Chapter 111 - Because of love

Chapter 111 - Because of love

"Are you sure to choose?"

"Otherwise? I feel that the first three are possible, but they are not entirely possible. In this case, the correct rate of choosing 'all of the above' is very high, believe me."

Sonia didn't have any opinion, and she was not sure which was correct. Although she thought ③ was more likely, the future was ever-changing, and it was actually very unreliable to use the past to speculate on the future. Now that the viewer is trying to choose ④, then choose ④—you can rely on him if you make a mistake.

Sonia had a thought, and ticked the ④ option, and immediately the paper glowed with rainbow fluorescence, and the font began to change—

"Congratulations, you got a correct answer. Do you want to continue to answer the question?"

"That's right!" Sonia was shocked.

"Look, believe I'm right." The former university rewind Wang Yaxiu was very confident about how to blindly guess multiple choice questions: "What is the second question?"

After Sonia chose to continue to answer the question, the paper changed to the second question:

“Question-Single-choice question: What is the reason for Jian Ji and the viewer to reconcile after a break?”

“①For the greater good”

“②To counter the common crisis”

“③Because of love”

“④All of the above are correct.”

“This time it must be ④—”

“Impossible!” Sonia shook her head firmly: “③It must be wrong, so it can’t be ④.”

Ya Xiu opened his hand, and the corners of his mouth were upturned like a crescent: “Oh, this is something that may happen in the future, and it may not happen. Why are you so shy, answer with a normal heart to deal with fate—”

Sonia almost snarled: “Then sort out your emotions before you speak, you can’t hide the secret joy in your tone!”

After a quarrel, Sonia looked back at the topic and thought for a while and said: “It should be ①. If it is for the greater good, even if we have more disputes before, we can put it aside for now.”

Ya Xiu didn’t get involved, and nodded earnestly: “Indeed, ① is the most likely, and it is unlikely that two consecutive questions will have the same answer.”

Not only because of the guessing law, even if it is logically inferred, Asia Xiu also thinks ① the most reasonable. First of all, the front viewer and Jian Ji have broken, how could the two who have broken up have love? What can force them to unite together, besides benefits?

After so many days of getting along, Ya Xiu knew that Jian Ji was the supremacy of interests. As for him, let alone talk about feelings when an old social animal didn't talk about interests?

After a brief discussion, Sonia decided to choose. When her conviction moved, the text on the paper glowed with a gray and turbid light, which was very uncomfortable at first glance:

“You got the wrong answer. Fate's answer is over. You can start asking questions.”

It was wrong! ?

Both Yaxiu and Sonia are dumbfounded. You must know that in the remaining three answers, two contain the option 'because of love', which means that there is a two-thirds probability that they will reunite because of love in the future! ?

“Think about it carefully, maybe it's also the option of ②? The two who have broken up are also very likely to have all their suspicions released in order to fight the common crisis—”

“Hmm, I think so too.”

Such abrupt change of the subject made the atmosphere gradually become awkward, and even approached in an ambiguous direction. Sonia quickly changed the subject: “Then what is your problem?”

“I'm very simple.” Asia Xiu looked down at the question.

“Question-Short Answer Question: Did Schilling Dole die after seeing whom?”

“Speaking of which, why do you have multiple-choice questions and mine short-answer questions?”

“Because of the time distance.” Sonia guessed: “If it is too far away, it is completely impossible to infer the correct answer based on my current intelligence. Fate's answer will give me several options for me to choose. At least I have the possibility of guessing right. Your problem may be that it is very close to your current time, and you can guess it by yourself, so you are not given an option.”

She paused: “Is this Schilling the murderer you mentioned before?”

“Yes.” Ah Xiu said, “So the answer is obvious.”

Ash’s thoughts moved, and he filled in the answer: “Chilling Doll died after seeing Ash Heath.”

The paper font changed into a rainbow glow: “Congratulations, you got a correct answer. Do you want to continue to answer the question?”

After the operation of Ya Xiu, the second problem appeared on the paper:

“Question-Simple question: What channel did the viewer use to escape from the blood moon kingdom after breaking out of prison?”

Yaxiu told Sonia the question, and Sonia was a little confused: “Is there no option? No option means that you can infer the correct answer based on the existing intelligence. Have you planned an escape plan after jailbreak?”

“Does survival in the wilderness count?”

To be honest, Ah Xiu and the others really didn’t think about how to escape after breaking out of prison—anyway, after breaking out of prison, they must have their own destiny and have their own calculations, so there is no need to discuss with others.

For people with amnesia like Ah Xiu, whose eyes are darkened, they have no choice but to go into the wilderness to be savages, but Igola, Ronald, Ronald, and even Harvey are all ground snakes, and maybe there are private individuals. Safe house, why do you want to share it with inmates?

“Then do you know any way to leave the blood moon kingdom?”

“I don’t know.” Ya Xiu looked blankly: “I don’t even know where the border of the Blood Moon Realm is now.”

I can’t discuss why, Sonia thought about it: “Since I can’t think of it, choose one of the most common channels. Either fake a formal identity and leave the country through normal transportation, or find someone who can smuggle. Intermediaries leave the country through illegal transportation, and the most common illegal transportation is shipping...”

“It’s impossible to fake a formal identity. It’s definitely necessary to check the chip when taking transportation in the blood moon country. I will not implant the chip again after removing the chip.” Yaxiu said, “That is only through illegal channels, compared with Land transportation, which is easy to be intercepted, is indeed more likely to be transported by ship... well, then choose ship transport!”

“After breaking out of prison, the viewer escaped from the blood moon kingdom by boat!”

The paper puffed out a grey air current, as if mocking Ah Xiu’s low energy:

“You got the wrong answer. Fate’s answer is over. You can start asking questions.”

Yaxiu and Sonia had expected this, and UU reading www.ukanshu.com was not disappointed. After all, they have no clue and rely on logic to guess randomly, and the probability of hitting the correct answer is too low.

It’s just that Sonia still has some doubts: “No, if Fate answers a question that the magician can’t answer, isn’t it just bullying, you definitely know how to leave the blood moon country, but you didn’t think about it for a while.”

“Perhaps Xujing heard me call it cheap just now, so he deliberately targeted me.”

“Then you really deserve it... However, even the Void Realm thinks that you can successfully escape from prison and even leave the blood moon kingdom. It seems that you don’t have to worry about the blood moon trial.”

Ah Xiu was right. In fact, it was not just this question. Just asking “How did Schillingkar die?” and “The break and reunion between the viewer and the sword girl” all proved that Asia would not just become like this in the Blood Moon Trial. Ketchup, otherwise he has a future?

This is the greatest benefit of fate’s answer—you can indirectly understand your own future situation through the question, which has great reference value for you to judge the current situation.

The answer is over, the next is the questioning session.

The two looked at the paper in her hand, and Sonia said: “The question we ask should not be too outrageous. It is best to confine it within the scope of a silver wing. Although there is little information about the answer to fate, there is one thing that is common in the virtual world Yes—how much you give, you will get so much. We only answered one question correctly, and the rewards given by the Void Realm will never exceed this range.”

Ya Xiu nodded: “The answer to this question should be able to increase our combat power immediately. After all, the second Blood Moon trial is approaching. For every point of strength, I have a greater chance of survival.”

Having said this, the two of them had a flash of inspiration at the same time, and said excitedly towards each other:

“Golden Fish!”

Technician’s Manual - Chapter 112

Chapter 112 - You at different times, not yourself

Chapter 112 - You at different times, not yourself

According to the situation of Yaxiu and Sonia, asking Golden Fish is undoubtedly the most cost-effective choice.

Shu Ling, although they are lacking, it is impossible for Fate's answer to throw a Shu Ling directly. This is a question and answer rather than a wish machine.

Miracles, they are not very lacking, and based on their answers, most of the virtual world will not answer a detailed miracle technique, at most it will point out a specific miracle research direction for them.

As for how to quickly improve the realm of the magic faction, the fastest way is to use the experience orb, and the source of the experience orb is the knowledge creature. At most, the virtual world will point out for them where there are suitable knowledge creatures. It is impossible to directly from the knowledge creature. Take out a bead and give it to them.

Thinking about it, the three factors of Shu Ling, Miracle, and Faction Realm are just icing on the cake. What really determines the power of the magician must be the number of Void Wings and the level of the magic power!

As long as you are promoted to the Second Wing, you can venture in the Time Continent and obtain the Second Wing Shu Ling!

As long as you are promoted to Second Wing, your mana will continue to grow!

As long as he is promoted to Second Wing, Ya Xiu can use his golden magic power to mobilize the "Earth Sword" of the Second Wing Shu Ling 100%, greatly improving the defense of the miracle of "Sword Body Barrier", and he will be more secure when he escapes!

Ya Xiu is so eager to feed Jian Ji's swordsmanship faction to the golden level, isn't she just hoping that she will take her to sneak across the Time Continent after she is promoted to Second Wing? Now there is a better opportunity for smuggling!

However, if you directly ask about the situation of the Golden Fish, Void Realm will certainly not answer in much detail.

However, there is an obvious loophole in the fate question and answer: no matter how many correct answers the magician answers, if the problem raised by the magician is a judgment of right and wrong, then the virtual world must give the correct answer!

For example, if a magician encounters a bottleneck in the research of a certain miracle magician, and has tested all that there may be only two ab research directions, he asks whether the direction of the virtual world a is correct, and the virtual world can only answer 'yes' or 'no'. , Then naturally know whether the b direction is correct or not.

If you are a master of logic, you can even construct a complicated true-and-false question to let the virtual world eliminate multiple doubts for itself.

For example, Ya Xiu wanted to fart and asked, "Will I see Jian Ji sleeping next to me when I get up someday in ten years' time? The key elements are 'one day in ten years' time, 'get up,' and 'Jian Ji sleeping next to me'.

"Getting up" is an inevitable element. It is impossible for Asia to stay in the virtual world all night. Sleeping in is a luxurious and wonderful enjoyment, and Asia must definitely experience it occasionally.

And "Sword Fairy sleeping next to me" is a controllable element, and Ah Xiu can remember this completely, and in the future call her to act in a play and sleep next to him.

The only thing that is uncontrollable is the 'someday in ten years' time.

If Xu Jing answered 'yes', then naturally there was nothing to say, and Ya Xiu could directly call Jian Ji's wife with confidence.

If it is 'No', then there are two possibilities. Either Ya Xiu had already broken with Jian Ji at that time, so Jian Ji would not even play it; or Xu Jing thought that Ya Xiu would not survive ten years at all.

Therefore, when the virtual world is stingy about the quality of answers, asking right or wrong questions is the most cost-effective choice, at least not getting invalid information.

After a brief discussion, the two of them decided to ask different questions to Void Realm one after another:

“Does the golden fish need to go through a specific ritual to see it?”

Questions like ‘where is the golden fish’ and ‘how to find the golden fish’ are absolutely impossible to get a detailed answer. Most of the virtual realms will answer correct nonsense such as ‘in the sea of knowledge’ and ‘find with your eyes’.

These two questions actually originated from the conjectures of Yaxiu and Sonia-Sonia asked from Professor Trozan that the Time Continent is also a very vast place, not much smaller than the sea of knowledge. It stands to reason that if the time continent is so big, the golden fish must also be very huge, but why can’t the magicians see the golden fish in the sea of knowledge?

With the two lessons learned from the “Vortex Secret Poison” and “Expulsion Secret Poison”, they would naturally think that the golden fish may not exist in the sea of knowledge. As long as the magician goes through a specific ritual to activate the virtual world mechanism, gold The fish will appear in front of the magician.

However, the answer surprised them: “No.”

Can the golden fish be seen without a specific ceremony? In other words, the golden fish also exists in the sea of knowledge at this moment?

After a brief discussion, they asked the second question:

“When will the golden fish come up from the bottom of the sea?”

In any case, both Yaxiu and Sonia are sure that it is impossible to encounter golden fish in normal navigation. After all, even Yaxiu who holds the “Voidland Map” has never seen a golden fish, and it is even more impossible for other magicians. found it.

Since it is not at sea, it is naturally sunk under the sea. In addition, the golden fish does not require a specific ceremony to be seen. They guessed that the golden fish may periodically float from the deep sea to the surface, so they directly asked when the golden fish came up, and then tried their luck to look for it.

Because it is not a right-and-false question, they are very nervous about whether the virtual world will answer a few questions.

The result still surprised them: “The golden fish has been floating on the sea.”

The golden fish has been floating on the surface of the sea, and can be seen without a specific ceremony?

Although this conclusion completely contradicts the virtual exploration experience of Yaxiu and Sonia, they have to believe it. If the ‘future’ mentioned in Destiny’s answer may not happen, the golden fish they asked about is the information that the Void Realm must have, and the Void Realm is the authority in this regard!

“Is it really our bad luck, that’s why we didn’t meet the golden fish?”

Although unbelievable, Ya Xiu can only accept this conclusion. At this time, the paper turned into light smoke and dissipated, and their chairs suddenly disappeared, causing them to almost sit on the ground.

Back on the boat and watching the sinking of this fateful question and answer island, Sonia said quietly: “I feel so bad, and I didn’t get any effective information.”

“At least I know that I can escape from the blood moon country alive.” Ya Xiu looked relaxed. In his opinion, the question and answer of fate is an opportunity for free prostitution. It is good to have something to gain. If there is no gain, it will be an eye-opener: “And in the future. Break with you for various reasons, and then reconcile with you for some reason—”

“When we go through the Fate Q&A, the future may not necessarily happen!” Sonia glared at him: “And there has always been a saying that many predictions in the Fate Q&A were not fulfilled, but the insiders did it before the prediction was fulfilled. He died, so everyone didn’t know about these invalid predictions, and naturally there was no record.”

“If you die, then I will report this precious case about the fate question and answer to the school, maybe I can earn some credits...”

The survivor theory is okay...Axiu spread his hands: “So do you want the prophecy to come true, or do you want it not to come true?”

Sonia snorted softly, “I only believe in prophecies that are good for me, but lies that are not good for me.”

“As expected of you.”

“how about you?”

“I, how can I put it... I don’t care about the prophecy itself, but I am looking forward to the matchup between the prophecy and me.”

“Duel? What do you mean?”

“Well, let me think about how to tell you... Jian Ji, do you think you will be the same as you 30 years later in terms of personality, three views, ideals, habits, etc.?”

Sonia thought for a while and shook her head: “Should it be different? I’m not 20 years old now. Thirty years are longer than the time I have been from birth to now. Many changes will definitely happen.”

Ya Xiu nodded: “Then if your soul in thirty years suddenly occupies your current body, can it be regarded as you thirty years from now, killing you now?”

Sonia frowned slightly, her expression a little disturbed: "Can you count it like that?"

"Extend the 'occupation process' to thirty years. After you know through prophecy that thirty years later, there will be a sword girl who is completely different from you in all aspects, and you will inevitably become the sword girl in the prophecy. The prophesied sword girl, slowly killing you in thirty years?"

"... Generally speaking, no one thinks that way."

"But don't you find it very interesting?" Ah Xiu spread his hands out: "If you don't know the prophecy, it's fine, but if you know the prophecy, it is equivalent to the appearance of a 'future you'. Only one of you can survive. , Either he killed you or you killed him, there is no second possibility."

"The only difference between 'prophecy' and 'occupation' is the length of time. 'Occupation' is a moment, so you think it is the "future sword girl" who killed the "present self", while the 'prophecy' is a long day. Day and night, the "future you" used time to carve the "present you" into its own appearance. "

Sonia's lips moved slightly, she wanted to say something but didn't say, she seemed to be thinking about how to refute it. And Ah Xiu then asked:

"Have you ever heard of a game? A child wrote a letter to his grown-up self when he was young, or something."

"I have heard it, and I have written it."

"You said, when grown-up adults saw that letter, would they think it was a last word?"

"Why do you think so?"

"Because they are completely different people, their thoughts, habits, three views, and ideals are very different, but they once lived in the same body. Couldn't the latter kill the former?"

Sonia shook her head repeatedly: “But they are the same person in succession. This change is called growth, not occupation!”

Ah Xiu smiled and said: “When a child writes a letter, it is equivalent to solidifying him at this moment in the letter. The soul in the letter has separated from continuous time and has become an independent and unchanging individual.”

“Isn’t this very similar to a prophecy? A prophecy takes out the future self from a certain point in time and shows it to you. Isn’t that the future you writing to the present you?”

“You at different times, not yourself.”

“So I don’t care about the prophecy, but I am looking forward to the matchup with the prophecy. Of course, something that is clearly about to happen like I will trouble Schilling after I escape from prison is not a prophecy. But if we really do because of those inexplicable reasons in the future. Break, it means that the spectator in the prophecy killed me, and the sword girl in the prophecy killed you.”

Ah Xiu suddenly pondered: “It’s strange to say, why is there love in the compound reason, but there is no emotional breakdown in the break reason? Does love only sprout after the break? Both sides realize that the other party is indispensable—”

Sonia returned to her senses, blushing, gritted her teeth and said: “That means it is not because of love ~www.mtlnovel.com~ but because of reunion to resist the common crisis!”

“Okay, okay, don’t worry.”

“I’m in no hurry!”

“Yeah, you’re right, you should go kill the ichthyosaurs and make the atmosphere lively.”

Two more knowledge creatures were hunted. Not only did she not show the experience orb, but Sonia was distracted and did not stop the escaped knowledge creature. But this kind of mistake was normal, and Ya Xiu didn’t care. After the two said goodbye, they both exited the virtual realm at the same time.

Consciousness returned to the body in the meditation room, Sonia hadn't recovered for a long time, and the viewer's words kept echoing in her mind.

In fact, after closing the relationship, Sonia couldn't help but wonder-is the viewer the resurrection of the strong in her imagination?

The main reason is that the viewers are not like legends in all aspects, do not pursue strength, do not like to learn, and even have no deep desires. If they are placed in Jianhua University, this kind of gray and inferior passerby with no potential will be seen by Sonia. Don't take a look.

But the remarks made by the viewer just now made Sonia realize that he could never be an ordinary person. Even if it is now, it cannot be in the future.

Sonia has seen the madness wrapped in logic and the evil nature that is very different from common sense in "The Psychological Analysis of the Guilty Master" many times. Not all criminals are wicked, and many are even those who are willing to have a family. But once their lives are accidentally broken, they will fade away like a cocoon and a butterfly, and they dare to trample on all the laws of the world, like flying. The moth chased the light in the heart like a fire.

She recalled the intro of that book-

"They haven't changed, they just woke up."

Technician's Manual - Chapter 113

Chapter 113 - Broken-hearted looking for a single dog for emotional consultation

Chapter 113 - Broken-hearted looking for a single dog for emotional consultation

Jianhua University, Mori Library.

Although it is not as good as the four gates of truth libraries at the University of Truth, the Mori Hall and Flower Hall of Jianhua University are also considered to be the top scenic spots in Calox. In terms of the amount of books, the Morikan Flower Museum is ranked in the top ten in Calox. No, but in terms of a pleasant and comfortable environment, the Morikan Flower House is one of the top two unshakable existences. It has the reputation of “the first holy place for couples dating” in Jianhua University.

Unlike the Flower Library, which is full of flowers, the theme of the Mori Pavilion is ‘Quiet Forest’. Viewed from the outside, it is a lush forest with small bridges and flowing water, rabbits mating, and squirrels gnawing on pine cones. Lin There is a comfortable cool breeze, and there are comfortable swings, benches, tree houses and even bears everywhere—yes, there are very relative bears inside, which can read directly on their stomachs.

For Sonia, the most wonderful thing about the Morikan is the absence of mosquitoes.

This really shocked the village girl who was born in an agricultural town and used to go to the forest to pick mushrooms for snacks when she was a child.

However, in order to have a comfortable reading experience, it is natural to give up many functions of the library. Books are placed inside the tree trunk. The forest pavilion has four floors. The different layers are connected by curved tree trunks. People who come to the forest pavilion for the first time can easily get lost even if they have a map.

It’s not the first time Sonia has come to the Mori Museum. She also knows how to connect to the Navigator Index through the Miracle Bracelet, but it still took a lot of work to find the book she needed.

When she wanted to find a bench to sit down and take a look, she ran into an “enemy” by accident.

“Good sister.”

Sonia looked at Celia walking towards her, feeling that the third-year senior was a little more haggard compared to the first time she met, but this did not harm her appearance, on the contrary, it added a pitiful temperament to her. When people see it, they want to take care of it. The best proof is that the nearby male students read with one eye and the other.

Celia was also a little surprised. She nodded lightly, and suddenly stopped when she passed Sonia: "Last time... I gave you trouble."

"Yeah, how do you plan to compensate me?"

Just after speaking, Sonia realized that she had ended the 'sincerity' ceremony a long time ago and no longer needed to tell the truth-but I don't know whether it was the influence of sincerity or the remnants of the previous days. She always lied when she should be euphemistic. Suddenly said the truth.

Celia was taken aback, then she covered her mouth and chuckled: "Then I will buy you a glass of sap?"

There is a water cafe in the Morikan. The drinks in it are all forest-style, like 'sap', 'nectar', 'dew', etc. Although the name does not sound very good, it is made by a hydrologist student part-time. The out-of-the-artist drinks are far more sweet and tasteful than ordinary drinks, and the prices are lower than those outside, making them very popular among students.

Since Celia wanted to ease the relationship, Sonia, who had no direct conflict of interest with her, naturally didn't mind increasing contacts. She readily agreed to come to Shui Ka with her and ordered a cup of 'dew on grass blades'.

"Sorry." Celia said after sitting down: "I was too impulsive last time and I didn't think clearly about anything. If you need me to do anything, please tell me and I will try to compensate you."

Seeing that Celia was really sincere, Sonia couldn't help but slow down: "Although you have 99 wrongs, why am I not wrong with 1? Maybe it's my behavior that made you misunderstand... Sister, I saw you play the female number three in "My Last Name with My Child". It's really amazing!"

Celia naturally heard the song and knew the elegance, and she was a little surprised: "My uncle is the director and screenwriter of that film, so let me make a cameo...Sonia, are you interested in the shadow girl business?"

“Hmm!” Sonia’s eyes lit up: “I actually read some performance books in private.”

Although she was shocked that Sonia didn’t take the Juggernaut as her ambition, Celia didn’t say much, she did what she wanted, and promised to ask her uncle to arrange a good role for Sonia as much as possible.

“Uncles may not be willing to change to other people, but you are now a disciple of Hidden Hand Sword Saint, the magician who deployed Silver Wings at the fastest time at Jianhua University. This resume alone can add a lot of attention to you, which is equivalent to extra Propaganda resources. But if you perform poorly in the film and don’t leave an impression on the audience, you will quickly obliterate everyone.” Celia said seriously: “I can only provide you with an opportunity at most, can you seize it? It still depends on your hard work and luck. But my uncle has no filming plans recently, you may have to wait a long time.”

“No problem, I have three years to graduate!”

The two hit it off, and the atmosphere suddenly became much more harmonious. After chatting about campus life for a while, Celia suddenly asked a little shyly: “I heard that he... is still alone?”

Otherwise, can he become a dog?

Sonia naturally knew who Celia was talking about and nodded: “Anyway, I didn’t see other girls around him.”

“and you—”

“Absolutely not.”

Celia breathed a sigh of relief. At this time the drinks from the two were delivered. Sonia took a sip of the “dew dripping on the grass blades” and found that the unexpected milk flavor was mellow, like milk tea, but the taste was fresh and not greasy. , I thought it would be nice if I could become a hydrologist.

However, the roommates who become hydrologists can also prostitute a few for nothing, but Lois and the others seem to have no interest in creators...

Celia hesitated and said: "This is different from the past... He always started a new relationship after ending a relationship..."

"Hmm."

"You said, would he... still thinking of me?"

Sonia almost squirted out, and finally managed her facial expressions. Seeing Celia's desire and anxiety, she couldn't help feeling a little bit of pity.

After the 'sincerity' summoning ceremony, as well as the experience of the magician during this period, Sonia vaguely realized that Felix's behavior of 'attracting flowers and attracting butterflies' was probably a kind of ritual, or a motivating act. A necessary condition for Shuling Resonance.

When Felix became a magician, he immediately broke off all romantic relationships, and never went to those entertainment places again, either studying or practising hard every day. Sonia doesn't think the Void Realm has the ability to modify the three views, so this can only show that Felix pretended to be before, and he naturally had no need to pretend after becoming a magician.

But there is no need to tell Celia these remarks. Firstly, this is just her guess. Secondly, Celia is not without a chance.

Celia's conditions are really good. She has a black-haired shawl with exquisite features, a tall buttocks, and even the dumplings are just a little smaller than her. The most important thing is that she really likes it. Who can resist the beautiful black long girl The pursuit of a straight-up sister?

"It's possible!"

"Do you think so too!"

Celia said happily, "Then what do you think I should do to get back with Felix?"

"Well, this..." Sonia suddenly recalled the question she had encountered in the Fate Questions and Answers: "For the greater good? To resist the common crisis?"

Seeing Celia's slightly blank eyes, Sonia remembered that they were still students, and there was no need for such complicated reasons to get back together: "In fact, as long as you take the initiative to walk into his life, he won't refuse you. Of course, Don't rush to reunite as soon as you come. You can say it's to clear up misunderstandings and be friends first. If necessary, I can create chance encounters for you."

"Hmm!"

"As long as you get to know each other again, that many tricks will be used." Sonia smiled: "For example, woodpecker tactics."

"Woodpecker tactics?"

"That is, you can sigh suddenly in the relationship, when he asks you that you are okay; or suddenly silent in the conversation, occasionally malaise, and make him worry about you, but you don't know the reason; and then you have to suddenly Rely on him, act like a baby to him, and make him feel that you can't do without him. Through this frequent emotional temptation, you can achieve superficial emotional control over time. When you sigh and move, you can make his emotions fluctuate. , I have to put all my thoughts on you. I call this woodpecker tactics."

Speaking of the rise, Sonia went on to teach: "If you successfully get back together, then you can proceed to the second step, negative emotion transfer and positive emotion control. Simply put, when you are upset, you must share with He makes him unhappy; but if he encounters something happy and wants to share it with you, it is not something you like, you have to deny him and suppress him. In short, if you are not happy, you cannot make him happy, he is happy. You can only be happy if you allow it."

"The third step is the time disorder method. When he treats you well, you must remain calm and make him promise that he will treat you like this for the rest of his life, extend this contribution to a lifetime, and make his contribution routine. "

“Then cooperate with the fourth step of historical projection method. When he is indifferent to you, you can summon his past historical projection to prove that he has changed his mind. Of course, as long as he is willing to apologize, you have to give him a little sweetness. “

“As long as you master these four steps, Felix will definitely become your minister, the perfect companion!”

Celia blinked at hearing ~www.mtlnovel.com~ When Sonia stopped, she smiled and asked, “Sonia, have you ever been in a relationship?”

Sonia blushed: “No. I’m sorry, I’m so arrogant, I actually show off these useless personal opinions in front of my senior sister...”

Celia shook her head slightly: “No, all of your ‘techniques’ are very practical. If it were before, I would definitely be happy to learn and use these ‘techniques’.”

“But love is a miracle.” She whispered: “I don’t want to hurt him or see him unhappy. I just hope...I can stand next to him.”

Sonia was stunned. At this time, she discovered that Celia was holding the books “Sword·Wind·Abyss”, “Windman’s Assistant Tutorial”, “Fighting Wind Mangling Recommendation”, which are basically all about wind. A book on how a swordsman can assist a swordsman in combat.

Celia smiled and said, “But thank you very much for your suggestion, maybe there will be trouble to your place in the future, can I add a curtain?”

“No problem at all.”

The two exchanged personal curtains, and then they can communicate directly in the curtain through the miracle bracelet.

Celia looked at Sonia’s book: “Speaking of which, Sonia, do you plan to teach yourself the psychic faction? But these two books seem to...”

“Analysis of Dreams” and “Detailed Explanations of Psychological Language” are must-read books for the spiritual faction, but the other two books make Celia a little bit confused: “Days with the Guilty Master” and “How to Unblock the Psychology of Others” pressure”.

The former is similar to adventure novels. Although the latter is related to the spiritual faction, it is more inclined to practice reference books, which is not very helpful for the study of the spiritual faction.

Chapter 114 - Stars come

Sonia’s lips moved slightly, and she quickly shrugged with a smile: “It’s just that when I passed by, I found the titles of these two books interesting, so I took it down and looked at it for no special purpose. If it doesn’t look good, I will return it later.”

Celia nodded thoughtfully: “You don’t have to explain it to me in that detail...”

As if realizing that Sonia was upset, Celia changed the subject: “In fact, I was surprised to meet Sonia in the Morikan. I thought you were also participating in the suppression operation.”

“Annihilation operation?”

“Yeah, haven’t you heard from Professor Trozan? Ah, it is estimated that your growth rate is too fast. The professor would rather let you miss this opportunity than let you take risks.”

“What is annihilation operation?” This term completely pierced the village girl’s knowledge blind spot.

Celia thought for a while: "I'm actually not very clear, because this is a private entrustment from the school for genius students. People who are not strong enough will not receive invitations at all, and students are not allowed to disclose any information about combat after signing a contract. ."

"The reason why I knew it was because Lolien had also signed up for the extermination operation... I heard him say that Leonie was among them, and thought you would not be absent."

After a pause, she said again: "It is said that this is a special event involving young magicians from Quangala. Even the talented magicians from Shinri University participated!"

Not only Leonie-senpai, but also the ultimate masters of Shinri University are willing to participate in activities! ?

Sonia suddenly felt that she had missed a great advantage, but she understood that this was normal, as she knew from the name, this was a dangerous battle that would lead to battle.

Even if she is already a magician with the Silver Wings fully deployed, she is also a cute new magician who has stepped into the virtual realm for less than a month, whether it is to protect her or to prevent her from dragging the team, Tello It is impossible for Professor Zan to allow her to take part in such dangerous operations prematurely.

You still have to get the professor to recognize your own strength as soon as possible, or you won't be able to win many activities. Sonia thought.

Blood Moon Country, on the outskirts of Kaimon City, halfway up a hill.

"Change shifts, everything is fine."

At this time it was 10 o'clock in the morning, and the two adventurers who were in charge of observing the passage of the virtual realm pressed the back of their necks and whispered. Soon, two adventurers walked out of the tent in the mountainside camp, and the two teams changed shifts.

Not long after standing, the younger young adventurer scolded, "Uncle, how long shall we stay here? The weather is getting hotter and hotter, and there is no air-conditioning supply, but there are too many mosquitoes, right? Strong mosquito repellent is useless!"

"I have to wait another 12 hours. I haven't come back in 72 hours. It is basically certain that the rabbit is dead."

An adventurer wearing a cloak next to him made a senseless mechanical sound. If you look closely, you can find that his arms, thighs, and even one eye are not native bodies, but mechanical bodies.

"If it weren't for this commission, I would rather stay in the war zone to kill water ghosts." The young adventurer murmured, "According to me, the person who caused the passage of the virtual realm really deserves to die. It increases our workload and causes The hidden dangers of foreign domain invasion..."

"Only a magician can cause Void Turbulence." The uncle said: "There are currently 86 unknown Void Channels around Kaimon City, which means that there are 86 magicians that have caused Void Turbulence. One of them may be you. This sentence is reasonable and reasonable to others, but you are a magician."

The youth's voice suddenly became quieter: "I'm just talking casually... won't you complain, uncle?"

"Just as I accepted that I didn't have the qualifications to become a magician, I also accepted this natural disaster caused by a magician." The uncle shook his head slightly: "Complaining about this behavior, I was tired of it before I was forty."

The topic of the youth changed: "Uncle, how do you plan to use the merits this time? I have almost saved it, which can be exchanged for the Blade's Edge Magic Spirit. This time, even if you encounter knowledge creatures, you can fight for it."

"I don't think you have consumed much. The construction on your body is the old version a few years ago. Do you plan to save your merits and redeem the latest version of the accessories? If it weren't for my relentless physical transformation, I would also like to buy one. Play with the arms of the silver wolf."

The uncle glanced at him, and the indifferent sight of the mechanical prosthetic eye made the young man's creeps. However, the uncle quickly turned his eyes and stared at the virtual passageway that was 30 meters away from the mountainside, like a hollow space.

"I plan to use my merits to buy an intelligence."

"What information?"

"My child's intelligence."

"What kid is this illegal?!"

"I know, that's why I have to save for so many years, otherwise the other party won't take risks."

"Are you crazy!" The young man was shocked: "Why do you do such a thankless thing? You can tell me that you want to raise your child. If someone finds out, you both have to go into the pig cage and explore the waterway. abyss!"

The uncle shook his head: "Of course not. The child was born 31 years ago. I have forgotten what that woman is like. I just want to take a look at him."

The young man couldn't understand: "What's the use of just looking at him? With so many merits, you can spend it on yourself, and you can increase your combat power by two steps; you can use it to eat moon candy, gamble, and play, it's all enough for you. Play for a year; why use it to look at strangers?"

"He is not a stranger, he is my child."

"But what's the difference with a stranger? You even have to pay for what he looks like and what his name is."

"But he is my child. He was born because of me."

“I can’t understand, you might as well give me the merits.”

“You are a magician, you are still young, you don’t understand. I was like you when I was young, I ate moon candy when I had money, went to the first blood casino to gamble, and used a knife to transform myself. But when I got older These entertainments have lost excitement for me, and I have lost interest in tomorrow.”

“Until one day I remembered that when I was young, in order to earn a fertility fund, I had a child with a woman. Just as the sky suddenly lit up, I found my goal in life and took a look at that child.”

“You are a magician, you can explore the virtual realm, and you can delve into the magic. But I can’t. If I don’t perform the 70 full-body mechanical transformation, I am not qualified to join the war zone and become an adventurer. I can’t even cross the threshold of surgery.”

“I heard that the magician is a person who pursues miracles. That child is my miracle.”

The uncle pointed to his left eye: “I didn’t replace my left eye with an artificial eye. I just wanted to take a look at the child with a real eye.”

Qing Young murmured: “Still can’t understand...”

The uncle laughed mechanically: “Don’t understand me, this is illegal.”

Suddenly the young man who was hit into the air fell into a daze. He cursed: “Uncle what are you doing all of a sudden?”

The next second, all his words were stuck in his throat.

Because he saw a girl with orange hair in dark blue armor standing where he was just now.

The girl stepped on the body of the uncle, and the long sword was covered with red and blue liquid~www.mtlnovel.com~ The uncle's head had flown out, and the mechanical spine broke directly, spewing red blood and blue machine fluid!

The youth's pupils shrank suddenly, and a light curtain popped up in front of him: "Detected."

Bang!

When Luo Lian cut off the young man's head, the two resting adventurers in the camp were also dealt with by other extermination team members.

After a while, 163 extermination team members assembled in the camp. Everyone is wearing dark blue armor, and the weapons are all special alchemy without exception. Even the boxer wears gloves! However, within just a few seconds of the advent, a circle of shackles cast by the flashing blood light appeared on their necks, which made them look like a humanoid light pollution.

"There are four rules of the game."

"First, you must use the star weapon to make the final blow when you kill, otherwise you won't get points when you kill the target."

"Second, try to stay safe for 48 hours."

"Third, try to kill as many targets as possible. Humanoid monsters first, followed by the rest. Wizard monsters first, and the rest second."

"Fourth, everyone must activate the miracle of transfer in the armor to come back here when the time comes. After 48 hours, Fanxing will take the initiative to destroy this level 2 virtual passage."

"The sacred stars are connecting us, the stars will guide our way, and the game begins!"

The edges of everyone's pupils were glowing with purple-blue glow. Hearing the command, everyone saluted them uniformly, and then spread out at the same time!

If you look from the sky, you can see that only a few blue dots move towards the villages in the north and south, and most of the blue dots move towards Kaimon City in the west!

Technician's Manual - Chapter 115

Chapter 115 - Mayor's fall

"If you are hurt enough, use an opponent, cut it open happily, and curse yesterday..."

As the prison's vigorous bell rang, Ya Xiu got up to wash, brushing his teeth while thinking about Jian Ji's strange behavior in the past two days.

Changing from the idle chatter, Jian Ji suddenly asked Asia Xiu a lot of questions in the Void, such as what color system he liked, how to make friends, suspense reasoning or horror, etc., and even asked Asia Xiu whether he liked * or poor. Breast, it makes Ya Xiu very inexplicable—isn't that nonsense? Is there anyone who doesn't like big breasts! ?

Moreover, Jian Ji's attitude towards Ya Xiu can be changed into four styles in one night, sometimes gentle and considerate, sometimes indifferent and arrogant, sometimes * and sultry, sometimes innocent and cute.

Ah Xiu's thoughts on this: It would be better if he could change his clothes together when changing his personality.

Ya Xiu also asked Jian Ji what was wrong, but Jian Ji said it was okay again, which made Ya Xiu nervous.

He thought about it, thinking that Jian Ji could never be psychologically testing him, right? In addition, he can only think of one possibility—that is, Jian Ji has reached the monthly blood metabolism period.

Thinking about it carefully, the mood is changeable, and the words are curious, it seems to be quite in line with the characteristics of women in the blood metabolism period. Apart from sighing, "Paper people also have menstruation," Ah Xiu didn't think much about it.

Opening the light curtain, "Aurora's" immediately popped up a message:

"The training of the Dead Sword Princess has ended. Please check the growth report and set the training strategy for this week as soon as possible."

"Growth Report of the Dead Sword Princess 4.194.25"

"Swordsmanship Faction: Silver→Silver"

"Light Faction: Silver→Silver"

"Water Faction: Silver→Silver"

"Mind Faction: 0→Silver"

"Magical Power: Silver Half Wing→Silver Full Wing"

"Cultivation evaluation: a!"

"Because of the A-level evaluation, the career enhancement that the Dead Sword Girl has gained: Killing Silversmith → Soulbreaker Silversmith"

"Soulbreaker Silversmith·Professional Features: Each effective attack deals 1 additional soul damage."

This new professional feature made Ya Xiu's eyes bright. The enemies in the virtual realm are undoubtedly soul bodies, which is equivalent to the fact that Sword Fairy can cause additional real damage to the enemy. In addition, the attack speed of Sword Princess is not slow, and the accumulated additional damage will be considerable.

The magic faction didn't grow much, and in the past two days they also got a water magic orb. After feeding it to the sword girl, the water magic faction naturally remained in the silver realm.

If it were not for the spiritual faction to upgrade from 0 to silver, and the mana breakthrough from half-wing to full-wing, the training evaluation would definitely not reach a. However, Ya Xiu still has a lot of grievances about this-why is there no report on the growth of his "Last Viewer"? He also wants to get the job enhancement of the manual for a new job!

Up to now, his profession is still a useless cult leader! The blessing of the Four Pillars of God has never taken effect!

Ya Xiu checked his points. Although they hunted a lot of knowledge creatures and got many Shu Lings these days, because Jian Ji said that she needed money to buy Shu Lings, the spoils were divided between six and four. Jian Ji four.

After converting all the magic spirits that were temporarily unavailable into points, Ya Xiu now has 124 points, and he can't buy a "bag of source crystals" worth 198 points.

Without the card drawing ceremony, Ya Xiu directly arranged Jian Ji's training strategy for the next week. Originally, he wanted to directly train swordsmanship according to the usual practice, but thought that Jian Ji needed a rest these days, he pondered for a moment, and decided...to let Jian Ji rest for one hour, which is limited today.

Ah, my heart hurts. Is this what it feels like to be a boss? Seeing employees rest as if they have lost a lot of money.

Ah Xiu hurriedly implemented the training strategy so as not to regret it, and then went to the restaurant for breakfast as usual, only to find that the central hall was crowded-recruiting volunteers (cannon fodder) again?

However, it was not. The prisoners just gathered together to watch the news on the light curtain in the hall, and even Igola was staring at the light curtain.

Ashura went over and asked Igola: "What did the news say? Did the citizens find out in their conscience that they decided to boycott the inhumane system of the blood moon trial?"

"It's more exciting than the citizens' conscience discovers." Igola stared at the light curtain and murmured softly: "Fenaxue has fallen."

"Who?"

"Mayor Kaimon, he is going to fall!"

Ya Xiu was startled slightly, and followed the news together.

"...The current casualties are roughly estimated to exceed tens of thousands. There are countless casualties in Tianjie New City. Fires broke out in many places in the Shangcheng District, and corpses were everywhere on the street. They may be employees at work, or couples shopping, or in the future. Legendary magicians may be ordinary people who live diligently, but at this moment they are turned into pale corpses due to an invasion that should not have occurred."

In the light curtain, the good-looking female host is standing on a tall building, her face looks a bit similar to Igola, her eyebrows are full of flattery, and she seems to have a little veel blood, and her hands are pink and purple. The fur sleeves are very cute.

But her expression was extremely angry at this time, and her voice was suppressed with anger: "Look, everyone, behind me is the most prosperous uptown in Kaimon City, but what can we only see now? Ruins, flames, corpses, bloodstains, Bare steel roots, broken doll—"

"Kaemon News is the mouthpiece of churches and research institutes." Igola said softly: "When the host shows obvious political inclination, on behalf of the blood and moon tribes, they will launch victims to calm the anger of the people."

“Forty hours have passed since the first attack. We can’t help asking, why haven’t the crime hunters captured the attackers? Why are attacks still happening today? Why is Shangcheng still a high-risk zone, and there are no medical teams. Dare to go in and treat the wounded?”

“Where is our taxpayer’s money used, and who has it squandered? It is rated as the best public security area in the country, why did we suffer such a disaster? Why do ordinary people who live and work in Kaimon City suffer such misfortune? ?”

“Why, there will be organized, large-scale attackers from other countries infiltrating Kaimon City? What did the City Council do without us?”

“We need answers, and the dead need answers! Someone must be responsible for this disaster—“

Pouch!

Seeing that the picture was stained with blood, the condemned prisoners in the central hall gave a wow. There were many dead people in the Blood Moon Trial, but it was the first time that the host was cut off during the live broadcast.

The live broadcast channel fell into darkness, but soon switched to a new screen.

The background this time is a clean and tidy office. Sitting behind the desk is an ogre in a dark black dress—yes, the ogre, although he has no fangs and his nails are cleanly trimmed. He didn’t look the slightest hostility, and he even seemed to have a sense of intimacy, but he was indeed a blue-skinned ogre, and that big * chair enough to sit on two Ya Xiu was enough to prove it.

When he spoke, Ash was dumbfounded.

“I am the Mayor of Kaimon City, Arandor Fernance.” The ogre said in a heavy tone, “I tell you with a sad heart that the number of innocent people who have died as a result of the terrorist attack has reached 13,000. Crime Hunting Office It has been fully operational, and the Government Affairs Office has also mobilized adventurers in the nearby Lake View Theater to assist in the hunt, and it is hoped that the stray assailants will be caught as soon as possible.”

“These attackers are the butchers who arrived at Blood Moon through the Void Channel from other countries. I have to admit that I have to bear some responsibility for this. The joint research and investigation of the Void Channel are the Government Affairs Office, the Parliament, the Crime Hunting Hall, and the Lake. As a result of the joint decision of the King and War Zone, if the City Affairs Office could make a better plan and make a more cautious judgment, maybe...”

“He hasn’t given up yet.” Igola grinned and said, “He is threatening other conspirators. If he dies, other people will not end well. He can lose, but he doesn’t want to leave.”

“...For this reason, I am willing to accept the inspection by the Crime Hunting Agency and temporarily remove the post of mayor. The work of the mayor will be represented by Deputy Mayor Guro.”

Finally, Fei Nanxue stood up and bowed deeply: “I am extremely sorry for the mistakes I made in my work.”

“Oh!”

“Haha, Fernanxue, you also have today!”

The central hall sounded one after another. Although the laughter cannot be too loud because of the “Noise Regulations”, so many people cheering at the same time still filled the hall with joy. Sure enough, only seeing the bad luck of others can make this group of dung pit dregs feel sincere happiness.

However, when Ah Xiu saw Igula, who had always been calm, his earlobes were red with excitement, and the smile on the corner of his mouth could not be restrained. He couldn’t help but curiously asked: “Igula, do you have any enemies with Fernanxue? Even if you are gloating, You shouldn’t be so happy, are you?”

Igola grabbed Ash by the shoulders: “Don’t you understand? The mayor is down! He has been charged by the crime hunter!”

Ah Xiu felt inexplicable: “I heard it, what’s the matter?”

It can be seen that Igola wanted to conduct a personal attack on Ash's intelligence, but the chip prevented his impolite behavior.

After holding back for a while, he whispered in an excited voice: "During his tenure ~www.mtlnovel.com~ If the mayor is severely accused and has to be suspended immediately, in order to ensure his personal safety and prevent him from suicide, The mayor will be detained to the nearest Blood Moon Prison for isolation and investigation."

Ah Xiu remembered that when he discussed the correct way to escape from prison with the medical doctor, he also heard this rule.

Ah Xiu faintly realized something: "You mean..."

Igola stared straight at Ya Xiu, his eyes bright as if he wanted to * Ya Xiu in.

"Don't wait for the transport ship on the 1st of next month. When Fei Nanxue is escorted to Broken Lake Prison, it is our chance to escape!"

"Then when will Fernanxue be imprisoned in Broken Lake?"

"Generally speaking, the sooner the better, but you must stay in the crime hunting hall for one night before you come, and modify the restrictions in the chip in advance. That is to say—"

Ash and Igola glanced at each other: "Tomorrow, the blood moon trial on the 27th!"

Technician's Manual - Chapter 116

Chapter 116 - I almost became Jian Ji

Chapter 116 - I almost became Jian Ji

Jianhua University, training hall.

When Sonia stopped, the entire training hall time froze.

The apprentices looked at the genius swordsman girl with surprised eyes, looked down at the time of the bracelet, and confirmed that it was only 9 o'clock in the evening.

only trained for an hour, why did she stop?

Although it has only been training in the training hall for two weeks so far, Queen Servi has undoubtedly become the most beautiful scenery in the eyes of the swordsman-the two-hour night training that cannot be beaten without any rest. Full concentration, standard of movement, just watching her sweat like rain. The training process is a kind of visual enjoyment.

Not to mention Queen Servi's exquisite swordsmanship. Many swordsmanship apprentices secretly look at them in their leisure time, and suddenly they have a flash of inspiration, which deepens their understanding of swordsmanship. The number of slashing rings is +1, which can be said to be both eye-catching and able to learn. To knowledge.

It is strange to say that there are many swordsman geniuses at Jianhua University. There are Leonie, Loren, and Felix, but their training did not attract the attention of the apprentices.

Firstly, their training time is not fixed, and secondly, they will also take a break during training. There is no such gimmick as 'full-time'. Thirdly...Although they can't tell the reason, everyone just feels that Sonia's swordsmanship is better than others. A grade.

Therefore, the training hall was almost full during the night. When Sonia walked into the training hall, the apprentices barely dared to breathe and greeted the Queen's coming with admiring eyes.

The queen actually changed her training schedule for the first time tonight?

Why do people who love swordsmanship change their daily training?

Yes, not only students, but in the eyes of everyone and even professors, Sonia Servi is a genius born for swordsmanship. She has an extraordinary talent and loves swordsmanship, even after achieving great success (defeating Felix, Anti-killing Leonie and unfolding the Silver Wings) Do not forget the original intention, insist on high-intensity training every night, is this not called 'love'?

This group of apprentices, who are in their youth and blood, naturally have the same thought in their minds: Is it possible that the queen is in love! ?

When the apprentices' angry eyes focused on Felix, almost igniting him, Felix felt helpless himself—he was just as curious as to why Sonia stopped.

In fact, Sonia herself is the most daunting.

She has been accustomed to two hours of training. It can be said that she was successfully trained by the viewer.

She also came to the training hall very consciously tonight. When the time is up, she moves happily by herself, without the viewer's force.

In the morning, a familiar glass bottle full of unknown potions appeared on the desk again. After drinking, she remained energized throughout the day, even if she did high-intensity swordsmanship training.

And the swordsmanship training is really interesting. Every time I swing my sword, every time I slash, Sonia feels a touch of indescribable pleasure.

The joy of knowledge gradually accumulates, and it becomes an unresolved weird desire. Only by killing knowledge creatures in the virtual realm and feeding their swords with their bodies can this hunger and thirst be alleviated a little.

Sonia didn't think too much, thinking it was a side effect of the potion the viewer gave her. After all, this hunger and thirst did strengthen her output when hunting knowledge creatures, so the viewer was very suspicious of committing crimes.

It is impossible that she herself is a bloodthirsty pervert who is eager to fight!

Although Sonia is no longer resistant to training, the endless training is not something she can complete with willpower. After about half an hour, she can't maintain her concentration, and relying on the wonderful strength of the viewer to help her train automatically.

So when I stopped training for an hour, Sonia immediately realized what had happened—the power that the viewer forced her to train disappeared.

What happened?

Did the viewer suddenly discover it?

No, it's not possible, it should be that the viewer is dead?

Although she was thinking wildly, Sonia didn't worry too much.

In the fate question and answer a few days ago, several questions all mean that the virtual world is very optimistic about the viewer, at least the viewer is unlikely to suddenly die in prison.

Speaking of...then what should I do next?

Sonia stared at the wooden sword in her hand blankly, trying to recall her previous night activities.

Mingming was only a peaceful life half a month ago, but she felt like a very distant past.

‘There’s no other arrangement anyway, why don’t you continue to train swordsmanship? Sword practice is also quite happy...’

Sonia was taken aback by the thoughts that suddenly came up with her—God, Lalu, she could rest, but she was still thinking about practicing swordsmanship?

can’t do it, can’t practice, can’t fulfill the wishes of the viewers! If you let the viewer know that you are so obedient, it will only increase the intensity of the training, even if it is to fight against the viewer, you will not be able to practice!

is so terrible, it almost really became the “Sword Fairy” in the eyes of the viewers.

She wants to be a singer, a shadow girl, but she doesn’t want to be a sword girl!

Anyway, leave the training hall first, even if you go back and lie on the bed to watch Dedaros’s latest movie...

Suddenly there were exclamations at the entrance of the training hall. Sonia looked over and saw a beautiful orange hair-it was Leonie the ‘Orange Dancer’!

“Sonia, is the training finished? Are you free to have a drink with me?”

Although I had a fight with Leonie before, not only did Sonia lose face, but Leonie also apologized to her afterwards.

She heard that Professor Trozan had accepted two new disciples, and she knew Luo Lian well, and heard that Luo Lian had trouble finding Felix, so she took this opportunity to test the skills of the first-year freshmen.

After all, it was just a small dispute between the students, and the other party also took the initiative to apologize and apologize. Sonia would not have to be vengeful with a promising Juggernaut Seed because of this incident, plus Leonie is a very traditional Straightforward female swordsman-in short, it is easy to use.

Sonia will not miss this kind of high-quality contacts that can be called renewable resources, and the relationship between the two people is heating up rapidly. But when she saw Leonie actively come to find herself, she was also quite surprised: "Senior sister, did you come to me on purpose?"

"Yeah, not long after I came back, I was so excited to go for a drink, just passing by the training hall, so I came to see if you were there." Leonie chuckled and turned to look at Yinggurit next to her. : "Ingulite, are you coming too? My treat!"

As a roommate who can't beat Sonia and trains with Sonia every day, Leonie has also met Ingulite twice and has a good impression of this hard-working female apprentice.

Ingulite shook his head: "I don't drink, and the training tonight is not over yet."

"I knew it."

Leonie looked at Felix, who was watching them, and smiled: "Women's cocktail parties don't welcome the opposite sex, Felix."

"I don't like to drink either." Felix said lightly, "Rather, it's hard to understand that as a swordsman, he likes to drink."

“That’s because you are still students. When you step into the abyss and go through the battle, you will understand that the sharpest blade needs alcohol to take good care of it. Let’s go, Sonia!”

Watching Leonie and Sonia leave, the swordsmanship apprentices were relieved-great, it turned out to be just drinking with the orange dancers, our Queen Servi is still a pure girl who does not fall in love.

“Go to your dormitory?”

“Although I am very happy, my roommate should not be very happy.” Leonie shrugged, “Go to the secret garden.”

The Secret Garden is the only wine cafe in Jianhua University. Sonia has been there before, but the consumption of drinks is high, so she needs to plan carefully. She went once and met other people’s party invitations. I’m very poor and don’t go.’ She didn’t go to other people’s treats. After a few times, everyone changed the meeting place to a more people-friendly water cafe.

The label ‘poor female student’ should be used or it should be used.

But now it’s different, our family is rich. Even if she was invited by Senior Sister Leonie this time, Sonia can also find an opportunity to invite her back, and she can accept the invitation from Senior Sister without hesitation.

The biggest difference between being rich and poor is that being rich allows people to accept the kindness of others.

There is a faint lavender fragrance in the secret garden. There is no light inside. The ceiling is fully opened. The mirror design guides the starlight to the interior to illuminate every corner. There is no lack of mysterious dimness in the bright.

The soothing and melodious music flows gently in the wine cafe, and a three-person band is playing on stage. They are probably all students of the phonology department. In their spare time, they come to the wine cafe part-time to earn some pocket money. The couples of the students gathered in groups to have a drink, and the atmosphere was quite good, so Sonia relaxed.

“A cup of screwdriver, a cup of summer time.” Leonie was very skilled in ordering, and she took Sonia to sit in a small deck, and by the way, she lowered the curtain to block the outside view.

“Does Senpai come often?”

“Every time you finish going down the abyss, come here, don’t drink a little alcohol to numb yourself, how can you be able to withstand the pressure of the abyss.”

“Hey~ I thought Senpai was the kind of super strong person.”

“No matter how strong people are, they have to find a way to reduce pressure that suits them. Drinking like me is normal. I have a teammate who likes to run naked on the street every time he finishes a mission. Have you heard that rumor?”

“Ah, that urban rumor is true, it’s terrible~”

“Let me tell you, don’t tell me, actually...”

Listening to Leonie telling all kinds of funny stories about the adventure in the abyss, Sonia couldn’t help but be in high spirits.

She also talked about her experience in the virtual world during this period, even if the viewers were deleted, but the knowledge creatures she had hunted and the inheritance of the magician she had seen made Leonie listen with gusto. From time to time, Leonie inserted her own experience in dealing with knowledgeable creatures. The combat experience of the same swordsman is very valuable, and Sonia has gained a lot.

“Sonia has gained some swordsmanship experience”

Talking about gossip, about the abyss, about the imaginary world, unconsciously the wine glass bottomed out. Sonia blushed, chatting up and asking: “Senior sister, did you participate in any special events the last two days?”

She recovered as soon as she spoke, and quickly apologized: "I'm sorry, I was abrupt."

You can chat about what you see and hear in the virtual world, but how can you easily ask about it like an action that requires signing a contract to keep it secret? To be more serious, Sonia is testing the orange dancer and tempting Leonie to make a mistake.

Leonie smiled and shook her head and said it was okay, but after thinking about it, she said, "Although I can't tell the details...but the event is actually a game organized by the church."

"game?"

"Well, have you ever played a role-playing game on the bracelet? It's similar to that."

The miracle bracelet has many functions. Not only can ordinary people use the bracelet to connect to the "veil" and communicate with people thousands of miles away, but also the magicians use the computing power of the bracelet to create a curtain game, so that ordinary people can also Can enjoy the entertainment provided by the technician.

Therefore, the illusionist who can develop the function of the bracelet also rises with the tide. Sonia had also thought about whether to choose the illusion system, but because she was not familiar with the curtain game, she finally chose the water system.

Sonia seldom comes into contact with the curtain game, not that she doesn't like it, but that she has no money.

The poor village aunts in the countryside are only worthy of writing questions honestly, and are not worthy of having high-end entertainment activities. Their spiritual life depends entirely on watching dramas.

When Sonia blushed and said that she had never played, Leonie was a little surprised and smiled and explained: "It was the church that allowed me to enter a completely virtual illusion. The illusion is full of monsters that we need to kill. The more monsters, the higher the score, and the more generous the rewards given by the church... The whole game lasted two days and two nights, and I was exhausted."

“It sounds interesting.” Sonia came to be interested: “Is the enemy strong?”

“No, it’s not strong, some are very weak, and they can’t even run away. Occasionally, magician-level monsters will chase and kill me... they even cry and beg for mercy...”

Leonie’s voice became smaller and smaller, and the expression on her face became more and more blank. Sonia responded casually: “Sounds easy, UU reading www.uukanshu.com slaughtered some weak enemies...Senior sister? What’s wrong with you?”

Leonie came back to her senses: “It’s nothing, maybe it’s a little drunk.”

“You were talking about monsters in the game, right?”

“Of course, otherwise what do you think I’m talking about? Waiter, here’s another glass of Qin Lei!”

...

After parting with the senior sister, Sonia walked slowly towards the meditation building.

Ah, it’s been a long time since I had such a pleasant night.

First, I had a refreshing training in swordsmanship, and then I drank and chatted with my friends. Then, as long as I could test the miracle I newly discovered in the virtual world, I would slaughter a few knowledge creatures and tear them into pieces with swords. Blood blooms like a flower, that is a perfect day...

“Hey?”

Sonia raised her head and found that the white tower did not know when it had disappeared, and the turbulent flow of the void that was hanging in the air also disappeared without a trace, and the stars were shining like rain on the university campus.

The disappearance of the white tower means that the state of martial law on campus has been cancelled, and classes will start tomorrow... Hey.

Sonia sits in the meditation room, dizzily summoning Shu Ling, finds the door of truth, sinks into the consciousness and connects the virtual realm.

Opened her eyes and looked at the viewer, Sonia smiled sillyly: "Viewer, let me tell you, I'm tonight—"

"Tonight is my last night to accompany you to explore the virtual world."

Sonia woke up instantly.

Technician's Manual - Chapter 117

Chapter 117 - The viewer, you are really bad pus

"Master's Manual Novels (to find the latest chapters!

Void, the sea of knowledge.

"...Now everything is ready, and tomorrow is the day when the plan is launched."

While checking the virtual world map to manipulate the boat, Ya Xiu said: "If the escape fails and is caught by the hunters, then everything will stop, as usual. But if the escape is successful, then I must always be alert to the surroundings. Until I confirm that I am safe. , I can't even enter the Void Realm."

Sonia nodded, fully understanding the viewer's thoughts.

The exploration of the virtual realm is as short as four or five hours and the length is eight or nine hours. The observer who stays in the prison with a regular schedule can naturally log in to the virtual realm on time, but after breaking out of prison, it means that he must not only find a way to make a living, but also avoid hunters as much as possible. How can it be possible that there is more than four hours of safe time to enter the virtual world?

She breathed a sigh of relief: "It scared me to death, I thought..."

Asia Xiu raised his eyebrows: "Think I am going to abandon you?"

Sonia's small eyebrows frowned, and Chuchu pitifully pretended to be obsequious: "Yeah, I found that I can't leave you anymore. When I think of not seeing you in the next few days, I feel empty, lonely, cold, and almost sad. Cry out... By the way, since you are not free, do I have to stop my training too?"

"Of course not. The training is business as usual. Although I am not there, I will still urge you to train. Speaking of which, you should have an hour off tonight? That is the benefit only tonight, and it will return to normal tomorrow."

"Then I really thank you."

"You are welcome."

Sonia snorted and stared at the viewer with her legs folded, "Then when will you come back?"

"After I am sure that I am safe," Ya Xiu said, "Didn't you see in the Fate Questions and Answers that I might leave the Blood Moon Kingdom? After the successful escape, I plan to find a way to leave the Blood Moon Kingdom."

"Then there is no specific time..."

“Um.”

Sonia tilted her head, watched the white mist flying by her side, and asked softly, “Is there anything I can help?”

“Didn’t you say that you want to be a singer? Sing a song to listen to it?”

“you—“

“Haha I’m kidding.” Ya Xiu laughed: “Let’s not hunt knowledge creatures tonight. Let’s look for magician projections.”

Sonia instantly understood: “Do you want to find more clues about the golden fish by reading the manuals of other magicians?”

Ya Xiu nodded slowly: “According to our schedule, even if the hunting knowledge creature bursts out the experience orb, it will not be enough for your swordsmanship to break through to the gold level.”

“Even if you get rare magic spirits, you can’t immediately integrate into my combat system. It’s better to improve combat power than nothing.”

“We only have one night left. If we want to make a breakthrough, the golden fish is the only choice.”

Although the two of them hunted and killed many intellectual creatures these days, most of the magic spirits were either used to charge up points for Asia, or sold to Sonia to make some extra money, and they rarely kept them for personal use. The most important reason is of course-inappropriate.

Regardless of their mastery of the four factions of swordsmanship, water magic, light magic, and spirituality, but for the strange world of magical spirits, the virtual world, the tip of the iceberg they come into contact with is not even the tip of the iceberg. It is common for them to be proficient in the magic of factions.

Even if the magic spirits of the same faction are exploded, the probability is much unsuitable. For example, the 'vibration sword', 'continuous sword', and 'poison sword' of the swordsmanship department represent three different directions: using high-frequency vibration to increase destructive power, increasing attack speed for continuous slashing, and adding special attributes to the blade.

In addition to the Swordsmanship Department, the "Vibration Sword" needs the support of the Phonetics Department. The "Continuous Sword" must be converted to the weak and weak factions to improve physical fitness, and the "Poison Sword" means to minor in the Poison Department.

Regardless of whether it is to delve into any small direction, the time it takes for a magician is incalculable, and it may even involve other unfamiliar factions. If you understand Shu Ling on the surface and use it directly, the effect is definitely not as good as the combat system that the warlock has carefully studied. For example, Sonia's attack on the damage of 'Split Wave Slash' can kill the above three swordsmanship in seconds. spirit.

So although they have acquired a lot of magic spirits, those magic spirits are not indispensable. Instead of delving into these new magic spirits, it is better to use their old magic spirits, and the clothes are not as good as the new ones.

However, their troubles can be regarded as happy. Who can harvest two or three magic spirits every night? Not dying is considered to be a blessing in the virtual world, and gains are directly regarded as celebrations.

It is not that they have not updated their equipment at all. For example, Ya Xiu first completes the three basic sword skills of 'Sword Slashing', 'Thorn Sword', and 'Sword Slicing'. It stands to reason that the swordsman needs to summon these three Shulings himself in order to lay the foundation of the swordsmanship faction. Like Sonia would not ask for these three Shulings. However, Ya Xiu was originally a stowaway who was ignorant. It doesn't matter the foundation.

After Sonia sold her trophies, she quickly gathered the magic skills needed for the two miracles of "Sword Sheath Light" and "Sword Sharpening for Ten Years", and her combat power was further improved.

Although not invincible in the world, in the sea of knowledge, they can be said to have unscrupulous capital.

But from another perspective, this also means that the sea of knowledge has a marginal effect on their help. They get too much in the virtual realm, and it takes a lot of time to slowly settle and absorb.

Unless, they can reach a higher level of virtual realm.

“If I can condense golden mana, then my sword body barrier can be activated 100%, and my defense power can be at least five times higher than now.” Ya Xiu explained the necessity of golden mana for him, and talked to Jian Ji Not the same, he has the two-winged magic spirit’earth sword’ gifted by Varkas, and his combat power immediately jumps after he is promoted.

Sonia curled her lips: “The premise is that we can find the golden fish. Your tone is like you haven’t won the prize yet and you are thinking about how to spend the prize.”

“Then what do you plan to spend if you win the jackpot?”

“First, I bought a manor in Galles, and then pretended to be seriously ill and encouraged my mother to borrow money from other relatives and villagers.”

“Why?”

“That group of sly people who always bully my lone girl and widow is definitely unwilling to borrow. Then I will rent a group of luxury cars to pick up my mother, and brighten the eyes of those sly people. Who dares to ask my mother to borrow money, I Just remind my mother about this and chop off those spooky dog paws.”

“Hey, you really are...”

“do you have any opinion?”

“I think you can find a good relationship trustee and ask her to lend money to your mother. When you return to your hometown in glory, thank the trustee again. There is a contrast to hurt, so you only need to spend a small amount of money. It will make others feel regretful and crash through the wall.”

“Wow, viewers, you are really bad pus.”

“I would be embarrassed if you praise me so much.”

During the chat, Ya Xiu found that a light red area appeared on the map of the virtual world, and the sign on it was “extremely challenging”-this was the most dangerous area they could set foot in, and it was also the area that Ya Xiu was looking for.

Ya Xiu narrowed his smile and said seriously: “Although there may not be a linear relationship, the stronger the projection of the magician, the more likely he is to know the golden fish intelligence, so the rest of tonight will be a hard fight.”

“Anyway, you won’t come to Void Realm after tonight.”

Sonia’s palm glowed with white steel color, and gently rubbed the wooden sword in her hand: “Be crazy with you once, and I will give you a blood.”

The miracle sharpens the sword for one day and launches it.

Strictly speaking, although the ‘10 years of sharpening the sword’ is a two-wing miracle, the range that can be adjusted is very large. Because in the time series of magic spirits, ‘year’ is the rarest, ‘month’ is the second, and ‘day’ is the most common, and ‘ten days’ is the two-winged magic spirit, and ‘hundred days’ is the three-winged magic spirit, and ‘thousand days’ is the four-winged magic spirit, and ‘year’ and ‘month’ are also sorted in this way.

Therefore, sharpening the sword for ten years can become sharpening the sword one day, ten days, one hundred days, one thousand days, one month, and one month... etc. With the adjustment of the level of Shu Ling, the power of this miracle will increase or decrease. The reason why it is called Ten Years of Grinding Swords is simply because ‘ten years’ is the most cost-effective consumable.

Yes, to launch this miracle, the time magic spirit will be consumed directly and must be repurchased, so Sonia only dared to use the cheapest ‘day’ magic spirit. I heard that the more advanced and complex the miracle is, it often requires a lot of magical spirits. Therefore, when the legendary magician makes a move, it is a thousand catties of gold, a river of silver, and discounted gold coins and silver coins can kill a lot of people.

But proportional to the cost, this kind of miracle works extremely well. Sonia's wooden sword glowed with grey light. This is the 'slashing color' generated by the sharpening of the sword. Then all her attacks will receive the slashing bonus, and the sharpness will be improved, even if she encounters the weak spell. The division can break the defense.

Ah Xiu took out a long sword from his tongue. It was the 'Honey Belly Sword' he pulled out. He summoned another double, let the double jump into the sea and circle ~www.mtlnovel.com~ to the other side of the island of inheritance.

After preparing, the two broke through the white fog and arrived at the island of inheritance. At the same time, the double climbed onto the island on the other side, drawing the attention of the magician's projection.

It's now!

A Xiu Jianfeng pointed, and a lovely wing of the magic spirit emerged from the tip of the sword, and a ray of sword light pierced the neck of the magician's projection like a thunder!

Shuling-Heart Sword!

Sonia pedaled a small boat, jumped high and pulled her sword, with an expectant smile from the corner of her mouth, like an elegant dancer jumping into the island, the rotating evil light waves like a meat grinder rushing towards the magician!

Miracle-Evil Light Breaking Wave Slash!

The avatar attracted attention to death, Ya Xiu attacked from a distance, and Sonia broke out in melee combat. This is their unfavorable siege tactic!

Technician's Manual - Chapter 118

Chapter 118 - Belly of golden fish

Chapter 118 - Belly of golden fish

“Master’s Manual Novels (to find the latest chapters!

“Master’s Manual-Food Record”: “Proficient in common recipes.”

“Technician’s Manual-Cat Petting Diary”: “Proficient in raising cats”, “Proficient in shoveling shit”.

“Magician Handbook-Fishing Secrets”: “Proficient in identifying unknown items.”

“Surprised, because this fisherman is always fishing for weird and weird things from the river, he even developed a proficiency in identifying unknown items... But judging from his repeated air force record, he should not be proficient in fishing. .”

“But he’s very good at fishing.” Sonia sat on the sand impolitely, her face flushed and she gasped for air, her mouth turned up slightly, and she said with a complaint and excitement: “I was almost killed by him. NS.”

The fisherman uses a very weird “fishing rod” weapon. It has both spears and cast cables. It can turn around freely from long range and close attacks. It is an extremely rare one-winger who is good at group battles. It also deals with Yaxiu and He Sonia didn’t let the wind go.

Even after he played a trick, the long-line fishing hook deceived Yaxiu’s defensive action and immediately turned to kill Sonia’s back. At that time, Sonia had to deal with his front fishing rod attack, although he noticed the assassination behind him. There is no room for evasion at all.

If it weren't for Ya Xiu to put Sonia a sword barrier in time, I'm afraid they would all be forced to withdraw from the Void Realm now. Rao avoided this desperate killing. They also spent a lot of effort behind them to kill the fisherman. Ya Xiu suffered numerous minor injuries, and Sonia was pierced with half of her hand. Fortunately, she could be in the Void Realm. Use the soul energy to quickly recover, if they were replaced in reality, the fisherman would have killed them long ago.

In addition to not knowing how to fish, a fisherman can be said to be a wingman with no shortcomings.

As Yaxiu watched the manual of the manual operator disappear into light smoke, the island of inheritance was also rumbling and was about to sink. He looked at Sonia, who was still sitting on the ground and resting, and noticed that her body was almost translucent, indicating that the soul energy was consumed a lot, and he stretched out his hand and said, "That's it for tonight."

Sonia glanced at him, held his hand and stood up: "I should be able to fight again."

"But I'm tired and don't want to continue fighting."

Ya Xiu smiled and shook his head, sitting on the boat and stretched out: "There is no need to brace, if you really die in the virtual world, it will affect the escape tomorrow. After sailing for a while, leave the virtual world."

"After all, trying to find the golden fish overnight is a very outrageous wish. It is normal if it is not fulfilled. If it is really done, I will have to doubt whether the Four Pillar Gods really bless me." Ya Xiu pretended to complain: "I blame you for mentioning the golden fish. Now the greater the hope, the greater the disappointment. Jian Ji, you have to take full responsibility this time!"

Sonia was not at all angry when she heard the viewer throw the pot so outrageously.

She was sitting on the boat with her legs cocked, her plump and straight thighs clipped a mysterious black line, her elbows resting on her knees, her small white hands supporting her chin, and her eyes fixed on the viewer.

Tonight, she wore a black vest and crimson miniskirt, small leather boots with stockings, and black strap-like ornaments on her thighs. She was fashionable and gorgeous without losing the youthful atmosphere, and painted the gray and white world of the sea of knowledge. A touch of gorgeous color.

Seeing Jian Ji said nothing, Ya Xiu became a little scared: "I'm sorry, I am too arrogant. By the way, I will tell you a joke. Once upon a time, a little white rabbit met a bear who was diarrhea..."

"Don't make noise, I'm thinking."

"Thinking about?"

"Think about the intelligence of the Golden Fish." Sonia said calmly: "Collate the existing intelligence and see if you can find out the truth about the Golden Fish."

Ah Xiu waved his hand: "Don't waste your energy. So many magicians have searched for so many years and have found nothing. Are they inferior to our talents and not trained enough for us to be diligent? But even they have to work step by step, first raise the faction level before they can climb to a higher level. In the virtual world, we are counting on the miracle of the golden fish, which is an unrealistic fantasy..."

"But the magician was born to pursue a miracle."

Sonia tilted her head and said with a smile: "Anyway, you are idle, you just think about staying with me, and think about how to find the golden fish with me."

Ya Xiu pursed his lips and clicked on the "Voidland Map" to let the boat sail to the safe area. He held his hands next to the hull and said, "Looking at you dressed so beautifully tonight, I will give you this face."

"Thank you!" Sonia replied crisply: "Let's sort out the newly obtained information first."

Yaxiu nodded: "In the three projections we defeated just now, two of the manuals mentioned golden fish: the gastronomy wanted to eat a bite of the meat of the golden fish, and the fisherman thought that the golden fish could be caught. Arrived."

I really don't know if it should be said that the former is bold and dare to covet the great existence in the virtual realm, or whether it should be said that the latter is frantic and will never forget to fish when it reaches the virtual realm.

“Although the gastronomy has been pursuing the golden fish for many years until he died, he has not even eaten the feces of the golden fish, but he is not without gain-he has reached the island of fate.

It can be seen from this that the ability of Ya Xiu, the ‘barrier-free reader’s manual’, will become increasingly important in the future.

In the early stage, they can only read the manuals of some low-end technicians, and the benefits are naturally better than nothing, because the life of the low-end technicians has no value at all.

But when they reach the core area of the Sea of Knowledge and can meet the powerful projection of the magician, then the benefits of reading the manual of the magician can be said to rise sharply.

Because not only did they have adventures in the Void Realm, but other magicians also had lucky moments to be blessed by the Void Realm.

What’s even more amazing is that the adventures of the virtual world may not be impossible to copy.

Reading the magician’s manual is equivalent to getting other magician’s strategy and even intelligence benefits for exploring the virtual world. The best example is ‘Maelstrom’s Secret Poison’. If it weren’t for Ya Xiu who happened to read the magician’s manual and learned this set of quick upgrade strategies, I am afraid they are still Silver Halfwing.

“Like us, he also asked Xujing about the golden fish: ‘Can I eat the meat of the golden fish in the sea of knowledge’, Xujing’s answer is ‘no’.”

“We can draw a conclusion: the golden fish does not exist in the sea of knowledge as flesh and blood.”

“The angler thinks that the golden fish is hidden in the sea, so he insists on fishing in the virtual world for more than ten years. But apart from the occasional catching of knowledgeable creatures such as ichthyosaurs and ichthyosaurs, he has not found any golden fish. Trail. He also sneaked into the sea of knowledge, but it was pitch black and he died soon.”

“Here we can also draw a conclusion: we cannot dive into the sea of knowledge to find golden fish.”

Sonia groaned: “And the information we got before is that the golden fish can be seen without triggering any rituals, and the golden fish has been floating on the sea.”

Ya Xiu shook his fingers: “The golden fish is on the sea. The golden fish is not flesh and blood. The golden fish can be seen directly...Ah, I know what a golden fish is!”

“what?”

“Don’t you see that these white fog meet all the characteristics. On the sea, you can’t eat it, you can see it directly.” Ya Xiu looked at the thick white fog that enveloped the boat: “The only problem is that it doesn’t look like it can carry a boat. mainland.”

“Seriously!”

“I’m serious.” Asia Xiu leaned on the boat lazily, watching Sonia suddenly smiled: “Don’t worry, even if I don’t have golden mana, I won’t just die on the way to escape... I should.”

Sonia’s eyes flickered: “Who cares about you, I just want to see the scenery of the Time Continent as soon as possible. Staying in the sea of knowledge, my mana will not increase at all.”

“Okay, it’s my own passion.” Ya Xiu was happy. “By the way, didn’t you rest for an hour tonight? What did you use for it?”

“Went drinking with Leonie-senpai.”

“The Leo-senpai who beat you badly last time?”

“What a terrible fight, obviously I won, and it was not your fault in the final analysis, it was you who wanted me to fight with the senior sister! You are ashamed to say—“

“Hey, are you old enough to drink?”

“Tsk, you are... of course, I have been an adult. She talked to me a lot about adventures in the abyss, which is very interesting.”

“tell me the story?”

“For example, there is a particularly rare ‘evil shadow’. It has no substance and is attacked by the soul. It is very difficult to deal with, but its weakness is also obvious. As long as there is a light source to illuminate its shadow, and then attack by the shadow, its body will also be seriously injured. “

“There is also a very scary ‘eye hunter’. The body is extremely strong and will not move when observed by people. However, once the line of sight is removed, it will quickly approach and pierce the eyeball of the surgeon. Sisters and they see Once, fortunately, I was too far away and had time to escape.”

“The most dangerous monster in the shallow abyss is the Devourer. It is extremely huge and will disguise its stomach as an ordinary cave. Once the surgeon steps into it~www.mtlnovel.com~ it will seal the stomach cave and release strong Effective stomach acid. It is extremely difficult for a silver master to pierce its stomach, and can only watch as it melts...”

Sonia seemed excited and her eyes brightened when she talked about these scary abyss stories. Ah Xiu had listened kindly to Xiao Cutie’s anecdotes about her campus, but gradually his expression changed and he even sat up abruptly.

“You just said that a monster would disguise its stomach as a cave?”

“Yes, it’s called the Devourer. How did you ever meet it?”

“I think I might have seen something similar.”

Sonia blinked: “Similar?”

Ah Xiu raised his head and looked at the sky covered by the white mist.

“You said, are we in the belly of the golden fish?”

Technician’s Manual - Chapter 119

Chapter 119 - Silver Wings!

Chapter 119 - Silver Wings!

“Why can’t the magicians find the slightest trace of the huge golden fish theoretically?”

“Why does Xujing say that the golden fish is on the sea and can be seen without any rituals?”

“There is only one answer.”

Asia Xiu murmured, “We are in the golden fish, and the time continent is above the white mist.”

Sonia subconsciously wanted to pick a thorn, but she used the current information to correspond to this conclusion, but found that everything was correct, which perfectly explained the truth of the golden fish!

“That’s right,” she recalled abruptly: “The only magician manual I read did not mention that after the explorer found the golden fish, he still couldn’t climb the golden fish after climbing more than 800 floors. ?”

“If you think about it carefully, if the golden fish is really as big as eight hundred layers, even if it is covered by white fog, the magicians will not find a trace... and in the sea of knowledge, climbing eight hundred layers will The only places that cannot be reached are...”

“Sky.”

The two stared blankly at the white misty sky.

After a while, Sonia asked in a daze, “But how do we climb up?”

Yeah, how did they climb into the sky?

Even if they know that Time Continent is above, they can climb up to become a Second Wing Sorcerer, but...Where is the way?

There is no stairway to the sky hanging down from the sky, nor is there a tower to the sky on the ground, and even the Sea of Knowledge does not have a natural landscape more than one meter above sea level.

They are also not like explorers who are proficient in earth arts factions. They can't raise tall buildings on the ground. The only way to increase the height is to put the double on top, with Jian Ji standing on the shoulders of the double, and Ya Xiu standing on the shoulders of Jian Ji.

Then can Ashion summon thousands of doubles to stack himself on top? Nor does it work, because he only has a 'substitute' magic spirit and does not have the miracle of a 'multiple substitute', so he can only summon a substitute.

If he summons a second stand-in, the first stand-in will disappear. If he wants to summon two doubles, the best way for him is to find a second double double, and then the two doubles can be activated together to form a 'double double' miracle.

Therefore, the use of Shu Ling is a skill. It has a large scale in some places and very conservative in some places.

“Are there any flying miracles?” Ya Xiu asked.

“One-wing flying miracles are rare.” Sonia shook her head: “One-wing moving miracles basically move quickly on the ground. Even if they can temporarily vacate in the air, they are only to overcome obstacles and do not have the ability to fly. “

“This situation hasn’t improved even to the second wing. At most, it moves faster, consumes less, and has more flexibility in changing directions. The true miracle of flying does not become common until the level of the three-wing sanctuary.”

“Because the prerequisite for the achievement of the Three Wing Sanctuary is to completely unfold the Silver Wings and the Golden Wings.” Sonia raised her hands and flapped her wings: “Do you think the magician’s virtual wings are just for viewing? ?”

“Ah? Isn’t the imaginary wing used to intimidate the opponent? Everyone compares the imaginary wing before the battle. The more the imaginary wing, the more complete, the stronger.”

“That’s just a sociological usage. The real Void Wing is the embodiment of the magician’s knowledge accumulation. Every Void Wing can bring great help to the magician...”

“Great help?” Ah Xiu was taken aback, unfolding his Silver Wings: “What kind of help can it do besides letting me go to the toilet at night without lighting the lights?”

“Silver blessing.” Sonia spread her hands: “I haven’t told you before? The full deployment of the Silver Wings can only prove that our silver power reaches the limit. When we are successfully promoted to the Second Wing, we leave the sea of knowledge and arrive. Only in the time continent will the Silver Wings shine—the Silver Wings at that time are the perfect posture.”

“The shining Silver Wings will bestow eternal blessings on the magician, which is often related to the major faction of the magician. Even a magician who has just been promoted to the second wing, the silver blessing can give him more than 20% of the combat power. Promotion, if you are lucky, you can even get a 100% promotion.”

Ah Xiu reacted: “No wonder you are so tired tonight and you have to drag me to find the golden fish...”

A full 20%~100% increase in combat power will almost decisively help his future escape plan. If it is for the silver blessing, there is indeed the value of working hard.

Sonia feels that the wine is coming up again in reality, and her cheeks are a little hot: “I have said that I just want to see the scenery of the time continent as soon as possible... and you promised to help me realize my dream. Looking for golden fish is The part of the dream will definitely hold you together.”

“That’s true, so when will you sing to me? According to your singing voice, I can judge if I have taken a dirty job that is ignorant of my conscience.”

“You just hold this point and can’t get through with me, right? Then I will come too, ‘my whole body is light and light without a trace of weight...”

“Sorry, I was too arrogant. Talk about flying miracles, say flying miracles.”

At this time, Ya Xiu also solved the doubt in his heart. He had long felt that his Silver Wings were a little bit different from the Silver Wings displayed by Varkas at the beginning. It was not flashing enough and not strong enough. He thought it was a light problem before. I thought it was a developmental problem.

Without opening the door to the new world for a day, his Silver Wing is after all the unmanned virgin wing, not a mature virtual wing.

Sonia paused: “After the mages get the perfect wings~www.mtlnovel.com~, they can not only receive the silver blessing and golden blessings brought by the Void Wing, but also because of the qualitative changes brought about by the Void Wings. You can fly directly in reality with your two wings. For this reason, most flying miracles require a three-wing sanctuary, and at worst, two wings are complete.”

To put it simply, the miracle of flying is equivalent to a luxury car yacht, which can only be enjoyed by the rich with three wings or more, and the rich have no plans to develop a low-profile luxury car yacht that the poor can also afford.

She raised her head and looked at the gray sky: “Even if we find a flying miracle that can be used with one wing, but the explorer can’t climb up to the top of the 800-story tower, even if we run out of mana, I’m afraid I can’t fly that high.”

“The easiest way for a machinist to fly is to fly with virtual wings. There is no one. Knowledge is our easiest wing.”

Ya Xiu stood up and let the Silver Wings flutter, which was completely useless except for the boat swaying.

Sonia said helplessly: “Even if you haven’t learned the wind technique, you should know that you need a pair of wings to fly?”

Doubts appeared on her face: “The flying miracle can’t fly so high, nor can earth skills create high towers... How did the legendary magicians who claim to have found the golden fish and successfully sneaked into the time continent? It’s us. I was wrong, or is there a ladder to the sky in the sea of knowledge, or is there some way to get a pair of wings in advance?”

“If you just need a pair of wings...” Ya Xiu said softly, “We have them too.”

“US?”

Sonia was startled and saw the viewer point to her Silver Wing, and then to her Silver Wing.

“This is outrageous...”

Seeing her tiptoe leave the boat and fly into the white mist, Sonia got goosebumps all over her body with excitement. Like seeing Dedaros’s movie for the first time in the light curtain, she was shocked by the miraculous picture.

“Don’t get excited, don’t get excited.” Asia Xiu calmly said: “We have to cooperate with each other, if there is a mistake we have to fall.”

Sonia was rather confident at this time: “Didn’t you say that there is a bond between us? If there is a bond, then this kind of tacit understanding is not worth mentioning.”

She glanced at Ah Xiu, her left hand squeezed his right hand, as if as long as she did this, her hearts would be connected. The silver wings of the two of them flapped at the same frequency, like lovebirds supporting each other and flying together.

“It’s hard to find so many clues to the golden fish, and finally we can infer the truth of the golden fish, and finally find the correct way of flying...”

Ya Xiu coughed solemnly: “I deduced the truth, and I discovered the way of flying. Of course, you also made a great contribution to Jian Ji...”

“Yes, yes, you are a great viewer,” Sonia smiled like a flower. “I declare that your position in my mind tonight can be compared to Dedaros!”

“Only tonight? And who is Dedaros?”

“That’s the idol I admire the most! You should be content for only one night! Compared with your previous position in my mind, at least I compare you with others this time.”

“I’m really curious about what I compared with in your heart...”

The two smirked for a long time, and Ya Xiu stopped the laughter, looked up at the gray sky, and asked seriously, “Are you ready?”

“Yeah.” Sonia nodded her head.

With the flapping of a pair of silver wings, they rushed into the white mist like birds and hovered up. The sea of knowledge is getting farther and farther away from them, and Ya Xiu’s “Void Realm Map” has also begun to become chaotic. The higher the upper layer, the thinner the white mist, and even a golden light can be seen at the end!

“How did those magicians find the companions who flew with them in the past?” Sonia suddenly asked: “Can other magicians also team up to explore the virtual realm besides us?”

“Perhaps it is, but I guess it’s an even more incredible possibility.”

“What’s possible?”

“That’s when they met friends in reality in the virtual realm.”

“It happened to meet other magicians in the virtual realm. This magician happened to be a friend of acquaintance. Both of them happened to unfold the Silver Wings, and they happened to know the truth about the Golden Fish? So many coincidences that require chance...”

“It is because it takes too many coincidences that it can be called a miracle.”

They are getting closer and closer to the sky, the white fog is getting thinner and thinner, and they are flying higher and higher. At this time, they also feel that their 'body' is getting heavier and heavier, as if the gravitational pull of the sea of knowledge on them has increased. His hands, feet, and even his body seemed to be filled with lead.

The sea of knowledge is stopping smugglers.

If the two of them really rely on miracles to fly, then most of them will stop here. Just like the explorer, the flying dream was pulled down by the heavy gravity and plunged into the deep sea, shattering like a crystal.

But the swing of the virtual wing does not seem to require any strength, and it can easily cut through the white fog and resist gravity. Even if their souls are bound by the sea of knowledge, Void Wing can still allow them to travel around the world.

Seeing that she was getting closer and closer to the golden light, she was about to sneak from the Sea of Knowledge to the Time Continent, but Sonia became more and more panicked in her heart, and her breathing became heavier.

Suddenly she couldn't restrain her feelings, and couldn't help but ask the question that had been hidden deep in her heart: "Why me?"

She herself didn't understand her feelings. It was obvious that this question could be asked after the end, tomorrow, or in the future, but she had to get an answer at this moment, even if it was not the answer she was looking forward to.

Obviously this may harm her interests, but at least at this moment, Sonia feels that there are some things that are more important than her promotion to the second wing.

Ya Xiu glanced at her unexpectedly. Although there was no head or tail, he understood what Jian Ji was asking.

I was going to make a joke, but when it came to my lips it turned into a truth: "It's just a coincidence."

Sonia concealed her mood swings well and showed a business-like smile: "I knew it, it seems I was lucky—"

"It's my luck." Ya Xiu said softly, "It is because of your coincidence that there will be a series of miracles behind."

"Some things can't be locked, even if they tie their hands and feet, they will still grow wings and fly'." He suddenly recalled this sentence: "Sword Fairy, I can fly, not because of Silver Wings. , But because of you."

"When I was * with my hands and feet, when I was trapped in prison, it was you who became my window to explore the virtual world, and you helped me gain the power of a magician."

Ya Xiu looked at Sonia and smiled: "Sword Ji, you are my wings."

Sonia stared at him blankly. Under the dazzling golden light, the black mist covering the viewer's face quickly dissipated, revealing a delicately crafted smiling face and a pair of brilliant eyes.

After knowing it for many days, Sonia finally saw his face.

At this moment, the dissatisfaction, complaints, and worries that had lingered in her for a long time disappeared. I have never felt like this moment in my life, I am more happy than the first time I wore new clothes, more excited than the first time I saw Kalas, and feel sweeter than the first time I ate ice cream...like... ..It's like a void in my heart that I have never noticed before, filled up silently.

In the end, she held Ya Xiu's hand tightly, and said in a low voice with a hum in her nose:

"You are also my golden fish."

Ya Xiu snorted: "What a strange analogy, I feel like I am your stepping stone."

Sonia softly defended: "I didn't mean that..."

"Just kidding, I understand what you mean. Then... let's go and meet the real golden fish!"

thump!

When they fly over the outermost layer of white mist~www.mtlnovel.com~ the golden ocean that is as clear as a mirror, and as vast as the ocean, occupies the entire sky.

With the fanning of the Silver Wings, the sky and the golden sea seemed to be stimulated, and waves were set off. The tumbling golden sea water reflected the distinct feathers of the Silver Wings, which suddenly looked like fish scales with distinct layers!

In the blink of an eye, Wanli Jinhai turned into a golden fish belly!

"This is... the truth about the golden fish!" Sonia murmured softly.

Ya Xiu was also deeply shocked by this spectacle, but he did not have the slightest nostalgia, but showed a satisfied smile, leading Jian Ji to fly into the golden ocean!

In the next second, the world is upside down!
