

THE GALAXY LEFT BEHIND THE STARS IN THE WORLD - CHAPTER 12: SO THERE REALLY IS SOMEONE WHO CARES ABOUT YOU LIKE THAT

We can never predict our life, just like we can't predict the weather tomorrow, whether it's good or bad, sunny or cloudy or rainy.

The things that should happen, the people that should be met are already predetermined.

Xia Sichen appeared in every corner of the playground with a sweaty head, followed by Peng Ze, Chen Yixuan and others.

"How is it? Did you find it?" Peng Ze anxiously asked Xia Sichen.

"No! What should we do?"

"Mu Yunfan and Chu Chu went to the back of the dormitory building to look for it, I don't know if they found it."

"Did you find it on the fourth floor?!"

"I've been there several times, and there's not a single person."

Their wet faces and anxious expressions made the day extra warm too.

Winter has arrived, the weather has remained cloudy, the original turquoise green hills have long been only dead leaves, only the pines stand resolutely in the deep mountains, layers of white mist will be tightly protected by them.

"Let's go back upstairs first and wait for Mu Yunfan and the others to come back."
After saying that, they walked together towards the second floor.

Although the weather was not too cold yet but whenever a cold wind blew one could not help but shiver, but at this time they wished there was a wind.

Shu Tong and Li Huan were walking and discussing what had just happened.

"Is there something wrong in the class, or did the teacher know about what just happened?"

"I don't know, it's okay, we'll know when we go back to class."

At this time, Shu Tong's heart went up and down, watching the steps leave her feet one by one.

Shu Tong just went up to the second floor and saw Peng Ze and the others standing in front of the class discussing something.

"What now?!"

Shu Tong was just about to ask what had happened when Mu Yunfan and Chu Rui, who had come up from that end of the stairs, saw Shu Tong and their anxiety instantly dissipated followed by anger.

"Where have you been! We ran all over the school and couldn't find you!"

"Yeah, I told the teacher, he said he would come right away."

"Ah! I just went to the toilet for a while sorry for making you guys worry."
Shutong lowered his head in shame, embarrassed and said.

"Teacher, we found it! It's here!" Standing aside, Chutong suddenly shouted to the stairway. The person who came up from the stairs did not answer just gave a faint glance at Shutong and walked towards the office.

"Teacher, I found it, you can give me an award!" The mischievous Chu said with a playful smile.

Shu Tong saw him and hurriedly ran towards the classroom, her cheeks suddenly reddened and her heartbeat suddenly sped up a lot.

She flew back to her seat to pick up a pen to take out the language book pretending to write homework, Lai Huan sat next to her.

"It's okay, the teacher won't say anything about you."

Shu Tong did not say anything and still kept her head down, somehow Li Huan suddenly turned around and looked towards the back door, Mr. Xu Feng was standing at the back door quietly looking at Shu Tong sitting in her seat, Shu Tong had not yet noticed the teacher's presence, when Li Huan touched her signaling her to go out.

"Li Huan!" The person outside the door opened his mouth.

"Calling you, go quickly." Shutong whispered, at this time she was finally relieved, but things would not be so simple, Lai Huan went out and came in a moment later, her head bowed and her mouth kept praying, "Don't call me, don't call me"

"Shutong! Come out!" All of a sudden the atmosphere was tense, and Shutong had a reluctant, scared face. She went out and kept her head down and followed behind Xudong Feng, who also just kept walking forward without saying a word.

Until he reached the stairs and started to go downstairs he said.

"What just happened?" His tone revealed half helplessness and half worry. Shu Tong hurriedly raised his head and explained.

"I just went to the toilet, then they misunderstood and thought I was missing."

The teacher listened to Shutong's explanation without saying anything, and his pace did not stop, but only turned his head to look at her suspiciously.

His pace still did not stop, straight towards the school's rightmost laboratory building, Shu Tong also had to follow him.

A row of tall pine needle trees stands in front of the laboratory building, where the school is usually the quietest place.

Shu Tong stood there dumbfounded, while the teacher held his arms first raised his head and sighed.

He really didn't know how to reason with Shutong this time, because he...said the same things that he had said before.

Perhaps what had just happened had really scared him.

"What are you guys running for!?" Teacher Xu Feng, who was about to return to the dormitory, called out to Chu Chu and Mu Yunfan who were looking for Shu Tong.

"Teacher... Shu Tong is missing!" Chu Rui's brow was furrowed.

The teacher's face also changed from puzzled to worried and anxious:.

"You guys can't even watch one person!?"

"We"

"You guys go up to the principal first, I'll be right there."

Shu Tong understood that this time she didn't mean to, but she still did something wrong.

"Have you taken your medicine on time these few days?" Xudong Feng's words broke the awkward atmosphere.

"Drank...drank." Shu Tong's eyes blinked and looked at him and said.

He didn't say anything immediately just smiled slightly, this smile made Shu Tong even more at a loss for words.

"Drank? Tell the truth!"

"I... drink once a day for the past few days." Said Shu Tong's hand could not help but clench the sleeve of his shirt.

"What do you mean? Three times a day medicine, you drink once?"

"Because...I don't have much medicine left, and the family has no money..."

The natural inferiority complex made Shu Tong's voice become much smaller when he said the last three words.

He sighed again and looked up, then his gaze turned to Shu Tong.

"Do you finish the existing medicine first, behind how we are trying to figure out!"

Shu Tong's eyes suddenly reddened, tears disobeyed and flowed out.

This is also the first time in front of him crying so fiercely.

She was afraid that the teacher was uncomfortable, she kept wiping her tears hard, which then made the corners of her eyes even redder.

"Don't cry, the money is gone in thinking of ways, I applied to the principal to let the school's public funds to give you a little subsidy."

His eyes had a little more sympathy in them.

Back to the second floor, the classroom is extraordinarily quiet today, only to hear the voice of the math teacher lecture.

Usually in math class Li Yang is the most courageous to speak, and get the teacher's "praise".

The teacher also wanted to invite Li Yang's father to come to school to "praise" Li Yang in front of him many times, but he was always stopped by the "modest" Li Yang in the end.

"I'm sorry for worrying you today."

"Oh my God, we ran all over the school today, I'm exhausted." Peng Ze said somewhat tiredly.

"It's okay, we're all here when we need to be." Mu Yunfan said seriously with the corners of his mouth raised.

"Yes, it's good that you're okay we're a little tired is nothing!"

"Thank you guys, really...thank you!"

They always appeared on the cliff when Shu Tong was heading towards it, and then tried their best to pull her back to the flat place.

The most frightening thing is not falling into the valley and falling into the abyss, but falling in and not having a person to climb up with you.
