Chapter 54: A Challenging Question

Previously, the organization had caused her to be reduced to ashes. So for revenge, should she directly wipe out the organization's branch at the Capital University, right? Or would it be better to transport a truckload of explosives and blow them all up?

At the thought of a carefree revenge scene, Shan Yue immediately revealed a malicious smile.

Shan Chen thought that she was tempted by the matter of getting into the Capital University and quickly introduced, "Lin Xiao is from the Mathematics Department of the Capital University. He said on Tieba that the academic atmosphere of the Capital University is especially strong. The professors are all very amiable. They would answer all the questions asked by the students seriously. They often recruit talented students and are waiting to take them in as disciples to continue exploring further academic paths."

"Really? It seems to suit you. I'll pass. I'm not interested in these things." Shan Yue smiled. If she were really an ordinary high school student, she might really treat these as her lifelong pursuit. Unfortunately, she was the world's number one killer, Ling Yue, and there were more important things for her to do.

At this point, Shan Chen remembered that he had not seen Lin Xiao's sharing post for a long time. Seeing that Shan Yue was busy typing on the keyboard, he took out his phone and started browsing.

After a while, Shan Chen subconsciously exclaimed.

Seeing Shan Yue look up curiously, Shan Chen quickly handed the phone to her. "Lin Xiao posted a question on the Internet a month ago. It seems to have been written by several professors. Hundreds of thousands of netizens have tried to answer it, but after so long, no one has been able to solve it completely! Several famous mathematical gods on the Internet can only write a small portion of the beginning."

Seeing that Shan Yue seemed to have started to look at the question seriously, Shan Chen immediately looked forward to it. "Sister, try to do it. If you can do half of it, I can post it online to show off. You're much better than those so-called mathematics gods..."

Moreover, Lin Xiao had also listed the rewards and preferential treatment after solving the questions at the end of the post under the instructions of a few famous professors from the Capital University. It could be said that this question was not only a challenge to the entire world, but also an invitation to enter the academic circle of the supreme academy.

"I'll try." Seeing that Shan Chen was so excited, Shan Yue could not dampen his enthusiasm. She had the mentality of giving it a try. After quickly reading the questions, inspiration came to her mind.

Shan Yue took a draft book and thought for a moment before starting to write. The more she wrote, the clearer her thoughts became. In the end, Shan Yue wrote four pages smoothly. Then, she put down her pen and said calmly, "This should be the solution."

Shan Chen took the four pieces of draft paper and felt that none of the various characters on them could be understood. He knew that this had already reached a realm he could not understand. He could not even tell how far Shan Yue had written the questions.

However, Shan Chen was still very proud of his sister's ability to write out the process of four pieces of paper in such a short period of time. He took a photo of the problem solving process and posted it online without any accompanying text.

"It's time to eat!" Sun Ling stuck her head in. When she saw that Shan Yue was actually in Shan Chen's room again, she was immediately unhappy. The two of them had computers in front of them instead of homework.

"Shan Yue, what are you doing now..." As soon as Sun Ling's temper rose, her old habit returned. She pointed at Shan Yue and wanted to scold her again.

Shan Chen quickly stopped her. "Mom, Sister is teaching me how to program. She's very powerful. The money is earned through programming."

When she heard that Shan Yue's money was actually earned from the various data in the computer, Sun Ling choked. In the end, she only urged, "It's time to eat. The two of you, hurry up!"

Shan Yue turned off the computer, stood up, and went to wash her hands first. Sun Ling and Shan Chen were a step behind. Looking at Shan Yue's back view, which was clearly much thinner than before, Sun Ling grabbed Shan Chen. "You're on good terms with Shan Yue now, right?"

Shan Chen was confused by the question and could only nod honestly. "Yes, Sister treats me very well."

Chapter 55: Definitely Won't Take Money

He had misunderstood Shan Yue in the past and thought that she was really a freak. He had always subconsciously avoided her, but after interacting with her and understanding her, he realized that his sister, Shan Yue, was really a very good and outstanding person. She was kind, careful, and righteous. She had many shining points, so he could not help but become closer and closer to her.

On the other hand, his other sister, Shan Xing, was scheming and difficult to get along with. Although she looked sweet and cute, she was not worthy of her appearance in her heart. He did not like her.

After getting the answer she wanted, Sun Ling's eyes darted around and her voice became sharper. "Then how much did she give you for earning so much money?"

"Ah, this. Sister doesn't give me money. She buys all kinds of things for me. Even if she really wants to give it to me, I definitely won't accept it." Shan Chen blushed and quickly explained.

As far as he knew, the money Shan Yue earned with her own ability belonged to her. He had never been jealous. He was already very satisfied that Shan Yue was so good to him.

"What? She's so close to you, but she doesn't even give you money?" Sun Ling's eyes widened, and her expression immediately became much more disdainful.

Looking at the innocent Shan Chen, Sun Ling knew her son's personality. She casually pointed at the two computers on the table and asked, "Then how much did she spend to buy this computer for you?"

Shan Chen's heart skipped a beat when he was suddenly asked about the two most expensive computers. The scene of Shan Yue paying that day was still vivid in his mind, causing a huge shock to his young heart.

Shan Chen was good at lying, but he also knew that if he really told Sun Ling that these two computers had cost 600,000 yuan, Sun Ling would definitely be jealous. After his mind went blank for a second, Shan Chen said a number that he felt Sun Ling might be able to accept. "A hundred thousand."

It was already much cheaper than the actual price. Shan Chen felt that he was already conservative enough.

Unexpectedly, Sun Ling was still shocked by this amount. She clenched her fists and gritted her teeth. Shan Yue, this damn girl, had the money to spend 100,000 yuan on two lousy computers, but she did not give her a single cent to spend!

Sun Ling had made up her mind to get some money from this fat sheep, Shan Yue. She reluctantly retracted her grimacing expression, afraid that she would scare her precious son. She softened her voice and coaxed, "Your sister is so rich. Don't you know to ask her to give me some to supplement the family's expenses? She's so good to you. She'll definitely agree when you mention it. There's no more money at home now. You're also my son. Just treat it as helping Mom ask your sister for some first..."

Shan Chen waited patiently for Sun Ling to finish speaking. He shook his head and rejected with a firm gaze, "I'm sorry, Mom. I can't do that. You should talk to Sister yourself." As soon as he finished speaking, Shan Chen quickly walked out of the room and towards the dining room.

Sun Ling stomped her feet in anger. She had to ask Shan Yue for money herself? That lunatic Shan Yue would definitely hit her!

She did not understand why her son, who had always listened to her, had actually disobeyed her orders for Shan Yue. No matter what she said, Shan Chen ignored her. Could it be that this fat pig, Shan Yue, had drugged Shan Chen?

It seemed that she could not let her precious son hang out with the crazy Shan Yue in the future. She was still counting on Shan Chen to bring her to enjoy life when he became successful in the future. If Shan Chen was led astray by Shan Yue, how could she live?

However, the most important thing now was to dig out the money from Shan Yue. Sun Ling revealed a thoughtful expression.

The Shan family's dining table was as dull as usual.

When Shan An returned home from the construction site, he hurriedly washed his face and went to the table. Unexpectedly, as soon as he picked up his rice bowl, he was slapped by Sun Ling. "You still have the cheek to eat? Look at your salary card. How long has it been since it was credited?"

Shan An had always been an honest person. It was already common for him to be beaten and scolded by Sun Ling in front of his three children. He only lowered his head in shame and explained in a hoarse voice, “The leader said that there’s a small problem with the capital chain. The salary can only be paid after some time...”

Chapter 56: Too Thick-skinned

Before Shan An could finish, Sun Ling interrupted him angrily. She slammed the table and scolded, “You believe your leader’s fart, right? We’ve already been in arrears for a month. We’ve already spent all our money at home. There are still a few mouths waiting to eat. Do you want to starve us to death?”

Sun Ling’s voice was very loud. Shan An shrank his neck. He remembered that his family should have some savings, so it was not to the extent that he could not eat. However, he felt that Sun Ling seemed to be furious for no reason today.

“Shan An, you’re a good-for-nothing. You can’t even support your wife and children. What’s the use of you...”

Sun Ling vented her anger on Shan An and turned to look at Shan Yue, who was eating quietly. “And you—”

Shan Yue had long guessed Sun Ling’s intention of making an example of her. She was jealous that she was rich and wanted to ask her for money!

Shan Yue was quite tired after watching Sun Ling perform alone for so long. She put down her chopsticks and crossed her arms. She raised her chin and looked at Sun Ling calmly. “Huh?”

Under Shan Yue’s cold gaze, Sun Ling’s aura weakened a lot. She could only mutter, “You eat and drink at home every day and even live in my house. It was fine if you weren’t capable in the past, but now that you’re capable, you don’t even know how to subsidize the family...”

Shan Xing felt that what Sun Ling said made sense. She had been jealous of the good things Shan Yue had bought for Shan Chen for a long time. She wanted to please Shan Yue and was almost strangled to death by Shan Yue. She hated her to the core. Naturally, she couldn’t wait for Shan Yue to live as uncomfortably as possible in the Shan family. She chimed in, “At least Mom gave birth to us after ten months of pregnancy. Some people better not be ingrates who don’t know how to repay kindness.”

Because she was afraid that Shan Yue would hit her if she went overboard, Shan Xing could only be sarcastic without naming her.

“How can you treat Sister like this...” Shan Chen sensed that the situation was very disadvantageous to Shan Yue. He wanted to protect Shan Yue, but he did not know where to start.

“Sure.” Shan Yue ignored the two gossiping women and raised her chin in agreement. “Send me your bank card number.”

At this moment, she only felt sad for the Host. When she had no money, Sun Ling was like an executioner. When she had money, Sun Ling was like a vampire who wanted to suck her dry.

Hearing that Shan Yue had relented, Sun Ling was delighted. Her originally bitter face instantly changed. She hurriedly took out her phone from her pocket. “Okay, okay, transfer it to me now!”

Shan Yue was also very fast. As soon as she got Sun Ling’s bank account number, she moved her fingers and transferred the money.

With a ding, Sun Ling received the news that a sum of money had been transferred into her bank card. The creases beside her eyes were about to smile, but when she took a closer look, it was not the four zeros or five zeros she had expected, but only three thousand yuan.

“Only 3,000 yuan? Shan Yue, are you trying to dismiss a beggar?” Sun Ling blurted out in anger. Shan Yue casually bought something for Shan Chen for tens of thousands of yuan, but she only gave her 3,000 yuan?

“Do you think it’s too much?” Shan Yue raised her eyebrows and added, “This 3,000 yuan is for me, Shan Chen, and Dad’s food expenses this month. If you think it’s too much, return half of it to me.”

She had already treated Shan Chen as her biological younger brother, so she naturally had to take care of him. Shan An had a weak personality and was always bullied in the Shan family. It was also hard for him to earn money. Shan Yue understood him, so she also paid for his food expenses to save Sun Ling from nagging.

With the simple food of the Shan family, it was difficult to see meat for a few days. It was impossible for the three of them to eat more than 3,000 yuan. She would not argue with Sun Ling about the excess.

“How am I complaining that it’s too much? Shan Yue, you have so much money. Why did you only give the family this little bit?” Sun Ling was about to go crazy with anger. Although it was not bad to get the money now, it was too different from what she had expected!

“Isn’t this money enough?” Shan Yue asked in confusion. She was simply surprised by Sun Ling’s thick skin. “If I remember correctly, you only earn less than two thousand a month, right? When did three thousand yuan become a small sum in your eyes?” Shan Yue said it seriously, but in Sun Ling’s ears, it was endless sarcasm and ridicule.

This seemed to be the first time Shan Yue had mocked her so sharply! Sun Ling was even angrier, and her face flushed red with agitation and unwillingness.

Chapter 57: Causing a Uproar

“If I had known that you were such a thing, I wouldn’t have given birth to you back then!” Sun Ling was furious and gritted her teeth.

These words were really hurtful and overboard. Shan Chen felt uncomfortable when he heard them, let alone Shan Yue, who was the person involved. He did not dare to imagine how sad she would be.

Hence, Shan Chen almost subconsciously interrupted Sun Ling’s vicious curses loudly. “Mom, that’s enough. Stop bullying Sister!”

The Shan family was stunned. Shan Chen had always been quiet and did not fight for anything. This was the first time they had heard him speak so loudly, and it was actually for Shan Yue.

Shan Chen looked at the expressionless Shan Yue and his tone softened. “It’s very hard for Sister to help others write codes to earn money every day. Now that she’s given you the food fee as requested, don’t force her anymore.”

He vaguely felt that if he let Sun Ling and Shan Xing target Shan Yue like this, Shan Yue would leave the Shan family without looking back and fly to the blue sky that really belonged to her.

“Chenchen, what did you say? Say that again?” Sun Ling was in disbelief. She did not expect Shan Chen to embarrass her in front of the rest of the family for Shan Yue.

At this moment, Shan Yue had already stood up and returned to her room as if it had nothing to do with her.

Seeing this, Shan Chen sighed and left.

After witnessing the entire farce at home, Shan An was helpless. His heart was also uncomfortable. Seeing that Sun Ling was still angry, Shan An could not help but persuade her in a low voice, "I know you're doing this for the good of this family, but logically speaking, you shouldn't treat Yue Yue like this..."

"Shut up! You have no right to speak in this family!" Sun Ling roared.

After Shan Chen returned to his room, he began to revise his programming knowledge step by step according to what Shan Yue had taught him. The answers to the four draft papers that he had casually uploaded before eating were also temporarily forgotten by him because of Sun Ling.

Little did he know that the answer written by Shan Yue caused a huge commotion as soon as it was posted online. At first, the netizens thought that it was another guy who wanted to play to the gallery and casually wrote the answer.

After all, most people did not recognize the various formulas and symbols in the four pictures, so the earliest hundred or so posts were all cursing. Until a mathematics blogger who had nothing to do saw these four pictures. When he took a closer look, he was shocked.

At the beginning of this answer, several complicated conclusions summarized by generations of mathematicians were cited. Then, it began to establish a thought system in the form of causal proof. This was simply too fierce and bold! Who exactly was the person who did the questions in such a strange way? This person was either a genius or a lunatic!

The mathematics blogger continued reading. The more he studied, the more he felt that it made sense. In the end, he even had to rely on searching for obscure theorems and assistance in understanding them. However, he was still convinced by the logic of the question maker.

Seeing the clear conclusion at the end, the blogger's eyes widened. Could it be that this question that had troubled billions of netizens for more than a month had been solved just like that?!

He hurriedly reposted the post that Shan Chen had only posted four pictures and no additional words. He also added: Someone seems to have really solved this famous problem of the Capital University. I beg the big shot to appraise it!

Once a celebrity started paying attention, the popularity of this post quickly rose. Half an hour later, the number of views reached an astonishing 500,000. There were already tens of thousands of comments, but most of them were just there to join in the fun.

[Are you sure this isn't a scribble? I went to school after all. Why can't I understand a word?]

[It's been more than a month since Lin Xiao posted this question. I don't believe that anyone can really solve it. It must be fake!]

[I'm from the Math Department! The first few lines do make sense. They're all reasonable. I can't understand the rest.]

[So what does the conclusion mean? Post a response!]

A large group of people asked Shan Chen to come out and respond, and another group of people quarreled in the comments section. Unfortunately, Shan Chen was busy programming and knew nothing about this.

The real reason that pushed this matter to the climax was Lin Xiao's response after reading this post.
