

Technician's Manual - Chapter 24

"This is the virtual world..."

Ya Xiu reached out and held a ball of sea water, smelled it, licked it, and it felt a little sweet.

Looking down, the surface of the sea is very fuzzy, and I can't see my face at all.

Checking his clothes, he found that he was wearing a dark black trench coat like Tachie, and he looked pretty handsome.

"It is exactly the same as the virtual realm described in the textbook."

Since there was no one else around, Sonia also let go of her voice: "Presumably this is the sea of knowledge, that is, the sea of silver, the sea of primordially... Whether it is a genius or a mediocre, it is the legendary six-winged * or One Wing Sorcerer, their first stop in the Void Realm must be this ocean."

"The only difference is this." Sonia knocked on the boat, looked around for a week, and found a book mark on the bow and a sword mark on the stern.

"The textbook says that the technicians should be naked when they first came here..."

"Naked?" Ya Xiu looked at Sonia's black suspender dress.

Sonia immediately covered her face with black lines, and subconsciously covered her chest: "Our image in the virtual realm is the projection of our consciousness. Nakedness means that we cannot have the help of other external objects, such as bringing objects in from reality...I listen. Others said that when they first entered the virtual realm, they were swimming directly in the sea, and there could be no boats.”

“I get it!” Ya Xiu clapped his hands suddenly.

“What do you know?”

“This ship is your body, you are just a soul phantom!”

“What?” Sonia was startled.

“Your consciousness is split into two parts, one is a heavy soul, which is turned into this boat to facilitate your navigation; the other is a smart mind, which is turned into your current image.” Ah Xiu vowed: “The soul is a boat, consciousness. It’s a person, and the ship carries people to the other shore, it must be so!”

does sound a bit reasonable, but...

“How do you prove?” Sonia asked.

Axiu said without thinking: “If you don’t believe it, jump into the sea and try. If I guess it’s correct, you won’t be able to leave this ship at all!”

Just do it, and Sonia jumps directly into the sea. Fortunately for that dream trial, Sonia had never learned to swim, but at least she knew a little bit of water and wouldn’t sink like a weight.

Soon Sonia turned back to the boat and snorted: “You are wrong, I can leave the boat, this boat is not transformed by my soul...”

personally verified that what the viewer said was wrong, just like winning him once. Sonia was a bit complacent at first, but she turned her head and found that the viewer was looking at herself.

Although his appearance is still hidden by the dimness, Sonia can fully perceive his gaze. She looked down and found that her clothes were all wet by the sea, and they were wet against her body, drawing graceful curves.

“You—” Sonia was so angry that she directly raised the wooden sword, ignoring the difference between the strengths of the two sides, and directly summoned the Wave Swordsmanship Spirit to slash it with a sword. Ya Xiu quickly retreated and surrendered: “Wait, where is your wooden sword of?”

Hey?

Sonia looked at the wooden sword in her hand, she remembered that she didn't have a weapon in her hand just now. But seeing the viewer so annoying, she subconsciously wanted to beat him with a wooden sword...

“Look, the wooden sword appeared when you wanted the wooden sword. Obviously, this ship also appeared because you didn't want to swim.” Ya Xiu spread his hand and said, “I just wanted to test it. It proves that this ship is indeed transformed by ideas.”

“Then you just peeked at me as part of the test? No, the wooden sword is the weapon I am most familiar with, so I can easily manifest it, just like I can manifest clothes!”

“Don't slander me, I don't take a peek, I'm watching it openly!”

After such a small episode, the strangeness and fear of the first arrival in the virtual realm have been washed away.

And because there are people with them, it's as if there are people who accompany the bottom of the body when encountering everything, the two people are full of peace of mind.

But just like Sonia didn't know the difference between this 'watcher' and that 'watcher', Ya Xiu didn't know the difference between this 'Sword Fairy' and the other 'Sword Fairy' either.

After finishing the meal and returning to the prison dormitory, Jian Ji talked with Ya Xiu about a very adult topic.

"There are two news. The good news is that you have to live in free housing provided by the state in your life."

"There is such a good thing?"

"The bad news is that you can be dragged off and beheaded at any time."

Ya Xiu understood: "I can't escape from prison?"

Sword Princess sat on the bed with her legs folded and holding her hands. She looked at Ya Xiu slantingly: "You should know that magicians are the most powerful group in this world? As a mortal, it is impossible for you to compete with magicians. "

"Even the weak magician who turned his body into diamonds, after being disconnected from the virtual world, he can only become a diamond rat rolling in the pit."

"And the experience of this day should also make you understand that as long as you wear the back-neck chip, no matter where you are, you are still bound by endless shackles."

At this point, Ya Xiu's face changed slightly. He originally thought that the miracle chip was equivalent to an implantable computer, but he did not expect that the chip would turn him into a computer—and his administrator rights were remotely controlled.

Whether he can hit people, what he can see, and what words he can say are all under the control of the administrator. Today the administrator can let him speak etiquette and a civilized youth who obeys the rules, and tomorrow the administrator can let him eat shit.

Before disarming the chip, all his plans are equivalent to computer poisoning—the administrator can kill everything in seconds as long as the system is reinstalled. If the administrator feels that Asia Xiu can't fix it, he can even directly recycle the scraps, letting Asia come back in life.

"Is there a way to release the chip?" Ah Xiu gritted his teeth and asked, "For example, directly gouging out the back of the neck..."

"If it were that simple and it could be lifted, this prison would not be so lively."

Jian Ji sneered and said: "Although it is a chip, the miracle chip has gradually integrated into the depths of your bone marrow as you grow up. Now every bone, every nerve, and every muscle has a chip. Imprint. If you want to remove the chip, it should be possible for you to go to the steel mill and jump into the molten steel."

"In other words, it is impossible to remove the chip by ordinary means." Ya Xiu said, "What about the magician's means?"

"The magician has more methods." Jian Ji said: "And you are most likely to obtain the swordsmanship miracle 'Cut Me'."

”Cut Me” is the swordsman’s defensive miracle. It is specifically used to purify abnormal states. Although it is only a silver miracle that can be used by a one-wing magician, it can directly purify most of the continuous damage caused by two-wing magic. “

”The miracle chip is aimed at mortals and first-wing magicians, and is not immune to the miracle of “slash me” with the power of the second-wing. As long as you use Kill Me, you can clear all the miracle chips in your body in an instant, so that you can escape from prison. “

”Then how do I achieve the miracle of “cut me”? “

“If you want to perform miracles, you must first have Shu Ling. But if you want to obtain Shu Ling, you have four ways.” Jian Ji raised four fingers:

“First, by learning knowledge to resonate with the virtual world, the knowledge of the virtual world can be transformed into a magical spirit and appear in reality.”

“Second, go to the virtual realm to find wild magic spirits.”

“Third, kill the magician and plunder the magic spirit from him.”

“Fourth, the magic trading.”

“First of all, you can’t get through the first way.” Jian Ji glanced at Ya Xiu: “The miracle chip has already disconnected you from the virtual world. No matter how you absorb knowledge, it is impossible to resonate with the virtual world. “

Ya Xiu glanced at the main body information in the light curtain, and she saw a ‘virtual resonance forbidden’.

“The third way is to kill the magician with a mortal body. It’s not unheard of. Most of it happens when female pets and male pets are waiting for an opportunity to murder their master...”

Jian Ji looked at Ya Xiu's face and shook his head: "You can't go this way."

"There is no need to deny it so thoroughly! Is it a little bit possible? It is also possible for me to eat on my face!?"

"As for the fourth way, not to mention, you don't have the capital to trade with people at all."

"In short," Jian Ji was too lazy to talk to Ya Xiu: "The only way you want to obtain Shu Ling is to go to the Void to find wild Shu Ling."

Ya Xiu: "Then how do I get to the Void Realm?"

Jian Ji: "The only way to go to the virtual realm is to trigger the gate of truth in the spirit body of the Shu, and let the consciousness pass directly to the virtual realm."

Ya Xiu blinked.

"So you mean, if I want to go to the Void Realm, I need to have Shu Ling?"

"exactly."

"And my purpose in going to the virtual realm is to find Shu Ling?"

"That's right."

"wait wait wait..."

Ya Xiu held his forehead back.

"Isn't this the predicament of fresh graduates who find that all positions require three years of work experience?! I can't go to the Void Realm without Shu Ling, and I must go to the Void Realm to find Shu Ling. Isn't this a dead cycle?"

“Who told you that you must use your own magical spirit to go to the virtual realm?”

“what?”

Jian Ji pointed to herself: “Did you forget? I already have a wave of swordsmanship spirit, and I am qualified to enter the virtual world. The viewer, you and I have established a soul bond through the “Manual”, and even experience can be shared. It’s natural to take you to the virtual realm together.”

Is there such a function? Asia Xiu subconsciously opened the “Magician’s Manual” and wanted to read his talents again, but found that there was an additional function module in the game at some point:

“Voidland Exploration”: Organize a team of operators to explore the void.

However, when Adam clicked on “Explore in the Void Realm”, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com checked the “End Viewer” and “Dead Swordsman” to act together, and clicked “Ready”, the reality did not change. -Because the “Dead Sword Princess” is still in “preparation.”

“I have already made sure to prepare, so you can confirm it quickly.” Ya Xiu urged

“Then I’ll go back and prepare, you can wait slowly.”

Ya Xiu was stupid: “What else do you need to prepare?”

“A lot, a lot, you don’t understand a virgin man.”

“What kind of virgin do you TM say that I am proof—”

Seeing Jian Ji curling her lips with a playful smile disappearing in the air, Ya Xiu could only lie on the bed and wait. Maybe it was because the regenerative treatment was draining too much energy, or maybe the night without a mobile phone was too boring, and Ya Xiu quickly closed his eyes.

When he woke up again, he saw Jian Ji sitting in the same boat as him, floating on an ocean full of white mist.

On the boat in the Sea of Knowledge, Ah Xiu suddenly remembered something, and tried to call out the light curtain with a silent utterance.

He failed and succeeded: The failure was that although he called the light curtain, most of the functions failed. The virtual realm did not support physical plug-ins; the success was that the “Magician’s Manual” could still run .

He clicked on the “Magician’s Manual”-“Void Exploration”, a map suddenly appeared in the light curtain, and a message popped up:

“You have entered the virtual exploration mode, please read the tutorial for beginners...”

On the other side, Sonia found that Ya Xiu was silent, she also put her mind on the virtual realm, leaned down and fiddled with the sea with her hands, trying to push the boat forward.

“Wait, Jian Ji, don’t move like this, let me move.”
