

The Good 1111

Chapter 1111: Achieving Fame After Their First Battle (21)

Just as Senior Brother Qian uttered the last syllable, a huge vortex of magical power hovered above his head. The disaster was about to arrive.

Just as Senior Brother Qian finished chanting the last syllable, a silver light directly went past his shoulders and pierced through the high-grade magical core on his staff!

With a crisp cracking sound, the magical core on the staff in Senior Brother Qian's hand was instantly shattered into pieces...

The dark blue magical core turned into a crystal in an instant. Under the light of the flames, it flickered with a beautiful yet despairing light.

The staff that was used to cast magic was destroyed at the last second and the magical power lost control in an instant. The vortex above Senior Brother Qian's head suddenly gathered together and smashed towards his head at a strange speed.

Magical backlash!!

This was the nightmare of all Magus. Everyone knew that if a spell was interrupted during the casting process, all the magical power in the spell would return to the caster's body. However, this type of action would bring about a calamity to the caster!

The spell Senior Brother Qian cast was said to be the most powerful spell available to Great Archmagus, and the timing of the interruption was at the last second before he released his magic.

It was the same as enduring a complete spell!

No Magus could withstand such a powerful magic backlash!

Magical vortex poured into his entire body and a strange scarlet color suddenly appeared on Senior Brother Qian's deathly pale face with distinct veins.

Magical power surged throughout his eight meridians and the uncontrollable magical power crushed him into a ball the very next second!

Bang!

With a loud bang, Senior Brother Qian exploded in an instant.

Fresh blood mixed with broken bones and flesh sprayed out in all directions!

In an instant, a Second-Class Great Archmagus disappeared without a trace.

Experts of the Broken Star Palace and Phantom were also knocked away by the impact.

Shen Yanxiao was the closest to Senior Brother Qian. When he blew up, she was still in mid-air and could not dodge. The impact she received was dozens of times heavier than the others.

Her petite body was sent flying dozens of meters away in an instant before crashing against the wall.

The powerful impact caused Shen Yanxiao's eyes to turn white. Her vision was pitch-black and her mind was buzzing. She felt waves of acute pain throughout her body and her chest felt as if it had been struck by a hammer.

"Sister!" Lan Fengli dashed towards Shen Yanxiao almost immediately. He had the strong physique of a dragon so even though the impact was powerful, it did not harm him much.

Lan Fengli hurried to Shen Yanxiao's side and helped her up.

Shen Yanxiao shook her head with great difficulty and her vision gradually recovered. There was a trace of blood on the corner of her mouth and her eardrums had been popped by the shockwave. Fresh blood continuously surged from her ears.

"I'm fine." Shen Yanxiao forced herself to speak. The spell of a Great Archmagus was indeed powerful and that was only after Senior Brother Qian absorbed most of the magical power. If she were to let him complete his spell, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Not to mention her, probably even Yang Xi with the highest defense could not withstand it.

Chapter 1112: Preparations (1)

Senior Brother Qian died without a complete corpse. The remaining experts from the Broken Star Palace were no match for the Phantom. A massacre unfolded in an instant and soon, corpses were littered on the ground.

The Phantom members won the final victory. Just as Shen Yanxiao said, no one from the Broken Star Palace was spared.

The war broke out in Twilight City and the name of Phantom soon spread throughout the entire city.

The pavilion they had lived in had collapsed so they could no longer stay there. After Shen Yanxiao resolved everything, she temporarily moved the people of Sun Never Sets to a hotel in Twilight City.

Elder Wen hid in the mansion, not daring to take a step out. The citizens of Twilight City looked at the people of Sun Never Sets with respect.

In the hotel, Shen Yanxiao and the Five Beast were now resting to heal their internal injuries. It could be said that they had paid a small price to resolve a huge crisis.

However, no one felt relaxed after the crisis was temporarily resolved.

The arrival of the Broken Star Palace had sounded an alarm bell for Shen Yanxiao. Even though they had averted the crisis, they were well aware that their grudge with the Broken Star Palace had not been resolved. Even though they had killed all the experts sent by the Broken Star Palace, they knew that the news would soon spread to the Broken Star Palace. At that time, they might have to face more enemies.

It was already dangerous for them to continue staying in Twilight City. Shen Yanxiao had already decided to return to Sun Never Sets in two days.

She could only fight against the Broken Star Palace in her territory.

Long Fei and Long Xueyao came to visit Shen Yanxiao when she was recuperating. Long Fei did not ask much about the Broken Star Palace. He merely reminded Shen Yanxiao that the Broken Star Palace was powerful. All the over 30 Second-Class Experts they sent out had fallen, so more experts would be dispatched for the next attack.

No one knew how many experts there were in the Broken Star Palace. Shen Yanxiao was lucky to have escaped the calamity this time, but it would not be so easy in the future.

Two days later, the team from Sun Never Sets decided to return to the main city, but Elder Wen avoided them. Only Duan Hen and a team of guards escorted Shen Yanxiao out of the city.

On the way back to the city, Vermilion Bird started to suffer from motion sickness again. When they came, Shen Yanxiao had prepared a potion to prevent motion sickness, but now that the potion had been used up, Vermilion Bird could only vomit all the way back. Shen Yanxiao tried to make him return to her body, but the proud little kid would rather die than submit to motion sickness.

“Many things have to be put on the agenda after we return.” Shen Yanxiao sat in the carriage and patted Vermilion Bird’s back with one hand while looking at the Five Beasts and Lan Fengli who squeezed in her carriage.

She was pressed for time, and she had to account for everything before she returned to Sun Never Sets.

“Are you referring to the matter of finding magical beasts?” Qi Xia furrowed his brows. This trip to Twilight City could be said to be a rewarding journey. The greatest loss was the magical beasts of the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group.

“That’s right. I originally intended for Xiao Feng and the two Phoenixes to move together, but I’m afraid we won’t have enough time. Qi Xia, help me inform your grandfather that we would purchase magical beasts in the Longxuan Empire at all costs. I have to match everyone in Sun Never Sets with magical beasts.” The strength of Sun Never Sets was of two extremes. The Phantom members were powerful, but there were too few people who could realistically help them. Once a war broke out, they might not have enough strength.

Chapter 1113: Preparations (2)

“We have to contact the Bounty Hall of the four countries as well. As for the Blue Moon Dynasty, send someone to contact them. I have already discussed with Long Fei about the God Wind Alliance. He will keep an eye out for me. As for the Seventh Kingdom, it will be up to Duan Hen.”

“Duan Hen?” The five of them were puzzled. When did Shen Yanxiao connect with the City Lord of Twilight City?

“I have some contact with him in private and he wishes to cooperate with me. But right now, I am still considering it,” Shen Yanxiao said calmly.

Everyone was speechless. This little girl was too savage. She went to contact the City Lord of Twilight City without saying anything.

“We have to arm everyone in Sun Never Sets in the shortest time possible. The five of you happen to be Second-Class Experts of the five major professions. In the future, I will leave the education of Sun Never Sets to you. Before the beast tide, I want them to be able to protect themselves a little.” Shen Yanxiao had a splitting headache. She had completely fallen out with the Broken Star Palace. The Broken Star Palace must have been wary of Sun Never Sets by making use of her time in Twilight City. She was rushing back because she wanted to make full preparations.

As long as they established their forces around Sun Never Sets and had advanced-ranked demons as protection, it would not be easy for the Broken Star Palace to deal with them.

From the looks of it, Sun Never Sets seemed to be safe for the time being. However, there would be a beast tide soon. After the beast tide, even Sun Never Sets would suffer a huge loss. At that time, it would be the best time for the Broken Star Palace to retaliate. Before that, she had to accumulate the resources in her hands to prevent herself from falling.

“Leave these to us, don’t worry.” The Five Beasts did not refuse. With their current strength, there were not many teachers who could compare to them even in Saint Laurent Academy.

Coupled with the fact that Shen Yanxiao was responsible for three professions, Magic Archer, Warlock, and Herbalist, she alone could teach three professions.

To be able to use a Second-Class Expert as a teacher, the strength of this teacher was absolutely savage to the extreme.

“That’s right. Where did you bring those advanced-ranked demons to? I haven’t seen them in a long time.” Tang Nazhi had been curious about this question for a long time. He hesitated for a long time before he asked.

Shen Yanxiao smiled. “I sent them for training.”

“Training?”

“There are many demons in Sun Never Sets, but demons are lazy by nature and require a certain degree of training before they can be of great use. Their strength can compete with second class professionals, and what they lack is teamwork.” Xiu was not in Sun Never Sets during this period so she wondered if those advanced-ranked demons had been lazy.

Shen Yanxiao looked forward to her first demon army. With them, Sun Never Sets would stand strong.

The five of them nodded. Shen Yanxiao was right. Sun Never Sets did require some decent armies to support it.

Even though they had won the tournament, they had also exposed their weaknesses. The Cave Wolves Mercenary Group was the only team in Sun Never Sets that lacked strength. If they wanted to start a war, relying on them alone was far from enough. It would be absolutely a good thing if they could train the demons to maturity.

The group of them discussed for a long time in the carriage as time passed by.

Finally, a few days later, the leading carriage could see the city gates of Sun Never Sets. After a long time, everyone had developed a strong attachment to the city.

Chapter 1115: Robbing Corpses

“Jiawei?” Shen Yanxiao frowned and looked at Shen Jiawei.

Shen Jiawei lowered his head and said in a low voice, “City Lord, I am in the wrong. Please punish me.”

Shen Yanxiao was stunned for a moment before she sat down on the chair. Shen Jiawei had been performing well ever since he entered Sun Never Sets, and she could tell that he had turned over a new leaf.

“Let’s talk after you get up.”

Shen Jiawei did not dare to move and insisted on kneeling.

“City Lord, please allow me to finish.”

Shen Yanxiao sighed. “Just say it.”

“A few days after the City Lord left Sun Never Sets, my sister’s... her grave was dug up and her corpse disappeared,” Shen Jiawei said.

“What!” Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Jiawei in surprise.

“Who did it?” Shen Yanxiao was sure that Shen Jiayi was dead at that time. In order to prevent Shen Jiayi from having any special symptoms due to her transformation, she had even asked Yan Yu to specially examine her, and he concluded in the end that there was nothing wrong with her. After settling everything, she ordered someone to bury her.

“I don’t know. I went to pay my respects to my sister not long ago and discovered it.” Shen Jiawei’s voice was very low. He knew that Shen Jiayi had committed all sorts of evil so a peaceful death was unlikely. However, she was already dead and yet, such a situation had happened. It was honestly...

Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes. She almost subconsciously thought of the group of people who had internally restructured Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei’s bodies. Other than them, there was no other suspects.

However, Shen Jiayi was already dead. Why would they go through so much trouble to just bring her corpse back?

“How about the other man’s corpse?” Shen Yanxiao asked the man who came into contact with Shen Jiayi.

Uncle Nine said, “That man’s remains are still there. There are no traces of it being touched.”

Shen Yanxiao frowned. Instead of bringing back the corpses of their subordinates, the other party had just taken Shen Jiayi away. No matter how she thought about it, it was weird.

“Jiawei, do you know which race Shen Jiayi was integrated into?” Among the eight major races, only the Undead race possessed the ability to come back from the dead. However, when Shen Jiayi died, her wounds were no different from an ordinary person. Shen Jiawei himself had integrated the characteristics of the Undead race and when he was injured, not a single trace of blood would flow out from his wound. However, such a situation did not happen to Shen Jiayi.

“I don’t know. Sister didn’t say anything after we met.” Shen Jiawei shook his head.

Shen Yanxiao could not get any leads on this matter and this incident was out of her expectations.

“This has nothing to do with you. Get up.” Shen Yanxiao was not someone who could not distinguish right from wrong. Shen Jiayi was seeking her own death, but Shen Jiawei had turned over a new leaf.

Shen Jiawei hesitated for a long time before he stood up, but he still looked guilty.

If he had noticed something amiss with Shen Jiayi from the start and persistently persuaded her, perhaps things would not have ended up like this.

“Uncle Nine, did you bring someone to check Shen Jiayi’s grave?” Shen Yanxiao could only search for clues from other places.

“Yes. The grave was thoroughly destroyed. Shen Jiayi’s corpse was taken away along with the coffin. Those people must have been very careful. They did not leave any footprints by the grave,” Uncle Nine said.

With this lead cut off, it would be difficult for Shen Yanxiao to continue investigating.

“Let’s not care about her for the time being. Are there any other things in the city that I should be aware about?” Instead of dwelling on a clueless matter, it was better to deal with other matters first.

Chapter 1116: Shen Siyu’s Arrival (1)

“One more thing,” Uncle Nine said.

“What else?” Shen Yanxiao could feel a splitting headache coming. She was honestly taking things one by one. Even if she had three heads and six arms, it was hard for her to handle so much.

“Well, it’s not a big deal. It’s just that there’s a guest who came from afar who said that he’s your brother. He came half a month ago and he’s currently staying with Old Master Shen Feng,” Uncle Nine said.

“Brother...” Shen Yanxiao was dumbfounded before a trace of pleasant surprise surfaced in her eyes.

“Brother Siyu?”

“Reporting to the City Lord, Brother Siyu is here.” Shen Jiawei recognized Shen Siyu and confirmed.

A trace of a smile finally appeared on Shen Yanxiao’s fatigued face. Coincidentally, she had already wanted to look for Shen Siyu, but she did not expect him to come to her.

“Take me to him!” Shen Yanxiao immediately stood up, but Uncle Nine handed her a letter.

“This letter was sent to you by Teacher Yun Qi.”

Shen Yanxiao took the letter and her depressed mood finally disappeared. Finally, there was good news. Before she left Sun Never Sets, she had sent a letter to Yun Qi to ask him how to cut off the magic supply for Phantom Beasts. Now, she finally received a reply.

However, when Shen Yanxiao unfolded the letter and scanned through the contents, her expression could only be described with one word.

Bitter!

The five jerks knew that Shen Yanxiao had sent a letter to Yun Qi. Now that they saw Shen Yanxiao's extremely miserable expression, the five jerks stuck out their heads to take a look.

As a result...

"My condolences." Qi Xia patted Shen Yanxiao's shoulders with a grieving expression, but there was a trace of a nasty smile in his eyes.

"Cough... Even though Mini dragon doesn't have any fighting strength, it's still quite cute." Tang Nazhi suppressed his laughter as his mouth twitched.

"It doesn't eat much so you don't need to feel financially burdened." Yan Yu revealed a gentle expression.

"It's also not heavy. You would look quite stylish with it standing on your shoulders." Yang Xi patted Mini Dragon's head as if he was praising it.

"Take it easy." Li Xiaowei was the kindest.

Shen Yanxiao had a gloomy expression on her face as she looked at the Five Beasts rejoicing in her misfortune. She then said in a gloomy tone, "Qi Xia, I'll leave the accounts to you for now. Nazhi and Xiaowei, reorganize the arrangements for the guards in the city. You and Uncle Nine will go and calculate the grain reserves for Ah Yu and report it to me. Yang Xi... the forging workshop has been completed. When are you going to get me a batch of weapons?"

The smiles on the Five Beasts' faces faded as Shen Yanxiao listed out their tasks one by one.

"Xiaoxiao... you can't..." Tang Nazhi wanted to cry. Both of them had worked hard but why could the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group rest early in the morning, but they had to be assigned tasks without rest. They had also been on a bumpy road for several days. Give them time to recuperate and don't be so savage... ah...

"Xiaoxiao, don't you think we should take a rest first..." For the first time, Yang Xi felt that his mouth was so cheap.

"Finish what you have to do first. Otherwise, don't even think about resting." Shen Yanxiao transformed into a savage slave owner as she whipped her beasts.

Since they dared to laugh at her, she would like to see if they would still have the strength to gloat over her misfortune after they had done all their tasks.

Without giving the Five Beasts time to protest, Shen Yanxiao patted her butt and rushed towards Shen Feng's residence with Vermilion Bird and Lan Fengli in tow.

As for the letter that caused their doom, Shen Yanxiao had already kept it in her bosom.

Chapter 1117: Shen Siyu's Arrival (2)

Yun Qi did tell Shen Yanxiao how to cut off the magic supply for Phantom Beasts, but the problem was...

To cut off the magic supply, the most basic requirement was the Magic Restriction spell Shen Yanxiao gained after she became a Summoner. This skill was the most fundamental skill for a Warlock after they became a Summoner, but right now, it was a problem that made Shen Yanxiao vomit blood.

She was not a Summoner now...

She was an Advanced-level Warlock. Who could tell her how an Advanced-level Warlock could use a Summoner skill?

Shen Yanxiao felt depressed. Without the Magic Restriction spell, she could not stuff Mini Dragon back into its world. This meant that she had to continue staying here with this cute yet cool little dragon and wander around the Forsaken Land...

Ever since Shen Yanxiao regressed into an Advanced-level Warlock, this was the first time she felt so vexed.

She originally had a pretty cute face and what's more, the cute department was pretty filled with the kid version of Vermilion Bird. But now, there was another cute dragon...

Shen Yanxiao felt that she was getting further and further away from the word mighty and domineering.

After a while, Shen Yanxiao arrived at the Vermilion Bird Family Estate in Sun Never Sets.

Shen Yanxiao had specially prepared this mansion for Shen Feng. Be it the scale or overall feel, it was much more imposing than the one in the Longxuan Empire.

The moment the guard saw Shen Yanxiao, he immediately went up to welcome her with a smile.

"Young Miss, you're back." No matter what Shen Yanxiao's current identity was, she would always be Shen Feng's granddaughter in the Vermilion Bird Family, the Seventh Young Miss of the Vermilion Bird Family. Therefore, the Vermilion Bird Family still habitually called her Young Miss.

"Yes, where is grandfather?" Even though Shen Yanxiao was anxious to meet Shen Siyu, she wanted to meet her grandfather first.

"The Family Head is currently playing chess with Young Master Siyu in the study. Seventh Young Miss, this way please," the guard politely said.

Shen Yanxiao nodded and walked in with Vermilion Bird and Lan Fengli.

The two guards at the gate looked at Shen Yanxiao's back with respect and admiration.

Who would have expected that the Seventh Young Miss, who was the least regarded member of the Vermilion Bird Family a year ago, would reach a height that other members could not dream to reach?

Furthermore, Shen Yanxiao was only 14 years old!

Practically everyone in the Vermilion Bird Family knew that Shen Yanxiao was about to become the next Family Head. Those who had criticized her previously now had thoughts of worshipping her after witnessing her achievements in the past year.

Shen Yanxiao walked into the Vermilion Bird Family Estate. After Shen Feng and the others moved in, Shen Yanxiao recruited a few clever servants for them. After all, there were only five guards and Shen Qiu, the physician, left in the Vermilion Bird Family.

Those servants along the way greeted Shen Yanxiao one by one.

Shen Yanxiao travelled like a gale and arrived outside Shen Feng's study in the blink of an eye.

Before she knocked on the door, Shen Yanxiao hesitated for a moment. She looked at the clothes on her body. As she was in a rush, she did not have the time to freshen up and change her clothes after entering Sun Never Sets. She was still wearing the casual clothes she came back in. Although she did not mind, she was afraid that Shen Feng would be worried once he saw her travel-worn appearance.

Shen Yanxiao tidied herself up and knocked on the door.

"Grandfather, it's me," Shen Yanxiao said.

A moment later, there was a sound from the study room and the door was opened.

Shen Siyu in white suddenly appeared before Shen Yanxiao.

Chapter 1118: Shen Siyu's Arrival (3)

It was still that gentle face that she still remembered fondly, and that smile he had was like a breeze that blew all her problems away.

"Brother Siyu!" Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Siyu whom she had not seen for a long time and smiled from the bottom of her heart.

"You've grown taller." Shen Siyu reached out his hand with a smile and patted Shen Yanxiao's head. It had been half a year since they parted ways in Saint Laurent Academy.

Even though the little girl in front of him had yet to reach adulthood, she was already showing the delicate appearance of a young lady. However, beneath her pretty appearance, there was also a decisiveness and wisdom that did not belong to her age.

"I can't stay as a kid for too long," Shen Yanxiao said with a smile. Even though she knew that Shen Siyu was not related to her by blood, she still felt that this man in front of her was her big brother. The bond they had between them was as if they were real siblings.

"No matter how old you are, you're still a kid to me."

The siblings stood at the door and chatted. Lan Fengli stood behind Shen Yanxiao and noticed the intimacy between Shen Siyu and Shen Yanxiao. There was a trace of loneliness in his eyes.

Shen Siyu noticed Lan Fengli. His gentle gaze swept across him and he smiled. "This is your younger brother?"

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and stepped to the side. She pulled the lonely Lan Fengli into her arms and said proudly, "Yes! He is the best younger brother I could've ever hoped for."

Lan Fengli's body trembled. With a flushed face, his heart beat wildly with Shen Yanxiao's words.

Shen Siyu chuckled and said nothing else.

"It looks like you two are having a good time chatting without me. Have you forgotten about this old man?" In the study, Shen Feng's voice that pretended to be stern sounded.

Shen Yanxiao and Shen Siyu looked at each other and stuck out their tongues before they entered the study together.

Shen Feng looked at Shen Yanxiao, whom he had not seen for more than half a month, and his aged eyes swiftly sized her up from top to bottom.

"You've lost weight! Did you not eat well in Twilight City?" Shen Feng looked at Shen Yanxiao with heartache. He was proud of her achievements as the Young Family Head of the Vermilion Bird Family, but as a grandfather, he felt heartache for Shen Yanxiao's continuous hard work.

She was only 14 years old, but she was acting like an old woman worrying about the country and her people all day long. How was she going to have a good future?

Children of her age were still around their parents, but Shen Yanxiao had long abandoned her immaturity as a young child and entered the various struggles of adults within the Brilliance Continent.

Every time he thought of that, Shen Feng felt heartache.

"Grandfather, I'm fine. How am I skinny? This is called slim. I think I look quite pretty now." Shen Yanxiao did not want Shen Feng to worry about her. She tried to alleviate his heavy mood by making jokes.

Shen Feng's face tensed up. "Aishi, you're acting like a girl who loves her beauty. Don't use your vanity to fool your grandfather. Tell your Fifth Uncle to prepare some delicious supplements for you later." His child was in pain, and his son and daughter-in-law had passed away early. As a grandfather, he could not let his granddaughter suffer too much.

"I will listen to Grandfather's arrangements." No matter how powerful Shen Yanxiao was outside, she still wanted to experience the warmth of family when she was with Shen Feng.

"Brother Siyu came here half a month ago. I believe you must have heard him criticizing me a lot," Shen Yanxiao playfully said.

Shen Siyu chuckled and said, "Are you sure? I just heard a lot of good words."

Shen Feng's expression also relaxed. He looked at Shen Yanxiao and said, "Your Brother Siyu came here to bring your Third Uncle's whereabouts."

Chapter 1119: Shen Siyu's Arrival (4)

"Third Uncle..." Shen Yanxiao's mind went blank in an instant. She tried hard to recall this Third Uncle that she had thrown into some corner of her memory.

Finally, after thinking for a moment, she finally remembered who her Third Uncle was.

Shen Jing!!

He was her father's third brother, her grandfather's third son. He was known as the number one playboy in the entire Longxuan Empire!

Shen Yanxiao blushed with shame. It was not that she did not have a good memory, but she had only met Shen Jing twice after she reincarnated. The first time was during the 'Tri-Hall Joint Hearing', and the second time was when she signed a contract with Vermilion Bird and returned home. Ever since then, she went to Saint Laurent Academy and rarely met Shen Jing. Coupled with the fact that they were not close to each other, she subconsciously neglected this uncle of hers who did not have much of a presence...

In fact, it was not only Shen Yanxiao who neglected Shen Jing. Even Shen Feng had subconsciously forgotten about him.

Even though Shen Jing was Shen Feng's third son, he had a personality that would drive people crazy. Not to mention spending all day drinking and flirting, he did not have any attainments in battle aura or magic. The eligible bachelor in his forties had yet to marry, and Shen Feng had seen him going berserk every single time. As a result, Shen Jing no longer stayed in the Vermilion Bird Family. Taking advantage of the fact that Shen Yanxiao went to Saint Laurent Academy to study, he found an excuse and said that he went out to roam around with his group of friends, but he had yet to see her.

Even the elusive Shen Siyu had a stronger presence than Shen Jing.

"Err, where is Third Uncle?" Shen Yanxiao asked with a calm expression. She did not look at all like she had just remembered this person.

Shen Siyu said, "Your Third Uncle is currently in the Moon God Continent."

"Moon God Continent? Where did Third Uncle go?" Shen Yanxiao was stunned. The Moon God Continent was where the elves gathered and rarely would humans appear there. Other than some merchants, only some bold bounty hunters dared to wander around the Moon God Continent.

"I only received the news not long ago. Third Uncle and his friends have established a trade caravan that specializes in trade between the Brilliance Continent and the Moon God Continent," Shen Siyu said.

Shen Yanxiao was practically worshiping her Third Uncle now. He was indeed a talent to have gone to the Moon God Continent to do business! Even the Qilin Family had never done such a bold thing.

However, this also explained why Shen Jing did not appear when the Vermilion Bird Family was in danger.

This second-generation heir was still far away in the Moon God Continent, completely unaware of the danger that his home had been facing.

"Third Uncle... what a talent." Shen Yanxiao finally managed to squeeze out that sentence after a long time.

Shen Feng coldly snorted and said, "Instead of walking on the right path, he insisted on doing some incomprehensible things."

Shen Feng appeared to be dissatisfied on the surface, but after he received news of Shen Jing, he relaxed. The Vermilion Bird Family was in trouble, and no matter how lazy Shen Jing was, he was still his son. Even though he did not have any great abilities, he was still considered filial. Ever since Shen Feng came to Sun Never Sets, he had been worried about Shen Jing's safety. However, he did not mention it because Shen Yanxiao was too busy and he could not bear to increase the burden on his granddaughter's shoulders.

As long as his son was safe and sound, Shen Feng would be at ease.

"Third Uncle is quite talented. The trade route between the Moon God Continent and the Brilliance Continent is not that easy." Shen Yanxiao had some understanding of the situation and knew that her seemingly sloppy Third Uncle must have some solid capital behind his venture.

Chapter 1120: Shen Siyu's Arrival (5)

Shen Feng pulled a long face and pretended to be profound.

"Should I send a letter to Third Uncle? Tell him that you have arrived in Sun Never Sets." Shen Yanxiao was thinking of how to get her uncle back.

However, Shen Siyu said, "Third Uncle has met some problems in the Moon God Continent. I am here to talk to Xiaoxiao and see if you can find time to make a trip to the Moon God Continent."

"Me?" Shen Yanxiao was stunned.

"Xiaoxiao is very busy. She doesn't have time," Shen Feng immediately said, "what did that unfilial son do in the Moon God Continent again?"

"It's not a big problem," Shen Siyu smiled and said nothing else.

The two of them chatted with Shen Feng for a moment before they left.

Shen Siyu stopped Shen Yanxiao after he left the study. "Xiaoxiao, come with me. I have something to tell you."

"Alright. Xiao Feng, you and Vermilion Bird go back and rest first. I'll be back later." After she threw Mini Dragon on her shoulder to Vermilion Bird, she followed Shen Siyu to his room.

Shen Siyu's room was prepared by Shen Ling just recently. There were few ornaments in the room, but it looked clean and elegant. It was similar to Shen Siyu's room in the Vermilion Bird Family Estate back in the capital.

"Brother Siyu, are you used to living here?" Shen Yanxiao sat down on the stool, but her mind was wandering around. She had always wanted to ask Shen Siyu about her disappearance when she was young, but now that she had seen him, she did not know how to ask.

Shen Siyu smiled and said, "Everything is going well."

"That's good." Shen Yanxiao picked up the teapot and poured a cup of tea for herself and Shen Siyu. She drank it slowly as she pondered about how she should start the conversation.

Just as Shen Yanxiao was thinking, Shen Siyu suddenly said, "Xiaoxiao, who helped you change your eye color?"

"Pfft!" Shen Yanxiao spat out a mouthful of tea and looked at Shen Siyu in surprise.

Shen Siyu smiled and handed her a handkerchief.

Shen Yanxiao took a handkerchief in shock and wiped the tea off her mouth.

"Brother Siyu, what are you talking about?" Shen Yanxiao played dumb and asked.

Shen Siyu looked at her with a gentle smile.

"Your elvish bloodline has completely awakened." He raised his hand and brushed Shen Yanxiao's long hair.

"Your hair color should be silver, your eyes should be green, and your ears should have pointed tips. Xiaoxiao, I know there are many disguise items in the world, but I have never seen a disguise item that could completely change an elf into a human. Can you tell me who helped you?"

Shen Siyu's tone was gentle to the extreme, but Shen Yanxiao was shocked when she heard it.

How did Brother Siyu know about the awakening of her elf blood?

Moreover, Shen Siyu did not seem like he was making a guess. His determined gaze was sure of the fact that she had become an elf.

Shen Yanxiao bit her lips and looked at Shen Siyu. For some reason, she suddenly felt that she knew nothing about Shen Siyu.

She only knew that he was her savior and that he was her brother in the Vermilion Bird Family...

Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Siyu and there was a trace of hesitation between her brows. She clenched her fist and took a deep breath. "Brother Siyu, before I answer your question, can you tell me who you are?"
