

Technician's Manual - Chapter 23

"I'm so tired, Ingullit, do you take a bath first or me?"

Before anyone arrived, the sound came first, and Lois, who was reading in the bedroom, suddenly turned black.

The door of the dormitory was pushed open, and two young girls with sword bags came in. The fluff on their faces was sweaty, and they jokingly broke in, like a spring breeze filling the dormitory with vitality, exuding the fresh breath of budding soil. .

"Let's take a shower first." Ingulite sat down and said, "I will have to wash clothes later, and your feet are soft. Sit for a while and regain your strength."

"That's right," Sonia stretched her back, lying on the table like a slime: "Oh, I'm already regretting switching to the swordsmanship department now. It's tiring. Even after class, Professor Trozan I have to take another two hours of improvement class, and even have to practice swordsmanship with Trozan... At night I have to continue swordsmanship training to master the wave of swordsmanship, and I feel that the whole day's schedule is full. "

"It's not very good," Ingulite was very envious: "Professor Trozan is a three-winged swordsman. Last year he was selected as one of the 'Top Ten Outstanding Swordsmen of the Stars' and was called the 'Hidden Swordsman'. , It is said that it is possible to impact the Four Wings Legend... Then Sonia, you will be the apprentice of the Legendary Magician!

Luo Yisi unconsciously squeezed the book with her hands.

Sonia waved her hand: "Professor Trozan hasn't said that he wants to accept me as an apprentice, but he just thinks I am very talented..."

Ingulite sighed: "I actually wanted to be an apprentice of Professor Trozan from the beginning, but the professor never accepted an apprentice publicly. Sonia, you are his only exception for so many years!"

"Then I will recommend you to Professor Trozan tomorrow. Although there is no guarantee, it should be possible for the professor to give you an interview opportunity——"

"No, the professor is obviously aimed at cultivating geniuses. I'm just an ordinary person. Not only will he not accept me, but he will only hate me." Ingulite said while looking for clothes: "And I am about to be cut. After entering the second ring, you can summon Shu Ling within a few months, and the resources of the swordsmanship system will be open to me... Maybe I will come from behind to catch up with you!"

"I won't wait for you." Sonia smiled and said: "Fortunately, you have Ingulite, otherwise I don't know how to refuse Felix's invitation."

Ingulite asked curiously: "I heard that he wants to talk to you again, don't you want to compete with him again?"

"I don't want to!" Sonia said categorically: "He doesn't want to learn from each other at all, but just wants to get closer to me."

"Is it bad to get closer to Felix?"

"Let's not mention that he is a playboy, and he is visible to the naked eye. I am sure that I will be better than him in swordsmanship in the future. I can't look down on a man who can't beat me in his strongest field. "

“Jianhua University is still too small, I will definitely go to Shinhwa University in the future. I will talk about love when I have achieved some achievements in swordsmanship.”

Loisi's nails almost pierced the pages of the book.

Adele, who has been watching the light screen program, asked half-faintly and doubtfully:

“Sonia, are you going to transfer to the University of Truth?”

“No, but Professor Trozan can help me sign up for a swordsmanship competition from the University of Truth, and he can also let me use the equipment of the University of Truth, and I may run away with the sword of truth in the future.” Sonia sighed: “It's really worse. I think the more tired.”

Adele wowed: “Then Sonia, will you be able to get to know the top students at the University of Truth? If you meet a handsome guy, remember to introduce it!”

“No~Question~Question~” Sonia said in a long voice, “How can I forget my roommate when I encounter a good thing? We are good roommates who spend a year of happy time, Lois, are you right? ?”

Loisi's mouth was distorted with anger, and it took a lot of effort to reluctantly laugh: “Of course, I'm afraid that Sonia Sword Master will not recognize our roommates.”

“How could it be that I'm just a little village girl from the country, and I will have to let Miss Lois take care of me in the future.” Sonia said in a weird way: “Ah, Miss is reading a water technique textbook? I really envy you, I. I really want to continue learning water skills. It's easy and decent.

Unlike the swordsmanship department, it's too tiring~”

Ingulite also reacted at this time. Although Sonia was chatting with her, what she said was directed at Lois.

She didn't bother to pay attention to their grievances and went directly to the bathroom to take a bath.

Sonia was ready to welcome Lois to go crazy, but Lois didn't say a word, as if lying down and mocking.

The yin and yang weirdness is a PVP interaction. Now that the other party directly holds their head and squats for defense, Sonia also feels bored, so she carried her schoolbag and shouted: "Forget it, I will come back tomorrow morning and take a shower. Now I have to go to the meditation room to prepare. My first trip to the Voidland. Everyone, I wish you a pleasant evening."

Ingulite was taking a bath, Lois did not speak, only Adele responded: "Goodbye Sonia."

With the sound of footsteps away, only the sound of water in the bathroom remained in the bedroom.

Adele looked at Lois who didn't say a word, and thought for a while and wanted to walk over to chat: "Huh, the village girl Sonia is really a villain, isn't it because she has some talent in swordsmanship, what's great. Luo Yi You don't have to worry about it, she will hit the iron plate sooner or later with such arrogance...Huh?"

Adele took a look and found that Lois was really reading a book, and even took out the exercise book to do the problem.

“I lost this time.” Lois said, “Sonia, the village girl, has now climbed to the height I need to look up to. If we continue to develop like this, and wait for us to meet again a few years after graduation, I will definitely get Bow your head to her.”

It seems that she has thought of her humble appearance in the future, Lois’s mouth twitched slightly: “I can’t accept...I don’t believe that I can’t even match that village girl!”

Adele did not disturb her, returned to his seat and continued watching the show.

Although the show is still good-looking, Adele’s mind can’t calm down.

She turned her head and looked at Lois again, and found that Lois was not hot for three minutes, but she was still studying attentively. After thinking about it, she turned off the light curtain and took out a book to study.

Ying Gullit came out of the shower and was slightly surprised to see both of them in the dormitory studying hard.

But she didn’t say anything, and quietly went to the sink on the balcony to wash the clothes.

The door guard checked the student information in the bracelet, and Sonia entered a special, fully enclosed building.

As soon as she crossed the threshold, Sonia felt that she had crossed an invisible boundary line, her thinking speed suddenly became much faster, and the Wave Swordsman Spirit jumped out of her shoulders, looking very excited.

“So, after I enter the Void, will you still be by my side?” Sonia asked.

“This is actually an act of overtime.” The viewer walking alongside her said leisurely: “It’s beyond my scope of service.”

“So you mean you don’t want to...”

“So, you have to pay for overtime!” The viewer rubbed his fingers and said: “You have to buy a bar when you go to the bar to find someone to chat with? You have to find someone to accompany you to the virtual world to chat and travel. You have to express your gratitude! ?”

“I’m super poor!”

“Besides money, do you have a lot of surplus value that you can sell.”

Sonia raised her eyebrows slightly, tucked her close-fitting shirt with her fingers, revealing a deep gully: “My most valuable thing is myself...”

“You are waiting for this sentence! Then you will be an employee working for me in the future.” The viewer snapped his fingers: “But after all, you have not graduated, so you are still in the probationary period. But after all, it is the probationary period. Therefore, there is no labor contract. As for the salary during the probation period, the energy potion you drank and the wooden sword you used have already been paid, so...”

“So you want me to work for you for nothing?”

“Hey, what I said, I provide all kinds of opportunities to cultivate your growth, and you do some labor to give back to me as you grow up. Isn’t this a good production relationship for employers and employees to make progress together?”

Sonia did not refuse this unequal overlord contract, but asked, "You spend so much time trying me in your dreams, arranging my training, and motivating my swordsmanship talent. Let me work for you?"

What is my job content?"

"Alive."

"Alive?"

"Living is the rarest thing in this world." The viewer seems to be smiling: "Most people just exist."

"I still can't understand." Sonia said, "I believe that all gifts have a price. You have paid so much to nurture me, and you definitely want to gain more from me. Unless you are my spiritual phantom, otherwise I can't think of your reason for being so selfless."

"I am not selfless, on the contrary, there is no one more selfish than me in this world." The viewer laughed and said, "I ask you to live according to my wishes. Is there anything more selfish than this?"

"but....."

"Haha, just joking just now, how could I be such a good person for your sake?" The viewer laughed: "I have something serious to ask you-for some reason, I am weak now, thinking There is no way to explore the virtual realm alone, so you need to protect me."

While talking, Sonia had already walked to the room with house number 311. Open the door with a hand ring, and inside is a narrow and empty meditation room, with only an orange carpet filled with the floor, and the ceiling lights illuminate every corner.

This is the meditation room of Jianhua University, and it is also the best place for Sonia to find a place to enter the Void Realm.

She closed the door, sat cross-legged on the carpet, let Wave Swordsmanship float on her palm, and pour all her mind into Shuling, searching for the door of truth hidden in knowledge, trying to carry out the first imaginary life in her life. Journey.

Although Sonia successfully summoned her first magic spirit, she is not yet a wing magician because she has not condensed her own 'silver wings'.

There is no magical power, no condensed shadows, and naturally cannot fully activate the magical spirit, so he is not a magician at all.

If you want to condense the Silver Wings, you must enter the Void Realm, swim in the sea of knowledge, and use your soul to attract knowledge ~www.mtlnovel.com~ Extract mana from knowledge, condense the mana into Void, and use the Void to move the law Authority to become a magician!

The only way for ordinary people to enter the virtual world is to find the door of truth in the spirit body of their own magic, let the soul pass through the door of truth, and then they can directly reach the virtual world constructed by laws and knowledge-the virtual world!

It is said that the size of the virtual world is dozens, hundreds, or even ten thousand times larger than the real world.

Countless magicians have never encountered anyone else in the virtual realm in their entire lives, so all magicians can only explore the virtual realm on their own.

The Meditation Building is a quiet room specially used for practitioners to explore the virtual world. In addition to being quiet and no one disturbs, Jianhua University also performed a miracle [Starlight Chasing Shadows], which not only speeds up the thinking of the students in the Meditation Building, but also makes it easier. Finding the door of truth, and receiving countless beams of starlight descended by the Starry Lord, make the souls of the students emit the fragrance of knowledge, which can condense the silver wings faster!

Soon, Sonia found the door of truth in the spirit of Wave Swordsmanship.

After all, it was the first time in her life. Sonia couldn't help but feel nervous as if she was going to open a room. She asked in her heart, "The viewer?"

"I am here. Don't worry, there is a bond between you and me. The divine destiny connects you and me."

Sonia's mind suddenly calmed down, her consciousness touched the door of truth, her vision was suddenly flooded by darkness.

When she woke up, she found herself lying in a boat, floating on the lead-grey sea.

There is a thick sky as thick as ink, surrounded by mist.

She was lying on the stern and saw a familiar person lying on the bow.

Sonia: "The viewer?"

Ya Xiu: "Sword Fairy?"

The two looked at each other, and they all breathed a sigh of relief.
