

The Good 1161

Chapter 1161: Training Camp (3)

Shen Yanxiao carried a few bags of fruit and returned to the inn where she stayed. When she entered the room, she saw Vermilion Bird and the two adorable guys recuperating at the table.

Shen Yanxiao casually took out three fruits from her pocket and threw them at them. Then, she gnawed on another fruit before jumping on bed to train.

“Yue Xi said that these fruits can only be found in the Moonshine Tribe. Xiu, what do you think?” Shen Yanxiao did not give up on finding more fruits.

“I previously heard that there are some strange fruit trees growing near the Tree of Life. These fruit trees have been nourished by the Tree of Life so they might possess some special effects. These fruits are very likely to be gifted by the Elf King. If you want more, you can either purchase them from other tribes or head to Moonshine City to procure some more,” Xiu said.

“Wow, it seems like the prospect of being the Elf King’s bodyguard is getting better.” Shen Yanxiao lifted her brow. If she could directly enter Moonshine City as a bodyguard, then she would have five months to undo all the seals on her body.

As for the fact that she could not leave without permission...

Her elf form might not be able to breach the contract, but she could just turn back into a human.

A certain heartless thief, who had yet to become a bodyguard, had already started to think of ways to harm innocent elves.

Shen Yanxiao opened her eyes and saw that the trio had finished eating the fruit. She casually asked, “Do you feel anything special after eating the fruit? Can you absorb the power of the Tree of Life faster?”

Vermilion Bird shook his head and so did Mini Dragon and Little Phoenix.

It seemed like these fruits were only effective on elves. Shen Yanxiao felt somewhat regretful. If only these fruits could also be effective on her three adorable babies.

“Oh right, I will be leaving for a period of time in five days. Vermilion Bird, stay and take care of your little siblings in Fragrant Night City. I will bring a few friends over in two days. If you need anything, you can look for them directly.” Shen Yanxiao arranged for her to stay in the training camp.

Vermilion Bird had a blank expression as he nodded, it was almost as if he was already accustomed to her occasional sudden disappearance.

“How long?”

“About half a year.” After she left the training camp, she could think of ways to get Vermilion Bird and the rest to her side.

“Have a safe journey. Remember to write a letter back.” Vermilion Bird waved his claws insincerely.

“...” Shen Yanxiao decided not to give them any fruits to eat tonight. What a group of ingrates.

For the remaining five days, Shen Yanxiao had been working hard eating fruits and training. Finally, on the night of the fifth day, a slight change happened to the source of life in her body. It was originally a small seed, but after these few days, it began to germinate.

The change in her source of life had also brought about a huge change for Shen Yanxiao. That night, the first layer of seal of her elf form had been undone soundlessly...

The undoing of the seal did not bring any changes to Shen Yanxiao's body, but she could clearly sense that a portion of her magic that belonged to her human form had recovered. If she were to calculate, her current strength as a Warlock had recovered to the level of a Great Warlock!

But as an Archer, nothing really happened.

On the sixth day when the sun began to rise from the east, Shen Yanxiao packed up her luggage and left the inn with morning dew still in the air. She then walked towards the registration location of the training camp.

Chapter 1162: Training Camp (4)

The registration location of the training camp was adjacent to the test venue of the city. Early in the morning, there were literally a sea of elves swarming the area to take the test. Everyone wished to get rid of their cyan elf identity as soon as possible as they looked forward to entering a higher-level city.

A long queue soon formed at the test venue. Bin Dong and the two cyan elves could be seen queuing up early in the morning.

“Bin Dong, thank you so much. With your help, it will save us a lot of trouble.” One of the cyan elves thanked him.

Bin Dong smiled and enjoyed the other party's gratitude.

“Not every yellow elf is as kind as you, Bin Dong. That useless elf was so mean that day. So what if she's rich? I passed by that fruit shop two days ago and didn't see that little elf selling anything. It seems like she has come to her senses and listened to your guidance. At least she has some brains.” Another cyan elf tried his best to sing praises for Bin Dong.

“At least she's sensible.” Bin Dong naturally attributed the reason for Tian Bao not continuing to sell fruits to his 'persuasion'.

If Shen Yanxiao were here, she would be surprised that the conversation between the three elves got more shameless than she could ever imagine.

“Ha, I did not see that ignorant elf around anymore. Just by looking at her appearance, I can tell that she is ignorant and incompetent.” The cyan elf looked around but did not see Shen Yanxiao. When he thought of his progress in the past few days, he immediately felt a sense of superiority.

However, before he could finish showing off, he saw a petite figure walking towards them leisurely.

“Bin Dong, look, it’s her!” The cyan elf hastily shook his hand.

Bin Dong looked over with a frown. The moment he saw Shen Yanxiao, he raised his eyebrows before revealing an arrogant smile.

“Poor girl, you would never enter a yellow-level city with your talent.” Bin Dong chuckled.

The cyan elf on one side hastily agreed. “It’s all your fault for not knowing what’s good for you. If you were sensible, I could have asked Bin Dong to give you some pointers...”

Before he could finish his sentence, Shen Yanxiao turned around and walked to the registration location of the training camp.

The three elves, who were prepared to mock her, felt as if they had been slapped in public by Shen Yanxiao. Their faces alternated between green and white.

“Has this girl gone crazy to report to the training camp?” The cyan elf was shocked.

The training camp was rather popular for those more impatient elves, as it only required half a year of their time. Even though they could obtain a lot of resources during that half a year, it was too short. After half a year, they would be allocated to various places, making it practically impossible to improve any further.

Not many elves were willing to attempt such a method that was similar to killing a chicken to get its eggs.

Shen Yanxiao was the only elf standing near the registration area of the training camp. Compared to the long queue at the test venue, it was so shabby that it was unbearable to look at.

“Tsk tsk, I thought she was more motivated. So it turns out, she had enough self-awareness to realize that she would never be promoted to a yellow-level city. Well, at least she can stay in a yellow-level city for half a year in the training camp.” Bin Dong sneered. He disliked this cyan elf who disregarded his identity as a yellow elf.

Chapter 1163: Training Camp (5)

“Bin Dong, you have to understand her situation. After all, even if she were to participate in the test, she would not be able to pass. Instead of disgracing herself, wouldn’t it be better for her to be assigned a yellow-level city for a period of time?” The cyan elf recovered his confidence from Shen Yanxiao’s previous indifference and sneered.

“Haha, you’re right.”

The three elves clumped together and mocked Shen Yanxiao.

However, Shen Yanxiao, who had already arrived at the registration area, had no interest in talking nonsense with them.

In her eyes, the three elves were not qualified to talk to her.

At the registration area of the training camp, there was only a wooden table and an elf with a white badge on his chest sitting there listlessly. His eyes were narrowed to the point that he could fall asleep at any time.

Even when Shen Yanxiao walked to the table, that elf was still cupping his cheeks seemingly in a daze.

"I want to register," Shen Yanxiao suddenly said.

Mo Yu, the elf who was about to fall asleep, suddenly heard a voice and woke up with a start. He raised his head and looked at the elf standing before the table in surprise.

The elf in front of him was very beautiful. Her pair of emerald green eyes seemed calm and filled with vitality.

This was the first time Mo Yu had seen such an energetic gaze, but...

He sized up Shen Yanxiao and noticed that she looked to be around fourteen-years-old. At that age, one was still not considered an adult. "Erm, the test is over there." Mo Yu never imagined that this elf was really here to register for the training camp.

Generally speaking, elves who entered the training camp already had their strength plateaued once they reached adulthood. Expectedly, there was usually a deary air about them as they came here to register for the training camp. Very few young elves would come here to suffer.

Mo Yu even kindly pointed to the test area.

His heart ached. He thought that he finally had some business here, but in the end, he even had to give directions to the opposing area. Ahhhh... the Elf King, please don't make things difficult for him.

Shen Yanxiao frowned. "I am here to join the training camp."

Bang!

Mo Yu's hand that was cupping his cheeks slipped and following that was a loud smack onto the table.

After a cry of pain, Mo Yu hastily covered his head and stood up. He looked at Shen Yanxiao in disbelief and wondered if he had heard wrongly.

"You want to join the training camp? Really?"

Shen Yanxiao nodded. 'Why does this guy seem so unreliable?'

"Eh? No way. You... you're not an adult yet. Why are you going to the training camp?" Mo Yu was surprised. 'Do elves like to go the hard way nowadays?'

"I want to join the Silvermoon Guards. Don't I have to enter the training camp first?" Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows.

Mo Yu gasped.

What a powerful statement!

“Cough... you want to enter the Silvermoon Guards? But... not any random elf can enter the training camp. Do you understand?” Mo Yu felt a headache. ‘Is this young elf simply too naive to understand the implications of joining?’

“Understood. How am I to register?” Shen Yanxiao casually replied. Her gaze swept across the table as she attempted to find something similar to a registration form.

As it turned out, not even a single strand of hair could be seen on the wooden table.

“...” Mo Yu was speechless. He felt that he had met an extremely obstinate little kid. He looked at Shen Yanxiao with a headache. Even though he was glad that his side had finally opened for business, it still seemed immoral to harm a minor’s future like this.

Chapter 1164: Training Camp (6)

“You’re still very young. Don’t waste your youth by entering the training camp.” Mo Yu suddenly felt that he was a savant.

“So?” Shen Yanxiao crossed her arms and calmly looked at him.

“You should wait until your strength has plateaued before you enter. If you enter now, it will harm your future.” Mo Yu tried his best to persuade her.

“No need. I want to enter right now,” Shen Yanxiao said adamantly.

Seething, Mo Yu wished to pry open this female elf’s head to check if she was sane. It was rare for him to show so much concern for a stranger, so why was this little girl not listening to his advice?

“You... Alas, you’re only a cyan elf right now so you’ll only enter the beginner training camp. If you’re confident, go ahead and take the test first. Wouldn’t it be better to come back after you reach a higher level city? If you don’t increase your strength immensely in the training camp in half a year’s time, you’ll be allocated to the wasteland, effectively destroying your own future.” Mo Yu coaxed Shen Yanxiao like he was coaxing a child.

Shen Yanxiao was speechless. It was the first time she realized that there were elves who were as talkative as Tang Nazhi.

“No need, I want to join right now!”

“You... Why don’t you listen to my advice? Come with me and I will bring you to the test area. If your strength has not plateaued, I really don’t want to harm you by adding you.” Mo Yu was honestly unable to convince Shen Yanxiao so he decided to prove everything with facts.

Before Shen Yanxiao could react, Mo Yu grabbed her hand and walked towards the crowded test area.

“Hey, do me a favor. I need this one here to take the test.” Mo Yu walked to the test area and brazenly cut the queue. Surprisingly, the elves in charge of the test cooperated and made way for him. They were very respectful to Mo Yu.

The elf would be tested by using a basin of some unknown clear liquid. As long as an elf placed their hand inside the liquid, the liquid would change from transparent to different colors. For a cyan elf, the color would turn cyan, and so on and so forth.

The elf in the test area gave Shen Yanxiao a basin of liquid. Mo Yu stood on one side and said, "Give it a try. I am doing this for your own good."

Shen Yanxiao glanced at him but said nothing.

Bin Dong and the two cyan elves noticed the commotion in the test area and the three of them hurriedly squeezed forward.

When they saw that Shen Yanxiao was about to undergo the test for her source of life, an amused expression appeared on their faces.

"Ha, did she offend that guy from the training camp and was dragged here to lose face?"

"She's doing the test? Don't embarrass yourself. The liquid would surely turn cyan."

The three elves, who thought they had missed the opportunity to see Shen Yanxiao making a fool of herself, realized that the heavens had given them such another chance to watch a good show. With excited smiles on their faces, all of them were happily waiting for a good show.

Usually, the registration area for the training camp would always be empty. But Shen Yanxiao was clearly a unique existence.

All the elves standing in the test area looked at this unique elf with curiosity.

Shen Yanxiao walked to the table and rolled up her sleeves. Her tender, pale hands slowly dipped into the liquid.

When she soaked her hand into the liquid, a subtle change suddenly appeared in the tranquil crystal basin.

All the elves saw that after Shen Yanxiao dipped her hand into the liquid, the transparent liquid gradually turned into a faint cyan color.

Chapter 1165: Training Camp (7)

"Nothing shocking for a cyan elf." Bin Dong looked at Shen Yanxiao with a sneer. He was satisfied with the result.

The cyan liquid indicated that an elf was at the cyan level.

Mo Yu acted as if everything was as he expected. Just as he was about to persuade Shen Yanxiao to return, there was a strange change in the liquid.

The liquid that originally turned cyan slowly turned yellow. Bit by bit, the yellow part of the liquid gradually swallowed the surrounding cyan bits. In the eyes of all the elves, the liquid in the crystal basin gradually turned into a soft yellow color...

“How is that possible?” Bin Dong widened his eyes as he could not believe what he was seeing. The test would usually immediately end once the hand dipped into the liquid. He had never seen the color of the liquid changing a second time.

Not only was Bin Dong shocked, but the other elves were also shocked by the scene before them.

Something that defied common sense had strongly impacted their understanding.

The laziness in Mo Yu’s eyes gradually faded as the liquid changed color. He looked at Shen Yanxiao in surprise as interest and pleasant surprise surfaced in his eyes.

However, this strange scene did not end there. All of a sudden, a red line appeared on the yellowish liquid, and the red line gradually corroded the other parts of the liquid.

All the elves gasped.

The test liquid that would never change color twice had not changed twice, but thrice!

They could not believe it.

The elves responsible for the test area turned pale with fright. They had never seen such a situation.

“Master Yu, this...” An elf responsible for the test looked at Mo Yu in shock.

The lazy smile on Mo Yu’s face had completely faded and his expression became extremely serious as he stared at the calm Shen Yanxiao as if he was still looking forward to seeing if she could undergo a fourth change.

Bin Dong’s expression turned ashen when Shen Yanxiao went through the third change. The red color meant that Shen Yanxiao was qualified to enter a red-level city.

When he thought about how he and his two comrades had mocked Shen Yanxiao, Bin Dong wished he could slap himself to death!

If a red elf was trash, then what about a yellow elf like him?

However, after the red liquid spread out by more than half, the liquid in the crystal basin suddenly boiled and in the blink of an eye, all the liquid evaporated and balls of mist shrouded the air.

“What’s going on?” All the elves turned pale with fright.

In their panic, Shen Yanxiao frowned in doubt. As the mist gradually dissipated before her eyes, she looked down at the crystal apparatus.

However, the crystal apparatus that was originally filled with mysterious liquid had become empty at this very moment. All the liquid had evaporated in an instant without a single drop remaining.

Shen Yanxiao was speechless. She did not know much about the test for elves and she did not know what was with her current situation.

“Haha!!”

Just as Shen Yanxiao was puzzled, Mo Yu, who stood on one side, seemed to have been greatly stimulated. All of a sudden, he laughed out loud and grabbed Shen Yanxiao's wrist with his fair hand. He looked at Shen Yanxiao excitedly as his eyes glowed.

"Enter! Enter the training camp! There's no need to say anything else. I'll bring you to complete the paperwork right now. You have no choice but to enter!"

Chapter 1166: Training Camp (8)

"Erm..." Shen Yanxiao was confused by Mo Yu's sudden change in attitude. His temperament was exactly the same as Tang Nazhi. If she did not know that Tang Nazhi was far away in the Brilliance Continent, Shen Yanxiao would have thought that he was Tang Nazhi in disguise.

"Haha, we've really picked up a treasure today. Come with me." Mo Yu pulled Shen Yanxiao excitedly and completely disregarded the elves who had been thoroughly petrified. He pushed them away with a grunt and pulled Shen Yanxiao as they dashed away.

The elves standing in the test area had yet to recover from the strange incident.

After Mo Yu and Shen Yanxiao left, they silently shifted their gaze to the empty crystal basin and all of them had horrified expressions.

"This... this is the sap of the Tree of Life... how could it evaporate..." A cyan elf swallowed his saliva with great difficulty.

The liquid used to test elves was in fact the sap of the Tree of Life. Everything about the Tree of Life would resonate with the elves, so they used it to determine the elves' level by the color.

However...

All of them had lived for so long, and this was the first time they had encountered a prodigy who could evaporate the sap of the Tree of Life without leaving a single drop.

"Speaking of which, that male elf seems to be... a white elf?" One of the elves swallowed his saliva. It was simply inconceivable to see a white elf in a cyan-level city.

Generally speaking, those who entered cyan-level cities to invigilate the test and the training camp were mostly yellow elves. Even red elves were rarely seen, let alone white elves that were second only to black elves.

However, the elf who dragged that young elf here for the test had a white badge on his chest. This kind of incident... was too strange.

"Calm down and continue with the test. That is Master Yu from the Silvermoon Guards," the elf in charge of the test said calmly.

"Master Yu!" The group of elves could no longer remain calm.

The name of the Silvermoon Guards resounded throughout the entire Moon God Continent, and the five most famous elves were the members stationed at the entrances to the five black-level cities.

The one responsible for the entrance to the City of Rain was the rumored Master Yu, Mo Yu!

“But... isn’t Young Master Yu a black elf?” A certain cyan elf whispered.

The elf responsible for the test casually said, “He merely took a random badge.”

He casually grabbed a badge...

All the elves had the urge to die. Black elves had badges of all levels. Of course, if they wore black badges, they could freely travel throughout the Moon God Continent.

Very rarely would a black elf abandon their black badge and choose another color badge to wear.

Therefore...

The one in charge of recruiting members for the training camp was not a white elf, but a black elf? Furthermore, he was a high-ranking elf that was directly under the Elf King’s Silvermoon Guards...

In an instant, all the elves felt incomparable remorse. If they had known that the elf responsible for the training camp had such a powerful background, they would have gone to Mo Yu no matter what. If they could obtain the favor of a black elf, then it would be much easier for them to survive in the future. A few casual pointers would be enough for them to enjoy for a long time!

Unfortunately, no matter how remorseful they were, the registration area of the training camp was deserted. Mo Yu had already pulled Shen Yanxiao away and disappeared without a trace!

Chapter 1167: Training Camp (9)

Mo Yu dragged Shen Yanxiao all the way to the gate of Fragrant Night City leading to the next level city, a yellow-level city. The elf guards stationed at the gate immediately straightened their backs and were extremely respectful the moment they saw Mo Yu.

Mo Yu directly pulled Shen Yanxiao and walked inside. However, the moment Mo Yu entered, Shen Yanxiao immediately felt a sharp pain from her fingertips and an intense electric current spread throughout her entire body before it instantly ejected her out of the city gates.

Shen Yanxiao nimbly stabilized her body and landed back on the ground. Green marks had appeared on her originally white fingertips and the stabbing pain continued.

All of a sudden, Mo Yu realized that the elf he pulled over had disappeared. He immediately turned around and saw Shen Yanxiao standing ten steps away from him as she looked at him with a gloomy expression.

“...” Mo Yu was speechless.

He forgot that Shen Yanxiao was only wearing a cyan badge and could not enter a yellow-level city.

Shen Yanxiao must have been repelled by the barrier of the yellow-level city.

Mo Yu awkwardly ran to Shen Yanxiao’s side and said in embarrassment, “I made a mistake. I was so happy that I forgot you had a cyan badge.”

Shen Yanxiao glanced at Mo Yu. The more she looked at him, the more he resembled that idiot, Tang Nazhi.

“How about this, I have other badges here with me and I’ll give you one to wear.” Mo Yu hastily made up for his mistakes and took out a black badge from his interspatial ring. After removing the white badge on his chest and wearing the black badge, he stuffed that white badge into Shen Yanxiao’s hands.

Shen Yanxiao frowned. The elves who were guarding the city widened their eyes.

“Master... Master Yu...” The elf who was guarding the city was so frightened that his legs almost went soft. He barely managed to support himself against the wall before he managed to steady himself.

‘Master Yu, is it alright for you to hand over a white badge to a cyan elf? Will the Elf King not beat you to death?’

There was a huge difference between a cyan elf and a white elves. The former was the lowest-ranked elf while the latter was an existence that stood above all the other elves.

Mo Yu directly gave the white badge to a cyan elf. No matter how one looked at it, it was extremely crazy.

“What’s wrong?” Mo Yu did not find anything wrong with his actions.

The guards silently wiped their cold sweat.

‘Master Yu, even if you have many badges, you can’t squander them like this!’

‘You... This is completely against the rules. Does the Elf King know about this? Do the other four Masters know about this? Are you sure you are not courting death?’

Unfortunately, the elves guarding the city were only yellow elves, and they did not have the courage to cause trouble for a black elf. They could only swallow their complaints, while they guessed about Shen Yanxiao’s identity.

‘Could it be that Master Yu has taken a fancy on this young miss? Maybe that’s why he is doing this...’ The few elves guarding the city gates could not help but have wild thoughts.

When elves choose their partners, it was possible to bring their other half from a lower-level city to the city where they were located.

This female elf was indeed very beautiful, but...

This young miss isn’t an adult yet, right?

Master Yu was in such a rush...

“Cough, Master Yu is a lolicon...” One of the guards whispered.

“Master Yu’s taste is so fresh...”

Shen Yanxiao had no idea that she had been gossiped about as an elf’s fiancée without her knowledge...

Chapter 1168: Training Camp (10)

Shen Yanxiao wore the white badge on her chest and looked at the apologetic Mo Yu. Even though she did not know much about elves, she could still recognize the badge on her chest.

A White elf badge...

Why would the elf give it to her?

“Where are you taking me?” Shen Yanxiao frowned and asked.

Mo Yu said, “Ha, of course I’ll bring you to the training camp.”

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. “The primary training camp?” She clearly saw that when Mo Yu took out the black badge from his interspatial ring, he was still holding the white and red badge. If he was planning on bringing her to the primary training camp, there was no need to give her a white badge.

Mo Yu chuckled and shook his head.

“Primary training camp? Stop joking. If I were to ruin you in that place, I would be beaten to death.”

“What do you mean?” Shen Yanxiao frowned. She did not like the unknown.

Mo Yu smiled and said, “Don’t be nervous. I’m bringing you to the advanced training camp. It would be a waste of your talents to place you in the primary and intermediate training camp.”

“Advanced?” Shen Yanxiao was stunned for a moment. She did not expect that she could jump three levels, jumping from the primary training camp to the advanced training camp. Although the result was good, but...

What was the reason behind all this?

She did not believe that a pie like this would suddenly fall from the sky.

“Why?”

Mo Yu glanced at Shen Yanxiao and was surprised that she would ask that. He tilted his head in doubt. “You... don’t know your situation?”

“I don’t know.” Shen Yanxiao had no idea what was going on, as if she was trapped in a dense fog. She only knew that there were some abnormalities with her test, but she did not know the specifics.

Forgive her for being a layman of the elves.

Mo Yu’s lips twitched.

“Really? I thought you came to register with confidence because you knew your potential. You honestly don’t know?”

Shen Yanxiao nodded honestly.

Mo Yu’s expression darkened...

“Say, miss! You’re really... the most unconventional elf I’ve ever seen. Don’t tell me you really think you’re only a cyan elf?”

Shen Yanxiao nodded. “When I took the test, the water was green.” She had only become an elf for a few days, so she could accept a lower rank.

Mo Yu wiped his face and had the urge to strangle Shen Yanxiao.

“Alright. During your test, the water indeed turned green first, but... didn’t it turn yellow afterwards? And didn’t it turn red in the end?” Mo Yu suppressed his raging heart and patiently explained.

“Yes,” Shen Yanxiao answered.

“This phenomenon means that your source of life is very unstable. Even though it is currently only at the cyan grade, it is very likely to leap across the yellow or even red grade the very next second. Do you understand? In other words, your source of life has a lot of potential. It can be stimulated and expanded without limit at certain times. Furthermore, didn’t you absorb all the sap of the Tree of Life in the end? This shows that you are able to absorb more of the power of the Tree of Life than the average elf. Do you understand what this represents?” The surrounding elves had thought that the sap of the Tree of Life had evaporated, but only Mo Yu knew that it was absolutely impossible for the sap to evaporate. The evaporated mist was merely a product of the spring water that was mixed with the sap!

Chapter 1169: Training Camp (11)

The real sap of the Tree of Life had been absorbed into Shen Yanxiao’s source of life the moment she dipped her hand into the basin!

Ordinary elves could only absorb a limited amount of the Tree of Life’s power. Cyan elves could only absorb one-tenth of the Tree of Life’s power, while yellow elves could absorb around two-tenths. Red elves could absorb four-tenths, white elves could absorb six-tenths, and black elves could only absorb eight-tenths.

However, Shen Yanxiao had managed to absorb all of the sap. Mo Yu had carefully observed earlier on and he was sure that there was not a single drop of sap from the Tree of Life left in the crystal basin. This meant that Shen Yanxiao had reached the limit of absorption.

A hundred percent absorption, coupled with her unstable source of life, was enough to create a heaven-defying elite!

If such an elf was given the best environment and the best resources, she might very possibly reach an unimaginable level.

That was also the reason why Mo Yu was so anxious to register Shen Yanxiao.

She definitely had the potential to become an elite.

Half a year of training was very short for elves, but with Shen Yanxiao’s physique, it could help her reach an unimaginable level in this half a year’s time.

After determining Shen Yanxiao’s abilities, Mo Yu directly abandoned the idea of putting her into the primary and intermediate training camp. Only in the advanced training camp could such a genius achieve true growth.

Mo Yu was in the mindset that Shen Yanxiao was aware of her abilities and that was why she was so confident of joining the Silvermoon Guards. However...

This little girl did not even know how rare she was!

Mo Yu nearly spat out blood.

“What does it represent?” Shen Yanxiao still did not feel anything special about herself.

Mo Yu felt a punch to his chest before a dull pain started spreading all over his body. He gritted his teeth and roared at Shen Yanxiao. “It means that as long as you are given the best resources, you can reach a level that other elves cannot reach in the shortest time possible! You are a weirdo that absorbs the power of the Tree of Life like crazy. You can absorb as much as I give you. Do you understand!?”

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. ‘That is pretty good,’ she thought

As for the instability of her source of life, Shen Yanxiao felt that it was very likely related to the seal on her body. A portion of her power as an elf had been suppressed by the seal, causing such a situation to occur.

Of course, she would not tell Mo Yu that.

“Do you understand now?” Mo Yu looked at Shen Yanxiao. If she dared to shake her head, he would definitely slap her to death.

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

Mo Yu finally relaxed. It was rare to encounter an elf with great potential. As long as she was not a fool, it was fine.

“Very well. Follow me to the yellow-level city in front of us. There will be a flying mount there to send us directly to a white-level city. When we get there, I will help you with the paperwork and let you directly enter the advanced training camp.”

“Alright.” Shen Yanxiao’s answer was very straightforward. However, before they set off, she still asked another question.

“Can we go to Jadeite City?”

Mo Yu looked at Shen Yanxiao with curiosity. “You want to go to Jadeite City?”

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

“You also wish to see that reckless human?” The news of a human teasing the daughter of the city lord had spread throughout the entire Moon God Continent. The moment Shen Yanxiao mentioned that she wanted to go to the Jadeite City, Mo Yu immediately thought of that reckless human.

Chapter 1170: Jadeite City (1)

Shen Yanxiao’s lips twitched. Did everyone know that her Third Uncle was courting death?

“I guess so,” Shen Yanxiao forcefully suppressed a forlorn sigh and said.

“Suit yourself.” Mo Yu did not say anything else. He brought Shen Yanxiao into the yellow-level city and hired two griffins at the transfer point. After he brought Shen Yanxiao on board, they immediately flew towards Jadeite City.

Griffins were the most common flying mount in the Moon God Continent. Even though the surface area of the Moon God Continent was not as large as the Brilliance Continent, it would still take a long time to travel across cities. With a flying mount, transportation would no longer be a problem.

Mo Yu and Shen Yanxiao were both wearing high-level badges. Even if they were to pass through high-level cities, they would not be obstructed by the barrier above.

Overall, it was a smooth journey.

Shen Yanxiao, who was accustomed to riding on Vermilion Bird, felt that the speed of a griffin was not that fast. With nothing better to do, she peered her head over the griffin to not miss the scenery along the way.

There were countless beautiful sceneries in the Moon God Continent. In the high skies, everything on the ground could be seen; it was truly beautiful beyond imagination.

On the way, Shen Yanxiao and Mo Yu rested for a night in a red-level city. On the third day, they finally arrived at Jadeite City, a white-level city!

Just like its name, Jadeite City was built with translucent green jade. Compared to the simple architecture of Fragrant Night City, Jadeite City was incomparably luxurious. Even the few emperors of the Brilliance Continent could hardly compare to this white-level city.

Elves had a natural advantage in the aesthetic world, so everywhere in the Jadeite City was exquisite.

The two griffins landed at the transfer point of Jadeite City. And soon after, Shen Yanxiao and Mo Yu landed.

"I'll bring you to a place to stay first. Then I'll handle the matter of you entering the advanced training camp." Shen Yanxiao could be said to have skipped levels to enter the advanced training camp. No matter how amazing her talent was, she was ultimately a cyan elf. Even though Mo Yu could bring Shen Yanxiao to freely enter all the cities below the white level, there were many procedures to enter the advanced training camp located in a black-level city.

Not to mention that he only had one black badge, it was already somewhat difficult to convince the elves of the advanced training camp to accept Shen Yanxiao.

"Sure." Shen Yanxiao was not long-winded.

Mo Yu found an inn in Jadeite City for Shen Yanxiao to stay in for the time being and told her that he would come to pick her up a week later. During this period of time, Shen Yanxiao would be free to stroll around Jadeite City.

Mo Yu kindly informed Shen Yanxiao where Shen Jing was detained and threw over a hundred crystal coins to her before he left.

A hundred over crystal coins was considered a considerable amount of wealth for ordinary elves, but for Shen Yanxiao who squandered money like dirt...

It was not even enough to fill the gaps between her teeth.

After Mo Yu left, Shen Yanxiao did not leave the inn directly. She sat on the bed and tried her best to stimulate her source of life.

There was only one black-level city between the white-level city and the Moonshine City where the Tree of Life was located, making the power of the Tree of Life here extremely abundant.

Shen Yanxiao impatiently absorbed the life force that permeated the air. This surging feeling made the source of life in her body grow wildly as if it had gone crazy.

Just as Mo Yu guessed, Shen Yanxiao's absorption of life force had reached an unprecedented level!
