

THE ELITE ASSASSIN BECOMES A FLAT AND UGLY NERD!

Chapter 16

Obey the Teacher Rules

“This fat pig girl actually wants to make a last-ditch struggle. I’m dying of laughter.”

“She couldn’t have done such a difficult math problem!”

“If that idiot Shan Yue could do a math question, even a sow can climb a tree. Let’s make a bet. If Shan Yue can answer it, I’ll eat shit upside down!” The students who were watching the show discussed.

Shan Yue only took a look at the questions on the blackboard and immediately calculated the final answer in her mind.

It could be said that Li Xiao had not even finished half of the lesson. The difficulty was not even as difficult as the college entrance examination question that she had taught Shan Chen to write that night.

After a slight pause, Shan Yue raised her hand and quickly wrote down the solution amid the curses and mockery.

“Damn! What’s she doing? Answering questions? Am I blind?”

The student who was laughing happily froze.

A student who wanted to conclude that Shan Yue was randomly writing questions was stunned when he flipped to the reference answer and compared the first half of the steps.

Shan Yue was very fast. It was so fast that it did not give Li Xiao and the entire class time to react.

After putting down a piece of chalk, Shan Yue clapped her hands and turned to look at Li Xiao, who was at the side of the podium. She asked, "Miss Li, did I answer it correctly?"

Only then did Li Xiao recover from her shock and subconsciously look at the answer that Shan Yue had written on the blackboard.

The handwriting was neat and powerful. The layout was clean, and the solution was clear at a glance. The steps were clear and orderly, even more detailed than the reference answers. It was even clearer than Li Xiao's answers. The final answer was very standard. It could be said to be a perfect answer.

Seeing that Li Xiao was staring at the blackboard in disbelief and not saying anything, Shan Yue turned her gaze to her classmates and swept her gaze across their faces.

Why did those who had been mocking her, saying that she couldn't even count, stop talking?

The few boys who were laughing the loudest were already so embarrassed that they did not dare to look up. The classmate who was clamoring that he would eat shit upside down as long as Shan Yue answered the questions also wished he could stuff himself into the table.

Only the two girls suddenly seemed to have discovered something when they looked at Shan Yue. They exclaimed, "Why did Shan Yue change her hairstyle? Her bangs are all clipped up!"

Only then did everyone notice that Shan Yue, who had thick bangs and eyes that were always hidden behind her hair and did not dare to look anyone in the eye, had fixed her bangs to the sides with small clips, revealing two big eyes.

Even after being sized up by so many people, Shan Yue was still calm and composed. She did not panic at all. This was something that the students had never seen before.

“I think she’s quite good-looking just by looking at her eyes...” A female classmate lowered her voice and said to her deskmate.

“That’s right. Perhaps there’s too much fat on her face, blocking her facial features. Otherwise, her facial features would actually be very good,” another person added.

At some point, the fat girl who used to be like a street rat had quietly changed from the inside out. Although it was impossible to see any changes if one did not look carefully, everyone was sure that the fat girl had really changed!

After comparing the answers seven or eight times, Li Xiao’s eyes were about to blur. She could not find a single mistake. Her expression was ugly. In the end, she had no choice but to admit, “You... did everything correctly.”

For a poor student to be able to solve this question, she must have seen the answer in advance, right?

Li Xiao was furious. She had been careless!

“In that case, I’ll go down, Miss Li.” Shan Yue deliberately smiled at her with a harmless expression that almost angered Li Xiao to death.

When she passed by Li Xiao, Shan Yue could still feel Li Xiao’s resentful and resentful gaze on her. Hence, Shan Yue deliberately paused for a moment before turning to Li Xiao and saying meaningfully, “Since you’re a teacher, you should follow the rules of a teacher. Otherwise...”

The Federation had a rule that if a teacher did anything unrelated to the class during the teaching period that harmed the student’s body and mind, the student could report it. The Federal Education Department would severely punish the teacher.

Just based on Li Xiao's insults to Shan Yue in class just now, it was enough for Li Xiao to suffer a little.

Li Xiao had clearly just remembered this. Previously, she had bullied Shan Yue too simply and casually, causing her to get carried away. She had actually forgotten the most important teaching principle.
