

The Good 1321

Chapter 1321: You Are All Thieves (4)

Duan Yuan brought Vermilion Bird, Shen Yanxiao, Little Phoenix and Mini Dragon inside the mansion in a polite manner. When the elves in the mansion saw the group of adorable creatures, their expressions were odd.

Duan Yuan arranged for them to rest in the lounge and even ordered his subordinates to prepare tea and fruits.

It was not that Duan Yuan was too hospitable, but the Vermilion Bird's expression had always been unstable. He was honestly afraid that this fiery mythical beast would burn down his mansion.

"Xiao Xue, accompany these few guests for the time being. There are things I need to take care of." Duan Yuan very decisively dragged his daughter out to keep them company. Even if this mythical beast had a bad temper, it would not be good to curse at a weak female elf.

"Yes, Father." Duan Xue obediently nodded.

Duan Yuan immediately left. He had to find out Shen Yanxiao's background in the shortest time possible.

In the lounge, Duan Xue sat on a chair and looked at the four adorable little pups.

When Duan Xue sized them up, Shen Yanxiao was also secretly sizing her up.

Was this the elf her third uncle was chatting up?

Shen Yanxiao secretly looked at Duan Xue. To be fair, Duan Xue's appearance could only be regarded as above average among elves, but her aura was far superior.

She sat there quietly with a faint smile on her lips, but it made her feel comfortable.

Shen Yanxiao did not have much contact with women. If they were not lolis, they would be the royal sister type. Very few women had such a gentle temperament.

The feeling Duan Xue gave her was as gentle as water.

"I am Duan Xue. What about you?" Duan Xue looked at Shen Yanxiao with a smile.

"Chu?" Little Phoenix tilted its head as a greeting. Mini Dragon's muttering was considered giving her face.

Vermilion Bird did not respond at all.

Shen Yanxiao sighed and said to Duan Xue, "My name is Yan Xiao."

A smile blossomed on Duan Xue's face, similar to a ray of sunlight in the cold winter that could melt ice and snow.

"Yan Xiao? Are you an elf of the Moonlight Tribe? I have always admired Great Master Liang Qiu of the Moonlight Tribe. He is a genius among the Enchanters, but unfortunately, he is far away in a black-level city. I am only a white elf so I cannot fulfill my wish."

Shen Yanxiao nodded. Duan Xue's words did not cause her to be alienated in the slightest. She was as gentle as a big sister next door.

"You've passed the Silvermoon Guards selection test at such a young age. It must have been hard on you, right? When I was your age, I was still a little fool that knew nothing. All I knew was to follow behind my father all day long, but you've already taken charge and even entered the Silvermoon Guards. You're really amazing." Duan Xue's voice was very gentle. Even though what she said was praise, it did not make Shen Yanxiao feel any hypocrisy.

This elf really had her charm.

Shen Yanxiao seemed to understand why her third uncle had taken such a huge risk to lure her and break the snow.

Which man would not be tempted by such a gentle woman?

Not to mention her family's infamous third uncle?

The rarest thing was, Duan Xue's eyes were very clear. Every word and expression of hers was sincere without the slightest trace of pretence.

A naturally gentle woman would always make people soft-hearted.

This was the first time Shen Yanxiao had interacted with a woman with such a personality. Even if Shen Yanxiao did not speak much, Duan Xue would still chat with her for a while, and there would not be any awkward silence.

Chapter 1322: Compensation (1)

On the other side, Duan Yuan had started to mobilize all his subordinates to investigate Shen Yanxiao. The elves were very efficient. However, when Duan Yuan received the news, he was surprised.

The source of the news was from a black-level city called Wind City.

According to the information, Shen Yanxiao suddenly appeared in Fragrant Night City half a year ago. Later on, she got to know Mo Yu because she wanted to join the training camp. When she was in Fragrant Night City, Mo Yu had asked Shen Yanxiao to undergo a test. As Shen Yanxiao's test result was too unimaginable, many elves in Fragrant Night City remembered this little elf.

Many elves clearly remembered that Shen Yanxiao only had a cyan badge without any tribal badge.

After that, Mo Yu sent Shen Yanxiao to the advanced training camp. Later on, Shen Yanxiao spent her days in the advanced training camp. She was also appreciated by Elder Yue in the advanced training camp and was recruited into the Moonlight Tribe. Only then did she have a tribe.

It could be said that when Shen Yanxiao was in Fragrant Night City, she was a penniless little elf. If not for the series of fortuitous encounters that followed, probably no one would expect her to have her current achievements.

A row of records about Shen Yanxiao was placed before Duan Yuan. Other than shock, he was speechless.

The source of this information was absolutely reliable and it was impossible for it to be false.

This meant that everything Shen Yanxiao said was true.

She was an orphan that was picked up and raised by a mythical beast!

“Nothing is impossible in this world.” Duan Yuan forced a smile. No wonder the mythical beast was so generous to an elf. Shen Yanxiao was raised by a mythical beast!

After confirming Shen Yanxiao’s identity, Duan Yuan would naturally believe everything she said.

Evidently, the Moonshine Tribe was innocent.

“Forget it. We still have to give Yan Xiao an explanation for this.” Duan Yuan sighed and got up to walk towards the lounge. He had made a mistake in his judgment, so he should give Shen Yanxiao and the Moonshine Tribe an explanation.

Duan Yuan carefully ordered his men to place the gemstones and crystal coins that belonged to Shen Yanxiao in the storeroom before he went to the lounge.

Before they entered the lounge, Duan Yuan heard the conversation between Duan Xue and Shen Yanxiao.

A smile surfaced on his originally tense face.

To be honest, it was commendable that Shen Yanxiao could come this far. He was also happy that his daughter had befriended such a talented elf.

“Yan Xiao, the matter has been clarified and it was our mistake. I’ve already tasked them to retrieve your items for you. I’m so sorry.” Duan Yuan felt his face heating up when he thought about how a city lord like him had snatched a little kid’s property.

Of course, he would not take a single cent. All the seized gems and crystal coins were kept in the storeroom.

If the Moonshine Tribe was found guilty, then these items would be handed over to the Elf King for processing.

Vermilion Bird snorted when he saw Duan Yuan.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and said. “It’s alright. It’s good that the misunderstanding has been resolved. City Lord Duan Yuan, thank you.”

“You’re too kind. It was all my fault.” The more polite Shen Yanxiao was, the more embarrassed Duan Yuan felt.

As a result, Duan Yuan did not notice that under Shen Yanxiao’s innocent smile, her eyes were flickering with an evil glint.

Chapter 1323: Compensation (2)

“Since the matter has been investigated, can the elves of the Moonshine Tribe be released? I still have to ask them about the sales of the gems. I intend to exchange the rest of the gems for crystal coins in their trading house,” Shen Yanxiao said with a good temper.

“Naturally. If you don’t mind, please follow me to the dungeon and I will personally release them.” Duan Yuan also felt apologetic towards the Moonshine Tribe elves.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and nodded.

Duan Xue stood up at that moment and said gently, “Father, since you are busy, then I shall not disturb you. I shall return to my room first.”

“Alright, you may leave.” Duan Yuan nodded. He did not wish for Duan Xue to go to the dungeon as there was still a lecher who was coveting his daughter’s beauty locked up there!

After Duan Xue left, Duan Yuan brought Shen Yanxiao, Vermilion Bird and the rest to the dungeon.

This time, Shen Yanxiao followed behind Duan Yuan and openly entered the dungeon. However, the moment she entered, she immediately heard Shen Jing’s voice.

“Ah! It’s so suffocating to be cooped up here all day long! Are there any human rights left? Can you just say something if you want to kill or torture me? Give me a definite answer!” Shen Jing, who had been imprisoned here for several months, was about to die from suffocation. Even though the dungeon conditions were pretty good, it was boring! Too boring!

For a good-for-nothing like him to stay in a place without any wine or meat was simply torturous for him.

Duan Yuan’s lips twitched.

Shen Yanxiao was speechless.

“Shen Jing, are you restless?” Duan Yuan restrained his temper and shouted.

The moment Shen Jing heard Duan Yuan’s voice, he immediately quieted down.

When Duan Yuan walked to his cage, he had already changed into the appearance of an elegant young master. He looked at the ‘father-in-law’ in his heart in a gentle and courteous manner!

However, when Shen Jing saw Vermilion Bird standing behind Duan Yuan, his image as a young master instantly shattered.

Shen Jing looked at Vermilion Bird in shock and wondered if he had seen wrongly.

Wasn’t that their guardian beast? Why did it suddenly come to the Moon God Continent?

When he saw Shen Yanxiao by the Vermilion Bird’s side, Shen Jing did not react.

During the few times Shen Jing and Shen Yanxiao met, Shen Yanxiao had disguised herself as an ugly girl. Therefore, Shen Jing did not know that his ugly duckling had turned into a swan.

All of Shen Jing’s attention was on Vermilion Bird and his expression looked as if he was about to squeeze out from the iron bars the very next second.

Vermilion Bird coldly glanced at Shen Jing.

It was only a brief glance, but Shen Jing clearly sensed the warning in Vermilion Bird's eyes!

Shen Jing could guarantee that if he were to utter a single word, Vermilion Bird would slap him to death!

Countless questions were swallowed by Shen Jing.

He could not even take care of himself right now, so how could he possibly have the ability to ask Vermilion Bird why he had come to the Moon God Continent?

Seeing that Shen Jing had become obedient, Duan Yuan turned to look at the elves of the Moonshine Tribe.

When Yue Shi and another elf saw Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird, their eyes were filled with pleasant surprise!

"Customer, you're here?" Yue Shi looked at Shen Yanxiao excitedly. Shen Yanxiao's appearance had proved their innocence!

The grievances from the past few days had accumulated in his heart, and Yue Shi felt like crying.

"I'm sorry to have brought you trouble." Shen Yanxiao felt guilty as she looked at the elves who were locked up.

Chapter 1324: Compensation (3)

"It's nothing, it's nothing!" The Moonshine Tribe elves hastily shook their heads. Even though Shen Yanxiao's gems had brought them some trouble, now that the problem had been resolved, there was no loss for them. Instead, it was Shen Yanxiao's gems that had brought about a huge profit to their trading house. Therefore, they had to thank Shen Yanxiao.

Duan Yuan said, "This matter was not handled well. I apologize to both of you here."

As the matter was more or less settled, Duan Yuan opened the cage and released the Moonshine Tribe elves.

The elf sent by Duan Yuan to fetch gems and crystal coins had just arrived.

Duan Yuan wanted to end things as soon as possible, but everything that followed was like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, blasting his soul out of his body.

"City Lord! Oh no... the gems and crystal coins we seized from the Moonshine Trading House... are all gone." The elf who came to report almost cried.

"Wh... what..." Duan Yuan felt as if he was struck by lightning and nearly fell.

"Have you checked it out? Could it have been placed in a corner that you did not notice?" Duan Yuan became anxious.

The amount of gemstones and crystal coins collected from the Moonshine Trading House was rather large. If they were to lose them in the storeroom of the city lord's mansion... then the matter would not be resolved.

The elf put on a long face and said, "I've checked, there's really nothing."

Duan Yuan's complexion turned deathly pale in an instant.

They had just returned the Moonshine Tribe's innocence, but they could no longer find the money they had confiscated. This was simply too heartbreaking.

The elves of the Moonshine Tribe were also stunned. They did not expect Duan Yuan to pocket the money.

However, the storeroom of the city lord's mansion was also rather well guarded. How did it disappear without a reason?

Only a certain unscrupulous thief had a calm expression without the slightest trace of panic from losing her money.

However, a certain thief was calm because...

1

"Duan Yuan! You have to explain this matter to me! Didn't you say you would return our gems and crystal coins? I think you just want to keep it for yourself! What do you mean by using the gems of unknown origin to detain the elves of the Moonshine Tribe? It's basically because you've taken a fancy to those gems and money!" Vermilion Bird instantly exploded!

He insisted that Duan Yuan must have embezzled those gems and crystal coins.

Duan Yuan looked at Vermilion Bird as if weeping but had no tears. He honestly did not have such thoughts.

However, now that the money was missing, he felt guilty.. After all, it had always been in the storeroom of the mansion.

"Well done! Let me tell you, if you don't hand over the crystal coins and jewels today, I will definitely burn down this mansion of yours!" Vermilion Bird angrily glared at Duan Yuan, as if he was about to set the mansion on fire.

Duan Yuan was honestly panicking. He had no idea what was going on. When he went to the storeroom the day before yesterday, he clearly saw the box of gems and crystal coins. How did it disappear in a day's time?

Duan Yuan would never know that half a day ago, these items were still placed in the storeroom of the mansion. However, a certain unscrupulous thief went to the storeroom of the mansion before she went to collect debts and 'conveniently' took out all her belongings.

"Don't! Don't worry. Even if the item is lost, I will compensate you! I will return all the gems and crystal coins intact." Duan Yuan promised in a hurry.

Chapter 1325: Compensation (4)

"Really?" Vermilion Bird raised his brow.

“Yes!” Duan Yuan nodded decisively.

“Alright, then I’ll say this first. As for my gems, I want them returned to me as gems, and the crystal coins should be returned in the exact amount. Don’t try to fool me with those crystal coins. Those gems are mostly good stuff collected from the Brilliance Continent, so don’t use defective products to make up the numbers.” Vermilion Bird snorted.

Vermilion Bird’s request gave Duan Yuan a headache. Jewels were a luxury item that could not meet the demand in the Moon God Continent. At that time, he had collected a chest full of jewels from the Moonshine Tribe. Not to mention that he could not buy them, even if he could buy the same number of jewels, the price would not be something a small city lord like him could afford.

A city lord of elves was not as wealthy as a city lord of humans. They only had one more portion of income compared to the ordinary elves, and the rest was similar.

Without corruption, there would be no wealth.

The broken crystal coins could still be pieced together, but the gems...

What the heck!

What Vermilion Bird wanted was the gemstones of the Brilliance Continent!

The gems in the Brilliance Continent were even more expensive than those found in the Moon God Continent!

Besides, the gem trade with humans had been sealed off. Where could he get so many gems from the Brilliance Continent?

Duan Yuan wanted to negotiate with Vermilion Bird, but with Vermilion Bird’s attitude, he would not dare to speak even if he had ten guts!

Moreover, Duan Yuan did not have any reason to struggle. He had indeed lost the gems because he did not keep it well. He could not impact his family negatively because of his negligence.

However...

Where could she get so many gems?

Just as Duan Yuan was in a dilemma, Shen Yanxiao acted as if she had just discovered Shen Jing and chuckled. “You are Shen Jing?”

Shen Jing was slightly stunned. He was listening to the gossip at one side and was in a good mood. How did he get involved?

Looking at the cute little elf in front of him, Shen Jing had the mentality of appreciating all beautiful things and said with a smile, “That’s right. Little kid, have you heard of me?”

Shen Yanxiao nodded and said with an innocent appearance, “I’ve heard of it. They said that you came to the Moon God Continent to do some business regarding gems, but you were locked up because you did something bad.”

Shen Jing's expression twisted...

Crash!

How could such an adorable little kid say such hurtful words?

He merely had some overly intimate actions with a certain beautiful young lady, so how did it become a bad thing?

Which idiot spread this rumor? He would definitely beat him to death!

Shen Yanxiao's seemingly casual question had a series of effects when it entered Duan Yuan's ears.

There was a huge pile of ready-made gems waiting for him!

Duan Yuan narrowed his eyes and looked at Shen Jing.

Back then, Shen Jing came to Jadeite City with a large number of gems for sale, but they were locked up within a few days. The batch of gems Shen Jing brought was still in the storeroom of the mansion.

Those were gems from the Brilliance Continent!

Duan Yuan's gaze caused Shen Jing to tremble.

Why did he feel that his future father-in-law's gaze was so... terrifying?

Duan Yuan took a deep breath and said to the Vermilion Bird and Shen Yanxiao. "I will take care of this matter. You and the elves of the Moonshine Tribe should take a rest first. After that, I will take care of this matter perfectly and meet your expectations."

Shen Yanxiao smiled and hinted for Vermilion Bird to stop while he was ahead. Soon after, she went back into the mansion with the elves of the Moonshine Tribe to eat and drink as they waited for the news.

Chapter 1326: Compensation (5)

"Shen Jing, we must have a talk," Duan Yuan stared at Shen Jing and said.

Overwhelmed by the unexpected favor, Shen Jing looked at Duan Yuan. Didn't this' future father-in-law 'dislike' him? Why did he suddenly want to talk to him?

Shen Jing oddly felt horrified.

Two hours later, Shen Jing walked out of the dungeon in high spirits while Duan Yuan's expression was extremely ugly.

Duan Yuan had given Shen Yanxiao numerous gems and crystal coins as compensation.

Crystal coins were from his own pockets, while the jewels...

Looking at Shen Jing who regained his freedom at the side, she naturally knew the source.

Shen Yanxiao perfunctorily counted the number of gems before keeping them in her interspatial ring. However, she immediately gave Vermilion Bird a look, and at the sight of it, he jumped out to state his terms again.

“Let’s forget about this for the time being. However, you have to issue an announcement and inform all the elves in Jadeite City that the Moonshine Tribe is innocent. We still have to sell these gems in the Moonshine Trading House. If this incident affects the business of the Moonshine Trading House, then we won’t be able to do any business here.”

Duan Yuan nodded readily. How could he have the strength to resist when he had lost all his money? He only thought of ending the matter as soon as possible so that he could hug his deflated wallet and cry for a while.

Duan Yuan promised to issue a notice the next morning to clear the name of the Moonshine Tribe.

Only then did Shen Yanxiao withdraw her troops and leave the mansion with the Moonshine Tribe elves and Shen Jing in tow.

“Thank you.” An older elf from the Moonshine Tribe looked at Shen Yanxiao gratefully. The last condition that the Vermilion Bird proposed was too precious for them.

The Moonshine Tribe was carrying too much infamy and right now, they were trying their best to wash away their humiliation. If they were to bear another crime, it would only make things worse.

“You’re welcome. This is all because of the trouble I’ve brought you, so naturally, it has to be resolved.” Shen Yanxiao nodded with a smile. Everything that happened today was part of her plan.

Vermilion Bird’s clamor, her persuasion, cleaning Moonshine Tribe’s reputation, the lost jewels and crystal coins... and to save Shen Jing, this dishonest uncle of hers.

Shen Yanxiao had already planned everything in her mind. The effect was merely the result of her planning.

Never in his wildest dreams would Duan Yuan expect that he would be thoroughly scammed by this little girl.

Not only did he not know of Shen Yanxiao’s plan, but he even had a high evaluation of her due to her ‘good temper’.

The ignorant are so fortunate!

“I wonder if the two of you are willing to come to our tribe and have a seat? We would also like to thank you.” A Moonshine Tribe elf proposed.

Shen Yanxiao did not refuse. She wanted to go there anyway.

Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird accepted the Moonshine Tribe’s invitation. As for Shen Jing, an existence that was neglected by all elves, he came out in silence and said with a smile, “Then... can you count me in as well? I lost most of my belongings when I was detained. Please take me in for a day.”

The days of finally regaining freedom were wonderful, but he had mortgaged all the gems to Duan Yuan, so now he did not even have a single crystal coin on him. He was on the verge of starvation!

The Moonshine Tribe elves looked at Shen Jing with a complex expression. However, after hesitating for a moment, they still agreed to Shen Jing's request.

Chapter 1327: Moonshine Tribe (1)

The Moonshine Tribe's mansion was located on the east side of Jadeite City. Even though they had been demoted, the Moonshine Tribe's foundation was still there. From a black-level city to a white-level city, the Moonshine Tribe's strength would not decrease in the slightest because of that.

Shen Yanxiao and the crew followed the elves of the Moonshine Tribe all the way back. On the way back, Yue Shi and the rest were being very grateful to Shen Yanxiao, while also having pleasant conversation with her.

Shen Jing walked alone at the end of the group and looked at Vermilion Bird standing beside Shen Yanxiao with a face full of question marks.

He was 100% sure that this mythical beast was Vermilion Bird!

However, it was evident that Vermilion Bird did not want him to expose his identity. Therefore, Shen Jing could only shut his mouth.

Arriving at the estate of the Moonshine Tribe, Yue Shi knocked on the door, and it was soon opened. When a young elf saw Yue Shi and the other elves, he immediately revealed a surprised smile and opened the door before he shouted into the estate.

"Brother Yue Shi and the rest are back! They're back!"

This was the first time Shen Yanxiao had stepped into this elf tribe that was related to her by blood. As she looked at the numerous elves pouring out from the estate, all of them had indescribable joy on their faces as they surrounded their group.

"Brother Yue Shi, Uncle An Feng, you're finally back. The leader was dying of anxiety."

"Uncle An Feng, Brother An Ran is back! He passed the Silvermoon Guards selection test!"

A group of elves surrounded Yue Shi and the others and started a lively discussion.

When Shen Yanxiao heard the conversation point surrounding An Ran, she paid attention to it. The elf who was addressed as Uncle An Feng was the oldest among the imprisoned elves. When An Feng heard the news, his face immediately revealed pleasant surprise.

"Really?"

"Yes! They are all in the hall. Come here." The enthusiastic elves pulled Yue Shi and An Feng toward the hall while Shen Yanxiao and the rest followed behind.

A few elves of the Moonshine Tribe looked at Little Phoenix and Mini Dragon on Vermilion Bird's head with curiosity. Regardless of the race, adorable creatures were always the favorite of women and children.

In the main hall of the Moonshine Tribe, An Ran was restless as he constantly peered his eyes to look outside.

Seated at the head of the table was a beautiful and elegant female elf. Her gaze was as calm as water, and her noble face carried an awe-inspiring chilliness. At first glance, she looked to be in her thirties or forties, but closer inspection revealed a few fine wrinkles at the corner of her eyes.

She was the leader of the Moonshine Tribe, An Yan.

An Yan's elegant gaze swept across the anxious An Ran. When Duan Yuan released the elves of the Moonshine Tribe, he had asked his subordinates to deliver the news to the Moonshine Tribe. So right now, they were all waiting.

When Yue Shi and the rest appeared at the entrance of the hall, An Ran could no longer suppress his excitement and went up to welcome them.

"Father!" An Ran found An Feng among the crowd.

"You're back." An Feng looked at An Ran, who had been away from home for more than half a year, and felt mixed feelings.

"Yes." An Ran nodded. When he returned, the elves of the Moonshine Tribe had already been arrested. His father, An Feng, was responsible for the Moonshine Tribe's finances, so he was also implicated and imprisoned. He wanted to go to the city lord's mansion several times, but was always stopped by the leader, An Yan.

For the past few days, An Ran was like an ant in a pot of oil, constantly stirring around his sleep at night.

Chapter 1328: Moonshine Tribe (2)

An Ran smiled. Seeing that his father had returned safely, he could finally relax.

After they entered the hall, the elves around them immediately dispersed. None of them could act unbridled in front of their leader.

"Leader, we are back," An Feng knelt on one knee with Yue Shi and the rest and said to An Yan respectfully.

An Yan nodded expressionlessly.

"Get up."

Only then did An Feng and the others stand up.

"Have you found that customer?" An Yan asked.

An Feng said, "That's right. It was that customer who resolved the misunderstanding between us and the City Lord. Moreover, the City Lord promised that he would issue an announcement in Jadeite City tomorrow to clear our name."

A trace of joy surfaced in An Yan's calm eyes.

“That customer is now here.” An Feng said that, and Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird slowly walked out from the crowd.

When An Yan saw Shen Yanxiao for the first time, a crack suddenly appeared on her ice-cold face. She slightly widened her eyes and looked at this face that she found extremely familiar.

“Wen Ya...” An Yan subconsciously called out.

All the elves in the hall held their breaths. The instant An Ran saw Shen Yanxiao, his jaw dropped.

How could Yan Xiao be that customer?

What shocked An Ran even more was An Yan’s quiet murmur.

Wen Ya...

An Yan’s biological daughter, the former little princess of the Moonshine Tribe, had been selected to assume the position of a Saintess in Moonshine City, and she had almost married the Elf King.

She was also An Ran’s... elder sister.

An Yan and An Feng were a pair of siblings. When An Yan ascended to the position of the leader of the Moonshine Tribe, An Feng served by her side. Wen Ya was older than An Ran, and thus An Ran grew up under Wen Ya’s care. However, before he could fully understand the situation, Wen Ya had been forced to leave the Moon God Continent as a mixed-race.

However...

Why did An Yan call Shen Yanxiao “Wen Ya”?

A strange glint flashed past Shen Yanxiao’s eyes as she looked at the elegant female elf before her.

If there was a mirror right now, she believed that the reflection of herself and An Yan would be somewhat similar.

An Yan and Wen Ya looked alike, but Wen Ya was more gentle while An Yan was more cold and arrogant.

After all, An Yan was shouldering the honor and responsibility of the entire Moonshine Tribe.

“My name is Yan Xiao. Greetings, Leader An Yan.” Shen Yanxiao looked at her grandmother with a smile in her eyes.

An Yan came back to her senses and finally realized her mistake. She recovered her composure and looked at Shen Yanxiao with doubt in her eyes.

“I have to thank you for this.” An Yan softly expressed her thanks. Perhaps it was because the other party looked too similar to the daughter she had not seen for a long time, that An Yan’s tone had unknowingly become much gentler.

While many elves were sighing at An Yan’s call, a person that was overlooked by all the elves was thoroughly petrified by Shen Yanxiao’s ‘I am Yan Xiao’.

Shen Jing stared at that small back with his mouth agape. An incomparably horrifying conjecture surfaced in his mind.

Yan Xiao...

Shen Yanxiao...

Could it be, this little elf was actually their family's little girl!

Chapter 1329: Moonshine Tribe (3)

"This is all because of me that you are in this mess." Shen Yanxiao smiled and said, "Moreover, An Ran and I are friends; it is only right for me to resolve this matter."

An Yan was stunned. Only then did she notice that there was a badge of the Silvermoon Guards similar to An Ran's badge on Shen Yanxiao's chest.

Looking at Shen Yanxiao's age, she was convinced that Shen Yanxiao must have been selected together with An Ran.

"Since you are An Ran's friend, then you are a friend of our Moonshine Tribe." An Yan smiled, and elegance blossomed on her ice-cold face.

"If Yan Xiao does not mind, please stay in our Moonshine Tribe for a short period of time so that we can be a good host."

"I'll do as you say." Shen Yanxiao did not refuse. She wanted to search for her mother's past in the Moonshine Tribe.

An Yan asked An Ran to prepare a room for Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird while she discussed some things with the other elves of the tribe.

Just as An Ran and Shen Yanxiao walked out of the hall, a trace of urgency finally appeared on their faces.

"Yan Xiao, I didn't expect that the elf Yue Shi and the rest were talking about, was you." An Ran looked at Shen Yanxiao excitedly. This was a huge surprise.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and said. "I guess we are fated."

"I really have to thank you. If it weren't for you, I don't know how this matter would be resolved," An Ran said.

Shen Yanxiao said, "This is also a coincidence. Didn't I already intend to come to the Moonshine Tribe to look for you? Coincidentally, I was about to purchase some items at the Moonshine Trading House before I found out about it."

An Ran revealed an honest smile.

"Oh right, I have something for you." Shen Yanxiao remembered the bows that the Moonlight Tribe members had given her. She had already asked for their permission.

"Ah? What is it?" An Ran was surprised.

Shen Yanxiao immediately took out an exquisite bow and handed it to An Ran.

“This is... a bow forged by Great Master Cang Yan?” An Ran immediately identified the bow’s origin from the mark on the bow.

“That’s right,” Shen Yanxiao smiled and said.

“This is too precious! I can’t accept it. You have always been the one helping me, so how can I take your things?” Even though An Ran liked this bow, he did not dare to accept it.

It had been a long time since the two Grandmaster Blacksmiths of the Moonlight Tribe had personally crafted a bow. Even if they did, they would directly supply it to the elves in Moonshine City. Even if the elves in other cities had money, they could not buy it.

Shen Yanxiao had helped him a lot in the advanced training camp, and she had resolved the crisis of the Moonshine Tribe. He had yet to even thank her, so how could he accept her gifts?

Shen Yanxiao smiled and stuffed the bow into his hands.

“Don’t stand on ceremony with me. I didn’t give you this bow. Grandfather Cang Yan heard that you took good care of me in the advanced training camp and specially gave it to you. If you don’t want it, wouldn’t you be not giving him face? Besides, Grandfather Cang Yan and Great Master Lan Si had also given me a bow. Even if you were to return it to me, I wouldn’t need it.” Shen Yanxiao very wittily gave Cang Yan this favor.

As expected, after he heard what Shen Yanxiao said, An Ran’s face turned red and he looked embarrassed.

“Then help me thank Great Master Cang Yan.”

Chapter 1330: Moonshine Tribe (4)

An Ran was not a fool. He knew that Shen Yanxiao must have said something for him to receive the bow.

He was honestly ashamed. When did he ever take care of Shen Yanxiao? Instead, it was Shen Yanxiao who had provided him with a lot of great help during his time in the Pure Spirit Tower.

An Ran carefully touched the bow in his hand, while looking at it as if it was the most precious thing in the world.

The Moonshine Tribe was once a supreme tribe, but after they were demoted, the entire tribe’s financial capability had been greatly reduced. Coupled with the crime of colluding with humans, it had caused many elves to be hostile against them. It was now hard for the Moonshine Tribe to purchase good bows and potions from other tribes.

As for potions, the Moonshine Tribe still had their Grandmaster Herbalists, but they only had Great Blacksmiths.

An Ran arranged two simple, elegant rooms for Shen Yanxiao and Vermilion Bird. Shen Yanxiao, who had been staying in a very girly room for a long time, immediately felt extremely satisfied.

An Ran told Shen Yanxiao to look for him if she needed anything. Afterwards, he went to talk to his father and left.

Vermilion Bird did not even go into his room. Instead, he snuck into Shen Yanxiao's room and laid on Shen Yanxiao's bed, almost rolling around.

"I want to go to Moonshine City!" Vermilion Bird groaned as he laid on the bed.

Shen Yanxiao shot him a glance and said, "Sure." Moonshine City had no restrictions on magical beasts so Vermilion Bird could go as he pleased.

"That's more like it." Vermilion Bird snorted in satisfaction. He hugged Little Phoenix and Mini Dragon and began to roll around on the clean bed.

He wanted to leave his scent on Shen Yanxiao's bed!

1

Shen Yanxiao did not know whether to laugh or cry as she looked at the three adorable creatures acting cute together. She just allowed them to do as they pleased.

In the end, her care for Vermilion Bird was still lacking and she did not wish to continue leaving him outside. If they could enter Moonshine City together, they could take care of each other even if they could not stay together all the time.

At that moment, someone knocked on Shen Yanxiao's door.

Shen Yanxiao went to open the door, but when she opened it, she saw Shen Jing with a strange expression at her door.

Shen Yanxiao tilted her head and looked at Shen Jing with a faint smile.

Shen Jing cleared his throat and pointed to the room. "Can we talk inside?"

Shen Yanxiao slightly moved to the side to make way for Shen Jing.

Shen Jing eagerly rushed in. The moment he entered, he saw Vermilion Bird rolling over on the bed in a bad way...

That posture of acting cute was nowhere near his aura back when he was throwing a tantrum in the mansion.

"Third Uncle, are you having a good time in the Moon God Continent? It seems like grandfather doesn't have to worry." Shen Yanxiao closed the door and crossed her arms as she looked at Shen Jing calmly.

Shen Jing nearly choked on his saliva. He looked at Shen Yanxiao in surprise and said.

"You... Why did you become an elf?"

As Shen Yanxiao was still conversing with An Yan, Shen Jing was already starting to doubt her identity.

Even though her race and appearance were not the same, but Vermilion Bird and that name... it was hard for him not to associate them with that person.

Moreover, Shen Yanxiao's last sentence in the dungeon, whether intentional or unintentional, had reminded Duan Yuan of a way to solve his compensation problem, which had allowed Shen Jing to regain his freedom.

Why would a little elf suddenly ask him such a question for no reason?

After Shen Yanxiao and An Ran left, the more Shen Jing thought about it, the more he felt something was amiss. And thus, he secretly came over to inquire.

Unexpectedly, this little girl was so straightforward.. Before he could ask, she had already given him an answer.
