

The CEO 433

Chapter 433 Suicide

Before Lin Xia could finish speaking, a bodyguard behind her wrapped a rope around her neck, making her unable to breathe.

“Cough cough...”

Lin Xia grabbed the hemp rope with both hands to pull it away, but the bodyguard was extremely strong. No matter how hard Lin Xia tried, she couldn't pull the rope away. Moreover, her oxygen level was decreasing.

“K...”

She widened her eyes and stared at Gu Ci, wanting to know why Gu Ci did this, but she no longer had the chance to speak.

Lin Xia's pupils dilated and her gaze gradually became unfocused until the hand holding the hemp rope slid down and fell towards both sides of her lifeless body.

The man let go and threw her corpse to the ground mercilessly.

Gu Ci gave Jack a look, and Jack immediately went forward to deal with the aftermath.

Gu Ci had long known that Lin Xia wanted to attack Mo Rao. With this opportunity, he could save the damsel in distress and take the opportunity to get rid of Lin Xia. It was killing two birds with one stone.

After he strode out of the villa, the crows on the withered tree let out mournful cries.

As Gu Ci looked up at the black bird standing on the branch, he chuckled before getting into the Bentley again.

This assassination attempt made Mo Rao feel immense danger.

She was very puzzled. Who would find assassins to take her life?

To think about it carefully, she hadn't made enemies with anyone recently.

After returning home, Mo Rao called Gu Ci. Soon, she heard Gu Ci's gentle voice. “Mo Rao, what's wrong?”

“Are you alright?” Mo Rao was still a little worried about Gu Ci's injuries.

Gu Ci smiled and looked at his hand that was carefully bandaged as he replied, “Don't worry, I'm fine now. You must have been startled today. Just rest well.”

Gu Ci's consideration made Mo Rao feel more at ease. She couldn't help but mutter, “What happened today was indeed a little scary. I wonder who wants me dead.”

“I'll help you investigate this matter. Don't worry.” Gu Ci comforted her. “Sleep well. I've already captured those people. I think we'll get the results soon.”

Upon hearing this, Mo Rao said, “Alright, thank you.”

After hanging up, Mo Rao stopped thinking about this. She believed that Gu Ci would definitely give her an answer.

The next day, when Mo Rao returned home after filming, she passed by the special needs children's sanatorium where she had once met Momo.

Thinking of this, she realized that she hadn't seen Momo and Zhang Zhe for a long time and didn't know if they were doing.

"Rao Rao, what are you thinking?" Mo Yuan sensed that something was wrong from Mo Rao's expression and asked.

Mo Rao explained, "When I saw that sanatorium just now, I thought of Momo. When we have time, let's visit him."

"Alright, I happen to want to publicize a charity event for you recently. Why don't we do one for special needs children?" Mo Yuan suggested.

This was exactly what Mo Rao wanted. She nodded and agreed without hesitation. "Alright! We can work with that sanatorium. Perhaps this way, more people will notice these children."

The siblings reached an agreement. At this moment, Mo Rao's phone rang.

"Gu Ci, do you have the investigation results already?" Mo Rao asked impatiently as soon as she picked up the call.

Gu Ci's regretful voice came from the other end of the phone. "Yes, those criminals confessed, and their phone calls and transfer records can prove that the mastermind is Lin Xia."

"Lin Xia?!"

Mo Rao hadn't heard this name for a long time. She thought that Lin Xia had stopped causing trouble, but she didn't expect Lin Xia's hatred for her to be so deep.

"Yes, it's just... it's just that she's already committed suicide. I've already informed the police. She hanged herself in a villa in the suburbs."

When she heard Gu Ci's words, Mo Rao's hand trembled slightly.

Suicide? How could that be? Why would someone like Lin Xia commit suicide?

Mo Rao felt that something was fishy, but Gu Ci said on the other end of the phone, "There's a suicide note beside her. It says that as long as you die, she will die without regrets. Moreover, she was afraid that the police would find out about her crimes, so she committed suicide."

433 Suicide

Before Lin Xia could finish speaking, a bodyguard behind her wrapped a rope around her neck, making her unable to breathe.

"Cough cough..."

Lin Xia grabbed the hemp rope with both hands to pull it away, but the bodyguard was extremely strong. No matter how hard Lin Xia tried, she couldn't pull the rope away. Moreover, her oxygen level was decreasing.

"K..."

She widened her eyes and stared at Gu Ci, wanting to know why Gu Ci did this, but she no longer had the chance to speak.

Lin Xia's pupils dilated and her gaze gradually became unfocused until the hand holding the hemp rope slid down and fell towards both sides of her lifeless body.

The man let go and threw her corpse to the ground mercilessly.

Gu Ci gave Jack a look, and Jack immediately went forward to deal with the aftermath.

Gu Ci had long known that Lin Xia wanted to attack Mo Rao. With this opportunity, he could save the damsel in distress and take the opportunity to get rid of Lin Xia. It was killing two birds with one stone.

After he strode out of the villa, the crows on the withered tree let out mournful cries.

As Gu Ci looked up at the black bird standing on the branch, he chuckled before getting into the Bentley again.

This assassination attempt made Mo Rao feel immense danger.

She was very puzzled. Who would find assassins to take her life?

To think about it carefully, she hadn't made enemies with anyone recently.

After returning home, Mo Rao called Gu Ci. Soon, she heard Gu Ci's gentle voice. "Mo Rao, what's wrong?"

"Are you alright?" Mo Rao was still a little worried about Gu Ci's injuries.

Gu Ci smiled and looked at his hand that was carefully bandaged as he replied, "Don't worry, I'm fine now. You must have been startled today. Just rest well."

Gu Ci's consideration made Mo Rao feel more at ease. She couldn't help but mutter, "What happened today was indeed a little scary. I wonder who wants me dead."

"I'll help you investigate this matter. Don't worry." Gu Ci comforted her. "Sleep well. I've already captured those people. I think we'll get the results soon."

Upon hearing this, Mo Rao said, "Alright, thank you."

After hanging up, Mo Rao stopped thinking about this. She believed that Gu Ci would definitely give her an answer.

The next day, when Mo Rao returned home after filming, she passed by the special needs children's sanatorium where she had once met Momo.

Thinking of this, she realized that she hadn't seen Momo and Zhang Zhe for a long time and didn't know if they were doing.

"Rao Rao, what are you thinking?" Mo Yuan sensed that something was wrong from Mo Rao's expression and asked.

Mo Rao explained, "When I saw that sanatorium just now, I thought of Momo. When we have time, let's visit him."

"Alright, I happen to want to publicize a charity event for you recently. Why don't we do one for special needs children?" Mo Yuan suggested.

This was exactly what Mo Rao wanted. She nodded and agreed without hesitation. "Alright! We can work with that sanatorium. Perhaps this way, more people will notice these children."

The siblings reached an agreement. At this moment, Mo Rao's phone rang.

"Gu Ci, do you have the investigation results already?" Mo Rao asked impatiently as soon as she picked up the call.

Gu Ci's regretful voice came from the other end of the phone. "Yes, those criminals confessed, and their phone calls and transfer records can prove that the mastermind is Lin Xia."

"Lin Xia?!"

Mo Rao hadn't heard this name for a long time. She thought that Lin Xia had stopped causing trouble, but she didn't expect Lin Xia's hatred for her to be so deep.

"Yes, it's just... it's just that she's already committed suicide. I've already informed the police. She hanged herself in a villa in the suburbs."

When she heard Gu Ci's words, Mo Rao's hand trembled slightly.

Suicide? How could that be? Why would someone like Lin Xia commit suicide?

Mo Rao felt that something was fishy, but Gu Ci said on the other end of the phone, "There's a suicide note beside her. It says that as long as you die, she will die without regrets. Moreover, she was afraid that the police would find out about her crimes, so she committed suicide."