Chapter 8 - No, you have to practice sword

Sonia removes her makeup, while leisurely opening the "Basic Principles of Water Technique".

It's perfect to use makeup removal time to read a book. After all, makeup removal is very troublesome. First, use a cotton swab to clean each eyelash carefully, and then take a shower with eye wash. Today, the arm was coated with sunscreen, and the shower gel was not clean, so she also bought a large bowl of cheap makeup remover to remove the sunscreen.

After taking a shower, she has to do basic care. The spray essence must be applied. Even the eyelashes have to be applied with essence, otherwise it is easy to clip off. She doesn't have much money to go to "Perfect Xinghui" for eyelash surgery.

The miscellaneous things add up to almost an hour. If you don't study in a hurry, how could Sonia get a scholarship last semester?

And she is going to try to summon the first water magic spirit before next year. It is best to fully expand the Silver Wing before graduation and become a wing magician.

Although Jianhua University is not a top-ranking university for machinists in the Galleria, Jianhua is second to none in the training of machinists, hydromen, and wind machinists. As long as these three departments graduate normally, the future is boundless.

Because there are many related healing spells, the hydrologists often become the healers, so they also become the major faction of Sonia.

Having seen the prosperous world of Gallus, Sonia knew that she would not be able to gain a foothold in this world without decades of time, so finding a good man as a shortcut to enter the upper class naturally became her first choice.

Otherwise, she spent so much time, energy and money to maintain the beauty, is it for the poor to be cheap?

According to Sonia's survey, among the wives of nobles, the proportion of hydrologists exceeds 50%.

If the nobles themselves were also magicians, this ratio would even exceed 70%!

Hydromanager is undoubtedly a great bonus option for the nobles to choose their wives!

Compared with hydrologists, wind machinists tend to become meteorologists, and they need to work outdoors frequently, and the conditions are bad; not to mention swordsmen, Kong Wu is powerful but a female deduction...

Sonia's life plan is very clear—

Become a hydrologist, and then find a way to participate in the campus activities of the Galaxy Maritime Master University, and catch a noble young master.

Unlike Jianhua University, the University of Truth is the first university in Galex, and even the first university in the Starry Nation. The people in it are either rich or noble. This is where Sonia's future boyfriend will appear, and she doesn't like any of the boys at Jianhua University.

Become a hydrologist, get acquainted with aristocratic students at the University of Truth, and then enter the upper class as aristocratic wife, and use the man's social resources to find a way to make a fortune for herself. Then even if she is divorced, she can still gain a foothold in Galles. Bringing my mother over to live a noble life...

"No, you have to practice sword."

Hearing this familiar and unfamiliar chaotic sound, Sonia's right hand subconsciously wanted to grip the weapon.

If it wasn't for the sitting posture to restrict her movement, she would even directly initiate a sharp step to evade.

But in the next second, she came back to her senses, and looked at the weird man who appeared out of thin air next to her in horror, wearing a dark windbreaker with a dim face!

"If I were you, I would first see how others react."

The viewer put up a finger next to the closet, and made a silent gesture: "If you want to talk to me, just mute it in your heart."

Sonia looked at Lois and Adele. Adele was hitting the air, obviously indulging in the show in the light curtain; and Lois was just coming out of the bathroom at this time, passing by the viewer, she watched Without looking at it, it seemed that there was no viewer in his eyes.

Sonia looked down at the ground, and immediately understood everything-the viewer had no shadow.

resisting the desire to speak, Sonia asked in her heart:

"Who are you on earth?"

“My name is the end viewer, you can call me the viewer, if you are so forgetful at a young age, I can only recommend you to reboot...”

“You know I didn’t ask that.”

“But I can only answer you so much.”

The viewer said: “And you know what, I used to hate someone making mysteries, especially the gesture of holding important secrets but being not until you should know’, which makes people want to **** him. Type it all out.”

Sonia didn’t speak, she just looked at the viewer.

The viewer nodded: “Yes, as you said, I have also become the kind of person who plays mystery, because-I find this is indeed very interesting. Especially seeing you jumped so furiously and helplessly. I feel worthy of this trip.”

“But isn’t this normal? People tend to grow up to the most annoying appearance, or in other words, the more annoying people usually live longer.”

Sonia suddenly realized a problem, and her hair started to frighten.

“You can hear my heart!”

“If you can’t hear what you are saying, what is the difference between me and acting in a mime?”

“But you can’t—you don’t respect—I have even the freedom of my soul taken away by you!?”

“Don’t worry, Jian Ji, I am not your enemy.” The viewer said: “I am not even a complete person now.

“Then what are you?”

“I’m just a distant yearning.” The viewer shook his head: “Say far, let’s talk about business.

Speaking of it, you won’t care if I can hear you soon.”

“What business?” Sonia recalled the cruelty in her dream.

“First of all.” A blue potion suddenly appeared in the viewer’s hand: “You are going to drink it.”

“No, I don’t drink!” Sonia replied instantly.

However, a scene that horrified Sonia happened—she saw the potion in the glass bottle disappear at a speed visible to the naked eye, and at the same time she felt the liquid slipping through her throat!

“Then.” The viewer handed out a wooden sword: “You want to practice the sword.”

“No, I don’t want to!”

The viewer was right, now Sonia doesn’t care that he can hear her own voice.

Because listening to your heart is a trivial matter compared to being able to control your words and deeds!

Even if Sonia tried her best, she could only watch as she took the wooden sword, and then—

Wow!

Following the harsh sound of the wooden chairs across the ground, Lois and Adele turned their heads and just saw Sonia leaving the dormitory with the wooden sword, and the sound of closing the door was very loud, slap!

“What’s the problem?”

Loisy murmured a little, but she realized that she was so awkward, she sneered loudly: “I haven’t practiced swords for a year, so I’m going to train suddenly tonight? I’m afraid I want to hook up with a senior in the swordsmanship department, right?”

Adele blinked and was a little puzzled: “I don’t remember that she bought a wooden sword before, and Ingulite didn’t have this style of wooden sword. Where did she get it...?”
