

The CEO 424

Chapter 424 Claiming Credit

Shen Jia took out a stack of documents from her bag and looked at Shen Ke as she asked, "Dad, shall I give it to Fu Ying now?"

Shen Ke nodded. "Of course."

He was very satisfied with his daughter. At the very least, she was much more levelheaded and composed than his son.

If the person sitting here was Shen Zhen, he probably would have pointed at Fu Ying's nose and cursed.

Fu Ying took the project book and read it seriously.

He had to admit that the project given by the Shen Corporation this time was indeed quite promising. The distribution of benefits satisfied Fu Ying. Moreover, a famous overseas company was the partner. Recently, Fu Ying had been wanting to expand into the overseas market.

"This project is quite good. I can collaborate with you," Fu Ying replied.

"Then congratulations on becoming partners."

Shen Jia reached out her hand. Out of courtesy, Fu Ying could only reach out and shake her hand.

Shen Jia smiled. She believed that sooner or later, Fu Ying would be able to see her unique qualities.

She was capable and pretty. She felt that men like Fu Ying probably liked beautiful career-driven women.

Men like Fu Ying were Shen Jia's type. He was bold, domineering, and didn't compromise so easily.

Only such a man could make her be with him willingly.

However, the man she liked still had his ex-wife in his heart.

Before she returned to the country, she had already investigated Fu Ying thoroughly.

After the meal, Fu Ying went home happily.

After settling the Qu family's matter today, he had to claim credit from Mo Rao.

Mo Yuan and Mo Rao were sitting at home eating when Fu Ying pressed the doorbell.

"Who is it?" Mo Rao shouted out the door.

After Mo Yuan put down his chopsticks, he stood up and walked towards the door. "Who else could it be? It's definitely Fu Ying."

He looked out through the peephole—it was indeed Fu Ying.

"Fu Ying, what are you doing here again?" Mo Yuan crossed his arms and asked angrily through the door.

“I have good news for you guys,” Fu Ying replied loudly.

Good news?

Mo Yuan and Mo Rao looked at each other in confusion.

Out of curiosity, Mo Rao asked Mo Yuan to open the door.

Fu Ying strode in, his gaze fixed on Mo Rao, but he was blocked by Mo Yuan.

“Rao Rao, the Shen Corporation won’t help Qu Xue and Qu Qin anymore.” Fu Ying told Mo Rao proudly.

At this moment, Mo Rao felt that Fu Ying was acting like a child who had scored 100 points on an exam. She couldn’t help but find it funny.

“Thank you,” Mo Rao said politely.

Fu Ying had originally hoped that Mo Rao would be more excited. Her calm response made him not know how to respond, so he simply changed the topic. “Rao Rao, your birthday is coming soon, right?”

Mo Rao had already booked a birthday banquet venue with Mo Yuan, but she didn’t plan to tell Fu Ying.

If Fu Ying went to her birthday banquet, many people would make a fuss about this.

Moreover, her birthday was supposed to be a blissful day. Mo Rao didn’t want to see Fu Ying because Fu Ying would remind her of those unhappy memories.

Now that Fu Ying had taken the initiative to ask, Mo Rao could only reply aloofly, “Yes, it’s coming up soon.”

“Rao Rao’s birthday has nothing to do with you. We know you helped do a good deed. Go back now.” Mo Yuan was worried that Fu Ying would say that he wanted to help Mo Rao celebrate her birthday, so he sent Fu Ying off.

Fu Ying was pushed out by Mo Yuan. Looking at the door that was closed by Mo Yuan, Fu Ying felt helpless.

As long as Mo Yuan was in the middle, he would never be able to woo Mo Rao again.

It seemed like he had to deal with his brother-in-law first.

Since Fu Ying had mentioned Mo Rao’s birthday, as soon as he left, Mo Yuan looked at Mo Rao and asked, “Rao Rao, have you thought of the guest list?”

Mo Rao nodded. “Yes, I made a list yesterday. I mainly want to invite some family and friends. There won’t be many people.”

“You can still celebrate amongst your family and friends this year, but if you become popular next year, you’ll have to celebrate with your fans,” Mo Yuan said with a smile.

Mo Rao didn’t think that far. She didn’t expect to become an A-list celebrity. She only wanted to continue acting and fulfill her wish.

However, if there were fans, Mo Rao would cherish them.

Cha