

THE ELITE ASSASSIN BECOMES A FLAT AND UGLY NERD!

Chapter 1

Betrayal

At the top of the Federation's top secret building, Ling Yue retreated to the edge of the rooftop with a small password box in her arms.

In front of her, thirty laser guns were all aimed at her. As long as she was shot by any one of the bullets, her body tissue would dissolve at any moment and she would die on the spot.

As the number one killer in the world, Ling Yue was already used to facing such life-and-death situations. Ling Yue did not panic at all. Her eyes were like a pool of deep water. She pretended to raise a hand and said, "I surrender."

As long as she killed the commander in front of her, the organization would send a plane to pick her up. She would be able to escape successfully and this mission would be successful!

"Hand over the top-secret information in your hands immediately! Then..." As expected, Ling Yue's pretense of surrender worked. The commander appeared. Before he could finish speaking, Ling Yue moved quickly and fired a nanometer bullet from her palm, instantly ending his life!

Seeing a figure in a suit slowly fall, Ling Yue's lips curled up slightly. She was about to take a leap with the top-secret information. According to the plan, she could land on the pickup plane prepared by the organization and quickly evacuate. Her decades of working for the organization will all end perfectly.

30 seconds had already passed. But why hadn't the organization's pickup plane appeared yet!?

Ling Yue glanced at the watch on her wrist, and her eyes quickly darkened. Suddenly realizing something, she suddenly took out the password box hidden in her arms and opened it without hesitation.

As expected, it was not a large-scale biochemical reagent as the organization had claimed, but a miniature bomb that was counting down.

When she saw that there were only ten seconds left on the countdown timer, Ling Yue's pupils constricted. At the same time, an extremely smug laugh suddenly came from behind the crowd. "Ling Yue, the organization has already found a better replacement. Welcome this death that has been meticulously prepared for you!"

Immediately after, Ling Yue saw extremely familiar faces. They were all her colleagues whom she had once treated as family...

Looking at the blinding blue light shining from the surrounding guns, Ling Yue knew that even if she immediately threw away the bomb, she would be turned to dust by these lasers.

"Hahahaha! How ironic." Ling Yue laughed instead of being angry. She was laughing so hard that tears were about to fall.

She had been brought up in an assassin organization and trained for thirteen years. She had completed countless important missions for the organization. At the age of seventeen, she had become the world's number one assassin and the sharpest and most powerful knife in the organization.

Days of bloodshed. She'd thought the organization was her home, always ready to lay down her life for it. She hadn't expected her mission to seize federal secrets to be a sham. The organization she trusted so much had always used her. When they found it difficult to control her, they betrayed her and took her life!

As countless lasers were about to hit her body, Ling Yue revealed a hateful smile and ruthlessly pressed a button hidden in her palm.

From the moment she had entered this building, she had installed explosive devices in every corner of the building. She even brought along a powerful corrosive gas bullet with her. It was originally used by Ling Yue to take down the enemy with her just in case. Since everyone in the organization had come to laugh at her, she might as well drag them down to hell with her!

“Boom—”

There was a series of violent explosions. Blood and flesh flew everywhere. Half the federal building collapsed. The ashes of Ling Yue’s inconspicuous body, burned by the laser, were lifted into the sky by the heat wave.

“80,000? Are you trying to get rid of a beggar? Look at my daughter. She’s already in a vegetative state. She’ll need someone to serve her for the rest of her life. How can 80,000 be enough? At least give us 300,000! Otherwise, I’ll go to the entrance of your school every day and let the entire world know that you caused a student to become a vegetable!”

“Shan Yue’s mother, be reasonable. It was clearly your daughter who ran to the school’s artificial lake during self-study time before she fell into the water, but it has nothing to do with the school! It was Shan Yue who didn’t abide by the school’s rules first. We’ve already done our best by compensating your family with 80,000 yuan!”

“Since something happened to my daughter at school, it’s the school’s responsibility! If you don’t build some artificial lake, will my daughter be in a vegetative state from the water? Now that my daughter can’t wake up, you can take care of her from now on!”

The deafening explosion a second ago was still ringing in her ears, but a second later, the sounds of argument, television, and screams all entered her ears, making Ling Yue's head hurt even more.

"Shut up!" Ling Yue sat up abruptly.

As soon as Ling Yue finished shouting, the ward immediately fell into a strange silence.

"Who are you?" Ling Yue frowned, her anger obvious. However, as soon as she spoke, she was shocked by her rough, hoarse voice.

She looked down at her body again. There were several layers of fat that could not be covered by the loose hospital gown. Her belly was red from the sun, her arms were hairy, and her thighs and calves were swollen like radishes.

Ling Yue was stunned. This wasn't her body at all! What was going on?

Hearing Shan Yue speak, everyone reacted and approached the bed.

"Daughter, you're finally awake! Are you feeling unwell?" Shan Yue's father, Shan An, said with a worried expression.

"Shan Yue's mother, since your daughter is not in a vegetative state, we can rest assured. As for the 300,000 yuan you mentioned previously, it's simply extortion. The school will never agree to such an unreasonable request." The dean of the Student Affairs Department, who had been arguing with Shan Yue's mother for a long time, smiled.

"What do you mean? My daughter just asked who we were. She must have damaged her brain. What if the aftereffects affect her college entrance examination? Then wouldn't our family have paid for her school fees for so many years for nothing? You have to make up for our losses. I will never agree to only 80,000 yuan!” Shan Yue’s mother, Sun Ling, was anxious. She glanced at the stocky Shan Yue on the hospital bed and continued to shout with her hands on her hips.

“Alright, go out and talk! Yueyue has just woken up. How can she rest if you disturb her like this?” Shan An couldn’t help but say.

When all the noisy people had gone out, Ling Yue finally noticed the television on the wall. It was reporting a piece of news. “Yesterday, there was a huge unexplained explosion at the top of the Federation’s top secret building...”

She managed to trigger the explosion and kill a lot of people in the organization! But why is she still alive?
