

The Good 1131

Chapter 1131: The Evening of Parting (2)

Even though there were many merchants in the Brilliance Continent who had some contact with the elves due to the abundant resources in the Moon God Continent, those elves still disliked human merchants very much. There were practically no humans who could stay in the Moon God Continent for any longer than a few days. Every time they went there, they would leave in a hurry, fearing that they might be beaten to death by those elves.

In fact, during the war between the gods and devils, the elves and the humans were on the same side. They were allies and cooperated with each other. However, ever since the God race perished and the Devil race retreated underground, the relationship between the various races in the world deteriorated.

In the eyes of other races, humans were the most greedy race second only to the Devil race. They loved money and all precious things. For power and status, they did not hesitate to harm their own race. Moreover, humans were crafty and good at scheming. They were even willing to use sinister means to seize anything and everything that was unique.

In short, the reputation of the human race in other continents was extremely poor.

No wonder the five of them were apprehensive when they heard that Shen Yanxiao was going to the Moon God Continent.

"I know that the elves of the Moon God Continent do not like humans, but when they are facing elves, they are extremely kind," Shen Yanxiao smiled and said.

"You're not an elf... Besides, an elf's perception is much better than a human's. Even if you disguise yourself, I'm afraid you'll still be discovered immediately." Tang Nazhi softly muttered. If the elves were to discover that Shen Yanxiao had disguised herself, then... Shen Yanxiao's situation would be extremely miserable.

Elves hated deception the most.

"What if I am one?" Shen Yanxiao slightly raised her eyebrows. Under the puzzled gazes of the five beasts, her black hair gradually faded and a pure silver-white color gradually covered her hair. A pair of emerald green eyes carried a trace of a smile and her skin instantly became extremely white while a pair of pointed ears peaked out from her hair.

"..." The entire hall was silent.

The five beasts looked at this magical scene in horror. In the blink of an eye, Shen Yanxiao who sat before them had changed from a human to a beautiful elf!

"What... magic did you use..." Tang Nazhi swallowed his saliva. Shen Yanxiao, who had transformed into an elf, now looked less crafty and more pure. She sat there quietly like a flawless statue.

"It's not magic." As a Great Archmagus, Qi Xia was certain that Shen Yanxiao's appearance was not because of an external influence.

"It's not magic?" Yang Xi wondered if he had hallucinated from overworking last night.

“Xiaoxiao, are you an elf?” Yan Yu asked with great difficulty. He could not believe his eyes.

“Bro, pinch me. Am I dreaming?” Tang Nazhi was dumbstruck.

“Ow!!!” Tang Nazhi immediately jumped up.

It hurts! My heart hurts!

Li Xiaowei pinched him so hard that his tears were about to fall.

Li Xiaowei asked in a trance, “Does it hurt?”

Tang Nazhi bared his teeth and said, “Of course, it hurts!”

Li Xiaowei nodded in confusion.

“...” Tang Nazhi felt depressed. His kind brother had been led astray by Qi Xia and the rest.

Chapter 1132: The Evening of Parting (3)

His brother used to be so well-behaved and an upright young man, but now, he had become so black-bellied. The heavens wanted him dead ah ah ah...

Why was this guy always out of it?

Even though she already knew that her identity as an elf might bring about a certain degree of shock to the Five Beasts, the moment the shock appeared, it was killed by Tang Nazhi’s nonsense. This feeling... was so subtle.

“Xiaoxiao, are you really an elf?” Qi Xia felt that his IQ had been challenged for the first time. He did not realize that Shen Yanxiao was an elf at all.

Weren’t elves supposed to be pure and arrogant?

Why was the one in front of her... even more black-bellied than humans?

“I think I’ve been disillusioned by elves,” Yang Xi tactfully said.

“Mental destruction, physical destruction... is still quite fitting.” Yan Yu hesitated for a moment before he gave an honest evaluation.

When Shen Yanxiao did not speak, she looked like a pure and holy elf.

When she was speaking...

A variant elf!

Shen Yanxiao's forehead was covered with black lines. She felt that her previous worries were extremely stupid. How could she naively think that this group of beasts would be frightened by her reveal? They were clearly having a great time!

"Have you said enough?" Shen Yanxiao gritted her teeth.

"Err... let us have some fun. We've never seen an elf before. Now that we finally have a living one, you have to let us adapt," Tang Nazhi said with sincerity.

A good friend that they had been with for a year had suddenly transformed from a black-bellied, crafty human into an aloof elf from the legends. No matter how strong their hearts were, they would still be shocked for a moment.

Of course, that moment of shock was really only... an instant for the five of them.

After that, their focus shifted to whether Shen Yanxiao was a mutant.

"The rumors are not true. Who said that elves are pure in heart? Drag them out and beat them to death." Qi Xia had a deep understanding of Shen Yanxiao's black-bellied nature. That nature of hers would absolutely make countless self-proclaimed despicable and shameless humans kneel and worship her.

"Alas, I no longer believe in rumors. Seeing is believing." Yan Yu revealed a tragic appearance as if he had been deceived.

"My worldview has been distorted. Let me rebuild it." Yang Xi rubbed his eyebrows as if he was trying to adjust his understanding of elves.

"I think... I can completely change my impression of elves." Li Xiaowei sighed.

"Enough!!!" Shen Yanxiao exploded!

What noble, cold, and inviolable? The description of an elf had shattered into pieces in front of Shen Yanxiao.

"You are an elf. Your temperament! Your temperament!" Qi Xia kindly reminded.

"Temperament my foot!" Shen Yanxiao glared at him and wished she could slap him to death.

"Elves are a noble race and cannot speak vulgarities... Erm, is a basket considered vulgar?" Yan Yu turned to ask Yang Xi.

"In a sense, a basket is a tool so it should not be considered vulgar." Yang Xi revealed a serious expression.

"That would also depend on where it is used. I think Xiaoxiao's weapon would be thicker here." Tang Nazhi joined in on the fun.

"Maybe it's a mantra? Xiaoxiao likes baskets. Why don't we buy more baskets for her next birthday?" Li Xiaowei seemed to be loyal, but he had gradually turned black.

Chapter 1133: The Evening of Parting (4)

"I can have that." Tang Nazhi nodded.

"Nope." Yang Xi disagreed.

"The basket is very cheap." Yan Yu was very pragmatic.

"That would depend on the material of the basket." Qi Xia was indeed a profiteer.

Shen Yanxiao's expression was about to explode.

"Aren't you being too idle..." Shen Yanxiao's expression was very dangerous. A black-bellied elf was more terrifying than a black-bellied human.

The five of them stopped there. All of them shut their mouths and looked at Shen Yanxiao. They could tease her occasionally, but if they continued...

They could not take someone going berserk.

"Cough, cough. Continue." Tang Nazhi sat back on the chair, not daring to continue.

The five beasts expressed that they were well-behaved and would no longer joke around.

"I am a human," Shen Yanxiao said.

The Five Beasts' expressions were as if they were saying, 'you liar'.

Shen Yanxiao resisted the urge to slap them to death and gritted her teeth. "I'm also an elf."

"To be precise, I can also be a merfolk, dragons, undead, dwarves, devils..."

"..." The Five Beasts were thoroughly shocked.

"You're the same as Xiao Feng?" Qi Xia was slightly surprised. Even though Shen Yanxiao had never revealed Lan Fengli's identity, but with Qi Xia's intellect, he had already guessed the uniqueness of Lan Fengli from some clues. Moreover, he had some understanding of the exiled Warlocks. He knew that those Warlocks from the past had secretly integrated the characteristics of other races into human bodies.

He had guessed that Lan Fengli was the work of those Warlocks. However... he did not expect that Shen Yanxiao... was the same.

Shen Yanxiao nodded. Even though the Five Beasts were shocked, they were not too agitated.

Evidently, the others had already noticed the uniqueness of Lan Fengli and Uncle Nine's group. However, they did not care about that, so they did not require an explanation.

"I only found out not long ago. I am the same as Xiao Feng, but also different. There is a special seal on my body. If I do not undo it, my strength will not improve. My fall from a Summoner to an Advanced-level Warlock was also due to the awakening of my elvish bloodline." Shen Yanxiao simply told the Five Beasts about herself.

With the exception of Shen Siyu and Xiu, she did not wish to hide anything from her five comrades who had gone through thick and thin with her. They had abandoned everything and chose to stay by her side, accompanying her to build a prosperous future for Sun Never Sets. She did not wish to hide anything from them.

“Your trip to the Moon God Continent is related to the seal on your body, right?” Qi Xia asked.

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

“How long will you be gone for?” Qi Xia did not question Shen Yanxiao for any more details. Since Shen Yanxiao was willing to confess her secrets, they knew their limits. What they cared about was Shen Yanxiao herself, not her race.

Partners would always be partners. Not to mention that she was a combination of several races, they would stand by her side without any hesitation even if she was a sinful demon.

As long as they were still alive, they would face the gods together.

“At least a year.” Shen Yanxiao was not sure herself. She would have to break through the seal on her own. She had never been in contact with the elves, so she was at a loss on the road ahead. She could only find out when she arrived at the Moon God Continent.

Chapter 1134: The Evening of Parting (5)

The five of them fell into silence. The estimation Shen Yanxiao gave them was the best possible scenario, but even then it would still require a year. If there were some troubles along the way, it would probably take longer.

“You have to pack your stuff for your trip to the Moon God Continent. Everything there is unfamiliar.” Yan Yu finally sighed and looked at Shen Yanxiao with worry. After getting along for a long time, they had already regarded Shen Yanxiao as their little sister. Now that this little sister was about to travel far away again, and the destination was the Moon God Continent that was separated by an endless sea, how could they not be worried?

“About the ship, I will dispatch one from the Qilin Family. Follow the merchant ship there and secretly leave when you arrive at the Moon God Continent. Do not let the elves discover you.” Qi Xia had already started to arrange a schedule for Shen Yanxiao.

“My teacher once stayed in the Moon God Continent for a period of time. If you find yourself in any trouble, you can look for his friend there. I will write down detailed information for you when I return later. Even though he has a strange personality, he is indebted to my teacher. If you mention him, he will try his best to help you.” Li Xiaowei thought of his teacher. This was a backup plan his teacher had given him, but right now, he was giving it to Shen Yanxiao.

“You have to be careful when you are outside. You have to pay attention when we are not by your side. Even though elves are proud and aloof, they are not bad to their fellow people. As long as you don’t expose your human side, I don’t think they will do anything to you.” It was rare that Tang Nazhi was not smiling cheekily as he seriously warned her.

“My family has some dealings with an elf tribe in the Moon God Continent. If you have any difficulties, look for them. For the sake of the Azure Dragon Family, they will not stand by and do nothing.” Yang Xi had the same idea as Li Xiaowei. He was prepared to leave Shen Yanxiao a way out.

The Moon God Continent was not the Brilliance Continent after all. Even though the five great aristocratic families were powerful, their influence was limited to the Brilliance Continent. Once they arrived at the Moon God Continent, there were many things that they could not do anything about.

“After you leave, we will take care of Sun Never Sets for you. And once you return, you will see that the four cities around Sun Never Sets belong to you.” Qi Xia looked at Shen Yanxiao with a smile. His sister was about to go on a long journey and he knew that she would be worried about some things. Those who remained in the Brilliance Continent would be her strong support pillar. Even if she was far away in the Moon God Continent, they would protect this land for her and would never allow anyone to touch it.

This was a place that belonged to their sister and no one could snatch it.

Shen Yanxiao looked at the Five Beasts in silence. They knew that she was about to leave, but they had no intentions of stopping her. They knew that leaving was the best choice for her.

There was no benefit for her to continue staying in the Brilliance Continent. Even though Shen Yanxiao did not say it explicitly, they had already sensed that Shen Yanxiao’s urgent desire to undo the seal was not as simple as recovering her strength.

Clearly, they often complained about work fatigue in front of her, but when she was about to leave, they would diligently look after the cities she left behind. They were willing to replace her and take care of Sun Never Sets and everything they built up.

Shen Yanxiao bit her lips. Her laughter earlier on had been dispersed by the Five Beasts’ consideration. Her heart felt as if it was tightly gripped by a hand, and it hurt.

Chapter 1135: The Evening of Parting (6)

Shen Yanxiao’s eyes reddened. She sniffled and looked at the five familiar faces.

She wanted to say something, but her usual glib tongue suddenly lost its effect. The words seemed to be stuck in her throat.

“Silly girl, it is only a year. Didn’t you wander around without us when you came to Sun Never Sets? Also, don’t even think about leaving us behind and wander around the Moon God Continent. When the situation in Sun Never Sets stabilizes, we will travel to the Moon God Continent. So now, don’t be too sad. Otherwise, we will look down on you.”

“I’m not that bad.” Shen Yanxiao’s voice was somewhat hoarse.

“Aren’t you ashamed? You’re already so old, yet you’re still crying? Shame on you.” Tang Nazhi teased.

Shen Yanxiao immediately extricated herself from Qi Xia’s embrace and forcefully suppressed the tears in her eyes. She raised her head and revealed a determined expression as she said, “What a joke. Why would I cry? Just you wait. I will certainly make a name for myself in the Moon God Continent in half a year's time. Just you wait and come and explore the entire continent with me!"

She would not allow herself to live a miserable life. Otherwise, how could she be worthy of the sacrifices her comrades had made for her?

She could never fall because there was a group of people by her side.

As long as she did not fall, they would never fall as well.

Tang Nazhi chuckled and said, "You said it yourself. Half a year, just half a year. After half a year, we will develop the cities around Sun Never Sets and then we will go to the Moon God Continent to find you. If you don't do well, we will laugh at you."

"Who's afraid of who! Just you wait and see. You'll have fun when the time comes." Shen Yanxiao stopped crying and smiled. She knew that the Five Beasts were only teasing her because they were afraid that she would be too emotional in her departure.

"Having fun in the Moon God Continent. I'm looking forward to it." Yan Yu chuckled.

"Crossing the continent and the ocean. I think we're really weird, but... I like it!" Yang Xi's face was filled with expectations.

There was no place that Phantom did not dare to go.

Be it the Brilliance Continent or the Moon God Continent, as long as they wanted to, they would dare to enter.

"Isn't it just the Moon God Continent? Didn't Xiaoxiao say that there are other races in her body? Perhaps in the future, we can have fun in the continent where all races other than the God race and the Devil race reside. That would be fun." Tang Nazhi clasped his hands behind his neck and looked at his friend with a smile.

"Tsk tsk, playing around the world? I like this plan." Qi Xia looked forward to the grand future.

However, the Phantom members did not expect that the jokes they told to comfort Shen Yanxiao would become reality one by one in the near future.

Not long after the Phantom's name resounded throughout the Forsaken Land, their name would also spread throughout the entire Brilliance Continent. After a long time, all races would become familiar with it.

However, that future was still too far away for these hot-blooded youths. The road that belonged to them was still long and the future that belonged to them had only just begun.

The future is long, and we will naturally witness a legend that belongs to Phantom in the future.

Chapter 1136: The Evening of Parting (7)

The news about Shen Yanxiao leaving soon spread throughout Sun Never Sets. To the general public, Shen Yanxiao only mentioned that she was going to the Moon God Continent to look for her third uncle, Shen Jing. Only Shen Siyu and the Five Beasts knew her real motive for going to the Moon God Continent.

In her absence, the Five Beasts would be in charge of Sun Never Sets. Once Shen Yanxiao left, Lan Fengli and the two Phoenixes would begin heading to various mountain ranges in the Brilliance Continent to capture magical beasts. Their contact with the God Wind Alliance, the Longxuan Empire, and the Seven Kingdoms' Bounty Hall had also been put on the agenda.

Before she left, Shen Yanxiao wrote a letter to Yun Qi. In the letter, she mentioned that Ye Qing's concoction of the Blood Banquet Potion was nearing its end. In another month or two, Yun Qi would be able to recover his former strength. Another purpose of the letter Shen Yanxiao was to invite Yun Qi and Ye Qing to stay in Sun Never Sets for a period of time after concocting the Blood Banquet Potion. She also invited her two teachers to be actual teachers in Sun Never Sets, teaching Warlock skills and herbalism to the citizens of Oriental City.

The winnings from the tournament had been handed over to Qi Xia and Su He to deal with. About the mine, they would soon arrange for miners to mine it.

To the outside world, the news of Shen Yanxiao's departure was sealed to the greatest extent. No one was allowed to let it leak.

Before she left, Shen Yanxiao went to see Shen Feng, but she could not bear to tell him the truth. Even though Shen Feng did not wish for his granddaughter to work so hard, he still let her do as she pleased. When she left the Vermilion Bird Family Estate, Shen Yanxiao specially arranged for Shen Jiawei to take care of Shen Feng and Shen Ling.

Shen Jiawei was grateful for Shen Yanxiao's trust in him. He promised repeatedly that he would take good care of his grandfather and uncle. He also asked Shen Yanxiao to be careful and pay attention to her safety.

There were many other miscellaneous matters that Shen Yanxiao had to account for. A few days later, Shen Siyu left Sun Never Sets. Soon after, the carriage that would take Shen Yanxiao to the coast of the Brilliance Continent had also arrived. The Five Beasts, Lan Fengli and Nangong Mengmeng accompanied Shen Yanxiao for their last journey until she was sent to the coast of the Brilliance Continent.

Lan Fengli looked at Shen Yanxiao with reluctance. He knew that he would not see his sister for a long time to come.

"Sister, this is for you." Lan Fengli walked to Shen Yanxiao with his head lowered and placed a soybean-sized crystal in her hands.

Shen Yanxiao recognized this small crystal. Lan Fengli picked it up on the way back from Twilight City. At that time, this crystal was the size of an egg. Even though it was not expensive, Lan Fengli liked it very much. When he heard that she was leaving, he used his hands to polish this egg-sized crystal into its current appearance.

"Thank you." Shen Yanxiao took it and found a string to tie the crystal around her neck.

Nangong Mengmeng looked at Shen Yanxiao with tears in her eyes. She did not say anything, but her red eyes were similar to a rabbit.

"It's getting late. You should get on the boat," Qi Xia looked up at the boat docked on the shore and softly said.

"Farewell presents for the few of you. Wait for me to leave before looking at them." With that said, Shen Yanxiao boarded the ship without turning back.

The merchant ship lifted its anchor and gradually sailed away from the Brilliance Continent, bringing the people on board towards the endless sea.

Inside the box were five contracts.

Chapter 1137: Moon God Continent (1)

The Moon God Continent was the territory of the elves. It was separated from the Brilliance Continent by an endless sea. The merchant ship sailed on the sea for nearly a month before they finally arrived at the elves' territory.

The Brilliance Continent was the main battleground of the war between gods and devils, and the first area the Devil Clan conquered. Even though nearly ten thousand years had passed, the Brilliance Continent that had been baptized by the flames of war was riddled with holes. Demons, causing it to be depleted of its vitality.

However, the Moon God Continent was completely different. Before they arrived, they could already see the area covered by greenery in the distance. The ground was covered with green grass, and towering trees could be seen everywhere. Birds were singing at the top of their lungs, and the unsuspecting little animals were strolling around casually on the grass. Every single place was brimming with vitality.

This was a continent that had not been polluted, bright and full of vitality.

The elves' distaste for humans had gradually accumulated since the war between gods and devils. Even though the elves had accepted the idea of trading with humans, there were still many restrictions.

Human merchant ships would only be allowed to reach the Moonlight Coast. No matter which country of the Brilliance Continent they came from, they could only stay at this harbor. If someone dared to invade the Moon God Continent at will, then the elves guarding the coast would attack and expel them mercilessly.

It was currently summer so it was rare for human ships to head towards the Moon God Continent due to the high temperature. During the middle of every year, the surface of the sea connecting the Brilliance

Continent and the Lunar Continent would stay turbulent. The waves and storms generated could possibly devour all the ships that came and went.

When the merchant ship from the Qilin Family arrived at the Moonlight Coast, there were only a few scattered merchant ships docked on the coast.

The merchants from the Qilin Family brought Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird down the ship and stepped on the lush green land.

On the Moonlight Coast, a white fence was built and the entire coast was enclosed. Only an entrance was left in the center of the fence, but dozens of elves in silver light armor stood guard with bows in their hands.

Those who had not personally come to the Moon God Continent would never know how tight the elves' defenses against humans were.

Any human who wanted to enter the Moon God Continent through the entrance had to go through a thorough inspection. The slightest error would result in them being rejected.

Humans were wealthy and smart, but they were unwilling to give up the riches hidden away in the pockets of other races.

Shen Yanxiao stood on the sandy coast and looked at the humans walking down from the other merchant ships. She saw how they examined themselves over and over again to see if there was anything wrong with them. Their strict appearance reminded Shen Yanxiao of those prudent people who wanted to emigrate before she was reborn.

The only difference was, in her previous life, those people abandoned their homeland and chose to enter the land of comfort for their hearts. However, the humans in front of her were only doing some business with the elves.

She believed that as long as it was not a human with a screw loose, no one would want to settle down in the Moon God Continent. Not to mention the elves' repulsion towards humans, just the thought of walking on this continent and being guarded against elves everywhere made her feel mentally and physically exhausted.

However, that could not stop them from making a fortune.

Chapter 1138: Moon God Continent (2)

The merchants were busy passing through the checkpoints. And no one noticed that there were two petite children among them.

"City Lord Shen, please wait for a moment. We will be passing through the elvish checkpoint in a while. My subordinates are all ready." The man responsible for escorting Shen Yanxiao was an old shopkeeper from the Qilin Family. He had always been responsible for the transactions between the Qilin Family and the Moon God Continent.

Qi Xia had instructed Shen Yanxiao and the Vermilion Bird to join the caravan, so the shopkeeper naturally did not dare to be negligent.

“Thank you.” Shen Yanxiao nodded. With Xiu’s help, her appearance did not look any different from an ordinary human. Vermilion Bird also had the appearance of an ordinary child. Even the elves with strong perception would not be able to notice their abnormality.

The elves at the checkpoint were being very diligent with their inspections, but there would naturally be no problem with their cargo since the Qilin Family was the one who made the arrangements. However, when those guards saw Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird, the two ‘human’ children, they revealed a trace of surprise.

Elves were proud by nature, but they were not inherently bad people. They just hated humans for their craftiness, but human children were excluded from their ire.

“The sea is not calm. Why do you have to bring a child with you?” A fair and handsome elf asked angrily.

The shopkeeper from the Qilin Family smiled and said, “There was no one to take care of them, so I brought them here with me.”

“Then pay more attention.” The elf took another look at Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird. He did not pay much attention to Mini Dragon and Little Phoenix lying on the top of their heads.

Humans had the weakest physique among the eight races, but they knew how to sign a contract with powerful magical beasts. With that in mind, the elves regarded these two mascots as Vermilion Bird and Shen Yanxiao’s magical beasts.

While the Qilin Family was smoothly passing through the checkpoint, the humans on the other side had a conflict with the elves.

“Why won’t you let us in? We don’t have any devious motives. Weren’t we able to enter in the past?” A chubby young man was really anxious as he negotiated with the elves in front of him. The two handsome elves had a cold expression and impatience was written all over their faces.

“During this period of time, all humans who use gems as currency are not allowed to enter,” The elf said expressionlessly.

“Why?!” The fat man could not accept this fact. He had traveled across the sea before finally arriving at the Moon God Continent. He was waiting to make a fortune, but he was suddenly informed that he could not enter the Moon God Continent. Anyone would go crazy!

Elves did not like money. The coveted gold coins of the Brilliance Continent were as worthless as stones in the Moon God Continent. Therefore, those who came to the Moon God Continent to do business would not directly use gold coins for their trades. Preferably, they would use what those elves liked.

Glittering gems were once a favorite of elves. Many merchants would use gems as currency to exchange for supplies in the Moon God Continent.

Other than gems, plant seeds and grains that were unique to the Brilliance Continent were also used as currency to trade with elves.

With the Moon God Continent being vast and abundant in resources, it was also very suitable for plants to grow. However, the elves were arrogant by nature. It was unrealistic to expect them to face the earth with their backs to the sky and reclaim the grasslands to farm.

Who could imagine the scene of beautiful and handsome male elves sweating profusely as they worked in the fields?

That scene was absolutely devastating.

Chapter 1139: Moon God Continent (3)

Without farming, they would lose their source of food, as most elves were vegetarians and they were unwilling to harm small animals. To them, animals were also living beings nurtured by the Tree of Life. With that in mind, it could be said that elves had some relations with them.

Therefore, in the Moon God Continent, the food for elves was very simple. What they ate was basically fruits grown on trees.

Just because they were not farming did not mean that they did not like to eat. The food that humans used to trade with them was very popular among the elves.

This trade relationship had been going on for eons, and this was the first time Shen Yanxiao heard that the elves had started to reject gems.

That did not make sense!

Elves were all beautiful and noble by virtue of their race. They were like natural aristocrats. Even the poorest elves would be the subjects of study for the most famous aristocrats in the Brilliance Continent.

Being fond of beautiful things were the characteristics of elves. They liked to embed various gems on their ornaments at home. Even their bows had gems as decorations.

They liked jewels, but the Moon God Continent was covered in greenery. The mineral reserves on the continent could be said to be pitifully small. Before humans traded gems with elves, the value of gems in the Moon God Continent was comparable to magical cores in the human world.

The fat man tried his best to persuade the elf guard, but the elf's disregard for humans had reached an appalling level. No matter how the fat man tried to persuade him, the elf still had an indisputable expression.

The fat man hung his head in dejection and shrugged his shoulders. He wanted to cry but had no tears as he looked at the Moon God Continent that was only one checkpoint away. If it were not for the fact that he was afraid that the elves would pepper him with arrows until he looked like a porcupine, he would have already pounced over.

“Forget it. Consider this as a wasted trip. Let’s come back next time.” The fat man’s companion comforted him.

The fat man had a bitter expression on his face as he said, “It takes almost two months to go back and forth. How much time are we wasting? Besides, I’ve already purchased so many gems. Don’t tell me it’s going to be in vain?” God wanted him dead!

“Alas, there’s nothing we can do about it. I reckon it’s because of what happened three months ago. The elves must be unhappy.”

“F*ck! Do you think that idiot named Shen Jing has gone crazy? Since he came to the Moon God Continent to do business, he should just focus on doing business. Why would he come and flirt with a beauty from the elvish race for no reason? Great, now even honest merchants like us got implicated. My money ahhh... this trip has been in vain. How much did I lose!!” The fatty looked up to the sky and roared. He squinted his eyes and squeezed out two drops of tears.

Shen Yanxiao originally treated it as gossip, but when she heard the name of a certain uncle, her expression immediately became unsettled.

“I’m going out for a while.” Shen Yanxiao said to the Qilin Family.

“Please go ahead. The paperwork will take a while,” the Qilin Family member politely said.

Shen Yanxiao nodded and called for Vermilion Bird to walk towards the fat man who was rolling around on the ground for help.

The fat man was still unwilling to give up. He dragged his companion to wander around the entrance, looking for ways he could enter.

Just as the fat man was feeling sorry for himself in his tragedy, a delicate voice sounded from behind him.

“Brother, you mentioned that some humans came to the Moon God Continent to harass the elves. Could you tell me more in detail?”

Chapter 1140: City of Elves (1)

Just as the fat man was feeling depressed, he turned around and saw two fair and delicate little boys. At the sight, the originally furious him instantly calmed down.

‘They are probably just kids from some merchant group that heard something interesting and came over to ask’. Fatty tried to act more mature as he scratched his head and said, “Little friends, don’t you know? Some time ago, a human named Shen Jing came to the Moon God Continent to make a deal with an elf. But I don’t know what was on his mind. He seemed to have taken a fancy to an elf in Jadeite City. In the end... he foolishly ran over to fawn over her. However, that elf is the daughter of the City Lord of Jadeite City. As a matter of fact, he was locked up by the City Lord three months ago...”

Shen Yanxiao’s lips twitched. Even if she used her feet to think, she knew that man was none other than her Third Uncle. There was no one else who liked to tease beauties.

Speaking of which, Shen Jing was also a weirdo in the Vermilion Bird Family. He was good at both academics and martial arts, but he was quite a cassanova. In the capital, there were so many beauties that claimed to be his woman that their numbers were almost comparable to an entire battalion. Oddly enough, there had been news of him marrying anyone. All day long, he would drink and chat with a group of wealthy young masters. He was definitely the number one prodigal son in the Longxuan Empire.

Shen Jing loved beauties and was very generous to them.

However, Shen Yanxiao did not expect that this unreliable uncle of hers would extend his claws to the elves.

Elves...

That was a race that strongly rejected humans. Furthermore, he could have provoked anyone, but he had to provoke the daughter of a City Lord...

'One would not die if one did not seek death.' Shen Yanxiao had experienced this saying for herself.

The fat man continued to complain for a long time and soon Shen Yanxiao had obtained quite a comprehensive amount of information about Shen Jing.

Even though Shen Jing was detained, this was not much of a problem, as elves were not cruel by nature.

After Shen Yanxiao heard the gossip, she pulled Vermilion Bird back to the checkpoint. The Qilin Family had already arranged everything so Shen Yanxiao and the rest had safely passed the checkpoint.

"This is the map of the Moon God Continent. City Lord Shen, you can decide on the road ahead." The shopkeeper took out a rather heavy purse and handed it to Shen Yanxiao.

"The currency used on the Lunar Continent is crystal coins. City Lord Shen, please use the coins in this purse. We will head to the Moon God Continent once every three months. If you have anything you need to tell us, you can meet us at the Moonlight Coast."

"Thank you." Shen Yanxiao took the purse and put it into her space ring.

Elves loved beautiful things. Even the currency used in the Moon God Continent was made of crystal.

The people from the Qilin Family left soon after. Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird found a secluded location and Shen Yanxiao transformed into an elf while Vermilion Bird reverted back to his red hair and scarlet eyes.

There were also magical beasts in the Moon God Continent, so Vermilion Bird's identity was not suspicious.

After she changed into her elf form, Shen Yanxiao sat on the grass and looked at the map of the Moon God Continent.

The population of elves was far less than that of humans, and the Moon God Continent they lived in was only slightly larger than an average country in the Brilliance Continent. The cities in the Moon God Continent were also distributed differently from the Brilliance Continent. They were at the center of a circle that expanded outwards.

The city at the center of the Moon God Continent was named as Moonshine City, and it was where the Elf King lived. There was a small Tree of Life in the entire Moon God Continent that was planted in Moonshine City.
