

The Good 1411

Chapter 1411: Dignity of a Foodie (1)

As a foodie, Taotie's greatest pleasure was eating.

He was either eating or going to eat. Other than food, he was not interested in anything else.

For Taotie, the fact that he could not eat was simply a torture for him.

In fact, if the elves gave Taotie some food every day, even if it was the cheapest food, the beast would obediently stay in the dungeon. As long as he was allowed to eat, he would be obedient. Even if you locked him up until the end of time, as long as there was food, he would not have any intentions to resist.

Shen Yanxiao looked at the grieving Taotie and asked, "Didn't you tell them that you were hungry?"

According to Taotie's gluttonous personality, he must have been driven into a corner after not eating for more than a hundred years. He would be willing to do something as humiliating as holding his claws out. It was not impossible for him to act cute to the elves in exchange for food.

"I told them, but that beautiful elf forbade them from feeding me."

"Why?"

Taotie frowned and looked at Shen Yanxiao with tears in his eyes, just like a pitiful little pet that had been bullied.

"That elf wanted me to eat some unpalatable wood. If I did not eat it, he would not give me anything else to eat. However, that wood tastes awful so I won't eat it."

Was there anything in this world that Taotie would not eat? Shen Yanxiao found it fascinating.

"Is there anything you won't eat? If I gave you a piece of dung, you would be willing to eat it until it's fragrant." Vermilion Bird crossed his arms and looked at Taotie arrogantly. The more he thought about it, the more he felt that Taotie was stupid. He felt that he was embarrassing himself by being serious with such an opponent.

Taotie sniffled. He looked up at the Vermilion Bird and said in all seriousness, "I don't eat poop, it's stinky. I am also a magical beast with principles. I am a gourmet. I only eat delicious food."

"Idiot." Vermilion Bird snorted and decided to ignore this foodie. Talking to Taotie was simply lowering his IQ.

"That beautiful elf you mentioned, is he Fen Chu or the Elf King?" Shen Yanxiao asked.

"Ah?" Taotie clearly did not know the difference between the two.

In his eyes, elves all looked alike.

They were similar to an apple, only some were slightly better-looking.

In any case, they were just food to him.

“The elf I mentioned was wearing beautiful clothes, not that tiny iron sheet.” Taotie tried his best to distinguish the difference between elves with his consciousness.

Tiny iron sheet...

“What kind of wood did he ask you to eat?” The Elf King was the supreme ruler of the Moon God Continent. Probably only he and Fen Chu would dare to negotiate with Taotie.

Taotie said, “The wood of the Tree of Life.”

Shen Yanxiao was also surprised.

“The Elf King asked you to gnaw on the Tree of Life?” Had the Elf King lost his mind or was his head squeezed by the door?

The Tree of Life was the foundation of the elves, and the Elf King wanted Taotie to gnaw on it...

Taotie did not realize how serious the problem was.

“He wanted me to eat the withered parts of the Tree of Life, but it tasted awful...”

Chapter 1412: Dignity of a Foodie (2)

Withered?

The Tree of Life was the plant with the most vigorous vitality in the world. Even a torrential storm could not harm it in the slightest. Moreover, the elves had been carefully taking care of the Tree of Life. How could it possibly wilt?

Could it be pollution?

Shen Yanxiao frowned.

“Taotie, do you know the characteristics of those withered parts?”

Taotie shook his head. In his world, there were only things that could be eaten and those that could not be eaten. He would not pay attention to anything else other than delicious food and poor tasting food.

If she were to ask Taotie again, she might not be able to get anything out of him. Therefore, Shen Yanxiao did not try to ask anything else.

After that, Shen Yanxiao watched as Taotie continued to eat and eat...

Shen Yanxiao propped her head and looked at Taotie. The rumored ferocious beast was not as terrifying as he was rumored to be.

Taotie's thoughts were very simple. He just wanted to eat. As long as he was not disturbed, he would not lift his eyes even if the world was destroyed. The reason why Vermilion Bird started a war with Taotie was because Taotie had eaten many humans in the Brilliance Continent during that period of time, causing panic among humans.

Therefore, Vermilion Bird's previous master, Shen Yanxiao's ancestor, had brought Vermilion Bird to suppress Taotie.

There was no concept that humans could not be eaten in Taotie's mind. As he was too huge in his beast form, he would 'accidentally' devour the passing humans when he ate. Therefore, he did not realize that he had eaten many humans.

As a result, when he was chased by Vermilion Bird, he felt that he was innocent. He had no idea why Vermilion Bird wanted to fight with him and caused him to be unable to eat well.

"Xiu, isn't this Taotie too... naive?" Shen Yanxiao looked at the hopeless Taotie and asked Xiu.

"Taotie is the most special one among the nine sons of the Dragon God. He is in two different states before and after he is full. Right now, you think he is an idiot because he has been hungry for a long time. His hunger prevents him from thinking about anything. Once he is full, what you have to face is not the little guy in front of you, but the human form you first saw." As a god, Xiu was no stranger to the Dragon God. He could sense Shen Yanxiao's relaxed attitude towards Taotie, but he did not wish for Shen Yanxiao to underestimate the threat he posed.

"Two states? What do you mean?"

"The main reason why Taotie eats all day long is his stomach. If his stomach does not feel a trace of satisfaction, then all his strength and thinking abilities will revolve around eating. He is not stupid, but he uses all his wisdom to search for food. Once he is full, then he will be the real Taotie. Just like what the Vermilion Bird said, the real Taotie in his holy form is invincible even against the eight mythical beasts of Sun Never Sets." It might be cute, but feeding it was dangerous.

"It can still eat its fill?" Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. Taotie's stomach was simply a bottomless pit, so she doubted if he could ever eat his fill.

"On one hand, Taotie eats to satisfy his appetite, and on the other hand, he eats to absorb strength. Among all the magical beasts, he is the only one that can devour other powers for his own use" Xiu lightly said.

Chapter 1413: Dignity of a Foodie (3)

In a sense, Xiu and Taotie had something in common, and that was devouring.

Xiu could devour the power of the Devil Clan to destroy it, but Taotie could absorb it bit by bit.

"He will never be full, but he can allow his strength to reach the peak. Once he reaches the peak, he will break through the shackles of hunger and unleash his true strength. The reason why he possesses the aura of a holy beast is also because he has absorbed a portion of the power of the Tree of Life. However, this power is only enough for his source to reach the level of a holy beast. If he wants to transform into a real holy beast, he will need to replenish more energy. He is a magical beast that requires constant recharging in order to unleash its destructive power. Once he absorbs enough power, not to mention a holy beast, he can even stand toe to toe with a legendary magical beast.” Xiu understood Taotie very well because he was the only one in the world with similar attributes as him.

However, Xiu’s strength had reached a limit. With the exception of the Lord God, there was no other power that could surpass him. Therefore, he was unable to absorb the devouring power. However, Taotie was unable to satisfy his hunger. Moreover, the power he absorbed would be depleted at a rapid pace after one instance.

It was equivalent to an ultimate weapon that required constant recharging.

“So powerful? You said that he has yet to transform into a holy beast? Could it be that the power of the Tree of Life is insufficient for him to unleash the strength of a holy beast?” Shen Yanxiao glanced at Taotie who buried his head in his food. It was hard to imagine that this little foodie had the potential to contend against a legendary magical beast.

“If Taotie continued to devour more power after he swallowed a portion of the Tree of Life, then he could reach the level of a holy beast. However, you’ve also heard from him that he was imprisoned by the elves after he devoured the Tree of Life. At that time, he had yet to fully absorb the power of the Tree of Life. After he absorbed it, he was suppressed. And in these past hundred years, he did not eat again, which caused his growth to enter a bottleneck. Moreover, the energy he stored in the past hundred years had been depleted. Right now, he can at most unleash the strength of a mythical beast at its peak. If he wants to reach the level of a true holy beast, he would require some time to accumulate.” Xiu patiently explained everything to Shen Yanxiao.

“Understood. I’ve been thinking of a question. Previously, we suspected that the source of pollution was the Tree of Life. In that case, was the Tree of Life’s withering also due to pollution? The Elf King wanted Taotie to devour the withering parts. Could it be that he already knew about the problem with the Tree of Life and wanted to use Taotie’s characteristics to eliminate the pollution?” If that was the case, then there was a reasonable explanation for the elves trapping Taotie here.

“Do elves regard Taotie as their savior? But it seems like they are using the wrong method. Right now, I don’t think Taotie would help those elves who starved him for more than a hundred years.” Shen Yanxiao propped her chin. Taotie’s thoughts were simple. If the elves used food as bait and had a good talk with him, perhaps there was still hope. However, they had starved Taotie for more than a hundred years. With his appetite, he would probably not help even if they beat him to death.

Shen Yanxiao fell into deep thought. Her maternal family were elves and if possible, she did not wish for the elves to face destruction.

Chapter 1414: City of Elves (1)

Shen Yanxiao only had to keep watch in the dungeon until the evening. When Taotie learned that Shen Yanxiao was leaving, he was so sad that he forgot to eat. He looked at his “feeder” with tears in his eyes. His expression was filled with despair as if he was parting ways with his biological parents.

That gaze made Shen Yanxiao's heart ache.

"I'll come back tomorrow morning. Don't let other elves discover our relationship. I'll bring you food tomorrow." Shen Yanxiao patted Taotie's head.

When he heard that Shen Yanxiao would come again tomorrow and bring him food, Taotie's tears finally turned into a smile. He stretched out his tender white hands and shyly pulled on the corner of Shen Yanxiao's clothes. "Then... then you must come tomorrow. Don't lie to me."

The tender little boy was immediately replaced by that savage beast, but his pair of scarlet eyes still stared at Shen Yanxiao cutely.

An Ran appeared at the entrance of the dungeon on time. He looked at Shen Yanxiao with a cautious expression and sized her up. After ensuring that she was unharmed, he finally relaxed.

"Is Taotie still stable?" An Ran asked.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and said. "It's very stable. I don't think it will go berserk all day long, rest assured."

With her feeding him, Taotie would probably obediently stay in the dungeon for a long time without causing any trouble.

However, Shen Yanxiao still had to stay in Moonshine City for several months. The stock she had in her interspatial ring was probably insufficient to satisfy the glutton, Taotie. Thus, she still had to think of ways to get more edible food.

"Good. Go back and rest, and leave this to me," An Ran smiled and said.

The shockwave brought about by the beast's sigh brushed against An Ran's clothes. An Ran nervously looked at the beast imprisoned in the cage, fearing that it would suddenly explode.

However, after a sigh, Taotie did not move again. He did not even bother to look at An Ran as he rested his huge head on his two front claws as he closed his eyes to sleep.

He had just eaten something, and he had to conserve his strength. He did not want to waste his energy to look at the ugly elf.

The moment night fell was a thief's favorite time.

Shen Yanxiao took advantage of the night and walked around Moonshine City.

There were no shops in Moonshine City, nor were there any ordinary elves. Every elf here served the Tree of Life, and the huge Moonshine City seemed exceptionally quiet under the moonlight.

Mo Yu had worked hard for an entire day. Just as he was prepared to lie down and rest, he welcomed Shen Yanxiao, this little customer.

The moment he saw Shen Yanxiao, Mo Yu immediately stood up with a smile and eagerly pulled out a chair for Shen Yanxiao to sit on.

"How is it? How do you feel after staying with Taotie for a day?" Mo Yu was extremely curious about Shen Yanxiao's current thoughts.

Chapter 1415: Scandal (1)

Everyone knew that Taotie was a war criminal in Moonlight City. With the exception of the Elf King and Fen Chu, no other elf could face him without batting an eyelid.

"Not bad," Shen Yanxiao sat down and said.

"You and An Ran are unlucky enough to have encountered the situation of Taotie going berserk on your first day here. I didn't expect the Head Commander to assign you two to guard Taotie. This is not a good assignment." Mo Yu felt a little sad deep down. He originally intended to train Shen Yanxiao to become his vice-captain, but who knew that the Head Commander would snatch her away?

"It's nNothing. By the way, I have something to ask you. Is it impossible for those in Moonshine City to contact the outside world? And can you bring something from other cities?" Shen Yanxiao intended to find a way to satisfy Taotie's appetite. Otherwise, it would be bad if this foodie were to cause trouble again.

Mo Yu thought for a moment and said, "There will be specially assigned elves coming out of the city to purchase items every day. If you need anything, you can ask them to bring you something. You... are the only female in Moonshine City other than the Saintesses. If you need anything, feel free to ask. The Saintesses also have specially assigned female elves in charge of purchasing items for them. I can arrange for you to go with them."

"Then I'll have to trouble you." Shen Yanxiao smiled and thanked him. Mo Yu was very kind-hearted, not like the elves she had met.

"You're welcome. In any case, I was the one who discovered you. If you can continue to stay in Moonshine City, I'll be proud of you. Besides, Elder Yue has also instructed me to take good care of you," Mo Yu chuckled and said.

Shen Yanxiao and Mo Yu chatted for a moment. Just as she was about to stand up and leave, an elf from the Silvermoon Guards happened to come to Mo Yu's room to look for him. The moment he entered, he saw Shen Yanxiao seated in the room and was instantly stunned.

"Liu Ke, what's the matter?" Mo Yu did not notice the other party's weird reaction and asked.

The elf named Liu Ke looked at Shen Yanxiao with an ambiguous expression and then at Mo Yu. He then shook his head and decisively retreated.

“It’s okay, it’s okay... you can chat, you can chat...” Liu Ke fled as fast as he could and the smile on his face was extremely odd.

There was some hot news in the Silvermoon Guards.

Mo Yu, one of the Five Young Silvermoon, had a little fiancée outside Moonshine City. In the past, Mo Yu frequently left Moonshine City to visit his little fiancée. This time, that little girl seemed to have passed the selection test for the Silvermoon Guards—it could be considered as a reunion.

It had been a long time since a female elf appeared in the Silvermoon Guards. Coupled with Shen Yanxiao’s young age, they could guess her identity with a glance.

When they heard that Shen Yanxiao had been assigned to guard Taotie in the dungeon, those elves who wanted to gossip were extremely regretful.

Liu Ke did not expect that he would be so lucky to have bumped into a ‘couple’ rendezvous!

It was late at night and there was no one around. What else could happen if a man and a woman were alone in a room?

Liu Ke smiled like a cat that had stolen a fish. He could not wait to share the scene he saw with his friends.

They did not expect their Young Master Yu to have a little girl complex.

That little elf was pretty good-looking, but she was too young. However...

There was nothing wrong with raising a loli!

Chapter 1416: Scandal (2)

The next morning, Shen Yanxiao went to switch shifts with An Ran. Currently, Shen Yanxiao was in a very good mood, as she had already discussed with Mo Yu to get the elves to help her buy goods for her the next day. As a result, she did not notice how ambiguous the gazes of those elves looking at her were.

“That’s her?” As they watched Shen Yanxiao enter the temple, the few elves in charge of the guards could not help but gather together as the flames of gossip burned in their hearts.

“Isn’t it her? How many female elves do we have?”

“Liu Ke really saw Yan Xiao and Young Master Yu staying in the same room last night?” Oh, oh, oh, how exciting! Young Master Yu was mighty and domineering!

“In any case, what that kid said is probably true. I think there shouldn’t be any problems.”

“Good, good. We have to stay in Moonshine City every day, and it has been years since we have seen a single female elf. Young Master Yu, you’ve done a great job! You’ve even brought your wife into the city.”

A group of hot-blooded elves expressed strong envy, jealousy, and hatred. In Moonshine City, other than the Saintesses who took care of the Tree of Life, all of them were men. Ever since they joined the Silvermoon Guards, they had to stay in the city for an elongated period of time. Even though they could leave the city once a month, it was only for a short day. In such a short period of time, how could they find beautiful female elves to have a romantic chat with?

Saintesses?

Not to mention that the number of female elves could be counted with one hand, who did not know that the successive generations of the Elf King's wives were all selected from among the Saintesses? Thus, they did not dare to take action before the Elf King got engaged. If they were to be stopped by the Elf King, they would not even have any tears left.

Therefore, the scandal between Mo Yu and Shen Yanxiao had brought about a huge wave of gossip to the group of bachelors.

When An Ran came out from the dungeon, he saw those elves whispering to each other. An Ran, who had been on guard for an entire night, could be said to have been in a state of fright the entire night. He was not Shen Yanxiao, so he was not so lucky to have a friendly conversation with Taotie. He just stared at the sleeping Taotie with his eyes wide open until daybreak.

Throughout the whole time, he was under tremendous physical and psychological pressure.

The moment Shen Yanxiao entered the dungeon, Taotie could not wait to turn back into a cute little boy. He sat on the ground with his hands on his knees as he stared at Shen Yanxiao with his sparkling eyes. He was so close to wagging his tail.

Shen Yanxiao did not know whether to laugh or cry as she looked at Taotie who was asking for food. She helplessly walked into the cage and continued to feed him.

At the same time, Mo Yu, who had just arrived at his post, received the baptism of a violent storm.

His subordinates, who were usually well-behaved, all crowded around him as if they were injected with chicken blood, forcing him to explain the situation between him and Shen Yanxiao. There were even more savage ones that directly asked Mo Yu when he intended to marry Shen Yanxiao.

Mo Yu was stunned.

"What are you talking about? Me and Yan Xiao? Stop joking! That's my sister, can you think of a better rumor to spread!" Mo Yu felt like vomiting blood. He was an upright and kind young man, so how could he possibly have designs on an underaged girl?

Wasn't it too crazy to be ruthless to an underaged girl?

Xiu, who resided in Shen Yanxiao's body, suddenly sneezed...

Chapter 1417: City of Elves (2)

The next day, Shen Yanxiao asked An Ran to take her place to look after Taotie while she followed Mo Yu to one of the gates of Moonshine City.

In front of the gate, dozens of female elves in light green dresses stood there in unison. In this city filled with male elves, it became a beautiful scenery.

The elves who were selected as Saintesses were very talented and perceptive. Correspondingly, their appearance was also first class.

With such a group of beauties standing together, it caused those hot-blooded men to be greedy.

If not for the little bit of calmness that elves possessed, the members of the Silvermoon Guards would probably howl like wolves!

Girls! They were all girls!

The male elves widened their eyes to the extent that their eyeballs were about to fall out, but no one dared to step forward and converse with those Saintesses.

Perhaps someone there would become the wife of the Elf King in the future. Even if they were given a hundred guts, they would not dare to have any designs on her.

Of course, if the Elf King were to get married, these elves would not be so polite.

Shen Yanxiao saw Duan Xue standing at the edge of the group at a glance. She was as quiet and gentle as usual with a friendly smile on her lips. From time to time, she would converse with a rather pretty female elf.

“You can go ahead. I’ve already informed them. If you need anything, just tell that elf in charge of shopping.” Mo Yu was usually quite casual, but he was rather reserved in front of the female elf.

Shen Yanxiao?

Could an underaged girl be called a girl?

Shen Yanxiao walked towards the group of Saintesses, and what welcomed her were pairs of curious yet calm eyes.

The Saintesses stepped forward one by one and handed over the items they needed to the elves. When it was Shen Yanxiao’s turn, she walked over and handed a long list and a space ring to the elf.

The elves in Moonshine City would have a fixed source of income every month, and the amount was rather large. They would usually have to pay for whatever they needed to bring.

Shen Yanxiao gave her an interspatial ring, and the elf was confused by it.

“I need a lot of things. It’s written on the list. The money is in the interspatial ring. You can put it in the interspatial ring once you’ve bought it,” Shen Yanxiao explained.

The elf nodded. She was curious about how many items a little elf could need. Moreover, she had given her an interspatial ring to use.

However, when she saw what was listed on Shen Yanxiao’s list, she immediately gasped.

“You... why do you need so many ores?”

The list was densely packed with various minerals. No wonder Shen Yanxiao wanted to use her interspatial ring. Otherwise, it would probably not fit even if she brought ten carriages with her.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and said, “I like forging, but I didn’t prepare any ores before I came here, so I’ll have to trouble this sister to help me out. Thank you.”

The elf hesitated for a moment before she nodded. How long would it take for Shen Yanxiao to use so many ores?

Shen Yanxiao was also in a dilemma. With Taotie’s appetite, he would not never have enough food. Most importantly, she did not dare to purchase food so outwardly.

After all, she was responsible for guarding Taotie. If she were to purchase large quantities of food, it was hard to guarantee that she would not be discovered.

Chapter 1418: City of Elves (3)

Even though the Moon God Continent did not produce many gems, their mineral reserves were pretty good. In addition, most elven weapons were made of wood, so ores would only be used for decorative swords and daggers. Therefore, the prices of ores in the Lunar Continent were very low.

The minerals Shen Yanxiao wrote on the list contained a certain amount of elemental power. It was not easy to notice anything amiss with the variety.

Shen Yanxiao had confirmed that Taotie could eat ores as well.

The elf quietly kept Shen Yanxiao’s list and interspatial ring before she turned and followed the shopping team out of the city.

Duan Xue unhurriedly found a remote corner and only stopped after ensuring there was no one around.

Shen Yanxiao walked to her side.

“I heard that you were allocated to the dungeon where Taotie is imprisoned. It has been hard on you.”

Duan Xue looked at Shen Yanxiao gently. Even though she was in the center of Moonshine City, she knew about Shen Yanxiao’s situation.

“It’s okay.” Shen Yanxiao touched her nose. All the elves thought that it was hard for her to guard Taotie, but in fact, it was extremely easy for her.

In fact, the reason why the elves had such thoughts was firstly due to Taotie’s fierce reputation and secondly, An Ran, who was also guarding Taotie, had an exhausted appearance every time he left the dungeon. Naturally, they believed that Shen Yanxiao was also suffering as much as An Ran.

“I have already inquired about the things Shen Jing asked me to inquire about. However, I have just entered Moonshine City, so I do not know much about the elves here. Thus, I won’t be able to obtain accurate information very soon. Please don’t be anxious.” Duan Xue’s face carried a trace of apology.

“It’s alright, I have to thank you for this,” Shen Yanxiao smiled and said.

“Even though I am not sure right now, I do have some information. Last night when the Elf King was under the Tree of Life, I saw a female human standing by his side from afar. That female’s appearance was seventy to eighty percent similar to Wen Ya. As I had only seen her appearance, I was not too sure. Moreover, she was quite far away from me.” Duan Xue looked at Shen Yanxiao with a trace of hesitation.

Shen Yanxiao’s heart skipped a beat.

Wen Ya was with the Elf King?

Even though Duan Xue could not be sure, Shen Yanxiao could practically confirm that the human female Duan Xue saw was Wen Ya!

Otherwise, why would she look so similar to Wen Ya?

Furthermore, Moonshine City was the most important city for the elves, so it was impossible for humans to enter so easily. Other than Wen Ya, Shen Yanxiao could not think of any other possibilities.

However...

Weren’t Wen Ya and Shen Yu imprisoned in Moonshine City? If that was the case, why was Wen Ya with the Elf King?

“What’s the relationship between that woman and the Elf King?” Shen Yanxiao asked in detail.

Duan Xue said, “They would occasionally converse with each other, and it seems like their relationship is very harmonious. The Elf King was also very polite to her. He did not show any disrespect.”

Shen Yanxiao breathed a sigh of relief, but even more questions lingered in her mind.

Why was Wen Ya with the Elf King?

Where did her father, Shen Yu, go?

Chapter 1419: Shen Yanxiao’s Plan (1)

Shen Yanxiao hoped that she could sneak into the Tree of Life as soon as possible so that she could get in contact with Wen Ya.

However, she learned from Duan Xue that the surroundings of the Tree of Life were heavily guarded. The Chief Commander of the Silvermoon Guards, Fen Chu, was stationed by the Tree of Life all day long. If she wanted to sneak in, Shen Yanxiao could only ask for Duan Xue’s help to figure out all the arrangements around the Tree of Life.

After Duan Xue and Shen Yanxiao exchanged information, they left.

Even though she had many questions, she was not too anxious.

These things just needed more time.

Shen Yanxiao decided to keep an eye on Taotie, as she had nothing else to do. On one hand, she would train her source of life, while on the other, she would practice enchantment in the dungeon.

During the day, Shen Yanxiao would sit in the dungeon and practice enchantment. While Taotie ate, he would watch as Shen Yanxiao waved her brush. From time to time, he would tilt his head and look at the pieces of paper Shen Yanxiao scattered on the ground.

As a foodie, Taotie subconsciously stretched out his claws and grabbed a piece of paper with magical runes written on it before throwing it into his mouth.

“Wu.”

She immediately looked up and saw Taotie’s wrinkled face.

“This idiot ate the magic words you wrote.” Vermilion Bird stood on one side and crossed his arms as he snorted at the extremely stupid Taotie.

“What?” Shen Yanxiao was speechless. Isn’t he just too desperate for now?

“It’s jumping around in my mouth. It’s so delicious. Do you still want what you wrote? If not, can you let me eat it?” Taotie shyly looked at Shen Yanxiao and asked.

“T-these are magic words, similar to those enchantments that bind you. Are you sure you can eat them?” Shen Yanxiao looked at Taotie with uncertainty.

Taotie nodded.

“The magic words have not been combined into an enchantment, so it is harmless. I can eat it.”

“Idiot.” Vermilion Bird snorted.

Shen Yanxiao did not think much of it. She stood up and placed the pile of magic words she wrote in front of Taotie.

These were all results of her practice, so they were of no use to her. She had been wondering where to throw them, but now, Taotie had turned into a ‘paper shredder’, so now even her waste paper had a place to go.

“Xiu.”

“Hmm?”

“Do you think I can bring Taotie out from here?” Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes. She still had a few months in the Moon God Continent. After she left, she believed that no elves would continue to feed Taotie. Wouldn't a gluttonous little fool fall into starvation again?

“If you can undo the enchantment on the chains here, perhaps you can.” Xiu was not surprised by Shen Yanxiao's thoughts. After spending so much time together, he had already discovered that this little girl did not seem to have any resistance against small creatures.

Shen Yanxiao pondered as she looked at Taotie. She was currently learning enchantment, and it would take her some time to be proficient enough to undo the enchantment in the dungeon. Therefore, it was definitely not impossible.

Chapter 1420: Shen Yanxiao's Plan (2)

“If you really want to take him away, then you have to find him a master. Taotie is an unorganized beast. So if you bring him back to the Brilliance Continent right now, with his current personality, he will soon become a target for humans. Taotie will not care about the reactions of those humans, and sooner or later, he will cause a disaster.” Xiu reminded Shen Yanxiao that the destructive power of this little boy was not as adorable as he looked.

“Hehe, I've already thought of that.” A crafty smile flashed past Shen Yanxiao's eyes.

“Hasn't Xiao Feng's magical beast always been missing? I think Taotie is just right.”

She originally intended to find a mythical-level magical beast for Lan Fengli; it would be even better if she could bring a holy beast back.

“I just don't know how to convince Taotie to acknowledge him as his master.” Shen Yanxiao touched her chin. The little foodie did not seem to have a high IQ, and Lan Fengli did not seem like a master that would abuse magical beasts. Therefore, she felt that they were suitable for each other.

“As far as I know, none of the nine sons of the Dragon God has signed a contract with a human.” Xiu had to crack down on Shen Yanxiao's fantasy.

Taotie and his eight brothers could be said to be the group of magical beasts that gave humans the greatest headache. Not only were they powerful, but all of them had strange personalities and were incapable of cooperating with humans. The majority of them could even be said to be a huge scourge that caused no lack of troubles for humans.

However, for the past hundred years, the dragon sons had been well-behaved and did not come out to cause trouble.

“I'll talk to Taotie!” Shen Yanxiao decided to try and fool him.

Taotie, who was constantly eating, blinked his eyes and looked at Shen Yanxiao who suddenly walked towards him. He obediently grabbed the messy food piled up in front of him and used his small claws to push it away. He emptied the space in front of him, giving Shen Yanxiao a clean seat.

“Taotie, I have something to tell you,” Shen Yanxiao crouched down before him and said with a straight face.

“What?” Taotie swallowed the food in his mouth and asked.

“I’ll be leaving in a few months. After I leave, I won’t be able to send you anything to eat.” Shen Yanxiao revealed a helpless expression.

Taotie was struck dumb...

His master would be leaving soon?

Leaving soon...

Leaving...

“Boohoo! Don’t go! I’m very obedient. I’ll do whatever you want me to do. I won’t cause trouble for you. I won’t cause trouble again. I won’t cause trouble for you. Don’t go... Boohoo... I can’t shout anymore. Please don’t go...” Taotie pulled on Shen Yanxiao’s clothes and wept. His fair face was covered with tears, and his big eyes were filled with fear.

“I... I will eat less in the future. I know you elves have to pay for food. I will eat less. I will save some food... Don’t leave me alone. If you leave... no one will feed me anymore. I will really starve to death,” At the thought that he had been starved for more than a hundred years, an unprecedented fear immediately drowned Taotie.

It was not afraid of darkness, or loneliness.

But once Shen Yanxiao left, no one would give him anything to eat. By then, he would fall into endless despair again.

Taotie was afraid. He was really afraid. He had never been so afraid of losing anything.
