

The Good 1061

Chapter 1061: Stunning Blow (6)

Duan Hen was continuously attacking Shen Yanxiao on Vermilion Bird's back, but all of a sudden, a binding silver light suddenly flew over from his right side!

The Redflame Beast reacted almost immediately. He turned his head and bit the silver light.

What the Redflame Beast caught in his mouth was a silver arrow!

"Where did the arrow come from?" Duan Hen frowned. The arrow came so suddenly. If the Redflame Beast had not reacted fast enough, he would have been hit.

Just as Duan Hen was puzzled, the entire venue turned mute.

Everyone stared at Shen Yanxiao on Vermilion Bird's back in shock.

Shen Yanxiao was currently wielding a dark purple longbow!

"What... what's going on..." Everyone was struck dumb.

They all knew that Shen Yanxiao was a Warlock, but... as a Warlock, she had picked up a bow that only Archers would use. What was going on?

What was even more unbelievable was that Shen Yanxiao took out ten arrows in the blink of an eye and shot them towards Duan Hen at lightning speed.

The speed of each arrow was astonishing, with each of them not being inferior to Duan Hen's arrows at all.

In fact...

It was faster than Duan Hen!

Shen Yanxiao's consecutive attacks finally allowed the Redflame Beast and Duan Hen to understand what was going on. The Redflame Beast angrily burnt the arrows in his mouth into cinders and spat out several balls of fire towards those ten arrows.

However, just as the flames were about to touch the arrows, the ten arrows seemed to have a mind of their own as they suddenly changed directions, dodging all the balls of flame. Furthermore, they continuously collided with each other in mid-air, which in turn directly increased the speed of the arrows to an astonishing limit. With a speed that could not be captured by human eyes, they shot towards Duan Hen with a whooshing sound.

The speed of this arrow far exceeded the previous one. The Redflame Beast did not expect that these arrows would change direction and by the time he reacted, the arrow had already arrived before him. Just as it was about to hit Duan Hen, the Redflame Beast immediately raised his front hooves and stood up, forcefully blocking the fatal arrow with his body.

The Redflame Beast was not worried that the arrow would hurt him. A human's arrow would not pose any threat to a mythical beast.

However, when that arrow pierced through the flames on his fur and into his flesh, the Redflame Beast was thoroughly shocked.

He could feel a numbing sensation spreading from the wound.

How was that possible?

A human had injured him!

The Redflame Beast was greatly surprised.

Shen Yanxiao's stunning arrow caused a wave of screams in the venue.

As a Warlock, not only did she successfully use a bow, but the arrow she had shot had also unexpectedly punctured the Redflame Beast's flesh?

This was crazy!

The spectators could guess how terrifying the defense of a mythical beast was. Not to mention an Archer, even an Advanced Magus with the strongest explosive power would find it hard to break the defense of a mythical beast in one blow.

However...

Shen Yanxiao did it?

Everyone was thoroughly shocked!

Long Xueyao, who had been worried about Shen Yanxiao, cried out in surprise when she saw that.

That's right, how could she have forgotten? The first time Shen Yanxiao appeared in front of her, she was an Archer. It was only after she revealed her true identity in Sun Never Sets that they realized she was also a powerful Warlock.

Chapter 1062: Stunning Blow (7)

However, because her identity as Warlock was so overpowering, she had forgotten about Shen Yanxiao's amazing archery skills.

"Father, City Lord Shen..." Long Xueyan's eyes were filled with surprise.

Long Fei was also greatly surprised.

"When... when did she become a Magic Archer?" Long Fei asked in disbelief. He could not believe his eyes.

He already knew that Shen Yanxiao trained in both magic and battle aura. However, he also knew that Shen Yanxiao relied more on her Summoner profession since she had broken through to the second-class promotion. As for her Archer profession, her strength was only at the level of an Advanced-level Professional. However, Shen Yanxiao's stunning shot had exceeded the strength of an Advanced Archer.

The only one that could break the defense of a mythical beast with an arrow was a Magic Archer, a second-class profession!

Shen Yanxiao had given everyone a huge shock.

When everyone thought that she had regressed to an Advanced Warlock, she revealed her identity as a Magic Archer that she had concealed for a long time.

And this was another profession that had broken through to the second class promotion!

Everyone in Sun Never Sets was stunned. Nangong Mengmeng rubbed her eyes in disbelief, wondering if she was hallucinating.

“T-teacher... She has a physique that trains in both magic and battle aura? And s-she has even broken through to the second class promotion as an Archer?” Nangong Mengmeng felt like she was about to go crazy. Previously, she already felt that her teacher was already extremely powerful, but only now did she realize how naive she was. How strong was her Teacher? This was simply heaven-defying!

Dual training in magic and battle aura was not unique in the past. However, those people either relied more on magic and battle aura as support, or use battle aura as their main and using magic as support. With this in mind, no one could actually simultaneously train in both professions to reach a powerful state.

Even though talent was innate, learning professional skills required hard work over a long period of time. Even though training in both magic and battle aura would provide great results, it was practically impossible to train in both. After all, a person’s energy and time was limited.

Only if one trained for hundreds of years would one be able to train both professions to the level of an expert.

However...

Shen Yanxiao was only fourteen years old!!

Even if she had trained in both professions since birth, it was impossible for her to reach the second-class promotion!

How was she even human? This was simply perverted!

“En, it’s just that I rarely see her use her Archer skills.” Looking at Shen Yanxiao’s confident smile, Qi Xia finally relaxed.

It turned out that when Shen Yanxiao had mentioned about her strength regressing to that of an Advanced-level Professional, she was only referring to her strength as a Warlock. Her Archer profession was still at the second class promotion.

“Master is so handsome.” Nangong Mengmeng said with admiration.

Shen Yanxiao’s dazzling shot had reversed the situation of both sides. The people from Blizzard City and Sun Never Sets were cheering, but Elder Wen’s face had turned ashen. He grabbed his confidant’s collar and roared in disbelief, “What’s going on!?! Didn’t you investigate her before? Didn’t you say she was only a Warlock? What’s with her archery skills? Are you all idiots?”

They originally thought that with Shen Yanxiao's strength being greatly reduced, their Twilight City would have a sure victory. How could they know that Shen Yanxiao had such a hidden card up her sleeves? It was simply shocking.

What was even more terrifying was Shen Yanxiao's strength as an Archer was even above Duan Hen's. She was actually a Second-Class Archer!

Elder Wen wanted to vomit blood. Did Shen Yanxiao have to be so abnormal?!

Chapter 1063: Stunning Blow (8)

It was one thing for a Warlock to become a Second-Class Expert—at the very least, he would be considered a super genius. However, an Archer who trained in both magic and battle aura had also become a Second-Class Expert. Was she trying to scare them to death?

At that moment, Elder Wen experienced how it felt like to fall from heaven to hell.

In fact, even Shen Yanxiao herself was surprised that she was still a Second-Class Archer.

If Xiu had not suddenly asked her to shoot with a bow last night, she would not have discovered that her archery skills had improved instead of regressing!

However, when she shot with her bow, she no longer used battle aura. Instead, she used the power of her source of life.

The elves were born Archers and Herbalists. They had an inherent advantage in both professions.

Even though the human part of Shen Yanxiao's body had been suppressed due to the awakening of her elvish blood, the unique characteristics of elves had also been revealed.

The elves' natural advantage as Archers had directly filled up the missing parts of her identity as an Archer.

It had forcefully raised her strength from an Advanced Archer to a Second-Class Magic Archer. Furthermore, due to her source of life, Shen Yanxiao discovered that her arrows had become a terrifying killing weapon.

Second-Class Magic Archers would have a certain amount of magical power attached to their arrows. Coupled with the fact that she could cast curses on arrows with a certain degree of corrosive properties, that combo was already extremely heaven-defying. Now, due to her source of life, her arrows carried a strange power that belonged to elves.

With the three powers combined, the effect of every arrow Shen Yanxiao shot out had far exceeded that of an ordinary Archer.

Therefore, she could pierce the Redflame Beast's flesh with one shot.

The reason why she had not used her bow until now was because she was still learning how to utilize the power of her source of life. This power was somewhat unfamiliar to her, and she only had the time to familiarize herself with it last night, so she was not considered skilled.

That was why she had not used it until now.

Even though she had fallen from a Second-Class Summoner to an Advanced Warlock, Shen Yanxiao had an unprecedented breakthrough in archery. The Archer profession that she rarely used had become her opportunity to turn the tables!

Looking at the enraged Redflame Beast, Shen Yanxiao evilly curled her lips.

“Redflame Beast, how does it feel to be injured?”

Shen Yanxiao’s provocative voice entered the Redflame Beast’s ears.

The Redflame Beast immediately let out a roar. Being ridiculed by a human was absolutely a disgrace for the Redflame Beast!

The Redflame Beast immediately opened his mouth and released dozens of huge fireballs toward Vermilion Bird.

Vermilion Bird nimbly dodged, but Shen Yanxiao’s laughter could be heard all over the entire venue.

The reveal of Shen Yanxiao’s identity as a Magic Archer meant that the fight had returned to its original state. The ups and downs of the fight were unbearable for everyone.

Those who had ridiculed Shen Yanxiao shut their mouths. Fear and guilt surfaced in their eyes as they looked at the people from Sun Never Sets.

Who would have expected the City Lord of Sun Never Sets to be so abnormal? They had never seen someone who trained in both magic and battle aura for thousands of years!

Previously, they only knew that Shen Yanxiao was a Warlock, so everyone assumed that her current level as an Advanced Warlock was her full strength. How could they expect that under the cover of a Warlock, she had concealed the identity of a Second-Class Archer!!

Chapter 1065: Victory (2)

The venue was in complete shock as everyone’s gaze locked on that figure on the stage.

Shen Yanxiao, the City Lord of Sun Never Sets, stood alone on the stage. The winner of this fight was clear!

Elder Wen closed his eyes in dejection. Never in his wildest dreams did he expect this fight to end like this. Even though he detested Shen Yanxiao, he could not help but admire her wisdom. She had continuously attacked the Redflame Beast’s forelimbs in order to shake him up. Otherwise, even if Vermilion Bird tried his best, he could not guarantee that he could knock the beast out of the stage.

What a scheming and sinister plan!

Shen Yanxiao had always been targeting Duan Hen, making everyone think that her target was Duan Hen and that the arrows to harass the Redflame Beast were merely a cover.

However, who would have expected that her so-called cover was her real objective and targeting Duan Hen was merely to let the Redflame Beast lower his vigilance.

With her stifling strength and the thorough planning, both the Redflame Beast and Duan Hen were played by Shen Yanxiao.

No matter how unwilling Elder Wen was to accept this fact, he had to admit that Shen Yanxiao was indeed capable. Her wisdom was not something ordinary people could compare to. Probably only a few people in the Brilliance Continent could think of such a foolproof plan in such a chaotic battle.

It was not an easy feat to build Sun Never Sets in a short time. He had underestimated her.

Vermilion Bird and the Redflame Beast climbed up from the ground. The two mythical beasts had transformed into humans. On the Redflame Beast's unbridled face, there was a strong sense of anger. Never in his wildest dreams did he expect a human would dare to scheme against him and that he would fall into the trap of a human.

The pride that belonged to a mythical beast made the Redflame Beast absolutely unable to tolerate such a thing happening. The nature of a vicious beast was instantly exposed and he immediately walked towards Shen Yanxiao.

However, in an instant, Vermilion Bird blocked Shen Yanxiao and assumed a defensive posture.

"Redflame Beast, if you dare to hurt her, I will not rest until you are dead even if my strength is greatly reduced." A rare killing intent and trace of determination appeared on Vermilion Bird's young face.

"With just you?" The Redflame Beast sneered. "I'll kill you and then slaughter that despicable human. I'll send you both to hell."

"You can try." Vermilion Bird's body immediately ignited with raging flames. As long as the Redflame Beast dared to take another step forward, he would try to kill him, even if he had to sacrifice his life.

He would never allow anyone or anything to threaten Shen Yanxiao's safety.

As long as Vermilion Bird was still alive, no one could!

A flame also ignited on the Redflame Beast's body. The fight on the stage had not extinguished the smoke but the horn of a deathmatch was about to sound.

"Redflame Beast, that's enough!" Duan Hen climbed up from the ground in a sorry state. He was not a mythical beast; he did not have the same powerful physique as Vermilion Bird and the Redflame Beast. The collision just now had nearly cost him half his life, and he had only just managed to recover his strength. However, his entire body was still in extreme pain, even speaking was strenuous for him.

The Redflame Beast coldly looked at Duan Hen. "It's not your place to interrupt my business."

Duan Hen's complexion turned green and he secretly clenched his fists.

Seeing that the Redflame Beast was about to start a war, everyone's heart dropped.

Chapter 1066: Victory (3)

The fight was just a fight, but if the mythical beast of Twilight City wanted to attack the City Lord of Sun Never Sets after the fight, it would be a breach of the agreement between the four countries. At that point, everything changes.

It would be considered a declaration of war, a declaration of war between countries!

The air seemed to have frozen at that moment. Everyone in Sun Never Sets stood up almost at the same time. The five beasts and Nangong Mengmeng were prepared to summon their mythical beasts to assist Shen Yanxiao.

But at that moment, Shen Yanxiao who stood on the stage chuckled.

She crossed her arms and calmly looked at the Redflame Beast who was directing a strong killing intent beneath the stage. She slowly said, "Is this the personality of a vicious beast? I have overestimated you. Since you can't afford to lose, why did you have to submit to a human to sign a contract? If not for your weak strength, how could you have let your master lose to me?"

The Redflame Beast opened his mouth and roared at Shen Yanxiao, revealing his sharp fangs.

"Who are you calling weak!"

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. There was no fear in her eyes.

"It is my say on whoever loses."

"Do you honestly think that you are my opponent with your puny human strength and this crippled Vermilion Bird? If not for the restriction of this stage, I would have killed you hundred times over! If you hadn't deviously planned everything and caused me to be careless, do you honestly think you would have won?" The pride of a mythical beast made the Redflame Beast unable to accept defeat.

The moment he fell off the stage, the Redflame Beast already understood Shen Yanxiao's scheme.

She had made him think that her target was Duan Hen which forced him to divert his attention to protect Duan Hen. As a result, she was given a chance to attack his footing, giving Vermilion Bird an opportunity to strike.

How despicable!

Shen Yanxiao sneered and said, "You're more of a crybaby than I am. To think you call yourself a vicious beast, but you don't even have a brain. So what if you are strong? Without brains, even if you possess unparalleled strength, you would only be tricked. It's not that I'm despicable, but you're too stupid. Your skills are inferior and you have the cheek to make a scene here."

Shen Yanxiao's words were not polite at all. She pointed out that the Redflame Beast was all brawn and no brains, which was the reason why the Redflame Beast was defeated.

Come to think of it, a mythical beast that had lived for tens of millions of years did not know how to use its brain and only knew how to use brute force. It was honestly ridiculous.

The Redflame Beast's face turned ashen. This was the first time he had encountered a human who dared to speak to him like that.

However, Shen Yanxiao's words had firmly revealed the truth. Even if the Redflame Beast was unreasonable, he probably could not justify himself and deny Shen Yanxiao's accusation.

"You humans are too despicable." The Redflame Beast could only roar.

Shen Yanxiao saluted and looked at the Redflame Beast with a smile.

“Thank you for your praise. There are dangers in every corner of the world. If you don’t have a brain, you wouldn’t know how you will die, now will you?”

The Redflame Beast was angered to the extent he wanted to vomit blood. He had never seen such a shameless human. He was clearly calling her despicable and shameless, but she acted as if he was praising her for being good at using her brain and even thanked him!

“Don’t be too complacent. I underestimated my opponent this time and if we were to encounter each other again in the future, you won’t be so lucky!” He was still furious, but the Redflame Beast was too ashamed to continue attacking due to Shen Yanxiao’s mocking. If they were to really fight, he would be really angry out of shame and would not have the face to continue living in the world of magical beasts anymore.

Chapter 1067: Victory (4)

The Redflame Beast felt so aggrieved that he wanted to die. However, the current situation did not allow him to retaliate.

He could only swallow his anger and secretly despised Shen Yanxiao, this despicable and shameless human.

“I’ll be waiting.” Shen Yanxiao chuckled. She had heard this from different people countless times.

“Hmph!” The Redflame Beast snorted and removed the flames on his body. He then turned around and left, completely ignoring Duan Hen who stood behind him.

After the Redflame Beast left, Vermilion Bird restrained his flames and obediently stood by Shen Yanxiao’s side.

“That guy has no manners. I hate him to death.” Vermilion Bird snorted.

To think that the Redflame Beast was a mythical beast that could not afford to lose.

“Of course, not every mythical beast is as elegant and classy as my Vermilion Bird.” Shen Yanxiao chuckled and patted his head. Vermilion Bird’s actions of protecting her always warmed her heart.

Even though he did not know what it meant to be ‘elegant and classy’, Vermilion Bird knew that Shen Yanxiao was praising him. His small face immediately brimmed with a happy smile and his obedient appearance looked extremely adorable.

The sight caused a group of female onlookers to scream.

How could a mythical beast be so adorable?

Does your master know that you are acting cute?

Duan Hen silently looked at the harmonious scene between Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird. Remembering the Redflame Beast’s disregard and contempt for him, he narrowed his eyes and gritted his teeth.

They were both mythical beasts, so why was there such a huge gap between the Redflame Beast and the Vermilion Bird's attitude?

Duan Hen felt somewhat sad, but he was well aware that he needed the Redflame Beast. The Redflame Beast did not necessarily have to choose him. Before his wings were fully grown, he could not afford to offend the Redflame Beast.

Duan Hen left the venue, feeling lonely. He had already failed and there was no reason for him to continue staying here.

Shen Yanxiao won the individual battle with perfect tactics and also won a point for Sun Never Sets to win the championship.

The moment Shen Yanxiao's victory was announced, Elder Wen brought his confidant out of the venue with a darkened expression. He did not want to see that stinky girl basking in glory.

The people from Sun Never Sets rushed into the stadium and lifted Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird up in cheers.

Today's victory belonged to Shen Yanxiao and Sun Never Sets.

Shen Yanxiao allowed everyone to vent their inner joy and finally relaxed.

Who could understand how conflicted she felt? After she knew that she had regressed yesterday, she practically wanted to die. If it were not for Xiu, she probably would not have noticed the improvement in her archery skills. If not for that, she and Vermilion Bird would not have won today.

The Redflame Beast was indeed powerful and Duan Hen was not easy to deal with.

However...

She still won, didn't she?

Since Shen Yanxiao won, the people of Sun Never Sets naturally had to celebrate. They booked the best inn in Twilight City and the group sat in the luxurious inn as they enjoyed their drinks.

"Xiaoxiao, you've kept us in the dark for too long." Tang Nazhi was slightly drunk. His handsome face was flushed as he staggered to Shen Yanxiao's side. He put one hand on Shen Yanxiao's shoulder and revealed a sad expression.

"You don't know, but you were acting so weird recently that we did not dare to provoke you. It was not easy for you to recover, but your strength is abnormal again. You bad girl, you even told us that your strength had regressed to an Advanced-level Professional."

Chapter 1068: Victory (5)

"Why did you have to scare me like that? This is your fault. Hmm, how about you punish yourself with..." Tang Nazhi stretched out four fingers as he spoke.

"Three cups..."

“Pfft!” When Nangong Mengmeng saw Tang Nazhi being so delirious that he couldn’t differentiate between what was coming out of his mouth and what he was indicating with his fingers, she immediately spat out the tea in her mouth.

Sadly for Nangong Mengmeng, Shen Yanxiao had forbade her from drinking. She was told that she was still a young girl. It was better to drink less at her age.

Nangong Mengmeng followed her Teacher’s guidance, completely not touching a single drop of wine.

“Yes, it’s my fault. I’ll drink it.” Shen Yanxiao looked at the drunken Tang Nazhi, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. She was honestly curious about what had happened during the few days Xiu had replaced her. How did he scare these Five Beasts to this extent?

Tang Nazhi was one thing, but for that crafty fox Qi Xia to be also suppressed? Xiu must have been pretty traumatizing!

“Sister...” Lan Fengli sat on Shen Yanxiao’s other side and carefully pulled on the hem of her clothes.

“What’s wrong?” Shen Yanxiao turned to Lan Fengli. He had been very well-behaved recently.

Lan Fengli looked at Shen Yanxiao silently. He only used his pair of clear eyes to carefully examine her face before shaking his head.

“Nothing.”

Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She would only drink the three cups of wine for her punishment.

Lan Fengli pursed his lips. There was a trace of hesitation in his eyes. However, when he saw Shen Yanxiao’s calm smile, the gloominess in his eyes gradually dissipated.

What else was he thinking?

Everything would be fine as long as the person in front of him was his Sister.

As they celebrated, Shen Yanxiao also talked about the group battle with the Five Beasts.

After the team battle and the individual battle ended, it would be Qi Xia and the rest’s turn, and the time for the stipulated fight was tomorrow.

“I wonder if the representatives of Twilight City will be participating in the fight tomorrow.” Li Xiaowei held his cup and pondered. With the current situation, Blizzard City and Sun Never Sets had each won one battle. Since Twilight City had yet to win, they did not have any reason to participate in the fight tomorrow. In any case, even if they won the battle, they would not win the tournament. Instead, it would be a draw between the three sides.

“They will.” Qi Xia propped his chin and lazily said, “Twilight City is the home team so it would be a disgrace if they could not win a single battle. Moreover, I believe that if they were to win the group battle, they would definitely find an excuse to prolong the tournament so as to break the draw.”

Li Xiaowei frowned.

“Prolonging the tournament? If that is the case, why did the representatives from Fantasy Devil City leave so soon?”

After Geng Di had lost to Shen Yanxiao, he immediately ran away with his tail between his legs without any hesitation.

Qi Xia smiled and said, “Do you think he still has the cheek to stay here after getting publicly ridiculed by Xiaoxiao? Furthermore, Fantasy Devil City definitely has the weakest lineup. I don’t believe that Geng Di can bring out any impressive lineup during the group battle.”

Rather than saying that he was sensible, it was more like despair.

Facing the other three cities, the strength of Fantasy Devil City was negligible.

Even if they were to continue staying, they would merely be cannon fodder for the other groups.

“If Twilight City insists on participating in the group battle, how should the arrangement of the three groups be arranged?” With three groups, it would not be impossible to evenly distribute the groups. If they were to fight in a round-robin style, it would definitely consume a lot of energy. Furthermore, no matter which group had the bye in the first round, the other two groups would not be happy.

At that time, there would definitely be a dispute.

Chapter 1069: Mummy, There’s a Crowd of Perverts Here! (1)

“We don’t have to worry about that. The organizers will think of ways to deal with it.” Shen Yanxiao slowly drank her punishment wine. She was not worried about that at all.

She and Long Fei had won a battle each, but Twilight City did not have any win yet. If the next battle could not be “properly” arranged, Elder Wen would probably be furious.

Everyone in Sun Never Sets was happy, but in the City Lord’s Mansion of Twilight City, the atmosphere was gloomy.

No one knew where the Redflame Beast went after his defeat. No matter how loud Duan Hen called for him, he would not appear.

Elder Wen had a gloomy expression. At any moment, he could explode.

Some were happy while others were sad. This was life...

After they ate and drank to their heart’s content, everyone from Sun Never Sets finally returned to their accommodation with their arms around each other’s shoulders and fell asleep one by one.

Amid the thunderous snores, the night faded and day arrived.

That was the last segment of the tournament. Be it Blizzard City or Sun Never Sets, as long as they could win the group battle, they would win the tournament. For the victor, they would be legally allowed to siphon a large portion of the profits from the other three forces.

Just as Qi Xia expected, Twilight City did not withdraw from the competition. Early in the morning, Elder Wen was already seated outside with a taut expression.

However, Duan Hen did not appear.

Everyone waited for the arrangement of the groups. Everyone wanted to know how the three groups would compete.

However, when the schedule was arranged, the venue was in an uproar.

Twilight City had arranged for the battle to be split into two rounds. The first round would be between Blizzard City and Sun Never Sets, and the winner would compete for the finals against the Group Twilight City.

That was to say, Group Twilight City skipped the preliminaries and entered the finals...

The arrangement this time was too shameless. Anyone with discerning eyes could tell that the Twilight City had definitely made some underhanded moves.

Elder Wen wished for Group Blizzard City and Group Sun Never Sets to exhaust each other, while Group Twilight City watched from the sidelines?

If it was said that Elder Wen had secretly tampered with the previous battle, then he had brazenly tampered with the rules of the group battle this time!

Even Qi Xia, who was as crafty as a fox, could not help but sigh at Elder Wen's shamelessness. His skin was really thick, and it was evident that he was relying on his power as the organizer to make things easier for his side.

Shameless, too shameless.

Furthermore, he was shameless to the extent that he did not require any skills. It made people speechless.

As soon as the schedule was out, those coming from Blizzard City and Sun Never Sets immediately went into an uproar. On the other hand, those busybody spectators were silent.

What a joke. No matter what, they were citizens of Twilight City, meaning there was no reason why they had to speak up for outsiders. Even though they felt that Elder Wen was being too obvious, they had chosen to overlook this shamelessness in order for Twilight City to win.

In the stands, there were about in total 300 people from Blizzard City and Sun Never Sets. Compared to the locals of Twilight City, their indignant voices did not have much effect. As long as Blizzard City and Sun Never Sets protested, the citizens of Twilight City would look at them with contempt.

It was as if it was only right for the City Lord of the Twilight City to play tricks. To them, Blizzard City and Sun Never Sets' indignant cries were embarrassing.

Chapter 1070: Mummy, There's a Crowd of Perverts Here! (2)

"How can that be? The citizens of Twilight City are getting more and more shameless!" Nangong Mengmeng angrily said.

"Elder Wen is being really unscrupulous in order to push Twilight City to victory," Qi Xia smiled and said.

Li Xiaowei did not expect that his guess from yesterday would come true. It seemed like he had underestimated Elder Wen's shamelessness.

"What do you think? Should we argue about this or just fight?" Tang Nazhi stretched out his neck and asked. He did not mind if it was fair or unfair, he was more concerned that he finally had the chance to show off!

"Naturally, we have to fight." Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and looked at the Five Beasts and Nangong Mengmeng. "Don't tell me you don't have the confidence to beat them?"

The five of them immediately looked at Shen Yanxiao as if she was telling a funny joke.

"Let's fight then. There's nothing bad about fighting two rounds. We can properly exercise your hands and feet now," Yan Yu, who had been quiet, smiled and said. There was even a trace of expectation in his tone.

Shen Yanxiao was speechless. Had the Five Beasts stayed so idle that they would be excited from fighting these chumps?

If not for the fact that they felt it was unfair, they would have eagerly gone to ask Elder Wen to arrange more rounds for them.

"Work hard." Shen Yanxiao patted each of the Five Beasts on the shoulder and instructed them to take care of Nangong Mengmeng.

After they gave their instructions, the Five Beasts rushed into the arena with their curious baby, Nangong Mengmeng.

There could be up from five to ten participants in the group battle. On Blizzard City's side, they had naturally arranged for ten participants.

Together with Qin Qiong and Wu Run, the two Deputy Heads, there were 10 Advanced-level Professionals. The only difference between the Deputy Heads and the rest was that the former was at the peak while the rest were still beginners of the Advanced Profession.

A group of ten Advanced-level Professionals was rather luxurious. Advanced-level Professionals could be regarded as experts in the four countries, and those peak Advanced-level Professionals were highly regarded experts.

In the entire Brilliance Continent, how many people could break through to the second class promotion?

In the minds of many, they had regarded peak Advanced-level Professional as the symbol of the highest strength.

As for the second class promotion?

Those super experts were basically as rare as phoenix feathers and unicorn horns. For ordinary people, they might not even see one in their entire lives, so it was better not to think about it.

As soon as the ten participants from Blizzard City appeared, they immediately attracted the crowd's attention. Qin Qiong and the others were all mercenaries. They looked tall and mighty with a resolute appearance. From afar, they looked unstoppable.

Even Elder Wen frowned when he saw the ten participants from Blizzard City.

"Long Fei is really generous this time. He even summoned Qin Qiong and Wu Run, two peak Advanced-level Professionals. It seems like he is very concerned about this victory."

The most powerful existence beneath the second class promotion. Which one of them was not a famous overlord? Only a country like the God Wind Alliance could pull out such a luxurious lineup.

These ten participants were absolute experts no matter where they were.

Elder Wen was somewhat worried. Long Fei had sent such a luxurious lineup to participate in the group battle, and their strength was terrifying.

Even though Sun Never Sets had won a battle previously, it was entirely due to Shen Yanxiao's personal strength. The strength of Sun Never Sets in the previous team battle was not that high.
