Chapter 101 - Summon \"sincerity\"

Chapter 101 - Summon \"sincerity\"

Gallus, Jianhua University.

“...Sure enough, I knew it was a whirlpool, * it, why am I not as lucky as you, my Silver Wings are condensed by my hard work every day and night!”

“Tsk, no, the more you think about it, the more angry you become, the more you look at you, the more jealous you are. The most annoying in my life is someone with good luck and talent like you. Get out of here.”

“Go back and hone my swordsmanship. If you let me find that you are arrogant and slacking because of this achievement, you will wait to be burned to ashes by the fire of my jealousy...”

Sonia was kicked out of the professor's research room directly, she spit out her tongue and walked back happily—don't look at what Professor Trozan said so harshly, but the rewards that should be given were not small at all, she took it directly from her own collection. I gave two swordsmanship spirits to her, and also shared two swordsmanship miracles!

The two one-winged magic spirits are the scabbard and the sword sharpening. The former Sonia has been seen in the hands of Celia-senpai. It can be triggered when the blade is stored in the scabbard for more than 15 seconds. Strengthen the power of the next attack;

The latter is a buffing Shu Ling specially used for sword blades. It is triggered when the whetstone is used on the blade, which can make the blade sharper, full of resilience, and not easy to break.

The two swordsmanship miracles are “Sword Sheath Gathering Light” and “Sword Grinding for Ten Years”. They are all miracles derived from scabbard and sword sharpening as the main skill spirit. Sonia has to purchase additional auxiliary skill spirit to activate it. These two miracles.

For example, “Sword Grinding for Ten Years” requires the use of the time element “second”, “minute”, “hour”, “day”, “month”, and “year”.

Although they are time-based Shulings, they are not expensive, or even cheap, and they can be bought at any time on the Shuling trading platform.

Because in the time continent on the second level of the Void Realm, this series of time magic spirits are almost everywhere, and every time the Second Wing Magician enters the Void Realm, they can harvest a lot of these time magic spirits.

Although it is a resource that is only qualified for picking by a two-winged magician, the price will naturally fall when the quantity is too large, otherwise Professor Trozan will not teach the miracle of Sonia-this juggernaut still knows that he is a genius Apprentice’s family background.

However, Sonia was actually wealthy because she had sold a lot of magical spirits in the virtual realm. She was also thinking about purchasing magical spirits to improve the tactical system. Now Professor Trozan helped her solve her troubles in advance.

From these two miracles, it can be seen that Professor Trozan has already established Sonia’s current goals: to improve her realm, to be familiar with magical spirits, and to master miracles.

This is also a matter of course. It took only eight days to gather Silver Wings from zero, and Sonia’s swordsmanship realm could not keep up with the growth rate of her mana.

Today, the ditch that lies in front of Sonia is the realm of magic spells. As long as she hasn’t raised the realm of swordsmanship to gold in a day, she can’t summon two winged magic spirits for a day, and naturally she can’t enter the second floor of the virtual realm, and cannot step into The time continent cannot condense the wings of gold.

The promotion of a magician is not allowed to be short-board, and the magical power and realm must meet the standards at the same time, so that the virtual realm will open up a larger world for the magician.

Therefore, even if Sonia fully unfolds the Silver Wings, if she wants to be promoted to the Second Wing, it will take at least a year to settle the realm of swordsmanship.

In a sense, Sonia's ability to condense so quickly is a huge risk, because she will come to the core area of the sea of knowledge from now on. If she is unlucky, she will even encounter mature intellectual creatures-then It is definitely not an existence that a wing art master can contend.

This is why Trozan is so strict with her, because if Sonia is slack and lazy, she is likely to die continuously in the virtual realm. At that time, she will not only suffer damage to her soul, but also lose important magical spirits, and may even cause The magic realm stagnated.

"Falling the wind and waves" is a great taboo of the magician. I don't know how many magicians think that the fate is favored after their own encounters. Their confidence is inflated. As a result, they are quickly taught by the Void Realm. In the end, everyone is stunned and their achievements are not as good. A diligent technician who climbs down to earth step by step.

The Void Realm is not a place of charity, the Void Realm will exert much pressure on you as much as you gain from the Void Realm. All the lucky gifts given by the virtual world are marked with the misfortune to be paid on the back.

Unless Sonia can encounter a golden fish like a whirlpool, and she can sneak into the Time Continent with a burst of luck, then she will be able to ignore the realm of the sky and directly promote to the second wing.

But let alone Professor Trozan, even Sonia hadn't thought about this possibility-because even the viewer couldn't find the golden fish.

Sonia's cheerful expression faded when she thought of the viewer.

She sighed secretly and prepared to return to the dormitory-today is still under martial law, the school is closed, and all students are not allowed to approach the white tower.

However, as soon as I left the research building, I saw a familiar silver limousine parked in the driveway. She turned and tried to go around, but the window of the car lowered, revealing Felix's handsome face.

"Get in the car, I will drive you back."

There was no need to respond to the statement, and Sonia didn't want to talk to anyone now. Felix drove up to Sonia slowly and asked, "Did you meet the whirlpool?"

"Yes."

Now almost everyone in the school knows that Sonia, a village girl who just entered the sea of knowledge, encountered the whirlpool within a few days. 'Such words, but there is only this shortcut to increase silver magic power, and people with bad breath have nothing to say.

It's impossible for someone to use the whirlpool to keep Sonia!

As for the coercion of 'she is just lucky', once it appears in the 'Sword Flower Exchange Area' in the curtain, it will only cause the students to ridicule and ban them. The rise of all legendary magicians is indispensable for the blessing of luck. Good magicians have long been bullied by the Void Realm and can only scream.

Attacking a magician with luck is the most embarrassing act. It is as raspy and boring as 'if he can't breathe, I can defeat him'.

So Sonia has no need to deny, let alone she can't deny it now.

Felix was silent for a long time, and when Sonia was about to enter the dormitory area, he suddenly asked, "After you passed through the whirlpool, did you meet a seriously wounded fish-cutting dragon and got the killing sword from it?"

Sonia was startled slightly, no matter what she was thinking at this time, but the ceremony had already decided what she was going to say: “Yes.”

Felix was a little surprised. In fact, he didn't expect such an answer. If Sonia did meet, she must have understood the subtext of Felix's words.

According to Sonia's character and abilities, she could definitely deny that it was so dripping that Felix would not be able to see the slightest trace.

Felix tapped his fingers lightly on the steering wheel and asked, “How much will I have to pay to buy back the Killing Sword from you?”

Although Sonia wanted to say ‘not for sale’ hard, but her mouth obediently said: “Let me get a noble title.”

Felix was startled slightly: “I didn't mention it to you before, as long as you marry me—”

“I do not like you.”

That's a fake marriage of interest exchange. What does it have to do with whether you like it or not? ... Felix almost wanted to ask this sentence, but when he saw Sonya's seriousness, he swallowed it again and sighed: “If you don't want to go this way, then I have nothing else. The conditions that can move you... wait a minute.”

Sonia shrank decisively into the dormitory area, wondering if Felix wanted to steal the magical spirit of the citizen girl in broad daylight?

I saw Felix took out a piece of paper to write and draw, and then flew directly to Sonia: “After reading it, I burned it. Is it worth your favor?”

Sonia took a look and found that it was a miracle technique called ‘killing intent activation’, and the main skill was the killing intent sword.

Unlike the “Evil Light Slash” which simply enhances its power, the “Kill Intent Activation” is a very complete compound miracle. The effect is to make the magician convert the killing intent into his own gain effect, which comprehensively enhances strength, explosive power, and reaction speed. , Physical recovery and other indicators, and the strengthening effect increases as the concentration of killing intent increases.

This is a very practical miracle in both virtual and reality, because the killing intent not only refers to the killing intent of the enemy, but also the killing intent generated by the magician himself.

In the silver realm, the ‘killing intent activation’ can increase the magician by up to 150%. Such a practical miracle can’t afford to smash Sonia’s small vault.

Obviously, this is the matching miracle that Felix and Sword of Killing obtained together.

“Does this technique make you owe me a favor?”

“Yes, but it’s only about the favor of one silver coin. If your request exceeds one silver coin, I will reject your request with guilt and conscience.”

“You are so clear.” Felix smiled: “I will use this silver coin favor in the most suitable place.”

“But you just give it to me?” Sonia said in surprise: “Don’t you sign a confidential contract? Are there any other requirements?”

“No, you use the killing sword well, don’t waste it.”

After that, Felix drove away. Sonia was a little at a loss, wondering if this was the rich man, and she would send a miracle technique when she raised her hand?

But in fact, it is understandable that as the “killing sword” of the “Secret Sword Twenty One Spirit”, Felix wants to get it too difficult, so the miracle of killing intent activation is almost meaningless to him, so it is better to give it away. Be a favor to Sonia.

What's more, Felix seems to be planning to switch to poison, water, and wind. Swordsmanship has become his disguise. Professor Trozan is just a temporary shelter he found. He does not have a competitive relationship with Sonia now.

Having said that, Sonia still had to sigh for the courage of the aristocratic silly young master. If you change to her, you won't be willing to give a miracle for free, at least you will need some money to appease her stingy heart.

However, the activation of the killing intent requires two auxiliary magic spirits, which are expensive and may not be available to purchase, which makes Sonia, who is not wealthy, even worse.

As if all the hardships were coming, Sonia had actually obtained two magic spirits and three miracles within a day. It would take her a lot of time just to master these 'new equipment'.

If she were replaced by Sonia from half a month ago, she would definitely not have thought that she would one day be troubled by too many magical miracles.

However, Sonia's most annoyance at this time was not Shu Ling and miracles.

She wanted to go back to the dormitory to relax and watch Dedaros's new movie or something. But after hesitating for a while, she still chose to go to the training hall for magical training.

.....

At 11 o'clock in the evening, Sonia came to the Meditation Building on time.

Although the school is still under martial law, the areas outside the white tower have basically resumed operations, such as the canteen training hall, but classes have been cancelled and students are allowed to study all day – many students hope that such days can continue.

When searching for the door of truth, Sonia suddenly felt a little flustered, but quickly calmed down.

'I was forced to train swordsmanship for two hours at night... Obviously the power of the viewer is still working...'

'Moreover, a strong recovery man with amnesia like this, even if he dies, he will definitely be able to resurrect again...'

'If something happens to him, it's fine, then I'll be free. Anyway, I have gathered the Silver Wings, and I no longer need him to explore the Void Realm for the time being, he is useless...'

'But there is a high probability that he escaped from prison last night, and he accidentally fell asleep so he didn't come to the Void Realm. How could something happen so easily. Speaking of it, would he be surprised if I showed off my newly acquired magical spirits and miracles? '

In her wild thoughts, Sonia found the door of truth~www.mtnovel.com~, sank into consciousness and entered the virtual realm.

The soul passed through the layers of darkness and fog, and the consciousness gathered and formed in the virtual realm. Sonia opened her eyes slowly, and the familiar boat and the familiar weird were greeted.

His voice is still so frivolous and unreliable: "Good evening, Jian Ji."

Sonia suddenly forgot the lines she was prepared to use to complain and reprimand.

It was like a boulder falling in her heart. She breathed a sigh of relief and pressed her hand lightly on her chest, with a relieved smile: "It's fine if you are fine."

This sudden concern made Ya Xiu a little startled, but before he could say anything, a golden light emerged from the peaks on Sonia's chest and turned into a bright winged magic spirit.

It looks like a nearly transparent butterfly with only one wing, but when it dances, it reflects colorful light, which is as gorgeous as a bubble-like dream.

Even if there was no contact, at the moment they saw it, Ya Xiu and Sonia already knew the name of this Shu Ling.

“sincerity”.

Technician’s Manual - Chapter 102

Chapter 102 - Do you really don’t care about your own life and death?

Chapter 102 - Do you really don’t care about your own life and death?

“sincerity”

“One Wing Shu Ling”

“Restriction: Must have a heart”

“Basic effect: Turn the heart into a ‘sincere heart’. During the duration of the effect, it will greatly strengthen the magician’s mental resistance and weaken a series of negative effects that affect the soul, consciousness, and thinking, such as dizziness, confusion, and lag.”

“Passive effect: The magician will become more like to speak the truth, prefer to communicate more sincerely, and be easier to distinguish the authenticity of other people’s words.”

““There are only two tragedies in life: one is not telling the truth, the other is telling the truth.””

Sonia stroked this winged magic spirit like a transparent butterfly, and she felt an incredible feeling in her heart. She was not the first time she summoned Shu Ling, but the first time she was summoned so defenseless, so surprising.

She knew that the 'sincerity' magic spirit was summoned because of the compulsory ritual of the viewer, but she had almost no obstacles to grasp the 'sincerity' and had a complete insight into the knowledge structure of 'sincere'.

Sonia has a strong hunch: Even if she loses her "sincerity" in the future, she can summon it again.

Obviously she has never learned about 'sincerity', and her nature is very different from 'sincerity', but when stroking this transparent butterfly, the resonance of knowledge connects her and Shu Ling, and Sonia feels it feels like blood is connected, as if 'sincerity' is also her own magical spirit.

Suddenly she recalled the origin of the magician in class.

The first magicians didn't know how to summon the magic spirits, they just lived a normal life, and then "cuties" would come out to help them.

In that distant age, the years were long and it was worth the wait. Every minute, every second, Shu Ling might come to him.

Ya Xiu opened "Crew Management" and took a look.

"Dead Sword Girl"

"Human Race, Female, 18 Years Old"

"Bond level: 2 (40% experience sharing"

"Fetters Resonance · Insufficient Greed: When you act at the same time, you have a chance to get better loot."

"Occupation: Silversmith of Destruction"

“Professional feature: Each effective attack can restore 0.5% of maximum mana”

“Items to Hold: Wooden Sword for Training”

“Swordsmanship Faction: Silver Rank”

“Light Faction: Silver Rank”

“Water Faction: Silver Level”

“Mind Faction: Silver Level”

“The Curse of Void Exploration Knowledge: Vortex Secret Poison”

Sure enough, the mind faction has been directly promoted to the Silver rank, but why does she have a few more magic spirits that she hasn't seen before?

Sonia told Ah Xiu about her experience and gains in the past two days, and she was surprised and delighted. She thought that this might be the social development module and plot module that were missing in “Aurora's Handbook”, even if Without the help of the players, the mature Jian Ji also got rewards for passing the plot alone.

Although Ya Xiu couldn't help Jian Ji pass the 'game level', he also made up his mind not to drag Jian Ji's hind legs, and would try his best to take care of Jian Ji's needs after dividing the spoils.

I can teach you the miracle of “activating the killing intent”, but I can't tell you about “the scabbard contains light” and “the sword is sharpened for ten years.” “Sonia explained: “The last two miracles were taught to me by Professor Trozan. We signed the sealing contract. I only have the right to use these two miracles but not the right to share. I can't disclose them before tearing up the contract. Any information about these two miracles. "

Ya Xiu expressed his understanding that these two miracles are exclusive plot rewards for the characters of Jian Ji, and naturally it is impossible to share them with other characters. The source of the activation of the killing intent is the killing intent sword. This is the harvest of the two of them in the virtual world. Then Jian Ji returns to her world and triggers additional plots. This is equivalent to an extra reward. Naturally, everyone can get benefits. .

However, he was not interested in these miracles. After all, he had no key magic skills, and he himself was an inexperienced magician. Even if he learned the miracle technique, he couldn't study anything.

Sonia glanced at him, pursed her lips and asked: "Then what about you? Have you escaped from prison?"

Ah Xiu shook his head and explained the strange experience of these two days.

Sonia's mood also fluctuated after hearing the cancellation of the prison escape plan, the arrival of the Three Wing Sanctuary hunter, and the almost murder of the hunter captain in the dormitory.

"Then what are you going to do? Wait ten days before breaking out of prison?"

"Hope." Ya Xiu shrugged, "But there will be another blood moon trial in a few days. I wonder if I will be selected into the Lucky Eight again-Xilin even invites the Sanctuary Magician to come out, I I don't believe that he will let go of this opportunity to let me die with integrity."

"It's just that Valkas was in front of me last time, this time I can only get past with my own hard power."

"Do you want to fight the blood moon trial?"

"I want to sell badly on the live broadcast so that the audience can vote for other criminals."

“That means you are going to sit and wait for death.” Sonia frowned, showing an expression of dissatisfaction.

Before changing it, Sonia’s ridicule was skipped. After all, the viewer’s reality has nothing to do with her, and the viewer’s complaints and worries about their situation are at best only their talk during the rest time.

She has never really cared – or worried about – the situation of the viewer.

But this time, Sonia couldn’t help asking: “Do you have any back hand or hole cards? In case you really encounter an unavoidable desperate situation, do you have the means to get out of trouble?”

“No, no, if there were, I would have escaped from prison to breathe the sweet air outside.”

“How could you not? You can force me to train, understand the secrets of the virtual world, read the manual of the wizard casually, and even let me summon the magic spirit I never thought about. How could you not even save yourself? arrive?”

“But I just can’t do it.” Ya Xiu spread his hands, “Maybe I just have bad luck, sorry.”

Sonia stared at him and said suddenly.

“Is it my illusion, or do you really don’t care about your own life and death?”

Ya Xiu was startled slightly, and turned his head to look at the sea of white mist next to him, pretending to be shy and said, “I feel a little embarrassed to hear that you care about me so much.”

“I didn’t...”

Sonia was stunned in the middle of her words: “Wait, did my ceremony stop?”

Ya Xiu nodded: "Of course, when you summoned the 'sincerity' magic spirit, the ritual was already suspended. By the way, your spiritual faction level has also been upgraded to the silver level. After you go back, remember to find some books to read. Look-maybe I can also arrange training for the psychic faction."

"No, I will study the spiritual faction by myself!" Sonia resolutely refused. She glanced at Ya Xiu suspiciously, and suddenly said, "You are a humble, kind, and good person for the viewer."

Ya Xiu wondered why he had received a deluxe version of the good person card, only to see Sonia let out a long sigh of relief: "Ah, it feels really comfortable to lie."

A Xiu was full of black lines and sighed: "I'm too lazy to talk to you, it's time to explore the virtual world. Since we all gather the Silver Wings, then focus on stability, and try to explore low-risk areas as much as possible—"

"you have not answer my question yet."

Sonia grabbed Ya Xiu and clicked on the right wrist of the light curtain, her red eyes staring straight at Ya Xiu's vague face: "I have never seen anyone so careless about their own life and death. It's you. Do you have a mysterious follower that I don't know, or do you even care about your own life and death?"

"Hey, why don't I care about it anymore, but I don't think there is any need to show my tension, do you want to see my trembling posture in fear, panic, and trembling? Jian Ji, you are too funny~"

Ya Xiu's tone was relaxed, and his words did sound reasonable, but Sonia shook her head.

"When I was young, my mother occasionally brought home small snacks and delicious food. Whenever I asked her to taste it, she always shook her head and said that she had eaten it." Sonia said, "This is what you give. My feeling-do you treat me as a little girl? And even a little girl can see through lies of this degree."

Ya Xiu thought for a while, relaxed and lay on the boat, and smiled helplessly.

"I didn't lie, I was telling the truth. If it weren't for being afraid of life and death, how could I be so concerned about escape? How could I make an effort to form an escape team? I am also afraid of death, and I also long to live. This is a creature. Instinct. It's just..."

"Just what?"

"All I can think of is just being alive." Ya Xiu looked at the gray sky in the emptiness: "There is no past, no future, no relatives, no friends. The driving force for me to continue now is pure biological inertia. . I don't have a goal worth fighting for. I live just to live."

"Sounds a little hypocritical? I'm afraid you will make fun of me." He shrugged, "I don't know how to describe this feeling... The whole person is as light as a balloon, but there is only a thin piece left. The thread tied me to the ground."

"It sounds like a pre-symptom of 'longevity'." Sonia said: "Some legendary magicians who are old and long-lived have a chance to get this special disease. They have stagnated because of the exploration of the virtual world, and their management of reality. There are serious shortcomings, coupled with the fact that they are too old to update the circle of friends in time, and even unable to keep up with the changes of the times, and eventually fall into confusion and loneliness."

"'Longevity' disease was regarded as a terminal illness many years ago, and the sick technicians would quickly die of death."

Ya Xiu was taken aback: "So serious?"

"But with the development of medical technologists ~ www.mtnovel.com ~ this disease was quickly resolved, and no surgeon would die of 'longevity' for hundreds of years."

Sonia stretched out two fingers: "There are two treatment methods. The first treatment method is to directly use the miracle "light of hope" to let the surgeon rekindle the light in his heart and find his goal in life. The same is true of "light of hope". A very common medical miracle, which can effectively treat various diseases caused by thinking and consciousness."

Although Ya Xiu had tried his best to overestimate the world, he did not expect that the world of the magician would continue to surprise him-even a hypocritical illness could be cured, and the magician was really amazing.

“The second method is talk therapy, which is to refresh you through dialogue. Do you need me to treat you?”

“Okay, how do you treat it?”

“First you have to call my master.”

Ya Xiu was silent for a moment, and said, “Jian Ji, I think you also have some symptoms of ‘longevity’. Why don’t you change me to treat you first... even a little boy won’t believe a lie like you!”

Technician’s Manual - Chapter 103

Chapter 103 - Guard my dream

Chapter 103 - Guard my dream

Sonia snorted. She saw the viewer suddenly feel so depressed, and she thought she could take advantage of the vacancy and completely change the subject-object pattern, and from then on turn the viewer into her own car.

In fact, if you think about it in another way, Sonia can also understand the viewer’s feelings.

He awakened from an unfamiliar body and lost all the memories of the magician, but he did not inherit the memories of the new body either. He is like a baby who was thrown on the street when he was born, how could he not feel at a loss?

The only difference between the viewer and the baby is that he does not cry and that he is not as cute as a baby.

After finally conceiving a brilliant escape plan, it was almost immediately interrupted by various accidents. Coupled with the imminent crisis that cannot be resolved, it is normal for viewers to feel discouraged.

Sometimes Sonia is too late to catch up with her homework, and she will be completely resigned to her fate.

But she was lousy, and the most serious consequence was just being scolded by the professor.

But the viewer is stunned, but it will really die.

She can't let this happen.

“Do you want power? As long as you become a sanctuary magician, the four wings of the legend, you can overlook all living beings and master the power to turn the world over.”

“Yes, but only a little bit. Strength is indeed a wonderful thing. It's good to have it, but without me, I won't be greedy enough. Silver Wings have already made me very satisfied.”

“Do you want to explore the secrets of the Void Realm? The Sea of Knowledge is only the first level of the Void Realm, the Time Continent is the second level, the distant airspace is the third level, and Ruby Mountain is the fourth level... Countless magicians are immersed in the virtual realm, not only is the virtual realm empowering them, but also because traveling to the virtual realm itself is the most exciting adventure.”

“I think, but I don't really want to. I'm actually the kind of person who has to cool down for a few months after a trip. To be honest, if it's not to continue to strengthen my strength, I would like to discuss with you whether to suspend the exploration of the virtual realm. Anyway, we are all united with Silver Wings—”

“Of course not! How can a magician stop exploring the virtual world! The laziest donkey in the production team dare not say such things!” Sonia shook her head repeatedly, as if she heard some rebellious speech: “You are so strange, so normal In other words, aren’t strength and illusion the ultimate power of a magician? Is it because your taste is relatively vulgar, you want power or a woman?”

“Will it sound better if I switch to career and love?” Ya Xiu said, “Actually, if I can settle down after I escape from prison, I will meet a beautiful girl with a pure and lovely body and live a sweet and peaceful life. I am also satisfied.”

“...The original owner of your body was framed.” Sonia said very seriously: “This kind of thought is definitely not from you, you must be affected by the body. The body that can produce this kind of thought. , How could it be the leader of the cult!”

Although Ah Xiu did not agree with Jian Ji’s veto of her own vulgar taste, he agreed with the second half of her sentence-how could Ah Xiu Heath be the leader of the cult? He must be the scapegoat promoted by Professor Schilling!

“Tsk, you’re so troublesome, but I don’t want to’hope for the lights’.” Sonia muttered, “I heard that smoking someone seems to have a healing effect...”

Ya Xiu hid in the corner of the boat: “Hey, hey, there is something to discuss! In fact, this is just a trivial matter. Well, we might as well ignore this insignificant part and hurry up and have a happy virtual exploration!”

“No! You must solve your problem first!”

“Why?”

Ah Xiu is really a little puzzled: “Don’t you always hate me controlling your actions? Didn’t you say that you can live a good life even if I am gone? And I don’t want to commit suicide, but I feel a little tired and have no motivation. , And will not delay the exploration of the virtual realm, why are you so nervous about my psychological problems?”

“Because I need you!”

Ya Xiu was startled slightly.

“Yes, I need you.” As if she had figured out something, Sonia squatted in front of Ash and said, “You are very important to me.”

“I want to become a four-winged legendary magician, master earth-shaking miracles, let the world obey my orders, and let destiny succumb before me.”

“I want to explore the mystery of the void, want to see the ‘time rising rain’ of the time continent, want to see the boundless airspace far away, want to see the red mountain made of rubies...I want to see more miracles and conquer More magic spirits, climb the higher realm of the magic faction, and even uncover the truth of the virtual realm!”

“I want to be a big man in Gales, and I want to accept the canonization of the queen in De Ge Palace and become a new nobleman.”

“I also want to be a singer, a movie girl, create a classic movie that never gets tired of, and leave behind a collection of songs that have been passed down for many years. I want to be the longing in the eyes of others!”

“I want more, more.” Sonia clung to Ash’s hand tightly: “But I can’t achieve my dream by myself.”

“So I need you, viewer, you are my shortcut to my dreams.”

“Although I hate you for creating so many accidents in my life, I also admit that you have brought me a lot of benefits. If it weren’t for your appearance, I wouldn’t even be a magician now, let alone condensing silver. Wing now. Whether it’s reality or imaginary, I need you.”

“Viewer, although you don’t have a dream.” Sonia said word by word: “But you can guard my dream.”

“Aren’t you called a viewer? Then you can watch me well, and you must live well before I realize my dream.”

Ah Xiu blinked and couldn’t help but laugh out, tears almost coming out.

He wiped the tears of laughter from the corner of his eyes, and vomited: “I only heard two words on the sideways and upright sides of your remarks-use!”

Sonia sighed: “Isn’t this very good? We have a naked interest relationship. If we clarify our needs in advance, isn’t it more conducive to follow-up cooperation?”

“But I actually look forward to a more tender conversation...”

“Also, don’t move.”

Sonia stretched her hand across Ash’s waist, gently hugged him, and put her chin on his shoulder. Ah Xiu could feel that her movements were a little stiff, and she didn’t know if she had never hugged the opposite * before, or she had rarely hugged others since she was a child.

“You have become a very important person in my life. I don’t want to lose you.”

Ah Xiu was stunned for a while, feeling like eating strawberry ice cream in midsummer. Just about to reach out and hug her, Jian Ji quickly got away from her, with a slight smile on her face.

“How is it, do you have a heartbeat?”

Ah Xiu’s face darkened: “Yes, you are no longer restricted by the ritual, so you can not tell the truth!”

“Otherwise, you don’t want to think that we only met for a few days. Am I such a casual person?” Sonia stuck her tongue out: “We all said that we are a relationship of interest, so you still believe what I said... So are you tempted?”

Ah Xiu directly changed the subject: “You just said that you want to be a singer, and you are idle anyway. Would you like to sing a song to relieve everyone’s boredom?”

“You rap and I just sing, don’t I lose face?”

Sonia was almost blushing to the root of her ears when she said it – she said too quickly just now that she didn’t have time to think, and she accidentally exposed her dream of becoming a shadow girl singer.

She has kept this idea in her heart since she was little to most of her time, and she did not dare to expose it when she went to college. First, she did not choose the phonology school, and theoretically did not reach the threshold of the singer. Second, she would encounter this situation, and others would hear her. Want to be a singer must ask her to sing a few words, very annoying!

As usual, you came and I quarreled a few words, and they suddenly stopped at the same time. Sonia sat down and asked, “How do you feel now?”

“It feels so bad, I even want to die deliberately to * you off.”

“you–“

“I lied to you.” Ya Xiu shrugged, “but seeing you are so irritating, I suddenly remembered that there was an enemy who was happy outside the prison, but he still tried to put me to death, so that my retirement in prison was so frightening. And he is the culprit who framed me to jail... It’s really forbearance that the more I want to get more angry for a while, the more I take a step back, the more I lose, even if I am too lazy to live, I have to escape from prison and find that guy to settle the account!

“Okay, it’s burning! I can’t die until I get revenge!”

For revenge? Although it feels a bit extreme, it’s not bad as a short-term goal.

Sonia nodded: “Yes, revenge must be from morning till night. If others offend you, you must give it back ten times!”

“The other thing is,” Ya Xiu looked at Sonia: “Sword Ji, didn’t I just say that my whole body is floating like a balloon, and there is only one thread that binds me to the ground?”

“You are the thread.”

Sonia blinked.

“Even if it is for you, to protect your dreams, and to watch your future, I will live on.”

Sonia didn’t know how to react for a while, she subconsciously looked away, “I—”

At this time, Ya Xiu suddenly leaned back tactically and said with a grin: “How is it, are you heartbroken?”

Sonia’s mouth twitched, her shoulders shaking with anger.

She snorted coldly: “You have no emotion at all, and little girls will not believe it! Would you like to tell me how to tell a lie that you don’t believe in affection? I am professional in this respect. “

“I want to learn to sing with you, so let’s sing a few sentences to make the atmosphere lively.”

“Tsk, this is the end of the small chat, let’s start exploring the virtual world, and it will be dawn on my side if we continue to talk.”

“It’s also ~www.mtlnovel.com~ Ya Xiu nodded, opened the light curtain and clicked on the map of the virtual world: “We have indeed stayed here for too long... for a long time.” “

Noting that the viewer’s voice was trembling, Sonia asked strangely: “What’s the matter?”

“On the first day you entered the Void Realm, did you tell me the taboos that must be kept in mind when exploring the Void Realm?”

“Yeah, that means you can’t stay in the same place for too long—”

Sonia’s voice stopped abruptly. She turned her head slightly and saw a pair of pale yellow vertical pupils emerging from the dense white mist.

Those are the eyes of Hu Zhaolong.

The ichthyosaur, the foxzhaolong, the storm dragon, the mud ichthyosaur, the umbrella bird dragon...Unknowingly, they have been surrounded by a group of intellectual creatures.

“Sword Ji, did you speak too loudly just now—”

“Shut up.”

Technician’s Manual - Chapter 104

Chapter 104 - Today is also a day full of hope

Chapter 104 - Today is also a day full of hope

Jianhua University, Meditation Room.

As soon as her consciousness returned to her body, Sonia couldn’t help but slumped on the ground, she finally managed to hold herself up and sit next to the wall, breathing heavily. The exhaustion of the soul was fed back to the body, and after a while, the sweat dripped down the collarbone like a river, and slipped into the depths of the dress like a pearl.

She is exhausted.

At this time, it was not dawn outside. This was the first time she had quit the Void Realm so early, and Sonia also disliked that she had retreated too slowly.

Just now, a total of eight knowledge creatures chased and killed her and the viewers in the sea of knowledge for more than an hour. No matter how far or fast they escape, the intellectual creatures will persevere in chasing them, even if the viewer deliberately crashes into the territory of other intellectual creatures, the hunter will not hesitate!

And after the viewer did that, the result was that the number of pursuers increased from eight to nine.

It stands to reason that they don't need to be so scared. After all, they are only silver magicians, and they will give up their Void Realm blood. Anyway, the magicians are going to die in the Void Realm, but there is a difference in the number of times.

They can persist until the Silver Wings are condensed before dying, and they are considered to be the most outstanding hand among all the magicians of all ages. If there is a list of virginity wizards who have experienced the first death at the latest in the world of wizards, not to mention the top ten, but Sonia feels that she can at least be in the top 100.

But at the moment when they found knowledge creatures surrounding them, Sonia suddenly showed a piece of secret knowledge. When she flees, the viewer introduced to her the 'poison' brought about by this secret knowledge.

"Expulsion of Secret Poison"

"Secret poison details: When a magician stays in the same place in the virtual world for too long, his scent will be noticed by the surrounding knowledge creatures, which will cause the hostility of the knowledge creatures, which is regarded as a provocation to the aborigines. The virtual world is knowledge. The homeland of living creatures, they do not allow intruders to settle here, vowing to chase and kill invaders with a 'settlement tendency', and swallow the souls of the invaders."

"The number of people infected with the secret poison: 31"

“Secret Poison Strengthening Degree: 31%”

“The current effect of the secret poison: it is easier to detect the knowledge creatures around (the enhancement level is 51% turned into a negative effect, and it is reduced to 10% to obtain a great gain).”

Sonia understood why the school professors all said that ‘cannot stay in the same place for a long time in the virtual realm’ is a taboo, but no one can tell the reason. The clear magicians are the group of people who like to ask the bottom-up. It turns out that it is because of it. It’s a secret poison.

Unlike the secret poison of the whirlpool, the secret poison of the whirlpool is a secret and has extremely high utility value. Therefore, it is possible for the insider to share the secret with his relatives and friends, even at the risk of poisoning.

But expelling secret poison is meaningless. Now Sonia knows the truth about expelling secret poison, so she will remember “never stay in the same place for a long time”-but the school has already taught them this knowledge. what!

Therefore, people who know that the secret poison is expelled will not take the initiative to spread the secret poison. The number of people infected by the secret poison is naturally pitiful. Most of them should have stayed for too long inadvertently, so unfortunately they were infected with this secret poison.

Moreover, according to the tragic experience of Sonia and the viewers last night, most people who knew this secret poison were probably eaten by the knowledgeable creatures in the first place.

You must know that she and the viewer have a boat to ride the wind and waves, and the two teamed up to reluctantly throw off the chasers, and withdrew from the virtual realm at a critical moment.

Sonia couldn’t even imagine how desperate a single magician, who could only move by swimming, was when she discovered that she was surrounded by several intellectual creatures.

The most frightening thing is that the ‘quantitative change’ of intellectual creatures will cause the ‘qualitative change’ of the death of the magician.

As mentioned before, the death of a magician in the virtual realm will have serious consequences, because when the magician's consciousness returns to consciousness, the magician's soul is still in the virtual realm, and the intellectual creatures will take the opportunity to eat a bite, causing the magician's soul to suffer. damage.

But after being bitten by the knowledge creature, the magician's soul became lighter and the speed of return became faster, so the loss would not be too serious.

This is the reason why Sonia and the viewer want to flee frantically-they are not being chased by a knowledgeable creature, but by nine knowledgeable creatures!

Each of these monsters took the opportunity to take a bite, which was enough to wipe the souls of the two of them, and it might not even be enough!

This is the reason for 'staying in the virtual realm for too long will lead to death': the magician is divided and eaten by the knowledge creatures, and the soul cannot return to the body. After the body waits for a long time, it will misunderstand the soul and go fooling around and don't want to be himself, and die directly on the spot. .

Because of this unexpected incident, they didn't have time to explore tonight. They threw the killer out of the distance and exited the virtual realm. It can be said that apart from slightly increasing the faction realm tonight, it's basically a night for nothing, even There was still a negative return-there was a "Maelstrom Secret Poison" that was already very disturbing, and now adding another "Expulsion Secret Poison" made Sonia feel that her brain was getting more and more impure.

Although it is said that because of the small number of infected people, the effect of "Expelling the Secret Poison" is currently a gain effect, but if the secret poison spreads out in the future, it will turn into a negative effect sooner or later.

But in any case, it's a good thing to survive. Just now Sonia almost thought she was going to die in a virtual realm with the viewer.

Sonia took a long breath and left the meditation building.

The stars flickered at night, bright as day, the largest of which was the 'missing gibbous star', which glowed with deep blue light like a star without a part of the circle, illuminating the road in the school.

According to the moon phase table, the meteorologists will replace the moon star with the "last quarter moon star" tomorrow...Sonia suddenly became a little curious, what kind of blood moon the viewer looks like, is it also like the moon star in the starry country? The same, the change is managed by the Meteorological Bureau?

Suddenly, a colorful halo burst out in the night, which frightened Sonia. She took a closer look and found that it was the movement made by the white tower.

It is also listed as a warning area, and it is also the magician who gathers the whole world. Sonia faintly realizes that the falling "Void Realm Turbulence" on the white giant tower is very important, but her current status is after all too low. There is no access to such high-end information at all, so I can only look at it from a distance and guess if there is a group of professors holding a carnival inside.

Back in the bedroom, Sonia had light hands and feet, and did not wake her roommate. There was no hot water late at night, so she took a bath in cold water, went to the balcony and stood to blow the air, waiting for her hair to dry naturally.

She clicked on the miracle bracelet, and the light curtain popped up, wanting to see the new play starring Dedaros.

There is also a full-length mirror on the balcony. Sonia saw herself in the mirror from the corner of her eye, suddenly adjusted her posture, combed her hair, and studied her appearance over and over again.

"What are you doing in the middle of the night?"

Adele, who had not slept and hid under the quilt watching the drama, poked out her head and asked Sonia curiously.

Sonia looked at Adele, thought for a while and asked, "Am I a pretty girl with a pure, cute body?"

Adele blinked, "Forget it, but it's a bit worse than me."

She stretched out her hand and made a 'a little bit' gesture, indicating that the gap was really not very big.

.....

...

Broken Lake Prison.

Ya Xiu suddenly turned over and rolled off the bed. The cold ground seemed to be able to touch the panicking soul, slightly alleviating the agitation after fleeing.

When he got up from the ground, he found that he was soaked and went to the bathroom to take a hot shower. Although the ordinary dormitory does not have a bathtub, hot water is supplied at any time around the clock-not supplying hot water will be regarded as abuse by human rights organizations.

Leaning on the white tiles, letting the water splash on her body, Ya Xiu opened the light curtain and sorted out the harvest tonight.

Yes, it will be rewarding tonight. Although in the eyes of others, "Expulsion of Secret Poison" may be a pure burden, but in the "Aurora's Handbook of Magicians", 'Expulsion of Secret Poison' has brought about a new change.

"You are infected with 'Expulsion Secret Poison'."

"'Expulsion of Secret Poison' strengthened the end-viewer's knowledge and biological sensing ability in the virtual world, and the map of the virtual world has undergone new changes."

“Note: The virtual world map has been updated. Now you can find knowledge creatures within the observation range on the virtual world map and obtain brief information.”

When he was in the virtual realm just now, Ya Xiu opened the map and found that the 24 grids around him had changed slightly. Most of them are still “wasted” and “not worth mentioning”, but there are a few boxes that show more information:

“Fog Yulong, it’s worth a visit.”

“Umbrella Bird Dragon, a little troublesome”

Although only the name of an intellectual creature appears, it is a huge breakthrough for the exploration of the virtual world!

Prior to this, Ya Xiu could only use map prompts to roughly judge whether the area was a heritage island or a habitat for intellectual creatures. Generally speaking, “worth a visit” are mostly small inheritance islands, and “a bit troublesome” are basically knowledge creatures. Although occasionally they may be inaccurate, it is better than a few rushes.

Now the areas where the intellectual creatures inhabit are all marked, the other areas that are not marked but where there will be battles are naturally inherited islands!

Not only that, although Ya Xiu has never known knowledge creatures, Jian Ji has read “The Illustrated Book of Knowledge Creatures”. She can judge the good faction, approximate combat power and specific weaknesses of the corresponding monsters by her name, and she specifically bullies those who can be restrained by them. Of knowledge creatures!

Even in order to cultivate the swordsmanship realm of Sword Ji, specialize in hunting knowledgeable creatures that can drop swordsmanship orbs, such as “Ichthyosaurus” and “Umbrella Bird Dragon”, which can feed the swordsmanship of Sword Ji to the golden level~www.mtlnovel.com~Help her get promoted to Second Wing Gold!

As long as Sword Fairy arrives in Time Continent, Ya Xiu can naturally repeat the same tricks and sneak into the Time Continent by using the shortcut of Sword Fairy.

Just like becoming a silver mage in the sea of knowledge, Ya Xiu can also advance to a golden mage in the Time Continent, even if he does not have a magic faction to reach the gold level, he has not even practiced for a day, all relying on holding the sword girl The thighs soared-I was afraid that it would not make other magicians angry.

Relying on Ya Xiu's exploration ability and Jian Ji's knowledge, as long as they don't deliberately trigger taboos to death like just now, then the exploration of the sea of knowledge will be smooth sailing, and there will be no danger!

But the prerequisite for all this is that if Ah Xiu survives, he has to leave the prison and be free.

Turn off the shower on the top of your head, take a bath towel and wrap your body, and walk to the sink. Ya Xiu looked at himself wet in the mirror, and the water dripped along the tips of the hair onto the thin shoulders, sliding down the collarbone.

"Oops, I started to like the world a little bit."

His face lifted up diagonally, and the corners of his mouth turned up slightly: "Today is also a day full of hope."

Technician's Manual - Chapter 105

Chapter 105 - I can't take you

Chapter 105

"Improve the fault tolerance rate of the plan, and draw up the course of action after the ship is captured?"

On the sea-viewing platform, after listening to Ah Xiu's request, Igula felt a little strange: "Your top priority now shouldn't be thinking about how to spend the blood moon trial in a few days? Don't tell me, you think you don't. Will be selected into the Lucky Eight, or you think this extra blood moon trial will only kill one person.”

Not only Igola, but even ordinary death row inmates have a foreboding that the next few blood moon trials will suffer heavy casualties-because the prison is almost full.

There are more and more people, but the prison cannot be expanded, or even reduced the per capita living area of executed prisoners, lowered the living environment, or converted other facilities into dormitories.

The environment of Broken Lake Prison is now very close to the limit of the “Guiding Opinions on the Living Environment of Prisoners”. If the prison dares to reduce the living conditions in order to increase the capacity of prisoners, the Human Rights Association will definitely rush over to the prison and accuse the prison of abusing prisoners.

Therefore, the only and best method for prisons is to make the executed prisoners' reasonable attrition', and increase the revenue of the blood moon trial by the way—because the prison cannot force the prisoners to act on the non-target death row prisoners, so in order to maximize the casualties Therefore, the prison has to design a game link of 'annihilation of the whole army' and no one can escape, so that the live broadcast effect will naturally explode.

The Blood Moon Trial on the 15th is a clear example. The trial is complicated and exciting. Inmates on death row can kill each other, and when Varkas is tortured, as long as he has the idea of "I'm not good, don't think about it." , He can take other condemned prisoners to kowtow to the Blood Moon Supreme Lord every minute.

It is also very interesting to say that the Human Rights Association will never allow the prisons to reduce the living environment in order to increase the capacity of executed prisoners; but the prisons designed high-mortality blood moon trials in order to reduce the number of executed prisoners, and the Human Rights Association thinks it is possible.

Although there is no evidence, Igola feels that a certain amount of advertising expenses for the Blood Moon Trial must be turned into a political donation from the Human Rights Association.

“Then how do you think I should survive the Blood Moon Trial safely?”

“Well... Pray to the Four Pillar God behind you? Or cast an shadow to pray for the mercy of the Blood Moon Supreme Lord?”

“If Broken Lake Prison is a cage, then the list of trials is the butchers outside who are choosing the objects to be slaughtered.” Ah Xiu received: “We beasts in the cage can’t affect things outside the cage, unless there is a butcher outside with me. Very familiar, but unfortunately not, but there may be many diners who covet me.”

“So instead of worrying about whether I can survive the Blood Moon Trial, it is better to make a more detailed escape plan based on the premise that I can survive fortunately.” A Xiu held his hands next to the railing of the roof: “After all, it’s far from the next ship. There are still nine days left before the transport ship arrives, so you can’t just waste it like this.”

“Sounds like a waste of time.” Igola curled his lips.

“No, Ah Xiu is right!” Ronald on the side said excitedly: “Even if it is to reduce the risk rate by 1% and increase the success rate by 1%, it is worth our time to try. Friends, our time is very much Precious. If we want to enjoy it, we will continue to enjoy it when we return to the free world. Now we are ready to escape from prison with all our heart, okay?”

“Yes, anyway, I am idle in the prison.” Ronner said, “Moreover, I believe that Brother Ash will not easily die in Broken Lake like this.”

The voting result was 3:1, and Igola naturally obeyed the opinions of the majority. However, he himself was not opposed to the perfect plan, he simply wanted to challenge Ya Xiu.

Perhaps he knew that people like Ah Xiu would never be the target of his scams, so Igola didn’t bother to waste EQ on him.

You must know that when facing customers, Igula is a sweet little padded jacket that everyone loves. With the ability of Shu Ling, he can easily pry open the atrium of the customer, so that the customer will not feel bored when talking all day long. The young man would rather be scammed by Igula and want to chat with him.

“Because of the limitation of the chip, my plan has many loopholes.” Igola said: “The loopholes most likely to go wrong are the period of time after taking the medical doctor’s clothes’ and before entering the transport ship’.”

“If a comatose medical practitioner is caught early, or if we act for more than ten minutes, and various accidents that may occur on the way, the prison guards will find that we have disarmed the chip. Once they warn the transport ship, then We will never get on the ship, let alone seize the ship and escape from prison.”

“The risks are too great, and there are too many unpredictable elements. If the plan fails, most of it will fail in this link.” Igula looked at everyone: “What do you think?”

Axiu racked his brains to think, Ronald was silent, but Ronald raised his hand and said, “Should we just go ahead and kill the prison guards first, how about?”

“Unless we can kill all the prison guards at the same time, as long as there is a fish that slips through the net, he can sound the alarm.” Igola was a little speechless: “And the prison guards are on duty, they are always on duty. The inaccessible prison guards’ living quarters will not give us a chance to kill them all at once.”

Ronald said seriously: “Then find a way to get them together!”

“What way? Let Ashiu pray to the Four Pillar God? It’s better to just ask Ashiu to pray for the prison guards to die at the same time—”

“If we find someone, chip him clean, and then let him kill other death row prisoners and prison guards, will the prison guards gather to hunt him?”

Igola just wanted to deny this idea, but he swallowed it when the words reached his lips. He paced back and forth subconsciously, put his thumb in his mouth, bit his nails, and fell into thought.

A Xiu blinked, “Sounds... it seems a little more reliable than just betting on luck!”

“Ronnie is amazing.” Ronner patted Ronald on the shoulder and laughed.

“Although there are still many details that need to be perfected, it is indeed feasible!” Igola’s eyes are getting brighter and brighter: “Use bait to attract the attention of the prison guards. Whether it is ambushing and killing the prison guard or taking the opportunity to escape from the ship, it is better than me. The original plan is much better, and you can also prepare more back-ups, such as letting Ya Xiu disarm more people’s chips and provoke a riot in Broken Lake Prison!”

“Just under the eyelids of the prison, under the gaze of the prison guards, turn Broken Lake upside down!”

Igola couldn’t help feeling surging when he thought that the scene he directed could become more grand and exciting, and the long-lost enthusiasm for work revived in him again!

A Xiu said excitedly: “It shouldn’t be too late, let’s pick a lucky executed prisoner as a bait!”

Igola had no objection, and the four of them walked to the Death Strike Club.

Their requirements for bait are to be brave and vicious, hate prison, obey orders, and be easily deceived. Those who meet these requirements are basically concentrated in the death fight club.

In the past, Ashiu secretly leaned toward Igola and whispered: “Today Ronald is very wrong.”

Today’s Ronald was smiling, speaking positively, and his expression was enthusiastic. It was in stark contrast to the dry Ronald who was almost dehydrated and condensed a few days ago, making Asia feel very scared.

Igola also responded in a low voice: “This shows that the ceremony has reached the end. If Ronald’s bedroom is vacated tomorrow, I won’t be surprised.”

“I should have said that I used Shu Ling to strengthen my hearing, right?” Ronald turned to look at them and shook his head: “Unless it is covered with Shu Ling, I can hear whispers of this level! “

Axiu and Iguraziqi stopped, both of them had innocent expressions of 'nothing happened'. In terms of thick-skinned, the two are surprisingly consistent.

"Don't worry about me, I will definitely live to next month." Ronald patted his chest: "The matter between Ronald and I will not affect the plan. Even if it is to be resolved, it will be resolved after jailbreak. Don't worry! "

Axiu couldn't help asking: "Then why have you changed so much these past few days?"

Ronald put a finger on his lips: "Secret." After he said, his elbow was freed from the inside, letting Lang take his arm. Looking at the close backs of the two, no one else would have thought that they were a life-and-death relationship.

Igola was thoughtful. He wondered if Ronald deliberately made Ronald like this in order to cooperate with the prison escape plan. After all, the sunny and active Ronald is naturally more helpful to the plan. Advance, and even put forward useful suggestions as soon as they came.

If Langner did it intentionally, it means that he is very confident in the escape plan, so he would rather change his ritual process, but also give in to the plan.

But even Igola, the proponent of the plan, did not have much confidence in the escape. According to his estimation, their chances of successful escape were less than 10%, and even if they were perfected, it was less than 30%.

Where does Lang get his confidence?

Igola knew that he must not believe in himself.

At this point, Igola turned his head subconsciously and looked at the cult leader next to him. He was a little bit baffled by him. He hesitated for a moment. He also elbows out the inside, showing a disgusting expression of 'taking you out of the way', "I didn't expect you to envy this, so I'll be wronged for a moment..."

Ah, I really want to beat him, I really want to scold him.

Igola was so angry that the thread of reason was about to break.

Technician's Manual - Chapter 106

Chapter 106 - Necromancer

Chapter 106 - Necromancer

Chapter 106 Necromancer

"Stop fighting, you can't kill anyone like this!"

“Can you please hurry up, dozens of us are waiting, you waste a minute is a waste of everybody dozens of minutes!”

“Almost 嘞.”

When Adam and the others walked into the Deathmatch Club, their ears were not adrenaline bursts of screams, beast-like roars, and malicious roars, but rather disgusting complaints.

If it weren't for the chip to limit the fragrant mouth of these death row prisoners, Ash would be certain that he would quickly learn the classic swear words of various races in the blood moon country.

The group of them squeezed in front, and the executed prisoners who were squeezed to the bottom were impatient, but when they saw that they were famous prison villains like demons, beasts, and gourmets, they quickly moved aside. Some also showed a humble smile.

Although it is said that there is no superiority and inferiority among death row prisoners, no matter how powerful a death row prisoner is, it cannot harm the weakest prisoner. As long as you don't take the initiative to enter the deathmatch arena, you will never be bullied by others.

But it is the nature of creatures to worship the strong. Among the death row prisoners whose moral bottom line is like old people's diapers, Mu Qiang's traits are even more vivid. Even if Ah Xiu and others could not harm their interests, they were not willing to offend such wicked people as Ah Xiu.

Axiu secretly kicked these people who gave way out of the selectable list-I am the kindest and innocent person in this prison, even I am afraid, how can I be a bait! All fail!

When he came to the front, Ah Xiu saw two people in the deathmatch arena at the lowest level. One of them was a dark green snake lizard clan, and the other was a fellow prisoner whom Ya Xiu could talk to. He forgot what his name was. Harvey of his last name.

Axiu looked at it for a moment and knew why everyone was complaining—Harvey and the others were playing a fake match.

The snake-lizard clan didn't fight back at all, letting Harvey hit his face with punches and punches, even if the leathery scales of the epidermis were cracked, and the fine teeth were broken, he knelt on the ground motionless and watched calmly. With Harvey.

Until Harvey hit his fist with thick blood stains, the snake lizard clan slowly said, "Archibald, is it a little more comfortable?"

"not yet!"

Harvey suddenly knelt down and tore off his clothes, revealing a skinny body full of ugly scars, with a grim face: "Hubron, come on!"

The snake lizard shook his head, but still went to pick up the thorn whip placed on the sidelines. As soon as Ya Xiu glanced at it, he felt that his hairs were standing up—the thorn whip was covered with dense small barbs, and it was conceivable to be licked by it, and it felt absolutely sour.

Snapped! Snapped! Snapped!

With the dull slamming sound, the complaining voice of Death Fight Club suddenly became much less. Although some people ridicule whether Harvey is a fool from time to time, more people use silence to show respect—there are two ways to win the respect of executed prisoners, either to be cruel to others or to yourself.

A Xiu suddenly asked, "How is it?"

"Not bad." Igola said, "I will look into his 'story' later, maybe there is something we can use in it."

"Archibald Harvey's deathmatch record is 7 wins and 1 loss." Ronner said: "Because of his thinness, he is occasionally regarded as a target for plunder, but his opponents are often Unconsciously unconsciously. He is not weak."

“We just need this kind of hot-blooded man, watching him I’m burning!” Ronald fisted and said: “After the death fight is over, let’s go directly to him!”

Igola shook his head: “No hurry, we still have time, so we can look at other candidates. Even if we want to find him, we have to wait for me to grab his handle, so that we can use it easily.”

“Hey, your heart is so dirty!”

“Why, do you have an opinion?”

“Yes, you see that the snake lizard clan has a good relationship with Harvey. If Harvey can’t find a breakthrough point, maybe we can use that snake lizard clan-after all, he has just been in prison and hasn’t forgotten the fragrance of freedom. “

Igola nodded appreciatively: “It’s really rare, Ah Xiu, you actually made a good suggestion.”

“Nothing, you learned from Igola.”

Looking at the two of them making a treacherous smile like a friend and a friend, Ronner was not obvious on the surface, but he was extremely surprised in his heart. He had observed Ikola Bogin, and he knew that this fraudster was a pleasure criminal with a cold heart and selfishness. He always had a business-style smile on his face, but he looked down on anyone from the bottom of his bones and took all People are regarded as available props.

Langna certainly did not mean that Igola regarded Ashiu as a friend. If he dared to say this, Igola and Ash would think he was crazy.

But according to Ronner’s observation, Igola’s attitude towards Ash is completely different from his attitude towards other inmates. It is neither full of calculating favors nor disgust towards enemies, but closer to...sincereness.

Yes, sincere, although this adjective is too innocent when used in fraudsters, this is Ronald’s observation.

Perhaps even Igola didn't realize that he unknowingly removed the mask he built to protect himself in front of Ash. He didn't conceal his disgust, nor conceal his approval. He treated Ashiu Hiss as an equal, communicated normally, and quarreled normally-Igola's mood swings in the past year and a half have not been as much in the past few days.

Is this because of the personal charm of Ash Heath?

No, Ronner doesn't think so.

It's not that Ashiu has no charm, but Igola can't be affected so easily—but any two-winged magician who majors in the psychic faction has a firmer mind than other magicians, let alone Igola himself. He is a fraudster who is good at manipulating people's hearts. How could he have this kind of mental mutation like 'love at first sight'?

In the world of wizards, there is no coincidence.

Only 'miracle'.

Although there were Ronald's reasons, when he knew that Ash was the initiator of the prison escape plan, Ronald strongly realized that the prison escape plan would be successful.

Unlike Igola and Ronald, Ronald used to be a church employee and servant of God. He was bathed in the glory of God and he knew the vastness of God's sovereignty.

God's will will be fulfilled.

Shard Lake Prison, which has no flaws and tightly guarded against, is nothing but a nearly transparent bubble that bursts at the touch of the Blood Moon Supreme Master.

The same is true for the Four Pillar Gods.

Suddenly, the lights in the hall of the Death Fight Club were all on, the barrier around the ring fell, the small door of the ring opened, and the crowd medics came out to carry the snake lizard clan away, but they were refused when they wanted to take Harvey away—Harvey didn't want to be treated.

When Harvey came out with scars and blood-stained clothes, the death row prisoners consciously made way for him. Because I still had to wait for Igola to find Harvey's handle, so Ah Xiu and the others didn't go over to win Harvey right away.

However, Harvey took the initiative to come over.

"I was just looking for you, Ash." Harvey said, "I want to discuss something with you."

"No money."

"There are too many people here, let's go—" Harvey stretched out his hand and wanted to leave.

Igu stretched his hand to grab Harvey's wrist and smiled and said, "It sounds interesting, can I listen in?"

Harvey scanned Igola, Ronald, and Ronald once, and nodded slowly: "Of course."

The five villains quickly left the death fight club and then came to the men's bathroom—no way, the closest private environment is only this. Anyway, the men's bathroom is often cleaned and has a fragrant smell. You can turn on the tap to hide the voice. , Can be said to be the best breeding place for conspiracy.

"I heard that you are planning to escape recently?" Harvey dried the blood on his body with a wet towel, and looked at Ah Xiu in the mirror.

"Yes." Igola didn't intend to conceal it. He took turns visiting celebrities in the prison a few days ago, and this news could not be concealed at all.

But because I didn't expose the miracle of Axiu's beheading me, and because Igola had used his identity as the director of the Prison Break Research Club to confuse newcomers, everyone thought Igola was playing tricks, or that Igola was planning some conspiracy. The prisoners on the death row were almost tamed by the prison, so no one wanted to join in. As a result, Ash had to find a way to drag Ronald and Ronald into the water.

"I want to join you." Harvey put his head under the faucet and let the water wet his curly hair. He raised his wet head, and Ah Xiu unexpectedly discovered that when he was not curly, his appearance was quite beautiful, and he was so perverted and vulgar when he was not curly.

"I want to escape from prison."

Ashiu was overjoyed, but before he could speak, Igola took the lead and asked: "If you want to join in, you have to make your contribution so that we can see your value. We are not short of people now. If you don't have a certain role, we have no need to let you join."

"In fact, even if there is no contribution—"

"Shut up!" Igola glared at Ya Xiu, and Ya Xiu shrank aggrievedly.

It was supposed to be Igola who asked Harvey to join, but now Harvey took the initiative to join, how could Igola let this opportunity pass www.mtlnovel.com to take the opportunity to ask Harvey to ask for it. After so many deal negotiations, Igola has long understood that people have the cheapness of 'the harder you get, the more you cherish'. If Harvey is directly involved, it will only make Harvey doubt their professionalism, and even make Harvey produce 'The illusion of 'very important', so it is difficult to manage.

Now try to raise the threshold as much as possible, and 'reluctantly allow' Harvey to join after he has fully squeezed Harvey's resources. Not only can Harvey be grateful, but also Harvey can recognize his status, even if he is ordered to be a bait in the future. There will be too much resistance.

"A very reasonable request." Harvey looked at the mirror and nodded: "I believe my ability will satisfy you-I can operate the processor in the prison."

“Well, it sounds like you can...what?”

Igola stunned: “The processor? Can you operate the chip processor in the prison? How is this possible!”

“How can it be impossible?” Harvey turned to look at the other four, with wet hair on his face, unable to hide the sharpness in his eyes: “If anyone on death row can operate a chip processor , It must only be me.”

“Because I am a necromancer.”

“And the chip processor is a corpse.”

Chapter 107 Rats Shackle Cats

Chip processor, is it a corpse?

At this time, Harvey took off his prison uniform abruptly, because his body was smeared with the whipped blood coffee and his clothes. When he took it off, he could hear a crisp ‘hissing’ sound. The countless wounds that had just stopped bleeding were torn apart again, and the blood fell from Knuckle-wide wounds flowed out, flowing along his dark back, and suddenly it seemed as if countless eyes were weeping.

“Actually, I’m quite surprised that you can know the processor.” Harvey said while wiping his body with a towel: “This is not a knowledge point that will appear in the education of the foster home. Most people in prison don’t know their own. The chip is being manipulated by something, just like an ant can’t see the person above it.”

“What imprisoned us is not a prison, but a chip. Broken Lake is just a room in the Kingdom of Blood Moon.”

Igola hugged his hands against the wall: “I pretend to be a well-informed person. I often go to the upper class. I even made plans to be imprisoned in Broken Lake. That’s why I deliberately explored the operating mechanism of Broken Lake Prison. Luckily to learn about the existence of the processor... you are a scavenger, how could you know such secret information?”

Three points of arrogance and seven points of suspicion, Igola adjusted his tone just right, and quietly stirred the ‘Resonance’ magic spirit while speaking, trying to detonate Harvey’s emotions. If Harvey really knows the secrets, he will definitely not wait to show off the news and the source.

However, Harvey just looked at Igola in his glasses and asked calmly, “Have you all been to the hospital? Have you discovered that there are no private hospitals in the blood moon country, only the affiliated hospitals of the research institute and the obstetrics and gynecology hospital. “

“Isn’t this normal?” Igola felt inexplicable: “Even if there is a private hospital, I won’t go to it. The affiliated hospital has low fees, good reputation, guaranteed, large number of medical staff, and there is no room for survival in private hospitals.”

“Generally speaking, medical doctors are of all races, humans, snake lizards, elves, orcs, and even ogres...” Harvey said, “but there is a department in the hospital, and there is only one in it. Race, other than that race is not allowed to join the department at all.”

Lang glanced at the blood stain on Harvey’s back: “Since it is related to the research institute, the race you are talking about must be the blood saint... But which department are you talking about?”

“Department of Remains Treatment.”

Harvey wiped his wounds with a towel, his face was distorted with pain, but he still calmly said: “If you say, the research institute is to keep the body treatment department firmly in his own hands, so it opened. Affiliated hospitals, it is forbidden to issue private medical licenses, will you believe it?”

Ya Xiu was naturally at a loss—for a department, he opened a hospital? I bought crabs just to dip it in vinegar?

However, Igola seemed to have passed an inspiration check and asked: "I remember that your most serious crime was 'disposing of a corpse without permission,' and the Blood Saints Research Institute wanted to have a firm grasp of the source of the corpse... Is it a very precious resource?"

"The corpse is not only a resource, but also their taboo." Harvey smiled slightly: "You were surprised that the chip processor was a corpse, but what if I told you that all the blood saints are corpses?"

Axiu recalled the arrogant white-haired hunter Gerald, who could not connect him to the corpse. Although he is very good at playing cards, he is obviously a clever man with a quick brain, and he is only a little bit close to him.

"The corpse...yes, it's the corpse, that makes sense!"

Igola suddenly realized: "I have also thought about why the blood saints have a long life and are immortal. It is clear that the longevity species like elves will also age. I used to think it was a miracle effect, but if it is a corpse, of course it looks. It will freeze at the moment of their death!"

"Speaking of which, I have seen the Blood Saints before, and I did not hear their heartbeats." Ronald held his chin and said, "Lonner, you are the Moonshade, you should know more, right?"

He turned his head, but found that Langner's expression was strange at this time, or that he had no expression at all, did not speak, did not turn his eyes, and looked straight ahead, like a stagnant wax figure.

"If he is the Moonshade, he can't respond to this topic." Harvey said: "The Blood Moon two clans signed an oath when they changed their races and must maintain the secrets of both parties."

Axiu asked: "This means that the processor that controls the chips of all executed prisoners is a blood saint!?"

"Don't worry, I haven't said there yet." Harvey said: "The Blood Saints have been hiding the secret that they are corpses, and at the same time they control all the sources of corpses, in order to prevent anyone from studying the corpses to learn the necromantic faction-death. The spirit faction is currently the only magic faction that can control corpses!"

“In other words, the necromancer is the natural enemy of the blood saint. Although I cannot easily manipulate the blood saint like a corpse, if I oppose the blood saint of the same level, unless the opponent is also proficient in the necromantic faction, Otherwise, I’m sure that he won’t even be able to urge Shu Ling to wipe out his soul in the dizziness and confusion, and turn it into a real corpse!”

Igola raised his eyebrows and reserved his opinion on Harvey’s statement.

Each faction magician will say that his faction is the strongest, just like Igola firmly believes that the psychic faction is the strongest faction, Harvey is so mad about the necromantic faction, there must be a lot of water in it.

The saying, ‘because our faction is so powerful, we are blocked’, almost every unpopular faction will circulate.

Lonah also had a similar attitude. As the banished Moonshade Clan, he must know more, but because of the bound by oath, he could not reveal anything.

And Ronald and Ashiu both had an expression of ‘You are so amazing, I confuse you’. Ash made a fist and said excitedly: “Okay, if Hunter Captain Gerrard catches up when you escape from prison, give it to Harvey. You have to solve it!”

Harvey’s face froze, “Although it is a natural enemy, it is not possible to fight three wings with one wing...”

Well done...Igola glanced at Ah Xiu, thinking that he was the man who deceived the deceiver. With a single sentence, Harvey’s position was suppressed. In the face of admiration, it is a language trap of bad water. Is this the talent of the leader of the cult?

Harvey changed his words: “However, although I can’t compete with the real Three Wing Sanctuary Blood Saint Clan, if the other party falls into a special state of sleep, it’s a different matter. For example...Used as a chip processor The remnant of the blood saint!”

What Harvey said next, reminds Asia of a term: biotechnology!

Because of the technician system, the technology of the technician in this world is very advanced, like the back-neck chip is a derivative of the technology of the technician. However, the chip is at most people's mobile terminal. It is no problem to send and receive information, watch movies, listen to music, and use it as a locator. However, if you want to control human behavior through the chip, it must exceed the limit of the chip's function.

The needs that cannot be satisfied by the 'functional limits' are naturally filled by 'miracle'. But the only one who can cast a miracle is a magician, and only a magician.

Even if the magician is dead, as long as certain conditions are met, he can perform miracles.

The so-called chip processor is actually the corpses of the blood saint clan wizards who have returned to the virtual realm. The blood saint clan magicians use the miracles of the necromantic factions, alchemy factions, and electromagnetic factions to recycle these corpses, and finally turn the corpses into terminal processors that can automatically receive and send chip signals!

This is not only environmentally friendly and energy-saving, but also imaginative. It breaks the theoretical limit abruptly. It brings the technology that may be invented hundreds of years later, and gives the executed prisoners in prison a refreshing experience in advance.

But Asia Xiu had a question: "If you only need the corpse of the magician, it doesn't have to be the blood saint, right?"

"The following is my guess." Harvey said: "Although the existing blood saints are corpses, they have no souls to return to the Void Realm, and their bodies live forever. It is easy to draw a conclusion-their souls remain in the flesh, if you further speculate, most of it is left in the blood."

"Even though most of the soul in the corpse has disappeared, there may still be a little soul fragment in the blood and flesh."

Igola understood immediately: "Resurrection?"

Harvey nodded: "For the Blood Saints, the corpse does not mean complete apoptosis. "Becoming a processor" may be an important step in the resurrection ceremony, and not all blood Saints magicians become "Processor", this may even be a benefit that a high-level technician is worthy of. "

"By the way, I have specifically tested that when I turn on the chip light curtain to browse movies or play curtain games and other complex operations, the soul energy will be significantly depleted, but it will quickly recover, even for the magician. Perceived. As for why this soul energy is consumed, it can be explained as the energy for running the chip, but it can also be explained as...the nutrients needed by the corpse."

Axiu felt uncomfortable all over her body, and subconsciously scratched the back of her neck. It seems that everyone has a tube on the back of their neck, and a dead and old corpse is on the other end. The corpse is absorbing the nutrients of living people every second.

"Hey! Okay...ooh!" Ronald shuddered, and suddenly rushed to the cubicle to face the toilet and threw up—he was so sick that he threw up!

Harvey put down the towel, turned around and looked at them next to the sink: "So, are you willing to accept me?"

Now even Igola couldn't provoke him: "Archibald, you are welcome to join."

"Don't worry, I will ask for proof." Harvey asked: "You should have a way to disarm the chip? If you can't disarm the chip, the so-called jailbreak is just a not funny joke."

Igola nodded: "Yes."

"Well, at least the plan has the possibility of success. But before I join, you must first sign a contract and promise me a request—"

"Necromancer~www.mtlnovel.com~Igola's voice was cold: "I admit that you brought very interesting information, but it is only interesting. Up to now, I have not seen what contribution you can make to the escape. "

Lang patted Ronald on the back to make him vomit more comfortable, and said: “You said you can control the corpse as a chip processor, that means you can directly change our chip permissions?”

Harvey shook his head: “No, you must use the “Sinner List” to modify the prisoner’s permissions. Unless we can cross our mark from the “Sinner List”, we will never reduce the chip prohibition.

“Then what’s the use of you?” Igola’s expression got worse.

“Although I can’t reduce our restraints, I can increase the restraints of others. It is difficult to open the shackles, but it is easy to add shackles to others.”

Harvey stroked his neck with his hand: “The chips of the prison guards are also under the jurisdiction of the processor.”

(End of this chapter)

Chapter 108 I should change you to jail

“Add prohibition to the prison guard?”

After vomiting, Ronald wiped the foul from the corner of his mouth, with an unbelievable expression: “But they are not prisoners!”

“Why do you think that only the prisoner’s chip will add a ban?”

Harvey sneered: “Or, why do you think that ordinary people’s chips can’t be banned?”

“Sinner Directory——”

“When you were detained in the crime hunting house, you were already subjected to multiple restrictions. At that time, you had not signed the “Catalog of Sinners”, which was not essentially different from ordinary people. The effect of the catalog of sinners was that Our prohibition is constant.”

Ronald murmured: “I thought it was the hunter who used miracles on me...”

A chill felt in her heart.

In other words, everyone in the blood moon kingdom, whether ordinary people or magicians, wear a shackle that can strangle them at any time. If the processor receives the command, it can control everyone in the area to do anything, even if it is to let them pierce their own throat!

It was funny. So far, Asia Xiu hadn't really seen the Blood Moon Kingdom, even the ordinary people in the Blood Moon Kingdom, but he knew many secrets that ordinary people couldn't touch.

He is like observing the world in a crack, and all he gets are fragmentary keywords: multi-racial, human rights association, nursing home, crime hunting hall, church, memory teacher, blood moon trial, woodpecker gang... these keywords are composed. A bizarre world is created, both democratic and authoritarian, rich and poor, respecting human rights and infringing privacy, entertaining to death, and harmonious and stable.

Like a blood lotus blooming on the mud, it is bright and dripping, but it exudes the stench of pickled fish.

This may have a lot to do with the source of Ya Xiu's information. After all, what kind of truth, goodness and beauty can he see in the death row prison? However, there has never been a perfect kingdom on earth. Maybe it will be really fragrant after Ash out, lying on the sofa and watching the Blood Moon Trial on time every month.

“This is definitely not the information that a scavenger can access.” Igola suddenly said: “Who are you? How did you hide it from the crime hunting hall?”

“I am a scavenger.” Harvey said calmly: “The responsibility is to deal with the corpse. The main content of the work is to make the corpse not ask for rescue, don't resist, and don't run away.”

“controller!”

Ronald suddenly remembered something: “In the past few years, there were some legendary homicides in the industry. The victim was murdered at home, but there were no traces of fighting in the room, and the victim disappeared without a trace, and there was no shortage of technicians for these victims...everyone. Calling this killer a ‘controller’, I think he has mastered a very powerful miracle of control, and can even make the Second Wing Magician completely lose the ability to resist!”

“It’s ridiculous, I’m just taking advantage of the existing loopholes.” Harvey shook his head: “As for how I concealed the crime hunting hall, it’s very simple-delete the memory first, and then find a way to find it back.”

Axiu was very puzzled: “You can delete your memories, so why don’t you just delete all the illegal memories? Wouldn’t you be acquitted on the spot?”

“He can’t.” Igola said: “He majored in the Necrofaction, and most of his memories are related to the Necrofaction. If he deletes the related memories of the Necrofaction, it is no different from letting him lose his memory directly; and if he Without deleting the necromantic faction but deleting the memory of handling the corpse, the crime hunting hall must know that he has deleted the memory-it is impossible to learn the necromantic faction without a corpse.”

“This is the best result he has calculated.”

A Xiu said, “Wait, since you dealt with the memory in advance, did you mean that you were arrested deliberately? Did you have to go to Broken Lake Prison? For example...for Narbel?”

Suddenly a cold wind blew in the tightly closed chamber.

When Harvey raised his chin and scanned the surroundings with his fierce pupils, Ronald immediately moved Ronaldella behind him, and Igola stepped forward and stood in front of Ash.

A Xiu got goose bumps from the gust of wind. He couldn’t even breathe smoothly, and his head was blank.

Shuling, or a miracle?

This gust of wind came and went fast, and Harvey lowered his eyelids: "I can add restrictions to the prison guards, so that they can't take any action, and they can't even send an alarm to the outside world. This ability can be exchanged for you. Is it a promise?"

Igola said: "Let's talk about your request first."

"After breaking out of prison, you will help me kill someone."

"Who?"

"Arandor Fernanche." Harvey uttered a well-known name: "Current Mayor of Kaimon City."

Virtual Realm, the sea of knowledge.

"So you signed a contract that cannot be violated. Although you haven't escaped from prison, you put the high-ranking mayor on the assassination list?"

"Yes, it just so happens that there is a contractor in the team, and we have no possibility of 'first verbally promise and then rebellious'."

"Hey, you still thought about going back."

"if not?"

"You can quickly join other people to kill the necromancer after you escape from prison, so you don't have to perform the contract! You can't hurt each other if it doesn't say in the contract, right?"

"As expected of you, you should go to jail for you."

In the chat, the Umbrella Bird Dragon, which was beaten unkempt and looked like a tattered umbrella, suddenly shrank its wings and rushed towards the white mist like a spinning umbrella to escape. At the same time, a Shu Ling was thrown in the opposite direction!

“Sword Princess!”

“no problem!”

A Xiu rushed to grab Shu Ling, while Sonia ran to the front of Umbrella Bird Dragon. Seeing the Umbrella Bird Dragon rushing forward violently, Sonia didn't have any fear, and while she was posing for the sword, she saw a stream of moonlight threads around her!

Clang!

When the Umbrella Bird Dragon touched Yuesi, Sonia's whole body was like a tight spring, the wooden sword drew a perfect arc, cutting out a scarlet sword energy wave!

Miracle-Killing Shuiyue! Integrate the killing sword into the new miracle of Shuiyue to increase its power!

“Kuru——”

The Umbrella Bird Dragon was cut apart, and after letting out an unwilling whine, it turned into a light smoke and dissipated, dropping two magic spirits.

Axiu sighed when he saw it, “I don't have any experience orbs, so how long and how long can you be promoted to Second Wing...”

Sonia comforted: “This kind of thing can't come in a hurry. Many magicians say that the virtual world will listen to our wishes. The more we want, the less it will give. When we don't care, it will be sent to us before.”

“Sounds like the virtual realm is so cheap.”

“You say a few more words, I’m afraid that you won’t even want to see the Orb of Experience for the rest of your life.”

With the help of “Expulsion of Secret Poison” and “Void Telescope”, now Ya Xiu can steadily search for knowledge creatures to hunt. In order to promote Sword Fairy to the Second Wing as soon as possible, so that she can hold her thighs up and down, Ya Xiu specifically searches for the intellectual creatures that might explode swordsmanship orbs.

But tonight, I have hunted ichthyosaurs and umbrella bird dragons continuously, and apart from a few magic spirits, there is no trace of the experience orb. This not only made Ya Xiu a little discouraged, but according to this schedule, it was simply unrealistic to feed Jian Ji into a fat man with two wings within ten days.

“I don’t know how many swordsmanship orbs are needed to raise the realm to the gold level.”

Sonia lay on the small boat, put both legs on the side of the boat, and lazily said: “Magicians basically rely on learning and sailing in the imaginary realm to improve the realm of the faction, and occasionally encounter an experience orb and feel happy. Surprisingly, if you can meet the experience orb of your major faction, it will be a lifetime achievement. Using the experience orb to pile up the realm of the major faction? Like this kind of thought, it will be laughed at by children when you say it. “

“The idea of being laughed at is worthy of realization.” Ya Xiu glanced at the black silk calf that was dangling, and the white touch between the stockings and short skirt: “Is it my illusion, I always feel that you are there. I became more and more relaxed before me.”

“Which~Yes~, I’m just a little tired, so I take a break~www.mtlnovel.com~ But I remember that you used to sit upright when you rested.”

“Where is it comfortable to sit and lie down? Hey, viewers, can you make the boat a little bigger, it’s best to get a pedal, I want to put my feet in the boat, and stretch my waist.”

“Don’t go too far, Jian Ji!”

“Why, you are allowed to act like a baby, and I am not allowed to stretch?”

“What are you so cute!” Ah Xiu stammered with excitement: “I’ve never been so cute! Don’t * and spray people!”

Sonia cleared her throat: “I am as light as a balloon, but only a thin thread is left to tie me to the ground, Jian Ji, to me, you are the one...” “

“Huh, do you think you have grasped my handle? Do you think I am the kind of person who is shy because of this kind of thing?”

“That—“

“But I think if you put it like this, it’s easy to wet your socks, and it will be bad if you suddenly fall down during the fight.” Ya Xiu calmly patted his thigh: “Actually, I will get a little foot massage, not as good as you. Put your feet on my thighs.”

(End of this chapter)

Chapter 109 “Sword Princess Breaks with the Viewer”

“But you still haven’t solved your most imminent crisis.”

Sonia supported her chin, “Listen to you, the Blood Moon Trial on the 27th will definitely kill a lot of people. What if you are selected for the Blood Moon Trial List? I always feel that this is some kind of omen-yours. The better the plan, the harder it will be for you to live to the day when the plan is implemented.”

Naturally, she did not stretch her long legs. In fact, the boat was uncomfortable to lie down. After all, it was not a bed. She was just playing with it and wanted to deliberately tease the viewer and test the viewer’s tolerance limit for her.

The result is naturally very ideal.

It's fast, it's not too far away from the day when the viewer will be turned into his own car!

Axiu naturally didn't know Sonia's stray thoughts. He stared at the virtual world map in the light curtain and said: "Then launch the plan directly to create a prison riot."

"But there is no ship—"

"Even if there is no boat, there are other ways to cross the sharks between the fingers in the Broken Lake, but it is a little bit of blood. In fact, the biggest trouble without a boat is that you can't go ashore safely. At that time, there will be hunters on the shore to hunt and escape. Death row prisoner. Although it is basically impossible to escape, it is better than sitting in a blood moon trial and waiting to die."

Sonia nodded, this is indeed the best way in the worst case. However, she refreshed her view of the viewer a little bit. Because of the 'acting a baby' last night, she thought the viewer was a slender and indecisive person. She didn't expect that when she should change his head decisively, the viewer did not hesitate.

Don't expect Sonia to be able to talk in front of the viewers, but if she is imprisoned in Broken Lake Prison and faced with a violent organization controlled by a heavily guarded chip, she may not be able to make up her mind to escape from prison, let alone plan a riot.

Because jailbreaking is not only a jailbreak, but also a challenge to state agencies and the ruling class. Even if you successfully escape from prison, waiting for the escaped person will only be endless wanted to kill, every time you open your eyes you have to face ubiquitous malice, and there is no safe place in the city of Nuovo that can accommodate him.

Compared to death, this breathless pressure may be more frightening.

However, although the viewer sometimes shows a weak side, he is unambiguous about the escape from prison. It's not that he doesn't know the power of the blood moon kingdom, and even he himself was caught by the blood mad hunters. He also knows the powerful control of the blood moon kingdom over the society, and he also knows that after he escapes from prison, what awaits him will be a precarious life.

However, in his words, he never revealed the slightest fear of the blood moon kingdom.

Sonia can only be attributed to the self-confidence brought by his 'recovery of the strong', or...

He is not awe-inspiring by nature.

"There is a ichthyosaur in front of it. It should be a growth stage, can't you do it?"

"Fuck! I thought of a wonderful starting move, maybe it can beat the ichthyosaur with one move."

As the boat broke through the white fog, Sonia soon also had sporadic feelings: the sound of fish scales and blades across the sand, the sound of ichthyosaurs bubbling bubbles, the smell of waves... Although not as far away as the viewer Identify knowledge creatures, but 'Expulsion of Secret Poison' allows Sonia to collect the knowledge creature's biological information through the white mist, allowing her to prepare for battle in advance, and lightly hold the hilt in her right hand.

"Hey?"

The boat suddenly turned a corner, and all of Sonia's accumulated momentum was suddenly vented. She was dissatisfied: "What are you doing?"

Axiu's voice was a little excited: "I found a very strange place behind Yulong, maybe it's a miracle island."

He saw that in the "Void Realm Map", a bright silver light appeared on the right rear area of the Fish Slayer, forming a silver light prompt:

"Come on!"

“Finally encountered the island of miracle again?” Sonia straightened her body: “This time we must round up all the magical spirits! No one can run!”

But when they got closer and closer to the target area, both Yaxiu and Sonia felt something was wrong- the white mist nearby was as thick as milky milk, and the visibility was so low that Yaxiu and Sonia on the boat could not see it. each other!

They felt that more and more knowledge flowed into their consciousness, and Ah Xiu fell, but Sonia was strobe with aura, feeling that the swordsmanship they encountered one after another breakthrough, and quickly resolved all the current confusion. Just wait to go back to reality and practice to confirm what you think!

Navigate in the virtual world to absorb the white mist, which will increase faction experience. Although the two of Asia Xiu had already unfolded the Silver Wings and could not continue to condense their mana, their magic factions that had not broken through to the gold level could all gain experience in absorbing the white mist.

However, these white fog experiences are not obvious, and they often have to wait until the magician is fighting or researching before it can be effective. This kind of white mist that is so rich that the magician can break through the difficulties one after another is almost comparable to the experience orb!

Slightly.

When the boat stopped, the white mist in front of them suddenly dispersed, revealing the small island hidden inside.

In the next second, the faces of Ya Xiu and Sonia changed drastically!

If there are knowledge creatures, magician projections, or other magicians on the island, the two of them will not be so surprised.

But what caught their eyes were two chairs!

Two!

The two looked at each other, and Ya Xiu subconsciously pressed his voice and asked, "Do you know where this is?"

"No impression." Sonia was also a little confused: "Shall we go?"

It is of course that they are afraid. If it is just a chair, they must think it is nothing, but two chairs means that the island knows that two people will come!

But the problem is, except for the two of them, all the magicians of the whole world travel solo!

It's like when traveling in a strange city, I suddenly picked up a hundred-yuan bill, and I fixed my eyes on it. It said: 'Hello, Ya Xiu, take it and spend it'.

The kind of cold and fear of being watched by unknown beings is afraid of everyone.

Ya Xiu glanced at the "Void Realm Map" again, made sure it said "come soon", and made up his mind to go to the island: "Don't be afraid, the big deal is to hand over the Void Realm blood. Anyway, we are all spreading out the Silver Wings, and die. There is no loss."

"But what if it's like "Expelling the Secret Poison" again? "

"trust me!"

Watching Sonia still twisted ~www.mtlnovel.com~Axiu directly took her to the island-he was also scared, so he had to find someone to cushion her back.

The chairs are very ordinary chairs. They looked at each other and took a deep breath to sit down together.

Nothing special, and the chair did not grow tentacles to bind them.

After a while, they lowered their heads and found that there was a piece of paper on their thighs.

As soon as they pick up the paper, they know the rules of the game: answer the questions that appear, the answer will end immediately, and the answer can be continued. If the number of correct times is greater than or equal to 1, the respondent is qualified to ask questions.

When Sonia looked at the paper, several lines appeared on the paper:

(End of this chapter)

Technician's Manual - Chapter 110

Chapter 110 - Break now

"I remember," Sonia murmured, "This is a question and answer of fate."

"Fate Q&A?"

She nodded lightly: "This is a very rare Void Realm mechanism, and it has various forms. The simplest 'paper question and answer' like we encountered. If the answer is correct, we can ask any questions to Void Realm, and Void Realm must Give us an answer."

"Anything will do?" Ah Xiu said in surprise: "Then I ask how can I live forever and be invincible in the world, will it answer?"

"Yes!" Sonia nodded affirmatively: "But the quality of Voidland's answers will be determined by the number of your answers, that is, the more correct answers you get, the more detailed Voidland's answer will be."

“In fact, compared to the reward of ‘asking a question to the Void’, more magicians are actually paying more attention to the fate question and answer itself-because the questions raised by the fate question and answer are all about the future of the magician.”

“Future problems?”

“Yes, the questions here are all things that the magician has not experienced yet. It is impossible for the magician to know the correct answer. They can only infer the future based on the past.” Sonia looked at the paper and whispered: “It is said, All the future mentioned in the question and answer of destiny will inevitably become reality.”

Ah Xiu said, “Then what is your problem?”

Sonia’s pupils shrank suddenly and said nonchalantly: “I don’t want to tell you.”

“Why? Isn’t it easier to find the correct answer when two people discuss it together?”

“Oh, don’t inquire about the girl’s privacy, it’s disgusting.” Sonia pretended to be disgusted.

“What privacy does the magician have...”

Ah Xiu murmured, watching Sonia concealing the paper intentionally or unintentionally, thinking she was really shy, but suddenly felt something was wrong.

Jian Ji has never been vague when it comes to power and future. Although she sometimes has a bad temper, it is undeniable that Jian Ji is indeed a good player. She has never been dragged down in the exploration of the virtual world, and she has not hesitated when she needs to pay.

Fate Q&A is undoubtedly an extremely rare occasion. In this case, Jian Ji would refuse to cooperate because of being ‘shy’, and would rather give a wrong answer than discuss with Asia Xiu?

Others are falling down, but Jian Ji is the one who can shout in front of him, “You have no dreams but you can guard my dreams”. Her greed is even recognized by the game. “Fetters Resonance · Insufficient greed” is the best ambition for her. The proof.

What’s more, Ya Xiu and her are people in two worlds, equivalent to strange netizens on the Internet. Even if Ya Xiu knows her secrets, it won’t affect her reality. It’s useless for her to pretend to be pure in front of Ya Xiu.

As if a laser beam pierced through his head, Ya Xiu had an idea: “Is your question related to me?”

Sonia took a halt.

She knew that now was the best time to deny. She had to retort in a witty, disdainful, and surprised tone, and finally dropped the sentence ‘Don’t spy the girl’s privacy anymore’ in disgust to dispel all the viewer’s doubts.

It’s fine to lie, just to conceal it. You only need to consider your own interests, and let any facts that are not good for you be stifled in the bud.

But for some reason, she, who has always been alert and clever, suddenly lags behind at this moment. It was this pause that made her lose the possibility of concealment.

Maybe it was affected by the ‘sincere’ magic spirit...

Sighing inwardly, Sonia nodded: “Yes.”

“Sure enough.” Ah Xiu muttered, and said thoughtfully: “It has something to do with me and you, and you don’t want to tell me. Could it be that it says—”

Sonia suddenly became nervous.

“—You fall in love with me?”

“Have you not slept for too long, now that you can dream with your eyes open?” Sonia said angrily, “How is it possible!”

“You deny it so resolutely, you really have to make people doubt... Hey, hey, in Destiny’s answer, what sword do you take and put it down, it made me answer the question!” Ya Xiu reprimanded Sonia righteously. Ya, look down at your subject: “Don’t tell me if you don’t want to say it, I seem to be curious about it.”

“Aren’t you curious?”

“Of course I’m curious, I can’t wait to lie to you and turn your head and * your topic.” Ya Xiu said quietly: “But you don’t want to. I can’t offend you now for the so-called ‘destiny’.”

“When the ‘destiny’ written above is likely to come true, don’t you want to know what will happen to you and me in the future?”

“You shouldn’t ask me this question, you should ask yourself.” Ah Xiu said, “Would you like to share your future with me?”

Sonia was startled slightly, picked up the paper to cover her mouth, and shook her head: “Not very willing yet.”

“Okay.” Ya Xiu shrugged and looked down at the question.

After a while, he asked again: “Is it really unwilling? If I don’t want to, I will ask again later.”

Sonia chuckled and almost couldn’t help laughing. She gave Ya Xiu out of breath, her mouth was slightly upturned, her eyelashes trembled very cutely, her eyes were crescent-shaped, her eyebrows were full of charm, and she thought she had used it. What beauty magic.

“You are so annoying.” She murmured, “Okay, okay, I can’t guess the answer anyway, let’s discuss it with you.”

“Do you actually want to talk to me a long time ago—”

“Please listen to the question! Single-choice question, what is the root cause of Jian Ji’s break with the viewer? ① Jian Ji hates the viewer’s indifference, ② the viewer thinks Jian Ji can’t control, ③ the uneven distribution of spoils, ④ all of the above are correct.”

“I will break with you in the future?” Ya Xiu was also interested: “Break, it’s the first time I have heard this kind of word in reality. It feels like a vocabulary that only appears in a stage play.”

The most serious declaration of renunciation that Ash has ever heard is “I won’t play with you anymore.” Words like “break” are generally used between two big powers. How can ordinary people have the qualifications to “break” ,’Divorce’ is almost the same.

“Quickly, do you want to control me? If you find that you can’t control me, you will feel resentment?”

“How is it possible? You might as well consider that your impression of me has been biased. I don’t look like a hot-blooded teenager. As a mature social person, isn’t indifference a very good traditional quality? How can you hate it? My indifference?”

“So I don’t think it’s ① option, I prefer ③, and the spoils are unevenly divided.

“Do you imply that there is a problem with the current spoil distribution system?”

“It’s okay now, but after you escape from prison, maybe your appetite will increase, then it will be hard to tell...”

“Bah, I think you are too greedy. I have to put up with you in order to maintain the overall situation. In the end, I couldn’t bear it until I parted ways with you, a * who is doing more and less!”

“You have to speak with conscience. From the beginning to the present, which battle was not my best output, and which time was not my highest output. Tsk tusk tusk, viewers, you have exposed your fox tail, you must be planning to cut my trophy in the future. Share!”

“Even if the share is adjusted, there must be a reason for me. I am always fair and just, and I will never do anything that is just a matter of ignorance...”

“Who just said that if you are selected for the Blood Moon Trial, you will trigger a big prison riot? Who is it?”

Obviously it is a very serious future topic ~www.mtlnovel.com~ but the two seem to be arguing about the division and faults after the game is over. The tone is relaxed and talking and laughing, so Sonia’s mood gradually relaxes.

She was also worried that speaking about this issue of fate would arouse viewers’ suspicion, but the attitude of the viewers made her worry disappear.

A lot of things are like this, when you don’t think it is a problem, it is not a problem.

“①It’s not right, ②It’s not right, ③It’s not right.” Sonia said angrily: “Then which one do you think is the right option?”

“I actually don’t think there is a correct answer. If I break with you, there must be another reason.”

“what reason?”

“For example, you are not strong enough.”

Sonia was startled: “What do you mean?”

“In other words, you may not be able to keep up with my progress in the future,” Ya Xiu said, “Then I meet a stronger player, so you will naturally be useless.”

This is the reason that Ya Xiu thinks is the most reasonable-although there is only Jian Ji as an operator now, it does not mean that there will be only her as an operator in the future. As a mobile game, isn't it normal that the initial role cannot keep up with the late rhythm? In the future, you will surely be able to recruit more intensive operators, and then Ya Xiu will naturally not include Jian Ji into the team.

Sonia was so angry that her hands and feet were cold, and her shoulders trembled: "Because I am not strong enough, you want to abandon me?"

"It's not abandoning it, it's just that you may not be worthy of me at that time, and it will even hinder my progress. For the sake of your and my future, we can only temporarily separate, which is good for you and me—"

"No need for the future, break now!"

"Huh?" Ya Xiu was startled.

Is this fate question and answer so effective? It will become true directly! ?
