

Technician's Manual - Chapter 1

“Great end-watcher, Ash Heath! The good follows you, the evil admires you! The light desires you, and the dark desires you too! You are the existence that transcends everything, the color that God has painted on all things. !”

“The great end-watcher, Ash Heath...”

Ya Xiu sat on the cold stone seat and looked at a large group of weird people in black robes who were kneeling on the ground to pray for himself. Under his cold face, he was panicked.

This can't be blamed on him. After all, his memory from the first second was still in that * mobile game company all night to early in the morning to contribute surplus value, and then he suddenly came to this strange underground hall to accept everyone's worship in the next second.

Overwhelming reaction.

What's even more amazing is that Ya Xiu can understand their language, just as natural as his mother tongue. He doesn't need to think about translation at all, and he understands what they mean directly. When he gradually calmed down, he quickly came to a conclusion: he had crossed, and his soul had crossed to a person with the same name.

Since childhood, many people have said that his name sounds fantastic, but Ya Xiu did not expect that he would encounter such a strange world one day.

But he does not have the surname Heath, and because of this, he can quickly determine that he is not dreaming.

Not only is the name the same, but even the appearance seems to be the same, and by moving basic parts such as fingers to toes, Ah Xiu finds that his body feels no different, as if this is his original body. Everything is so flexible and natural that he has to Doubt whether he is himself who has crossed into a parallel world.

For the convenience of addressing, and because everyone has the same name, Ah Xiu secretly referred to the original owner of this body as 'Heath'.

But these thoughts are meaningless to the current status quo, because Ash discovered that Heath did not leave the most important things to himself.

That is memory.

Yes, memory!

It seems that Heath's memory was formatted by the way when he was traveling. Ah Xiu had no idea what to do next, and even his expression remained in this calm state with a trace of evil charm, for fear that others would see the flaws. .

Don't look at the group of people under the stone seat being extremely respectful to themselves, but if Asia shows any flaws, then how respectful they are now, how cruel they will be after turning their faces. After all, from their point of view, the "evil soul of the other world" obliterated the soul of the son of Heath, and occupied the body of the son of Heath. He was a real sinner, plus their strong religious overtones. I don't think I can get their understanding by saying, "I'm actually a victim too."

But sitting like this is not an option, and Ya Xiu can no longer hold the seeming smile on his face.

boom boom boom—

The underground hall suddenly rang and shook, and the people in black robes were overjoyed.

“Pray for God to come!”

Ya Xiu thought that the earthquake was about to stand up, but he found that his * seemed to stick to the stone seat and couldn't stand up. Suddenly the dazzling and colorful light illuminates his eyes. He looked up and saw that four dazzling rainbow lights appeared in the sky, bringing color to the hall and endless warmth.

“The great end-watcher, Ash Heath!”

They said in unison, as if thousands of people were speaking at the same time: “The only pure man in the dark and muddy world, the last brave man of the great earth, you shoulder the heavy responsibility of saving the world and the mission of saving all living beings!”

“We will cross the silver heaven wheel to give you strength, and we will break the golden scales to bless your glory! Your name is holy, your will is our meaning, and your country is the place of happiness for all beings!”

“Ash Heath!”

Before he knew it, Ah Xiu found that he was already on one knee, lowering his head respectfully, waiting for the moment of glory.

The red light group on the far left said: “I am the lord of billions of brilliance, in charge of battle, courage and honor! I give you angels of strength and clean up all enemies for you!”

A female angel with a spear and wings on her back flew in front of Ah Xiu. She was wearing a red armor, her body was only the size of a finger, but she was so powerful that she seemed to be able to see a sea of blood from the dead mountain in her eyes.

The second blue light group on the left said: "I am the king of wind, rain and snow, in charge of wisdom, change and destiny! I give you an angel of wisdom to help you achieve all your goals!"

A female angel wearing a blue hat and holding a notebook flew in front of Ah Xiu. She was also the size of a finger and her eyes were deep, as if she had hidden endless knowledge.

The second green light group on the right said: "I am the heart of eternal scorching, I control life, equality and sharing. I give you an angel of life and help you be healthy forever!"

An emerald-green female angel, like a little girl, flew in front of Ya Xiu. She was very cute. There was a ring of emerald green halo around her, which made people feel extremely warm and relaxing.

The pink light group on the far right said: "I am the soul of dream freedom, I am in charge of love, joy and art. I give you a happy angel and help you become more charming!"

A beautiful pink female angel flew in front of Ya Xiu, her graceful figure and her eyes were fascinating. Even her body was only the size of a finger, she seemed to be the most beautiful existence in the world.

Four angels danced around Ya Xiu, adding dazzling brilliance to Ya Xiu. At this moment, Ya Xiu felt a steady flow of power, his body was full of energy, and his mood was extremely happy. There were countless plans in his mind, and everything was great!

The lord of billions of brilliance, the lord of wind, rain and snow, the eternal scorching heart, and the soul of dream freedom said at the same time: "The brave beloved by fate, the viewer who understands cause and effect, please create miracles and save the world!"

With the sound like a bubble breaking, the four descending gods gradually dissipated, but the light in the underground hall was still, because the four angels in Asia were like a walking rainbow.

Ya Xiu clenched his fists, the corners of his mouth turned up, showing a confident smile.

I didn't expect it, I didn't expect it! He thought that this sudden crossing was a big pit, but he did not expect it to be a welfare. He actually became a brave man in this world, with the blessing of four gods and the support of countless believers. What a wonderful script!

The next step is to defeat the monsters, save the world, marry the most beautiful princess, become the king of this world, and reach the pinnacle of life!

咚!

There was a loud noise from the ceiling, and the black-robed believer in the front said: "Brave, the blood mad hunter has found here! Now I can only rely on you to repel them!"

Blood mad hunter? It's a villain at the first sound. Ya Xiu guessed that they were the novice Guan Zayu who had gained prestige and familiar skills, so he drew out the long sword from his waist proudly and said proudly: "My sword is against, absolutely invincible! Let this group of blood mad hunters become me The first dead souls under the sword! Come and lead the way!"

"No, let's come by ourselves."

With a bang, the ceiling of the underground hall exploded directly!

Ya Xiu looked up and saw a group of enemies wearing silver trench coats and hunting caps, armed with blood-stripe swords, jumping from above!

"Good job!"

Ya Xiu shouted:

“strength!”

“wisdom!”

“life!”

“Happy!”

The four angels added blessings to Ah Xiu. At this moment, Ah Xiu felt that he could cut the enemy in two with one sword! Without fear, he roared, jumped up and slashed towards the blood mad hunter at the forefront, and even slashed the air of the sword!

Under the blessing of the gods, I actually became so strong!

Now that I have the protection of a defensive barrier and a steady stream of physical strength, I see who else can beat me!

Just when Ya Xiu was secretly proud, he heard the blood mad hunter on the opposite side sneer.

“That’s it?”

The blood mad hunter showed a grin and waved his long sword. The long sword instantly turned into a chain sword several meters long, cutting out a blood-red sword gas that was several meters long!

Ya Xiu’s sword aura was instantly swallowed, and the defensive barrier on his body was instantly blown up. The entire underground hall was slashed by the blood mad hunter, and a huge crack broke under Ya Xiu’s feet!

Seeing the other party defeating himself violently, Ya Xiu didn't react for a while: "How could it be..."

"It's just that you have four two-winged chaos magic spirits, not yours, how can you have the courage to fight with my three-winged sanctuary?"

a gust of wind surging, three wings appeared on the back of the blood mad hunter, namely the silver wing, the gold wing and the colorful wing!

He took the chain sword back into the long sword form, and broke into Ya Xiu's arms like a flying dragon, a sword pierced Ya Xiu's chest, and nailed him to the stone seat!

Ya Xiu had to sit down again.

He vomited blood and stared blankly at the blood mad hunter taking off the small lantern on his waist. I don't know how the hunter aroused, the lantern suddenly emits incandescent white light.

The angels who are trying to continue to grant Ashiu power, UU reading www.uukānshu.com screams of despair and hatred under the shining of this white light, their bodies can no longer maintain their previous beauty, and they have become extremely ugly!

The angel of strength turned into an ugly praying mantis,

The angel of wisdom turns into a rotten fly,

The angel of life melted into pale maggots,

Happy Angel turned into a burst of foul smelly gas!

Courage, wisdom, joy, and the various shelters of life quickly faded from Ya Xiu's body. He was also completely awakened by the sharp pain in his chest, and his face was at a loss.

What happened just now?

He was an ordinary person who had just crossed over and didn't know any information. Why did he suddenly become so arrogant and arrogant, participating in a war that has nothing to do with him?

Where is this an operation that can be performed by a normal social animal who has been beaten up by the society for several years?

Just when Ash was stunned, the battle in the underground hall had also ended, and the followers of the black robe were not the opponents of the blood mad hunters at all.

The blood mad hunter standing in front of Ah Xiu took out a scroll from his arms and unfolded it in front of Ah Xiu, revealing the red seal file inside:

"I'm Gerald Westminster, the blood mad hunter of the Crime Hunting Hall, hunter number 307791. The Crime Hunting Hall now suspects that you are related to the spread of the Four Pillars God cult, multiple kidnappings, murders, robberies and other vicious crimes. This is an arrest warrant signed by the Crime Hunting Department of Kaimeng City. If you have any opinions on our law enforcement, you can complain to the front desk of Kaimon Branch of the Crime Hunting Office, No. 233, Civic Avenue, or directly report to the mayor's mailbox."

"Then, now." The blood mad hunter put away his arrest warrant, took out a pair of silver shackles, and put on these rather exquisite bracelets for Ah Xiu by himself. The corners of his mouth were upturned, showing pale fangs:

"The leader of the Four Pillars Cult, Ash Heath, you have been arrested."
