

The Good 1331

Chapter 1331: Moonshine Tribe (5)

Shen Yanxiao raised her brow and said, "Take a guess."

Shen Jing was speechless...

"Is it because of your mother?"

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

Shen Jing paused for a moment. "How are Father and the rest?"

Shen Yanxiao sat down on the chair and looked at this uncle that she was not familiar with. "Shen Duan and Shen Yue have conspired against the Vermilion Bird Family with a second class expert."

"What!" Shen Jing suddenly looked up, his eyes filled with shock.

"He... really did that? Why... Why would he be so heartless?"

Shen Yanxiao noticed something strange with Shen Jing's words. It was as if Shen Jing already knew Shen Duan's conniving thoughts.

Could it be, Shen Jing was also involved in Shen Duan's matter?

Shen Yanxiao's expression could not help but turn cold.

"Third Uncle, you were aware about this?"

The sloppy expression on Shen Jing's face had completely disappeared. He slumped on the chair and lowered his head while speaking in a muffled voice. "Perhaps it can be considered as being aware, or perhaps it can be considered as being unaware. I knew of Shen Duan's thoughts a long time ago, but at that time, no one in the Vermilion Bird Family could compete with him for the Family Head position. I thought... I thought he would be more well-behaved, but I did not expect..."

Shen Jing's voice turned sluggish.

He looked up at Shen Yanxiao.

Perhaps Shen Duan had always been the most likely candidate to become the Family Head, but after Shen Yanxiao signed the contract with Vermilion Bird, everything changed.

"Third Uncle, do you know something?" Shen Yanxiao vaguely sensed that the current Shen Jing gave her a completely different feeling from before.

Shen Jing forced a smile.

"So what if I know? Xiaoxiao, your third uncle is a coward and a piece of trash. I will only run away."

Shen Yanxiao frowned.

Shen Jing said, "I've let you down, Brother. I've let our parents down. I'm a sinner of the Vermilion Bird Family. Perhaps I have already sensed that the Vermilion Bird Family would greatly change after you signed the contract with Vermilion Bird. Therefore, I found an excuse to escape, but I didn't dare to say anything... I harmed my father and Shen Ling..."

"Xiaoxiao, did you know? I personally witnessed your uncle being killed by Shen Duan..." Shen Jing looked at Shen Yanxiao as his eyes overflowed with despair and self-blame.

"What!" Shen Yanxiao was stunned. She knew that her uncle's family was killed by Shen Duan, but even Shen Yue only found out about it later on. How could Shen Jing... If Shen Jing had collaborated with Shen Duan, then he would not have had to escape from the Vermilion Bird Family. However, Shen Jing's current appearance was clearly filled with guilt and despair.

Shen Jing said, "Xiaoxiao, you may think that I am a good-for-nothing. Indeed, I am a good-for-nothing and a coward! Back then, I wanted to look for your uncle to discuss some matters, but when I found him, I discovered that Shen Duan had secretly attacked your uncle. I was so frightened that I did not dare to utter a sound and could only hide in a corner. I did not dare to tell your grandfather because I knew that in the eyes of everyone in the Vermilion Bird Family, that I, Shen Jing, was trash. No one would believe my words, but Shen Duan has always been the son your grandfather values."

"About your parents... I've already guessed it. Shen Duan has always wanted to seize the Family Head position and your father, Shen Yu, is the son your grandfather values the most. Therefore, Shen Duan would never let him off. I once wanted to remind your father, but... it was to no avail. Xiaoxiao, I've let you down. I was too weak and made your parents..."

Chapter 1332: Moonshine Tribe (6)

The trash of the Vermilion Bird Family had always been Shen Jing before Shen Yanxiao returned.

Before Shen Yu was born, Shen Jing was a smart kid. Both Shen Feng and his mother highly regarded Shen Jing.

Shen Jing had grown up being viewed with great expectations. When he found out that Shen Yu was born, he snuck into the garden to stroll around during Shen Yu's first birthday. Everything that happened that night had changed his life.

At that time, Shen Jing was still young, but he clearly remembered that when he walked to the lotus pond, someone had pushed him from behind.

Shen Jing was like a duck in dry water. He fell into the water and struggled continuously. Soon, the ice-cold water drowned him.

If it were not for the servants who happened to pass by and discovered him, he probably would not have survived.

After that night, Shen Jing fell sick and had a high fever. He laid on the bed for half a month.

Ever since then, Shen Jing had changed from a handsome young man to a wastrel.

He no longer revised his poems or trained in magic. It was as if he had a change of personality. He would cause trouble everywhere like other children of his age. He tore the books in his room page by page and stacked all sorts of small items throughout the Vermilion Bird Family.

Shen Feng and Shen Jing's mother were nearly angered to death by Shen Jing. As a result, Shen Feng had beaten Shen Jing up quite a number of times. However, after the beating was complete, Shen Jing still went around causing trouble again.

Everyone knew that a genius young master of the Vermilion Bird Family had become an ignorant and incompetent little scoundrel after he fell sick.

At that time, due to Shen Yu's birth, Shen Feng did not pay much attention to Shen Jing. As Shen Yu gradually grew up, the smart and outstanding Shen Yu gradually caused Shen Feng to overlook Shen Jing's changes. Instead of teaching Shen Jing a lesson all day long, Shen Feng would rather pay more attention to nurturing a good seedling like Shen Yu.

Shen Jing matured under the constant insults and slowly became the most inconspicuous young master in the Vermilion Bird Family.

Ever since his personality had changed, that tragedy had never happened again.

Shen Jing had never told anyone of this.

That night, when he fell into the pool, he clearly saw a familiar figure.

It was a handsome young man and his appearance was somewhat similar. However, Shen Jing could see intense hatred and killing intent on his face.

With Shen Jing's intellect, he understood everything very quickly. Therefore, he restrained his sharpness and concealed his strength and bided his time. He was no longer dazzling. He had cut off his wings and only wanted to live in silence.

No matter why that person had pushed him that night, he was still his brother in Shen Jing's heart.

However, Shen Jing did not expect that even if he had already laid low, that person would still not restrain himself.

Elders Brother, Shen Yu... all the brothers who could compete with that person for the Family Head position had been murdered. Shen Jing was in despair.

Facing his dead brothers, he was filled with guilt. Facing a certain ruthless brother, he still had a trace of hope.

Perhaps...

Perhaps as long as he got what he wanted, the Vermilion Bird Family would no longer face any disasters.

However, Shen Jing was wrong, ridiculously wrong.

Shen Yanxiao's appearance had shattered everything and pushed the Vermilion Bird Family that had been peaceful for a long time into the endless abyss.

Shen Jing did not hate anyone. There was only infinite sadness in his heart.

They were his family, his brothers.

Chapter 1333: Moonshine Tribe (7)

If there was anyone who cherished this family more than Shen Feng, it would be Shen Jing.

Even if he knew who had harmed him back then, he was willing to endure and maintain the kinship between brothers. He could abandon everything and swallow his pride to turn from a genius that was surrounded by stars to a profligate son that everyone despised.

However, it was precisely because of that trace of kindness in his heart that caused the tragedy of his other two brothers.

“Xiaoxiao, how are Father and Shen Ling?” Shen Jing regretted his previous cowardice. His eyes were bloodshot. He hated himself and felt despair for Shen Duan.

If Shen Duan could be so heartless as to hurt Shen Feng and Shen Ling, then he would be heartless as well and eliminate Shen Duan!

Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Jing. At that moment, Shen Jing felt unfamiliar. Shen Yanxiao seemed to see a reflection of Shen Feng’s temperament on his body.

That kind of determination and decisiveness could not belong to a wastrel.

Shen Jing’s eyes were filled with hatred and despair, but he was so wise and farsighted.

His intelligence had exceeded most of the people Shen Yanxiao knew in the Brilliance Continent.

Shen Yanxiao was slightly surprised. Shen Feng had always said that her father, Shen Yu, was the smartest among all his sons. However, Shen Yanxiao thought that Shen Jing’s wisdom was likely not inferior to his father.

However, he chose to restrain his sharpness and preserve the harmony of the Vermilion Bird Family.

If not for that, Shen Duan would have killed him long ago.

“Grandfather and Fifth Uncle are doing well. They are currently living in Sun Never Sets. I have killed Shen Duan, Shen Yue, and Shen Yifeng,” Shen Yanxiao calmly said.

Shen Jing was surprised.

“Third Uncle, I don’t know why you have endured for so many years, but I want to tell you that raising a tiger is detrimental. No matter how many concessions you make, it will not make the tiger feel any gratitude or develop restraint. They will only become more and more excessive. Only by eliminating them can we eliminate future troubles,” Shen Yanxiao said in a cold tone.

Shen Jing forced a smile. “But... they are my brothers in the end...” He did not want his father to see the scene of brothers killing each other at his old age.

Perhaps he was weak, or perhaps he was too soft-hearted. But that was Shen Jing.

He would rather compromise to protect the Vermilion Bird Family’s stability.

“They will not regard the people in front of them as their brothers. Be it my uncle or my father, they are their enemies.” Shen Yanxiao was exceptionally calm. She had been on the verge of death for so long in her previous life that she could see through everything.

She would repay those who treated her sincerely.

If they wanted to harm her, she would not show mercy even if they were siblings.

Mercy to the enemy was cruelty to oneself.

“Your personality is indeed different from your parents.” Shen Jing looked at Shen Yanxiao who spoke in a ruthless tone, and his eyes were filled with surprise. Probably no one else in the Vermilion Bird Family could be as ruthless as her.

Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She did not know the personality of the original owner of this body, but from the day she replaced her, she started to persevere with her will.

An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth.

“However, if your parents could see your current appearance, they would be satisfied. Their daughter has grown to be very decisive,” Shen Jing smiled and said.

Chapter 1334: Moonshine Tribe (8)

Shen Yanxiao remained silent.

Shen Jing looked at Shen Yanxiao with a gentle smile.

“Xiaoxiao, if you go to Moonshine City, perhaps you can meet your parents.”

“They... are they really still alive?” Shen Yanxiao’s expression finally cracked.

She had always suspected that Shen Yu and Wen Ya were still alive. Although she had vaguely guessed something from the elves, Shen Yanxiao was not sure.

However, Shen Jing’s words had confirmed that fact.

Shen Jing said, “Back then when Shen Duan and the rest attacked, your mother used her source of life to protect her and Shen Yu’s lives. Your mother could rely on her source of life to detoxify the toxicity in her body, but your father could not. At that time, your father had entered a state of suspended animation and even though your mother tried her best, she could not completely heal him. Therefore, she chose to bring your father back to the Moon God Continent with the intention of recovering your father’s vitality through the Tree of Life. Unfortunately... They were arrested when they were in Moonshine City, and I am now not sure about their current situation. I was in contact with Duan Xue previously because I wanted her to help me inquire about your parents, but Duan Yuan misunderstood my intentions.”

Shen Jing’s expression looked somewhat awkward. He had been a good-for-nothing for so many years that he had become accustomed to acting sloppy in front of others. When Duan Yuan bumped into him, he had subconsciously changed into that facade, which was why Duan Yuan had misunderstood and locked him up.

Shen Yanxiao nodded. No wonder Duan Xue did not feel any repulsion when Duan Yuan mentioned Shen Jing.

Her parents were still alive and were currently in Moonshine City!

As Shen Jing spoke, he took out a small purple seed from his interspatial ring.

“I see the badge of the Silvermoon Guards on your chest. With that, you can definitely enter Moonshine City. This Purple Night Seed is the key to saving your father. After you enter Moonshine City, you must think of a way to find them and hand this seed to your mother. Only then can you save your father.”

Shen Jing placed the seed of hope in Shen Yanxiao’s palm.

He was a human. No matter how smart he was, he could not enter Moonshine City. He could only rely on Duan Xue, who was about to assume the position of Saintess, to investigate Shen Yu and Wen Ya’s situation. He originally intended to have Duan Xue hand over this seed after she had investigated their situation.

But with Shen Yanxiao here, everything became much simpler.

“This seed belongs to the God race. The God race has been extinct for a long time. It must have taken him a lot of time for him to find it,” Xiu’s voice sounded in Shen Yanxiao’s mind.

Shen Yanxiao stared at the small purple seed in her palms.

After the war between the gods and devils, the God race had been completely destroyed. Everything about the God race had become a legend in history.

She did not dare to imagine how much effort Shen Jing had exerted to find this Purple Night Seed.

For so many years, Shen Jing often went out. On the surface, he said that he was enjoying himself outside, but who knew that he was spending all his time searching for this seed.

Perhaps Shen Jing was too kind, but his kinship with his brothers was more sincere than anyone else.

“Right now, I only have Shen Ling and your father as my brothers. Xiaoxiao, promise me that you will not let me lose any more.” Shen Jing looked at Shen Yanxiao. He could tell that his little niece possessed strength that he could not surpass. He believed that if it were her, she would be able to accomplish it.

Shen Yanxiao clenched her fist and nodded.

“I promise you.”

Chapter 1335: Moonshine Tribe (9)

Shen Jing smiled.

“Grandfather and the rest are staying in Sun Never Sets in the Forsaken Land. You can enter from the border of the Longxuan Empire. The demons there will not attack humans.” Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Jing with a trace of gratitude in her eyes.

“Why would they live in the Forsaken Land?” Shen Jing did not understand for a moment. The Forsaken Land was a restricted area in the Brilliance Continent.

Shen Yanxiao touched her nose and said, “I participated in the Inter-academy Tournament and won the championship. On the way, I occupied a few cities in the Forsaken Land and asked Grandfather and the rest to move there.”

Shen Jing's expression immediately turned horrified. He looked at Shen Yanxiao with an expression of disbelief.

His niece...

What earth-shattering thing had she done!

Shen Jing was well aware of how difficult it was to gain a foothold in the Forsaken Land. What was more terrifying was that not only did Shen Yanxiao gain a foothold, but she had also 'occupied several cities'.

Seriously!

"Okay... I'll go..." Shen Jing was in a trance. His niece was too savage!

Shen Yanxiao kept the Purple Night Seed in her space ring and chatted with Shen Jing about Shen Feng and Shen Ling's situation. Shen Jing also asked Shen Yanxiao what she had done in the Forsaken Land.

After the conversation ended, Shen Jing felt as if he had been in a dream.

Everything he heard seemed so unimaginable.

"Xiaoyu... your daughter is too savage... much more savage than you were back then..." Shen Jing mumbled in a trance. Under Shen Yanxiao's gaze, he staggered out of the room. It would take Shen Jing some time to digest the contents of their afternoon conversation.

After Shen Jing left, Shen Yanxiao started thinking about how to find her parents in Moonshine City.

Even though she had entered the Silvermoon Guards, it was still unknown where she would be assigned to.

But Shen Jing gave her a clue.

Duan Xue might be a good helper.

The status of a Saintess in Moonshine City was second only to the Elf King and was on the same level as an elder of the elves.

They could walk around Moonshine City at will.

From what Shen Jing said, Duan Xue should be very helpful.

"It seems like I have to see Duan Xue before I go to Moonshine City." Shen Yanxiao touched her chin. Finally, there was some progress.

At night, in order to thank Shen Yanxiao, the elves of the Moonshine Tribe specially held a banquet. Fresh fruits and sweet wine were served, even Shen Jing participated in the banquet.

Accompanied by An Ran, An Feng expressed his thanks to Shen Yanxiao for taking care of An Ran in the advanced training camp.

Shen Yanxiao was happy as she drank, but she had a strange feeling deep down. If she were to calculate, An Feng and her maternal grandmother were of the same generation and An Ran should be her uncle...

It was a strange feeling to be regarded as a benefactor by her uncle.

Shen Jing seemed to have returned to normal as he happily befriended the female elves of the Moonshine Tribe. He even invited a beautiful female elf to dance at the opening of the banquet.

Shen Yanxiao found it hard to believe that this Shen Jing at night was the same person as Shen Jing in the afternoon.

Wasn't his speed of changing himself too fast and skilled?

While Shen Yanxiao was observing her surroundings, a pair of loving eyes stared at her without blinking.

Ever since the banquet started, An Yan's gaze never shifted away from Shen Yanxiao.

Every frown and smile reminded her of her daughter... Wen Ya.

Chapter 1336: Moonshine Tribe (10)

Shen Yanxiao chatted with An Ran for a long time. As a result, she was forced to drink a lot of wine by many elves who came to thank her. Her mind was a little muddled. She immediately found an excuse to leave and ran to the Moonshine Tribe's garden to sober up.

The air in the Moon God Continent was very fresh. After Shen Yanxiao sat in the quiet garden for a while, she felt that her mind was much clearer.

"You drank a lot?" A gentle voice sounded behind Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao turned around and saw An Yan in a moon-white long dress standing under the moonlight, looking as elegant as a goddess.

Shen Yanxiao immediately stood up.

"Leader An Yan."

An Yan smiled. The smile of an icy beauty was usually the most fascinating.

"You don't have to be so reserved. You are a guest of the Moonshine Tribe."

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

An Yan was her maternal grandmother, but she looked like a noble woman in her early thirties.

It was hard to associate her with Shen Feng.

"You resemble my daughter," An Yan looked at Shen Yanxiao and said straightforwardly.

"Really? That is my honor," Shen Yanxiao smiled and said.

"You might have heard of it. My daughter is mixed-race and my husband is a human. He wandered to the Moon God Continent during the war. I only have my daughter left with me, Wen Ya. Your appearance is very similar to when Wen Ya was still an elf. However, she was much quieter while you are very lively." There was a trace of affection in An Yan's eyes. Perhaps she had temporarily placed her thoughts about her daughter on Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao smiled but said nothing. She could sense that An Yan missed Wen Ya.

It was very likely that An Yan knew that Wen Ya was still alive and was in Moonshine City. However, as the leader of the Moonshine Tribe, she could not do anything as she still had an entire tribe of elves to protect.

"I was surprised to see you. My daughter once had a child, and I thought you were her child." An Yan chuckled and rubbed Shen Yanxiao's head.

"I often wonder if that little girl would look for them if she knew that her parents were still alive. Unfortunately, that little girl has always been far away in the Brilliance Continent. If she were to come, I would tell her that if she wanted to look for her parents, she would have to go to Moonshine City. Once she enters the city, she must conceal her identity. The Elf King does not like mixed-race, so she must be careful." An Yan looked up at the moonlight as if she was talking to herself, but also to Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao was stunned.

"If that little girl is here, she should call me grandmother." An Yan chuckled.

"It's getting late, and you must be tired tonight. Go and rest early." An Yan did not give Shen Yanxiao a chance to speak and left first.

Shen Yanxiao looked at An Yan's back with surprise.

An Yan... knew who she was!

An Yan's previous words were clearly a reminder for her to conceal her identity when entering Moonshine City.

However...

When did An Yan discover that she was her granddaughter?

Shen Yanxiao stood under the moonlight, filled with doubts. Looking at An Yan's departing back, she softly called out, "Grandmother."

There was a slight pause in An Yan's steps. She did not turn back but she quickly recovered her senses very soon and walked back towards the banquet.

Chapter 1337: Trouble (1)

For the next few days, Shen Yanxiao stayed in the Moonshine Tribe, but she did not have any contact with An Yan.

She took out all the gems in her interspatial ring and placed them all in the Moonshine Trading House for sale. She wanted to leave some high-quality gems for the elves of the Moonshine Tribe, but they rejected her offer.

Shen Yanxiao had always wanted to see Duan Xue, but before she could find her, Duan Xue had already arrived at the Moonshine Tribe.

When the gentle Duan Xue appeared in the Moonshine Tribe, it caused a commotion. When she revealed that she was here to look for Shen Jing, the reaction of the elves was even more interesting.

Everyone knew that Shen Jing was imprisoned in the dungeon because he coveted Duan Xue's beauty. However, no one expected that Duan Xue would take the initiative to look for Shen Jing.

The mystery behind this was not something an elf could imagine.

The elves of the Moonshine Tribe looked at Duan Xue with ambiguous expressions.

Just based on the fact that their leader's husband was a human, they subconsciously started to think of something. Could it be that Duan Xue had taken a fancy to Shen Jing?

Speaking of which, Shen Jing's appearance was pretty good and he had a good personality. However, he made them the impression that he was frivolous and indecent. They honestly did not think that Shen Jing was a good choice.

In fact, if Shen Jing and Shen Yu were not brothers, they probably would not have taken Shen Jing in.

Shen Jing was called over by the elves of the Moonshine Tribe when he was sunbathing. The moment he saw Duan Xue, he immediately beamed with joy.

"Xiao Xue, you're here to see me? I haven't seen you in a long time. I miss you so much." Shen Jing revealed a flirtatious smile, and the words coming out of his lips were ambiguous.

The other elves shook their heads and sighed.

What was wrong with Duan Xue? How would she fancy such an ignorant and incompetent human?

Duan Xue smiled gently.

Shen Jing hurried over and completely disregarded the other elves' gazes as he pulled Duan Xue's hand and walked inside.

"Come on, Xiao Xue. I have a stomach full of yearning for you. I want to confess it to you."

The elves of the Moonshine Tribe all vomited.

Shen Jing brought Duan Xue to his room and the frivolous smile on his face immediately disappeared.

"Xiao Xue, wait a moment. I want to introduce an elf to you."

"Sure." Duan Xue nodded with a smile.

Shen Jing immediately went to look for Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao was dragged into the room by Shen Jing. The moment she entered, she saw Duan Xue who had a gentle smile on her face.

"Xiao Xue, Xiaoxiao is about to enter Moonshine City. She might be one of the members of the Silvermoon Guards that would escort you into the city. If you have any leads on the matter I asked of you, tell Xiaoxiao directly, as I have handed the item to her." It was rare for Shen Jing to have a serious expression.

“Alright.” Duan Xue had no objections.

Shen Yanxiao crossed her arms and looked at Duan Xue and Shen Jing calmly. She did not know when Shen Jing revealed his true colors in front of Duan Xue and how he persuaded her to help.

However...

Why did she feel that Duan Xue treated her Third Uncle a little...

“Xiaoxiao, take care of Xiaoxue when the time comes. You are not aware of the situation in Moonshine City. It will be great if you two can take care of each other.” Shen Jing did not notice anything.

“No problem. Xiao Xue, I’ll have to trouble you in the future,” Shen Yanxiao smiled and said to Duan Xue.

“Nothing much. I met Sister Wen Ya when I was young, and I like her very much. I will also be very happy if I can help you,” Duan Xue said gently.

Chapter 1338: Trouble (2)

Shen Yanxiao was surprised that Duan Xue had met Wen Ya. No wonder Duan Xue was willing to help.

Just as Shen Yanxiao was preparing to continue discussing with Duan Xue about their excursion to Moonshine City, An Ran suddenly pushed open Shen Yanxiao’s door with signs of anxiousness in his eyes.

“Yan Xiao.”

“What’s wrong?” Shen Yanxiao looked at An Ran who broke in.

“The people from the Qingyuan Tribe are here.” An Ran frowned.

“Qingyuan Tribe?” For a moment, Shen Yanxiao could not recall which tribe it was.

An Ran said, “Shui Ling is from the Qingyuan Tribe. I don’t know where they got the news that you are here, but they have come to find us. Maybe it’s because of Shui Ling’s death, but the leader asked me to take you away through the back door.” The Qingyuan Tribe and the Moonshine Tribe had been at odds for a long time. After the Moonshine Tribe was demoted and banished to Jadeite City, the elves from the Qingyuan Tribe had caused them no lack of trouble.

“Why should I leave?” Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. It had been a long time since Shui Ling’s incident, and she honestly did not expect there to be a continuation of this matter.

An Ran anxiously said, “Shui Ling’s brother, Shui Miao, is an elf who was selected to join the Silvermoon Guards a few years back. Today, he brought the elves from the Qingyuan Tribe here. Shui Ling and Shui Miao have a good relationship. It will not be a good thing for Shui Miao to come and find you. It will be better for you to avoid him for the time being.”

“Who is that Shui Ling? Why is his death related to Xiaoxiao?” Shen Jing frowned. Shen Yanxiao had just come to the Moon God Continent not long ago and she had just come out from the advanced training camp. How did she get involved in a murder case?

Shen Yanxiao explained, "An elf who entered the training camp at the same time as me. I found him an eyesore so I sparred with him. How would I know that he passed away in a daze?" Because of An Ran and Duan Xue, Shen Yanxiao could not reveal the matter of pollution and could only answer casually.

"..." Shen Jing's expression was complex. He had yet to fully adapt to Shen Yanxiao's change.

"It's not like that. Yan Xiao only got into a conflict with Shui Ling because of me..." An Ran immediately said. If not for him, Shen Yanxiao would not have gotten into a conflict with Shui Ling.

That incident had always made An Ran feel guilty.

"In any case, I don't like him." Shen Yanxiao did not blame An Ran in the slightest. Instead, she was afraid that he would blame himself, so she insisted that she disliked Shui Ling.

Shen Jing was smart enough to guess the truth.

"Is the Qingyuan Tribe a very high-ranked tribe?" Shen Jing was more concerned about the weight of this problem.

An Ran nodded.

"Before the Moonshine Tribe was demoted, our two tribes were on the same level."

If the Moonshine Tribe was still the former Moonshine Tribe, it would not be a problem even if An Yan were to forcefully protect Shen Yanxiao. However, after they were demoted, the Moonshine Tribe's rank was far inferior to the Qingyuan Tribe. In the face of these problems, they had many restrictions. Even if An Yan wanted to protect Shen Yanxiao, she could only do it secretly. A tribe from a white-level city could not compete with a tribe from a black-level city.

"Tsk tsk, was that Shui Ling really killed by Xiaoxiao?" Shen Jing touched his chin. He did not mind that Shen Yanxiao's hands were stained with blood. He was only considering if there was a more peaceful solution to this problem.

"Would Shui Miao believe me if I said no? The generals of the advanced training camp have already announced that I had nothing to do with this, but they still came. Regardless of the real reason, they have already determined that I was the culprit." Shen Yanxiao sneered.

Chapter 1339: Trouble (3)

Shen Jing frowned. He knew that was the truth.

"It's better to avoid unnecessary trouble. Shui Miao is a member of the Silvermoon Guards and if you were to get into a conflict with him right now, you will certainly encounter trouble in the future. Listen to the leader and leave first." An Ran was somewhat anxious.

Shen Yanxiao glanced at An Ran and said, "Since the Qingyuan Tribe has come looking for us, they will not rest until we give them an explanation. Is asking me to leave An Yan's idea or yours?"

An Ran was slightly stunned and signs of panic appeared on his handsome face.

Shen Yanxiao stood up and looked at the nervous An Ran. "You want to apologize to the elves of the Qingyuan Tribe on my behalf, right?"

Although it was logical to leave through the back door, Shen Yanxiao believed An Yan would not do that.

This was clearly An Ran's idea. He wanted her to leave the Moonshine Tribe for the time being so that she would not discover what he was about to do.

Only when Shen Yanxiao left could An Ran take Shen Yanxiao's place and apologize to Shui Miao.

An Ran's complexion instantly turned pale. He looked at Shen Yanxiao and opened his mouth, but no words came out.

He was the cause of Shui Ling's incident. Shen Yanxiao had helped him too much, and he did not want her to be further implicated by his problem.

"Isn't it just a tribe? I'll go and meet them. I believe they won't be unreasonable." Shen Yanxiao smiled casually, as if this matter could be resolved by a simple discussion. However, there was no trace of a smile in her eyes.

Before An Ran could answer, Shen Yanxiao had already stepped out of the room.

An Ran's expression changed and he immediately chased after her, leaving only Duan Xue and Shen Jing in the room.

"Xiao Xue, do you want to go and have a look?" Shen Jing asked with a cheeky smile. He wanted to know how his niece would handle this matter.

Duan Xue nodded.

Outside the gate of the Moonshine Tribe, a tall and handsome elf was standing there with dozens of elves wearing the badge of the Qingyuan Tribe.

Standing before them were the Moonlight Elves led by An Yan.

"Shui Miao, what exactly do you want to do today?" An Feng stared at Shui Miao and asked.

Shui Miao said in a cold voice, "What are you doing? That's what I want to ask you. Why did you hide the culprit that killed my brother in the estate for no reason? What are your intentions? Although our Qingyuan Tribe is at odds with your Moonshine Tribe, this has nothing to do with you, and I don't wish to find trouble with you. As long as you hand over that elf named Yan Xiao, I will immediately leave your gates."

An Yan looked at Shui Miao with a calm expression and her voice slowly sounded.

"Yan Xiao is a guest of the Moonshine Tribe, and we would never hand over their guests."

"It seems like you are determined to protect her?" Shui Miao sneered.

Shui Miao was considered as one of the top elves in the Qingyuan Tribe. Otherwise, he would not have passed the selection test of the Silvermoon Guards a few years ago. Shui Miao had been guarding Moonshine City until he returned to the tribe not long ago. It was only then that he heard that his brother had been killed by an elf in the advanced training camp!

It had to be known that Shui Miao and Shui Ling were twins. Although Shui Miao was not satisfied with his younger brother's talents, blood was still thicker than water. His younger brother had died mysteriously, so how could he possibly let the matter go?

Chapter 1340: Trouble (4)

An Yan did not reply. She could not avoid today's incident.

She only had one thought in her mind. She would not hand Shen Yanxiao over to Shui Miao!

"I might not be able to deal with the Moonshine Tribe in the past, but the current Moonshine Tribe..." Shui Miao sneered. The Moonshine Tribe was at the end of its rope, and they were a notch lower than the Qingyuan Tribe in terms of rank alone. Shui Miao had relied on his abilities to rise up in the Silvermoon Guards. Other than the head captain and the five Young Masters, he could be said to have the most power.

Even if he wanted to force his way into the Moonshine Tribe, the elves of the Moonshine Tribe would not be able to stop him. Coupled with the fact that the Moonshine Tribe's status in the Elf King's heart had plummeted, he was not worried that any problems would arise.

Shui Miao's words made the elves of the Moonshine Tribe furious.

Back then, the Moonshine Tribe and the Qingyuan Tribe fought against each other. They had been fighting openly and covertly for many years, but none of them could do anything to the other. It could be said that before Wen Ya's accident, the Moonshine Tribe could steadily suppress the Qingyuan Tribe.

But right now, they were humiliated by Shui Miao!

How could the elves of the Moonshine Tribe not be angry?

No matter how much the Moonshine Tribe had been demoted, it was still their most cherished home!

"The current Moonshine Tribe is not something you can deal with." An icy female voice suddenly sounded.

The elves outside the gate looked over in surprise.

Shen Yanxiao slowly walked out from the door. With an arrogant smile on her delicate face, she looked at the extremely arrogant Shui Miao with her cold eyes.

Shui Miao looked at Shen Yanxiao in surprise. Standing on the stone steps, her originally petite figure required the group of elves from the Qingyuan Tribe to look up at her.

Looking at the other party's age and the badge of the Silvermoon Guards on Shen Yanxiao's chest, Shui Miao soon guessed her identity.

Earlier on, the elves of his tribe told him that the elf who killed his brother, Shui Ling, had passed the selection test of the Silvermoon Guards. For many years, she was the only elf in the Silvermoon Guards that had yet to reach adulthood. Additionally, she was a female elf. With so many characteristics matching, it was not hard to guess Shen Yanxiao's identity.

An Yan was surprised to see Shen Yanxiao.

“You are Yan Xiao?” Shui Miao narrowed his eyes and coldly looked at the little elf who killed his brother.

If not for Shui Ling, Shui Miao would not have found such a little girl.

“That’s right.” Shen Yanxiao raised her brow and crossed her arms in an arrogant posture.

“At least you have the courage. Since you came out to court death, then I don’t have to trouble you with the Moonshine Tribe.” Shui Miao sneered.

“Whether you can cause trouble for the Moonshine Tribe will also depend on your abilities. I did not come out because I was afraid that you would cause trouble for the Moonshine Tribe. After all, it is impossible for a clown like you to cause trouble in the Moonshine Tribe. Leader An Yan is being magnanimous by not bickering with a junior like you. Do you honestly think you are that capable? I merely came out because I could not stand it that a bastard like you, who does not know his limits, had disturbed their peace.” Shen Yanxiao impolitely revealed her poisonous tongue and a set of sharp words, causing Shui Miao to lose face.

She secretly mocked Shui Miao for being a clown that could not accomplish anything. At the same time, she also raised the status of the Moonshine Tribe by a lot. It was really a pleasant feeling.

Shen Yanxiao’s words immediately won the favor of the Moonshine Tribe elves.
