

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Fierce –

Chapter 1171 – 1180

Chapter 1171: Accompany Until the End

Feng Qing revealed a sweet smile and said, “After marrying you for so long, you’ve never accompanied me back to my maiden home. This opportunity is here. Do you dare to accompany me?”

The corners of Xie Jiuhan’s mouth pursed into a line. “I’m willing to accompany you wherever you want to go.”

Feng Qing’s face was filled with happiness. “Our Little Jiu Jiu is really clingy!”

Suddenly, Xie Jiuhan’s expression turned a little evil. He licked his lips and said, “Since you’re my woman, you have to be with me every moment. When the poison in our bodies is removed, I want to bring you with me every day to wherever I go.”

Feng Qing: “With you? How?”

Xie Jiuhan smiled evilly. “Of course in a way that couldn’t be pulled out.”

Feng Qing : “???”

Feng Qing’s face turned red instantly. At a time like this, this man was actually still so indecent. His mind was filled with those indecent things. It looked like the Internet was right. When this man was coquettish, there was nothing for women to do.

Xie Jiuhan hugged Feng Qing and said, “Since we’re going to see Father-in-law, how and when we’ll see him should be up to us. We shouldn’t be forcefully taken away by his people. What do you think?”

The corners of Feng Qing’s mouth curled up. “Little Jiu Jiu, what good idea do you have?”

The man sneered. “There’s an ancient saying in Xia country. Since we’re here, let’s take it easy. We’re already in the Seven Stars Continent, so why don’t we play something bigger?”

Feng Qing nodded. “To be honest, I think so too.”

Divine's Light, 8th floor.

"Patriarch, please don't get up and move. Your body can't move like this."

"Patriarch, I beg of you, quickly lie back down and cooperate with the doctor's treatment."

"Patriarch, you almost died just now. Now that you've finally returned from the gates of hell, cherish yourself."

Dozens of bodyguards surrounded the bed and knelt on the ground to beg the bandaged Xing Wudi. After some treatment, although Xing Wudi had already woken up, his face was still as pale as paper because he had lost too much blood. He looked like he could die at any moment. He held the wall with one hand and walked out with trembling feet. He wanted to ask Feng Qing face to face why she had shot him. Could it be that Feng Qing hated him so much?

Long Jiuyuan blocked the door. "Brother Wudi, I'll send you back to lie down. Your first priority is to recover. I understand your feelings. There should be many questions you want to ask Feng Qing, but only when you completely recover can you look for her better."

Suddenly, the door was pushed open and Di Qianmo stumbled in. At this moment, he was panting heavily, and his face was red. There was a hint of helplessness and fatigue between his brows. He had just changed his clothes and was about to go to the deck to welcome the arrival of the final time, but after walking for a while, he felt a stabbing pain on his neck. He patted it with his hand and realized that it was an unknown worm. Before he could react, his head started to spin, and his limbs became heavier and weaker. He knew that Feng Qing had released the worm to bite him, but he didn't want to give up just like that. Instead, he relied on his last bit of consciousness to forcefully walk towards another secret room. There were all sorts of antidotes there, and perhaps they could cure the poison in his body.

Looking at the face that was identical to Feng Qing, Xing Wudi said in a dry and hoarse voice, "Feng Qing!"

When Di Qianmo saw that it was him, he cursed his bad luck in his heart. He staggered up and wanted to walk out, but Xing Wudi rushed up and hugged him from behind. Di Qianmo: "!!!"

The two of them lost their center of gravity and fell to the ground. Di Qianmo was pressed down by Xing Wudi, and both of them were in a blurry state. Di Qianmo had never suffered such treatment before. He barely turned around and prepared to push Xing Wudi away, but Xing Wudi kissed his thin lips.

Di Qianmo: “???”

Seeing that the two of them had fallen into a coma, a few security guards carried the two of them to the bed and even covered them with a blanket. Long Jiuyuan strongly objected to this, but Xing Wudi’s bodyguards said that this was for the sake of the family head’s recovery. Long Jiuyuan was instantly furious. She also understood how much Xing Wudi liked Feng Qing. She coldly said, “Take good care of him.” Then, Long Jiuyuan left angrily.

Very quickly, Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhan found Mr. Qing Er and the rest. They specially asked Mr. Qing Er for two disguise masks. While Mr. Qing Er was making the masks, Feng Qing even acknowledged Di Minghao.

Chapter 1172: Divine’s Light Explosion

Di Minghao didn’t believe it at first. Only when Feng Qing said that there seemed to be a stuffed toy of the same model in her villa in Penang did Di Minghao believe her because there were indeed two stuffed toys. One was taken away by Feng Yiru, and the other was the one that was torn in Di Minghao’s hand.

Mr. Qing Er exclaimed, “Little Qingqing, you’re actually the biological sister of the God Fu?”

Xia Qianxue also said, “God Fu said just now that he’s the seventh young master of the Prime Minister of the Seven Stars Continent. If you’re his biological sister, doesn’t that mean...?”

Di Minghao said, “That way, Feng Qing will be the sixth princess of our Di Palace. My father has always liked his daughter and even specially built a castle for Sixth Sister. Now that Sixth Sister is back, I’ll be liberated and no longer have to be raised as a girl. Most importantly, I’ll be free. I can go wherever I want in the future.”

Feng Qing asked, “Little Seven, do you think Mom is happy when I’m by Daddy’s side?”

Di Minghao shook his head and did not speak. He was too young at that time and did not understand these things at all. When he started to understand, Feng Yiru was already dead.

Half an hour later, just as the Divine’s Light was about to dock, a few explosions sounded on the Divine’s Light. Then, thick smoke and towering flames covered the Divine’s Light, like a dragon illuminating the night sky. The guests fell into panic, and screams and cries were everywhere. Then, escape boats were placed in the water. The guests also entered the water. This place was already very close to the shore, and they could even reach the shore just by swimming.

In the Di Palace's dining room.

The old butler reported, "Prime Minister, the Divine's Light just exploded before it entered the port. The guests on the ship left the Divine's Light in an escape boat."

Feng Jianing, who was eating, was so scared that she almost choked. She looked at the young man sitting in front of her and revealed a look of disbelief. She never expected that this ridiculously young man was actually the Prime Minister who controlled the entire Seven Stars Continent!

Di Tianxing said with a cold expression, "Explosion?"

The old butler replied, "I suspect that someone installed a bomb."

Di Tianxing mumbled, "So everyone on the ship has run away?"

The old butler said, "Prime Minister, the Sixth Princess is still up there."

Di Tianxing suddenly flew into a rage and smashed the plate on the dining table with a punch. "Liar, there's no so-called Sixth Princess on the Divine's Light!"

The next second, Di Tianxing sat back down. The anger on his face disappeared and was replaced by a strange smile. "Little Fourth actually dares to lie to me. He just wants to return to the Seven Stars Continent. Inform the navy headquarters to fire on the Divine's Light. Kill those who escape off the ship without mercy. As for Little Fourth and Little Seventh, bring them to me."

Di Tianxing continued, "Xian Cheng said before that Feng Qing from Xia country is my sixth princess. She even specially pulled out her hair for Xing Yue to do a DNA test. Is the result out?"

The old butler said, "Don't worry, Prime Minister. Our people have been watching Young Master's movements. As long as the results of the appraisal are out, we'll immediately send someone to bring the Young Masters here."

Di Tianxing snorted coldly and said, "No need. Just send someone to bring the hair sample from Xing Yue's hand and compare it with my DNA sample."

The old butler said respectfully, "I'll do it now."

At the port.

Xian Cheng and Xian Mochou looked at Di Minghao and said, "Seventh Young Master, where did you find the Healer?"

Di Minghao's tender voice replied, "I met the Healer on Fourth Brother's cruise ship. This Healer was invited to my brother's Divine's Light. She even cured my Fourth Brother's temper."

Long before the explosion, Feng Qing had asked Di Minghao to inform the Xian family to pick him up, and to tell the Xian family that the Healer of A Dark Organization was on the Divine's Light. She thought that she was treating the Xian family, but she didn't expect that she was treating Di Tianxing. Xian Mochou was tempted. If he could treat Di Qianmo's illness, he might be able to treat Di Tianxing's illness. Hence, he said, "The Healer has graced the Seven Stars Continent with his presence. Our Xian family didn't welcome you well. Please forgive us. It's getting late. Why don't you stay in the Xian Residence tonight? We'll discuss anything tomorrow."

In the Xian Mansion of the Seven Stars Continent.

After entering the room, Xie Jiuhan first confirmed that there were no surveillance and eavesdropping devices before signaling Feng Qing to take off her disguise mask and mask. Feng Qing yawned and said, "I'll take a shower first."

The corners of Xie Jiuhan's mouth curled up. "We're unfamiliar with this place. We have to shower together to avoid danger."

Feng Qing : "..."

Chapter 1173: I Think You Need a Beating Too

Just as Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhan were bathing shamelessly, Xing Yue called Xie Jiuhan. "Xie Jiuhan, how are you? Have you left the Divine's Light? Did you find Qingqing?"

Feng Qing picked up the phone. She replied with a red face, "Brother Xing Yue, I'm with Little Jiu Jiu. Don't worry, we're fine."

At this moment, Xie Jiuhan was pounding Feng Qing fiercely. The intense battle and the lewd sound of water echoed in the bathroom. Feng Qing's face was flushed red, and her expression was even more intoxicated.

On the other end of the phone, Xing Yue heaved a sigh of relief and said, "Qingqing, it's good that you're fine. I just received news that the Divine's Light exploded. When I see that pervert, Di Qianmo, I'll definitely beat him up."

Xie Jiuhan paused for a moment and said, "I think you deserve a beating too."

Xing Yue said in confusion, "What do you mean?"

Xie Jiuhan snorted coldly. "Isn't a useless person who can't even control his private phone asking for a beating? In the future, please stay away from us because you're not safe anymore."

With that, Xie Jiuhan added, "I called you a few hours ago. A woman answered."

Xing Yue's eyes trembled, and the brightness on his face was instantly replaced by gloom. If Xie Jiuhan hadn't said it, he wouldn't have known that his phone had actually been touched. In the end, Feng Qing hung up after saying 'See you in the Seven Stars Continent'. She and Xie Jiuhan then continued to do shameless things.

Half an hour later, Xing Yue found Tessa. "A surveillance video in the embassy has been deleted. Do you know about this?"

Tessa pretended to be stupid. "Huh? There's actually such a thing? How would I know?"

Xing Yue said, "Actually, I've already gotten someone to restore the surveillance camera and find a hacker to restore it."

Tessa's expression froze.

Xing Yue's eyes spewed fire as he said, "You actually dared to enter my office without permission and secretly open my password box. You even helped me answer a call?!"

Tessa said coquettishly, "Brother, you're angry about such a small matter. Besides, I didn't do anything. You didn't lose anything, right?"

Xing Yue picked up his phone and ordered, "Bring Tessa to the airport immediately and send her back to Country F. I don't want to see her here again."

Tessa said anxiously, "Brother, I don't want to go back to the country. I want to accompany you here."

Xing Yue said with a look of annoyance, "Tessa, there's a limit to my patience with you. I've already had enough of your unreasonable behavior."

The next second, Tessa suddenly pounced into Xing Yue's arms and pouted, wanting to kiss him. Xing Yue was shocked. Although he reacted quickly, she still kissed him on his cheek. Xing Yue pushed Tessa away. "Are you crazy?!"

Xing Yue reached out to Tessa in disgust. "What about my hair?"

Tessa's heart trembled. "Brother, what hair? I don't have it..."

Xing Yue raised his chin slightly, and the gaze he used to look at Tessa gradually became cold and heartless. He had gone to check just now and realized that the test tube containing Feng Qing's hair had also been touched, so he guessed that this matter was definitely related to Tessa.

Xing Yue ordered again, "Send Miss Tessa back to Country F immediately. She's not used to the environment here. Send her away quickly."

Tessa was in despair. "Brother Xing Yue..."

Xing Yue said coldly, "You're not my younger sister, and you don't treat me as your brother. From this moment on, we're strangers. Don't appear in front of me again."

The next day, in the Di Palace of the Seven Stars Continent.

The old butler placed a document in front of Di Tianxing and said, "Prime Minister, your paternity test report with Feng Qing."

Di Tianxing flipped through it and said, "I'm not related to her by blood."

The old butler nodded. "This is the result of the appraisal."

Di Tianxing looked at the report in his hand in a daze, and his expression gradually distorted. "Why isn't she related to me by blood? Why? Didn't they say that she looks very similar to Di Qianmo? Didn't they say that she looked very similar to Yiru when she was young?"

The old butler said regretfully, "The people I sent out got the hair that Feng Qing gave him back then from Young Master. The examination was also under our supervision the entire time. The examinations were done three times. At the same time, it was sent to three different organizations for judgment."

Di Tianxing said coldly, "Didn't Xian Cheng say that Feng Qing is Feng Yiru's daughter?"

Feng Jianing said, "My father said that Feng Qing is Feng Yiru's daughter. Back then, it was my father who replaced Feng Yiru's newborn daughter with a stillborn. It was also my father who sold Aunt Feng Yiru's daughter to the human traffickers. Later on, Aunt Feng Yiru even specially tampered with the results of Feng Qing and my paternity test, so Feng Qing must be Aunt Feng Yiru's daughter, but..."

Chapter 1174: You're Already Mine

Di Tianxing said coldly, "But what?"

Feng Jianing said, "It's just that she might not be the daughter of the Prime Minister and Aunt Feng Yiru."

Di Tianxing's expression froze. His face was indescribably black, but his face quickly turned pale again. The two colors quickly changed, making Feng Jianing stunned.

The next second, Feng Jianing felt that she couldn't breathe because she was lifted up by Di Tianxing with one hand. Feng Jianing patted Di Tianxing's arm with both hands. The gaze she used to look at Di Tianxing was also filled with fear and despair. She could feel from Di Tianxing that this temperamental man would really kill her.

Suddenly, something fell from Feng Jianing's body. That thing fell to the ground and a red white smoke flew up. Di Tianxing sniffed, and the madness in his eyes actually gradually dissipated. Then, Feng Jianing felt the hand on her neck loosen. She sat on the ground weakly. Di Tianxing picked up the thing on the ground and sniffed it. He said to himself, "This is Yiru's smell..."

After Feng Yiru died, it had been a long, long time since he last smelled this smell because this was the perfume Feng Yiru usually used. Originally, there was still some left on the corpse, but it had all dissipated with the passage of time.

Di Tianxing asked, "This is Feng Yiru's commonly used perfume. Do you still have it?"

Feng Jianing replied, "No, no more."

The next second, a fork was stabbed into Feng Jianing's face. Blood instantly flowed out. Feng Jianing's terrified eyes first trembled, then she let out a scream like a pig being slaughtered. Di Tianxing said, "This incense is called Yearning. It's a kind of incense specially used by Yiru. You're not worthy of using it."

With that, Di Tianxing looked at the old butler. "Give this sachet to the best perfume-making team in the Seven Stars Continent and tell them that I'll only give them a month's time. If they can't make this smell, they should know the consequences."

The old butler said respectfully, "Then Miss Feng?"

Di Tianxing said with a sick expression, "Drag her out and skin her!"

Feng Jianing: "!!!"

Instantly, the bloody scene of her skin being peeled off appeared in her mind. It wasn't easy for her to come to the Seven Stars Continent. She thought that she could enjoy a few days of bliss, but she didn't expect that she would be skinned alive.

Feng Jianing shouted in panic, "Prime Minister, all these years, I've been researching the formula for Yearning. My perfume technique was also taught by my aunt. Please give me a chance. I'll definitely develop the formula."

Di Tianxing: "You know how to mix perfume?"

The old butler said, "According to the information, Miss Feng Jianing does know how to make perfumes. She was once an intermediate perfume maker."

Di Tianxing's cold and heartless voice sounded. "I'll give you ten days. If you can't make the same smell, I'll make you into flower fertilizer."

Feng Jianing hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Prime Minister. I'll definitely concoct it."

In the Xing family of the Seven Stars Continent.

After a night of traveling, Di Qianmo was woken up by a strong urge to pee. When he opened his eyes, he realized that Xing Wudi was staring at him with his silver eyes. Di Qianmo said coldly, "Get off me, you pervert!"

Xing Wudi chuckled and said, "You're already mine."

Di Qianmo gasped and was so shocked that his eyes were about to fall out. Was Xing Wudi crazy? Or did he take the wrong medicine? Why was he talking nonsense here?

Xing Wudi said, "Don't worry. This is the Xing Residence. As long as you're with me, you're safe. No one can hurt you past me."

Di Qianmo was speechless. "Xing Wudi, f*cking wake up. I'm a man, Di Qianmo, not Feng Qing. You must be f*cking crazy. I'm going to the toilet now. Don't follow me."

After Di Qianmo came out of the toilet, he saw that Xing Wudi was still staring at him, so he said, "You just recovered and still need to rest. Have a good sleep. I'll accompany you here."

Xing Wudi smiled. "Alright, it's a deal."

Xing Wudi fainted on the bed. Not only was his entire body hot, but he was also anemic to the extreme. Even his brain was in a blurry state.

While Xing Wudi was asleep, Di Qianmo sent a message to Xing Yue. "I'm Di Qianmo. Help me confirm Feng Qing's location."

Xing Yue replied, "Where are you?"

Di Qianmo: "Cut the crap and tell me Feng Qing's location."

Xing Yue: "Give me the coordinates. I'll get the intercontinental missiles to bombard you immediately."

Di Qianmo: "I want to know if Feng Qing is safe."

Xing Yue: "Di Qianmo, you're not worthy to be my younger brother."

Chapter 1175: Hero from the Youth

A minute later, Xing Yue sent another message. "Stay in the Xing Residence and don't do anything rash. Qingqing is still in the Seven Stars Continent, but she has changed her identity. Don't cause trouble with her, in case you accidentally ruin her plan."

...

The Seven Stars Continent was clear and sunny.

The explosion of the Divine's Light yesterday and the subsequent naval bombardment did not cause any ripples in the Seven Stars Continent. Everything was carried out in an orderly manner, as if nothing had happened.

At this moment, Feng Qing was sitting in a silver Rolls-Royce. Xian Cheng personally sent her to the Di Palace. Xie Jiuhan was with her. However, the two of them were wearing human skin masks now. Xian Cheng did not know their true identities.

"Brother, look, that Ferris wheel is too big!" Feng Qing shouted out of the window in a woman's voice that she had never used before. This voice was completely different from her original voice.

“Haha, when you treat the Prime Minister’s illness, not to mention riding a Ferris wheel, I can even give it to you.” Xian Cheng turned to look at Feng Qing.

Feng Qing said, “I heard that even the Prime Minister thinks highly of the owner of this amusement park?”

Xian Cheng smiled and replied, “The Prime Minister just cherishes talents. Ever since the Seven Stars Continent was established, countless people have migrated in. However, only the owner of this amusement park doesn’t want the residence permit of the Seven Stars Continent, but he represents the peak of technology in the entire Seven Stars Continent, so the Prime Minister values him especially.”

Speaking up to this point, Xian Cheng said, “If the Healer can cure the Prime Minister’s illness, I’ll help you apply for a residence permit in the Seven Stars Continent. In the future, you can settle here for a long time.”

Feng Qing said calmly, “There’s an old saying in Xia country. It’s called ‘a silver nest is not as good as your own grass nest’. The Seven Stars Continent is indeed prosperous and is also the top stage in the world, but so what? I still like Xia country because it feels like home there.”

In the Di Palace of the Seven Stars Continent.

The old butler glanced at Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhan and asked, “Which one of you is the Healer?”

Xian Cheng introduced, “This lady is the Healer.”

The old butler sized Feng Qing up and said, “Heroes really come from youth!”

Xian Cheng asked, “Where’s the Prime Minister?”

The old butler said, “Mr. Xian, if only you could have come half a day earlier. That way, the Prime Minister might have seen you, but if you insist on seeing the Prime Minister now, it will only be... you understand.”

Xian Cheng’s body couldn’t help but tremble. “No way, I don’t think I offended him, right?”

The old butler sighed and said, “Previously, you sent back news that the girl called Feng Qing in Xia country is the Sixth Princess of the Prime Minister. However, today, we used the Prime Minister's DNA sample to compare it with Feng Qing's hair. The results of the test are that they're not father and daughter, so the Prime Minister is very angry now."

Xian Cheng said in surprise, "That shouldn't be. Feng Qing looks so similar to Fourth Young Master. Why isn't she the Sixth Princess? This doesn't make sense!"

The old butler said, "I don't know. At least, this is the result of the appraisal."

Xian Cheng was speechless. "Then bring them to see the Prime Minister. I won't go."

The old butler sighed. "How can the medical standard of the Seven Stars Continent not be comparable to the outside world? Any doctor here can become a top expert in the medical world in the outside world."

Xian Cheng said, "Let her try. Perhaps she can cure the Prime Minister. Anyway, all the doctors in the Seven Stars Continent couldn't cure the Prime Minister, right?"

The old butler nodded and looked at Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhan. "Alright, come with me."

In the Di Palace Garden.

Long Shixiang asked, "Yo, Second Young Master Xian, why are you here? I heard that you brought some Healer?"

Long Shixiang was the current head of the Long family in the Seven Stars Continent, which was also Long Jiuyuan's biological father. Long Shixiang was about fifty years old. He was dressed exquisitely and had a tall figure. When he saw people, he did not smile or speak. His eyes were always curved into crescents. The Long family was mainly in charge of the industries and scientific research in the Seven Stars Continent and had contributed a lot to the people of the Seven Stars Continent.

Xian Cheng smiled and said, "Long time no see, Patriarch Long. I heard that today is the day your top medical team comes to treat the Prime Minister. It's been hard on you."

Long Shixiang said, "Second Master Xian, everyone says that you're close to outsiders. In the past, I still had doubts, but now..."

Xian Cheng's expression turned cold, and his eyes were suffused with coldness. "Patriarch Long, there are some things that you can't say casually. If you say that I'm close to outsiders, you have to show evidence. Otherwise, you'll be judged for framing the descendants of the seven families."

Chapter 1176: Punishment to Kneel on Peanuts

Long Shixiang stroked his beard and said, "Xian Cheng, I was just joking with you. Don't be angry."

In a room in the Di Palace.

Feng Qing sipped her coffee and her gaze swept past Feng Jianing. Although she was very surprised that Feng Jianing would appear here, she didn't think much of it. Instead, she asked, "Is this lady a servant?"

The old butler hesitated for a few seconds and said, "I guess so. You can order her around like a servant."

Feng Qing waved at Feng Jianing. "Hey, you, peel the grape skin for me."

Feng Jianing : "..."

Originally, she wanted to refuse, but when she saw the old butler looking at her coldly, Feng Jianing's aura instantly weakened. Seeing that she was dawdling, the old butler said angrily, "What are you waiting for? Hurry up and serve the miracle doctor."

Feng Jianing picked up a grape and peeled it. After carefully peeling it off, the grape fell before it could reach Feng Qing's mouth. Feng Qing's expression turned cold. "Is this how your Di Palace treats guests? Is this how your servants serve their guests?"

Feng Jianing explained, "I-I'm sorry. I'm pregnant and clumsy."

Feng Qing glanced at her and grabbed a handful of peanuts from the table and threw them to the ground. "I'll punish you to kneel on the peanuts, but the peanut shell can't be broken. If you do it, I'll forgive you."

Feng Jianing looked at the old butler. The old butler did not care. Although Feng Jianing felt very aggrieved, she still slowly knelt down under the pressure of survival. However, just as her knee touched the peanut, the peanut shell shattered, making Feng Jianing's knee hurt.

The old butler said, "Alright, aren't you leaving? Why are you still embarrassing yourself here? Also, from today onwards, without my orders, you're not allowed to take half a step out of the room. Otherwise, get lost from the Di Palace."

At this moment, Long Shixiang walked in with a group of people in white coats. He walked straight to Feng Qing and said, "You're the Healer of A Dark Organization?"

Feng Qing glanced at it indifferently and said, "What's the matter?"

A person standing behind Long Shixiang asked, "May I ask if the Healer has ever published an article or academic paper in a famous international medical magazine? Do you have any academic research that you can discuss with us?"

Feng Qing sneered. "No."

That person also sneered. "Since you don't, what right do you have to be here?"

Feng Qing stretched and said very casually, "I didn't expect that so many top medical experts from the Seven Stars Continent would come to see me after I've only been here for a few minutes. However, you have to kneel to speak to me because you're not qualified to speak to me standing."

Everyone : "..."

Feng Qing looked at Long Shixiang. "Especially an old fellow like you whose kidneys are failing."

Long Shixiang : "!!!"

Feng Qing did not wait for him to get angry and said, "You? You should have suffered from acute nephritis or glomerulonephritis. Now, you even have the problem of pain. You've undergone at least two kidney surgeries. Although your recovery is not bad, your complexion and the whites of your eyes show that you're a person with kidney problems, especially in bed. You basically can do it anymore. It's already considered a lot if you can last for five seconds."

Long Shixiang : "..."

With that, Feng Qing looked at the old butler. "Can the Prime Minister still come? If he doesn't come out, I'll take my leave first. Not to mention that your Di Palace's coffee is bad, but these nuts aren't fragrant enough. They're not as delicious as the Xian family's."

The old butler : "..."

He had been a butler here his entire life, but this was the first time he had heard someone point out that the food wasn't delicious. Di Tianxing didn't like sweet food, so the food in the Di Palace was usually sugar-free, but it wasn't to the extent of being unpalatable. He never expected that Long Shixiang would offend this miracle doctor, and in the end, their Di Palace would also be blamed.

Seeing that the old butler could not be sure when the Prime Minister would come out, Feng Qing completely lost her patience. She stood up and walked out of the living room.

However, just as she took a step out of the living room, she saw a tall and strong man appear in front of her. Feng Qing subconsciously looked over and her pupils trembled violently. The man in front of her was too beautiful. His face was not inferior to Xie Jiuhan's at all, and his temperament was above all living beings. There was also a world-weary and evil aura between his brows. Without needing to ask, Feng Qing knew that this man was the Prime Minister of the Seven Stars Continent, the master of the Di Palace, her father—Di Tianxing.

Di Tianxing's thin lips were filled with an indescribable smile. His good-looking and large eyes were filled with strangeness and teasing as he looked at Feng Qing. He said in a magnetic and slightly low voice, "It looks like it's very lively here."

Chapter 1177: You're Crazy

With Di Tianxing's appearance, Feng Qing felt that the surrounding magnetic field seemed to have changed. It became distorted and chaotic, as if a huge fluctuation had appeared. Long Shixiang and the others, who had been clamoring just now, had all become frosted eggplants.

It was silent behind Feng Qing. Everyone lowered their heads one after another, not daring to look at this person directly. It was similar to the scene where a murderous lunatic suddenly appeared in front of the audience in the hall with a large machete in his hand and greeted them with a smile. Wasn't it scary? If cold and arrogant were the words to describe Xie Jiuhan, this man could only be described as evil, strange, and terrifying.

Di Tianxing smiled and looked into Feng Qing's eyes. It was the joy of a hunter seeing a new prey. There was excitement and cruelty in it. Feng Qing retracted her gaze without changing her expression. "You should be the Prime Minister, right?"

Di Tianxing raised his chin slightly and did not make any sound, but his high and mighty arrogant aura that looked down on all living beings had already answered Feng Qing's question. Seeing the man like this, Feng Qing could not help but nod. "Yes, you're indeed quite sick."

Everyone : "..."

Di Tianxing : "..."

However, Di Tianxing quickly asked, "You can tell that I'm sick?"

Although it was just a very ordinary question and the man did not deliberately emphasize it, it sounded terrifyingly dignified and imposing in everyone's ears. It was as if a large hand had fallen from the sky and wanted to crush the people below to death. Long Shixiang and the others were so scared that they almost forgot to breathe.

Feng Qing smiled and pointed at her head. "You must be seriously ill here!"

Everyone : "..."

Di Tianxing : "..."

With that, as if afraid that the other party wouldn't understand, Feng Qing added, "To put it bluntly, you're crazy."

Everyone: "!!!"

Now, Long Shixiang and the others only had one thought, and that was to leave this place quickly. In their eyes, Feng Qing was no different from a dead person. It was not that they did not dare to say this to the Prime Minister, but those people had already passed away.

However, Di Tianxing placed his hands on his waist and raised his head to laugh loudly. After laughing for a while, he said, "You think I'm crazy? Is there a basis? Actually, I'm not sick because no one can treat me. Since I can't be treated, then it means that I'm not sick."

However, Feng Qing said, "Don't compare me to those trash. I'm different from them."

Di Tianxing said with interest, "In that case, how can you prove that you're not trash?"

Feng Qing reached out her hand and said, "Stretch out your left hand."

Di Tianxing did not hesitate at all and obediently did as he was told. Feng Qing grabbed his wrist, but such a simple action made Di Tianxing's entire body tremble. An indescribable feeling rushed into his brain.

Three seconds later, Feng Qing said, "Get someone to bring me your medical report for the past three months, especially the scans of your brain. If you don't have them, take a few now."

At this moment, Long Shixiang said, "How dare you! Who do you think you are? Do you think you can look at the Prime Minister's things whenever you want?"

Di Tianxing's voice suddenly turned cold. "Give it to her!"

Long Shixiang : "..."

Di Tianxing smiled again and said, "Little fellow, what's your name?"

Feng Qing released the man's wrist and said, "Healer."

The next second, Di Tianxing grabbed Feng Qing's hand and pushed her against the wall. He pinched Feng Qing's chin with his other hand and forced her to look into his eyes. Before Di Tianxing could speak, a large hand grabbed his wrist and pressed down his arm that was holding Feng Qing's chin. Di Tianxing seemed to be interested as he felt the other party's surging strength. He released Feng Qing and fought with Xie Jiuhan.

Unlike Xie Jiuhan's bold moves, Di Tianxing's every move was sinister and vicious. The two of them went back and forth, and for a moment, neither of them could take advantage of the other. However, wherever the two of them passed, the items were all implicated. Even a few crystal lights on the ceiling were smashed.

Everyone, including the old butler, was stunned. They were so shocked that their eyes were about to shoot out. They didn't expect that Di Tianxing would fight with someone again. Moreover, someone dared to fight Di Tianxing.

After a hundred moves, Xie Jiuhan and Di Tianxing each took a punch from the other party and leveraged on each other to pull away. Di Tianxing wiped the blood from the corners of his mouth. Then, a strange, evil, and terrifying smile appeared on his face. He didn't expect to meet two such interesting little fellows today. It had been a long time since he was so excited.

Di Tianxing asked, "Who are you?"

Xie Jiuhan said coldly, "The Healer's bodyguard and assistant. She's just treating you, so don't touch her. Otherwise, no matter who you are, I'll beat you up."

Chapter 1178: What Perfume

Di Tianxing sighed. "Interesting, it's really too interesting. I didn't expect there to be experts in the outside world."

Xie Jiuhan ignored Di Tianxing. Instead, he walked to Feng Qing and gently wiped the place where Di Tianxing had pinched Feng Qing with his sleeve. His focused expression was as if he was wiping a precious treasure he loved. However, this scene was wrong in the eyes of others. Wasn't this an insult to the Prime Minister?

Di Tianxing sneered coldly. His body exuded a terrifying killing intent that said, "I'll kill you all." Xie Jiuhan also released his terrifying killing intent to warn the other party, "If you dare to do anything rash again, I'll kill you!"

Because there were no recent brain scans, Di Tianxing wanted to take a few. Before he left, Di Tianxing said to Feng Qing with a terrifying smile, "Healer, right? I'll go and take the scan now. If you can't come up with a concrete and feasible treatment plan, I'll dig out your brain and make it into a specimen."

Feng Qing just smiled faintly. However, this most ordinary smile was as if someone had poked Di Tianxing's heart with a finger.

After Di Tianxing left, Feng Qing looked at his medical records and personal information carefully. It turned out that Di Tianxing had already been diagnosed with a borderline personality when he was 14 years old. It was this personality that had made him. He had an IQ that far exceeded ordinary people since he was young, and his physique was especially strong. He flattened the Seven Stars Continent, suppressed the seven families, and built the Seven Stars Continent into the top holy land in the world. His achievements were incomparable, but he was also a decisive and cruel person. This temperament became more and more uncontrollable with Feng Yiru's death.

Soon, Di Tianxing returned with the scans. Feng Qing was reviewing the scans, and Di Tianxing was sitting elegantly and lazily on the sofa beside her. However, his sickly eyes were staring at Feng Qing, as if he wanted to swallow her up.

After a long time, Feng Qing said, "You need acupuncture treatment."

Di Tianxing: "Acupuncture?"

Before he could finish his sentence, a box of slender silver needles appeared on the coffee table. Feng Qing gestured for Di Tianxing to bring his head over. Long Shixiang roared, "What are you doing?!"

Feng Qing rolled her eyes at him. "Are you blind?"

Long Shixiang: "How dare you? The Prime Minister's head is so noble. How can you poke it around?"

Feng Qing said, "Prime Minister, your dog is so noisy and annoying."

Di Tianxing narrowed his eyes and said, "Ah Fu, slap him."

The old butler said respectfully, "Yes, Prime Minister."

The old butler had already slapped Long Shixiang's face twice. Although the old butler was not young anymore, his skill was very clean. Clearly, he was an old man with extraordinary skills. Long Shixiang was dumbfounded by his slap. The doctors were also silent like cicadas in the winter. Long Shixiang was one of the heads of the seven families in the Seven Stars Continent after all. But he was slapped in public because of Feng Qing's words.

Di Tianxing said, "If you dare to talk nonsense again, I'll get the servants to cut off your tongue and feed it to the dogs. Ah Fu, send Patriarch Long out of the Di Palace."

Long Shixiang covered his face. "..."

After Long Shixiang was chased away, Di Tianxing smiled and looked at Feng Qing. "Are you happy now?"

However, the answer was Feng Qing's silver needles. The silver needles pierced into Di Tianxing's head with incomparable precision. Then, silver needles kept stabbing Di Tianxing's face and other parts. Di Tianxing kept sniffing because he smelled that familiar fragrance again.

Di Tianxing asked, "What perfume did you use?"

After the acupuncture, Feng Qing said, "If the Prime Minister likes it, I'll give you a bottle after the treatment."

Di Tianxing's eyes gradually became dangerous. "Have you heard of Feng Yiru? Your smell is very similar to the fragrance on her body, but I can't say what's different."

In a room in the Di Palace.

Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhan had just finished treating Di Tianxing. The two of them were brought here by the old butler to rest, but the two of them unintentionally encountered a mechanism in this room. A huge bookcase against the wall moved aside, revealing a passageway hidden behind.

Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhan looked at each other and saw excitement and curiosity in each other's eyes. Hence, the two of them walked along the passageway. The passageway became darker and darker as they walked further and further away. The two of them did not know how far they had walked before they finally reached the end. To their shock, at the end was a huge luxurious room. It was as luxurious as the presidential suite where Di Tianxing lived.

Feng Qing was puzzled. "Why did he build such a room in such a deep place?"

Chapter 1179: Obtaining the Antidote

Xie Jiuhan said, "I don't know, but from the renovations here, it shouldn't be for ordinary people to live in."

The two of them walked into the room and saw a person lying on the huge bed. Moreover, it was a living person. Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhuan looked at each other and were very surprised. They didn't expect that there was really someone here.

Feng Qing walked to the bed and looked at the person lying on the bed. She realized that the other party was also looking at them. This was a young and beautiful woman. The strange thing was that this woman actually had long and wavy pink hair that was as smooth as silk scattered on the bed. The woman's eyebrows were like distant mountains, and her eyes were like almonds. Her skin was even more well-maintained, giving off a crystal clear feeling. However, the woman looked like a typical mixed-blood at a glance because her deep eye sockets and hooked nose were obviously not characteristics of an Oriental.

At this moment, Xie Jiuhuan, who had seen the woman, was shocked. Xie Jiuhuan's entire body couldn't help but tremble, and his face instantly turned pale. Feng Qing said in confusion, "Little Jiu Jiu, what's wrong with you? Are you feeling unwell?"

Xie Jiuhuan pointed at the woman on the bed and asked in an indescribable tone, "You, you... are Chu Yun?"

This time, it was the woman on the bed's turn to be shocked. She sat up on the bed and sized Xie Jiuhuan up. "You are? Why do I feel that you look a little familiar?"

Feng Qing said anxiously, "Little Jiu Jiu, do you know her?"

Xie Jiuhuan forced himself to be calm. "Of course I know her because I'm her son."

Feng Qing: "!!!"

Chu Yun's eyes trembled. She sized Xie Jiuhuan up again. "You-you're my son? You're Xie Jiuhuan?"

Chu Yun was from the collateral branch of the Chu family in Xia country back then. She entered the entertainment industry at the age of six because of her sweet appearance. At the age of 14, she obtained many awards and was called the youngest Best Actress at that time. However, her career stopped abruptly at the age of 18. Chu Yun chose to temporarily withdraw from the entertainment industry and enter school to study. When she graduated from university, she had already obtained two doctorates.

For a talented and outstanding woman like her, her pursuers could line up from Country F to Xia country. In the end, the one who successfully wooed her was Old Master Xie. The Xie family's sudden rise was also thanks to a lot of help from the Chu family. Later on, Chu Yun gave birth to Xie Jiuhuan and his brothers. Feng Qing also knew what happened after that.

Xie Jiuhan felt incredulous as he looked at his mother, who was like a fairy descending to the mortal world, on the bed. He never expected to see his mother in the Di Palace. He even thought that his mother was no longer alive. Why was she hidden in the underground room of the Di Palace?

Feng Qing also looked at Chu Yun in disbelief. This woman, who was so beautiful that it made people forget themselves and gasp in admiration, was her mother-in-law. Although the illness and time were corroding this woman at all times, it did not make her look old at all. At this moment, Chu Yun was wearing a white bathrobe and looked especially calm and lazy. Her face was still red from bathing. A beautiful woman like her seemed to be hidden and not discovered.

This was also the first time Chu Yun had seen the adult Xie Jiuhan. She was excited for a while before revealing a charming smile. "Jiuhan, we finally met."

The beauty's smile was like spring flowers blooming, giving off a spring breeze. Unlike other women, Chu Yun always exuded the feeling of a blooming rose, making people want to approach her.

Xie Jiuhan calmed down and said, "I want to talk to you about the PG18 antidote. You're from the Chu family, so you should know how to make the antidote, right?"

Chu Yun sized Xie Jiuhan up curiously and smiled. "Look at me now. You should know that I've already developed the antidote, right?"

Xie Jiuhan said directly, "I want the PG18 antidote. Name your conditions, I'll satisfy them all."

Chu Yun said in surprise, "You should be poisoned with PG19, right? Why do you want the antidote for PG18?"

Xie Jiuhan said coldly, "You don't have to worry about that. Just state your conditions."

Chu Yun got off the bed and pressed another mechanism. The bed moved sideways and revealed a very narrow passageway again. Soon, Chu Yun took out two small black bottles.

Chu Yun said, "These two are the antidote for PG18 and 19, respectively. I'll give them to you now. This should be your wife, Feng Qing, right? This antidote is a token of my appreciation as a mother-in-law."

Feng Qing : "..."

She never expected that the antidote she and Xie Jiuhan had been thinking about for so long would be obtained so easily. In order to cure the poison in their bodies, the two of them had spent an unknown amount of money and energy. They had already lost all hope, but they didn't expect Chu Yun to still be alive.

Feng Qing asked curiously, "Why are you staying here?"

Chu Yun said, "Because I like to be alone."

Feng Qing said in disbelief, "It's that simple?"

Chu Yun smiled and said, "Of course. Otherwise, who could stay in such a place forever?"

Feng Qing asked again, "Then why didn't you go somewhere else to be alone? Why did you have to be under the Di Palace?"

Chu Yun smiled and said, "Because the Di Palace is my home to begin with."

Feng Qing : "..."

Xie Jiuhan explained, "I once sent someone to investigate the Chu family. At the start of the Seven Stars Continent, the current location of the Di Palace was the Chu family. However, later on, the Chu family left Xia country and went to the West, so this place was occupied by others."

With that, Xie Jiuhan said, "You've disappeared for so many years. Aren't you coming home with me?"

Chu Yun shook her head. "No, let me live quietly alone. Back then, your father went crazy and separated us. At that time, I had already lived enough. Not only did that crazy man inject you with that virus, but he also injected me with that thing. In order to prevent that crazy man from finding me again, I built this room under the Di Palace to hide because this is the safest place and the only place the Xie Corporation can't set foot in."

Feng Qing looked curious. "Then does Di Tianxing know that you live here?"

Chu Yun said, "Of course he knows. Otherwise, how could I be able to live here? It's just that this is a deal between Di Tianxing and our Chu family. Back then, the Di family's power was not strong enough, but they had the intention to dominate the entire Chu family. Therefore, they made a deal with the Chu family. The Chu family secretly sponsored and helped the Di family to dominate the Seven Stars Continent, and the Di family was in charge of protecting the Chu family."

Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhan looked at each other. They couldn't believe their ears. Why was the deal between the two super families so funny? It was like a child playing house. It was completely unbelievable now.

Feng Qing couldn't help but ask, "How can you make such a verbal agreement on such an important matter? Aren't you afraid that the Di family will destroy the Chu family after it rises?"

Chu Yun smiled and said, "Of course not. Although the Chu family has fallen, they're not at the mercy of others. For example, I have a way to destroy the entire Seven Stars Continent. Speaking on a smaller scale, I also have the ability to easily make the entire Di Palace or the Di Corporation disappear."

With that, she added, "Of course, I won't use this ability casually. As long as the Di family keeps their promise and can protect the continuation of my Chu family."

In front of Chu Yun, Feng Qing and Xie Jiuhan took their respective antidotes. Then, their vision darkened and they fainted. When the two of them woke up again, they had already been sent back to their rooms by Chu Yun. However, they did not expect that the first thing they saw when they opened their eyes was their human skin masks. Before the two of them could speak, they saw Di Tianxing sitting on a chair by the bed and looking at them with a terrifying smile.

Di Tianxing smiled and said, "Yo, the two of you are awake? Should I call you Feng Qing? Or the Healer? And you, a bodyguard and assistant? You're obviously the president of the Xie Corporation!"

Speaking up to this point, Di Tianxing leaned forward and revealed an excited expression. "You two are too interesting!"

Feng Qing said, "What do you want? I advise you not to do anything rash. There's an explanation for the acupuncture I gave you during the day. If you don't want to die, you need me to give you acupuncture every day."

Di Tianxing crossed his legs and said, "Don't worry, I won't do anything to you. I'm just here to see my daughter and son-in-law."

Feng Qing said, "Daughter? Didn't the results say that I have nothing to do with you?"

Di Tianxing smiled and threw an appraisal report over. "While you were unconscious, I realized that something was wrong, so I came to take a look personally. In the end, I realized that the two of you had changed your appearances. After removing your disguises, I was even more shocked. I didn't expect it to be the two of you. Then, I got someone to do the appraisal. This is the latest appraisal results. The results show that you're my daughter, my sixth princess."

Feng Qing flipped through a few pages of the appraisal report and realized that it was really the latest results. The results showed that the DNA between her and Di Tianxing was 99% similar. From a biological perspective, they were biologically related.

Feng Qing asked, "How long have we been unconscious?"

Di Tianxing replied, "Not too long. Today is exactly the seventh day."
