

The galaxy left behind the stars in the world - Chapter 21: I know he's angry

"Shutong, can you come to school today?" Chu Chu sent a QQ message.

A crisp bell rang in the large room, and Shutong sat at the desk by the window holding the book "Worth it on Earth" by Japanese authors Tsunako Nakamura and Hiromi Okuda.

"Hello."

"Hey, Shuton, can you come to school today? That because we will go our separate ways this semester is over how we may not see each other, so want to get together." Peng Ze said tentatively.

Shutong froze in place for a moment and did not answer immediately.

She did not know how to answer, not to go it, soon to go their own way to get together or very good, but if she went then she was afraid to make the teacher angry that she did not listen to their words.

Outside the window, the breeze was cool and foggy.

"I'll ask my aunt, I should be able to go."

After saying that the other end of the phone "hmm" just when Shu Tong was ready to hang up the phone faintly heard the person on the other end say: "We wait for you."

Shu Tong's heart actually has an answer, this time she may really go because she knows that they are her sunshine, is her hope, but also the galaxy has been silently accompanied by a dying star like her side of the Xuan candle. (Xuan Candle: Moon)

Shu Tong changed clothes, timidly walked to the aunt: "Aunt, that I want to go to school."

Aunt seems to think that they heard wrong a face of suspicion looked up at her, Shu Tong has felt the anger immediately said.

"Don't worry, I will eat on time this time and will not be doing anything."

After saying that she lowered her head, but hearing her aunt's words her anger was also ignited.

"You went looking for boys again, didn't you! You're a demon, I just heard you answer the phone."

"Auntie, what are you talking about? In your eyes I am that kind of person, right?" Shu Tong said with a bitter smile.

"Look at you I don't care about you." She said and went to her room, and as she was about to go out, her aunt took the money and threw it at her: "See what you can do!"

Shutong stared dead at her without saying anything, only her eyes were much redder.

She did not say anything more, turned away from the house stood on the curb quietly waiting for the car to arrive.

"Hello? Mu Yunfan where are you guys?" Shu Tong got out of the car and called Mu Yunfan to ask where they were.

"Hey, Shutong, no one is here yet, so why don't you go call Lin Han! It's not good for us boys to call." Standing to the side, Chu said.

"Okay, I'll go get her." Shu Tong stood in place and nodded.

On Sunday afternoon the whole street was full of students with backpacks ready to go to school, elementary school, junior high school.

"Shutong, why are you here?" Lin Han asked with a surprised look at Shu Tong who was standing outside the door.

"School, isn't today Sunday?" Shutong said with a smile.

"Shutong, do your family know? Have you called the teacher?" She looked at Shutong with a very anxious look.

Shutong slowly sighed looking at her and did not immediately make a reply, "Why don't you say anything?"

"The family knows although they do not quite agree, Mr. Xu does not know, Principal Yang knows you do not worry."

"That you go to school this time must be obedient to eat on time, drink your medicine on time, do not do dangerous things." Her tone was mixed with a hint of command.

"Mm, I know."

"Just now Peng Ze sent me a message saying we'll have dinner together, right? Let's go, it just so happens that you're here." After saying that, she dragged Shu Tong towards the "Star Moon Restaurant".

"Come on, what else do you want to eat, Shu Tong, look at it yourself." Chu Shu pushed the menu toward Shu Tong.

Shu Tong looked at it and ordered a plate of shredded potatoes, a dozen people sitting at the table jokingly, a burst of laughter from the restaurant to the outside.

Perhaps youth is like this, a burst of laughter, a sentence to tell the heart of the heart, a handshake blessing, but in the end still have to wave their hands and say goodbye words originally not good.

"Come on, Shutong let's drink, I hope you can be happy and cheerful every day and get better soon." Mu Yunfan held half a glass of beer, and Shutong held the tea in his hand.

"Thank you for taking care of me for so long." Shu Tong's looked at the scene in front of him somehow his eyes got red.

"Come, come, let's all say a few words of blessing, next semester will be going their separate ways."

"Shutong, I don't know how to say the best wishes to you anyway." Said Chen Yixuan a drink and finished.

"Go to school if the teacher knows that you drink how to do?" Shutong sat aside and asked a worrying question.

"Nothing, go and talk."

"Shutong, look where the principal is waiting for you!" Lin Han finished signing the letter to enter the school gate turned around and quietly said to Shutong.

When Shutong apprehensively finished signing and walked to the principal, she was about to pretend she didn't see it and turn around to leave.

"Shutong!"

Shutong heard the familiar voice behind her stopped in her tracks and stood still without speaking, nor did she turn around.

"Shutong, come here." The person behind had another mouth to say.

She froze for a few seconds footsteps difficult to step back, "Principal"

"Go, go upstairs." After saying that he did not say anything just put the phone that just finished making a call into his trouser pocket, walked to the front steps of the faculty office he opened his mouth and said, "You took the medicine, right? Give me the medicine."

"Okay."

She obediently took out the medicine from the canvas bag and handed it to him obediently.

"Shutong, you smell the smell of alcohol on my body is not obvious, later on the class will be held." Bai Yufan asked.

"There seems to be a little, but you can't smell it if you don't get close, here, give you a candy."

The evening meeting is still as quiet as usual, when Xu Feng walked through the window ready to enter the classroom, this moment Mu Yunfan their hearts hanging in mid-air.

"Drinkers all come out." He did not walk into the classroom just stood at the front door and said indifferently.

Those who drink all consciously get up and go towards the door, there are very few people left in the classroom.

"ε=(o ` *)))Alas, it was still discovered." Shu Tong faintly exhaled a breath, but his heart was worried about their situation.

Time passed, they went for a long time almost a class and a half before returning to the classroom, but did not see Mu Yunfan and Chen Yixuan's figure.

"Hey, where is Chu Chu Mu Yunfan and Chen Yixuan?" Shu Tong turned her head to ask Chu resignation sitting behind her.

"They drank too much teacher let them go back, parents picked up back tomorrow."

"Oh, then the rest of you are okay?"

"To write a review and what happened." Chu Rui said with a helpless face.

"Oh."

"I don't know how to write about what happened, you can tell me about it later."

Although the review is only written when you make a mistake, but on that single piece of paper is that hundreds and thousands of words record some small things that happened in your youth.

Shu Tong knew that she came to school this time really let Xu Feng's impression of her again is a drop.

"Teacher, are you angry."

"How can I be angry, anyway, you don't listen to what I say." His tone was flat with a bit of helplessness and anger.

"I always want to go to a place where no one knows me to start a happy life again, I don't want to face the city's bright lights, I don't want to hear the noise of the streets, I don't want to see all the deceitfulness. I just want to simply go to a place where there are mountains and water and flowers and birdsong and no right and wrong."

Shu Tong quietly standing on the fourth floor looking at the distant mountains looking at the big green and brown trees, said to himself.

We always do not understand those who are thinking of leaving every day, every day with a heart on their faces after zero, thinking that they are just some children still in school, they do not understand the difficulties of entering society, do not understand the burden and pressure that adults have to carry, they live such a good life why will have these ideas.

Those adults will not know those children who grew up understanding the inferiority complex caused by the climbing in school, will not know why teenagers have learned to disguise themselves to hide their hearts, will not know why teenagers in the unhappy time just faintly say a "I'm fine, fine! Then force a smile.

"Hey, Shu Tong is not feeling well? We came to accompany you." Somehow Peng Ze and the others appeared behind her and said to her with a smile.

"When did you guys come up?" Shutong turned around at the sound and asked.

"Hmm? We just came not long ago." Chu Chu opened his mouth and replied.

A few people stood on the hallway looking into the distance and fell into silence with Shu Tong, just when the atmosphere was about to freeze Shu Tong opened his mouth: "Do you think I'm nice?"

They did not answer immediately just turned their heads in surprise to look at her, their eyes seemed to ask: What's wrong with you mood again?

"Oops, I'm fine I just simply wanted to ask." Shu Tong saw what they had in mind, I don't know when their tacit understanding had been so good.

"You're very nice we all know, it's just that you're too kind and too understanding and too inferior." Mu Yunfan answered her question first.

Shu Tong listened to his words and silently thought about it then nodded and said, "It seems to be so ha."

"Which is not as if it is obviously like this, Mu Yunfan is right."

"Yes, we all think so."

"Okay, you guys go down first, I'll think about it carefully and then I'll classroom." Shu Tong walked to the door of the computer classroom and spread a piece of paper on the floor and sat on the ground.

Chen Yixuan looked at her movements he said with certainty: "She will certainly not go down now, or we go down."

People have nodded towards the stairway over there, "Hey, wait we have to leave someone here." Peng Ze called out to them and whispered.

"That's right, just in case." Mu Yunfan also agreed with him.

"I'll stay, I have nothing to do down there anyway." Bai Yufan said.

"It's fine for me and Bai Yufan to stay." Chen Yixuan said.

"Good, then you guys come down and call us if anything happens." After saying that Chu Chu and Mu Yunfan they went downstairs.

Shu Tong hands clasped knees quietly sitting there, there is no sound quiet even heartbeat can be heard, Bai Yufan and Chen Yixuan silently stood there down the stairs listening to the Shu Tong's movement in front.

After an unknown period of time, there was a movement in front of her, she slowly stood up and walked to the front of the round table and stood there quietly. Her face had a marked change as if there was no soul.

Only to see her hands on the platform with both hands to force themselves up feet away from the ground a few inches, and suddenly a pair of hands appeared behind her quickly stop and hold, she instinctively struggled to stretch out both hands hard to break the pair of hands with strength.

"Hurry up! Come to help her feet have been placed on the fence she has been moving I can not hold her!" Chen Yixuan hands tightly confined her, at this time if he let go of her will fall from the fourth floor.

As Shutong was walking towards the edge of the perimeter table, Bai Yufan hurried downstairs to tell Chu Chu and the others.

"Chen Yixuan you must not let go, we are coming!" Peng Ze and the others hurriedly ran over to this side with big steps, a gust of cold wind greeted them, but their tight faces did not care about the cold wind at all.

Mu Yunfan and Chen Yixuan a force finally held her from the height of the enclosure down, Shu Tong messy hair will be pale cheeks blocked up, can only see the pair has been covered with tears eyes.

Sitting on the ground shivering, her head was blank as if this body was not hers.

"Shutong! Shutong! Come to your senses!" Xia Sichen looked at the Shutong in front of him heart indescribably hard, if at first they are gone then she is now

"Come draped." Bai Yufan took out his own clothes and draped them over Shutong's body.

Surrounded by a dead silence, they are standing beside her silently guard her.

I do not know how long the person sitting on the ground suddenly spoke.

"You are not you all gone? Why are you guys looking at me like this, what did I just do?"

Her eyes are full of doubt quietly look at them, but they did not immediately answer her question, they are used to it after all, this kind of things like "memory loss" has happened not once or twice.

"Shutong! Do you know what you were doing?" Bai Yufan said angrily.

"Sorry, I made you guys worry again."

"Oops, it's okay, you didn't do anything too much." Chu said with a smile and turned his head and gave Mu Yunfan and the others a look as if signaling something.

But this series of actions are sitting on the floor of the Shu Tong all in the eyes.

"Okay! You guys go away! Don't mind me, I want to be quietly assured that I am normal now." She looked as if she was blaming herself.

At this time, it was already dark the entire building only a glimmer of light from the stairway lights.

Until Shutong noticed that they all left, she could no longer hold back, hands clutching her head tears flowing down from the corners of her eyes.

This time she was sober, she just blamed herself the kind of self-blame from the heart.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

But just when Shu Tong was ready to change her position, she saw the swaying of a figure on the opposite wall her heart thumped she realized they might not have left.

So she secretly turned her head slightly with a glance at those hiding behind her outside the doors of those classrooms, her tears disobeyed and had flowed down.

"Sorry, I know you guys are still there." Shu Tong turned his head and said.

The people behind her did not squeal, still silently hiding in the corner listening to her.

"I'm sorry, Chu Rui, Mu Yunfan, Peng Ze, Chen Yixuan, Xia Sichen, etc., it's all me."

The faint light shone on the silent fourth floor hallway, and the opposite tiled wall was imprinted with a faint star and a glowing round of arcane candles.

"Get up, keep sitting on the ground and be careful of catching a cold." Mu Yunfan walked over and looked at Shu Tong who looked like a child and said with a smile.

Shu Tong slowly looked back at the person standing behind her, "I don't want to stand up, I want to just sit like this."

She didn't have any emotion just turned her body slightly sideways and her eyes drooped downward.

"Listen, come get up and walk a little." Bai Yufan approached her side and stretched out his hand to help her get up, but at this time there was not a single ounce of strength in Shutong's body, only a choking sob.

"Look, your legs are numb, come let's help you." Mu Yunfan, who was standing on the side, also stretched out his hand to support Shutong's arm.

Bai Yufan behind her with both hands around her waist, ready to carry her downstairs, at that moment she was suddenly confused because she had never been so close to any friend of the opposite sex, she instinctively struggled to break away from them, but suddenly came from behind her.

"Don't you move, we are the most caring kind of friends like family." Bai Yufan said.

"I really do not want to go down, I just want to find a place to rest without seeing the light, without the noise of people." She understood their intentions said in a pleading tone.

Tears also flowed down with choked sobs, and by this time the hallway was already a gray and cloudy place where only their silhouettes could be seen.

"Okay, okay, we're not going down then let's go over there and see the moon." Their tone was gentle just like comforting a crying child.

Behind her a dozen boys and two girls, almost everyone in the class was by her side to accompany her.

"Come, turn around." Bai Yufan took Shu Tong's arm out of his pocket and took out a piece of toilet paper to gently wipe the tears and snot from her face.

She was surprised and looked at him and Mu Yunfan who had been holding her arm without speaking.

"Look, the moon is very full!" Chu Chu pointed to the moon far away in the sky and looked at Shu Tong and said with a smile.

Shu Tong lifted his eyes to look into the distance and nodded slightly, in the twinkling of an eye a high raised mound appeared in front of Shu Tong's eyes, although it was getting late but the moonlight spilled over the hill a glance can see the mound, she quietly looked without speaking.

Suddenly a hand appeared in front of her eyes, blocking her view. She turned to look at Xia Sichen who was standing behind her without saying anything.

"Oops, don't you recognize the moon? It's there." Chu Rui sneered and pulled Shutong's arm for a new place.

"Shutong?" Somehow the political science teacher appeared in her line of sight, and she silently lowered her head.

"Come let's go downstairs, our Shutong is the best behaved." She walked to the side of Shutong said to her in a very gentle tone.

Shutong looked around at the people looking back at the teacher and nodded, then was helped by them downstairs.

The light shone on Shutong's body, and she shivered uncomfortably, walking to the door of the classroom she stopped in her tracks classroom people looked at her for a few seconds turned their heads.

"Teacher, I don't want to go in, let me slow down first." She turned her head and wiped her tears, the class just as she was about to go in the people inside but went out the back door.

"Look, how much Teacher Xufeng hates me! Don't even want to see me." She smiled bitterly and went into the classroom.

And on this side of the office Xu Feng expressionlessly said to Shu Tong's previous class teacher.

"People do not want to see me, see me in the classroom people do not come in." Said he walked out of the classroom and stood outside the office facing the playground, hands covering his face.

This scene was just seen by just out of the classroom Shu Tong: I'm sorry, I'm really tired of it.

"Shutong, I told you that I heard that today Mr. Xu cried, it's not because you are angry crying, right?" A certain student stood by Shu Tong's seat and said with a smile.

She held back her emotions and said faintly, "Maybe!"

"Fuck Shutong, you're great! Can make Mr. Xu cry." He looked at her with an incredulous expression.

"What are you doing! Get lost!" Just when Shutong didn't know how to reply Peng Ze and Chen Yixuan walked over to push the man to the side.

"Come on, you didn't eat this afternoon this is the bread that Chu Chu gave you."

"I" didn't wait for Shutong to finish Mu Yunfan then said.

"Stop, he said if you really feel that you have even dragged us you will eat this bread."

I don't know what happened to that piece of bread faint sweet taste mixed with a hint of saltiness, they looked at the bread was eaten by her bite smiled and walked back to their seats.

We will never know what kind of people will appear in their lives, what will happen, and we will not even know the length of their lives, but those people, those things will always teach you something.

"Shutong, go get your medicine from Mr. Lei, you haven't had your evening medicine yet!" The principal took her medicine when she first entered the school and placed it with her former class teacher, Mr. Lei.

"Teacher, I'll drink the medicine."

"Come, sit here, I've got the medicine for you."

Shu Tong obediently sat next to the teacher, at this time the office was only the two of them.

"Do you not want to see Mr. Xu today? His character is like that, but people are really nice, really good to you." She said with certainty.

Shu Tong heard this face confused not the teacher did not want to see her?

"I did not, I was in a bad state so I did not immediately enter the classroom, I was ready to enter the classroom when he went out the back door, I thought he did not want to see me." She explained.

"You see, made this unnecessary misunderstanding, just now when Mr. Xu came in to give the gas ah! He thought you didn't want to see him."

"I didn't think that."

"Then I'll come down and explain it to him for you."

And so the day ended, and tonight the stars appeared in the night sky, but it was a pity that their light was a little dim.

"Today, I had another emotional breakdown. I blame myself for not being able to manage my own emotions, but of course I'm also grateful to my little sunsets for pulling me back from the edge of the cliff once again, and at the same time I'm also a bit resentful, resentful of why I can't get out."

Shu Tong hid under the blanket to write today's diary, she knew tonight would be another sleepless night so she purposely brought her notebook to the dormitory to write.

Her world was shining brightly, but halfway through it became bleak like being in a bottomless abyss, and then because of their presence gave her the ability to see the good and feel the warmth.

A pair of hands pulled her hard, they were afraid that if she didn't pay attention she would fall off the cliff and never survive.

A word of comfort to pull back her thoughts, they are afraid that without them in a moment will be a painful loss of a good friend.

The world is actually light, although you may not find it now but believe that those who bring you light will always appear, we have to be patient, you know?
