

THE GALAXY LEFT BEHIND THE STARS IN THE WORLD - CHAPTER 24 ACTUALLY, THE VIEW FROM THE FOURTH FLOOR IS QUITE GOOD.

"Sleep when you're tired, smile when you wake up, how about life, put your own spices, be happy, be happy, give yourself a smile, life is sunshine everywhere."

The next morning, the fourth floor on the hallway is still the same several figures. Perhaps it was because of the words of a certain classmate that made Shu Tong fall into endless self-blame.

The illness made her suspicious, sensitive, she will always remember the little things in her heart hard to erase, she will always take all the mistakes themselves, in other people's eyes she may really some pretentious.

Even she sometimes can't realize her really strange character for a few months.

"Shutong, it's almost time for lunch, let's go to the canteen and bring up the food for you." Mu Yunfan said with a smile.

"No, don't bother you guys, I don't want to eat." She replied indifferently.

"No, you have to eat even if you don't today." After saying that Mu Yunfan and Chen Yixuan and Chu Chu turned around and left, leaving only Peng Ze and Xia Sichen to guard her side.

She knew that she had dragged them even if they missed class to stay with her, she really did not want to hear the noise of people, did not want to see all the luminaries, she also did not want to go home to face the cold family, she hid on the fourth floor because the empty silence of the fourth floor will let her settle down.

Seven or eight minutes of time passed in a moment. The three did not have any communication, even though Xia Sichen wanted to accompany Shutong midway to talk, but in the end, she was disliked by her cold mood.

Anyone can see that Shu Tong's eyes are not as bright as before, not as "smiley" as before.

"They're here." Peng Ze came up from the stairway and said.

"Come on, Shutong, it's yours." Chen Yixuan handed the rice to her.

Hearing his faintly gasping voice, she blamed herself a little and took the bowl and chopsticks for a long time in silence.

"What's wrong?" Mu Yunfan asked after taking a bite of rice.

"Nothing, I just feel" before the words were finished she looked up at their expressions immediately smiled and said, "I can't finish so much."

"Then you give Chen Yixuan clip over some." Peng Ze said.

Shu Tong looked at Chen Yixuan smiled and said slowly, "You won't mind, right? I haven't moved yet!"

He did not answer to put the bowl towards Shutong and said, "Less clip, you have eaten enough rice in the past few days for you to have a meal?"

Shu Tong awkwardly don't look away.

Four people sitting on the ground with bowls, Shu Tong sat next to Chen Yixuan and Peng Ze.

All four of them had smiles on their faces as each other pinned the dishes they didn't like to the ones they liked to eat and then laughed and flirted.

For a moment it felt like the empty fourth floor was full of warmth, because they were sitting on the ground so the front of the fence blocked the line of sight to look into the distance, they could only look at the sky and smile at each other.

"Hey, you guys don't say that the view from the fourth floor is pretty good!" Xia Sichen said with a smile.

A wind blowing will Shu Tong could not help but shiver, the bowl of rice is still a lot left she then gave Chen Yixuan some embarrassment said, "I can not finish eating."

"In a few bites to eat." He said indifferently.

Shu Tong looked at their eyes can only lower their heads and eat two bites, "Good, then this time I and Peng Ze to put the bowl!" Xia Sichen took the bowl from Shu Tong's hand.

A gust of cold wind blew Shu Tong shivered with cold, Chen Yixuan walked past her and took her water cup then only left the back of the downstairs.

Mu Yunfan stood by her side and secretly took out his phone and opened QQ music and looked at Shutong and asked, "What do you want to hear?"

Shu Tong slowly lifted his head and said silently, "Anhe Bridge."

But wait for the music to play but not the familiar drums and ma yangqin but Zhang Shaohan's song Aurora, she looked at him in confusion.

"You're not fit to listen to ballads."

"Oh"

The music made the not-too-long hallway colorful, "Come, I went to play you a cup of water to warm up." His faint tone contained a few moments of concern.

Shu Tong took the water cup in his hand curled into a ball, suddenly the stairway issued a sound of footsteps everyone looked over there, Shu Tong crouched in place with trepidation and did not move.

"What the hell do you want?" A familiar voice came in Shutong's ears.

"Look at you, they are so good to you back and forth to get you hot water is afraid that you are cold, run to the school to buy you food is to let you eat a few mouthfuls of food." Xu Feng stood at a distance of one meter from Shu Tong and looked at her helplessly.

These words make the original emotionally calm Shu Tong tears clattering down, choking said, "I'm sorry, it's all my fault."

He did not immediately answer her words just a deep sigh and said, "What are you sorry for? How do you know how to say sorry? What will you do in the future with this look?" Three of this question hit Shu Tong's heart hard.

She suddenly bawled up without any words, Xu Feng also smoothed out his emotions and asked, "Why do you think you have to say sorry to me?"

She wiped her eyes with her hand and said slowly: "Someone said that I made you cry yesterday"

Hearing this Xu Feng looked angry questioned the crowd and said, "Which goods said that!?" The surrounding people all silently lowered their heads without saying a word.

"How do you care so much about others? What can you do with this kind of character in addition to society in the future?" He asked again.

Shu Tong did not say anything just silently lowered his head, he then said.

"Anyway, in the future out of society to protect themselves." After saying that she turned around and prepared to leave, when leaving Shu Tong vaguely heard what Xu Feng said to Peng Ze.

"Let's go, Mr. Xu said it's too cold outside let's take you into the music classroom." Peng Ze pulled Shu Tong and said.

Shu Tong's heart trembled violently, then walked into the music classroom without saying a word.

She really hates her current situation, perhaps now in the eyes of others she is a complete joke.

"Shutong, to give you a little bit of information next week we take you to the hospital." Principal Yang and the political science teacher appeared in front of her eyes.

"No, I don't want to bother you guys anymore." After saying that, she turned around.

"If you don't go, then we'll send you back now!" Shutong's stubbornness angered the principal.

"Shu Tong you listen, you're the best behaved, or the teachers will be angry." The political science teacher patted Shutong's back and said gently.

Shutong thought carefully or nodded his head.

Then after Mu Yunfan and the teacher principal comforted her finally willing to go downstairs and the principal also gave her an order that is not allowed to go up to the fourth floor.

But Shu Tong's stubborn, stubborn, uncontrollable she will really listen to his words? The answer will be known at a guess.

"Remember that you are the favorite of our class of 92! We believe you can definitely get better, you can rest assured that we will always be behind you to guard you, show you the beauty of the world, bring you light. Shutong Protection Association Oh!" Shutong looked at the note sandwiched in the book and could not say anything.
