

The Good 1301

Chapter 1301: Moonlight Tribe (8)

It had to be known that during the years when the Moonlight Tribe was in their decline, the eyes of these few old fogeys would always be green when they saw the elves of other tribes.

However...

Couldn't they be more subtle!

When the elves saw that Shen Yanxiao was almost buried, they finally realized that they had gone too far.

They immediately pulled Shen Yanxiao out from the pile of items and threw their works aside without a care.

Compared to the precious baby elf of their tribe, those priceless treasures were trash in their eyes!

Shen Yanxiao finally regained her freedom. She sat on the chair and sighed at their enthusiasm.

Imagine, the number of elves in a large tribe had continuously decreased over the past thousand years. During the recent three to four hundred years, Wu En and the rest watched helplessly as their companions and seniors died one by one. There were no more newborns in the tribe. They waited for more than four hundred years and looked forward to it for more than four hundred years. They thought that the Moonlight Tribe would be completely forgotten after their death. However, right now, they had an extremely outstanding little girl joining them. How pleasant of a surprise was that?

The elves did not pay much attention to their bloodline. What they cared about was whether their beliefs had been passed down.

As long as there was an elf, then the name of the Moonlight Tribe would not fall.

"The way they welcome you is somewhat special. Yan Xiao, don't mind them." Elder Yue comforted Shen Yanxiao and secretly glared at those few people.

It was not easy for them to have a free elf join their tribe. Moreover, she was so talented. If they were to scare Shen Yanxiao away, he would have to fight it out with them.

Wu En and the rest stood at one side in embarrassment. The elves who were thousands of years old in total had revealed a helpless look similar to a child.

This was what they had been looking forward to for hundreds of years. How could they not be excited?

"It's okay, I like Great Master Wu En and the rest." Shen Yanxiao thought for a moment and added a 'Great Master' title to address Wu En. It seemed like they liked this?

Hearing the words 'Great Master Wu En', Wu En was over the moon and his face was filled with intoxication.

Oh oh oh!

Little Xiao'er called him Great Master Wu En!

My life was worth living!

Looking at Wu En's over-the-moon expression, Liang Qiu, Qing Xuan, Cang Yan and Jing You's shoulders collapsed one by one. They looked at Shen Yanxiao with sadness, as if they were elderly people that had been abandoned at the roadside.

Shen Yanxiao's lips twitched and her expression stiffened. "Great Master Liang Qiu, Great Master Qing Xuan, Great Master Cang Yan and Great Master Jing You were also very nice to me."

In an instant, the four elves who had a combined age of almost two thousand years had reached nirvana. Their smiles had replaced their previous sadness. It was as if they had ascended from hell to heaven.

Shen Yanxiao looked at their lively expressions and honestly felt that the degree of liveliness of these elderly elves could be compared to those five idiots in her family.

Elder Yue could not help but laugh as he looked at the scene before him. He was the oldest among the elves in the Moonlight Tribe and he was also in the Moonshine City previously. After experiencing so much, he had also become much calmer.

"That's good. If there's anything you're unaccustomed to, tell me. I've arranged your room for you. I'll take you there first." Elder Yue carried Shen Yanxiao to her room. Wu En and the rest wanted to follow them, but Elder Yue immediately said with a cold face, "After I show Yanxiao the room, I don't want to see a pile of stuff in the hall."

Chapter 1302: Moonlight Tribe (9)

Just as Wu En and the others were extending their legs to follow them, they immediately retracted their legs when they heard the warning. They looked at Elder Yue and Shen Yanxiao's departing backs in grief.

Knowing that the two silhouettes had disappeared from their sights, the five of them rushed to Lan Si's side and surrounded him.

"Lan Si, you're too much. You've already met Xiao'er before this, and why didn't you tell us?" Liang Qiu complained about Lan Si 'eating alone'. How could he meet Shen Yanxiao privately? This was too unfair!

Lan Si looked at his companion, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. "At that time, I did not know that she was the little elf Wu Yue had brought back. She did not show her Moonlight Tribe's badge and neither did I. Both parties are not at fault here."

“What? Why didn’t she bring it? I think our tribe’s badge is pretty good...” Cang Yan felt a little sad. Could it be that Shen Yanxiao did not approve of them?

“Erm...” Lan Si felt somewhat embarrassed. He had roughly guessed the reason. According to what Wu Yue said, Shen Yanxiao should have been training in the advanced training camp. However, the time when Lan Si saw her, it was during her training camp... In other words, the little kid had snuck out by herself.

She probably did not bring her Moonlight Tribe’s badge to avoid unnecessary trouble.

However, this was Shen Yanxiao’s private matter so Lan Si did not say much.

However, which one of them here was easy to deal with? They could easily understand the mystery after some thought.

“Speaking of which, what kind of bow did Xiao’er want you to modify? Take it here when you’re free and we can discuss it together.” Cang Yan smiled and looked at Lan Si. He could not let Lan Si do this alone!

Lan Si smiled and said, “I have no objections, but the bow Yan Xiao asked me to modify was forged together with a friend of mine dozens of years ago. I don’t know how it ended up in Yan Xiao’s hands, but it seems like fate has brought us together.”

“You mean him?” Cang Yan was surprised. Even though Lan Si did not say it explicitly, he already knew who the friend Lan Si mentioned was.

“The bow Xiao’er gave you, could it be... Clemance?” The smile on Wu En’s face slightly froze.

Lan Si nodded.

The expressions of the elves slightly changed.

They knew about Clemance and had seen it before. They even had a good time meeting Lan Si's friend, but...

Wu En and the rest could not help but look at Lan Si's blanket-covered legs. They could not bear to look at him.

"I think we should make another bow for Xiao'er. Clemance... let's not continue," Cang Yan said with hesitation.

If not for this Clemance, Lan Si would not have become like this.

Lan Si shook his head.

"I originally did not want it anymore, but I did not expect it to return to my hands after so many years. Since we are fated, why should I avoid it? Moreover, even if I wanted to complete the Clemance, I would need the branch of the Tree of Life. Without it, the Clemance would not be completed." Lan Si knew what Cang Yan and the rest were worried about. However, they did not complete the Clemance back then and now...

Their hopes were still slim.

The Tree of Life was an invaluable treasure in the elves' hearts. How difficult it was to obtain its branches?

"Forget it. Just be careful. If you need anything, I will accompany you." Cang Yan patted Lan Si's shoulders and gave him support.

Chapter 1303: Moonlight Tribe (10)

On the other side, Shen Yanxiao was brought to her room by Elder Yue. However, when Elder Yue opened the door, she was completely petrified.

Within the spacious room, there were bead curtains made of sparkling and translucent crystal flowers with exquisite small wind chimes hanging at the door. As the breeze blew past, they released crisp sounds, and crystal butterflies made of pink crystal decorated the walls of the room, vivid and lifelike.

Pink stalactites covered the ground beneath their feet. There was an exquisite white wooden table, white chairs, a white dresser, and a large white bed...

Other than the color pink and white, the entire room radiated a strong aura of a young lady.

Shen Yanxiao speechlessly looked at the room filled with pink bubbles, and her strong heart felt as if it had been punched.

Well...

Wasn't this too cute?

The extremely feminine room made Shen Yanxiao feel uncomfortable.

In a sense, Shen Yanxiao was not a young lady, much less a loli.

"Do you like it? Jing You went to consult several tribes with elves and combined the preference of those female elves to build a room for you." Elder Yue did not notice the traces of cracks on Shen Yanxiao's face. Since he was born, the Moonlight Tribe had all male elves, and this was their first time welcoming a female elf. Without the guidance of a female elf, they could only shamelessly ask.

Elder Yue and the rest were very satisfied with this room. It was so pink, tender, and adorable!

"Satisfied... satisfied... my ass!" Shen Yanxiao silently swallowed the last part of the sentence. After all, this was a room that the Moonlight Tribe elves had meticulously built for her. If she were to be picky, wouldn't that be too shameless?

So be it!

At the very most, I will be a delicate little girl!

Shen Yanxiao was crying internally, but on the surface, she was smiling like a flower.

She did not want to see the disappointed expressions of those passionate and sincere elves.

In any case, the room was only a residence for her!

Pink, white, black, seven-colored... Why can't she stay here?

"It's good that you like it. Take a rest first. I'll get them to prepare something for you. If you like what Wu En and the rest have given you, take it. If you don't like it, don't force yourself to accept it. Later on, I'll get them to bring it to you and you can choose by yourself. You have to remember that you're already a member of the Moonlight Tribe. Don't be too reserved and polite. The few of us are your grandfathers. Why be polite to your grandfathers?" Elder Yue smiled and looked at Shen Yanxiao. He was honestly happy.

He was glad that the Moonlight Tribe finally had some fresh blood. Moreover, she was so outstanding that they did not have to worry about disgracing the reputation of the Moonlight Tribe.

A hundred years later, they might not be here anymore, but as long as Shen Yanxiao was still in the Moon God Continent, the Moonlight Tribe would not disappear.

“Thank you.” Shen Yanxiao’s voice was hoarse, and she honestly felt guilty. If she was really an abandoned little elf, she would probably shed tears of gratitude in the face of Elder Yue and the rest’s kindness and stay in the Moonlight Tribe forever.

However, she was well aware that she would leave the Moon God Continent one day and return to the Brilliance Continent. After she left, the elves of the Moonlight Tribe would definitely be upset.

Sometimes, Shen Yanxiao was very rational and black-bellied. However, she was willing to be mindful those who treated her sincerely.

Chapter 1304: Moonlight Tribe (11)

If she could find some elves with good personalities for the Moonlight Tribe before she left, perhaps this would allow the tribe to continue.

Shen Yanxiao secretly made up her mind. Before she leaves the Lunar Continent, she must select outstanding elves to continue the beliefs of the Moonlight Tribe!

Shen Yanxiao had unknowingly added another mission for herself.

This was precisely because of Shen Yanxiao’s personality of repaying kindness with kindness, that the group of people in Sun Never Sets had sworn loyalty to her!

She would never abandon her people.

Not long after, Elder Yue asked Wu En and the rest to send the items to Shen Yanxiao’s room. This time, Wu En and the rest did not try their best to promote the items. They merely asked Shen Yanxiao to casually take a look.

Shen Yanxiao noticed that there were more of them than before.

She sat down in front of the table and carefully looked at these presents that carried the Moonlight Tribe elves’ sincerity.

Both Wu En and Qing Xuan were grandmasters in herbalism, and all of the potions they gave Shen Yanxiao were grandmaster potions and formulas. These grandmaster potions were of better quality than the grandmaster potions Shen Yanxiao bought in the trading house, making them very precious.

Shen Yanxiao had also used a Grandmaster Invisibility Potion before, and the duration of its effect varied from a few seconds to a few minutes. Furthermore, during the process of turning invisible, the user’s speed would decrease by half and their movements would also be slower. However, this Grandmaster Invisibility Potion was completely different. Not only did it not affect the user’s speed, it even allowed the user to turn invisible for fifteen minutes!

However, this type of stealth potion only focused on concealing one’s silhouette. If there was something similar to magic perception, it could also be detected. However, it was an excellent potion for sneak attacks and escaping.

Another heaven-defying potion was called the Rebirth Potion.

Shen Yanxiao had only seen this potion in herbalism books. There was not a single bottle in the Brilliance Continent.

To produce this potion, a herbalist had to be at the peak of a Grandmaster Herbalist.

As the name implied, the Reincarnation Potion could resurrect the dead. It was a powerful healing potion. If someone were to die from serious injuries, as long as their time of death did not exceed ten minutes and their brain and heart were not damaged, then drinking the potion would allow them to regain their life.

This was indeed a potion that could bring people back from the dead. However, after drinking the potion, the resurrected would not immediately recover. Instead, they would fall into a state of suspended animation. The large amount of healing elements in the potion would gradually repair the internal injuries. Other than the heart and brain, all the damaged internal organs and meridians could be recovered.

However, this regenerative potion could only be drunk by people who had just passed away. If someone who was still alive attempted to use it to treat their internal injuries, then they would die without a complete corpse.

The Reincarnation Potion's effect was heaven-defying, and the requirements were also very harsh.

Shen Yanxiao did not expect to see the potion here!

There was only one bottle of Reincarnation Potion. Shen Yanxiao did not know if it was a gift from Wu En or Qing Xuan.

However, she believed that the Reincarnation Potion was as rare as phoenix feathers and unicorn horns even in the Moon God Continent. Yet, they were willing to give it to her...

Shen Yanxiao chuckled. She was moved beyond words.

If someone were willing to sell a Reincarnation Potion, a single bottle would probably be enough to purchase hundreds of cities in the Brilliance Continent!

This potion was a thousand times more precious than a Hundred Year Spirit Weapon!

Chapter 1305: Enchanter (1)

In addition to herbalism, there were also a few bows and dozens of quivers of arrows. There were a total of three bows and other than the one Cang Yan gave her, Shen Yanxiao also discovered a golden bow made by Lan Si.

Every blacksmith would leave an inconspicuous mark on the weapon they forged. The mark on this golden bow looked exactly the same as her Clemance. Shen Yanxiao immediately knew that this was a gift Lan Si added in.

No matter which one of the three bows, all of them could be said to be a peak grade divine weapon. These bows could be compared to the craftsmanship of the Azure Dragon Family's Hundred Year Spirit Weapon.

Shen Yanxiao now had three!

How extravagant!

Shen Yanxiao looked at the three bows, with plans brewing in her mind. Before she completed Clemance, she would use one of the bows. As for the other two bows, their craftsmanship was so outstanding that it would be a pity if she did not use them.

She intended to present Buddha with flowers and give one of them to An Ran while keeping the other one for Li Xiaowei when she returned to the Brilliance Continent.

Of course, Shen Yanxiao would ask Cang Yan and Lan Si first. After all, it was a gift from them.

Every single arrow had been enchanted.

In the world of elves, there existed a strange profession—Enchanter.

A curse could be attached to any item, providing a defensive barrier to the building and a powerful destructive power to weapons.

Liang Qiu was an enchanter. It was said that the barrier around Wind City was created by him.

Liang Qiu had also prepared many books on enchantment for Shen Yanxiao. Herbalism was an innate skill for elves. The status of an enchanter in the Moon God Continent was very similar to herbalists in the Brilliance Continent.

Shen Yanxiao sat on the chair and picked up an introductory enchantment book to flip through.

Liang Qiu was very attentive. He had prepared a set of books for Shen Yanxiao from beginner to advanced enchanter so she could learn by herself.

Many of the enchantments in the Brilliance Continent were formed by magic arrays. Compared to enchantment arrays, magic arrays had a huge flaw.

Magic arrays had to be continuously supplied with magic. Unless a magus poured their magic into a magic ball that would support the magic arrays, the magus could only squat near the magic arrays and continuously transmit their magic power.

Furthermore, even if it was a magic ball, it would require a magus to replenish its energy regularly.

However, an enchantment barrier was completely different.

Enchantments required an enchantment scroll written by an Enchanter. Inscription was a unique skill of an Enchanter. It could directly attach magic power to weapons and other items. It could also be written into an enchantment scroll.

The enchantment scrolls were similar to potions. In a sense, they both had a certain degree of beneficial and detrimental effect.

The reason why elves' bows did not require magical cores to provide power was because they had been infused with enough magic power by the enchanter.

Liang Qiu prepared an enchantment scroll for Shen Yanxiao. It had the effect of accelerating, eliminating aura, removing detrimental effects, and even increasing one's fighting strength for a short period of time.

Enchantment scrolls were more convenient to use than potions, and the effects were obvious. It was effective immediately, but the effect of enchantment scrolls on the body was very short and would not last more than an hour. It was a temporary explosive item.

The disadvantage was that it would consume the magic power of an enchanter. It was possible for a herbalist to produce potions infinitely as long as they had the strength and mental energy.

Chapter 1306: Enchanter (2)

Shen Yanxiao was very interested in Enchanters. If she could use enchantment scrolls to cast a barrier around Sun Never Sets, the defenses of Sun Never Sets would be unbreakable!

Furthermore, enchantment scrolls had a wide range of uses. However, no human in the Brilliance Continent knew how to enchant.

Enchantment was invented by the elves. In the war between the gods and devils, humans and elves formed a temporary alliance. During that period, there were many humans who learned enchantment from the elves. However, after the war between the gods and devils, the relationship between the elves and humans became estranged. Most of the humans who learned enchantment had died in battle. Those who survived were friendly with elves, and they did not wish to hand over the knowledge of enchantment to humans without the permission of the elves.

During the war between gods and devils, humans were much more simple-minded.

The foundation of enchantment was to write inscriptions, and the profound meaning of enchantment lay in those obscure words.

Those obscure words were not elvish, nor were they written in the language of the different races. Instead, they were magical words that contained magical power.

The effects of different combinations of words were completely different. Moreover, there could not be any deviation when writing, or else the words would lose their effects.

Furthermore, inscriptions were not written with ordinary ink. Instead, it was a unique enchantment potion.

Only the elves had this enchantment potion. This was also one of the reasons why enchantment had disappeared from the human race.

Without the potion, humans could not write inscriptions with magic power.

Enchantment potions were strictly prohibited from being sold to outsiders in the Moon God Continent. As long as they were discovered, they would be immediately executed without any parole.

There were a few bottles of enchantment potions and a quill among the items Liang Qiu gave her.

Those enchantment potions were stored in a palm-sized spherical bottle, and a sparkling golden liquid could be seen in the crystal clear bottle.

Shen Yanxiao opened a bottle and took a sniff.

There was no scent.

She reached out her pinky and dipped it into the potion. Immediately, she saw a small golden liquid swaying on her fingertips.

It did not spread out as easily as water. Instead, it condensed into a round ball that swayed on her fingertips.

“How am I supposed to write with this potion?” Shen Yanxiao curiously looked at the ‘little water droplet’ on her fingertips. How was she supposed to write with such a thick liquid?

“If you wish to learn, you can ask that elf named Liang Qiu.” Xiu’s voice sounded in Shen Yanxiao’s ears.

Shen Yanxiao stuck out her tongue and put the ‘little water droplet’ back into the bottle.

“I want to learn, but I’m afraid I don’t have enough time. I have to make a trip to Jadeite City.” Shen Yanxiao sighed. There were too many mysteries in the world of elves that she wanted to learn, but she did not have much time.

She would be entering Moonshine City in another month, which was the destination for her trip.

She had to undo the seal on her body and search for her parents who might be trapped in Moonshine City. For the remaining month, she had to make a trip to Jadeite City to see the Moonshine Tribe and...

That unlucky third uncle of hers!

“The study of enchantment is not as complicated as other professions. You have to rely more on yourself. You only need to get that elf to give you some pointers. Even if you enter Moonshine City, you can still train.” Xiu’s voice carried a trace of laziness.

Chapter 1307: Enchanter (3)

“Really?” Shen Yanxiao’s eyes brightened. That was great!

If she could learn enchantment, then when she returned to the Brilliance Continent, she would be the only Enchanter in the entire continent!!

Just the thought of it made her excited!

“Yes.” Xiu faintly answered.

Shen Yanxiao practically could not wait to grab a beginner enchantment book and run out to search for Liang Qiu.

Wu En, who was preparing for dinner, saw the little girl’s hurried back and asked in doubt, “Xiao’er, why are you in such a hurry?”

Little Xiao’er was the nickname Wu En and the rest had given to Shen Yanxiao. The reason was... they found it very comforting to call her that!

When Shen Yanxiao saw Wu En, she immediately walked over and smiled like a flower. “Grandpa Wu En, do you know where Grandpa Liang Qiu is?”

Wu En... Grandfather...

An intoxicated smile immediately surfaced on Wu En’s face.

That sounded much better than being a Great Master!

How heartwarming!

The feeling of having a little elf at home was great!

He could finally be a grandfather!

Shen Yanxiao blinked as she looked at Wu En's drunk expression.

What... what was with that intoxicated expression?

"Grandpa Wu En?" Shen Yanxiao tentatively called out again.

Ah!!

Wu En was intoxicated.

"..." Shen Yanxiao was speechless.

"Cough, cough." Finally, Wu En realized his abnormality under the little girl's overly 'passionate' gaze. He cleared his throat in embarrassment, but his eyes revealed an extremely cocky smile.

"You're looking for Liang Qiu? He's in Wu Yue's study room." With that said, Wu En thoughtfully pointed to Wu Yue's study room.

"Thank you, Grandpa Wu En." Shen Yanxiao nodded her head obediently and went to seduce her new teacher.

As for Wu En...

"Ah! This feeling..." He covered his chest and leaned against the wall as he continued to be intoxicated!

Shen Yanxiao walked to Elder Yue's room and knocked on the door politely.

"Enter." Elder Yue's voice sounded from the room.

Shen Yanxiao pushed the door open and entered.

In the room, Liang Qiu and Elder Yue were seated in front of the desk.

"Elder Yue, Grandfather Liang Qiu, sorry to disturb you." Shen Yanxiao acted like an obedient child.

Elder Yue was very calm.

Liang Qiu's 'grandfather' could not remain calm...

"You... called me grandfather?" Liang Qiu stared blankly at Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao nodded. If she could call him grandfather, then why not? Any one of the elves here was several times older than her biological grandfather.

Liang Qiu closed his eyes and covered his chest. The expression on his face was exactly the same as Wu En.

That appearance was simply unbearable for Elder Yue to look at.

Elder Yue turned his face away in silence. He could not bear to see his comrade's useless appearance.

Sigh, forgive those old guys who have been looking forward to having grandchildren for hundreds of years!

"Xiao'er, why are you looking for Grandfather Liang Qiu?" Liang Qiu looked at Shen Yanxiao with a smile. From the looks of it, even if Shen Yanxiao said that she wanted to pull his beard, he would still smile and let her play with it!

Shen Yanxiao did not have the bad taste to pinch the old man's beard. She said honestly, "I want to learn enchantment! Grandfather Liang Qiu, can you teach me?"

"Ah?" Liang Qiu was stunned. He saw Shen Yanxiao moving her hands behind her back. Wasn't she currently holding onto an introductory book on enchantment!?

Chapter 1308: Enchanter (4)

"Well... why do you suddenly want to learn enchantment?" Liang Qiu looked at Shen Yanxiao with curiosity.

Shen Yanxiao said, "Because it's very powerful!"

It was really amazing!

"You can, but I'm afraid you won't be able to take it. Enchantment is very troublesome. Besides, you are about to go to Moonshine City. Can you handle the workload?" It was not that Liang Qiu was unwilling to teach, but he was afraid that Shen Yanxiao would work too hard.

"I can handle it! Grandfather Liang Qiu, please teach me!" Shen Yanxiao shamelessly brought out her cute act and looked at Liang Qiu with her watery eyes that were filled with desire.

Not to mention Liang Qiu, even Elder Yue who was as calm as water could not stand Shen Yanxiao's expression.

Liang Qiu immediately surrendered!

"Alright! I can teach you, but don't work too hard." Liang Qiu covered his chest as his heart pounded quickly.

Kids acting spoiled were too adorable!

If Vermilion Bird were here, he would probably be secretly wiped away by his master's shameless actions.

"Then I'll have to trouble Grandfather Liang Qiu." Shen Yanxiao's mouth was as sweet as honey.

Liang Qiu was so excited that he almost cried.

"Learning enchantment is also a good thing. I saw the results of your potion evaluation in the Silvermoon Guards. Your level in herbalism is pretty good and now that you are trying to learn enchantment, you can be considered as multifaceted. However, enchantment is the same as potions and cannot be mastered overnight. Don't be rash. If there's anything you don't understand when you arrive at Moonshine City, you can ask Mo Yan. He is also an enchanter and is also your Grandfather Liang Qiu's last disciple." Elder Yue looked at Shen Yanxiao and the more he looked at her, the more satisfied he was. Her strength was already very good and right now, she wanted to learn more. How could they not like a little kid that worked hard on improving?

"Brother Mo Yan?" Shen Yanxiao was surprised. In her memory, Mo Yan's temper was the most explosive among the five young masters. She did not expect that he could calm down and write inscriptions.

Liang Qiu and Elder Yue naturally noticed Shen Yanxiao's surprise and the two old men looked at each other and smiled.

"When Mo Yan learned enchantment, it was to nurture his temperament. However, the effect did not seem obvious," Elder Yue smiled and said.

"He has some talent in enchantment. In a sense, he is also your senior brother. If you have any questions, ask him. If he dares to bully you, tell me when you come back. I will beat him to death." Liang Qiu did not conceal his favoritism for Shen Yanxiao.

What a joke. Shen Yanxiao was his family's little girl, and she was also a delicate little girl. How could a man like Mo Yan compare to his girl?

Mo Yan, who was far away in Moonshine City, did not know that his status in his teacher's heart had plummeted.

Shen Yanxiao nodded. So there was such a relationship between Mo Yan and Liang Qiu. No wonder Mo Yu dared to take the risk of violating the rules and went to plead for leniency with Elder Yue. It seemed like there was a nepotism between them!

"There's no hurry to learn enchantment. Let's eat first. In any case, you still have a month's time." Elder Yue said.

Shen Yanxiao pursed her lips. The joy in her heart dissipated in an instant. She looked at the kind-looking Elder Yue and Liang Qiu and said, "Elder Yue, Grandpa Liang Qiu, I can only stay here for five days." She could not bear to lie to this kind old man.

"Why?" Confusion and surprise were written all over their faces.

Chapter 1309: Brotherhood Tribe (1)

Shen Yanxiao said, "I want to see the tribe my parents are in."

"Your parents?" Elder Yue and Liang Qiu looked at each other and saw surprise in each other's eyes.

"Didn't you previously..." Before Elder Yue could finish his sentence, everyone had already understood.

Shen Yanxiao forced a smile and said, "I just wanted to take a look. I think they might not be in the tribe anymore, but I still want to take a look." Perhaps at the start, Shen Yanxiao had thought of joining the Moonshine Tribe, but she would not stay in the Moon God Continent for long. The elves of the Moonlight Tribe were so nice to her, and she did not want to take off the Moonlight badge on her chest.

"I will not join their tribe because I already have my own tribe." Shen Yanxiao looked at Liang Qiu and Elder Yue. She was unwilling to lie to them and hoped to obtain their understanding.

Elder Yue was silent for a moment. When Shen Yanxiao said that she wanted to visit his parents' tribe, his heart skipped a beat. He had already thought of the worst scenario, but he did not expect Shen Yanxiao to promise him that.

"Do you already know which tribe they belong to?" Elder Yue sighed and asked.

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

"Moonshine Tribe, in Jadeite City."

"What!"

The moment Shen Yanxiao said that, Elder Yue and Liang Qiu's expressions immediately changed.

"Your parents are elves of the Moonshine Tribe?" Elder Yue looked at Shen Yanxiao in shock.

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

"Well..." Elder Yue looked troubled.

Shen Yanxiao raised her head and looked at Elder Yue. "I already know that the Moonshine Tribe has been demoted. I just wanted to go back and take a look. Moreover, during the advanced training camp, my friend An Ran came from the Moonshine Tribe. I don't think the elves of the Moonshine Tribe are traitors."

Elder Yue sighed and said, "I also believe that the elves of the Moonshine Tribe are not traitors. In fact, I am not opposed to your contact with the elves of the Moonshine Tribe. On the contrary, I have always felt that the elves of the Moonshine Tribe are very good."

Shen Yanxiao breathed a sigh of relief.

"I don't know if you've noticed, but there's an independent tree planted beside the Moonlight Tribe. In fact, that tree was originally owned by the Moonshine Tribe, and that empty land was also the encampment of the Moonshine Tribe," Elder Yue said something shocking.

Shen Yanxiao was surprised. She had noticed that empty land before, but she did not expect it to be the former residence of the Moonshine Tribe.

"Yan Xiao, don't you think the Moonshine Tribe and the Moonlight Tribe have similar names?" Elder Yue looked at Shen Yanxiao with a loving smile.

"One word difference." Shen Yanxiao said.

Elder Yue nodded.

"That's right, a single word difference. In a sense, the Moonshine Tribe and the Moonlight Tribe should be of the same elvish bloodline. The first leader of the Moonshine Tribe and the first leader of the Moonlight Tribe are biological brothers. During the war between the gods and devils, their tribe was nearly wiped out, leaving only the two of them. The leader of the Moonshine Tribe had always been there during the war. After the leader returned to the Moon God Continent, he changed his name because he could not bear to look at his devastated former home alone. However, he did not expect his missing brother to return a hundred years later. When he saw that he founded the Moonlight Tribe, he was very dissatisfied and insisted on rebuilding the tribe. Therefore, the existence of these two brother tribes appeared." Elder Yue slowly recounted the events from thousands of years ago.

Chapter 1310: Brotherhood Tribe (2)

"Yan Xiao, if your parents are really from the Moonshine Tribe, then you are our granddaughter by blood." Elder Yue looked at Shen Yanxiao with joy in his eyes.

The Moonshine Tribe and the Moonlight Tribe were split from the same tribe. Thus, the elves of both tribes were of the same bloodline.

However, as time passed, the elves had gradually forgotten the fact that they were brothers.

The Moonlight Tribe had become the hero that the elves yearned for and worshipped. However, the Moonshine Tribe had become the traitor that the elves spoke ill of, and was banished from Wind City.

Hero, traitor.

Who could associate these two words together?

The Moonlight Tribe originally did not exist. It was only because the first leader was disheartened that it was formed. Later on, they continued to develop and birth their own elves. Facing his returning brothers, he could not abandon his people and could only choose to continue guarding the Moonlight Tribe.

However, his brother had resuscitated the nearly collapsed Moonshine Tribe and shouldered the heavy responsibility of continuing the name of the tribe.

The passage of time had taken away the memories of the elves. Only the elves of these two tribes knew that they were eternal brothers.

When the Moonshine Tribe was demoted, Elder Yue and the other elders had also jointly requested for the Elf King to show mercy.

If it were not for the elves of the Moonlight Tribe coming out in full strength to beg for the Elf King's forgiveness, they probably would not even be able to stay in a white-level city.

No elves knew that, not even the elves of the Moonshine Tribe.

The elves of the Moonshine Tribe did not resent their brothers. They drew a clear line with the Moonlight Tribe because they did not want to implicate the reputation of the hero tribe.

Nothing could sever the brotherhood between the two tribes.

"What a coincidence." Liang Qiu looked at Shen Yanxiao with mixed feelings. This little girl had the same bloodline as them, so she was really their granddaughter.

Shen Yanxiao was shocked. Was this considered as an indirect acknowledgement?

“Little kid, go and see your parents’ tribe. We will not stop you.” Elder Yue patted Shen Yanxiao’s shoulders, his eyes filled with gratification.

Even though Shen Yanxiao did not know of the relationship between the Moonshine Tribe and the Moonlight Tribe, she still revealed her identity. That kind of courage was really hard to come by.

Shen Yanxiao nodded and smiled.

So, the elves of the Moonlight Tribe were also her family.

Elder Yue looked at Shen Yanxiao as he thought of another problem.

If Shen Yanxiao was an elf of the Moonshine Tribe, then why did her parents abandon her?

Moonshine Elves wouldn’t ever do that.

As for Shen Yanxiao’s background, Elder Yue did not hide it from the other Moonlight Tribe elves.

As expected, after knowing that Shen Yanxiao was related to them by blood, they doted on her even more.

During dinner time, they piled up a lot of delicious fruits in front of Shen Yanxiao.

Well, food for elf standards...

It was just fruits!

During the meal, Shen Yanxiao confessed that she wanted to learn enchantment from Liang Qiu. She also mentioned that she would be heading to Jadeite City to visit the Moonshine Tribe in five days.

Although Wu En and the rest were reluctant, they would not dissuade Shen Yanxiao from doing so. They knew that she would return.

Even though she would be entering Moonshine City in the near future, she was still their little elf!