

The Good 1171

Chapter 1171: Jadeite City (2)

Feeling the growth of her source of life, Shen Yanxiao felt comfortable in both body and mind. The source of life that had just sprouted had unknowingly grown into a small sapling. On the thin branches, the tender green leaves looked exceptionally adorable.

Shen Yanxiao immersed herself in her spiritual world and sighed as she looked at the slowly growing source of life. Xiu was standing behind the source of life. He was dressed in white, had a pair of golden eyes and long black hair. Under the green glow of the source of life, he was so handsome that it was shocking.

“The growth of your source of life is faster than I expected. If nothing goes wrong, you should be able to break the second seal before you enter the advanced training camp in seven days.” Xiu raised his slender fingers and caressed the small green leaf.

It was only a slight touch, but Shen Yanxiao felt a series of waves deep down, as if that little sapling was her.

“So soon? In that case, won’t I be able to undo the seal soon?” Shen Yanxiao suppressed her internal fluctuations and focused her attention on ‘serious business’.

Xiu shook his head.

“Have you forgotten that when you were still a human, the speed of unlocking your seals would slow down the further you go? The first four layers of the seal are relatively weaker. After the fifth layer is the key. How long you take to undo the last three layers is the key to when you can return to the Brilliance Continent.”

Shen Yanxiao blinked and felt depressed.

She was still wondering if she could shorten the time of her return to half a year.

“Then I’ll continue with my training.” Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders and washed away the depressed feeling.

An imperceptible smile flashed past Xiu’s eyes and his slender figure transformed into a streak of light as he suddenly appeared before Shen Yanxiao.

The handsome face in front of her made Shen Yanxiao’s heartbeat stop for a moment.

“When you do things to the extreme, it will usually have the opposite effect. Only with proper rest can the source of life achieve the greatest growth.” Xiu could tell that the little girl was eager to grow.

“Erm...” Shen Yanxiao looked up at Xiu’s sharp jaw. It was clearly an emotionless warning, but it somehow warmed her heart.

Thinking back to those days when Xiu trained her like a Spartan, he now actually told her not to be so anxious?

‘Is it going to rain? Or... is Lord Xiu unwell?’

Shen Yanxiao subconsciously forgot that she and Xiu were only in their soul state. Instinctively, she raised her hand and touched Xiu's forehead.

The empty feeling under her fingertips made Shen Yanxiao feel a sense of loss.

Xiu looked at Shen Yanxiao's raised hand in doubt before a trace of amusement surfaced in his golden eyes.

Shen Yanxiao's movements stiffened and she quietly retracted her claws.

"It's nothing... I'll go out and stroll around..." Shen Yanxiao blushed and immediately dispersed.

She sat in the room depressingly and despised her brain for the hundredth time.

Why couldn't her mind stop spinning the moment she saw Xiu?

She wanted to measure the temperature of a soul? Was she an idiot?

Would a soul fall sick?

Oh!

That was definitely not something she did!

Shen Yanxiao immediately stood up and decided to forget her previous actions. She wanted to take a stroll around Jadeite City.

Yue Xi once said that the Moonshine Tribe was in Jadeite City, then...

Could her parents be here?

Thinking of that, Shen Yanxiao could not help but feel excited.

Chapter 1172: Jadeite City (3)

There was a clear hierarchy in the world of elves. It was not just about ranks or the distinction between cities. Many phenomena in the city also followed this strict hierarchy.

In Fragrant Night City, opening a shop was considered cheap for elves.

However, shops were in abundance in Jadeite City. Due to the many high-level elves in white-level cities, the most commonly seen shops in the city were weapon shops.

In these shops, they were mostly stocked full with many different kinds of bows and arrows, followed by some crossbows and sharp daggers. There were even some slender swords being displayed on the walls. Shen Yanxiao casually walked into a weapon shop and grabbed a luxurious-looking long sword. When she held it in her hand, she felt there was almost no weight to it at all. She held the sword and frowned.

The long sword forged by elves was very thin. Even though it was sharp, it was extremely brittle. It was not like soft swords forged by humans that had toughness in mind. Looking at these long swords, every scabbard and hilt was embedded with large quantities of gems as ornaments. Shen Yanxiao immediately understood the uses of these swords.

For elves, swords were not tools for battle, but ornaments.

Shen Yanxiao casually glanced at the price of the sword and was instantly rendered speechless.

A useless sword that could only be used as an ornament was even more expensive than the exquisite bows in the shop...

Would any elf buy it?

“Why is this sword so expensive?” As a curious child, Shen Yanxiao questioned the employee of the shop.

The employee looked at Shen Yanxiao with an odd expression.

“There are so many gems on it, so it’s naturally expensive.” After he said that, he no longer bothered with Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao suddenly remembered what she heard at the Moonlight Coast. Due to that flirtatious uncle of hers, it seemed like the Moon God Continent no longer traded gems with humans.

The gems produced in the Moon God Continent were very rare. In the past, when humans were still trading with them, the prices would naturally be more stable. However, right now, the elves had cut off their collaboration with humans, meaning that the price of gems in the Moon God Continent would increase to a terrifying extent.

An idea suddenly popped up in Shen Yanxiao’s mind and she immediately left the weapon shop.

Her capital in the Moon God Continent was limited, and although she didn’t plan on making a fortune here, with such a good opportunity was right in front of her, she would be a fool if she were to let it go.

Shen Yanxiao took out her interspatial ring and as she looked at the contents inside, a smile curled on her lips.

In her interspatial ring, there was a large number of gems that she had looted from various wealthy people. Previously in the Forsaken Land, she had not found a good way to sell them, so she had kept them in her interspatial ring.

But now!

The situation had changed!

The Moon God Continent lacked jewels, but she had a huge pile. What did that mean?

It meant countless crystal coins!

Even though Shen Yanxiao did not intend to become a millionaire, if she could sell these precious gems to the elves in exchange for crystal coins, she would be able to purchase a large batch of materials from the Moon God Continent and send them back to the Brilliance Continent for Yang Xi to forge weapons for the people of Sun Never Sets!

It had to be known that there were many magical trees in the Moon God Continent, and the wood from these magical trees were the best choice of wood to make staves and bows.

Thinking back, in the weapon shop in Black City, a bow made of Mercury Wood from the Moon God Continent was already worth millions of gold coins. If Shen Yanxiao could get such a large batch...

Chapter 1173: Moonshine Trading House (1)

It was not easy to open a shop in the Moon God Continent, so Shen Yanxiao was unlikely to do it herself. The preparatory work was too cumbersome, and renting a shop and hiring elves as workers required a lot of crystal coins. After deducting the money she gave to Yue Xi and Vermilion Bird, she did not have many crystal coins left. At most, she could sustain herself for a few days, but she could forget about the rest.

Other than opening their own shops, the Moon God Continent also had other methods of trading.

There was something similar to an auction house in the Brilliance Continent, but instead of using it to hold auctions, sales were constantly being conducted in them.

Rather than calling them auction houses, it was more appropriate to call them trading houses.

Elves, who had something to sell, could store their items in the trading house, and the employees of the trading house would be responsible for the sales. Once a transaction was done, the trading house would draw a portion of the profits.

Ordinary elves could not open such a trading house because it required too many manual labor and shops. Normally, only tribes could build a real trading house.

The trading houses in Jadeite City were all on South Street and it was filled with shops.

The badges of various tribes were hung on the doors of every trading house.

Shen Yanxiao looked around the trading houses. There were many items for sale, and the price of some of the items made her envious.

Many bows that were worth thousands of gold coins in the Brilliance Continent only cost hundreds or even dozens of crystal coins in the trading houses of the Moon God Continent. The difference in price was enough to make any merchant drool all over.

Due to the fact that the Moon God Continent had an abundance of high-quality trees, the number of forgers who produced bows here were countless. As a result, the price of bows here was so low that it made people speechless.

Other than bows and arrows, there was another item that Shen Yanxiao coveted.

Potions!

Elves were the most talented race in terms of herbalism. There was no elf who did not know how to concoct potions. Furthermore, there were all sorts of medicinal ingredients everywhere in the Moon God Continent, meaning the cost of making such potions was low to the point it seemed like trash on the sidewalk.

A potion that was worth hundreds of gold coins in the Brilliance Continent only cost dozens of crystal coins in the Moon God Continent.

A bottle of Great Herbalist potion worth tens of thousands of gold coins only cost a few hundred crystal coins in the Moon God Continent.

As a result, when Shen Yanxiao, an Advanced Herbalist, saw those cheap potions that made her want to vomit blood, she nearly pounced over and bought them all.

Not to buy anything else, just by bringing these potions back to the Brilliance Continent for a resale, they could easily earn dozens of times of profits.

This was simply too profitable!

If Shen Yanxiao were not cash-strapped, she would have bought all the bows and potions immediately.

Once those items were transported to the Brilliance Continent, it would be a mountain of gold!

Shen Yanxiao finally understood why so many merchants were willing to take the risk and travel across the ocean to do business in the Moon God Continent. This place was basically filled with endless gold.

A finished bow and potion was already so cheap, what about the raw materials?

Shen Yanxiao's heart was burning with greed.

When humans transacted with elves, there were many huge restrictions placed on them so the number of items they could purchase was limited. Furthermore, finished potions and bows would never be sold to humans.

In the minds of the elves, what they produced was not something humans were qualified to possess. Humans could only purchase some raw materials in the Moon God Continent.

Compared to purchasing the finished product, the profit of selling raw material was slightly smaller, but there was still a tenfold difference if there were to buy it in the Brilliance Continent.

Chapter 1174: Moonshine Trading House (2)

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

In the Brilliance Continent, Ye Qing represented the peak of herbalism, but he was only a Great Herbalist.

However, in the Moon God Continent, there were at least thousands if not tens of thousands of elves that could be regarded as Great Herbalists. Even Grandmaster Herbalists were not rare.

The potions produced by Great Herbalists and Grandmaster Herbalists of the elves were of the same price as advanced potions produced by some Advanced Herbalists in the Brilliance Continent.

The profits were immeasurable.

Coupled with the bows forged by those Grandmaster Forgemasters...

Oh, Shen Yanxiao wanted to howl like a wolf.

She wished she could immediately plunder a sum of money from the various elf tribes so that she could store all these treasures that cost as much as cabbages into her interspatial ring!

It did not matter if humans could not buy finished products. She was now an elf so she could buy them!

Shen Yanxiao rubbed her palms as she felt an unbearable itch.

However, the elves' low prices were also due to the lack of commerce among the elves. Most of the crystal coins were directly controlled by the tribe's leader, and the ordinary members would obtain a portion of the profits from the tribe every month.

The ones who were truly rich were the upper echelons and leaders of various tribes!

Elves were not poor, but they did not have much money on hand. However, if they were in need, they could send an application to the leader and the money they received would crush them to death.

Shen Yanxiao had already started to think about how she could make a fortune before she entered the advanced training camp. She had just arrived at the Moon God Continent, but there were already huge business opportunities everywhere. Coupled with the cover of her elf form, if she did not make good use of it, she should just knock herself to death.

If she wanted to make money, Shen Yanxiao had to steal from a tribe first.

The idea was good, but she did not know much about the layout of Jadeite City. She would never do something she was not confident in.

However...

Shen Yanxiao touched the interspatial ring on her finger. So what if she could not take advantage of the situation? She had plenty of ways to get money.

Shen Yanxiao began to choose a suitable trading house.

She walked around South Street and saw a rather shabby trading house at the end of the street.

The dusty wooden door was half open, revealing a trace of light that could be seen in the room. A silver crescent badge swayed with the wind.

At the bottom of the badge, a few words were carved in elvish.

"Moonshine Trading House." Shen Yanxiao read the line of elvish and her eyes flickered with surprise.

The word 'Moonshine' involuntarily reminded her of the Moonshine Tribe, her maternal family.

The Moonshine Tribe was once the highest-ranked tribe in Wind City, a black-level city. However, they were demoted in an accident and the entire tribe was driven out of Wind City before moving to Jadeite City.

Shen Yanxiao once thought that even though the Moonshine Tribe had been demoted, their situation should not be too bad. After all, they had the foundation of the once highest-ranked tribe.

However, when Shen Yanxiao saw this unremarkable and even shabby trading house, she knew that her guess might be wrong.

Shen Yanxiao subconsciously stepped into the shabby trading house.

Crystal cabinets of various sizes were placed in the hall. Inside, two elves with white badges could be seen carefully wiping those empty crystal cabinets.

The door of the trading house was pushed open and the wind chime hanging on the door made a series of crisp sounds.

The two elves looked up in surprise and saw Shen Yanxiao standing at the door.

Chapter 1175: Moonshine Trading House (3)

“Dear customer, do you need anything?” One of the elves held the rag in his hand and placed his hands behind his back. He straightened his back and welcomed the guests in perfect form.

Another elf quietly put away the rag and stood at one side in silence.

Even though the Moonshine Trading House was in a sorry state, the two elves gave off an elegant and calm feeling. It was as if the dilapidated scene before them was merely an illusion.

“Are you elves of the Moonshine Tribe?” Shen Yanxiao’s gaze landed on the crescent moon badges hanging on their chests. This sparkling badge was worn right beside the white badge.

The two elves were slightly stunned, and they became more vigilant.

“Yes.”

Their strange behavior did not escape Shen Yanxiao’s eyes. She realized that her previous question was somewhat abrupt. Previously in Fragrant Night City, the elves’ reaction towards Yue Xi and the rest was sufficient to prove that the glory of the Moonshine Tribe was not present anymore. Many elves had aversion towards them and it was no wonder they had such a reaction when she questioned them.

Shen Yanxiao chuckled and said, “I have a batch of items here that I would like to sell in your trading house. Is that okay?”

The two elves did not expect Shen Yanxiao to say such words and the vigilance in their eyes was replaced by surprise.

“You mean... there’s something you want to sell here?” The white elf was surprised.

The Moonshine Tribe was no longer as glorious as it was in the past. Not only had they been demoted by the Elf King, but they had also been moved out of Wind City. From the highest-ranked tribe, they had fallen to a high-ranked tribe. Furthermore, they were labeled as traitors.

Their glory in the past magnified how miserable they were right now.

“Yes.” Shen Yanxiao nodded. She noticed that most of the crystal cabinets in the Moonshine Trading House were empty, with only one or two of them having some bows and potions placed inside. These items were probably made by the elves of the Moonshine Tribe. Evidently, there were no elves in Jadeite City that would place their items here for sale.

Shen Yanxiao’s eyes dimmed.

“Yes! Yes! What would you like to sell?” After the two elves were surprised, joy immediately flashed in their eyes.

They could no longer remember how long it had been since an elf entered their trading house. When they were demoted, some elves would place their items for sale in their trading house. However, as the news of the Moonshine Tribe colluding with humans spread to Jadeite City, those elves who once sold them their items never came back.

Without the goods, the potential buyers would naturally not set foot in the Moonshine Trading House.

This vicious cycle caused the trading house to become what it was today.

Shen Yanxiao said, “It’s a bunch of gems.”

“Gems?” The two white elves looked at each other and saw the shock in each other’s eyes.

Gems were an indispensable luxury in the world of elves. It was still manageable when there was the supply coming from the humans, but ever since the gem trade between humans and elves was cut off, the price of gems in the Moon God Continent began to rise. The gems produced in the Moon God Continent were few and far between, creating a market where supply could not meet demand.

As a result, the gem shops in various cities were the most popular places for elves in many upper-level cities.

As a result, they did not expect that an elf would come here to sell gems!

Chapter 1176: Moonshine Trading House (4)

“I wonder which type of gem you wish to sell and how many are there?” The white elf tried hard to suppress his excitement.

If the elf in front of them were planning to sell gems here, even if there were only a few, they could attract some elves to their establishment.

“Are there any differences between the gems?” Shen Yanxiao tilted her head. She was not sure if elves and humans had the same understanding of gems. If they were different... that would be awkward.

The white elf said with a good temper, “Well, the purity of the gem will affect the value of the gem, and there’s also a difference in its size.” With that said, the white elf took out a gem accessory hanging on his waist and placed it in his palm as he explained to Shen Yanxiao.

“For example, the sapphire on my pendant has good permeability and is also very dazzling under the sunlight. The price of this gem would be rather high and generally speaking, the gorgeous color is the highest grade among gems. For example, bright red, golden yellow, and so on. Furthermore, for different gems, the depth of the color is also very important. A sapphire like mine requires a moderate blue, because if the blue is too deep, it will turn black and if it is too shallow, it will lose its luster.”

The white elf paused for a moment and said, “The most precious gems are colorless and transparent. And gems with a slight blue glow are treasures that many people are fighting to collect. But as long as there’s a slight yellow glow, the value will drop very low.”

Shen Yanxiao nodded. This was the same standard as humans, so she had nothing to worry about.

“I’m not sure about the quality of my gems. Why don’t I take them out and you can take a look at them yourselves.” Shen Yanxiao was too lazy to look through them one by one. She opened her interspatial ring and rummaged through the bags filled with gems.

The two elves were stunned for a moment and felt somewhat disappointed. Looking at this customer’s appearance, she probably did not have much understanding of gems. Furthermore, looking at her age, she should not have reached adulthood yet, so the odds of her owning many gems were infinitely small.

‘Forget it. Even if there’s only one or two, it’s still good. At least we’re open for business,’ the white elf comforted himself and looked at his companion.

His companion also nodded.

It was better than nothing.

Just as they were feeling depressed, Shen Yanxiao finally found the first bag of gems among the pile of stuff in her ring. She reached in and took it out.

With a bang, it was thrown in front of the two white elves.

The sack the size of a head was thrown by the two elves’ feet. Looking at the heavy bag, they were stunned.

As Shen Yanxiao threw the bag too roughly, the rope around the bag loosened and jewels the size of a fingernail rolled out.

Huala! Huala!

“...” The two white elves were immediately petrified!

“These... these are all gems?” The white elf stared at the gems scattered all over the ground in shock. Under the light crystal’s illumination, the gems on the ground sparkled with resplendent light, similar to the stars in the night sky falling into the mundane world.

“Why... why are there so many...” The other white elf swallowed his saliva. If this bag was filled with gems, then... he dared to swear that the number of gems in this bag would definitely be greater than all the gems in the entire South Street combined!!

Chapter 1177: Moonshine Trading House (5)

That was only the beginning...

Before the two elves could recover from the shock of seeing such a large bag of gems, Shen Yanxiao swiftly threw out another three to four bags of gems. Every single one of them was thrown on the ground by her, as if those were not bags of priceless gems but bags of soybeans.

If the two white elves were not already thoroughly shocked when they saw the first bag of gems, then the only word that could describe their feelings right now was...

Ridiculous!!

Anyone who saw a young elf throwing gems around their feet like garbage would have the urge to ascend to heaven.

The two elves did not know how to describe the shock in their hearts. They were petrified like two statues on display as they looked at Shen Yanxiao in a daze and continued to... go crazy.

Shen Yanxiao tried her best to search for the bags of gems in her interspatial ring. She had previously dug up quite a number of gems from the five great aristocratic families and the state treasury. Plus, she had sold the best of them at the Phantom Auction House, so all that was left were these gems that were not considered top-grade.

Many of the gems here were looted by Qi Xia from the Qilin Auction House. He had also intended to sell them at the Phantom Auction House. Unfortunately, they could not be listed so therefore, he treated them as gifts for Shen Yanxiao.

If she were to count them up, the gems Shen Yanxiao had on hand would add up to several chests, but...

Her interspatial ring was just too full; it was too hard to sort through everything!

After Shen Yanxiao concentrated really hard to pull out eight or nine bags of gems, she lost her patience and directly closed her interspatial ring.

In any case, eight or nine bags of gems should be enough to sell for some time.

Shen Yanxiao was in the middle of thinking when she suddenly felt that her surroundings were too quiet. Why did those two elves not react at all?

Shen Yanxiao raised her head in doubt and saw two petrified elves looking at her with a dumbstruck expression, as if they were looking at a monster.

“What’s wrong?” Shen Yanxiao frowned. Did she accidentally hit them when she threw those bags of gems?

Shen Yanxiao was speechless. She came here to take care of her maternal family, not to cause trouble!

The two white elves finally came back to their senses. They were so excited that they wanted to rush to Shen Yanxiao. However, they did not dare to move an inch when they saw the jewels by their feet.

There was a mountain of crystal coins by their feet!

“It’s nothing! It’s nothing! Dear customer, are... are you really going to hand these gems to us for sale?” The white elf directly changed his way of addressing Shen Yanxiao to be more formal!

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

“That’s all for now. I’ll try and look for the rest. My ring is a little messy so I reckon it will take a few days to find everything.” It was all those five’s fault for stuffing a huge pile of miscellaneous items into her interspatial ring. They even prepared three tents. Shen Yanxiao really wanted to strangle them.

“There... there’s more?” The two elves felt as if their hearts were about to explode!

There were so many bags of gems in front of them, and they were not all of them!

This customer actually still had more!!

They were about to go crazy. Even before the deal was cut off with the humans, the number of gems that the Moon God Continent could get from the humans in one go was probably only this much. There were so many gems that had to be allocated to the trading houses in various cities. When they were allocated to the trading houses in the Jadeite City, there were not many left.

However, Shen Yanxiao had thrown out so many at once!!

Chapter 1178: Moonshine Trading House (6)

The two elves could not help but wonder if this young elf had robbed a dragon!

Shen Yanxiao did not rob the dragon, but the wealth in her interspatial ring was no less than what could be found in a dragon's nest.

The gems in her interspatial ring were accumulated bit by bit from her rebirth until now. When had she not looted a batch of gems while she was doing her forte? Every time she looted, she would save up the gems, as she had not found a good method to profit from them.

But now, she could finally get rid of them!

"There are more, but I'm not sure how many there are. I'll send them to you when I find them." Shen Yanxiao scratched her head. If she had known that gems were so popular in the Moon God Continent, she would have switched everything in her interspatial ring into gems before she came.

A hundred cubic meters of gems...

Alright, Shen Yanxiao was only thinking about it. Even if she was wealthy enough to rival a country, it would probably be difficult to get hold of so many gems.

However, a hundred cubic meters was difficult, but a single cubic meter was not difficult.

"Yes!" The two white elves nodded in a hurry, fearing that a wealthy client would run away.

"Take a look at the quality of these gems. You can decide the price." Shen Yanxiao was too lazy to calculate these small details.

Shen Yanxiao was just being too lazy, but in the eyes of the two elves, they saw it differently.

This was trust!

She definitely trusted them!

Otherwise, who would throw such a large number of gems to them so casually without even counting?

The two white elves, who had been rejected by their own kind for a long time, felt warm in their hearts. It had been a long time since they felt the trust of their own kind.

Ever since that incident happened, the elves of the Moonshine Tribe had become street rats...

All the elves despised and discriminated against them.

“I’ll sell these items to you first and the commission will be done according to your rules. I might have to leave for a period of time in a few days and during this period of time, I’ll have to trouble the both of you to help me purchase some potions and bows.” Shen Yanxiao intended to directly use the method she used at the Qilin Auction House. She planned to directly exchange the gems for money before exchanging the money for potions and bows.

She honestly did not have much time to prepare.

“Of course, I will pay you the additional fees,” Shen Yanxiao added.

“No need! No need! Dear customer, you are too kind. We are very grateful that you are willing to put these gems here for sale. The commission here was originally ten percent, but since you trust us so much, we will reduce it to five percent.” The two elves were very grateful to Shen Yanxiao. With this batch of gems, the Moonshine Trading House might really be able to come back to life. Not to mention buying potions and bows for Shen Yanxiao, it would not be a problem even if they were to personally produce them for her.

Shen Yanxiao was stunned. 5%?

Elves were so pure!

If it were Qi Xia that profiteer, he would never leave the matter at that.

Shen Yanxiao shook her head.

“Customer, are you dissatisfied? This... if it doesn’t work out, we can just take 4% of the profits,” when the two elves saw Shen Yanxiao shaking her head, they thought she was dissatisfied and hastily said.

Shen Yanxiao frowned. Her heart ached when she saw the anxiety and nervousness in their eyes.

“Don’t make it 5%, I’ll give you 20%.”

Chapter 1179: Moonshine Trading House (7)

“Wh... what?” The two elves were completely dumbstruck.

They had only seen customers who would bargain to lower the commission cost, but they had never seen... someone who would proactively increase their commission!

Furthermore, the increase was several times!

“How can we do that! Customer, your willingness to choose our trading house is already a great help to us. How can we charge so much? This won’t do. Even if we agree, our leader will not accept it.” The two elves hastily shook their heads and rejected.

Shen Yanxiao was speechless. Did they have to be so pure and innocent? The two of them were even shocked when she gave them benefits. If it were a human merchant, they would have jumped up and cheered. How could they have such a reaction?

Shen Yanxiao wiped her face and secretly lamented the kindness and purity of the elves.

“If I say twenty, so be it. If you disagree, I will take them to other trading houses to sell.” Shen Yanxiao had no choice but to force them into accepting her deal.

The two elves looked at each other with struggle written all over their faces. A moment later, the two elves bowed in unison and apologized. “We are sorry to have delayed your precious time. If you are willing to come here again, we will serve you well.”

“...” Shen Yanxiao was thoroughly speechless!

Those two guys would rather have her carry the gems to another trading house than to accept 20% of the profits as commission!

That was too much!

Shen Yanxiao’s lips twitched. She did not know if she should be gratified by her maternal family’s proper upbringing or feel tragic for these two idiots who did not think for their own benefits.

“Forget it. Let’s take a step back. I won’t force you to accept a 20% commission. Don’t use 5% as an example. Let’s follow the original rules. How about 10%?” Shen Yanxiao felt a headache. This was the first time she had spent so much effort to stuff money into someone else’s pocket.

The two elves hesitated for a moment before they finally agreed to Shen Yanxiao’s suggestion.

“Thank you, customer.” It was not that they were unaware of Shen Yanxiao’s good intentions, but their self-esteem as elves could not allow them to take advantage of her like that.

Even though their Moonshine Tribe had been demoted, they would not degrade themselves into becoming thieves.

“No need. You just have to sell all these gems.” Shen Yanxiao thought for a moment and said, “I will send you a list of what I want tomorrow. Clean up these gems first.”

“Alright.” The two elves immediately crouched down and carefully picked up those bags of gems and placed them in the back.

Shen Yanxiao sighed. Just by looking at these two elves, she knew that the elves of the Moonshine Tribe were not as bad as the rumors said. Thinking about it, the reason why they were demoted and rejected was probably related to her grandfather and father.

Shen Yanxiao said a few more words to the two elves before she left.

Walking out of the Moonshine Trading House, Shen Yanxiao looked at the trading house adjacent to it. It looked similar in size, but it was bustling with activity. In comparison, the Moonshine Trading House seemed much more desolate.

Shen Yanxiao secretly clenched her fist. Since she had come here and encountered the elves of her maternal family, she would certainly try and help them with the limited time she had.

When Shen Yanxiao returned to the inn, she immediately used her spiritual link to contact Vermilion Bird.

When Vermilion Bird learned that Shen Yanxiao had entered Jadeite City, he was surprised. Before he had the chance to ask more questions, Shen Yanxiao had already informed him of the rest.

Chapter 1180: Moonshine Trading House (8)

Even though Shen Yanxiao had already entered into an agreement to let the two elves from the Moonshine Trading House to sell these gems for her, but with the current number of gems she had, probably the whole Jadeite City wouldn't be able to gather enough funds to purchase them.

To solve this problem Shen Yanxiao had put Vermilion Bird as her stand-in.

Vermilion Bird was a magical beast, and the barriers surrounding the city were ineffective against magical beasts. Therefore, Vermilion Bird could freely enter and exit every city except Moonshine City.

Shen Yanxiao wanted Vermilion Bird to get in touch with the elves in the Moonshine Trading House. During the half a year she would be in the advanced training camp, Vermilion Bird would help her travel around to other white and black-level cities and purchase potions and bows for her.

As a bonafide elf, Shen Yanxiao did intend to fully abuse her identity to buy finished products, not those raw materials. The elves' craftsmanship of bows and arrows and the production of potions were among the best. With that fact in mind, it would be dumb not to purchase finished products from the Moon God Continent. Though, Shen Yanxiao would still purchase some raw materials at some point to bring them back to Sun Never Sets to create staffs.

With the Qilin Family's merchant ship coming every three months, Shen Yanxiao would miss twice their visits, as she would enter the advanced training camp opportunity. So, during this period of time while she was gone, Vermilion Bird would have to appear before them and contact them for her.

Additionally, with the two interspatial rings Shen Yanxiao would leave for Vermilion Bird, he would be able to transport those bows and potions he bought to Sun Never Sets easily.

With so many potions at hand, Shen Yanxiao would feel more at ease.

Vermilion Bird's identity was the best cover. Elves were guarded against humans but not to magical beasts, not to mention mythical beasts that could transform themselves.

Which human who possessed a mythical beast would come to the Moon God Continent to do business?

In a way, Shen Yanxiao was a weirdo.

After she was done planning everything, Shen Yanxiao finally went to sleep early in the evening.

The next morning, she went to the Moonshine Trading House again. Compared to the barren land yesterday, all the crystal cabinets in the shop were filled with various types of gems. A few elves who came in due to curiosity were currently standing in front of a few crystal cabinets and deliberating.

When the white elf from yesterday saw Shen Yanxiao, he immediately came to welcome her.

"Customer, you're here." The white elf's face was filled with sincere gratitude. In just one morning, the Moonshine Trading House welcomed a large number of customers. The first batch of gems had just been freshly bought, and they had just placed a new batch of gems on display when another batch of customers arrived.

“Is there a backyard?” Shen Yanxiao asked.

“Please.”

Of the two elves, one stayed in front to take care of the business while the other brought Shen Yanxiao into the backyard.

Shen Yanxiao entered the backyard and took out five to six bags of gems without another word and threw them on the ground.

After suffering from yesterday’s shock, the white elf was evidently much more desensitized.

“Sell these first. Oh right, I’ll be busy in the coming few days. My friend might come and take a portion of the crystal coins to purchase some items in my stead...” Shen Yanxiao gave the white elf a notice of Vermillion Bird’s eventual arrival.

The white elf merely asked for Vermilion Bird’s characteristics before he agreed sincerely.

Shen Yanxiao immediately left after she was done giving them instructions. While leaving, she also took away the profits from the gem sales this morning.

In a short span of a morning, Shen Yanxiao had earned 20000 crystal coins!

With these 20000 crystal coins in her pockets, Shen Yanxiao directly went to other trading houses and crazily bought dozens of bottles of Grandmaster potions and kept them in her interspatial ring.

However, something unexpected happened to Mo Yu...