alessandro when he caught a glimpse at something on his shoulder. Stopping dead in his tracks he asked

"What the hell is he doing here and why is he with you?" Pointing at the man he thought he'd never see again

Alessandro looked at his shoulder to see that the hood of the sweater he had thrown over Kevin had fallen off.

"Rafi what's going on," Michael asked as he stared at his alpha's father on his nephew's shoulder

Sighing Alessandro replied, "is that offer to discuss all this somewhere more comfortable still stands?"

"Uhm, yeah. Come on let's go" Michael says ushering them in the direction of the packhouse

As they all walked back to the packhouse sage Brandon and Aj made sure to walk as close as possible to Alessandro. After 10 minutes of walking in uncomfortable silence, they finally reached the packhouse. No one was outside which seemed weird to Alessandro but he didn't dwell on it. They went inside and quickly made their way up the stairs towards Keshawn's office. Arriving at the office doors Michael stepped in front of Alessandro and his friends opening the door for them. He paused when he saw amber sitting in Keshawn's chair waiting patiently while gently rubbing her huge belly, she looked as if she would pop at any moment.

"What's wrong why'd you stop," Alessandro asked

"Uhm nothing come on in" he replied

Everyone filed into the office one after another as amber stared at them in confusion. That confusion turned into shock when her eyes landed on Alessandro. Spotting his pregnant mate Keshawn immediately walked over to her.

"Amber, what are you doing in here are you ok?" He asked worriedly

"Yeah am fine it's just that I was calling you through the link but you weren't replying and I got worried, so I came down here but on my way, a pack member told me you went to the southern borders to check on something so I decided to wait," she says her eyes stuck on Alessandro

"Uhm Keshawn what- how is he here you guys were just saying you couldn't find him and why the hell is your father lying unconscious on his shoulder," she asked

"Well I have yet to figure all that out you just take a seat and relax" Keshawn replied

After amber was comfortably seated Keshawn turned his attention to the five people in his office.

"Ok, so what the heck is going on here?" He asked in his alpha voice

Alessandro growled at Keshawn when he saw the discomfort his friends were in because of Keshawn's alpha tone. After a quick stare down from father and son and some heavy glaring at the two from Michael, they both backed down so their meeting could start.

"First things first, Alessandro, there's something I need to tell you, but I need you to remain calm when I say what I have to say," Michael says

"What is it?" Alessandro asked

"Well uhm it's about your mom and before you get angry just let me finish. The day you disappeared I know you left I know you did what you did because you thought your mom was dead but she's not"

"WHAT!!!" This time it was all four of the teenagers who yelled

"How can this be I saw her die with my own eyes," Alessandro asked in disbelief

"I know what you saw al but she didn't die she was close to it and flat-lined a lot but the doctor managed to get the bullet out, luckily it missed her heart by a centimeter and she managed to recover," Michael told him

"So where is she now!?" Alessandro asked anxious to see his mother

"Uhm theirs something else that you need to know," Michael says hesitantly

"What?"

"Well your mother was Uhm, she ah she- she"

"She was what!?"

"While she was captured she was r*d it didn't get far because Jermaine managed to stop it but the damage was already done and I guess after she woke up and we could find you for months the reality of the situation got to her and she just fell into a deep depression and now she's barely functional"

“What!!!???” Alessandro yelled with a thunderous growl shaking the entire mansion

He could feel himself slipping as rage took over his entire being after all it was the only emotion he could feel overwhelming consuming rage. His eyes turned to a shade of intense black as veins appeared around his eyes, his canines dropped to their full length piercing his bottom lip, his fingernails turned to razor-sharp claws as he transformed into a half-wolf half-man even though he looked more beastly than human. His wolf easily took control of his body as Alessandro faded into the background of his dark mind.

Xavier scanned the room as he aessed everyone in the room. Amber was shaking so hard he wondered if it could cause a miscarriage. Keshawn and Michael stood completely frozen in their spots with countless emotions flashing across their eyes fear being the most frequent. He glanced at his friends who stood there gaping at his transformation but he was relieved to see that there was no fear in their eyes only astonishment and admiration.

“Where is she,” Xavier asked in a rumbling voice

“She’s int-the room both of y-you stayed at w-while you were here” Michael stuttered

Ripping the door off its hinges Xavier left the office and made his way towards his mother. He tried reaching out to her wolf Althea but he couldn’t sense her. When he reached the door of the room, he once shared with his mother he ripped it open to reveal a fraction of what was left of the woman who gave him life, protected him, and taught him how to protect himself.

Reverting to his normal size, giving over the reigns Xavier walked into the room as Alessandro slowly pushed to the forefront of their mind and knelt at the bedside beside his sleeping mother.

“Mama” he called out

“Mama it’s me Alessandro please wake up” he pleaded

“Mia Regina (my queen) please wake up” he cried

“MAMAAAAAAA!!!!!!!”

Alessandro POV

Flashback

"Mama" he called out

"Mama it's me Alessandro please wake up" he pleaded

"Mia Regina (my queen) please wake up" he continued to cry

"MAMAAAAAAA!!!!!!!"

I shake my mother's small body urging her to wake up. She looked nothing like the strong beautiful woman I know, instead, she looks defeated and weak something my mother isn't.

"Come on, momma, wake up" I begged as I feel my eyes burn from the unshed tears that refuse to fall.

I tried projecting my feelings through our bond but it wouldn't work since I no longer had access to my emotions. The downside of knowing how to switch off one's emotions is that it doesn't come back as easy as it goes.

"Mom please I need to know that you're here please open your eyes, I need you" I whispered as my chest aches

A few minutes later I feel her hand move then she started stirring. I sat on the edge of the bed shaking her gently as I urged her to wake up. I unmasked my scent as she started moving about so it would be the first thing she notices when she woke up. She continued stirring until her eyes opened, however, instead of the bright beautiful hazel orbs my mother had I see lifeless brown unfocused eyes fluttering around the room.

"Mom?" I say but she doesn't seem to hear or recognize my voice.

I touch her hands as she sits up in the bed making her halt her movements and her eyes finally land on me.

"Momma," I say quietly as her eyes look at me with uncertainty

"It's me mom it's Al I'm back!" I say trying to clear the confusion from her eyes

"I'm so sorry I left you mom I thought- I thought you were dead and I felt so hopeless. I'm so sorry I wasn't there for you I'm so sorry I didn't find you earlier" I say as I feel my eyes fill with water but still refusing to spill any

"A-ale Alessandro?" She asks in a cracked voice

Looking over at her bedside table I see a gla filled with water. picking it up I put the gla to her lips as she slowly drinks the cool liquid. When the gla is empty I put it back as my mom stares at me as if trying to figure out if I'm an illusion or not.

"Your not hallucinating mom I am here," I say knowing exactly what is going through her mind

"Are you here?" She whispered touching my face carefully as if I'd disappear if he applied too much force

"I'm here mom," I say holding her hands to my cheek

"My baby boy!!!" She suddenly yells as she throws herself into my arms while wrapping hers around my neck.

I held onto her as she shook from the tears she cried into my shoulder. My tears build up in my eyes as my body shakes as well but yet again my body refuses to set them free.

"Mi bambino h-how are you here? Everyone thought you were dead not even the council could find you" she asked

"I'll explain everything later right now I just need to know that your ok" I replied as I pulled her closer to me.

"I'm so sorry, I'm so sorry" she cried

"What are you talking about I'm the one who should be apologizing," I say

"No sweetie I'm the one at fault here. If I had been stronger none of this wouldn't have happened, if I-"

"Shh it's not your fault none of this is your fault it's Kevin's and that is why I'm gonna enjoy ripping his heart out," I say with a growl

"What do you mean do you know where he is?" She asks

"He's currently unconscious and duct-taped in Keshawn's office," I tell her

"What!!?" She suddenly yells then winces while holding her throat.

"Calm down mom and stop yelling your throat is most likely sore" I softly reprimand

"There are a lot of things you need to know so I'm taking you to Keshawn's office so I can explain to everyone at the same time are you up for that," I ask

"Yes I'm fine just don't leave me," she says

"I'm not letting you out of my sight" I assure her

Picking mom up from her bed I held her gently in my arms and close to my chest. I could feel the turmoil within me and my wolf simmer a bit from knowing our mother is alive. I walk through the door and down the hallway then entered the elevator that took us to the top floor where everyone was waiting. Getting off the elevator I walked straight into the office without knocking. As soon as I entered the room with my mom in hand all eyes turned to us. There were a lot more people in here than when I left. There is aunt gen, Jermaine, the third in command who's the name I forgot, three warriors, Izzy and Mrs. black

"ALESSANDRO! Izzy yelled. I quickly but carefully paced my mom on a chair as she crashed into me.

"Hey!" I say hugging her tighter

"Alessandro Rafael Parker if you ever and I mean ever disappear on me again I swear to the moon goddess I will whoop your a so bad, you'll think twice about leaving your room before consulting me," she says and starts hitting me suddenly

"I'm sorry Izzy it won't happen again," I say

Next up was aunt gen "Al? Oh my gosh, Alessandro is that you?" I hear her voice say. Turning around I saw my aunt Genevieve sitting next to uncle Michael with a baby in her arms.

She gave the baby to uncle Michael before standing up and running over to me with tears falling from her face as she cried out loudly. I think it's fair to say it has been an extremely emotional day.

"Oh Alessandro I thought I'd never see you again I missed you so much" she cried

"I missed you too aunt gen and I'm sorry for making you worry" I apologize

"Wait h-how are you even here? No one knew where you were or how to find you it was like you completely vanished" she asks

"I will explain everything in a minute," I say

She nods before letting go of me and walking back over to my uncle. I turn to the side to see Jermaine looking at me as if he was looking at a ghost. I could tell he wanted to come over but was hesitant for some reason.

"Well is that any way to greet your nephew who has been missing for months?" I say teasingly bringing him out of his trance like state

"Oh my gosh it's you," he says suddenly as he quickly closes the gap between us and pulls me into a bone-crushing hug

"Hey Jermaine" I chuckled hugging him back

After a few minutes of embrace, we pulled apart and his eyes landed on my mom. However, instead of going to her side or at least saying something to her like I thought he would he quickly averted his eyes when she looked at him while squirming in her seat.

"I can go if you want me to" he whispers lowly for only mom to hear but I heard him clearly

"It's ok you don't have to" she replied in the same voice

Jermain then walked over to the far corner of the room opposite to us and sat on a chair near the window. He was still in the range where he could hear me and everyone else in the room talk and vice versa but he was as far away as possible from my mom.

"Ok now that everyone is here it's time to get down to business," Keshawn says bringing my attention to him.

Deciding to find out what was going on with my mom and Jermaine later I turned back to the situation at hand and the infuriating alpha before me.

"First of all Alessandro could you ask your companions to release my father and why is it that no one but them can go near him" he questions

At the mention of Kevin, my mom and Jermaine growled simultaneously it was so in sync so threatening it sent chills down my spine.

Resting a hand on my mother's shoulder in efforts to calm her I say "First of all alpha they are my friends, well more like family not 'companions' and the reason you or anyone else cant go near him is that Sage here put up a barrier around him and themselves" then point towards my three friends who were sitting on a small couch

"Oh she's a witch," uncle Michael says nonchalantly

"Yep" I confirm

Keshawn, his gamma, and the warriors all growled in sages' direction as soon as the word left my mouth. I growled at them threateningly while dropping my canines and extending my claws

"Try it I dare you," I say with an evil smirk on my lips as my eyes flash to black

Everyone immediately stepped back in retreat as I turned and pulled the chair my mom sat in next to the couch my friends are in as I took a seat next to them.

"Ok first of all I'd like to introduce everyone in the room," I say mostly to my friends than anyone else

"These three are Sage Brandon and Aj. Yes the other two are wolves, also Sage is Brandon's mate" I inform

"Wow you're a witch huh so cool I've never met another supernatural species before," Izzy says with a girly squeal

"Hi I'm Isabella black but you can call me Izzy I'm also Alessandro's aunt, it's nice to meet you Sage I think we'll make great friends. She says

"Hi Izzy I'm Sage Harper" Sage replies

Izzy then moved on to introduce herself to Brandon and then when she went over to Aj the most shocking thing happened. They both froze in their spots staring at each other before they both growled out mate at the same time. Everyone looked at them in shock while Sage Brandon and I quietly laughed at the love-sick puppy look Aj had on his face. Catching us in the act he narrowed his eyes at us while shooting glares our way before turning back to the Izzy. After a moment of watching them ogle each other, I cleared my throat to bring back everyone's attention to me.

"Ok as I was saying. Now, Sage Aj Brandon, this is my mom Rosalyn, my aunt, and uncle Michael, and Genevieve also a beta couple of this pack, you all met Izzy, my other aunt\best friend, you guys already know the alpha and that's my grandmother beside him and by the window over there is-

"Your dad?" Sage cuts me off

"Actually no he's my uncle," I say

"huh!? So if he's your uncle then that lady is his mom so where's your dad?" She asks

"I'm his father" Keshawn pipes in

"Wait what?" My three friends say in unison

"It's a long story I'll explain later," I tell them

After they nod in agreement I continued with what I had to say.

"Ok now that everyone knows everyone let's get down to business," I say

"So six months ago my mom was captured and tortured by this man and his associates," I say pointing at Kevin

"When we found them we killed everyone well except for Evans and a few others who were ripped apart by my mom. Anyway, in an attempt to ruin our lives further, Kevin here tried to kill me but my mom ended up taking the bullet instead by using herself as my shield because the bullet lodged so close to her heart and she paed out I thought she died so I left everything I've ever known behind went in search for Kevin determined to avenge my mother, that's when I met Sage Brandon and Aj and even though I was a cold emotionless monster they still befriended me and helped me achieve what I set out to do six months ago and after all this time here I am once again" I say

"So why did you come back why not just kill him when you found him?" The gamma asked

"Well I may be a monster but I'm not completely heartless. The only reason I came here today was so that all of you who wished to say goodbye could" I tell him

Keshaun scoffed at my answer before saying "you think that I would let you kill my father? I know what he did was unforgivable and I will never forgive him for it but he needs to go to Alcatraz not be executed by you"

I bark out a loud laugh before replying with "it's cute you think you have a choice in the matter alpha and here I thought you were a wise man I was wrong"

His warriors growled threateningly at me before his gamma said "Who the hell do you think you are talking to an alpha like that on his territory. Ever since you got here all those months ago you act as if you own the place because alpha black is your father and you keep threatening and hurting people because they talk the truth about your gold-digging w* of a mother-"

He never got the chance to finish his sentence as I elongated my claws and stuck my hand in his chest ripping out his heart, his body falling to the ground immediately after. Everyone in the room gasped in shock as I stood there with what's his heart in my hand.

"Anybody else wants to say something about my mother, go ahead the stage is yours," I say to everyone in the room while giving a mock bow

Loud growls echo through the room as the three warriors lunged at me I sidestep them watching as they stumble over their own feet before using my wolf speed to get in front of them, as I was about to make my move Keshaun shouted

I pause in my movements then turned to look at him his gamma's heart still in my hands. I could tell he was pissed that I killed yet another pack member of his maybe to the point where he wanted to kill me even but he knew deep down he was no match for me.

Sighing I drop the heart then say " look alpha I apologize for killing yet another one of your pack members however I warned you if no one insulted my mother or harmed her in any way I would kill them and if memory serves right which it does she was constantly insulted by your Luna as well as other members of your pack and to top it off your father kidnapped and tortured her for days it is not my fault that you took my threat to lightly so now it's time to pay the price" I tell him

"What the hell that makes no sense, the harming part I can understand but insulting your mother? that makes no sense; what are you going to do walk around killing everyone that insults Rosalyn," he asks

"Actually yes that's exactly what I plan to do and you were at the top of my list however I didn't kill you because one; my mom wouldn't approve, two Izzy, Jermaine, and your mother would be sad," I say in a matter of fact tone

"Your crazy!" One of the warriors yelled

"Meh I've been called worst" I retort

"He's not crazy he's just an uncontrollable monster created by the council," Keshawn says

This time it was my friends my mom aunt gen and uncle Michael's time to growl at him

Smiling I replied, "I see they told you about me huh?"

"Did they also tell how I killed 3/4 of their whole group before my mom came in and saved them all?" I asked just to tick him off further

"Get out!!!!" He growled in his alpha voice shaking the entire house

"Oh don't worry about that I'll be leaving today and taking my mother with me" I reply before scooping my mom into my arms and walking towards the door while my friends followed behind Aj throwing Kevin over his shoulders

Turning in the doorway I say "Kevin will be chained in a corner of my room, you can let me know when you guys are ready to say goodbye, I suggest you make it quick as my offer expires at sunset, and I mean the beginning of sunset, not the end" before continuing my way out the office

"Holy s Alessandro dude you never told us you were that powerful, I mean we knew you were bada but to have one of the most feared alpha's on the US afraid of you that's insane" Brandon whisper yelled the admiration in his voice evident, I was just happy none of them were afraid of me or resented me for what I had become.

Laughing at him I say "all that I am I owe to this beautiful woman right here" as I looked at my mother who fell asleep some time ago, I could feel the exhaustion rolling off her in waves.

I hated seeing my mother like this, it was heart-wrenching, but it doesn't matter how I will nurse her back to health, back to the strong beautiful woman she is.

That is a promise.

Jermaine's POV

"What are we going to do alpha that kid is out of control he needs to be stopped, he can't go around acting like he owns the place not because he's your son he isn't even one of us, plus, he's a damn monster I've never seen anyone look so evil in all my life, and the way his eyes turn black so easily as if on command no. Should be able to do that not even the ones that are feral" Travis one of our warriors present says after Alessandro left

"Alpha I know Alessandro can be a bit much, but he is right, you know your father needs to be put down he has caused so much harm to this pack and his family as well as countless others that we may or may not know of I know he's your dad and so I understand your feelings of confliction in the situation and I'm not just agreeing with alessandro because he's my nephew or the fact your dad kidnapped and tortured my sister, I'm saying this to you because it is what needs to be done and whether or not Alessandro is a pack member or 'one of us' as Travis puts it he is the perfect person for the job besides it's not like we have a choice he is going to kill Kevin one way or another even if he has to go through your entire pack and we all know he can so instead of causing any more needless deaths I say we negotiate with Alexandra to let you guys deal with Kevin the way you would deal with anyone else if they had committed treason and betrayed the pack," Michael says to Keshawn

"What are you saying beta I understand that Mr. Black has betrayed us all especially with what he did to Isabel but how can we let someone like that kid execute him we both know he won't he won't give him an honorable or a swift death he tortures him until he begs for death you see the crazed look in his eye he is one step away from being feral I say we hand him over to the council as Alpha suggested along with that son of his they both need to be locked up. As bad as Mr. Black is Alessandro is no better they are both cut from the same cloth and is a danger to us all" Travis argued as

"Honorable and Swift dead are you crazy is that what you think a traitorous b such as my father deserves I swear you all are idiots in this pack if it were anyone else you would have all been outside Keshawn's office protesting for the man's head on a stick but no because he is the former Alpha you're all kissing his a just like he knew you would that's why he hasn't defended himself up until now or even say anything he hasn't even uttered an apology or show any signs of remorse. That man kidnapped me, I am his son for goodness sake and yet he saw nothing wrong with torturing me and the woman I love in an effort for us to reject each other just so he could control my life even though he knew full well that if I had done what he asked it would have killed me and my wolf as well as her but that did not matter to him all he saw where his ambitions being fulfilled, Ambitions that blinded him and turned him into the monster he is today you call alessandro a monster when he was forced to become what he is he didn't choose to be like this yet he doesn't go around oppressing other people even though he has the power to while my father whom you all seem to idolize despite all his wrong doings all his betrayals and all his flaws you all speak of giving him an honorable death I for one am going to negotiate with Alessandro but not to let the pack deal with Kevin no I want to be in on his torture I want him to feel every ounce of pain I felt as the electrocuted cut whipped and lashed me, as they made me watch while they tortured Rosalyn hour by hour minute by minute, as I had to watch that man force himself onto her and I was too late to stop it and now she won't even look at me because I'm not worthy of her I was too weak to save her when she needed me the most and you sit here talking about Swift and honorable deaths?" I yelled getting tired of this entire conversation

"I agree with Jermaine," Isabella says

"That man is no longer our father he is a monster what kind of father injects his daughter with wolf's bane? I could have died! I spent all my life thinking I was a freak thinking I wasn't good enough for anyone good enough to have friends good enough to be around other people yes I was born with a degenerative disease but everyone knows werewolves don't have permanent disabilities my life would have been so easier I would have shifted at the age of 12 I would have healed I would have gotten better I could have made friends I could have had a normal childhood instead I was stuck in a chair for 16 years and if it wasn't for Alessandro I would have died the day I shifted. Instead of ignoring my cry, he risked his own life to save me, a girl he only met a few hours ago briefly. We hadn't even had a conversation before he saved me and yet you call him a monster what kind of monster sacrifices their own life to save someone else what kind of monster would give up his happiness his chance of finding his mate knowing full well he could die and still attempted to save my life with a forbidden technique his mom taught him and made him promise never to use unless it was a certain life or death situation"

"Since this seems to be a voting committee what about you Mom what do you say do you think I should let my son your grandson kill my father the father of your children his grandfather in the most horrific way possible," Keshawn asks trying to guilt-trip mom

"I have no idea why you would ask me such a question Keshawn I thought you knew your mother better than that I've wanted your father dead since the day I felt the unbearable pain of his betrayal" mom says shocking everyone in the room. I thought she'd give in to him like she always has.

She would never admit it but Keshawn had always been a favorite both my parent's mom loved all her kids but deep down we all knew she loved him most maybe it was the fact that he is her firstborn but it was obvious does she had a love for him she didn't show to anyone else not even Isabelle and that is why he was always able to manipulate her into doing whatever he or dad wanted.

"Seeing as everyone has voted against my idea of handing dad over to the council it seems his faith has been decided," Keshawn says

"Jermaine and Michael could you please go call Alessandro and tell him to bring dad as well so we can get this over with," he says

With a nod, I left the office a bit susious. It's not in my brother to give up that easily especially when it has anything to do with Kevin. I hope they aren't planning on doing anything rash that would cause them to go into battle with Alessandro because it would be a blood bath.

"What do you think he's up to?" Michael asks pulling me from my thoughts

"You noticed too huh?" I say

"Of course I did I've known Keshawn my whole life I can tell when he's scheming he gets that look in his eyes" he replied

"Well, whatever it is I just hope he doesn't piss Alessandro off. Did you sense the amount of power radiating off him even when he was calm his presence was still domineering" I say

"I know it was crazy and the way he transformed, what the heck did those old bats in the council do to him" Michael replies

We walk until we reached the room Alessandro and Rosalyn were in. Michael knocks on the door making our presence known before opening it and walking in. I walk into the room slowly scanning the space to see who was present. I saw Alessandro his three friends and Rosalyn sitting on the bed as well as Rosalyn's father former beta Steven. They looked as if they were having a conversation before we interrupted.

"Hey guys" Michael greets

"Hey" they reply in unison I

"Uhm Alessandro alpha Keshawn has made his decision he would like to meet you in his office his mom and Isabelle are still there I think they're ready to say their piece to the load of s you have chained to your window," Michael says

"Well I wasn't expecting them to have been so cooperative but it doesn't matter either way" Alessandro shrugged

Walking over to my father who was glaring daggers at him Alessandro picked him up as if the man weighed nothing and threw him over his shoulders. Dad kept shifting around trying to break free so Alessandro punched him in the side of his head knocking him out cold.

"Ok let's go," he says walking to the door

Michael walked behind him followed by his three friends and Steven. As I was about to leave a small voice stopped me

"Jermaine wait"

I turned to see Rosalyn still sitting on the bed with a nervous look on her face.

"C-could I talk to you for a moment" she stutters

I stood there staring at her as she had just grown two heads. I couldn't believe it Rosalyn was talking to me, as in with actual words. This was real and not something I imagined.

"Close your mouth, Jermaine, your drooling" Rosalyn chuckled snapping me back to reality

"Sorry I'm just really surprised that you talking to me," I say sheepishly

"Uh yeah Uhm that's what I wanted to talk to you about," she says nervously

"Oh ok," I say

"Look Jermaine first of all I want to say I'm sorry for the way I've treated you over the past 6 months it was unfair and even though I had my reasons I convinced myself it was the right thing to do even though I knew it was wrong but I did it anyway. I was so caught up in myself I didn't realize what I've been doing to you, I hurt you Jermaine and for that, I'm extremely sorry" she apologizes

"You don't have to apologize to me Rosalyn it's ok I understand. What you went through was traumatic, to say the least, and what that guy did to you-. I should be the one apologizing to you I promised you I'd protect you and I failed when you needed me the most" I reply

"You can't blame yourself for that Jermaine it wasn't your fault how could you have known that my mother would let someone r me and if it wasn't for you he would have done a lot worse so as far as I'm concerned you did save me," she says

"Rose I-

"Look I'm sorry for the way I treated you I'm not completely ok but I'm trying. I hope you can forgive me Jermaine and if you can then I understand" she says walking closer towards me

"I can't forgive you Rosalyn because there's nothing to forgive. You did nothing wrong" pulling her into my arms

"I love you rose and nothing can ever change that"

Tears gathered in her eyes as she looked at me. Her big hazel eyes had a spark in them they didn't have a few days ago and I knew it was because of Alessandro.

"I-I love you too Jermaine," she says making my heart soar to the heavens

Looking at her I can't help but be mesmerized, her beauty never fades because it's way more than skin deep it goes to her soul. This woman pieced back together with my broken heart and brought back the light I lost so long ago. I don't know what I ever did to deserve her, but I thank the moon goddess for the day she walked back into my life. Pulling her closer I gently placed my lips against hers giving her the chance to pull away if she so chooses, when she doesn't I take that as my answer and kissed her deeply making sure to pour out all my emotions that I've bottled up over the past six months just so she could understand how she makes me feel.

Kissing Rosalyn again was like heaven. That's the only word I can use to describe it, it felt so of this world I felt as if my whole being had been reborn.

Finally, I can get the happiness I deserve, I have the love of my life right here in my arms and I'm never letting her go.

The Alpha's Rejected Heir by Icon_Brat101 Chapter 31

/ The Alpha's Rejected Heir by Icon_Brat101
Rosalyn's POV

Sitting in my room, my eyes are watching Alessandro and his friend's pack, but my mind is full of recollections of what took place today.

Firstly I still can't believe my baby boy is back. After all this time, I thought I'd never see him again. I honestly thought I was hallucinating when I heard his voice begging me to wake up it sounded far away at first but then it became louder and I opened my eyes thinking it was a dream. When I felt a hand on me I thought it was Jermain but then his scent flooded my nose and I looked up and saw him. The first thing that came to my mind was that I hadn't woken up and was still dreaming or it was the lack of nutrients making me hallucinate. But when I heard his voice telling me he was a part of me was hesitant but I was still hoping what I saw was real and when he held on to my hands and I felt him, the countless emotions that took over had me bursting into tears. It was the most joyous moment of my life next to when I gave birth.

However, I noticed something was extremely different about him and when Althea confirmed my susions I had my answer. The evidence was all there in his eyes, his aura, and mostly in his scent. I could smell the disappointment coming off him in waves he was disappointed in himself for doing something so reckless. I could also sense the change in his wolf, it was no longer the wolf he had before, it change, evolved into something else, something dark but powerful.

I knew what this meant it was already foretold. I read those reports that they had on Alessandro when he was with the council so I know what is happening to him and I know that they'll come for him now that he has awakened. This final transformation whatever it is will determine his fate, I have no idea what the council is up to but I do know that more than anything they want him to transform, and regardless of their kill order they are scientists at heart with a yearning to see their experiment through but I'd kill every living being on this earth before I let anyone take my baby. Now that Al is back I am determined to get my strength back because he cannot fight these battles that are sure to come his way alone.

The next thing that had my mind reeling was Jermaine. I'd finally taken everyone's advice and made up with him. Our conversation still fresh in my mind

Flashback

Alessandro, his friends, dad, and I were all in the room catching up when someone knocks on the door before opening it and walking in. I looked up to see Micheal walk into the room followed by Jermaine who was slowly scanning the space to see who was present.

"Hey guys" Micheal greets

"Hey" we reply in unison

"Uhm Alessandro alpha Ke'shaun has made his decision he would like to meet you in the back yard his mom and Isabelle are there I think they're ready to say their piece to the load of s you have chained to your window," Micheal says

"Well I wasn't expecting them to have been so cooperative but it doesn't matter either way" Alessandro shrugged

Walking over to Kevin who was glaring daggers at him Alessandro picked him up as if the man weighed nothing and threw him over his shoulders. He kept shifting around trying to break free so Alessandro punched him in the side of his head knocking him out cold.

"Sweetie I'm gonna hang back here for a little while there's something that I need to do," I say via mind link

"I know momma, from what you've told me I'd say its long overdue

"I love you mi bambino and don't kill that b before I get there"

I love you more mom, and I wouldn't dream of it"

"Ok let's go," he says out loud walking to the door

Micheal walked behind him followed by his three friends and then dad who gave me a thumbs-up before leaving. I swear nothing gets past that man which is why I wasn't surprised when he told me he knew all along that he wasn't my biological father.

"Jermaine wait," I say stopping him as he's about to leave

He turned looking at me puzzled as I sat on the bed about to have an anxiety attack from how nervous I was.

"C-could I talk to you for a moment" I stutter

He just stood there staring at me like I just grew two heads. I know I haven't spoken to him in six months so I understand his reaction I'm also prepared for his rejection if he so chooses. He has every right not to want anything to do with me I know I hurt him.

"Close your mouth, Jermaine, your drooling" I chuckled at his stunned reaction with his mouth wide open

"Sorry I'm just really surprised that you're talking to me," he said sheepishly and I feel a pang of guilt tug at my heart

"Uh yeah Uhm that's what I wanted to talk to you about," I say nervously

"Oh ok" was his simple response

"Look Jermaine first of all I want to say I'm sorry for the way I've treated you over the past 6 months it was unfair and even though I had my reasons I convinced myself it was the right thing to do even though I knew it was wrong but I did it anyway. I was so caught up in myself I didn't realize what I've been doing to you, I hurt you Jermaine and for that, I'm extremely sorry" I apologize

"You don't have to apologize to me Rosalyn it's ok I understand. What you went through was traumatic, to say the least, and what that guy did to you-. I should be the one apologizing to you I promised you I'd protect you and I failed when you needed me the most" he replied

"You can't blame yourself for that Jermaine it wasn't your fault how could you have known that my mother would let someone r me and if it wasn't for you he would have done a lot worse so as far as I'm concerned you did save me," I tell him

"Look I'm sorry for the way I treated you I'm not completely ok but I'm trying. I hope you can forgive me Jermaine and if you can then I understand" I say unconsciously walking closer towards him

"I can't forgive you Rosalyn because there's nothing to forgive. You did nothing wrong" he says pulling me into his arms

It felt wonderful to be near him again it was like my whole body was given life after nearly dying. I had no idea how much I craved his touch until this moment.

"I love you rose and nothing can ever change that," Jermaine says looking at me, tears gathered in my eyes as I looked up at him.

"I-I love you too, Jermaine," I say also looking him in the eye so he could see it was the truth

Pulling me closer he gently placed his lips against mine. He was hesitant giving me the chance to pull away if I wanted to but there was no way I was gonna pull back. When I don't pull away he takes that as his answer and kisses me deeply pouring out all his emotions into the kiss, it was then that I understood how he felt about me. When we broke away from the kiss Jermaine wrapped his arms around me and we just stood there relishing in each other's embrace. Finally, I could have a happy ending.

A few minutes later we decided to head to the backyard since everyone was most likely waiting on us

Alessandro's POV

Mom, grandpa, my friends, and I were all in the room catching up when someone knocks on the door before opening it and walking in. Uncle Micheal walks into the room followed by Jermaine who was slowly scanning the space.

"Hey guys" uncle Micheal greets

"Hey" we reply in unison

"Uhm Alessandro alpha Ke'shaun has made his decision he would like to meet you in the back yard his mom and Isabelle are there I think they're ready to say their piece to the load of s you have chained to your window," he tells me

"Well I wasn't expecting them to have been so cooperative but it doesn't matter either way" I shrug

Walking over to Kevin who was glaring daggers at me picked him up and threw him over my shoulder. He kept shifting around trying to break free so I punched him in the side of his head knocking him out cold.

"Sweetie I'm gonna hang back here for a little while there's something that I need to do," mom says via mind link

"I know momma, from what you've told me I'd say its long overdue

"I love you mi bambino and don't kill that b before I get there"

I love you more mom, and I wouldn't dream of it" I reply before closing the link

"Ok, let's go," I say out loud walking to the door. Everyone except mom and Jermaine follows

"So has he called them yet?" I ask

"Call who?" Uncle Michael asks

"Has ke'shaun called the council yet? I know they're still here" I say

"Wait what? I haven't seen them since you arrived I aumed they left after the meeting was over"

"Oh they're still here they never left they just concealed themselves so none could sense them"

Chuckling he says "yeah no one but you"

"And us," Sage says

"Ok listen up guys things are probably gonna get real messy the moment we step out of this house so here's the plan"

"Sage put up a strong barrier like the one before around Kevin and cast protection spells on everyone else don't forget mom and Jermaine as well as aunt gen and the baby.

"Ok got it" she replies then starts chanting

"Brandon, Aj, and uncle Michael I'm gonna need you guys for defense since I have Kevin I'm gonna be the main target so I'll need your help to fend off attacks from the pack while I deal with the council members most likely they'll ambush us at once so be on your guard and grandpa I need you to go find aunt gen"

"Got it" they all replied

We stepped outside into the backyard to see the pack gathered while ke'shaun, Amber, Izzy, their mom, and the warriors from earlier stood in front of everyone on a makeshift stage. At first glance, it would look as if it was the entire pack that was present but there were no children there and the only women present were the ones appointed as warriors. I smirked internally they could have at least been a little less obvious I mean come why bother gathering the pack why not let them conceal themselves until they were ready to attack. This plan of action is too obvious after all what alpha allows ab outsider to kill a member of their pack in front of everyone unless its a situation to prevent war and even then it would be this public.

Deciding to play the fool I walk through the crowd ignoring the murmurs and head straight towards the makeshift stage. Ke'shaun nods at me and I mentally commend his hypocrisy if it was anyone else he probably would have had them fooled. Walking towards the front center of the stage he begins to address the crowd

"Hello everyone. I have called this pack meeting today to discuss a few important things that happened over the past six months. As you all know my brother and Rosalyn was kidnapped by my father your former alpha six months ago however when we found them Kevin was missing as but we found one of his accomplice the former beta female Nora parker"

"Please bring her out" he to one of the men at his side"

I hear murderous growls from behind me sounding like mom and Jermaine's arrival, as I see two men bringing a weak battered woman out onto the stage. Turning back to his audience kesh Shaun continues

"Because of the blatant disrespect and treason committed by these two towards our pack, our family they will be publicly executed by Alessandro"

Immediately there was an uproar the moment my name left kesh Shaun's lips. Everyone took that moment to voice their objections

"Calm down everyone this has already been discussed and it was decided that he should be the one to do this as he was the one who found Kevin and brought him here when he didn't have to," Deshaun says

"Alpha we understand that but how can an outsider be allowed to perform such actions these are your decisions" one man shouts

"I'm aware of that but I have given him the authority to do this" he responds

The continued back and forth between these idiots were starting to make my head hurt and it was almost sundown

"ENOUGH" I bellowed in my alpha tone silencing them

"Now I did not come here to listen to you all bicker about who gets the right to kill who. Like I've already stated to your alpha I only came here so he and his family could say their goodbyes your alpha decided to make this a packed affair. Now I would suggest you all say what you have to so I rip this bs heart out and get the f out of this insufferable pack its almost sundown" I say in a serious tone

"And who do you think you are giving our alpha orders you are not-" a woman's voice says but is cut off by the spell sage cast to shut her up

I turn to her giving an appreciative nod before turning back to kesh Shaun and say

“Make it quick alpha I’m losing my patients”

Izzy was the first one to walk forward as I threw Kevin from my shoulder to the ground Aj immediately went to her side making her lean into him for comfort. She had multiple emotions written on her face the most common ones being angry and hurt. Looking at the man who she once loved the man who brought her into this world she says

“I never once thought that the man who was supposed to protect me would be the one to cause me the most harm. You have hurt and betrayed us all for the last time and the death you are about to receive is too good for you but I know the moon goddess will deal with you appropriately. I hope you rot in hell for all you’ve done”

Tears fell from her eyes as she spoke. When she was finished Aj wrapped her in his arms and walked her over to where Brandon and sage were whispering words of comfort to her. I’m glad they found each other after everything Izzy had been through she deserved all the happiness in the world and I knew Aj would take care of her.

Up next was Grandma. The anger and betrayal she’s feeling are so strong they wrapped around her like a blanket. She looked at Kevin who upon until this point hasn’t spoken a word, this man truly is heartless.

“I have nothing to say to you but good riddance and that I hope Alessandro makes your death as painful as it can be,” she says before fishing a ring from her pocket and throwing it in his face slapping him across the face then walking away.

Afterward, Jermaine walked towards him with eyes filled with unfiltered hatred. He didn’t say as he came towards Kevin then grabbed him by the scruff of his neck and punched him in the gut twice. That was the first the man had made as sound as he coughed up blood. Keshawn quickly moved towards them but I stood blocking his path

“Uh uh uh wait your turn alpha”

“He’s attacking him Alessandro this was not a part of our deal” he argues

“We agreed to let them say they’re goodbyes this is how Jermaine decided to say his”

Before keshawn could protest further a scream was heard and we all turned to see Jermaine dropping a syringe to the ground as well as Kevin’s body. The scream came from the older man who was now writhing in pain

“What did you do to him” keshawn growled out

“Oh nothing just a lethal dosage of nightshade mixed with wolfsbane” Jermaine replies in nonchalance

“What the f are you crazy? He’s your father”

This seemed to have pushed Jermaine over the edge as his eyes turned a shade of yellow almost golden as he grabbed kashaun by the neck

“DONT YOU DARE EVER CALL HIM MY FATHER AGAIN THAT ABOMINATION STOPPED BEING MY FATHER THE DAY HE PUT HIS HAND ON MY MOTHER AND YOU FEEL SORRY FOR HIM, THE PAIN HE’S FEELING IS NOT EVEN A FRACTION OF WHAT ROSE AND I HAD TO GO THROUGH” he spat coldly before letting go of his brother and walking away

Halfway across the stage he turns and says “oh by the way I Jermaine black reject you kashaun black as my alpha and hereby renounce my affiliation to the Howling moon pack” then continued to walk away

Feeling the bond between him and his brother break Ke’shaun stumbled almost falling to his knees. Unable to see him fail at anything else I quickly grabbed his shoulders and helped him steady himself so he wouldn’t fall. I may hate him but I’m not heartless he’s an alpha and his pride is all he seems to have left and losing that in front of his pack the people he’s supposed to lead would be his undoing.

He looked at me in surprise before covering it with an emotionless face. I let go when he’s found his balance and we both take a step back distancing ourselves.

Turning back to the old man in pain I say “well are you gonna sat anything alpha” I ask not taking my eyes off Kevin

Surprisingly he answers with “No, I have nothing to sat to him”

Nodding I picked up the man I’d been itching to kill the moment I met him then turned to my mom and say

“The stage is all your momma”

She looked at me confused as did everyone else. Now originally I had planned to kill Kevin myself but after hearing the whole ordeal of what my mom and Jermaine went through I decided it would be best to let her settle the score as it may help her to heal.

“What do you want me to do son?” She asks

“Well I did set out after Kevin to avenge you since I thought you were dead but obviously your not so he’s yours to kill,” I tell her

Nodding in understanding she motions for them to bring Nora closer as well then she said

"I appreciate what you did mi bambino but there's only one person I want to kill but I know someone who killing Kevin would better benefit"

"Jermaine get over here," she says

His eyes lit up the moment mom calked him over he practically speed walked over there. Standing behind them I watched as Nora looked up at mom with a disgusted face mom in return smirked at her and I saw that glint in her eyes she always gets when she catches her prey

"Hello mother, didn't I tell you never to let me get my hands on you or I'd kill you"

"You. b*" Nora sneered

"Tsk tsk tsk now there's no need for name-calling mommy dearest. Besides if I'm a b* as you say then I guess the apple doesn't fall far from the tree huh" mom teased

"You little w* you can never truly kill me I'll always be at the back of your mind haunting you til your death along with the henchman that I allowed r you even in death I always win" Nora yells

"Well you may have shattered me mother," mom says in a serious tone as she pushed her hand in Nora's chest wrapping it around her heart

"But you'll never break me!" She growls her eyes darkening as she ripped Nora's heart from her chest and squeezed it.

A tear fell from mom's eye as she let out breathe I doubt she realized she'd been holding. I walked up to her and pulled her into a warm hug, finally, she could be free. We then turned attention to Jermaine who was busy slowly torturing Kevin. I saw him break a few of his bones causing them to scream out in agony then he took the syringe which had earlier held the poison he injected Kevin with and pushed the needle inside his father's left eye. He then repeated this action with the right eye then both his ears, I had to say watching that gave me chills and I made a mental note never to piss Jermaine off.

When he was finished he then took out a pocket knife and slit Kevin's throat as we all watch him bleed out until he was dead. Knowing that man is a tricky b and walked over to him and ripped his head off just for good measure, don't want him coming back from the dead now, do we.

Mom sighed walking over and hugging from behind, resting her head on his back she says "it's finally over"

Jermaine turned in her arms smiling before he responds with "yes it is" then kissed her

They stood there sing faces for a few seconds before I couldn't take it anymore and yelled " my eyes my poor delicate eyes. Come on you guys ain't nobody wants to see that" making them break away and start laughing

After our laughter quieted down I looked at all my family members and said "it's sundown guys let's leave this place and go home"

They all nodded and we turned and started walking away. I reached the steps before ke'shaun's voice stops me saying

"Alessandro, wait"

Then when I turned around, the sight before me made my wolf go mad with rage and all hell broke loose

Rosalyn's POV

"I, standing here in front of you and the people that we both love so dearly, promise to always love you. I will always love you. To me, your love is like water. It is shapeless and it is formless but it is also peaceful, yet so, so strong. You cannot live without water and I cannot live without you. You, my darling, are my heart. Remember the very first day we met? From the moment I saw you, I knew, I just knew that you were The One, the one I MUST spend my life with. Our courtship has been the happiest period of my life because, in that time, you become not just my lover and companion, but also my best friend. I promise to support you, through thick and thin. I cannot wait to walk back down that aisle so that I can start the rest of my life with you by my side. You, darling, are my best friend, my mate, my confidante, and my greatest gift. You are the love of my life, someone who always makes me happier than I could ever have imagined and you have made me a better person than I ever thought I could be. I feel truly blessed that the moon goddess chose me as your mate and that I get to share my life with you and that you have chosen to share yours with me. So now I Genevieve Allison Carson take you, Micheal Julius Parker, to be my husband. I vow to be your biggest fan and partner in crime. I promise to support a family with you in a home filled with patience, love, and understanding. I vow to grow old with you. I will love you faithfully and unconditionally through difficult and easy times. Whatever may come, I promise to always be there with you. As I have given my life to you." Genevieve says reciting her vows and puts the ring on Michael's finger

I'm currently standing behind gen along with her two other bridesmaids. It took a while but we're finally at their wedding. You may be wondering what happened the day Kevin and Nora died, well I'll fill you in.

Flashback

"It's sundown guys let's leave this place and go home," Alessandro says

We all nodded then turned and started walking away. He reached the steps before ke'shaun's voice stops him saying

"Alessandro wait"

We all turn to look at him wondering what the hell he could want now.

"There's some unfinished business we have to attend to, there's one more monster that needs to be taken care of" keshaum announces

Immediately his pack gathers around us. Smirking triumphantly keychain says "You can't win Alessandro just give yourself up"

Laughing Al replied "you believe that don't you"

"Yes, I do, and do you want to know why?" He asks

"Please, enlighten me," Alessandro says

"Because I have the upper hand. Bring them out" he says with an evil grin

The two men who had brought out Nora earlier left the stage and came back with Dad, Genevieve, and baby Cameron all held with knives at their throats. A loud thunderous growl from Micheal echoed through the air "Let them go now!" He commanded in his beta voice

The men whimpered at the power in his voice and bared their necks as a sign of submission.

"Don't listen to him" keshaum says in his alpha voice making the men tighten their grips on our family

I could feel Althea's presence strengthen in my mind as my rage built and evolved beyond its limits. We all got into defensive stances ready for a maacre which is what it will be when we're done.

Before any of us could make a move the sound of Amber's scream filled the air.

Turning so quickly I'm surprised he didn't get whiplashed Deshaun runs to her side in an instant "what's wrong?" He asks

"The. Baby, I. Think. My. Water. Just. Broke. And. There's. Something. Wrong. With. The. Baby" she barely breathes out

"Oh there's nothing wrong with your baby, Yet," Sage Alessandro's friend says

"What do you mean? What have you done to her?" Keshawn demands walking towards her. He tries to grab Sage but is thrown across the stage by an invisible force.

"I wouldn't recommend that alpha" she tsk

"There's nothing wrong with the baby I just sped up Amber's pregnancy and increased the pain of her contractions now release Alessandro's family before I give your luna a miscarriage" she warns

"You s I'll kill you" Deshaun yells

"Try it I dare you," Brandon and Alessandro says in unison

"Kill them" keshawn orders the men holding our family hostage

"Oh no, you don't, Flame circle!!" Sage yells and suddenly the men holding dad, gen, and Cameron screamed, they all erupted in flames as a magic circle appeared under their feet.

"Alessandro go save them now the protection spell I cast won't last long," the sage says

Alessandro and Micheal immediately ran towards the huge circle of fire. I saw Micheal grab the baby and Genevieve while Alessandro held on to dad and they both pulled them out of the fire.

"Go take care of them, I'll deal with this here" Alessandro instructs Micheal

"Make sure you make his death painful," Micheal says looking at keshawn

"Oh I will" Al replied cracking his knuckles and walking in the direction of his father

"Everyone attack" keshawn yells and immediately the backyard turned into a war zone.

Jermaine and I fight wolf after wolf trying our best not to kill them since they're just following their alpha's orders. I can see it hurts him to have to fight the people he grew up with, his family. But we had to defend ourselves or they won't hesitate to kill us all. After fighting for goddess knows how long with the help of Sage's powers we managed to subdue all the wolves. Most were injured but only three died so in all it wasn't that bad. The only fight now going on is Alessandro and keshawn.

They are both filled with cuts and each other's blood. I could tell Alessandro was holding back not wanting to risk his wolf taking over and going on a rampage however, he still had the upper hand. Alessandro managed to pin kashaun but he clawed him in the shoulder and Al let go.

Kashaun got up and grabbed the jacket that he had on earlier. Fishing through the pockets he drew out a vile with a yellow liquid and I immediately recognized it. It was the same serum the council injected Alessandro with, I could tell although this one seemed more potent.

"Kashaun don't!!!" I yelled but it was too late as he downed the liquid in one go

We all stood there watching him see what would happen. It took a few minutes but suddenly kashaun doubled over screaming in pain. We could see his body physically changing as his muscles became more defined and he seemed to have gotten bigger. His nails changed to claws and his eyes became pitch black not just his pupil his entire eye. A few more minutes paed and the pain seemed to have paed as he stood up towering over us. He had shifted to a wolfman as Alessandro could but he looked more beast than man even way more beastly than Alessandro and that is saying a lot.

He had a wicked grin on his face as he said to Alessandro "shift"

"Why on earth would I do that" Alessandro asked

Using his newfound speed he appeared beside me throwing Jermaine off the makeshift stage and putting one of his claws on my jugular

"I said shift pup I want to see who's more powerful you or me"

"Fine but just remember you asked for this I wasn't gonna kill you before but now you crossed the most dangerous line when you threatened my family" Alessandro replied as his eyes turned black and physical features changed.

Grinning like a maniac kashaun moved his claw from my neck and walked over to Al. I quickly ran over to Jermaine to check on him as he fell pretty hard. Checking him for injuries I see he had nothing major just a few scrs here and there

"Hey, are you ok?" I ask running my hand through his hair

"Yeah I'm good," he says leaning into me

I helped him stand and we stood there watching kashaun and Alessandro tearing at each other like the wild beasts they are. They scratch claw and bite each other as blood and body parts splatter over the stage. Kashaun then shifted into his wolf. The black-furred creature looked even bigger than it did before and I knew it was the serum he drank. Al then shifted as well his wolf was way bigger than I last remembered but Deshaun's still towered over his. Both of them lunged at each other and once again the fighting started, both of them clawing and biting like there's no tomorrow.

Keshaun swiped his left paw at Alessandro who quickly dodge but he wasn't fast enough and one of Deshaun's claws scratched him above his eye making Al growl. The injured eye closed due to the blood that was getting into it. Keshaun used this opportunity to pin Alessandro he then bit at his neck but Al used his hind paws to push him off. Even though he missed Deshaun still managed to bite him in the shoulder ripping out a chunk of flesh. I saw Alessandro's eyes darken as he howled in pain. He quickly got to his feet and lunged at keshaun, something about him was different his fighting style completely changed and his speed increased but he was injured badly and I could tell it was taking a toll on him.

Both wolves kept attacking each other constantly and suddenly I see Alessandro shift to his human form and extend his claws as soon as keshaun jumped to attack however he didn't get far as Alessandro stuck his hand out and he fell onto it in midair. At first glance, it seemed as if Alessandro's hand was stuck in Deshaun's chest but it was in his stomach. He then dragged his claws upward ripping away at Deshaun's stomach as he goes. He then dropped the now dead wolf to the ground his entire body covered in blood. He then turned to look at me and I gasped at what I saw, his entire eyes were black just like keshaun's were when he drank the serum. He reach out to me as he swayed, seeming to have lost his balance. I quickly ran to him and caught him in my arms as he fell.

"It's ok baby momma's got you," I say wiping the blood from his face.

"M-mom I'm sorry i-"

" it's ok, sweetheart I know what's happening," I say cutting him off

"T-they're gonna come for me and everyone else I care about"

"I know but I'll raise hell before I let them take you"

"Haha, You. Cant. Stop. Them. They're. Coming. For. You. You. Abomination" a weak voice says

We look in its direction to see keshaun who had reverted to his human form barely alive. I gently placed Alessandro on the ground and walked over to him and said out loud

"I know you're all watching in the shadows so this message is for you and whoever is running this experimentation. IM COMING FOR YOU" before ripping keshaun's head from his shoulders.

Then I walked over to Alessandro and picked him up from the ground, then walked back to the packhouse heading for the infirmary. There was no way in hell I'm gonna let those bs get away with what they did to my son. Hell knows no fury like a woman's wrath and they're about to taste mine.

End Of Flashback

After everything that went down that day since the pack was left with no alpha and Amber's baby was too young to assume the role the title had been passed to Alessandro since he was the one who defeated Keshawn. However, he in turn refused and passed the title on to Izzy who then disbanded the pack as she had no intentions of becoming an alpha but she did help most of the members get into a new pack instead of them becoming rogues. So long story short the howling moon pack is no more. Micheal, dad, and Genevieve came back to Italy with us along with Alessandro's friends and Izzy seeing as Aj is her mate. Mrs Black went to live with a friend of hers who's a human and Amber went back to her father's pack.

So now we're standing in Tuscany beach finally at Micheal and Genevieve's wedding. I'm her maid of honor along with two of her other relatives who are her bridesmaids while Alessandro, Jermaine, and dad are standing behind Micheal, dad as his best man. They were asked to recite their vows, Gen already said hers and now it was Michael's turn.

"What can I say that I haven't already said? What can I provide you that I haven't already given? My body, my mind, my soul, and my heart. They're all yours. Everything that I have and everything that I belong to you long before today. And I promise that it shall all be yours forever. I will be yours forever. I will follow you anywhere you go and anywhere lead me to. Hand in hand. Heart in the heart. Let's get on with this so that we can grow old together! From this day on, I choose you to be my wife. To live with you and laugh with you; to stand by your side, and sleep in your arms; to be the joy to your heart and food for your soul; to bring out the best in you always, and, for you, to be the most that you can. I promise to laugh with you in good times, to struggle and support you in the bad times; to offer you solace when you are downhearted; to wipe away your tears with my hands and my love; to share with you all my riches and honors; to play with you as much as I can until we grow old; and, still loving each other sweetly and gladly, until our lives shall come to an end. Genevieve from the moment I first saw you, I knew you were the one with whom I wanted to share my life. Your beauty, heart, and mind inspire me to be the best person I can be. I promise to love you for eternity, respecting you, honoring you, being faithful to you, and sharing my life with you this is my solemn vow." Micheal says placing the ring on Gen's finger.

"With these vows promised I now pronounce you husband and wife, you may now kiss the bride." The pastor says. Micheal pulled Gen close to him and kissed her passionately.

I made the mistake of choosing that moment to look over at Jermaine who saw me ogling him and smirked. I could feel my cheeks turning bright red and I've never been so thankful for my caramel skin

"Ladies and gentlemen I give you Mr&Mrs Parker" the pastor introduces

Everyone claps shouting congratulations to the newlywed couple. Micheal took Gen's hand and they both walk back down the aisle. With the ceremony officially ending we were all gearing up to head to the reception that will be held at a hotel.

Jermaine walked over to me with a mischievous look in his eyes and I wonder what he was up to.

"Hey," he says

"Hi" I reply wrapping my hands around his neck

"I have an idea why don't we skip the reception and go do something a bit more fun" he whispers biting seductively on my ear lobe

"And what could be more fun than going to a wedding reception where there is food wine and cake?" I ask

"I can think of a few things" he replies wiggling his eyebrows suggestively

Before I could reply Alessandro and Izzy shouted "Ewwww

"Ok get a room you two, my sensitive ears are being damaged" Al whines

"Don't listen if you don't want to hear" Jermain retorts sticking his tongue out at Alessandro

"You guys are old you shouldn't be talking about such things," Izzy says

"You're the ones who shouldn't be talking about it," I say

"What, you guys don't want to hear how I make love rose? First i-" Jermaine teases

"NOOOOOOO" they both yelled

Jermaine and I doubled over laughing at the horrified looks on their faces. I swear they are crazy.

"Ok guys lets go before we're late for the reception, I don't want to miss dad's best man speech," I say

We all walked in the direction of where the cars are parked leaving the beach with smiles on our faces. Finally, everything is as it should be.

Third Person POV

Four cloaked figures stood in front of a tank filled with water, in that tank is a man riddled with wounds and scars. He was unconscious but alive.

"Another failure, what do we do now?" One of the figures asked

"This experiment can still be salvaged but it's still not compatible with the serum. Furthermore, we still have subject 114 we can continue to watch how he progresses, everything seems to be right on schedule." the second figure replied

"But even so we have to produce more results because when he gets here if we have nothing to show he'll kill us all," the fourth figure says

"I think I may have a way for our experiments to yield some results. There is a girl whose blood can do amazing things. Here's her file, this is all we have on her" the third figure tells his companions

Name: Lillian Carter

Age: 17

D.O.D: June 9, 2000

Father: Deceased

Mother: Married, lives in Seattle

Location: last seen in California

"Why does this look like that human girl our predecessors had here some years ago?" The first cloaked figure asked

"Because it is. It seems subject 114 isn't the only one compatible with serum H."

"This is good, we can use her to create the soldiers he's looking for. Let's send some men to retrieve her.
