

The Boss Behind The Game Chapter 385

After receiving Lu Wu's response, Han Yuanwu started to wait.

A moment later, a space tunnel appeared in front of him, and a figure emerged from it.

However, what surprised Han Yuanwu was that this person looked very similar to the blacksmith "Gu Dashu," except that he had an indescribable ruffian aura. He didn't look like a good person.

"My Wang bomb!" Tong Yan, who had just appeared in The Burning Sky City, gritted his teeth and said.

Han Yuanwu was stunned, clearly not understanding what the copper pendant was saying.

"I'm just a blacksmith in his eyes. Where are my human rights? where are the laws?" Tong Yan continued to complain.

"That one? You're the master blacksmith sent by the higher-ups?" Han Yuanwu asked carefully.

Although the copper pendant looked ordinary, Han Yuanwu was very respectful. After all, the ordinary-looking God that was sent here last time was a God. Han Yuanwu was very careful now.

"That's right. What's the matter?" Tong Yan raised an eyebrow, and his arrogance was revealed once more.

Han Yuanwu felt embarrassed. "Do you need me to take you to the big tree's blacksmith shop?"

"No need, I have a map. I can go there myself." Tong Yan immediately refused. Then, he walked out of Han Yuanwu's room in a familiar manner and headed to the mission location that Lu Wu had marked.

After walking out of the room, the arrogance on Tong Yan's face faded. He chuckled and quickly ran towards the tavern marked on the map.

At this moment, he only had one thought. Since he had come to the demon Phoenix great region once, he must bring back some special wine.

“If you dare to buy wine, I’ll confiscate all the soul coins you have!”

At this time, Lu Wu’s voice suddenly sounded in Tong gaoge’s mind, causing the smile on Tong gaoge’s face to instantly freeze.

“You’re so inhumane. I want human rights. Even if you’re the boss, you can’t exploit me like this.” Tong Chui immediately said in exasperation.

“Hurry up and complete the mission, and I’ll give you time to buy the wine. Otherwise, no more talking!”

“Oh, then can boss borrow some soul coins to spend after completing the mission? I’ve almost lost all my soul coins in cards recently.” Seeing that Lu Wu agreed, Tong Hang couldn’t help but start to push his luck.

“Get lost and complete the mission!”

“You only know how to be fierce.” Tong Yan mumbled, feeling wronged.

However, this time, he didn’t let his guard down and went straight to the blacksmith shop that Lu Wu had marked.

.....

At that moment, in the blacksmith shop, Gu Dashu knew that someone would come to support him after receiving the feedback from his superiors. He heaved a sigh of relief and knew that this wave of acting tough would be successful.

Thinking of this, he pushed open the door and coughed as he looked at Beichen Yidao.”

“I’ve just contacted my big brother through a secret method. He’ll come and help me with the growth-type weapon later. But I’ll ask you again. Are you sure you want to make it and won’t regret it?”

Beichen Yidao nodded his head solemnly.

“Very good, this young man has some courage. You look a bit like me when I was young. Not bad.” Gu Dashu nodded with a look of admiration.

“Uncle Gu, when did you have a big brother? It seems that you’re the only blacksmith in Brahma City with the surname Gu.” “What’s wrong?” Iaki asked curiously.

“Cough, cough. My big brother lives in seclusion in the city. He doesn’t show his face under normal circumstances.” Gu Dashu replied immediately.

Hidden character!

Other than Ishinomori, this thought suddenly appeared in the minds of everyone else, and they suddenly became a little excited.

There were many NPCs in Brahma City now, and there were indeed hidden NPCs. Some hidden NPCs would even take players to level up after their intimacy with players increased.

That was why after knowing that uncle Gu’s big brother might be a hidden NPC, they all had the idea of befriending him.

“Who is Gu Dashu!” At this moment, a figure appeared at the entrance of the blacksmith shop.

Beichen Yidao and the others immediately turned around and saw a middle-aged man who looked very similar to uncle Gu.

“Big brother, you’re here!” At this moment, Gu Dashu hurriedly walked forward and shouted at the bronze pendant.

“Oh, right. I’m your big brother.” Tong Yan nodded in realization.

...” Yuhemi and the others were speechless.

Gu Dashu felt embarrassed and immediately said,”

“Big brother, your memory doesn’t seem to be very good.”

“Don’t talk nonsense and start forging. Don’t waste time. I earn a few dozen soul coins per minute.”
Tong Yan continued to speak arrogantly.

Knowing that this person was a master blacksmith, uncle Gu didn’t dare to be presumptuous. He quickly nodded and pointed at Bei Chen,

“Big brother, this is the person who wants to forge the flesh and blood weapon!”

When Tong gua heard this, he looked at Beichen Yidao. After sizing him up, he nodded and said,”

“No problem. Let’s start. You go start the fire.”

Then, under Beichen Yidao and the others ‘surprised gazes, the bronze staff picked up the [cast of blood and flesh] sheepskin scroll on the ground and began to examine it with a critical gaze.

“Not bad! Not bad!”

“Tsk tsk, that’s amazing. Why didn’t I think of that?”

“Aiyo, this part is a little creative. The demonic god who created this thing is quite capable.”

.....

Although his gaze was critical, the forging method in the blood and flesh Forging Guide really shocked the copper pendant.

“Is this the first time you’ve seen this diagram? Is there really no problem?” “What’s wrong?” Iaki asked worriedly.

“Of course, it’s not a problem. It’s just made of flesh and blood, what can’t I make?” Tong Yan said arrogantly.

“Is hair okay?” Iaki asked in a low voice.

Copper pendant was speechless.

Tong Hang silently rolled up his sleeves. At this moment, he really wanted to beat someone up.

“I was wrong, I’m sorry!” Seeing that the situation wasn’t right, Iaki immediately bowed and apologized.

Looking at Iaki, who had instantly given up, Tong Yan suddenly felt that this attitude was very familiar, as if he had seen it somewhere before ...

On the side, Dashu Gu was constantly stimulating the flames in the furnace. The originally orange flames gradually turned black, and waves of heat radiated in all directions, causing Iaki and the others to take a few steps back.

“Big brother, that’s enough.” At this moment, Gu Dashu shouted at the bronze pendant.

“Okay, let’s start then!” With that, Tong Yan took out the materials he brought from the medium and placed them on the forging table. Then, he picked up Gu Dashu’s hammer.

However, after weighing it in his hand, Tong Yan could not help but purse his lips and throw it to the side. He then took out his legendary-quality forging hammer from the medium.

“Legendary forging hammer!” Gu Dashu was shocked to see the hammer in Tong Yan’s hand.

“What are you standing there for? throw the Obsidian, associate stonemother, and Demon Heart manao into the casting furnace and melt them!” Tong Chui looked at Gu Dashu with dissatisfaction.

“Yes!” Dashu nodded quickly. He picked out three types of ores from the casting table and threw them into the casting furnace. Then, he continued to operate the furnace to speed up the melting of the ores.

Meanwhile, the copper pendant also began to pick out the materials. After taking out the mystical materials that needed to be hammered, it began to hammer them.

With every strike of the hammer, the impurities in the mystical materials would turn into black dust and fly out.

When Gu Dashu saw this, he stared at the copper pendant while smelting the ore. He wanted to learn something from it.

“That’s right, didn’t uncle Gu ask for big brother’s help in forging? Why do I feel like he’s just an assistant now?” At this time, Iaki asked in a low voice.

Upon hearing this, Aimi Inoue and the others couldn’t help but glare at IAI, afraid that she would speak again and make a mistake.

“You over there, come here!”

At this moment, Tong Yan suddenly said to Bei Chen Yi Dao.

When Beichen Yidao heard this, he immediately walked to the side of the copper pendant.

“Hehe, put your right arm up.”

Bei Chen Yi Dao did not hesitate and immediately placed his right arm on the forging table.

This was the first time even the copper pendant had tried to cast something like this with blood and flesh. At this moment, he felt an inexplicable excitement in his heart.

As Beiqi’s best blacksmith, besides his own talent in forging, he was also very passionate about this trip. It was just that the repeated forging had already made him uninterested. However, the forging of the flesh and blood weapon had once again aroused the enthusiasm in Tong gua’s heart.

“Come on!” Beichen Yidao nodded.

“Wait, one blade, lower your pain level first!” At this moment, Iaki couldn’t help but ask.

"It's no use. It's specially forged, so the pain can't be blocked. If you want to continue, you have to endure it." Hanging copper looked at Iaki with a serious expression.

"Come on, I'm not afraid of pain!" Beichen Yidao said solemnly.

"How about this? you should lie down first. It'll be better if I help you stabilize it."

"No need, I can handle it."

"Don't, it's better to fix it." Tong Yan immediately shook his head and refused.

Beichen Yidao felt helpless. He was very confident in his ability to withstand pain. After all, he did not cry out in pain when his right arm exploded.

However, since the copper pendant had requested it, he had no choice but to do as it said. He lay on the casting table and let the copper pendant tie him up with a black rope.

"Can you really hold on?" Tong Yan asked again.

"No problem!"

"You said it yourself."

With that, tonghang picked up his hammer, and the gem embedded in the hammer began to shine. Then, he swung it down and hit Beichen Yidao's right arm.

"Bang!"

The moment the hammer came into contact with Beichen's right arm, black light seeped out of the pores on his right arm.

"Ah!" The veins on Beichen Yidao's forehead popped out, and he looked like he was in extreme pain.

Then, his body began to tremble involuntarily from the extreme pain.

This pain made Bei Chen think that his soul had left his body, and the feeling of his physical body was minimal. It was a deeper level of extreme pain that he did not know where it came from.

Looking at Beichen's saber, which was already on the verge of collapsing, Tong gua felt helpless.

He knew very well that the pain from the soul was unbearable, which was why he had warned him many times. However, it was obvious that Bei Chen's blade was not prepared.

Moreover, this kind of forging could not be done in one go. It required both the body and the soul to be forged at the same time. Even if Bei Chen's right arm was cut off, it would not be able to be forged alone.

"Can you continue?" Tong Yan could not help asking.

"No... No problem. Come on." Bei Chen's blade seemed to be exhausted, and he stuttered as he spoke.

Hearing those words, Tong Yan nodded and raised his legendary forging hammer again.

One ... Two ...

Beichen Yidao's throat became hoarse from the beating of the copper pendant. In the end, he was gagged by the copper pendant, making him unable to make a sound.

In Bei Chen's eyes, this pain was far more unbearable than death, but he still gritted his teeth and persevered ...

Atom Inoue and the others who were watching could not help but shiver at this moment.

"As expected, I'm only suited to using hair to make weapons." Looking at Kitagawa uzumami, she whispered.
