

THE ELITE ASSASSIN BECOMES A FLAT AND UGLY NERD!

Chapter 4

Leaving School to Work

Sun Ling slammed the table and pointed at Shan Yue's nose as she scolded, "You want to leave with just a wipe of your mouth? Dream on! You're already stupid and useless. You don't even know how to help your parents share the pressure and eat at home for free. Go, hurry up and mop the floor and wash the dishes! In the future, you're not allowed to eat until you finish the housework!"

The original owner of the body was already bullied at home. She was the one who did all the housework. Because she was too tired, she ate more than ordinary people. Because she ate too much, she easily gained weight. It was already late at night when she finished the housework. She even had to stay up late to catch up on her homework, causing endocrine imbalance. As a result, she became fatter and fatter.

And now, Sun Ling was actually threatening her with her inability to eat?

Shan Yue said coldly, "It's already midnight when I finish all the housework alone. Don't I have to rest and go to school?" Even a donkey had to eat grass and drink water to rest and sleep, right?

Seeing that Shan Yue was having a hard time, Shan Xing became happy. Although she was in the same grade as Shan Yue, Shan Yue was in the worst class, while she was in the best class. Therefore, her words were filled with disdain. "Haha, what's the use of you going to school? You get five points and ten points every time, and you always get the last place. You say you want to go to school? You're really going to laugh your head off!"

“Xingxing, don’t talk about your sister like that!” Shan An couldn’t stand it anymore and stopped her.

“Shan An, why are you showing off here? Do you have the right to speak in this family?” Sun Ling spat and pointed at Shan An as she scolded, “You only earn that 5,000 yuan every month. How can a family of five have enough to eat? My former classmate’s husband has already gotten rich and bought a big house and a car. Only you are still working like a horse. I was really blind back then! I married a good-for-nothing like you and gave birth to a pig-like daughter like Shan Yue. I’m really unlucky...”

Shan An was an honest person and usually treated the original owner well. However, he was very afraid of his wife. As long as Sun Ling scolded him, he did not dare to speak. He lowered his head and wiped the sweat on his forehead.

Sun Ling was in the middle of scolding them. She looked at Shan An and Shan Yue and said, “In my opinion, you won’t be able to get any results even if you study for a month. You might as well stop going to school and go out to work. You can help your family earn money and have time to work! Shan Yue, call your form teacher later and tell her that you won’t go to class in the future. I’ll go to school next week to get your tuition fees back!”

Seeing that Sun Ling was really prepared to do this, the expressions of the three people other than Shan Yue changed.

No matter how useless Shan An was, he understood that a girl had to go to school to receive education. It was impossible for her to drop out of school and go to work. He immediately rejected, “No, Yueyue is in the critical stage of her third year of high school. How can she not go to school? Our family doesn't have money, but it's not to the extent of making Yueyue go to work..."

The more he spoke, the more guilty Shan An felt. Indeed, the couple's income was meager, and they could only earn money by working hard labor. Furthermore, they had to support three children who were going to key high schools. The pressure was really great. He could not earn much in a month, let alone have the right to speak.

"I wake up early in the morning and work late at night every day. I worked so hard to pay for her to go to school, but she scored five points. It's so embarrassing! It's a waste of money to study with a pig's brain like hers! Shan An, shut up. Son, Xingxing, both of you are good children. Since your father doesn't agree, why don't you make a statement?" As she spoke, Sun Ling looked at Shan Chen and Shan Xing, hoping that they would agree to Shan Yue's suggestion to drop out of school.

No matter how Sun Ling lost her temper and criticized her, Shan Yue was indifferent. She was not a weak Host, nor did she treat Sun Ling as her mother.

As a top-notch killer who had been practicing killing since she was young and was used to seeing all kinds of situations, she did not care about these small matters at all. If she annoyed her, she would just kill her directly.

She definitely had to continue studying. With her current status, the college entrance examination was the most important thing. Without a degree, it was equivalent to losing the ladder to the upper class. Even if Sun Ling did not provide for her studies, couldn't she just earn money to pay for her tuition fees?

Hence, Shan Yue sat back down without a word and dug her fingers as she waited for Sun Ling to finish.

Shan Xing rolled her eyes and said maliciously, “Of course it’s most important for Sister to be happy. Since Sister doesn’t like to study usually, why don’t we let her do something she likes? She can also share the pressure with Dad and Mom. I think it’s quite good!”
