

Technician's Manual - Chapter 61

Ya Xiu picked up the towel covering his face and sat up with his hands propped up.

His first reaction was to touch his neck first, but he didn't feel any scars.

“Strange, you didn't use me as the experimental material for surgery.”

“It's done.”

The medical therapist sitting at the end of the bed[222] looked down at the book in his hand without looking up. The crow's beak flicked.

“It's done, the operation was successful, and you are already a handsome guy.”

“what!”

Ya Xiu quickly looked for a mirror to take a photo, but there was no mirror around. The medical doctor chuckled: “It's fake, it's actually too simple to repair your throat, and it doesn't take much time. So I performed a few more minor operations on you by the way. There was no major surgery, and you didn't wake up after the procedure.”

Ya Xiu breathed a sigh of relief.

“Then what surgery did you do for me?”

“The Duffy technique that opens the corners of the eyes, the Aibo technique that adjusts the eyebrows, the Rocha technique that adjusts the chin, the eyelashes are turned into a natural curling Alas technique, will...”

Ya Xiu listened more and more confused.

“Then how similar am I to who I was before?”

“It should be very similar, anyway, it has two eyes, one mouth and one mouth.”

“This is called ‘no big rectification’? Does that big rectification change my head?”

“It’s not that it’s still more dangerous to change your head.” The medical doctor gestured: “The most popular major surgery among the surgeons, at most, you have changed all your facial features, such as the eyes of Xun Ying and the teeth of The teeth of the deformed shark, the nose is replaced by the nose of the fang wolf, the ears are replaced by the ears of the bat devil... It is not uncommon to replace the limbs and internal organs. Recently, mechanical prosthetics is a very popular direction for transformation.”

Good fellow, has the magician ordered the technology tree transformed by the biological clone?

No wonder Ah Xiu saw a compound human with bunny ears and wild boar tusks in the prison. At that time, he still thought that rabbits and wild boars could cross the species barrier to cross?

It turned out not to be a wild beast, but a wild beast.

Ya Xiu looked at the medical doctor curiously: “Then have you done such a big operation?”

The medical therapist hesitated for a moment: “I think there is.”

“Oh~” Ah Xiu stared at the medic’s crow mask, “So that’s it...”

How can the medical doctor not know what Ah Xiu is thinking, and said with his arms akimbo: “I don’t look so ugly like you. My face is always perfect and I don’t need to change it.”

“Oh, you didn’t change your face.” Ah Xiu scanned the medical doctor’s body, but unfortunately the medical doctors were all wearing generous robes, and there were no traces of outline.

“What are you looking at?”

“I’m seeing if your finger sticks out of a Phillips screw head.”

“There is no screw head, just pick an ear pick, do you want to try it?”

“want.”

“I’m not talking to you, here.”

The medical therapist took ten silver coins from the purse and placed them on the bed, and waved.

Ya Xiu pointed to the pile of silver coins: “Why?”

“Didn’t you say it’s okay, you let me do the operation, and I will give you money. I practiced ten techniques and gave you ten silver coins, which is very reasonable.”

“No, what I want to ask is, didn’t you pay with gold coins before?”

“I went back and asked other medical therapists. They didn’t give money to someone to practice the technique. At most they gave silver coins. No one gave gold coins at all!”

“You have no opinion, you must not be a person, and you must be firm in your own ideas, otherwise, will you eat **** too when others eat shit?”

“You make a lot of sense, but I still don’t want to give money in my heart. I can’t be fooled by you anymore—”

“But occasionally listening to other people’s suggestions is also a good quality.” Ya Xiu hurriedly put away the silver coin.

The medical doctor wanted to laugh, but soon stopped smiling, “You can be said to be really famous this time. You are the only sinner in Kaimon’s history who was injured in the Blood Moon Trial but survived.”

“The only one? Didn’t the death row prisoner get injured by mistake in the trial before?”

“Yes, but they couldn’t be saved, they were directly torn apart by the executioner. Killed by other death row prisoners like you, but the wound is too shallow to be saved, is equivalent to an example of violating the “Life Assistance Act”, you can say It’s unique.”

Ya Xiu still can’t get used to the classification of wounds in this world. The injuries that almost fell off his head are actually regarded as small wounds that can be healed with a stick of bandage.

“After you go out, remember to find a way to earn more contribution points. Don’t be selected to participate in the next Blood Moon Trial. Next time, no elves will stand in front of you.”

Ya Xiu looked at the medical doctor curiously, “I care about me so much? Is it treating me to heal my feelings?”

“You have to come to the treatment room almost every day. If there are more model prisoners like you in the prison, I may be able to leave this place after another month or two of hard work.”

The medical therapist shrugged: “Thanks to you, I have practiced many techniques very well.”

“Can you take me with you when you leave, at most I promised to give you three years of experiment materials, isn’t it a good deal?”

“sure.”

“real?”

“If you are willing to be taken away by me in three different boxes, I have no problem, and the prison is willing to let you go.”

Ya Xiu slapped his mouth: “Can I fight it back after taking it out?”

“If I were a four-winged legendary magician, I should be able to do it, and even add some plugins to you by the way.”

“Then are you?”

“If I am, I won’t have time to talk to you about this kind of bullshit.”

The medical therapist crossed his hands: “And you are still thinking about breaking out of prison, tusk tusk, have gone through a blood moon trial, haven’t you given up on such a naive idea?”

“Great young man, who is thinking about how to escape from prison? And I have watched the Blood Moon Trial with my own eyes. Who can stay here?” Ya Xiu clenched his fists: “This prison, I’m more sure!”

“Come on, remember to be safe when you escape from prison, it is best to keep the body intact.”

Yaxiu leaned in front of the medical doctor: “Do you have any good ideas for jailbreaking?”

The medical therapist stared at him with a beak: “Don’t think that if I make you handsome, I won’t report you.”

“Don’t be so nervous, you have made me like this, now it’s a chat time afterwards.” Ya Xiu didn’t care about it: “Just treat it as a decryption game. If you are framed and imprisoned in this broken lake prison, How are you going to escape from prison?”

“But I will not be framed.”

“Why can you be so sure?”

“Because there is a mnemonicist, when the mnemonicist checks my memory, he knows that I am innocent.”

Ya Xiu also thought of this, and couldn’t help asking: “Don’t you think this is... bad?”

The medical doctor was a little strange: “What’s wrong?”

“It means being searched for memory. Don’t you think memory is very important for privacy? Shouldn’t it be searched?”

“You still say that you are innocent, isn’t this free terrorism?”

“what?”

“Only terrorists who have evil intentions and conspiracy will hope to cancel the memory censorship system, and even have even more outrageous demands, such as removing the binding of miracle chips, granting pregnant women the right to abortion, and even making public birth matching records... What do you look like? It seems nervous?”

Ya Xiu swallowed, “Can pregnant women have an abortion?”

“Of course not, if the fetus is found to have any congenital diseases or genetic hidden diseases, an abortion is necessary.”

“must?”

“must.”

“Then what if the fetus is not sick?”

“Then I must be born.”

“No need to ask pregnant women for their opinions?”

“Why do you want to ask?” The medical practitioner felt strange: “Will pregnant women refuse? The maternity subsidy for each childbirth is almost equivalent to the three-year salary of a middle-level occupation, which fluctuates depending on the race. If you are a surgeon, you may even subsidize more. , 100% reward for the first childbirth, and 50% reward for childbearing at the guidance age.”

“Unless they are talented female surgeons who don’t want to waste any time, most women will give birth at the guidance age for the first time. As for whether there is a second or third time, it depends on the richness of their nightlife. Anyway, it is pregnancy. The period will be a little troublesome. After the baby is born, the baby will be sent to the nursing home, and the pregnant woman will be able to get the fertility fund that he deserves on the same day.”

Ya Xiu was shocked, he suddenly looked at the medical doctor with a strange look: “What about you?”

“What am I?”

“Have you... gotten the fertility fund?”

The medical doctor hesitated: “I can’t give birth.”

Ya Xiu quickly apologized: “I’m sorry.”

The therapist waved his hand: "There is nothing to apologize, and I don't lack the money. However, are you actually the one that supports pregnant women with the right to abortion? Then you are the more radical type among free terrorists. NS."

Ya Xiu wiped his forehead with cold sweat: "Is this radical?"

The therapist naturally said: "Of course, supporting voluntary abortion is tantamount to pushing down the fertility rate. This is nothing more than the races of human orcs. Those races whose fertility rate has not risen are the most hated by the elf veevas. There is one The parliamentarian who proposed this proposal was ousted by various scandals within a few days."

"Supporting the abolition of the memory censorship system is tantamount to increasing the difficulty of criminal investigation~www.mtlnovel.com~ to create a good soil for illegal crimes. Only those who want to commit crimes will support this kind of remarks, and even members of parliament will not make such grandstanding remarks. "

"Similarly, supporting the removal of the miracle chip binding is equivalent to supporting the removal of the shackles from the prisoner's neck, which only increases the difficulty of capturing the prisoner and increases the possibility of the prisoner continuing to commit a crime..."

Yaxiu asked, "But you all have miracle chips, aren't you all in shackles? Are you not afraid?"

"What you said makes you seem to be not us."

The medical therapist gave Ya Xiu a strange look.

"Moreover, we don't break the law or commit any crimes. Why should we be afraid? Only criminals who disrupt public order can be afraid."

It makes sense, and Ya Xiu can't refute it at all.

He realized that in the blood moon country, the recognition of medical practitioners is the recognition of the public. Since they all recognize this social supervision system, it shows that this approach is relatively correct. The incorrect person is the death row prisoner in the prison, and it is

Ah Xiu himself.

I didn't expect that in my previous life, I was a tax-paying citizen who abided by the law and supported supervision, but when I traveled here, I became a free terrorist...

"If you are too far away, just as you are like me, you are framed as the leader of the Four Pillar Gods cult. The crime hunting hall does not dare to search your memory. You are in Broken Lake Prison. How would you want to escape?"

"Are you really being framed..."

"Games are just like thinking games! But I heard that medical practitioners are not good at thinking and logic. Is this game too difficult for you?"

"Do you think I would be so naive in your words? Do you think I am a child!" The medical therapist turned his head and snorted coldly, "But isn't the way to escape from prison obvious, that is, you won't realize it."

Technician's Manual - Chapter 62

"How do you come in, just go out."

Ya Xiu understood in an instant: "You mean... the ship that carried the executed prisoners?"

The medical doctor nodded, "The Broken Lake Prison is located in the center of Broken Lake. There is no transportation except ship and flight. However, the nearby airspace is a military forbidden area. All flying objects will be scanned and verified. Objects without flight permission will be arranged by the prison. The [Lex Rapid Fire Cannon] shot down; and there are a large group of finger sharks in the sea. Unless it is a murloc, it is difficult for even a magician who specializes in defense to swim away.”

“There is only one way to escape from prison from beginning to end: we leave in the boat that transports the executed prisoners. Even the guards and we want to travel to and from Broken Lake Prison by taking that boat, without exception. The materials in the prison are also being transported.

The prisoner was sent here by the way.”

Although I think with my toenails, I know that the ship must be heavily guarded, and there is no way for death row prisoners to hide in the ship and escape, but at least there is a correct thinking direction to avoid the interruption of Ah Xiu thinking about digging through the sewer and running out. This awkward situation of the meal time of the shark in the fingers.

“Are there really no exceptions?”

Ya Xiu just asked casually, without expecting anything, but the medical doctor nodded after thinking about it for a moment.

“It is true. According to the law, if the mayor receives extremely serious accusations during his tenure, but no key evidence similar to memory evidence is found, the mayor must immediately remove all duties and be temporarily detained in the nearest Blood Moon Prison. -The Blood Moon Prison in Kaimon City has only one in Fragment Lake Prison-accepts temporary isolation, and waits until the crime hunting department’s investigation is over before resuming the original post or imprisoning on the spot.”

Ya Xiu was a little surprised: “I can’t find any memory evidence, can’t it prove my innocence?”

The therapist nodded and shook his head: "Generally speaking, this is the case, but there are magic spirits that reprogram memories, such as 'overwrite', 'cutting', 'erasing' and so on. Although memory editing is a first-class felony. Both the magician and the subject must be severely punished, but most politicians and parliamentarians with dirty hands and feet will re-edit their memories, and the crime hall cannot tell the truth from the false for a while."

"Therefore, in the investigation of important people, the memories of all close objects are basically searched, and the memories of others can also be used as evidence of conviction. If no evidence is found, it means that it is a false accusation."

"Have the mayor been jailed before?"

"There have probably been three or four times in history, right? I just remember that every time it was reinstated as the mayor, the reputation soared, and even the end of the re-election."

"That means the mayor is innocent?"

"It is generally believed that." The medical doctor said lightly: "After all, there are no loopholes in the process."

"But no matter how good a system is, people are only implementing it."

"Did you use this reason to explain to the hunters when you were caught?"

This time passed quickly. Things like the mayor's imprisonment and isolation are too rare to be included in the plan.

Ya Xiu put forward several whimsical ideas, such as replacing him with a prison guard, such as hanging on a boat, such as hiding in a trash bucket, the medical practitioner rejected his ideas one by one, and expressed fear at his last thought.

During the conversation, a bell suddenly rang outside, and the medical therapist screamed: "It's 12 o'clock. Go back to the dormitory. When you meet the prison guard, you will say that the treatment has been delayed. Don't detour in the middle. Contribution."

Ya Xiu nodded, and put on Nagu's pair of 'Shadow King' boots, feeling that these cool boots did not match the prison uniform. Isn't it justified that you don't deserve a set of cool clothes if you wear such good boots?

"Wait," Ah Xiu suddenly realized something: "What time is it?"

"At 12 o'clock, it was just a bell to remind the magician to enter the virtual realm, because after 12 o'clock, the blood moon will make the link between our magician and the virtual realm stronger, and the soul energy will recover faster when exploring the virtual realm. "The medical doctor shrugged:

"But it has nothing to do with you."

Ya Xiu blinked, a drop of cold sweat dripped on his forehead.

He used to make an appointment with Jian Ji to enter the Void Realm around ten o'clock in the evening, so now...

.....

...

Void Realm, the sea of knowledge, the island of inheritance.

Zzizi—

The thunder entwined with the iron whip is roaring wanton, the iron whip that drives the thunder is invincible, the air is full of free electric arcs, and the sand is split into glass crystals!

“Being righteous and sublime, it is dreamy and psychic.”

The mine bearer chanted strange and incomprehensible poems with a hoarse voice. He was topless, his brown skin was covered with black tattoos that looked like mathematical figures. There was no hair on his face, his pupils were bloodshot, and he was dancing with his hands. Thunder and lightning iron whip, like two thunder barriers to protect the left and right!

Sonia panted, propped on the ground with a wooden sword, her hair still had burnt ashes, her face was full of exhaustion and fear, her figure was blurred and dim, as if she was about to be swallowed by white mist in the next second.

‘I’m going to hand over my Void Realm First Death so soon, but Felix hasn’t died once, so I’m not going to short Professor Trozan by half his head? But I heard from Senior Sister Leonie that she gave up her first death when she entered the Void Realm for the second time, and I don’t know if it was true...’

Sonia is not afraid of death. The magician will eventually die in the Void. Even the legendary magician ‘Spellbinder’ Metas of the Starry Nation has said that she died in the Void 21 times. Very proud—‘I have died less among the Four Wings’.

For the magician, death in the Void Realm is almost the same as Tune Xiu. Although you don’t want to meet it, you can’t do anything about it. You can only accept the bad news and think about how to spend the next period without going to work in the Void Realm. Time off for clocking in.

Sonia also knows that her first death will not affect Professor Trozan’s evaluation of her. Early death is just bad luck, and late death may not be a good thing.

There are some losses, some lessons, the magician must experience it personally to gain experience.

is just a young man, who has never had such an illusion—

‘I may be the first immortal magician in history’.

Seeing this achievement is about to declare a failure, but Sonia is not discouraged. After all, she can insist on entering the Void Realm for the fourth time before giving up her first death, which has already defeated 99% of the magicians.

Most of the magicians greeted their first death the first time they entered the Void Realm. Among them, drowning is the most common. Although countless magician notes have repeatedly emphasized not to dive into the sea of knowledge, the magician who is soaked in the sea, it's hard to resist the urge to look at the bottom of the sea.

This time I entered the virtual realm on time at 11 o'clock. Sonia found that the viewer did not come, and naturally there was no boat, so she was directly soaked in the water.

I didn't feel it when I was sitting on the boat. When people were soaking in the water, it was really hard for Sonia not to think about everything under the water—is there any fish? Is there a sea floor? Is there a treasure?

The most indispensable thing for a machinist is curiosity.

So after suppressing her yearning for the bottom of the sea, Sonia cast her gaze to the surrounding white mist.

Soaking in the water and shouting for several times, the viewers did not respond. Sonia had to accept the fact that the viewer did not explore the virtual world with her this time—this is normal, and exploring the virtual world alone is every magician. In her daily life, it is a miracle that she can explore the virtual realm with the viewers. It is almost as ridiculous as the teacher brought the teacher over for the student's open-book exam as a reference tool.

But Sonia is not disturbed, on the contrary, she is like a child who has broken away from the supervision of her parents, enthusiastically exploring the void by herself.

But Sonia soon fell into a daze. Without the guidance of the viewer, the white misty eyes cannot pass through, and Sonia has no idea where to go, so she can only find a direction to swim there.

Swimming consumes more soul energy than sitting on a boat. After swimming for more than an hour, Sonia feels that she is more tired than helping her mother harvest wheat when she was a child, and she wants to take the initiative to quit the virtual world.

But Voidland didn't seem to want Sonia to go back empty-handed. She was throwing around like this, and she found an island of inheritance.

Sonia naturally hurried to the island to accept the test. She is now very confident, holding the miracle of "Shuiyue" that can kill Leonie-senpai in her hand. She even feels that the sea of knowledge has no place where she can't get involved. .

Then she was beaten badly.

Inheritance Kojima's magician is a thunder magician holding two nine-section steel whips. In factional restraint, both thunder and swordsmanship are known for their violent attacks, and there is no restraint relationship.

However, as soon as she touched her, Sonia was slammed like a top by the mine holder.

The Thunderbearer didn't use many magic spirits, but his combat system and combat experience completely crushed Sonia. He attached the thunder to the nine-section whip, which can be used as a whip spear stab from far away, or as an iron lock to draw horizontally, attacking like thunder, defending like a mighty barrier.

When he danced the thunder nine-section whip, Sonia did not even dare to get close.

The wave sword was offset by the whip shield, and the moon silk was easily torn by the thunder whip. Even the counterattack miracle “Shuiyue” that Sonia had high hopes for was easily broken by the thunder bearer with a nine-section whip penetrating the stab—Shuiyue although The Veliki is extremely fast, but the attack range is still too short.

No wonder that Xujing is the best teacher, Sonia has to admit that she has learned it. She used to think that swordsmanship was just the casting medium of Shuling, but when she saw the impeccable nine-section whip skill of the thunderbearer, she knew that she was still far away—truly powerful swordsmanship should be able to deal with any situation, not like it is now. Be overwhelmed by the drawing.

However, Sonia did not sit still.

She glanced at the sea behind from the corner of her eye, and the edge of the island was not far away.

As long as she seizes the opportunity, she may not have the chance to escape.

The mine bearer will definitely chase, but she will never leave the island. Sonia can only hope that the sea can block his damage and gain some time to escape. Once she reaches the safe area, she has time to search for the door of truth in Shu Ling, exit the virtual realm directly, and return to reality in consciousness.

She secretly vowed to go to a swimming class tomorrow. Dog swimming is too slow.

Zzizi—

The nine-section whip on the right hand of the mine holder suddenly deformed and turned into a whip spear, piercing like thunder!

It's now!

Sonia hits a wave sword, and she will jump into the sea when she retreats.

However, the mine bearer seemed to have expected it. The nine-section whip in his left hand was directly thrown out, spinning and dancing in the air, like a thunder boomerang, cutting to the bottom of Sonia!

is over.

Sonia must jump up at this time, otherwise the spin of the nine-section whip will wrap her legs and trip her in place, and the thunder on it is not a decorative special effect. The strong current is enough to make her unable to move within a few seconds!

But when he jumped up, he was in the arms of the mine holder. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com his thunder whip gun will continue to extend until it penetrates Sonia's chest!

can only bet that he can jump faster than his whiplash!

Sonia clenched her teeth and leaped hard, and she was able to escape from the farthest attack range of the thunder whiplash. At this moment, the lightning bearer suddenly turned his wrist, and the spiral thunderstorm erupted from his wrist all the way to the front of the whiplash. A thunder whip suddenly exploded, speeding up at Sonia like a hidden weapon flying knife!

"Small speakers!"

Sonia looked distraught, couldn't help but yelled, and secretly prayed for a miracle to happen.

A miracle did happen-with a snap, Sonia actually noticed something hit her back and stopped in the air!

In this vast ocean, how can anything appear on the surface of the ocean?

Could it be that a mud ichthyosaur wanted to jump out and breathe in the air, and happened to have a water traffic accident with her?

Zzizi—

Facing the thunder whip that was close at hand, Sonia was hit by the fear of death for a while, her head was blank, and she subconsciously closed her eyes.

Ding!

“Um?”

After waiting for two seconds, Sonia found that she had not escaped from the virtual realm.
More importantly, she found that she had stepped on the ground instead of falling into the sea, so she opened one eye to observe the situation.

She saw an air current barrier like a sword emerge in front of her, thunder whip made ripples on it, but it could not penetrate.

looked down, it was a familiar boat.

“You are so lucky to have me here.”

turned her head and saw the viewer emerging from the white mist, Sonia had only one thought left in her mind:

Damn it, let him pretend.

Technician's Manual - Chapter 63

Zizizi——

The mine-holder recalled the nine-section whip that had flown out. At this time, the boat had landed and was still within his attack range. He grabbed one end of the nine-section whip and danced with both hands, and the thunder whip lashed out black marks on the sand, and took a step back suddenly.

Sonia turned pale when she saw this, and quickly hid behind Ya Xiu: "Be careful!"

However, it was too late. The lightning bearer slammed forward and flicked with his hands crossed. The two nine-section thunder whips bite like a hinge and cut to Ya Xiu fiercely!

This is Sonia's ruthless move to almost be drawn out of the psychological shadow. Although it is not even a miracle, because of the kinetic energy of the nine-segment whip and the characteristics of thunder, the destructive power is very large, and it is extremely difficult to evade. The pain almost caused the soul to tremble from the draw, which was comparable to a little toe kicking the middle of the cabinet and breaking the toenail by the way.

"Quiet, it made me think about the ultimate mystery of the world."

Yaxiu raised his eyebrows, and slammed the boat with his sword. The sword barrier that enveloped them suddenly glowed with a golden light, and the front side hardly shook the deadly thunder cutter of the mine holder!

Sword Body Barrier, a move that integrates defense and counterattack, is definitely not a single magic spirit that can be cast, but a miracle composed of multiple magic spirits!

When she thought of this, Sonia couldn't help feeling a little depressed-she originally wanted to show off her strength in the water moon miracle, and warn the viewers not to manipulate her like that in the future, but now she is not only saved by the viewers. Now, and the viewer changes hands and uses a miracle that is not inferior to the anti-counterfeiting miracle?

Did he intentionally wait for me to be in danger before he popped up to get my mentality?

Sonia was thinking wildly behind, but Ya Xiu was looking at the familiar sword barrier in front of him, feeling a little unspeakable in her heart for some reason.

“Sorry, I am in a bad mood now.”

Ya Xiu raised a finger.

“So, what I am going to do to you next is pure venting.”

铮!

When a sword sound surpasses the thunder, the thunder bearer immediately retreats and dances the nine-section whip into a two-sided thunder shield to resist the flash of light flying in the air!

“Heart swordsmanship spirit!”

Sonia recognized the signature Shu Ling of the swordsmanship department at a glance, her eyes were almost glaring: “Where do you come from the heart swordsman spirit? Do you know the heart sword posture? Teach me just as I beg you!”

is like a child encountering the most beloved bubble ejector, Sonia can hardly conceal her desire for this magic spirit.

There is a rumor of the “Wu Shuang Secret Sword Five Spirits” in the swordsmanship department, which means that as long as you have one of these five magic spirits, you can use this as the main magic spirit to form a perfect swordsmanship system.

Heart Jianshu Ling is one of the five spirits of Wushuang Secret Sword.

In addition, there are also the terms ‘Secret Sword Twenty-One Spirit’ and ‘Wonderful Sword Fifty Spirits’.

Sonia possesses the Wave Swordsmanship Spirit, which is one of the ‘Mighty Sword Fifty Spirits’.

However, even the bottom tier of the “Wonderful Sword and Fifty Spirits” should not be underestimated. It is necessary to know that the first Duke of Vosloda established his status as a “swordsmen nobleman” by virtue of the wave swordsmanship system. In Galaxy, there are not a few swordsmen who sell themselves to the Vosroda family in order to obtain the Wave Swordsmanship Spirit.

As a surgeon with Wave Swordsmanship, Sonia has personally experienced the power and potential of Wave Sword, so what are the “Secret Sword Twenty-One Spirit” and “Wu Shuang Secret Sword Five Spirits” that are better than Wave Sword. Powerful?

Seeing that Jian Ji, who has always been pulling, was shocked by him, Ya Xiu was very helpful, “Don’t worry, wait until I get rid of this juggler, and then talk slowly.”

“Um!”

Sonia looked forward to watching the spectator show off her power, watching the heart sword attack, being bounced away by the mine bearer, the heart sword thrusting away, being bounced away by the mine bearer, the heart sword stabling around the back, and being bounced by the mine bearer.

go.....

“You... have a lot of room for improvement in your swordsmanship.”

“I have consumed his physical strength and exposed him many flaws. Go ahead, don't waste this opportunity for revenge that I specially prepared for you.”

Sonia increasingly believes that the viewer is an old monster resurrected.

After thousands of years of fighting, how can you make such a thick skin?

She murmured a few words in her heart, and jumped to kill the mine holder. Ya Xiu was not idle either, and summoned a sword-holding stand-in, plus his heart sword, and the three parties simultaneously attacked the mine holder.

After all, the thunder bearer only has two nine-section whips. The front side can't guard against the back, and the back can't guard against the side. The double whip is hard to defeat the three swords.

After the fierce man meets Wanfu, he finally whistles a weird poem. Drinking hatred on the spot, turned into light smoke, exploded two magic spirits and a magician manual.

「Lei Go」

“One Wing Shu Ling”

“Restriction: The medium used must have a certain degree of conductivity.”

“Basic effect: output a lightning bolt.”

“Passive effect: The conductivity of the body gradually increases.”

“Fire is the enlightener of wisdom, and Ray is the defender of reason. So when you meet an unreasonable fool, do you know what to do?””

...

「Texture」

“One Wing Shu Ling”

“Restriction: You must use Shu Ling’s excrement to draw lines on the object in advance.”

“Basic effect: Most magical effects will flow along the lines.”

“Passive effect: The texture is gradually fixed until it cannot be erased.”

“The road is under the feet, the road is on the body, the road is in the heart.”

‘Leizou’ looks like a praying mantis, while ‘Wenlu’ looks like a silkworm baby. There is no doubt that these two magic spirits are a very simple miracle combination: first depict the lines, and then let the lightning flow in the lines, and turn the one-time consumed lightning into a continuous enhancement state. It is a very simple and practical miracle idea. .

No wonder the mine bearer was covered with messy graphic tattoos just now. It turned out that the circuit was carved on his body.

But compared to this miracle, Ya Xiu paid more attention to the information revealed in Shu Ling’s introduction.

“Shuling still shit?”

“Why not? Have you seen Shu Ling eat gold and silver coins? The gold and silver coins are all consumed. If Shu Ling doesn’t shit, there will be a missing link in the circulation system, and there will only be fewer and fewer gold and silver coins in the world. “

Sonia said naturally: “Because Shu Ling will shit, gold and silver coins can continue to circulate. The silver coins you feed Shu Ling now may be the **** of a certain Shu Ling for thousands of years.”

“Fortunately, I am not Shuling.” Ash mumbled, “When will Shuling shit? I’ll let them out in advance.”

“How do I know, I don’t have this kind of voyeurism.”

“what?”

“You don’t need to prepare in advance. Shu Ling will sneak out and excrete on its own. Anyway, their excrement can be blown away by a gust of wind, and almost no one can find it. If you need to collect Shu Ling’s feces, call it out to feed, and then Just cover the waiting with something.”

“Secretly... sneak out? How can they sneak out without the permission of the magician?”

“Shu Ling has its ideas and its life.”

Sonia shrugged: “When you need them, of course they will listen to the instructions of the surgeon, but when your consciousness is not very concentrated, such as sleep, such as wandering, such as reading, they have a certain amount of freedom, and they will take advantage of you. When you are not paying attention, run out quickly to get some breath. After a long time of indulge, some magicians will find that they are very slow when summoning Shu Ling. Basically, Shu Ling ran too far to come back.”

Yaxiu understands, isn't this just fishing.

Although he had tried his best to treat Shuling as an intelligent creature, he didn't expect to be so intelligent. He even learned the bad human habit of fishing. However, since they used the time of fishing to poop, instead of fishing for the reason of pooping, Ya Xiu didn't care about this.

After a simple discussion, the matching Shu Ling of Lei Go and Wen Lu seemed to be sold at a high price in Sonia's school, so these two Shu Lings were given to her.

As for keeping it for their own use, neither of them have such thoughts-the thunder technique faction can be called the most painful, tiring, most painful and violent system, practicing thunder technique from scratch, it sounds daunting.

As long as you sail far enough in the sea of knowledge, there will be many opportunities for picking up sets of magic spirits like this. If every time he finds a whole set of magic spirits and thinks about using it by himself, then the magician will not have enough energy to use it.

Learning to choose is a compulsory course for the surgeon~www.mtnovel.com~ As for the handbook for the surgeon, it was naturally used by Asia. Sonia was defeated by just reading the first page, and she even went to the side to retching.

Actually, it was okay in Ya Xiu's opinion, but it was just a 'Cult Sacrifice Record', which was a bit cruel.

is almost comparable to the evil that Heath had done.

It seems that among the cults, the Four Pillar Gods cult is also considered to be a particularly fierce group.

After reading the sacrificial record of the Thunderbearer, Ya Xiu naturally learned a new skill:

‘Skinning Proficiency’.

Fortunately, there are no restrictions. It should be useful to eat a bunny in the wild after escaping from prison.

After dealing with the spoils, Ah Xiu sat on the bow of the boat, and the old **** was there.

Sonia sat in the stern and said nothing.

When the inheritance island was completely sunk, the boat still remained silent.

For a long time, Sonia still couldn’t bear it, and a few words broke out from the corner of her mouth: “Where did your sword skills come from?”

“Well, since you asked sincerely, I can’t tell you compassionately—“

I knew, Sonia scolded viciously in her heart, and gave him another chance to pretend!

In fact, Ya Xiu wanted to show off a long time ago. He coughed slightly, and stretched out his hand to call out three magic spirits. From left to right are the golden single-winged sword, the two-winged swordsman like a clay sculpture, and the pale green single-winged bird.

“Heart sword, earth sword, wind wall, these are the magic spirits I just got. Heart sword and wind wall are one wing, earth sword has two wings.”

“Just got it? Just to get these three magic spirits, so you are late?”

“The same can be said.”

Ya Xiu looked into the depths of the white mist, seeming to be watching a drifting phantom.

“After all, their original owner just killed me once.”

Technician’s Manual - Chapter 64

Medical therapist [222] That’s right.

Blood Moon Trial is indeed the only opportunity for death row prisoners to trade magic spirits.

Ya Xiu looked at the three magic spirits in his hands, as if he could still see Varkas’s cold and thin face.

The sword that pierced his throat contained five magic spirits that Varkas had just cancelled.

As long as he moves a little slower, as long as his consciousness dissipates faster, now these three magic spirits will escape at the fastest speed. Rao Ya Xiu was as fast as possible, but two Shu Ling still escaped. I don’t know if they are riding a finger shark to enjoy the freedom of surfing in Broken Lake.

As for why Varkas did this, there are too many reasons.

Because Ya Xiu defeated him,

Because he wanted to avenge Schilling,

Because I am grateful to Ya Xiu for his hospice care, may also be because it’s not too big for him to simply watch the excitement...

A dying elf, what he would do, Ya Xiu would not be surprised, except for the point where Varkas pierced his throat-Ya Xiu strongly suspected that he was holding a grudge and wanted to avenge his throat cut in the death fight.

Only in this way, Varkas posed a problem for Ya Xiu.

Although the time of crossing is not long, Ya Xiu clearly realizes that he is incompatible with this world.

However, he didn't plan to blend in either.

He can't change this magician world, nor does he intend to let the magician world change him.

There is no his family here, and all he will encounter in the future will be strangers.

Although the power of the magician is unpredictable and strange, there may not be a magical miracle that can bring Ah Xiu home, but Ya Xiu has no hope for this.

He is not the kind of person who has to rely on any hope to survive.

Coupled with the life threat of the Blood Moon Trial, and the breathless absolute control of Broken Lake Prison, Ya Xiu has always had the subtle mentality of 'live a day and earn a day'.

Besides, if you can traverse once, you may not be able to traverse a second time. This time I came to the world of machinists, and maybe next time I could go to the world of machinists, Asia Xiu was blindly optimistic about his journey to the heavens.

Precisely because of this optimistic mentality of not knowing if it was because of suddenly not having to go to work, Ya Xiu had a 'bystander' mentality for everyone he met. He will sympathize with other people's experiences, and feel the lives and deaths of others, but he will forget when he turns his head, just like watching a movie.

Viewer, this name actually fits him.

Watch without doing, watch without saying, watch without remembering.

He is like a wandering lone boat, drifting with the waves, facing the mainland with fear.

And now, there is a burden on the lone boat, and a mark appears in the memory.

Although the magician does not need to sleep, when he dreams back at midnight, Ya Xiu feels that he will definitely dream of the last look in Varkas's eyes.

Of course he would not think that he was responsible for Varkas's death, but Varkas's last gift made Yaxiu feel that he had to do something for Varkas in return.

He does not like others owe him, nor does he like to owe others.

He must escape from prison, must find Professor Xi Lin, must survive.

Otherwise, I feel that I have failed Varkas's kindness and the three magic spirits he presented.

Maybe, this is his real revenge?

At the cost of life, death as a ritual, silence as a spell, and magic spirits as bait, Varkas exhausted everything and cursed Axiu to live.

There is no more vicious curse than "to live" for their group of death row prisoners in Broken Lake.

"He is a true swordsman."

After listening to Ya Xiu's bizarre blood moon trial experience tonight, Sonia couldn't help but sigh, and then added: "And she's a generous good elf."

“He is generous, but he is definitely not a good elf. He is being detained in Broken Lake Prison for his performance.” Ah Xiu said, “But elf and human beings can’t simply use ‘good’ or ‘bad’. Divided, only gods or demons can have pure good or pure evil...the one who vacillates in it is human.”

“With so much emotion, is this the first time you saw a dead person after amnesia?”

Amnesia? Yes, the previous Heath made many deaths with his own hands...Axiu nodded: “It should be said that this is the first time I have seen a person dead in front of me.”

“So you don’t have the intelligence of the heart sword posture?”

“of course not.”

“Damn it!” Sonia looked at the Heart Swordsmanship in Ya Xiu’s hand unwillingly: “Such a good Swordsmanship, it’s so ruined in your hands... But in this way, your miracle is more than just a miracle. Is there a magic spirit missing?”

“Yes, if you are lucky, you might be able to gather all the magic spirit you need tonight.”

Ya Xiu let out a sigh of relief, “That’s how there is so little hope of escape from prison.”

Slash me miracle requires three kinds of magic spirits, and the three kinds of magic spirits have multiple secondary choices, not specific to a certain magic spirit. Most miracles can achieve similar effects by substituting the same type of magic spirit, at most, the range of power is different.

If Shuling is a building block, then a miracle is a building with a specific appearance. As long as you can compose this building, no matter whether the building blocks you use are cubes, triangles, or cones, it is considered that you have achieved a miracle.

Heart sword and double body are all magical spirits that meet the requirements. The double body is considered to be quite satisfactory, while the heart sword is a sledgehammer. It is estimated that the person who created the miracle of killing me never thought that someone would be extravagant to use the Wushuang Secret Sword Five One of the spirits is used as the composition of the magic spirit.

As long as he finds the last kind of magic spirit, Na Ya Xiu can use the chip of the miracle-slashing neck purify.

“Prison Break...” Sonia murmured: “That is to say, your body is in the prison of the blood moon kingdom, and is threatened by the blood moon trial, and there is no previous memory...”

Have no previous memories? Well, he really doesn't have any memories of Heath.

Ah Xiu looked at her strangely when he heard the words, “Didn't you know it a long time ago? My body was identified as the cult leader of the Four Pillar Gods. I was arrested by the hunters in an illegal gathering in the basement, but this body is so weak. It must be a scapegoat.”

Yes, the viewer told her before that he was locked up in a certain prison. She thought it was a hidden prison, but she did not expect it to be the prison of the Blood Moon Kingdom—though the Blood Moon Kingdom is so far away that it only exists. The nouns in the books, but after all I have heard of it, Sonia has a feeling of 'but that's it'.

“With your strength, can't you even escape from the prison of the blood moon country?”

“What do you mean by my strength- don't you know that I am a trash?”

“Hehe, trash? Can you force me to challenge Leonie's trash? Then what am I, the poor creature controlled by trash? A toy that will be pitted to death by you at any time?”

Although she learned the miracle of the water moon because of a blessing in disguise, Sonia was still very angry.

It's nothing more than the last challenge to Felix. After all, Felix is not far behind her, and there is still a little chance of winning, but this time the gap between Leonie and her is simply ridiculous, if it wasn't for Leonie deliberately. Be merciful, she didn't have the opportunity to use the water moon at all.

Good luck this time, I met Leonie, what about next time?

Next time?

There are quite a few cruel heroes in the magician community. It is okay to say that young practitioners such as students, but many older practitioners have experienced too much danger and death in the long and lonely exploration of the virtual realm, and a conscience has been cut into a hideous shape by the cold wind of the sea of knowledge.

They are gradually unable to distinguish the difference between reality and imaginary realm. They subconsciously act without mercy in the face of the enemy, as if they think that killing the enemy can explode the spoils. What's more, they directly become the 'sinking demon', treating reality as a imaginary realm everywhere. Massacre.

Although Sonia is very opinionated about compulsory training, she feels that it is for her own good, and she can persuade herself to accept it, but now the viewers actually let her take the initiative to participate in dangerous battles, Sonia can only persuade herself to try her best. Don't blow up the viewer's head first-because it seems a bit overwhelming.

"Is it so serious..." Ah Xiu tried to confuse him.

"I was the one who was going to fight and kill, I was the one who was injured, and I was the one who was hanging by a thread. Only I have the right to say whether it is serious or not!" Sonia tried to suppress her anger: “Do you have to watch me change? When I became a corpse, I sighed, “I seem to have made a wrong judgment?”

How can it be so serious, and you won't die... When Adam was a bit disapproving, a thought came to his mind: Is Jian Ji really not going to die?

There are precedents for game characters in mobile games that are defeated and killed. If it is to force krypton, the company may actually load this setting, and then sell resurrection coins and other molesting players.

And Jian Ji has repeatedly stated that she is not dependent on Asia. She also has her own life, the university she lives in, and the friends she knows. She is real... and truth is the most distant term from immortality.

Even if Jian Ji can be resurrected after the battle, will the resurrected Jian Ji be the Jian Ji who has known him for many days?

Ya Xiu can't afford the risk of losing Jian Ji.

is not just because of power.

Because Jian Ji is the only person he can trust and confide in.

No matter how small a lone boat is, it would feel too empty for a person to ride.

“Well, what you said is very reasonable, I apologize.” Ya Xiu deliberately said: “But you should know that I am also for your good. If it were not for my arrangement, you would not create a miracle of water and moon so soon. ?”

“What does this have to do with your arrangement—”

“Because I know that when you fight with that Leo, you will enter the state of awakening because of the big difference in strength, thereby creating your own miracle, and you will not encounter any danger. Everything is within my plan. “

“You obviously even remembered the other person’s name wrong!”

“This is not important-the point is that I am sure that you can get a lot of benefits with a small price.”

Looking at Jian Ji’s still uneasy appearance, Ya Xiu thought for a while and said, “Well, if I want to arrange for you to participate in a more dangerous battle in the future, I will discuss with you in advance, how about?”

This is almost the same.

Seeing that the viewer finally gave in, Sonia was already very satisfied. In fact, even if the viewer insisted on doing her own way, she would have nothing to do with the viewer, and the first time she gave up, there was the second time, and there was a post that Sonia was able to subdue the viewer.

Sonia is also very relieved of the promise of the viewer. Although the viewer is usually a bastard, she is still reliable in doing things. Coupled with the suspected rebirth of the legend, his judgment should be fine.

If Sonia knows that the way for Ashura to judge the danger is to look at the description of the incident card, and the duel with Leonie is only dangerous, maybe she won’t feel relieved in the future.

“Speaking of which, how did you find me?” Sonia suddenly remembered this.

“I entered the virtual world from the door of truth you left behind, and then I found you all the way.”

Ya Xiu returned to the bedroom and opened the light curtain, and found that Jian Ji hadn't waited for him, and the character status was 'Exploring the Void'.

Yaxiu originally thought that he had missed the bus, but fortunately there was an option of 'join in midway'. However, he did not directly descend to Jian Ji, but appeared at the initial place where Jian Ji entered the Void Realm tonight.

In and out of the virtual realm, one must pass through the gate of truth. This is the rule. If it wasn't for the **** connection, it would be impossible for Ya Xiu to enter the void through the gate of truth left by Jian Ji.

Sonia is not surprised that the viewer can know where she is. She just has one doubt: “But I have been swimming in the virtual world for almost two hours, why are you here so quickly?”

“Two hours? But you are only one area away from the initial location. I found you after more than a minute of sailing.”

“how is this possible!”

“Why did I lie to you? Wait, UU reading www.uukahnsu.com, you said you swam for two hours, don't you...have been spinning around here?”

Sonia blinked her eyes and sat down calmly, looking sideways at the white mist in the distance, and said, “I just think you shouldn't be absent for no reason, so you have been exploring nearby.”

If you didn't blush to the root of your ears, I would almost believe you.

Yaxiu snorted and opened the map of the virtual world under Sonia's faint gaze.

Because he is equipped with the Void Binoculars, he can now observe the information in the surrounding 24 grid areas, most of which are “in vain”, and there is one “worth a visit.” A Xiu is not in a hurry, so he can sail slowly and stroll around.

“What about your miracle just now?” Sonia suddenly thought of it, “Varkas gave you the magic spirit, but did not give you the miracle technique?”

Yaxiu said casually: “I saw him use it once before, and I used the earth sword and wind wall to make it out. But I am not a Second Wing Sorcerer, so my defense power is far inferior to the genuine one he used.”

I saw it once, combined it, and it came out?

Is this miracle so simple?

Earth Sword is a swordsmanship system, and Windwall is a windmanship system. Cross faction miracles have always been difficult...

Sonia felt something was wrong. At this time, Ya Xiu found a sparkling golden legend on the map—“Vortex”.

“Do you know what whirlpool means?”

Sonia was startled: “Did you find the whirlpool?”

“Probably-“

“Hurry up, go over!” Sonia rushed to catch Ya Xiu swaying wildly, excited as if she had picked up a lottery ticket in the toilet but found it was the first prize: “If we are lucky, maybe we will be tonight.

You can condense the Silver Wings!”

Technician's Manual - Chapter 65

Whirlpool, also known as the shortcut to fate, the step into the body, the last luck of the cursed, is an extremely rare natural wonder in the sea of knowledge.

The natural wonders are completely different from other virtual existences. Knowledge creatures have habitats, inheritance islands and adventure islands can remain unchanged for thousands of years unless a magician steps into them, while natural wonders appear at random times and places, and disappear after a certain period of time. The rumors of the virtual realm are most like fabricated rumors.

If a magician with bad luck can meet knowledge creatures, inheritance islands, and adventure islands in his life, then even the lucky magician may not encounter the whirlpool once in his life, which can be called the ultimate lucky test. Device.

The reason why people who meet Maelstrom are so envied and hated is that Maelstrom's powerful power—Void Realm Transfer!

The magician who stepped into the whirlpool will appear in another whirlpool in the sea of knowledge.

Although it sounds wonderful, how can a small space transfer arouse the desire of the magicians?

This is because the vortex does not simply transfer, but allows the magician to pass through the mysterious passage in the vortex, passing through countless areas in the sea of knowledge in just a few seconds; at the same time, the magician is sailing in the sea of knowledge. The farther it is, the more mana it absorbs.' This basic rule hasn't expired either!

If the two vortexes are separated by thousands of miles, then as long as the magician passes through this vortex channel, it is equivalent to sailing for thousands of miles in the Sea of Knowledge, directly absorbing the mana that is enough to condense the entire Silver Wing!

How can this not make the magicians crazy?

An ordinary magician wants to condense Silver Wings, theoretically only needs two to three years of sailing, but the premise is that the magician does not die in the sea of knowledge—because in addition to the more magic power, the greater the death penalty is the 'death cooldown' In addition, the magicians actually have a sword of Damocles hanging over their heads: the more magic power, the greater the probability that the magicians will encounter danger!

Every time the magician opens the door of truth and enters the virtual realm, the place where he descends is actually different, not the place after the last exploration.

The more powerful the magician's mana is, the closer the place they descend to the Void Realm will be to the core sea area of the Sea of Knowledge. The small inheritance islands and knowledge creatures in the core waters will not only explode more lucrative loot, but also more dangerous!

I don't know how many official magicians were attacked by knowledge creatures as soon as they entered the Void Realm before they could gather Silver Wings. They turned around and ran away and met more fierce knowledge creatures. territory.

Explore for a few minutes and cool down for more than ten days, which is often a true portrayal of these 'half-step great perfection' practitioners.

Therefore, it is not unreasonable for the vortex to be jokingly called the "last luck of the cursed": not only that the magician who encounters the vortex will consume his life's luck, but also that the magician who has suddenly increased in mana is exploring the sea of knowledge. It will be quite difficult in the high-difficulty area, and may even be autistic because of the low-level division and the high-level division.

Even so, no magician would not yearn for the whirlpool. Moreover, where the base of the magician is large enough, the lucky whirlpool will occasionally show up one or two—for example, Senior Sister Leonie, who beat Sonia in the morning, because she gathers Silver Wings faster, many students Everyone felt that she had encountered a short-distance whirlpool, and everyone was so jealous of envy!

After listening to Sonia's introduction, Ya Xiu couldn't help but get excited. He is now the person who most desperately needs strength, and every point he gets stronger, there is more hope of escape from prison!

And suddenly there were three more magic spirits, and his magic power was obviously not enough.

Heart Sword and Wind Wall Fortunately, the Earth Swordsmanship Spirit is a two-winged skill spirit, and it is a faucet that consumes mana, but its effect is not even one-fifth of its power.

Just now, Ya Xiu was able to pretend to be forceful in front of the sword girl, creating a sword body barrier that the thunder bearer could not break. The price was that his mana at this time was already less than one-fifth, and he had to think about how to deceive the sword. Ji fights harder.

The boat passed through the layers of white fog, and soon a vortex appeared in front of them.

is worthy of the evaluation of natural wonders, the vortex is indeed very strange and weird—it is obviously a continuous vortex, but the surrounding sea is as calm as crowds of onlookers, and the current is not driven by the vortex at all.

Even if the boat is less than two meters away from the whirlpool, it does not receive any traction force. If a magician with bad eyesight swims by the whirlpool, he won't find a natural wonder next to him.

"Go, go, the whirlpool may disappear at any time!"

"and many more."

Ah Xiu found that when they entered the vortex area, the map's exploration range suddenly extended two very long routes. In the grid at the farthest end of the two routes, there were two prompts respectively: "Wait a minute" and "No danger, but you It doesn't necessarily come here randomly."

"I think we better wait."

"Is this the effect of your ability to detect?"

"This whirlpool seems to randomly lead to two other whirlpools. One of them needs to wait, and the other is safe."

The last time they waited a while, so when the fox Zhaolong went to sleep, Sonia naturally believed in the judgment of the viewer.

However, after waiting for ten seconds, she saw that the vortex was getting smaller and smaller, and she couldn't help but become anxious: "If you can enter the vortex once, it will be worth even if you die! It means that you can't enter the virtual realm for a few days!"

Ya Xiu glanced at her, "If I can't enter the Void Realm for a few days, then the probability that I will gather all my miracle magic spirits will be even slimmer."

Sonia was speechless.

Compared with life, the increase in mana is really not worth mentioning, but...

She looked at the smaller and smaller whirlpools, she wanted to stop talking, she wanted to stop talking.

“Do you want to go in by yourself? Let me wait until it’s safe to go in?” Ah Xiu saw her thoughts at a glance. “It sounds feasible, but it doesn’t actually work—have you forgotten? I can’t open the door to truth in prison. , If you die, I won’t be able to enter the Voidland. I and you are bound together, and if you lose it, you will lose it.”

“However, UU reading www.uukanshu.com I am not sure if my judgment is correct. After all, there is a half probability of reaching a safe vortex. Even if you are unlucky, there is a dangerous vortex randomly, you may not die. If you miss the whirlpool, you really miss it. If you want to go, I don’t mind.”

“Really don’t mind?”

“do not mind.”

“Will you secretly hate me and avenge me?”

“Will not.”

“Won’t you suddenly turn out this incident and accuse me at some point?”

“Will not.”

“The viewer is really dishonest, even I am a female college student.” Sonia sighed and stared down at the whirlpool: “If you really miss this whirlpool, I will definitely do something wrong every time you do something wrong. I want to scold you this time.”

“I really don’t mind.”

“I don’t believe it, but I will definitely bear the hate for the rest of my life. When I die, I will remember that I missed a whirlpool opportunity.”

Ya Xiu fell: “That’s you, not me, I’m not like you...very stiff.”

“I only believe in myself, so I believe you are such a person.”

Sonia curled her lips.

“I haven’t been selfish enough to think that others are selfless. Anyway, I waited with you this time. You have to remember that I sacrificed a lot this time. It is best to use a small book to write down my credit and what benefits will be gained in the future. Remember to divide me a bit.”

Ya Xiu was slightly startled, and suddenly felt that he had another reason to escape from prison.

Is there really no stranger worthy of his concern in this world? It doesn’t seem to be true either.

“Of course, whenever I have a bite of meat in the future, I will definitely call you over to smell the scent.”

“You are such a small speaker...”

Technician’s Manual - Chapter 66

“Gu...”

In the meditation room, Felix snorted, holding his belly and covering his nose, the red nosebleeds could not stop flowing out, and his forehead was covered with cold sweat.

The abdomen is full of feeling of death.

That is not pain, but empty.

It was like a gap suddenly appeared between the upper body and the lower body. Even if he was holding his belly, it felt like he was holding a piece of pork, without the actual feeling of touching his body at all.

This is the sequelae of the death of the virtual world-the soul is severely injured, and even the sense of reality is lost.

With a whine that seems to be nothing, the ruby on Felix's necklace shattered, and a single-winged spirit body composed of brilliance dissipated in the air.

This is the “Dragon's Belly Scale” of the tool spirit. The effect is to transfer all the death damage suffered by the Void Realm to the abdomen. It is also the secret of the prosperity of the Vosroda family.

When the magician dies in the virtual realm, the fatal blow injury received will be fed back to the soul, resulting in a lack of soul energy.

An incomplete soul cannot pass through the gate of truth, so before the soul energy is restored, the magician will naturally not be able to enter the virtual realm.

And the soul is closely related to the body, no matter which part of the soul energy is missing, it will cause the magician to have a temporary 'soul disability'.

To put it simply, if the chest and soul are injured, the heart will keep beating at a low frequency for a long time, and the surgeon cannot perform any exercise;

If the limbs and soul are injured, the surgeon may not be able to control the hands and feet;

If the head and soul are injured, the surgeon will be in a coma directly.

Until the soul energy is restored, the physical function of the surgeon will not return to normal.

Therefore, navigating thousands of miles in the sea of knowledge, the seemingly undifficult goal, is a horizon that many magicians can never reach—not all magicians can practice full-time, life is not only far away, but also must Taking into account the immediate ambivalence, every death in the Void Realm will cause a lot of losses to the practitioner.

Although death is inevitable and soul damage is inevitable, the magicians still think of many ways to reduce the loss as much as possible.

For example, fix every death and injury to an unimportant part.

“Dragon belly scale” is a secret miracle of the Vosroda family. The family magician extracts the miraculous effect and stuffs it into gems through complicated rituals to form a temporary 'tool spirit'.

When the family magician dies in the virtual realm, the 'tool spirit' in the gem will be activated to transfer all the death damage to the abdomen.

Except that the digestive capacity of the gastrointestinal tract is greatly reduced, and it is necessary to eat liquid food for a few days, the surgeon hardly pays any price.

In addition, the Vosroda family also has a miracle 'Dragon Dinner', which can quickly restore the soul energy in the abdomen through eating, thereby reducing the cooling time of entering the Void Realm.

Through these two miracles, the Vosroda family magician can almost reduce the loss of the death of the virtual world to the minimum, greatly improve the efficiency of the exploration of the virtual world, and greatly increase the chances of the golden two-winged magician and the sanctuary three-winged magician. , This is the foundation of Vosroda's prosperous centuries.

Several other duke families also have similar methods. An excellent wizard training system is almost a standard for a century-old nobleman, otherwise a single generation of talents will be enough to ruin a once glorious starry nobleman.

In front of the Void Realm, the magicians are equal, but some magicians can strive for more equality.

However, reducing the cost of death is already the limit, and the loss will still be lost.

Felix looked inside his own Shu Ling, his eyes went black and almost fainted.

The spirit of the "killing sword" is lost!

When a magician dies in a virtual world, there is a high probability that the magical spirit will be lost. This is because the magical spirit is hidden in the soul. When a part of the soul energy is lost due to death, maybe this part contains a certain magical spirit, and it is also lost along with the situation.

out.

The more Shu Ling, the greater the chance of loss, and the greater the number of lost!

Rao is Felix who was mentally prepared to lose Shu Ling, and he did not expect to lose his most important 'killing sword' on his first death!

That is the relic left to him by his mother, one of the legendary "Secret Sword Twenty-One Spirits"!

It is almost impossible to buy a Shu Ling of this level. Even if it can be purchased, Felix, an unfavored noble master, cannot afford it!

And he hasn't fully grasped the knowledge of the 'killing sword', which means that he cannot summon the 'killing sword' on his own!

What comforted Felix a little, was that his Silver Wings had been frozen in half, shortening the training time for more than a year.

He didn't expect that he would encounter the natural wonder 'vortex' within a few days of entering the Void Realm.

No magician would miss this opportunity, let alone Felix, a power-hungry avenger. However, after stepping into the whirlpool and traveling thousands of miles, he appeared in front of Felix and was a growing ichthyosaur!

In the illustrated book of knowledge creatures, the ichthyosaur is considered to be the one with relatively strong combat power, let alone a growing-up ichthyosaur!

Knowledge organisms are divided into juvenile, growth, mature, and complete stages. In the outer waters of the Sea of Knowledge, only the juvenile period will appear, and the growth period will occur in the inner sea area. The core sea area may have a mature period. As for the perfect body, it will not appear in the sea of knowledge.

Knowing that he would die, Felix tried his best to fight for his life, trying to kill the ichthyosaur one step ahead. But after all, there were too few magic skills and insufficient means. After Felix caused severe damage to the ichthyosaur, he hated the sharp tail of the ichthyosaur.

“I lost the killing sword, half of the silver wings were condensed...”

Felix sighed, and it was difficult to judge whether it was a loss or a gain.

Mana is naturally very important to the magus, but the killing sword is a vital life-saving straw for his current situation-if it were not for the assistance of the killing sword, he would not have been able to avoid multiple assassinations.

“But in this way, I can also inherit more of my mother’s inheritance.”

Felix looked gloomy, clenched his fists, “Wait, Bessel, one day, I will let you kneel and confess your mistakes to your mother...”

Because of my weakness and not moving all night, my chest feels a little uncomfortable and my breathing is difficult to stabilize. Anyway, there is only one in the meditation room. She unwrapped her chest, and two big white rabbits jumped out to breathe free air. She also completely relaxed and rested against the wall for a while.

After half an hour, Felix got dressed and left the meditation building and stepped into the sunlight swaying from the star.

But after all, he had just experienced his first death. Felix felt that he had suddenly lost control of his lower body as he walked. He was about to fall down and quickly supported his figure with a sword bag.

“Oh, why did Master Vosloda get upset early in the morning and lose his temper at the ground?”

held out a hand behind Felix’s shoulder to help stabilize his figure.

Felix looked back and said calmly, “You are in a good mood and you have a good harvest?”

Sonia walked past him refreshedly and raised her eyebrows: “Forget it, you will know it in Professor Trozan’s office this afternoon.”

The villain got the best.

Although Sonia’s talent for swordsmanship is indeed unmatched, Felix also sees her character flaws: love of vanity, inferiority complex, cleverness but not great wisdom... If there is no talent for swordsmanship, Sonia will meet him. Those vulgar female magicians who have ever lived are no different.

And now, at most, she is a vulgar village girl with a talent for swordsmanship.

This is really... enviable.

Others may think that Felix is also a swordsman genius, but he knows well that if it weren’t for the help of the “love cast” Shuling left by his mother, he would never have cultivated the fluctuating posture to the level of summoning Shuling so quickly. .

He also paid a high price for this. At that time, he had no mana and wanted to stimulate his “love cast” mana, so he could only resonate with Shu Ling by constantly changing girlfriends, so that he was notoriously infamous. So far, it has almost become a shame for Vosloda.

But it’s different now.

After crossing the vortex, Sonia has been left far behind by him, and she is not qualified to be his competitor.

His target should be Leonie, the orange dancer, and the monsters in the University of Truth——

“Um?”

Felix suddenly felt a familiar flow.

He raised his head and found that many students were secretly watching Sonia.

The news that Leonie was 'beaten' by Sonia was spread to all the magician universities in Galaxy yesterday. Sonia has undoubtedly become the most popular student now, and she seems to enjoy the attention very much. Leave in a quiet, low-key posture.

However, Felix felt that Sonia seemed to be able to obtain a kind of energy he was most familiar with from these concerns!

“Blind Vision” Shu Ling, activate!

Felix closed his eyes, and the world disappeared in his eyes in an instant, in the darkness ~www.mtlnovel.com~ He saw traces of blood-red smoke flowing into the place where Sonia was!

That is killing intent!

And the passive effect of the 'killing sword' happens to be able to absorb the killing intent of others on oneself!

Although there are a lot of magic spirits that can absorb killing intent, Felix does not know why, and is very sure that Sonia has just received a new 'killing sword' magic spirit!

Could it be that the “killing sword” she got was the one that I was taken away by the Slaying Fish Dragon?

This idea was rejected by Felix as soon as it came out-how could it be such a coincidence.

And the place where Felix fought with the Fish Slayer was near the whirlpool. If it was such a coincidence, wouldn't it mean that Sonia also happened to pass through the whirlpool? But before Felix died, he clearly saw that the vortex had almost shrunk to the point of disappearing.

Sonia should just be lucky, and got another wild 'killing sword' magic spirit.

Felix became hungry with jealousy-this is one of the side effects after the soul is damaged. Any fluctuations in his mood will be directly fed back to the abdominal organs. If you are in a good mood, you will be full, and if you are in a bad mood, you will be too hungry. , And he still can't make big fish, otherwise he just waits for intestinal blockage and constipation.

After calming down, Felix thought about the possibility of acquiring Sonia's 'killing sword'.

But soon he will shake his head.

If you want to grab, Sonia stands behind Professor Trozan;

If you want to buy it, there are many killer swords that people want to buy, and he has no capital to compete.

But the killing sword is very important to him. If there is no hope, it will be fine, but there is a chance to redeem the loss...

Felix gritted his teeth, opened his eyes, and shouted at Sonia who had not yet gone far:

“Sonia!”

Technician's Manual - Chapter 67

Blood Moon Country, Broken Lake Prison.

“If the damage is enough, use an opponent, cut it open happily, and curse yesterday. Waiting for the day into the night, there will be scars left...”

Igola woke up from the big velvet bed, yawned and went to the bathroom to take off his pajamas and caps. First test the temperature with your toes, then lay down in the bathtub filled with warm water regularly, and soaked comfortably in an early morning bath.

In order to be able to take a bath at any time, Igola paid a price of 1 contribution degree/3 days to stay in this superior dormitory, so his contribution degree is actually quite tense. After all, staying here for five months will cost 50 points. Contribution is equivalent to the total initial contribution of a executed prisoner.

But he thinks it is a good value for money, because in addition to Igola's hobby, bathing seems to be the hobby of the 'contract' magic.

During a bath, Igola fell asleep because of exhaustion. In his dimness, he vaguely saw the 'contract' magic spirit riding a little yellow duck, playing in the bathtub.

Although the “contract” magic spirit disappeared immediately after Igula opened his eyes, as if it had never appeared, but Igula believed in his own judgment, and the “contract” magic spirit liked to take a bath very much.

If it is put outside, it is at best an interesting topic in small talk, which has no practical meaning.

Although Shu Ling is undoubtedly wise and has a mood, most magicians seldom pay attention to the situation of Shu Ling. After all, as long as the output of mana, even if Shu Ling is unwilling, he must honestly follow the instructions of the magician. .

However, in Broken Lake Prison, this information has become Igula's life-saving card-in an environment where no one can output mana, the death penalty prisoners can only rely on the resonance of the magical spirit to cast a spell, so the magical spirit will Nothing will happen, it will become a very critical factor!

Although Igola has not been able to be sure so far, he can activate the 'contract' magic spirit almost 100% in prison, whether it has anything to do with the fact that he often takes a bath to please the 'contract' magic spirit.

But as the saying goes, doing too many mistakes, not doing well, the prison is not a place to do research. As long as Igola's contribution is surplus, he will not change his slightly 'luxury' role in life.

slept in the bathtub for a while and went back to sleep. Igola didn't wear any clothes, and dried his body and went directly to wash. He tried to let go of his thoughts, what he didn't want, made himself sluggish, brushing his teeth mechanically in front of the mirror. When he brushed his teeth, his movements were very large, and the toothpaste foam would splash on the mirror.

In a short while, the toothpaste foam splashed on the mirror surface was curved and flowed along the mirror, and it actually formed words.

This means that Igola successfully activated his other magic spirit, 'Revelation'.

'Revelation' Shu Ling is the loot that Igula found in the virtual world before. It has a very wide range of versatility. It can be said that you can activate the 'Revelation' Shu Ling to see the situation before you do anything, and then the surrounding environment will change. Give you some useful reminders.

After being imprisoned, Igola tried many ways to find the right way to hook the “revelation” magic: try to empty the brain when brushing his teeth, but it can’t be completely empty. It must maintain a little bit of “I want to get advice”. Such thoughts can resonate with the magical spirit.

The balance between this is difficult to grasp, and Igola does not succeed every day. Today is lucky.

However, Igola only regarded this process as some minor adjustments in prison life, because most of the suggestions given by the “revelation” are similar to “don’t eat lala at lunch”, “remember to bring tissues”, and “don’t wear underwear.” ‘This kind of little hint.

These suggestions are indeed useful, but only a little.

Even if Igola didn’t do it, there would be no harm.

But this is also normal. After all, Igola has never studied the prophecy faction. It is quite good to be able to use the ‘revelation’ magic to this level.

If the ‘Apocalypse’ Shu Ling gave a very severe warning, then Igola should be afraid-because it means that Igola has come to an extremely important bifurcation of fate, and the unknown curtain of countless fate is close at hand, So that the “revelation” Shu Ling has reacted!

For example, now!

In the horrified eyes of Igola, the white foam of toothpaste left a pale warning on the mirror:

“Don’t respond! Don’t respond!”

This is the first time Igola saw punctuation in the prompt, and it was still an exclamation point!

He calmed down quickly, thinking about whether he should follow the guidance of the revelation.

Because the guidance of revelation is not all correct.

In other words, 'right and wrong pros and cons' itself is a cultural concept of human society, which is very private and secret. The same thing may be viewed by different regions, different races, and even different people. For example, "sleeping in" is not good for some people, while others enjoy it.

It's nothing more than trivial things like 'sleeping in', but even for the big things like 'life and death', many people have their own opinions. Some people think that death is too early, and some people think that it is better to die than to live badly. Sometimes people want to die and sometimes they want to live.

Even human beings themselves can't distinguish between right and wrong. How can Shu Ling be able to distinguish it?

Therefore, the prompts given by the "revelation" Shu Ling are often very short-sighted. It is based on the current state of the magician, and any special accident that causes a change in the current state of the magician will be judged as harmful.

For example, on the day when the revelation suggested 'Don't wear underwear', a prison guard approached Igola and wanted to ask him how to pursue a girl. After all, Igola was handsome and handsome, and had a little Vewa lineage. He looked like a scumbag sea king.

The prison guard has a very delicate appearance, coupled with the long hair, and the temperament of male and female is indistinguishable. Although Igola's sexual orientation is still normal, the Veeva bloodline makes him not only inclined to omnivores but also extremely prone to desires. As a result, he can't help but react and scare the opponent away, missing the opportunity to establish a friendly relationship with the prison guard.

Now that the revelation warns him 'don't respond', will it give him another chance to establish a deep relationship with the prison guard?

But Igola quickly made a decision—if he didn't listen to the revelation, he would suffer!

Anyway, he is living comfortably now, except that he has no freedom to swear. He is actually not bad, eating well, sleeping well, regular work and rest, and complete entertainment facilities.

Besides, he has been in jail for more than a year.

Prison is a very wonderful place. At first, you hate it; later, you get used to it; in the end, you can't live without it.

Igola has become accustomed to this kind of life and has no motivation to change reality.

It's funny. Last night, the Blood Moon Trial was broadcast live. Igola felt a sense of disgust in his heart when he saw the death row prisoner's swearing. It is not a contempt for foul language, but the subconscious feeling that 'swearing is wrong'.

Igola, a 'fraudster' who specializes in loopholes in the law, has gradually become a proponent of the law. When you get used to the shackles, you will recognize or even beautify the meaning of shackles. This is the meaning of Broken Lake Prison, and this is the power of chip transformation.

Leaving the dormitory, Igola walked quickly to the dining room, making up his mind to be silent outside, and to ignore anyone who asked him, and return to the dormitory after breakfast.

He also thought about whether to directly consume contribution points to order meals, and hide in the dormitory all day. But because I lost once to Asia Xiu, my contribution was a bit nervous, so I should try my best to save on unnecessary consumption like eating meals.

It's not just eating and not talking, Igola doesn't believe he can't do it!

Igola held the dinner plate and found a corner to sit down, but in the next second someone was sitting across from him.

"Good morning, my friend Igola! Hey, your lobster ball is good, can you let me have one?"

Igola's mouth squirmed, silently watching Ya Xiu use the rarer chopsticks to clamp the lobster pill.

However, Ya Xiu didn't seem to be very proficient, and the lobster pill flew out of the plate and jumped onto the table.

Ya Xiu blinked, then pinched it, but it still couldn't be pinched, and flew out again.

For the third time, the lobster pill was finally clamped accurately this time, so Ah Xiu put it back on Igola's dinner plate, and then ate a clean lobster pill.

"You do not mind right?"

The corners of Igola's mouth twitched, but still did not speak, but the speed of eating increased.

While eating, Ah Xiu knocked over his cup with a very flamboyant gesture. The milk was spilled on the table and dripped onto his clothes.

"Ah, sorry, sorry, I'll wipe it for you, can I?"

Ya Xiu took a tissue to wipe Igola's clothes, Igola shook off his hand without saying a word, and walked directly into the toilet of the restaurant.

After washing the milk stains of his clothes, Igola thought about it, so he went to the urinal to pee.

But Ah Xiu appeared next to him again: "Oh, so coincidence Igola, you are here to pee too."

Igola was silent, quietly speeding up the flow.

"Oh, I didn't wipe my mouth just now, Igola, can you help me? I'll get a tissue."

Igola almost couldn't help it, but recalling the warning on the mirror, he gritted his teeth, took a deep breath, and swallowed the words in his throat abruptly.

"You don't have a towel after washing your hands, can you wipe your clothes?"

"You have finished your breakfast? Let's go to the death fight club together, can you introduce me to the strong people in the death fight club?"

"Did you watch the Blood Moon Trial last night? I want to ask you a few questions. Of course, as a price, you can also ask me questions."

"Don't go in such a hurry, wait for me, OK?"

Igola was when Adam was farting along the way, never responding to Ah Xiu's request, and walked quickly to his bedroom.

Looking at Igola's hurried back, Ya Xiu was naturally very strange.

He has exposed so many flaws, why hasn't Igola taken the bait?

Ikola Borkin is a villain with a bad reputation as a 'fraudster' and a 'beauty beast'. It's his nature to deceive good and fear evil, so why is he behaved like a cat who has not been weaned today?

No, I can only do a trick!

Ding!

Hearing the sound of gold coins falling to the ground, Igula looked at it almost subconsciously out of professional reaction, and heard a sound like a natural sound: "Can you pick up gold coins for me?"

"No problem." In an instant, Igula shook out a copper coin coated with gold paint that could be disguised as a gold coin from his sleeve. After he changed the gold coin, he suddenly reacted and spoke.

But Igola didn't panic, and looked at Ya Xiu and said, "Although I don't know why you have to make a request to me, it's now as you wished-the contract magic has taken effect, and I fulfilled your request, so You must also meet my request."

In Broken Lake Prison, no one dared to agree to Igola's request, and no one dared to make a request to Igola-this is because under the influence of the contract magic, whoever establishes a 'deal' relationship with Igola, Igola Both can use the contract to force the other party to fulfill the promise, but he himself is not responsible.

The most beautiful contract is to make a request to Igola, but it doesn't say how he will 'repay'.

It's like giving Igola a blank check~www.mtlnovel.com~ Igola fills out the request at will!

Therefore, Igola just used a lot of perseverance to suppress his desire to respond to Ah Xiu, because as long as he agrees to Ah Xiu's request, he will be given an unlimited opportunity to request Ah Xiu, even if he is appointed to lose in the next death fight. No problem for yourself!

Igola had realized that Ash had done this deliberately, but he was not afraid.

Even if Ah Xiu really has a conspiracy, he now has a chance to make a wish to him. What is he afraid of?

In order to frighten Ya Xiu, Igola deliberately summoned his contract magic spirit.

The contract magic spirit is a double-winged villain carrying chains. The illusory chain on his hand extends to the neck of Ya Xiu, as if he could hold Ya Xiu's throat at any time.

"I advise you to be honest, Ashura Hiss." Igola narrowed his eyes: "I can propose to you a wish without any restrictions, and you must satisfy me."

"Any wish is fine?"

"Of course, even if you are asked to stand upside down and shit." Igola said proudly, "Axiu, you are already my best friend."

"That's great."

Ya Xiu stretched out his hand, and a single-winged magic spirit appeared in his palm.

Shu Ling appeared to be a single-winged scale. When it appeared, the chain extended by Contract Shu Ling suddenly fell to the left of the scale. In order to maintain the balance of the scale, the same chain appeared on the right side of the scale, extending all the way. To Igola's neck!

The chain of the contract magic spirit trapped Ya Xiu, and the chain of the Libra magic spirit trapped Igola!

"Balance is between all things."

Looking at Igola's gradually ugly and distorted face, Ah Xiu smiled and said, "Igola, helping each other is considered a 'good friend', right?"

Technician's Manual - Chapter 68

This new magic spirit is naturally the harvest of the exploration of the virtual world last night.

Facts have proved that the waiting of Ya Xiu and Jian Ji is worthwhile.

On the eve of the whirlpool's disappearance, Ya Xiu finally saw the map prompt changing from "wait a minute" to "fast charge", and quickly pulled Jian Ji and jumped into the whirlpool.

After crossing thousands of miles of sea, what appeared in front of the two of Ya Xiu was a severely wounded ichthyosaur.

To deal with this kind of knowledge creature, Ya Xiu and Jian Ji would naturally not talk about the morals of the world. Taking advantage of its illness to kill it, they burst out five magic spirits. Unfortunately, there is no experience orb, but each of these five magic spirits has its own. The magical effect can be called a bumper harvest.

The reason why Ya Xiu tried his best to establish a 'deal' relationship with Igola was because the newly acquired 'Libra' magic spirit gave him ample confidence.

「Libra」

“One Wing Shu Ling”

“Restrictions: The mathematician must master basic mathematical knowledge such as trigonometric functions, sequence of numbers, and probability theory.”

“Basic effect: feedback any effect to the operator in a certain proportion.”

“Passive effect: Greatly enhance the balance and the ability to adjust the center of gravity.”

“Balance, exists among all things.”

Originally, Ya Xiu planned to use Libra Shu Ling as an anti-injury armor, but he didn't think much about it, but after he left the virtual realm and returned to reality, he suddenly realized that he could easily arouse Libra Shu Ling's resonance.

Perhaps because he is proficient in all the basic mathematics knowledge required by Libra Shuling. After all, those are math test test sites. Although he can no longer do questions after four years of university degradation, the basic concepts can still be understood.

It was the first time that Ya Xiu saw Shu Ling who had requirements for knowledge. According to Jian Ji, it seemed that only Shu Ling that had something to do with 'destiny', 'prophecy', and 'truth' would have knowledge requirements. These Shu Lings rarely could. It is used in actual combat or production, but it will often play an unexpected role, and the social status of the prophecy school magician is also very high.

Being able to resonate with the Libra magical spirit at any time means that in addition to the virtual world, Asia Xiu can also use the Libra magical spirit for profit in the “civilized society” of Broken Lake Prison.

However, Libra Shuling belongs to the kind of “the enemy is not moving, I am not moving”. It must be when other people use the Shu Ling to cast spells. In a prison where no one can use Shu Ling, in fact, Libra Shu Ling has few targets that can be targeted.

Except for this 'good friend' that Ya Xiu just met.

“Not bad, Axiu.” Igola said as calmly as possible: “Since you have my wish and I have your wish, then we have reached a balance of wishes at this time. I will live my life in the future, you Live your life and live together peacefully without aggression, and build a harmonious prison together. How about?”

“Not very good.” Ya Xiu smiled slightly: “I will use up my wish now.”

“You figured it out clearly!” Igola said in a gloomy tone: “After you use up your wishes, there will be no means to threaten me! Then I will let you do whatever I want, let alone make you stand upside down and **** again. Roll on the ground, even if you take the initiative to lose the deathmatch, it’s okay!”

“Of course I figured it out clearly.” Ah Xiu stepped forward and approached Igola.

Igola had a vague premonition in her heart, and she backed away and persuaded: “Axiu, really, there is no need to get to this point. Or don’t use your wish, just discuss it with me. I am your good friend. If I can help you, I will definitely help...”

“I don’t want’if’, I need you’wholeheartedly’ to fulfill my wish.”

“I’m just an ordinary scammer with limited abilities. You look up to me too much, Ah Xiu. Why don’t you think of a way to establish a contract with another prisoner on death row. If you have any requirements, I will let him satisfy you, okay? What’s the matter? It’s okay, and there is no limit to the number of times!”

“It’s not good, no one else can do it, it can only be you.”

Igola’s back was already against the wall, unable to retreat. Ah Xiu supported the wall with one hand, looked at him and said, “Igola, my wish is—”

“I won’t listen, I won’t listen!”

Igola directly covered his ears with his hands and escaped, but he couldn't use Shu Ling. The physical fitness of both sides was similar, so Ah Xiu ran to grab his arm and said loudly:

"Igola, I want you to help me escape from prison!"

The guard passing by on patrol glanced at the two of them, shook his head, and left with a whistle.

A statement like 'I'm going to be the man of the prison escape king', the prison guard didn't know that he had heard it hundreds of times, so naturally he wouldn't take it to heart.

In his heart, he even felt a little sympathy for these executed prisoners. After all, he was daydreaming just after eating breakfast. It seemed so pitiful.

But the person involved does not think this is a dream talk.

Igola panted and looked at Ya Xiu, with an ugly expression on his face, and a cold sweat on his back unknowingly.

He knew it! He knew it!

A man who has just survived the Blood Moon Trial, what else can he wish for? Except for the trouble with a hard knife going in and a soft knife going out, isn't it just a jailbreak?

When Adam held his wish in his hand, Igola knew that this time was over. Sure enough, only those who are good at swimming can drown, and those who are greedy and obsessed with flowers can die on the bed. He, a fraudster who doesn't know how much IQ tax has been harvested, actually has a day of being locked up.

As for using his own wishes to resist the wishes of Asia Xiu, this is impossible-because this violates the restriction of 'help Asia Xiu', Igola can't do it at all!

Axiu's wish made it impossible for Igola to do anything to 'prevent Yaxiu's escape from prison'!

He sighed, "Come with me."

Igola took Ash to his room. Broken Lake Prison does not prohibit prisoners from visiting, and even if prisoners want to sleep and chat together, it's okay—anyway, they can't do anything but sleep. The chip restrictions include "intimacy". get in touch with'.

Only the couple's room can temporarily release the restriction of 'intimate contact', only the Death Fight Club can temporarily release the restriction of 'battle', and even only the toilet can release the restriction of 'excretion'-yes, the death row prisoners are even free to **** in public nothing.

In other words, death row prisoners actually have the same freedom as normal people, but you must apply for a report to the prison before you do something. The prison allows you to do it, and you can do it.

The difference between death row prisoners and free men may be the difference between 'laws without permission, no action' and 'laws without prohibition, no action'.

"Your room is quite big."

Yaxiu sat down on the velvet bed and fell back into the bed. Igola, who had just moved out of the chair, watched this scene and couldn't help his mouth twitching.

Ya Xiu glanced at him, waved his hand and said, "Don't be so restrained, just sit as you please. I'm not a person who cares about etiquette, so I don't need to pour water."

It's a pity, I just wanted to scoop some water from the toilet to quench your thirst, if it wasn't just after peeing, I even wanted to add some ingredients to you... Igola, who was suffocating in her heart, sat on a chair with her fingers crossed and staring. Asia Xiu.

“Do you really want to escape from prison?”

“You asked, who lives here doesn’t want to escape from prison?”

“A lot.” Igola said lightly: “For example, “Diamond” Tiger doesn’t want to escape from prison. He offends too many people outside, and it is more dangerous to go out. Moreover, the weak faction magician has no other way of production besides being a thug and bodyguard. As long as he is not selected for the Blood Moon Trial, Tiger’s life here is actually more comfortable than outside.”

“There are still a lot of people like Tiger. In other words, those who have lived here for a few years have basically found a new way of living, and they don’t have much thoughts about the outside. For them, the outside is just a big deal. A little prison.”

Igola looked at Yaxiu, secretly activated the ‘resonance’ magic spirit, and said in a seductive tone: “Since you survived the first blood moon trial, if there is no accident, you will follow us in the future, according to your contribution. The degree sequence participates in the Blood Moon Trial, as long as you contribute enough, you will not be selected.”

“Your strength is good, and the chance of victory in a death match is great. In other words, you also have the ability to live comfortably here.” He spread his hand, “If you want, you can also live in such a big room. Let the restaurant do whatever you want to eat, read a book if you want to read a book, watch a movie if you want to watch a movie, drink, dance or even eat moon candy. If you have any requirements, you can ask the prison for advice, the newly built one The skating rink was built because prisoners like to skate.”

“In the eyes of people outside, we may be the ideal land here-no crime, no vulgarity, no competition, or even a job. Every day is a peaceful life with a regular schedule of work and rest.”

Seeing that Ah Xiu seemed to be a little moved, Igola was secretly excited, and couldn't help but praise his wit.

Axiu's wish is not without loopholes. The premise of 'Helping Axiu to escape from prison' is that Axiu wants to escape from prison, so as long as he persuades Axiu to give up this idea, Igola naturally does not have to realize this wish.

But this is also the true word of Igola.

Prison escape is a dead end without an end. Escape is not an instant victory, but a lifetime of torment. Not to mention whether they can escape, even if they can escape, what awaits them is a more cruel challenge-like a mouse crossing the street, breathing in the sewers incognito and frightened in the muddy air full of free fragrance.

and stolen life, it is a blessing that can be easily obtained for them~www.mtlnovel.com~ a condemned prisoner who survived the blood moon trial, knows how to choose.

"You make a lot of sense."

Ah Xiu sat up and nodded in Igola's expectant eyes: "Indeed, prison escape is a thorny road full of dangers and unknowns. Although life here is risky, overall it is much more comfortable. If I stay here After a long time, it is estimated that you will become like you, know how to enjoy prison life."

Igola was overjoyed, "Well, Ah Xiu, as long as you understand, then—"

"That's why I have to escape from prison, and it must be fast, the sooner the better!"

Ya Xiu looked at Igola and shook his head slightly, "I don't want to be like you, being polished edges and corners, being extinguished by courage, and being interrupted by my backbone."

"I don't want to live like a...dog!"

Igola's expression froze suddenly.

After a moment of silence, Igola slowly stood up.

Snapped!

He kicked the chair down, turned around and hit the wall with a punch, but just one second before the hit, his body suddenly froze, and the chip forbids the output of kinetic energy.

"Interesting, it turns out to call yourself a dog, isn't it swear word? This should be a loophole in the chip? Hahaha..."

"Good! Jailbreak, more, you can go!"

Igola shook his hand in disgust, and said coldly: "But the premise of jailbreaking is that we have to find a way to kill...and get rid of the back-neck chip! As long as the back-neck chip is still there, don't talk about jailbreaking. Wherever you shit, you have to look at the look of the prison! Hehe, I can't do anything about it, can you do it, my dear leader of the cult, Ash Heath?"

"I have a way to deal with the chip."

"I knew you didn't...what?"

Technician's Manual - Chapter 69

"Cut my miracle, cut my miracle..."

Igola paced back and forth in the room, biting her nails unconsciously, and couldn't help asking:

"Are you really sure to use a miracle when the mana output is prohibited?"

“I’m not sure.” Ya Xiu said calmly, “Besides, I definitely can’t use it now. I still owe a key magic spirit to form the miracle of killing me.”

“Then what do you—”

“I said, I have a secret way to obtain the magic spirit. I don’t know when I will find the key magic spirit, but it will only happen sooner or later.”

Igola opened his mouth, but closed it again.

Axiu did not say, Igola naturally couldn’t guess what the so-called ‘secret channel’ was, but Igola didn’t have much doubt about the authenticity of this matter.

Because of Libra Shuling.

If Ya Xiu had the Libra magic spirit a few days ago, he would not be unilaterally constrained by Igola’s contract magic spirit at that time.

Although it is possible that Yaxiu deliberately pretended to be a pig and eat tigers, but Igola took the initiative to provoke him that time. How could Yaxiu set traps against Igola?

Believing in this kind of conspiracy theory that only exists in probability, Igola is more willing to believe in the possibility of Ash.

It’s not that Igola is innocent and optimistic, but that Axiu has performed miracles in person.

Fighting to death with Igola, he changed from a rookie who couldn’t even fight to a fighter in a few minutes;

In a death fight with Varkas, he changed from a rookie who couldn’t even hold a sword to a master swordsman in a few minutes;

In the Blood Moon Trial, he was not afraid of the burning of the purifying flame. It was obvious that he was the most sinful death row prisoner.

Coupled with the sudden appearance of the Libra magic spirit, Igola felt that he had no reason to question A Xiu. Even if the 'secret channels' mentioned by Ya Xiu are close to fantasy under the supervision of prisons, in this world of magicians, miracles are the most common inevitable.

What's more, Ah Xiu Heath, but the leader of the Four Pillars Cult...

Igola's expression is uncertain, gritted her teeth, stomped her feet, "It's done!"

"However, it is not enough to escape from prison by the two of us alone. I must bring a few people into the group."

"Of course." Ah Xiu said with a smile: "The reason why I came to you first is because you must know the information of other executed prisoners. After all, I am not familiar with the place where I am born, and I need a cunning 'local' to form a team. ."

"Thank you for the compliment, as a fraudster, intelligence is my weapon." Igola bowed gracefully.

"Then who are we looking for?"

"I already have a preliminary plan. Under the premise that you can use the miracle of cutting me to lift the chip limit, we need three kinds of people: the pioneer responsible for tackling tough operations, the saboteur responsible for continuous output, and the logistics support for rapid movement and healing. ."

"They all sound like special professionals with high requirements for professionalism. Can you find them?"

“Are you telling a joke?” Igola smiled.

“Thugs, murderers, black market smugglers, aren’t these three types of people everywhere in Broken Lake Prison?”

.....

...

The kingdom of stars, the world of galaxy.

Ingrid curiously watched the scenery of the villa area outside the car. Adele touched the decorative leather in the car excitedly. Lois felt embarrassed and quickly pressed Adele’s hand. She had nothing to say and said, “Thank you. Felix your tea party invitation.”

“Don’t thank me.” Felix driving a gloomy look: “Sonia strongly asked to bring her roommate, so I will invite you...thank her if you want to.”

This is very rude. It can be seen that Felix is in a bad mood now, and he can’t maintain even the basic aristocratic manners, so that Adele dare not touch it casually.

Lois was not interested in continuing to be in trouble, secretly observing Sonia sitting in the co-pilot, thinking about the relationship between the two of them.

Today at noon, Sonia suddenly approached them and said that Felix would invite them to the villa for a tea party.

Tea party is a very common student activity. The basic form is that a few students eat snacks and drink black tea in a beautiful place. By the way, people make rumors and rumors. Many campus rumors began to spread from the tea party.

Lois naturally also participated in many tea parties, and she even held a tea party specifically to say bad things about Sonia-if it were not for slander, the tea party would be worthless.

Therefore, she was also wondering why Sonia wanted her to hold a tea party. From the nature of the tea party, she knew that this was a rumors of the same kind of private circle. Lois didn't think that her relationship with Sonia could be talked behind. The degree of intimacy of the bad words.

Even if Sonia wants to bring friends to join the tea party, Ingullite is so close to her these days, it's enough to invite her, why bother Lois and Adele?

In addition, this was a tea party held by Felix. Reminiscent of the despicable rumors of this playboy, Lois subconsciously thought of Sonia badly,'aristocratic young master, basement, imprisoned girl, abused' Key words such as'slave' have flooded my mind.

However, before Lois refused, Sonia suggested that they tell their parents that they would go to Felix's tea party. If anything goes wrong, it must be a bad thing done by the second young master of the Duke of Vosloda...

Such intimate care made Lois feel a little puzzled, but Ingullite saw some clues and asked Sonia if she needed them to be witnesses. Sonia didn't say it clearly, but promised that if they come to the tea party, it will definitely benefit.

and it is a benefit related to the practitioner.

But if Felix missed it, they would be in trouble, so Sonia asked them to tell their parents about their whereabouts.

The more I heard it, the more it seemed to be a bait to seduce the ignorant girl, and Loys would definitely refuse to change to someone else. But the other party was Felix and Sonia, and they both reminded them to notify their parents, plus Lois also hopes to buy the torrent magic spirit from Sonia, not to offend Sonia too much.

The most important thing is that Ingullit agreed.

In her words, "In the world of wizards, taking risks equals advancing, and being cautious equals retreating. If I dare not even take this risk, then I might as well go back to my hometown and get married."

Maybe it was the girl's yearning for adventure, or maybe it was the hint of a blind date from her parents when she went home last time, or even she just didn't want to admit counsel in front of the most annoying person, Lois finally agreed to the tea party invitation.

As Lois's follower, Adele followed with almost no thought.

But after getting in the car, Lois's heart that raised up gradually eased. Not only because many students have seen them get on Felix's silver car, but also because the car is heading to the Gallus villa area. There are monitoring sky eyes along the way. The villa area is the core area of Gallos, and there is no possibility of anyone. Crime here.

The silver car drove into a luxurious villa, and Adele got out of the car and looked around:

"Where is the servant?"

"There are no servants." Felix said lightly: "Only when I am not coming to the villa, I will hire a housekeeper to maintain the villa. At other times, there is no one else here."

Adele asked stupidly: "Without a servant, how will the tea party be held? Do we make tea and snacks ourselves?"

Lois's face was embarrassed, and she pulled her little companion aside to explain the situation to her.

Felix walked in front, led them into the villa lobby, and then in the contemptuous eyes of everyone, he called out a pretty revealing single-winged girl Shu Ling.

It seemed that something had been triggered, and the fireplace suddenly opened, revealing a deep spiral path leading to the ground.

Sonia complained: "Do you have to make it so weird and scary? Do you usually have little hobbies like kidnapping girls, murdering, dissecting corpses, skinning?"

"Secrets are always associated with factors such as fear, darkness, and murder. It is not that secrets are born like this, but because the secrets are too weak, they need to protect themselves through bluffing." Felix said angrily: "Do you want me to Is the location changed to the school dining hall?"

"If it is the school dining hall at 12 o'clock in the evening, UU Reading www.uukānshu.com may not meet your requirements."

Sonia murmured, and followed Felix into the spiral tunnel. Ingulite took out the wooden sword from the sword bag and followed closely. Lois and Adele looked at each other, and they hugged each other tightly and followed behind nervously.

Lois already regretted a bit in her heart.

is not to say that she is afraid that she will be killed, she even believes that she will benefit. But all gifts have a price. As a price, she has a foreboding that she will be bound with Sonia and Felix and become a community of interests that advances and retreats together.

She suddenly recalled a sentence the merchant father had said to her:

“Interest is the most stable relationship, secret is the strongest restraint, and accomplice is the most innocent friend.”

After about thirty seconds, they came to an underground training room.

What’s shocking is that the lighting system here is actually not a civil gas incandescent lamp, but the instrumental prop “Day Star”, which illuminates the basement of Nuo University as bright as daylight. You must know that the training hall of Jianhua University is also used at night. A ‘day star’ came to illuminate-Felix’s extravagance can be seen from the details.

Coming here, Felix seemed to have unloaded his burden and mask. He opened the freezer in the corner and took out a bottle of wine to blow on the bottle. He said with an unhappy face: “I have fulfilled my promise and satisfied yours. Ask, you can solve the next thing yourself.”

Ingulite stood at the top of the stairs, reached out his hand to stop the two behind, and asked, “Sonia, can you explain it now?”

“No problem.” Sonia smiled: “In short, it’s—”

“Felix has a treasure and wants to score five or five points with me. But how can I forget my dear roommates when I encounter such a good thing? So I will take you to share this treasure.”

Technician’s Manual - Chapter 70

Felix’s treasure?

Do you remember to help your roommate when you encounter something good?

God, there is a saint in our bedroom!

Ingulite laughed and said: “You are afraid that Felix will plot against you, that’s why you take us to dilute the risk, and even remind us to report our whereabouts to our parents, so that Felix can throw a rat?”

Sonia shrugged and did not deny: “There are also some considerations in this regard.

However, the treasure is real...”

Felix watched and talked about Sonia, sighed secretly, and suddenly wondered if he had made more decisions this time.

When leaving the meditation building in the morning, Felix called to Sonia, saying that there was a great thing to share with her.

But who is Sonia, she is a scheming woman working alone in the feasting city of Galex. She has seen so many evils in the world that she will not believe this kind of empty check.

All scammers know that they need to give some small gifts before they lie. Anyway, you should drop the money to give the gifts first to reduce my vigilance!

Sugar-coated cannonballs Sugar-coated cannonballs, you cannonballs don’t even have icing, look down on who!

Felix persuaded Sonia to speak out, but under the urgency of Sonia’s ‘forget it, I’m not involved’ every step, he could only tell his own details and handed over the dominance.

The so-called treasure is actually the legacy left by Felix’s mother. But this inheritance was divided into several parts by his mother, and each part has the opening conditions. If the requirements are not met, the inheritance will never be obtained.

One of the inheritance requirements is to possess the 'killing sword' magic spirit and possess more than half wing mana.

Although Felix had half-wing mana, he lost the "killing sword". It can be said that his luck was a little bit bad, making the treasure that should have been available suddenly become as difficult as the sky.

At this time, Sonia's 'killing sword' came into his sight.

But Felix also knew that Sonia could not give up the precious 'Secret Sword Twenty One Spirit', so he offered to cooperate with Sonia.

At first, he made a quotation that he thought was very reasonable: fake marriage. It was not that he wanted to take advantage of Sonia, but that he had investigated Sonia's resume and thought that this was the opportunity Sonia wanted.

According to the "Law of the Aristocracy", any relationship recognized by the aristocracy is equivalent to legality. Felix knows that what Sonia wants most is the aristocratic status who can live decently in Galos, but the road to nobility is bumpy and difficult. In contrast, marrying aristocrats is a shortcut.

As long as she marries Felix, Sonia will directly obtain the Fusloda family crest. Not only can she receive monthly support funds from the family fund, but she can also enjoy the family practitioner training system, "Dragon's Belly Scales", Miracles such as "Dragon Dinner" will also be open to her.

The most important thing is that she can directly use the Vosroda family crest to cross the household registration restrictions of Gallos, enjoy noble treatment, buy real estate without restrictions, and choose occupations without restrictions.

was even able to change her mother's household registration from a resident of an agricultural town to a resident of Galos.

Felix saves others by herself, he knows that Sonia must value the mother who was widowed and single parent raised her in her early years. If possible, she would definitely be willing to let her mother enjoy the blessing early.

However, even if Sonia is exceptionally talented, it will take at least one and a half years for her to unfold the Silver Wings, and at least four years for the Golden Wings to unfold. If she wants to enter the Three Wing Sanctuary within ten years, she will have luck and lack of opportunity. Nothing.

But the greater probability is that she will not be able to step into the Three Wing Sanctuary within 20 years.

In recent years, the number of knights has been decreasing, and it is almost a non-sacred land that does not grant no knights or coats of arms. Without the coat of arms of nobility, Na Sonia, no matter how brilliant, can only enjoy this success in Galos by herself. She has no permission to relocate her mother's household registration. Her mother is still restricted to stay in Galos for 30 days in a year. .

Popular people must guard the duty of common people, and nobles are qualified to soar.

Felix felt that Sonia would gladly accept it, because accepting it would be equivalent to fighting for 20 years less.

After all, you can get a divorce if you are married. Although you will lose the Vosroda coat of arms, Sonia must have made a lot of money at that time, and she also transferred her mother's household registration to Calox. The divorce will not affect her. Any interest and even the wind comment- aristocratic divorce and lovers are common things, and everyone is accustomed to not caring.

But even though Felix clarified her interest, Sonia rejected the proposal.

He couldn't understand why the smart and vulgar Sonia would reject such a proposal of mutual benefit.

Benefits, status, fame, aren't these what she wants?

Why would she refuse?

Is she really so confident that she thinks she can get everything with her strength in just a few years?

Still said she looked down on me, Felix, and was not interested in taking the so-called shortcut?

But since the first plan failed, Felix can only propose the second plan: split the treasure equally.

Although the treasure is the inheritance left by his mother, it shouldn't be distributed to anyone in theory, and it is not impossible to obtain the "killing sword" again. Felix can save the inherited treasure into the future.

But Felix also knows that everything in the world has a shelf life.

The power will also expire.

The reason why the inheritance left by the mother is limited is to help Felix in a targeted manner.

Any treasure that Felix can just open, the contents can basically provide him with great help at this stage, and there will be no power that Felix can gain beyond his control.

For example, he who is a first-wing magician will not get a second-wing magic spirit from his inheritance, because the latter is just a simple burden and drag on him.

And this treasure that requires him to possess half-wing mana to open it is naturally very suitable for his situation at this time.

If Felix was promoted to Second Wing Gold and then unlocked the treasure, then he would not need this help anymore, and he wouldn't even be icing on the cake; but now as long as he unlocks the treasure, even if he can only get half of it, it is considered to be Give charcoal in the snow.

Years of assassination experience has already made Felix realistic and rational.

He does not hide all food like a squirrel. He is full of crisis and believes in the interestism of 'use when you should use it'. The maximization of profit is the only law he obeys, even if he wants to share his mother's inheritance. .

Sonia agreed, but didn't fully agree.

She put forward a condition that made Felix feel unbelievable: she would take her friends to participate in this operation, and she would give rewards to her friends from the treasures she had obtained.

At first, Felix also thought that he had met a saint who was wealthy and could not be licentious and mighty, but when I thought about it, I understood Sonia's worries-she was afraid of killing herself!

If it weren't for the support of Professor Trozan, Sonia would almost be an out-of-town college student with no background, but with Trozan as a backer, cooperation with local nobles like Felix is no different from seeking skin with a tiger. Felix can only think badly!

And when she finds three roommates, she can spread the risk well. Ingulite is the child of a small aristocrat from a foreign country, Lois is the daughter of a local businessman, and Adele's father is the administrative officer of Gales... It is Lois and Adele, they must have alarm items on them, and they will send an address signal to the police department if they are in danger!

Plus they all reported their whereabouts to the family, Felix had to be careful to **** these young ladies back to school, otherwise something happened and the Noble House would not let him go.

Felix admired Sonia's caution, but he naturally did not want more people to know his secrets, so he tried his best to lure them into profit, even willing to change the ratio from five to four to six. It's quite humble.

But Sonia still said, 'If you don't agree, I don't want this treasure anymore', and she squeezed Felix's bottom line.

The winner of the negotiation is always the one who cares the least.

Felix knew how much Treasure had improved him, and finally gave in.

After Sonia introduced the situation, the roommates looked at Felix vigilantly and hid behind Sonia like a chicken. Felix laughed angrily: "If you are still worried, you can leave now, As long as you don't talk nonsense outside."

"No, I want to stay to protect Sonia!" Loisy said righteously, but her eyes were eager to try, and Adele looked like she was not afraid of big things.

Ingulite is even more direct: "I'm just curious about what the treasure that needs to be unlocked by the magic spirit will look like."

The treasure that even the second young master of Vosroda longed for, it was strange that their apprentices and magicians were not curious. After all, they are teenage green girls, how can they not yearn for this kind of treasure in the plot of a novel?

Felix sighed and took out five blank film contracts, "Then sign the contract first."

Sonia and others secretly cried out luxury-the film contract is a very common tool and spirit prop.

The principle is to temporarily save the 'Miracle·Void Realm Oath' on paper, and the person who signs the contract will be restricted by the Void Realm. Breach of the contract will be punished by the virtual world, ranging from long sleep and awake, to the death of the soul.

The price of the film-sealing contract is not low, and the market price is equivalent to a wing of magic, and it is not used for non-important transactions. Felix was able to take out five copies at once, in addition to showing that he is rich, it also shows that this treasure is of extraordinary value, otherwise he would not invest so much.

The use of a film-covered contract is very simple. After the user uncovers the film, just copy the contract template directly. It doesn't matter if there is alteration or ugly handwriting. As long as the transcription is completed and the five signed contracts can be overlapped, it means that the content of the five contracts is the same and the oath takes effect.

Sealing films beforehand, copying separately, and overlapping inspections are all designed to reduce the possibility of technicians making hands and feet on the contract. Facts have also proved that the film-sealing contract is trustworthy. For example, Sonia's academic loan contract is a film-sealing contract.

The contract template is very simple, that is, it is not allowed to disclose everything that happened in the basement, not to leave records in any way, not to expose everything about the treasure, no matter what you get, you must find a way to hide the source and not to involve Felix himself.

At the same time, Felix and Sonia will share the harvest in the basement, and then Sonia will allocate the treasure with Ingulite, Lois, and Adele.

is actually a confidentiality and sharing contract.

While copying, Adele asked quietly: "Sonia, why did you reject the proposal of fake marriage? It's me. I definitely don't want treasure, but choose fake marriage... That's the Vosroda coat of arms. what....."

Lois is also very curious, looking at Sonia.

Sonia's face was a little unnatural, she held back for a long time before she said: "Shame!"

What shame?

Shame on fake marriage with Felix?

Or is it embarrassing to take this shortcut to become aristocratic?

If it was Ingullit said this, but you are Sonia Servi!

Lois and Adele can't understand ~www.mtlnovel.com~ After all, in their opinion, Sonia is not open and aboveboard, and more importantly, they don't think Sonia is a face-conscious person, shameful

What's the matter, it hurts to lose money!

They couldn't understand, and Felix couldn't understand, only Yingguli guessed something.

It's not because of how good she and Sonia are, but simply because they both come from a small place.

is different from the open-minded big cities like Galle. The concept of small places is very conservative. Although in the eyes of urban people, it is only backward and old-fashioned, but in the hearts of rural people, there are some things that can not be treated as a trifling matter.

For example, marriage.

Maybe it's because Sonia quickly integrated into the city, making everyone think that she is a very modern and trendy college student. But Ingulite knows that Sonia still carries the unique innocence and fantasies of the country folks in her bones, such as believing that hard work can lead to success, such as believing that hard work can advance, such as believing that... Marriage is sacred and love is pure. , There can be no flaws.

She may see marriage as a channel for improvement, but she did not abandon her reservations because of this, otherwise there are very oily second-generation nobles. She just wants to find the most suitable marriage partner within the acceptable range, and then manage the marriage from the beginning.

Not everything can be traded. People in the city don't understand things like this.

Of course, in addition to this, Ingulite feels that Sonia is also part of the reason for swelling-it is easy to take shortcuts, but since you can achieve success on your own, why should you let your honor be stained? Woolen cloth?

Sonia was a little hairy by Ingulite, "What are you staring at me for, do you have words on my face?"

"Hee hee, are you shy?"

"I'm sick."
