

The Good 1361

Chapter 1361: A Wave Of Unrest Has Started Again (2)

An Ran looked at Shen Yanxiao. No one knew Shen Yanxiao's strength better than him. During the Silvermoon Guards selection test, Shen Yanxiao had already broken through to the silver elf level. Other than Shui Miao who had entered Moonshine City, probably no other elf in the Qingyuan Tribe could compete with Shen Yanxiao.

At the very least, An Ran had never heard of any elf who could break through to silver level before entering Moonshine City.

Shui Miao might also be a silver elf and his real strength was probably on par with Shen Yanxiao. However, his brain was not as quick as Shen Yanxiao, so he would be easily destroyed by her.

"I'm not afraid if they were to challenge you to a one-on-one fight. I'm just afraid that they would use their tribe's name to suppress you. Do you want to ask the seniors of the Moonlight Tribe to help?" An Ran was more or less worried. Even though Shen Yanxiao was powerful in a one-on-one fight, she would have to face an entire tribe.

When Shui Miao came to provoke them, the Moonshine Tribe could not protect Shen Yanxiao completely. Now that they had come out in full strength, even if An Yan disregarded the safety of the tribe, she would not be able to protect Shen Yanxiao due to the difference in their ranks.

Only the Moonlight Tribe could suppress the Qingyuan Tribe.

Shen Yanxiao shook her head. She did not want to alarm those adorable and respectable grandfathers of the Moonlight Tribe. They had taken good enough care of her. If she were to push her luck and beg for their protection, she would be a coward.

"Counter soldiers with arms, water with earth. If they want to come, let them come. I'd like to see if they dare to touch me in public without any reason." Shen Yanxiao sneered. The world of elves was different from the world of humans. With the reign of the Elf King, all violations of elvish law would be punished.

No matter if it was a supreme tribe or a supreme elf, no one dared to violate the will of the Elf King.

Otherwise, Shen Yanxiao would not have used the rules of the advanced training camp to force the furious Shui Miao to fight her.

"Be careful." An Ran sighed. Shen Yanxiao really did not like to seek help. At least until now, she had resolved several crises on her own, and she had never alerted anyone.

Shen Yanxiao nodded and asked An Ran about something she had been thinking about for several days.

"An Ran, Su Qian and Su Chen are not truly elves of the Moonshine Tribe. If I were to say that I want them to join the Moonlight Tribe, do you think it's possible?" Shen Yanxiao really liked these two elves. She had also come to Jadeite City with the intention of finding some fresh blood for the Moonlight Tribe. Generally speaking, it was unlikely for elves of the tribe to leave their tribe and join other tribes. Su Qian and Su Chen's situation was very special. Moreover, they had yet to wear the badge of the Moonshine Tribe.

In addition, even though these two little guys were shy, they were smart. Joining the Moonlight Tribe was also a good choice.

“Let them... join the Moonlight Tribe?” An Ran widened his eyes in disbelief.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and said. “That’s what I have in mind. I’ll have to discuss the details with Elder Yue. However, it shouldn’t be a big problem. I’m just afraid that Su Qian’s grandfather would not agree.”

“I will inform him about this. It should not be a problem.” An Ran immediately agreed. It was definitely a good option for Su Qian and Su Chen to enter the Moonlight Tribe.

Chapter 1362: A Wave Of Unrest Has Started Again (3)

Su Qian and Su Chen’s grandfather was an old man around the age of seventy. When the tribe was in trouble, he brought Su Chen and Su Qian to the Moonshine Tribe alone.

In the world of elves, elves would stay in various cities according to their parent’s rank before they reached adulthood. Only after they reached adulthood would they undergo a rank test and be assigned to other cities.

Su Qian and Su Chen’s grandfather was a black elf with a black badge named Su Yue. No one knew why he would bring his two grandchildren to the demoted Moonshine Tribe.

An Ran found Su Yue and explained Shen Yanxiao’s intentions to Su Yue. The old man merely remained silent for a moment before he nodded and agreed to Shen Yanxiao’s suggestion.

After Shen Yanxiao received the news, she directly wrote a letter to Elder Yue. In the letter, she only mentioned Su Qian and Su Chen, these two children. She did not mention a single word about the trouble she encountered.

Shen Yanxiao intended to bring Su Qian and Su Chen to Wind City and hand them over to Elder Yue before she left for Moonshine City. She also intended to tell him about herself.

With the matter settled, Shen Yanxiao did not think much about the Qingyuan Tribe. If the enemy did not move, she would not move. She would wait and see.

Unfortunately, things didn’t go as planned.

One morning, five sage-like old men appeared at the entrance of the Moonshine Tribe.

When the elf guarding the gate saw the tribal badge on their chests, his jaw nearly dropped.

One of the guards stumbled toward the Moonshine Tribe and screamed like a pig being slaughtered along the way.

“Leader... leader, the seniors of the Moonlight Tribe have arrived...”

Shen Yanxiao, who was currently in her room, was hastily dragged into the hall by An Ran.

When she saw the old man who was chatting with An Yan in the hall, her expression was extremely horrified.

“Grandpa Wu En... why are you here?” It had only been two days since she delivered the letter, and with the exception of Elder Yue and Lan Si, everyone from the Moonlight Tribe had set off.

Wu En, Cang Yan, Liang Qiu, Qing Xuan, Jing You...

These five elves whose names had shocked the world had appeared in the Moonshine Tribe at the same time. All of them looked at Shen Yanxiao with loving gazes.

“Xiao’Er, we know about what you told Wu Yue. Hurry and bring those two little guys here to meet us.” Wu En practically could not wait to speak. His pair of eyes were shining with green light; he looked as if he was hungry for food.

He was really not polite at all.

Shen Yanxiao was speechless as she looked up at the sky. She had belittled the Moonlight Tribe’s eagerness for elves.

“I’ll bring Su Qian and Su Chen here!” An Ran was smart enough to immediately run to Su Qian and Su Chen before Shen Yanxiao could say anything.

Not long afterwards, two timid elves were brought into the hall.

Su Qian and Su Chen did not know what was happening. The moment they entered the hall, they were met with five passionate gazes. The two little guys were so frightened that they subconsciously hid behind Shen Yanxiao. Each of them pulled on Shen Yanxiao’s sleeves and revealed half of their timid faces as they looked at Wu En and the rest.

“Your appearance is pretty good and very likable.” Qing Xuan nodded with satisfaction. He pretended to be calm, but the burning excitement in his eyes had ruined his calm facade.

“They’re still young and can be molded.” Cang Liang touched his chin and revealed a smile.

Chapter 1363: A Wave Of Unrest Has Started Again (4)

Shen Yanxiao felt helpless. She did not expect Wu En and the rest to rush here. Fortunately, the Qingyuan Tribe did not take any actions for the past few days. Otherwise, she would not be able to stop them from interfering.

“Qianqian, Chenchen, this is Grandpa Wu En, and this is Grandpa Liang Qiu...” Shen Yanxiao looked at the two timid little guys. She held their hands and brought them to Wu En and the others. She introduced them one by one. She could tell that Wu En and the rest really wanted little elves. If Su Qian and Su Chen were to enter the Moonlight Tribe, their future achievements would not be low.

The two little guys were also very well-behaved as they followed Shen Yanxiao and called them grandfather.

Wu En and the others were elated when they heard that. The more they looked at the two little guys, the more they liked them.

They couldn’t wait to hold and kiss them.

Even though Shen Yanxiao had yet to reach adulthood, she was still a little elf that was about to reach adulthood and she was also a little girl. Even though the few old men liked her very much, they could not do anything too intimate. However, Su Qian and Su Chen were real boys so it did not matter if they were intimate.

Perhaps Wu En and the others were too enthusiastic, but Su Qian and Su Chen were obviously afraid of strangers. After they called them grandfather, they quietly hid behind Shen Yanxiao.

“In the future, I’ll have to ask everyone in the Moonlight Tribe to take good care of these two children.” An Yan smiled. The Moonlight Tribe had taken in Su Yue and his grandchildren, and An Yan had also been very kind to them. Now that she saw that the two little guys were about to have a better future, she was also very happy.

Most importantly, Shen Yanxiao had thought of that.

The Moonlight Tribe lacked fresh blood, but with Elder Yue and the rest’s personalities, they would never ask for elves from other tribes.

Even though Su Qian and Su Chen were not real elves of the Moonshine Tribe, they were raised in the Moonshine Tribe after all. An Yan and the rest could not possibly hand over the two children to the Moonlight Tribe without any reason. Firstly, it was because the Moonshine Tribe was in a sorry state. If they wanted to hand over their tribe’s elves to the Moonlight Tribe, it would make the other elves feel that they were trying to climb up their ranks. Secondly, ever since the Moonshine Tribe was demoted, the contact between the two tribes had decreased and there were not many opportunities to communicate.

Shen Yanxiao could be said to be the most suitable candidate. She was an elf of the Moonlight Tribe and also personally knew the Moonshine Tribe. Therefore, it was best for her to come out and discuss this matter.

In addition, Su Qian and Su Chen liked Shen Yanxiao very much. With her as a guarantor, the two shy little guys would not be too conflicted.

“You’re too kind. I can see that these two kids are very fond of each other. It’s also time for the Moonlight Tribe to bring in fresh blood. However, it’s rare that Su Yue is willing to let go. I didn’t see Su Yue. Where is he?” Wu En smiled and said. From his words, he seemed to be familiar with the grandfather of the two kids.

“Su Yue’s health is not good. He is basically taking care of his health. If Great Master Wu En wants to meet him, I will bring you there later,” An Yan smiled and said.

“No hurry, no hurry. It’s rare for us to come out of Wind City, and Xiao’er will be entering Moonshine City soon. We need to have a good chat with this little girl,” Wu En said with a smile. Even though Su Qian and Su Chen were likable, they could not compare to Shen Yanxiao’s status in their hearts. After all, they were related by blood. Moreover, this little girl was so sensible and knew to find suitable elves for the Moonlight Tribe to join. How could they not like her?

Chapter 1364: A Wave Of Unrest Has Started Again (5)

“Xiaoxiao, how’s your progress in enchantment?” Liang Qiu looked at Shen Yanxiao with a smile. He could be considered as Shen Yanxiao’s enchantment teacher, so he had a higher status than the other old farts.

Shen Yanxiao said respectfully, “I was just able to complete magical words, but I am still unable to combine them. I am still in the midst of studying more.” The moment Shen Yanxiao mentioned enchantment, her hot-bloodedness turned into a pool of cold water.

She was extremely fast in learning anything except for enchantment. She had been working hard for almost a month and her progress was still so slow.

Not only did Liang Qiu not feel that Shen Yanxiao’s progress was slow, he even felt that she was talented.

“Magic words are different from ordinary words. It is already amazing that you can write a complete magic word in half a month’s time. That kid, Mo Yan, needed to study for half a year before he succeeded.”

Half a year?

Shen Yanxiao blinked her eyes and imagined the situation if she could not write a single word in half a year...

She felt that she would definitely go crazy!

An Yan tactfully led Wu En and the rest to the side hall so that they could have a private conversation with Shen Yanxiao.

Su Qian and Su Chen were taken away for the time being, leaving only the five old urchins from the Moonlight Tribe and Shen Yanxiao, this little kid with a big heart.

“Little Xiao’er, you have no idea how bored we were after you left.” Wu En looked at Shen Yanxiao with heartache.

With the addition of a little elf in the tribe, their boring days finally had a slight change. However, they did not expect Shen Yanxiao to only stay for five days before she left. The more they thought about it, the more upset they felt. If it were not for Elder Yue, they probably would have directly come to Jadeite City the moment Shen Yanxiao left Wind City.

“I even wanted to grow mushrooms.” Liang Qiu also revealed a look of pity. It was rare for him to find a thoughtful and diligent little disciple, but before he could get tired of her, she was gone. He practically wanted to cry, alright?

“Alas, this is only Jadeite City. The few of us can still come and see you. If you were to enter Moonshine City, I reckon we won’t have many chances to see you other than Wu Yue.” Qing Xuan spoke without sadness. Moonshine City was an important place in the Moon God Continent, even they could not casually enter and leave.

“You have to come back more often in the future,” Cang Yan said pitifully.

Since Jing You was the youngest and his skin was not thick enough, he did not show much.

Shen Yanxiao did not know whether to laugh or cry as she looked at the five grieving old men. She said with a smile, "Grandpa Wu En, don't tease me. Didn't I bring Su Qian and Su Chen to you? Even though those two little guys are afraid of strangers, their quality is pretty good. If I leave them to you, your future achievements will not disappoint you."

Speaking of Su Chen and Su Qian, the five old men who put on a bitter act finally smiled.

"Those two little guys have good roots. I have met their grandfather several times. It is fate that I am able to meet them." Wu En sighed.

He knew a thing or two about what happened to Su Yue's tribe back then. However, for some reason, it was inconvenient for him to pull Su Yue and the rest into the Moonlight Tribe. Therefore, Su Yue chose the Moonshine Tribe.

However, fate was something that could not be explained clearly. If it was fated, it would come back no matter what. If it was not fated, what was seized could not last forever.

Chapter 1365: A Wave Of Unrest Has Started Again (6)

"Grandpa Wu En, you didn't have to come. As long as you sent some elves to bring me the message, I would have brought Qianqian and Chenchen to Wind City before I go to Moonshine City. Why do you have to specially make a trip?" Shen Yanxiao touched her nose. She was afraid that Wu En and the rest would come, so she wrote very clearly on the letter that she would bring Su Chen and Su Qian to Wind City for them to have a look so that they would not bump into those idiots from the Qingyuan Tribe.

Unfortunately, things didn't go as she wished so Shen Yanxiao felt helpless.

Wu En looked at Shen Yanxiao and chuckled. "Wu Yue has already told us about this, but... as you know, the few of us have nothing to do all day long. Usually, we are too lazy to leave Wind City, but we came to see the two little ones and to check on how you are doing."

Shen Yanxiao nodded helplessly. She could not blame Wu En and the rest for being so proactive, as her consideration for them was still lacking.

"Grandpa Wu En, are you going to stroll around Jadeite City? I heard that there are many novel toys in the trading house here.. Why don't we have An Ran accompany you to view the excitement in Jadeite City for the next few days? It's rare for you to come out for a trip. Wouldn't it be boring if you stay in the Moonshine Tribe all day long?" Shen Yanxiao's mind had already started spinning.

"Then why aren't you going?" Wu En raised his brow. Shen Yanxiao was clearly leaving them to An Ran.

Shen Yanxiao chuckled and said, "I would like to, but I'm afraid to be a joke. During my time in Jadeite City, I have basically not even left the door, not to mention knowing where the fun places are. I've just been studying enchantment, trying to figure out a thing or two before entering Moonshine City."

Wu En snorted and accepted Shen Yanxiao's explanation.

Shen Yanxiao continued to work harder.

“Rest assured, I will have Qianqian and Chenchen tag along with you so that you can get familiar with them. As you know, those two kids are afraid of strangers, and they are still young. You can buy some fruits or whatever on the way, and these two kids will definitely get intimate with you.” Shen Yanxiao tried her best to entice Wu En and the rest to wander around outside. It would be best if they did not stay in the Moonshine Tribe. God knew when that elf from the Qingyuan Tribe would come knocking on their door. She would have to lure Wu En and the rest out before she could deal with them.

Shen Yanxiao was absolutely stubborn when it came to self-reliance.

“Alright, don’t be too hardworking. You’re still young after all. You can slowly study enchantment in the future. Don’t stay cooped up in the room all day. You need to go out and walk around.” Wu En sighed. It was a good thing for the younger generation to be diligent and eager to learn. However, he felt heartache when he saw his little girl burying her head in a pile of books all day long.

“I understand,” Shen Yanxiao answered with a smile.

Wu En and the rest met with Su Yue in the afternoon. The few old men were very secretive as they whispered to each other. Even Shen Yanxiao, the middleman, was dragged outside to stand guard.

It was not until night fell that Wu En and the rest left in satisfaction. After enjoying the dinner An Yan prepared for them, the few old urchins who knew how to take care of their health went to bed early in the morning.

The next morning, just as Shen Yanxiao expected, Wu En and the rest called for An Ran early in the morning and brought Su Qian and Su Chen, these two bashful little guys, to Jadeite City for a stroll.

Chapter 1366: A Wave Of Unrest Has Started Again (7)

Shen Yanxiao secretly breathed a sigh of relief and continued with her study of enchantment.

In the afternoon, Shen Yanxiao was about to go to the hall to get some food when she heard a commotion outside the door. An ominous premonition rose in her heart.

“What’s going on outside?” An Feng sat on a chair and asked with a frown.

An Yan sat on the throne without any expression.

Soon, the elf guarding outside the door ran over and said with a pale face, “It’s the elves of the Qingyuan Tribe!”

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. That was fast.

An Yan remained unmoved. She took a sip of tea and asked, “Who’s the leader?”

“Yu Ying from the Qingyuan Tribe.”

“Who is this Yu Ying?” Shen Yanxiao asked.

An Yan glanced at Shen Yanxiao and slowly said, “Yu Ying is the leader of the Qingyuan Tribe and Yu Mu’s daughter. Her status in the Qingyuan Tribe is similar to An Feng. Yu Ying and Shui Miao have been engaged since they were young. Moreover, Yu Ying has been confirmed as one of the next-generation Saintess not long ago. In a few days, she will be sent to Moonshine City just like Duan Xue,” As she said that, An Yan frowned and said.

“Yu Ying shouldn’t be here at this time. That little girl is too impatient.”

Yu Ying was also a Saintess?

Shen Yanxiao was surprised. She had thought that there was only one Saintess.

“Yan Xiao, Yu Ying is different from Shui Miao. You cannot humiliate her too much. After all, she is going to enter Moonshine City in the future, and she will meet you there sooner or later. The Silvermoon Guards may be glorious, but they cannot compare to a Saintess. If we can reconcile, it would be best to reconcile.” An Yan’s expression was somewhat ugly. Anyone from the Qingyuan Tribe would be better than Yu Ying. Yu Ying’s identity was special and if Shen Yanxiao were to incur her hatred right now, she would not have a good time in Moonshine City in the future.

“I’ll try my best.” Shen Yanxiao smiled. Reconcile?

How could they reconcile?

She had ‘killed’ her future brother-in-law and ruined her fiancé’s bright future. Any other woman would wish they could turn Shen Yanxiao into dust right now.

Shen Yanxiao understood An Yan’s concern, but the difficulty of reconciliation was too high.

“Leader An Yan, I will go and meet her myself. For the time being, don’t come forward.” Shen Yanxiao did not wish to implicate the Moonshine Tribe. Furthermore, the other party was the future Saintess. Coupled with the Qingyuan Tribe, the Moonshine Tribe would probably be overwhelmed.

“Be careful.” An Yan sighed. She knew that Shen Yanxiao might have to endure some humiliation once she went out, but she knew that if she stood by Shen Yanxiao’s side and accompanied her, the entire Moonshine Tribe would be brought to their grave.

She could disregard her own safety, but she could not implicate the lives of all the elves.

Shen Yanxiao stood up and walked towards the door with a smile similar to the spring breeze.

An Yan looked at Shen Yanxiao’s back and her slender fingers on the chair’s handle unconsciously clenched. She used hundreds of years of rationality to suppress the urge to chase after her.

Taking a deep breath, An Yan closed her eyes, unwilling to look at the back that was identical to her daughter.

“Wen Ya, bless your child and let her get through this.” An Yan whispered a prayer that only she could hear.

She was not a competent mother nor a competent grandmother. As long as she was still the leader of the Moonshine Tribe, she could only prioritize the safety of the tribe.

Even if...

That was the last thing she wanted to do.

Chapter 1367: A Wave Of Unrest Has Started Again (8)

When Shen Yanxiao approached the door, she suddenly saw a faint mist seeping out from her chest and gradually drifting towards the horizon.

“Xiu, what are you doing?” Shen Yanxiao looked at the mist in surprise and asked.

Evidently, Xiu did not wish to answer Shen Yanxiao. He merely floated in the air in a mist state.

Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath and walked out the door.

Outside the gate of the Moonshine Tribe, a female elf in a long green dress had a taut expression on her face. There was a trace of anger and impatience on her delicate face. There were only three elves standing behind her, but all of them were tall and strong. From their temperament, they were not as simple as ordinary elves.

The moment Shen Yanxiao stepped out of the door, she saw Yu Ying, who had been waiting for a long time, and the three male elves behind her.

Shen Yanxiao keenly noticed that the badges worn by those three elves were not black or white, but a silver badge.

Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes. She had seen such badges before. When Mo Yu came to the advanced training camp to watch her participate in the tryouts, he wore the same badge on his chest.

Evidently, this badge represented a transcendent level—silver elf.

Shen Yanxiao was puzzled. Why would a silver elf that only appeared in Moonshine City appear here?

“You are Yan Xiao?” The beautiful elf in green crossed her arms and looked at Shen Yanxiao arrogantly. Her sharp gaze sized up Shen Yanxiao without any explanation.

In terms of appearance, Shen Yanxiao, who had broken through to the silver rank, was not inferior to any elf. Even Yu Ying, who was selected to become a Saintess in Moonshine City due to her talents and intellect was no exception.

Women were born with the mentality to compare their appearance with their peers, even elves were no exception.

Even though Shen Yanxiao was young, her facial features were exquisite to the extreme. Her skin was fairer than snow and her silver hair casually draped over her shoulders. There was only a golden headband as decoration and she dressed very simply. She wore a moon-white dress without any patterns as a contrast.

It could be said that their overall appearance was extremely simple.

However, even though she had an unadorned appearance, it had forcefully snatched away all the glory that belonged to Yu Ying.

Even if Shen Yanxiao did not have the slightest smile on her face, she could still become the focus of everyone’s attention.

Just like a ball of starlight, it naturally attracted all the attention around.

"It's me, and who are you?" Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and looked at Yu Ying with a disapproving expression as if she did not know who Yu Ying was.

A little elf that was even more exquisite than her spoke to her so arrogantly and rudely. This made the already furious Yu Ying hate the little kid even more.

"I am Yu Ying, daughter of Yu Mu, the leader of the Qingyuan Tribe." Yu Ying deliberately emphasized her identity.

Shen Yanxiao was unmoved. She said in a tone that would infuriate someone to death, "Yu Mu? Who? Never heard of him. Yu Ying? Never heard of you too."

As the daughter of the leader, Yu Ying had been pampered like a little princess by the elves since she was young. Who would dare to talk to her like that? Furthermore, the other party was a little elf that had a grudge against her!

"You're so uneducated. I thought you were young and ignorant. It's normal that a frog at the bottom of a well has not heard the name of the leader of the highest-ranked tribe. I am here today to ask you about Shui Miao!"

Chapter 1368: Hero Saving the Beauty (1)

"Are you referring to that idiot who came to seek death?" Shen Yanxiao did not even have the heart to care for the fairer sex.

Yu Ying's expression immediately changed.

"You stinky girl, you have no manners at all! Shui Miao is my fiance and not only did you cause his brother's death, you even forced him to invite himself to the Moonlight Coast. Yan Xiao, don't think that you can be arrogant just because you have the support of the Moonlight Tribe. Let me tell you, even if the Moonlight Tribe protects you, I will not let you off so easily!"

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and looked at Yu Ying as if she was looking at a clown.

"Miss, your words are interesting. Be it Shui Ling or Shui Miao, they came to challenge me to a one-on-one fight. They are not as skilled as I am. Do I have to stand there and let them fight? If they want to humiliate themselves, don't blame others for not giving them face."

Yu Ying gritted her teeth and looked at Shen Yanxiao. This was the first time she saw an elf that would not budge. If it were other elves, they would more or less give her some face if they knew that she was the daughter of the Qingyuan Tribe's leader. However, Shen Yanxiao was stubborn. From the moment she opened her mouth until now, not a single word of hers was not mocking Yu Ying.

Yu Ying was not an elf with an indifferent temperament. She had always been held in high regard so how could she stand Shen Yanxiao's words?

"Do you think you're so great with that little ability of yours? Yan Xiao, I'll let you see how insignificant you are today!" Yu Ying waved her hand and the three silver elves behind her immediately stepped forward and surrounded Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes as she looked at the three silver elves surrounding her. From their aura, she could clearly sense that all of them were much stronger than Shui Miao.

“Yu Ying, are you trying to break the law set by the Elf King?” Shen Yanxiao asked in a cold voice. She did not expect that an elf would dare to violate the Elf King’s will.

Yu Ying crossed her arms and looked at Shen Yanxiao with a sneer.

“Law? I’m sorry, but I am about to enter Moonshine City and become a Saintess. As a Saintess, I have the right to punish those elves who disrespect me. These three elves were specially sent by the Elf King to protect a Saintess. I don’t mind telling you that any one of them can easily crush you to death. Didn’t you say that Shui Ling and Shui Miao brought disgrace upon themselves? In that case, I’ll let you have a taste of this today.”

Yu Ying dared to do something that ordinary elves could not. In his mind, she was merely dealing with a little elf who did not know her place. Even if this matter were to spread out, no one would dare to take the risk of offending a Saintess and inform the Elf King of the matter.

Furthermore, she was about to become a Saintess. Even if she made some ‘small mistakes’, she could be forgiven.

Yu Ying’s father, Yu Mu, originally intended to personally deal with Shen Yanxiao. Even though Yu Ying was arrogant, she was not stupid. She knew that there was no elf in the entire Qingyuan Tribe that was more suited for this mission than her. Since Shen Yanxiao could defeat Shui Miao, she must have some skills. Probably none of the elves in the Qingyuan Tribe was her opponent.

However, the three elves by Yu Ying’s side were different. They were from Moonshine City, and all of them were experts among the silver elves.

Shen Yanxiao had just broken through to the silver rank so she was not their opponent.

Yu Ying never intended to talk to Shen Yanxiao. She hated Shen Yanxiao to the bone and was prepared to have the three elves join hands to deal with her from the very beginning.

Chapter 1369: Hero Saving the Beauty (2)

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

“Yu Ying, you’re ruthless!” Shen Yanxiao gnashed her teeth and glared at Yu Ying. This time, she had truly failed. She never expected to encounter such an unreasonable elf.

“Aren’t you good at fighting? I’d like to see if you can leave this place alive under their hands.” Yu Ying looked at Shen Yanxiao with pride, her eyes filled with the thrill of revenge.

Shen Yanxiao immediately used her spiritual link to contact Vermilion Bird. Coincidentally, Vermilion Bird happened to be heading towards the surrounding cities today to continue collecting resources for Shen Yanxiao. Even if he received the news, he probably would not be able to rush back in a short time.

“I will not die so easily. In the future, I will ‘repay’ you for today’s ‘gift’.” Shen Yanxiao made up her mind to drag it out until Vermilion Bird returned. Even if she was not the opponent of the three elves before her, she would not lose in a short time..

Stall!

That was the most important thing for Shen Yanxiao to do.

“Sure, let’s see how long you can keep your mouth shut.” Yu Ying sneered and said to the three silver elves. “Since this little girl is not afraid of death, you don’t have to be polite with her. Bring out your strength and treat her well. I will take responsibility if you kill her.”

Before every Saintess entered Moonshine City, the Elf King would dispatch three elven guards to protect them. These three guards were sent to Yu Ying, and it could be said that they only listened to the Elf King. But after the Elf King sent them to Yu Ying, they only listened to her orders.

Even though they knew that Yu Ying’s request was outrageous, they could not disobey her orders.

The three elves immediately attacked Shen Yanxiao after Yu Ying gave the order.

Before they came, Yu Ying had instructed them that they did not need to use bows and arrows to deal with Shen Yanxiao. She did not want to kill Shen Yanxiao with a single arrow. She wanted to look on as Shen Yanxiao helplessly cried out in pain under her punches and kicks. Only by appreciating the twisted expression of her enemy could she vent the hatred in Yu Ying’s heart.

Shui Miao could be said to have grown up together with Yu Ying. Yu Ying was also very satisfied with this fiancé of hers. The higher Shui Miao’s achievements in the Silvermoon Guards, the more glorious Yu Ying felt.

She would also soon become a Saintess, so it would not be long before she would enter Moonshine City and reunite with Shui Miao.

1

However, all her beautiful plans had been disrupted by Shen Yanxiao. How could she not hate her?

If Shui Miao was no longer the best of the Silvermoon Guards, but an elf with no future at the Moonlight Coast, Yu Ying would never insist on this marriage.

However, she was about to enter Moonshine City. In Moonshine City, she would spend most of her time guarding the Tree of Life. And there, she could not find a better man. Therefore, Yu Ying was unwilling to give up on Shui Miao.

As long as Shen Yanxiao was killed, no one would dare to talk about Shui Miao's failure.

A sinister glint flickered in Yu Ying's eyes.

Blame this little elf named Yan Xiao for being blind. She had to die!

The three silver elves' attack speed was too fast. Shen Yanxiao did not have the time to take out her bow and arrows from her interspatial ring. Moreover, even if she took out her bow and arrows, she was not fast enough to break away from the encirclement of the three elves.

Without the advantage of distance, an archer could not display their true strength. Not only would the bow not help her win, but it would also become a burden.

Shen Yanxiao inwardly cursed the vicious and shameless Yu Ying. Yu Ying was the most despicable elf she had ever seen!

Chapter 1370: Hero Saving the Beauty (3)

The three silver elves were rather cooperative. They attacked Shen Yanxiao from different directions at the same time while also blocking her path of retreat.

Shen Yanxiao gritted her teeth and retreated. She knew that she could not resist the encirclement of the three elves.

The four figures were so fast that it dazzled the eyes.

Those three elves clearly intended to follow Yu Ying's orders and had no intentions to go easy on her.

The moment Shen Yanxiao stepped out of the encirclement, the elves on her left and right immediately followed up. After chasing for a while, they aimed at Shen Yanxiao's head.

Shen Yanxiao stomped on the ground and leaped up. The instant she dodged, she could no longer care about the elves in front of her and was kicked away.

Her petite figure suddenly flew backward. Shen Yanxiao did not care about the sharp pain on her body as she nimbly flipped over in mid-air. The moment her heels touched the ground, she did not dare to stay any longer and immediately turned her toes to retreat to the left.

In a fight between experts, the slightest difference could cost one's life.

Furthermore, Shen Yanxiao had to face three opponents that were stronger than her.

A trace of blood had seeped out from the corner of her rosy lips due to that kick, but she had no time to wipe it. Even a millisecond of delay would cost her her life.

Shen Yanxiao could only dodge and not attack. As long as she was caught by one of the elves, what awaited her would be death without any suspense.

One punch, one kick, one punch, all of them were aimed at Shen Yanxiao. This was a type of danger she had never encountered before.

Before this, no matter who she were to encounter, Shen Yanxiao could devise a strategy and use her brain to devise a trap.

However, Yu Ying's attack was too sudden so Shen Yanxiao had to face three powerful opponents without any plan.

What made her want to vomit blood was that Vermilion Bird was not by her side!

For the first time, Shen Yanxiao appeared to be in a sorry state. However, she did not dare to relax in the slightest. Even if she knew that she was powerless to resist, she would never surrender.

Yu Ying stood at the back and admired the scene where Shen Yanxiao was forced into a corner step by step. Shen Yanxiao's skills were indeed outstanding. She could still keep her life after exchanging blows with three silver elves. Every inch of her movements had been accurately calculated. Even the slightest deviation would probably cost her her life in an instant.

But so what?

Yu Ying revealed a sneer. She admitted that Shen Yanxiao was outstanding, but no matter how outstanding a little elf was, she had to lose her wings today.

Shen Yanxiao's speed was fast, but the scars on her body continued to accumulate. One against three, and all of them were stronger than her. Even Shen Yanxiao could not escape from this embarrassing situation.

Pain was surfacing everywhere on her body and a few traces of blood could be seen on her fair cheeks. Her white clothes were gradually stained with blood but Shen Yanxiao's speed did not slow down in the slightest.

Shen Yanxiao was a human, not a god.

Just as Shen Yanxiao was about to retreat, an elf suddenly flashed to her side and grabbed her arm. Almost at the same time, another elf grabbed her other arm.

Shen Yanxiao cried out in her heart. The elf standing opposite her had gathered all his strength into his fist and punched towards her face!

Even if Shen Yanxiao did not die from that punch, she would probably be dizzy for a long time.
