

The Good 1121

Chapter 1121: Heartbreaking Past Events (1)

Shen Siyu was stunned for a moment before he smiled.

“Xiaoxiao seems to know something?”

Shen Yanxiao said, “Xiaoxiao will never forget Brother Siyu saving her life.”

Shen Siyu smiled and waved his hand.

“Save you? It would be more accurate to say that I have harmed you. Xiaoxiao, I have always wondered how good it would be if you had been like that in the past, muddle-headed and ignorant for your whole life. Now that you have become smart and your strength has increased, I cannot be happy.”

Shen Siyu looked at Shen Yanxiao with a trace of sadness in his eyes. He rubbed Shen Yanxiao’s head, but there was a trace of worry on his handsome face.

“Sometimes, the fewer people know, the happier they will be. I was hoping that you could live a carefree life. In that case, I don’t mind protecting you for the rest of your life.”

“Brother Siyu...” Shen Yanxiao’s heart trembled. Shen Siyu’s words were so sincere that the worry in his words leaked out.

Shen Siyu forced a smile and said, “Xiaoxiao, it doesn’t matter who I am. You just have to know that I will never hurt you. I am not only interested in Sun Never Sets because of Third Uncle. More importantly, there are some things I must let you know.”

Shen Yanxiao was surprised. She had never forgotten Shen Siyu’s care and concern for her. He had soundlessly protected her for more than ten years.

“Brother Siyu, how did you know that my elvish blood had awakened?” He was her brother and no matter who he was, that would never change.

Shen Siyu sighed. “As a matter of fact, when you recovered, I knew that such a thing would happen one day and your strength would increase by leaps and bounds. I believe some of the seals on your body have been undone.”

He knew about the seal on her body?

Shen Yanxiao’s eyes were filled with shock.

“Xiaoxiao, I planted your seal.” Shen Siyu’s eyes were filled with sadness.

“Why?” Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Siyu in confusion. Was it all because of Shen Siyu that her abilities were sealed and she was reduced to an idiot?

Shen Yanxiao found it hard to believe that everything in this body was because of Shen Siyu.

How could that be?

He had treated her so well.

Shen Siyu looked at Shen Yanxiao's doubtful face. "Because if I don't do that, I won't be able to protect you."

"You can't protect me?" Shen Yanxiao was increasingly confused. The seal was to protect her?

"Xiaoxiao, you know that you disappeared for a period of time before I brought you back to the Vermilion Bird Family. Do you know how terrifying the changes in your body were during that period of time? Even though you feel that you are very powerful right now, you don't know the dangers hidden under this kind of power. Back then, I snatched you back from someone else and they tampered with you. You will become stronger and stronger, but if you continue to stay in their hands, you will only become their tool," Shen Siyu paused for a moment and said.

"I brought you back and sealed all the powers in your body, hoping that you can continue living like an ordinary person. Your mental state was not caused by my seal, but those people damaged your nerves and made you become a fool that only listens to them. However, now that your seal has been undone, they will discover you one day and find you. You might not know how important your existence is to those people and once they discover you, they will do their best to snatch you back."

Chapter 1122: Heartbreaking Past Events (2)

Shen Siyu had been struggling internally. When he noticed that Shen Yanxiao had begun to recover, he should have repaired the seal immediately. However, when he saw Shen Yanxiao calling him Brother Siyu with clear eyes, he could not bring himself to do so.

Shen Siyu could no longer bear to do it when Shen Yanxiao smiled like a flower, delicate and adorable. He could no longer bear to turn Shen Yanxiao back into that silly little melon.

He had thought that perhaps Shen Yanxiao would not attract any attention because he knew how terrifying the seal he placed on her was. Even if the power that belonged to humans had recovered, as long as other powers had not awakened, those people would not have guessed that she was that baby.

However, when he sensed that the first seven layers of the Seal of the God had been undone, he knew that everything was merely his wishful thinking.

"As your elvish bloodline awakens, the seal behind you can no longer suppress you. Everything in your body will slowly recover in the future. Xiaoxiao, you can no longer retreat." Shen Siyu was struggling internally. Shen Yanxiao could no longer return to her former self. She could only move forward without any path of retreat.

"Brother Siyu, those people..." Shen Siyu's words caused Shen Yanxiao's heart to tremble. As Shen Siyu's words resolved most of the mysteries, an idea immediately flashed across her mind.

"They are Warlocks?"

Shen Siyu narrowed his eyes and slowly nodded.

Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath.

"They used me for racial integration experiments?"

"Yes."

Shen Yanxiao suddenly felt a buzzing sound in her mind. Previously, she was curious about why her body was so strange and why Xiu resided in her body. Now that she connected Shen Siyu and Yun Qi's previous words together, she finally understood the reason!

Yun Qi once said that before he left those people, he tampered with the soul of the last god, so that the final fusion could not be completed. Xiu's golden eyes were the symbol of the God race and the God's Seal on him was not just to seal humans and elves.

If Xiu was the last god, then... she was that experimental subject?

If that was the case, everything made sense.

She was the same as Lan Fengli. She seemed to understand why Lan Fengli relied on her so much.

Yun Qi once mentioned that a test subject of a race could be used on three test subjects. Thinking about it...

The test subjects of some races in her body should be the same as Lan Fengli.

Shen Yanxiao covered her chest and tried to calm down the shock in her heart.

"In that case, does my body possess the characteristics of the eight major races?"

Shen Siyu frowned. "I'm not sure. When I fetched you back, they had stopped their experiments on you and were in the observation phase. Just as I was about to snatch you back, something unexpected happened. There seemed to be something in your body that was corroding your soul. Those people thought that your experiments had failed and so, I took you away without alerting them. Right now, they probably think you're dead."

Shen Yanxiao's mind was in a mess and she tried hard to calm down.

Everything was clear. Xiu was the last god, but... Xiu had not integrated with her?

Chapter 1123: Heartbreaking Past Events (3)

Could this be a problem Yun Qi had tampered with back then?

However...

Shen Yanxiao clearly remembered the first time she spoke to Xiu...

"Who exactly are you?"

"Human? No one in this world would call me that. They would prefer to call me a devil."

Xiu clearly said that he was... a devil!

Shen Yanxiao was filled with questions. Seeing that she had grasped the crux of the matter, she felt that something was amiss.

"Xiaoxiao, your elvish bloodline has awakened and I am not willing to continue to seal you. After the first seal is undone, the seal in your body will undo itself as you grow. The faster you grow, the faster the seal will be undone," Shen Siyu said.

“Brother Siyu, why do you want me to go to the Moon God Continent?” Shen Yanxiao asked.

Shen Siyu said calmly, “Now that your elvish bloodline has awakened, the seed that belongs to the elves in your body has germinated. If you continue to stay in the Brilliance Continent, it will be hard for you to nurture your source of life. Only when you arrive at the Moon God Continent, can you increase your strength as an elf and undo the seal that seals your elvish bloodline.”

Once some things started, there was no turning back.

Shen Yanxiao only had one path left and that was to move forward forever. She could never turn back.

“You have to undo all the seals on your body before they discover you. You can only fight against them when you have reached the peak of your strength.” Shen Siyu spoke with worry. It was impossible to determine whether it was a blessing or a curse.

“Brother Siyu, can’t you undo it?” Shen Yanxiao was surprised. Shen Siyu was the one who had sealed her, but it seemed like he could not undo the seal.

Shen Siyu shook his head. “I’ve exhausted my last ounce of strength to plant the seal on you. I thought you would never break it. My current strength is not enough to undo the seal on you.”

Shen Yanxiao bit her lips. “Then, Brother Siyu, who exactly are you?”

Shen Siyu was stunned for a moment. Soon after, he raised his head and looked at the scenery outside the window. “I am not from the Brilliance Continent. Or rather, I am not a real person. I have lived for tens of thousands of years. If you want to calculate, perhaps you have heard about me in the legends.”

Tens of thousands of years...

Shen Yanxiao’s eyes were filled with shock.

Shen Siyu retracted his gaze, unwilling to deceive this little guy.

“I was once a member of the God race. At the end of the war between the gods and devils, I split my godhood into eight parts and used seven of them to seal the passage between the devils and the earth. As for the last broken godhood, I used it to seal you. Right now, I can no longer be considered a god. I only have the power of the God race, but I don’t have godhood. At most, I can be regarded as a demigod.”

The last god of the God race...

Shen Yanxiao gasped.

There were many rumors about the last god in the world. Legend has it that at the end of the war between gods and devils, the God race was nearly wiped out. After the devils retreated underground, there was only one god left. That god used his godhood to seal all the passageways to the Devil race in the world.

A god without godhood was no longer a god.

For the sake of the stability of the world and to stop the devils from attacking, the God race fought until the end. Ultimately, they drove the devils back underground, but they had also suffered a tragic end.

Chapter 1124: Heartbreaking Past Events (4)

However...

Yun Qi clearly mentioned that the body of the last god had been used by those people as a test subject. If Shen Siyu was the last god, then... who was Xiu?

Shen Yanxiao fell into another huge whirlpool and Xiu's identity became confusing once again.

Yun Qi said that someone brought the last god's body to them and revealed his identity. However, Shen Siyu said that he was the last god?

She had once guessed that Xiu was that god, but he had never admitted it. Moreover, when Yun Qi mentioned the last god, Xiu did not show any emotion as if it had nothing to do with him. In comparison, Shen Siyu's words were more believable.

Xiu said that he was a demon, but he had the characteristics of a god.

Shen Yanxiao bit her lips. She did not tell Shen Siyu about Xiu. If Xiu was really from the Devil race, then he was the absolute opposite of Shen Siyu who was once from the God race. On one hand, it was Xiu who had accompanied her throughout her growth. On the other hand, it was Shen Siyu who had protected her for years and even sacrificed his last trace of godhood. She did not wish to see any problems between the two of them.

Xiu, are you a god or a devil?

"Are you worried?" Xiu's voice suddenly sounded in Shen Yanxiao's mind.

Shen Yanxiao was surprised, but there was no change in her expression.

"He and I are not enemies." Xiu's voice was still cold, but he was trying to comfort Shen Yanxiao.

"Do you recognize him?" Shen Yanxiao asked internally.

"He has fallen and become a demigod. His appearance and aura have changed greatly. Even if we have met before, I can no longer recognize him. Moreover, I lost consciousness before the end of the war between gods and devils," Xiu said slowly.

"Then are you a god or a devil..." Shen Yanxiao was eager to know.

Xiu was silent for a moment before he slowly said, "I am both a god and a devil. I can be a god or a devil."

"..." Xiu's answer made Shen Yanxiao completely speechless. However, she felt slightly relieved deep down. Xiu and Shen Siyu were not enemies—that was good.

"Xiaoxiao?" Shen Siyu's attention was attracted by Shen Yanxiao's silence and he softly called out.

"Hmm?" Shen Yanxiao came back to her senses and looked at Shen Siyu.

"I am still your brother." Shen Siyu thought that Shen Yanxiao had become alienated due to his identity and he could not help but feel helpless. He was unwilling to tell Shen Yanxiao everything before because he did not wish for his sister to stay away from him. He had lived for tens of thousands of years and witnessed the defeat of the Devil race and the demise of the God race. His former comrades had all sacrificed themselves in that unprecedented battle. He could no longer remember how he spent the last 10,000 years.

Even though he was no longer a real god, he possessed the same eternal life as a member of the God race. As he watched time change and the humans around him die one by one, he became numb, and he no longer wished to taint the human race again.

Humans had such a short lifespan. In the viewpoint of a god, their lifespan was like a fleeting flower that withered in an instant.

Even for the original Shen Yanxiao, he did not wish to pour too much of his feelings into her. Until that day, this little kid who had been ignorant for more than a decade suddenly looked at him with those clear and slightly crafty eyes and called out to him.

Brother Siyu.

Chapter 1125: Heartbreaking Past Events (5)

The heart lake that had been peaceful for a long time was stirred up by a call filled with vitality. The heart that had been numb for a long time suddenly started beating again.

The little girl he had guarded for ten years had grown up. No matter how hard he tried to suppress his inner emotions, the memory of watching her grow from a little baby to a pretty girl had also flowed into his mind along with Shen Yanxiao's energetic shouts.

That's right, this was the little girl he had always protected, his sister...

Perhaps she would be different from others. Her unique nature could allow her to live for a very long time. She would not be as fragile as other humans and be short-lived.

After a long period of solitude, Shen Siyu suddenly realized that the little girl he had guarded for many years might really be able to accompany him through eternity in the future.

He could not help but feel moved, and the emotions he had suppressed for a long time were revived once again.

Shen Yanxiao, his sister. He would continue to protect her and let her go on happily forever.

He was once a god, but he had experienced thousands of years of loneliness.

When he finally realized that perhaps there might be someone that could accompany him through the endless years in the future, even if he sincerely waited, it would not wilt in an instant. He finally let go of the barrier in his heart and thoroughly accepted this sister.

Therefore, after Shen Yanxiao left the Vermilion Bird Family for Saint Laurent Academy, he started his plan to protect her. He used all his strength to search for those people and tried his best to suppress their strength in various places.

However, he had never told anyone of this.

Perhaps Shen Yanxiao would never know that her brother, who only appeared once in a while, had already used his hands to shield her from all the wind and rain without her knowing, creating a protective net around her.

“Brother Siyu...” Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Siyu with mixed feelings. He was always so gentle.

“Xiaoxiao, listen to me. Go to the Moon God Continent and undo the seal of the elves.” Shen Siyu rubbed Shen Yanxiao’s head. Only when Shen Yanxiao left the Brilliance Continent could she obtain temporary safety. Only when she completely undone the seal of the elves could she gradually become stronger.

After Shen Yanxiao left the Brilliance Continent, he could then eliminate those potential threats without any reservations.

“Alright, I’ll listen to Brother Siyu.” Shen Yanxiao nodded with determination. In fact, even if Shen Siyu did not say that, she already had plans to go to the Moon God Continent. She had discussed this with Xiu before so it was not a rushed decision.

Now that Shen Siyu had said so, what difference would it make if she came earlier?

“Be good.” Shen Siyu reached out and hugged Shen Yanxiao.

She was his sister, the only one related to him after the demise of the God race.

Therefore, no matter what, he had to protect her.

Furthermore, there was still...

“Xiaoxiao, the one who changed your appearance is inside you.” Shen Siyu whispered.

Shen Yanxiao trembled. Shen Siyu knew!

Shen Siyu noticed Shen Yanxiao’s nervousness. He chuckled and patted her back in comfort.

“Don’t be afraid. You are important to me. I will not hurt any of you. In a sense, we are old acquaintances.”

Chapter 1126: Heartbreaking Past Events (6)

“Brother Siyu knows... Xiu?” Shen Yanxiao looked up hesitantly and looked at Shen Siyu’s gentle smile.

“Xiu?” Shen Siyu was momentarily stunned before he seemed to have understood something.

“There doesn’t seem to be anything wrong with calling him that.”

“Brother Siyu, what was your original name?” Knowing that Shen Siyu and Xiu were not enemies and that they seemed to know each other, Shen Yanxiao immediately became curious about the relationship between the two mysterious guys.

Shen Siyu paused and pondered for a moment before he shook his head with a bitter smile. “I don’t remember.”

His name was used to identify himself to other people. But after the war between gods and devils, no one had called out his name so he had long forgotten about it.

“Err... then is Xiu... also from the God race?” Forgive her surging curiosity, but Xiu had concealed it too well. Shen Yanxiao secretly asked.

Shen Siyu smiled. “Naturally.”

“...” Xiu! You lied to me!

“But honestly speaking, it’s not entirely true.”

“...” Alright, Xiu, I’ve wronged you.

“He... is an exception among the God race. He is arrogant and introverted, but he convinced all the God race. At the end of the war between gods and devils, if it were not for him, perhaps the world would have fallen into the hands of the Devil race.” Shen Siyu was fascinated. His memories seemed to have returned to thousands of years ago. The bloody scene was still fresh in his mind.

“...” Shen Yanxiao was thoroughly shocked.

“Back then, I saved you partly because of your mother and partly because of him. I don’t know what methods those people used to get him out of the ice. But now that you are safe and sound, I am relieved,” Shen Siyu smiled and said.

“So, Brother Siyu already knew about it.” Shen Yanxiao touched her nose. She had always been covering up for Xiu. It turned out that when Shen Siyu picked her up, he had already knew about Xiu’s existence.

“I know that his soul is in your body, but I don’t know when he woke up. In fact, I should have guessed it when your seal was undone. After all, to undo the first layer of the God’s Seal, there must be powerful external forces influencing it. I believe you two are getting along well right now.” Shen Siyu said.

“Err... it’s alright.” Shen Yanxiao awkwardly looked away.

“Alright, you’ve just returned to Sun Never Sets so you must be tired. You’ve been talking to me for so long. Go and rest first. I’ll look for you tomorrow and tell you about the Moon God Continent.” Shen Siyu stood up and so did Shen Yanxiao.

“Then I’ll take my leave first, Brother Siyu.” Shen Yanxiao obediently bid farewell to Shen Siyu. Even though what she heard today was somewhat shocking, she did not feel any different towards Shen Siyu.

“Go ahead.” Shen Siyu sent Shen Yanxiao out of the room and watched her departing back with a smile.

“Nangong Mengmeng greets Your Highness!” Nangong Mengmeng, who was hidden in the dark, suddenly knelt on one knee.

The smile on Shen Siyu’s face faded. He looked at Nangong Mengmeng and asked, “Is everything okay?”

“The Broken Star Palace has made their move.” The joy on Nangong Mengmeng’s face had long disappeared.

“Broken Star Palace.” Shen Siyu narrowed his eyes and a chill surfaced.

Chapter 1127: War God (1)

Shen Yanxiao dragged her frightened heart back to the City Lord’s Mansion. She hastily took two bites of the desserts Yan Yu prepared and snuck back into her room.

Vermilion Bird, who was originally squatting in her room and gnawing on an apple to recover his strength, revealed a tangled expression when he saw Shen Yanxiao sneaking back into her own room.

“This is... an occupational disease?” Vermilion Bird was speechless. He had long discovered that his master had some weird quirks in some areas. However... is it normal for someone to sneak into their own room?!

“Eat your apple.” Shen Yanxiao snorted and sat down beside Vermilion Bird.

“Little Vermilion Bird, do you think there might be a demigod and half devil among the God race?” Shen Yanxiao pondered about Shen Siyu’s evaluation of Xiu along the way.

Vermilion Bird chewed on the apple and looked at Shen Yanxiao speechlessly.

“You mean that guy with the weird temper?”

“Really?” Shen Yanxiao widened her eyes.

“You don’t say. That guy was definitely the number one weirdo in the world. He’s clearly a god, but he could devour the power of the Devil race. Furthermore, his power came from both gods and devils. Everyone would tremble when they heard of his name. That guy was extremely brutal.” Vermilion Bird furrowed his small nose as if he was at a loss about that weird god.

“...” Shen Yanxiao was speechless. Why did that guy sound more and more like a certain great master?

“You’ve met him?”

Vermilion Bird shook his head.

“At that time, I was standing on the front line with the humans and cooperating with the God race. That guy was a superior god of the God race and would not participate in ordinary battles. The ones fighting against him are all devils at the level of a demon god.” It was rare for Vermilion Bird to admit his insignificance in the war between gods and devils. Compared to the many gods and devils, he was too weak.

Alright, it was not that he was weak. Rather, those above him were simply heaven-defying existences!

“Superior god?” Shen Yanxiao was confused again.

“The God race is also divided into different ranks. Every god has their own godhood, and cultivating their godhood can increase their strength. However, their division is not as complicated as yours. Other than the Lord God, there are only three ranks. Demigod, intermediate god, and superior god. A superior god can be said to be the strongest of the God race beneath the Lord God. Every superior god has their own title, such as the God of Light, the God of Fire, the God of Wind..." Vermilion Bird started to chatter incessantly.

"Stop!" Shen Yanxiao timely interrupted his detailed explanation.

"The god I asked about is a superior god. What is his title?" Shen Yanxiao asked.

The Vermilion Bird paused and hesitated for a long time before he slowly said, "War God."

"War God..." Shen Yanxiao muttered.

"That's right, it's the War God, the most powerful superior god. His fighting strength can compete with the Lord God, and he is the number one god general in the God race. When he fought back against the Devil race, the War God personally led a hundred thousand soldiers to fight against the devil army led by the Devil God. He used a hundred thousand gods to fight against a million devils. He alone massacred tens of thousands of devil soldiers and the number of devil generals that died under his hands were countless." A trace of fanatical worship appeared in the Vermilion Bird's eyes. This kind of absolute expert was worthy of worship.

During the war between gods and devils, the War God had been regarded as an undefeated legend by all races. From the start of the war between gods and devils to the end, the War God had never been defeated.

Never!

Chapter 1128: War God (2)

"So powerful!" Shen Yanxiao was amazed. How brilliant was his accomplishment?

"But, the god that survived doesn't seem to be him?" No matter how he looked at it, Shen Siyu did not look like the War God that had massacred everyone. Moreover, he was not arrogant or aloof at all!

Vermilion Bird pouted as if he did not like this question.

"The disparity between the God race and the Devil race is too huge. Even if he were to fight against ten thousand demons, it is impossible for him to fight against the million man army of the Devil race. I heard from the representatives of other races that during the last battle of the war between the gods and devils, the War God fought against the Devil God..." Vermilion Bird paused for a moment before he continued." The Devil God's position in the Devil race is equivalent to the Lord God of the God race. "

"..." So savage!

"The Lord God of the God race did not participate in the war between the gods and devils?" It was honestly...

Vermilion Bird shook his head. "At that time, the Lord God had not appeared for a long time. Hundreds of years ago, the Lord God disappeared without a trace. No god in the God race knew where the Lord God went. During the war between gods and devils, the Lord God did not appear at all. It was only a few superior gods that led the God race to war against the other races."

Shen Yanxiao frowned. "Did the War God beat the Devil God?"

Vermilion Bird looked at Shen Yanxiao and slowly said.

"Even though the War God was powerful, he would never be able to overwhelm the Devil God. The Devil God was also an extremely powerful entity in his own right. The two of them fought for nearly a month, and their soldiers were all killed. In the end, both the War God and the Devil God suffered heavy casualties. In order to prevent the Devil God from escaping, the War God used his devouring power to... devour the Devil God..."

"Devour..." Shen Yanxiao's expression was completely horrified.

Vermilion Bird scratched his head and said helplessly, "It's not what you think. He only devoured the power of the Devil God, not the Devil God himself. He devoured the soul of the Devil God. As the Devil God was too powerful, he was almost indestructible. The War God was the only god that could integrate the power of the Devil Clan. Therefore, he could only use his special nature to devour the soul of the Devil God. However, the soul of the Devil God was too powerful. Even though the War God could devour it, it would take tens of thousands of years to completely obliterate the soul of the Devil God in his body. Therefore, at the end of the battle, the War God used his remaining power to freeze himself in the ice. If he could not be freed from the ice, he would be sealed together with the Devil God forever.

Black ice!!

Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath. She was sure that Xiu... was probably that War God.

He did not die in battle back then. Instead, he used his own strength to seal himself and the Devil God's soul inside the mysterious ice...

That was to say, those people mistook him for the last god and used him as a test subject?

"Do you know what the War God's name is?" Shen Yanxiao felt her heart beating violently. She could sense that Xiu, who was in her heart's lake, had been listening when she said those words to Vermilion Bird.

He did not stop her, which meant that he had acquiesced to her investigation.

Vermilion Bird thought for a moment, and his face twisted into a ball. Finally, he remembered the War God's name.

"His name is... Asura, the War God Asura."

The moment the Vermilion Bird uttered the word 'Asura', Shen Yanxiao immediately sensed a powerful mental fluctuation from her heart lake.

Chapter 1129: War God (3)

"To be precise, the War God is a mixture of gods and devils. He possesses the power of the God race and also the demonic nature of the Devil race. Before the war between the gods and devils began, there were many humans who regarded him as a devil. But in fact, he was a superior god." Vermilion Bird shrugged his shoulders. Such a controversial god had become the key to eliminating the Devil God. When humans realized his greatness, he had already fallen. Speaking of which, it was rather lamentable.

“Human? No one in this world would call me that. They are more willing to call me a devil.”

Shen Yanxiao finally understood why Xiu said that.

All the clues matched. Xiu... War God... Asura.

Shen Yanxiao never expected that the soul that resided in her body had such a shocking identity. It was the War God that ended the war between gods and devils and saved the world.

Shen Yanxiao listened quietly as her heart surged.

“The War God is... very noble,” Vermilion Bird said slowly. Even though he did not like the War God’s personality, he had to admit the War God’s achievements.

For the sake of the common people, he had sacrificed himself to bring the Devil God into the abyss. He had crushed the Devil Clan’s arrogance and saved the world.

“Yes,” Shen Yanxiao answered in a low voice.

“Vermilion Bird, do you know the title of the last god?” Shen Yanxiao thought of Shen Siyu and could not help but ask.

The Vermilion Bird thought for a moment and said, “The last survivor of the god race seems to be a superior god too. I think it’s... the God of Light.”

God of Light.

Shen Yanxiao smiled. This suited Shen Siyu’s temperament.

Light brought hope and a future.

Shen Yanxiao chatted with Vermilion Bird for a while before she went to wash up and rest. Lying on the bed, she closed her eyes and sank into her heart’s lake.

Xiu stood on the lake with his back facing Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao looked at that familiar back with a complicated expression.

“Xiu, you know Brother Siyu, right?” Shen Yanxiao hesitated for a long time before she managed to utter those words. She honestly did not know what to say. After knowing Xiu’s identity and everything he had done in the past, she was extremely shocked.

“I recognize the God of Light.” Xiu turned around and looked at Shen Yanxiao with his golden eyes.

“Err... that’s good. I was afraid that you were enemies.” Shen Yanxiao shifted her gaze away awkwardly.

“Right now, you don’t have to be afraid,” Xiu lightly said, as if there was nothing to care about even if he had met an old acquaintance.

“En.” Shen Yanxiao nodded. She glanced at Xiu and immediately shifted her gaze away.

“Brother Siyu said that it would be best for me to go to the Moon God Continent as soon as possible. What do you think?” Shen Yanxiao had mixed feelings when she thought of what Xiu had sacrificed for this world. She hoped that Xiu could recover as soon as possible.

“Sure, go ahead.”

“Then Jia Lan and the rest...”

“They should have a little bit of strength by now. I will leave behind follow-up missions for them. While we are traveling around the Moon God Continent, they can carry out their training.” Xiu had already solved this problem. Training soldiers was not something that could be completed overnight. Even though he personally trained the advanced-ranked demons, it was still too early for them to become an army he once commanded.

“Alright.” Shen Yanxiao nodded in a daze, but she was secretly delighted. Xiu was once the War God and naturally, his ability to lead troops into battle was unquestionable. In the past, the soldiers under Xiu were the sharpest troops of the God race.

Chapter 1130: The Evening of Parting (1)

Other than the Devil God, there was probably no other general that could compare to Xiu.

An army trained by him was absolutely the most powerful.

Early in the morning the next day, Shen Yanxiao talked with Shen Siyu once again and confirmed the time for her trip to the Moon God Continent. All that was left was to make arrangements for Sun Never Sets.

According to Shen Siyu, Shen Yanxiao had to undo the second seal of the God’s Seal in the Moon God Continent so that she could improve her strength. If she wanted to undo the second seal, she had to rely on the growth of her source of life. Shen Yanxiao could only break through on her own and Xiu could not interfere.

With Xiu’s help, it took Shen Yanxiao more than a year to undo the seventh seal of the first layer. If she wanted to undo the second seal, it would probably take at least a year.

Shen Yanxiao would not have any chance to return to the Brilliance Continent for a whole year, so she had to make arrangements before she left.

As a result, Shen Yanxiao specially looked for the Five Beasts.

“Xiaoxiao... give me another two days. I’m not done with my work yet.” Tang Nazhi, who was dragged to the City Lord’s Mansion by Shen Yanxiao, had a long face. Just because of their cheap mouths yesterday, they had been working themselves to death the moment they returned. Now, Shen Yanxiao suddenly called for them.

They only had one thought—the little girl was about to retaliate again!

Shen Yanxiao did not know whether to laugh or cry as she looked at Tang Nazhi’s pitiful expression. She smiled and said, “Calm down. I called you here today because I have something to tell you.”

Were they not rushing for a mission?

The five of them were instantly revived as they quickly sat on the chairs.

“Why didn’t you say so earlier? You scared me to death.” Tang Nazhi took a deep breath. After a night of torture, he felt as if his bones were about to fall apart.

Seriously, even if you want to provoke a wolf, don’t provoke the black-bellied city lord.

Shen Yanxiao chuckled. Tang Nazhi was being so expressive that she was unable to restrain her laughter.

“What’s the matter? Speak.” Qi Xia drank a mouthful of tea. He was much calmer than Tang Nazhi, but the dark circles under his eyes revealed his haggard appearance after staying up late.

Shen Yanxiao looked at the Five Beasts and took a deep breath. “In a few days, I will be leaving the Brilliance Continent for the Moon God Continent.”

“Pu!!” Tang Nazhi spat a mouthful of tea on Yan Yu’s face.

Yan Yu frowned and Tang Nazhi hastily went up to wipe him clean.

What a joke. This seemingly gentle guy was not someone to be trifled with. He had to appease him.

“Moon God Continent? That is the territory of the elves. Why would you suddenly want to go there?” Qi Xia’s reaction was very calm. He was already trying to guess the reason why Shen Yanxiao was going to the Moon God Continent.

“Arrogant elves aren’t easy to get along with.” Yang Xi slightly frowned. Even though his family was different from the Qilin Family that had been in business for generations, they had forged a good weapon because it was somewhat related to the Moon God Continent.

Li Xiaowei hesitated for a moment before he said, “My teacher has been to the Lunar Continent before. That place is not friendly to humans.”

Li Xiaowei was tactful with his words. The elves were arrogant by nature and advocated the power of nature. They despised humans who liked to scheme. In their eyes, humans were only slightly better than the devils, undead, and dwarves.
