

The Good 1401

Chapter 1401: Battle of the Trapped Beast (4)

Shen Yanxiao's heart sank. She could hear the determination in Vermilion Bird's voice.

Knowing the opponent's strength, Shen Yanxiao could only pray that Taotie had yet to break out of the elves' dungeon.

Soon, Shen Yanxiao and the rest arrived at the dungeon deep inside the palace.

It was an extremely huge cage that was hundreds of meters deep underground.

Iron bars that were thicker than an adult man's waist were covered with the luster of enchanted inscriptions. Tens of thousands of enchanted iron bars had become the most powerful cage. Dozens of elderly elves with white hair and wearing white robes were holding specialized inscription pens and writing densely packed inscriptions on the ground around the cage.

"Roar!"

Another loud roar sounded from the cage, causing the chandelier hanging above the cage to be even on the verge of collapsing due to the powerful shockwave.

The flickering flames illuminated the huge beast in the cage!

Its huge body was similar to a mountain. Pitch-black scales covered its entire body, and its scarlet eyes were filled with greed.

A huge monster!

In this dungeon that was hundreds of meters tall, Taotie could only crawl on the ground with his four limbs. If he were to stand up, how huge would he be?

The six pairs of fangs in that huge beast's mouth seemed to be able to tear everything into pieces in an instant.

Chains covered with inscriptions stretched across Taotie's body, and there were countless of them.

Shen Yanxiao looked at the holy beast before her in shock. Even though it was shackled, the impact it brought was unique.

"This is Taotie..." Shen Yanxiao was surprised. Facing such a huge beast, she finally understood where Vermilion Bird's previous words came from.

Just by lying there, Taotie was several times larger than the Black Tortoise in Sun Never Sets.

"Xiaoxiao, you know of it?" An Ran swallowed his saliva. His heart could not help but tremble as he looked at the ferocious Taotie.

How huge was that?

How many enchantment inscriptions did it take to suppress it? If it were any other magical beast, they would probably be powerless under the suppression of so many enchantments. How could they possibly release such a terrifying roar?

“Yes.” Shen Yanxiao nodded.

The dozens of Great Herbalists did not dare to stop writing for a moment. Bead-sized sweat continued to drip from their foreheads. They did not even have the time to wipe it.

Hundreds of elves of the Silvermoon Guards stood upright, lifted their bows, nocked their arrows, and aimed at Taotie in the cage.

Every elf felt their hearts in their throats.

They were all well aware that if the power of enchantment could not suppress Taotie, then they would instantly become food for that greedy beast.

There was no room for struggle.

In the entire dungeon, only Taotie’s roar echoed. All the elves shut their mouths and waited.

Life and death would depend on the inscriptions of the Enchanters!

The constantly increasing magic power shortened the iron chains on Taotie inch by inch. It was as if Mount Tai was pressing down on him. As the chains fell, golden lightning surrounded Taotie’s body like lightning.

The cracking sounds of the explosion were deafening and the lightning struck Taotie’s tough scales, leaving behind charred marks.

After nearly an hour, Taotie’s restlessness gradually calmed down. He was no longer angry and had stopped attempting to break free. Instead, he quietly laid on the ground and opened his scarlet eyes to look at the elves standing before him.

Chapter 1402: Battle of the Trapped Beast (5)

Taotie finally quieted down, and the elves finally relaxed.

However, no one dared to put down their bows. They looked at Taotie, fearing that the beast would go berserk again.

A moment later, a male elf in light golden armor entered the dungeon.

Behind him followed the five young masters.

“Commander!”

When the elves saw the golden-armored elf, absolute respect and blazing admiration rose in their eyes.

Fen Chu was the Chief Commander of the Silvermoon Guards. No elf knew how old he was. All the elves knew was that he had been the Chief Commander of the Silvermoon Guards since three to four hundred years ago. However, even after three to four hundred years, Fen Chu’s appearance had not changed in the slightest.

Fen Chu was under the direct jurisdiction of the Elf King, and he only listened to him. On normal days, he would stay by the Elf King's side, rarely would he appear anywhere else in the Moonshine City. Unless there was a major incident or a new member of the Silvermoon Guards had appeared, he would not come out.

No one knew how powerful he was.

Some elves said that Fen Chu's strength was at the peak of silver elves, while others said that he was the only gold elf in the entire Moon God Continent other than the Elf King.

However, no one knew the truth.

Except for the time when Taotie barged into Moonshine City a hundred years ago, Fen Chu had never made a move.

The appearance of Fen Chu seemed to have reassured all the elves, and their hearts finally relaxed.

"Commander, Taotie has settled down." Only then did the elf who was responsible for the enchantment have the time to wipe his sweat and walk to Fen Chu's side.

Fen Chu nodded expressionlessly.

To be fair, Fen Chu's appearance was the best among the elves. Shen Yanxiao could only think of Lan Si who could be compared to Fen Chu.

As for Mo Yu and the rest, all of them looked extremely handsome in their own right. However, as they stood by Fen Chu's side, they immediately lost all their radiance and just turned into young lads.

"Recently, there has been a lot of commotion with Taotie. You have to hurry up with the enchantment. I will send an elf to guard here all day long." Fen Chu frowned. Taotie had been going berserk more and more over the past few years. For the past hundred years, Taotie rarely went berserk and because of that, Fen Chu did not send any elves of the Silvermoon Guards to guard the dungeon.

But from the looks of it, it was still necessary.

The selection criteria for the Silvermoon Guards had become increasingly harsh. It had been several months since a new member had joined the team, and the original members had been allocated to various places. As a result, they were incapable of transferring any manpower.

Fen Chu thought for a moment and said to Mo Yu who stood behind him, "Where are the two new members?"

Mo Yu said, "I've already arranged their accommodations."

Fen Chu nodded and his sharp gaze swept across the elves. All of a sudden, he raised his hand and pointed out Shen Yanxiao and An Ran.

"Come here."

Shen Yanxiao was surprised. She and An Ran were not eye-catching amongst so many elves. She did not expect Fen Chu's eyesight to be so good that he could identify them with a glance.

Shen Yanxiao and An Ran could only walk to Fen Chu.

Fen Chu looked at the two elves in front of him and suddenly said, "From today onwards, the two of you will take turns to guard Taotie in the dungeon. If Taotie makes any unusual movements, immediately get the guards outside to inform me."

Chapter 1403: Taotie (1)

Never in her wildest dreams did Shen Yanxiao expect that her first mission once entering the Moonshine City would be for her to become a 'beast tamer'.

Furthermore, it was the holy beast that Vermilion Bird had a deep hatred for!

Fate's arrangement was indeed intriguing.

After Taotie quieted down, the Enchanters added some more runes before the elves gathered in the dungeon dispersed.

Mo Yu secretly gave Shen Yanxiao a look and told her to be careful.

Guarding the dungeon was not considered a dangerous task. However, as they were faced with a holy beast that could go berserk at any time, the situation became extremely precarious.

This was similar to the modern cash carrier. They would either stay safe for the rest of their lives or die the moment something happened.

"The leader asked us to take turns to keep watch. What do you think is appropriate?" After the elves left, An Ran started to discuss with Shen Yanxiao about their shifts.

An Ran was accustomed to listening to Shen Yanxiao's opinions. He did not find it embarrassing to ask for advice from an underaged elf.

Shen Yanxiao touched her chin and looked at Taotie who was staring at her and An Ran with his scarlet eyes.

The position Fen Chu arranged for her was easy, but it had restricted Shen Yanxiao's range of activities to a large extent. In this situation, it was completely unfavorable for her to search for Wen Ya and Shen Yu's whereabouts in Moonshine City.

"How about this, I'll be in charge during the day and you can come back at night." Shen Yanxiao thought for a moment. Fen Chu's intention should be to ensure that there would be elves guarding the dungeon twenty-four hours a day. In that case, she could stay here during the day and hand it over to An Ran at night.

After all, acting at night was more beneficial for her.

"Alright. If you're tired, you can let me know in advance and I'll come earlier. You're still a growing child, don't work yourself too hard." An Ran nodded.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and said, "Rest assured, I won't be polite with you. Go back first and change shifts with me at dusk."

In the huge dungeon, all the elves were now gone, leaving Shen Yanxiao alone to guard Taotie.

In fact, there were dozens of Silvermoon Guards guarding the temple above the dungeon. The dungeon that imprisoned Taotie was only a part of the temple, meaning that there were other 'prisoners' imprisoned in other areas.

Shen Yanxiao pulled up a chair and sat down opposite Taotie. She was filled with curiosity about this magical beast that fought to the death with Vermilion Bird.

Taotie's outer appearance was extremely savage. Even if he looked like an incomparably savage magical beast, he was worthy of his name as a vicious beast.

Those eyes that were of the same color as Vermilion Bird were filled with greed, killing intent and bloodlust.

If it were not for the suppression of so many enchantments, Taotie would have devastated Moonshine City beyond recognition.

Shen Yanxiao was curious as to what method the elves used to capture this huge beast and how they suppressed it in this dungeon that was hundreds of meters deep.

While Shen Yanxiao was observing Taotie, he was also observing the little elf before him.

With Shen Yanxiao's petite size, she was not even as big as one of its scales. With her small physique, it was not even enough to fill the gaps between its teeth.

However, it was this seemingly fragile little elf that had the courage to sit face to face with it. Her expression was also surprisingly calm.

This kind of expression was different from what he was used to seeing in other elves. Taotie was used to the elves' fearful gazes so Shen Yanxiao's nonchalant gaze made him uncomfortable.

Chapter 1404: Taotie (2)

Shen Yanxiao propped her head up and crossed her legs as she looked at the huge beast lying on the ground.

Her gaze was no different from looking at a kitten or a puppy on the ground.

This was a provocation to Taotie's dignity as a holy beast!

Taotie suddenly revealed his sinister fangs and stared at Shen Yanxiao in a threatening manner, as if he was about to break open the shackles and pounce on her the very next second.

But, there was not the slightest bit of reaction on Shen Yanxiao's face.

"I advise you to save yourself the trouble. If you had the ability to run out, I reckon we would have all died just now. Since you can't come out, it's useless to scare me, so why don't you just save your strength?" Shen Yanxiao looked at Taotie, who attempted to scare her, with a helpless expression and said in a tone that could infuriate someone to death.

Taotie was clearly stunned. He was surprised that his threat did not have much effect on the little elf in front of him. He could not understand what was going on right now.

Shouldn't elves be scared out of their wits when they saw its appearance?

Shen Yanxiao did not intend to pay anymore attention to Taotie, as she was thinking about other things.

Her entering Moonshine City could be said to have completed her objective of coming to the Moon God Continent. She still had half a year to cultivate her source of life here. In that amount of time, it was not difficult to break through the next two layers of the seal.

However, the problem Shen Yanxiao had to face was not as simple as the seals in her body.

Her parents were in Moonshine City!

She must save them!

As for Taotie?

What was there to be afraid of!

So what if it was a holy beast?

There was still a mythical beast and the number one War God of the God race living in her body. If they were to fight, she did not believe that Taotie could eat her in front of Vermilion Bird and Xiu.

Shen Yanxiao planned to take a stroll in Moonshine City once she finished her shift with An Ran. At the very least, she had to contact Duan Xue first.

Duan Xue was a Saintess, and she had more freedom in Moonshine City than she did. It was the most reliable method for her to contact Duan Xue in order to inquire about Wen Ya and Shen Yu.

Shen Yanxiao quietly planned her next step, with Taotie staring at her.

For a moment, he wondered if the little elf had a screw loose in her head. Even if he was trapped in the cage, he could still cause great harm to the elves through the shockwave of his roar. Therefore, in Moonshine City, other than the two golden elves, which elf did not turn pale and tremble when they saw him?

However, this little girl was good. Not only did she completely ignore its threat, she even directly ignored its existence. She just narrowed her eyes and lowered her head in front of him. No one knew what she was thinking.

Taotie had been imprisoned in the dungeon by the elves for more than a hundred years. During that time, he was imprisoned alone in this empty dungeon. Only when he went berserk would elves appear in fear and trepidation.

A ferocious beast that had been quiet for more than a hundred years suddenly discovered a skinny elf in his room; this made Taotie curious.

However!

Why did this bastard not show any reaction to it?

Could you not ignore him like that!

At the very least, it was a holy beast. Could you mind its reputation?

However, no matter how Taotie glared at Shen Yanxiao or how he used his sharp claws to scratch the ground, he failed to attract her attention.

Shen Yanxiao was like an old monk in meditation, completely isolated from the outside world. The Holy Beast Taotie, who had been lonely and cold for a long time, tried to find a sense of presence in front of her.

Chapter 1405: Taotie (3)

Taotie felt that his dignity had suffered an unprecedented setback...

Shen Yanxiao's calm reaction had caused a huge blow to its self-esteem.

It angrily released a low roar as it struggled to shake its body, causing the chains on its body to release a loud sound.

Nevertheless, Shen Yanxiao still had no reaction.

Just then, someone knocked on the door. Hearing the knock, Shen Yanxiao walked over and opened the door. She saw an elf standing outside with a plate of bright red fruit.

"You are Yan Xiao?" The elf looked at Shen Yanxiao and asked.

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

The elf said, "I am an elf under Young Master Yu. Young Master Yu has instructed that you are still unfamiliar with many things since you have just entered Moonshine City. I am currently guarding outside the restricted area's temple so you can ask me anything."

"Alright." Shen Yanxiao nodded. Even though Mo Yu gave off an unreliable feeling, he was still rather reliable in his work.

"This is the food you deserve. Although this fruit cannot be compared to the fruit of the Tree of Life, it is very helpful for us elves to absorb life force. Only elves who have entered Moonshine City can eat this fruit. In the future, you will have three meals a day and each meal will have five fruits given to you. Of course, this is taken into account that you are still underage. After you reach adulthood, the number of fruits will decrease to three." That elf explained to Shen Yanxiao methodically, but his seemingly calm gaze was filled with ambiguity.

In fact, there were many rumors about Shen Yanxiao in the Silvermoon Guards.

Most of them were...

Shen Yanxiao was Mo Yu's child bride!!

Of course, none of them had the courage to ask Mo Yu about that.

"I understand, thank you." Shen Yanxiao smiled and took the fruit.

After the elf completed his task, he turned around and left with a complicated mood. The door of the dungeon was closed again.

Shen Yanxiao carried a plate of glistening red fruit and sat back on the chair. She had no desire for these fruits.

These elvish fruit had a powerful supplementary effect on the absorption of life force. However, Shen Yanxiao's absorption of life force had reached its limit. Even if she ate a hundred fruits in one go, it would not be of any help.

For her, this fruit that all the elves coveted was not attractive at all. Moreover, the taste of it was not as good as an apple.

"Vermilion Bird, do you want to eat this fruit?" Shen Yanxiao used her spiritual connection to ask Vermilion Bird.

"I won't eat it. This fruit is only effective for elves. Even if I eat it, it will be the same as eating ordinary fruit. Plus, it doesn't taste good." Vermilion Bird did not have any thoughts about this fruit.

If the elves outside knew that their treasured fruit had become chicken ribs when it came to Shen Yanxiao, would they cry and beg her to share it?

"Unfortunately, it cannot be stored in the interspatial ring. Otherwise, I can bring it to An Ran." Shen Yanxiao sighed helplessly.

There were strict inspections to prevent them from bringing in any items that would damage the enchantment. Shen Yanxiao had no way to hand the fruit to An Ran to enjoy. If other elves were to discover it, she might get in trouble again.

Shen Yanxiao did not want to cause anymore trouble the moment she entered Moonshine City.

As she did not have much appetite, Shen Yanxiao just played with the palm-sized fruit in her hands.

However, Shen Yanxiao did not notice that a pair of scarlet eyes was staring at the red fruit in Shen Yanxiao's hands without blinking, and the eyes were filled with greed.

Chapter 1406: Taotie (4)

Shen Yanxiao threw the five fruits in her hands and played with the holy beast. A certain pair of eyes followed those five fruits that were moving up and down, one above, one below...

Pa da...

A fruit slipped from Shen Yanxiao's fingers and fell to the ground. It rolled toward the cage and finally stopped at the railings.

Shen Yanxiao stood up and bent over to pick up the fruit.

However, the fruit that had stopped rolling suddenly rolled towards the iron bars.

Shen Yanxiao looked up in surprise. All of a sudden, she saw a huge mountain-like head with its mouth wide open trying its best to breathe in!

The airflow continuously surged into Taotie's mouth and it stirred the surrounding air, causing that small fruit to roll to his mouth bit by bit.

Compared to Taotie's big mouth, the fruit was as small as a grain of dust.

Shen Yanxiao was dumbstruck as she looked at Taotie frantically sticking out his tongue and licking around his lips. His bright red tongue dripped saliva all over the ground...

Shen Yanxiao's expression twisted.

Taotie, who was using his tongue to search for the 'dust', seemed to have noticed Shen Yanxiao's overly 'passionate' gaze. He slowly raised his eyes and looked at Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao and Taotie stared at each other in shock.

Taotie's tongue was still dangling by his mouth, and his saliva dripped all over the ground. His originally savage expression had become extremely adorable.

It made Shen Yanxiao feel that the beast lying in front of her was not some savage holy beast, but... a gluttonous sand skin dog...

"..." Shen Yanxiao was at a loss.

She honestly did not want to admit that this extremely stupid foodie in front of her was that ferocious beast that had almost bitten Vermilion Bird to death, Taotie...

"..." Taotie's expression was complicated. He looked at Shen Yanxiao and pretended to casually glance at that 'dust'.

Ultimately, appetite triumphed over reason.

With lightning speed, Taotie pulled the extremely small fruit into his mouth with his tongue.

That pair of large eyes immediately revealed a trace of satisfaction.

"..." Shen Yanxiao felt as if she was struck by lightning. She raised her eyebrows and looked at Taotie before looking at the four remaining fruits in her hands.

An evil thought surfaced in her mind.

Shen Yanxiao picked up a fruit and waved it in front of Taotie.

A blazing glint immediately flickered in Taotie's eyes!

If Taotie had a tail, Shen Yanxiao believed that he would be wagging his tail with his tongue out right now.

Shen Yanxiao moved her hand to the left and Taotie's eyes followed closely after it. Shen Yanxiao moved her hand to the right and Taotie's eyes followed suit.

The fruit was so small that it could be overlooked, but it was a fatal attraction to Taotie.

A smile curled on Shen Yanxiao's lips as she threw the fruit in her hand.

Taotie immediately opened his mouth and tried his best!

Suck!

Suck!

The small fruit entered Taotie's stomach along with the strong airflow.

Taotie revealed a satisfied expression again.

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and suddenly walked towards the iron bars. The huge gap between the bars was enough for her to enter the cage!

Vermilion Bird frantically tried to stop Shen Yanxiao's suicidal actions, but she entered the cage without any fear.

There was no longer any barrier between her and Taotie!

Chapter 1407: Taotie (5)

Taotie widened his eyes and looked at the little elf who suddenly walked inside his cage.

This was the most fearless elf he had ever seen!

Taotie lay on the ground, breathing heavily. The heatwave from Taotie's breath brushed across Shen Yanxiao's body.

It was strange. Taotie looked very much like a savage beast, but he did not stink.

Shen Yanxiao continued to move forward. Soon, she would reach Taotie's attack range.

Vermilion Bird was about to go crazy in Shen Yanxiao's body. However, no matter how much he wanted to rush out, he was stopped by Shen Yanxiao.

"What are you thinking about! Hurry up and get away from Taotie! This guy eats everything! Be careful, or he might swallow you!" Vermilion Bird was roaring inside and scratching against a wall in panic.

On the other hand, Xiu was surprisingly calm. He did not stop Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao took one last step forward. Her toes now pressed against Taotie's front claws.

Taotie looked at Shen Yanxiao without moving. He seemed to be thinking whether he should eat this elf or not.

All of a sudden, Shen Yanxiao grabbed a fruit out of her pocket. She held the fruit in one hand and reached out to Taotie with the other. The corner of her lips curled up. As she blurted out the next word, Taotie and Vermilion Bird were shocked into dregs.

"Claw."

Claw... Claw!!!

Vermilion Bird facepalmed, wondering if his ears were playing tricks on him!

He knew that Shen Yanxiao was sometimes unreliable, but...

Wasn't this too unreliable!!!

The one lying before her was the Holy Beast Taotie!

A savage magical beast that devoured all living beings as food!

She... she actually asked Taotie... to hold her hand...

F*ck!

Did she think Taotie was a dog?

Taotie tilted his head and looked at the little elf who would not rest until she died from shock.

His scarlet eyes looked at Shen Yanxiao's outstretched hand and then at the fruit in her other hand.

Determined!

He lifted a sharp claw and gently touched Shen Yanxiao's palm.

"Have I gone crazy, or has Taotie gone crazy..." Vermilion Bird was shocked out of his wits by what he saw...

Taotie, the beast that fought him to the death and devoured everything in the world a hundred years ago, had put down all his dignity and pride for a single fruit, just like a pet...

Claw...

Who could tell him that this was not true!!

Vermilion Bird's hatred for Taotie had turned into shame and indignation at this very moment.

He was too embarrassed to tell others that he had lost to a foodie without dignity and a bottom line!

How embarrassing!

No!

F*ck!

How embarrassing!

"Good boy." Shen Yanxiao smiled and looked at Taotie. She then threw the fruit into his mouth.

Taotie narrowed his eyes in satisfaction. He looked just like a puppy acting cute.

However, this little dog... looked savage and... not small at all.

Shen Yanxiao looked at Taotie with a smile and walked to his other claw. She repeated the same trick.

"Your other claw."

"Pu!!!!!!!!!!!" Vermilion Bird had already fallen to the ground, twitching.

Taotie blinked his large eyes in confusion. Hesitating, he raised his other claw and placed it above Shen Yanxiao's palm.

Vermilion Bird was on the verge of tears.

This guy was definitely not his mortal enemy!

Absolutely not!

Taotie, can you be more ambitious?

Chapter 1408: Taotie (6)

Taotie had always regarded eating as his duty.

In his mind, eating was his sole mission.

It had pursued food all his life.

However, he could never eat his fill.

Just like the rumors, Taotie's stomach was connected to a different world. No matter how much he ate, he would never feel full.

If possible, he would devour everything in the world. After eating everything that could be eaten, it would devour itself as well.

Shen Yanxiao fed all the fruits to Taotie.

Finally, this greedy foodie no longer had any hostility towards Shen Yanxiao.

The way it looked at Shen Yanxiao was evidently much more tame.

Shen Yanxiao sat in front of Taotie's head with her legs crossed. She did not feel the slightest bit of fear as she looked at this huge beast that was similar to a mountain.

"Can you transform into your human form?" Shen Yanxiao had nothing better to do and started chatting with Taotie.

Taotie thought for a moment and nodded.

"In that case, transform into your human form. Let's have a chat." Shen Yanxiao did not think that it was shocking to chat with a beast.

It was because Taotie's previous performance was too unpredictable.

Taotie twisted his body and shrunk himself bit by bit.

The chains on its body also became smaller as it changed and bound him without leaving the slightest gap.

Finally, the mountain-like beast transformed into a small ball of light before Shen Yanxiao's eyes. After the light faded, a wild and handsome man with black hair and scarlet eyes appeared before her.

Taotie's handsome appearance was different from Xiu's earth-shattering appearance and Shen Siyu's gentleness. Instead, he had an absolute wild and domineering aura.

He was just like an overlord that was swift and fierce in the world. He sat on the ground calmly while wearing a black robe, vividly displaying his domineering aura.

However, before Shen Yanxiao could sigh at the wild beauty of Taotie, she heard a sound.

Taotie's tall figure suddenly shrunk like a deflated balloon and balls of mist enveloped him.

When the fog dissipated, a cute little boy about the same size as Vermilion Bird foolishly sat before Shen Yanxiao. His obviously oversized clothes draped over the mini Taotie, making his originally adorable appearance even more adorable and harmless.

"Waah..." The mini Taotie suddenly opened its mouth and let out a child-like cry.

"I'm so hungry! I'm so hungry! I want to eat! I want to eat!"

Like a little foodie, Taotie pulled the chains that bound his limbs and rolled around on the ground for food.

Shen Yanxiao could no longer hold back her laughter. Shen Yanxiao's laughter caused Vermilion Bird's attempt to stop Shen Yanxiao to fail. With no choice, Vermilion Bird immediately escaped from her body.

The adorable little bird hated Taotie to the bones. As soon as he saw Taotie rolling around on the ground, his face flushed red with embarrassment and indignation. He immediately pounced over and gave Taotie's round little body a violent kick!

"Aren't you ashamed?! Where's the domineering aura you used to beat me up back then? You bastard! Why are you acting cute? Do you know how stupid you are? You've embarrassed all the faces of magical beasts! You're still a holy beast! Why don't you go and die!" Vermilion Bird felt ashamed and resentful as he gave Taotie a good beating.

Shen Yanxiao laughed out loud. She did not expect Taotie to look like this after he transformed.

Chapter 1409: Taotie (7)

"Boohoo... why did you hit me... I don't even know you... If you hit me again... Boohoo... I will bite you..." Taotie sat on the ground pitifully. While enduring Vermilion Bird's beating, he raised his large sleeve to wipe his tears.

That appearance was simply too adorable.

"You don't know me!!" Vermilion Bird exploded!

"You bastard! Who is the one that caused me to end up like this! You don't even know me! Believe it or not, I'll beat you to death! And you even want to bite me! Do you think you're a dog?!" Vermilion Bird could no longer express his shock. To think he was still determined to die just a moment ago to block Taotie's attack on Shen Yanxiao.

However, looking at Taotie's extremely stupid appearance, he had the urge to kill him!

Holy beasts?

Holy beast my ass!

He had practically embarrassed all the high-level magical beasts!

Vermilion Bird continuously kicked Taotie until he cried, while Shen Yanxiao laughed until her stomach hurt.

Taotie was so annoyed by the kicks that he actually opened his mouth and bit Vermilion Bird's calf.

Fortunately, Vermilion Bird reacted fast enough so only his pants were torn.

"You're really a dog!" Vermilion Bird glared at Taotie who had a rag in his mouth and started to wonder how he lost to this idiot.

"You are the dog! Your whole family are dogs!" Taotie looked at Vermilion Bird with tears in his eyes as he protested angrily.

Shen Yanxiao was about to collapse from laughter...

She pounded the ground without any care for her image.

"You... I won't lower myself to your level!" Vermilion Bird was helpless against this shameless idiot. He angrily walked to Shen Yanxiao's side and sat down.

Taotie wiped the tears on his face and sat down as well.

He looked at Shen Yanxiao who was laughing uncontrollably and said in a timid tone, "I'm so hungry... Do you have anything to eat?"

Shen Yanxiao laughed until her tears fell. She sat down and looked at the pitiful Taotie, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. Then, she swiftly took out a pile of grain reserves from her interspatial ring.

When Taotie saw the pile of food, his eyes sparkled.

His expression was similar to a little puppy that had been starving for a long time.

Taotie stretched out his two small claws and with the speed of a gale sweeping away fallen leaves, he stuffed all the food piled up like a mountain into his mouth and swallowed it without even chewing.

Shen Yanxiao finally experienced what it meant to be a hundred rivers to the sea.

That pile of food was three times the size of Taotie's human form, but in less than five minutes, not even dregs were left behind. That speed was as savage as it could be.

Taotie, who had not had enough, even carefully licked his short white fingers without any hesitation.

After sweeping away all the food, Taotie opened his pitiful eyes and looked at Shen Yanxiao, indicating that he was not full...

Shen Yanxiao was stunned for a moment before she forced a smile. "I don't have anything left to eat here."

Taotie immediately lowered his head like a disappointed puppy.

With a glimmer of hope, Taotie slowly looked up at Shen Yanxiao and said pitifully.

“Actually, I don’t need food... As long as it’s something with elemental power, I can eat... ores, demonic cores, magical cores, weapons... tables and chairs.”

“Tables and chairs...” Shen Yanxiao’s lips twitched.. This guy was honestly a foodie. He dared to eat everything other than himself!

Chapter 1410: Taotie (8)

Shen Yanxiao took out the demonic cores that Xiu had absorbed all the dark elements from from her interspatial ring. Shen Yanxiao had yet to process these demonic cores, but she wondered if Taotie would eat these powerless demonic cores.

Reality proved that Taotie could really eat...

Shen Yanxiao had at least a hundred thousand abandoned demonic cores in her hands, and Taotie had eaten more than a thousand of them in the blink of an eye.

Even though he was not full, at least he was not hungry anymore.

“Taotie, do you still remember your fight with Vermilion Bird?” Shen Yanxiao propped her chin and looked at the harmless Taotie.

Taotie honestly shook his head.

Vermilion Bird almost pounced over again.

“Then why did you come to the Moon God Continent? And why are you locked up here?” Shen Yanxiao was curious. The Moon God Continent was not popular with magical beasts, so why would Taotie come here from the Brilliance Continent?

Taotie furrowed his brows and pondered for a moment before he said. “Back then, I was injured by a magical beast, and my injuries were rather severe. As soon as I was injured, I felt exceptionally hungry. At that time, the Brilliance Continent was in a mess, and there would always be annoying people chasing after me when I wanted to eat. They did not even allow me to concentrate on eating. I heard that there was a Tree of Life in the Moon God Continent and the fruit on the tree was delicious, so I came here.”

So it was really for food...

Shen Yanxiao was speechless towards this foodie.

He wanted to eat the fruit of the Tree of Life?

It would be a miracle if the elves would be willing to.

“When I first arrived, the elves did not react much to me, so I went straight into Moonshine City. The smell here was very pleasant, and I knew that there would be delicious food as soon as I smelled it. But, they did not allow me to enter, so I barged in on my own. That Tree of Life was really huge. I wanted to transform into my beast form to eat, but I was injured at that time and could not maintain my beast form for long. Therefore, I used my current appearance to climb up and eat fruits. However, I had only eaten dozens of fruits before I was discovered by that elf. Many of them came to attack me, but I was not full. However, I could already transform back then, so I transformed into my beast form and ate as much as possible. I wanted to eat one more bite, but I failed to control myself and bit off a piece of the Tree of Life. After that, they grabbed me..." Taotie's tone was very innocent. He felt that he had eaten so many fruits just to eat something.

So stingy!

Shen Yanxiao was thoroughly speechless. She finally understood why the elves hated Taotie to the bones.

He had eaten dozens of fruit of the Tree of Life and yet, he thought they were being petty. God knew that only one fruit of the Tree of Life could be produced in ten years, and he just ate hundreds of years worth of fruits in one meal.

What was even more terrifying was that he had even taken a bite of the Tree of Life...

Shen Yanxiao was well aware of the size of Taotie's mouth. The moment he took a bite...

Could the Tree of Life recover?

The elves did not beat him to death not because of kindness, but because his skin was too thick to be poked to death.

Otherwise, he would not have survived until now.

"You have no idea how bad elves are. They locked me up in such a small room and did not even give me anything to eat. I haven't eaten for more than a hundred years. They are deliberately starving me to death." The more he spoke, the sadder he felt. For a foodie to have their food cut off was more painful than killing him.
